Steiner Building Sold; New Owners to Operate Tavern

The "Kewaskum Saloon" will be the name of the tavern business at 137 Main Street, Kewaskum, recently purchased by Tom and Diane Pivoni and Ken and Sandy Bonlender of Kewaskum, from Robert Steiner of West Bend. Included in the transaction is the building occupied by Steiner TV and Appliance, an upstairs apartment above the tavern and living quarters to the rear of the tavern.

The new owners have remodeled the upstairs apartment and have given the front of the tavern a "new face." They also intend to remodel the inside of the tavern as well and are planning an August 1 opening.

Milton and Elsie Flynn, who formerly operated the tavern, are moving to Townsend where they own a year round cottage. They were in business since 1970. Milton will continue to work for Henry Timblin Trucking.

Village, Town Representatives Talk Zoning at Plan Commission Meeting

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

In an informative and informal meeting of the Village of Kewaskum Plan Commission on Tuesday, June 26, extraterritorial zoning was discussed between representatives of the Village and Town of Kewaskum. The dedication of a 66 foot street to the north of the proposed south side shopping center was recommended for approval and further presentation to the village board. A discussion of filling in near the Milwaukee River for garage construction on the William Schaefer property led to no direct action.

Town of Kewaskum Chairman George Allmann and Dan Stoffel, a Town Supervisor, as well as Roland Tonn of the Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission, were all present. Allmann stated how the town couldn't very well object to village growth but expressed a need to know in which direction the village was growing so that future land use possibilities could be looked at.

Tonn then produced several projections SEWRPC has made in regard to area population growth. He stated the village had grown from 1,572 persons in 1960 to 1,926 in 1970 - an increase of 2.25% annually. On the other hand, the Town of Kewaskum increased from 897 persons in 1960 to 1,166 in 1970 - an increase of 3% annually. SEWRPC Land Use Plans are projections as to what should happen and call for about a 5% annual population increase for the village and a 1% population decrease for the town due primarily to decreasing family size. The village has been growing at a healthy rate of 4% annually since 1970 and is as projected. The town, unlike the projection, is also growing. Allmann was quick to point out that another township, Farmington, had more growth lately than in the village and nearby towns combined.

Tonn also produced a map showing projected land usages for the area. The strongest discussion came on the issue of land application of sewage sludge. SEWRPC recommends to most municipalities that they spread the sludge (the "left-overs" after sewage has been "digested" at the treatment plant) on open fields and returned to the soil. Plan Commission member Charles Miller labeled this a "dream," but Tonn stuck to his guns, saying it was the most cost effective and ecologically practical method in that it would make waters "fishable and swimmable." Miller cited that people had been swimming in the Milwaukee River since the year one.

A map was then laid out that showed the 1½ mile extraterritorial plat approval jurisdiction area. It is within these boundaries that all plats involving subdivision of lands must be approved by both the village and any township involved. The area extends north into the Town of Auburn and south to about the Town of Barton line.

Tonn then reiterated the procedure for establishing an extraterritorial zoning committee and extraterritorial zoning ordinances that would facilitate planning for both the town and the village as far as proposed streets and land usage, etc. within the 1½ mile area. A resolution establishing the committee would require 3 people from the village who are not elected officials and 3 people from the town who may or may not be elected officials. If no zoning ordinances specifying whether properties are for agricultural, commercial, residential, or industrial uses, can be produced within 2 years by the committee, the village may extend the committee for another year. If no ordinance is still produced, the committee would lapse and a similar group could not convene for another 2 years. This prevents towns and villages from just repeating failure to write an ordinance. If an ordinance is adopted it would be administered by the village.

Steve was called by the Arizona-California District of the Wisconsin Synod to be a missionary on the east side of El Paso, Texas. He will start a mission church on this fast-growing side of El Paso. This "Sun City" is the sixth fastest growing city in the United States at the present time. Steve and Bonnie's new address is 3017 Gaston Drive, El Paso, Texas 79935.

Steven's home congregation, St. Lucas Lutheran Church, Kewaskum, held a service of farewell and Godspeed during both services on Sunday, June 24. A reception for Steve and his family followed both services.

Steven will be installed and ordained at Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, El Paso, on Sunday, July 22, at 7:00 p.m. At this time he will begin his duty of gathering a new congregation.

Zoning

areas overlap, as may someday be the case with West Bend - a 3rd class city which has a 3 mile plat approval jurisdiction area - the line is established between the 2 points of intersection. Each township involved would appoint 3 people for the committee and deal independently with the village; that is, the Town of Auburn could not vote on Town of Kewaskum issues.

Tonn pointed out that extraterritorial zoning has not worked out in southeastern Wisconsin, since there is an even number on the committees with no tie-breaking vote. Ordinances have failed to be produced, since issues can not be resolved if a town and village are equally divided. The only instance of effective extraterritorial zoning is Verona, Wisconsin.

Tonn stressed that anything decided on the formation of such committees or writing zoning ordinances be written down in very concrete terms to clarify the expectations of all parties involved.

In other business, the Plan Commission gave its tentative approval to a 410 foot long street north of the parking lot of the new shopping center. Dedication of the street is necessary prior to gaining access to Highway 45. The street would kink somewhat to the northwest and may eventually be extended. Improvements on the street would not be paid by the village and Charles Miller added that in order to be in total compliance with village subdivision codes, sidewalks would have to be provided.

The filling in near the Milwaukee River for purposes of garage construction by Bill Schaefer was more or less tabled until the village attorney could check out exactly what the village responsibilities are according to the zoning ordinances. Since the property lies within the urban floodplain regulatory area, a conditional use permit could be granted presumably only if the fill was 2 feet above the area that may be covered by the 100 year recurrence flood. The Department of Natural Resources had been contacted as to the Schaefer's intent but passed the ball back to the village. Floodplain Shoreland Coordinator Kenneth E. Henrics replied that the DNR "does not issue permits or give approval in floodplain matters for individual decisions within a village." He also stated, "the Village of Kewaskum has adopted the required ordinance and is responsible for administering that ordinance."

Beach Briefs

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum beach in the new Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park officially opened its bath house doors on Saturday, June 30. The first day went very well. Attendance was somewhat lower than expected due to the cool and unsettled weather, however, this week's warmer temperatures are sure to bring out the swimmers. On Sunday, July 1, a total of 130 swimmers got their feet wet. Over the weekend, the children generally obeyed all the rules, took their required showers, and were responsive to the lifeguards' directions. The beach staff sincerely appreciates the cooperation of the youngsters.

I, as well as the other guards, noticed a vast improvement in the general situation as compared to the river. The area is much more controllable. The fence prevents kids from "coming out of the woodwork" by defining the swimming area. The kids were extremely cooperative and realized it is not a place to horse around but for swimming and having fun only.

The raft which was used in the river is in about 12 feet of water at the north end of the pond. It is very popular and thanks to the kids, there was proper use of the ladder and a minimum of "pushing" (what's that?)

It should be noted that there is to be no "cannonballing" or rocking of the raft this year. Also, it would be appreciated if swimmers were to stay off the buoy lines unless they are very tired or in trouble.

In other announcements, Senior Guard Andrea Wagner wishes to remind the public that beach hours are 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. daily, weekends, and holidays, although the beach and bath house are closed from 12 noon - 1 p.m. each day. Evening hours may be extended due to longer daylight and if there is interest shown by swimmers. On Thursdays, the beach will be open for adults only from 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. and possibly later. Also adult classes will be held, possibly in 2 ability groups.

To review the entrance procedure, all swimmers must enter through the bath house. Residents and non-residents with season passes must have a green patch with a "K" on the swimsuit. Patches may be purchased at the Municipal Building, 204 First Street. Season passes are $19 for residents and $38 for non-residents. Residents who wish to pay at the daily rates (25c for kids, 50c for adults) must have a red patch which may be obtained free of charge. If this is not shown, the person must pay at the non-resident rate (50c for kids, $1.00 for adults). Non-residents will have no patch unless they have purchased a season pass. As of Monday, July 2, the following number of passes were sold:

Residents - Family 41, Youth 69, Adult 5, Senior Citizen 0.

Non-residents - Family 6, Youth 27, Adult 1, Senior Citizen 0.

Clothes are checked by a dressing room attendant who will give the swimmer a large safety pin with a numbered metal tag attached. This pin is then attached to the swimsuit or towel and returned to the attendant to retrieve personal articles.

Rescue Squad Calls

Thursday, June 28 - Teresa K. Frushaur, 18, 9185 Bolton Drive, Route 1, Kewaskum, removed to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend.

Sunday, July 1 - Patrick E. Gahan, 20, 625 N. Montgomery Street, Port Washington, removed to St. Joseph's Community Hospital from Kettle Moraine Drive, 1/2 mile north of Hwy. 28, following a motorcycle mishap.

July 15 Is Deadline for Mailing Undersized Envelopes and Cards

July 15 is the deadline mailers have to use up small and undersized envelopes and cards, Kewaskum Postmaster Frank Beesten reminds customers.

Starting that date, the Postal Service makes its new size standards effective. Cards and envelopes measuring less than 3 1/2 inches high or 5 inches long no longer will be mailable and will be returned to sender.

Extra large First-Class envelopes - more than 6-1/8 by 11 1/2 inches - will incur a 7-cent surcharge if they weigh one ounce or less.

Postmaster Beesten advises these oversized pieces will be returned to the sender if they do not carry the 7-cent surcharge but can be remailed if the surcharge postage then is affixed. However, delays for these pieces can be avoided if mailers make sure that sufficient postage had been applied.

The new regulation also will prohibit thin or flimsy cards. After July 15, the cards must be at least seven thousandths (.007) of an inch thick.

"Small envelopes and flimsy cards tend to jam mail processing equipment and cause damage to other mail as well," explained Postmaster Beesten. "The surcharge on oversized or odd-shaped pieces is intended to cover the added cost of handling such pieces which must be processed manually," he said. "These standards have been established to allow the Postal Service to process mail more efficiently and this will mean better service for customers."

Freezer Donated to Cedar Lake Home

Members of the Cedar Lake Home Campus Cook's Club raised money through the sale of Peanut Brittle and Peanut Crunch to purchase a new freezer for the home's dietary department. President Bernie Blumenfeld and Secretary Marion Blumenfeld cut the ribbon around the freezer as it was presented to the home.

Cedar Lake Home Awards Nursing Scholarships

The Cedar Lake Home Campus Administrative Committee announced Friday that nursing scholarships have been awarded to two of its employees: Mary Seitz and Mary Jane Korpinen, both of West Bend.

They will begin school this fall.

Mary Seitz, who is presently a Nursing Assistant, will work towards an Associate Degree to become a Registered Nurse (R.N.). She will attend the Milwaukee Area Technical Institute (MATC) two year program.

Mary Jane Korpinen will attend the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee where she plans to earn a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing to become a R.N. Mary Jane is now the secretary of the Campus Director of Nursing, Mrs. H. Gumm.

The Cedar Lake Home Campus enthusiastically encourages the continuation of personal development and formal education. Eighteen years ago, the Administrative Committee developed a scholarship-grant program to help employees obtain their educational goals. Over the years many employees joined the ranks of professionals in the health care field through special grants.

Hanaway Campaigns in Kewaskum

Don Hanaway, Republican candidate for State Senate, brought his campaign for the seat vacated by Tom Petri, who was recently elected to Congress, to Kewaskum.

The former De Pere mayor met workers at the Regal Ware, Co. Friday afternoon.

While in Kewaskum, Hanaway also talked with residents about issues affecting the people of the district. "I know how the tax burden is overwhelming to Wisconsin citizens," he said. "I support indexing of Wisconsin taxes to prevent added taxation on inflation dollars, and depth review of our tax structure to prevent future surpluses," Hanaway added.

"In addition" Hanaway said, "I am of the strong conviction that the constant over-taxation and over-regulation by our state government inhibits personal incentive, productivity and growth."

The special election for the 2nd District Senate seat will be Tuesday, July 10.

Summer Means Health Safety

Heat exhaustion usually occurs when persons are playing or working in hot environments where there is poor air circulation. Some of the signs and symptoms of heat exhaustion include: headache, nausea, profuse perspiration, pale and/or clammy skin, and a general weakness or feeling of fatigue. Care for heat exhaustion is relatively easy, but should be followed carefully.

First, move the victim to a cool place. Next, remove any extra clothing from the heat exhaustion patient. Finally, have him sit or lie down and give him three or four glasses (each about 15 minutes apart) of cool water, with 1/4 teaspoon of salt in each glass.

The sun can cause painful burns during the hot days in August. The severity of a burn is described in "degrees." A first degree burn is the most frequent kind of sunburn; it usually consists primarily of a general reddening of the skin. A severe sunburn is usually a case of second degree burn. This often includes the formation of painful blisters around particularly burned areas of the skin.

Generally, the best first step is to soak the burned area in cold water or apply cold packs as quickly as possible. This cold treatment relieves the pain, and may actually keep the sunburn from becoming worse. A cold cream or lightweight mineral oil may be applied to the burned skin. Sun blisters should never be popped or broken.

The number of cases of physical dehydration is greatly increased during Wisconsin's warm summer months. Some symptoms of dehydration can include any of the following things: a dry mouth, dry doughy skin, sunken eyes, dark circles around the eyes, a feeling of irritability, weakness and listlessness. Cool liquids should be given to anyone with any degree of physical dehydration.

The summer months can be a great deal of fun -- but only if certain health precautions are taken. Make your summer mean fun and safety.

One of America's favorite hot weather treats may never have been invented if it were not for a shortage of dishes... On a sizzling summer day at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1904 an ice-cream vendor faced a crisis when he ran out of serving dishes. A Syrian concessionaire who sold crisp sugar wafers quickly came to the rescue... He shaped his penny confections into cones to hold the ice cream. The portable combination was an instant success and it was not long before millions were enjoying the crunchy delight...

Motorists to Be Considered for Sheriff's Department 'Certificate of Merit'

Sheriff Clarence A. Schwartz announced that nominations for the department's prestigious "Certificate of Merit" have been requested by Deputy Sheriffs assigned to the investigation of the recent fiery fatal accident which occurred Monday, June 4, 1979, on US 45 south near Mile View Road.

The officers' investigation revealed life saving acts of heroism by motorists at the scene and immediately identified several persons to be considered for the award.

Sheriff Schwartz has requested a further investigation into the circumstances of these heroic, life saving acts. Announcement of the recipients will be revealed by Sheriff Schwartz as soon as the results of the further investigation are reviewed.

The "Certificate of Merit" is presented jointly by the Sheriff's Department and the Washington County Deputy Sheriff's Association as a public acknowledgment for acts of heroism or acts of meritorious citizen involvement in aiding law enforcement.

Six year old Travis White died as a result of injuries and burns suffered in the fiery crash. His sister, April, age 1, and his father, Bruce, age 29, are still patients at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, recovering from burns and injuries sustained in the accident.

Farmer-Owned Reserve Corn Is Released

Corn in the Farmer-Owned Reserve was released for redemption, effective immediately, according to Ira A. Oelhafen, Chairman of the Washington County ASC Committee.

Release of the reserve does not require farmers to redeem or sell their grain at this time.

The national average market price for corn has reached $2.50 per bushel. The price level at which the commodity is released from the reserve is 125 percent of the $2.00 national loan rate or $2.50 per bushel. More than 730 million bushels of corn are in the reserve.

Farmers with grain in the reserve receive storage payments from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Upon repayment of the loan, farmers can keep the storage payments earned through the date of repayment.

On July 31, the Department will review the average price for corn to determine if the release authorized should remain in effect. If release continues, storage earnings will stop in those states where the price remains above the release level.

Goodwin said that with the release of corn, four of the six commodities in the reserve are in release status: barley, corn, wheat and oats. Oats and wheat are released through the end of June and barley and corn through the end of July. This is the seventh time the Department has released a commodity from the Farmer-Owned Reserve since its inception in 1977.

Information on Gasoline Situation Available to Travelers

WASHINGTON -- Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Shorewood) reported on June 27, that area residents vacationing outside Wisconsin this summer, but worried about the availability of gasoline in the areas they will be traveling in, can call a toll-free number to find out the gasoline situation in those areas.

The "National Gasoline Hotline" is a toll-free number persons may call from anywhere in the country on a 24-hour basis to find out the gasoline situation in over 100 major metropolitan areas and along all major Interstate and U.S. highways, Sensenbrenner explained.

The number to call for this service is 1-800-238-8000 and 1-800-542-5270 if the caller is within Tennessee.

Sensenbrenner encourages travelers to use this service, which is being provided on a voluntary basis by the Holiday Inns of America.

Park Gets Permanent Shelter

Page 8, Kewaskum Statesman, Friday, July 6, 1979

(Statesman photos)

The Kewaskum park on Riverview Drive has a new 42x120 foot permanent shelter which was completed late last fall. The shelter will be used this weekend at the annual picnic and will house the beer garden, replacing the large tent which was used in former years. Lights were installed in the shelter about a month ago. The building was funded one-half by the village, one-third by the fire department, and one-third by the Lions Club.

from Tom Leitzke, R.P.H.

Tonsil and adenoid operations are "often performed in a ritualistic manner, largely in fulfillment of parental need," says Dr. R. P. Bolande of Case Western Reserve, School of Medicine. Such surgery should be sharply limited before age five, except for good causes, because the experience can be emotionally upsetting to youngsters, he states.

Annual Red Cross Banquet and Meeting Held at St. Michaels

Annual dinner festivities of the West Bend Chapter American Red Cross were held Thursday, June 21, at St. Michael's Church Hall in St. Michaels.

Hazardous materials accidents was the subject of discussion for guest speaker, Bruce Johnstone. Dangerous chemicals are being transported through our communities daily by tank trucks or rail. When accidents or derailments occur, tanks rupture, explode and burn. In an incident with several chemical tankers of a train accident, perhaps only one tanker will catch fire. However, the danger increases as the chemicals in the other tanks nearby begin to expand from the intense heat. Valves automatically open to release excess fumes. With more intense heat, the metal tankers walls weaken causing a rupture and more explosions and fire.

Communities are evacuated in the dangerous chemical accidents. Fire fighters and rescue personnel are in extreme danger until the situation is brought under control. This could be several days in a large car incident.

Johnstone is a fireman and the Fire Science Instructor at Moraine Park Technical Institute in Fond du Lac.

Mrs. Jackie Wicklund, Executive Director of the West Bend Red Cross, reported on the Red Cross National Convention, first aid training, CPR training, and "Vial for Life" program. Other committee reports were given by Mrs. Paula Drumm, Nursing; Mrs. Ruth Olson, Disaster; and Mrs. Helen Ziegler, Service to Military Families.

Linda Howe, First Aid Instructor, presented a special recognition award to a young girl from Newburg, Miss Beth Voigt. After completing a first aid training session moments before, a classmate accidentally caught her finger in a door tearing off the fingertip. Beth's quick thinking and alertness saved the victim from excessive loss of blood and possible shock. Beth immediately took steps to stop the bleeding and calm the girl down. The fingertip was later found in the mitten and was surgically replaced with no complications. Thanks to Beth, normal use has been restored to the girl's finger.

The West Bend Red Cross office has been in the city for forty-four years.

4-H Members Learn by Showing

By Robert A. Stodola
Washington County
4-H and Youth Agent

We have often heard the term "Learn by Doing." We believe that 4-H members can learn by doing. That is why there are so many learning activities planned for 4-H members.

I think we should also look at the idea of learning by showing. I think that when a person has to get something ready to show another person how to do it he learns in the process too. He may have to look up some information or he may have to make sure he knows exactly how to do a certain step.

In addition to the learning by looking up information the person that shows another how to do something learns to speak clearly and to communicate well. Because of this we encourage 4-H members to show others by demonstrating the things that they have learned. We encourage members to give a demonstration to members of their own club. We also have a county demonstration program. The county demonstration program will be held July 11, at the Washington County Court House Auditorium. Several of the better demonstrations from the county programs will be given at county fair. Also one or two members from the county are recommended to participate at the State Fair.

So as we work with 4-H members on demonstrations we can think of them as a two fold learning experience. Those members that are watching can learn some new skill or new idea which they may not have heard of before. And also the person giving the demonstration is learning to speak more clearly and communicate his ideas to others.

In the early years of 4-H one of the pioneer 4-H leaders, Mrs. Belle Albright, believed strongly in the 4-H demonstration idea. In her memory the Belle Albright memorial fund was started. Each year members that are selected to give their demonstration at the county fair receive the special Belle Albright award. Paul Cypher of West Bend is the treasurer of the Belle Albright memorial committee.

"I hear you've been studying for months how to increase your salary. How did it turn out?"

"Poorly. The boss was studying at the same time how to cut down expenses."

Campus Notes

Four hundred and thirty-five students have been named to the honor roll at District One Technical Institute - Eau Claire for the second semester. The honor roll recognizes students who achieve academic excellence with a B+ grade or better.

A student from this area is: Karen J. Bade, Kewaskum, Medical Laboratory Technician.

Sharon Schoofs of Kewaskum is a member of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Commedia Players, touring summer theatre troupe which is presenting Joseph Robinette's family play, "A*B*C*" (America Before Columbus), in parks and campgrounds June 28-July 14.

Directed by Professor Fannie Frazier Hicklin, the lively show contains scenes of America from pre-historic times to its discovery by Columbus. Playing in essentially commedia dell'arte style, the actors assume a number of roles, human and animal. Choreographers Professor Ollie Ray of the Department of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation and students Linda Kan, Whitewater, and Karen Birk, Fort Atkinson, have filled the stage with action, and the players also explode as volcanos, melt as glaciers, and swoosh as floods.

In addition to their acting duties, the troupers are responsible for the set, properties, sound and lighting, costumes, and packing the trunk which carries their equipment.

Performances scheduled include Highland Park, Illinois, June 28; Brookfield, June 29; Sheboygan and Watertown, June 30; UW-Whitewater, July 2; New Berlin, July 6; West Bend, July 10; Denmark, July 11; Shawano, July 12; Burlington, July 13, and a repeat at Watertown on July 14.

Sharon, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Schoofs, 302 Third Street, is a senior majoring in theatre education at UW-Whitewater. She previously appeared in the campus production of "Brothers Grimm," a children's theatre production which toured area schools last November. She has also appeared in shows at UW-Washington County and Kewaskum High School.

Three students from Kewaskum have been named to the dean's list at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville for the second semester. They include James L. Binder, son of Moyce Doll, 1195 Hillside Drive; Shirley K. Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schmidt, Route 2; and Robert B. Secor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Secor, 1856 Scenic Drive.

To be named to the dean's list a student must attain a grade point average of 3.25 or better, based on a 4.0 system.

o o o o

Brian E. Markielewski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Markielewski, 7651 Townline Road, West Bend, graduate of Kewaskum High School, qualified for the Dean's Honor Roll in computer engineering technology during the spring quarter at the Milwaukee School of Engineering.

To be named to the Dean's Honor Roll at the Milwaukee School of Engineering, a student must maintain a grade point average of 3.2 or higher out of a possible 4.0 during the quarter.

A total of 328 students qualified for the Dean's Honor Roll during the 1979 Spring Quarter, and 98 students had a grade point average of 3.7 or higher for high honors. These students represent a cross section of those enrolled in electrical and mechanical engineering, in the engineering technology curriculums, and the industrial management programs.

o o o o

Two area students are among those named by Dean W. Robert Marshall of the University of Wisconsin-Madison College of Engineering to the Dean's List of top scholars for the past semester.

The honor goes to fulltime students who earn at least a 3.25 grade point average on a 4.0 scale. Approximately 2,800 undergraduate students are enrolled in the nine fields of engineering studies offered by the college.

The students are: Ralph Alan Butz, 1325 Parkview Drive, Kewaskum, Chemical Engineering, and Reed Alan Rodenkirch, Route 2, Kewaskum, Civil and Environmental Engineering.

o o o o

An area student is among young men and women who visited the University of Wisconsin-Madison recently to begin registration for studies starting with the opening of fall semester classes September 5.

The young people took advantage of the university's summer advising orientation program for new freshmen and transfer students. Under this program, students-to-be visit the campus for at least a day, often with one or both parents, arrange for housing, take placement tests, meet student leaders and faculty persons, and begin the registration process.

The student is: Julie Ann Yearling, 9413 Bolton Dr., Kewaskum.

An area student is among

College of Agricultural and Life Sciences students recognized for outstanding scholastic performance during the past semester at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Only full-time students with "B" or better grade average with no failures or incompletes are eligible for recognition on the "Dean's List."

George Sledge, Associate Dean of Academic Student Affairs says that last semester some 2,400 undergraduates were enrolled in the college's 22 departments. They selected from five curricular options which stress either business and industry, natural resources, natural science, production and technology, or social science.

The student is: Scott Michael Wulff, 5930 Butternut Drive, Kewaskum, Agricultural Business Management.

"I want you to understand," said the teacher, "that it is the law of gravity that keeps us on this earth." "How did we stick on before the law was passed?"

Health and Safety Tip

Swimming Safety Rules Save Lives

Swimming, one of the most popular of summer sports, can be a healthful, stimulating part of the summer vacation. On the other hand, swimming can be one of the most dangerous of outdoor pastimes.

The American Medical Association reminds that healthful swimming begins with clean, sanitary water. Water is an easy and quick means of transmission for many disease organisms, and inevitably swimmers will swallow some water. Swim only in approved areas where the water is clean and free from pollution.

Swimming can be dangerous. Deaths from drowning can occur at any age. Inability to swim, inexperience, carelessness, poor judgment or lack of supervision are causes of most water accidents. Infants and toddlers need constant supervision by adults who themselves practice good water safety rules.

Swimmers must know their limitations. The depth of the water should be checked and hidden rocks and stumps located before diving. Swimmers should always have someone else along, and preferably swim where a lifeguard is near. Remember that salt water and surf can be more tiring than swimming in a quiet pool or lake.

The swimmer in trouble often can survive if he or she stays calm. Assume a face-up floating position, keeping hands under the water, and move hands and feet slowly. It is possible to stay afloat for hours with relatively little effort. But thrashing the water in panic will exhaust the endangered swimmer quickly.

Each member of the family should be coached in the fundamentals of swimming safety, and especially mouth-to-mouth resuscitation procedures.

Annual County 4-H Foods Revue

On June 21, Westfair Mall shoppers discovered a mall walkway lined with mini dining tables. On each table was a different place setting and a different food product, all displayed by 4-H members participating in the 4-H Foods Revue. The Annual Foods Revue is the event that "kicks-off" the 4-H activities related to the Washington County Fair.

Exhibitors at this year's Revue planned menus and prepared foods under categories such as: "Children's Birthday Party," "Slumber Party," "Party for Mom," and "Nationality Foods." Table setting expressions and food product choices ranged from the very formal china and silver service to the casual paper service.

"How does one judge such a variety of food and table setting choices?" Judges, Bernadine Bretl and Anne Cotter visited each 4-H member's exhibit to evaluate the taste, appearance, and nutritional value of the food product, in relation to the overall menu and table setting. One of the major objectives of the Foods Revue is to help members learn to self-evaluate their work. The judges comments and suggestions are shared with all participants. Participants are also asked to evaluate their own displays, using the same criteria as the judges.

The blue ribbon winners were: Marjean Backhaus, Karl Kirmse, Ann Shaw, Kira Zaporski, Debbi Brath and Beth Engel, and Lori Prochnow.

Receiving red ribbons were: Sarah Cross, Leah Kuphal, Jill Sommerfeld, Ellen Hetebrueg, Renee Schneider, Jackie Kirmse, Kim Brodzeller and Jill Kirmse. Receiving a white ribbon was Mary Jo Hupfer.

Congratulations to all the participants for doing such a good job of sharing their talents in the foods area.

Keller's Sinclair Service, new service station located at the corner of Fond du Lac Avenue and Clinton Street in Kewaskum, is now open for business. Proprietors of the station are Lloyd Keller and Leroy Keller Jr.

The stage is all set for Kewaskum's annual picnic this week end, sponsored by the fire department and Robert G. Romaine American Legion Post. It will be held in the village park on Saturday evening and all day Sunday, July 10 and 11.

Miss Mildred Wallenfelz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wallenfelz, Kewaskum, and A/1C John C. Odekirk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Odekirk, Campbellsport, were married on Saturday, July 3.

The alertness of Ed Dorn, Route 2, Kewaskum, helped Washington County police in capturing two Illinois youths Saturday following the theft of a West Allis resident's auto. Dorn called the sheriff's department and reported seeing the youths loitering around his farm and "acting suspiciously."

During a nuptial high mass on Saturday, June 26, Miss Florence M. Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ruth, Route 2, Campbellsport, became the bride of Earl A. Marks, Hubertus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marks.

Edward Ludwig, Kewaskum, on July 1, took over the tavern business in the Math. Herriges building at St. Michaels. The tavern had been operated for the past year by Harold T. Kalb and wife.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. James D. Reigle, Kewaskum, on July 6, and a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bingen, Route 2, Kewaskum, on July 5.

The establishment of the Kettle Moraine section, as a state park was approved by the assembly. The bill provides for an acquisition of 1400 acres of land and makes an appropriation of $25,000 annually for six years.

Homer, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schaub, owner of Schaub's Garage on Fond du Lac Avenue, had a very narrow escape from serious injury and possible death last Wednesday, when he was run over by an automobile.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nigh, Kewaskum, on July 2.

As there was no celebration in Kewaskum July 4th, many of our citizens went to West Bend where they attended the celebration held there in observance of the day.

At the annual school meeting held at the village school house last Tuesday evening it was decided to make our school a full four year high school course, with two male and three female teachers.

A little daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schlosser, Kewaskum, on Thursday, July 7, and a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Klumb, Kewaskum, on July 1.

A large crowd attended the 4th of July celebration at the South Side Park last Monday. The festivities opened at 1:00 p.m. when the members of the Kewaskum Fire Department formed at the village hall, and, headed by the Kewaskum brass band paraded through the village to the park where a picnic was held during the afternoon with a good sized crowd in attendance. The dance in the evening was also largely attended.

Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Seefeld, St. Michaels, on July 1.

The diner was annoyed because the waiter had brought him a knife and fork, but no spoon. "This coffee," he said pointedly, "is going to be pretty hot to stir with my fingers."

The waiter reddened, and beat a hasty retreat to the kitchen. He returned shortly with another cup of coffee. "This one isn't so hot, sir," he beamed.

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL

Big Brothers & Big Sisters of Washington County Country Swing/Bluegrass Festival will be held on Saturday, July 14, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., at Little Switzerland Ski Area in Slinger, Hwys. 41 and 144. The Festival will feature nationally known groups, such as Asleep at the Wheel and Grass, Food & Lodging. Other groups performing will be Radio Flyer, Ida Red, Wood Song and The Himalayan Mountain Boys.

Advanced tickets for $5.00 can be obtained through all Ticketron Outlets, or through West Bend local outlets: Allen Hron Jewelers, Midland Co-op, Bob's Starlite or the Big Brothers office in West Bend. In Hartford, tickets are available at Halla's Variety Store, and in Slinger, at The Sub Shop. Gate tickets will be $6.50. Children, under 12, will be admitted free, when accompanied by an adult.

Financing for this fundraising venture has been established through cooperative energies of many local service organizations. The Slinger Rotary, along with the West Bend Lions Club, West Bend Knights of Columbus, West Bend Jaycees, Open Door and the Youth Service Bureau, have a vested interest in the concessions which will benefit the whole community by reinvesting their profits into their individual projects or programs. Their concessions include: beer, brats, hamburgers, soda, t-shirts and more.

Working with these groups has become an ideal model of teamwork between service organizations which has generated a snowball effect in creating interest through out the whole community.

Hosting a Country Swing and Bluegrass Festival will help Big Brothers & Sisters, offset the heavy budgetary needs of the program, but more important, it will promote their program. Many volunteers are needed in the Washington County area. We hope our efforts in promoting the fundraising Festival, will help people to better understand our purpose and take positive action in volunteering to help a boy or girl who needs a friend.

The Big Brothers & Sisters program is a voluntary program that applies social work techniques to assist a mature adult volunteer in developing a supportive friendship with one boy or girl. Through activities, Big Brothers & Sisters help the child develop personal identity, self-worth and inner security. It is a one-to-one individualized voluntary relationship. One adult to one child.

Plan Now To Have Fun At Wisconsin State Fair

A little advance planning for your trip to the 1979 Wisconsin State Fair, Aug. 2-12, will make it a happy stay. Tips to make you smile all day include:

- Remember that light fold-away-in-your-pocket rain covering just in case there's a sudden shower. If you forget, you can still be rescued from sudden sprinkles by purchasing a reusable raincovering at the State Fair souvenir stand.
- Wear comfortable shoes and clothing. There are 184 acres of exhibits and fun at the fair. Don't miss a single thing because of aching feet or bothersome clothes.
- When the sun goes down, so does the temperature. Bring a light jacket or sweater so you'll be comfortable at the nightly fireworks spectacular and the exciting midway rides.
- Parking lots do fill up late in the day. Arriving early in the day insures parking space. Drivers coming to the park on the I-94 system should take the first state fair exit. After you park your car, look around so you remember where it is. Mark the location on your map. You'll appreciate your efficiency when it is time to leave.
- Follow traffic signs located on the grounds. Traffic is very limited on the fairgrounds because of the large crowds of enthusiastic fairgoers, but vehicles are needed for essential services. All drivers are cautioned to follow traffic directions and drive slow and be alert.
- Carload days on Aug. 6, 7 and 8 are a special bargain admitting a carload for only $5 until 3 p.m. Early arrival is recommended on these days to insure good parking.
- Schedules of daily events, special services and a map are handed out when you enter. Look them over so you plan your day around those events you don't want to miss.
- When you're burdened down with prizes and souvenirs, stop at the check room in the north exhibit hall and check your belongings. You'll enjoy the free fun at the 1979 Wisconsin State Fair if you can join in without lugging and hauling packages.
- Find a pet-sitter for the family's wolfhound or Siamese. Health rules prevent bringing your pet into the fairgrounds. You'll be happier, and so will your pets if they have a comfortable place to stay. A visit at the petting farm or any of the animal exhibits will fix any lonesome feelings.
- Check before you leave the house — for grandstand tickets and entrance tickets, if you bought them in advance — and for your Mastercharge or Visa card. Personal checks cannot be cashed by the state fair staff and most exhibitors offer the convenience of Mastercharge and Visa.
- Write for the 1979 fair brochure for information on special events and daily activities. The address: Wisconsin State Fair, State Fair Park, Milwaukee, WI 53214.

Elect Board Members At Cedar Lake Home

Four community members were elected to the Benevolent Corporation of the Wisconsin Conference of the United Church of Christ board of directors by delegates attending the annual meeting of the Wisconsin Conference of the United Church of Christ.

The Cedar Lake Home Campus, West Bend, is owned by the Benevolent Corporation.

Elected to the board were: Al Kroeber, Hartford, and Rev. Vernon Jaberg, Sheboygan, who also serve as members of the Cedar Lake Home Campus Administrative Committee.

Jacob Wittenwyler, Monticello, and Mary Lang, Verona, serve as members of the New Glarus Administrative Committee. Both homes are operated by the Benevolent Corporation.

Kroeber, retired from his own business, is active in church and community affairs in Hartford.

Editor, Kewaskum Statesman:

How come the new park swimming pool has to have a lousy fence around it? Is the village afraid of losing a few coins in case one would sneak in? After viewing the new park we will continue to swim in the West Bend Regner Park pond, with the lovely trees, grass near the pond and no fence to worry about, picnic tables and plenty of area to run around in.

The Windfall Profits Tax

With gasoline supply uncertain in many parts of the country, attention is focusing on the proposals made by President Carter to increase domestic oil and gasoline production — decontrol of crude oil prices combined with a so-called "windfall" profits tax on new oil company income derived from decontrolled prices. The President has used his power to decontrol oil prices, and now Congress must consider the tax.

The intent of the tax, according to the President, is to prevent excess profiteering by oil companies while still giving them enough new profit to be reinvested as new domestic oil exploration and development. The goal: to decrease our reliance on foreign oil by producing more of our own.

The House Ways and Means Committee endorsed a profits tax so punitive that it would have missed the mark of encouraging more oil production. For example, it is estimated that decontrol with no new tax would result in 1.5 million more barrels of domestic oil production a day by 1985. The President's 50% tax would reduce the potential to only 700,000 new barrels per day. The Ways and Means Committee 70% tax would reduce that new production to only 350,000 barrels a day, less than 3% of our present consumption.

I supported a compromise tax of 60%, but which was actually tougher than the Administration's proposal, but constructed so as to increase domestic oil production more than either that version of the Ways and Means Committee version — by 800,000 barrels per day.

This is a step in the right direction, and is the first positive action Congress has taken to decrease OPEC's hold on our economy by increasing our oil production right here at home.

Gov. Dreyfus to Stump for Hanaway

Governor Lee S. Dreyfus will be in Brown County this weekend to campaign for Republican State Candidate, Don Hanaway.

According to the Hanaway Campaign Headquarters, the Governor will participate in an "Old Time Political Rally" at noon, Saturday, July 7, at Legion Park in De Pere, and then join the Second District Senate Candidate for "some door-to-door campaigning" in Green Bay, Allouez and De Pere Area.

Hanaway said that some 200 volunteers are expected to attend the rally, "and everyone is invited to come and meet the governor."

"Governor Dreyfus wants more legislators who agree, as I do, that less government is better government, and that less regulation is better regulation," Hanaway said, "and that's why he has volunteered to come here on my behalf."

Following the rally and the door-to-door campaigning, everyone is invited to return to Legion Park in De Pere where beer, soda, and pretzels will be served from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m., a Hanaway volunteer stated.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION
SECOND SENATORIAL DISTRICT
July 10, 1979

OFFICE OF WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK
TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a special election to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington on the 10th day of July, 1979, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of the office, and under the appropriate party, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. The initials of 2 ballot clerks must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth and cast his or her ballot. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a ballot, but the official shall not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

If an elector wishes to vote for all candidates nominated by any party, the elector shall make a cross or other mark in the circle under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot. Unless a name has been erased or crossed out, another name written in, a mark placed to the right of a candidate for the same office in another column or a sticker applied, a mark in the circle at the top of the column is a vote for all the party's candidates listed in the column. If an elector does not wish to vote for all the candidates nominated by one party, the elector shall make a cross or mark in the square at the right of each candidate's name for whom he or she intends to vote, or shall insert or write in the name of a candidate.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another in its place, but not more than 2 ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initialed by 2 ballot clerks or is defective in any other way the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than 5 minutes time shall be allowed inside a voting booth. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official paper ballot is marked, it shall be folded so the inside marks do not show but so the printed indorsements and ballot clerks' initials on the outside do show. After casting his or her ballot, the elector shall leave the booth, give his or her name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may be assisted by 2 election officials of different political parties in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to physical disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. Alternatively, an elector making such declaration may have another elector of the county assist in marking the ballot. The presiding official may administer an oath to a person making such declaration.

The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

OFFICIAL BALLOT

NOTICE TO ELECTORS: This ballot is invalid unless initialed by two (2) election officials serving as ballot clerks. If cast as an absentee ballot, the ballot must bear the initials of the municipal clerk.

If you desire to vote for an entire party ticket for legislative offices make a cross (X) or other mark in the circle (O) under the party designation at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote for particular persons without regard to party, mark in the square at the right of the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote, if it be there, or write any name that you wish to vote for in the proper place.

A qualified voter is one who is a U.S. citizen, will be 18 years of age or older on election day, and who has resided in the ward or aldermanic district where voting is desired to be accomplished for at least 10 days prior to the election. New Law to Ban Phosphorus Products

A new law, passed by the Wisconsin Legislature in 1977, will ban the sale of cleaning agents and water conditioners containing phosphorus for two years beginning July 1, 1979.

According to Norman E. Kirschbaum, food division administrator with the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection, the last session of the legislature passed Assembly Bill 881 which created Chapter 375, Laws of 1977.

The first part of the new law, to be in effect from July 1, 1979, until June 30, 1981, prohibits the retail sale of any cleaning agent for machine dishwashing or cleansing of medical and surgical equipment which contains more than 8.7% phosphorus by weight. It also bans the sale of any other cleaning agent (laundry detergent, laundry additive, dishwashing compound, household cleanser, etc.) which contains more than 0.5% phosphorus by weight. Chemical water conditioners which contain more than 20% phosphorus by weight are also banned.

Cleaning agents used for industrial processes and cleaning or for cleansing dairy equipment, which generally are controlled by permit, are not subject to the new law.

The second part of the new law provides that the Department of Natural Resources shall conduct a study to determine the effect of restricting the use of phosphates in laundry detergents on certain sample lakes in the state, including Lakes Michigan and Superior.

The DNR is to report its findings and recommendations to the State Legislature on January 1, 1982.

Some Campers Confused About Procedures Required to Make Campsite Reservations

Some campers appear to be confused about the procedures required to make an advance campsite reservation in Wisconsin state parks and forests.

Loren Thorson, chief of recreation programs for the Bureau of Parks, emphasized that advance campsite reservations in Department of Natural Resources operated campgrounds cannot be made by telephone.

"Many people call a state park to inquire about certain dates that reserved campsites would be available in the future, then further request the park superintendent to hold these dates until their written application reservation form is received," Thorson noted. "This is contrary to rules and regulations governing the campsite reservation program and park superintendents are without authority to make such tentative reservations."

"Reservations for campsites in state parks and forests are accepted only when requested on DNR campsite reservation forms," Thorson continued, "and they are filled in the order they are received at the park, either in the mail or delivered in person."

He emphasized that it is fine to call ahead to a park in advance of making a reservation to find out about openings which exist at that time, but remember, the site cannot be reserved for you until your written application is received at the park along with the required fees.

Another area of confusion on the part of some campers is that if there are reserved campsites in a state park or forest campground, all sites in that campground are reserved. Such is not the case. By law, Thorson reminded, at least 25 percent of the campsites in a campground must be available to the drive-in camper on a "first come-first served" basis and cannot be reserved. We are aware of a number of instances where campers hear that the reserved sites for a particular weekend or period of time are all taken in a campground, and conclude from that, they would have no opportunity to get into that campground during that period. They would still have an opportunity to get a first "first come-first served" site at that location.

Thorson also reminded campers that their application for a reserved campsite in a Wisconsin state park or forest must be received at the park or forest where the reservation is requested not less than seven (7) days in advance of the camping date.

Park officials anticipate that the 23,720 confirmed reservations made in 1978 will be exceeded this year. More than 13,000 confirmed reservations had been made through the end of May.

State's Cropland Needs More Conservation Treatment to Reduce Soil Erosion

Half of Wisconsin's cropland, forests, and pastures need increased conservation treatment to reduce soil erosion and improve water quality, said J. C. Hytry, State Conservationist for the USDA, Soil Conservation Service (SCS).

Recently released findings of SCS's national inventory of land resources indicated over 16 million acres of Wisconsin's non-federal land need conservation work.

More than 62 million tons of soil erode from Wisconsin's land yearly. Two-thirds of the erosion occurs on cropland.

"Erosion not only reduces the land's ability to grow crops now and in the future, but it is also one of the leading causes of water pollution," said Hytry.

Almost a third of Wisconsin is classed as prime farmland. Urban expansion converts over 40,000 acres of rural land annually. This land, often prime farmland, will probably never produce agricultural crops again, commented Hytry.

The SCS national resource inventories which cover all non-federal land in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the United States, except Alaska, are being conducted in three phases.

Phase I is completed. It inventoried land use and the degree of sheet and hill erosion that occurs on each land use.

Phase II, to be completed later this year, will include erosion levels from gullies, streambanks, roadsides, and construction sites.

The information for these resource inventories was developed on a sample basis, providing reliable data at the state level.

Minutes of Village Board Meetings

Mid-Monthly Meeting
June 18, 1979
8:00 P.M.

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in mid-monthly session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building.

President Robert Danielsen presided. Trustee David Nigh arrived at 8:55 p.m. All other Trustee members were present.

The minutes of the meeting of June 4 were approved as printed upon motion by Trustee Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Stollenwerk. Voice vote was unanimous.

The renewal application of Ralph E. Scott for a tavern license at 1310 Riverview Drive was discussed at length with Mr. Scott. Complaints had been received by the village about loud music and boisterous language coming from Mr. Scott's place of business. A group of east side residents presented to the Board a petition setting forth a series of demands that they thought Mr. Scott should abide by before being granted a license. The group of petitioners were not against the granting of the license but were opposed to the loud noise. Village Attorney Kiefer was present to provide legal advice for both the village and the petitioners. Mr. Scott promised to co-operate to the fullest extent possible.

Upon motion by Trustee Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Blumer and carried on a voice vote of 6 "Yes" and 0 "No," the renewal application of Ralph E. Scott for a Combination Class "B" Fermented Malt Beverage and Intoxicating Liquor license was approved and the Commissioner was authorized to issue the proper license upon payment of the required fee.

Trustee Daniel Schmidt was accorded a round of applause for the good work he did as Chairman of the Park Development Committee.

The following ordinance was introduced by Trustee Raynor Herriges:

ORDINANCE NUMBER 79-3 AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE USE OF RECREATIONAL VEHICLES AND "MINI BIKES"

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, does ordain as follows:

Section 1. Section 7.18 of the Code of the Village of Kewaskum is hereby created to read as follows:

7.18 RECREATIONAL VEHICLES AND MINI BIKES

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to drive or operate a recreational vehicle upon private or public property other than roads within the Village of Kewaskum. It shall be unlawful to operate a recreational vehicle on private or public property other than roads without first having obtained the written permission of the abutting property owners and of the owners of seventy-five percent (75%) of the land within Two Hundred (200) feet of the lot or parcel of land driven or operated upon. Copies of said written permission shall be filed by the driver or operator involved with the Police Department and shall be valid for One (1) Year from the date thereof.

Such written permission shall be signed by the owner or owners of the land involved and shall accurately describe the lands involved by address or otherwise.

Said written permission shall be revocable by the owner or owners of the land hereinbefore described.

(2) DEFINITION. For the purpose of this ordinance, a "recreational vehicle" shall be defined, but not limited to, any motorcycle, trailbike, mini bike, motorized bicycle, dune buggy, or similar vehicle constructed for use on terrains other than public roads. Snowmobiles are specifically excluded from this ordinance.

(3) PENALTY. Any person, firm, or corporation which shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a forfeiture of an amount not less than Ten Dollars ($10.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), together with costs of prosecution, and in default thereof, be imprisoned in the County Jail or House of Correction for a period not to exceed Thirty (30) days.

In addition, any vehicle used or operated in violation of this ordinance shall be impounded by the Kewaskum Police Department. Said vehicle shall not be released to the owner until such time as the forfeiture is paid to the Village or the charge dismissed.

Section 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances contravening the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

The vote for adoption was unanimous.

Trustee Mlodzik requested that his committee be granted additional time to study the charges made for the extension of sewer and water service on Werner Drive.

Supt. Bilgo requested that village property owners be made aware of the fact that when they install asphalt or concrete driveways that the village be notified so that the water stop boxes can be adjusted whenever they are in the driveway area.

Supt. Albers reported that the occasional odors at the waste water treatment plant were caused by a high percentage of lead in the waste intake which kills the bacteria which is needed in the treatment process.

Cong. Sensenbrenner Spending Recess Visiting District

Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Shorewood) Friday announced that he would spend the congressional recess (July 1 to July 8) by working within the Ninth Congressional District visiting all counties. He is scheduled to meet with local officials in many communities and has a number of interviews with newspapers and the broadcast media.

The Shorewood Republican was invited to, and participated in, several Independence Day parades, picnics and festivals.

Congressman Sensenbrenner returns to the district almost every weekend and will spend this recess and the entire August recess meeting with his constituency in an effort to keep informed on the concerns and views of the people regarding important national and international issues. He has held twenty-two town hall meetings since the first of the year and will hold an additional eight throughout July and August.
