Dangerous Criminals in Thrilling Capture in Break-in at Koch Store Here Face Burglary, Other Charges

Pair Had Previous Arrests on Murder And Robbery Charges

HELD IN JAIL ON BOND SET AT $10,000 EACH; HEARING IS ADJOURNED

James Kroll, 30, Milwaukee, acquitted Feb. 12 of the first degree murder of a watchman, and Kenneth R. Meyer, 28, Wauwatosa, who had an eight year sentence after being convicted of armed robbery in 1961 reversed, are in custody at the Washington county jail, West Bend, on burglary charges following their dramatic capture outside the A. G. Koch, Grocery and General store at 355 Main st. in Kewaskum early Friday.

The capture, as exciting as any movie thriller, took place on Parkview drive near the Koch store, from where the suspects had fled after their car was sighted by Officer Kenneth J. Neldner of the Kewaskum Police Department. Officers from Kewaskum, West Bend and the Washington County Sheriff's Department had surrounded the place and swarmed in on the suspects with drawn guns. The men dropped a snub-nosed .38 caliber Smith & Wesson revolver on the floor of their car, then left the vehicle with hands raised with a cordon of police around them.

Police Chief Roland Pledl of Kewaskum, who conferred Friday morning with Dist. Atty. Richard T. Becker at the courthouse in West Bend about charges to be filed against the suspects, who also are wanted in West Bend for allegedly brandishing a firearm during an argument, said the men are known to be dangerous and have police records.

This is the story on the break-in, attempted burglary and capture authorities gave:

Shortly after midnight Thursday Sgt. Paul L. Hetebrueg and Sgt. Arthur Wellner of the West Bend Police Department were called by a youth from a phone booth near the National Tea store in West Bend asking for protection. The officers went to the scene and were told by the youth that a couple of men were waiting to start a fight with him. He said he left his girl companion in a restaurant to call police. The officers instructed him to return to the restaurant and they would observe what went on.

They saw another youth start an argument with the caller and they advised the second youth to "knock it off." The latter said he had been taking sides with the two men who had been in the restaurant earlier. He said one of the two had pulled a gun on him. The officers obtained a description of the men's car, learned they were heading north on Hwy. 45 and gave a radio description to Kewaskum police and members of the county sheriff's department.

When Officer Neldner heard

the description here, he recalled having seen the car in Kewaskum shortly before. He started a systematic search of the village and found the car parked on Parkview drive near Main st. He notified the sheriff's department and West Bend police and contacted Chief Pledl, who rushed to the scene. The car was kept under surveillance by Neldner from a side street until the other officers from West Bend and the sheriff's department arrived.

The car occupants were in Koch's store and when they saw the squad car of County Deputy Don Mertens pull up in front of the store, they fled from a rear door, running to their vehicle about 100 feet away, east of the place. Police pursued them and parked their squad cars at advantage points around the suspects' auto. At first the suspects tried to break away but their auto got stuck in a snowbank at the curb. The officers drew their service revolvers and orders were given to the men to surrender. Dropping their weapon on the car floor, the two men got out and submitted meekly.

When Chief Pledl learned who the men were, he said that had Officer Neldner attempted to capture them alone "he would have been shot, there's no doubt in my mind." The handcuffed suspects were searched and taken to the jail where they were interrogated. Chief Pledl said he planned to question them further with county authorities about a series of burglaries in this county in recent months.

The pair first tried to break into the store through a rear door. They broke out the paneling on the door but ran into a metal guard on the inside and could not gain entrance. Then they removed a storm window, which broke as it apparently fell to the rear porch floor, then gained entrance through the window, removing flower pots on the sill and then replacing them. After entering the store they also opened a window in the office of August Koch on the west side of the building from the inside, probably as an escape route in case they were spotted. The men had knocked the combination off the vault in a futile attempt to rob the safe. The vault was badly damaged in the attempt to open it. Papers in desk drawers were scattered as the pair ransacked the office.

BILGO BARN, VILLAGE LANDMARK TORN DOWN

Plan Dairy Day Event June 12

Kewaskum businessmen are planning another Dairy Day event to be held later this year during June Dairy Month. It will be held on Saturday, June 12.

The event will not be held at the high school as heretofore but on the streets and in the business places. Merchants will give prizes and offer merchandise at sale prices. An outdoor program will be held and possibly an outdoor dance. Crowning of a queen chosen from the high school will be held and dairy products will be served throughout the day at business places. Voting for the queen will also take place in the establishments.

Further plans and details will be announced at a later date.

Ice Leaves River

The ice on the Milwaukee river here went out Wednesday, Apr. 7, about two weeks later than usual due to the late cold weather and snow. Temperatures mostly in the high 30's and 40's this week melted most of the snow. The ice would have remained in the river longer but the high water overflowing the banks from rain and thawing snow loosened it and forced it downstream.

BOYLE AND ROTHWELL FAVORED; 272 VOTES ARE CAST IN VILLAGE

Better than one-third of the eligible voters in the village turned out to cast their ballot in the spring election Tuesday, in which 272 votes were cast.

Wayland D. Tesar was reelected village president for a two-year term without opposition, polling 246 votes. Alfred Kral and Cyril Wietor were reelected trustees, while Carl Freehauf was the third trustee elected to succeed Richard Reigle, who was not a candidate. Kral received the most votes for the office with 221, followed by Wietor with 188, Freehauf with 184 and Paul Blumer, who was fourth with 148 votes. Supervisor Elwyn Romaine, who is chairman of the Washington county board, was reelected, defeating Francis Bohn, a new candidate, 184 to 81.

In village balloting for justice of the state supreme court Howard H. Boyle outpolled Nathan S. Heffernan, 149 to 103. Washington county also "bucked" the trend in the state by favoring Boyle by a margin of 5,029 to 3,181 but in statewide balloting Heffernan was reelected over Boyle in a close race.

In one other contest of statewide scope, State School Superintendent Angus B. Rothwell won his second four-year term as Wisconsin's top school official in a runaway victory over Arlyn Wollenburg of Oshkosh. Rothwell also ran way ahead of Wollenburg in the village with a 170 to 69 margin as he also did in the county with a margin of 5,331 to 2,361.

Circuit Judge Milton L. Meister and Judge Robert J. Stoltz of Branch 2 of county court were reelected for six-year terms without opposition. Judge Meister, who presides over the 24th judicial circuit in Washington and Ozaukee counties, received a total of 15,011 votes in the two counties, 7,544 of them in Ozaukee county and 7,467 in his home county. In this village Meister polled 243 votes. Judge Stoltz, who presides over Branch 2 of the Washington county court, tallied 7,285 votes to retain his position. Stoltz received 228 votes in Kewaskum.

Both referendums on the state ballot also scored "yes" victories. Softening Wisconsin's 117 year old ban of lotteries, residents voted heavily in favor of a constitutional amendment to permit participation in certain sales promotion contests previously considered a form of gambling. The other amendment, abolishing the offices of coroner and surveyor in counties having more than 500,000 population, also won statewide approval, although it will affect only Milwaukee county. Voters favored the amendment by more than a 2-1 ration on the state. The amendments both rode to easy victory in the county, with the "contest" amendment winning 5,521 to 2,037 and the one abolishing the offices of coroner and surveyor coming out ahead, 4,725 to 2,244. In this village in the "contest" referendum there were 198 "yes" votes and only 42 "no" votes while Twenty-three members of the Kewaskum Fire Department attended the annual spring banquet of the Badger Firemen's association at the new Belgium Community Center in Belgium Sunday evening. 12 bands have been booked for the parade here and hundreds of visiting firemen will march. The tournament is expected to be one of the biggest events ever held here.

Chiefs and delegates discussed the sale of home fire alarms in the area at the afternoon meeting. Allen Hulett, deputy civil defense director of Madison spoke on a CD plan of operation and showed movies and slides on firemen training.

At the evening ham and beef banquet, bowling trophies and cash awards for the recent bowling tournament at Campbellsport were distributed. Kewaskum firemen won only $21.00 in bowling prizes. Roger Reindl placed 10th in the singles event with a 648 good for $10, Rick Boden placed 26th in the singles with a 627 good for $3, and Bob Staehler and Roger Reindl placed 16th in the doubles event with a 1208 good for $8.

Campbellsport placed first in the team event and won $60 plus a trophy. C. Wiskirchen and C. Duernberger of West Bend and R. Maas and D. Droese of Menomonee Falls tied for first in the doubles and shared $30 each with both pairs receiving trophies. Cy Wolf of Slinger placed first in singles with a 678 and won $30 and a trophy.

or shortly after when there are many people on the streets, returning home from taverns and night work at factories. There are also many nearby neighbors living in the area around the rear of the store and there is a bright night-light burning at the rear of the building. It is strange that no one saw or heard the men break into the store, although one neighbor who was in bed reported he thought he heard breaking glass but paid no further attention to it.

Both the men held in the burglary have police records in Milwaukee. Kroll and a companion, Vernon Domagalski, 33, of Milwaukee were acquitted by a circuit court jury in February of fatally beating John Dutkiewicz, 69, on Dec. 15, 1962. Dutkiewicz, a watchman, was killed during an alleged burglary at a Milwaukee south side plant. Meyer was sentenced to eight years in prison in July, 1961, after he was convicted on armed robbery. However, the Wisconsin Supreme Court reversed the conviction and ordered a new trial last October.

The pair appeared before Judge Robert J. Stoltz in Branch 2 of county court in West Bend at 1 p. m. Friday where they had bond of $10,000 each set pending their arraignments at 11:30 a. m. Monday before the jurist. In lieu of bond, which they were unable to furnish, each was remanded to jail in West Bend. Their hearing was adjourned Monday on a day-to-day basis but not later than 9 a. m. on Apr. 19. The adjournment was granted to give the defendants an opportunity "to decide their position in the matter" the court stated. Kroll has also resided in the Mukwonago area. Dist. Atty. Becker and Chief Pledl studied further charges to file against the pair Monday. Meyer indicated that he would contact a Milwaukee attorney to defend him while the court will appoint an attorney to defend Kroll.

PTA Plans Annual Auction on May 3, Elects Officers

JUNIOR BAND TO PLAY; BUY PLAY MATERIALS

At the meeting of the Kewaskum Elementary school PTA on April 5, plans were formulated for the annual PTA auction, which will be held this year in connection with the meeting on May 3.

As in the past, the PTA will be asking all members and any others who wish to donate suitable items for auction. These items may be sent or delivered to the elementary school, or anyone who has no way in which to send the article may call Mrs. Armin Oppermann, 626-4085, or Mrs. Ned Sengpiel, 626-2015, and the items will be picked up.

Another attraction at the May 3 meeting will be the junior band, under the direction of Clyde Brehm, which will play before the sale begins. The junior band is composed entirely of sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils.

Members voted at the April meeting to purchase play materials to be used in first, second, third and fourth grade classrooms when the weather prevents playing outside at recess time. Eighty dollars was appropriated for this purpose.

Officers for the coming year were elected and installed Monday evening. Officers for 1965-66 will be: President, Mrs. Tom Rodenkirch; vice-president, Mrs. Richard L. Edwards; secretary, Mrs. Herman Panzer Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. Ervin Bullette, and historian-parliamentarian, Mrs. Eugene Bohn.

GAS IS GREAT...because

An automatic GAS range "thinks" for itself... and thus makes cooking so much easier, so convenient, for you. Take, for example, the "burner-with-a-brain." This amazing range top burner makes it possible for you to dial the exact temperature your recipe requires. The flame automatically raises or lowers to maintain the proper heat. Result: liquids don't boil dry in pots, or boil over; foods don't burn in pans; utensils needn't be scraped or scoured. Another exclusive GAS feature is the "oven-with-a-brain." It is the only true "keep warm oven" available today. Turns itself down automatically... and then keeps the food warm until you are ready to serve!

Honor Local FFA Members at Corn Awards Banquet

Roy Esser and six FFA members of his vocational agriculture class attended a DeKalb corn awards banquet in Beaver Dam on March 25. This banquet was to honor the vo-ag students with DeKalb corn projects who had made the best record on a corn growing analysis sheet supplied by DeKalb. The FFA members in attendance were: Kenneth Ramthun, Eugene Schneider, Kenneth Becker, John Kreif, Harry Krueger, and Joe Egerer. Besides these boys, five other members also completed the project.

In contrast to most corn contests which are based on yield checked on a spot basis, the project emphasizes costs, fertilizing population and recognition of corn enemies. The yield is computed, but project recognition is not based on top yields, but yield calulation is a factor in the top score.

Top students from Kewaskum on total score were Kenneth Ramthun and Eugene Schneider with a score of 100. They received a special wall plaque. Other boys received pins and certificates for accurate records.

According to Esser, local vo-ag instructor, each vocational agriculture student plants a variety of DeKalb corn. He then compares it to another hybrid by keeping records of all field operations and costs. After harvest the young farmers determine what it costs them from $0.42 to $0.82 per bushel.

At the corn achievement banquet, 20 schools enjoyed a ham and chicken dinner. These schools traveled from 140.5 miles to 35 miles to receive plaques, certificates and pins. The district manager of the southwest part of the state and DeKalb public relations men also attended.

Don Hin, DeKalb's public relations speaker, presented slides that pointed out the necessity of sunlight to plant growth. These slides also showed the advancement made in the production of new hybrids, starting with the open cross to the 4 and 3 way cross to finally the single cross variety now available.

The increase of plant population and a shorter stalk were discussed putting emphasis on the increased amount of sunlight taken in by each individual plant. Tests were used to show favorable characteristics in yield and stand ability which proves that short stalks will enlarge the income of corn planters.

The meeting was closed by the handing out of awards to individual FFA members of each chapter. The regional winners were Delavan, Amherst, Wisconsin Dells and Berlin.

Most men don't bring their boss home for dinner because she's already there.

Girl Scout Troop 72

The cadettes will sponsor a bake sale on May 1. The Cadette Scouts will go to a county museum outing on Wednesday, Apr. 21. The girls are asked to meet at the public school cafeteria at 3:45 and we will leave at 4:00. All girls are asked to wear their uniforms.

NEW ELECTRIC RATE SCHEDULES GO INTO EFFECT

New rate schedules which become effective for service supplied after April 1, 1965, make downward adjustments and equalizations in varying amounts to recognize changing conditions in the rate areas served by Wisconsin Electric Power Company and to provide incentives for further expansion in the use of electricity.

Despite continually rising wage costs, the decrease in rates was made possible through a combination of increased use by customers, some operating economies and the passing on to customers of cost reductions such as the recent lowering of federal corporate income tax rates.

The new rates will result in an overall reduction in revenues to the company of approximately $1.5 million annually. This is the second decrease in electric rates made within the past 12 months, bringing the total reduction in this period to $4.1 million.

Through the years, electric rates have followed a downward trend. Despite substantial increases in the cost of most items in the household budget, electricity actually costs less than it did 20 years ago. Rate adjustments like the present one are made from time to time to recognize the changing characteristics of the large metropolitan area we serve. As the area has expanded, rural areas have become suburban and suburban areas have become urban, making it necessary to take steps toward rate equalization. In addition, our customers continue to expand their use of electric service — making it possible for us to serve them at lower unit costs.

As approved by the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, the new rate schedules are intended . . .

... to lower rates for large industrial customers to a level which should help to keep this element of production cost at a more competitive level.

... to equalize rates for general residential and small commercial customers in the rapidly growing urban areas surrounding Milwaukee County by combining these areas with Milwaukee County into one rate classification.

... to improve rates for general residential and small commercial customers in the balance of the company's outlying operating territory.

... to lower rates for all residential customers including those in Milwaukee County.

... to encourage the popularity of all-electric homes by adding a new lower step to the rates available to large-use residential customers who heat their homes electrically or have electric water heaters.

... to provide reductions in farm and commercial rates as well as a new classification for small commercial customers who employ electricity as a single energy source.

Democrat Smelt Fry
Smashes Attendance
Records; Serve 1,300

MRS. WALTER DEI IS
KITCHEN CHAIRMAN

The 5th annual smelt fry, sponsored by the Washington County Democratic Party, Sunday, March 28, at firemen's hall in Richfield, smashed all previous attendance records, according to William O'Neil, county chairman.

Nearly 1,300 men, women and children were served beginning at 11:30 a. m. Advance advertising had stated that serving would continue until 7:30 p. m. but due to the unusually large response the entire supply of 550 pounds of smelt was consumed by 6:30.

Democratic Congressman John Race, who had flown in from Washington, D. C. early Saturday morning for a series of weekend meetings in the 6th district, made an appearance at the smelt fry at 3:00 Sunday afternoon. The congressman mingled with the crowds, renewing old friendships and meeting new constituents for several hours before returning to Washington.

Other visitors included Mrs. Jeanette Swed of Milwaukee, Democratic national committee woman for the state of Wisconsin, and her husband, Abe Swed. Democratic county officers from the seven counties comprising the 6th district also attended an executive board meeting convened by district chairman Larry Harty of West Bend.

Dave Martin of West Bend and Mrs. Walter Dei of Kewaskum were ticket chairman and kitchen chairman respectively for the fry.

For all its finely calibrated instrumentation—tachometer, manifold pressure gauge, even an electric clock with a sweep second hand for rally buffs—the most important thing that happens when you get a Corvair Corsa out on the road doesn't register on the dash. It registers on you.

You feel it in the steering—crisp and precise—as you double back on a curve. In the flat riveted-to-the-road stability of the new fully independent suspension. In the response of the rear engine (up to 180 hp available now in Corsa's Turbo-Charged version).
