FIREMEN AND POLICE HAVE BUSY WEEKEND

Besides the regular run of busy picnic duties, the local firemen and police had quite a few extra activities keeping them jumping this year. There were two auto accidents in the park and a third following the picnic Sunday night. There were two fire calls (both false alarms), one right after the parade and the second during the storm right after the picnic Sunday night. There was one ambulance call early Sunday evening. And there was also extra duty keeping law and order and minor disturbances under control.
