The following letter, received recently from Governor Warren P. Knowles, was directed to the president of the Washington County Human Rights Council. The council takes pride in sharing his comments with the public.

The booklet referred to can be obtained from the governor's office in Madison. The state projects discussed in the booklet are similar to those that the council hopes to one day develop in the Washington county area.

R.F.D. 5

West Bend, Wisconsin
Dear Mr. Kearney:

Gashouse Gang Holds Meeting New Year's Day

The annual meeting of the old Kewaskum Gashouse Gang was held on New Year's day at Hon-E-Kor Country club with 17 members in attendance. Following the meeting members enjoyed dinner together at the Glacier Inn.

Election of officers was held and Lee Honeck was elected president by unanimous vote for the next year. He succeeds Carl Mayer of West Bend. Marge Marx was elected secretary to succeed Lone Terlinden. A treasurer the group doesn't need. New members initiated into the Gang were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd "Cocky" Keller.

The Gashouse Gang was organized during World War II and originally consisted mainly of servicemen who were home for the holidays. The group met annually on New Year's afternoon primarily to prove the hardiness of the members after New Year's Eve. Following the war the Gang finally disbanded for a number of years after some members were killed in action, others were married and some moved away. The group was re-organized several years ago and now meets annually again on New Year's day.

Members attending Wednesday's meeting included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Korth, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mayer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marx, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Honeck, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Staehler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Koch, Tiny Terlinden, Ray "Foot" Zeimet and "Cocky" Keller. About an equal number of members were absent.

One of the charter members of the Gang, Father William J. Mayer, who is still a chaplain in the army now stationed at Fort Sill, Okla. after returning from Germany recently, was unable to attend the gathering but sent the following note to the group:

20 Dec. '68

To the Gashouse Gang:
Greetings! I will not be able to be with you at your annual get-together but my thoughts will be there. I want to thank you for the wonderful remembrance and gift you gave me on my 25th anniversary.

Even tho the years have seen us drift apart for one reason or another there is still present that spirit of comradeship and gemietlichkeit that we had years ago. To all of you from all of me—good luck and God bless you.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Meta Schulz, R. 2, Kewaskum, submitted to surgery at St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, on Monday, Dec. 23.

Three Accidents In Village Over New Year Holiday

Three accidents in Kewaskum over the New Year holiday were reported by local police although none of the mishaps was of a serious nature.

Streets and highways were very slippery and hazardous following the freezing rain and sleet late last weekend and a 5 to 8 inch snow over the weekend. Approximately four more inches of snow fell on Monday covering the icy surface underneath. Both snowstorms were accompanied by 15 to 20 mile an hour winds piling the snow into huge drifts and blocking roads and driveways. Many power and telephone lines were downed by the coating of ice over the weekend, disrupting service in many areas. Highway crews were kept busy keeping the roads open and county and village crews worked day and night. Driveways and walks kept blowing shut and snowplows and shovels were at work continuously. Numerous cars were stuck in snowbanks and skidded into ditches. Monday's snow was followed by sub-zero weather New Year's eve and day with temperatures dropping to 15 below zero for a frigid holiday that kept many persons home. At this writing Thursday it is snowing again and there goes another snowplow. Another cold snap is scheduled to follow on Friday.

Getting back to the accidents the first one occurred at 10 p. m. New Year's Eve on CTH H about 200 feet west of Fond du Lac ave. (Hwy. 45). Cars involved were driven by Walter W. Ewert, 25, 1329 Riverview dr. and Robert L. Manthei, 20, 306 Third st. Police reported that Manthei was stopping on CTH H and Ewert attempted to stop behind but his auto skidded on ice and struck the Manthei vehicle. The right front of Ewert's car and rear of the Manthei auto were damaged.

In a mishap at 3 a. m. New Year's day a car driven by Frederick A. Krieser, 19, 1145 Midland ave., was struck by another vehicle driven by Charles J. Borth, 21, 525 S. 2nd ave., Wausau, at 1616 Fond du Lac ave. Borth stated he was northbound on Fond du Lac ave. and did not notice the Krieser car parked in the traffic lane until it was too late to stop on time. Krieser said he had stopped to let off a passenger. The right front of Borth's car and left rear of Krieser's vehicle were damaged.

The third mishap occurred at 5:15 a. m. New Year's day when a car operated by Dale J. Darmody, 19, R. 1, Allenton, struck a parked car owned by Robert Sparks, 269 Clinton st., at the latter address. Darmody reported he was southbound on Brooklane dr. and turned left onto Clinton st. and his auto skidded on the icy street and struck the left rear of the Sparks vehicle parked at the curb. The right front of Darmody's car and left rear of the Sparks vehicle were damaged.

A rash of minor "fender bender" mishaps also occurred.

The better a woman looks the longer a man does.

Second Exchange Student to Arrive

The second foreign exchange student, Miss Ana Rita Reyes of Chili, South America, is scheduled to arrive on Jan. 8 for a three month stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Reigle and family in Kewaskum. She will attend Kewaskum Community High school. The Reigles' daughter, Sudy, was an exchange student to Chili during the summer of 1968.

RESIDENTS URGED TO CLEAN SNOW AWAY FROM HYDRANTS

Residents of the village who have water hydrants on their property or near their homes are asked to remove the snow from around them to provide immediate access to the hydrants by firemen in case of a fire. Some of the hydrants are almost buried under snow. Remember, it is everybody's duty to help prevent fires.

State Vets Will Be Paid $4.9 Million in Insurance Dividends

More than 95,000 Wisconsin World War I and World War II veterans holding GI insurance policies will receive over $4.9 million in dividends during 1969, according to Joseph J. Mulone, manager of the VA Regional Office, Milwaukee.

Beginning Jan. 1 dividends will be paid on the anniversary dates of the policies. Nationally, VA will pay out $236 million in dividends in 1969 to approximately 4,250,000 veterans holding National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) and U.S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) policies. This is $13 million more than the 1968 dividend payment of $223 million.

Mulone said that approximately 90,800 veterans in Wisconsin who hold NSLI policies will receive over $4.5 million in dividends in 1969. Nationally, NSLI dividends in 1969 will total $218 million, with payments averaging about $53 to 4,100,000 World War II veterans.

The dividend to be paid to some 4,300 World War I veterans in the state who hold USGLI policies will total approximately $401,000.

Mulone said some 185,000 World War I veterans nationally will receive $18 million in 1969 USGLI dividends, with payments averaging $97, up $18 over the 1968 average payment of $79. Increased interest earnings on government life insurance funds made possible the higher 1969 dividends, he said.

Ten Ways To Cut Winter Heating Bills

Have you ever stopped to think how much of your household money is quite literally "going up the flue" or "leaking out through the roof"?

You may be spending 50 per cent more than you should for cold weather heating — and shivering at the same time. Over the years this adds up to a substantial sum—not to speak of season-long discomfort from drafts and "hot spots".

It's easy to improve comfort and slash your heating bills, say home comfort engineers at Zonolite Division of W. R. Grace & Co., Chicago.

These heating experts offer ten simple steps to more economical and more comfortable home heating:

1. Make sure doors and windows are weatherstripped and caulked. Both weatherstripping and caulking compound are inexpensive and easy to apply. A few minutes effort will pay off in greatly increased heating efficiency.

2. Have your furnace system checked by qualified, responsible specialists. It's wise to have furnace, pipes and chimney checked every year. The furnace itself should be cleaned and adjusted for greatest heating efficiency before the start of cold weather. If you act promptly before the last-minute rush, you'll probably benefit from off-season price reductions.

3. If you have a forced-air heating system, replace the filters. Check air returns for both forced-air and gravity systems to make sure they are not clogged. It's a good idea, too, to see that there is a fresh air supply for the furnace to draw on. A slightly opened window near the furnace may be the answer.

4. Check height of attic insulation. If insulation on the attic floor between the joists has settled or is less than four inches thick (a measurement easy to check with a ruler), you'll be losing heat quickly when cold weather strikes.

One of the most important things you can do to cut heating costs and improve comfort is to correct deficient attic insulation. Simply pour vermiculite over old inadequate insulation and level to height of four inches with board if you have hot-air heat and six inches if your home is electrically heated.

5. Look for gaps between insulation and joists, bare spots, and insulation voids around electrical conduits.

Inadequate attic insulation can increase your fuel bill by 50 per cent. You'll be glad to know you can easily correct this condition by pouring a loose-fill insulation right over the old, inadequate insulation. Loose-fill insulations such as vermiculite are available in bags from lumber and building supply dealers. Simply pour out the vermiculite and level with a board drawn along attic joists.

6. After correcting attic insulation deficiencies, continue your home inspection downstairs. In the kitchen check the air seal around the exhaust fan. When cold weather comes, remember that opening a kitchen window while the exhaust fan is on will prevent excessive heat loss from other rooms.

7. Take a close look at heat sources and air returns. You'll want to keep radiators, registers, radiant panels and returns unobstructed by furniture.

8. Fireplaces are fine, but they can siphon off heat. Make it a house rule to keep all dampers closed when fireplaces are not in use.

9. During the winter close bedroom doors before opening windows for the night. This will save heat in the rest of the house.

10. By all means use storm windows or double-glazed windows. They'll pay for themselves in a few heating seasons. When winter comes, even if your storm window protection is adequate, pull drapes to save heat.

Follow these tips and you'll be surprised at the improvement in home comfort and at the fuel savings you'll enjoy.

Cora A. Kraemer, 83, of R. 4, West Bend, died Thursday, Dec. 26, at the Beechwood Nursing Home where she had been a resident for 14 months.

Mrs. Kraemer, nee Herbst, was born Jan. 17, 1885, in the town of Kewaskum. At an early age she moved with her parents to New Richland, Minn. She married John P. band's death on March 17, 1948, she moved to R. 4, West Bend, where she lived until going to the rest home.

Special Program of Series of Meetings For Farmers Slated

A special program of interest to dairy farmers is being offered through university extension, according to county agent Maurice Hovland. Washington and Ozaukee county farmers are being invited to this program, which will consist of five meetings.

The first meeting on Friday, Jan. 10, will be held at the university extension office, court house annex (old court house), West Bend. Discussion will be on the soil problems that farmers face as they grow forage.

The remaining four meetings will be held in the auditorium of the new court house, West Bend, on Jan. 17, 24, 31, and Feb. 7. All sessions begin at 1:00 p. m.

The second meeting will have to do with forage crops, including varieties, seeding, management and harvesting. The third will be concerned with the engineering phase of producing forage — equipment, method, harvesting, storage, etc.

The fourth meeting will be conducted by UW specialists of the dairy science and meat and animal science departments. It will be on production and profits from the dairy cow, by using good, high quality roughage.

The final meeting will be on entomology and plant pathology in the growing of forages — insects, diseases, etc.

All farmers in Washington and Ozaukee counties are welcome. There is no fee for the program. Brochures listing the details of each session are available from University Extension, P. O. Box 537, West Bend 53095, or University Extension, Post Office Building, Port Washington 53074.

One reason there is so much humor in the world today is because so many people take themselves so seriously.

Time may be money, but the fellow who finds himself with a lot of time on his hands has made a poor investment.

Woman Injured in Three-Car Mishap

Catherine Wagner, 87, of rural Kewaskum sustained a cut on the head and was removed to St. Joseph's Community hospital, West Bend, at approximately 3:48 p. m. on Tuesday, Dec. 24, when the auto in which she was a passenger became involved in a three-car collision at the intersection of Jefferson st. and Barton ave. in West Bend.

The West Bend police department reported that the mishap occurred when a car driven by Linda Odemann, 17, of 615 Roosevelt dr., West Bend, proceeding east on Jefferson st., was unable to stop at the intersection because of slippery conditions. Her vehicle struck the back of the Wagner car, driven by William J. Wagner, 51, of R. 2, Kewaskum, pushing it into the path of a car driven by Ardell Yochem, 34, of R. 6, West Bend. The Yochem car then collided with the Wagner vehicle. Donald Yochem, Jr., 6, a passenger in the Yochem auto, incurred a cut lip, but was not hospitalized.

Household Drugs May Cause Defects, March of Dimes Physician Warns

LSD and thalidomide come to mind immediately when we think of drugs which may cause birth defects. But more and more scientists are equally suspicious of the commonplace medications found in the family medicine chest.

Even simple remedies such as aspirin are under investigation. So are vitamins in excessive doses, nose drops and many other over-the-counter medicines.

Some experts fear that over-emphasis on the dramatically dangerous drugs overshadows a far more important fact—until scientists understand more clearly how chemicals affect the child in the womb, all drugs are suspect.

A "terminology gap" in the popular definition of drugs has clouded this important point, according to Dr. Virginia Apgar, vice president for medical affairs of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

"The word 'drugs' has come to mean only the addicting narcotics and barbiturates, or the mind-expanding marijuana, LSD and 'speed.' But the truth is that drugs include the whole range of chemicals human beings may take in the form of pills, powders, capsules, injections, inhalants or by absorption through the skin," Dr. Apgar says.

One reason for increased suspicion of all drugs is the relatively recent medical awareness that the womb is not a perfectly safe haven. Physicians once thought it to be completely protected by the placenta, preventing harmful agents from being passed by the mother to the unborn child. Today, doctors who used to speak confidently of the "placental barrier" as an impervious, natural protective agent, know that the theory and the barrier are full of holes.

In its prenatal care literature, The National Foundation-March of Dimes, which entered the field of birth defects after the conquest of polio, warns all women of childbearing age against self-medication, home remedies, and "borrowing" pills from friends and relatives.

Even prescription drugs normally taken without ill effect should be re-evaluated by a physician when pregnancy is a possibility. No woman, of course, should refuse to take medicine which her doctor considers essential to her overall health. Indeed, failure to take needed medication may be as dangerous to a developing fetus as random self-medication.

MALFORMED ARMS AND LEGS of a patient at a March of Dimes Birth Defects Center resemble those of thalidomide victims. Scientists suspect that other drugs found in the average medicine cabinet may cause other birth defects.

If an expectant mother is under the care of more than one specialist, each doctor should know what has been prescribed by the other since some chemicals of relatively low risk by themselves may be hazardous in combination with other drugs. Taking exactly the prescribed amount is also important — twice what the doctor orders does not do twice as much good.

Many people are surprised that such things as vitamins are considered drugs. But vitamins are chemicals. Too much vitamin K, for example, sometimes causes jaundice which can damage an unborn child's central nervous system.

Too much vitamin D during pregnancy can cause excess calcium in the baby, a condition which may be related to defects of the heart and bones as well as to mental retardation.

Using nose drops is not generally recognized as "taking drugs." Yet nose drops which are powerful enough to contract the blood vessels of the nose may also be strong enough to contract the blood vessels of the placenta and placental bed, reducing the oxygen and nutrition the fetus receives.

Many drugs, whether they have been available for a long time or are new developments, have great merit as aids to human health and comfort, Dr. Apgar admits.

"But before we take or freely prescribe any chemical, new or old, it behooves all of us—doctors, laymen and, especially potential parents—to consider first what the ultimate cost might be to future generations."

Indian Wrestlers Whip North Fondy And Germantown

TAKE THIRD PLACE IN HORICON INVITATIONAL

The Kewaskum High wrestlers won their second straight conference match by defeating North Fondy, 34-14. Tom Schmidt suffered his first loss of the season in this match in an exciting bout with the Orioles' talented Dick Averbeck. Another exciting match was in the heavyweight division where John Reysen pinned Paul Guelig, who had previously been undefeated. Results:

95 lbs. — George Muckerheide forfeit; 103—C. Hounsel (NF) pinned J. Jadro, 3:01; 112—M. Toth (NF) dec. B. Gruber, 9-4; 120—Dick Averbeck (NF) dec. T. Schmidt, 4-0; 127—Ray Gruber (K) dec. C. Reitz, 1:16; 165—Bill Butz (K) forfeit; 175—R. Moser (NF) ec. Leon Schultz, 8-2; heavy—John Reysen (K) pinned P. Guelig, 3:15.

On Saturday the Indians fared very well in the Horicon Invitational, placing third. Five Kewaskum wrestlers reached the finals but none of them were able to a championship. Second place finishers were:

George Muckerheide 95, Tom Schmidt 112, Leo Gundrum 138, Ken Ogi 154, Leon Schultz 175.

Lloyd Laatsch placed third in the heavyweight division. He was substituting for regular heavyweight John Reysen, who was unable to attend the meet. Ron Theusch, 165, also a substitute, gained a 4th place along with John Jadro, 103, and Chuck Muckerheide, 145.

In the last match before Christmas vacation the Kewaskum wrestlers kept their conference record unblemished by trouncing Germantown, 36-13. The Indians, Grafton and Campbellsport are all tied for first place with 3-0 records. Results:

To Discuss New ADA Policy at District Meeting on Jan. 17

An important change in ADA policy and projected plans for expanded dairy product promotion in Wisconsin will be major subjects for discussion at the American Dairy Association of Wisconsin District 5 annual meeting Jan. 17 in the Fairground Cow Palace at Fond du Lac, according to Sam Stanchfield, Fond du Lac, district chairman.

The session will open at 11:30 a. m. with an ADA film "Is the Handwriting on the Window?"

The noon dinner will be followed by election of committeemen and delegates, financial report, a film "Second Effort" and the ADA program and activities review.

Gordon Johnson, on the advertising staff of Madison newspapers, will be the speaker, giving dairymen an insight into the complexities and importance of advertising.

Full discussion will be given the policy change which was announced in October by the state directors. It was decided that more emphasis should be made in promoting Wisconsin's manufactured dairy products, while continuing national ADA program support and that of market milk.

The following have been nominated to fill expiring terms: committeemen, Sam Stanchfield, Fond du Lac; Otto Kohlwey, Grafton; Ralph DeSmith, Sheboygan Falls; Ed Qualmann, Iron Ridge; Herman Schreiber, Sheboygan; Leo Budde, Beaver Dam; delegates, Don F. Indermuehle, Brownsville; Paul Giebel, Eldorado; John Horlamus, West Bend; Wilbur Bohner, Plymouth; John J. Widmer, Theresa. Nominations also will be accepted from the floor.

New higher interest rates on Savings Bonds and Freedom Shares

Now U.S. Savings Bonds pay 4 1/4 %, new Freedom Shares pay 5%.

Today, Savings Bonds are a better investment than ever. Now they pay 4 1/4 % when held to maturity. And new Freedom Shares pay a full 5% when held to maturity.

Freedom Shares are still sold on a one-for-one basis with Series E Bonds, but now you can buy the combination any time at your bank—and not just on a regular monthly plan as before.

The higher interest rate on Savings Bonds applies not only to the new ones you buy, but to your older ones too for their remaining period to maturity—generally effective with the first full six-months interest period beginning on or after June 1. (Outstanding Freedom Shares are not affected).

Buy Bonds and new Freedom Shares—help yourself even more as you're helping your country.
