Apence Talken Out St. Joe

You think being editor of a weekly newspaper is a breeze? You should live so long. You should see some of the news copy that comes to our desk on occasion. One of the essentials of being an editor includes being able to read all kinds of writing and spelling (or guessing at it), along with being an interpreter and diplomat of a sort.

For example, here is a hospital item (we think) that came to our desk this week which we are printing just as it was submitted: "Paul Petri came out of the hospital Wednesday the 25 of apence talken out St. Joe?"

Secretary of Fire Dept. 25 Years

George Koerble was honored at the recent annual banquet of the Kewaskum fire department for 25 years of continuous service in office as secretary of the department. He was presented with a three-piece pen and pencil set by the department on the occasion. George joined the fire department in 1942, when he was elected secretary, and has been re-elected to that office every year since.

During this time a new fire station was built in 1950-51, an ambulance service was added by the department, much new equipment and apparatus was purchased and the department was expanded. The Badger Firemen's association annual tournament was also hosted by Kewaskum in 1965, all of which added to the secretary's work.

Start Benefit Fund Drive for Des Smith

A local businessman has started a benefit fund for Des Smith, widely known former truck driver for Gateway Transportation, and a resident and businessman of Kewaskum, who had the misfortune of having his leg amputated in the spring of '66. Each and every donation will be greatly appreciated.

Donations may be made at the Kewaskum Liquor Mart or sent to "Des Smith Benefit Fund," Box 6, Kewaskum, Wis.

Heart Fund Drive Will Open Feb. 8

MRS. JACK TESSAR TO HEAD CAMPAIGN HERE

Wisconsin Heart Association's 1967 Heart Fund campaign will officially open on Wednesday, Feb. 8. Kewaskum will join cities and villages throughout Wisconsin and the nation in the annual drive according to Mrs. Jack Tessar, who heads the campaign here.

Mrs. Tessar urged Kewaskum residents to support the Heart Fund drive again this year. "Your gifts and your neighbor's have already won dramatic victories, but diseases of the heart and blood vessels are still America's biggest killer.

"In the past year more than a million Americans died from heart diseases. Almost 250,000 of those were persons under 65—fathers in their prime of life, mothers and school children and young adults were among the victims," she said.

"Your gift will help the Heart Association researchers in their efforts to discover the answers to this problem," Mrs. Tessar said. "It will support educational programs and help provide additional community service projects."

AFS Student Meets Gov. Knowles

Uraivan (Urai) Kornvithayaslip, Kewaskum's AFS student from Thailand, was talking to Assemblyman Frederick C. Schroeder (R—Washington county) while Governor Warren P. Knowles autographed his budget message to the legislature for Urai. Gov. Knowles was with Urai and the two West Bend AFS students twenty minutes.

Mario Hirsch, Luxemburg, and Albert Kopp, Johannesburg, South Africa, along with Urai, spent last Thursday at the state capitol. They heard Gov. Knowles give his talk on his budget message to the legislature. They were introduced to the assembly by Mr. Schroeder, who hosted the three AFS students at the assembly chambers, and had the privilege of giving a short talk before the assembly.

After lunch at the Lorraine Hotel with Mr. Schroeder, they had a guided tour of our state capitol.

Erich Jeske Reports Spotting 1st Robin

Erich Jeske of 335A Prospect st. has the honor of reporting the first robin of the year seen in his back yard last Friday, Jan. 27. Erich said it was the earliest date he has ever seen a robin here. It's usually February, at least, before the first robin is spotted. The recent January thaw and appearance of robins this early raises hopes that we may have an early spring.

Jeske reported that the robin was fat and hearty but the poor thing looked downright disgusted for being here so early as it surveyed its surrounding of snow. Probably the robin didn't intend to come this far north yet but blew right on through Chicago's 23-inch snow blizzard.

Hearing Tests in Village, County Schools Planned

300 VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR FEBRUARY PROGRAM

The last hearing conservation program for school children in Washington county was last conducted in spring of 1964. Since then, the school census throughout the county has increased considerably. West Bend city schools, public and private, total approximately 6,000. The schools of Washington county, outside West Bend, total 11,100 plus. Children in grades 1-9 and grade 11 will be tested, a total of approximately 4,400 students in West Bend schools and 8,500 in the Washington county schools.

Approximately 300 volunteers will be needed throughout the Washington county schools to successfully complete the original hearing testing.

Orientation of volunteers by Miss Elizabeth Sulliver, hearing consultant for the Bureau for Handicapped Children, State Department of Public Instruction, took place at the Washington county courthouse auditorium, 432 E. Washington st., West Bend. The meeting was on Feb. 1, at 9:15 a. m. for volunteers for schools outside the city of West Bend, and at 12:45 p. m. for volunteers of West Bend city schools. Registration and coffee was planned for the beginning of each session. The program was scheduled so that mothers could plan to be home before their children came home for lunch or after school.

Hearing testing will begin as follows:

West Bend school district, Feb. 6; Germantown school district, Feb. 20; Hartford school district, Feb. 20; Slinger school district, Feb. 23; Kewaskum school district, Feb. 21.

A small brochure explaining the hearing conservation program in more detail will be sent home with each child as he completes the initial screening.

Parents are asked to remember that in all cases where a question of a hearing problem exists, an appointment will be made for the student to be seen at the otology clinic.

If, at any time during this program, a question arises, please consult your family physician or your public health nurse: West Bend city health department, phone 334-2179; Washington county public health nursing service, phone 334-3491, ext. 61.

54th Anniversary Of Club Observed

The 54th anniversary of the Kewaskum Woman's club was observed at the annual Founder's Day banquet held Saturday, Jan. 14, at the Wigwam. The Rev. Dan Schowalter, pastor of Peace United Church of Christ, gave the invocation.

Dr. R. S. Fisher of Allenton provided an interesting program of slides and narration on his two month South Pacific tour. Beautiful scenes of landscape and native flora and fauna were seen on the many islands he visited, including Fiji, American Samoa, New Zealand and Australia.

The banquet committee consisted of Mrs. T. J. Rohlinger and Mrs. D. N. Koerble. Table decorations were three centerpieces of fresh cut flowers.

The Kewaskum Woman's club was started Jan. 14, 1913, by Mrs. D. M. Rosenheimer. Through the years the members have helped serve the community through their participation in Girl Scouts, AFS projects, Mother's March, blood bank, x-ray program and village beautification. Two college scholarships are also awarded each year as well as contributions to the library and Helen Mears art contest winners.

LOCAL WOMAN HURT WHEN STRUCK BY FILE DRAWER

Mrs. Joseph Schwind, 205 Forest ave., was injured in an unusual mishap this week while at work in the filing department of a West Bend firm. A file drawer that became dislodged and left its track was responsible for the hospitalization of the woman.

As Mrs. Schwind pulled open the file drawer, it became dislodged, the rear of it flipped upward and forward, striking her on the bridge of her nose, causing profuse bleeding. She was treated at St. Joseph's hospital, West Bend, and released to her home. When bleeding recurred, she was returned to the hospital there and

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Valentine Engelmann, who passed away one year ago, Feb. 2, 1966:

We can't forget, we'll always care;

It hurts to see your vacant chair;

What we would give to say, Hello pa, in the same old way;

To hear your voice, see your smile.

To sit with you and chat awhile. Life goes on, we know that's true,

But it's not the same since we lost you.

Deeply missed by his wife, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

This is a country of faith. On the installment plan you can buy what you can't afford. On the stock market you can sell what you don't own. and on the tax form they take away what you haven't borrowed yet.

Carcass Contest of Swine Breeders of County Here Feb. 20

The Washington County Swine Breeders association will conduct their annual carcass contest the morning of Feb. 20 and the evening of Feb. 22, according to Lee Becker of Kewaskum, chairman of the association.

Breeders who are consigning pigs to the sale will bring them to the barn at the John Youngbauer farm on the morning of the 20th. Here the pigs will be weighed and the breeders will grade them in an attempt to estimate the yield of the carcass, including the length, backfat and size of the loin eye.

Darrell Shultis of the University of Wisconsin meat and animal science department will meet with the breeders to help conduct the program.

The pigs will then be butchered by the Kewaskum Foods locker plant and cooled. On the night of the 22nd the breeders will meet at the plant. Here the carcasses will be measured, as well as the backfat and the loin eye. In this way each farmer who had a pig consigned to the program will have an opportunity to determine whether his breeding program is going the direction that he hoped it might.

Becker indicated that this was the fourth year that this program has been conducted by the swine breeders association. He encouraged other farmers who are interested in swine to join the association and take advantage of this opportunity to study their swine program with a very critical eye.

He said all farmers who are interested in breeding good swine are welcome to attend this carcass contest program.

HAROLD RYAN, SUPERVISORS ATTEND WORKSHOP

Harold F. Ryan, district conservationist, and supervisors of the Washington County Soil and Water Conservation District attended the annual winter workshop of Area 7 at Waukesha on Jan. 18. Supervisors attending the meeting were: E. M. Romaine, chairman; Mrs. Fern Hembel, secretary; Norbert Dettman, member; Hugo Schulst, member; and Carl Schneisa, member.

In the Area 7 wildlife awards program John Kaehny of Jackson won a second place award as a bona fide farmer and Charles Mayhew of Newburg won second place award as a non-farmer. These men had been previously honored by the West Bend Kiwanis club during Farm-City week as winners of the Washington County Soil and Water Conservation District Wildlife Awards program.

The easiest way to stay awake during an after-dinner speech is to deliver it.

November News

Chairman of our fall bake sale was Karen Secor. She reported that it was a success. Her helpers were Linda Secor, Debra Brendimihl, Carole Wesenberg and Karen Frank.

Our club presented the play, "Reaching for the Moon," for the music and drama festival. Joan Schoofs is the director. Our play was presented at the McLane school, where we won first place. We will now compete in the "Show of Shows" at Germantown Feb. 19.

Stage hands were Yvonne Kleinke, Ed Kleinke, Sandy Schleif, Alice Weddig, Arthur Buss and prop director was Colleen Frank. Lois Marquardt was our prompter. Joan Schoofs and Michael Frank helped make the props. Debra Frank played the part of Sally Vosburg and Dennis Smith was Sam Vosburg in the play. John McEwen and Lois Marquardt were alternates.

Patty Schaub, Gerald Schoofs and Karen Frank sold tickets at the door. Debra Strack, Lois Marquardt, Debra Frank, Susan Dei, Alice Weddig, John McEwen, Sandy Schleif and Colleen Frank sold tickets for the club.

We observed "Health" for our November meeting. Posters were made by Charles Buss, Arthur Buss, Patty Schaub and Joan Schoofs. Speeches were given by David Schaub on "Health," Patty Schaub on "Posture" and Debra Frank and Lois Marquardt on "How to Bandage a Small Cut." Linda, Ellen and Karen Secor gave a demonstration on "Tune in and Toughen Up." They gave the club a good workout in healthy exercises.

December News

Roll call was taken with almost perfect attendance. A report was given on the play by Debra Frank. Money was collected for the tickets and the amount received for the bake sale was announced. Joan Schoofs gave a report on caroling for the county home for the aged, which was held Dec. 26.

Mrs. Marriner Frank gave a report on the Community Builders banquet, which was also attended by Mrs. Herbert Ramel. After the meeting we held our Christmas party.

Our recreation committee was Patty Schaub, Ed Kleinke, David Schaub, Billy Dei and Tommy Dei. They provided us with games and later on with a "Pinnata" that they made in the shape of a Christmas present. It was filled with bags of candy and nuts for everyone. All had a whack at it with a baseball bat and only succeeded in breaking open a corner of it. Mrs. Leland Schaub and David were in charge.

Christmas songs were sung by the members and directed by Joan Schoofs. As the songs were sung the Christmas gifts were passed out by the gift committee. On the committee were Cheryl Giese, Debra Oppermann, Dennis Smith, Karen Secor, Alice Weddig and Colleen Frank.

Mrs. Ivan Buss helped serve the refreshments. Kim, Kurt and Terry Backhaus and Debra Brendimihl are on the refreshment committee for January.

KEWASKUM KITCHENETTES

Our November meeting was called to order at the home of Mrs. Lee Schaub. As the members arrived it was fun to watch the assortment of boxes and bags that they brought along. It is at this meeting that we have our White Elephant exchange. At the end of our meeting we pass them around and then each one opens one. We were glad to see the return of one of our red elephants and I am sure the swim suit that Corrine Mlodzik received and the flannel pants Dorothy Volm received were greatly enjoyed.

At our business meeting it was decided to give a Thanksgiving dinner to a welfare family and that each member would bring along to our January meeting some piece of clothing to be given to the county welfare office. These items were to be taken care of by Ruth Krueger and Adeline Volm.

A bill was presented for our two books donated to the Kewaskum library.

Our Christmas committee, Mae Hanrahan, Adeline Schoofs, Dorothy Volm and Darlene Schaub, announced that our Christmas party would be held at the Glacier Inn with our husbands as guests. At our party games were played and to the surprise of our husbands we had a nice display of their baby pictures. A good time was had by all.

Our new project, led by Paula Schoofs and Carmen Backhaus, on creative wall hangings was very interesting. After a piece of dessert and a cup of coffee we cleared the table and tried our hand at making some.

The door prize was won by Paula Schoofs and then we all went home with our red elephants.

Our January meeting was called to order by our president, Carmen Backhaus, at the home of Paula Schoofs. After a brief business meeting in which we gave some of our suggestions on where we should go on our spring trip, we turned the meeting over to project leaders.

Isabelle Muckerheide and Corrine Mlodzik told us about the history and the general background of Germany. Then they introduced our guest, Donald Laatsch of Boltonville, who showed us colored slides taken on his two month vacation there last summer. They were very beautiful and I am sure we all wished we could have been there.

At our January welfare project we each brought along a toy, new or used, that could be placed in the children's ward at St. Joseph's hospital.

Hot sandwiches and relishes were served by our hostess, Paula Schoofs.

The door prize was won by Martha Forester.

The courts have been greatly concerned with justice for criminals of late, and as long as this does not extend into the ridiculous most citizens will agree such considerations are appropriate. But in the minds of many law officials and editors the process has been carried to the absurd. Too many instances are occurring when confessed murders are set free (often to commit another crime) because of technicalities.

Indians Defeat Warhawks, 83-74

GRAFTON'S WIN STRING IS ENDED AT 28 BY N. FONDY

After three straight setbacks, the Kewaskum Indians snapped out of their slump Friday night. It took winless, last place Germantown to turn the trick and they defeated the Warhawks, 83-74, to take over sole possession of fifth place.

Kewaskum led Germantown by as much as 18 points in the second half after being headed by the Warhawks in the first half. The Indians got off to a slow start and trailed to the quarter, 24-19, but narrowed the gap to one point, 40-39, at the intermission. Kewaskum won the game in the third quarter, scoring 21 points to 12 for their opponents, and also outpointed Germantown slightly, 23-22, in the final stanza.

Bill Backhaus, second high scorer in the conference, pumped in 22 points for the winners and got unexpected scoring help from Jim Schuster. Schuster hit 17 points for his biggest night of the season. Rinzel of the Warhawks equalled Backhaus' point total with 22, while mates Fritz and Beck each chipped in 14.

In a major upset Tuesday night North Fondy's Orioles became giant killers by handing Grafton their first defeat of this season and recent years. And they did it very convincingly, 69-47. It snapped Grafton's win streak of 28 straight and marked only their second defeat in their last 65 conference outings. The win ended Grafton's dominance and gave North Fondy a tie with the Blackhaws for first place, both with 8-1 records. This was a make-up of a contest postponed earlier. The Orioles jumped to a 17-7 first quarter lead and the outcome never was in doubt.

In other games last Friday North Fondy drubbed Campbellsport, 71-43. Grafton trounced Random Lake, 75-58, and Pewaukee beat Slinger, 70-55.

The Indians next have two real tough contests coming up. Tonight (Friday) they host strong, third place Pewaukee (7-2). Next Tuesday they jump from the frying pan into the fire when they play at Grafton, of which no more need be said.

Lakes Team Loses To Leading Falls

Kewaskum met the same fate that every other team that has played Menomonee Falls this season experienced when they were defeated there Saturday night, 109-77. It was the 7th straight win without a defeat for Lakes league leading Falls.

Kewaskum weakened by the absence of Otto Ramthun and Gary Gerhart from the lineup, surprised Falls with a fast start to lead them at the quarter, 24-22. Don Meisenheimer, Gene Pieper and Al Tennes, each with 8 points, did all of Kewaskum's scoring in the period. From then on the honeymoon was over as Falls netted 29 points in the second quarter, while checking the visitors with a mere 8, giving the winners a big 51-32 lead at half-time. Falls continued to increase its lead and outscore Kewaskum in the final two periods to build their margin to 32 points at the final horn.

Tennes, who wound up with 26 points, and Meisenheimer with 21, paced Kewaskum. Top honors for the evening went to Falls' perennial star, Timm, who swished in 30 points. Anderson chipped in 23.

This Saturday night, Feb. 4, Kewaskum is scheduled to entertain last place Horicon and should regain a .500 rating in the standings.

Lakes Team Loses to Reedsville, Kiel in Mt. Calvary Tourney

Kewaskum's Land o' Lakes league team participated in the annual Mt. Calvary Invitational basketball tournament the past week. This is a double elimination tourney and teams must lose two games before they are eliminated. Kewaskum did just that, losing two tough, very close contests. They were edged by Reedsville last Wednesday night, 71-69, and were nosed out again Sunday by Kiel, 61-58.

Among other Lakes teams, Menomonee Falls, unbeaten leader, has also already been eliminated from the Mt. Calvary meet, losing one of their tilts to Hartford. Hartford is still in the running, having won one and lost one, and West Bend won its first two games over the Menasha Macs and Fox's tavern of Fond du Lac to remain in championship contention.

In their opening game with Reedsville, Kewaskum fell well behind in the first half, 40-27, but came back remarkably in the second half to all but close the gap before losing by two points, 71-69. They outscored Reedsville in the third period, 21-13. Don Meisenheimer of Kewaskum and Dick Eickert of Reedsville shared scoring honors with 32 apiece. Otto Ramthun and Gene Pieper kicked in 11 and 10 points respectively.

In their second loss which eliminated them from the tourney, Kewaskum fell by three points to Kiel, 61-58. Kewaskum lost the game in the final quarter after holding a 10-point advantage at the end of the third period. The two teams battled to a standstill in the first half with the score tied at the quarter, 14-14 and also tied at the half, 38-38. Kewaskum had a good third stanza, outscoring Kiel, 21-11, to go ahead, 45-35, but Kiel got red hot and Kewaskum faltered in the final period and lost its 10-point lead and the contest. Kiel tallied 26 points and Kewaskum only 13 in the fatal final quarter. It was too much Brenegan, who scored 34 points for Kiel to easily pace both teams. Al Tennes was high for the victims with 20 points.

Kewaskum Mentioned In Big City Papers

Red Smith, a sports columnist for a syndicate of metropolitan daily newspapers, made mention of Kewaskum (although not complimentary) in one of his recent columns. An acquaintance of George Koerble read the column in one of the Philadelphia papers and sent a clipping to him. One other local resident also said he read the same column in a Chicago daily.

In his column under the heading of "Chiefs Forced Packers' Change" (regarding the Green Bay Packer-Kansas City Chiefs Super Bowl championship playoffs) Smith wrote in part as follows:

"One thing Dawson (Chiefs quarterback) knew was that the Packers don't blitz. So that the Chiefs didn't blitz. So that the Packers were pouring in on him in the second half. The Chiefs won the championship of their league with Dawson rolling out behind a moving screen of blockers and freezing the linebackers with fake handoffs to his running backs. In the first half, the Packers were going for his artistic fakes like rubes from Kewaskum, Wis., not Green Bay, and, with plenty of time, he was hitting his targets with well-thrown passes. Now the blitzing linebackers ignored his fakes and, when he tried to roll out, here came somebody named Lee Roy Caffey or Dave Robinson bearing down on him with fangs bared."

Indians Second in Scenic Wrestling

The Kewaskum Indians placed second in the Scenic Moraine conference wrestling tournament held at Germantown on Jan. 21. Host Germantown won the meet championship.

Team totals were: Germantown 127, Kewaskum 124, Grafton 71,

Campbellsport 50, Slinger 40, North Fondy 27, Random Lake 26. Pewaukee did not participate.

Kewaskum wrestlers in the finals rated as follows 95 pounds—Averbeck (NF) beat Schmidt (K) 2-0; 112 pounds—Cramer (Ger.) beat Gruber (K) 2-0; 120 pounds—Gundrum (K) beat Goetz (Ger.); 133 pounds—Reindl (K) pinned Hamilton (Ger.) in 1:38; 145 pounds—Holtz (Ger.) beat Heise (K) 6-2. 165 pounds—Brickson (K) beat Ghilani (S) 9-3; 180 pounds—Feldnes (C) beat Gundrum (K); heavyweight—Leonard (C) won over Schaefer (K) by default.

B. BACKHAUS SECOND IN SCENIC SCORING

Senior ace Bill Backhaus of Kewaskum is second in individual scoring in the Scenic Moraine conference, including all games to date. Backhaus was first up to Tuesday when Tom Roy of Grafton took over the lead with a 13 point performance against North Fondy.

Former March of Dimes Poster Boy Is Part of Twin Medical Problem

Identical twins are supposed to be carbon copies of each other in every respect but twin brothers Joel and Jeffrey Kirker, 6, of New Stanton, Pa., have been cruelly different from birth.

Joel, the older brother by five minutes, was born with an open spine (spina bifida), a birth defect that has paralyzed him from the waist down. At the same spot on his back, Jeff has only a birthmark.

"When Jeff doesn't feel well, he gets two blisters on his birthmark, otherwise he is a normal, very active little boy," says his mother, Mrs. Thomas Kirker.

Understandably, the young Kirkers pose a medical puzzle. As their mother puts it, specialists are "amazed that only one has the defect and not the other" or else are "quite lost for words" to explain the crippling differences in these identical twins.

Yet Mrs. Kirker says, "We feel we have a great deal to be thankful for because Joel is doing well and we can hope for even more improvement in the future."

Despite his physical handicap, Joel gets around quite a bit. During January, 1966, he was Pennsylvania State Poster Boy for the March of Dimes campaign to fight birth defects. This means that Joel traveled through a number of counties in his area and even appeared on a television in Pittsburgh.

Now as they watch the twins pretending they're big leaguers or playing together on the backyard slide, Mr. and Mrs. Kirker can appreciate all the things Joel can do even though he wears braces and uses a cane. They are thankful for the skilled medical care Joel received from the day of birth. Without that care, Joel might not be alive today.

When Joel was only one day old, his open spine was operated upon to give his spinal cord some protection. While surgeons could not restore the function of nerves and muscles, they did prevent further complications, the most dangerous being infections such as meningitis.

Like many other victims of open spine, Joel also had hydrocephalus ("water on the brain"). Doctors performed several operations to drain off the dammed-up fluid within the brain and thus relieve pressure.

"That's OK, Joel, even astronauts need help with their gear sometimes," says Jeff Kirker, 6, of New Stanton, Pa., as he helps his identical twin Joel into his braces.

Without relief, this pressure can lead to permanent mental damage, blindness or even death.

For Joel's parents, the past six years have been times of great emotional anguish, but nothing of financial strain. Mr. Kirker has worked for the Bell Telephone Company since he graduated from McKeesport Technical High School in 1950.

In addition to caring for the twins and keeping house, Mrs. Kirker sells kitchenware to supplement her husband's income and help with medical expenses. The Kirkers are deeply grateful to the local chapter of the March of Dimes which helped pay Joel's hospital bills and covers the cost of braces which must be changed periodically.

Braces or not, Joel lives it when the family pile into their trailer and set out on a camping trip, something all the Kirkers enjoy. When they settle in a campsite, the whole family knows what to expect from Joel.

He invariably takes off to visit all the other campers, one by one. He loves to meet and chat with other people, even if it means climbing hills and fighting the underbrush every step of the way.

The twins can take care of each other pretty well these days. Joel can put on his braces for himself but sometimes Jeff helps him. Active, outgoing Jeff helps his quieter, more thoughtful brother in other ways, too. A firm "I think you'll like this, Joel," from Jeff often helps Joel make a decision in favor of places or things. This sort of fraternal influence leads Mrs. Kirker to tell friends that Joel's "twin brother is his therapist."

By this time, the Kirkers know what Joel can do and they avoid overprotectiveness which could be harmful to both boys. His doctors hope that when Joel is about 14, surgery can be performed that will make the leg braces unnecessary.
