Local Chapter Joins in FFA Week Observance

THEME IS "AGRICULTURE—OUR AMERICAN HERITAGE"; PLAN EXTRA ACTIVITIES

Vocational agriculture students in Kewaskum High school are joining Future Farmers of America members throughout the nation in activities to focus attention on the importance of agriculture during National FFA Week, Feb. 20-27.

"Agriculture — Our American Heritage" is this year's FFA Week theme. The farm boys undertake a campaign to inform the general public about the importance of the agricultural industry to America, the growing need for farming, and the numerous and wide variety of opportunities that exist in the broad field of agriculture for young men who have a background of farm experience and training.

Actually, farming is now and has always been our largest and most vital industry, and it is becoming increasingly important with our expanding population. In our area particularly, most of the businesses, and most of the jobs, are basically dependent upon surrounding farms for their existence. Take away the farms, and for all practical purposes you would destroy the entire community.

Locally, members of the Kewaskum FFA chapter plan to have a program at the Kiwanis meeting and a chapter farmer initiation at the February meeting, which will be put on by the Madison East chapter.

Membership in the FFA is made up of students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the students to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishment in farming or other agricultural occupations.

The Kewaskum chapter has 93 members. The officers are: President, Eugene Schneider; vice-president, Kenneth Becker; Secretary, Kenneth Ramthun; treasurer, John Eggert; reporter, James Becker; sentinel, Robert Spartz.

The national Future Farmer organization has approximately 400,000 members, with 9,000 local chapters in the 50 states and Puerto Rico.

Future Farmers chose the week of George Washington's birthday each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War general and our first President, Washington's "first love" was the farm. He was one of the first to practice contour planting, crop rotations, fertilization, and other soil conservation and improvement methods.

The Kewaskum chapter started in 1951 and has been active in all phases of the FFA program of work. The state FFA recognizes outstanding individuals by conferring the Wisconsin Farmer degree. The award is based on leadership, co-operation, earning and savings from the farming pro-

Justmans to Open Service Station Here

Harold and Harry Justman, Kewaskum brothers, will take over the service station owned by Lee Honeck at 1129 S. Fond du Lac ave. and will be open for business on Monday, March 1. They have leased the station from the Herges Oil company, which had leased it from Honeck.

The Justmans will be dealers in Shell gasoline and products and will give Shell service. They will do tire changing, wheel balancing, car washing, grease jobs, oil changes and other automotive work.

The station was formerly occupied by Wally's Mobil. The owner, Wally Cudnohoske, last August purchased another station one block north on the opposite side of the street.

A grand opening will be held at the Justman station at a later date. The Justmans invite the public to stop in and visit them at their new place of business.

Volunteers to Call On Homes Saturday In Heart Fund Drive

HEART SUNDAY FEB. 28 TO MARK PEAK OF CAMPAIGN

Heart Sunday, Feb. 28, will mark the peak of the annual Heart Fund drive in Wisconsin and states throughout the nation. Local volunteers will canvass homes in Kewaskum to seek support against the country's number one killer, diseases of the heart and blood vessels.

Dr. R. G. Edwards, who heads the campaign here said that each volunteer will call on the homes of 15-25 neighbors on Saturday, Feb. 27, to accept the gifts for the Heart Fund and to distribute a pamphlet giving valuable information on the heart problem.

"The collection will augment the total already received in the first half of the month-long campaign which supports the expanded research, education and community service programs of the Wisconsin Heart association," Jack Tessar, Heart Sunday captain said.

"The 1965 Heart Fund goal for the state has been set at $616,000 and I urge residents to give generously for every heart in your family so that this goal might be realized," he said.

At homes where residents are away, the volunteers will leave a pre-addressed envelope in which the contribution can be mailed to the Heart Fund.

NO WEDNESDAY NIGHT MOVIES DURING LENT

The Kewaskum theatre will be closed Wednesday evenings during Lent because of church services. The theatre will be open only on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights and for Sunday matinee, starting next week, on Mar. 5, 6 and 7. The feature next Friday through Sunday will be Walt Disney's "Emil and the Detectives." Evenings shows will be at 7 and 9 and Sunday matinee at 2 p. m.

Tickets on Sale for Regional Finals Tournament Here

WINNERS OF HORICON AND GRAFTON SUB-REGIONALS TO PLAYOFF FINALS HERE

Tickets for the Kewaskum WIAA Regional finals basketball tournament will be on sale during the week of Mar. 1 to 5 at the high school office. Game time is 7:30 p. m. on Saturday, Mar. 6. The winner of the Horicon Sub-Regional tournament will play the winner of the Grafton Sub-Regional in the Kewaskum Regional finals. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for students. There are no reserved seats.

Pairings for first-round and semi-final games in the WIAA basketball tournament series for 1965 were announced as approved last week at a WIAA meeting. Kewaskum's Indians play in the Horicon Sub-Regional tourney on Mar. 2 and 5. Campbellsport plays Horicon in the first game at 7:00 p. m. of the Horicon meet on Mar. 2 and Kewaskum plays Slinger in the second game at 8:30. Winners will play in the Sub-Regional finals Mar. 5 at Horicon.

Schools in the Grafton tourney are Cedar Grove, Grafton, Oostburg and Random Lake. In the first game at Grafton, Cedar Grove plays Grafton and Oostburg plays Random Lake in the second contest. Winners will meet in the Sub-Regional finals Mar. 5. Winner of the Horicon Sub-Regional tournament will then play the winner of the Grafton Sub-Regional in Kewaskum Mar. 6.

Kewaskum would first have to win the Horicon Sub-Regional before they could compete in the Sub-Regional finals on their own floor. As soon as a team is defeated it is eliminated from further advancement in tournament play.

The tournament program reaches its climax on Mar. 18-19-20 with the state finals at the University of Wisconsin Fieldhouse in Madison.

This is the first time a Regional finals tournament will be played in Kewaskum's gymnasium.

Bob Berg on Dean's List at Oshkosh U

Bob Berg from Kewaskum earned a place on the first semester's "Dean's List" at Wisconsin State university-Oshkosh, according to a roll issued by the university's office of public information.

The "Dean's List" is compiled each semester by Dr. Sherman Gundersan, dean of the WSU-O School of Letters and Science and Dr. David L. Bowman, dean of the School of Education. Basis for the listing is a high grade point average for all subjects taken by the student.

Ben Klesmith Dies

Ben Klesmith, aged 50, of R. 2, Kewaskum, passed away on Friday Feb. 26, at St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend. Funeral arrangements had not been completed when the Statesman went to press. For further information call Miller's Funeral home.

Two students from Kewaskum are among the 2,700 members of the senior class of 1965 of the University of Wisconsin at Madison who have their pictures in the senior section of the 1965 "Badger," the student yearbook at the university.

The 500-page "Badger" yearbook will be distributed late in the spring. Its 1965 editor is Linda Calder, Milwaukee; its business manager, Milton Carr, Janesville. Published annually since 1885 by Wisconsin students on a self-supporting basis, the 1965 "Badger" contains thousands of photos of Wisconsin students and student groups, campus scenes and activities, faculty and staff members, recording the story of the 1964-65 school year from the viewpoint of its student editors, writers and photographers.

Kewaskum students who are members of the university's class of '65 are Elmer Ramthun, 1348 Main, who received his degree at midyear, and Rita Krell, R. 2.

$502.54 Raised Here In Mothers' March; Helpers Thanked

Mrs. Allen Tessar, chairman of the Mothers' March against polio, birth defects and arthritis in the village of Kewaskum, has announced that a total of $502.54 was raised for this very worthwhile cause this year, exceeding last year's total by $37.54.

Mrs. Tessar is a member of the Kewaskum Woman's club, who conducted this drive as a community service. Unseasonably cold weather greeted the volunteers this year. Mrs. Tessar expresses her thanks to these mothers who made the house-to-house canvass:

Mmes. Walter Bade, Orval Behnke, August Bilgo Jr., Eugene Bohn, Richard Edwards, Roger Groeschel, Wm. Heberer, Raymond Kirchner, Frank Krueger, Vincent Nigh, Bud Perkins, Ellie Ramthun, Richard Reigle, Ronald Reigle, James Reigle, Clayton Stautz, John Tessar, Henry Timblin and Miss Judy Zehren.

Junior Club of Modern Woodmen Organized Here

50 CHILDREN ON CHARTER ROLL; EMPHASIZE SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, RECREATION

A junior club of Modern Woodmen of America was instituted in Kewaskum at an organizational party, Thursday evening, Feb. 25, according to an announcement made by Buddy Borland, Kewaskum, the legal reserve fraternal life insurance society's local special agent. It is the twenty-second such club to be organized in Wisconsin, Borland said.

The new group, organized as a part of the Kewaskum adult camp No. 2233, will be supervised by Mrs. Joyce Borland, Kewaskum, as junior director. Otto Weddig, R. 3, Campbellsport, is camp secretary. Borland, who had charge of the organization ceremonies, stated that the names of fifty children of this community under age sixteen will appear on the charter roll.

He commented that the institution of the club will introduce a new type of recreational activity and citizenship training to boys and girls of this area. The monthly meetings feature programs placing special emphasis on social development and community cooperation and planned recreation geared to children of all age groups. Approximately 350 such clubs are now active in the United States, Borland said.

Emblematic axe membership pins were presented to members at the Feb. 25 event. Souvenirs were distributed and refreshments served.

First Robins

Last week we asked who would report seeing the first robin.

Mrs. Vernon Fierke of the village was the first to report. She called Saturday morning and reported seeing a robin that morning at 8:45 a. m. as she was feeding the birds at her home.

Although she was the first to report, "Tiny" Terlinden claims to have seen one earlier. He reported Sunday that he has seen a robin daily at his home since Valentine's day. Tiny feeds the birds daily and said the robin has been a steady customer, along with a bluebird, chickadees, woodpeckers, starlings and the ever hungry sparrows.

After the new snowstorm and cold of the past week the spring birds would be wiser to stay south for a while yet. Geese were seen flying north last week, the earliest on record, and heading back south this week.

Fred Bartelt Dies

Fred Bartelt, 88, of New Fane passed away Friday morning, Feb. 26. Friends may call at Miller's Funeral home, Kewaskum, after 2 p. m. Sunday and at St. John's Lutheran church, New Fane, from 12 noon until the time of services at 2 p. m. Monday, March 1. Burial will be in the parish cemetery. A complete obituary will be published in next week's issue.

Join the count down—give to Easter Seals.

25 Years Ago

Feb. 23, 1940

The high school chorus, under the direction of Miss Lorenz, is preparing for their operetta, "Ichabod Crane." The cast includes: Ichabod Crane—Harry Wahlen, Katrina van Tassel—Eunice Stahl, Mynheer van Tassel—Harold Manthei, Vrou van Tassel—Dolores Mae Stoffel, Brom van Brunt—Curtis Romaine, aunt—Lillie Zacho, Hendrik—Harold Bunkelman, Wilhelmina—Lucina Thull.

Walter Bruessel, who owned and operated Bruessel's dairy route in Kewaskum the past 2½ years, sold his business to Traugott Stenschke. Mr. Bruessel has no definite plans besides his job of delivering freight from the C. & N. W. depot.

Dr. F. E. Nolting, local recruiting officer for the U. S. Army, took a group of young men from Kewaskum to the Fond du Lac recruiting office for enlistment. Out of the group one recruit from Kewaskum elected to join the army. He is Gustav (Clarence) Werner, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Werner, who joined the air corps. He left for the air base in the Hawaiian Islands, where he will be stationed. He enlisted for three years. Gustav first left for Chicago, from where he went to New York, then taking a ship for Hawaii by way of the Panama Canal. A local high school graduate, he is of athletic build, six feet tall, was a member of Kewaskum basketball teams the past few years, and is a pretty fair boxer.

An intended hitch-hike trip across the country was cut short in Kewaskum when a youth, 14, who gave his name as Bob Lyman of Oshkosh, was picked off the afternoon way freight by Officer George J. Brandt. The boy had run away from the home of his grandparents in Oshkosh and "hooked" a freight with the intention of traveling to the west coast to visit his mother. When the train stopped here Officer Brandt noticed the small, young passenger riding the rails. The officer took him off the train, questioned him and soon the facts were revealed. The boy's grandparents were notified and arrived from Oshkosh the same evening to take him home. His trip to California probably ended in a trip to the woodshed.

Ervin Backhaus sustained a fractured bone in his neck when he fell from a wagon on his father's farm on R. 3, Kewaskum. He had just returned from Kewaskum with a wagon load of coal. As he was stopping the horses he slipped and fell off the wagon to the ground. Ervin is up and around although the injured bone is held rigid in a cast.

High school news—Can you imagine Ralph Krautkramer with black hair? Lloyd Petermann in a tuxedo? Arthur Buss combing his hair? Malinda Schmidt not sucking her fingers? Violet Eberle singing a song "Oh Howie?" Bob Schmidt's eyes not wandering around the assembly? Harold Manthei getting a kick out of dancing the minuet? Cornelius Brodzeller in the movies? Harold Manthei forgetting about operetta practice to go hunting and now has Miss Lorenz hunting him?

Curtis Romaine of Kewaskum was elected vice-president of the Kettle Moraine Bike-Hike club at the annual meeting of bicycle enthusiasts in Fond du Lac. The Oshkosh Bike-Hike club was admitted to the organization. The next meeting will be held at Shorewood.

Aug. 22, 1914

The West Bend ball tossers journeyed to this village Sunday and were defeated by our strong aggregation, 11-9. Mohme was on the mound for Kewaskum and as usual delivered the pill without sugar. Again Miller of the locals was there with his batting eye, getting another hit over the railroad tracks and aiming another at the village hall, which fell a little short of the stock yards. If this man Miller keeps up his hitting the buildings within a half mile will have to double barricade their windows. Notes of the game: Al-tenhofen was off color throwing to the bases, Brandstetter misjudged every fly ball in center. Manager Miller classes his team as one of the best in the country. Rauen made a great catch when he raced back in left field and hauled down a high one.

A game of baseball was played between "Canada" and Kewaskum boys Sunday on the "Canadian" side of the river, with depressing effect upon the former, as they only scored 19 tallies while the opponents covered the diamond shaped course 25 times—more or less.

Miss Timm Bride Of Kenneth Bales

Marriage vows were exchanged in a 10:30 a. m. ceremony on Saturday, Feb. 13, in Holy Trinity Catholic church, Kewaskum, by Miss Marilyn Lee Timm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Timm, 637 Kuester Lane N., West Bend, and Kenneth Henry Bales, R. 3, Campbellsport. The Rev. John Budde performed the ceremony and read the nuptial Mass.

The bride chose a gown of French chantilly lace, fashioned with long tapered sleeves and a scalloped neckline, appliqued with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The colonial full skirt was accented with tiers of white organza ruffles under a chantilly lace apron front, and the back featured a bustle effect created of organza ruffles. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a headpiece of white silk roses with pearl and lace petals, and her heart shaped colonial bouquet consisted of tiny red rose buds, white baby mums and white chrysanthemums.

Attendants chosen by the bride were her cousin, Miss Nancy Weston, maid of honor, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Mary Jane Bales, another cousin of the bride, Miss Diane Walters, and friends of the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. David Nigh and Miss Jeanne Rahn as bridesmaids.

The attendants were identically attired in bell shaped floor length dresses of royal red velvet, which were designed with fitted bodices, tapering three-quarter sleeves and high scoop necklines. Each carried a white rabbit fur muff with red feathered carnations, applied in a heart shape to the muff, with white streamers and hearts. The headpieces consisted of white rabbit fur, clip style, with white maline veils.

Ronald Bales was best man for his brother and the groomsmen were Allen Bales, another brother, and friends David Nigh, Kewaskum; Lawrence Gundrum, Campbellsport, and friend of the bride, Steven Spaeth, West Bend. Ushers were David Bales, West Bend, and Harvey Gray, West Bend, cousin and cousin-in-law of the bridegroom and bride, respectively.

A dinner for 48 guests at the Holy Trinity church hall was followed by a three o'clock reception for 350 guests at the VFW hall, West Bend, and the wedding dance at West Park ballroom, West Bend. Following a honeymoon in Michigan, the newlyweds will reside in West Bend.

BROTHERHOOD — A PRICELESS GIFT

Parents have always wanted the best possible world for their children. We dedicate our lives to them at our jobs and in all of our planning. We struggle to provide a maximum security, but tragically we too often equate that security in terms of ure materialism. We overlook and even obstruct, through our own failings, to provide that far greater gift of emotional and mental security.

Our children's future is within themselves—their hopes and aspirations and the character they must build for themselves. Money alone cannot buy that future. In today's world, few, if any, parents can provide a guarantee of financial security. Indeed, it is even questionable whether such security is an advantage, for wealth alone can corrupt and destroy.

How much greater then is the gift of love and self-respect, which, when it is freely given, reflects itself in love and respect for others, no matter who they are or where they live.

This is the dream of Brotherhood, promoted by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. It seeks to plant the seeds of love, respect, and understanding in the hearts and minds of men, so that mankind, working together, can overcome the destructive forces of greed, hate, and prejudice within himself.

If you want to give to your children a truly happy and meaningful life, join with the National Conference of Christians and Jews; help weed out the feelings of guilt and bigotry within ourselves which have so long sapped the meaning of life.

Give your love, respect and understanding to your children. Contribute to the support of the NCCJ, or any human relations agency of your choice, thereby helping to bring about the brave new world we all have sought.

Mother Thanks County Easter Seal Society

Long-time workers in the Washington County Easter Seal society were delighted to receive a letter this week from the mother of a boy who had been aided by contributions to the society which is dedicated to crippled children and adults. Mrs. Leo Adamczyk of R. 2, West Bend, said, "if you'd like to use Johnny's story, people could see how the money raised stays in the county."

The touching story of a devoted mother is memorable. "Perhaps it will make your job more worthwhile" she wrote. It does, indeed. "My son is Johnny, age 12. He was born with a curvature of the spine. We never gave up hope that he could be helped, but there's always the thought, 'maybe not.' When I was told I maybe had a year to live, I vowed we would take another chance to find help for him. And thank God we did. He has three spinal fusions. And only three weeks ago they stood him up, straight and tall. He was a good ball player and mass server in spite of the deformity. (Now the lad wears a brace and is doing well). Also, the VFW contributions bought him the special hospital bed."

Donald Delse Slayton, Wisconsin state volunteer chairman, and Daniel Miller of West Bend, Washington county chairman, have urged that area citizens answer the appeal letter. Contributions will help in a year-round program of rehabilitation. The campaign dates are March 1 to April 18, Easter Sunday. The symbol of the Easter society is the lily which stands for hope for the crippled and handicapped both young and old.

When people fight over religion, it is a good sign that there isn't much of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wertz are spending a vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. E. "Pat" Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Felenz left last week to spend a three-week vacation in California and other western states.

Donald Seil is spending a 12-day vacation in Florida and other places of interest. A postcard was received from him this week and he wrote: "Had 12 days to goof off and wound up down here in Florida. What a place to be. People are swimming here at Silver Springs and walking around in short sleeves and shorts. I hate to come home."

Leo Bonlender, Joe Schmitt and Ray Gutjahr of St. Kilian returned home from Florida on Sunday after having spent eight days there. They traveled via jet plane. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kleinhans and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Coulter.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Coulter, son Larry and daughter Emma Jean are vacationing in Florida several weeks.

More Kewaskum and area residents spent vacations in Florida this winter than ever before. With all the folks mentioned above who are gone now, and the many we have listed in previous weeks, and the ones who regularly spend the winters in Florida, it's a wonder there is anyone left at home.

Mrs. Alban Nigh and daughter Lori, Mrs. Margaret Harter of here and Sr. M. Cherubim, O.S.F. and Sr. Ferando of Campbellsport attended the funeral of Joseph A. Schaefer, Sr., 77, at Slinger Monday morning. He was a cousin of the late Jacob Harter of Kewaskum, and was president of the Schaefer Organ Co. at Slinger.

World Day of Prayer
Planned by County
Church Women Mar. 5

MRS. J. TESSAR CHAIRMAN;
FOUR AREA OBSERVANCES

March 5th, the first Friday after the beginning of Lent, will mark the 79th observance of the World Day of Prayer which will be held in 125 countries world-wide. True to its original purpose and meaning, the observance has five elements: 1. An awareness of and the commitment to the reality and the power of prayer. 2. A concern for the need of all peoples for the message of Christian gospel. 3. Openness, a service open to all, without denominational, racial, national or cultural distinctions. 4. The use of the same theme and service as the basis for planning and observing the day everywhere in the world. 5. Offerings made in the U.S.A. will go to twelve colleges in Africa, India, Pakistan, Japan, Korea, Hong Kong and Taiwan. Christian literature will be provided for women and children in Africa, Asia, and Latin America. International students will be given a friendly reception and hospitality. Home and family life projects and the Migrant Ministry will also be aided. The offerings will also provide for religious work directors for schools on Indian reservations.

Four observances of the day will be sponsored by the United Church women of Washington County. In West Bend, Trinity Lutheran church, at the corner of 7th and Elm sts., will be host to churches of West Bend and Kewaskum areas. Immanuel United Church of Christ, and Fifth Ave. Methodist church will aid in the program which will be in charge of Mrs. Henry Vanderwalker. A service will be held at 2 p. m. for all who wish to share in the annual observance. The public is welcomed. At 4 p. m. there will be a special service for children.

In Hartford, the World Day of Prayer will be held at the Evangelical United Brethren church at 449 N. Main st. Hartford participating churches are: Redeemer Lutheran, St. John's UCC, Congregational UCC, and Methodist. There will be a children's service at 4 p. m. and an adult service at 8 p. m. Speaker for the day will be Rev. Maurice Felton.

The Germantown-Richfield area will observe the World Day of Prayer at Our Saviour's United Church of Christ at Germantown. Mrs. Wilfred Hoelz, chairman of the event, has announced that Rev. Carroll Olm of Fairhaven at Whitewater will be the speaker at the 8 p. m. service. Other churches participating in the observance and contributing members to a massed choir are: Calvary Community, EUB, Germantown; Emmanuel EUB, Richfield; Zion EUB, Colgate; St. John's UCC, Germantown; First Presbyterian, Richfield, and St. Jacobi's United Church of Christ, also at Richfield. Fellowship will be held after the service.

The Jackson-Slinger area will join the world-wide observance with an 8 p. m. service at Faith United Church of Christ south of Slinger. Rev. Ralph Maschmeier will speak to an audience composed of members and guests of the participating churches which will be: Christ Lutheran in Jackson, the United Churches of Christ, Peace, St. Peter's, and Friedens, all of Jackson, and St. John's of Slinger.

Chairman of the World Day of Prayer, Mrs. Jack Tessar of Kewaskum, who is chairman of Christian World Missions, and Mrs. Harold Ziegler, the president of the United Church Women, have urged all Christians to join in the March 5 observance and help answer the question, "what doth the Lord require . . . but to do justly . . . love mercy . . . walk humbly." The four Washington county observances will welcome all who wish to join the prayers which will be said around the world.

gram, and for outstanding work in a specific phase of his farming operation and the FFA chapter.

The Kewaskum chapter has two State Farmer candidates this year. Mark Wilkens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilkens, rural route, West Bend, and Roger Neumann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neumann, rural route, Kewaskum. Both boys are members of the 1965 senior class at Kewaskum High school. The first State Farmers of the Kewaskum chapter were Delbert Haack and Carl Meyer.

The vo-ag student takes his learning from the classroom to the farm where he applies his knowledge to projects as varied as the local agriculture. The most popular project of the Kewaskum chapter includes swine, dairy, dairy herd testing and corn. The project work is an integral part of the classroom work and is stressed in the motto: "Learn to Do . . . Doing to Learn . . . Earning to Live . . . Living to Serve."

Dairy is the most popular project, followed by the corn projects. The boys completed 98 corn projects with Harry Krueger leading the way with a yield of 138 bushels.

The swine project is an excellent project for it has a fast turnover and allows the boy to get started on a limited amount of capital. An example of a continuing FFA swine project is that of Bill Butzlaff, a 1962 graduate, who has built his herd to one of the top Poland herds in the area.

The chapter has two major fund raising activities, a fall magazine sale and the raising of the Beautena calves. The calves are purchased from a local Holstein breeder and are raised for a period of 6 to 8 months by one of the boys of the chapter. He feeds, trains and grooms the calf for the Beautena Royal show where it is sold and the funds go to the local chapter. The local Purina dealer furnishes the feed for the calf and this year the local Kiwanis purchased two of the calves for the chapter.

Four boys raised calves this year: Kenneth Ramthun, Eugene Schneider, Dale Moths and Mark Wilkens. Three of the four calves were bought back by the boys and one boy bought a second calf as a start for his future herd.

Chapter funds are used for community projects, to buy breeding stock for the FFA Pig Ring, the parent-son banquet, educational trips, chapter equipment and the operation of the chapter.

It's best to purchase locally grown nursery stock. Locally grown stocks are fresher and less likely to be damaged from handling or poor storage conditions.

Pure Milk Co-op Issues Statement On Oleomargarine

Pure Milk Products Co-operative board of directors, in regular session Feb. 18 at Fond du Lac, issued the following statement:

"Margarine as a food product, sold under its own color and advertised on its own merit is one situation. Quite a different situation is its sale in imitation of butter, and that situation we firmly feel should be prohibited in the interest of consumer protection. Margarine falls far short of the legal requirements for butter in raw materials, standards and manufacturing limitations.

"Butter may use no ingredients other than butterfat, water and salt. The state of Wisconsin requires the cows which produce the milk to be free from disease. No abnormal milk may be sold for any purpose. The barn, barnyard, milkhouse, cooling facilities, water supply, and sewage disposal are closely regulated and inspected. All dairy products must be 100% free of pesticide residues.

"There is no standard formula for oleomargarine. Most margarines contain vegetable oil obtained from soybeans, cottonseed, corn, etc. There is no regulation or inspection of the conditions under which these crops are grown, stored or handled. They are subject to contamination from many sources. They are not required to be 100% pesticide free.

"Most margarines also contain animal fats, principally lard and tallow, which are usually identified in the fine print on the package as stearates and glycerides.

"These mixtures of unpalatable ingredients are blended and rendered edible by the addition of emulsifiers and preservatives, which are prohibited by law for use in butter.

"Obviously, the difference in standards contributes strongly to the difference in price between butter and margarine. It is a strange public policy which insists upon such rigid regulation of the original product and permits unlimited imitation by a product which is not required to meet these standards.

"We think it is obvious that no manufacturer wants margarine colored yellow for any other reason than to more effectively imitate butter.

"We feel that the proposals to permit the sale of colored oleomargarine in Wisconsin with the proceeds of the tax to go for dairy research is a "booby trap" for the dairy farm interests. The type of "research" we need to sell dairy products is cooperation between dairy and consumer groups to secure legislation on a national basis requiring honest labeling, honest advertising, and comparable raw material standards for margarine and all other imitations as are required for dairy products. This is a much more worth while channel for the energies of women's groups than promoting the sale of low standard imitations in unrestricted competition with healthful, strictly regulated dairy products."

PMPC officials also pointed out the great importance of the dairy industry to this state's economy.

There are 145 butter making dairy plants in Wisconsin producing one-sixth of the butter made in the U. S. A. These dairy plants and the more than 85,000 dairy farmers in Wisconsin are of vital importance in the state's economy both to the rural communities and to the metropolitan centers as well. Agriculture brings in 1/8 of the state's gross income and in 1964 dairy products brought in 53.0% of the cash receipts realized by Wisconsin farmers for farm products marketed, or more than $600 million.

Dairymen buy substantial amounts of goods, manufactured mostly in the cities, where financiers and merchandising groups are steadily increasing pressure to repeal the oleo law so that imitation products can unfairly compete with butter, the Wisconsin dairyman's main product. Repeal of the oleo law would not benefit any segment of Wisconsin industry or agriculture.

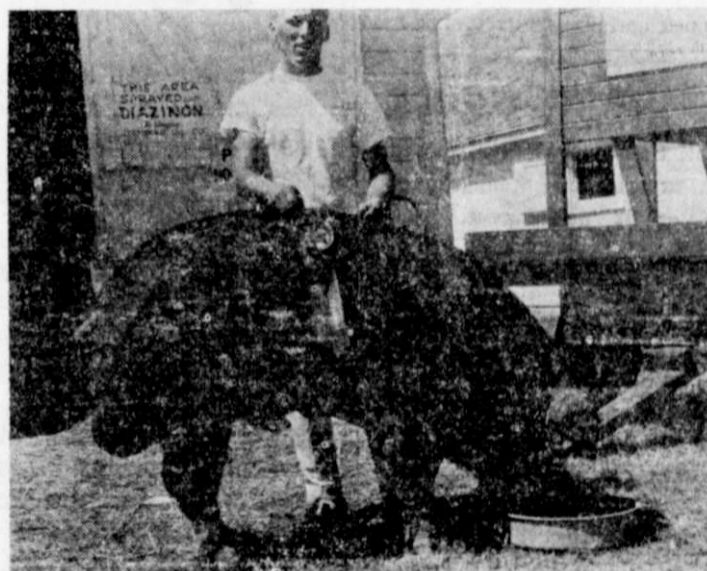

Production expenses of Wisconsin farmers amounted to nearly 3/4 billion dollars annually according to USDA figures for Wisconsin dairy farmers. Farmers kept a labor force of some 250,000 persons busy supplying their needs and processing their products. Their total contribution to Wisconsin certainly far outstrips any contribution the state could expect from a mere 22 out-of-state oleo manufacturers shipping their products into the state to be marketed.

Bill Butzlaff and the grand county fair (outgrowth of his FFA champion boar of the Washington project).

Reveal Catholic Charities Drive Parish Captains

ROY ESSER TO HEAD HOLY TRINITY PARISH APPEAL

The appointment of parish captains for the 1965 Catholic Charities and Seminary Fund campaign to be held March 28 - April 11 have been revealed by Geo. H. Wheary, Jr., Racine, general campaign chairman.

Wheary said the appointments include all the 286 parishes in the Milwaukee Archdiocese. The selections complete the general organizational structure of the 1965 drive which will seek $1,750,000. Wheary had previously announced the appointment of district chairmen for the annual appeal.

At the same time Wheary stated that the first three of five area meetings were held Feb. 15, 16 and 17. The kickoff meeting was held in Racine which included all parishes in Racine, Kenosha and Walworth counties. This was followed by two consecutive meetings in Milwaukee for all the parishes in Milwaukee and Ozaukee counties. Two subsequent meetings were held Feb. 25 at Waukesha and will be held March 1 in Fond du Lac.

Attendance at the area meetings included district leaders, parish captains and pastors. Archbishop William E. Cousins was the keynote speaker at the first four sessions and will appear at Fond du Lac.

Wheary stated the first three area meetings were attended by capacity audiences. "The drive leaders for the 1965 Catholic Charities effort have accepted challenge of raising funds to support the 27 agencies throughout the Milwaukee Archdiocese with enthusiasm I have not seen in my 15 years with the program. The first three meetings of volunteer leaders are indicative of a successful campaign."

Parish captains named to serve in Washington county and in the other areas surrounding Kewaskum are as follows:

St. Patrick, Erin, Raymond Jeffords; St. Kilian, Hartford, Stanley Boyd; St. Mary of the Hill, Holy Hill, Laverne Wolf; St. Hubert, Hubertus, Francis Pfeiffer; Maternity of Blessed Virgin, Richfield, not announced; St. Peter, Slinger, John Brust; St. Lawrence, St. Lawrence, Henry Faust; St. Anthony, Allenton, Alfred Schmidt; Sacred Heart, Allenton, Melvin Emmer and Duane Gundrum; Im-Conception, West Bend, Irvin W. Otten; St. John of God, Farmington, Robert Zettler; St. Boniface, Goldendale, Lloyd Vanderheiden; Holy Trinity, Kewaskum, Roy Esser; St. Mathias, Nabob, Franklin Scharrer; SS. Peter and Paul, Nenno, Alois Neuburg; Holy Trinity, Newburg, John Isselman; St. Kilian, St. Kilian, Leo Zehren; St. Michael, St. Michaels, Robert Zettler; St. Augustine, Trenton, Clarence Fechter; St. Bridget, Wayne, not announced; Holy Angels, West Bend, Gilbert Mrazik; St. Frances Cabrini, West Bend, Frank Slesar; Our Lady of Angels, Armstrong, Gerald Bittner; St. Martin, Ashford, Helidore Dreikosen; St. Matthias, Auburn, Elroy Egerer; St. Matthew, Campbellsport, Dr. Math. Schlafer.

FLOWER SHOW TICKETS ARE AVAILABLE AT FLOWER SHOP

Tickets are available at the Kewaskum Floral Shop for the second annual Midwest Flower and Garden Festival to be held March 6 through 14 at State Fair park, Milwaukee. Tickets in advance are $1.25 and at the door $1.50.

FROHMANN ATTENDS GEHL SALES CLINIC

Eddie Frohmann of Myron Perschbacher, Kewaskum, recently attended the Sales and Service Training clinic at Gehl Bros. Mfg. Co., West Bend.

The highlight of the meeting was the introduction of the new Gehl Chop-King forage harvester which Gehl presented as "the biggest chopper built." The Chop-King short-chops up to 50% more forage than any other forage harvester. In addition, Gehl presented all the new features of the other equipment in the 1965 line.

Management of the dealership stated that this sales and service clinic brought all of their sales, parts and service personnel up-to-date on the Gehl line to give better service to area farmers.

Some people don't need an introduction. They need a conclusion.

Grafton Avenges Earlier Setback

Grafton avenged its only conference defeat of the season with room to spare as the Blackhawks thumped Kewaskum there Friday night, 99-76. The Indians had handed Grafton a 71-66 defeat here earlier in the season in a big upset. It broke a 35-game winning streak for the Blackhawks, who were undefeated champions the past two years and have also sewed up the title this season with only the Kewaskum setback marring their record.

Grafton opened up a 54-33 half-time lead behind the hot shooting of its high scoring twins, Jeff Sewell and Jerry Gleason, and were never headed. In the first outing the Indians were able to check Sewell and Gleason pretty well and the upset resulted but Friday they were unable to halt them and the two went on a spree, scoring 36 and 29 points respectively. The Indians were in the game in the opening quarter, which ended 26-21, but fell way behind in the second period, when they were out-pointed 28-12, by the high powered Blackhawks. Grafton increased their lead to 82-55 in the third period and then, with second stringers seeing much action, were outscored by Kewaskum in the final stanza, 21-17, to bring the final count to 99-76.

With 65 points between them, Sewell and Gleason did almost all of the scoring for the winners. Oelhafen set the pace for the Indians with 18 points, followed by Bob Miller with 13, Bob Coulter with 12 and Dick Wieter and Mike Miller with 11 apiece. Sophomore Mike Miller, moved up from the "B" squad, saw action in only part of the contest and did well against the conference champions by scoring 11 points in the time he was in the lineup. Kewaskum will have four of this year's regulars back next season, including another sophomore, Bill Backhaus, and with Mike Miller moving up to take the place of brother Bob Miller, a senior, the Indians should have a strong team. Kewaskum was without the services of starter Larry Coulter in the important Grafton game. He was vacationing with his parents in Florida.

With Grafton having the championship tucked away, a dogfight continues for the runner-up position between Kewaskum, Random Lake and Campbellsport. With the Indians losing, Random Lake moved back into second place, while Kewaskum dropped into a third place tie with Campbellsport. Grafton and Random Lake have only one game remaining while Kewaskum and Campbellsport have two. Results of other contests Friday showed North Fondy dumping Pewaukee, 71-59; Campbellsport tipping Germantown, 76-65, and Random Lake measuring Slinger, 75-62.

The Indians will bring the regular season to a close with two home games this weekend. On Friday night Random Lake plays here in the final regularly scheduled contest and Saturday night Pewaukee will play a make-up game which was postponed by bad weather on Feb. 12. And then on to WIAA tournament action.

FIRST GEESE ARRIVE ON EARLIEST DATE ON RECORD

The first flocks of Canada geese arriving from the south passed over Washington county on Saturday, Feb. 20, flying towards Horicon marsh. As a rule these big birds do not arrive in numbers until March 10 or later. Prior to this year the early arrival record was Feb. 23. By early May better than 95% of them will have moved on to their nesting grounds in the far north.

All fish shanties must be removed from the Lakes of Washington county prior to midnight March 5, 1965. This included tents, shelters and windbreaks. Burning of a shanty is not removing it from the ice. The owner of a burned shanty is subject to a fine for leaving debris on the ice, chapter 29 of the Wisconsin Statutes.

Remove Shanties by Mar. 5

All fish shanties must be removed from the ice on or before March 5 and this regulation affects all waters south of State Highway 64.

Each year we have considerable difficulty with shanties left out until the last minute with no preparation to remove it when necessary.

You definitely have a responsibility to remove your shanty by March 5, so we believe it is just good common sense to prepare for it now.

If yours is a sturgeon spearing shanty and used exclusively or primarily for that purpose, take it off the ice with you the last day of the sturgeon season on your last trip out. If you use your shanty for other fishing, be sure you get it located so it is possible to move it before the deadline. During the sturgeon season there are usually roads plowed or at least equipment available for such plowing. But if you don't prepare now for removing your shanty, you could have a real problem, and considerable unnecessary expense getting it off. It must be removed by March 5.

ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING OF MOTHER OF TWINS CLUB

The Mother of Twins club is holding their organizational meeting on Tuesday, March 2, at 8 p. m. in one of the Sunday school rooms at the Methodist church on 5th ave., West Bend. Anyone interested can write or phone Mrs. Bill Goeden, R. 6, West Bend, FE 4-7765. All mothers of twins are welcome.

In 1961, the cost of the Interstate Highway System was estimated at $41 billion. The latest official figure is $46.8 billion—an increase of $5.8 billion.
