Calling All Homemakers!

A glass of drinking water with a two-inch head of suds. A once-beautiful country stream filled from bank to bank with piles of foam. A fishing dock buried under a layer of suds that must be shoveled off before the boats can be serviced. A sewage treatment plant with walks, buildings and equipment thick with a slippery slime. Waterlife unable to survive in our streams. Such are the unpleasant, shocking scenes that are in evidence in our country today, a visible evidence of detergent pollution.

Water is our most essential natural resource. We cannot live without it and it is vitally important that it be kept clean and pure. Today's population of 186 million Americans—nearly triple the population of 1900—is dependent upon it. By 1980 there will be some 260 million of us. Since we do not have "new" water to serve our cities, farms and industries, we must re-use water.

There are two types of detergents—biodegradable and non-biodegradable. The General Federation of Women's Clubs, with its history of concern for both human and natural resources, has made available a list of so-called "safe" detergents which has been posted in the public library. Legislation has been introduced to control the manufacture of non-biodegradable detergents but until such legislation accomplishes its aims, each homemaker can do her part to help control the detergent pollution problem by making a visit to the library to check if the detergent she is now using is a "safe" one. It is we, the citizens, and our children who must sometime pay the piper for polluted water unless something is done about it now.

Let us do something about it. NOW!

Firemen Plan Dinner, Learn Respiration

At the regular meeting of the Kewaskum fire department on Thursday, Nov. 7, routine business was disposed of and other matters were discussed.

Something new in the department's social events included plans for a dinner for active members, honorary members, wives and lady friends to be held on Saturday, Dec. 7, at the Glacier Inn. A turkey (or chicken) and ham dinner will be served at 7:30 p. m. sharp. Cocktails will be available at the expense of the individual starting at 6:15 with hors d'oeuvres served. Reservation cards for the dinner must be returned before Nov. 29.

Other approaching social events for the firemen only include the annual stag party the first Saturday in January, the Badger Firemen's bowling tournament at Menomonee Falls starting Jan. 25 and the spring banquet of the Badger association to be held either at Brown Deer or Thiensville.

Recently members of the firemen's rescue squad and the current first aid class received training in and actually performed mouth to mouth artificial respiration and manual heart compression (also called external cardiac massage). The instructions were given by an instructor from the Wisconsin Heart association and the rescue squad and first aid members present performed the mouth to mouth respiration and heart compression on a lifelike girl dummy. A film was also shown of actual incidents when a person's heart stopped beating in mishaps such as drowning, electric shock etc. in which the heart was restored to beating by trained personnel and lives saved.

Legion Membership Reported Over Top In Aerial Roundup

Commander Ervin Bonlender of the local American Legion post flew to Sheboygan Falls from West Bend on Sunday in the annual Legion Aerial Membership Roundup. Robert G. Romaine Post 384 has gone over the top in membership for the first time in quite a few years by this date. There will be refreshments at the next couple of meetings as was promised while the drive was underway.

Other Legion members who drove to Sheboygan Falls were Donald Koerble, Ray Zeimet and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Honeck.

The overall increase in American Legion membership was reflected by the large turnout of post representatives at the West Bend airport Sunday morning when at least four airplanes, representing the county, took part in the Aerial Roundup. The planes took off early because of foggy weather but the skies cleared later on.

Approximately 26 county Legion members, also including several from Menomonee Falls, traveled to Sheboygan Falls. About half of them flew there while the rest drove. Legion officials from the county and state flew current membership records to Sheboygan Falls, where a noon dinner was served at the Municipal building. County as well as state membership was reported above last year's at this stage of the year.

County Legionnaires who made the trip were from Kewaskum, Alenton, Jackson, Hubertus, Germantown and West Bend, and there were a few others from Menomonee Falls.

Completes Teacher Training at School

Recently James Belongia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belongia of R. 3, West Bend, began the final phase of his college agriculture teacher training here at Kewaskum High school.

He is a graduate of West Bend High school and attended the Wisconsin State college at Platteville. He will spend nine weeks here during which time he will teach the agriculture classes under the supervision of Roy Esser, the agriculture instructor. The purpose of this new nine weeks "block system" of training is to give as much practical experience as possible to the prospective teacher before he goes out on his own.

During these nine weeks he not only will be in the classroom but will be seen attending related functions such as local agricultural meetings, adult farmer classes, and many other activities that are associated with teaching agriculture.

Kewaskum Students Attend College Day

Students from eight high schools, mainly seniors, got the feel of college at West Bend High school last Friday from 1 to 3:30 p. m. Representatives from 42 universities, colleges and special schools addressed over 500 students from West Bend, Cedarburg, Kewaskum, Mayville, Hartford, Port Washington, Slinger and Random Lake high schools.

Arthur Weiner, principal of West Bend High school, gave the welcome and introduction for the annual College Day program. Randall Parker, treasurer of the West Bend board of education, gave a talk on "The Importance of Education Beyond High School." The first group meeting started at 1:15, the second at 2:05 and the third, used for individual contacts, at 2:55.

Representatives of the various colleges gave information and discussed their schools and courses to interested students who plan to attend universities after completing high school.

BPW CLUB OF WEST BEND MEETS AT GLACIER INN

A program on "Adult Education in Public Schools" was presented for the monthly meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club of West Bend. The Glacier Inn, Kewaskum, was the site for the meeting, held Wednesday evening, Nov. 20. A social hour at 6:15 preceded a Thanksgiving dinner of turkey, dressing and all the frills served at 7 p. m.

BROWNIE AND GIRL SCOUT POTLUCK

There will be a mother and daughter potluck supper on Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 6:30 p. m. at the Kewaskum Opera House. Bring a dish to pass. Each Scout must be accompanied by an adult. An interesting program is planned. Miss Caroline Lowisa of Fond du Lac will also be present.

Blankets for Korean Orphans Wanted By Union

REGAL WARE LOCAL 849 TAKES PART IN PROJECT, 'OPERATION WARMTH'

Local 849 of Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum, is taking part in a project called "Operation Warmth" to provide blankets for Korean orphans.

You no doubt have read of the plight of orphans left destitute by the Korean War. Tens of thousands of children are suffering from the most desperate privation ever undergone by any people anywhere. The people of the Milwaukee area are being asked to donate three thousand blankets in the "Operation Warmth" project in order to give these tots some protection against the rigorous Korean winters.

Allied Industrial Workers Region 9 has pledged its co-operation along with a number of other well known groups and distinguished citizens to make this campaign a success. The project is headed by the Rev. M. E. Silseth, president of the Milwaukee area chapter of the Military Chaplains' association.

He has arranged for the blankets to be picked up by Army Air Force planes and flown to orphanages and hospitals under the jurisdiction of the First Cavalry Division of the U. S. Army in Korea, which will distribute the blankets. The blankets need not be cleaned. They will be processed and cleaned by the Adelman Laundry company at no charge before being shipped to Korea.

No funds or any solicitations other than blankets for which you may have no further need are being asked. Local 849 hopes that you will find it in your heart to provide a blanket for some homeless, freezing child in far-away Korea. Anyone who has blankets which are not needed should drop them off at the Labor Center across from the Kewaskum theatre. They may be left at the front door, where the janitor will place them in the hall. Your co-operation may mean the difference between life and death for some Korean child who will always honor you as his unknown benefactor.

All blankets must be in by next Friday, Nov. 29.

At a jury trial before Judge F. W. Bucklin in county court at West Bend, action was brought by Marion P. Wilder against the Kewaskum Creamery Co., Henry Knoebel of this village, Employers Mutual Liability Insurance Co. and John W. Wilder, Marion's husband, to recover damages for serious injuries Mrs. Wilder suffered in an auto accident on Aug. 25, 1937. The crash occurred on Hwy. 41 where it intersects with Hwy. 100 in Milwaukee county. In the collision the Creamery Co. truck was driven by Knoebel and Mrs. Wilder was riding in her husband's car. The jury deliberated over four hours and awarded Mrs. Wilder $7,500 for the injuries she sustained. The jury found that both Knoebel and Wilder were negligent in operating their vehicles.

First, check over your Christmas card and gift list very carefully, be certain each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, state and zone or ZIP code number.

Second, stock up soon on sturdy packing materials for your gift packages, including heavy wrapping paper, corrugated cartons, strong cord and paper adhesive tape.

Third, buy your postage stamps now. Be sure to use the colorful new five cent Christmas tree stamps on your cards.

Fourth, procure free labels from your post office which read "ALL FOR LOCAL DELIVERY" and "ALL FOR OUT-OF-TOWN DELIVERY," so that you can sort your Christmas cards into two groups, with addresses all facing one way, thus insuring fast delivery.

Have you seen the new Vince Lombardi TV show since the Bear game? It's called "Where's My Line?" (Contributed by Doc Ogi). Hope the situation will be reversed on Thanksgiving Day and the Detroit coach will ask "Where's My Lions?"

If you care to travel with safety on week ends, we suggest you drive between the hours of 1:00 and 3:30 p. m. on Sundays—when the Packer games are on television. Traffic is almost at a standstill. Last Sunday especially during the big Packer-Bear game streets were deserted with everyone having their eyes glued to their TV sets.

Viewers didn't even move away from their sets to wipe away the tears until the game was completed. Then they really began crying in their beer. Even the weather took the loss with great sorrow. Toward the end of the game it clouded up real dark and began raining "tears" all over the place.

But you can't win 'em all. The fired up Bears had it Sunday and caught the Packers with their defense down. As Lineman Henry Jordan of the Pack put it, "I was really impressed by their line, in fact, a couple of times I was impressed right into the ground." So much for football.

By the time you read this many of our "deer" hunters the rest of the year will be "deer" hunters, or vice versa, in the surrounding and north woods. With all of their gear, the "troops" began taking off Thursday for the big invasion on Saturday, leaving their "widows" behind them. The deer season lasts only nine days but hunters spend six months before preparing for it and six months after telling tales about it. The conservation department reports that the biggest deer herd since 1958 awaits the hunters, most of whom

Many establishments and organizations give prizes for the biggest buck shot, etc. But some hunters might have a much better chance to win a prize if they were given for the biggest hangover, most liquor consumed, most steaks eaten, prettiest girls encountered, least hours of sleep, most money spent, closest to the woods, prettiest bloodshot eyes, biggest alibis, best liars, bravest coming home to their wives, and other of the more probable things. Our wonderful warm fall weather is still holding out. With temperatures in the 50's Sunday and Tuesday, large groups of golfers were still playing the course. Others are fishing close to the end of November with Christmas approaching. The grass is green and growing. There is no snow or ice.

Homemaker Notes

COUNTRY COUSINS

Our homemakers group met at the home of Mrs. Lucille Nigh, R. 2, Kewaskum, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 13.

The Christmas committee reported that our party will be held at the Glacier Inn on Dec. 12 with our meal to begin at 8:00 p. m. They have planned a wonderful meal and games.

The health officer handed out emergency identification cards to be kept on our persons in case of accident. There is a place to mention any allergies, such as penicillin reaction. This can be very important in case of accident. Much valuable information can be noted on the card to aid in an emergency.

Mrs. Gladys Ramel suggested that members fill out a slip with our husband's name, our birthday, anniversary date and mailing address to be given to the president. This will enable any member to check up on important dates for other members. This will be especially helpful to secret pals who lose their name slip. We drew names for secret pals for the year 1964 to become effective Jan. 1.

The vice-president reported on the president's tea held at the Fireside. She substituted for the president who was unable to make it. The tea was very enjoyable and there was much exchanging of ideas as the guests moved from table to table to get acquainted.

After the close of the meeting Mrs. Helen Oelhafen and Mrs. Theresa Oelhafen presented the project for the evening, "selecting colors and styles for individuals." They stressed that first one must decide how one wants to look. Then they demonstrated how styling and color can affect our look of height, and how any problems such as hip width can be disguised by proper skirt styles. They had many examples of dresses showing that sleeve length was very important. The eye stops at sleeve length and accents that part of the body. Long sleeves are very slenderizing.

After the project our hostess served torte and coffee. Our next meeting will be the Christmas party.

Mrs. Jeanne Otten, Reporter

KEWASKUM KITCHENETTES

Our November meeting was held at the home of Mrs. David Hanrahan with all but one member present. Our guest was Mrs. Norman Held, our center chairman.

We will have our annual Christmas party at the Moraine Supper Club on Dec. 1 at 8 p. m. with our husbands as guests.

The project leaders, Mrs. Lloyd Backhaus and Mrs. Arnold Amerling, did a real fine job in presenting the project, "Selecting Styles and Colors." We all answered a questionnaire and they told us that anyone answering it correctly could go home but after looking over our answers we all could stay and learn the correct answers. They demonstrated with charts how to change our body proportion or look shorter, taller or broader by the styles and colors we wear.

Our hostess served hot chicken and barbeque sandwiches along with colorful relishes. We each received a little wax turkey favor which actually was chocolate candy inside but too cute for anyone to open.

After our lunch we had our White Elephant exchange. We had a variety of things—some wrapped in comics, some gift wrapped, all shapes and sizes. We took turns opening them and had many laughs doing so. A few of the contents included a baby care book, electric percolator (working condition questionable), relish dishes, film, a rattle, a picture puzzle. Our center chairman happened to get a white elephant that was red—a large red elephant pull toy bank.

ELECTRIC CO. CONTEST OPEN TO BOYS, GIRLS OF KEWASKUM, OTHER AREAS

Early planning for any project pays, and organized youth groups have already been alerted to the Electric Company's tenth Christmas Cooky Decorating contest.

So girls and boys, on your marks, get set, and GO to the demonstration at the Electric Company at 7:15 p. m. Monday evening, Nov. 25. Here you will receive contest entry blanks and rules. Miss Viola De Jong and Mrs. Dorothy Gresbach will demonstrate tips on baking and decorating cookies for the contest. Color pictures of previous winning cookies will be shown.

Those eligible for the contest are girls and boys in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 who belong to one of the following organizations: Scouts in West Bend, Kewaskum, Campbellsport and Menomonee Falls; Pioneers of St. John' church, and 4-H of Washington county.

Those interested in the contest should be planning designs for a group of three cookies, which will be judged as a single entry. Only one set of cookies may be entered by each girl or boy.

The cookies should measure no more than six inches in length or width, and only flat rolled cookies are acceptable. All decorations must be edible, as the cookies will be given to people in the local hospital and Washington county institutions for the ill and aged. The cookies are happily received as a thoughtful greeting from the young people at Christmas.

Entry day for the cookies is Wednesday, Dec. 4, preferably after school hours and until about 5:15 p. m. Mothers and club leaders are welcome at the demonstration. Those unable to attend may receive contest rules and entry blanks by contacting the Electric Company at 337 North Main st., West Bend.

1963 'Festive Foods' Cookbook Available From Gas Company

The 1963 edition of Milwaukee Gas Light company's popular "Festive Foods" cookbook will be available to the public beginning Friday, Nov. 29, it was announced today by Mrs. Elsie Alcorn, home service director of the utility.

Simultaneously, the company's annual holiday display will open in the first floor sales display area of the general office building, 626 East Wisconsin ave., Mrs. Alcorn said. The display will be open to the public during regular office hours Monday through Friday from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. until Christmas Eve, she said.

"Festive Foods" books will be given as gifts to those visiting the display with a limit of one to each visitor. This method of distribution is necessary, Mrs. Alcorn explained, to insure that as many Milwaukee area families as possible receive a book.

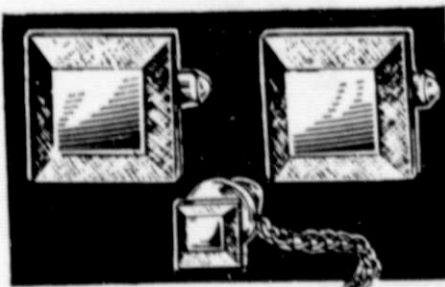

Started in 1933 a small folder filled with bread, cookie and fruit cake recipes, the book has grown in size and acceptance as a general purpose cookbook until this year, celebrating its 30th anniversary, it has gained national recognition in the culinary field.

The 1963 edition, complete with many color illustrations, includes recipes for, and methods of handling, breads, cookies, cakes and candies, menus, punches and appetizers, salads and vegetables, main dishes and desserts. Extra features include glamorous gift wraps and suggestions for using

Mrs. Alcorn pointed out that all recipes have been carefully tested by the company's Home Service Department prior to insertion in the book. The cover, she said, features a full-color illustration of Holiday Eggnog Bavarian, a delightful dessert treat. Red and green cover type add an extra note of festiveness to the 64-page edition.

The holiday display will feature an exhibit of 30 years of "Festive Foods" books in addition to an appetizing display of special cookies, Christmas bread and fruit cakes. All food items to be shown were taken from recipes in the book and will be marked for easy reference. Red and white will be the dominant colors highlighting the food display background, with three decorated Christmas trees providing the traditional yuletide decor.

County Agent News Notes

By MAURICE J. HOVLAND
Washington County Agent

BEWARE OF SALESMEN

We encourage farmers and everyone else to beware of the itinerant salesman who comes through selling a bill of goods. In the past we have seen people coming through selling everything imaginable. A new variety of oats is a favorite; a chemical to kill rats and mice is another one; still another one is a furnace checkup. A real favorite, in past years, has been house siding, and there will be others in the future.

Our reason for writing this is to warn the public to be careful of these salesmen who come through. While their product may be good, we do not question this, but we do many times find that the service which they offer leaves much to be desired.

Contained within your own community, probably advertising within this newspaper, or in other local media within your county, would be practically every product and every service that you can hope to buy, and being performed for you locally by local people. The itinerant salesman, you see, sells his product and then he leaves town. You don't know where he goes or from whence he came; all you know is that you got stuck with something and you didn't think this would happen. If you buy from a local dealer, you won't have a product misrepresented. We, therefore, say to you, be very careful of the itinerant salesman.

Remember this, that within the past six years, the following items have been pedaled and many a person has been cheated: the pasture mix program, which was nothing but a bunch of grass seed, sold at an exorbitant rate; the rat and mouse control program, using just plain Warfarin under a different name; then there was the man who was selling a new variety of oats for $4 a bushel. The oats were fine but you could have bought the same thing from your local dealer for $2.50. People who have gotten clipped from furnace salesmen and cleaners are a dime a dozen. Be careful when you buy this service.

FALL MARKET FAIR

The Fall Market Fair is scheduled for the week end of Nov. 30 and Dec. 1. It will be at Richfield in the fire hall. There will be arts and crafts of all kinds, made by Washington county craftsmen. We encourage you to attend. The doors open Saturday at noon and will close in the evening. They open promptly at noon on Sunday and run through till 5 o'clock. These are local people who are doing this job and we would like to have the public take in this show to see what these people are doing and maybe become interested in some of these crafts themselves.

Pass up the request for help with the children's home work, and kids may pass.

County PTA Council Has Second Meeting

The second meeting of the Washington County PTA Council was held at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 6, at the Willow Creek grade school.

The topic for the evening was "John Sr. Goes to School." It was a typical classroom situation with the adults present being the pupils. Not only was subject matter taught, but the class had all the typical interruptions and distractions that plague a teacher.

Classes were conducted in arithmetic, language, social studies and art. However, rather than using the children's texts, PTA materials were used. In arithmetic a PTA budget was set up. Language dealt with how to sell the PTA magazine. Social studies demonstrated cooperation between the school, home, church and community. The art teacher showed how to make posters to stimulate PTA interest and attendance.

Miss Dorothea Back, county supervisor, acted as principal and was coordinator of the program.

Following the meeting everyone enjoyed a social hour with refreshments being served by the Willow Creek PTA members.

The next council meeting will be held on March 4 at the Barton grade school.

HOLY TRINITY CYP SPONSORS HAY RIDE

Members of the Catholic Young Peoples club of Holy Trinity church, Kewaskum, held a hay ride at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Nov. 21. Lunch and refreshments were served. All single Catholic young people over high school age were invited to attend.

Wild oats do get sown, but one of the arts of life is to know when to sow them.

The pheasant season will close on Nov. 24. The rabbit, squirrel and pheasant hunter, as well as the deer hunter, must have at least 50% of his hunting cap and hunting jacket either red, orange or bright yellow in color. Hunting is prohibited within 200 feet of the center line of any federal state or county highway during the deer season.

The use of a rifle is prohibited. Shotgun and slug as well as smoothbore muskets or .45 cal. or larger and rifled muskets of .40 cal. or larger may be used in the seven counties listed above.

In and around various public hunting grounds are closed areas. These are well posted and mean what they indicate, (NO HUNTING). They are placed there for the protection of the land owner.

All deer must be registered; those killed in the seven county area listed above must be registered within that area. The deer registration stations for this vicinity are listed as follows: Dodge county, Horicon marsh headquarter, city of Horicon; Ozaukee county, sheriff's office, Port Washington; Washington county, sheriff's office, West Bend, Hartford police department, Habermacher's hotel and tavern, Germantown, Klippel's market, Richfield, and the Tally Ho Inn at Thompson.

Please read the hunting regulations and avoid trouble.

Ten Commandments of Deer Hunting Safety

Wisconsin's annual deer hunt opens Saturday morning, Nov. 23, at 6:31 a. m. and continues for 9 days through Dec. 1.

During deer season there are more hunters in the woods than at any other one time. We sell about 325,000 deer hunting licenses and the season is relatively short.

You can see the stage is set for hunting accidents unless every hunter uses a lot of caution and common sense.

While only 3 persons were killed by gunfire during the 1962 deer season, 35 were injured. Every hunting accident could be prevented. They are due to carelessness probably caused to a great degree by the excitement of the hunt. Such things as the victim being out of sight of the shooter, being mistaken for game, loading or unloading a gun, stumbled or fell, didn't know the gun was loaded, are the most common causes of hunting accidents.

Every hunter must agree that each of us has an obligation to prevent hunting accidents. The ten commandments of shooting safety are:

1. Treat every gun with the respect due a loaded gun.
2. Watch that muzzle! Carry your gun safely; keep safety on until ready to shoot.
3. Unload guns when not in use, take down or have actions open; guns should be carried in cases to shooting area.
4. Be sure barrel is clear of obstructions, and that you have ammunition only of the proper size for the gun you carry.
5. Be sure of target before you pull trigger; know identifying features of game you hunt.
6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot; avoid all horseplay.
7. Never climb a tree or fence or jump a ditch with a loaded gun; never pull a gun toward you by the muzzle.

8. Never shoot a bullet at a flat, hard surface or water; at target practice be sure your backstop is adequate.

9. Store guns and ammunition separately, beyond reach of children.

10. Avoid alcoholic beverages before or during shooting.

Remember them and practice them and hunting accidents will decrease.

Port Noses Out Chevs in Lakes Opener, 77-74

The Kewaskum Chevrolets opened play in the Land o' Lakes league Sunday night at Port Washington, a newcomer to the loop this season, and lost a tough one right off the bat, 77-74.

Led by Johnny DeMerit, former Milwaukee Braves outfielder, Port took a slim 18-17 lead in the first quarter and stayed ahead in every period thereafter. They led by seven points, 46-39, at the intermission and 64-59 at the finish of the third quarter.

DeMerit swished in 23 points to take scoring honors for the evening. His mates, Urness and Lutzer, chipped in 16 and 14 points respectively. Otto Ramthun's 15 were tops for the losers and he was closely followed by Allen Koepke with 14, Augie Bilgo with 13 and Don Meisenheimer with 12. Koepke, a newcomer from last year's high school team, not only took second scoring honors but showed a lot of speed and should help the team considerably. He made the Scenic Moraine all conference team last season.

Port connected on 15 free throws while the Chevs made good on only 12.

In other opening games over the week end defending champion Watertown won over West Bend, 92-77, Menomonee Falls buried Mayville, 92-49. The Fond du Lac-Beaver Dam tilt was postponed until a later date because of a conflict.

There will be no games this week end because of deer hunting. Kewaskum's next game will be on Saturday, Nov. 30, when they are at home to the Menomonee Falls powerhouse.

Indians Beaten By Cedar Grove

The Kewaskum Indians hosted Cedar Grove Tuesday evening in a non-conference game to open the 1963-64 basketball season and were defeated by a score of 73 to 58.

The Indians stayed with the strong Cedar Grove team during the first half and then fell behind to lose by 15 points. Kewaskum held a 17-15 advantage at the quarter but dropped behind, 35-32, at the intermission. The visitors outscored them in the final two periods, leading by 54-47 at the end of the third quarter. Cedar Grove had its biggest margin in the final period, scoring 19 points to Kewaskum's 11.

Dan VanderJagt paced the winners with 29 points, high for the night, and his teammate D. Voskuil poured in 17. Dan Survis hit 20 points and Mike Coulter added 19 for the Indians.

In other contests Tuesday involving Scenic Moraine conference teams, Rosendale shaded North Fondy, 50-46, and Campbellsport bested Lomira, 53-46.

On Friday of this week the Indians entertained Hustisford and next Tuesday they play at Rosendale in non-conference games before opening conference play at Random Lake next Wednesday, Nov. 27.

'Place of Women in A Changing World' Will Be Club Topic

"The Place of Women in a Changing World" will be presented to the members of the Kewaskum Woman's club by Robert B. Roesler at their regular meeting on Saturday, Nov. 23. While doing work for a master's degree in Eastern European history, he spent the summers of 1958 and 1960 visiting eleven European countries, staying five weeks in the Soviet Union. In 1962 he spent two months in Japan taking part in a program of Asian studies at Sophia university in Tokyo.

Presently he is an instructor in the Milwaukee school system. Club members are urged to hear the discussion of a subject of genuine interest and personal value. Guests are welcome to the meeting scheduled for 2:30 o'clock in the public library, at which Mrs. R. G. Kroncke, Mrs. C. F. Hammen and Mrs. H. E. Koch will be hostesses.

We are still Pilgrims

We no longer give thanks around a rough wooden table in a forest clearing. Our problems and rewards have taken different shapes too, but they are basically the same.

We are still making a pilgrimage, the same search for a fuller and more fruitful life under freedom of religion. And we are still thankful for the faith that sees us through adversity and guides us on that pilgrimage.

Thanksgiving Day was named for its meaning - the day that we come together to give thanks for our faith and our full life... and to remember that we are still pilgrims.

This Thanksgiving Day, give your thanks, strengthen your faith, enlighten your pilgrimage, at your place of worship.
