Anne Edwards, AFS Student to Bolivia, Leaves

Anne D. Edwards, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Edwards, 331 Forest ave., left Kewaskum on Tuesday, June 24, for Miami on the first part of her trip to Bolivia.

Anne will represent the United States as an American Field Service participant in the Americans Abroad program. Her hosts during her stay at La Paz, Bolivia, from June 26 until approximately Sept. 1 will be Mr. and Mrs. Max R. Salas-D. and their family.

Anne D. Edwards

Since this is wintertime in Bolivia, students are attending school, and Anne also will attend classes. Having studied the Spanish language for three years, she hopes to be able to converse with and understand the Bolivians, and also increase their understanding, interest in and respect for Americans.

Anne was selected by a local Americans Abroad committee to be interviewed in Milwaukee by a screening committee made up of returnees and board members. Her name, in turn, was submitted to the New York AFS office, and in March she was named a guaranteed finalist. However, it was only several weeks ago that she was notified that she would be a guest of the Salas family and informed of her departure date.

From June 8 to 14 Anne was a representative of Kewaskum High school at Badger Girls State at Ripon, having been selected to attend the conference as an outstanding junior student.

The Edwards family has been host this past year to Manzar Sahbjam Atabaki, of Iran, who will leave this weekend for a three week bus tour of the United States with a group of AFS students before returning to Iran in July.

Rev. Schowalter and family will continue to occupy the present parsonage at 1433 Parkview dr. until the new one is completed. The congregation has approved sale of the present dwelling to the St. Lucas Lutheran congregation whose church is nearby.

50 Years of Red Cross Service in County Observed at Annual Meeting

LIST FICKLER, DREHER AS MISSING IN ACTION

The annual dinner meeting of the West Bend Chapter of the American Red Cross held last week at the Farmington Elementary school, was well-attended by many members and friends. Expressing the spirit of the event was a telegram from Congressman William Steiger: "As the West Bend Chapter of the American Red Cross observes 50 years of humanitarian service tonight, I hope you will relay my very best wishes. Your time and energy is devoted to an organization which is exceptional in its service to mankind, and you, as individuals, merit a special salute for making the Red Cross the indispensable organization that it is. I wish I could be with you." The telegram was addressed to Miss Clara Jaehnig, executive secretary.

Gerald Secor, general chairman of the dinner, arranged a memorable evening which included the serving of a delicious dinner by the ladies of the Farmington school PTO, special music, recognition of volunteers and a speech by James Swoboda of Milwaukee, a veteran of many years of service to the Red Cross at both local and national levels. Boy Scouts from the school presented the colors and the pledge of allegiance followed the singing of "America the Beautiful." The Rev. Victor Hackbarth of West Bend's Trinity Lutheran church, a member of the board of directors, delivered the invocation. The audience was delighted with musical selections presented by an entire family of talented musicians. Albert Asch, in charge of music at the University of Wis.-Washington county, his wife and five children drew many rounds of applause. Described by music-lovers as a "built-in string quintet" the three boys and two girls amazed listeners with a nearly flawless performance. Their parents, in addition to directing the children, demonstrated part of their own skill with the use of a "recorder," an ancient instrument, and the piano.

Chapter chairman, Tom Koenig, called the meeting to order using a format designed for the occasion. "Fifty years ago" and 1969 were represented in reports from Miriam Pick and E. J. Altendorf, secretary and treasurer of the original group and Mrs. Egbert Muth and Ed Junk, Jr. of the present day chapter. An election and introduction of new board members followed, an account of which will be published at an early date in conjunction with a report of the year's chapter activities.

There were tears in the eyes of the long-time Red Cross workers as they observed a moment of silence in memory of their co-workers: Listed as missing in action, Captain E. J. Fickler and T. Sgt. Charles F. Dreher of Kewaskum. Included in the silent tribute were Sgt. Glen Dean, S/Sgt. Merlin Bruessel, Mrs. B. C. Ziegler, Pfc. Thomas N. Crook, Miss Christine O'Meara and General Dwight Eisenhower.

Red Cross award pins were presented to volunteers who have served many years in the areas of production, hospital ladies and staff aides. They were: Mrs. Celeste Merriam, 50 years of Red Cross service, who was accompanied to the dinner by her son Judge J. Tom Merriam; Mrs. Walter Carey, 45 years; Mrs. Herman Claus, 40 years; Mrs. Albert Gensman, 35 years; Mrs. Hilda Boltz and Mrs. Elmer Eisenmann, 30 years; Mrs. J. B. Busse, Mrs. Lila Schmidt and Miss Mary Wagner, 25 years; Mrs. Paul Bartelt, Mrs. Ray Haebig, Mrs. Herbert Kahl, and Mrs. Edwin Moore, 15 years; Mrs. Herbert Schowalter, 10 years, and Mrs. Robert Heppert, 5 years.

Speaker of the evening, Mr. Swoboda, emphasized that Red Cross means being a good neighbor. It's success depends on the ability "to give generously and work like the devil." He noted that the Red Cross was set up to meet emergencies by the Congress, and is not coordinated for continuing welfare aid which is the duty of other agencies. The speaker urged that the Red Cross group be alert to new challenges as well as carry out the missions they have already undertaken. Atty. Leo Schlaefler, who attended the National Red Cross convention, also reported to the group. The meeting adjourned with a sense of dedication gained from both speakers.

Indians Win Two More, Tip Grafton Rap N. Fondy, 17-2

MARX AND FELLEZ STAR IN ROUT OVER ORIOLES

Kewaskum's undefeated Indians made it three straight in the Scenic Moraine conference with two more wins the past week. Last Thursday evening at Grafton they won, 4-1, and against North Fondy here Monday night they walloped the Orioles, 17-2.

The Indians defeated Grafton behind Bob Fellenz' sparkling four-hit pitching. Five singles—four of them in succession—gave Kewaskum three runs in the first inning at Grafton and all the working edge right-hander Fellenz needed. The Indians added their 4th run in the 4th inning. Fellenz finished the game with 10 strikeouts. Kewaskum collected 9 hits. P. Koth, Theusch and Stern led the way with 2 apiece.

In pounding North Fondy here Monday night, 17-2, Kewaskum scored 6 times in the third inning to wipe out a 1-0 deficit, then added 7 runs in the fifth to rout the Orioles. They continued to pour it on with 2 runs in each of the 4th and 6th innings. Butschlick tripled with the bases loaded in the 3rd and Tom Staehler did the same in the 5th for the Indians. The Indians' 11-hit attack included 4 for 4 by Dan Marx. Fellenz, the winning pitcher, struck out 11 and walked 1 in allowing the Orioles only 2 hits. Kewaskum took advantage of 12 walks issued by N. Fondy starter and loser Dennis Freiberg, who worked 5 innings.

Kewaskum was scheduled to host Campbellsport on Thursday night of this week, will travel to Random Lake Monday night, (8 p. m.) and will play at Campbellsport next Thursday, July 3, (6 p. m.).

Sheboygan Edges Lakes Team, 3-2

A lost fly ball in the lights and some shaggy base running cost Kewaskum a defeat here Saturday night when they were nosed out by Sheboygan, 3-2. The loss left the team with a 3-3 record and dropped them to sixth place in the standings.

Two runs in the first inning and another in the fifth was all Sheboygan needed to come out on top. Kewaskum pushed over one run in the fifth on a walk, passed ball and C. Jacak's single and their second button in the sixth on two errors.

Joel Fehlhaber started for Kewaskum and was relieved in the third inning by Al Koepke, who completed the mound chores. Reise went the route for Sheboygan. Good pitching dominated the game as each team was held to five hits. Fehlhaber and Koepke combined for 15 strikeouts while walking six, and Reise fanned 12 while passing six. Koepke struck out the side in both the 7th and 8th innings.

When you look at the many kinds of taxes we all pay, it kind of makes you realize that the folks running this country haven't been fools. A bunch of fools couldn't have thought up the many, many ways to get money out of our pockets.

Summer baseball for children 9-12

The 9-10 year old Braves won a double header June 19 and the 11-12 year old Braves won a double header June 20. All the players seem to be a little rusty but time and practice is the best lubrication for this type of situation. If you parents find yourself with nothing to do Thursday or Friday afternoons, stop up and watch the excitement.

Wednesday was our guest day. The ladies from Crystal Lake didn't let the rain scare them. They arrived bright and early in a steady rain. We spent the morning socializing and playing cards and keeping our fingers crossed that the rain would stop. Stop it did, and after a delicious chicken dinner, we headed for the soggy links. Fifty eight ladies participated. No one stayed in to play cards. Not everyone had a low score, but we hope you all had fun.

Winners from our club were:
Low Gross: A-Irene Schlefke, B-Marie Wietor, C-Joyce Coughlin, D-Jan Koch.

Low Net: A-Audrey Bartelt, B-Marge Rosenthal, C-Tie-Mutz Schleif, and Dolores Hansen, D-Tie-Gertie Backhaus, Minerva Martin.

Low Putts: A-Helen Winninghoff, B-3 way tie-Eileen Perkins, Adeline Tessar, Paula Hron, C-Marion Mitchell, D-Evy Jansen.

Eileen Perkins and Marie Wietor received prizes for sinking an approach shot, and Helen Winninghoff and Bev O'Connor, for parring at least one hole.

Some lovely door prizes were given out at the dinner. Regal Ware donated two lovely prizes.

The second round winners of the June Cup are Roses - Helen Winninghoff and Flo Rachoner. Daisies - Gertie Zell and Ruth Held. Asters - Dolores Hansen and Doris Sippy.

Wednesday was friends' day and on Tuesday we played at Sheboygan Town & Country.

There will be a newsletter available soon with more information on coming events.

Annual Meeting of Holstein Breeders

The annual Washington County Holstein Breeders twilight meeting will be held at the Hilbert Scheunemann farm, Wednesday, July 2, at 8 p. m., according to chairman Dick Mayer. This farm is located about halfway between Fillmore and Newburg on County Hwy. M.

The Scheunemanns are hosts for this meeting to help them celebrate ten years of registering Holstein cattle. They have made good progress with their Clover Bell herd and dairy enterprise, and are pleased to have this opportunity to show the herd to the public.

The program will begin with a dairy cattle judging contest, with 2 classes to judge. Featured speaker will be Judge J. Tom Merriam of the Washington county court, who will talk about some of today's problems, especially as they concern Washington county, approached from the point of view of a judge.

Breeders throughout the area are invited to attend the program.

Local FHA Students Attend Convention

A thousand girls from all over Wisconsin attended the Future Homemakers of America Wisconsin Association convention at Green Lake on June 9 - 13. Among these were Barb Vogt, Diane Prost, Mary Thiesen, Doris Beimborn, and Mrs. Jeanne Vetter, their advisor, from the Kewaskum chapter of FHA.

They stayed in the Bruce Kinney lodge and took in special sessions where they got to know many of the girls, exchange ideas and take home new projects to better their own chapter.

Some of the distinguished speakers at the general sessions were Dr. Leroy Augenstein, chairman, Department of Biophysics; Judge William G. Callow, who talked on "Teenage Marriage, Misconduct, and the Law;" Dr. Maurice White, assistant dean, College of Agriculture and Life Sciences; Detective James McFarlane, who talked on "Drugs and Youth," and William C. Kahl, state superintendent of schools.

The girls also voted for new state officers, observed skits, looked over posters, sang songs, and took in the beautiful scenery around the lake.
