Although construction has been underway for several weeks, Meadow Creek Apartments held its official groundbreaking ceremony Thursday afternoon.

Peter Knaup, developer of the project hosted the event which was attended by approximately 35 people including Kewaskum Village Trustees Raynor Herriges, Dick Schmidt, Don Mlodzik and Paul Blumer, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt, Commissioner Bill Martin, Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling, Village Superintendents Pete Albers, Augie Bilgo and Plan Commission members Roger Strack, Bob Kirst and Elmer Yoost. The Wisconsin Housing Finance Authority was represented by Ms. Blinda Beason and Ms. Ann Miller.

Daylight Saving Time Ends Sunday

Daylight Saving Time ends at 2 a.m. this Sunday, the last Sunday in October. Be sure to turn your clocks back an hour before retiring Saturday night to gain back the hour lost last April.

Russ Winter, Manager of Knaup's Bay Shore Apartments in Beaver Dam, along with several Bay Shore residents were also on hand. Winter said he will be temporarily handling the Meadow Creek units until a local manager is hired and trained. Knaup said he would be taking applications for the Manager position in three to four weeks.

Construction Superintendent Rick Parent said foundations for the four-unit single parent and eight-unit handicapped buildings were complete. Approximately 75% of the 24-unit elderly housing unit foundation is in. Carpenters were to have been working on the smaller units, however, they ran into a materials delay.

Parent noted he is also supervising Knaup's Green Lake project which is similar to the Meadow Creek complex. He said he had been able to start that job the week after Labor Day resulting in the project being about 90% complete at this date. Parent said he was hoping to have Green Lake ready by Christmas.

RING STOLEN

A Kewaskum High School class ring valued at $120 was reported stolen from a locker at the school last week Monday.

Anyone interested in Meadow Creek can get more information by contacting Peter Knaup in Beaver Dam, or Kewaskum Village Administrator Dan Schmidt.

Performances will be held from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. on October 28, 29, 30, 31, and November 1. Admission is once again only $1.00. Proceeds will go to the Kewaskum Jaycees Scholarship Fund and other worthwhile community programs.

The new scenes of this year's Haunted House are something that kids of all ages will want to see. For more information and group tour reservations, call the Kewaskum Jaycees at 626-4777 or 626-2333.

Revenue Uncertainties Plague Village Budget

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt presented a preliminary budget for 1982 to the Village Board at its Monday evening meeting.

Schmidt said that he wanted the board to keep in mind that these are strictly preliminary figures stating, "I'm using eight-month figures for twelve-month totals in 1981.

Factors affecting calculation of the 1982 budget are local property tax revenues, federal revenue sharing and state revenue sharing. Schmidt noted that many figures used in the development of the budget are not available until December 1, resulting in the use of approximate figures as far as revenue and expenditures are concerned.

Schmidt said he had received a final figure on 1981 shared taxes from the state. The village was anticipating a revenue of $266,690.00, however, Schmidt said actual receipts will be $253,465.00.

Schmidt noted that in state aid for streets, Kewaskum could see an increase over 1981. "This is a one-shot 70c per mile allotment for 1982."

Preliminary figures show a proposed 1982 budget of $896,557.00, compared to $870,660.00 in 1981. President Jerry Stollenwerk said, "last year we ended up increasing our tax levy $67,000 (31%) from $2.63 to $3.31. If we left it (proposed 1982 figures) as it is today, we'd have to increase it by $62,000, approximately 20%; this would mean a $1.76 increase." Stollenwerk noted the board will have to take a good look at this budget. "I think this is going to be number one of the best-seller reading list for the next two weeks," said Stollenwerk.

Schmidt told the board the increased budget is due to all the lack of anticipated revenues. That's what's causing the rise, not increased spending on the part of the village.

Schmidt noted he is working with all the village departments and committees in an effort to further reduce their budget requests. There are still quite a few areas and recommendations to be checked into, which should lower figures in the budget.

The board will hold its next budget meeting November 2, at which time Schmidt will present a balance sheet.

In other action the board accepted the bid of Meyer Ford to furnish a new police car. Meyer's low bid was $9,807.00 less a no-trade discount of $1,137, a net price of $8,670.00 for a 1982 Ford LTD-S with 255 V-8 engine. Honeck Chevrolet submitted a bid of $10,567.45 less $1,208.16 discount, a net price of $9,359.29 for a 1982 Chevrolet Impala with 380 V-8 engine. Honeck also submitted a price of $9,032.04 for a car furnished with a 229 V-6 engine. Trustee Dick Schmidt questioned why a second new car was being purchased. Chief Hlavaty explained he and the board had discussed this some time ago. He said it was decided to switch over to a new way of replacing the cars which would allow the village to use cars for two years and then trade them rather than use them for one year and trade. The new procedure will allow the department to keep the cars a longer time. Once the plan is fully implemented, a car will be traded every two years.

Dan Schmidt presented proposed fire contracts for 1982. He noted this is the second year for using a new formula which distributes fire service costs

Last Wednesday afternoon a truck loaded with cattle owned by Schwartz Trucking of Allenton stopped for the stop and go light at the intersection of Main Street and Fond du Lac Avenue. When the driver started out again, his load of cattle shifted and the rear tailgate popped open, causing two of the cows to jump out. The driver, who saw the animals escape through the mirror, rounded up one of the cows on Main Street and tied it to a tree next to the Savings and Loan office. The other cow took off on Main Street and then wandered south down the railroad tracks, where it was recaptured. According to Village Officer Richard Knoebel, the driver stated this was a first experience in his many years of cattle hauling. (Statesman Photos)

Dear Friends

If you think of recent funerals you have attended, we believe you will discover that each one left with you a memory picture. The flowers, the music, the message of the minister, the general arrangements - all these are a part of that picture.

It is our task - as we see it - to make that picture just as beautiful and satisfying as it possibly can be made.

Respectfully,

Ed Miller

Donations Still Needed for PTO Halloween Party

With Halloween only about a week away, details are being finalized for the Kewaskum Community Halloween party on Friday, October 30.

Money is still needed to defray the cost of the party, and drop-off boxes are located at the following places in the village: Geri's Beauty Salon, Just a Bit Crafty, Valley Bank and West Bend Savings and Loan-Kewaskum Office. Also, these tax deductible donations may be mailed to Mrs. Sheryl Rinzel, 3800 Ridge Road, Kewaskum, 53040. All checks should be made payable to the PTO Halloween Fund.

Entertainment will include a magician, appearances by Ernie, Bert and Miss Piggy as well as two movies - a cartoon feature for the younger children and an animated version of "Journey to the Center of the Earth" for the older children. In addition, helium balloons, along with coloring books and other surprises, will be given to each child, and refreshments will, of course, be served.

The costume parade begins at 5:30 p.m. behind Kewaskum Elementary School. Seating for parents will be available in the bleachers, and afterwards the children will go to Kewaskum High School for entertainment and refreshments. In case of rain, the children should report directly to the high school at 5:30 p.m.

The party is open to all children from kindergarten through sixth grade who attend these schools in the village: Kewaskum Elementary, Holy Trinity and St. Lucas.

Village Board

fairly and is more accurate than the old system. Figures used cover a three year period to calculate service demands by each customer. Figures used for the 1982 contracts were tabulated from 1978, 79 and 80.

1982 fire service costs to the Village of Kewaskum will be $46,084.41, Town of Kewaskum $37,190.07 and Town of Auburn $14,465.30. Schmidt said Town of Kewaskum saw an increase of $2,277.91 due to their increased evaluation, Town of Auburn saw a $2,456.20 rise due to an increase in the number of fire calls. Both are factors used in formulating fire service contracts. Village of Kewaskum costs increased $2,579.88.

Schmidt told the board he had received several calls regarding clarification regarding the new plan for Trick or Treat night this year. If people still want to leave their lights on and have children come to their door, it is perfectly legal. Chief Hlavaty noted there will be auxiliary police out, however, they will be concentrated around the school.

Building permits were approved for an addition to the existing David Wietor residence and for a new garage at the Karen Pietsch residence.

The board also accepted the resignation of Sylvester Schmidt from the Public Works Department.

Kewaskum FFA Receives $200 BOAC Award

The Kewaskum Future Farmers of America recently received a check in the amount of $200.00 for their outstanding work in the Building Our American Communities (BOAC) program. The national program sponsored by the R. J. Reynolds Company, seeks to develop youth leadership skills helping provide for the needs of the community.

The Kewaskum Chapter sponsors a rabies clinic annually and uses this as part of its' BOAC entry. Last year's clinic immunized over 200 dogs and cats with the aid of Doctor Charles Ogi and some hard working members. This community activity was submitted to the State Association of FFA, where it received a silver rating, with gold being the highest honor. The Kewaskum Chapter received a wall plaque and the $200.00 check for its efforts.

The award money is sponsored by the Wisconsin Rural Rehabilitation Corporation and is to be used by winning chapters for improving BOAC projects within the community. The Kewaskum FFA plans another Rabies Clinic in early spring, as well as other community projects throughout the year.

For almost forty years they were the owners of the Yoost Meat Market in Kewaskum, having sold their business ten years ago to Paul Behring.

The Yoosts were married on October 24, 1931 at the Evangelical St. Lucas Lutheran Church where the Rev. Gerhard Kaniess performed the ceremony. The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Ella Backhaus, Mrs. Lorinda Bukatz, Mrs. Dorthea Cook, Mrs. Hilda Becker, and Loran Backhaus.

The friends of Elmer and Ocelia Yoost are invited to join them at the church reception for an afternoon of visiting and reminiscing. No gifts are expected.

Local School District Selected for National Norming on Tests

This past week over 1100 students in grades seven through twelve at Kewaskum Middle School and High School participated in norming the new Stanford Achievement Test and the Ottis Lennon School Abilities Test.

The Kewaskum district was selected by the test publisher, the Psychological Corporation of New York to be involved in the national norming sample. Results from the achievement tests will be used locally to evaluate student performance. In addition test results will be made available to guidance counselors, students, and parents.

The tests took from three to five hours to complete and were administered by the teaching staff in both buildings in home-rooms. Included in the test battery were all academic subjects including English, math, reading, science, and social studies.

The purpose of the national norming is to get a cross section of students from all parts of the country, representing different economic and social backgrounds. The results are then tabulated and statistical data is used to determine test validity.

The local norming was coordinated by George Allmann, district reading coordinator; Clark Pearson, high school principal, and Dennis Reha, middle school principal.

Letter to the Editor:

I would like to thank everyone who contributed to the great success of the dedication of the new facility at the University of Wisconsin Center-Washington County last Sunday, October 11. Nearly 500 persons from the area attended the afternoon's festivities.

In particular, I would like to thank the area media who gave advance coverage to the dedication; the community members who make up the University Council, other citizens, and UWWC faculty and staff who planned and hosted the event; the area businesses and industries whose contributions paid for the dedication booklet and reception; the County, City, and University participants in the ceremony; and the many guests who showed interest in and support for UWWC by attending.

The success of the dedication clearly demonstrates what can be accomplished by campus and community cooperation. The contributions of many individuals and groups made the dedication a memorable event in the life of the University.

Sincerely,

25 Years Ago

October 26, 1956

Richard Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schmidt of the Town of Wayne, and a member of the football team, the past week was chosen as king for the Kewaskum Community High School homecoming on October 25-26. His queen is Charleen Vetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Vetter of Beechwood. Members of the queen's court are: Kay Koerble, Georgia Chanchuck, Geraldine Guttman, Joan Hintz, Mary Klahn and Rosalie Ewert.

Work has been started on the decorating and renovating of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Kewaskum. The entire interior of the church will be repainted and redecorated and the altars, stations of the cross, confessionals, communion rail and other fixtures will be replaced. The decorating is expected to be completed by Christmas time. Weekday masses are being read in the church hall while the work is going on.

A combination shed and garage on the Fred Dickman and late Henry Dickman property in New Fane was badly damaged by fire last Friday evening. The home on the property is occupied by Mrs. Amelia Gessner, her daughter and grandson. There was no automobile kept in the shed. It was used mainly to store household furniture and other items. Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Miss Barbara Ellen Coulter and Richard A. Kern, both of Route 3, Kewaskum, exchanged nuptial vows in St. Theresa's Church, Theresa, October 20. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin J. Coulter and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kern.

Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hansen, Kewaskum, on October 19, and to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kutz, Kewaskum, on October 25.

50 Years Ago

October 23, 1931

At a meeting held by the officers of the Kewaskum Athletic Club on Tuesday evening at Eberle's Buffet, all the old officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, namely: President - William Endlich; vice-president - John F. Schaefer; secretary - Arnold Martin and treasurer - Norbert Becker.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at Milwaukee on October 15, when Dr. F. E. Nolting, one of Kewaskum's well known dentists was united in marriage to Miss Evelyn Heyden of Milwaukee.

The High School orchestra has begun its weekly rehearsals. The personnel of the orchestra this year is as follows: violins - Erna Dorn, Beulah Schaub, Viola Backus, Russell Heisler, Earl Kohler, Arnold Dorn; Saxophone - Alvin Krahn; clarinet - Agnes Borchert; piano - Gladys Schleif.

The Evangelical Church at Batavia was the scene of a pretty fall wedding October 17 when Miss Adeline Melius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Melius of the Town of Scott became the bride of Eldon Ramthun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ramthun of here.

75 Years Ago

October 20, 1906

The barn belonging to John W. Schaefer and another occupied by Dr. Driessel, near the river below the dam, were destroyed by fire last Tuesday night, the origin of the fire being unknown. The fire was discovered at about 8 p.m. in the upper story of the Schaefer barn. The fire department arrived early but their apparatus did not work well and the flames became uncontrollable. The horses and most of the contents in the barns were taken out before the flames reached so far. There was but little wind stirring at the time which saved the neighborhood from destruction. As it was, the sparks fell in all directions and everybody was on the lookout to save their own building from catching fire. The whole town was out to witness the burning of the buildings and the excitement was great.

Henry Oppermann and Miss Ida Bartelt were married on Wednesday in the Lutheran St. John's Church in New Fane.

Mr. and Mrs. John Laux of Boltonville are the proud parents of a baby boy. A baby boy was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wahlen of St. Kilian last week Friday.

Threshold Is One of Many Agencies Supported In Part by Kewaskum Area United Way

Genny Rettler, an aide at Threshold's Early Intervention Program, works with a 15-month-old child. Many of the activities are for developing sensory and motor stimulation. Instructors clap, talk and cuddle with children as part of the training.

Monica Malsch, Threshold's Early Intervention Program director, helps a 16-month-old girl dress. Mrs. Malsch has worked for the Threshold for 14 years, since the pre-school program began.

A tuxedoed bridegroom deftly scoops up his petite, new wife and carries her over the threshold of their new home. A little old fashioned, maybe, but this custom symbolizes the beginning of their life together.

In a sense, The Threshold, located in West Bend, resembles that wedding threshold. It provides a vocational training center and sheltered workshop for handicapped adults and a training and therapy program for handicapped children. For many, The Threshold represents the first step into a new life.

Both the programs for adults and children have the same goal: "To bring the handicapped up to their highest functioning level," according to Executive Director Horst Wagner. He added the adult program works toward economic independency while the children's program concentrates on overcoming physical and mental handicaps.

Called the Early Intervention Program, the children's program serves newborns to three year olds "who appear to have developmental problems," said Monica Malsch, program director. Problems range from vision or hearing disabilities to mental retardation.

"We begin early to help the child develop to his or her fullest potential," explained Mrs. Malsch. "The first three years of a child's life are very important. A child learns more during this time than any other time of his or her life."

The program offers a home-based program where Mary Engelke, home training specialist, visits the child and parents in their homes.

"I sit down with the parents and share information about their child's handicap. I tell them about other parents of children with similar problems," Mrs. Engelke stated. She said her job involves giving the parents support and telling them what kind of help and training are available.

The day program at The Threshold offers care and therapies for children from three months old to three years old. Teachers, aides, physical, occupational and speech therapists work with the children.

Currently funds come through federal, state and county budgets. Wagner foresees the need for more local support in the future because of budget cuts.

"Right now about 80 percent comes through those funds. Another 20 percent comes from United Way, Kiwanis and other local donations," Wagner stated.

Mrs. Malsch and Mrs. Engelke voiced concern about the funding situation. The program is free of charge to handicapped children. "We hope we can continue that way," Wagner said.

"In the long run, this program benefits all of society," Mrs. Malsch said. "The children who are in this program can attain higher levels and work up to their potential."

The Threshold serves children from Washington County, including several from Kewaskum. It's one of the agencies supported in part by Kewaskum Area United Way.

Funds from Kewaskum Area United Way also help support American Foreign Students, American Red Cross, Association for Retarded Citizens, Bay Lakes Boy Scout Council, Big Brothers and Sisters of Washington County, Children's Service Society of Wisconsin, Citizen's Advocacy Program of Washington County, Developmental Disabilities Services, Inc., Friends for Battered Women of Washington County, Kettle Moraine YMCA, Kewaskum Area Blood Bank, Kewaskum Historical Society, Open Door of Washington County, Salvation Army, Waubun Girl Scout Council, Wisconsin Epilepsy Association and Youth Service Bureau of Washington County.

Junior Woman's Club Establishes Anti-Shoplifting Program

A unique and interesting program is underway in our village and surrounding grade schools. The Public Affairs Committee of the Junior Woman's Club in conjunction with the Wisconsin Coalition to Prevent Shoplifting, is bringing the Anti-Shoplifting Message to area fourth and sixth grade school students. Both a student and local retail survey was taken to establish the scope of the problem in our community.

Next a program using a film and senior high school students as discussion leaders was devised to address the grade school students.

As consumers in our state, we all pay for this crime. Shoplifting makes the things we buy cost more than they should — some five to seven percent more on the average, and from two to ten percent more in specific stores, depending on their size, type, location and other factors.

Shoplifting is the largest monetary crime in the nation, accounting for losses estimated at more than $16 billion each year — $345 million in Wisconsin.

Some two-thirds of all shoplifters caught in Wisconsin are under the age of 21.

The Kewaskum program was designed as a primary prevention program — stopping a problem before it has a chance to begin.

Kewaskum Juniors are joining the Wisconsin Coalition in their efforts to deter the growth of this crime. Any citizen with a concern or an idea to help us in this campaign is encouraged to contact Mary Pat Thompson at 626-2287.

The club wishes to thank local school authorities and the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce for their assistance in initiating this program.

Kewaskum High School seniors leading grade school children in an anti-shoplifting discussion.

Puppyland Policy On Stray Dog Costs

Several Kewaskum dog owners have complained about costs paid to Puppyland Humane Society in West Bend. The following information should clear the air concerning strays and costs.

Puppyland has been contracted by Washington County to pick up, board and care for stray dogs. Fees are as follows — first day pickup, boarding and immunization - $26.00; additional days boarding, $1.50 per day.

A verbal contract with Kewaskum allows a reduced rate of $15.00 for the first day. This rate applies only to dogs reported to or picked up by Kewaskum police.

Pick up and boarding charges are far below the national or state average. Costs for shelter operation, gas, and vehicle maintenance, leave little room for profit.

Puppyland is not supported by any agency. It is a non-profit organization. Income from the stray contract pays for repairs on buildings and equipment. Kennel personnel are volunteers or employed under the CEFA program.

A free service could be provided to any municipality having a few concerned citizens. A fund drive for Puppyland, yielding a substantial amount would allow us to provide stray dog service to the community free of charge. Interested persons or organizations may contact Gary Gall, Puppyland manager.

The best method of avoiding stray dog charges, is to control your animal. However, most dogs manage to slip away occasionally. Tagging your dog with rabies, registration, or simple ID tags will help. Notify local police and Puppyland immediately when the dog is missed. We will notify owners of where to pick up a previously reported stray.

We hope this information is helpful and that owners can understand the problems and need for charges.

Manager

WASHINGTON COUNTY'S SOLID WASTE DILEMMA

[First in a series of articles]

By Dan A. Wilson, Horticulture/Resource Agent

Solid waste refers to almost anything people throw away. Everything from food waste to plastic milk bottles to old washing machines is solid waste and should be properly disposed of in order to prevent pollution.

Alternative methods of disposal include source separation and recycling, incineration, resource recovery and landfilling of all waste. Source separation is done in the home and different types of waste (aluminum, glass, newspaper) are collected in separate containers for recycling. Incineration means burning some of the waste materials with the necessary air pollution controls in mind. Resource recovery is the type of process done by Americology in Milwaukee where solid waste is separated and recycled at a plant instead of in the home.

The dilemma faced by Washington County communities is that no matter the method of disposal, there will still be part of or all of the solid waste left which would have to be placed in a sanitary landfill. A further problem arises since a 1979 Department of Natural Resources status report indicates that most landfills in Washington County have less than three or four years left to their expected lives. This places concerted pressure on communities of Washington County to help the situation by developing a new landfill site.

Donohue and Associates, a consulting engineering firm hired by Washington County, reviewed the alternative methods of handling waste in its 1980 "Solid Waste Management Plan for Washington-Waukesha Counties." Resource recovery was eliminated as an alternative since Americology would not be able to handle more waste due to insufficient capacity. However, use of the City of Waukesha's incinerator and source separation were seen as viable components of an overall solid waste management system.

After studying six various alternatives, Donohue and Associates and a joint Washington-Waukesha Counties Solid Waste Committee recommended that Washington County develop its own sanitary landfill site and implement a solid waste disposal system. It was also determined that the county should promote and coordinate a source separation program which has the potential of reducing total solid waste volume reaching the landfill by 15 to 20%.

Next: What is a sanitary landfill and what criteria are used to select a site?

Yes, you can freeze cheese. Cut into pieces of about one-half pound and wrap tightly in a moisture-proof wrapper to prevent evaporation. Freeze quickly at 0 degree F. or lower. Thaw slowly under refrigeration in the unopened package. Use the cheese as soon as possible after thawing.

Scoliosis Screening Offered in County School Districts

Scoliosis screening will be offered to select age groups in several school districts in Washington County this fall.

WHAT IS SCOLIOSIS? Scoliosis is a lateral or side-wards curvature of the spine. The cause is unknown. It is a spinal disorder that usually appears during the early teen years when rapid growth occurs in children. It is an insidious, symptom free condition affecting about four of every 1,000 girls in the 9-15 age bracket, but it is less common in boys. There is a strong hereditary factor with scoliosis, therefore, if one child has scoliosis, siblings should be examined regardless of age.

HOW IS SCOLIOSIS RECOGNIZED? The changes which occur are often very subtle; one hip and one shoulder may seem higher than the other, or one shoulder blade may be more prominent than the other. The condition can easily go undetected, thus necessitating the need for school screening programs. The goal of the screening program is to recognize deformities in their earliest stages so that progression can be prevented. Early detection is the only way to prevent scoliosis from becoming a severe problem.

WHO WILL DO THE SCREENING? The screening will be done by trained school personnel or volunteers. Children who appear to have deviations from normal will be rescreened by the professional nursing staff from the Community Health Nursing Service. A letter recommending an evaluation by the family physician or an orthopedic specialist will be sent to parents of children with an observable deviation.

WHAT IS THE TREATMENT FOR SCOLIOSIS? To prevent further progression of the curvature of the spine, medical treatment must be sought. Treatment may consist of a brace and exercises, but exercises alone will not correct a curve. Medical treatment, by the family physician or an orthopedic specialist, is necessary to prevent severe problems.

WHO WILL BE SCREENED? Those students in high incidence age groups will be screened in Washington County schools participating in the program. Students will be screened in swimsuits, underwear, or gym clothes. Screening will be done during October and November to permit time for rescreening prior to Christmas vacation.

If parents have questions about scoliosis, the screening program or specific concerns about their children, please call:

Washington County Community Health Nursing Service, 515 East Washington Street - West Bend, 338-4462 or 644-5204.

Army Pfc. Keith C. Kletzien, son of Roxanne Shellenberger of 1622 58th St., Milwaukee, has participated in "Reforger '81," a series of training exercises conducted by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces in Europe.

Kletzien, a mechanic with the 3rd Armored Division, Hanau, West Germany, joined with members of his unit to provide vital support for the United States and allied forces taking part in this annual exercise.

The 13th of its series, Reforger '81 tested mobility, plans, capabilities and support agreements between military and civilian transportation agencies of both the United States and its NATO partners.

The exercise, stated Department of Defense officials, provided soldiers and airmen the best possible peacetime training for performance of duty under simulated combat conditions.

Nearly 17,000 people along with 27,000 tons of equipment were sent to Europe from the United States in support of Reforger '81.

He is a 1980 graduate of Nathan Hale High School, West Allis, WI.

His wife, Rachael, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Schurrar of Rural Route 3, Campbellsport.

worked with 36 cases this year and has seen $4,527 plus an additional 492 hours of community service paid back to the victims of property crime. It is anticipated by Bureau officials, that another agency will take over the operation of Project Payback, although at this time it is unknown by whom or when.

Wheat Crop To Be All-Time High, USDA Says

By Donald E. Sampson
Executive Director
County ASCS Office

The 1981 wheat crop is expected to reach an all-time high of 2.75 billion bushels, according to a U.S. Department of Agriculture report. The production would be 16 percent more than last year's 2.37 billion bushels.

USDA officials attribute the increase to a record 88.8 million acres of wheat planted by farmers and to prospective record spring wheat yields.

Harvesting of the second successive record wheat crop is not expected to change the tight "free stock" situation. Total wheat supplies for the season are forecast at 3.74 billion bushels, 14 percent more than last season.

Wheat prices for 1981/82 will depend primarily on export sales, use of the loan and reserve program, and the impact of weather on world grain crops, the report stated. Farm prices for 1981/82 are forecast to range from $3.70 to $4.00 per bushel.

With large exportable supplies, the U.S. could ship overseas a record 1.775 billion bushels of wheat in 1981/82. Wheat shipments may increase to Egypt, Algeria, and Morocco and will remain high to China, Japan, and Brazil. Donald E. Sampson, an official of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, said 1981-crop wheat under loan is eligible for immediate entry in the grain reserve. Farmers who place the crop in the reserve are entitled to receive $3.58 per bushel plus prepaid annual storage payments of 26.5 cents a bushel. The current interest rate on wheat loans is 14.5 percent.

USDA officials say farmers increased their holdings in the wheat reserve program by 110 million bushels during 1980/81. As of August 12, the reserve totals 375 million bushels and is made up of placements going back to the 1976 crops.

County Youth Service Bureau To Close Down

The Youth Service Bureau of Washington County will be closing down October 31, 1981, due to severe cutbacks in Federal funding.

The Bureau, which was created in 1975 as a Juvenile Delinquency Prevention agency, has served 2500 Washington County youth during the first eight months of this year. Among the programs to be discontinued are the Truancy Intervention, Career Information and Vandalism Awareness programs as well as various employment programs and counseling services. An additional program operated through the agency is a Juvenile Restitution Program: Project Payback. Through Project Payback, young people are placed at various worksites throughout the county and are required to "Pay Back" the victims of their property crime. Payback has

Detailed Appraisal Of Soil and Water Resources Available

By Don Kurer
District Conservationist

A detailed appraisal of our nation's soil and water resources is available for reference at the offices of the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) and the Agricultural Conservation and Stabilization Service (ASCS), 2395 W. Washington Street, West Bend. Copies for review are also available through many community libraries.

The appraisal was called for by the Soil and Water Resources Act of 1977 (RCA). It reveals that soil erosion is critical in many important farming areas in the United States such as the Palouse area in the state of Washington. If these high erosion rates continue, it will reduce the future ability of our country to produce food and fiber.

The RCA of 1977 was authorized by congress to evaluate the conditions and trends of our soil and water resources and to develop strategies to meet our future needs of these resources. Public input has been an important part of this process. Many RCA public input meetings with citizens and government officials were held in Washington County. Extensive public comments are reflected in the appraisal.

The appraisal is available in two volumes, Part I, "Status, Conditions and Trends" presents data on soil, water and related resources in the U.S. Part II, "Analysis of Resource Trends" shows likely future consequences if current practices continue.

A recommended conservation program based on the appraisal and on public response to earlier RCA draft documents, will be released for public comment this fall by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Gervase Hephner

Southern Part of Fond du Lac County
Fighting Nitrate Poisoning in Wells

(MADISON)—“Do you appreciate the safe, clean water that flows from your faucet?” asked State Representative Gervase Hephner (D-Chilton).

“Probably not until it is gone,” he answered, “...and then it’s too late.”

Hephner pointed to the heart-breaking stories of several constituents in the southern part of Fond du Lac County who are fighting nitrate poisoning in their wells. Their herds have suffered, young animals have died and pregnant animals have aborted, he explained. For example, a family raising pigs lost 119 piglets due to the contaminated water. A dairy farmer has seen calves die and milk production fall as a result of unsafe water.

In addition to the economic hardships, these people have suffered from health problems, as well. When you consider that a household uses about 200 gallons of water per day and each cow needs about 20 gallons a day, Hephner observed, it is hard to imagine how they can haul enough safe water to sustain themselves and their animals.

“Wisconsin’s pure groundwater supply is the most important resource we have—and the most fragile,” Hephner pointed out. However, problems with groundwater pollution are popping up all over the state.

In Door and Grant Counties, bacteria from wastes has contaminated wells, in the central sands of the state, the groundwater contains pesticides and fertilizers and in other areas industrial and mining wastes are showing up in the drinking water. Once the damage is done, Hephner added, we don’t have the technology to clean it up.

Now, in southern Fond du Lac

County, reports of nitrate contamination in the groundwater are increasing. First, Hephner said, we must pinpoint the source of this contamination and stop that practice.

Next, he continued, we must heighten people’s awareness of the problem. Hephner has already helped arrange a meeting between experts at the Department of Natural Resources and the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection and people concerned or affected by the nitrate problem.

“Finally, he said, “we must stay on top of this problem through closer monitoring and surveillance of nitrates in the water.” Hephner has asked the Department of Agriculture to encourage a test for nitrate contamination as part of the well inspection program for dairy farms producing Grade A and B milk. Since the water samples are analyzed for bacterial content, it would be easy to look for nitrates, too.

Concerned about the hidden threat of groundwater contamination, Hephner said, “we must take action now to preserve this valuable resource and save other families from suffering from the painful effects of contaminated water.”

Transportation
Aids to County
Total $132,455.74

Transportation aids totaling $31 million have been mailed by the state department of transportation to Wisconsin’s 1,920 counties and municipalities.

The first quarter payment for fiscal 1982 includes $7.1 million to towns, $1.9 million to villages, $12.4 million to cities and $9.6 million to counties. The current payment is about five per cent ahead of the first quarter payment in 1981, which totaled $28.5 million.

The payment to Washington County is $132,455.74. Payments to municipalities in Washington county include: area towns, Town of Kewaskum $4,330.26, Town of Wayne $5,127.57, Town of Farmington $6,240.85, Town of Barton $4,455.35.

The transportation aids are the local governments’ share of state motor vehicle revenues, which help pay the cost of constructing and maintaining local roads and bridges.

Distribution is based on the functional classification of the road mileage in each jurisdiction (arterials, collectors and local roads), the relative responsibility shared by state and local governments for each type of road, and the actual, as well as legislatively-mandated cost of construction and maintenance.

In addition to returning a share of state motor vehicle revenues, the department of transportation distributes federal and state aids to local units of government for eligible transportation projects and programs (highways, airports, buses, rails and harbors), and all 72 counties are reimbursed by the state for their costs of maintaining the state trunk highway system.

The Indians, who can look forward to a tough game against the Kiel Raiders, will wind up the season at home with Plymouth next Wednesday night.

...serving and making few mistakes. After getting past Grafton the tournament rested on the outcome with Shorewood, last year's champs, whom the Indians also defeated.

Cathy Schlice served eight or nine straight points against Shorewood. Michelle Rodenkirch was the team's most consistent spiker, Donna Menzel played above par, and Barb Matenaer was aggressive.

A parents' night crowd last Tuesday failed to help the volleyball girls win in their last home appearance. They lost the first two games to New Holstein, 15-9 and 15-5.

The Indians had trouble returning serves and after leading in the first two games, 2-0 and 3-0, they allowed the Huskies to run off big strings of points.

The reserves took over in the third game and turned things around with a 15-0 victory as Amy Vetter ran a bunch of points in a row. Jackie Mueller also played well.

Girl Spikers Win Invitational, Lose Two in Conference

The Kewaskum girls' team played some of their best volleyball of the year to capture the Grafton Invitational.

The Indians won five of six games in the tourney, going 2-0 against Grafton and 2-0 against Shorewood before losing their last game to Kettle Moraine after they already had the title won. Grafton and Shorewood wound up with 3-3 records and Kettle with 2-4.

Kewaskum was the best team in the meet, having a good day

The local girls lost another match at Chilton Thursday night. Chilton won the first two games, 15-6 and 15-7 and scored 8 points in the final game won by Kewaskum, 15-8.

Of Chilton's total of 38 points, the Indians missed returning 22 of them. Without many sets the girls had trouble getting any spikes.

Rodenkirch, the team's leading spiker, had just two at-

Two Rivers Boys, Girls Win Conference Cross Country Title; Kewaskum Last

Host Two Rivers ran true to form by winning the Eastern Wisconsin Conference cross country championship Thursday. The Raiders won both the boys' and girls' ends of the meet.

The Two Rivers boys won easily over the six school field (Chilton did not have a team this year), coming in with a near perfect 21 points, 40 lower than second place New Holstein. The Kewaskum boys place sixth and last with 144 points.

The Two Rivers girls beat Sheboygan Falls by 10 points, 49-59. Kewaskum was third and last out of only three teams in the conference with 80 points.

Individual winners in the races were Ted Taddy of Two Rivers for the boys with a 15:54 for the three mile run and Mary Kastelic from Plymouth for the girls, who covered the two miles in 12:41, just six seconds ahead of Melody Thurman of Sheboygan Falls. Plymouth had only two runners so they could not qualify in the team standings.

Two Rivers boys had all five placing in the top 10.

Kewaskum coach Dave Drexler didn't expect his boys to do well in the final standings but had hoped Wayne Boudreau would be in the top 10. Boudreau was running sixth or seventh but couldn't keep pace and dropped back to 12th at the end.

Among the girls Indian Ericka Follmann had a fine day, placing ninth to make the top 10. Her time was 13:32. This is her first year out for the sport. Freshman Sandy Klein placed 12th for Kewaskum.

This Saturday the Indians will compete in the Fond du Lac sectional.

Some of State Campgrounds Close for Season

A number of state park campgrounds will close upon completion of the "Colorama" season, according to state park officials.

Loren Thorson, chief of Recreation Programs, stated that "The fall color season is the last hurrah for most of the campers. After that most campgrounds are buttoned up for the winter."

Thorson indicated that campgrounds remaining open will continue all services except the water related services in restrooms and service buildings. "Water lines are drained to prevent winter freeze-up," he noted, "However, campers will still find water available but often not as convenient as during the summer camping season."

A total of 14 state parks and forests will provide winter camping services. They are: Devil's Lake, Governor Dodge, Interstate, Lake Wissota, Newport, Peninsula, Potawatomi, Kohler-Andrae, Willow River and Yellowstone, plus Black River, Point Beach and the Northern and Southern Kettle Moraine State Forests.

Winter rates of $2.75 per campsite will be in effect until the regular summer campground services are restored. A number of the state park and forest campgrounds have electrical hookups for which a daily fee of $1.00 is charged.

Winter activities in state parks include snowmobiling, cross-country skiing fishing, skating, snowshoeing and hiking. Campgrounds and roads leading to campgrounds will be plowed, thus campers do not have to worry about being snowed in.

Snow conditions in the state vary from one area to another and often vary from one day to the next. "We strongly urge visitors who plan to visit a state park to call the park office in advance to find out about current conditions," Thorson recommended.
