The Kewaskum Area United

Way Board of Directors and Campaign Team expressed gratitude to all contributors, volunteers and division captains. Zarling expressed thanks in behalf of all those who will benefit from your contributions to the United Way.

Overnight Winter Parking Ban Recommended by Board

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

Now that the leaves are off the trees, the Kewaskum Village Board met on Monday, November 5, to once again discuss the proposed ordinance banning overnight parking and to discuss snow hauling. Tennis tournament awards were presented and some reports on the possibility of an extension of Reigle Drive and a railroad underpass were heard.

The subject of snow dominated the session as the board made a few revisions in a proposed ordinance banning parking on either side of any street during the hours of 2 a.m. to 6 a.m. from December 1 to April 1. Most board members were in favor of the ordinance which would only permit 20 minute parking during these hours and allow for more efficient plowing and hauling of snow at night. The fine for parking was recommended at $15 instead of the present $5 and could go as high as $500. During a declared snow emergency, the fine would range from $10 to $100. The towing away of cars would not be done except when the crew is out plowing or hauling snow. The police department did not wish to have its officers independently make the decision for towing of any vehicles violating the parking restrictions.

President Danielsen asked Supt. of Public Works Augie Bilgo about his feelings on allowing parking on one side of some streets. Bilgo preferred the total parking ban, since it would be difficult to determine which streets would be "one side parking." He further stated, "Any time you have an obstacle, it's a problem." Trustee Jerry Stollenwerk wanted to know if any undue hardships were caused by the ban last year. Administrator Dan Schmidt replied that only 30 cars were towed away last winter and there were no real hardships. Some people were allowed to use the parking lots at the bank and various churches. Adoption of the ordinance was postponed until the various revisions are made.

Chairman of the Public Works Committee, Don Mlodzik, suggested that private contractors should be enlisted for hauling away excess snow in order to take problems away from the village crew. The consensus of the board was summed up by Trustee Raynor Herges when he said, "I think it's everybody's responsibility to take care of his own snow." The village had once thought of charging businesses and those with large parking lots for hauling their snow but deemed this impractical since a method of determining fair charges would be difficult. The village wishes, however, to reduce the volume of snow which is pushed into the streets for the crew to haul away. It was decided after suggestions by Trustees Mlodzik and Dave Nigh that a notice be put in the paper and letters be sent to businessmen along Main Street and Fond du Lac Avenue, and to locations where snow tends to pile up, discouraging such street storage of snow and encouraging private contractors to haul. Stollenwerk also suggested that if a person requests the village to haul snow, the charges should be, "excessive enough that it will encourage them to get a private contractor."

Carl Spoeth, Chairman of the Parks and Recreation Committee, presented awards for the First Annual Kewaskum Tennis Tournament which was held in September. Among the first place winners who received plaques were: Mary Pat Thompson - women's singles; Bud Asch - men's singles; Phyllis Schmidt and Mary Pat Thompson - women's doubles; Mark Tessar and Dennis Westerman - men's doubles; Marge and Jan Rosenthal - mixed doubles. Spoeth and Danielsen congratulated the winners and thanked them for their participation. Spoeth promised, "There will be better things to come next year!"

Jerry Stollenwerk reported on the Plan Commission's proposal for an extension of Reigle Drive to the northwest around Regal Ware and exiting on Highway 45 just south of the creek near the northern village limits. An 80 foot wide street in that area would facilitate school and factory traffic. The commission made a recommendation to the board that a "study be made of the feasibility of the project and the possibility of securing options on any concerned land, and also for getting access onto

Fire Destroys House Trailer

Another suspicious fire in the Town of Farmington, which occurred at about 6 p.m. last Tuesday, gutted a mobile house trailer worth an estimated $16,500 at the Dennis Schade residence at 328 Kohler Road. Firefighters and sheriff's detectives were investigating.

It is believed that the blaze was not related to four recent barn fires in the area, which were thought to be caused by arson.

Schade said he had locked the two doors on the trailer but after the fire was put out by Fillmore fire fighters, deputies found the doors unlocked. Fillmore firemen believe the fire started in the back of the trailer either by someone who entered it or by a short circuit in the electrical wiring.

Four Heisdorf Grandchildren Receive First Communion on Same Day

Kewaskum Statesman, Friday, Nov. 9, 1979, Page 3

On Sunday, October 28, Mr. and Mrs. John Heisdorf, Sr., Route 2, Kewaskum, had the honor of having four of their grandchildren make their First Holy Communion at Holy Trinity Church, Kewaskum. This was a very rare occasion.

They were Daniel, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Heisdorf; Tracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knoeck; Randy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Romaine, and Timothy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Butschlick. Another granddaughter, Kristine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heisdorf, was the flower girl.

Most of the day was spent traveling from one house to another for breakfast, lunch and dinner. On Sunday, November 4, they were guests at the Butschlick home for Timmy's party.

In the Service

Marine 1st Lt. Paul C. Christian, whose wife, Deborah, is the daughter of Orval and Ruth Behnke of 130 Clinton, Kewaskum, recently participated in exercise "Kernel Portlatch II."

He is an officer assigned to the 11th Marine Amphibious Unit, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific, based at Camp Pendleton, California.

The two-week exercise, conducted on Vancouver Island, British Columbia, was designed to test and evaluate continental maritime defense procedures. It involved more than 45 ships, 150 aircraft and 40,000 personnel of the U.S. and Canadian naval, land and air forces.

The operation included an amphibious landing on Vancouver Island, while the naval forces practiced sea control. This was the first Pacific Fleet exercise in which Canadian army units have been embarked aboard U.S. amphibious ships. The exercise concluded with visits to Pacific Northwest ports.

A 1972 graduate of Neenah Senior High School, Neenah, and a 1975 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Platteville, with a Bachelor of Science degree, Christian joined the Marine Corps in March 1976.

'45'....and securing a method of crossing the railroad (the underpass) and later considering an extension of that route across the river at its narrowest point." Stollenwerk mentioned that obtaining lands may not be difficult since Regal Ware may donate some. Danielsen also noted that a "right of first refusal" might be obtained for the land presently owned by Sally Backhaus.

Administrator Schmidt reported that he had met with Leo Tieman, Assistant Division Manager of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, and was told that the railroad had no objections to an underpass in that area. A "shoe-fly" would have to be constructed to give trains an alternate track during any construction. An underpass may cost $500,000, and another difficulty may be the necessity of closing it for one to two weeks in the spring due to drainage problems. The board did authorize a feasibility study which would be presented to the Plan Commission and the Village Board.

The Second Street and "45" intersection improvement was scheduled to begin on Wednesday if paperwork is completed at Fairmont Foods' main offices.

Police Chief Hlavaty was authorized to make a 2-day study of the number of students - kindergarten through 6th grade - who use the Main Street crossings to see if an additional crossing guard is needed. A previous study had included high schoolers who may not be a direct concern of any crossing guard. Schmidt recommended that the extra guard idea be scrapped and the money used elsewhere, but several board members wished to have more data before making any decision.

Schmidt reported on the budget status, saying that revenue was $5,295 more than anticipated and expenditures were $15,138 more than anticipated as of September 30. Some increases in the utilities area were simply due to inflation. A sum of $181,000 from the state has not been received and should be forthcoming. For the village's liability insurance, an increase is due to a recently acquired umbrella policy.

The evaluation of village supervisory personnel was discussed. The various department heads receive their raises according to a point system based on overall performance. Some revisions in the evaluation forms were recommended as eliminating items on alertness, accuracy or appropriate dress. Spoeth suggested an additional item on the ability to direct people. Stollenwerk observed that he felt unqualified to rate these people on their performance, as he was not closely acquainted with them or their job. Danielsen said that the evaluations are to see if supervisors are doing their jobs (official job descriptions have not been received). He noted that there are no supervisors for the members of the village board.

In other action, the board granted a building permit to Steve Schmidt Development Company for a residence in Hon-E-Kor Estates. The board allowed the display of an Air Force recruiting sign near the tourist information sign by the fire station on a temporary basis. The painting of an emblem on the new Waste Water Treatment Department pickup truck was authorized as opposed to a decal. A Park Committee budget meeting was announced for November 12, at 7:00 p.m. Supt. of Wastewater Treatment Pete Albers reported that there was no word on the new dewatering equipment and that the telephone installation was the main snag in the monitoring system.

Girl Scouts Mourn Loss Of Leader

What Is a Girl Scout Leader?

By Barbara Karijelic

Girl Scout Leaders come in assorted sizes, weights and colors, but all have the same purpose to work toward the growth and development of girls into useful and productive citizens.

Girl Scout Leaders are found everywhere - at troop meetings, leaders' meetings, finance meetings; in tents, sleeping bags, or canoes; on buses, hiking, over a campfire, and are usually surrounded by girls.

Parents appreciate them and Girl Scouts look up to them.

A Girl Scout Leader needs the energy of an atom bomb, the lungs of an Ethel Merman, a mind of a steel trap, the patience of a saint, a strong shopping bag, and an understanding husband. She is teacher, coach, planner, organizer, motivator, coordinator, reviewer, and most of all, friend.

She likes "girls in green," the arts, the home, and the out-of-doors. She's not much for rudeness, cheating, laziness, or "gloomy Gusses" and does her best to change faults into virtues.

Nobody else can jam into one purse thirty permission slips, a first aid kit, candy for the troop, extra socks for wet feet, a nosebag lunch, and a thermos of coffee; plus lipstick, comb and assorted items her girls can't find room for in their purses.

A Girl Scout Leader is a special kind of woman - willing to give time and energy to guiding other people's children. Her reward comes not in dollar bills or even words of praise, but in seeing Girl Scouts keep the Promise and live the Law.

In fondest memory of Dottie Pettit (known to all Girl Scouts as Mrs. P). She was all of these things and more. She served Girl Scouting for over 20 years, in the Wau-Bun Council. At present she was leader of Junior Troop #17. She was also the Public Relations Representative for the Kewaskum area. She was also a First-Aider for many years, and also helped with Cadette Troop #72.

Because she was greatly loved by all, the Kewaskum, Farmington, and Wayne Girl Scouts are setting up a Memorial Fund in her name at the Valley Bank in Kewaskum. The funds will be used to build and dedicate an outdoor Chapel in her name at Camp Tiwaushara. This will be enjoyed by Scouts now and all Scouts in the future.

Village Board

'45'....and securing a method of crossing the railroad (the underpass) and later considering an extension of that route across the river at its narrowest point." Stollenwerk mentioned that obtaining lands may not be difficult since Regal Ware may donate some. Danielsen also noted that a "right of first refusal" might be obtained for the land presently owned by Sally Backhaus.

Administrator Schmidt reported that he had met with Leo Tieman, Assistant Division Manager of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, and was told that the railroad had no objections to an underpass in that area. A "shoe-fly" would have to be constructed to give trains an alternate track during any construction. An underpass may cost $500,000, and another difficulty may be the necessity of closing it for one to two weeks in the spring due to drainage problems. The board did authorize a feasibility study which would be presented to the Plan Commission and the Village Board.

The Second Street and "45" intersection improvement was scheduled to begin on Wednesday if paperwork is completed at Fairmont Foods' main offices.

Police Chief Hlavaty was authorized to make a 2-day study of the number of students - kindergarten through 6th grade - who use the Main Street crossings to see if an additional crossing guard is needed. A previous study had included high schoolers who may not be a direct concern of any crossing guard. Schmidt recommended that the extra guard idea be scrapped and the money used elsewhere, but several board members wished to have more data before making any decision.

Schmidt reported on the budget status, saying that revenue was $5,295 more than anticipated and expenditures were $15,138 more than anticipated as of September 30. Some increases in the utilities area were simply due to inflation. A sum of $181,000 from the state has not been received and should be forthcoming. For the village's liability insurance, an increase is due to a recently acquired umbrella policy.

The evaluation of village supervisory personnel was discussed. The various department heads receive their raises according to a point system based on overall performance. Some revisions in the evaluation forms were recommended as eliminating items on alertness, accuracy or appropriate dress. Spoeth suggested an additional item on the ability to direct people. Stollenwerk observed that he felt unqualified to rate these people on their performance, as he was not closely acquainted with them or their job. Danielsen said that the evaluations are to see if supervisors are doing their jobs (official job descriptions have not been received). He noted that there are no supervisors for the supervisors other than the members of the village board.

In other action, the board granted a building permit to Steve Schmidt Development Company for a residence in Hon-E-Kor Estates. The board allowed the display of an Air Force recruiting sign near the tourist information sign by the fire station on a temporary basis. The painting of an emblem on the new Waste Water Treatment Department pickup truck was authorized as opposed to a decal. A Park Committee budget meeting was announced for November 12, at 7:00 p.m. Supt. of Wastewater Treatment Pete Albers reported that there was no word on the installation date of the new dewatering equipment and that the telephone installation was the main snag in the monitoring system.

Girl Scouts Mourn Loss Of Leader

What Is a Girl Scout Leader?

By Barbara Karjick

Girl Scout Leaders come in assorted sizes, weights and colors, but all have the same purpose to work toward the growth and development of girls into useful and productive citizens.

Girl Scout Leaders are found everywhere - at troop meetings, leaders' meetings, finance meetings; in tents, sleeping bags, or canoes; on buses, hiking, over a campfire, and are usually surrounded by girls.

Parents appreciate them and Girl Scouts look up to them.

A Girl Scout Leader needs the energy of an atom bomb, the lungs of an Ethel Merman, a mind of a steel trap, the patience of a saint, a strong shopping bag, and an understanding husband. She is teacher, coach, planner, organizer, motivator, coordinator, reviewer, and most of all, friend.

She likes "girls in green," the arts, the home, and the out-of-doors. She's not much for rudeness, cheating, laziness, or "gloomy Gusses" and does her best to change faults into virtues.

Nobody else can jam into one purse thirty permission slips, a first aid kit, candy for the troop, extra socks for wet feet, a nosebag lunch, and a thermos of coffee; plus lipstick, comb and assorted items her girls can't find room for in their purses.

A Girl Scout Leader is a special kind of woman - willing to give time and energy to guiding other people's children. Her reward comes not in dollar bills or even words of praise, but in seeing Girl Scouts keep the Promise and live the Law.

In fondest memory of Dottie Pettit (known to all Girl Scouts as Mrs. P). She was all of these things and more. She served Girl Scouting for over 20 years, in the Wau-Bun Council. At present she was leader of Junior Troop #17. She was also the Public Relations Representative for the Kewaskum area. She was also a First-Aider for many years, and also helped with Cadette Troop #72.

Because she was greatly loved by all, the Kewaskum, Farmington, and Wayne Girl Scouts are setting up a Memorial Fund in her name at the Valley Bank in Kewaskum. The funds will be used to build and dedicate an outdoor Chapel in her name at Camp Tiwaushara. This will be enjoyed by Scouts now and all Scouts in the future.

IN MEMORY OF DOTTIE PETTIT

Little we knew when we awoke
The sorrow the day would bring.
The call was sudden, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear.
You bid no one a last farewell,
Nor even said goodbye.
You were gone before we knew
And only God knows why.
It only takes a little space,
To write how much we miss you,
But it will take the rest of our lives
To forget the day we lost you.

A Dealer You Can Trust

Seeing IS Believing

On the front of every Volcano is an inspection port with a swing away cover, through which the observer sees a sheet of bright orange & blue flame sweeping over and around wide, flat steel surfaces of hollow crossflow baffles. He sees the heart of the Volcano, and the significant difference that makes it the most sophisticated wood burner in the world. This sheet of flame (gases burning in the secondary combustion chamber) superheats room-heating, fan-forced air ducted around the firebox and through the hollow baffles.

- 1 A precisely controlled volume of combustion air is pre-heated and
- 2 ducted evenly through the primary firebox
- 3 As hot fresh air is introduced to the secondary firebox to
- 4 ignite escaping gases in a super hot flame
- 5 permitting little fuel loss out the chimney
- 6 Cool air near the floor is fan forced
- 7 through hot air jacket & hollow baffles and
- 8 exhausted into room or into hot air system

This intense secondary burn, observable and fascinating to watch on every Volcano, demonstrates Volcano's lead in woodfiring technology.

When hooked to forced air or hot water systems (hydronic models available), the Volcano literally provides all the heat a homeowner needs with measurably less wood consumption than even the most modern of competitor stoves. Inside, the Volcano is as new as tomorrow, with the outward appearance of the Quaker Box Stove of yesteryear.

25 Years Ago

November 12, 1954

Peter Dreiling, Sr., 70, a farmer residing on the north end of Beechwood in the Town of Scott, died November 11, of injuries he suffered in a fall from the roof of his home on November 10. Mr. Dreiling was working on the chimney of his home.

Miss Joan Mary Koepke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koepke, Route 3, Kewaskum, near Wayne, became the bride of Vernon A. Buslaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Almon Buslaff, Campbellsport, on November 6.

Sylvester Ruplinger, 19, of Kewaskum, was one of seven Washington County men to be inducted into the armed forces last week. All of the group volunteered for induction.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hammer, Kewaskum, on Monday, November 8. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Neitzel, Kewaskum, November 6, and to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thorn, Route 2, Kewaskum, on November 9. A son, Robert Alois, was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wietor, Campbellsport, on October 29. The Wietors are former residents of Wayne.

50 Years Ago

November 9, 1929

At a meeting held by the members of the Kewaskum Fire Department, plans were made on buying a new fire and chemical engine of the latest type and make. The reason for the purchasing of a new engine is due to the fact that the old one, which is not mounted on a motor driven truck, and which has been in use for many years, has about served its purpose, and it is feared that in case of a large fire it will not stand the strain. The new engine is one on which the fire engine and chemical engine, together with 1000 ft. of 1½ inch hose are mounted on one motor driven truck, which will be a quicker and easier way of getting to a fire. According to present plans, all farmers living within a radius of five miles will be asked to contribute a certain amount of money towards the purchase of the engine. Should the property owners in the rural districts agree to this plan they will in turn receive the help of the local department in case of fire which according to present ruling of the city ordinance cannot be done as the fire department is not allowed to take the fire fighting apparatus outside the city limits.

At a meeting held last week by a number of young men of this village, a city basketball team was organized. Dr. E. L. Nolting was elected manager and Norbert Becker, assistant manager.

Frank Turk, who formerly conducted a soft drink parlor at New Fane, now owned and managed by Lawrence Corbett, is now located at Beechwood, where he has opened a soft drink parlor in the former Gatzke place.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Liepert of New Fane are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl born to them November 1.

The engagement of Miss Rosalia Pflum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Pflum to Paul Kohler was announced in the Holy Trinity Church last Sunday.

75 Years Ago

November 12, 1904

Carl Miritz's residence on Prairie Street in Kewaskum came near to being destroyed by fire on November 4. Mrs. Miritz noticed smoke in the house and upon investigating found a box full of excelsior in the garret smoldering. She called Charles Raether and the fire was promptly put out.

Miss Marvin of the Wisconsin Free Library Commission of Madison, was in the village Wednesday to interest our citizens in establishing a free public library here.

The marriage of Bastian Pflum of Kewaskum and Miss Witteman of West Bend, was announced at the Holy Trinity Church on November 6.

On Saturday afternoon, November 5, smoke was noticed issuing from the roof of J. Strong's barn in Boltonville. An alarm was given and neighbors hastened to the assistance of the latter. Upon arriving at the scene it was found that no blaze had started, but the corn-fodder was so intensely heated that it had to be removed from the barn at once. But for the timely aid of the surrounding neighbors the barn would no doubt have been burned to the ground.

"A diamond with a flaw is better than a common stone that is perfect."

COMPANIES PROPOSE DOING AWAY WITH TOLL-FREE SERVICE Telephone Hearings to Be Held Statewide

At a Public Service Commission hearing held in Madison, the majority of telephone companies proposed doing away with all toll-free phone service for all calls made by subscribers in Wisconsin. They presented expert economists and engineers as witnesses to strengthen their position and stated at the hearing that toll calls will bring in more revenue from telephone subscribers.

"They expressed no interest in the sociological impact this will have on citizens and communities that must function from day to day," said Bernice Popelka, West Bend, President of the Wisconsin Citizens' Telephone Coalition. "Therefore, it is necessary that we show the PSC our needs, our community-of-interest."

In order to do this citizens must personally attend one of the eight different hearings to be held throughout the state:

November 12 — In Waukesha, County Office Building - 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

November 13 — In Oshkosh, County Court House - 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

November 14 — In Wausau, Job Service Center - 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

November 15 — In La Crosse,

County Court House - 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The Wisconsin Citizens' Telephone Coalition is inviting the people to come one-half hour before each session for details on the session they are attending.

"Many people have expressed to us their dissatisfaction with telephone service in the State of Wisconsin. Their right to communicate as citizens in a free society is being hampered by denial of flat-rate extended area service and optional metroplan. Now the situation is about to get worse. It is time people personally tell the PSC, or we shall soon lose that right," said Mrs. Popelka.

POST OFFICE LOBBY OPEN VETERANS DAY

The Kewaskum Post Office will be partially closed on Monday, November 12, in observance of Veterans Day, a legal holiday.

The service counter will be closed, but local customers will be able to get their mail as the lobby will remain open from 6:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. There will be no rural delivery but mail will be dispatched.

Governor Dreyfus
Proclaims Nov. 15
As Smokeout Day

Thursday, November 15, has been proclaimed Great American Smokeout Day by Lee Sherman Dreyfus, Governor of Wisconsin. The Smokeout, sponsored by the American Cancer Society, is one day to quit smoking.

Governor Dreyfus stated in his proclamation that because "during the past two years, millions of smokers have enjoyed participating in the Great American Smokeout...and whereas thousands of these participants were residents of this state, and a substantial number of those who gave up cigarettes for the day were able to give up the habit entirely; and whereas this demonstration of success suggests that the Great American Smokeout, while light-hearted in approach, has potential to foster and promote improved health for individuals within our state," he was proclaiming November 15 as Great American Smokeout Day.

Volunteers for the American Cancer Society will be conducting special events and education programs centered around the Smokeout throughout the state. Quit Clinics are scheduled in Appleton, Eagle River, Madison, and Medford. A training session for ex-smokers who would like to learn how to lead Quit Clinics is planned for Saturday, November 17, at Richland Hospital in Richland Center.

In Fond du Lac, Moraine Park Technical Institute's students will be encouraging local residents to quit smoking for one day. Lincoln County volunteers are involving all the high schools, grade schools, large businesses, and the hospital in Smokeout efforts.

CESA #14 in Grant and Lafayette Counties is promoting the Smokeout in every school district.

Pledge cards, posters, payroll stuffers, and other support materials are available. For more information, contact your local American Cancer Society or call 1-608-249-0487.

Hephner Blasts Assembly for Not Including Financial Aid for Woodburning Stoves

(MADISON)--The Assembly's failure this week to include financial assistance for woodburning stoves and furnaces was blasted today by State Representative Gervase Hephner (D-Chilton) as "shortsighted and not in the best interests of Wisconsin."

Hephner was the leader in several attempts to have the incentives added to the major alternative energy bill (AB 777) which was debated extensively on the floor of the Assembly. Although there was considerable bipartisan support for the amendments, each was defeated by only a few votes. The closeness of the votes may be a source for some optimism when the bill comes before the State Senate for debate in January, 1980. Hephner indicated that attempts will be made to amend the bill there.

The Chilton lawyer was critical of the opponents of woodburning aids and expressed disappointment that supporters must now wait months before attempting to get the aid included in a Senate amendment.

"People in the rural areas and small towns of our state can understand the need for this kind of incentive. There is justifiable reason to force the issue again when the bill comes before the State Senate," he said.

Hephner also questioned the apparent priority of legislators who supported aid to solar energy development while opposing it for woodburning devices. He cited statistics showing that much of this financial assistance has gone for heating swimming pools. According to the Alternative Energy Program Coordinator, 52 solar heated swimming pools have been certified for aid. The average income tax or direct refund benefit was $825.

"Instead of using state money to help the rich heat their swimming pools, we should be providing seriously needed aid to people to heat their homes," Hephner said.

He also indicated that wood compares favorably with other fuels in terms of heat value. Studies indicate that use of woodburning devices could significantly reduce consumption of heating oil. It is estimated that one cord of wood is equivalent in value to as much as 200 gallons of #2 fuel oil.

Hephner noted that increased use of woodburning stoves and furnaces would also serve to make fuel oil more available for farmers and businesses.

"The benefits of encouraging woodburning use in our state are many. The Assembly's total failure to recognize this fact is a sad commentary on their mixed-up priorities," he said.

Hephner emphasized that efforts will be made to "correct" this unfortunate oversight" before the bill is signed into law by working with the Senate.

Energy Conservation: What Next?

As the days become shorter and cooler, we hear the term "energy conservation" used more often, especially since home fuel costs are at an all-time high. Just in the past year, home heating oil has almost doubled in price. Last winter, the average homeowner with a 1400-square-foot house paid $650 in oil bills; this winter, he will pay about $1,020.

People's anger at this trend was reflected in more than 100 cities in 35 states recently, in the biggest demonstrations against the oil companies ever held. Congress is now considering several proposals to stimulate domestic energy production and develop alternative energy sources, so U.S. dependence on foreign oil can be reduced. But in the meantime, we must place more emphasis on individual efforts by all of us to conserve the energy we have.

In 1978, Congress created an income tax credit amounting to 15 percent of the first $2,000 homeowners spend on energy-saving materials, such as insulation and thermal windows. The maximum credit is $300.

But this law has been criticized as too weak, with too many loopholes and having too little inducement for homeowners to take advantage of it. As a result, there are many proposals in Congress to expand it in different ways -- such as a 50% credit with a $2,000 maximum, extending it to vacation and second homes, and extending it to replacement furnace units (including coal-fired and wood-burning stoves).

Other Congressional proposals to promote energy conservation include a House bill to provide grants and loans for energy-saving improvements to homes and small businesses, another to require retrofitting of homes with energy-saving devices before it may be sold, and another to require utility company inspections of homes which are for sale, to be provided along with recommendations for energy-saving improvements to prospective buyers.

These are just some of the ideas being bounced around in Congress to address the problems of energy conservation. The American people no longer need to be convinced that conservation of energy will save them money, as well as fuel. It is estimated that Americans waste up to 50 percent of the energy they use. We must cut down on this consumption -- for the benefit of our pocketbooks and our country, too.

Campaign Committee For Bliss Announced

Diane L. Bliss, candidate for the 53rd Assembly District, today announced the formation of a campaign committee. "Citizens for Diane L. Bliss" will be chaired by Jerome Vander Heyden, and Dan Coulter will serve as Treasurer.

Vander Heyden, owner of Jerry's Restaurant in West Bend, is a longtime resident of the area. His past political activities include serving in leadership positions in the successful campaigns of former West Bend Mayor Ralph Schoenhaar, and current Washington County Clerk George Nehrbass. He also serves as chairman of the City of West Bend Police and Fire Commission.

Coulter, owner of Coulter Realty, is a realtor in Dodge, Fond du Lac and Washington Counties. He is originally from the Town of Wayne, and is currently serving as President of the Washington County Board of Realtors. He is also serving on the Board of Directors of the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce.

The steering committee is formed, and the finance committee will be underway shortly. "Citizens for Diane L. Bliss" will be a broad based committee, with leaders from throughout the district. The committee will emphasize the need for representation from various geographical elements.

The 53rd Assembly District includes the cities of Mayville, Waupun and West Bend, and parts of Fond du Lac, Dodge and Washington Counties.

HUNTING SAFETY TIPS

Darold A. Treffert, M.D., President
State Medical Society of Wisconsin

Last year in Wisconsin, four hunters were fatally shot and six others died of heart attacks during the opening weekend of the gun deer hunting season. The 1979 deer hunting season will soon be here, and a repeat of this tragic loss of life can be averted if hunters follow some basic safety rules suggested by the American Heart Association:

-Treat every fire arm as a loaded weapon. The only safe safety is an open action.

-Be sure of your target.

-Make certain that the muzzle of your gun is always pointed in a safe direction, especially during loading and unloading.

-Exercise year round. Don't wait until opening day to find out what kind of physical shape you're in. Check with your doctor on your physical condition.

-Plan your hunt. Know the location of the nearest phone, doctor, ranger station or Fish and Game Department personnel.

-Inform family and friends where you'll be hunting.

-Take plenty of short rests and avoid unnecessary exertion.

-Hunt at a steady, unhurried pace.

-Keep an eye on the weather. Don't try to do as much in hot, humid weather as in cool weather.

-Limit your drinking. Alcohol affects physical stamina, judgment and perception. Higher altitudes may lower your tolerance to alcohol.

-Eat moderately. Take a rest or nap after each meal.

-The hunter with a known heart condition should make certain at least one member of the party knows of his condition, what medicine he takes and how to administer it. He should never hunt alone.

-Report any violators you see to the nearest warden or law enforcement officer before another accident occurs.

If someone in your hunting party does suffer a heart attack, follow these procedures:

-Contact a doctor immediately. Don't let the patient walk. If you are unsuccessful in getting help to come to you, make a litter and carry the patient where he can get medical attention.

-Help the patient into a position that is most comfortable for him. Most Likely this will be halfway between lying and sitting. He may have difficulty breathing if he lies flat.

-Loosen tight clothing such as belts or collars.

-Make sure the patient does not become chilled, but don't induce sweating with too many blankets.

-Don't give the patient anything to drink without the doctor's advice.

You can make sure that this hunting season will be a happy and safe one by following these stated precautions.

WAUKESHA COUNTY
MILWAUKEE COUNTY

KENOSHA COUNTY

Southeast District

Pheasant hunting opening day success was fair on public hunting grounds in Racine, Kenosha and Walworth Counties and poor because of heavy rain in Washington and Sheboygan Counties.

Additional cock pheasants are to be stocked periodically during the season on state wildlife areas.

A substantial buildup of Canada geese is occurring on the Theresa Marsh in Washington and Dodge Counties providing good goose viewing opportunities and some goose hunting on the marsh and on adjoining private lands. Duck hunting has been poor throughout the district with little evidence of northern ducks coming in.

Squirrel hunting has been generally good throughout the district.

Inland water fishing for both game and panfish has been generally good with some good catches of perch coming from Sheboygan County waters.

Anglers are again reminded that it is unlawful to snag trout and salmon in the Root River in Racine County and in the Port Washington Harbor and in Sauk County in Port Washington.

Dodge County — The Canada goose census on October 24 indicated a population of 47,550 birds remaining at Horicon. Best viewing continues to be along Highway 49 near Waupun and on private lands adjoining the National Wildlife Refuge.

Fishing remains good on Beaver Dam Lake for walleyes and crappies. Some large walleyes, six to eight pounds, are being taken from Fox Lake.

Fond du Lac County — Duck hunting on Lake Winnebago is excellent. Some large flights of bluebills and canvasbacks are noted. Goose hunting is excellent at Eldorado. Hunters continue to encounter some late flights of mallards feeding in the corn fields in the Brandon and Alto areas. Walleye fishing is good offshore on the south end of Lake Winnebago. Squirrel hunting is excellent on small woodlots throughout the county.

Germantown Dominates

Tim Peterson Named to Scenic All-Conference Squad; Tim Davis, Rod Schultz Second Team Picks

Germantown's undefeated Scenic Moraine champions, who beat Burlington in the WIAA Division II semi-final playoffs at Oconomowoc last Saturday, 28-14, and advanced to the final against the other winner, Beaver Dam, this weekend, dominated the all-conference football team selected Monday night at Slinger.

Nine Germantown players were picked for the first all-conference team. Heading the list was three-year regular Jerry Vance at quarterback, one of the unanimous choices, together with defensive end John Kaiser of Hartland and defensive back Chris Heller of Grafton. Germantown's lineman Chuck Kunde and end Mike Francolucci were picked on both the offensive and defensive units, as was Hartland's Kaiser.

Vance, billed as one of the top quarterbacks in the state, did everything offensively for the Warhawks. He also was the conference's leading rusher with 762 yards in 113 carries for a fine 6.7 average. He scored 64 points to tie with Grafton's John Brewster. Hartland's John Hackbarth was the second leading rusher with over 700 yards.

Repeaters on the squad were backs Dave Hillen of Pewaukee and Lucky Wurtz of Mayville and Chris Heller of Grafton.

Kewaskum had a pleasant surprise in Tim Peterson's selection on the first team as a defensive lineman. Tim, 5-11, and 165, was named along with two giants, 6-3, 215, Jeff Lemirande of Grafton and 6-2, 195, Gary Hella of Germantown. Peterson was in on 72 tackles and was the second leading scorer for the Indians, outstanding for a lineman. Besides he played with injuries in several games.

A disappointment was Rod Schultz not repeating as a defensive back. He was a second team choice and also in the offensive backfield. Schultz had 418 yards in 83 carries in six games for a 5.0 average.

Kewaskum's Tim Davis was a second team offensive guard pick. He was tabbed as the best lineman the Indians had, who was good at pulling and leading.

Kewaskum also got four honorable mentions in Joel Herriges at quarterback, Peterson at center, Tom Kern at defensive end and Bruce Keller at linebacker.

KHS Spikers Lose In Sub-regional

In sub-regional volleyball competition between Slinger and Kewaskum at Slinger last Tuesday afternoon, the Owl girls took the match, winning two games by identical 15-13 scores. Slinger thus advanced to regional action Saturday at Horicon.

Indian coach Jane Vesper, who was disappointed with the loss, praised Janet Matenaer for playing a good all-around game. Donna Menzel led Kewaskum in scoring and Lisa Kempf also did well. Barb Karius and Vicky Zaleski stood out for the Owls. Vesper said her girls did not play good volleyball and made mistakes.

Slinger, which started the season slow, made it five out of their last seven matches with the victory over Kewaskum. The loss brought a halt to the Indian girls' season. Last year they made it all the way to the sectionals.
