Special Referendum Election Set for Feb. 9 For $633,000 Addition to High School Building

Two Proposals Made to Electors

A special referendum election will be held in Kewaskum Community Union High School District Joint No. 2 on Tuesday, Feb. 9, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the school district the proposition that there shall be issued $633,000 general obligation bonds for the erecting, remodeling and equipping an addition to the Kewaskum Community High school building.

The election will be held in the high school gymnasium. The polls will be open at 7 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m.

The Kewaskum Community Union High school district is comprised of electors from the village of Kewaskum, Kewaskum, Barton, Farmington and Wayne townships, Washington county; Ashford and Auburn townships, Fond du Lac county, and Mitchell and Scott townships, Sheboygan county.

Informational meetings held by the Kewaskum Community High school board of education during the past two weeks were well attended by the electors of the district.

Two recommendations made to the electors were:

1. To build a classroom addition on to the high school in Kewaskum to increase the number of teaching stations in the high school from 22 to 37. Included in the proposal are remodeling of the kitchen and a federal food storage area, an enlarged library, a language laboratory, an additional science laboratory, an art room, a typing and business education suite including an instructional area for business machines, a reading laboratory, an enlarged shop area, a graphic arts room, and 11 general purpose classrooms, lavatories, equipment and garage storage, a cafeteria work study area.
2. That the Union High school district be re-organized into an integrated K-12 common school district in order to provide more equal educational opportunities for the children in the district, to equalize the tax burden for education over the whole district, and to receive substantially more state aid for the operation of the schools.

The recommendations were made after extensive studies had been made by the board of education and building committee, the faculty of the high school, the administration, and the State Department of Public Instruction.

Electors of the district having questions are urged to call Mr. Boyd, supervising principal, at 626-2166 or members of the high school board for explanations of either of the two proposals.

Among other things, the students, all of whom come from warm climates, were asked by Walsh how they liked the Wisconsin winter weather with the snow storms and 20 degrees below zero temperatures of the past week. Area Digs Out After Three Snowstorms

WEEKEND STORM LEAVES ELEVEN INCHES; MERCURY PLUNGES TO 20 BELOW

The grass was visible and there was very little snow covering the ground so far this winter until this area really got clobbered by three snowstorms the past week. The storms came like Papa Bear, Mama Bear and Baby Bear—huge, smaller and small.

Papa Bear came Friday and Saturday and left close to 11 inches of snow on the ground on the level. It was one of the biggest storms since 1962. High winds piled the snow into huge drifts. The storm was preceded by rain and sleet, making it very slippery underneath and freezing windshields. Driving was hazardous and many roads were impassable after the snowstorm. Village and county crews worked day and night plowing and hauling away snow. Numerous events were called off Friday and Saturday and many schools closed early. Trucks, tractors, jeeps, snow blowers and shovels were in use wherever one looked, clearing streets, sidewalks, driveways and parking lots. The snow was plowed into huge piles, some 8 and 10 feet high, on parking lots and streets. Dozens of cars were stuck in snowbanks and had to be pulled out. Others just left them where they were or in garages and walked.

Not to be outdone, Mama Bear came along Monday night and left three more inches of snow on top of the heavy blanket of the weekend. Again it was accompanied by strong winds, blowing the snow over previous drifts and filling in banks along streets and sidewalks once more. So out came all the snow removal equipment again, which was hardly cooled off from the weekend storm. After having most of the snow plowed and hauled away from the main streets, village crews had to do it all over again. They worked long hours days and all night Tuesday hauling snow. Shovelers stacked snow upon snow along sidewalks, driveways and streets.

Then Baby Bear had to get its two cents worth in Wednesday night with another snowfall of about one inch, which blew around enough to make more shoveling and plowing necessary. The snow removal operation has been almost continuous and the main streets, cleared of snow at the beginning of the week, are now piled at the gutters again. Side streets have huge piles of snow, which have narrowed them and made driving risky. High banks at intersections block the driver's view and makes it difficult to see approaching cars.

To add frosting to the cake sub-zero weather followed the storms on Thursday and Friday. It was bitterly cold, with the thermometer plunging to 20 degrees below zero Friday morning for a near record. Service station operators were kept busy steadily starting and pushing cars and trucks.

A smile adds something when a stranger takes you at face value.

Forty contestants participated and over 11,000 pairs of old, worn shoes were brought in. These shoes were given to Goodwill Industries to be patched up for the needy. Votes were obtained by purchases made by friends and by bringing in old shoes. The winner was given a very close run by Johnnie Geidel and Bobby Dreher. The other 14 prize winners behind Mary Jane were: Johnnie Geidel, radio; Bobby Dreher, flashlight camera; Loran Backhaus, Jr., wrist watch; Ruth Koenig, coaster wagon; Delbert Petermann, football; Gladys Weddig, skates; Helen Bunkelman, flashlight; John Foerster, Chinese checkers; Lloyd Etta, sheath knife; Doris Mae Stahl, ping pong set; Roger Reindl, jackknife; Do-

Friday evening John Schmidt of the town of Wayne, in crossing the railroad tracks on Main st., narrowly escaped being run into by the Green Bay special. Just as the rear wheels of his rig left the track, the train went past. The engineer applied the air brakes but the train was not brought to a stop until it reached the malt house. The escape was by such a narrow margin that the train crew came back but when learning no damage was done, continued.

At the regular monthly meeting at the Moraine Supper club, West Bend, Sunday afternoon, William O'Neil of Hartford was elected chairman of the Washington County Democratic Party. O'Neil succeeds Larry Harty of West Bend, who was recently elected chairman of the 6th District Democratic organization, and was not a candidate for re-election.

Marvin Martin of Kewaskum was re-elected vice-chairman and John Flitter of West Bend was re-elected treasurer. Carl Hulbert of Hartford was elected recording secretary to succeed Roger Siemers of West Bend, who was not a candidate for re-election. Gladys Peterson of the town of Polk was elected corresponding secretary, a new position created at the meeting.

Siemers and Dave Martin of West Bend were elected to the executive board and Walter Gau of West Bend was elected sergeant-at-arms.

March of Dimes Medical Team at Work

THROUGHOUT THE U.S. today there are 50 March of Dimes Birth Defects Centers, affiliated with top medical schools. In each, the "team approach" is used. Thus, an infant (as above) born with most of an arm missing is of concern not only to the pediatrician but to an entire group of medical specialists which could also include an orthopedic surgeon, a prosthetic technician, neurologist and a social worker. Photo shows a part of the medical team at the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center, University of North Carolina Medical School, Chapel Hill.

County Agent News Notes

By MAURICE J. HOVLAND
Washington County Agent

TESTING COWS

A bulletin was recently released from the University of Wisconsin concerning testing cows. There is a great deal of information in this bulletin, and I will give you some of it very briefly, as far as Washington county is concerned.

For example, 51 standard herds, consisting of 1,909 cows, averaged 12,151 lbs. of milk, with 3.7 test, and 4.50 lbs. of butterfat. Owner-sampler herds number 154, with 4,802 cows. They averaged 11,497 lbs. of milk, with a 3.6 test, and 4.18 lbs. of butterfat.

The overall average is 205 herds consisting of 6,711 cows, averaging 11,683 lbs. of milk, with a 3.6 test, and 4.27 lbs. of butterfat per cow.

This is about 127 lbs. of butterfat more than the average cow in Washington county, which we think is producing at about a 300-lb. level. Of the dairy herds in the county, 23.2% were on test in 1964. This is not enough. Farmers have to get the greatest production from every cow that can be accomplished. To do this requires careful planning, good records, and a lot of hard work.

Sometimes we wonder whether the anti-poverty program that we hear so much about can't focus a little attention on the farming industry!

Those farms that are doing a good job, testing their herd, getting every pound of milk and butterfat possible, are in an enviable position. But always remember that the services those people use are available to anyone who wants to use them.

AGRICULTURAL LEADERSHIP

For some time county agents have been talking about the importance of good agricultural leadership. The more I see in the way of problems in agriculture, the more convinced I am that we will need more of this kind of leadership, and the quicker we get it the better.

Last week I saw some of this leadership in action. I attended the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Feeder Pig Marketing Cooperative, which was held jointly for Washington and Ozaukee counties. The man I am speaking of is Norval Dvorak, general manager of the cooperative. I have worked with Norval in one way or another for the past 15 years, and I don't believe I have ever known anyone in the marketing field who has more enthusiasm or imagination than he has. I haven't always agreed with him, but that isn't important. What is important is that we have a man with enough vision and courage to try some new ideas to see if he can make them work. Norval has had fine success to this point, and he is about to start on a huge telephone auction, covering many states, to market fat hogs for slaughter purposes.

We write this article because we would like to call the attention of all farmers, not just hog breeders, to the fact that this organization is well on its way to success. They have done $6 million in business this past year, and they hope to more than double that in 1965. These are ambitious plans, made by ambitious men, and sanctioned by ambitious farmers. The efforts these men are putting forth are going to pay off in terms of good marketing procedures in Wisconsin livestock for many years to come.

FILM TO BE SHOWN AT PTA MEETING MONDAY

The February meeting of the Kewaskum Elementary school PTA will be held Monday evening, Feb. 1, at 8 o'clock in the cafeteria.

After the business meeting, R. D. Sharp will be present to show a film entitled "Mission Measles" and to discuss the new measles vaccine now being offered to prevent the many complications which can occur when children have measles. Mr. Sharp spoke to the PTA in West Bend earlier this year.

It is hoped that many members will attend this informative meeting to supplement their knowledge of the dangers of measles.

On Jan. 26 we practiced choral reading. We talked about the ice skating contest that will be held Jan. 30.

Scribe, Dori Gaffaney

Motorists frequently have a sickening experience while attempting to give another driver a taste of his own medicine. The best way to get even with a rude or inconsiderate driver, says the Institute for Safer Living, is to "kill him with kindness." For example, if he tries to cut you off, slow down, wave him in ahead of you—and smile! Kindness makes an aggressive driver feel foolish and helps you to prevent high blood pressure.

... A stranger to her loved ones ...

Because of pain—the pain of arthritis, a mysteriouscrippler that attacks so many of its victims in their prime of life. Arthritis disables three times more women than men in the busy, productive years between 30 and 50 . . . the years a woman is needed by her children, who now are going through their troubled teens . . . the years she is needed by her husband, for the comfort and compassion he must have as his career takes exciting, demanding strides.

Because of the pain and crippling that comes with the swelling of her hands, her knees, her joints—arthritis robs a woman of her physical well-being . . . and sometimes, her serenity, her peace of mind, her place in the family and the community.

Arthritis can strike anyone, anywhere . . . women, men, even children. Today no one knows why. No one knows how to prevent it. But some of the best minds in the country are at work in research laboratories and in hospitals all over the nation, seeking solutions to the riddle of this mysterious, crippling disease. The work of these brilliant, dedicated men is supported by your contributions to the March of Dimes.

Peace Corps to Test Area Residents for Service on Feb. 13

An opportunity for Kewaskum area residents to test their aptitudes for Peace Corps service will come at 8:30 a. m., Saturday, Feb. 13, at the main post offices in Sheboygan and Fond du Lac. Tests will also be given in other cities throughout the state.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps placement test. It is not passed or failed, but simply indicates where your greatest potential lies. The Peace Corps questionnaire which must be filled out previously submitted, tells what an applicant has done in the past. But the placement test is aimed at showing what he or she CAN do in the future. Applicants do not have to register for the test ahead of time.

The Peace Corps questionnaire can be found in post offices. On college campuses, they are available at college placement centers or the offices of Peace Corps liaison officers, who are members of the faculty or college administration. If you can't find a questionnaire, write the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

There are two parts to the Peace Corps placement test: a general aptitude test and a modern language aptitude test—for which knowledge of a foreign language is not necessary. Applicants should plan on about one and a half hours at the testing center, unless they wish to take the Spanish or French achievement test. For this optional test, another hour should be added.

No passing or failing marks are given out, nor will the applicants ever learn their scores. The results are used, with the character references and questionnaires, to estimate the applicant's potential for completing the intensive training program and his ability to be an effective volunteer overseas.

Never brag. If you deserve praise, you don't need it. If you don't deserve it, nobody will believe you anyway.

Thoughtless acts and "thoughtless" thoughts produce the same devastating results on the highway. The Institute for Safer Living states that far too many motorists use their driving time for thinking about matters far removed from the serious business of driving. They often drive into an emergency situation without actually realizing it. Think—but think only of your driving.

Indians Defeat Grafton in Major Upset, End 35-Game Winning Streak

FIRST LOSS SINCE 1962 FOR UNBEATEN LEADERS, CHAMPS PAST TWO YEARS

The Kewaskum Indians fired the shot heard around the world of prep basketball circles when they put together a tremendous team effort to beat Grafton in a major upset here Friday night, 71-66, in Scenic Moraine conference action.

The surprise setback ended a 35-game winning streak for Grafton, undefeated champions of the conference the past two seasons and unbeaten in seven contests this season prior to Friday. It was their first loss since the 1962 season. The Blackhawks had gone far in WIAA tournament play the past two years.

The Indians, who have a 4-3 record, and have run hot and cold this year, put up their best effort by far this season in dumping Grafton. They played a terrific defensive game in holding down Grafton's two high scorers, Sewell and Gleason, and their big 6 ft. 7 in. sophomore Matthes. The Indians were hot as they double teamed, stole the ball, shot brilliantly, and snared rebounds away from the taller Blackhawks.

A strong comeback by the determined Indians in the second half pulled the victory out of the fire. Grafton's record and reputation didn't scare them one bit. The teams battled to a 12-12 tie in the first quarter but Grafton pulled ahead to a 32-28 halftime lead and it appeared like they were on their way again. Not so as far as Kewaskum was concerned. They outpointed the visitors in the third period, 22-19, to pull within one point of them, 51-50. Growing stronger, the Indians poured it on in the final quarter, outscoring the Blackhawks, 21-15, to win by five points. Pandemonium broke loose among the Kewaskum rooters and there were tears in the eyes of some of the Grafton players and cheerleaders, who felt very bad as though their world had ended.

Bob Wilson, Milwaukee, has been appointed Tournament Director of AMF-Pepsi Bowl-O-Rama, a no prize fee, no entry fee, pins-over-average tournament for men and women league bowlers throughout Wisconsin and upper Michigan with a top prize of a 10 day trip for two to Hawaii. As director, he will work with official centers during qualifying and elimination rounds through Mar. 7, and direct the finals at the Sentinel Sports show, Mar. 20-28. A teacher at Peckham junior high, Wilson is secretary of the Master's Traveling league and a board member of the Milwaukee Bowling association.

The Indians lost Oelhafen on personal fouls and Grafton lost two of their stars, Sewell and Matthes, late in the game, which greatly hurt their chances. Kewaskum won the game from the free throw line. Twenty-four fouls were called on the losers and only 15 on the winners. As a result the Indians made good on 23 free throws while the visitors could sink only 10, a difference of 13 points.

Sophomore Bill Backhaus, who was popping them from outside, was the sparkplug of the Kewaskum attack with his deadly shooting. He sank 20 points to lead all scorers, while Bob Miller chipped in with 17. Sewell and Gleason, the two returning veterans and high scorers of Grafton's championship teams and aces of this year's squad, took scoring honors with 19 and 14 points respectively, while big Matthes added 10. Bob Coulter gave the Indians board strength as he snapped off 15 rebounds. The Blackhawk coach, who had charted the Kewaskum team well in advance, failed to recognize Bill Backhaus in his strategy and this proved fatal.

It was a real nip and tuck, hair raising battle all the way with never more than a few points separating the teams. Although falling, Grafton still maintains first place in the loop with a fine 7-1 record, despite the Indians' unexpected win.

Because of the severe snow-storm, only one game was played in the conference Friday night, in which the Grafton juggernaut swamped Germantown, 94-48, as they have done to most teams all season before meeting their Waterloo here Tuesday. The Kewaskum at Slinger, North Fondy-Random Lake and Campbellsport-Pewaukee games all were postponed to later dates. Grafton appeared to be striding down the court in 10-length boots as they steamrolled Germantown by a margin of 48 points. Jeff Sewell continued to offer a challenge to the stiffest conference defenses as he heaped up 34 points.

This Friday the Indians host the strong, second place Campbellsport team, which defeated them in an earlier contest, and next Friday, Feb. 5, they entertain North Fondy.

Looking Thru the Field Glasses...

By Bob Lake, Conservation Warden, Washington County

INFORMATION ON BOATING LICENSES, FEES, NUMBERS

The Wisconsin boating law provides that the license period extend for three years. The first three year period ended March 31, 1963, the second will end March 31, 1966. The fee for the license is $3.00 or $1.00 per year. In the event a new boat was purchased after April 1, 1964, the fee would be $2.00.

The number assigned to a new boat stays with the boat until it is destroyed or moved to another state. In either case it is the responsibility of the seller to notify the Wisconsin Conservation Department of the sale by turning in his certificate of registration, and the buyer must request transfer of the boat to his name. If this is done, the owner will without fail, receive notification to re-license at the end of the three year period.

Space Boat Numbers Properly

Some of you will probably be working on your boats during these winter months. In some cases you will be making necessary repairs. Many of you will be giving them a new paint job.

When placing the numbers on your boat, be sure you space them properly.

The law requires a space the size of the letter W between the letters and numbers, WS 1234 AA. The numbers and letters must be at least 3 inches in height. They must be block type numerals and letters and of a color which will contrast with the color of the background.

We noticed considerable improvement in the proper spacing and color of numbers last boating season. There were still those, however, that did not meet the requirements.

Our Police Chief Says

Do not park your automobile on the street during a snow storm. Your car obstructs our snow plows and is in danger of being damaged by a plow. Cars parked on Main st. or Fond du Lac ave. obstructing snow plows will be tagged or towed away at the owner's expense.

Braille Makes Books Come Alive For Girl Aided by March of Dimes

It's very comforting for a certain little girl of 11 to know that four members of her family love to read to her anytime she asks, day or night.

Trouble is, to Susie's way of thinking, no matter how ready her parents and two sisters may be to read aloud to her, they seem to take forever to get on with the story. It took an entire week, for instance, to untangle why d'Artagnan and his three musketeers took a dim view of Cardinal Richelieu.

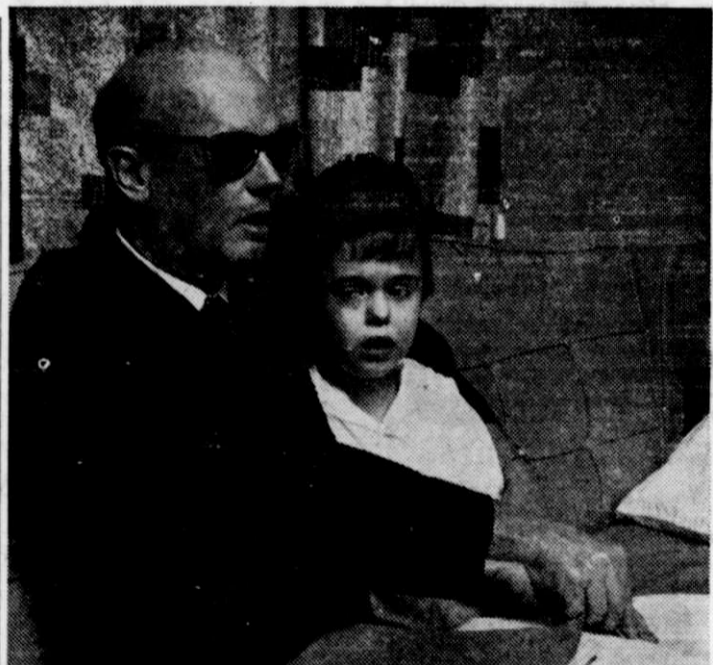

There're always interruptions such as mother's having to get dinner ready, or her sisters' boy friends phoning incessantly, or daddy having to go off to work.

But these frustrations will soon be a thing of the past. For Susie, who by now you will suspect doesn't see, is learning to read for herself.

Susie is the pretty daughter of Horace and Ella Edwards of Nashville, Tenn. She was born with hydrocephalus, or water on the brain, and is paralyzed below the waist. Surgeons at the March of Dimes Birth Defects Center, Vanderbilt University School of Medicine, Nashville, were successful in saying the child's intellect, and today her IQ is above average.

Unfortunately, however, the pressure of the accumulating fluid in the brain caused irreversible deterioration of the optic nerves. Gradually, sparkling noon became twilight, and two years ago twilight faded to total darkness. That is the way it will be for the remainder of Susie's life.

To save the intellect and to avoid mental retardation, and even save her life, "shunt" tubes were inserted into her skull on five separate occasions to drain off the blocked fluid. Then there was additional surgery for still other disorders. A long time was required for Susie to recover from all these operations. This meant that, even though her world was turning cloudier and dimmer, and a life without light lay ahead, there just wasn't time to learn Braille during those long stays at the March of Dimes Center.

You could stretch a point though, and say that Susie is blessed in one way. She was not born blind, and at one time learned the alphabet as do normal children. She could read a little, too. This has now made memorizing Braille characters a less tearful occasion when Mr. Jimmy comes to teach Susie every Tuesday and Thursday.

She is blessed in still another way, which explains how Mr. Jimmy gets into the story. Susie is very firm and determined about learning the language of the sightless, and "reading" it swiftly. The decision was hers alone. All this relates back to its taking so long for her family to read aloud "The Three Musketeers" and "Alice in Wonderland" and the other stories.

Mr. Jimmy, otherwise James J. McCormack, is himself sightless. He is a professional Braille instructor provided Susie by those county people downtown. To Susie, he's apparently also a very comical fellow who is always telling jokes that no one can understand. The two of them sit there quietly on the sofa, the lanky Mr. Jimmy with one arm around Susie to support her, and the books of Braille on his knees as he guides Susie's fingertips over the dots and points on the big page.

Then abruptly the two of them burst into gales of laughter which go unexplained to any one else in the house on Pennock Avenue. No doubt some private joke to be relished only by those who cannot see.

"Susie promised me a Christmas present," Mr. Jimmy says. "It took her four weeks to wrap it up prettily, but she had it all ready for me Christmas Eve when I came by for our lesson. In the short period of time—a stunning record for a child—Susie had memorized the alphabet we people must live by."
