Village Park, Swimming Area Praised by Official; Water Safe

By Mark Smucker

The Kewaskum Village Park along the Milwaukee River and the swimming area there were praised last week by a representative of the Division of Health and Social Services.

Don Nelson, of their West Allis office, was here to take water samples at the river, and was joined there by trustee Gregor Nigh. After taking his samples, he complimented the people of Kewaskum for their "fine facility," noting that it was better than many other community parks he had seen. The test results later showed a coliform count of 80 in one place and 90 at the other, which is very low. The coliform test is a measure of the concentration of certain bacteria in water that could pose a health problem if found in high concentrations.

Village residents should be reminded that no instructions were ever issued from Madison to close down the beach area to swimmers. The delay in opening the beach was caused by local authorities, who wanted to make sure that higher bacterial counts that had been taken earlier would be of no danger to swimmers. Even a high count would only be harmful if the bacteria came from sewage or human waste, and not animal waste.

Beach Opens; Rules Listed

The Kewaskum Village Beach has officially opened, after some delay, as of Monday, June 21. Supervised swimming hours are from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. weekdays and Saturdays. Sunday hours are from 12 noon to 8 p. m. A "Beach Closed" sign will be displayed in the lift station window whenever lifeguards are not present.

Swim lessons, ranging from beginners to swimmers are presently being conducted weekdays from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. in two sessions of three weeks each. The first session began June 21. Notice of any daily cancellation of lessons due to bad weather will be given over West Bend radio WBKV 1470 on the dial. Classes for lifesaving or adult beginners will be arranged when and if there is sufficient interest.

The personnel at the beach includes: Ellen Secor (head swimming instructor), Dan Meilahn (head guard), Dale Secor (assistant swimming instructor), Doug Acker and Jim Backhaus (guards).

Due to the sleet storm, swimmers should be alert to branches and debris which may be in the swimming area. The rocks on the east bank are gradually slipping into the river. Swimmers must use extra caution in entering or leaving the water. Before diving it may be necessary to personally inspect the bottom for rocks. Very young children should stay away from the east bank.

Parents are urged to remind their children of the rules, which must be obeyed:

1. Rocks, mud, sand or other objects must never be thrown in or near the beach or swimming area.
2. Floating devices and swimming aids (innertubes, inflatable rafts, large beach balls, or "life preservers") are not permitted in the water as such devices can carry a non-swimmer to water of dangerous depth where he may become separated from such device.

3. Glass and metal objects (bottles, toys, small metal shovels, etc.) are not allowed on the beach. Soft plastic pails are acceptable but must never be thrown.

4. Pushing, shoving, and horseplay is not permitted on either raft or pier due to the possibility of injury. Running on the pier is prohibited as it is dangerous to yourself and others, especially when it is wet and slippery. Swimming is never allowed under the raft or pier, because if someone bumps their head or injures themselves he may not be spotted in due time. Going down the slide in a standing position is not allowed. This is extremely dangerous.

5. Any anti-social actions will not be tolerated. This means no physical or verbal abuse, excessive teasing, or badgering of one individual (Continued on page 2)

Attend Badger Girls State

Kewaskum girls who attended Badger Girls State were: Becky Brehm, 1216 Meadow La. and Gay Olson, 330 Braatz Dr.

During her twenty-year career with the company, she has worked in a variety of clerical and secretarial positions in every area of the Regal corporate structure. A bicentennial carnival is also planned for Thursday, July 1. The carnival will include booths, refreshments and contests. The carnival will be held behind the Kewaskum Elementary School beginning at 1:30 p. m.

Bids for 1.2 Acre Pond at New Village Park Let by Board

By Mark Smucker

Bids for a 1.2 acre sand-bottomed pond at the new village park were let by the Kewaskum Village Board on Monday.

It will require a total of 10,640 cubic yards of earth be excavated, so that the deepest end of the pond will be 12 feet deep. It will be kidney-shaped and will have a 12 inch base of sand throughout. No gravel will be necessary under the sand because the test borings, which were done by Arthur and Arthur of Fond du Lac, the project's engineers, showed that the soil was capable of supporting the pond without it.

An overflow pipe and a pumping system along the bottom will enable the entire pond to be drained when it becomes time to clean it out. The bids will be opened at the board's next regular meeting on July 19, with all plans having the approval of the park committee.

An informal vote by the trustees showed that none of them were in favor of paying Robert Zarlum the money he requested for repairs done to his driveway caused by curbing that was installed at a lower level. They requested that Commissioner Bill Martin draw up a resolution stating that in all such cases in the future, no compensation will be made.

Five people were recommended to replace John Battaglia, who resigned his position as secretary of the Kewaskum Board of Appeals. They were Roger Schmitt, Russ Oelhafen, (both of whom were praised by Trustee Danielsen for attending meetings regularly), Gerald Stollenwerk, Richard Schmidt, and Elmer Yoost. President Miller will discuss the nomination with each of them before making a recommendation to the board at their next meeting.

Commissioner Martin noted that the ordinance book ordered by the village is still at the printers, and that the audit of the village recently completed showed that the water department is operating at a 51% loss each year.

President Miller reminded the public that no action can be taken against people with barking dogs unless they come up to the municipal building and sign a complaint. He also announced that, "It looks like revenue sharing will be continued next year. If they hadn't it would have cost the taxpayers in the village about $71,000."

The resolution 4-76 concerning the petition of Paul

Bucek and Dennis Giese to be annexed into the village was accepted. Both men live along Highway 45 south.

Stan Woolman of 1185 Hillside Drive appeared before the Kewaskum Village Board recently to request that the board take action concerning the growth of some noxious weeds which are growing in vacant lots just east of his home.

He stated, "I know that the weeds next door cause problems to kids like watery eyes or asthma. Are we going to get them cut or aren't we? It's the same thing every year. You can't find the problem sitting here, you have to go look at it. I'm not talking about just one lot, I'm talking about a great many."

"I know that if I'm burning, someone would sure come and tell me. You have an ordinance against noxious weeds, enforce it! The new park has weeds in it as well and they are all going to seed pretty soon."

According to state statutes, only three types of weeds are noxious: leafy spurge, creeping Jenny, and thistles. An on site inspection of the site showed that there are thistles present, so the board voted to send notices to the property owners in question, stating that if the problem is not cleared up by July 1, the village will spray the lots and bill the owners.

Final Action on Budget Expected At Board Meeting

Final action by the Kewaskum Board of Education on the 1976-77 school budget is expected at the meeting to be held Monday, June 28, at 8 p. m. The meeting will be held in the administrative offices. The budget will be presented to electors at the Annual Meeting which will be held Monday, July 26.

Also on the board agenda is consideration of a request to sell a strip of grass area along the south side of the street in front of the high school. The request is made by George Eggert, since the area adjoins the yard of his home.

The bus contract as recommended by the board committee will be acted on and administrative contracts approved. Another item will be discussion of a request by Dave Vande Vrede to be represented by the Kewaskum Education Association. Miscellaneous items which may arise will also be considered. The board will adjourn to executive session to discuss salaries and wages.

Beach Opens

by another. The beach is a place to have fun and no one should have to fear bullying by others.

6. Bikes are to be parked well away from the beach area, preferably in the available bike rack. Bicycles are never to be ridden on the beach, and certainly not into the water. Pets, such as dogs, are to be kept away from the beach and never taken into the water. During crowded conditions, a dunked dog may react instinctively and become vicious. Food should not be brought onto the beach or into the water. Picnic facilities are available elsewhere in the park.

7. Anyone under 6 years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Also, guards cannot be requested to watch over any specific individuals. This is not a baby sitting service. The guard stand is for guards ONLY. It is neither a seat for others nor a depository for miscellaneous items, as children's watches, radios, towels, etc. Guards are for your protection. Their orders and judgments should be heeded at all times. If a guard deems someone's behavior irresponsible or dangerous, the offender will be ordered to leave the beach area for a designated period.

8. Litter has become somewhat of a problem. Parents should instruct their children to use the trash barrels for depositing any paper wrappers, bottles, or cans.

9. The matter of jumping and diving off the dam is a critical one. This is extremely hazardous and foolhardy. Above the dam, tree limbs and other jagged objects can collect and may not be seen by a jumper. Below the dam, there are deep holes and swifter currents which pose threats to novice swimmers. Also, there is a concrete ledge which can be struck by jumping or diving. The greatest hazard is that the antics of older children attract younger inexperienced swimmers to the dam area where an accident may occur. Again this year no one will be allowed to jump or dive off the dam. Guards will discourage these actions and the police will cooperate to enforce this rule.

10. Fishing is not allowed in the swimming area when any swimmers are present and is not recommended during any swimming hours. Obviously motorized boats are not to be operated in the swimming area and all other boats or canoes are to be launched and landed outside the beach area.

The total cost of $15,000 comes from the proceeds of the annual September Turkey Shoot.

Hats Off to High Schoolers!

Kewaskum Statesman
Friday, June 25, 1976

Students from Kewaskum High School have been participating in a new program on the Cedar Lake Home Campus through Youth Services, a county-wide, non-profit agency placing students in community work services.

Every Monday night the young people come to Friendship House to participate in evening activities. Carol Froemming, Cedar Lake staff member assigned to this program, says these young people do a great job with the residents and it's hard to say who enjoys it more! Whether it's playing cards, bean bag toss, a variety of participation games or stimulating conversation, the Youth Service provides an excellent evening for the residents. A special student project was planning, preparing and then enjoying, with the residents, a fancy Italian dinner complete with appropriate table decorations and miniature Italian flags.

This special youth oriented Monday evening with residents is one of many varied activities and regularly planned programs at the Cedar Lake Home. Volunteers interested in investing themselves in people with needs are encouraged to contact the Cedar Lake Home at 334-9487.

Hovland Promoted To Professor Rank

Prof. M. Hovland

Maurice Hovland, UW-Extension agricultural agent in Washington County, has been promoted to the rank of professor by the UW System Board of Regents.

In making the announcement, UWEX Chancellor J.C. Evans said Hovland's work in agriculture and soil conservation has been "a great service to the people of Washington County and a great credit to Wisconsin's Extension tradition."

Hovland has worked to make information on the unique glacial history of the Kettle Moraine area available to the general public. His efforts resulted in a narrated slide program, which local schools and libraries may rent or buy from the Bureau of Audio-Visual Instruction, in Madison.

Hovland has also been active in a Wisconsin Soil and Water Conservation project on sedimentation monitoring. The project is an effort to gain information on sediment control and to involve landowners in development of good soil management programs and land use regulations.

On The Line... One-To-One

By Gene Anderson

Supplying quality telephone service is a 'people' function. It requires our employees to work with you — customers — on an individual 'One-to-One' basis. It demands dedication from our people to keep our customers satisfied.

Providing quality telephone service also entails technical and mechanical competence. General Telephone Company of Wisconsin owns and operates millions of dollars worth of equipment throughout the state to meet your communications needs and spends millions more each year to keep it in proper working order.

Despite all the dollars expended and the efforts of our people, breakdowns in service or billing still occasionally occur. When you report them, we are pledged to make every effort to repair your service or correct your bill, as quickly and efficiently as possible. This is the essence of 'One-to-One'.

Sometimes, however, we are informed of problems through a third party... the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin. When customers report problems to the Commission, we are notified and make every attempt to have the problems cleared. Nevertheless, there is a time-lag factor because the customer is needlessly dealing through a third party. In the end, we are the ones — the only ones — who will actually restore service or correct a bill. The Commission itself takes no such action, since they are not the telephone company. We are!

We, as a company, have the 'equipment', both in manpower and machinery, to keep your telephone working properly. We have the trained personnel in our Repair Service and Business Offices to record your problem and take steps for clearing it quickly. And, if for any reason, the problem persists, we have a Customer Service Bureau operating under the direct supervision of our Division Manager. He has stated with emphasis that any CSB contact will receive immediate attention.

So, if you ever have a problem, please let us know. You deserve quality telephone service, we want to provide that service, and we can both accomplish our objectives most quickly and efficiently if we always communicate 'One-to-One'.

"Ride a Bike — Stay in Shape"

How to make a molehill out of a mountain.

The amount of electricity being used by Wisconsin Electric customers varies throughout the day. During the daytime hours there's considerably more electricity being used than at night. If you look below you can clearly see what a mountain that daytime use of electricity makes when it is plotted on a graph.

Naturally we have to have enough power plants to meet that daytime demand at its highest point. And we do. At least right now we do. But as the mountain grows, we have to build and maintain more power plants. An expensive proposition, as you can well imagine...one that ends up costing all of us more money.

But by changing our electricity habits a little we can hold down daytime peak loads and flatten that mountain somewhat—which would enable us to make better, more economical use of existing power plants. And still meet the growing demand for electricity.

SOME THINGS YOU CAN DO TO HELP

You can start by washing full loads of clothing in the evening, whenever possible. And drying them later, too.

Try using your dishwasher at night, perhaps right before you go to bed.

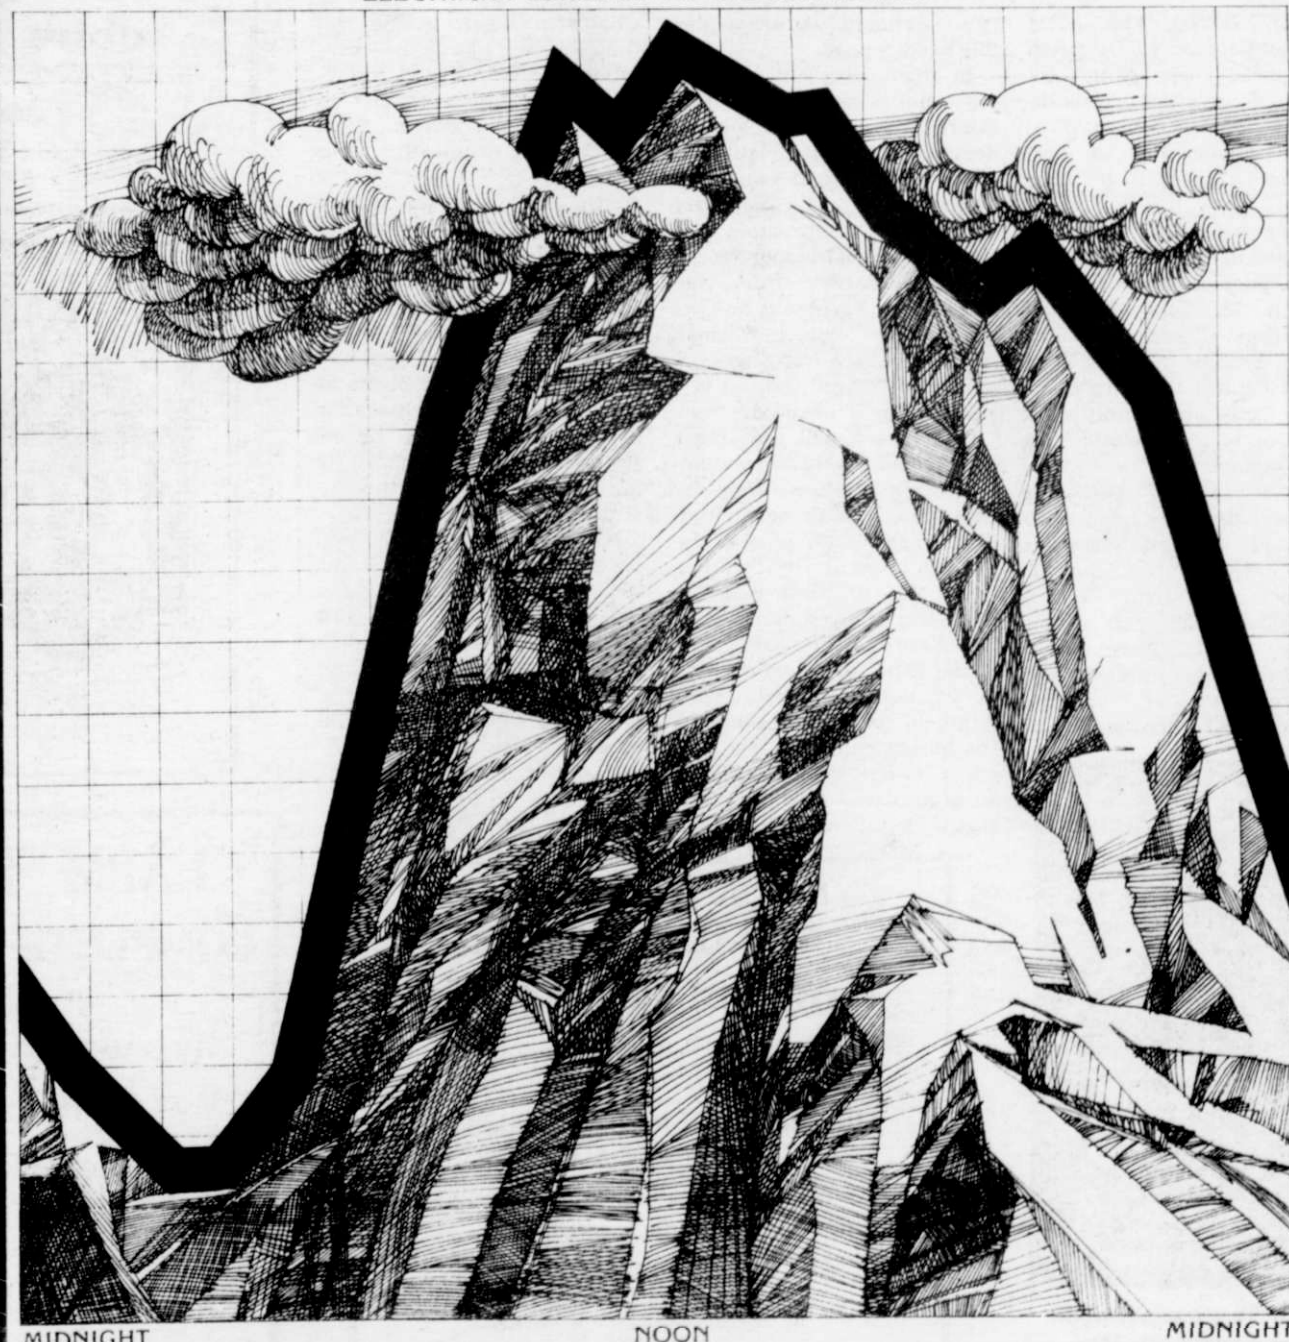

You can cut down on the use of your air-conditioner, too, by keeping the drapes closed on the sunny side of the house and making sure the thermostat is set at no less than 78°. And try to use smaller appliances like broilers or electric fry pans instead of your range.

These are just a few ways you can help cut that daytime peak down to size...to make a molehill out of the mountain...and help save yourself some money, today and in the future.

Electricity. Let's all use it wisely.

ELECTRICITY USAGE ON TYPICAL SUMMER DAY

The Threshold Honors Norman A. Schowalter

(WEST BEND, WIS.)—The Threshold Board of Directors and invited guests gave Norman A. Schowalter a distinguished service award Wednesday night, May 26 at a surprise banquet in his honor.

Those attending included members of The Threshold Board, people who had worked with Mr. Schowalter on the recent Threshold Building fund drive, those who served on the Building Committee, city and county officials and representatives of civic organizations.

The Threshold's Board of Directors used the banquet to announce the establishment of the "Norman A. Schowalter Service Award," which honors the many years of voluntary service Norman A. Schowalter has given, and continues to give, to The Threshold, Washington County's "sheltered workshop" for the handicapped.

In announcing and describing the award, Threshold Board Chairman, William Alderson, said it is established to "stimulate and honor achievement in community service and to promote that sense of mutual responsibility and cooperative effort between The Threshold and its communities which Norman A. Schowalter has displayed during his many years of service to The Threshold."

The award will also serve as a means to search annually for a single, multiple or continuing act by one individual or group which is of significant value in creating, developing or preserving the goals, values and services of The Threshold, he said.

Mr. Schowalter, who lives at 745 Spring Street, West Bend, in addition to having the award named in his honor, is its first recipient. Since he is also on The Threshold Board of Directors, Board Chairman Alderson said that the award had to be conceived, developed and implemented by the remainder of the Board at a meeting from which Mr. Schowalter was absent.

"Up until now we haven't even been able to put it into the minutes," he said.

Alderson went on to read from a plaque which will be placed on permanent, public display at The Threshold. Names of future recipients of the Norman A. Schowalter Service Award will be inscribed below the picture of Mr. Schowalter and this inscription on the plaque:

"The Norman A. Schowalter Service Award recognizes individuals or groups whose special achievements and work has led to the up-building and advancement of the values and services of The Threshold; and honors the public service of Norman A. Schowalter who is distinguished by an unceasing devotion to the public interest and an abiding concern for the handicapped . . . Established at West Bend, Wisconsin by The Threshold Board of Directors on the 20th of May in the year of our Lord, 1976, and in the 200th year of the United States of America."

Although the Board of Directors reserves for itself the method of choosing or not choosing an annual winner, the public has been invited to make annual nominations to the Board under a set of rules established by the Board and available from The Threshold.

Among the night's speakers honoring Schowalter, in addition to Alderson, were Reuben Schmahl, Chairman, Washington County Board of Supervisors; Ralph Schoenhaar, Mayor, City of West Bend; Horst D. Wagner, Executive Director, The Threshold. Stanley M. Hetland was Master of Ceremonies. Dr. Harry W. Baumer, retired pastor, United Church of Christ, West Bend, led the invocation and benediction.
