Bartelt Brothers Plan Building of New Florida City

WEEKI WACHEE WOODLANDS DEVELOPMENT PLANNED BY FORMER LOCAL LAWYERS

The Bartelt Brothers, Lyle and Dave, of R. 1, Tarpon Springs, Fla., who formerly practiced law at Kewaskum for many years, stated in a recent interview that plans and progress are well underway for the building of a new city in Florida, known as WEEKI WACHEE WOODLANDS, a wooded wonderland located just south of internationally known Weeki Wachee Springs, the spring of the Mermaids, and about 35 miles north of Tampa, on U. S. Highway 19, which eventually should have a population of 10,000 people.

This development covers 600 acres and many homes in the $8,000.00 to $15,000.00 bracket are under construction, as well as the start of a shopping center including a supermarket and other stores. Future planning includes areas where homes will cost between $30,000.00 and $50,000.00. Special areas are set aside for shopping, parks, community buildings, school sites, church sites and other planned areas. Approximately 160 acres is already fully developed with paved streets and a central water system. All homesites are wooded with oak and pine very much like Wisconsin. The entire land area is in excess of 35 ft. above sea level where it is always high and dry.

"Of course we miss seeing a lot of our old friends up Wisconsin way" says Dave, "but a lot of them stop in and see us when they are in Florida."

Previously the Bartelt Brothers have built other communities, Buena Vista, Dodge City and Siesta Terrace which are largely sold out. They are also the owners and promoters of the Bartelt Industrial Park. These developments are about 35 miles north of St. Petersburg, Fla.

"Although it is a lot of work, it is also fun to plan communities and watch them grow" Lyle says, "and we perform the functions of city fathers in these unincorporated communities much like the village boards or city councils in Wisconsin."

In Buena Vista, Florida's second largest trailer development, which is restricted to late model trailers, about 1,500 people are enjoying life under the sun. Two large community centers provide recreation for the Buena Vista residents. These clubs are run by the people where they plan shuffleboard tournaments, pot luck suppers, dances and card parties. The community has three bands, including a Gay Ninety all women kitchen band, which has become quite popular in their appearances in the Suncoast area. They have women's clubs, men's clubs, veteran's club and a Pine Needle club. Sometimes the groups get together and rent a large party boat and go deep sea fishing for the day, or they will plan a large picnic at one of Florida's tourist attractions. They state, that with all the social activity going on, there is seldom a lonesome moment, and it does not take long before a new resident finds many new friends.

Quite a few local Wisconsinites own property in their developments.

The editor asked them if they still practiced law in Florida. "No" said Dave "but since we are very close to most of our residents, and since they know that we are lawyers, they still come in quite frequently and try to get some free legal advice." "It's only natural to miss the area where you grew up" they explained, "but it seems sort of good too, not to have to shovel snow."

Dreher is now employed as an accountant in Chicago.

Heart Fund Drive Here Headed by Dr. Edwards

On Thursday, Feb. 1, Kewaskum joined with cities and villages throughout Wisconsin and the nation to open the 1962 Heart Fund campaign, according to Dr. R. G. Edwards, who will head the annual Wisconsin Heart association drive here.

"Heart diseases threaten our health and the welfare of our families," Dr. Edwards said. "More than 10 million Americans are affected today by some form of heart or blood vessel disease and this NUMBER ONE public health problem is responsible for over 900,000 deaths each year, more than all other causes of death combined," he said.

All Kewaskum residents have a vital stake in the fight against diseases of the heart and blood vessels. Your contribution to the Heart Fund provides the means to continue and expand heart research which is waging a constant battle to control the heart diseases.

"A tentative goal of $616,000 has been set for the 1962 campaign in the state by the Heart association," Dr. Edwards said. "More than half of this money will be used to support heart research studies in Wisconsin and throughout the country," he stated. "The remainder will be used to continue Wisconsin Heart association's programs of education and community service."

Nuptial vows were exchanged during an 11 o'clock ceremony on Saturday morning, Feb. 3, in St. Frances Cabrini church, West Bend, by Miss Geraldine C. Guttman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Guttman, 962 Birchwood dr., West Bend, and Richard P. Domrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Domrath, 306 Stevens ave., Shawano. Father E. Haen officiated.

The Guttman family resided in Kewaskum until last fall.

The bride chose a street length gown of white satin with a bell shaped skirt, with which she wore a shoulder length veil. She carried a white orchid with stephanotis and ivy in a cascade arrangement.

The bride's sister, Catherine Guttman, as maid of honor and Kay Hoffman, the bridesmaid, wore street length green taffeta dresses with green pill box hats holding tiny veils. Both carried crescents of large bronze chrysanthemums with croton leaves and natural wheat.

Donald Domrath served as his brother's best man, while John Gaie acted as groomsman. Guests were placed by Michael Baker and Clifford Golleke.

Dinner was served and a reception held for 80 guests at the Hon-E-Kor Country club in Kewaskum.

Following a wedding trip to Chicago, Ill., the young newlyweds are at home since Feb. 7 at 1123 W. Washington in Iowa City, Iowa.

The bride, a graduate of Kewaskum High school and St. Agnes School of Nursing, Fond du Lac, is a nurse in the pediatric department at University hospital in Iowa City. Her husband, a graduate of St. Norbert's college, De Pere, is a graduate student in psychology at the University of Iowa.

Who will be the next family to share their home with a student from another land and receive the joys of such an experience? Mrs. L. N. Peterson (phone Kewaskum 145) asks that anyone interested contact her.

Miss Katie Reindl left to spend about three weeks with Miss Maude Hausmann at Palo Alto, Calif. and visiting other western cities. Miss Hausmann is an instructor of German at Stanford university.

A movie man has been in our town the past week taking regular moving pictures of many Kewaskum residents, unknown to most of them. These pictures were then shown Thursday night at the local opera house and brought howls of glee from those attending. A full length feature picture, starring Ginger Rogers was also shown.

Miss Lucille Romaine is taking a short course at Miss Brown's Business college in Milwaukee.

Leo Vyvyan received the sad news that his father, James Vyvyan, died at West Allis.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Wollensak, who have been staying with their son Ralph and family, moved into the Mrs. Mary Herman home on Fond du Lac ave., vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Schill and son Bobby, who moved to Milwaukee.

No longer will the Fourth of July in West Bend be greeted with the din of exploding firecrackers to which we have become accustomed. At a meeting of the city council an ordinance was passed prohibiting the sale and use of fireworks in that city, except under special permit granted by the mayor.

A Progressive Party rally will be held at the Kewaskum Opera House at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Village firemen hurriedly gathered at 11 a. m. Monday to answer an alarm when the fire siren sounded furiously. Upon arriving at the fire house no one knew where the fire was located and firemen and people were thrown into confusion until someone made the discovery that neighborhood children had set off the alarm while at play.

Cupid is artful in designing a way. Thursday when word reached this village from Stanley, Wis. that Louis Hartl and Miss Theckla Backus had hied away to that city and were quietly married, the news came as a happy surprise to their relatives and admiring friends.

Mrs. Wm. Jandrey, nee Henrietta Krahn, died at her home in the town of Auburn.

The L. Rosenheimer Malt & Grain Co. plant was visited by fire early Tuesday morning, which completely destroyed the malt house and elevator, entailing a loss of more than $150,000. Origin of the fire is not definitely known. The blaze was noticed at 6 a. m. by Jos. Schlosser and John Weddig, who saw flames shooting out of the second story windows in the malt house. The fire, which swept through the malt house, burned for over two hours before it broke out in the large elevator containing over 100,000 bushels of barley. Fire departments from West Bend and Fond du Lac were summoned to help fight the fire.

The Statesman has entered its 17th year of publication.

Government Day Very Successful in County

MORE THAN 65 SENIOR BOY SCOUTS AND EXPLORER SCOUTS PARTICIPATE

More than sixty-five Senior Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts from all over Washington county, including Kewaskum, participated in the governing of this locality and the entire county on Monday, Feb. 5.

In West Bend, the young men toured the city during the afternoon, viewing the police station, fire station, city garage, sewage disposal plant, and the incinerator. During the evening, they attended not only the city council meeting, but also the finance and public works committee meetings. This enabled the boys to get a first-hand observation of the functioning of our city government on matters ranging from the purchase of a jeep to the granting of a liquor license. Each Scout was assigned to a local official.

At the county level, the Scouts had some very interesting experiences while accompanying their respective officials. Sheriff William Johnson, with his young "assistants," spent the afternoon walking through deep snow for nearly a mile to serve papers on individuals, foreclosing mortgages, and visiting circuit court.

Throughout the afternoon and early evening, the young men went eagerly about the task of "learning the ropes," listening attentively, and asking questions. The Scouts will discuss their experiences during discussions at their next meetings.

A few of the boys from outlying areas, who spent the day with county officials, had dinner Monday evening with local Scout families. Afterwards they found time to attend the city council meeting.

The Scouts were unanimous in their opinion that they learned a great deal about out local and county governments, and that they will take a much greater interest in government from now on.

Local and county officials also expressed satisfaction in the manner in which the boys conducted themselves, and their willingness to learn. County Clerk Anton Staral said that "these fine young gentlemen made a favorable impression on all of us. They were genuinely interested in the functions of government."

Sincere thanks must be extended from all Moraine District Scouters to our administration officials, who gave freely and willingly their time, effort and cooperation.

You will be hearing more about it, and those who request will receive a brochure telling about the landscape meetings. Bear in mind, however, that there will be three held in each of the schools listed above.

Congressman to Keynote County GOP Rally Dinner

Representative Henry Schadeberg of Wisconsin's First District will be keynote speaker at the Washington county Republican Lincoln Day rally and dinner scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 17, at St. Frances Cabrini hall in West Bend. The appearance of the Congressman has aroused much interest in political circles. The speaker, who has been highly successful in two careers, serves as a member of the House Committees on Veteran's Affairs, and the much discussed Un-American Activities.

Rep. Schadeberg, born in Manitowoc, worked his way through Carroll college at Waukesha, where he received a bachelor's degree with majors in economics and sociology. After attending Garrett Biblical Institute he was ordained into the ministry of the Methodist church. After serving student parishes at Lyons-Springfield, Spring Prairie, Oconto-Brookside, and Abrams, he became pastor of the Evansville and Orfordville Methodist churches.

World War 2 saw the entry of Schadeberg into the Naval Reserve as a chaplain, (Lt.j.g.). He served at the U. S. Naval Barrack Ammunition Depot, St. Juliene Creek, Virginia, until ordered to the heavy cruiser USS Louisville then operating in the Pacific area in the Philippine and Okinawa campaigns. After receiving a letter of commendation he was discharged from active duty in 1946, but he was recalled in 1952 to serve as senior chaplain in the U. S. Naval hospital at Bainbridge, Maryland. While in Maryland he took part in the early stages of the navy's Character Guidance program and also received special mention for his work in setting up ward devotionals in the hospital. In addition to his long service in the ministry, Schadeberg has been active in PTA, Rotary International, Boy Scouts and the American Legion where he was chaplain. He was also an active participant in the Burlington May Day U. S. Way which excited favorable comment throughout the U. S.

After winning election to the House of Representatives, Congressman Schadeberg continued to "make headlines" with a fresh approach to the problems of government. His second career has encouraged many citizens to take an active part in politics. The dynamic clergyman-Congressman is regarded with interest and admiration by many groups who believe he represents the ability of a man untrained in politics to win a campaign. Tickets to the 6:30 p. m. Feb. 17 GOP rally and dinner are available county-wide from members of the organization at a cost of $4.50 apiece. A delicious home-style roast beef dinner will be served, and distinguished guests will be on hand for an evening of fun and fellowship.

Dear Editor:

For us to say just "Thank You" to the wonderful people of Wisconsin seems hardly enough for the fine spirit and cooperation they have shown through their support in the 1961 Christmas Seal campaign.

We know that many persons have helped in their own way—many through contributions to the campaign or through service as volunteers working in behalf of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association to conduct the campaign. Others help keep Christmas Seals in the minds of their people, as you have done through your news columns.

Each of these individuals knows, we are sure, that tuberculosis is a grave public health problem; that it can and does strike without warning in any home at any time; that much remains to be done in Wisconsin if we are to conquer it; and that the support for those who are doing the job must come from many generous people as it has in this campaign.

Each who has helped can share our satisfaction in the progress that has been and is being made in the fight against TB. And each can rest assured that the fight will be continued until TB is no longer a problem and a threat to the security of their families.

Others who have not yet answered their Christmas Seal letter can share in the fight by sending their gift to the local Christmas Seal representative, as the campaign will not officially close until March 31.

Again, to those who are helping, THANK YOU.

Sincerely,
Cecelia F. Stanton
Christmas Seal Director,
WATA

ASSOCIATION FOR RETARDED CHILDREN TO MEET FEB. 12

The Washington County Association for Retarded Children will hold its monthly meeting on Monday evening, Feb. 12, at 7:45 p. m., at Fair Park school in West Bend.

Franklin Schneider, executive director of the Wisconsin Council for Retarded Children, will be the speaker for the evening. He will discuss workshop procedures and help stimulate ideas for expanding present facilities in West Bend. The association hopes for a good membership attendance and cordially invites all other interested persons of Washington county to attend. The workshop, on a full time basis, is the answer for most of the retarded as to what they will be doing after they are finished with their schooling. This should be of vital interest to residents of this county. A social hour with lunch will follow the meeting.

During cold weather Wisconsin ruffed grouse thrive in loose snow which they use for roosting, but can be hurt by heavy crusts or no snow at all.

March of Dimes Helps Dry Youngster's Tears of Pain

Anthony Ryan wasn't normally a crybaby. But at 10 months he began crying almost incessantly, and at times even screamed.

His loving parents in Philadelphia were nearly out of their minds. With four other small children, the household was pandemonium. No one appeared to know precisely what was causing the infant's dreadful paroxysms of pain.

Eight months and countless tears later, the cause of Anthony's agony was at last diagnosed as rheumatoid arthritis, seemingly afflicting every area of his tiny body.

It's 11 years now since Anthony was stricken. He will limp the rest of his life; he cannot play baseball today with the other boys in the block, and he is still in a great deal of pain. As a matter of fact, until just a short time ago he couldn't even turn his head.

Science has not yet licked the problem of Anthony and of thousands of children like him. There is still no simple, accurate test for the early diagnosis of rheumatoid arthritis, although the outlook is hopeful. But many rheumatologists would agree today that had modern diagnostic tools been available to him, and had Anthony been examined immediately by a "team" of specialists in the medical and allied professions—the group of orthopedists, pediatricians, laboratory research scientists, physical therapists and others now available in March of Dimes-financed treatment centers in many parts of the nation—Anthony today might be skating with the other kids on the frozen pond at the bottom of Prince Circle where he lives.

Although much of the injury done to Anthony in past years is irreparable, doctors at a new arthritis treatment center at Philadelphia Children's Hospital, sponsored by five March of Dimes chapters in the area, check him regularly to ease his pain and avoid further damage.

ON EAST COAST, Dr. John D. Bridgers, director of March of Dimes Arthritis Treatment Center at Children's Hospital, Philadelphia, examines Anthony Ryan, 12 years.

ON WEST COAST, identical twins Cathy and Carol Gile, 7 years, are greeted at March of Dimes Congenital Defects Clinic in University of Washington Hospital, Seattle.

This same "team approach" is also employed by the ever-growing number of National Foundation-March of Dimes chapter-sponsored clinics for treatment of birth defects, another area in which the health organization is concentrating. Infants with any of hundreds of major birth defects are now examined by as many as 12 specialists at each clinic, working together as a team that might include a pediatrician, neurosurgeon, urologist, orthopedist and internist as well as others.

For instance, consider the perils from one birth defect that surrounded Cathy and Carol Gile, identical 8-year-old twins of Vancouver, Wash. From birth, the children have been seriously ill with a succession of maladies—pneumonia (each six times), ear infections (again, each six times) and other disorders which have meant prolonged hospitalization. Both were found to be afflicted with an inherited lack of antibodies, the substances in the blood which combat bacteria.

At the University of Washington Hospital, Seattle, where 86 March of Dimes chapters in Washington, Idaho and Alaska have financed a birth defects clinic, the attractive little girls twice monthly are given injections which literally keep them alive.

The Seattle "team" at the March of Dimes clinic watches over the twins devotedly.

There are tens of thousands of Anthonys and Cathys and Carols in the United States today. One reason The National Foundation-March of Dimes turned to these diseases three years ago is that almost 700 babies are born each day in this country with significant birth defects, accounting for more than 21,000 deaths each year. Crippling rheumatoid arthritis affects 30,000 children and adolescents—apart from the overall toll of 11 million American victims of rheumatic diseases.

An increasing number of sufferers from these two cruel handicaps are receiving treatment from the specialist "teams" at March of Dimes-financed chapter clinics. As more funds become available, additional centers will be established to provide medical care for even more victims of chronic crippling disease.

STURGEON SPEARING SEASON OPENS FEB. 10

The rabbit season closed on Jan. 31. The pheasant season remains open in Milwaukee county until Feb. 15, 1962, hunting permitted with bow and arrow only. Except for shooting preserves and shooting game farms, the remainder of the state closed on Nov. 12, 1961.

The sturgeon spearing season on Lake Winnebago will open on Feb. 10, and close on March 1. A special license is required. The season on Lakes Poygan and Winneconne is two days, Feb. 17 and 18. The bag limit is one per season and the minimum length is forty inches. Each year we are asked a question several times—whether or not skin diving equipment may be used for spearing sturgeon. The answer is "NO."

This past week end, with the temperature in the high thirties, found many ice fishermen on the lakes of Washington and Ozaukee counties. Fishing was fair for walleyes at Pike lake, northerners at Drickens, Pike and Big Cedar. Fishing for bluegills was fair to good at Five, Bark, Big Cedar and Pike lakes. A few large perch were caught at Big Cedar.

Before starting your fishing trip, check your license. A new one is now required. The license you purchased last summer expired on Dec. 31, 1961.

The use of a box trap for the taking of rabbits is limited to the property owner who resides in a city, village or area where the discharge of firearms is prohibited by law. This section was placed in the statutes to allow him to protect his property from rabbit damage. It does not allow him to place or the property of another for the purpose of providing meat for the table.

Most adults overlook the value of play and amusement in life. Some, we must admit, over-emphasize it.

Booklet Lists Items Subject to Sales Tax

If you wonder whether a particular item is subject to the new Wisconsin selective sales and use tax, a booklet just issued by the Wisconsin Department of Taxation probably has the answer.

A copy of the booklet is available for reference at the Kewaskum Statesman office.

"About 98% of the questions we have been receiving about taxability of tangible property can be answered by referring to the lists in the booklet," said John A. Gronouski, state commissioner of taxation.

Copies are available at public libraries and banks and may be obtained by request from the Wisconsin Sales and Use Tax Division, Madison 2.

All persons and firms selling taxable items are liable for the 3% tax on sales made effective Feb. 1, Gronouski said. Any such firms which have not yet obtained $2 Seller's Permits are subject to the tax as of Feb. 1 but have been granted an extension to Feb. 15 to obtain the required permits.

NAVY OFFERS SHORTER ENLISTMENT PERIODS

Chief Boatswain's Mate Otto H. Bohren, recruiter in charge, navy recruiting station, post office, Sheboygan, announced that men who have formerly served with the regular navy may now reenlist in the regular navy for two, three, four or six years providing they still meet the physical, mental and age requirements.

The navy formerly required four or six year reenlistments, the chief said. Reasons for the shorter terms of reenlistment were not given. "Prior-trained navy men have a variety of potential skills," the chief said, "and training that was received in a former enlistment is desirable for the expansion of our naval forces."

Complete information will be available from the navy recruiter in room 214, post office building, or inquiries may be made by calling GLencourt 7-3940.

First Place Chevs Win 8th Straight At Horicon, 82-66

KEWASKUM ONLY UNBEATEN TEAM AS BEAVER DAM LOSES FIRST GAME

The league leading, undefeated Kewaskum Chevs won their eighth straight game of the season and second in a row in the second half of play at Horicon Saturday night, 82-66.

Kewaskum now is the only unbeaten team in the Lakes league as Beaver Dam, which split up its team last week, end so that it could also participate in the Mt. Calvary tournament, was upset by Menomonee Falls for its first defeat of the season, 80-71. The Beavers and Chevs both had 6-0 records in first half play but still haven't played each other, with a first half make-up still pending to decide the title. Their scheduled contest in the first half was cancelled because of a snowstorm and must be made up.

Beaver Dam's setback dropped them to third place in this half, while the Chevs and Mayville are tied for the lead with 2-0 records. Kewaskum is scheduled to play Mayville here Saturday night to settle the tie but this tilt may be called off because of the Mt. Calvary tourney. The Chevs meet Reedsville in tournament action Friday night. If they lose they must play again Saturday afternoon and in that case the Mayville game will be postponed. If the Chevs win at Mt. Calvary they will not play until Sunday night and if this happens the Saturday night tilt with Mayville will take place. Anyone wanting to attend the game should call Manager Leroy Bier or any one of the players Saturday to find out whether the affair will be played that night.

Kewaskum outscored Horicon in every quarter but the third and led throughout the game. They were on top 18-13 at the quarter, 47-29 at halftime, 63-50 at the third period and 82-66 at the final horn. Guard Al Tennes was the top scorer for the Chevs with 20 points, followed by Don Meisenheimer with 18. John Wrucke also scored 20 for Horicon and Floyd Marks added 18. Each team sank 14 free throws.

Chevs Win 2 Games in Mt. Calvary Tourney, Move Into Semi-Finals

For the first time since competing in the meet, the Kewaskum Chevrolets of the Land o' Lakes league won their first two games in the Mt. Calvary Invitational basketball tournament over the week end to advance to the semi-finals this week end.

In the third and last game of the night last Thursday the Chevs blasted the host Mt. Calvary team, 81-59, and Sunday afternoon Kewaskum defeated The Loft team of Oshkosh, 65-56. Three games were played Thursday night, three Friday night, four Saturday and seven Sunday. Sixteen teams are participating in the meet. The tourney opened on the week end of Feb. 1-4, continues Feb. 8-11, and winds up next week end.

The Chevs will resume action in the tourney Friday night when they face Reedsville in the first game at 7 p. m. Should they lose, Kewaskum will play again Saturday afternoon but if they win the next start will be in the semi-finals Sunday night. In between their two tournament games, the Chevs played a league contest at Horicon Saturday night.

Leading the team to the win over Mt. Calvary Thursday were Don Meisenheimer with 18 points, Augie Bilgo and Tom Larson with 15 apiece, and Frank Krueger with 14. G. Wagner and Reider tied for honors for the losers with 14 each. The Chevs outscored Calvary by far in every quarter but the last, leading 16-7, at the quarter, 36-22 at the half, and 57-36 at the end of the third period.

The going was rougher against Oshkosh Sunday. Kewaskum built up a nice 18-12 lead and then was outpointed 10-5 in a low scoring second quarter to lead by only 23-22 at the intermission. The Chevs bounced back to go ahead 44-35 in the third stanza and increased the margin one more point to run the final count to 64-56. Larson was the big gun in this one, copping scoring laurels with 23 points. Meisenheimer added 15. Jim Damm and Terry True scored 13 and 12 respectively for The Loft.

Other teams in the meet besides those already mentioned above are New Holstein, Don's Bar of Fond du Lac, St. Mary's of Fond du Lac, Port Washington, Hewitt's Machine of Neenah, Quasius Brothers of Sheboygan, St. Cloud, St.

Peter Lanes, Oshkosh Auto Parts, Haberkorn's Bar of Oshkosh, Rex's Bar of Sheboygan and Beaver Dam Land o' Lakes team.

BROWNIE SCOUTS PLAN ROLLER SKATING PARTY

A roller skating party will be held for the Brownie troops of the area at the Artistic Roller Rink from 1:30 to 4 p. m. on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 10. The many troops and leaders who will participate include Troop 25 of Kewaskum, Mrs. Schaub and Mrs. Marx, leaders.

Indians Tip Pewaukee, Take Over 2nd Place

RANDOM LAKE CLINCHES CONFERENCE TITLE

The Kewaskum Indians tripped up Pewaukee there Friday, 46-38, to move into second place in the Scenic Moraine conference by virtue of Slinger's defeat at the hands of Campbellsport. The win was the Indians' 8th in 11 games and gives them an 8-3 record.

At the same time Random Lake wrapped up the conference championship with an easy 74-45 victory over Grafton. The Lakers have a perfect 12-0 record to date and hold a 3½ game lead over Kewaskum with only two contests left to play. The Indians have three games remaining and regardless of the outcome of these will conclude a successful season.

The Indians had to come from behind in the final quarter to snatch the win at Pewaukee. They held a one-point, 11-10 lead at the quarter but bogged down in the second stanza, being outscored 12-6, and fell behind at halftime, 22-17. Kewaskum then outpointed Pewaukee, 14-12, to narrow the gap to 34-31 at the end of the third period. A big final quarter in which they ran over their opponents, 15-4, gave the Indians an easy 46-38 win.

Dave Oppermann and Bill Koepke paved the way for the winners with 19 and 17 points respectively. Meyer's 12 points were high for Pewaukee.

The Indians have their work cut out for them this Friday when they entertain unbeaten Random Lake, which already has the title sewed up. Kewaskum would like nothing better than to hand the Lakers their first and only setback but this is a Herculean task. Still the Indians played them on even terms on Random Lake's own floor earlier, losing by one point on a freak free throw after the game had ended that broke a tie.
