Record Crowds Attend Parade, Picnic Here Sunday; Parade Is Biggest Ever Held in Village

30 Some Floats Entered, Prize Winners Listed

THOUSANDS JAM STREETS AS ANNUAL EVENT IS TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

Kewaskum's annual Firemen-Legion picnic Saturday evening and Sunday was the most successful and drew the largest attendance in its history. The parade Sunday was by far the biggest and longest ever staged and was witnessed by the largest crowd of spectators ever to jam the village. The event set a new record all the way around.

The more than half-hour long parade had over 30 colorful floats entered by businessmen, clubs, organizations, groups and individuals. The number of floats was much larger than anticipated. Many of them were beautiful, others very original, novel and comical. Participating also were bands, drum and bugle corps, drill teams, visiting Legionnaires and firemen and equipment, many comedy groups, decorated tricycles, bicycles and wagons, hundreds of tots, and numerous units. Included were the Hartford Legion band, Sheboygan Falls Drum and Bugle Corps, Junior Optimists Drum and Bugle Corps of Fond du Lac and Kewaskum High school band.

Thousands of people jammed the streets to see the parade and most of them couldn't praise it enough. They couldn't get over what a wonderful parade this village put on and many are still talking about it. Outsiders, many of whom came from Milwaukee, said they never saw as big and fine a parade in a town of this size. Residents of this area also commented very favorably and showed surprise at witnessing such an excellent parade, stating it was the best they saw anywhere around this summer.

County traffic patrolmen, West Bend and Barton police, as well as local officers said it was easily the biggest crowd of people they ever saw in Kewaskum. Traffic was tied up for blocks outside of the village and many never got in to see the parade. Firemen and Legionnaires who lined up the parade didn't know where to go with all the entries. Although people jammed the streets, sidewalks and lawns all along the line of march, the biggest jams were at the corner of Fond du Lac ave. and Main st., at the railroad tracks, in front of Holy Trinity church and the largest being near the entrance to the park. The street was really solid with people for about a block and a half from the post office east to the park entrance on River View dr.

It took at least an hour before the traffic was unsnarled and all the people were able to flow into the crowded park, which was a mass of people throughout the day and evening. Temperatures in the eighties provided ideal picnic weather. A big, dark cloud, gust of wind and a few raindrops sent people scurrying out of the park at one time in the evening but it all passed over in a few minutes and festivities went on.

It was reported that the affair grossed over $8,000 even with bottle beer selling for only 15 cents or seven for a buck and hamburgers a quarter. More than 800 pounds of hamburger, hundreds of cases of beer, and 20 some halves of draught beer were sold to say nothing of the bratwurst and other refreshments. The buns ran out early Sunday evening and although more were obtained at every available place in town, there still wasn't nowhere near enough.

Entertainment was provided Saturday night by two orchestras. Les Schneider and his musicians played old time music from the north beer stand and The Blue Echoes provided rock and roll songs from the bandstand, where the younger set danced. The crowd Saturday evening was also good sized, even with cool weather.

Following the parade Sunday the Hartford band played a short concert in the park and the Fond du Lac drum and bugle corps put on a drill and rendered several numbers. During the afternoon and evening free entertainment acts were staged by a performing chimpanzee named Susie and a light-fingered magician named Tershay and his partner Connie. The acts were very funny and well received. Carnival rides, game and amusement stands and concessions added to a festival atmosphere. The water "dunking" tank stand operated by the Valve Burners made a hit.

Water fights between nearby fire departments were put on at 6:30 p. m. In the first bout Random Lake defeated Barton and in the second Boltonville beat Campbellsport. In the championship bout Random Lake got the best of Boltonville. After the regular fights Campbellsport challenged Random Lake for a case of beer and Random also won this one for three straight.

Prize winners in the parade were as follows:

Commercial floats—1st Wigwam, "We're Hitting the Mark," $40.00; 2nd, Hon-E-Kor, "Our Contribution to Your Health," $35.00; 3rd, Honeck Chevrolet, "Rocket Float," $25.00; 4th, Stellic Cheese, Campbellsport, "Alice in Cheeseland," $15.00.

Children's specialties—1st, Jerry Kreif children, "First Aiders," $8.00; 2nd, Kewaskum 4-H club members, $6.00; 3rd, Roger Reindl children, "Miss America, Queen of Gasolines (Standard)," $4.00; 4th, Homer Schaub children, "Butterfly Collectors," $2.00.

The firemen and Legion post wish to thank each and every one who helped to make their picnic such an outstanding success, es-

Work on Natural Gas System in Kewaskum To Begin Next Week

SERVICE TO BE AVAILABLE BY FALL IN TIME FOR HEATING SEASON

Milwaukee Gas Light company will begin construction of its natural gas distribution system in Kewaskum within a week, announced District Manager Frank Sprtel today.

"Construction work will continue throughout the summer to bring natural gas to as many residents as possible in time for the heating season," Sprtel said. "When the summer is over we will be able to serve virtually every applicant for natural gas service in Kewaskum."

Major construction sites will include Main and First streets, Parkview drive, Roseland drive and Fond du Lac avenue. In addition to gas mains, service piping will be connected to buildings for which gas has been requested.

Gas main excavations will be made on only one side of the street. The entire gas installation project will be completed in advance of Kewaskum's road resurfacing program.

Residents along the construction route will receive a letter from the Gas company explaining the work that will be done in their neighborhood. Clean-up crews will follow the construction work to repair any cuts in lawn or pavement.

Kewaskum has been designated as part of Milwaukee Gas Light company's West Bend district, and all inquiries regarding the construction or gas service should be directed to West Bend Manager Frank D. Sprtel. The company's West Bend office is located at 137 North Main st.

Milwaukee Gas Light company received approval from the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin on June 22 to distribute and sell natural gas in Kewaskum. An exclusive franchise to serve the community had previously been granted the utility by Kewaskum's village board.

Our Police Chief Says

Only children under 12 years of age are permitted to ride their bicycles on the sidewalks. We have received several complaints that older children are riding on the sidewalks.

Accidents on our highways will continue as long as automobiles operate, but they can be greatly reduced by more careful driving.

Old age isn't so bad when you consider the alternative.

Perch fishing at Port Washington is spotty, light westerly winds provide the best fishing. Skin divers maintain the water is still too cold for good perch fishing. Fair to good fishing for panfish on Cedar Creek in the vicinity of Cedarburg, the same is true of the Milwaukee river. Bass are biting at Lake Amy Belle and Bark. Fishing for walleyed pike good at Little Cedar, trolling in deep water, night crawlers best bait; the same is true for Pike lake near Hartford.

Kewaskum Wins Again At Random Lake, 8-1

Kewaskum's Rainbow league team, which occupies second place in the standings, won their fourth game in five starts at Random Lake last Thursday night, when they trounced that team, 8-1, for a 5-1 record.

Don Meisenheimer did the pitching in Otto Ramthun's absence. He went the route and was the winner. Don gave up 8 hits, struck out 5 and walked out 2. Hansen and Gluck did the twirling for the losers. Together they were nixed for 11 hits, fanned 5 and issued 5 bases on balls.

Random counted its lone button in the 4th inning on 3 straight singles. Kewaskum scored in 5 of the 9 frames.

Rassel and Bogi each got 2 hits for the Lakers. Kewaskum was paced by Meisenheimer, who besides being the winning hurler, connected for 3 hits in 4 times at bat, including a triple, double and single.

On Saturday night under the lights here the Rainbow team played an exhibition contest with Dan's Playroom nine of the Milwaukee Major loop. This one they lost by an 11-7 score. Fred Bruhn was on the mound for the locals and was followed by Otto. The visitors garnered 11 safeties. Kewaskum got 5 hits, two of them by D. Theusch.

This Sunday afternoon Cascade plays a league game at Kewaskum.
