Parish Association Selects Officers

The Home and School Association, a group for parents of Holy Trinity parish and its mission congregation, St. Bridget's, elected officers at its quarterly meeting Tuesday night.

The new slate includes Gerald Stollenwerk, president; Jerome Nigh, vice president; Mrs. Patrick O'Keefe, secretary, and Mrs. George Hanrahan, treasurer.

The organization was formed last September by eleven couples. All parents of the two congregations are considered members. However, in order to vote, parents must be dues-paying. Annual dues are $1 per couple.

According to its by-laws, the purpose of the organization is to promote a closer understanding between parents and teachers and to provide a means for effective communication among parents, clergy and students.

The group is now becoming formally organized into committees, including one for ways and means. Members plan to raise funds with which to buy classroom aids, athletic equipment or other needed items.

One of the committees recently held "Hot Dog Day," with Mrs. Norman Gruber in charge, and it was so well received, another was held Tuesday. Each student orders in advance the number of hot dogs he wants for noon lunch. Topping off the meal are ice cream bars and milk.

The Home and School Association meets in September, February, November, and April. After each business meeting, parents may go to their child's classroom and talk with teachers. A newsletter is sent to parents before each meeting.

The new officers urge parents to keep the association in mind when next September rolls around and become actively involved.

High School To Present 'Oklahoma'

Preparations for Kewaskum High School's spring production "Oklahoma" have been finalized according to Clyde Brehm, director.

Oklahoma, written by Rodgers and Hammerstein is based on a small farm town in Oklahoma territory around the turn of the century. A cowboy, Curly, who will be played by Greg Ogi and Dan Ryan, has his eye set for a hard to get farmer's niece Laurey, to be played by Kathy Baumhardt and Dawn Schall.

Laurey played her cards wrong with Curly so she ends up going to the box social with a farm hand, Judd, played by Matt Berg and Jon Slegger. This conflict is combined with another love triangle formed by Ado Annie, played by Kris Meilahn and Deb Strigenz, Ali Hakim who will be played by Rick Edwards, and the outsider Will, is to be played by Rich Loof and Mark Slegger. Humor is added by Laurey's Aunt Eller, played by Viv Schacht and Sharon Schoofs.

The story is humorous and is filled with Rodgers and Hammerstein's familiar songs like, "Oh What a Beautiful Morning," "Surrey With th Fringe on Top," "I Can't Say No," and "People Will Say We're in Love" sung by the cast and large chorus.

People helping Brehm are: Richard Fahrenkaug, assistant director; Greg Ebert, stage manager; Pat Roe, choreography; Jane Eggert and Debbie Roehrdanz, tickets and publicity; and Terry Baumhardt, programs and many other people either in the cast, chorus, dancing, or in helping in any other way.

Tickets for the spring production are being sold at the Kewaskum High School office and by any member of the cast or crew for the 8:00 p. m. production on Friday, May 3, or Saturday, May 4, in the Kewaskum High School auditorium.

surrounding area, the penguins may return to Beechwood to nest and have their young this autumn. Norbert decorated over 60 of these home grown "penguins" last fall.

Meetings will be held on May 7 at 1:00 p. m. in Hartford at 241 3rd St. and at 7:30 p. m. in West Bend at 1323 Edward Ct. #### Notice to Automobile Dealers

Washington County is currently in the process of preparing a Mailing List of Automobile Bidders consisting of those dealers who express an interest in bidding on automobiles for the Sheriff's Department.

This list will be used on an annual basis from May 1, 1974 to April 30, 1975 at which time a similar notice will be published requesting a new list of bidders. From this list the county intends to inform each bidder when bids are invited for the acquisition of Sheriff's Department vehicles. No further advertisement will be published. At such times when bids are requested, a notice will be sent to only those dealers contained on the list. However, bids will not be limited to the dealers named on the list. Also, anyone interested in adding his firm to this list may do so at any time during the year by contacting the office of the County Clerk.

This bidding involves the purchase of approximately twelve cars per year by the Sheriff's Department. Each bid is usually for two to six cars and may sometimes include the trade-in of used cars.

If you are interested, kindly submit this information to the County Clerk, Anton P. Staral, Courthouse, 432 E. Washington Street, West Bend, Wisconsin, no later than 10:00 a.m. on May 1, 1974.

Dated at West Bend, Wisconsin this 15th day of April, 1974

Indian Golfers Win 2, Lose 2

Kewaskum golfers split in a double dual meet at Rock River Hills last Monday at Horicon, losing to Horicon but defeating Dodgegeland. The Marshmen had 175, Kewaskum 188 and Dodgegeland 198. Horicon's Steve Kaiser was medalist with a 40. Kip Weiss and Mark Halfmann were low for the Indians with 46's. Other scores for Kewaskum were Jim Ciha 48 and Scott Koth 48.

In their Scenic Moraine opener Wednesday here, the Indians edged Slinger by four strokes, 188-192, with junior Ciha leading the way with a 43. Other Kewaskum scores were Weiss 48, Tom Timblin 48 and Halfmann 51. Koth was out with the flu. The Owl scores were Dan Karius 44, Steve Jonas 47, M. Karius 48, G. Jonas 53. The Indian JV's also won, 198-214. Tom Rohinger carded a 45, Edwards 49, Tessar 50 and Buswell 54.

The Indians came up with their lowest total of the year here Monday but fell three strokes short of Mayville in a conference match, 179-182. The Cards were led by Lud Wurtz, who carded a 40. Next were Voss 42, Herder 48 and Lance Wurtz 49. Koth and Ciha tied for low honors for Kewaskum with 42's. Timblin had 46 and Rohlinger 52. The JV's won, 198-203. Freshman Mark Rosenthal was medalist with 46, followed by Randy Hirsig 48, Jim Schaub 49 and Jim Dean 55.

Indian Trackmen Defeat Hartland, 4th in S-M Relays

In a track meet at Hartland last Tuesday Kewaskum won the final mile relay to give them a 67-60 victory over Arrowhead. Dennis Bremser, Doug Bilgo, Ken Wiesner and Dale Prost carried the baton.

Bremser was a triple winner as he was a part of both relays and took the half mile. Teammate John Marino won both spring events and was on the 880 relay team. Both are sophomores.

Randy Backhaus came through as usual with his double win in the 2-mile and mile, the latter being one of the best events in the meet. Backhaus and defending conference mile champ, Jeff Stuetgen fought it out in the stretch with Randy ahead by only a yard or so.

Bilgo was on both relays and added a second in the 220. John Fischer copped the high hurdles.

On Friday the Indians participated in the Scenic - Moraine relays at Germantown at 3 p. m. and placed 4th. The host Warhawks as expected emerged as champions with 102 points, followed closely by Grafton 95, Hartland 60, Kewaskum 50, Kettle Moraine 29, Slinger 26, Pewaukee 22 and Mayville 6.

Earlier Germantown had won the S-M indoor crown and later they will be going after the conference outdoor trophy for the triple crown.

Kewaskum's best performance was a second in the 440 relay. They also had a number of thirds but did not finish first in any event. By not getting any points in any of the field events except the shot put, the Indians hurt themselves. Two sopho, Dennis Bremser and John Marino, competed in three events and Mike Koepke was in four. Randy Backhaus was timed at just about 9½ minutes in his two miles of the distance medley.
