Over 800 Attend Catholic Census Program Meeting Here Monday, Hear Archbishop Talk

Parishes of 5 Counties Are Represented

Over 800 people, pastors district spiritual directors and laymen from Dodge, Fond du Lac, Ozaukee, Washington and Sheboygan counties gathered at the new Kewaskum high school auditorium Monday evening to hear talks on the Catholic Census and Information Program.

The large crowd filled the greater part of the spacious school gymnasium. The meeting was originally scheduled for the Holy Trinity parish hall but when reservations beyond expectations poured in it became necessary to transfer the meeting to the high school. The church hall could not have accommodated the gathering.

Parking facilities for hundreds of cars had to be provided and traffic immediately following the meeting caused some congestion. After the main meeting at the high school a large percentage of those attending moved to the Holy Trinity hall where a meeting for committees was held and was followed by the serving of refreshments.

"There are two basic truths in our approach to the Catholic Census and Information program to be conducted in all parishes of the archdiocese this month," the most Rev. Albert G. Meyer, archbishop of Milwaukee, told the meeting. "There is the law of fraternal charity and the conviction that we have the truth and want to share it with others," he said.

His Excellency expressed himself as well pleased with the large turnout here. "Bishops of the state can initiate a program of this kind, as they have done," he said in part, "but without the co-operation and work of a dedicated clergy and laity, it cannot be carried to a successful conclusion."

The archbishop added, "I look upon this program not as something sporadic, but as something that will build up in every parish a great corps of apostolic laborers. Its success will depend on prayers and sacrifice."

"My prayers go with you. My thanks go out to you. This is God's work and we pray that He will bless it."

Other speakers on the program here included Father F. C. La Buwi, host to the meeting and pastor of Holy Trinity parish; Father Dennis Barry, archdiocesan director of the census; Theodore Wing, archdiocesan lay chairman who presided, and Robert Ryan.

A picture of the gathering in the high school gym appeared in this week's Catholic Herald Citizen.

Two Men Injured In Auto Crashes

Wayne Borns, 27, Allenton, suffered severe head lacerations and other possible head injuries and William E. Hess, 45, Allenton, suffered shock and a hand injury in an accident on County Trunk "W" south of Wayne Monday evening just before dark.

According to authorities, a car driven by Kurt Pamperin, 19, R. 3, West Bend, was traveling south on CT "W" when a tractor and chopper box wagon attempted a left turn onto a side road. Pamperin came over a hill just as the tractor began its turn. To avoid a collision, Pamperin swung into the northbound lane and struck the car driven by Hess. The Pamperin car then rolled over on the road. Borns was removed to St. Joseph's hospital, West Bend, in the Kewaskum ambulance.

Sylvester Ruplinger, 22, Kewaskum, lost control of his car while rounding a curve on South st. in the village at about 1:45 a. m. Monday. Ruplinger was northbound on the street when his auto left the road, mounted the curb and struck two small trees between the sidewalk and curb on the L. Rosenheimer property, according to the police report.

Vehicles driven by Maurice F. Struebing, 19, R. 1, Allenton, and William M. Boegel, 17, R. 1, Allenton, were involved in an accident early Saturday on County Trunk "W." The mishap occurred as Boegel, who was traveling south, attempted a left turn into a driveway. Struebing, who passed a vehicle behind the Boegel car, also attempted to pass Boegel. His car struck the left front of the Boegel car and went into the ditch on the east side, striking two mail boxes and an electric pole.

INSTALL NEW POST OFFICE FIXTURES

The new fixtures and equipment which arrived at the Kewaskum post office recently are being installed this week and will completely modernize the place. Detailed information on the installation will be published next week after the work is completed.

Hearing on New Crossing Signals For Village Held

NEED AT MAIN ST. CROSSING CITED AT PUBLIC SERVICE INVESTIGATION HERE

Held at 10 a. m. last Thursday at the Kewaskum municipal building was a public hearing on a petition for installation of new warning signals on the Main st. crossing of the North Western railroad tracks in the village. The Wisconsin Public Service Commission conducted the hearing following a petition from the village regarding such an installation.

Due to the tremendous increase in traffic through the village and because of an increase in the number of accidents at the crossing it is felt necessary to replace the old-fashioned, swinging, "wig-wag" signals. Three accidents occurred at the crossing during the past year and it is to prevent such accidents in the future that the new signals were requested.

Traffic checks on Main st. show that the number of vehicles using the street has tripled, rising from an approximate 2,000 to 6,000 on week days to just under 10,000 on a normal Sunday. The large increase in traffic is attributed to increasing numbers of tourists and lake residents who drive through, spend week ends and vacations in the Kettle Moraine area.

Traffic counts taken by railroad officials showed considerably less traffic. But these counts were taken in August, after Fond du Lac ave. was closed to traffic and were thrown out as not indicative of the normal flow of traffic. The railroad will make another survey when Fond du Lac ave. is reopened to traffic. The figures will then be re-submitted to the Public Service Commission for final determination on the installation of new signals.

Atty. Stephen O'Meara represented the village of Kewaskum at the hearing. He is village attorney. Police Chief Roland Pledl was the village's chief witness. Attending also were William Martin, village commissioner, and Carl Schaefer, Joe Eberle and John Stellpflug, village trustees. Railroad officials and their attorney, as well as representatives of the state highway commission were also present in addition to Public Service Commission members.

Kewaskum's Main st. (Hwy. 28) carries most of the traffic to Mauke lake and the Kettle Moraine State Park. Traffic has increased steadily in recent years and is expected to rise again after Fond du Lac ave. (Hwy. 45) is reopened for traffic following the present repaving and reconstruction of the street.

Trains frequently pass through the village at high rates of speed causing danger to motorists as well as children on their way to school. Growing sentiment for the installation of new type crossing signals has been noted on the part of village and nearby residents because of accidents and near mishaps.

Local officials and residents are hoping that a favorable ruling will be made by the Public Service Commission regarding installation of more adequate signals. The old signals, almost 10 feet above the pave-

Fiftieth Wedding Of Fred Borcherts

Open house at their home at Five Corners, Campbellsport, R. 3, on Sunday, Aug. 8, marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Borchert.

Mr. Borchert and the former Ottilie Schmidt were married at Salerns Reformed church, Wayne, on Sept. 4, 1907.

Following their marriage, they resided in the town of Theresa where they operated the Four Corners cheese factory. Later they moved near Knowles, Wis., taking possession of a cheese factory there for six years. After that they made their home at Wayne for the next twenty-five years, operating the Wayne Center cheese factory. In 1941 they became residents of the town of Auburn, Fond du Lac county, their present home.

When Fred retired from the cheese making business in 1952, he had the distinction of spending 51 years at the same trade, during which time he always worked from 12 to 16 hours a day, seven days a week, seldom taking a day off.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Borchert are in good health and Mr. Borchert is at present busy five days a week as an employee of Barton Products Corp. at Barton.

They are the parents of three children, Milton of Kewaskum, Mrs. Agnes Krahn and Lester of West Bend.

The occasion also marked the 7th birthday anniversary of one of their eight grandchildren, Patty Borchert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Borchert of West Bend.

Present at the celebration were three of their four attendants at the ceremony 50 years ago. They are Henry Schmidt of Milwaukee, Miss Lucy Schmidt of West Bend, brother and sister of Mrs. Borchert, and Albert Wesenberg of Kewaskum.

Mrs. Borchert was born Jan. 13, 1888 at Wayne, and Mr. Borchert was born Nov. 9, 1883 on a farm a short distance from their present home.

A ham supper was served to the family and relatives Sunday evening.

MILWAUKEE BEAGLE CLUB TRIAL BEING HELD HERE

The Milwaukee Beagle club is holding its annual field trial at Kewaskum this Thursday through Sunday, Sept. 12-15. Dogs are being run in the surrounding area.

MISS KEWASKUM TO BE VOTED ON FOR STREET OPENING; SELL BOOSTER BUTTONS

How would you like to be voted "Miss Kewaskum" of 1957 and reign as celebration queen for the street opening? If you would, then read on.

The committee in charge of the street opening is looking for five young ladies to reign as "Miss Kewaskum" and her court for the big celebration on Friday evening and

IMPORTANT MEETING OF COMMITTEE TUESDAY

A very important meeting of the street opening celebration committee will be held Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. at the American Legion clubhouse. All committee chairmen, committee members and any interested citizens are urged to attend. The time is getting close and a big project such as this will need the help of every available person interested in furthering Kewaskum, both as a good place to live and to work.

BOOST KEWASKUM!

all day Saturday, Oct. 11-12. You need not be exceptionally talented or beautiful, just qualify by means of these rules:

1. Be single and between the ages of 15 and 21.
2. Be from Kewaskum or the surrounding area where this newspaper is received.

If you meet these simple requirements, then fill in the official entry blank which appears on page five of this issue and mail to Dr. F. E. Nolting, Chairman, Queen Committee, Box 375, Kewaskum, Wis. All entries must be postmarked on or before next Wednesday, Sept. 18.

Hundreds of dollars worth of valuable prizes will be awarded to the queen and members of her court. Your effort will help in determining whether or not you will be in the final five.

A list of all the entries in the contest will be published in next week's paper. Along with them will be printed a ballot, on which readers will cast their vote for their favorite candidate. The five contestants receiving the most votes will automatically comprise the queen's court. From these five the judges will select the queen on the Friday night of the celebration, Oct. 11. The queen will cut the street opening ribbon Saturday evening and will also serve as representative of entire festivities, according to plans to date.

Street opening "booster buttons" have been ordered and will go on sale very soon at 25 cents each to boost the celebration.

Further details will be published in our next issue. Watch for it!

Civil Defense Classes In First Aid and Home Nursing to Begin Here

RESIDENTS URGED TO LISTEN TO CIVIL DEFENSE WEEK
BROADCAST SUNDAY

The week of Sept. 15-21 has been designated as the second annual National Civil Defense Week. During this week national attention will be focused on Civil Defense at all levels. In observance of this, there will be a radio broadcast on Civil Defense next Sunday, Sept. 15, at 12:45 p. m. over radio station WBKV, West Bend. Residents of Kewaskum and the surrounding area are urged to listen in as it will be of importance and interest to all.

The Civil Defense organization in Kewaskum will again conduct classes in "first aid training" and "home nursing." These classes are being organized now, and will commence in a few weeks. Anyone interested in joining either class should contact Mrs. Roland Pledt, Kewaskum, phone 160R; Marvin Martin, Kewaskum, phone 143; or the municipal building in Kewaskum. As Civil Defense has stressed before, these courses are invaluable in emergencies, and should be taken by at least one member of each family.

NED SENGPIEL SERVES ON UW ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Ned Sengpiel, controller of Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum, is serving on the Financial Advisory Committee which assists the University of Wisconsin's Management Institute in planning institute programs.

The Management Institute, as a function of the UW Extension Division, conducts the most extensive of all university programs for developing management people in various capacities. It conducts a year-around series of institutes which advance the professional education of executives. Last year more than 5,500 persons attended the MI institutes which are among the many conferences and short courses held steadily throughout the year on the Wisconsin campus as educational public services for all citizens.

Wisconsin's "point system" for drivers entered its second year of operation, Commissioner Melvin Larson of the motor vehicle department announced. Drivers accumulating 12 months or 18 points in 24 months face suspension.

Post-Polio Census in County Being Assembled

The census of post-polio patients now being assembled by the Washington County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis includes victims of so-called nonparalytic polio, as well as those severely crippled by the disease, Anton P. Staral, chairman of the chapter, pointed out this week.

"Medical research in recent years has demonstrated that some patients, originally listed as nonparalytic cases, may develop muscular weaknesses, curvature of the spine and limb deformities, even after a lapse of several years."

After the census of all post-polio patients has been completed, an intensive study of their current medical needs will be conducted. Both the census and evaluation programs are financed by the National Foundation.

Not all those registered in the present canvass will require help at this time, nor can help be given to all who desire it.

"What we are doing now is to get an up-to-date picture of the size of the problems so that we can measure our own responsibilities to the polio victims of the past," he said.

"We want to know how many post-polio patients, regardless of age or date of onset of the disease, can be helped by modern rehabilitation techniques and thereby regain useful lives. Many of the techniques either did not exist or were not widely used when patients were being treated years ago.

"An important part of our job is to acquaint former polio patients with the survey program. Spot checks have shown that there are many patients particularly those diagnosed as nonparalytic cases, for whom no record has been maintained. We intend to do everything humanly possible to help those who need aid, either now or in the next few years."

The canvass, conducted by chapter volunteers, is to be completed in September. It is being undertaken ken with the co-operation of the Washington County Medical society and member physicians as well as local health authorities. The county program is part of a county-wide survey organized by the National Foundation.

RED CROSS SURGICAL UNIT BEGINS FOLDING DRESSINGS

The Red Cross surgical dressings unit of the West Bend chapter will begin regular weekly afternoon sessions to fold dressings for the coming year for St. Joseph's hospital in West Bend on Wednesday, Sept. 25, at 1:15 p. m. The production unit meets in the West Bend surgical dressings room on the second floor of the public library building.

Anyone wishing to work with the project at any time is welcome to do so. For further information interested parties are urged to call Mrs. Walter Carey, FE 4-2810, or Mrs. Elmer Eisenman, FE 4-2120, co-chairmen of the unit. In the past year the unit folded 19,000 dressings for use at the local hospital.

The annual pot luck outing for the 1956-57 surgical dressings unit was held recently at the cottage of Mrs. Arthur Merriam at Green Lake. Present at the event with Mrs. Merriam were the Mesdames Arthur Boltz, Walter Carey, Ida Ebert, Elmer Eisenman, Carl Endlich, Roman Merten, John Rilling, Charles Warren, Kenneth Weiss and Miss Ella Kuehlthau. Mrs. T. H. Wade was unable to attend because of illness. Mrs. Elise Metzner and Miss Clara Jaehnig were guests.

Around the Town

Weekly report on Fond du Lac ave. reconstruction project: The work is still going along right on schedule, even though hampered by rain again on Wednesday and mud Thursday. The curb and gutter for the new highway has been laid on both sides of the street from the south end of town as far north as the L. Rosenheimer store. This work is moving along rapidly and systematically. Later comes the sidewalks, road paving and street lights but we haven't learned in what order.

Gals, you only have until next Wednesday, Sept. 18, to enter the "Miss Kewaskum" contest to reign as queen for the street opening celebration Oct. 11-12. So get that entry blank (printed elsewhere in this issue) in right away. Four young ladies for the queen's court will also reign. Everyone from this area between the ages of 15-21, single, female, and not more than 8 feet tall or wide has a chance. This is not a beauty contest.

Sept. 15-21 is National Civil Defense Week. The Kewaskum Civil Defense organization through its director, Marvin Martin, is observing the week by distributing copies of the revised Civil Defense air raid instructions to every home and business place in the village. The copies were printed in red ink on heavy tagboard in our office this week and you will receive yours shortly.

The start of another school year offers a number of observations and instances. For an observation take a gander at those new school shoes you just bought recently for your little pupil. They were new just two weeks ago. Asked what he learned the first day of school one young boy said: "I sure did learn something today. Every other kid in the class gets a half a buck allowance each week." One difference between high school and college is that the high school student says, "I don't know" in answer to a question while the college student says, "I don't recall." If you can remember when there was no parking problem around the high school, you're getting old. And there was little Johnnie who, when asked if he wanted to leave the room, replied: "Teacher, you don't think I'm a standing here hitchhiking, do you?" Nowadays it costs more to amuse a child than it did to educate his parents.

Chief Pledl and his auxiliary police did a bang-up job in getting the many hundreds of persons in and out of town over the torn up street and detours for the Catholic census meeting here Monday night. Signs were posted on all streets leading into Kewaskum with arrows directing the drivers to the high school. The chief personally escorted the Most Rev. Albert G. Meyer, Milwaukee archbishop, in and out of the village.

"Detour, there's a muddy road ahead." Mothers in the vicinity of the new road project will really be thankful when the job is completed and they won't have to clean mud off of the shoes anymore.

Lost: One big frog. Anyone finding a runaway frog that doesn't belong to you please return to Patty as it is urgently needed for dissecting purposes in sophomore biology class.

Embarrassing situation—when a Sinclair service station operator runs out of gas in front of a Shell station and has to buy gas there. We saw it happen in Kewaskum the other night.

Top-Dress Alfalfa This Fall; Up Hay Yields, Cut Feed Costs

Top-dressed pasture (right) outyielded unfertilized pasture by a ton and a half of dry weight alfalfa per acre on first cutting. While spring or fall top dressing are both effective, fall top dressing sometimes gives higher returns.

TOP-DRESSING alfalfa this fall with phosphate-potash fertilizer can add extra years of profitable production to your fields, reports the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

This means you can save money on reseeding and land fitting.

Another benefit is that hay yields can be larger next year. This low cost feed can help keep down the cost of producing milk and meat.

Midwestern agronomists point out that well fed alfalfa plants store up nutrients in their roots in the fall. This helps them to come through the winter in vigorous shape for early, thick growth in the spring.

Your fertilizer applications should be tailored to the soil's need for phosphate and potash. A soil test can provide information that will guide you in adding the amount and ratio of fertilizer best suited to keeping alfalfa on a high production basis.

In some states agronomists say it is profitable to apply from 300 to 500 pounds per acre of a fertilizer such as 0-20-10, 0-20-20, 0-10-20 or 0-10-30. Mixtures with boron added can be used where this nutrient is needed.

County Nurse Resigns, Successor Is Sought

Washington county is without the services of a county nurse since Friday, Sept. 6, when the present nurse left to complete her academic work towards the college degree. Mrs. Brawdy, who had been hired by the County Health committee and was to have reported for work on Tuesday, Sept. 3, was unable to follow through with her agreement and filed her letter of resignation with the committee.

Possibly, the general public in reading this article can assist the committee in securing the services of a nurse by informing anyone who is qualified and might be interested in the position. To be qualified a person must have a certificate in public health nursing which has been approved by the State Board of Health.

Harry Sheski, county superintendent of schools, and secretary of the County Health committee, will be most happy to discuss this position with anyone who will call at his office in the court house.

SECOND ANNUAL MEETING OF WASHINGTON-OZAUKEE CHILD GUIDANCE CENTER

All friends of the Washington-Ozaukee Child Guidance Center are welcome to attend its second annual meeting to be held on Monday, Sept. 23rd, at 6:30 p. m. at Smith Bros. Fish Shanty restaurant, Port Washington.

Those who attend will have an opportunity to meet Karl W. Bauer, Jr., who recently joined the staff of the center in the capacity of psychiatric social worker, and to learn more about the Dekorra Foundation, Inc., the newly-formed organization which is hoped will provide a means of interpreting the work and program of the center.

An informal buffet supper will be followed by a short program during which Dr. Zell, the center's psychiatrist, and Bauer will initiate a discussion on the subject, "How Responsible are Parents?"

Reservations for the supper meeting must be made by Sept. 18. Interested persons may contact the center staff by calling Federal 4-5610, West Bend.

Kewaskum Pure Milk Co-op Annual Meeting

Self-help plans, quotas, commodity-by-commodity legislation, will be topics of discussion at the annual meeting of the Kewaskum Local of Pure Milk Products Cooperative on Wednesday, Sept. 18, at the Kewaskum Opera House, beginning at 8:30 p. m.

Pure Milk Products speakers will explain their recent request to Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson for an increase in the support price of manufactured milk and its products to $3.50 per hundred-weight. The Wisconsin dairy organization feels it is necessary immediately to keep in line with fluid milk prices.

Self-help plans have been thoroughly discussed in congress recently. Will they help the dairy farmer? Will all dairy farmers approve them? Are quotas necessary? The answers will be sought in discussions from the floor at this meeting.

The speaker from the central office of Pure Milk Products at Fond du Lac will be present to discuss the problems confronting the dairy farmer. He will also review legislation enacted and rejected by the past congressional session. Consumers are invited to attend to learn of the many problems that confront the producer of dairy products and how it affects the pocketbook of the wage earner.

There will be the annual elections of a board of directors, a member to the advisory board and delegates to the annual state convention which will be held at Fond du Lac Oct. 29. All PMPC members and their families are urged to attend, as are non-member families.

Child Guidance Center Adds Workers to Staff

The Child Guidance Committee of the Washington-Ozaukee Child Guidance Center has announced two recent additions to its staff.

Karl W. Bauer, Jr., formerly of Cary, Ind., has been hired to serve as psychiatric social worker for the center. After receiving his education at Loras College, Dubuque, Iowa, Ball State Teacher's College, Muncie, Ind., and St. Louis University, he served as social worker at the Lake County Dept. of Public Welfare at Gary, Ind.; at Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Denver, Colo., and at the U. S. Army Hospital at Fort Polk, La.

His other experiences included that of secondary education teacher in the Muncie, Ind. schools.

Mr. Bauer is married and the father of a one year old son.

Another recent addition to the staff of the center is the new secretary-receptionist, Mrs. Phyllis Santini. She attended St. Mary's College at Holy Cross, Ind., and is presently making her home in Sauk-

Miss Koenings Wed To Alois Rohlinger

Father O. F. Ullrich read the 9 a. m. nuptial mass at St. Mary's Catholic church, Barton, on Saturday, Aug. 31, during which Alois Rohlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rohlinger, R. 2, Kewaskum, claimed as his bride Miss Janet Koenings, Barton. Flowers decorated the altars for the ceremony, during which the "Ave Maria" was sung.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of white designed with a pointed basque of rose point lace finished with a Queen Anne collar and long tapered lace sleeves. The bouffant floor length skirt was of lace with side ruffles of alternating lace and tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion cascaded becomingly from a crown of lace and seed pearls. Her flowers were a cascade of white carnations, white satin ribbon and lace streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Eileen Koenings, wore a gown of aqua designed with a lace bodice with net trim, full floor length net skirt with net ruffle trim finished with a lace cap sleeve jacket. She wore a matching tiara of horsehair braid and pearls. Her flowers were a crescent shaped bouquet of white and aqua carnations and aqua ribbon.

The bridesmaids, Misses Mary Rohlinger, Catherine Koenings, Jo Ann Bliertzer and Mrs. Eugene Herriges, were gowned like the honor attendant in orchid, light blue, yellow and Nile green. Their crescent bouquets of carnations contrasted with the colors of their gowns, the orchid dress with pale green carnations, the blue dress with yellow carnations, the yellow dress with blue carnations, and the green dress with pale orchid carnations.

The flower girl, little Miss Gale Polyak, wore a floor length frock of white lace and net designed with a fitted net bodice with lace ruffle trim at the round neckline and short lace puffed sleeves. The billowing floor length net skirt had lace insert trim. She wore a white net ruffle half hat.

Norbert Rohlinger served as best man, while Paul Koenings, Gregor Rohlinger, Roger Pierret and Eugene Herriges acted as groomsmen. Guests were seated by Robert Renner and Roger Lickman. Master Charles Koenings carried the rings.

Following the ceremony dinner was served in the St. Mary's church parlors to 70 guests. Supper was served and a reception held for 300 guests at Fahn's Kettle Moraine Lake resort, where a wedding dance was also held.

Following a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin the newlyweds are now at home in Barton. The bride, a West Bend high school graduate, is employed in the office of the Newburg Machine company. The bridegroom, who attended Kewaskum high school, is employed at Rosenheimer's Department store in Kewaskum.

GRIESEMER-FEHLHABER

At a 4 o'clock ceremony on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 7, in Immanuel E and R church, West Bend Gordon Griesemer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Griesemer, Jackson, took as his bride Miss Carol Fae Fehlhaber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fehlhaber, Kewaskum. The Rev. R. W. Groth officiated. The bride chose a waltz length gown of "I Do" taffeta with a scoop neckline, brief sleeves and a full skirt with a bustle bow at the back. Re-embroidered Alencon lace trimmed the bodice and neckline. Her shoulder length veil was gathered to a sequin and pearl crown and she carried a cascade of French carnations centered about a white orchid.

Emmy Jung of Germantown was maid of honor for her cousin. She was attired in a gown of two-tone shades of bluebird blue taffeta and carried soft pink carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Ginger Teala of Oshkosh, a friend of the bride, was dressed like Miss Jung and carried pink carnations.

A cousin of the bridegroom, Linda Jaeger of West Bend, was the junior bridesmaid. She wore a white nylon over blue taffeta dress with puffed sleeves and carried a small bouquet of white French carnations.

Twin brothers of the bridegroom, Stanley and Wesley Griesemer, served as best man and groomsmen, while Master Joe Fehlhaber, the bride's brother, was junior groomsmen. Ushers were Wayne Wetterau, cousin of the bride, and Brian Mayer, the bridegroom's cousin.

The ceremony was followed by a dinner at the Kewaskum Opera House and a reception at the Fehlhaber home.

After returning from a honeymoon in Canada, the young couple will reside in Kewaskum. He is a graduate of West Bend high school and is a student at Carroll college, Waukesha. She is a graduate of West Bend high school and was a student at Carroll college before taking employment as a service representative with the Wisconsin Telephone company office.

Turnover in Wisconsin state employment is about one employe in seven annually compared to one in four in federal employment, according to the Public Expenditure Survey in Wisconsin.

The American Cancer society says that research has developed hormones, certain drugs and some radioactive substances that have proved extremely valuable in treating certain cancers.

NEW! QUICK, EASY BUTTER FROSTING

Here's the easiest way in the world to crown your cakes (ready-mix or otherwise) with glory. It's a brand new butter frosting that has all of butter's wonderful, fresh flavor. It's the most versatile frosting you've ever used because you can spread it smoothly . . . pile it high in swirls and whirls . . . or pipe it through a decorating tube for making fancy decorations or names. This delicious new frosting takes only minutes to make but, thanks to butter's special goodness, it stays creamy and smooth for days on end. And look! You can easily make it in a variety of flavors, too! Try this new frosting recipe soon. It will make you proud of every cake you serve.

BASIC BUTTER FROSTING RECIPE

½ cup (1 stick) butter
1-1-lb. package confectioner's sugar, sifted
1 egg
½ teaspoon vanilla

¼ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon milk or cream
Cream butter until smooth. Add 1/3 of sifted confectioner's sugar and cream thoroughly. Add salt, milk and vanilla. Blend. Add unbeaten egg and beat until smooth. Add remaining amount of confectioner's sugar. Beat until smooth. If frosting is a little thick, more milk or cream may be added.

VARIATIONS

Chocolate—Melt 2 ounces bitter chocolate. Whip in.
Orange—Omit vanilla. Add 1 tablespoon orange juice in place of milk or cream. Add grated rind of 1 orange. Whip in.
Lemon—Omit vanilla. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice in place of milk or cream. Add grated rind of 1 lemon. Whip in.
Peppermint—Omit vanilla. Add ½ teaspoon mint extract (use mint sparingly). Color frosting light pink. Suggested garnish, crushed peppermint stick candy.
