Rites Held for Al Hron, Well Known Resident

RETIRED REGAL OFFICIAL WAS ARDENT SPORTSMAN, ACCOMPLISHED MUSICIAN

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Monday at Holy Trinity church for Albert G. Hron, Sr., 75, a well known resident of 1517 Tower st., Kewaskum, who passed away unexpectedly of a heart attack at 10:20 a. m. Friday, Jan. 10. Mr. Hron collapsed in front of the post office and was taken inside the building, where the fire department rescue squad administered first aid. He was then rushed to St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

The Rev. John T. Budde, pastor, served as celebrant of the Requiem High Mass with Father F. C. La Buwi of Racine, a former pastor, as deacon and Father M. Urban of St. Michaels as sub-deacon. Lloyd Hron, Jr., student at Mt. Calvary, acted as master of ceremonies. Burial was in the new Holy Trinity cemetery. Prior to the services, friends called at Miller's Funeral home from 2 p. m. Sunday.

A son of the late Wenzel and Mary Janzer Hron, Mr. Hron was born in the town of West Bend on Oct. 15, 1888. He grew up in that area and in October of 1919 began his career with what was then the Kewaskum Aluminum Co. He continued with the company when it became Regal Ware, Inc. At the time of his retirement in October of 1958, after 39 years with the company, he was superintendent and was in charge of engineering. He also was a member of the board of directors, and since his retirement had been serving as consultant for the firm. He was a resident of Kewaskum for 44 years.

Al, as he was known by his many friends, was an ardent sportsman and especially enjoyed bowling and golfing as well as other sports. An accomplished musician, he directed the West Bend Civic band and the West Bend Moose band for many years.

His first wife, the former Louisa Schaefer, predeceased him in 1925. On Aug. 21, 1928, he was married to Mrs. Mary Roden at Holy Trinity church and she preceded him in death on April 6, 1963.

Surviving are three sons, Elroy, Lloyd and Albert M. Jr., all of Kewaskum; two daughters, Eleanor (Mrs. Harold Marx) of Kewaskum and Pearl (Mrs. Fred Miller) of Apple Valley, Calif.; 22 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; a sister, Miss Frances Hron of West Bend, and five brothers, Joseph of California, Michael, William and Frank of West Bend, and Richard of Sheboygan, and a stepson, Francis Roden, of Fond du Lac.

Mr. Hron was a member of the Holy Name society of Holy Trinity church, and a member of the Senior Golfers association of Wisconsin.

At Monday evening's weekly meeting of the Kewaskum Kiwanis club held at the Glacier Inn, new officers for 1964 were installed. The officers are as follows:

President, Bob Schmidt; vice-president, Albert Hron, Jr.; secretary, Eugene Bohn; treasurer, Ralph Marx. The new directors are Bruce Koth, Kilian Honeck and Henry Rosenheimer.

The lieutenant governor of District 7 of the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan district of Kiwanis International, R. C. "Pete" Nelson of Plymouth, was the installing officer.

Local Residents Elected By County Democratic Party

About 75 members of the Washington County Democratic party braved blowing snow, winds and slippery roads Sunday to attend the annual meeting of the group, held at the Labor Center in Kewaskum.

The party re-elected virtually the same slate of officers they have had since 1961, but named to their executive board three members who had never held any club office previously.

L. E. Harty, West Bend, was re-named county chairman. Other officers elected are Marvin Martin of Kewaskum, re-elected vice-chairman; John Flitter, West Bend, re-elected treasurer; Roger Siemers, West Bend, secretary, and Walter Gau, West Bend, sergeant-at-arms. All votes were unanimous.

On the executive board the three members from the field of five who received the highest number of votes were Dr. Robert Kauth and Eugene Reese of West Bend and Mrs. Marie Dei of Kewaskum.

The election was conducted by Sixth District Democratic Chairman Russ Meerdink of Sheboygan, who opened the meeting by saying that Washington county's organization had met membership and financial goals better than any other in his district.

Wm. Bartelt Is 100 Years Old

It was a special day for the village of Kohlsville on Friday, Jan. 17, on which day its leading citizen, William Bartelt, celebrated a century of living. Mr. Bartelt observed his 100th birthday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Marie Marohl, with whom he makes his home.

Mr. Bartelt, a one-time resident of Kewaskum, is hale and hearty at the ripe age of 100 years. He has a great many friends and attends Zion Lutheran church two miles west of Kohlsville on Sundays whenever possible. On Sunday, Jan. 19, the church will hold a special thanksgiving service for Mr. Bartelt at 1:30 p. m. and this will be followed by an open house in the church hall from 2 to 4 o'clock with his children and grandchildren serving as hosts.

Mr. Bartelt was born in Klein Saboe Kreis Naugard Pommern, Germany on Jan. 17, 1864 and came to this country at the age of 20. He came directly to the village of Kewaskum, where several of his brothers were living.

He and the former Louisa Pamperin were married May 8, 1886, and since her death in 1939, he has been residing with Mrs. Marohl. He has one other daughter Mrs. Anna Steffen, of Kohlsville and two sons, John of Bowler, Wis. and William of Wallace lake. Another daughter, Lydia, has passed away. Mr. Bartelt has 14 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Epps, who lives at Dodgeville.

"Grandpa" Bartelt is the great-great-grandfather of the New Year baby born Jan. 1 to Mr. and Mrs. James Walters, R. 5, West Bend.

REMMELS MOVE SOUTH

Schmidt Moves Insurance Agency

The office telephone number is 626-2266. If Schmidt cannot be reached at the above number his residence number should be called, which is 626-2359.

First Robin Is Reported

The honor of reporting the seeing of the first robin in Kewaskum in 1964 goes out early this year to Mrs. Walter Wesenberg of 1538 River View dr., who called the Statesman after sighting a robin on Monday morning and again on Wednesday.

This usual harbinger of spring either must be out of its mind or lost its road map. With the blizzard howling through states to the south and cold over the week end, maybe the robin decided it was better to head north to warm up. Anyone knowing any bird talk should tell this bird it's only the middle of January. The only berries and worms the robin will find to feed on here are in supermarkets and bait stores.

Joke of the week: Maybe it's a sign of an early spring.

Brother of Local Officer Is Named Chief at Sheboygan

Oakley O. Frank, 41, brother of Police Officer Marriner Frank of Kewaskum, was named Sheboygan police chief on Monday. He had been acting chief since last May 9, after the suspension of Chief Steen W. Heimke.

Heimke was later dismissed, on Sept. 9, after police and fire commission hearings on charges of misuse and misappropriation of police department funds. The dismissal was upheld in circuit court last week.

Frank, a native of Sheboygan, had been assistant chief under Heimke. He received a temporary appointment to the department in 1940 and was placed on permanent status in 1946.

He became a detective in 1949, was promoted to sergeant in 1956 and captain in 1957. In 1956, he was graduated from the FBI academy in Washington, D. C.

He is married and the father of two daughters.

Frank was the unanimous choice of the commission at a 90 minute closed meeting late Monday.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES GOING UP FEB. 1

The Kewaskum Statesman has tried to "hold the line" and maintain its mail subscription rates at $2.50 per year but with the numerous increases in the cost of postage and mailing, cost of paper and materials, we have found it necessary to make a slight increase in our subscription price.

No increase in rates has been made in over 12 years, the last raise taking place on Aug. 1, 1951. Effective Feb. 1, 1964, the Statesman subscription rate will be $3.00 per year in Wisconsin and $3.50 outside the state (including servicemen). This represents less than a penny a week increase, hardly enough to pay the increased costs of getting the paper to you. News stand sales will be raised just one cent, from 7 to 8 cents.

In the meantime, until Feb. 1, anyone wishing to do so is invited to subscribe or renew their subscription in advance for as many years as they wish at the old rate and thus effect a considerable saving.

Ambulance Calls

Tuesday, Jan. 14—Mrs. Lena Belger, Kewaskum, removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend.

25 Years Ago

Jan. 13, 1939

Fabian Gaffke, better known here as "Abie," who led the Badger State baseball league in batting as a member of the championship Kewaskum team in 1934, now a big leaguer owned by the Boston Red Sox of the American league, returned to Kewaskum Saturday for a visit with friends. With him was Stanley Wisniewski, also of Milwaukee, who was the star pitcher on the local championship team of '34. Gaffke spent most of the 1938 season with Boston, with whom he played outfield and relieved at catching. He was with the Minneapolis Millers the last few weeks of the season in the American Association. Boston finished second behind the Yankees. We had the pleasure of having a talk with Gaffke and he requested that we give his best regards to all his friends here. Glancing at the photos at Eberle's tavern of the former team on which he played here, Gaffke said the big league was OK but he still likes Kewaskum and would like to spend another season playing ball here, preferably as a manager. "Abie" drives a brand new Buick special which he purchased with some of the "shekals" peeled off by owners of the Boston club. He intends to make frequent trips to Kewaskum.

Word was received that Dr. R. H. Quade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Quade of this village, has been elected to membership in the American College of Surgeons. At the Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons held at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York City, the degree of Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, F.A.C.S., was conferred upon Dr. Quade. Dr. and Mrs. Quade remained to tour through the East, during which time their daughter is staying with her grandparents here. Dr. Quade is located at the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn.

The following poem was written by Donald Koerble, pupil in the grammar room at the public school:

Fall, fall, fall is here,
The prettiest part of all the year,
The flowers are starting to lose their lust,
The air is full of leaves and dust,
The hunting season has begun,
And are those hunters having

50 YEARS AGO

Jan. 11, 1914

While peddling meat in the country for Philip McLaughlin, Conrad Ries, who is employed by Mr. McLaughlin, had an exciting experience at Wm. Lay's place near Wayne. He was driving two horses when all of a sudden the horses took a jump and broke part of the meat wagon. Ries was thrown out of the wagon, into the mud, and the horses ran to this village where they were stopped.

George Klein, who resides on a farm near Campbellsport, shot a large American eagle on his farm. He brought the eagle to this village where it is on exhibition at the Bank of Kewaskum. The eagle was still alive when brought here. It measures about three feet from the tip of one wing to another.

'Toys for Tots' Project Success

HELPS 340 NEEDEY CHILDREN HAVE HAPPIER CHRISTMAS; LOCAL CLUB PARTICIPATES

Charles P. Whittlinger, director of the Washington County Public Welfare Department, reports that the 1963 "TOYS FOR TOTS" project was again successful, in that it helped 340 children of 93 needy families in the county have a happier Christmas. This was due to the thoughtfulness and generosity of organizations and individuals throughout Washington county.

The welfare department was liaison between needy families and organizations, who wished to help needy children enjoy a full and happier Christmas. The welfare department, acting as a clearing center, was able to prevent some families from receiving an over-abundance of gifts, while other needy children received nothing.

Nineteen groups in Washington county responded to the project. This was truly a reflection of the Christian tradition of the season.

The organizations participating in this project were: Presbyterian church of Richfield, West Bend Homemakers, Kewaskum Woman's club, Germantown Homemakers, Hartford Lions club, St. Vincent de Paul society of West Bend and Hartford, Kirchhayn 4-H club.

You cannot keep a constant watch on your furnace during severely cold weather, but it's a good idea to check it daily. The Institute for Safer Living states that when the home heating plant strains to keep house temperatures at comfortable level, defects or mechanical failures may show up quickly. Frequent checks may help to correct a fault before a fire occurs.

Rep. Van Pelt to Seek Re-Election To Congress Term

Rep. William K. Van Pelt, Republican of Fond du Lac, announced this week that he will seek re-election this year to the House of Representatives, where he has served since January, 1951.

He will run in the new Sixth District which now includes Green Lake county. The original counties of the district are Calumet, Fond du Lac, Ozaukee, Sheboygan, Washington and Winnebago.

Rep. Wm. K. Van Pelt

Congressman Van Pelt stated in his announcement that the new Johnson Administration has embraced most of the New Frontier programs, while adding many new ones.

"I certainly endorse President Johnson's promise to reduce federal spending but find it difficult to reconcile his pledge of frugality with promises to involve the federal government in vast new programs to expand the welfare state here and abroad. President Johnson knows his proposals will cost money—taxpayers' money—and lots of it.

"I think it is important that the people be not beguiled by these new lyrics to an old tune and help elect a conservative congress and chief executive in 1964."

Van Pelt will be seeking his eighth term in Congress where he serves as second ranking Republican on the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries and fourth ranking Republican on the House Committee on Science and Astronautics. He is also a member of the Republican Whip organization and represents the House on the Board of Visitors to the Merchant Marine Academy.

Power Squadron Offers Free Course In Boat Piloting

At a recent educational conference held by the Fond du Lac Power Squadron, educational accomplishments and aims were discussed and a 1964 program was established under the leadership of squadron commander, Henry Rosenheimer of Kewaskum, and educational officer Dick Ackley.

The local squadron is one of 300 of the United States Power Squadrons, a national non-profit organization dedicated to increasing safety and enjoyment of boating through education. This organization conducts free boating classes for the public and advanced courses to members to increase their skill and knowledge in boating and their ability to teach others.

This year is the 50th anniversary of the national organization of the United States Power Squadron and the 9th year of squadron educational work in this area. In previous years, advanced courses were conducted for members in seamanship, advanced piloting, navigation, engine maintenance and weather in addition to the free piloting course conducted for the public each winter.

This year's free piloting course will be held on Tuesday evenings from 7:15 p. m. to 9:15 p. m. at the new Fond du Lac Vocational school on East Johnson st. Registration and introduction took place on Jan. 14 at 7:15 p. m. in room 182 of the vocational school. The piloting course has been revised to meet the specific requirements of small boatmen in this area.

Course material and instruction are furnished by the United States Power Squadrons without obligation of any kind on the part of the student.

All persons interested in furthering their knowledge and enjoyment of boating are urged to attend these classes.

Commander Rosenheimer emphasized the fact that all persons interested in this course are welcome to attend regardless of previous experience, age or sex. Boat ownership is not necessary.

There is a real danger that a battery with a low charge will freeze in addition to causing starting problems during these cold winter nights, says Orrin Berge, University of Wisconsin agricultural engineer.

Mrs. Fred Miller and son Mark of Apple Valley, Calif. arrived by plane on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Miller's father, Albert G. Hron, Sr. They remained to spend the week with her brothers and sister here and will return to California on Saturday.

Carl Larson of Walkerton, Canada, spent the week end and forepart of the week in Kewaskum, coming for the funeral of Albert G. Hron, Sr., and visiting members of the Hron family. Mr. Larson formerly lived in this village for several years, during which time he worked at the present Regal Ware, Inc. plant to study manufacturing methods for his father's firm in Canada. He and his wife also visited here late last summer.

Roland Pledl, Kewaskum police chief, served on a panel of five police officials for a discussion at the December meeting of the Washington County Youth Study Council held at the new courthouse in West Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lynn were among the guests who helped observe the birthday anniversary of Leroy Rilling of Hartford at his home on Tuesday evening, Jan. 7. An evening of cards was enjoyed and Mrs. Rilling served a delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Bob Gruber of Kewaskum was one of four sponsors for the baptism of the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Math Serwe, Jr. at Campbellsport. The twins were baptized at St. Matthew's church by the Rev. Warren Schmitt and were named Cindy Ann and Sandra Kay.

Jan. 8 was our first meeting of the year at the home of our hostess, Mrs. Marie Lettow, R. 2, Kewaskum.

Our president, Mrs. Vern Dahman, started our fund-raising by donating a hand-made teddy bear.

Proceeds from auctioning the teddy bear were added to our treasury.

Health officer, Mrs. Gladys Ramel, reported on everyday tensions that plague us. After a short business meeting the project leaders took over with the salad project. Mmes. Gladys Ramel and Dolores Prost presented information on salad ingredients, dressings, etc. W filled out the quiz sheets on salads. After they showed us many kinds of lettuce they assigned teams of 2 to 5 different salads which we prepared.

We all had fun preparing the salads and even more fun when our hostess served ham sandwiches and coffee which we ate with the salads. This project was really enjoyed by all of us.

On Feb. 10 we will meet at the home of Mrs. Lucy Lecher.

Fifty From County Are Enrolled in UW Home Study Courses

A total of 50 persons in Washington county enrolled in some form of University of Wisconsin correspondence instruction during the 1962-63 fiscal year, the annual report of that department revealed.

Of these study-by-mail students, 7 took non-credit courses, 20 took courses for high school credits and 23 took university credit courses.

These are among the 7,601 in the state of Wisconsin who learned at home last year with the guidance of university instructors.

Thousands more study outside of Wisconsin in all 50 states, in 24 countries and through the United States Armed Forces Institute (USAFI).

The worldwide UW correspondence instruction program was augmented last year when the UW absorbed most of the home study courses formerly offered by the University of Chicago. Both institutions are among the pioneers in this form of education.

Highway gamblers find the cards stacked against them with the return of bad driving weather. The Institute for Safer Living advises that such factors as more hours of darkness, overcast days, slushy roads and stormy weather all combine to pile up the odds against any driver who thinks he can get by with taking chances.

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet

What does it take to make a car a great highway performer?

If the car happens to be a '64 Chevrolet, one thing only. A highway.

You'll find everything else already neatly packaged for you—on the car exactly as you pick it off the showroom floor.

There's a choice of seven engines—all the way up to a twin-carb high-compression 425-hp V8*—and four transmissions, including a finely honed 4-speed stick shift.*

And underlying it all—a bump-skimming Jet-smooth ride that helps keep the performance great even when the highways aren't so great.

What about special performance equipment? Professional driving skills? Forget them.

Nobody has to doctor or coax or soup up these Chevrolets to get the best out of them.

And that's really the test of a great highway performer: Just about anyone can get a kick out of driving one, just about anywhere, just as it comes out of the showroom.

Next time you're out your dealer's way, allow a few extra minutes to sample one of these highway performers on your own. A few are really all you'll need. That's enough time to do a lot of driving in a Chevrolet. *Optional at extra cost

FARM FORUM CLUB MEETINGS

We invite farmers of Washington county to the Farm Forum club, which will be meeting in the extension office in West Bend on Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 8:00 p. m.

This is the second in a series of seven meetings, and the subject under discussion will be concerned with financing farms. It will be presented by Neil Fruedate of the Production Credit association. He will talk about formulas in helping to set up farms in a good sound financial program. All farmers are welcome to attend this meeting.

Last week, at the first meeting of this Farm Forum club series held in Kewaskum, Jim Crowley of the University of Wisconsin dairy department gave some fine advice on feeding dairy cattle.

First of all, he said there are two very wrong ways of feeding dairy cattle. The first one would be to take everything that we produce in terms of crops on our farm, and parcel it out to all the cows so that by the time the next feeding season comes it is all gone. There is no thought given to feeding according to production or anything else.

The second bad way of feeding would be to feed what we have and then buy a little of many other things and feed just a little of each. Neither of these ways is satisfactory, according to Mr. Crowley.

One of the common questions that comes to people who work in the feeding program is how much should a man feed his cows, in terms of corn, oats, bran, etc., and should he use any particular one?

The answer is "no." You don't have to feed any of these, but you must be sure to replace it with something that is equally as good. According to Mr. Crowley, in California barley is used to replace corn. He used this as an example, and we should understand that there is a substitute for almost everything in the feeding program.

He went on to compare the cow with a human being: Human beings work, and they work hard—especially farmers. They do hard physical work, and this takes a lot of energy. It also takes protein to build back cell destruction.

The cow is working, too. She is working very hard, if she is going to produce 10, 12, 15 and more thousand pounds of milk per year. And she simply must be fed to compensate for this tear-down of energy that she goes through day after day.

Years ago we fed grass hay. When we did this it took a 16% concentrate ration. Now we find that most hay is alfalfa or clover.

We now have to cut down the protein ration so that we get it to balance out with the hay ration.

Farmers should not think in terms of "am I feeding alfalfa, corn, oats, bran, etc." They should think in terms of "am I feeding protein, energy, vitamins and minerals."

When a cow eats the feed that you give her, she promptly tears it apart. You know that if you were feeding pigs you must feed animal protein. Not so with cows. You can feed them plant protein, animal protein, or any other balanced protein. She'll tear it apart anyway in her rumen, and when it gets further into the digestive tract, she'll manufacture the things she wants and needs.

The point is that you must give her enough of these raw materials in terms of protein, energy, minerals and vitamins. You could feed great quantities of silage, great quantities of hay, but they must be balanced with good protein and energy rations.

And remember this, you will be better off to sell a few cows and feed the rest of them real good, than to try to feed all of them a little less, and keep them all. The higher the milk production per cow, the more efficient use you get from the hay that you have in your barn.

This was an interesting and informative meeting, and we encourage people to participate in more of them.

FREEZING WATER PIPES

The "best of the week" program can only be the miserable cold weather. However, it is a pest, especially if your water pipes are not buried deep enough into the ground. We will only sum up all of this by recommending to you that you use thermo-tape in any place where the water pipes are tending to be exposed to this real cold weather. Remember that a little extra time spent in insulating the area, where the water pipes might come close to the cold air, will be a good insurance for you and it will save a lot of time later on, should they freeze.

Plan Dinner for Red Cross President at Fond du Lac Jan. 22

Atty. Gerald Marine, chairman of the West Bend Chapter, American Red Cross, announces that a testimonial dinner for General Alfred M. Gruenther will be held at the Hotel Retlaw in Fond du Lac, on Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 6:30 p. m.

The dinner meeting is being held on the eve of the retirement of General Gruenther, who is now president of the American Red Cross.

General Gruenther will be the honored guest at the meeting and the public is cordially invited. He has been president of the ARC since Jan. 1, 1957 and his retirement is planned for March, 1964.

General Gruenther retired from the service in December, 1956, and is especially well known for his handling of the famous Berlin air lift. He has travelled extensively, having had over 400 speaking engagements throughout the world telling the Red Cross story.

The arrangements for the testimonial dinner are being made by the North Eastern Wisconsin Association of Red Cross Chapters. Anyone interested in attending the dinner is urged to contact the West Bend Red Cross chapter office on the second floor of the library building, West Bend, for reservations and transportation, FE 4-5687. Tickets are $3.00 including tax and gratuity.

You'll be hearing more morning songs from the birds if they're well bread.

March of Dimes Plans to Double Birth Defects and Arthritis Centers

Announcing plans to double the present number of March of Dimes birth defects and arthritis centers in the nation, the world's most successful voluntary health organization this week launched its traditional January fund-raising appeal.

Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, which financed development of both polio vaccines, said the goal this year would be $45 million, "a sum our medical and scientific advisers agree we can wisely use to combat the ravages of these cripples. This sum would apply to patient care, research, professional and public education."

The March of Dimes now supports some 77 birth defects and arthritis treatment centers across the country. According to Dr. William S. Clark, director of the medical department of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, the national dimensions of the health problems posed by birth defects and arthritis "have grown to a point where this nation requires at least 100 centers for birth defects and 50 for arthritis."

"Through the generosity of the American people, we will build up our chapter and center programs across the United States to meet their needs. Our offensive against both these crippling afflictions will be redoubled in 1964."

Leading in this offensive will be the members of the 3,000 March of Dimes chapters in the nation plus the volunteers they enlist—an expected army of two million people. The campaign continues throughout January and culminates with the Mothers' March during which some 15 million homes are visited from coast to coast. In addition, a total of 36 million "mailers" are distributed nationally to inform families of the health aims of the March of Dimes and they also serve as a means of returning contributions to local chapters. The herculean task of addressing these envelopes regionally is unselfishly assumed by volunteers—thousands of teenagers, homemakers, grandmothers. Helping to dramatize the campaign will be the cross-country tour of winsome Mary Lou Graves, 5, of Flint, Mich., who was born with an open spine, since repaired, and who developed excess water on the brain, another birth defect which has now rectified itself. Mary Lou, however, is paralyzed in the legs but moves with surprising alacrity with leg braces, crutches and her wheelchair. In addition to vivacious Mary Lou as the National March of Dimes Child, many states, counties and municipalities across the country designate their own March of Dimes Child symbolizing the aims of their local campaigns.

In her travels this month, accompanied by her parents, Mary Lou is scheduled to call upon President Lyndon B. Johnson at the White House and has already visited with many Senators, Congressmen, Governors and other high officials. The pretty five-year-old has "interviewed" the heads of such influential national organizations as the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Elks, Rotary, Kiwanis and other service clubs including the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Amvets, Catholic War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans and others.

An estimated total of 250,000 infants are born each year in the United States with serious birth defects. This is equivalent to one in 16 births, or 700 children a day. Of the quarter million total, more than 30,000 die, including stillbirths. As to arthritis, the other major health area in which the March of Dimes leads the attack, fully 11 million Americans are tormented by one or another form of this, the Nation's No. 1crippler.

Looking Thru the Field Glasses . . .

BY BOB LAKE
Conservation Warden
Washington County

79 DEER KILLED ON COUNTY HIGHWAYS DURING 1963

Seventy-nine deer were killed on Washington county highways during 1963. This past Monday morning the third animal for the 1964 season was killed on Highway 33 just west of the city of West Bend.

There seems to be some confusion in regard to the manner that rabbits may be taken in Washington county. For the average hunter the season will close on Jan. 31, 1964.

The law provides that no one shall hunt game with any means other than the use of a gun discharged from the shoulder or a bow and arrow.

Another section of the law provides relief for the city or village property owner, as well as the farmer. It reads as follows: (The owner or the occupant of any land, and any member of his family may without license hunt thereon rabbits and squirrels at any time, except during the period of 5 days prior to the opening date for deer hunting in those counties or parts of counties where an open season for hunting deer with firearms has been established, and may take thereon at any time by means of live trapping with box traps in incorporated cities or villages or other areas where the firing of a gun is unlawful.

It is unlawful to use a steel trap.

The city land owner may not use a gun. However, he may use a box trap, but only on his property.

The land owner outside the city may use a gun, but not a box trap.

Spend Some Time Now Observing Wild Game

Now that most of the hunting seasons are over and the results of the past season are fresh in your mind, you may wish to spend some time in the field observing what game is left for breeding stock and what you may anticipate for next year's hunting.

This time of the year when the ground is covered with snow, a new book is written each night if you are a keen observer. We suggest you periodically look over your favorite hunting grounds, preferably a day after fresh snow, and see what is going on and what is there. Look for signs in the fresh snow. If you find pheasant signs and they appear to be having difficulty finding sufficient food, provide them with a feeder and keep grain available to them throughout the winter. Your local warden can tell you where this feed can be obtained if you do not have it available. If you notice the number of birds dwindling, find out the reasons. If you are providing feed and grit, they should not be starving. Possibly a poacher is working the area. If you find evidence of this, be sure and give all the information to your friend, the local conservation warden, at once. Observe the predator situation. If you find fox signs, by all means attempt to eliminate him.

There are, of course, other predators besides fox. Do you find signs of winged predators attacking your game? If they are attacking them, you will find ample evidence of it. Here we call your attention to the regulations. If the culprit is a great horned owl, you may eliminate him. However, if it is any other species of owl or any species of hawk, they are protected by law.

Compare the apparent number of birds or animals on your hunting grounds with previous observations. Are there more or less, and what appears to be the reason for the difference in the population if there is a difference. Information you gain in this way may be most valuable to you.

Maybe you are strictly a deer hunter. Here, too, valuable information can be gained by periodic visits to your hunting ground. Here you may notice ups and downs in populations, but the reasons for them may be different. The poacher may be present as mentioned previously; and if he is, of course, the same information applies. Give all the information to your local conservation warden at once. Because a deer has few natural enemies, you are not likely to find evidence of predators. However, you may find considerable evidence of dog kills. Last year hundreds of deer were found killed by dogs in the east central area, and they are just the ones that were found. The number of actual kills no doubt would reach several thousand. If you find this situation, again you should call on your local warden and give him the information. If possible, he will contact the owners of the dogs; if this is not possible, he will eliminate them. Once a dog starts running and killing deer, he is of little use to anyone and most owners have no further use for them and want them destroyed.
