John Byrne, 18 Killed in Crash West of Village

TOWN WAYNE YOUTH, 1963 GRADUATE, KILLED WHEN CAR HITS POLE, CULVERT

John W. Byrne

John W. Byrne, 18, of the town of Wayne, R. 1, Allenton, suffered fatal injuries when the car he was driving left Hwy. 28 about 5½ miles west of Kewaskum early Sunday morning. His death raised the highway death toll in Washington county to 21 for 1964.

Byrne, who was alone in the car, was traveling west on Hwy. 28 when he apparently fell asleep and his auto, believed traveling at a high rate of speed, struck a utility pole and then careened into a culvert and rolled over four times before coming to a halt. The youth was thrown from the car in the crash which occurred about 3 a. m. Sunday. He suffered a skull fracture and other injuries.

Born Sept. 22, 1945, he was a lifelong resident of the town of Wayne. He graduated from St. Kilian's Parochial school at St. Kilian and Kewaskum Community High school with the class of 1963. At the time of his death he was attending the West Bend Vocational school and was assisting his father with the operation of their farm in the town of Wayne.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Byrne; a 13-year-old brother, Thomas, at home; many uncles, aunts, cousins and other relatives. His mother is the former Adeline Dreikosen.

Young Byrne was a member of the Holy Name society of St. Kilian's church and the Wayne Wranglers Riding club.

Funeral services were conducted at St. Kilian's Catholic church at 10 a. m. Thursday, Sept. 17, with the Rev. Robert A. Wolf of Elkhart Lake as celebrant of the Solemn Requiem Funeral High Mass and the Rev. John Mikolajczyk of Beaver Dam as deacon and the Rev. Joseph Conley of Ashford as sub-deacon. Burial was in the church cemetery. Friends paid their respects at Miller's Funeral home, Kewaskum, after 2 p. m. Wednesday and the Rosary was recited at 8 p. m.

Why is it a fat pedestrian is always in the middle of the street when the light changes?

Water Fight Champion Is Random Lake

The annual Badger Firemen's association water fight tournament was held Sunday afternoon in the Kewaskum village park starting at 12:30 p. m. and continuing throughout the afternoon. Thirteen fire departments participated in the tournament with the Kewaskum department serving as host.

The tournament championship was won by Random Lake, which went through all of its fights without a defeat. All other departments lost at least one round in the double elimination meet. Second place went to Fillmore and third place was awarded to Woodland. Trophies were awarded to the above three top teams.

Other fire departments participating in the tourney included Theresa, Kewaskum, Beechwood, St. Lawrence, Allenton, Jackson, Cedarburg, Boltonville, Campbellsport and Newburg.

The tournament was a fine success and was well attended. Everything went off smoothly and the firemen made out well financially. Brats, popcorn and refreshments were served. There was no admission charge.

Between 500 and 600 Attend Elementary School Open House

The open house at the new addition to the Kewaskum elementary school on Sunday was a fine success, according to Principal Richard E. Zarling, who estimated that between 500 and 600 persons attended between 1 and 5 p. m.

Maps of the entire building were provided for everyone, with the rooms numbered and identified as to grade and teacher. After touring the building everyone was invited to the cafeteria to have coffee and cupcakes provided by the PTA.

Kiwanis Live Turkey Shoot This Sunday

TWELFTH ANNUAL EVENT AT BAR-N RANCH; SHOOT ATTRACTS THOUSANDS

The Kewaskum Kiwanis club will sponsor its twelfth annual Live Turkey Shoot on Sunday, Sept. 20, at the Bar-N Dude Ranch, six miles northeast of Kewaskum on County Trunk GGG, the beautiful Kettle Moraine drive.

Patterned after the historic turkey shoots which were so popular in frontier days, this fascinatingly interesting annual event has become an outstanding attraction. Thousands of men, women and children from all over the state attend as participants and spectators.

The Turkey Shoot is handled as follows: large live turkeys are protected behind an earthen bunker at the end of the rifle range with only their heads exposed to the marksman. For a fee of $1.00 for three shots, (four shots for a dollar on advance sale tickets) the marksman attempts to hit the turkey's head from the firing line, using a .22 rifle. The turkey he hits is the turkey he gets for the family larder. Rifles and ammunition are furnished.

A live trout fishing contest is another popular attraction. It offers fine sport for the pro and amateur alike. The angler keeps all the fish he catches. Additional prizes are offered for those catching the most fish.

Other events include trap and deer target shooting. Sportsmen desiring to enter these events may bring their own shotguns, rifles and ammunition. An authentic cross-bow direct from Switzerland will be used in a target event. Here's an opportunity for Robinhood admirers to test their skill. In addition, there are games for every member of the family to enjoy. Shelter, hot and cold food and beverages will be available.

The shoot is sponsored by the Kewaskum Kiwanis club with all profits going to their youth and community benefit funds.

Schaefer Twins Brides Saturday

Becoming brides on Saturday, Sept. 12, during an 11 a. m. Mass in Holy Trinity church, Kewaskum, at which the Rev. John T. Budde officiated, were the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Schaefer, R. 2, Kewaskum. Dianne F. exchanged vows with David R. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Weber, of 607 E. Franklin st., Waupun, while Donna became the bride of Frank Stoffel, Jr. of Campbellsport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoffel, Sr.

The twins were identically attired in full skirted floor length gowns of silk organza with an all over pattern of Schiffl embroidery. A cummerbund accented the waistline of the fitted bodice, while a huge rose accented the back waist. Orange blossoms with pearl shell flowers held their bouffant four-tiered veils. Their flowers were Hawaii roses with stephanotis.

Mrs. Mark Rodenkirch served as matron of honor for her sisters. Her gown of gold taffeta featured a floor length skirt over a street length sheath, elbow length sleeves and a scoop neckline. A large velvet rose held her veil. She carried yellow and orange mums with Hawaii roses and Croton leaves. Serving as bridal aides for Donna were Misses Kathleen Stoffel and Mary Rohlinger. Dianne had Mrs. Sheldon Gerke, sister of her bridegroom, and Mrs. Wayne Mannigal, a friend, as her bridesmaids. All were identically attired in emerald green taffeta dresses and headpieces styled like that of Mrs. Rodenkirch. Their flowers were also identical.

Mark Rodenkirch, brother-in-law of the brides, attended both Mr. Weber and Mr. Stoffel as best man. Serving as groomsmen for Mr. Weber were a brother-in-law, Sheldon Gerke, and a friend, Wayne Mannigal. Mr. Stoffel's groomsmen were Melvin Stoffel and David Ours. Miss Marlene Jung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Jung, R. 1, Kewaskum, became the bride of John W. Klahn, son of Mrs. Wilmer Klahn R. 1, Cascade, and the late Mr. Klahn, during a 10:30 a. m. Mass at St. Michael's church, St. Michaels, on Saturday, Sept. 5. The Rev. Ignatius Stakunas officiated.

Bouquet taffeta fashioned the bride's full skirted gown. Pearl embroidery and lace medallions in a scroll design accented the fitted, long sleeved bodice, and a bow with streamers detailed the back waistline. Pearl and lace trim was repeated on the full flowing chapel train skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was gathered to a pearl trimmed organza rose with pearlized orange blossoms. Stephanotis, lily of the valley and ivy formed her bouquet.

Sharon Klahn served as honor attendant for her brother's bride in a gown of viva rose embossed peau with a floor length controlled skirt. A floating panel fell from the back neckline of the fitted bodice and petite bows accented the bracelet length sleeves. Her hat of velvet leaves and pearls held her tiered veil and she carried a bird-cage of white fujis, pink pom poms, natural wheat and cat tails and soft pink grapes. Identically styled ensembles in royal blue were worn by the bridal aides, Mrs. Dave Jung, a sister-in-law of the bride, Mary Jung a cousin, Margaret Klahn, the bridegroom's sister, and Kay Broecker, a friend. They carried bird cages of white fujis with blue pom poms and blue grapes. The flower girl, Laura Lee Rodenkirch, wore a white floor length dress and floral hat with seed pearls and a circle veil. ## Questions & Answers on University Center Under Study for West Bend

Following is the second in a series of questions and answers regarding the proposed two-year University Center for West Bend, prepared by the local committee. Readers can direct questions and comments in written form to your county clerk or city clerk of West Bend or can express their opinion in letters to the editor.

9. How many students would attend the West Bend Center?

If the Center were started in 1967 or 1968, it is estimated that there would be 165 freshmen in the first year; in the second year, 250 freshmen and sophomores. It is estimated that there would be about 500 students in the Center by 1970 and 700 by 1973.

10. Why has West Bend been chosen?

Sites have been chosen by a study of population from kindergarten to present high school graduates, tempered by other factors such as migration trends. To meet the criterion, there should be 1,000 to 1,250 high school graduates within 29 miles of the center. There are 1,678 high school graduates within 20 miles of West Bend. The study indicates that the area north of Milwaukee and south of Fond du Lac is the fastest growing area in the state: from 1957 to 1962, Ozaukee County high school graduates increased 67%; Washington County, 32%. West Bend is in the center of this fast growing area.

Because there are county teachers' colleges (among others) in Mayville, Columbus, Richland Center and Reedsburg, there has been some pressure to set up the centers in these municipalities. However, the co-ordinating committee feels that these are not the right locations population-wise (except Richland Center) and is asking that the county teachers' colleges be phased out. If Mayville, Columbus or Reedsburg were chosen, it would throw off their whole population study for West Bend, Beaver Dam and Baraboo in this tier across the state. In some of the early centers there was compromise on facilities and the university feels that this is unwise in the long pull.

11. How much does it cost for the initial outlay?

Local: It is difficult to be specific on this question without further study. Sheboygan county started its center in 1961. It has an enrollment of about 200 and a capacity of about 550. The local community spent $1,192,000 for buildings and 63 acres of land including roads and parking. Manitowoc county started in 1962 and has an enrollment of 270 with a capacity of 400. The local community spent $850,000 for buildings and 40 acres of improved land including roads and parking.

State: In Sheboygan, the state spent $175,000 for equipment; in Manitowoc, $165,000. Their equipment includes all furniture and fixtures, laboratory equipment and library books.

Federal: The Federal Facilities Act has been authorized but appropriation has not been passed. When and if it is passed, the federal government would provide 40% of the cost of the facilities (local and state).

Note: To give a perspective on this cost, the current full value assessment of Washington county is $310 million of which about 25% is represented by the city of West Bend. Full value assessment in Ozaukee county is about $268 million.

12. What is the annual cost (aside from interest)?

Local: The average cost for maintenance, utilities and half of the custodial costs in the present centers is about $75 per student.

State: The average state instructional cost in the present centers is about $700 per student and the university would receive $300 tuition to offset against this. There has been some talk of lower tuition in the centers but no action has been taken on this.

13. What local governments would pay for the center?

The local governments first must judge the desirability of the project relative to its cost and to the other needs of the communities involved. How the project, if approved, is financed, would be a matter of discussion among the units of government involved. The local portion of financing by the nine existing centers has been allocated approximately as follows:

Manitowoc: Generally by Manitowoc county. The city provided utilities, roads, parking and landscaping but recovered some of this through residential lots sold. Sheboygan by Sheboygan county although the city paid for the major part of the utility extension.

Racine: Generally by the city of Racine. The city is a major part of the county and the county has a teachers' college at Union Grove.

Menasha: (Fox Valley) Outagamie county 50%, Winnebago county 50%.

Green Bay: Brown county furnished the building and the city of Green Bay donated 10 acres of park land.

Wausau: 100% by Marathon county.

Kenosha: 50% by city of Kenosha, 50% by Kenosha county. The city also extended the utilities.

Marinette: The center is now in a vocational school building. The county is paying for the whole new facility but the city has made a tentative commitment to pay for some utilities.

Marshfield: This new center is being financed 50% by the city of Marshfield and 50% by Wood county.

The distribution of cost needs careful study. Anyone could attend the West Bend center by paying the same tuition they pay at Madison. The local governments would receive no tuition for students outside of their own communities. Moreover, those students nearer the center would get relatively the most benefit even though it would be within commuting distance of all the area served. The high schools nearest the center would be West Bend, Slinger and Kewaskum, and it is estimated that about 15% of the high school graduates from this group would attend this center. The next nearest group would be Campbellsport, Grafton and Hartford. The outer circle is Port Washington, Rubicon and Germantown, and it is estimated that about 3% of this group would attend the center.

Mrs. Backhaus had resided in the town of Kewaskum all her life with the exception of the past 10 months. She had been ailing for two years with complications attributed to advanced age.

Mrs. Backhaus was born Nov. 9, 1877, in the town of Kewaskum, a daughter of the late John and Barbara Schuppel Klein. Her marriage to Mr. Backhaus took place at St. Lucas Lutheran church, Kewaskum, on Nov. 25, 1905, with Rev. Greve officiating. He predeceased her on March 22, 1952.

They were the parents of two children, one son having died in infancy. Surviving are a daughter Florence (Mrs. Stange); one son-in-law, two grandchildren, Mrs. Elmer Schmidt and David Stange of Adell, R. R.; one great-grandson, Ricky; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Fred Klein, Sr. of R. 1, Kewaskum, and other relatives. Four brothers and four sisters preceded her in death.

Mrs. Backhaus was a member of the Ladies' Aid of St. Lucas church.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Sept. 16, at St.

Lucas Lutheran church, Kewaskum, the Rev. Donald Bitter officiating. Burial took place in Lutheran Memorial Park. Friends called at Miller's Funeral home, Kewaskum, from 3 p. m. Tuesday until 11 a. m. Wednesday and at the church from 12 noon until the time of services.

GAS IS GREAT...because

The modern way to take the work out of washday is with an automatic GAS clothes dryer. Safe for even the most delicate fabrics, a gas clothes dryer heats up fast... then quickly and gently blows the moisture away, just like a soft summer breeze. And, not only does a gas clothes dryer cost less to install... it operates for one-fourth the cost of other dryers. Think of the money you save! It's like drying four loads of clothes for the price of one!

County Agent News Notes

By MAURICE J. HOVLAND
Washington County Agent

SOIL CONSERVATION LAYOUT

The season of layout for the soil conservation work in Washington county is now at hand. Harold Ryan and his staff will be helping farmers get their land laid out properly into contour strips, waterways, water diversions, and the like.

We are happy to report that the program has exceeded our fondest hopes of a few years ago. These men have so many requests for work in Washington county that at times they have difficulty keeping up with it. Naturally we would like to see it continue to improve, and to see an ever-increasing number of farms active in this program. It protects all of your resources; it assures you a balanced rotation; and more important, it keeps the soil and fertilizer and water on your farm where you can use it. It doesn't wash down to a stream where it will feed the fish. This is a program important to every farm in Washington county.

DON'T TRANSPLANT TREES

We have had several calls about transplanting trees and plants at this time of year. We should like to say this: don't. Wait until the plant that you want to move is completely dormant, which will be after a hard killing frost. While you might move them now and have success, the odds are against it. So we suggest that you wait until late fall to do this sort of work.

RESPECT OWNER'S LAND

Driving along the country roads, I can see that there will be many people out hunting butternuts in the weeks ahead. The trees are loaded with nuts.

This article is to urge you to respect the man who owns the land adjacent to these trees. If the tree is growing on the shoulder of the road, we see no reason why you cannot pick up those nuts. This is your privilege, as long as you park your car off the road and do not become a traffic hazard. But under no circumstances may you cross the fence to pick up these nuts, without the owner's permission.

This applies to butternut hunters, animal hunters, and anyone else. You have no right on a farmer's land without his permission.

Let me tell you this story. I don't know whether it is true. Supposedly a farmer noticed a group of people who had stopped along the road and were picnicking on his land. He said nothing, but did get their license number. After they had gone, he picked up all the garbage and paper and trash they left behind, and put it in a box. After finding out where the car owner lived he took the box of garbage and threw it on his lawn. You can imagine the fracas that resulted. But it wasn't any more unfair for the farmer to do what he did than for the picnickers to leave a mess on the farmer's property.

Please respect a landowner's rights, and there will be no misunderstanding or problems. You will have far less trouble when you want to hunt, or want to pick up butternuts along the road.

FRESH APPLES FOR SALE

We're seeing a great many apples for sale around the county. We suggest you investigate some of these orchards and enjoy these freshly picked apples while you can. The season is short at best.

Looking Thru the Field Glasses...

By Bob Lake, Conservation Warden, Washington County

DEER PARTY PERMIT APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

Deer party permit applications are now available at all license depots in Washington county. They must be postmarked on or before Sept. 25, 1964.

A total of 28,540 party permits will be issued this fall as compared to only 5,500 in 1963. While this figure crops but a fraction of the harvestable surplus, full scale use of the variable quota will await public understanding and support. Trained observers, however, think the herd this fall is at its highest level since 1950 when hunters bagged nearly 168,000 deer.

The deer party permit gives a group of four or more hunters the right to bag one surplus deer, either buck, doe or fawn. There are 24 quota areas and each permit is valid only in the area for which it is issued and nowhere else. The quota areas are indicated on the state map in the big game hunting regulations.

We continue to get questions on using a pistol to finish off a bear after it has been wounded with a bow and arrow.

The answer is definitely NO. The season is open for hunting bear and deer with a bow and arrow only from Sept. 26 through Nov. 17.

While the regulation has been changed and now allows the possession of a firearm while hunting during the bow and arrow only season, it does not allow the using in any manner of such a firearm to shoot any deer or bear.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Dad, Fred Brockhaus, who passed away 60 years ago, on Sept. 16, 1904:

There is a world above
Where parting is unknown
A whole eternity of love
Formed for the good alone
Which faith beholds
For the path to trace
To see us face to face.

Sadly missed by the surviving family (nee Brockhaus), Ella, Amanda, Anna and Elizabeth.

There's divided opinion about a new preacher. The division is between the afflicted he's comforted and the comfortable he's afflicted.—Changing Times

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Kewaskum may get a swimming pool much sooner than expected. Read this letter from a resident who used our river swimming beach all summer.

"Although the Kewaskum Municipal Beach has been and will continue to be a fine part of Kewaskum's recreation facilities, it must be admitted there are certain drawbacks to it which have come to light especially this past summer.

The water, reasonably clean bacteriologically, remained murky throughout the summer. At many times it was impossible to see even 5 to 6 inches below the surface. Children, home from swimming, found it necessary to take baths, and mothers had to wash swim suits to clean off the muck. The dirty water also hides below surface obstacles. Old tin cans, sharp rocks, wire, waterlogged branches, and broken bottles lie hidden in the muck beyond the sandy beach. Such objects account for the many cuts and other injuries that occur at the beach in the course of a summer. It is not inconceivable that this same dirty water could hide a drowning child.

No good diving exists at our beach. Children must dive in either shallow water or off the dam or rocks, both of which are very dangerous.

Finally, the beach provides swimming enjoyment for only a few months of the year. This summer had exceptionally few good swimming days. The river was, at various times, low and stagnant, high and full of debris washed from upstream, or just plainly too cold in which to swim."

As nearly everyone knows I have advocated an indoor swimming pool for our fine village and I appreciate the comments given by this user of our beach.

The profits from the annual Kiwanis Turkey Shoot go to help all youth recreational facilities and this includes a swimming pool.

On Sunday, Sept. 20, will be the next annual Turkey Shoot. Shooting begins at 9:00 a. m.

Let us all be there to get our turkey and help the youth fund

Horicon Beats Indians in 4th Quarter, 14-0

The Kewaskum Indians moved into faster company to pry off the lid on the 1964 football season, playing their opener at Horicon Friday night against the Marshmen of the Little Ten conference in a non-conference game. The Indians held Horicon to a scoreless 0-0 tie until the final quarter when the Marshmen broke loose with two touchdowns to win, 14-0.

For three quarters Horicon was unable to move the ball against the big Kewaskum defense. The Indians had several drives going but the Marshmen defense tightened and forced them to punt or they lost the ball on fumbles. Horicon, too, had a few first downs but then was stopped cold. The passing game almost did not exist in the first half as not one was completed. Horicon's receivers were open at times but the big Kewaskum line put on a fierce charge and forced quarterback Gary Luck to run with the ball or over throw.

After having drives stopped and exchanging punts and fumbles for three periods, Horicon finally broke the ice in the final quarter. On the best run of the evening Steve Schielke moved the ball all the way to the 8-yard line. Tom Migawa went over right tackle from the one to score. Ozzie Marquardt kicked the extra point and the Marshmen took a 7-0 lead.

Later in the final quarter, Luck faded back to pass but couldn't find a receiver. At least five Kewaskum tacklers had their hands on him but he managed to fight free and blasted his way 45 yards for Horicon's second TD. Marquardt ran for the extra point. In the third quarter Kewaskum took a punt on their own 30 and managed two first downs but then Bob Kreger intercepted a Bob Miller pass to end the scoring threat as they had done on a number of previous occasions. Horicon outrushed Kewaskum by only 13 yards, 169 to 155.

Unfortunately Kewaskum lost two of its star veterans of the team this season to other schools, including senior back Jon Arndt, to West Bend High school. Arndt, of whom big things were expected this year, is a powerful runner and hard tackler and blocker. He is now one of the aces of the West Bend team and has greatly bolstered their chances in the Little Ten conference. The other player was lost to Plymouth High school because of school district changes.

The Indians have nine lettermen returning after the loss of the above two regulars. They include 188-pound junior linebacker Bob Coulter and senior quarterback Bob Miller. However, defending champion North Fond du Lac, Grafton and Pewaukee are picked to fight it out for the title with North Fondy, which already had won two pre-season contests, as the favorite.

Kewaskum opens Scenic Moraine conference play this Friday, entertaining Washington High of Germantown in a night game at 7:30 p. m.

Local Team Golfs at Wausau, Wins Event

Fred's Title Holders golf team, champions of the Tuesday Night Men's league at Hon-E-Kor Country club, spent the weekend at Wausau, where they golfed a match game Sunday morning at Rib Mountain golf course and practice range, Wisconsin's largest day-night golf area.

Members golfed under the lights on the course in a practice round Saturday night before facing a team from the Juneau Auto Supply in a match game Sunday morning. Clarence Hoffmann, brother-in-law of Fred Fehlhaber, sponsor of the Title Holders team, is a member of the Wausau team. The match was played according to the point system. Fred's team won by two points and returned home with another trophy. The course is 18 holes but small with a par of 27 on each nine. All holes are three par holes. The Juneau Auto Supply owns the course.

Team members and their wives who enjoyed a weekend of golf, good food and fellowship at Wausau included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fehlhaber and son Joey, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Sparks, Mr. and Mrs.

Koch, and Jerry Schwartz and Mrs. Kathryn Gruendemann, and Mike Gnacinski. Other members of the team are Eddie Frohmann and Merrill Krueger, who were unable to participate with their wives because they were attending the Green Bay Packers football opener at Green Bay.
