Historymobile to Visit Village; Displays Pioneer History of State

STORY, EXHIBIT OF STATE'S HISTORY SHOWN BY UNIT COMING TUESDAY, FEB. 18

Wisconsin history from geologic times to the start of the Civil War is told in the ambitious theme of the 1963-64 Historymobile. The unit will appear here under the sponsorship of the Kewaskum Statesman on Tuesday, Feb. 18, and will be parked on the Marx Foodliner parking lot. It will be open for viewing from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Indian Weapons, Bones

The title of the exhibition, "Wisconsin: Wilderness—Territory—Frontier State," aptly describes the displays contained inside. The unit opens with a combination archeological and geological exhibit. Here can be seen maps showing the geologic development of the state during the millions of years before man arrived. Possibly man roved along the edge of the retreating glacier 10,000 years ago. If he did, he hunted the huge animals that lived then, including the hairy mammoth, and one display shows a Wisconsin mammoth hunt of 100 centuries ago. There are also stone Indian implements and weapons and a bundle of Indian bones, discovered in excavating a 1,500 year old Indian mound.

The first white men arrived in Wisconsin about three centuries ago. For a century and a half fur traders and missionaries explored the waterways of the state, traded manufactured goods for the beaver furs brought by the Indians and started the process of converting the Indians to Christianity.

Under Three Flags

After the fur traders came the lead miners, the army and finally the pioneer farmers. Originally claimed by France, the area became part of the United States after the Revolutionary War, but once again was occupied by England during the War of 1812. The American army took over in 1815, bringing with it law, schools, and protection. The army built roads and provided a market for the farmers' crops.

Wisconsin 30th State

As more settlers arrived, Wisconsin in 1836 became an independent territory and twelve years later became the 30th state in the Union.

Railroads were built, industries established, and farms were hewed out of the forests and burned out of the prairies. Politicians guided the course of the state through two constitutional conventions and on into statehood.

Each of the important themes of state history are explored in the Historymobile. To tell the story of the state, exhibits utilize artwork, three dimensional diorama techniques and a display of objects actually used by early Wisconsin inhabitants.

Gene ral Store Scene

The concluding scene in the Historymobile is a re-creation of a frontier general store of the 1850's. Little more than a trading post, it specialized in the practical things needed by the pioneers. Kettles, candle molds, jugs, knives

Chairman Edwards Asks Support of Heart Fund Drive

BUSINESS SOLICITATION HEADED BY AUGUST BILGO; HOUSE CANVASS FEB. 22

Dr. R. G. Edwards, local chairman, called upon Kewaskum residents to support the 1964 Wisconsin Heart Association fund drive with contributions and voluntary services "because the heart and blood vessel diseases are our nation's No. 1 health enemy, causing more deaths each year than all other causes of death combined."

"More than 950,000 Americans died from the heart diseases during 1962," Dr. Edwards said, "and more than 10 million living Americans are afflicted."

"Your contributions to the Heart Fund provide the means to continue and expand the Heart association's program of research which is waging a constant battle to control the heart diseases," he said.

"A tentative state goal of $616,000 has been set for the 1964 campaign by the Wisconsin Heart association," Dr. Edwards said. "Half this money will be used to support heart research studies, not only in Wisconsin, but on a national level. The remainder will be used to continue W.H.A.'s programs of education and community service."

Solicitation of business places and rural areas surrounding Kewaskum started the Heart association's fund campaign which be-

Mrs. M. Legate Killed in Car Crash Sunday

RESIDENT OF KEWASKUM UNTIL SEVERAL WEEKS AGO VICTIM OF MISHAP

Mrs. Milton (Valeria) Legate, 23, of 358 Budd st., Hartford, a resident of R. 2, Kewaskum, until recently was fatally injured Sunday night in an accident on Hwy. 33 about 1½ miles west of West Bend. The fatality was the first for 1964 on highways in Washington county.

Injured in the crash was Mrs. Legate's husband, Milton V., 31, of the same address who reportedly suffered multiple lacerations and a possible fracture of the right knee and ankle. He was reported suffering from severe shock at St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, following the mishap. Mrs. Legate was pronounced dead upon admission at the hospital.

Authorities had difficulties in reconstructing the circumstances of the crash because of the condition of Mr. Legate. The auto was traveling east on Hwy. 33, however, when it apparently went out of control near Ralph's Supper club and entered the south ditch, grazed an electric pole with the right side and slid broadside, striking a tree with the left front side just to the rear of the left front wheel. Legate, it was reported, apparently was thrown from the car, landing in the ditch just to the east of the vehicle.

Authorities said they were investigating to determine who was driving the car. Mrs. Legate apparently was pinned in the front seat of the auto. The accident happened about 7:35 p. m. Sunday during a snow storm. The highway was wet and slippery.

Funeral services for Mrs. Legate, nee Valeria Dornacker, who would have been 24 years of age on Wednesday, Feb. 12, were held at St. Kilian's church, Hartford, at 11 a. m. Thursday, the Rev. John Koenig officiating. Burial was in St. Lawrence cemetery, St. Lawrence. Friends called at the Roth-enbach Funeral home, Slinger, from 3 p. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Legate was born in the town of Hartford on Feb. 12, 1940 and prior to moving to Hartford several weeks ago had resided at R. 2, Kewaskum, with her husband and family.

Surviving are her husband, three children, Sharon, Laurie and Gregory; her mother, Mrs. Lorraine Dornacker of R. 2, Kewaskum, and the following sisters and brothers: Marilyn Dornacker of Hartford, Agnes of R. 1, Jackson, Dolores (Mrs. Ed Sauer) of the town of Wayne, Jeanette, Raymond, Richard and Gerald, all at home.

Heart Fund

gan Feb. 1, Dr. Edwards announced.

The business solicitation, headed by August C. Bilgo, Kewaskum, is making its calls Feb. 11-25. The rural division, under the leadership of Wilmer Probst, Arnold Arlering, Reuben Schultz and Edward Dorn, will solicit Feb. 11-21, in the town of Kewaskum.

"Business has a special responsibility in the fight against heart and circulatory diseases," Bilgo said. "Besides causing untold human suffering, the heart and blood vessel diseases are a serious threat to our community's economic welfare. They are responsible for the loss of 72,000,000 man-days of production each year throughout the nation. The estimated cost of this lost production is more than four billion dollars," he said.

"Every businessman has a vital stake in the fight against heart diseases," Bilgo said. "I sincerely hope the business leaders in our community will recognize this fact and give generously. Their contributions make possible the Heart association's programs of research, education and community service," he said.

Sunday, Feb. 23, will be Heart Sunday across the nation and the Kewaskum 4-H club, under the supervision of Mrs. Doris Bunkelman, leader, and local volunteers will march in a mass house-to-house canvass of every home in Kewaskum.

"The volunteer army will distribute health-saving information about the heart diseases and receive contributions for the Heart association's fund campaign," said Dr. Edwards. He said the solicitation would be held Saturday, Feb. 22, in the village.

The Heart Sunday solicitation will give every citizen in the community an opportunity to play a personal role in the crusade against the nation's No. 1 health enemy by giving to the Heart Fund, which makes possible the association's fight against the heart diseases.

Your gift, which you can seal in an envelope the volunteer will hand you, will strike a blow at the heart and blood vessel diseases which took more than 950,000 American lives last year. This total represents more than 54 per cent of all deaths in this country.

Attend Braves' Press Banquet

Publisher William Harbeck and his guest, Harold Marx, attended the Milwaukee Braves' annual banquet for the state press, radio and TV personnel in the Sky Room of the Plankinton hotel, Milwaukee, Sunday. Cocktails at 5 p. m. were followed by dinner at 6:30 o'clock.

President John McHale reported that in 1964 the Braves will feature the biggest radio and TV network in the club's 11 year history in Milwaukee. Nearly 60 stations — practically doubling last year's total of 32—will carry radio broadcasts of the club's games. TV coverage also will be expanded.

A gathering of 285 press, radio and TV writers and announcers, the largest in the event's history, joined the ball club's top brass in attendance at the affair. Included was a seven man delegation from West Palm Beach, Fla., the Braves' spring training site, which presented McHale with a giant replica of the new stadium in that city. The mayor of West Palm Beach spoke briefly.

The Braves presented all personnel attending with gifts of a fine men's traveling kit, Braves pennant and pencil as well as a press kit. The West Palm Beach delegation gave a thermometer and brochure advertising their city, along with coconuts they brought with them on the plane.

Introduced was the new voice of the Braves, 37 year old Merle Harmon, former sports announcer for the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs. Harmon will replace Earl Gillespie, who handled the duties for 11 years and was honored by the Braves with a plaque in a surprise presentation by McHale for "11 outstanding years as the voice of the Braves." Both Gillespie and Harmon spoke briefly.

Ernie Johnson, public relations director and former Braves pitcher, was master of ceremonies. Manager Bobby Bragen of the Braves also spoke. The new owners of the Braves were introduced as were Braves players Joe Torre and Lee Maye. At the end of the program Bragen and McHale conducted a question and answer period. This was followed by colored movies of last fall's World Series between the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Yankees.

Lost: One 6 ft. 7 in. Basketball Player

Anyone ever hear of losing a basketball player, especially one that's 6 feet, 7 inches tall? Well, the Kewaskum Chevrolets did Sunday night at the Mt. Calvary tournament. After playing five games in five days in the meet and two on Sunday, including a double overtime contest in the afternoon, the team was exhausted.

Clarence "Stick" Zimbrick, whom the Chevs picked up from the West Bend Lithias to add depth and scoring power for the tourney, was one of the more tired boys. After dressing following the game, and while waiting for his teammates to come out of the dressing room, "Stick" decided to lie down on the stage of the gym to rest and apparently dozed. No one spotted him and the rest of the team left for home without him, believing he was in another car. When they arrived in Kewaskum they discovered Zimbrick missing. A hurried phone call back to Mt. Calvary informed the team that "Stick" woke up after the lights were out in the gym. He walked into the tavern adjoining the gym, which is located in the community hall, to find his mates gone and was driven back to Kewaskum by one of the tourney officials.

Zimbrick was one of the outstanding stars and top scorers in the tournament. He scored 169 points in six games. His totals were 21, 23, 43 (highest in the meet), 34, 29 and 19.

Manager Leroy Bier said he has lost many players on fouls, had them "kicked out" and had other strange things happen on his team but never before lost one of his players.

Electric blankets, heaters, humidifiers for solid winter comfort

Winter hibernation might be just great for bears — but not for people, of course. But another good way to keep warm and comfortable all winter long is to move summertime right indoors with you — electrically.

Examples? You'll sleep deep all night long under a lightweight electric blanket — its wonderful warmth automatically maintained exactly as you set it. Dual controls, if you wish, for perfect "His and Hers" comfort.

Have a hard-to-heat room? A bathroom, for example, or a room distant from the furnace? For supplementary heating, you can't beat an electric heater. You get heat almost instantly... where and when you want it.

Excessive winter dryness is a common complaint in most homes. An electric humidifier automatically maintains humidity at the comfort level — prevents dryness so irritating to nose, throat, and skin. One symptom of excessive dryness is static sparks when you touch some object in your home.

These are some of the many ways to make life healthier, more comfortable for the family that deserves the best — all-electric living... your family!

KEWASKUM MODERN MRS.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 4, an open meeting was held at the Kewaskum High school gym.

We are grateful to Attorneys Roger McKenna and Mark Rosenheimer for their informative talks on wills and property transfers.

They gave the prerequisites for making a good will, the legal steps involved when no will is made, the changing of a will by adding a codicil and a glance at the state and federal gift and inheritance tax rates.

Miss Doris Rogers, Washington county home agent, encouraged questions from the audience.

We thank Miss Rogers and Attorneys McKenna and Rosenheimer for their helpful advice.

After the meeting our club members and husbands met at the Erwin Bullette home.

We Modern Mrs. held a short business meeting and then joined our Modern Mistresses in the living room for conversation and a delicious serving of pumpkin pie and coffee.

Our Police Chief Says

Last Tuesday morning at 8 a. m. one of our high school students, while driving east on Main st., was almost struck by a south-bound passenger train. The sun blinded the driver's view and she did not see the wig-wag danger signal. These signals and lights are hard to see when the sun is bright and drivers are urged to be cautious.

axes and guns were available for customers. There were some food items such as beans, dried fruit, tea and coffee, but most farmers were pretty much self sufficient so far as food was concerned. Of course, there was tobacco and whiskey for the men, and for the women there were fancy hats and shawls. The objects that are displayed on the shelves and in the bins of the frontier store actually were used by Wisconsin pioneers and were donated to the society by Wisconsin people.

Make Advance Reservations

Adults and children alike will find much of interest in this year's Historymobile. Schools are urged to make reservations with the local sponsor for group tours in order to prevent overcrowding and delays. Adult groups wishing to tour the unit also should make advance reservations through the local sponsor. Small groups and individuals are welcome at any time.

This year's exhibits will provide the visitor a background for the Historymobile shows for the next two years. Next year the unit will tell the story of Wisconsin during the Civil War and the following year it will cover the recent history of the state under the title "Wisconsin—A Century of Progress."

Local Ag Students Join in National FFA Week Activities

KEWASKUM CHAPTER HAS 79 MEMBERS; OFFICERS NAMED

Vocational agriculture students in Kewaskum High school will join Future Farmers of America members throughout the nation in activities to focus attention on the importance of agriculture during National FFA Week, Feb. 16-22.

"AGRICULTURE—Dynamic . . . Challenging" is this year's FFA Week theme. The farm boys will undertake a campaign to inform the general public about the importance of the agricultural industry to America, the growing need for farming, and of the numerous and wide variety of opportunities that exist in the broad field of agriculture for young men who have a background of farm experience and training.

We have such an abundance of food in America that people are taking farmers for granted. Actually, farming is our largest and most vital industry, and it is becoming increasingly important with our expanding population. In our area, particularly, most of the businesses, and most of the jobs, are basically dependent upon surrounding farms for their existence. Take away the farms and for all practical purposes you would destroy the entire community.

Membership in the FFA is made up of boys who are students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the boys to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishment in farming or other agricultural occupations.

The Kewaskum FFA chapter has 79 members. Officers are:

Lee Schmidt, president; Gene Schneider, vice president; Ken Ramthun, treasurer; Gary Burke, secretary; John Eggert, sentinel; Ken Becker, reporter.

The national Future Farmer organization has 395,812 members, with 8,372 local chapters in the 50 states and Puerto Rico.

Future Farmers choose the week of George Washington's birthday each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War general and our first President, Washington's first love was the farm. He was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotations, fertilization, and other soil conservation and improvement methods.

Morning comes long before you're ready for it.

Meeting for Cancer Crusade Leaders

Michael J. Asztalos, Waukesha district manager for the Wisconsin Electric Power Co., was the main speaker at the Waukesha area American Cancer Society Crusade meeting held in Waukesha on Tuesday. Asztalos has been with the Electric Co. since 1950 and came to the Waukesha position from Burlington. He is a native of Waukesha and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

The Waukesha-area Crusade meeting, one of six such meetings being held in Wisconsin, was conducted for the Crusade leadership from 10 southeastern Wisconsin counties—Walworth, Racine, Kenosha, Jefferson, Waukesha, Dodge, Washington, Ozaukee, Fond du Lac and Sheboygan. The meetings help train the county unit Crusade leaders who, in turn, train the county crusaders for this county.

Asztalos, in his talk at the noon luncheon, paid tribute to the outstanding Crusade conducted last year, but emphasized that "as in football, past records are forgotten as the new season begins. Many times we fail because we look back on past accomplishments and goals." He also pointed out that "Volunteers of the American Cancer Society have within your power the elimination of cancer from the human race."

The Crusade leadership from this county also heard about the educational phase of the April Crusade—"Tell Your Neighbor," in which the crusaders are being "schooled" in the American Cancer Society's educational, service and research programs of the society so as to better relate this information to contributors in the April Crusade against cancer.

Historymobile Will Arrive Here Soon

Historymobile II, now making its second tour of the state, will arrive here soon. This year's exhibition is the first of a three part series on the history of Wisconsin. Entitled "Wisconsin: Wilderness - Territory - Frontier State," it is operated by the State Historical Society. In this replica of an 1850 pioneer general store curators Jake and Irene Tschudy play the parts of storekeeper and customer.

The tools of the pioneers who hewed Wisconsin out of the wilderness included the musket and powder horn as well as crude farming equipment. Often trees were cut and burned to open fields for the planting of crops. Wild game was an important staple.

Wisconsin was opened to white civilization by fur traders and missionaries. For a century and a half after the first white man arrived it was governed successively by France, England and United States. However, it remained for the most part an unexplored wilderness until the third decade of the 19th century.

In the decade before the Civil War railroads penetrated the Wisconsin wilderness and a route to market was opened for the products of the frontier farms. This year's Historymobile closes as the secession of South Carolina from the union heralded the approach of the Civil War.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as presented upon motion by Trustee Geidel, seconded by Trustee Degner and duly carried.

Assessor Carl F. Schaefer discussed with the board his suggested recommendations for adjusting the valuations of certain properties in the 1964 assessment roll.

The request of the Kewaskum Theatre for an adjustment in their 1st, 2nd and 3rd quarter, 1963,

Superintendent of Public Works Oppermann was authorized as follows: (1) secure and submit to the board cost estimate for a dump truck and snow plow, either new or used; (2) contract for the power cleaning of the sanitary sewer mains in those areas of the village where he feels it is necessary; (3) attend the water works operator's short course at Madison on March 31st and April 1st and 2nd with the reasonable expenses incurred, in attending such course, to be paid for by the water department.

Upon motion by Trustee Wieter, seconded by Trustee Reigle, the board adjourned subject to call.

COMMISSIONER

Have you checked the tread of your tires lately? Tires in good condition help assure needed traction on slippery roads, the motor vehicle department points out. Snow tires are helpful under most winter conditions, but the use of reinforced tire chains provides the best self-help answer when facing the problems of climbing slippery grades, getting through deep snow, or covering long stretches of icy pavement.

Win 2 More Tourney Games Before Being Eliminated Sunday

WIN $25 IN PRIZE MONEY; SIXTEEN TEAMS ENTERED

The Kewaskum Chevrolets of the Land o' Lakes league did very well for themselves in the double elimination Mt. Calvary Invitational basketball tournament. Out of 16 very strong teams in the meet, the Chevs copped fourth place good for $25.00 in prize money.

The Chevs won four games and lost two in the tourney. In their opening contest, Jan. 31 they defeated Haberkorn's of Oshkosh, 75-63, but in the second game Wednesday, Feb. 5, they were edged by Menomonee Falls, first half champion and unbeaten leader in the Lakes loop, 86-79. However, being a double elimination meet, Kewaskum remained in the championship running. In their third game Thursday, Feb. 6, the Chevs belted Club 41 of Sheboygan, 106-83. Playing for the third night in succession Friday, Feb. 7, Kewaskum trounced Port Washington of the Lakes league, 91-64, to advance another round in the tournament. Returning to action Sunday afternoon they shaded Hewitt's Machine team of Neenah, 90-89, to gain the quarter-finals Sunday night. Playing five hard games in five days, the Chevs were a very tired bunch of boys Sunday night and lost to New Holstein Athletic club, 94-64. This was their second setback and finally eliminated them from the meet.

With Kewaskum's elimination Sunday night, only three teams are still surviving in the tourney, which ends with the finals this coming Sunday. New Holstein, the team that eliminated the Chevs, meet Reedsville Friday night in the semi-finals and the winner meets Menomonee Falls Sunday afternoon. If Falls wins in the afternoon they will cop the championship because they are unbeaten in the meet. If Falls loses, the same two teams will have to play again for the title in the evening as teams must lose two to be eliminated. First prize money is $100, second $75, third $50 and Kewaskum took the fourth prize of $25.

Results of Kewaskum's first three games were published in last week's issue. In the fourth contest Friday night with Port Washington, the Chevs trailed at the quarter, 21-17, but went ahead, 39-35, at halftime. Then they steadily pulled away, leading 62-54 at the end of the third period. They closed with a rush, scoring 29 points to Port's 10 in the final quarter to win easily, 91-64. "Stick" Zimbrick, a loanee from West Bend, took scoring honors with 34 points for the winners, while Otto Ramthun dumped in 20. John DeMerit paced Port with 22. Zimbrick had also hit for 43 points Thursday night, high in the tournament.

Sunday afternoon's tussle with Hewitt's of Neenah was a real ding-dong battle as competition became tougher near the end of the tourney. The Chevs and Neenah played to a 78-78 tie in regulation time and were forced into double overtime before Kewaskum finally emerged the winner by a scant 90-89 margin. The teams tied again in the first overtime period, 82-82. Then in the second overtime Al Tennes scored the winning basket on a layup as the final horn blew. The Chevs fought back from way behind to pull this one out of the fire. They trailed at halftime, 45-36, and were behind by 17 points at one time in the third quarter before turning on the steam to overtake Hewitt's with a big last period and finally pull out the win. Zimbrick with 29 points and Ramthun with 24 paced the Chevs to a thrilling victory. Pecerenboom was the top point man in the tilt with 32 for Neenah. Kewaskum lost three players on fouls in the affair and still emerged on top.

After their hard, double overtime game in the afternoon, a pooped team took the floor again in the evening in the quarter-finals. Their fatigue was evident as they took a pretty bad beating from New Holstein, 94-66, dropping them out of the meet. They kept pace in the first half, trailing 20-15 at the quarter and only 38-35 at the intermission. But the Chevs no longer were able to keep pace and fell behind 62-51 in the third period. By the final quarter they had little left and New Holstein scored 30 points to win going away. Ering with 23 points and Klapperick with 22 paced the winners. Zimbrick's 19 were tops for Kewaskum.

Chevs to Play at Mayville Saturday

After having a bye in the schedule last week end while participating in the Mt. Calvary tournament, the Kewaskum Chevs will return to Land o' Lakes action this Saturday night in the second half while the Chevs have a slightly better 1-3 record.

In games last week end Watertown beat Mayville 102-94 and Port Washington bested West Bend 89-81. West Bend had only five players available for the game because of one of them, "Stick" Zimbrick, playing with Kewaskum in the Mt. Calvary tournament, and for other reasons. The Menomonee Falls-Fond du Lac tilt was postponed because of these two teams also participating in the Mt. Calvary meet.

Indians Defeat Bells, Orioles, Take 2nd Place

The Kewaskum Indians bowled over Campbellsport and North Fond du Lac in Scenic Moraine conference games the past week to move up into undisputed second place in the standings as the result of Pewaukee's upset of Random Lake.

Friday night at Campbellsport the Indians won easily, belting the Bells by 30 points, 95-65. Playing at North Fondy Tuesday, Kewaskum found the going rough and had to come from behind to beat the Orioles, 88-81. This win gave them an 8-2 record, good for the second spot in the conference.

The Indians set a season high in scoring 95 points against the Bells. They almost equalled this total against North Fondy, scoring 88, to give them 183 points in two games.

The Indians rolled to a 44-30 halftime lead at Campbellsport and then pumped in 51 points in the second half to the Bells' 35 to win handily. Mike Coulter, one of the conference's top scorers, led Kewaskum with 28 points, followed by Dan Survis with 16 and Bob Miller with 12. John Wolfe hit 27 for Campbellsport, which holds fifth place with a 3-6 record.

In their 88-81 conquest over North Fondy, the Indians took a 25-21 lead in the first quarter but the Orioles shaved the margin to one point, 44-43, at the intermission. North Fondy went ahead by eight points in the third period but Kewaskum fought back to gain a 66-66 tie at the end of the period. Then the Indians turned on the steam to outscore the eager Orioles, 22-15, in the final stanza to pull away and win by seven points.

Bob Rossow was the hot man for the winners, scoring 30 points his best of the season, to pace all scorers. Mike Coulter was close behind with 22, a figure equalled by Rich Groeschel of North Fondy.

Survis and Miller each chipped in 13 for the victors.

While Kewaskum was beating the Orioles, Random Lake was surprised by Pewaukee, 59-49, dropping the Rams behind the Indians into third place with 8-3. Grafton won its 11th straight conference game Tuesday and remains unbeaten in first place. They can clinch at least a tie for the title by winning at Random Lake Friday.

This Friday Kewaskum hosts Germantown, which has won only one game and rests in the cellar. This should be a breather for the Indians before taking on Pewaukee and Grafton in two toughies.

Bowling Tips...

BALL AT WAIST LEVEL ADDS POWER IN APPROACH

Resting the ball comfortably at waist level prior to the approach steps and swing is a requisite for "strikepower." Ray Schanen of Milwaukee, one of the nation's top professional bowlers and member of the Miller High Life advisory staff, demonstrates the proper stance and ball position prior to the approach and swing. As the approach starts, the ball should be pushed forward, away from the body. As your forward motion continues, the ball should be allowed to follow a natural pendulum swing down, back and forward into the release. The backswing should follow a natural course and should not be forced into excessive heights. A few practice sessions will eliminate the chest and shoulder-high starting positions which detract from good balance and aim.

Bill is a sophomore in arts and science at Platteville. He is a residents hall counselor and is majoring in agriculture and minoring in chemistry.
