Koch Moves to Meno. Falls Stock Brokerage House

TRANSFERS LOCAL OFFICE TO COMPANY'S NEW HOUSE

The first stock brokerage house in the Menomonee Falls area was opened Monday by The Milwaukee Company, a Wisconsin investment securities firm.

Located in the Colonial Plaza shopping center at N89 W16823 Appleton ave., Menomonee Falls, the office is managed by William F. Voss, a registered representative who was in the company's Milwaukee office. Other representatives there are August E. Koch, who transferred from the company's Kewaskum office, and Roy S. Reed, who was with another investment firm.

The house offers a full complement of securities services, aided by new data equipment. The services include buying and selling listed and over-the-counter stocks, municipal and corporate bonds, mutual funds and new issues.

Office services are aided by three kinds of special equipment. Teletype table-top machines provide up to 14 points of information for thousands of securities traded on 16 exchanges, more than 1,500 over-the-counter issues and 200 mutual funds. Lectrascan panels report stock transactions up to the second on the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange. The Dow Jones news wire communicates momentary information about the financial market.

Through a direct line to the company's main office in Milwaukee, the Menomonee Falls office handles underwritings, mergers, sales, private loans, diversified research and portfolio analyses.

Voss, 34, has been a registered representative for almost ten years. Before joining The Milwaukee Company three years ago, he worked for two national brokerage firms. Voss graduated from Marquette University with an economics major. He is a member of the Milwaukee Bond club.

Koch, 53, has been with The Milwaukee Company for the past four years. Before that he was president and treasurer of A. G. Koch, Inc. of Kewaskum. Overseas Self-Help Drive Is Joined by Bank of Kewaskum

Over the holiday season, local support for the CARE food and self-help program overseas is being given by the Bank of Kewaskum.

CARE's Midwest Regional office, 125 E. Wells st., Milwaukee, headquarters for the CARE program in the midwest area, reports that CARE contribution envelopes and information are now available at the bank or are being distributed by the bank through the mail.

The CARE envelopes provide individuals and local groups an opportunity for voluntary overseas aid in any amount they choose. CARE food packages this year are going to India famine relief and self-support programs following the disastrous drought of last summer there. Other major needs for CARE contributions are in South Vietnam and in the Middle East to aid refugees and other victims of war and poverty. Much of the balance is going into long-range feeding programs to help make hungry people capable of feeding and otherwise supporting themselves in the future.

All contributions to the CARE holiday gift program are individually acknowledged by CARE and the donor's name is placed on each package delivered to needy overseas recipients.

Juvenile Delinquency Topic at Meeting Of Woman's Club

DATE OF COOKIE SALE ANNOUNCED

The Kewaskum Woman's club met Saturday, Nov. 11, with a youth panel consisting of Jodi Backhaus, Stephanie Landmann, Jane Johann and Dennis Backhaus, providing the program. Juvenile delinquency was the topic discussed by the Kewaskum High school students from Dean Roe's social problems class.

Mr. Roe stated the purpose of his course was to discuss problems of today. Each student chooses a problem, researches it, reaches a hypothesis from the facts and presents it before the class for discussion.

A juvenile delinquent was defined by the panel as a youth who has committed an offense against society. Young people become delinquent for various reasons, some being they are looking for a way to escape responsibility, a thrill, to achieve rebellion against parents, and a desire to be punished for guilt feelings.

Twelve suggestions were made for helping parents successfully raise a juvenile delinquent: 1. Give a child everything he wants. 2. Laugh at all the bad words he uses. 3. Never give him any spiritual training. 4. Avoid use of the word "wrong." 5. Pick up everything for him. 6. Let him read anything he desires. 7. Quarrel frequently in front of him. 8. Give him as much money as he asks for. 9. Satisfy all his cravings for food, clothing and shelter. 10. Always take his part. 11. When he gets in real trouble say "I could never understand him" and finally prepare for a life of unhappiness because chances are you will have one.

Delinquents are punished through juvenile court, a system that was established in 1899 in Cook county, Ill. Today more effective means of handling juvenile offenders is being practiced. Case study, guidance centers professionally staffed, and youth authority boards connected with the government prove to be more effective. A question and answer period followed the presentation by the panel.

At the business meeting the annual Christmas cookie sale project was discussed. Cookies, three batches of small decorative cookies or a monetary equivalent of five dollars, are to be delivered to the home of Mrs. D. N. Koerble, 1458 Parkview drive, on Thursday, Dec. 7. The cookies will be sold prior to and at the Dec. 9 meeting of the club at Peace church. Anyone wishing to order cookies may call Mrs. Koerble at 626-2261.

Fifty dollars was appropriated for the senior citizens group from the village which meets regularly in the Peace church fellowship room. Table collection was designated for the Helen Mears Art fund.

Hostesses of the day were Mrs. C. F. Miller, chairman, assisted by Mmes. M. Perschbacher and Gerald Stoffel.

Change Social Security Office Hours for Holiday

Carl L. Buchholz, district manager of the downtown Milwaukee Social Security Office, recently announced a change in the hours of the West Bend office due to the Thanksgiving holiday. The office, located in the basement of the public library, is usually open on the second and fourth Thursday of each month. Because of Thanksgiving, the office will be open on Wednesday, Nov. 22.

Office hours will remain the same — 9 a. m. to noon and 12:30 - 3:00 p. m. Buchholz reminds residents that they could be better served during the afternoon hours since there is some congestion if everyone visits the office in the morning.

The West Bend office serves those area residents who cannot visit the Milwaukee office. The Milwaukee office is open every day (Monday through Friday) from 8:30 a. m. - 4:30 p. m. However, that office remains open Thursday nights until 8:30 p. m. Their address is 342 North Water st., Milwaukee. Their phone number is 272-8221.

Nowadays a businessman is judged by the company he keeps solvent.

Gift Suggestions For Servicemen Overseas Listed

Although the post office suggests that Christmas gifts going overseas should be sent via regular mail by Nov. 8, families and friends of servicemen are just beginning to buy gifts now for sending to Vietnam and other points in the Far East and Europe.

To help these shoppers in selecting gifts that both will be appreciated and not weigh too much, members of the Waiting Wives, a group of women with husbands stationed overseas where no dependents are allowed, drew up a list of Christmas gift ideas that they shared with Red Cross chapters.

The range of gift items includes standbys like magazines and paper-back books, tooth paste, stainless steel razor blades, film with mailers, soap, crossword puzzles, magnetic checkers or chess, medicated cream, fly paper and insect repellent to more unusual gifts like a kiddies' inflatable wading pool, or a sachet of the serviceman's wife's perfume, a portable washer, sponge bath mitts or a battery powered razor. Can openers, adapter plugs, battery-operated fans, transistor batteries, black ball-point pen refills, paper washcloths, boot socks, flints, liniment and antacid tablets show the range of suggestions drawn up by the wives.

The area of food items gave preference to canned candies, with wrapped hard candies taking the lead because of their ability to remain fresh for longer time periods. More unusual foods mentioned included smoked salmon and oysters, little sausages, canned meats, sardines, liver pate, dried beef, whole salami and pepperoni.

Hard cheese and tinned crackers were suggested as were foil containers of ready-to-pop popcorn, dried peanuts and dried fruits such as raisins, apricots, and prunes.

In the beverage line, powdered or canned milk, cocoa mixes, to which milk or water may be added, instant tea with sugar and lemon added, tea bags, and canned or powdered soft drinks, all preferably in foil containers, hit the approved gift list.

Cookies, the perennial favorite and a traditional part of Christmas, are better to be the bar or fruit cookie type or a brownie, all which keep well. To assure their arriving in Vietnam in good condition, cookies and all foods should be sent in sealed airtight metal containers. The container should be lined with plastic or foil wrap. Four or six cookies should be wrapped together in foil or polyethylene bags and sealed with freezer tape. Heavier cookies should be placed at the bottom of the pan with paper napkins separating layers and filling in empty spaces.

Outside wrapping of all packages, food and non-food items, should be sturdy, plain paper equal in strength to that used in grocery carry-out bags. Tape should be used to hold paper in position, and the package should be sealed with gummed paper tape and secured lengthwise and crosswise with tough string, cord or twine.

Addresses should be printed on the package with waterproof ink. To assure the address remains clear cover it with transparent tape or a coat of colorless nail polish.

All perishable items should be sent via air mail. The postal deadline for Christmas receipt in the Far East is Dec. 10. Packages under five pounds usually go air mail if they carry fourth class postage. However, they are shipped on a space available basis, which may be closer to the 40-day transit time usual for boat mail.

Definition of inflation: Just a drop in the buck.

Kewaskum Places Two on Scenic All-Conference Football Team

SCHUSTER, GUNDRUM
SELECTED; 4 RECEIVE
HONORABLE MENTION

The Scenic Moraine all-conference football team, selected by the coaches of the eight schools, was announced on Thursday of this week, shortly before press time.

The Kewaskum Indians, who tied for fourth place with a 3-4 record, had two players selected on the all-conference team and four others, two of them only juniors, received honorable mention.

Named to the all-conference squad are Jim Schuster, offensive end, and Tom Gundrum, offensive left guard and linebacker, both seniors.

Schuster is 5-10 and weighs 150 pounds. In conference play he made 18 receptions good for 423 yards and scored six touchdowns. His best night was at Random Lake when he caught three touchdown passes, the longest one for 86 yards. This is the second straight year a Kewaskum player was selected to an offensive end position on the all-conference team. Last year honors went to Mark Heise. Gundrum, about 5-10½ and weighing 188 pounds, at his offensive left guard position consistently opens holes in the line and the Indians runners made much of their yardage through that spot.

Kewaskum players receiving honorable mention included Dennis Terhinden, senior, center and defensive tackle; Marvin Tanck, senior, quarterback and defensive halfback, who missed out by only one vote of making the all-conference team; Ron Strupp, junior, defensive tackle, who also barely missed being named to the all-conference squad in his first year out for football, and Perry Koth, junior, halfback.

In their own selections made by members of the Indian varsity squad, Tackle Dave Ramthun was elected most valuable player on the team by his teammates. Because of the close balloting, tri-captains were picked by the team, namely Tanck, Gundrum and Allen Theusch.

RETURN HOME FROM TRIP BY JET TO LOUISIANA

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton N. Kohn of Chicago, former Kewaskum residents, and Mr. and Mrs. Leander A. Oppermann of R. 1, Campbellsport, returned Monday evening from a 4-day trip to Shreveport, La., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Arbie Gatzke. Mr. Gatzke is a brother of Mrs. Kohn.

They flew to Louisiana by jet plane. They report that the weather there was 90 degrees and they picked roses which were in full bloom.

Indians Laced by Cedar Grove in Opening Game

The Kewaskum Indians were smothered by Cedar Grove, 55-28, in a non-conference game here Tuesday night to open the 1967-68 basketball season.

The Indians went ice cold against Cedar Grove, managing to hit only 11 of 50 shots from the floor, accounting for their low score. Kewaskum was outscored in every quarter by a good Grove team, trailing 20-8 at the quarter, 28-14 at halftime, and 46-22 at the third period's end. The winners outpointed the Indians on free throws, 15 to 6.

Cedar Grove made it to a WIAA sectional tournament last year. The Eastern Wisconsin conference team is without its scoring ace of last season, 6-5 Ken Ver Gowe, who topped the conference in scoring. He now is a freshman at Ripon College, and is a teammate of Al Eggert of West Bend.

Coach Lindy DeNamur's Indians opened the current season with only one starter back in the fold, Jim Schuster, a 5-11 senior, although Al Bohn and Marvin Tanck saw much previous action.

High scorers for Cedar Grove were M. E. Huenink with 17 points, Graue with 10 and LeMahieu with 9. Jim Schuster and George Martin shared honors for the losers with seven points each.

The Indians will "hit the road" for non-conference games in their next two outings before opening the Scenic Moraine season Dec. 1 at Germantown. Tonight (Friday) they play at Plymouth and Tuesday they will travel to Rosendale.

The Little Ten conference. JV matches will be at 6:30 p. m. and varsity meets at 8 o'clock during the season unless otherwise specified.

NOTE OF THANKS

Our grateful thanks and most sincere appreciation to our friends, relatives and neighbors whose comfort and consolation has meant so much to us in our recent sad bereavement, the death of our dear son and brother, Barry. We would like to thank the Rev. Geiskopf, pallbearers, drivers, choir, Schmidt Funeral Home, his classmates, donors of food, floral and memorial tributes and all who helped in any way to lighten our burden and sorrow. Six Persons Hurt in Seven Area Crashes

Four persons were injured in several mishaps which occurred the past week in the village and area.

An accident which occurred at 8 a. m. Thursday at Main and Stark sts. involved a car driven by Susan J. Egerer, 19, of R. 1, Kewaskum, and a village pick-up truck, driven by Armin Oppermann, 44, 1208 Riverview dr., Kewaskum. According to Village Patrolman Donald Hlavaty, who investigated, Miss Egerer was unable to see Oppermann's truck pulling out from Stark st. because of a truck parked on Main st. (Hwy. 28). By the time she noticed the vehicle she was very close to it and applied the brakes too hard for icy conditions. Her vehicle spun around and side-swiped the pick-up truck. The right rear fender of Miss Egerer's car and the right front of the truck were damaged.

A panel milk truck and an auto were involved in a crash on Fond du Lac ave. about 250 feet north of 2nd st. at 6 a. m. last Friday. The driver of the truck Nathan J. Nigh, 41, of R. 2, Kewaskum, reported to Village Patrolman Dennis J. Scott that he backed out of a driveway and did not notice a car parked at the curb owned by Dean H. Roe, 33, of 1417 Fond du Lac ave. until he struck the parked vehicle as he backed his truck around to head south. The left door and left rear side of Roe's auto were damaged.

Two rural Kewaskum residents were injured at 1:09 a. m. Sunday when a car driven by Elaine M. Maurer, 22, of R. 2, Kewaskum, left Hwy. 28 about a mile east of Kewaskum and traveled along the right hand ditch, then crossed the highway and went into the ditch and struck a stone fence. The driver, who stated she apparently fell asleep, suffered a possible back injury while Raymond M. Maurer, no age given, suffered a bump on the forehead. The driver was charged with inattentive driving.

An auto driven by Ronald P. Cornelius, 36, Milwaukee, went into the ditch on Hwy. 28 near the intersection with CTH W at 6 p. m. Saturday when the vehicle apparently got off on the shoulder while passing another vehicle and went out of control and rolled over in the ditch. It was believed a tire may have blown out in the mishap. Injured were Cornelius, who incurred a scratch on the left hand and abrasions and a companion, Hugh P. McGavock, 30, Waukesha, who suffered a deep cut on the right knee and cuts on the head and over the right eye. Both men were removed to St. Joseph's hospital, West Bend, in the firemen's ambulance.

Two other rural Kewaskum residents were hurt when a pick-up truck driven by Daniel Rodenkirch, 32, of R. 1, Kewaskum, traveling west on CTH H, left the road about 1½ miles west of Fillmore. The mishap occurred with Rodenkirch apparently braked sharply and the brakes apparently locked as he was about to turn onto the Orchard Valley road. Rodenkirch suffered scratches on the face and a companion, Raymond Herriges, 28, also of R. 1, Kewaskum, suffered scratches about the body and pains in the back.

A driver was injured, his vehicle damaged and two pigs injured and had to be killed in a mishap at 1:18 a. m. Friday on Hwy. 28 about four miles west of Kewaskum. The mishap occurred when two pigs, weighing about 200 pounds, got onto the highway and a car driven by Dennis James Erickson, 19, of R. 3, Campbellsport, struck the animals and the car turned over in the opposite or eastbound lane of traffic.

The right front of a car operated by Wesley H. Kuehl, 47, of West Bend was damaged at 8:35 p. m. Monday when a buck fawn deer jumped into the path of his vehicle on Hwy. 45 about 1.5 miles south of Kewaskum. The animal leaped into the southbound lane of traffic from behind a northbound auto.

MAIL CURTAILMENT THANKSGIVING DAY

Harry E. Koch, postmaster, announced that mail will be curtailed on Thursday, Nov. 23, in observance of the Thanksgiving Day holiday. The post office will be closed, no dispatches of mail will be made, either incoming or outgoing, no lock box or window service or rural deliveries will be made.

Local Student Will Take Part in Music Clinic at Oshkosh

Lee Rammer of Kewaskum high school will be among students from the area who will participate in the annual all-star high school string and vocal music clinic and concert Nov. 18 at Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh. The clinic, sponsored by the WSU-O Music Department, will be conducted by Paul Doktor, internationally famous violinist and recording artist, and Jack Boyd, nationally-known vocal clinician. Rammer will participate in the all-star high school vocal choir as a bass singer.

Concluding the day-long clinic activities will be a concert at 7:30 p. m. in Swart Campus School Little Theatre. The concert will open with a performance by the university faculty string quartet of "Allegro Sostenuo" by Serge Prokofiev.

The all-star string orchestra will play "German Dance" by von Dittersdorf; "Sonata for Strings" by Mozart, and "Concerto in G Major for Viola, Strings, and Continuo" by Telemann, with Doktor playing the viola solo.

The other all-star vocal solo performers a medley of folk songs, "From an Unknown Past," arranged by Ned Rorem, and "Magnificat" by Sarmantini, with Miss Maribeth Kirchoff as mezzo-soprano soloist.
