Picnic Near Record Success Despite Rain On Saturday Evening

BIG CROWDS ATTEND EVENT SUNDAY; PARADE, AMATEUR SHOW WINNERS NAMED

Although rain halted most of the activity Saturday evening, fine weather Sunday helped make the annual Firemen-Legion picnic among the most successful held in recent years. The park was jammed with people throughout the afternoon and evening and even during the supper hour there was little let up in the crowd because of steady entertainment going on. Many said it was the largest crowd they have ever seen in the park and the evening attendance was especially large.

Financially, too, the event was a grand success. Without the rain Saturday night the picnic would have easily surpassed all previous records. Over $45 pounds of hamburger, almost half a ton, were consumed, more than 2,000 ice cream bars were sold, to say nothing about the bratwurst, beer, popcorn and other refreshments consumed.

The rain started just about the time the picnic was to get underway Saturday evening and not many persons came to the park, although the refreshment stands, protected from the rain, did a fair business. The amateur show was called off until 5 p. m. Sunday but Les Schneider's orchestra played through out Saturday evening for the entertainment of those hardy ones who stayed despite the rain.

Sunday's parade at 12:30 p. m. was one of the best ever seen here. It was a very long one with snappy marching units, fine musical organizations, numerous floats, dozens and dozens of children's specialties, comedy entries, lots of horses, visiting firemen and Legion units and numerous other entries. The beautiful floats, Mercury Thunderbolts drum and bugle corps, high school band and classy high school girls' drill team in their matching uniforms helped make the parade a very colorful one. Many hundreds of persons lined the streets to witness the parade with most of them massed on East Main st. near the park entrances.

Prize winners in the parade were as follows:

Commercial floats—1st, Wigwam Drive-in; 2nd, Regal Ware, Inc.; 3rd, Ramthun Hardware; honorable mention, Miller's.

Winning Float, Ancient Fire Truck in Picnic Parade Here

Pictured above are two of the entries in the colorful, half mile long parade preceding the Firemen-Legion annual picnic in Kewaskum Sunday which was one of the finest in years.

The lower photo shows Kewaskum's old 1915 Model T Ford fire engine, which was the first power driven fire truck used by the local fire department many years ago. That's Chief Harry Schaefer proudly riding the running board (something cars used to have) and Warren Doman is the pilot behind the wheel trying to hold the speed down. That gal isn't part of the chief's cap, she's sitting on the porch railing at the rear. The "convertible" Model T has been "through the mill" but old, beat, battered and wrecked, it has been put back into running order for parades in the area by the firemen, including a brand new coat of paint and a set of now very exclusive, expensive new tires. Note the large capacity water tanks, high ladders, hand cranked siren, powerful spotlight and headlights, wooden wheel spokes, complicated dash board and high powered lanterns. It is evident that fire equipment has come a long way since 1915. Wherever the ancient truck appears "she" is hounded by photographers, causing "her" to blush in a bright red manner. The fire department has been offered a high price for the "old girl," who will make "her" next appearance at the Badger Firemen's tournament at Random Lake July 29-31.

Wigwam Drive-In Burglarized By 13-Year-Old Boy

The Wigwam Drive-In on S. Fond du Lac ave. was burglarized sometime between the hours of 2 and 7 a. m. on Sunday and about $34 in change was stolen from the restaurant.

Quick, efficient work by Chief of Police Roland Pledl, with the cooperation of the West Bend Police Department, succeeded in apprehending the "burglar" only hours after the theft was committed. Admitting to the burglary was a 13-year-old Menomonee Falls boy, residing on R. 1, Germantown.

The youth had been camping with a troop of Boy Scouts at Long lake and ran away from the camp just before dark Saturday night, hitchhiking to Kewaskum. Here he attended the picnic, then hid for a while and later slept for some time, then burglarized the drive-in upon waking up. The boy said he entered the restaurant through a rear unlocked door and forced open a cash register with a hammer. He removed $31 in quarters, halves, nickels and pennies.

At about 6:30 a. m. Sunday Chief Pledl received a call from a James Kudulis, Boy Scout leader of Troop 75, stating that one of his boys was missing from camp at Long lake. At 7 a. m. the chief received a call from Richard Edwards, operator of the Wigwam, stating his restaurant was burglarized. Upon investigating, it appeared to Chief Pledl that the burglary was the work of a juvenile.

Pledl immediately checked Mauthe and Long lakes for Boy Scout Troop 75. He found them a mile west of Dundee in the state forest. Upon questioning, the Scout leader informed the chief that the missing youth was a mischievous boy. Pledl called the boy's home at Menomonee Falls and was informed that the youth was not home all night. He then checked with Milwaukee police and found that the boy had been arrested before for grand larceny.

On his way back to Kewaskum Pledl received a radio call from the West Bend Police Department that a 13-year-old boy was at the Parkway restaurant in that city. When the youth pulled out a whole handful of change to pay for a hamburger the counter man became suspicious and called police. The chief then picked up the lad.

Upon being questioned the boy admitted that he ran away from the camp because he was ashamed of something he had done Saturday. He said he hitchhiked to Kewaskum and was going to the show but decided to attend the picnic instead. He stated that after playing a few games, when it began getting late, he hid beside a house so the police would not find him. He didn't think this was a very good place so he hid behind a hill at the rear of the Wigwam. Later, he said, he slept on a porch across from the Standard Oil station. About 5:30 a. m. he said he woke up knowing he needed money and walked to the Standard station with the intention of breaking in. Everything was locked so he changed his mind. Then he stated he

POINTERS FOR A "SANDWICH PICNIC"

By Marguerite Gustafson
Director of Home Service
American Dairy Association

Prepare sandwiches with a variety of breads. There's more than a baker's dozen to choose from—crusty breads for texture, whole grains for special flavors and rye varieties that go so well with certain fillings. Here's a few: dark or light rye with or without caraway seeds; hearty Kaiser rolls; crunchy French loaves; chewy pumpernickel; enriched white; raisin filled slices; coarsely textured whole wheat; onion topped rolls; delightfully hard bagels; poppyseed studded loaves and potato bread. Next time you picnic, try a long Vienna as suggested in our picture. Split bread lengthwise and stuff with zesty sandwich fillings. Wrap sandwich in foil or transparent film and slice just before serving.

Important to every good sandwich is butter! Soften to room temperature and spread to the edge of bread, butter prevents sandwiches with moist fillings from becoming soggy. For a tangy spread, beat until light and fluffy: 1 cup soft butter and 1 tablespoon lemon juice with 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and 1 teaspoon prepared mustard. For variety, add one or more of these finely chopped ingredients: parsley, pickles, stuffed olives, seafood or chicken.

Variety of Fillings

Cheese and delicatessen meats make zesty sandwich fillings. There are so many delicious flavors to combine into mile-high "Dagwoods." Stack sandwiches with slices of nutlike Swiss, sharp Brick, pungent Muenster, caraway filled Kummelkase or mild to sharp Cheddar. If you prefer milder cheeses, select delicate flavored Camembert, gentle Cream or your choice of creamy cheese spreads. Garlicky salami; spicy summer sausage, corned beef and pepper beef; Bologna or popular baked ham are only a few of the many cold cuts to enjoy.

Include thirst quenching milk well chilled in a thermos. Before picnic time, fill thermos with ice water; cork it and set aside. Just before leaving, empty thermos and fill with icy cold milk. Turn a picnic into a party with fruit flavored milk shakes. Blend cold milk with fresh or frozen fruit juices like pineapple or orange, with frozen concentrates as lemonade or limeade, or with frozen crushed berries. Sweeten beverage to taste and top with scoops of vanilla or your favorite flavored ice cream.

Sugar cookies, crisp and buttery for dessert... bring them plain, bring them fancy, but bring plenty! Chocolate brownies, coconut squares and nut bars make a hit with grownups as well as "small fry."

Out of the picnic basket comes this loaf-of-bread sandwich that's spread with a blend of tangy Cheddar cheese and sour cream and filled with delicious sliced ham and chicken. Garnishes for taste are sweet onion, stuffed olives and tomatoes. Buttery sugar cookies and well chilled milk make picnics party perfect.

Picnic Sandwich

6 to 8 servings

- 1½ cups shredded Cheddar cheese
- 1½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- Dash of tabasco sauce
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 3 tablespoons instant minced onion
- ½ cup dairy sour cream
- ¼ cup (½ stick) butter, softened
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 1 loaf French bread
- ½ pound sliced baked or boiled ham
- 8 slices cold roast chicken OR 2 5½-ounce cans boned chicken
- 1 onion, sliced
- 6 large stuffed olives, sliced
- 2 fresh tomatoes, sliced

Vigorously beat together cheese, Worcestershire sauce, tabasco sauce, salt, onion and sour cream. Set aside. Blend together butter and mustard. Slice French bread in half lengthwise and spread butter mixture on cut surface of upper half. Spread lower half with cheese mixture and top with slices of ham, chicken, onion, olives and tomatoes. Place buttered upper half over this and press together. Wrap in a cold cloth or transparent film and refrigerate.

Cancer Fund 'Neighbor To Neighbor' Campaign Is Underway in County

MRS. ROSENHEIMER AND MRS. BACKHAUS CO-CHAIRMEN FOR VILLAGE DRIVE

D. J. Kenny, chairman of the Washington county unit of the American Cancer society, has announced plans for the society's annual education and fund campaign which starts this week.

Businesses, industries and all rural boxholders in Washington county are now being contacted by direct mail. A "Neighbor to Neighbor" campaign will begin in Kewaskum, West Bend and Barton on Tuesday, July 19.

Kewaskum co-chairmen for the "Neighbor to Neighbor" program are Mrs. Hy. Rosenheimer and Mrs. Howard Backhaus. During this phase of the campaign, American Cancer society envelopes will be circulated from house to house around each city block.

Richard C. Klein, West Bend, campaign chairman, met Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. in the Kewaskum municipal building with the above local co-chairmen and the other 12 or so Kewaskum ladies who will assist in the campaign.

Each large envelope contains booklets on cancer, envelopes for each family's contribution to the society and subscription forms for the "Wisconsin Cancer Bulletin." The bulletin will be sent free to each family that contributes $1 or more during the campaign.

During the "Neighbor to Neighbor" campaign, a new step in the annual Cancer Crusade, the large envelope will be given to one family on each block. This family is then asked to pass the envelope to the next house. When the material has completely circled the block with a stop at each home, it will be collected by the local chairman and returned to the county unit.

"This will take cooperation on the part of every city family in the county," Kenny pointed out. "However, we have always had wonderful help from everyone in the past on our Crusade, and we certainly look forward to the same generous cooperation this year."

Kenny emphasized that the goal of the "Neighbor to Neighbor" campaign, under the slogan "Guard Your Family" is to tell the people of Washington county the facts about cancer and thus save lives.

"We believe that you can't measure human life in dollar and cents," he said. "Certainly not the half million lives of the men, women and children who develop cancer every year. Last year the people of America confirmed our belief. We know they will again give us their voluntary and generous support to help sustain our three programs of research, service and education."

"The cancer society supports more than 1,000 scientists who are trying to defeat cancer for all time," he explained. "But there is so much we can do about this disease right now. Right now, we can, and must, try to save the lives that are needlessly wasted every year."

"The theme of 'Guard Your Family' is very apt," Kenny said. "Two of three families in Washington county will be confronted by the tragedy and burden of cancer—sooner or later. It will continue to be true until the disease is conquered—as it will be, given time and money."

Richard C. Klein, West Bend, is the 1960 general campaign chairman for the county. Co-chairmen cooperating with him in the county are Mrs. Rosenheimer and Mrs.

Backhaus in Kewaskum; Mrs. L. J. Bowerman, Mrs. Wm. Kieckhafer and Mrs. Mervin Thompson, West Bend; and Mrs. Karl Steihert and Mrs. Arthur Schmid, Barton.

Cooperating township and village chairmen are: Dr. Oliver H. Herman, town of Addison; Alfred H. Seefeldt, town of Kewaskum; Paul Cypher, town of Barton; Victor Bauer, town of Wayne Ben J. Dickel, town of Rierfield; Adolph Schmidt, town of Polk; Reuben Schmah, town of Jackson; Adam Schaefer, town of Hartford; B. W. Wierman, town of Farmington; Guido Schroeder, town of West Bend; Reuben Gauger, town of Germantown; Ray Meier, town of Erin; Joseph Kowanda, town of Trenton; Chester Rheingans, village of Jackson; Frederick Thiel, village of Slinger, and Ray Heilgendorf, village of Germantown.

The county unit expects to complete its entire campaign by July 30. Persons on the society mailing list are urged to mail their contributions promptly and full cooperation is asked in passing the "Neighbor to Neighbor" envelopes around city blocks.

Rainbow Nine Loses to Saukville Lakes Team

RAIN HALTS GAME SATURDAY NIGHT WITH LOCALS AHEAD OF BELGIUM, 8-0

With Kewaskum having an almost sure upset in the making in an important Rainbow league game here Saturday night, the tilt had to be called in the third inning because of rain with the locals way ahead of league leading, previously undefeated Belgium, 8-0.

Had the rain held out just another 1½ innings or so it would have counted as a completed ball game and Kewaskum would have gained an upset victory over the leaders. As it is the game will have to be replayed at a later date. Otto Ramthun was on the hill for the home nine and had blanked Belgium with one hit up to the time the rains came. On the other hand, Kewaskum surprisingly had no trouble at all in mauling the topnotch team in the circuit.

In a game of hits, walks and errors, Kewaskum's Rainbow league team lost to the Saukville Land o' Lakes league nine in an exhibition under the lights here Monday night. The score was 18-8 in Saukville's favor in the high scoring tilt when the game was called at the end of the sixth inning because of a village curfew which does not allow any inning to start after 10:30 p. m.

Bratkowski hurled the entire contest for the visitors, fanning 19 and walking 6. He gave up only 4 hits. Jim Marx, Don Meisenheimer and Otto Ramthun shared the pitching for Kewaskum and between them were nicked for 15 hits. Kewaskum committed 4 errors and Saukville 3.

This Sunday, July 17, Kewaskum will play Fillmore at the Boltonville field in a league game.

Pony League

Results of games played July 7: Yanks 12, Braves 3—Bill Backhaus pitched for the Yanks, allowing 4 hits and striking out 13 Braves. Mark Schaefer pitched for the Braves. Chuck Kleinke hit a home run and Glenn Dorn and Bob Rossow hit triples for the Yanks. Terry Shaske and Bob Miller hit doubles for the Braves and Joe Key had two singles.

Cubs 27, White Sox 3—14 hits and 17 walks gave the Cubs a romp over the Sox. Joey Fehlhaber was the winner, giving up 6 hits while striking out 10. Milt Schmidt, Fehlhaber and Eddie Czaja had 3 hits each for the Cubs. Harry Krueger hit a double. Tom Herman had two of the Sox hits and the only extra base hit was a double by George Martin.

Looking Thru the Field Glasses . . .

BY BOB LAKE
Washington County Conservation Warden

Lake and stream fishing is generally poor. However, the perch fishing at Port Washington is fabulous. As an example, two men and two boys caught over two hundred fish in three hours.

Fishing is slow in Washington county. A few walleyes and perch were caught at Pike lake. A night-crawler rig caught an 11 pound, 5 ounce walleye for a Big Cedar lake resident this past Saturday.

A film of oil covered the Kettle of Silver lake a short time ago. Neighbors eyed each other in a suspicious manner. Who wants to spoil my fishing, beach, pier or swimming? The mystery was solved a few days later. About one hundred ninety gallons of fuel oil escaped from the home of M. J. Puarica, and followed a tiled spring to the lake.

MAIL BOX ON DORN FARM BROKEN OFF BY VANDALS

The mail box at the Ed Dorn farm southwest of the village was reported to have been deliberately broken off by vandals early Saturday morning. The mail box was unusual as it was a portrait of Uncle Sam, which stood about five feet high and was painted in harmonizing colors. It was made by Mr. Dorn. Sheriff Al Schmidt was called and although he has no knowledge who the guilty parties are he said the vandals would probably be apprehended later if more destruction is reported.
