Area Digs Out After Worst Snow Storm of Winter

8-10 INCHES FALL, 40 MILE-AN-HOUR WINDS PILE UP DRIFTS, SCHOOLS CLOSED

St. Patrick's Day of 1965 on Wednesday will be remembered for many years to come by residents of this area as the "day of the big snow storm" when wearin' o' the white was more appropriate than wearin' o' the green.

This area was still digging out Friday after the worst blizzard of the winter on Wednesday and Thursday. Between 8 and 10 inches of snow fell in this area and was accompanied by 40 mile-an-hour winds which piled the snow into mountainous drifts. Some northern areas reported 18 inches of snow and Superior reported a total on the ground there to a whopping 46 inches.

Tuesday was a fine spring-like day and when residents retired for the night a full moon was shining in the sky, although somewhat overcast. When they arose in the morning a blizzard was raging outside to their surprise. The storm began around 4 a. m. and in only a couple of hours traffic was almost at a standstill from the heavy, blowing snow. The snow and gale-like winds continued all day Wednesday and through the night. Only a light snow fell on Thursday but the winds increased with gusts between 40 and 50 miles-an-hour, blinding motorists and closing roads. The terrific wind continued all day, blowing snow all around until subsiding at night.

All Kewaskum schools were closed Wednesday and Thursday as they also were almost all over the state. Some factories closed and there was a large percentage of absenteeism at those which operated. Traffic and business was at a standstill and some businesses closed. All St. Patrick's Day celebrations and all other events were called off, including Lenten church services, meetings, bowling and other affairs.

Drifts were piled up 8 and 10 feet high. All secondary roads were closed. Hwy. 45 south of West Bend was closed off to traffic Thursday when the drifting snow won out over battling county highway crews. The plows couldn't keep up with the drifting and highways closed faster than they could keep them open. Many main highways had only one lane of traffic open. The snow blew and swirled with blinding force, making it impossible to see very far ahead. It was difficult to walk against the cutting snow.

Village workers kept busy all day Wednesday and Thursday in an attempt to keep streets passable and hauling away snow. It was no use shoveling walks, plowing out driveways or parking lots until Friday as the whirling snow blew them shut almost as fast as they were cleared. Roads were very slippery under the snow and cars had trouble moving and staying on the road. Numerous vehicles were stuck, snowbound and abandoned.

The storm was followed by cold weather, with temperatures dropping close to the zero mark Friday.

AMBULANCE CALLS

Tuesday, Mar. 16, 3 p. m.—Mrs. Walter Gatzke, R. 2, Campbellsport, removed to St. Agnes hospital, Fond du Lac, with a possible leg fracture suffered in a fall.

morning. Alj told it was good TV weather and very few people were seen on the streets or highways.

Nearly all of the winter's snow from previous storms had melted away prior to this week's blast and residents had visions of spring. But this "granddaddy of them all" left as much snow as all of the other winter's storms put together. Driving conditions were the worst of the entire winter.

As one writer put it, the heavy snow was hard to shovel, harder to walk in, hardest to drive through, impossible to see through. It blew into garages, barns, sheds, closed doorways and underneath hoods of cars. One police officer said the only way you could get through the snow was to dynamite.

Sings With Oshkosh U Choir in Concert

The Liebeslieder waltzes of Johannes Brahms, sung by the Chamber Choir, was a special feature of the Wisconsin State university, Oshkosh, choir concert at the campus Little Theatre on Wednesday, March 17, according to Dr. Harold Porter, director.

The 8 p. m. concert displayed the vocal accomplishments of some 78 university student members, including David Hanselman from Kewaskum.

The Chamber Choir is a select group of sixteen men and women singers formed for the purpose of performing literature not suitable for larger ensembles. Formerly known as the Madrigal Singers, the group was re-named to more accurately reflect the scope of the organization's repertory. In addition to madrigals, a type of composition largely limited to the sixteenth century, the Chamber Choir also studies music of the modern era, as well as classical and romantic literature.

Shed, Machinery Destroyed By Fire On Schmidt Farm

FIREMEN FIGHT BLAZE DURING SEVERE STORM THURSDAY AFTERNOON

One machine shed burned to the ground, all of the machinery and other contents it contained were lost, and another shed was damaged in a fire early Thursday afternoon on the Arnold Schmidt farm, R. 2, Kewaskum, located on Hwy. 28 about a mile west of the village.

Kewaskum firemen were called out at 12:10 p. m. and when they arrived at the scene about half of the frame machine shed was already destroyed. The flames were fanned by a severe wind and there wasn't any chance of saving the shed. Firemen poured water on an adjoining shed which had caught fire and saved this building, then continued to douse the smoldering remains of the destroyed structure.

The destroyed shed was approximately 25 by 35 feet in size and several pieces of farm machinery and equipment were lost with it. The adjoining shed, a combination storage shed and chicken coop, suffered damage to the roof and outer wall on the north side of the building. A farm wagon was pulled away from the fire and fortunately a nearby gasoline storage tank did not explode.

The fire occurred during a raging snowstorm, accompanied by 40 mile an hour gale winds, which blew and drifted the snow with blinding force. The storm hampered firemen and at times it was difficult to tell the smoke from the driving, whirling snow. Deep drifts of snow in the yard also prevented firemen from getting their equipment close to the source. Some trouble was also experienced in removing the heavy fire engine and tank trunk from the yard because of the snow, slippery surface underneath, mud and water and terrain. Extra water was supplied by the tank truck and later a chain had to be hooked to another vehicle to help get the tanker turned and underway. The lighter vehicles had no problems. Firemen fought the blaze for more than an hour in the severe weather. Shortly after returning to the fire station another call was received that the blaze had flared up again from the wind. The fire engine and some of the firemen made a return trip to the farm and ended this threat.

Cause of the fire was not determined but it is possible that wiring may have been the fault. An estimate of the loss was not made.

Mrs. Christ. Schaefer and son Gustave moved from their home on Fond du Lac ave. and are now making their home with Mrs. Amelia Butzlaff and daughter.

Harold Russart, 26, R. 2, Belgium, and his uncle, John Goschey, 52, Fredonia, were killed when the car in which they were riding tipped over on a rock pile on County Trunk D in the town of Barton, near the Henry Techtman farm southwest of Kewaskum. They were crushed beneath the car. Miss Eleanore Eggerer, 26, R. 1, Port Washington, a passenger, suffered bad gashes to her legs from kicking out the windshield of the car in order to get out. The car also clipped off a mail box and clipped off a small tree.

Edward Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen, completed a 12 week winter course in dairy manufacture at the University of Wisconsin. Edward is an employee of the Kewaskum Creamery Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Householder moved from Madison and are now at home in the Quandt house on Fond du Lac ave, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hirsig and son, who moved onto the Jac Fellenz farm near New Fane. Householder is employed by the Kewaskum Creamery Co. Mr. and Mrs. George Koerble and daughter moved from the lower flat of the Mrs. Dorothea Driesel home on Main st. into the A. G. Koch home on Main st. vacated recently by Mr. and Mrs. Anton Backhaus.

Byron Bunkelman sustained a fracture of the small bone in his left leg while playing basketball with the Kewaskum Land o' Rivers league team against Mayville. On a jump ball with a Mayville player Byron claims he was pushed off balance and came down on the leg as it was twisted, snapping the bone.

Lester Corbett, 25, of this village and William Berkevich, 23, of near Adell were killed and Raymond Pranskunas, 16, of near Dundee was critically injured in an auto crash on Hwy. 67 near Dundee. It is believed that Berkevich, the driver, lost control of the car, which skidded into a ditch, struck a concrete culvert, bounced up and landed in a field. Corbett was thrown out of the car and was found 100 feet from the vehicle, which was demolished. Corbett, who suffered a skull fracture, brain concussion and spine injury, died enroute to the hospital, while Berkevich died several hours later at the hospital. Corbett was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett, who live on the Chas. Geidel farm on Hwy. 55, just inside of the north village limits.

John Schlosser, who is employed by the Mid-West State Telephone Co. here, has been promoted and will be transferred to Richmond, Ill. Myron Belger, who was also employed by the Telephone Co., has secured a position as a meat cutter in Waukesha and left for that city.

Philip J. Haug, 80, of the town of Auburn, died. He formerly lived in Kewaskum and was a brother of Nic. Haug, Sr. of this village.

Erwin Mohme will leave for Elmhurst, Ill., where he will enter a college.

BEGIN PREPARING PREMIUM BOOKS FOR '65 COUNTY FAIR

When the Washington county extension agents begin to think about the county fair premium book, spring can't be far behind. Last week they began preparing the book for the 1965 event.

A fair can be up to date only if the premium book is done with the wishes of the public in mind. The county agents are wondering if there is any need for radical changes in the book for this year. A good share of the entries is determined by the uniform premium list approved and published by the Wisconsin Exposition Department. However, there are other things that can be included.

The agents are inviting the public to contact the extension office to suggest any changes they might have in mind. These changes should be suggested not later than March 22.

STEER KILLED WHEN IT IS STRUCK BY CAR

A steer, belonging to Daniel Rodenkirch, R. 1, Kewaskum, was injured to such an extent that it had to be destroyed when the animal broke out of the barnyard at the Rodenkirch farm and was struck by a car when it wandered onto Hwy. 144 about 1,000 feet south of the intersection with Hwy. 28 east of Kewaskum. The mishap occurred at 8:40 p. m. Sunday. Driver of the car was Jacob P. Bierter, 58, of West Bend.

Red Cross Youth Enrollment in Schools Begins

Peter Nannetti, elementary administrative assistant of the West Bend public schools and Red Cross Youth chairman for the local chapter, announces that the annual student enrollment in the schools begins this week to be completed by April 15.

Nearly 5,700 students in the 27 public and parochial schools in the chapter will be given the opportunity to join the national organization.

The theme for the elementary grades is "Friendship and Service Around the School, Around the Corner, Around the Country, and Around the World." Ready, Willing, Able, and Glad to Serve" is the motto for the high school students.

"No individual fee is required in the Red Cross Youth enrollment," Mr. Nannetti states. A fee of $1 for every classroom in the elementary grades and $1 for every 30 students in the high schools is necessary. Any additional amount is placed in the service fund.

These group contributions finance the Red Cross youth services locally, the International Children's Fund, and a subscription to the Junior Red Cross News for each elementary classroom and the Red Cross Journal for the secondary homerooms.

The Red Cross youth are guided in their activities by teacher-sponsors and the services are carried on as a regular part of the school work. They serve in virtually all Red Cross chapter activities as well as in their own programs. They experience the satisfaction that comes from being trained to be of voluntary service to others.

Among the services are preparation in first aid, water safety, home nursing, mother and baby care, and emergency disaster procedures. Projects include school-to-school exchange programs, entertainment in local and veteran hospitals, Christmas service, participation in broadcasts on WBKV, blood donor service, conferences, and leadership training camps.

32 Students at High School Take Merit Scholarship Test

Thirty-two students at Kewaskum Community High school took the 1965 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMSQT), Marshall Boyd, principal, announced today.

The test was administered at the school at 9 a. m. Tuesday, March 9. All students who wish to be considered for Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1966 took the test at that time.

The NMSQT is a three-hour examination of educational development. The test is the first step in the eleventh annual competition for four-year Merit Scholarships provided by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and by sponsoring corporations, foundations, colleges, associations, unions, trusts, and individuals.

The test scores of students who are examined in March will be reported to their schools before May 15. The scores are used by counselors in many high schools to help students make decisions about college attendance and field of study.

More than 14,000 semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall.

Approximately 38,000 additional students, selected on a national basis, receive letters of commendation for their high performance on the qualifying test. Their names and test scores are also sent to their first and second-choice colleges. Each semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance and meet certain other requirements will become finalists in the competition. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be selected from the finalist group on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extracurricular activities, leadership ability, and accomplishments outside the classroom.

All finalists are considered eligible for Merit Scholarships financed by NMSC and sponsors. The National Merit Scholarships provided by NMSC are awarded on a basis of state representation and without special individual criteria of any kind. Many sponsored Merit Scholarships include additional criteria such as the finalist's relationship to an employee of the sponsoring organization, his residence in a certain area, his college preference, or his career intention.

The scholarship stipends are based on financial need. The minimum award is $100 and the maximum is $1,500. The average stipend awarded to freshman Merit Scholars in 1964 was $757 annually, or about $3,000 for the four years of college. Supplementary grants are usually made to the colleges that the scholars attend. Each scholarship constitutes a form of educational insurance, since the stipend may be increased at any time if the student's financial situation changes during the four-year term of the scholarship.

Teachers of County Hold March Meeting

The Washington County Teachers association held their March meeting in the courthouse annex in West Bend. Dr. Ehrman of the Washington-Ozaukee Guidance Center, was the guest speaker for the evening.

Dr. Ehrman told the teachers about the clinic and what it has been doing in the consolidated districts. He also included how a classroom teacher can make referrals and that it is up to the parents to contact them for approved help with the child.

His speech gave the teachers insight as to the jobs and duties of the guidance center. It is a service set up to help all people in any way it can.

Following Dr. Ehrman's speech there was an open discussion for individual problems that teachers may be facing in the classroom. The topic was enjoyed by all.

TIPS FOR STARTING SEEDS INDOORS

Zinnia, marigold and tomato seeds sprout readily when starters are set on a sunny window sill. Day temperature should be 65 degrees; night temperature 55 to 60 degrees.

Seeds of the same plants also may be started under artificial light from one or more fluorescent tubes. This allows use of basement or otherwise unlighted areas in the home.

Many a window sill or table in home, school and office soon will be sporting seed starters of one kind or another. For seedlings will grow under the artificial light of fluorescent lamps as well as, if not better than, with natural light from the sun.

Each light source offers advantages but each also requires special knowledge. Thus, if you are starting seeds on a window sill, be sure it is one that receives maximum sun.

Set the seed starters as close to the glass as possible but, if a cold night threatens, slip a piece of cardboard between planter and window to keep the cold radiated by the glass from freezing the seedlings.

Under conditions of natural light, the seedlings will sprout and grow best if the day temperature is 65 degrees, dropping to 55 to 60 degrees at night.

When starting seeds under artificial light the lights may be placed within a few inches of the planters at first, but must be moved further away as seedlings grow. Remember that seedlings need more light than the mature house plants you may have been growing under fluorescents.

Although plants will tolerate higher temperatures when under fluorescent lights than they will under natural light, the differences are not great. 60 to 65 degrees at night and up to 75 degrees during the daytime are the limits above which plant growth deteriorates.

Whichever method you use to start seeds, there are three factors which remain the same: water plants only when growing medium becomes dry on top, use a nutrient solution to fertilize plants growing in a sterile medium such as vermiculite or milled sphagnum moss, and be certain that you do not start the seeds too early.

If you do not know the proper time for setting young plants in the garden in your area, find out. Then figure backwards from that date 8 to 10 weeks (depending on the rate of growth of the kind of plant involved). Start the seeds at the time indicated so they will be the right size for transplanting when frost-free time arrives.

County Agent News Notes

By MAURICE J. HOVLAND
Washington County Agent

WINS STATE CONTEST

We would like to take the opportunity here to congratulate Robert Cross, biology teacher at West Bend High school, for his recent participation in the state soil and water conservation speaking contest. Bob won the county and district contests, which qualified him for the state contest, which he also won. We were very proud of Bob as he presented his talk to the State Soil and Water Conservation District supervisors at their meeting at Eau Claire last week.

It's good to know that we have people like this who are the teachers of our boys and girls. Think of the tremendous effect that teaching biology classes about sound conservation thinking can have on the future of our community.

The main emphasis of Bob's talk was planning for conservation activities beyond a field and a line fence into whole areas, and thinking about watersheds. He remarked that "states that do not have clear streams are not a permanent society." He proved this point as he went along, and he also reminded us that counties, townships and school districts that do not have clear streams are not permanent installations. We all need to think about that.

Conservation in its broadest concept, of course, means the wise use of a natural resource. We need to think about using this soil resource, and the forestry, water and wildlife resources in such a way that we have sufficient use of them, but that plenty remains for generations to come.

SELLING GRADE ANIMALS

Ernie Kueffner told me last week about a sale that he had where he was selling grade animals, in this case Holsteins. The top grade cow brought $435. The question is, why did that cow bring $435, when some others will only bring half that much? The answer is very simple: this cow had a good record. She had produced 17,000 lbs. of milk in one lactation. We have known for a long time that when good cows with good records are sold, they will bring good money. On the other hand, good cows without records won't bring much more than beef price.

SHORTAGE OF HAY

We understand that the farms in northwestern Wisconsin are extremely short of hay, and are moving tremendous tonnage of hay from this area. We know of one farmer in the area who recently sold 300 tons of hay to one man. Believe me, that's mighty expensive hay by the time you transport it 300 miles.

What other alternatives do these people have, however? Sometimes we wonder if they shouldn't sell the cows, rather than pay that much money for hay. But we can't second-guess the situation, so we will try to do what we can to help them, and in turn help farmers here.

If you have excess tons of hay, and wish to sell it, but do not have a local market for it, you might write a letter to the county agricultural agent's office in most any of the northwest counties, and you probably could find a market. You might try such counties as Chippewa, St. Croix, Polk, Barron, Taylor, Washburn, and see what happens. There may be others, but we know these areas are quite short on hay.

4-H Club News

KEWASKUM 4-H'ERS

All members who went to the roller skating party at the Artistic Roller Rink would like to report that they had fun. We would also like to see more people from our club there.

No member may quit after April 1. By April 8 50 cents for the club dues has to be in.

The 4-H pledge was led by Bonnie Smith and the pledge of allegiance by Dennis Smith.

We decided to send $20.00 to the Belle Albright fund, which is used for the prizes and other things needed for demonstrations.

This year's bake sale committee is Carol Seefeldt, Bethena Seefeldt, George Martin and Lee Stoffel.

The refreshment committee for April 8 is Cheryl Giese, Randy Giese, Sheila Boegel and Virginia Boegel.

We would like to take time out to thank Marion Evans for speaking to us about her own country. The slides she showed us were very educational for they showed mountains, volcanoes, towns, a map of New Zealand, the kinds of houses and many other things.

Your 4-H Reporter,
Colleen Frank

County Meeting on Dutch Elm Disease

A conference on the control of Dutch Elm disease has been scheduled for Monday, March 22, according to County Agent Maurice Hovland, coordinator of the work within Washington county. It will be at 8:00 p. m. in the extension office, court house annex, West Bend.

George Hafstad, plant pathologist of the Division of Plant Industry of the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, will meet with this group. He will include in his discussion the use of Bidrin to control Dutch Elm disease. While Bidrin has been very effective, it has also been quite expensive.

Dutch Elm disease wardens of Washington county, county officials, and others have been invited. The meeting is open to the public.

People come in three classes: the few who make things happen, the many who watch things happen, and the overwhelming majority who have little or no idea what happened.

GAS IS GREAT...because

The way to get all the hot water you need — when you need it — is with an automatic GAS water heater. Only a gas water heater supplies over 1100 gallons of hot water a day with no on-site fuel storage . . . far more than enough for every member of your family . . . far more than enough for all of your showering, shaving, washing dishes and laundering clothes. And an even more amazing thing about a gas water heater is this: with all of its advantages, it costs less to buy, less to install . . . and much, much less to operate!

ONLY GAS

MAKE READY YOUR BOAT, GET FISHING LICENSE

In the not too distant future lakes and streams will be ice free. Many individuals will wish to go boating or fishing on local waters of the Wolf river chain. Now is the time to see that the boat is properly registered, numbers properly placed on the bow, registration papers and life preservers aboard.

Many people care nothing about ice fishing, but many forget that their fishing license expired on Dec. 31. The 1965 fishing license and regulations are available at all license depots in the county. The sportsmen's license issued in the fall of 1964 is current until Aug. 31, 1965.

Bag and Size Limits for Coming Fishing Seasons

Most of us are looking forward to the coming fishing seasons. Here are some of the opening dates we will have to be aware of.

The general fishing season for game fish south of Highway 64 will open up May 8, 1965. This includes black bass, walleye and sauger, northern pike, muskellunge and trout.

The bag and size limits are as follows:

- Bass—5 bag limit—no size limit.
- Walleye and sauger—5 bag limit—no size limit.
- Northerns—5 bag limit—no size

Conservation Congress Meeting

Over the years it has been recognized that the number of people attending the Conservation Congress hearings has been a small segment of the people who fish, hunt and trap. We would like a much greater number at these meetings.

Your Conservation Congress meeting this year will be Monday, April 5. You are indeed fortunate to have this opportunity to make your recommendations known regarding fishing, hunting and trapping regulations.

Over the years, a large majority of the recommendations of the Congress have become official Conservation Commission regulations.

Each year we get various complaints and suggestions (usually just after the hunting season) relative to the season, the bag limit, the amount of game we have, etc. Your Conservation Congress hearing is the proper place for these discussions.

Mark your calendar and plan now to attend your Conservation Congress hearing at 8:00 p. m., Monday, April 5, at the Washington county court house, 432 E. Washington st., West Bend.

Bob Miller on All-Conference Team in Scenic

BOB COULTER SELECTED TO SECOND STAR TEAM

Bob Miller, 5-9 Kewaskum High school senior, was named the past week to the Scenic Moraine conference coaches' all-conference basketball first team. Miller, who helped make the Indians the "surprise team" of the conference, was selected as a first team guard, along with Stan Schmidt, 5-8 Slinger senior. Schmidt was second high scorer in the league with 318 points.

Joining them on the first team were Jeff Sewell and Jerry Gleason, selected from the championship Grafton squad, at the forwards, and John Wolfe, 6-3 Campbellsport senior, center. Sewell, a 6-2 junior, led conference scoring and set a new record with 357 points. Gleason, a 5-11 senior, ranked third with 256 points.

Kewaskum and Campbellsport finished in a tie for second place behind Grafton in the final standings. Kewaskum was the only team to defeat Grafton's champions.

Selected to the second team were: Forwards—Dave Weiland, 6-1 Campbellsport junior, and Bob Coulter, 6-0 Kewaskum junior; Center—Rod Scholz, 6-2 Random Lake junior; Guards—Joe Arredondo, 5-10 Random Lake senior, and Harry Sass, 5-10 North Fondy senior.

Selections on the honorable mention list included: North Fondy—Pete James and Kurt Urban; Campbellsport—Mike Anders; Kewaskum—Jim Oelhafen; Pewaukee—Bob Becker, Jeff Klewein and Chad Schaefer; Grafton—Dennis Gall; Slinger—Andy Gundrum; Germantown—Ron Pritchard and Don Youse.

there is still room for the "little man" in high school basketball. Wolfe missed much of the season because of illness but his talents were enough to give him the first team selection. Miller helped glue together Kewaskum's backcourt.

Grafton reached the WIAA sub-sectional before being eliminated by Menomonee Falls.

Ability to spark a ball club into the win column was an important factor considered by the coaches when they made their selections for the all-conference team.

Top scorers in the conference were: Sewell, Grafton, 357; Schmidt, Slinger, 318; Gleason, Grafton, 256; Arredondo, Random Lake, 234; Sass, North Fondy, 231; Wolfe, Campbellsport, 219; Miller, Kewaskum, 213; Weiland, Campbellsport, 202; Scholz, Random Lake, 194; Oelhafen, Kewaskum, 177; B. Coulter, Kewaskum, 166; Swinehart, Germantown, 160.

Don't tackle the job of shoveling snow with the vigor of a teenager. A shovel-full of fluffy snow weighs about four pounds. Shoveling ten loads per minute is equivalent to walking up three flights of stairs in the same time. Wet snow is even heavier and makes the same work equivalent to climbing to the seventh floor in one minute.

Schmidt and Miller proved that Call 626-2626 with your news.

LENTEN MEALS

Lasagna Perks Up Appetites

Some dishes gain in translation. This Italian favorite, Tuna Lasagna, deliciously interpreted for American tastes, is an appealing "for instance." The Borden Kitchen selected a trio of cheeses—fresh, subtly-flavored cottage cheese, very sharp cheese slices and grated Parmesan and Romano—to create this lasagna's high-spirited distinction.

Tuna Lasagna (Makes 6 servings)

|---|--|
| 6 lasagna noodles (about 1/3 package) | 2-1/2 cups marinara sauce (two 10-1/4 oz. cans) |
| 1 (1-lb.) container Borden's large or small curd creamed cottage cheese | 2 (7-oz.) cans solid pack tuna fish, drained and coarsely flaked |
| 1 egg | 1/2 cup grated Parmesan and Romano cheese |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1 (8-slice 6-oz.) package Vera-Sharp pasteurized process American cheese |
| Dash pepper | |
| 1 teaspoon dehydrated imported oregano | |

Cook lasagna noodles according to package directions. Drain. Cool slightly. In a medium-size mixing bowl, combine cottage cheese, egg, salt, pepper and 1/2 teaspoon oregano; blend well. Spoon about 1/3 cup of marinara sauce over bottom of a buttered 12 x 7-1/2 x 2-inch baking dish. Place 3 cooked lasagna noodles lengthwise over sauce. Evenly spread cottage cheese mixture over noodles. Cover cheese with tuna fish. Reserve 2 tablespoons of grated Parmesan and Romano cheese. Sprinkle the rest over fish. Spoon about 2/3 cup marinara sauce over cheese. Place remaining lasagna noodles over filling. Pour remaining sauce over top. Sprinkle with reserved 2 tablespoons grated cheese and 1/2 teaspoon oregano. Arrange two rows of cheese slices over all. Cover tightly with aluminum foil. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven 20 minutes; remove foil. Uncover and bake 10 minutes, or until sauce is bubbly and cheese is partly melted.
