Kewaskum Chapter Observes FFA Week

BOYS CARRY OUT VARIOUS PROJECTS IN THEIR FARMING PROGRAMS

This week special recognition is being given to Future Farmers of America, not only locally, but on a national scale. For it is this week that National FFA Week is being observed.

It is interesting to note the reason for observing FFA Week during the week of Washington's birthday; although primarily recognized as our first president, Washington's first love was for his farm in Mount Vernon. There he was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotation and fertilization as well as other soil improvement and conservation practices. It wasn't until a century after his death that these practices became general.

It is also Brotherhood Week and future farmers know this well for at the opening ceremony of each meeting the president asks the members, "Why are we here?" and they respond, "to practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and develop those qualities of leadership a future farmer should possess."

The Kewaskum chapter started in 1951 with Dan Scheid as the first advisor. The present scale of officers are President Ronald Gross, Vice-President John Theusch, Secretary David Williams, Sentinel Russell Breit, Treasurer David McChain, and Reporter Gene Krause. The first president of the local chapter was Sylvester Hawig.

The Kewaskum chapter has had a number of "Wisconsin Farmers." This high degree is given in recognition of outstanding work during high school years as an agriculture student. The award is based on leadership, cooperation, earning and saving in his farming program, and for doing outstanding work in specific phases of the farm operation. He must also be in the top half of his class scholastically. The first "state farmers" at Kewaskum were Delbert Haack and Carl Meyer.

This year the local chapter has recommended three boys to the degree. They are John Theusch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Greg. Theusch; Chuck Hiller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hiller, and Ron Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Gross. If these three boys are voted on by the state association, they will represent the top 2% of vo-ag boys in the state.

The boys not only study agriculture in the classroom, but carry their learnings process to the farm. Some of the most popular projects the boys carry out in their farming programs are swine, dairy crops and forestry.

The swine project is an excellent project for boys, for it has the advantage of quick turnover and allows the boys to get started on a limited amount of capital. The swine projects gained momentum while Orval Behnke served as agriculture instructor, for with the help of the local Kiwanis, a chapter gilt ring was formed and has

Don Gilford Dies of Heart Attack Monday

Donald Joseph Gilford, 54, well known tavernkeeper at Boltonville, died unexpectedly of a heart attack at St. Joseph's hospital, West Bend, on Monday morning, Feb. 19. He suffered the attack while driving along the highway near Newburg and was rushed to the hospital by the Newburg rescue squad.

Mr. Gilford was born Feb. 17, 1908 in Milwaukee, a son of the late Daniel and Rose Gilford. He married the former Edna Degner Oct. 5, 1935 at Holy Angels church, West Bend. They moved to their present home in 1938.

Don served four years in the U. S. Marines and one and one-half years in the U. S. Navy. He was also a U. S. reservist for several years.

Survivors include the widow, a son, Harold, and a daughter, Sharon, both of R. 1, Kewaskum; a daughter-in-law, Sandra Gilford, R. 1, Kewaskum; a granddaughter, Renee; a sister, Irene (Mrs. Edward Fabitz), and a brother, Delbert Gilford, both of Milwaukee.

The body was in state at Miller's Funeral home, Kewaskum, after 2 p. m. Wednesday. Funeral services were held at 8:30 a. m. Thursday from the funeral home and at 9 a. m. at St. John of God Catholic church in the town of Farmington. The Rev. Matthew Urban officiated and burial took place in the church cemetery.

Japanese Missionary at St. Lucas Parish Sunday

Pastor Richard Seeger, in the states on furlough after five years of mission work in Japan, will be the guest speaker in both morning services at St. Lucas Lutheran church this Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Seeger, whose home is in Milwaukee, expects to return to the "Land of the Rising Sun" some time this summer.

The missionary will present a slide lecture at St. Lucas church Sunday evening. This will be an informal presentation depicting the work of the church in Japan.

The morning services begin at 8:00 a. m. and 10:15 a. m.; the evening slide-lecture at 8:00 p. m.

WIVES LEAVE TO JOIN HUSBANDS IN SERVICE

Mrs. Russell Rodenkirch, Kewaskum, and Mrs. Paul Albinger, West Bend, left last Thursday by car to join their husbands, who are in service and are residing at Enterprise, Ala. while taking a 10-week course at an aircraft mechanical school near Enterprise.

Mrs. Rodenkirch was feted at a farewell party at the Hon-E-Kor Country club last Tuesday evening by the office girls of Regal Ware, Inc., where she was an employee.

MOVE TO WEST BEND

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kaiser and daughters moved over the week end from the upper apartment of the Mrs. Lena Belger home on E. Main st. to West Bend.

Area Hit by Two Severe Snow Storms Within Four Days

HEAVY, DRIFTING SNOWS CLOSE SCHOOLS, CREWS BATTLE TO OPEN ROADS

Two major snow storms in four days, each dumping from five to seven inches of new snow on the area, hit this vicinity on Sunday and again on Wednesday. Accompanying winds drifting and poor visibility caused most schools to close, activities to be cancelled, and kept highway crews busy battling to clear streets and highways.

County and village crews and shovelers were still busy plowing, sanding, hauling snow, shoveling and digging out from Sunday's storm when a second one of almost equal ferocity hit the area on Wednesday. The two latest storms brought the total snowfall for the winter to over four feet. And at this writing the weatherman faithfully promised that we could look forward to more heavy snow on Friday.

All Kewaskum schools were closed on Monday as buses could not cover their routes following Sunday's blinding storm. During Wednesday's storm the high school and public schools closed at noon while buses could transport rural pupils to their homes. Holy Trinity school also closed earlier. Most scheduled meetings and other activities were cancelled or postponed as people devoted their time to "shoveling out."

About all there was to be seen on the streets most of the week was snow plows, sanders, snow loaders, trucks hauling snow and persons shoveling walks, driveways and digging out cars. In one glance out of the window Thursday we saw a village loader and trucks, county plow, county sander, jeep plowing out one church parking lot, tractor plowing out another and three snow shovelers all at one time.

All around town it is common to see huge snow piles from six to 12 feet high. Village crews have been working overtime, day and night, plowing and hauling snow. County crews have been working almost around the clock in heroic efforts to keep highways clear, open side roads, and keep abreast of the snow. The roads are banked by such mountains of snow that any wind drifts them closed again. Many residents on side roads were isolated for a time as the plows were battling to keep main arteries open. Many privately owned tractors, plows and snow throwers were put into use.

Fire Dept. Donates 12 Picnic Tables for Park

To take your mind off the mountains of snow outside and the long, cold winter and switch your thoughts to more pleasant weather to come (we hope), and things like green grass, picnics, barbecues, swimming and shorts, this is an appropriate time to announce that the fire department has donated 12 picnic tables to the village for use in the village park.

These are sturdy tables with a capacity for seating six persons comfortably. The total cost to the firemen of having the tables built amounted to several hundred dollars. The picnic tables have all been painted green and will be placed into use in the park this spring. The park will now have a total of approximately 35 picnic tables.

Additional picnic tables were needed at the park and bathing beach and thanks should go to the fire department for supplying the need.

To Canvass Village on Heart Saturday, Feb. 24

The month-long 1962 Heart Fund drive will reach a high point on Heart Saturday, Feb. 24, when our local volunteers will carry the fight against the heart diseases to the threshold of every family in Kewaskum.

Volunteers will canvass the residential sections of the community to distribute health-saving information about the heart diseases and to accept Heart Saturday contributions, according to A. G. Hron, village co-chairman.

The letter appeal canvass in the Kewaskum rural area will be one of 10,000 being conducted at approximately the same time by more than 1,500,000 volunteers throughout the nation," said Arnold Prost, rural area co-chairman. Our volunteer army, as in past years, will consist of men and women who feel that the battle against heart and blood vessel diseases made possible by Heart Fund contributions is worthy of a few hours of personal effort in addition to their own contribution," he said. In each letter appeal request you will find a leaflet containing valuable information about heart attacks and other heart and blood vessel diseases, Prost said.

The bigger the executive the less work he performs.

ASK RESIDENTS HELP TO DIG OUT HYDRANTS

Fire Chief Armin Oppermann called the Statesman office on Thursday morning to ask for help and cooperation of all Kewaskum residents in shoveling out fire hydrants on or near their property which are buried or partially buried by the snow as a result of the heavy snowfalls. This is for the protection of the residents and to aid the firemen in the event of a fire. Your cooperation will be appreciated.

K-M Recreation Ass'n. Meets Here

APPROVE BROCHURE PLANS; 25 NEW MEMBERS BRING MEMBERSHIP TO 75

At the regular monthly meeting held last Monday at the Republican Hotel, the Northern Kettle Moraine Recreation association approved committee plans for the area brochure which has been a topic of discussion for several months.

Approximately 25 new businesses were accepted as members, increasing the membership to about 75. It is the intention of the association to include every business within the area, thereby creating a powerful group whose sole purpose is promoting the northern Kettle Moraine as a definite vacation and recreation area.

Any business interested in joining this progressive organization should contact Harlow Roate in Campbellsport, Jack Mott in New Prospect, John Zwick at Lake Seven or Dick Edwards in Kewaskum. The next meeting will be held on Mar. 12 at the Mauthe lake ranger station.

FFA BOYS PRESENT KIWANIS PROGRAM

FFA students at Kewaskum Community High school presented a program at the Monday evening meeting of the Kiwanis club at the Republican Hotel.

David Schaefer gave a talk on the FFA boy and the farm short course. David attended the University of Wisconsin short course during the 1960-61 session on a bank scholarship.

The snowstorm cancelled the second part of the program that was to be put on by four Future Farmers of the high school, Jack Theusch, Ron Gross, Lee Schmidt and Russ Breit.

Advisor Roy Esser substituted and gave a talk on the history and working of the Future Farmer organization.

SPECIAL BUSINESS MEET MONDAY FOR DAIRY DAY

The Kewaskum Business association will hold a special Dairy Day meeting at the municipal building on Monday evening, Feb. 26. Every member of the association is urged to attend since there are several other important issues to be discussed.

This meeting will be in place of the regular monthly meeting which should have been held last Monday.

Any business wishing to reserve booth space for Dairy Day should contact Kilian Honeck as soon as possible. Available space will be issued on a first come, first served basis.

ENGAGEMENT MADE KNOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Laatsch of Boltonville on Valentine's Day announced the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to David Junk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Junk, R. 1, Kewaskum (St. Michaels). An early fall wedding is planned.

A nation is as strong as its average citizen.

KEWASKUM 4-H'ERS

The meeting was called to order on Feb. 8 by our president, Mariel Seefeldt, at 7:30 p. m. Leroy Butzlaff and James Giese led the pledges. Roll call was taken with each member answering by naming a wild animal.

Three new members have joined our club, bringing our membership up to forty-three. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were given and accepted.

A report on the results of the constitution committee was given by Diane Ramel. Karen Oelhafen reported on the window display committee and a report on the program committee was given by Mariel Seefeldt.

Those participating in the Music and Drama Festival met on Thursday, Feb. 15, at the theater. We will be performing during the afternoon performance of the Music and Drama Festival on Feb. 25 in West Bend.

Mr. Konkol of the conservation department at Mauthe lake was our guest speaker for the evening. He showed us a very interesting movie on conservation. Bob Stodola, 4-H club agent, was also present for the evening.

Charles Bunkelman, Carlton Seefeldt, Diane Ramel, and Judy Bade are on the refreshment committee for our next meeting March 8.

AUBURN 4-H CLUB

The meeting of the Auburn 4-H club was held at the home of Mrs. Lorina Petermann on Feb. 3 at 2:00. We each named a president and told about him. The secretary's report was read and accepted. We said the pledge of allegiance.

OURS CLEANERS QUIPS:

Are you a home presser? Here's a tip for you — always press garments on the wrong side or use a pressing cloth—even when using a steam iron.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Mrs. Petermann talked about our projects and talent night. We planned to have a sewing meeting. Mary Jane Bales had a demonstration on how to make a mosaic tray.

Cathy and Linda Nigh were in charge of recreation. We then had a delicious lunch served by Mrs. Petermann.

Chevs Beat West Bend,
68-53, Tie for First

A strong second half comeback gave the Kewaskum Chevs a rather easy 68-53 victory over the West Bend Lithias here Saturday night. The win was the team's third in four games in the second half and boosted them into a three-way tie for first place with Mayville and Menomonee Falls in the Lakes circuit.

The play was close in a real low scoring first half. The Chevs led by only one point, 15-14, at the quarter and still by a point, 27-26, at the intermission. Kewaskum then returned to the floor and outscored West Bend by good margins in the next two periods. They were ahead, 51-44, at the end of the third quarter and outpointed the Lithias, 17-9, in the last period to pull away and win by a margin of 15 points.

Tall center Tom Larson was the offensive star of the game, taking scoring honors by far with 21 points. Augie Bilgo, Otto Ramthun and Al Tennes each contributed 10 points, eight of Bilgo's coming in the final period. High scorers for the Lithias were R. Giombetti and R. Dedrick, each with 12 points. West Bend made good on 13 free throws and the Chevs on only 8.

The big game of the second half and one that will have an all-important bearing on the championship will be played this Sunday when Kewaskum goes to Beaver Dam. The Beavers and Chevs tied for first place in the first half but still have a makeup contest to play to decide the title winner in that half. In the only meeting between the two teams this season Beaver Dam beat the Chevs by 12 points in the Mt. Calvary tournament and Kewaskum will have to be at its very best to take this high powered, pressing team.

People respond best to gentleness—so do auto brakes. The Institute for Safer Living warns that sudden or sharp braking on wintry roads may produce a skid on surfaces filmed with snow or ice; braking distances may be increased from three to twelve times the dry road distances. Winterwise motorists apply brakes gently, evenly, and allow time for stopping.

FFA Week

The top dairy project is herd testing and is perhaps the most valuable project to the home farm for it takes the guess work out of the dairy business and determines the profitable cow from the boarders.

In the field, corn projects blend best to a teaching situation for here the boys get a number of different varieties of corn to plant and care for. The fall of the year is final test time when samples are taken and yields calculated. This type of project along with projects like herd testing and record keeping makes farming a business for the boys.

The Kewaskum chapter has planted over 5,000 trees a year on the nome farms.

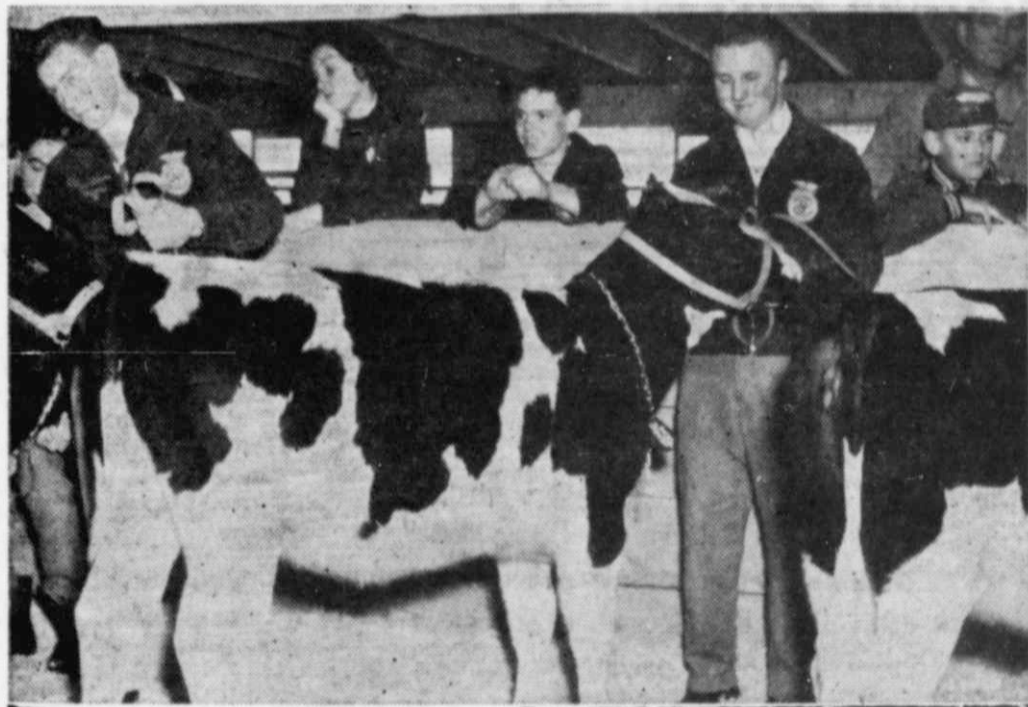

This work is an intregral part of FFA and classroom agriculture. This type of learning is stressed in the FFA motto "Learning to Do— Doing to Learn — Earning to Live — Living to Serve."

FFA for All Farm Boys Studying Agriculture

Feb. 17-24 is National FFA Week.

The Future Farmers of America is the national organization of, by, and for farm boys studying vocational agriculture in public secondary schools which operate under the provisions of the National Vocational Education Acts. It is an educational, non-political farm youth organization of voluntary membership, designed to develop agriculture leadership, character, thrift, scholarship, cooperation, citizenship, and patriotism. Boys must be enrolled in vocational agriculture to become eligible for membership. They may retain their membership for three years following their graduation from high school or until they are 21 years of age, whichever length of time is the greater.

Through participating experience in the Future Farmers of America, members learn how to take part in meetings, to follow parliamentary procedure, to speak in public, and to cooperate with their fellow students in program for individual and community betterment. Local chapters sponsor recreation activities, organize educational tours, conduct safety and home improvement campaigns, and hold parent-son banquets.

Many FFA activities are designed to stimulate the boys to do better work in vocational agriculture. The advancement thru degrees in the organization is based largely on achievement in farming. Awards offered through the FFA Foundation stimulate increased effort by the students. Included among these awards are awards for outstanding achievement in soil and water management, farm mechanics, farm electrification, farm forestry. A national chapter award program recognizes local chapters that have outstanding programs of activities. Awards also are provided for farm safety promotion by chapters.

COUNTY DEMOCRATS WILL MEET AT HARTFORD FEB. 25

The Washington County Democratic Party will hold its February meeting at the Hartford city hall, room 25, on Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m.

Jim Wimmer and Warren Sawall, two of Governor Nelson's assistants, will be on hand to conduct a question and answer program on current issues.

Final arrangements will be made for the annual smelt fry to be held April 1 at the Richfield firemen's hall. Ray Doyle and Larry Harty will report on the Chairman's Conference held in Milwaukee recently.

Candidates for county office are urged to be in attendance and make their intentions known to the membership.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Indians, Cedarburg Meet in Sub-Regional Tournament Playoff

The Kewaskum Indians, who hold second place in the Scenic Moraine conference, will play Cedarburg of the Braveland conference in a WIAA sub-regional tournament playoff game at Cedarburg on Monday evening, Feb. 26, at 7:30 p. m.

Winner of this playoff contest will become eligible to compete in the regular sub-regional tournament at Cedarburg on March 1 and 2, along with Port Washington and Homestead, also of the Braveland conference, and West Bend of the Little Ten loop.

Coach Walt Bade of the Indians expressed disappointment in having to enter a playoff in order to become eligible for the sub-regional meet. His second place team finished higher than either Cedarburg, Homestead or West Bend did in their conferences and he does not feel it is fair to be forced into a playoff. However, the WIAA felt that Kewaskum was up against a weaker class of competition among the smaller schools of the Scenic conference. Because of its larger enrollment, Kewaskum must compete in regional tournament play while all other schools in its conference enter the district tournaments, which are for the smaller schools.

Both the winner and consolation winner in the Cedarburg sub-regional meet will advance to the Beaver Dam regional finals on Saturday evening, March 3, to face the winner and consolation winner in that city's sub-regional tourney. The championship winner at Beaver Dam will then advance to the sectional tournament at West Bend the following week, March 9 and 10, to compete against the winners of three other regional meets. Last year's state champion, Lincoln High school of Milwaukee, will be one of the teams in the West Bend sectional if they survive Whitefish Bay regional play and they are expected to do so. Winners in the Menomonee Falls regional and Campbellsport district meets will also play in the West Bend sectional.

Because there is ample seating capacity in the spacious Cedarburg gymnasium, there will be no reserved seats sold for the Kewaskum-Cedarburg playoff game Monday. Admission will be $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for students. Reserved seat tickets for the sub-regional meet next Thursday and Friday at Cedarburg can be purchased at the local high school and they can also be purchased at the door. Prices are $1.75 for adults and $1.00 for students.

Indians Edge Slinger, Regain Second Place

In a battle for the second place position in the Scenic Moraine conference here Friday Kewaskum moved a half game ahead of Slinger by shading the Owls, 66-64, in a torrid contest.

The Indians had to come from behind in the final quarter to nudge stubborn Slinger, which had defeated them in an earlier outing. Kewaskum accumulated a fine 20-13 lead at the quarter but had it cut down to three points, 36-33, at halftime. Slinger outpointed the Indians in the third period, 17-12, to take the lead, 50-48. But Kewaskum roared back in the closing minutes to a 64-64 tie and won the game on a last second, sensational basket by Ewert.

A 19 point scoring effort by Bill Koepke and 18 by Dave Oppermann paced the Indians' victory. They were outshone though by Jerry Geldnich and Don Held of Slinger, who scored 23 and 20 points respectively.

All of the conference teams have completed their schedule except Kewaskum and Germantown, which have a makeup game this Friday at Germantown. The Indians must win to take sole possession of second place. A loss will give Slinger a tie for the second spot. Germantown has been coming strong, winning their last three games, and the Indians are sure to have their hands full.

New Gas Co. Building Now Open to Public

Milwaukee Gas Light Company's new West Bend customer service building was opened to the public on Tuesday, Feb. 13. The split level structure, located on the corner of Sixth ave. and Elm st., replaces facilities leased by the Gas Company for the last several years.

Constructed of split faced stone, redwood, glass and aluminum, the structure offers enlarged and improved facilities for company customers in the area. More than seven thousand customers in 19 surrounding communities will be served by the new building.

The center's glass enclosed street floor has a large appliance display area. Located in a decorative kitchen setting, the appliances serve as a demonstration area and as a source of kitchen planning ideas. Soft tones of beige, gold and brown dominate the first floor.

An enlarged customer service and interview area is located towards the rear of the first floor. Here customers may request gas or appliance service, make inquiries or pay their gas bills. Free parking is provided building visitors on an adjacent lot.

The building's lower level features the Hall of Flame auditorium. Large enough to seat 100 persons, the auditorium is available at no charge to local civic, youth and women's groups. Reservations for the hall can be made by contacting Gas Company manager, Frank Sprtel.

A demonstration kitchen in the Hall of Flame is equipped for appliance and cooking demonstrations conducted by the Gas Company's Home Service Department. An angle mirror has been placed over the range to aid the audience in following each step of a demonstration. Additional cooking and refrigeration appliances are located off stage.

Adjacent to the Hall of Flame is a lounge area designed as a meeting place for company customers and other downtown shoppers. Restrooms and a public telephone are also provided as a customer service.

Colorful panels decorated with clowns and circus performers give the lower level display a carnival atmosphere. A revolving carousel offers a rotating display of new gas appliances. Gas Company representatives will always be available to demonstrate the appliances and refer interested buyers to local merchants.

In addition to public service and appliance display areas, space has been provided for fleet parking, parts and meter storage and employee assembly areas, for better and more efficient service to customers. The enlarged office area will enable the Gas Company to retain more records and customer information than was previously possible.

KEMPF-GALABINSKE

During a 7 p. m. wedding ceremony performed in St. John's Lutheran church, New Fane, by the Rev. Arthur Haupt on Saturday, Feb. 10, Lawrence Galabinske Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Galabinske Sr., Kewaskum, claimed Miss Kathleen Elsie Kempf, daughter of Mrs. Lauretta Kempf, R. 1, Kewaskum, as his bride.

The bride's sheath dress of white brocade was long sleeved and had a square neckline with a bow accenting the waistline. Her shoulder length veil cascaded from a pearl trimmed crown and she carried white hyacinths and pink camellias.

The honor attendant, Mrs. Theodore Griepentrog, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaid, Miss Lula Belle Galabinske, were dressed identically in lavender sheath dresses designed with a round neckline, short sleeves, and a street length skirt. Their pill box hats, holding short veils were fashioned of matching material. Both carried yellow roses and white and yellow carnations in heart shaped bouquets.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Gerald Backhaus, while Gary Bohn was groomsman. Guests were placed by Robert Butzke and William Janssen.

A reception at the Labor Center in Kewaskum followed the ceremony.

The young couple is now home in the Trend apartment house on Kewaskum st. in the village. The bridegroom, a Kewaskum High school graduate, is employed at Regal Ware, Inc.

Deaths

MRS. LOUIS MAUPIN

Mrs. Louis Maupin of 2714 N. Oakland ave., Milwaukee, a sister of Mrs. Arthur Manthei of Kewaskum, died unexpectedly at her home on Tuesday, Feb. 20, at the age of 62. Mrs. Maupin, a Milwaukee resident for many years, was the former Anita Bastian, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Bastian, West Bend.

Her husband predeceased her. Surviving are a son, James, of Milwaukee; five sisters and four brothers. Elizabeth (Mrs. Manthei), Esther (Mrs. Richard Gruenwald) of Indiana, Clarence of Milwaukee, Emma (Mrs. Richard Norman) of Cedarburg, Lorinda (Mrs. Fred Rosenthal) of West Bend, Harvey of the town of West Bend, Jacob of West Bend, Howard of R. 4, West Bend, and Margaret (Mrs. Dave Goldstein) of California.

Or maybe the new-size Chevy II is more to your liking. Built for big families and still slips neatly into small parking places. And, with this, the kind of ingenious engineering (new easy-riding Mono-Plate rear springs, for example) that won this year's coveted Car Life Magazine Award for Engineering Excellence.

But say you want to go all out—to get the full treatment in space, spirit and splendor. Then there's nothing like a Jet-smooth Chevrolet. Makes paying more pointless.
