Sgt. Bob Gruber Retires After 20 Years in Army

First Sgt. Robert Gruber arrived home recently after the completion of more than 20 years of service in the U. S. Army. He has been placed on a retired role from the army. Sgt. Gruber was accompanied here by his wife, the former Jeanette Serwe of Campbellsport, and his family.

For the past three years Sgt. Gruber had been stationed at Fort Hood, Tex. He entered the service before World War II, in September of 1940, and at that time was the eighth man from Kewaskum to enlist in the service. Sgt. Gruber began his training at Fort Bragg, N. C. and also trained at Camp Claiborne, La., Camp Breckinridge, Ky. and Camp Rucker, Ala. before being sent overseas. He served in the South Pacific area for 24 months during World War II. After the war he received his honorable discharge in December, 1945, and returned home for 2½ years, during which time he was employed at Regal Ware, Inc.

Sgt. Gruber re-enlisted in September of 1948 and served in the army since. Upon his re-enlistment he reported to Fort Jackson, S. C., then served at Fort Campbell, Ky. before being sent to Germany where he was stationed for 36 months. Returning to this country he spent three years in Milwaukee as advisor to reserve units. Then he was sent to Korea for 13 months before returning to Fort Hood, Tex. and spent three more years there before his retirement. Sgt. Gruber's wife and family were with him during his entire stay in the army except when he was stationed in Korea.

The most recent awards presented to Sgt. Gruber were the Certificate of Achievement from the Army Chief of Staff and the Army Commendation from the Secretary of the Army. He also won a number of awards during and after World War II.

Bob has returned to his employment at Regal Ware, Inc. The family has purchased a home from Marlin Schneider in the town of Kewaskum, west of the village, where they are now residing. He is a son of Mrs. John Gruber of Kewaskum and a brother of Gene, Harlan and Joe Gruber and Mrs. Alan Stutzman.

The community welcomes Bob back home and the Statesman welcomes him to our list of new subscribers.

The Easter Seal camp will be host to about 50 handicapped persons between the ages of 15 and 45. During the camp's last session, many of the severely handicapped persons come with attendants.

Buildings at camp have been designed and equipped to meet the special needs of the handicapped. All have ramped entrances and extra-wide swinging doors. Double rows of hand rails in the dormitories, wheel-in bath and shower rooms, and hydraulic lifters make care and movement of the campers easier.

Although severely disabled, the campers in this session will join in most of the camp activities, which have been modified to their abilities.

From this area Gilbert Reindl, R. 2, Kewaskum, is attending camp during this session.

Attends National Dealer Convention

KILLY HONECK AMONG 7,000 CHEVROLET DEALERS AT DETROIT SESSION

Killy Honeck of Honeck Chevrolet in Kewaskum was among approximately 7,000 Chevrolet dealers and dealership executives in Detroit recently to attend the largest convention of its kind ever held in the auto industry.

While in the Motor City, dealers previewed the spectacular new lines of 1964 Chevrolet cars and trucks to be introduced early this fall.

Arriving in Detroit at the rate of about 1,400 a day, the dealer guests were welcomed by top Chevrolet officials including Semon E. Knudsen, a General Motors vice president and general manager of the division, and Larry Averill, general sales manager.

Citing Chevrolet's all-time high rate of sales thus far this year the two executives told dealers that the division expects to surpass in 1963 its record performance in 1962 when Chevrolet set new industry sales marks.

As a highlight of the convention programs, dealers were treated to an advance look at the new car and truck models in a gala stage revue the equal of a Broadway musical comedy production.

A further feature was a display of the new vehicles and other specially designed engineering and auto show exhibits which filled the mammoth two acre area of Detroit's Cobo Hall exposition center. An evening banquet with General Motors executives followed.

In addition to being the largest and most elaborate of its kind in industry history, the convention marked the first time since 1936 that dealers had been invited to Detroit for such an event by Chevrolet.

Three West Bend Residents Hurt In Crash Here

Three residents of West Bend were injured in a two-car collision on Hwy. 45 about a half mile south of Kewaskum during a rain storm last Friday afternoon at about 3 p. m. A car driven by James A. Giombetti, 27, 349 S. 7th ave., West Bend, skidded on the wet pavement and collided with a southbound car driven by Sharon Lee Oelhafen, 18, of 523 3rd ave., West Bend.

The Oelhafen auto was pushed back about 10 feet by the impact, according to the report, which stated that Giombetti had passed a Fairmont Dairy truck of Kewaskum and was attempting to get back into his lane of traffic when his vehicle went into a skid and crashed almost headon into the Oelhafen car.

An auto driven by John Wahnschaffe, 1145 Midland ave., Kewaskum, was extensively damaged when the driver lost control and the vehicle left the road, mounted an embankment, struck a guide wire and rolled over at the intersection of Hwys. 55 and G, a short distance west of New Prospect at about 9 p. m. Sunday. Wahnschaffe's wife and children were passengers in his car and all suffered cuts and bruises. Mrs. Wahnschaffe and son Marvin were removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital in the local ambulance, but have since been released.

BAUMAN AWARDED LOCAL SCHOOL BUS CONTRACT

William Bauman, Campbellsport school bus contractor and milk hauler, was recently awarded the school bus contract for Kewaskum Community High school for the 1963-64 term.

Bauman had to add 11 new buses to his fleet to accommodate the contract. He purchased five new ones and acquired six used ones. He also has added two new buses to his Campbellsport High school fleet for a total of 12 there. In addition Bauman furnishes a bus for the Waucousta school district.

The Kewaskum school bus service was formerly contracted to the Johnson School Bus Service.

The Maiilles and Mrs. Lerrill were guests of the Rimmels several days last week.

25 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Dorwin Perkins and family moved from the Koch home just west of the A. G. Koch store on Main st. into the flat above the Gamble store a block west.

A group of young people, including Delores and Laverne Ramthun, Bernadine and Betty Laubach, Adeline Fellenz, Alice Bath, Alex Laubach, Roman Fellenz, Clarence Bath and Sylvester Herriges, enjoyed a picnic in Jim Koenen's woods Sunday. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Later refreshments and lunch was served.

Farmers are unable to get ahead with their work because of all the wet weather. Last Thursday's unusually heavy rain did considerable damage and flooded low lands.

Recent births included twins, a son and daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Petermann of the town of Auburn; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weddig, R. 1, Cedarburg, the former being a son of the John Weddigs of Kewaskum; a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boegel, town of Wayne; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Al Tischendorf, town of Auburn.

Miss Elva Schaefer of this village and Miss Lorraine Dahlin of Port Washington returned from an extended trip to California and the west coast.

Ulrich Kuntz, 84, of Kingfisher, Okla., one of the first subscribers to the Statesman when it was established 43 years ago by the late Charles W. Krahn, paid this office a surprise call and renewed his subscription. Mr. Kuntz has taken the paper continuously these 43 years and says he enjoys it as much as ever. He is a former resident of near St. Kilian.

Miss Janice Koch, who is employed in the office of the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Co. at West Bend, is spending a week's vacation with her parents, the Ervin Kochs, and her sister Audrey at their summer home at Forest lake.

Mrs. Christ Klumb and son Herbert of the town of Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klumb of this village returned from a week's vacation to Yellowstone National Park, Wyo. Dr. G. A. Landmann and son Gustav of Scotland, S. Dak. Dr. Paul Landmann of Joliet, Ill. and Paul Landmann of this village returned from a week's vacation and fishing trip to Ft. Frances, Ontario, Canada.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Aug. 24, 1913

A. L. Rosenheimer and J. B. Day, well known real estate men from this village, purchased the entire general merchandise stock of the Campbellsport Cooperative store.

The editor of the Statesman, George H. Schmidt, has succeeded Arthur W. Koch as postmaster of the village.

The fire department will again have its picnic this year on Aug. 31 in the South Side park. The committee of five has completed arrangements for the event. They are John P. Klassen, F. E. Colvin, John H. Martin, Jacob Schlosser and Chas. Groeschel.

Retiring postmaster Arthur W. Koch received a letter from the post office inspector at Chicago stating the U. S. Commissioner Charles Buell is holding William "Bid" Houlihan, Daniel Murphy, William Burns and James Moore, arrested July 9, by post office inspectors, for the federal grand jury which meets in September in Milwaukee. The men are charged with attempting to burglarize the post office of this village on July 6.

90° Weather Is Not Too Hot for Furnace Selling Gimmicks

Harvest time is furnace cleaning time, but many times it is the homeowner who gets raked, picked and plucked in the annual crop of furnace cleaning and selling rackets, warns Ray R. Pytel, trade practice investigator for the Wisconsin State Department of Agriculture.

"Already we are receiving complaints about some furnace cleaners who seem to find dangerous faults with almost every furnace they clean," Pytel said.

"These scare tactics ripen the victim for high-pressure plucking—the sale of a new furnace which may not have been necessary, or still worse, a new furnace which may not be up to standards and will not operate as good as the old one." Another trick which is often used by the unscrupulous operators is to send "advance" men posing as "furnace inspectors" or similar government officials. Once admitted to the house, they condemn the present unit as a fire hazard, and prepare the homeowner for the "kill" of an expert follow-up artist who always seems to have a "special deal" available to such unfortunate prospects.

Pytel stated that while only an "unscrupulous few" of the hundreds of the state's furnace firms resort to misrepresentation, deception or the deliberate misleading of homeowners, every year the trade practice section is required to investigate and take appropriate action in a considerable number of cases. Many of the firms who thrive on misrepresentation and use of scare tactics are itinerant, but others establish temporary "local" offices with names similar to reputable firms to gain an aura of respectability.

A new home improvement code recently put into effect by the State Department of Agriculture prohibits various misrepresentations, receptions and contract omissions in furnace sales not only by criminal prosecution with fines amounting to $5,000.00 or a year in jail or both, but the homeowner may sue for double damages and reasonable attorney's fees for proven violations of the new code. The supreme court has held also that contracts made in violation of an unfair trade practice code may be held void as a matter of law. "But," Pytel admonished, "it is better to take precaution before the killing frost than to try to salvage a rotten harvest later." The same applies to homeowners.

To be on the safe side, Pytel recommended six points for the home owner to consider before agreeing to either a furnace cleaning or a new installation:

- (1) Does the firm have a good reputation and is it reliable?
- (2) Are the salesmen and workmen really employees of the firm they claim to represent or are they using a similar name?
- (3) Understand the real terms of the cleaning offer. Is it complete? What happens if the furnace is found defective?
- (4) Check with other dealers as to the condition of your furnace before you sign any special deal.
- (5) Verify the credentials of any person who claims to be an inspector.

(6) Check the guarantee carefully. Who is to honor the guarantee? Will someone be available if the installation proves defective?

The best practice, Pytel concluded, is to deal with a firm whose integrity can be verified before any deal is made.

Barbara Ann Nigh Dale Timmler Wed

Miss Barbara Ann Nigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nigh of R 2, Campbellsport, became the bride of Dale Harold Timmler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Timmler of R. 2, Loyal, Wis., during a nuptial mass read by the Rev. John T. Budde in Holy Trinity church at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, Aug. 24.

The bride wore a gown of rosepoint lace and silk organza styled with a sabrina neckline, fitted lace bodice enhanced with sequins and seed pearls and long tapered sleeves. Lace applique frosted the full organza skirt with a chapel train of scalloped lace. Her jeweled lace appliqued silk illusion veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls and crystal and she carried red roses.

Mrs. Virgil Bird, sister of the bride, attended her as matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Shortess, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Elizabeth Retzer, a friend of the bride. They wore floor length gowns of white dotted sheer over aqua taffeta. They were designed with a fitted princess bodice encircled with a tucked cummerbund of aqua taffeta, scooped neckline and short sleeves. Panels of taffeta augmented the back of the full skirt. They completed their attire with an aqua seed pearl and rosebud headpiece with a face veil and carried aqua and white carnations. Little Miss Lori Nigh was the flower girl and wore a miniature copy of the bridal gown.

Alban Nigh, brother of the bride, was best man for the bridegroom, while Larry Shortess, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and David Nigh, brother of the bride served as groomsmen. Ushering duties were performed by Allen Kleinhans and Gregor Nigh. Ring bearer was Master Allan Bird.

Dinner was served to 80 guests at Nonn's resort, where supper was served to and a reception held for 225 guests. A wedding dance was held in the evening.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will be at home after Sept. 1 at 704 Cedar st. in West Bend. Mr. Timmler is a graduate of Loyal High school and is employed at Gehl Bros. Mfg. Co., West Bend. His bride is a Kewaskum High school graduate and is an employee of Northern Credit Co., Inc.

enhanced with sequins and seed pearls, the bride's floor length gown of rosepoint lace and organza had long sleeves and a square scalloped neckline. The gown had a fitted basque of lace with a draped cummerbund, scoop neckline and bracelet length sleeves. A crown of scalloped braid held her veil. County GOP Expects Crowd at Brat Fry

Washington county Republicans are awaiting the annual "brat fry" with enthusiasm. The event, scheduled for Sept. 7 at Regner City park in West Bend, has always been regarded as a "political party." (Republican, that is), in the sense that it is a "fun-raising" occasion rather than fund-raising. A large crowd is anticipated, tickets are going fast. (All the "brats" you can eat for the tiny price of 50 cents). Tickets may be obtained from all members of the Washington County Republican organization.

Speaker at the GOP "brat fry" will be the dynamic and personable young district attorney of Winnebago county, Jack Steinhilber. Widely known as a dedicated Republican, the young "D.A." has achieved an enviable record in the practice of law. He is a graduate of Oshkosh High school and attended Oshkosh State college and the University of Wisconsin where he obtained a Bachelor of Science and Law degree. He has served his county as assistant district attorney and has been elected three times to the office of district attorney in 1958, 1960 and 1962. Mr. Steinhilber has been active in the Republican party, both as a Young Republican and as a party member. He is a member of the Oshkosh Chamber of Commerce, Wis. Alumni association, U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Y.M.C.A.

As usual, the "brats will be cooked by the members of the Republican county organization. All citizens are invited to share in the fun on Sept. 7.

Kewaskum Village
Receives $3,102.41
In Highway Aids

PAYMENTS DISTRIBUTED IN COUNTY TOTAL
$124,865.94

Every city, village and town in Wisconsin is receiving a share of $15,132,893 in supplemental highway aid checks mailed by the State Highway Commission under statutory allotment for improvements to local public roads and streets. The total distribution shows an increase from last year's $12¼ million, due in part to increase in motor vehicle registrations and motor vehicle fuel taxes.

Payments totaling $124,865.94 were distributed in Washington county to the following municipalities: Cities of West Bend, $30,030.29; Hartford, $14,658.95; villages of Germantown, $3,222.50; Jackson, $1,201.59; Kewaskum, $3,102.41; Slinger, $2,925.50; and 13 towns, $69,724.30.

This money represents the final distribution of 1963 supplemental aids to municipalities under statutory formula. A $12.7 million prepayment of supplemental aids in April was based on 50 per cent of the total 1962 aids, while the present balance payment is based on final figures for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1963.

Under the present distribution of supplemental aids, cities under 10,000 shared $1,675,530 while cities of over 10,000 population shared $4,615,919. Villages shared $1,329,022 and towns shared $5,488,395.

This distribution of funds is the third of four major allotments during the year involving about $47 million in highway user taxes collected by the state and returned to counties and municipalities. Basic aids of about $6 million were distributed to municipalities in March preceding the two supplemental payments. The allowance based on motor vehicle registrations will be returned to municipalities in December.

During the last 10 years, 18,000 Wisconsin farmers left the hog raising business, but total pig numbers in the state have remained about the same, reports Fred Giesler, swine specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

“Why did daddy have to die?”

That morning he kissed her good-bye as usual. “Be a good girl,” he said, “and I’ll bring you a surprise.” But he didn’t come home that night—nor ever again. How can you explain a thing like that to a tearful child?

Death comes suddenly on the highway. No one expects to meet it, much less to cause it. Yet last year, 40,000 men, women and children died in traffic accidents throughout the country. Most of them didn’t have to happen.

Remember this heartbroken little girl the next time you are tempted to take a chance—pass a stop sign—overstep the speed limit. Only you can put an end to such tragedies.

Now, during the peak driving season, accident hazards are highest—so be especially careful!

Here’s how you can help stop traffic tragedies:

- 1 Drive safely and courteously yourself. Observe speed limits and warning signs.

Where traffic laws are obeyed, deaths go DOWN!

- 2 Insist on strict enforcement of all traffic laws. Traffic regulations work for you, not against you.

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

Kewaskum Blasts Port Washington In Last Game, 14-2

The Kewaskum Land o' Lakes league nine brought the season to a close with a bang here Sunday when they soundly defeated Port Washington by a 14-2 score to wind up with a 10-8 record for the season, good for sixth place.

Kewaskum scored in every inning but the eighth and pushed over four runs in each of the 6th and 7th innings as they enjoyed a field day off of Fowler, the Port pitcher. Fowler was bombed for

Old Timers Game

The Land o' Lakes baseball team will play the Kewaskum old timers in a game under the lights on Saturday night, Sept. 7, starting at 8 p. m. A number of former local stars have already signified their intention to appear in the game and any other "retired" ball players are invited to play. Fans are also invited to turn out for this exhibition, which will officially close the baseball season here.

12 hits, gave up five walks, and struck out eight batters. Fred Bruhn was the Kewaskum starter but was replaced on the mound by Al Koepke when he developed arm trouble after five innings. Between them they allowed seven hits, struck out five and gave up three bases on balls.

Ken Theusch was the big gun in his team's bombardment, lashing out four hits in five trips to the plate. Kons Sadownikow and Al Koepke each contributed two. Wittslib collected three safeties and Thome two for the losers.

Although Kewaskum has completed its schedule, some teams still have postponed contests to make up. Cedarburg, which earlier clinched the championship, lost its only game of the season Sunday to Saukville, 2-1.

Councils to Hold Labor Day Parade

The Ozaukee County Trades and Labor Council, with the assistance of the Washington County Central Labor Council, are sponsoring a Labor Day parade and celebration at Port Washington on Monday, Sept. 2.

Many Ozaukee and Washington county industries are planning to participate in the parade, which will be held at 12:30 p. m., along with many other organizations throughout the two counties. It is the hope of the local councils that this will be of interest to many people in the area.

It is also hoped that many people in the area will participate in this, the celebration honoring the laborer.

After the parade, a short program will be held at the lake park, which will have as the speaker Gregory Wallig of the AFL-CIO regional office staff.

Later refreshments will be available at the bluff.

An Editorial

Labor Day traditionally marks the end of summer.

The passing of the vacation season probably will cause most of us to reflect on how little we've actually done in comparison to the ambitious plans we laid back in May.

Realizing this, many of us will try to pack too much into the brief holiday weekend.

While human nature encourages us to make up for lost time, common sense should tell us to slow down and not try to cram into three days what we didn't do in three months.

Unfortunately, some of the people who engage in this frenzied activity will become accident victims—in many cases because they'll "pull out all stops" in a final effort to squeeze every last bit of fun out of the fading summer.

Following its basic creed, "Safety Everywhere... All the Time," the Wisconsin Council of Safety asks that whether you spend the holiday at home, travelling or enjoying a last fling at the cottage up north, use an extra bit of caution and common sense.

With Mom and the kids preparing for school, and jobs waiting for the rest of us on Sept. 3, this is an inopportune time for an accident—an accident that can be caused by poorly-planned holiday activity or just plain over-exertion.

Labor Day is dedicated to you, the worker. Celebrate it so that you'll be around to enjoy the next one, too.

CORN KERNELS CONTRIBUTE MUCH TO SUMMER PLAY

From San Diego to Bangor summer rates as the nation's favorite time for playing. While corn plants reach skyward in the warm and sunny days, Americans swim, drive, sail, putt, fish, explore, barbecue or sip cool drinks.

Supporting our multitude of playtime activities are versatile products from corn. Their contributions add much fun to summer.

For example, corn is involved in sandpaper for the week end hobbyist, paper plates for picnics, insecticides for camping trips, film for snapshots. Corn starch is used in all of these products. It also is used in the manufacture of aluminum—aluminum canoes, sailboat masts, outboard engines and aluminum porch chairs.

Products from corn are used in scores of ways in the cars we drive to sandy beaches. Corn dex-trin helped process the leather in our golf bags and sandals and was used as a binder in charcoal briquettes. Cosmetic products, such as the lotions we use to prevent sunburn, frequently contain corn starch. The making of our light cotton or rayon clothing required starch, as did our comfortable hammocks.

Try to imagine summer without soda, ice cream, beer, pie, candy, chewing gum, marshmallows, peanut butter and jelly, salad dressings, hot dogs, catsup, cookies, and fruit cocktail. Such foods, along with several hundred others, usually contain corn syrup or dextrose or starch—and sometimes all four! Corn also helps produce the poultry, meat, milk and eggs we need to give us strength for playing, for corn is a major feed of beef, pigs, cows, chickens and sheep.

Next time you drive down a highway and see green corn plants stretching acre after uniform acre, remember that the car you are driving, the road map guiding you, the clothes you are wearing and the dinner waiting for you just ahead depended in a variety of ways upon products from the golden corn kernel.

WARNING—USE CAUTION IN MAKING SILAGE

Silo gas—nitrous oxide—is a problem to be aware of in the weeks ahead when farmers make corn silage. Too much can be fatal. Although it cannot be smelled or seen, you will notice yellowing that appears on the silage. A few simple precautions can prevent this dangerous gas. Make sure you always have plenty of ventilation in your silo. In the morning, run the blower for a few minutes before working in it and keep all silo room doors open. Please avoid needless death with these simple precautions.

TESTING RESULTS

The names of the herds on standard tests of the State Testing association that made over 400 pounds of butterfat last year have recently been released. There were 53 herds in Washington county representing 1925 cows. They averaged 11,726 pounds of milk with a 3.7 test and an average of 434 pounds of fat.

The high herds in this group were those that made over 500 pounds. Those herds belong to: Leo Becker, Jim Esselmann, Elwyn Hamlyn, Ernie Kueffner.

Nancy F. Mayhey, F. C. and W. C. Schroeder and Tom Wiedmeyer. The top herd in that group belongs to Nancy F. Mayhey with 592 pounds of butterfat on 26 cows. This is truly a phenomenal record. Second high is the F. C. & W. C. Schroeder herd with 550 pounds of butterfat on 51 cows.

Herds that made over 400 pounds of butterfat belong to: Eddie Arnold, Walter Bentz, Herbert Clausing and Sons, Phillip Frey, Harold Garbisch, Robert Held, John Horlamus, Alex Knoeck, John Kuenzi, Herbert Lepien, Christ A. Mayer, Edward Melius Farm 1, Edward Melius Farm 2, Oscar Moritz, Paul Pamperin, Garvin Pickhard, Howard Proeber, Roland Rate, Fred Schellinger, Hilbert Scheunemann, Dieter Schlueter, Harvey Schmidt, Andrew Schmitt, Guido Schroeder & Egbert Muth, Karl Schultz, Fred Stauske, Jacob Sterman, Gilbert R. Stoffel, Washington County Asylum and Anton Wiedmeyer.

The only thing wrong with this list is that there should be more on it. Of the 1500 dairy farms in Washington county, only 22 per cent are on test. We would like to see this expanded to at least 50 per cent. Then we will be getting some really efficient herds.

DO NOT FERTILIZE LAWNS WITH NITROGEN

Do not fertilize your lawn with nitrogen any more this year. If you do, you will probably have problems because nitrogen would keep the plants growing too long. Although winter is several months away, we have to start taking care of the plants now. If you want to do some fall fertilizing, use an 0-20-20 or an 0-10-30, but do not use nitrogen.

Over half the fatal accidents on Wisconsin farms involve tractors, says Randall Swanson, farm safety specialist at the University of Wisconsin.

Buckley, Former School Supt. Dies

Michael T. Buckley, 88, former Washington County Superintendent of Schools, died at his home at Brookfield, Ill. on Wednesday, Aug. 21. The funeral was held at St. Barbara's Catholic church, Brookfield, on Friday, Aug. 23, with burial in Gate of Heaven cemetery there.

Mr. Buckley was born in the town of Trenton, Washington county, on Feb. 12, 1875. He received his education in the Thompson school in the town of Erin, Hartford High school and State Normal school at Oshkosh. He became a rural school teacher in Boltonville and later taught schools at Sauk City and Baraboo. Then came to Hartford where for three years he served as principal of the grade school.

In 1919 he was a successful candidate for county school superintendent and continued in that capacity until his retirement on July 5, 1949. During his years as an educator, Mr. Buckley pioneered several new teaching methods which were put to use in county schools. He was well known and was frequently called upon to lecture on various education methods.

Surviving are his wife, the former Jennie Mulvaney of the town of Farmington, three sons, a daughter and two grandchildren.
