Plan for High School Addition Defeated by Electors of District

Rejected by 2 to 1 Margin, 332-169, in Referendum Tuesday

ONLY 501 VOTES CAST AS $633,000 PROJECT LOSES

A proposal to issue $633,000 in general obligation bonds to erect, remodel and equip an addition to the Kewaskum Community High school was voted down by electors of the Kewaskum Community Union High School District No. 2 in a referendum election held Tuesday in the school gymnasium. The vote on the proposal was: No 332; Yes 169.

With a potential vote of approximately 2,000 ballots in the school district, the turnout of 501 voters at the polls Tuesday was considered very light in view of the considerable proportions of the bond issue. The turnout came as a surprise and disappointment to school board members, who expected a vote of about 750 to 1,000 among the eligible voters of the district. Sleet, ice and hazardous driving conditions is believed to have kept many voters home, especially from the rural districts. The majority of the ballots were cast by village residents with a small percentage of those appearing from other areas of the district.

Following this rejection, the school board expects to meet to consider the next move. Perhaps a modified plan can be formulated by the board and architects. The original program, which was given much publicity and explanation by way of area and general meetings, was a long-range plan. Since the problem of overcrowding still remains, an alternate plan for just addition of classrooms may be drawn and again shown to the electors of the district. Such a modified plan would be only a temporary relief and would precipitate a more costly "patch-work" project of periodic addition of space. Under such a method, there would be other added costs through the hiring of personnel, adjusted class schedules to maintain a norm of student-teacher ratio and possibly a shift in schedules.

According to school officials, the present high school was constructed to handle an enrollment of 480 pupils. Already there is a student enrollment of 533 or 53 over that number. Lack of space and facilities due to the rapid growth of the student body has necessitated the expansion program.

The proposed expansion and remodeling program would have increased the present teaching stations from 22 to 37 and would have included other improvements and facilities such as remodeling the kitchen, a federal food storage area, enlarged library, language laboratory, additional science laboratory, art room, typing and business education suite including an instructional area for business machines, reading laboratory, enlarged shop area, graphic arts room, 11 general purpose classrooms, lavatories, equipment and gage storage, and cafeteria work study area.

Another recommendation made was that the Union High school district be reorganized into an integrated K-12 common school district in order to provide more equal educational opportunities for the children in the district, to equalize the tax burden for education over the whole district, and to receive substantially more state aid for the operation of the schools.

The Kewaskum Community Union High school district is comprised of electors from the village of Kewaskum, townships of Kewaskum, Barton, Farmington and Wayne in Washington county, townships of Ashford and Auburn in Fond du Lac county, and townships of Mitchell and Scott in Sheboygan county.

In spite of the fact that five district and general briefing meetings were held prior to the referendum election to explain the situation there is still some confusion according to Marshall H. Boyd, principal of the high school and administrator for the high school district.

A survey by the high school district board of education showed that the enrollment in the secondary school will triple in 15 to 20 years. The bond issue would have covered a construction program needed to take care of a 4-year high school in the immediate future. But to expand the high school beyond the point now recommended would lock the district with a senior high school indefinitely without consideration of preparatory education.

At present four elementary districts, Beechwood, Farmington, Wayne and Kewaskum, send pupils on to the high school. There are four school boards for these besides a board that serves the high school district. There are parochial elementary schools which also account for high school enrollment.

Not part of the issue decided Tuesday but remaining for the electors of the area to solve is what to do about the awkward condition. The recommended solutions are to expand the high school and have it serve either as a senior or junior high or to reorganize the adjacent districts into a kindergarten through twelfth grade system so that proper planning for buildings and programs can take place under one board of education.

Suggested as further solutions in the next few years would be one district with a central high school and probably three or four kindergarten through eighth grade schools or a kindergarten through sixth grade, a junior high through ninth grade and a high school for the final three years.

The briefing meetings had discussion on the advantages of systems and the community high school board has attempted to resolve the problems. The decision on the referendum Tuesday was to

Heart Fund Drive Is Underway Here

DR. EDWARDS CHAIRMAN OF ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Wisconsin Heart association's 1965 Heart Fund campaign officially opened on Monday, Feb. 1. Kewaskum will join cities and villages throughout Wisconsin and the nation in the annual drive according to Dr. R. G. Edwards, who heads the campaign here.

Dr. Edwards urged Kewaskum residents to support the Heart Fund drive again this year. "Your gifts and your neighbor's have already won dramatic victories, but diseases of the heart and blood vessels are still America's biggest killer.

"In the past year more than a million Americans died from heart diseases. Almost 250,000 of those were persons under 65 — fathers in their prime of life, mothers and school children and young adults were among the victims," he said.

"Your gift will help the Heart association researchers in their efforts to discover the answers to this problem," Dr. Edwards said. "It will support educational programs and help provide additional community service projects."

The Wisconsin Heart association has set a tentative goal for the state at $616,000.

Rev. Mohme delivered a very interesting lecture at the Temperance hall on the present European war. The Reverend, being very well posted on the German empire, was able to give facts as they are. His lecture sided all with Germany, that the Czar of Russia was the chief cause of the war. The lecture was delivered in the German language.

Gene Haessly, baggageman at the local railway station for some time, resigned. Math. Beisbier Jr. is now filling his position.

Thursday evening unbelievable feats of strength were exhibited in this village by Marvelous Ducharme of Tomahawk. He is only 5 ft. 4 in. in height and weighs 137 lbs., but pulled off sensational stunts. One was to pick up a kitchen table with his teeth and whirl around with it, another was to hold a chair with two men in it with his teeth. His final test was lifting an Overland auto containing five passengers, weighing 3200 lbs., from the ground. He also lets an auto run over him but because the crowd was not so large he didn't pull that feat.

Barbershop Singers To Headline K. of C. Program at Lomira

TICKETS ON SALE AT LOCAL BUSINESS PLACES

Headlining the "Knight of Harmony" to be held in the Lomira High school gymnasium on March 6 at 8 p. m. is the Schmitt Brothers quartet of Two Rivers, Wis. The program will be sponsored by the Knights of Columbus of Lomira and Theresa.

The Schmitt Brothers are the 1951 international champions of the SPEBSQSA, Inc. Their barbershop harmony is a hobby that has carried them nearly a million miles, appearing in most of the top music halls and theaters in the United States and Canada. They have been guests on the Arthur Godfrey show and Ed Sullivan program. On one of the trips to the west coast, they appeared on the Lawrence Welk show. During 1952, the brothers made a two week tour, entertaining the armed forces in Alaska. Fifty of their most popular songs have been recorded by Decca Company in four albums.

The For Mor Quartet of Madison will be another featured group. These men have been singing together for 17 years, during which time they traveled all over the United States and Canada. With 875 barbershop shows and guest spots on many international contests behind them, they are qualified as top-notch entertainers. Variety numbers and imitations of instruments and Ink Spot style singing are included in their repertoire.

The Captivators of Kimberly will also entertain. This youthful group has sung together regularly for a number of years and sing what is known as solid barbershop harmony. They are well acquainted in the Fox River Valley cities and favorable response from that area prompted the K. C.'s to engage them for their program.

The Royal-Tones, a fairly new group belonging to the Ripon chapter of the SPEBSQSA, will lend their voices to song during the evening's entertainment. The Fond du Lac chorus of the Fond du Lac chapter, under the direction of Charles Klima, will open the program.

Advance ticket sales are underway at $1.75. Admission at the door will be $2.00. In the Kewaskum area they may be purchased at Rose Miller's tavern, Miller's Furniture store and Hon-E-Kor Country club.

Mrs. Siemers Named County Easter Seal Campaign Chairman

The appointment of Mrs. Roger Siemers of West Bend as Washington county Easter Seal campaign chairman was announced today by Donald "Deke" Slayton, Wisconsin state volunteer chairman of the 1965 Easter Seal campaign.

The campaign which runs from March 1 to April 18, Easter Sunday, will emphasize the importance of "joining the countdown" with Deke Slayton.

In announcing the appointment of Mrs. Siemers, Slayton, coordinator of astronaut activities, said that his niece Barbara of Sparta will also be taking part in the campaign. Barbara at ten is a wonderful example of what care and courage can do for a victim of crippling disease.

Deke said that he is confident that the people of Washington county will be solidly behind Mrs. Siemers in her efforts to raise more Easter Seal dollars for serving the crippled of Wisconsin. Nationally the Easter Seal society is completing 44 years of service to crippled children and adults regardless of the cause of crippling.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jacak of Campbellsport announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosemary M., to Leo Anthony Roseman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Muga, R. 1, Cascade.

Miss Jacak graduated from Campbellsport High school and is employed as a bookkeeper at the First State Bank of Campbellsport. Mr. Muga, a graduate of Waldo High school, is presently engaged in farming.

A fall wedding is being planned.

Ann Schaefer Is Wed to J. Enright

During an 11 a. m. Nuptial High Mass in Holy Trinity church, Kewaskum, on Saturday, Jan. 30, vows were exchanged by Miss Ann Alain Schaefer of 1438 Bilgo Lane, Kewaskum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schaefer and Joseph A. Enright of R. 1, Kewaskum, son of Mrs. William Enright and the late Mr. Enright. The Rev. John T. Budde officiated. The Rev. Janet Volm sang a solo, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," during the ceremony.

Dinner at the Glacier Inn, Kewaskum, was followed by a reception and wedding dance at Nonn's Kettle Moraine Lake resort.

The couple will reside at R. 1, Kewaskum. The bride, who graduated from Kewaskum Community High school and also attended the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, is an office employee at Regal Ware, Inc. Her husband is also a graduate of Kewaskum Community High school and is a welder at Gehl Bros. Mfg. Co. in West Bend.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of silk crepe with a semi-sheath floor length skirt with a detachable chapel train. The fitted bodice and elbow length sleeves were enhanced with beaded embroidery. Her bouffant, tiered veil of silk illusion was held in place by a cluster of lace roses embroidered with pearl beading. She carried a cluster bouquet of red and white roses accented by miniature red roses attached to white velvet ribbon streamers.

Miss Jean Schaefer served as honor attendant, while the Misses Bonnie Lynn, Bonnie Butzke and Ann Schoenbeck attended as bridal aides. They were identically gowned in floor length dresses with a white brocade skirt and a red velvet bodice, encircled with jeweled venice lace. A red velvet bow held their butterfly veils and they carried red velvet muffs to which red and white roses were attached. The flower girl, little Miss Susan Russell, niece of the bride, was gowned like the other attendants.

The bridegroom was attended by Kenneth Enright as best man, and Gerald Enright, Richard Schaefer and Ronald Hintz as groomsmen. Mark Schaefer and William Enright served as ushers. Master Thomas Enright, the bridegroom's nephew, was the ring-bearer.

RATE CUT ON OUT-OF-STATE PHONE CALLS IN EFFECT

"The largest rate cut ever announced on out-of-state station-to-station telephone calls became effective on Feb. 1, 1965." This was the statement released by officials of the General Telephone company of Wisconsin today. Evening and night rates for all three-minute station-to-station calls are affected. Reduced rates are also extended into Saturday and Sunday under the new schedule.

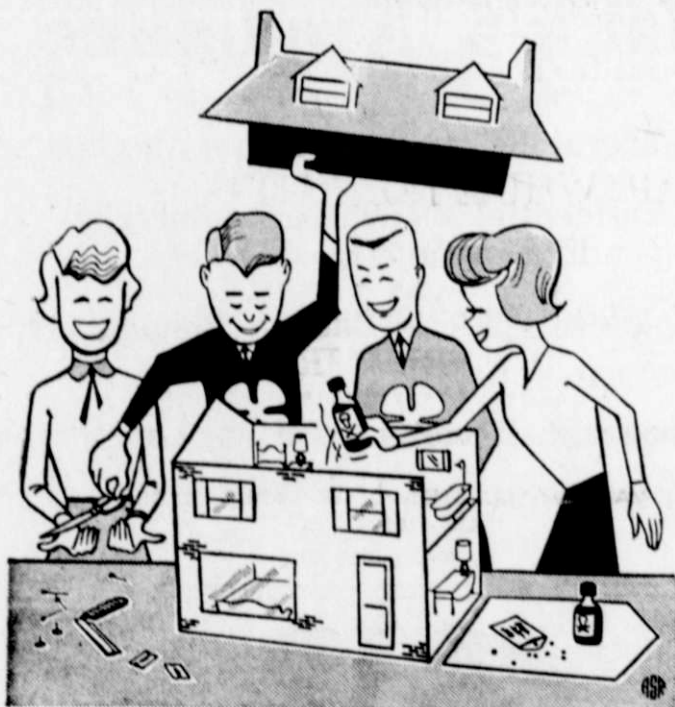

Present night rates, effective at 9 p. m., will now apply an hour earlier and also all day Sunday on calls to points over 220 miles outside the state. The reduced rate applies from 8 p. m. to 4:30 a. m. Evening rates are in effect from 6 p. m. 'till 8 p. m. weekdays and all day Saturday.

On station-to-station calls of 220 miles or less to points outside the state, there is no difference between evening and night rates. The same rates apply from 6 p. m. to 4:30 a. m. and all day on Saturday or Sunday.

4-H 'Babyproofs' for Safety

How do you "babyproof" a home? Suzanne Simmons, 16, of State College, Mississippi, says it involves removing every possible home hazard that might harm a baby. In this manner she made her own home safer for her little brother and began a program of safety projects that lifted her to national honors in the annual 4-H safety competition.

Suzanne was selected as one of eight national winners of $500 General Motors scholarships for outstanding 4-H farm, home and highway safety projects. The winners also received all-expense trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Suzanne began her "babyproofing" project when her young brother learned to turn the handles on the home's gas space heater. She repositioned the handles, placing them out of his reach. Next, the national winner moved medicines, poisons and sharp objects out of sight and reach. Among other precautions was the placement of safety gates at the head of each staircase in her home.

Suzanne's safety demonstrations have won numerous awards and include "Safe Toys for Children," "The Invisibile Passenger—Carbon Monoxide Gas," "Halloween Safety," and "How to Use a Fire Extinguisher."

National 4-H winners were selected from a group of 44 state safety award winners. General Motors, now in its 20th year as safety awards donor, also gave state winners trips to the Club Congress.

Other national winners include: Larry Roffee, 16, Wheatridge, Colo.; Janis Lindsey, 16, Columbia City, Ind.; Maria Langlois, 16, Greenwell Springs, La.; Diane Barrigar, 17, Winthrop, N. Y.; Judy Styles, 19, Brentford, S. D.; Brenda Bennett, 17, Cleveland, Tenn.; and Monty Blakemore, 16, Celeste, Texas.

Their advice: MAKE EVERY ROOM UNDER YOUR ROOF SAFE FOR SMALL ONES... BABYPROOF!

H. H. Forster, manager of the Waukesha District Employment Service office, announced that the recent recruitment of young men 16 through 21 years of age for Job Corps training was highly successful.

Over 200 pre-screening interviews were given state-wide by local employment service offices. County Education
Association Meets

SHESKI, SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS IS SPEAKER

The Washington County Education association held their February meeting at the court house in West Bend. Harry Sheski, county superintendent of schools, was the speaker for the evening. His topic of discussion was, "Legal Aspects of the Principal's Position." He touched upon many phases, all of which are very important for both classroom teachers and principals to know.

The highlights of his speech took in information about the annual school meetings, attendance reports, the census reports, teacher contracts, salary planning, suspension and expulsion of a child, insurance plans which should consist of at least three types: (a) pupil liability, (b) public liability, (c) workmen's compensation. Other topics discussed were school policy, and school re-districting which could be accomplished through town and village boards, a county school committee, municipal boards or direct referendum.

The meeting was enjoyed and appreciated by all those who attended.

County Agent News Notes

By MAURICE J. HOVLAND
Washington County Agent

TALKS TO SWINE BREEDERS

Last week Dr. Robert Hall of the University of Wisconsin veterinary science department was in Washington county to talk with our swine breeders, primarily about ways to insure good swine herd health. He presented some other very interesting information as well.

Between the 3-year period of 1961-63; a survey was conducted with a group of farmers who, in that period of time, bought 722 feeder pigs and fed them out to butcher hog size. At the start they averaged 43.4 pounds per pig. When they were sold, they averaged 217 pounds. The average feed conversion on these pigs was 3.43 lbs. of feed per 1 lb. of pork gained.

Now let's talk about this in terms of total cost per pound of gain. The feed cost was 8.4c per pound of gain. The health aids, this is all items that are used to insure a healthy herd of pigs, was .29c, and grinding, mixing and delivery of feed was about .57%. This is a total cost of about 9.3c per pound of pork gained.

We believe 722 pigs is a good enough number to get a rather significant figure. According to Dr. Hall, a hog farmer (or any other farmer, for that matter) needs to be very careful in checking costs so that he knows exactly where the costs are.

BUYING SEED TO PLANT

It won't be long and farmers will be buying seed to plant in their fields.

Some time ago, the agronomy department of the university did a seed box survey at planting time around the state. When they saw a man planting oats, they would explain to him what they were doing and ask permission to take a pint of seed out of his seed box. The samples were then analyzed.

About 100 samples were picked up. Of these, 12 were under 90% germination. Five of these 12 were under 80%, and one had a germination of 21%. Of these samples 95 had weeds, including 79 with noxious weed seed such as quackgrass, wild radish and mustard. There were common weeds in 87, including wild buckwheat, foxtail, and smartweed. Other crop seed was found in 25.

We think the average sample should germinate 97 to 98%. Based on the germination of some of these samples, if the farmer had used certified seed he would have returned 14 bushels more per acre. I have heard farmers argue that they don't buy certified seed "because it's too expensive." Based on this survey, certified seed would have been the most economical kind of seed to use. Remember there is no seed you can buy anywhere that will be as effective on your farm as the Wisconsin certified seed.

DHIA TESTING PROGRAM

Wisconsin boasts some of the outstanding dairy organizations in the country. They are all combining their efforts to promote the idea of DHIA testing in 1965, and are hopeful of getting 500,000 cows on test by May 1965. At the present time there are 486,206 cows on standard and owner-sampler test.

If you would like to participate in this program, you may do so by contacting the fieldmen immediately. Let me remind you again that any Washington county farmer who joins the association during February, who has not tested his herd for the last five years, will receive two free tickets for the annual DHIA banquet scheduled for Monday, March 1, at 7:30 p. m., at the Moraine Supper club.

Few semi-professional jobs remain in Wisconsin which require only a high school background, reports the Wisconsin State Employment Service after a survey of 4,000 employers. Additional technical training is an advantage for jobs as architectural, mechanical and electrical draftsmen, civil engineering aides, tool and die designers, chemical, electrical, instrumental and data processing technicians, and medical assistants.

HELP OFFERED IN FILLING OUT HOMESTEAD TAX FORMS

E. J. Blum, assessor of incomes for the Milwaukee district of the Wisconsin Department of Taxation, reports that because of the difficulty that persons over 65 are experiencing in filling out the necessary forms to claim the homestead tax relief credit, additional personnel is being assigned to help taxpayers complete the forms correctly.

This special assistance, only for persons claiming the homestead tax relief credit, will be available starting Feb. 1 and continuing to April 15 at West Bend in the Professional building, 305 N. 7th ave., on Mondays and Fridays only, from 7:45 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Blum also pointed out that the homestead tax relief credit is available to renters as well as property owners.

The poverty warriors are hushing it up, but they've found one advantage to being poor. It doesn't cost anything.

Indians Have Busy Week; Win Two, Lose One

MOVE INTO UNDISPUTED SECOND SPOT IN SCENIC

The Kewaskum Indians had a very busy week on the basketball courts, playing three games in five days. They won two of the contests and lost the third, shading North Fondy here Friday night, 63-60, beating Slinger there in a make-up game Saturday night, 88-73, and being upset at Germantown Tuesday night, 80-74. As the result of its two wins and losses by Random Lake and Campbellsport, the Indians moved into undisputed second place in the Scenic conference with a 7-4 record.

Kewaskum was hard pressed to defeat North Fondy's 7th place Orioles here Friday, 63-60. Baskets by Bob Coulter and Bob Miller in the closing minutes of play enabled the Indians to snap a 58-58 deadlock with tenacious North Fondy. Balance paid dividends for Kewaskum as no less than seven men figured prominently in its scoring. The Indians led, 17-12, at the quarter and increased the margin to 35-28 at halftime. But the Orioles crept to within one point in the third period, 49-48, only to have Kewaskum outscore them in the final quarter, 14-12, and win by 3 points. Harry Sass carried the load for the losers with 17 points. Top men for the winners were Miller with 14 points, B. Coulter and Czaja with 11, and Oelhafen with 11.

Kewaskum made up its game at Slinger Saturday night, which had been called off due to inclement weather on Jan. 22, and easily defeated the Owls, 88-73. This was the team's 4th successive victory, including ones over leading Grafton and Campbellsport. The Indians won by a 15-point margin but couldn't stop Stan Schmidt of the Owls, who was a one-man team as he racked up 37 points. He scored his total on 14 baskets and nine free throws, and many of his shots were long range. The win hiked Coach Walt Bade's boys to a 7-3 record. Pacing Kewaskum were Bob Miller, Bob Coulter and Dick Wietor with 19, 18 and 15 tallies respectively.

Back to the wars on Tuesday, the Indians traveled to Germantown, icy roads and all, where they were surprised, 80-74, by the sixth place Warhawks. Slick roads and sleet caused two other games in the conference to be postponed Tuesday, although Grafton and Random Lake played with Grafton's pace setters winning handily, 82-66. Germantown received its scoring punch from Ron Pritchard and transfer Don Youse, who hooped 26 and 16 points respectively against Kewaskum. The setback shoved the Indians a full three games behind Grafton. Three players did the brunt of the scoring for the Indians with Bob Miller dumping in 22 points, Oelhafen 21 and Bob Coulter 18. Kewaskum forged ahead at the quarter, 17-13, but Germantown narrowed the gap to 36-35 at the intermission. A 24-19 advantage in the third period put the winners ahead 59-55 and they ended up six points ahead, 80-74. In Grafton's win over the Rams, 6-2 forward Jeff Sewell set a record shattering performance by scoring 44 points.

In other games last Friday Grafton rolled up a 90-61 victory over Campbellsport, Random Lake turned back Pewaukee, 61-58, and Germantown beat Slinger, 71-68.

This Friday Kewaskum hosts fifth place Pewaukee and next Friday they face Grafton headon there.

STURGEON SEASON OPENS; SPECIAL LICENSE NEEDED

The sturgeon spearing season is open for two days only. Feb. 13 and 14, on Lakes Poygan, Butte des Morts and Winneconne. Lake Winnebago has a 17 day season, (Feb. 13 to March 1 inclusive). The daily bag limit is one fish, and the minimum length is 40 inches.

A special license is required for the spearing of sturgeon. The fee is $2.50 and this includes the tag that must be attached to the tail of the fish immediately after landing. Persons under 14 years of age are by law prohibited from purchasing this type of license. The license may be purchased at the various license depots around the four lakes as well as at the office of the county clerks in Fond du Lac, Winnebago and Calumet counties. The fish must be registered, and stations are set up around the lakes for this purpose.

Remove Shanties From Ice

Remember the tough time you usually have getting your ice fishing shanty off the lake.

We hope you will remember these experiences from past years and not let them happen again this year.

We suggest that when you feel you may not use your shanty regularly, you remove it from the ice, or at least move it near shore. Also, when the weatherman forecasts a big snow storm, arrange to get your shanty near shore so it can be removed if necessary.

Each year when the time for removing shanties comes, some remain on the lake, arrests are necessary and we hear all kinds of excuses, and get many complaints.

Boaters and property owners along the lakes don't appreciate these shanties left on the ice; when the ice melts, this debris is a real hazard to boating, and if it drifts to shore, the property owner has a real mess.

Remember, if you put a shanty out this year, it is your responsibility to remove it from the ice by March 5, regardless of what conditions exist on that date.

Another word of caution, each fish shanty must have the name and address of the owner or occupant painted on the outside thereof, in such a manner as to be readily seen and read at all times. This must be on the structure itself and not just on a piece of paper or board attached to the structure.

The amazing thing about today's teeming highways are the millions of accidents which could, but do not, happen every day. The Institute for Safer Living credits this gratifying situation to the average motorist, who sincerely wants to avoid mishaps and does something about it. He gives thoughtful attention to the many small details which he must constantly practice in order to be labeled a safe driver.
