New Fane Pastor To Leave

Rev. Arthur Haupt

For twenty-one years the Rev. Arthur Haupt has served as the pastor of St. John Lutheran Church, New Fane. During those years he has come to know and love many people in this area. Recently, he received a call from Grace Lutheran Church, San Diego, California, to become the assistant pastor with the principal responsibility of serving as counselor to the 600 residents in the three fifteen-story apartments housing senior citizens and which are owned and operated by that parish.

Appoint Hensen Postmaster at Campbellsport

Appointment of Richard J. Hensen as Postmaster at Campbellsport, effective December 15, 1979, was announced by John P. Doran, Regional Postmaster General for the 13-state Central Region.

Hensen began his postal career as a Distribution Clerk at the Campbellsport Post Office in 1957 and has been there ever since. Hensen graduated from the Campbellsport High School and has resided in the community all of his life. He is married and has four children.

Postmasters are selected on merit, based on recommendations by a management selection board, and appointed by the Postmaster General. Appointments are not subject to Senate confirmation.

Hensen succeeds Lee Anderson, who retired.

The pastor and his wife wish to take this opportunity to thank all the fine people of this area for the kindness, good will, and friendship which they have been privileged to enjoy while living in this area.

Pastor Haupt, his wife Marian and son Peter, will be leaving for San Diego sometime after Sunday, December 16, which will be his final service at St. John Church, New Fane. There will be a potluck dinner following that service, during which the people will be able to bid the pastor and his family farewell.

Olde House Goes Out of Business

The Olde House Antique and Gift Shop, Kewaskum, has discontinued its business. Elaine (Mrs. Erwin) Bullette, who was owner and manager of the Shop for the past six years, wishes to thank all those who patronized her during this time.

With the Bullettes living at Horicon, the energy crisis was a big factor in her decision to cease the business. Mrs. Bullette plans on opening an antique and gift shop at Horicon as soon as accommodations are available.

The Bullettes, former residents, moved to Horicon when Mr. Bullette accepted the position of Chief of Police there. They sold their home in Kewaskum to their son and daughter-in-law, Tim and Kim Bullette, and will not be returning to Kewaskum.

Area Man Held In Barn Fires

A 23-year-old Boltonville area man made his initial appearance before Circuit Judge Richard T. Becker in West Bend last Wednesday afternoon to answer two counts of arson involving barn fires in the Town of Farmington.

He was arrested Tuesday afternoon after he had voluntarily come to the Sheriff's Department to answer questions by detectives.

The criminal complaint charges the man with setting fire to a barn on the Earl Zimdahl Sr. farm at 9226 State 84 on or about October 26, and a barn on the Donald Mueller farm at 8815 Fillmore Road in the Town of Farmington on or about October 24.

Each charge carries a maximum penalty of 20 years imprisonment. The man was returned to jail after Circuit Judge Becker set an unusually high bail of $7,500 cash. District Attorney Fred A. Fink Jr. had asked for $10,000 cash bail due to the severity of the charges.

State Public Defender Kenneth Guy had asked for a lower bail because the man is a lifelong resident of the county living with his parents and holding a job near Kewaskum.

The suspect is also believed to have burned his own 1975 pickup truck on September 11 on County M in the Town of Farmington.

The man is reported to have

Town of Kewaskum Tax Rate Up Slightly

The Town of Kewaskum residents will receive their tax bills after Christmas this year. Bills will reflect very little increases over last year's amount.

The net increase in the tax rate amounts to 8 cents. The breakdown is as follows: State Tax .36 (32 in 1978), County Tax $4.92 ($4.60), Town Tax $1.79 ($1.54), Moraine Park Technical Institute Tax $1.90 ($1.99), and School District of Kewaskum $16.81 ($17.08). Tax credit on real estate and personal property (line B) will be $2.01 ($1.84), leaving a net tax of $23.77 ($23.69 in 1978).

The assessment of the Town rose this year from $15,688,476 to $16,039,650. Line A personal property assessments were reduced to 50% of full value, in accordance with state law. Line A personal property will be on the assessment roll only one more year, to be phased out entirely in 1981. In addition to having the assessments reduced to 50% of value, this section of personal property received an 80% tax credit.

been one of the prime suspects in the barn fires since the beginning of the investigation. Detectives originally questioned him shortly after the fires and became suspicious when they found inconsistencies in the story he gave them on his whereabouts on the nights of the fires.

The case was adjourned to 4:30 p.m. Thursday when a preliminary hearing was scheduled.

An investigation is also continuing into two barn fires in Sheboygan and Ozaukee counties that occurred around the same time and a series of barn fires that occurred in the Hartford-Hustisford area in early September.

Girl Scouts Spread Christmas Cheer

The Christmas season is traditionally a very busy season of the year. Well it is no different for the Kewaskum area Girl Scouts. They have been very busy spreading holiday cheer in all directions.

Brownie Troop no. 95 and Cadette Troop no. 72 from Kewaskum have made 212 pine cone Christmas trees for the sisters at St. Joseph's convent at Campbellsport, and delivered them in person. Cadette Troop no. 72 is also planning an International Round Robin for December 17.

Junior Troop no. 53 from Kewaskum has planned a special Christmas program that they will present for all the residents of the Hope Nursing Home in Lomira.

Junior Troop no. 74, also from Kewaskum has made beautiful white yarn wreaths to present to their parents for decorations at home. They will also attend the Girl Scout Christmas Party.

Brownie Troop no. 186 from Farmington made pencil holders that they gave to all the patients at the Beechwood Rest Home. They also made surprise gifts that they presented to their teachers at school. They will have a Christmas Party on December 18 where they will exchange homemade gifts.

Junior Troop no. 145 from Farmington is planning to go Christmas caroling in the Whitewood subdivision on December 19. After caroling they will stop at the home of Jill Braun, one of the girls in the troop, and have their Christmas Party.

Brownie Troop no. 222 from Wayne made gifts for their parents and also some Christmas ornaments that they can each hang on their family Christmas tree. They will have their party on December 13, where they will exchange gifts. I have also been told that Santa plans to stop in at their party to talk to the girls.

Junior Troop no. 223 from Wayne payed a visit to the residents of the Samaritan Home in West Bend on December 10. They visited with the patients and presented them with pine cone ornaments and fuzzy little butterflies. They also made gifts for their parents. They will exchange gifts at the party with Brownie Troop no. 222.

I am sure with all these young people so busy spreading warm wishes, this holiday season will be just a little brighter for many people who may otherwise have been forgotten. Now from all the Girl Scouts and leaders from the Kewaskum area, I would like to wish everyone a very Happy and Blessed Christmas!

Judy Goetsch, Leader

Campus Notes

A drama production, "Waiting for Godot," was presented by the Ripon College Drama Department at 8:15 p.m. on December 6, 7, 8 and 9 in the Benstead Theatre of the C. J. Rodman Center for the Arts on the Ripon College campus.

"Time" becomes the obsession of the characters in this production. How to pass the time, even though the situation is hopeless, is skillfully drawn by the playwright, Samuel Beckett.

The play was directed by a Ripon College senior, Michael C. Hanes. A drama and art major, Hanes is from Barrington, Illinois.

The cast, also made up of students except for the character of "A Boy," included Kurt E. Zarling, a second semester freshman from Kewaskum, playing GoGo. Kurt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Zarling of P.O. Box 219, Kewaskum.

Two University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire music students, Karla Hatcher, Strum, and Gay Noree Olson, Kewaskum, presented a joint junior music recital at 5 p.m. Monday, December 10, in the Phillips Recital Hall of the Fine Arts Center.

The program included such works as "Rhapsody for Bassoon" by Willson Osborne; "Andante and Scherzo" by J. Dere; and "Cassazione Quartet" by Mozart. The two were assisted by five UW-EC students.

Hatcher, a clarinet student of UW-EC music faculty member Dr. Donald George, has performed with the UW-Eau Claire Symphony Band, Clarinet Choir, Women's Chorus I and Marching Band. Olson, a bassoon student of UW-EC music faculty member Dr. Leo Christy, has participated in Symphony Band, Symphony Orchestra, Marching Band, and Varsity Band.

The recital and a reception which followed were free and open to the public.

Director of CETA Programs Speaker at Kiwanis Meeting

By DAN MEILAHN
Statesman Staff Writer

The guest speaker at Monday night's Kewaskum Kiwanis Club meeting at Hon-E-Kor was Leonard F. Cors, the Director of CETA programs for the Washington, Ozaukee and Waukesha County area. After first commenting on the rare sense of camaraderie of the local service organization, Cors proceeded to define CETA as the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act. He said it was a "federally funded program that sponsors employment and training programs in local areas." It essentially functions for low income people to give them training, work skills, and an upgraded education for jobs.

Cors outlined the history of CETA. In the 1960's, there were several man-power training programs such as the Man-power Development and Training Act, the Economic Opportunity Act, and the Work Incentive program whose services duplicated each other. In 1974, Congress decided to eliminate some of the resultant confusion and passed the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act to bring some coherency to the myriad employment services. Grants were given to 405 local areas, or prime sponsors, throughout the nation. Wisconsin has 10 prime sponsors, and in this area, Washington, Ozaukee and Waukesha counties applied jointly to be a local sponsor of the funds. A local planning council (which presently includes Marvin Martin), comprised of labor, business, and school agencies decides what sort of employment is needed in the area, which jobs cannot find skilled workers, and what population groups are most in need of employment. Each sponsor is accountable to the federal government as to how it utilizes the funds. Locally, the three county boards are responsible for the use of the funds.

This area was originally allotted $3 million while on the national level it involved $5 billion. Cors noted that the image of CETA somewhat suffered in its early days due to the tremendous amount of money involved. The management of the huge funds was a difficult task. Most jobs at that time were in public service, and CETA got the erroneous image of a program that just gave out jobs during the accompanying recession or that the funds were used for jobs that should have been funded by local tax dollars. Cors stated that the program now has tried to become much more comprehensive. For instance, in 1976 and 1977 there was an impetus for a youth program, since unemployment among youth was higher. Of last year's $6 million budget at the local level, $3 million was for the public service jobs and $1.5 million was to provide jobs for low income youth during the summer as well as the school year. There was an emphasis on positive work habits and attitudes. More recently there is an emphasis on jobs in the private sector with a cutback in the public service area. Besides stressing specific work skills, these training programs once again emphasize motivation and attitudinal development. Cors also mentioned that the more comprehensive nature of CETA is presently accomplished by local planning councils having representation from different geographical areas, interest groups, youth, and private industry. He concluded that Ceta programs were "...serving many people, giving them skills and attitudinal development over a number of years. We'd like to continue that and...spread the word and work with you on a cooperative basis to do what we can do to make it a very successful program."

The Kiwanians then asked questions and Cors responded: What is CETA spending on the national level?

Cors replied that the budget was down from $11 billion last year to $9 billion this year.

Did CETA replace the agencies it was supposed to?

Cors replied that some were incorporated into CETA but some such as WIN are still not.

Where are the public service jobs in this area?

Cors responded that some were in county, city, village and town government or other non-profit agencies such as the United Way. The Threshold, Inc. was a local agency with some CETA employees. Roy Esser noted that three CETA workers are employed in the Kewaskum School District. Cors continued that hospitals and nursing homes have CETA employees and emphasized that CETA jobs were of a temporary nature. Presently they may not last more than 18 months and hopefully only from 1 to 4 months before the person engages in more permanent Employment.

Do CETA sponsored personnel sometimes receive higher pay than regular and more qualified personnel?

Cors stressed that people are paid according to local personnel policies and sometimes at a lower wage than regular employees as an incentive to acquire a more permanent higher paying job.

How does CETA adjust the work attitude of potential employees?

Sometimes mere placement and close supervision with feedback is enough, replied Cors. Employers or professionals may come to attitude training sessions and tell exactly what's expected on the job. Attendance and punctuality are monitored, and some people may be screened out of the programs.

What percentage of CETA funds are for administration and for employees?

Cors explained that of $9 billion in federal funds, 12% goes for administration, while a total of 30% goes for both administration and training combined. 60-65% goes directly to employees.

Has anyone monitored CETA's success at offsetting unemployment?

Cors stated that the current Secretary of Labor claimed CETA reduced unemployment by 1%, which involves a lot of people. If CETA were not in existence, welfare payments and unemployment compensation would be triple the present cost of CETA. Here Cors added that two new agencies in CETA involve foundry personnel and a national youth program.

Where are the training programs run?

Some are accomplished right in factories after hours and emphasize attitudes as well as skills very effectively. Others are in vocational schools, or employers may be reimbursed $10-$15 daily to train a CETA person.

Are there any excess funds? Cors responded that in this area, sometimes the unemployed are more difficult to locate, and that last year, 15% of the allocation was turned back. He pointed out that there was a 50% success rate at getting people through programs, employed, and retained for at least 60 days. "Our objective is to get people ready for employment and out into employment and make stable employees." He felt the 50% success rate was a definite service to the society.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Walter and Lorinda Gatzke, Route 2, Campbellsport, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, November 25 with a dinner and dance for about 500 guests at Amerahn, Kewaskum.

They were married November 23, 1929 at St. John's Lutheran Church, New Fane, by Rev. Carl Gutekunst. Attendants at the wedding were Elsie (Gatzke) Muench, the late Hilda (Gatzke) Jansen, Howard Briese and Edward Metzger. The flower girl was the late Grace (Briese) Brendt.

The former Lorinda Ramel was born August 31, 1911 in the Town of Auburn. Gatzke was born January 9, 1980, also in the Town of Auburn. The couple farmed all their married life and Walter also worked at Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum, for 20 years. The Gatzkes have been in the honey business for many years. She is a lover of flowers and the bees and he does his yard work and maintains the honey business.

The couple has three sons, Walter Jr. at home, Lloyd (Joyce Ludwig), West Bend, and Lewis (Evelyn Lavrenz) Kewaskum. They also have ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Gatzke had her wedding dress of fifty years ago on display at the celebration which she had made and which was styled with 13,000 beads all sewn on by hand. It took about six weeks to make the dress. She also had on view her headpiece, veil and bridal bouquet.

A unique phenomenon is that their daughter-in-laws' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vilas Ludwig of Kewaskum have been married 57 years, and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Lavrenz of Campbellsport have been married 52 years, making a total of 159 years of married life for the three couples.

Heltemes-Hausner

Kristine Mary Heltemes and Kenneth R. Hausner are engaged. Parents of the couple are Louie Heltemes, Route 1, Kewaskum, and Irene Heltemes, 134 N. Barton Road, Campbellsport and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hausner, Adell.

The bride-elect is a 1979 graduate of Campbellsport

High School and is employed by State Central Credit Union, West Bend. Hausner is a 1976 graduate of Kewaskum High School and a 1977 graduate of Milwaukee Area Technical College. He is employed by Gehring Builders, West Bend.

A May 17 wedding is being planned by the couple.

Baumann-Baus

Ketter-Immel

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Ketter, Route 2, Campbellsport, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Gary Robert Immel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Immel, Route 3, Fond du Lac.

Both are graduates of Campbellsport High School. The bride-elect is employed at Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum, and Immel is employed at Zimmerman Farms.

A September 26 wedding is being planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Baumann, Route 1, Campbellsport, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Steven Baus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Baus, Route 1, St. Cloud.

The bride-elect is a 1975 graduate of Campbellsport High School and is employed at Regal Ware, Inc., Kewaskum. Baus is a 1974 graduate of Campbellsport High School and is employed as a milk hauler for Jerry Ottery and is also engaged in farming.

An August 2 wedding is planned.

Peters-Dehling

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Peters of 713 Hillcrest St., West Bend are proud to announce the engagement of their daughter Beth Ann to Timothy James Dehling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Dehling Jr. of R1, Kewaskum.

Beth is a 1979 graduate of West Bend East and is presently employed at the Frankow & Grundahl Clinic. Tim is a 1974 graduate of Kewaskum High School and is employed as parts manager at Feller Pontiac.

A Sept. 20, 1980 wedding is planned.

West Bend Savings Broadens Home Lending Policy

West Bend Savings and Loan Association announced today that effective immediately it was broadening its home loan lending policy.

Daniel V. Filzen, mortgage loan department manager, estimated that the new, more liberal lending posture would substantially increase the amount of home loan funds available in the Washington County market.

Drastic credit tightening by the Federal Reserve System on October 6 and the unwillingness of Governor Dreyfus to support removal of the state's maximum interest rate ceiling when market rates increased above 12% forced many lenders to severely curtail their lending volume. At that time West Bend Savings limited lending to persons buying property presently financed by the association. West Bend Savings president, Richard A. Larson, indicated in an earlier release that even though not warranted by economic conditions the association felt it had an obligation to protect its present mortgage customers by helping to maintain a viable real estate market for their homes.

In announcing the new policy, Filzen said the association had substantially reduced its backlog of loan commitments during October and November, and also experienced savings inflows much better than reported by many other lenders. The savings inflows, according to Filzen, were due primarily to the higher savings rates West Bend Savings had been able to offer savers.

The new policy will authorize home loans up to 80% of appraised value to not only qualified buyers purchasing a property on which the association now has a mortgage loan, but also new loans to present mortgage customers buying another home in the association's market area. In addition, home loans up to 70% of appraised value can be processed for established association savings customers who are buying a new home.

Filzen indicated that this

Bone in the human body is constantly in a process of exchange—of giving up some of its calcium and taking in new calcium. Bone is a body tissue, dependent upon nutrients in daily meals as a source of material for rebuilding.

When calcium in your bloodstream drops below a certain level, mechanisms are triggered to take calcium from your bone, weakening the bone. So your body needs new calcium daily from your food.

School Board to Have Busy Agenda Monday

The regular meeting of the Kewaskum board of Education will be held on Monday, December 17, in the district administrative offices. A closed session will be held at 8:15 p.m. with the business of the regular meeting beginning at approximately 8:30 p.m. The closed session will be held to meet with the school attorney for advice on possible litigation.

Beginning at about 8:30, the regular meeting agenda will include action on policies first presented and read at the November 17 meeting. The board is also scheduled to take action on the contract of Barbara Hickcox, who resigned last August.

There will be a first consideration of a number of board policies dealing primarily with board bylaws and board committees. The board will also be asked to consider making the custodial position at Wayne a full-time job. Approval of payroll and vouchers payable and the annual WASHB services contract, cancellation of the second December meeting and miscellaneous business which may arise will complete the agenda of the regular meeting. The board will meet in closed session following the regular meeting to discuss teacher negotiations and for the annual board-superintendent evaluation session.

Best Gift Is Doing Things
With Children

By Robert A. Stodola
4-H Youth Agent

This is the holiday season. Our thoughts naturally turn to gift giving. I would like to suggest, that one of the best gifts we can give to children is the gift of doing things with them. Just having a parent or grandparent or someone to play with, makes a child happy. It lets him know that you love him and are interested in him.

In addition to making the child happy you can also help the child learn. Children's activities can be great learning experiences. Children can learn at a very young age. Some child experts say that a child's personality is almost completely developed by the age of three.

If we are going to give our children a gift of our time, what kind of activities can we do? This is where parents and grandparents and babysitters sometimes find a difficulty. They can't think of interesting things to do that will also be educational experiences.

Wouldn't it be nice if there was a box full of ideas that we would have at our fingertips. Well, there is something like that just chock full of ideas for activities. There are activities that are fun and at the same time help children learn hand skills and thinking skills. There are some seventy different items for children ages 1-9. Some of these are one page idea sheets, others are complete booklets. Some are free. Some have small cost.

If you would like to see the complete set of information that is available, you can stop in at the 4-H office and ask to see the Mini 4-H literature. Or you can call and ask for a list so that you could order those that you want. The 4-H office is at the Courthouse Annex II, 515 East Washington Street, West Bend, phone 338-4478, 342-2929 or 644-5204.

Hephner to Introduce Resolution Praising President Carter for Handling of Iran Crisis

(MADISON) — State Representative Gervase Hephner (D-Chilton) will introduce an Assembly resolution commending President Carter for his "prudent handling of the dangerous crisis in Iran."

"President Carter has shown cool resolve in pressing for the release of the 49 hostages in Tehran," the resolution states, and he has "wisely pursued the diplomatic avenues available to the United States for a peaceful resolution."

The resolution notes that the President's "strong stand has prevented the loss of lives inherent in any military intervention."

"The Wisconsin Assembly is proud of the President's conduct during this test of wills, and the Wisconsin Assembly supports the President's efforts to free all the hostages held in the American Embassy in Tehran," the resolution concludes.

IN MEMORY

In memory of our dear mother, mother-in-law, and grandmother, Mrs. Leo Rohlinger, who passed away three years ago, December 11, 1976:

Like fallen leaves the years slip by
But loving memories never die;
A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever dear.

Lovingly remembered by the family.

Music Therapy Intern at Cedar Lake

The Cedar Lake Home Campus, West Bend, has accepted Lori Ober, Milwaukee, as a Music Therapy intern. Miss Ober, a student from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, will earn her Bachelor of Music degree in Music Therapy in May, 1980, upon the successful completion of her six month study of the Music Therapy program of the Cedar Lake Home Campus. She will then be certified as a Registered Music Therapist (RMT) by the National Association of Music Therapists (NAMT).

"Our interns develop techniques through observation and involvement in the special music therapy program on the Cedar Lake Home Campus," says Mrs. M. Palmer, RMT and the Campus' Coordinator of Therapy. "We accept four students a year, selecting them from student applications from schools across the nation."

The Cedar Lake Home Campus offers a wide range of educational opportunities for students, health care personnel and the general community.

Cedar Lake Home Receives $56,835 Educational Grant

The Fund for the Improvement of Post-Secondary Education (FIPSE), an agency of the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) in Washington, D.C., has announced the award of a $56,835 grant to the Cedar Lake Home Campus, West Bend.

This agency has been established by Congress to assist programs nation-wide which provide, among other things: reform, innovation and improvement of post-secondary education; new paths to career and professional training; and the design and introduction of cost-effective methods of instruction and operation.

According to Don Stettler, the Director of Education on the Cedar Lake Home Campus, the grant can be renewed for a second year. It will be used for program development, enabling the Campus to develop a variety of educational programs in the area of: providing practical workshops for health care workers; involving community aged persons in appropriate educational seminars to strengthen independent living and purposefulness; and helping people of all ages to understand the aging process which affects the living of their lives even unto preparation for healthy and purposeful retirement.

The Cedar Lake Home Campus has already developed a successful educational program in a variety of areas of concern. The grant will enable the Campus Education Team to expand more rapidly its curriculum in each area, enabling the Learning Center to reach more people in Wisconsin and the midwest with greater depth impact.

Although these grants are usually awarded to universities or higher education institutions, occasionally the funding staff reaches out to recognize innovative programs, such as the Cedar Lake Home Campus. Thus, through grassroots programming, educational opportunities to local communities on a practical level are expedited.

Parents Who Smoke Harm Kids

According to the American Lung Association, the airways of babies and young children are narrower than those of adults. Pollutants in the air, like cigarette smoke, constrict the air passages even more and make it harder for children to breathe. The Christmas Seal people are urging parents to quit smoking for their own health and for those they love.

When to Keep Your Child Home from School

One of the most perplexing problems confronting parents of school-age children is deciding when a child is too sick to attend school. While parents should not make a habit of "playing doctor" in diagnosing their child's illness, it is extremely important that they be able to identify symptoms of common illnesses, and be prepared to handle the situation until a doctor is contacted.

Here are simple guidelines for parents to follow until a doctor can be contacted for his opinion:

FEVER — A fever is a warning that all is not right with the body. The best way to check for fever is with a thermometer which no home should be without. No child with a fever over 100 degrees should be sent to school. When a thermometer is not available, check the child's forehead with the back of the hand. If it is hot, keep the child home until you can check the fever with a thermometer. Don't allow the child to return to school until he has been free of fever for 24 hours.

COLD, SORE THROAT, COUGH — The common cold presents the most problem to parents. A child with a "heavy" cold and a hacking cough belongs home in bed, even though he may have no fever. If your child complains of a sore throat and has no other symptoms, he may go to school. If white spots can be seen on the back of the throat or if fever is present, it is wise to keep him home from school and call your doctor.

RASH — A rash may be the first sign of one of childhood's many illnesses, such as measles or smallpox. A rash, or "spots" may cover the entire body or may appear in only one area. A child with a rash should not be sent to school until a doctor has examined the child and has said it is safe for him to go to school.

STOMACH ACHE, VOMITING, DIARRHEA — If your child has a stomach ache which is persistent or severe enough to limit his activity, consult your doctor. If vomiting occurs, the child should be kept home until he can keep his food down. Similarly, a child suffering from diarrhea should be kept home. If prompt improvement in any of these conditions does not occur, consult your doctor.

EAR ACHE — An ear ache is something that should not be tampered with. If your child complains of an ear ache, contact your doctor without delay. Don't put anything in the ear.

In the Service

Lieutenant Herriges now goes to Homestead Air Force Base, Florida, for duty as an F-4 aircraft pilot and will serve with a unit of the Tactical Air Command.

The village garage on West Water Street was threatened with destruction by fire last Friday, December 10. The blaze resulted when a gas tank on a village owned tractor with front end lift which was being repaired, exploded and set the building on fire. Loss in the fire was estimated at approximately $800 but it may reach a higher figure.

Hugo Straub Jr., 19, of near St. Kilian, is recovering at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, where he was removed Sunday, December 12, after suffering a gun wound in a mishap. The young man had been hunting rabbits with a companion. The pair had a .22 caliber revolver which they kept in a duffel bag. Straub reached into the bag to get a glove and apparently hit the revolver. The gun discharged and the bullet entered Straub's lower abdomen. The pellet was deflected upward finally coming to a stop in the youth's back just below his shoulder blade. It was reported by Straub's father that the missile perforated his son's intestine in eight places as well as going through his kidney. Physicians said that they had no immediate plans of removing the bullet at this time because it will not bother him in its present position.

A pipe organ was installed in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in the Town of Scott last week.

The new organ is built by the Maxcy-Barton Organ Company of Oshkosh, and is of a fair size which is indeed, a credit to the congregation and to the surrounding community.

Where are 4-H Members From?

More than 1,300 adults and youth participated in Washington County 4-H Clubs in 1979. One third were from farms, two thirds were from the cities, villages and non-farm residential areas.

Raising crops and livestock continues to be important for farm 4-H members. City members, as well as many farm members enjoy learning through such projects as Foods and Nutrition, Clothing, Woodworking, Photography, Crafts, Electricity, and Natural Science.

If you are third grade or older, whether on the farm or in town, you can learn through 4-H. Join a 4-H club near you.

Fallout From Iran

The reactions I have received concerning the holding of American hostages in Iran have been strong — frustration, rage, and hostility, mostly. It is a deplorable situation that is difficult to deal with, but whatever its outcome, there are lessons to be learned for U.S. and world diplomacy.

For the U.S., it means a reappraisal of our policies concerning the security of American diplomats abroad. Embassy security must be beefed up and evacuation plans must be drawn up for areas of tension. Otherwise, hostile countries will have an open invitation to repeat the Iranian takeover.

Another avenue for revision of American foreign policy may be to secure more formal assurances from other countries to protect our embassies abroad. Such mutual protection agreements would not have worked in Iran, where the government sanctioned and aided the student terrorists, but they may force terrorists elsewhere to think twice about attacking our personnel and property.

An unfortunate side effect of the Iranian crisis has been among the American diplomatic personnel. Understandably, they are frightened for their own safety, even when they are in "friendly" countries. Admittedly, they already must sign an understanding when they join the foreign service that no ransom will be offered or paid for their release should they be kidnapped or taken hostage. But unless we act to increase their security, we will find it more difficult to recruit new career State Department foreign service personnel.

The other area deserving attention and review is the state of relations and world diplomatic relations. The Vienna Conventions, which date back to the 1800's, have provided the ground rules, but the Iranian crisis has clearly shown their inadequacy relative to embassy protection and the sanctions applied to countries violating the rules.

The latter is an important point. Even though world opinion has rallied behind the U.S. in the Iranian situation, that opinion has not been enough to secure the release of the hostages. What can and should be used are economic sanctions, like the cutoff of food to Iran. Actions like that are needed to deal with countries that ignore the rules they don't like, such as Iran. The whole issue of international sanctions needs review and toughening up, or the "rules of the game" will become totally meaningless.

Cooking Foods In Microwave Saves Energy and Time

By Joyce Albrecht
Extension Home Economist

In a period of fuel consciousness, more and more cooks are considering microwave ovens as a means of saving energy and time.

The microwave oven uses less wattage than is used by one burner on the conventional range. The kitchen is not heated by this type oven; this may save energy by cutting down on the need for air conditioning during summer months.

Microwave cooking is quick, easy and convenient, but this method requires a new orientation for the homemaker.

The microwave is a short electromagnetic wave that falls between light and radio waves in frequency.

In microwave cooking the energy from the wave is absorbed by the molecules of the food which vibrate and the resulting "friction" gives off heat and cooks the food.

In conventional cooking, the air or liquid surrounding the food is heated and transmits its heat to the surface of the food. The heat on the surface is then conducted into the interior of the food and cooks the food.

Energy is absorbed only by the food in microwave cooking. The energy is reflected by metal, but passes through glass, paper, most ceramics and plastics. Thus, you can cook in glass, paper or most ceramic and plastic utensils, but not in something metal or with metal trim.

Conditions in the microwave oven affect the appearance, texture and flavor of some food.

Moist conditions on the surface of food during cooking in a microwave oven prevent many foods from browning.

Foods containing a high amount of fat, bacon or roast chicken, will reach temperatures at which browning occurs.

Tenderness in meat and protein products comes from using a low power setting and turning the food midway through the cooking process.

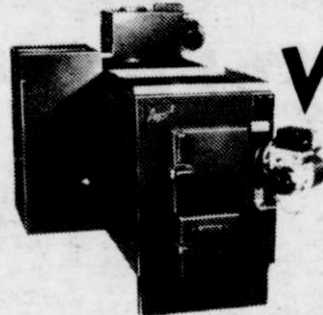

The lack of a dry, hot condition in the microwave oven prevents most products from developing a crispness.

Flakiness of baked pastry will occur in either conventional or microwave cooking.

Foods that develop flavor or tenderness by slow conventional methods, such as soups and stews, may not taste quite the same nor be as tender cooked under microwave conditions.

Fruits and vegetables have exceptional quality cooked in the microwave oven. Hot cereal cooks without worry about lumpiness. Fish turns out well. Fried eggs, sauteed onions, broiled steaks and griddle cakes are better prepared in the conventional way.

There's an old saying that "wood warms you twice" — first when you cut it and again when you burn it. But with a Longwood Dualfuel furnace, your wood warms you twice — even if you don't own an ax. Longwood's unique no-draft design produces twice as much heat from every single log as any other combination fuel furnace on the market...

Rhodes Hails Petri
For Initiative on Student Loan Measure

WASHINGTON (Nov. 19) - House Minority Leader John Rhodes today praised Rep. Tom Petri (R-Wis.) for his initiative in gaining passage of legislation to forgive federal loans to students who enter military service or join the active reserve after graduation.

"The Petri Amendment to the bill extending federal aid to higher education is an outstanding example of Tom Petri's ability to diagnose a problem, formulate a sensible solution, then move to implement it in the most practical way," Rhodes said.

Petri's measure provides that students who take out government guaranteed loans to finance their college educations can have those loans forgiven at the rate of up to $1,000 per year of active duty service, or $500 per year of active reserve service.

"Tom Petri observed that there have been some difficulties in collecting some of these student loans. He also observed that our military services are experiencing great difficulties filling manpower requirements for the all-volunteer forces," Rhodes said.

"He put together a solution designed to address both problems at minimum cost to the taxpayer," the House Republican Leader added.

Noting that Petri is the most junior Republican on the Education and Labor Committee, which had jurisdiction of the main bill, Rhodes said his achievement in winning passage of the amendment by a margin of 236 to 115 "was all the more remarkable."

"For any freshman, particularly a member of the minority, to win such a legislative victory requires an ability to persuade many of his colleagues, particularly those who are senior in House service, of its merits. Tom Petri demonstrated that he has these qualities in outstanding measure."

City of West Bend Seeks Funding for Recreation Purposes

The City of West Bend has requested funding assistance from the Department of Natural Resources for the acquisition of outdoor recreation facilities at the proposed Lac Lawrann Wildlife Sanctuary located within the City of West Bend, Washington County, Wisconsin.

The Department has made a preliminary determination that an Environmental Impact Statement will not be required for this action. Copies of the Department's Environmental Impact Assessment that led to this preliminary determination can be reviewed at the DNR Southeast District Office, or contact Tom Blotz, Department of Natural Resources, P.O. Box 13248, Milwaukee, WI 53213, (414) 257-6508.

Public comments on the proposed project are welcome and should be received by Blotz no later than 4:30 p.m., Friday, December 21, 1979. These comments may be offered orally or by written communication.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of Diane (nee Prost) who passed away one year ago December 11, 1978 and Eleanora Moths, who passed away two years ago, December 29, 1977:

No further after then a picture
A smile or remembered phrase
Our loved ones live in memory
Bringing thoughts to mind
Of moments we shared
In days now left behind!
How often has a flower, the animals,
Or a crystal autumn sky
Brought recollection of happy days gone by.
Memory has a magic way
Of keeping loved ones near —
Ever close in mind and heart
Are the ones we hold most dear.

Sadly missed by Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Prost, Darla, Donna and Dale, Richard Prost family, Vernon Moths family and Arthur Moths.

A NOTE OF THANKS

Special thanks to our sons and daughters-in-law for their gifts and for making arrangements for our 50th wedding anniversary; to those that sent us greeting cards with letters and gifts, but couldn't be with us; to all that attended this great day and gave us gifts; to Alice and Loren Ketter and their families for the anniversary cake; to A & K Catering Service of Random Lake; to Vernon Miller and his orchestra of Hartford, and to Amerahn for their kind hospitality, we again say thank you.

To all of you for just being with us on our special day, is the most treasured gift we could receive and will be cherished for the rest of our days.

In the southeastern counties, rabbit hunting is generally good throughout the district. Ice bound rivers and lakes are not considered safe for travel either by vehicle or on foot at this time, and both cross-country skiers and snowmobilers are eagerly awaiting the arrival of snow.

Fond du Lac County — Rabbit hunting is fair in the Kettle Moraine forest. Grouse hunting is improving in the Kettle Moraine because of ice cover in the swamps.

Dodge County — Canada geese are concentrated in the Fox Lake-Green Lake-Marie Lake area. People are walking out on the ice at both Beaver Dam and Fox Lakes. Panfish are being taken by anglers there. Caution on the ice is advised.

Gun Deer Count

In State 123,000

For the sixth year in succession, the gun deer harvest in Wisconsin has topped the 100,000 total according to the DNR's Bureau of Wildlife Management.

Preliminary figures compiled this week by Frank Haberland, Big Game Management Specialist, indicate that about 123,000 deer were taken by hunters during the nine-day gun season this year which ended on Sunday, November 24.

"As we expected," Haberland noted, "the harvest this year is down from the 150,845 total of last year because of last winter's severe weather which took its toll on the Wisconsin herd."

Haberland, who estimated before the season that the harvest would be between 120,000 and 130,000 continued, "We are gratified by the success hunters enjoyed this season, particularly when you consider that the weather was warmer than is ideal for hunting on opening weekend, and in many areas of the state there was a lack of tracking snow during much of the season." He noted that, with some exceptions, the number of deer taken was down from last year in most areas of the state.

Haberland said there would be some adjustments in this year's figure when all of the registration tabulations are completed and checked sometime in January.

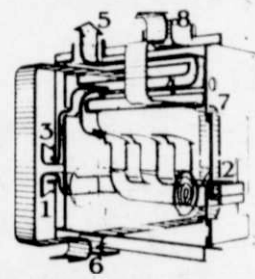

Registrations for the gun deer season during the past five years were: 1978, 150,845; 1977, 131,910; 1976, 122,509; 1975, 117,378; and 1974, 100,405.

Seeing IS Believing

On the front of every Volcano is an inspection port with a swing away cover, through which the observer sees a sheet of bright orange & blue flame sweeping over and around wide, flat steel surfaces of hollow crossflow baffles. He sees the heart of the Volcano, and the significant difference that makes it the most sophisticated wood burner in the world.

This sheet of flame (gases burning in the secondary combustion chamber) superheats room-heating, fan-forced air ducted around the firebox and through the hollow baffles.

- 1 A precisely controlled volume of combustion air is pre-heated and ducted evenly through the primary firebox.
- 2 Added fresh air is introduced to the secondary firebox to ignite escaping gases in a super hot flame.
- 3 permitting little fuel loss out the chimney.
- 4 Cool air near the floor is fan forced.
- 5 through hot air jacket & hollow baffles and
- 6 exhausted into room or into hot air system.

This intense secondary burn, observable and fascinating to watch on every Volcano, demonstrates Volcano's lead in woodfiring technology.

When hooked to forced air or hot water systems (hydronic models available), the Volcano literally provides all the heat a homeowner needs with measurably less wood consumption than even the most modern of competitor stoves. Inside, the Volcano is as new as tomorrow, with the outward appearance of the Quaker Box Stove of yesteryear.

Fourth Straight Victory

Indians Blow 18-Point Lead But Edge Slinger in Overtime, 93-92

After beating strong teams like West Bend East, Plymouth and St. Mary's Springs of Fond du Lac, the Kewaskum Indians were expected to blow out winless Slinger (which lost to West Bend East 59-54) Friday night at Slinger but it didn't turn out that way.

Oh, the Indians won the game all right but blew an 18-point lead in the closing minutes to force the contest into a 3-minute overtime before edging out the Owls, 93-92, in the high scoring contest. Kewaskum outscored Slinger in the overtime period, 7-6, for a narrow victory in their conference opener.

Henry Schilter's free throws with seconds remaining in the overtime period made the difference. He had 6 of his team's 7 points in the overtime to give him scoring honors with 32 for the night. Schilter has scored 81 points in the first 4 games.

Might be the Indians took the Owls too lightly or thought they had the game all sewed up with an 18-point lead before they discovered Slinger is a pretty good basketball team. The Owls led much of the first quarter and even though they fell behind by 5 points at halftime, they dominated the boards and were out-hustling the Indians.

Regardless of the fact that Kewaskum had an 18-point lead with about 3 minutes remaining, the Owls kept coming back. They began cutting away at the lead and dominated the closing minutes. They got it down to 12 with less than 2 minutes to play. Schilter's free throw got it back to 13 but that ended the Indians' scoring in regulation play as the Owls reeled off 13 unanswered points.

A free throw and two baskets by Dan Scherr cut the lead to 9. A turnover gave Slinger the ball with 38 seconds left. Jerry Lofy sank a basket and was fouled for a 3-point play, cutting the lead to 86-80. Another turnover and Lofy sank another one to cut the difference to 4. With 15 seconds to go, Tony Gundrum makes a steal and scores to cut it to 86-84. After a time out, Dave Nowicki scores to tie it up with 6 seconds left in this unbelievable, nightmarish finish.

In the overtime the teams exchanged 2 baskets and then Schilter's 3 free throws put the Indians in front to stay although Scott Severson hit a bucket with seconds left.

Following Schilter in scoring for the Indians were Tom Kern with 18 points and Jim Rohlinger with 13. Leading Slinger were Scherr and Enlow with 17 apiece and Hess with 16. After 3 games in succession away, the Indians will return to the home court Friday night when they host Grafton, which defeated Germantown in overtime last week.

JV's WIN ANOTHER, FRESHMEN LOSE

Kewaskum's JV's beat Slinger easily Friday night, 73-51, at Slinger. It was the JV's third victory in four outings. Pete Wiedmeyer and Dave Donath paced the young Indians with 14 points each. John Rhode was top scorer for the Owls with 12.

The Kewaskum freshmen did not fare as well, losing to Slinger, 52-47. The winners' Brett Miller was the game's top scorer with 21 points, while Rod Donnelly led the Indians with 16.

The golfer was playing a hole parallel to the highway and really whistled one over the fence. The ball hit a windshield of a car, the driver lost control, rammed another car and then a couple of more cars slammed into them. So the cop finally gets to the golfer and asks him what he is going to do about it and he replies: "I think I'll bring my right hand over a bit."

Indian Girls Scalp Slinger For 3rd in Row

Like the boys' varsity team, the Kewaskum girls' basketball team is also undefeated in their games thus far. After beating Campbellsport and Lomira in non-conference contests, the girls rolled over Slinger here Thursday night, 57-39, in their Scenic Moraine conference opener.

All nine Kewaskum players scored as the girls hustled and rebounded well but hit on only 39% of their free throws and had quite a few turnovers. The Indians outscored the Owls in every quarter but the last, when subs got into the game after Kewaskum took a 45-20 lead.

Sophomore Jill Yearling again led the Indians in scoring with 15 points. Diane Bremser was close behind with 11 and played well together with Bobbi Schmidt. Kewaskum outscored Slinger in the third period, 10-1.

The Owls' Debbie Jossart scored 17 of their 19 points in the last quarter after being held out because of a sprained ankle. She was the top scorer in the game and the score might have been closer had she been able to play the entire game.

The Indian girls play at Grafton Thursday.

Matmen Lose to Pewaukee Champs

The Pewaukee wrestling team, Scenic Moraine champions for the past four years straight, looked like they will again be strong contenders as they trounced Kewaskum Thursday night at Pewaukee, 41-9, in the conference opener.

Only three wrestlers garnered team points for the Indians. Scott Klein gained his second win of the season with a big decision over Tim Carrao in the 96 pound class. Leading by a slim 7-6 margin going into the last period, Klein won his match, 16-6.

Andy Strigenz, who weighs 167, moved up to the 185 pound class and defeated Don Schmitz by a high 13-8 score.

Jeff Gundrum drew Todd Hirsh, 3-3 at 132 pounds and the only other close match was at 145 pounds where Steve Beck lost a 4-2 decision to Phil Murphy.

Pewaukee's all-conference football star, Dave Hillen, pinned the Indians' football ace, Mike Pettit, in 2:17.

Tonight (Thursday) the Indians host Hartland Arrowhead, another Scenic contender.

KHS Chess Team Defeats Kettle Moraine

Kewaskum and Kettle Moraine matched identical 1-0 marks Tuesday night in a South Central Chess Association game. The Indians came up with a surprisingly easy 5 1/2 to 1 1/2 victory. Kewaskum had nine checkmates and a stalemate out of the ten boards.

Dating back to last year, this is the fourth consecutive conference match that the Indians have not lost a single board.

Checkmating their opponents were Dusti Howell on board 1, Kim Manthei on board 2, Chuck Strancke on board 3, Rick Howell on board 4, Tom Rosenberger on board 5, Jeff Steger on board 6, Steve Yahr on board 7, Jim Simon on board 9, and Andy Rosenberger on board 10. Rob Sleger had the stalemate on board 8.

The Indians made very few mistakes and showed many excellent moves. Steger sacrificed his knight leading to a mate and Simon had a good come from behind win as he used the power of a passed pawn.

Dusti Howell is leading the league in scoring with a perfect 2-0 mark at board 1, good for 20 points. Manthei and Strancke are close behind with 17 points each.

The Indians next match is next Tuesday, when they will host Germantown, the only other unbeaten team in the conference.

Mayville Edged By Lakes Team

After losing the opener at Oconomowoc the week before, the Kewaskum Lakes team won its first game here Saturday night, shading Mayville, 116-115.

Kewaskum blew a seven-point lead in the final three minutes due partly to some missed free throw opportunities and Mayville took a one-point lead with a basket with 45 seconds left. However, Ken Loest quickly countered with the winning basket on a layup and Kewaskum's defense held Mayville twice in the last 30 seconds.

Mayville has returned to the Lakes this year after a lengthy absence.

Loest was the game's high scorer with 34 points, while teammates Bob Mertz and Leon Laatsch chipped in with 25 and 19 respectively. Ray Schreiter led the losers with 26 points and Dave Mayer added 22.

Kewaskum led at the half, 66-61.

Other weekend results were: Hartford 93, Slinger 92; Oconomowoc 144, Port Washington 115; Menomonee Falls Badgers 124, Thiensville-Mequon 96; Cedarburg 119, Sussex 107.

Kewaskum's next game is Sunday, December 16, at Hartford at 7:30 p.m.
