Area United Way Drive Exceeds Goal Official Start of Kewaskum

Pledges and contributions to Kewaskum Area United Way thus far exceed $19,000 but the total is not yet final. The goal was $18,000.

"There's no final figure," explained Bert Preis, campaign co-chairman. "The money keeps coming in."

Although money is important, Allen Koepke, president of the local organization, said the number of people contributing made the campaign a success.

"This year, we had many more people contributing to United Way," said Koepke. He mentioned one of the goals for the 1981 campaign was for wider participation of more people in the area. "We met that goal," he stated.

"More people contributed. More people showed compassion," Preis said. "I think we did a better job of telling our story this time. We wanted people to know that they all should help. I consider this campaign a success."

Koepke, Preis and Roy Esser, the other co-chairman, all said the volunteers working with United Way also helped make the campaign successful. "The volunteer help this year was great," Esser noted. All members of the local United Way organization are volunteers.

The group will add late contributions to the total and will accept pledges and funds until the end of 1981, according to Koepke.

Cablevision Construction

A special groundbreaking ceremony was held Friday, October 30, marking the beginning of construction work which will bring River Bend Cablevision's cable TV service to the Village of Kewaskum.

Shown in the photo above are Village of Kewaskum President, Gerald Stollenwerk (right) and West Bend Mayor Don Goring holding the cable which will be used to connect the two communities. They are seen at the location north of West Bend on Highway 45 where the interconnecting cable begins its seven mile journey north to Kewaskum.

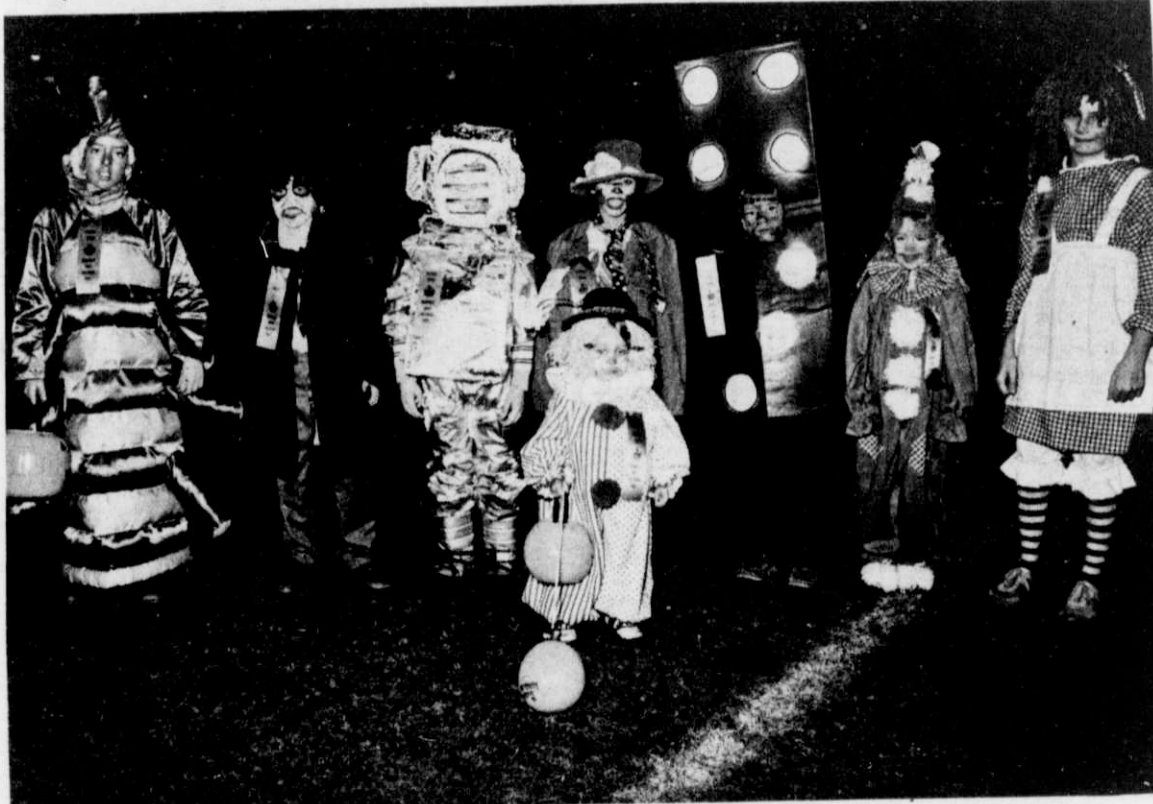

According to River Bend Cablevision's Chief Engineer Robert Schaeffer, the construction of the 7 mile line which began Monday, November 2, "will take about 10 days of plowing, if the weather is good to us." The entire 7 mile stretch will be buried along Hwy. 45 within the state's highway right-of-way.

Once the interconnect construction is complete the company will begin its distribution system construction within the village. Presently the phone and electric utilities are working to make the poles which must bear the cable system's feed lines ready for cable attachments. "Once the make-ready work is complete, we will start our construction in the residential areas of Kewaskum. We will be able to work right thru the winter once we're started," said Schaeffer.

No date for the beginning of home installation of cable television service in the village has been set at this time.

Nearly 600 ghosts, goblins, witches and other assorted Halloween characters gathered on the athletic field early last Friday evening, then marched on to the high school. Was there mischief or mayhem afoot? No, it was the first annual Community Halloween Party sponsored by the Kewaskum Elementary P.T.O.

On behalf of the P.T.O., we would like to thank the many people who donated so generously and freely of their time and effort to make the party such a success. Many thanks, too, to all the well behaved youngsters who attended.

Special thanks is extended to Mrs. Ellen Coulter, General Chairperson of the Halloween Party. Her tireless efforts and untold hours of organizing were tremendously appreciated by all. In addition, we would also like to extend thanks to all the committee chairpersons and their respective committees: Cheryl Ammel, Mary Lou Chambers, Carole Connor, Jan Hubbell and Sheryl Rinzel.

We are deeply grateful to Regal Ware, Kiwanis Club and Lions Club for their most generous financial support. These outstanding members of the community are always being called upon for their help and once again they have contributed most graciously.

It is impossible to list here all the names of the many fine individuals who contributed, but we would like to make special mention of the following contributors for their thoughtfulness:

Larry Ammel and Kewaskum High School Band, Harold

Boettcher, Floyd Brenholt, Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Connor, Mike Coulter, Country Aire Beauty Boutique, John Engelhardt & Sons, Inc., Roy Esser, Future Farmers of America and Mr. Rizzardi, Mr. and Mrs. Art Fleury, Geri's Beauty Salon, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gust of American Family Ins., Bob Getter, Junior Woman's Club, Kewaskum High School custodians, Kewaskum Key Club, Kewaskum Police Dept., Auxiliary Police and Chief Donald Hlavaty, Kewaskum Statesman, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Liepert, Pat McFadden, Minz Supply, Mary Kay Mitchell, Mrs. David Nigh, Clark Pearson, David Pelton of Modern Woodmen of America Ins., John E. Slight Revenue Increases, Lower Budget, But Taxes Will Go Up

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Administrator Dan Schmidt's message to the Kewaskum Village Board Monday evening was that efforts to reduce the proposed 1982 Budget are being made, but lower revenues will still see village taxes increase. Schmidt noted he has no control over figures used in developing the budget and tax rate saying he can only work with the numbers the village is given.

Schmidt presented several recommendations for reduction in the 1982 budget. They could lower the previous proposed 1982 figure of $896,557.00 by $29,000 to approximately $867,576.00. Postponement of plans for a three-year village assessment program and micro-filming of village records would remove approximately $9,000. Police Protection cuts would drop another $7,800. Public Works reductions could account for another $2,500. Village shared contributions for retirement and insurance will go down by about $3,100 because of a new employee on a lower wage scale. Approximately $9,000 from recreation could be saved if 1982 plans to remodel toilet facilities at the old park are dropped. The Sanitation Department could save $3,800, if the village switched over to once-a-week garbage collection instead of the present twice-a-week system. The Fire Department could save approximately $3,000, if the village were to purchase hoses for the new pumper truck out of this year's funds rather than budgeting for them in 1982. Schmidt noted several companies are having special sales which would allow

Kewaskum Student Awarded $1500 Electric Co. Scholarship

Four students from Wisconsin Electric Power Co.'s service area have been awarded scholarships by the Institute of Nuclear Power Operations.

The students were among 159 undergraduate students nationwide to receive $1,500 scholarships toward degrees in nuclear or nuclear-related engineering, power generation health physics or another study area applicable to the nuclear utility industry.

Scholarships went to James Barry, 5035 S. Menard Drive, New Berlin, Wis., and Craig Mataczynski, 2525 N. Owaissa St., Appleton, Wis., both students at the University of Wisconsin in Madison; Gerald Butz, 1325 Park View Drive, Kewaskum, Wis., of Northwestern University; and Vincent Shiely, 630 Honey Creek Parkway, Wauwatosa, Wis., of the University of Notre Dame.

The nuclear utility industry hopes the scholarships help attract high-quality engineering students to careers in nuclear power.

The Institute of Nuclear Power Operations, INPO, is a non-profit, independent organization that was created by the nuclear utility industry as part of its response to the accident at Three Mile Island. INPO is designed to enhance the operational safety of nuclear power plants by upgrading training and performance of reactor operations. Wisconsin Electric, which operates the Point Beach Nuclear Plant at Two Creeks, Wis., is a member of INPO.

the Village to realize a considerable savings. General Public Works reductions in machinery and equipment could lower the budget another $2,000.

Increases in revenue, on the other hand, will not improve the tax picture by much. Revenue from parks and playground shelter rental, etc., could add approximately $2,000 in income. The largest increase, $17,000, could come from additional income from prior years. Schmidt noted that it was not advisable to include this amount in 1982 revenue totals. Tax sources recommend this prior year revenue be kept as a "Sinking Fund," which could be used to cover unforeseen emergencies which might arise and are not covered by budgeted funding.

Losses in revenue come from lower federal and state tax sharing along with a drop of .934c in the village's equalized value rate.

Schmidt compared 1981 taxes to "guesstimated" taxes for 1982. Municipal tax was $8,498, County $3,883, State .284c, School $13,611, Vocational School $1,635, for a gross total of $27,913 less a tax credit of $4.22 for a net 1981 tax of $23,692/$1,000. Figures for 1982 are calculated to be Municipal $9,432, County $4,738, State .354c, School $15,412, Vocational School $1,956, for an approximate gross of $31,892 less a reduced tax credit in the area of $2.70 for an approximated net tax of $29,192 per $1,000. This would be a 14% increase over 1981 taxes.

Schmidt again stressed that the 1982 figures are strictly guesswork at this point, since no final state shared revenue amounts or tax credits are available yet. President Jerry Stollenwerk asked how soon Schmidt would have these figures finalized. Schmidt stated, "I can't finalize until we have all the figures. They should be out by December 1, but I think we will have to cross our fingers for that date."

Schmidt said, "last year's budget was $884,000, we've reduced 1982's by $15,000-$20,000 already." Stollenwerk noted, "at least we're going in the right direction."

In other action the Parks and Recreation Committee said its Thursday Night Basketball League will again be held. Costs are $80.00 per team, plus $8.00 additional for each non-school participant. Organizational meetings will be held November 4 and 7 in the Council Room.

Dan Schmidt said the village, in conjunction with the schools, will have open gyms on Saturdays. The fee of 25c per participant per day, or $3.50 for the season will be split 50/50 between the village and schools.

The board approved a motion to advertise for a new public works employee to fill a vacancy caused by an employee retirement. The salary will be $5.52 per hour, for a 40-hour week. The five final applicants will be sent to MPTI for aptitude tests. The successful applicant will have a 120-day probationary period, after which time the person will be required to obtain a water license. Cutoff for applications is November 20.

A motion was unanimously approved to extend the "No Parking" ban on the west side of Reigle Drive.

The board also approved a resolution permitting River Bend Cablevision to borrow money from First Wisconsin National Bank, Milwaukee, for installation equipment and work in the village.

The board adjourned to closed session.

Dear Friends

It is well to pause sometimes and think how one will feel when a loved one is no longer among us. It may cause us to realize the little acts of kindness and attention we should be giving now - rather than to suffer remorse for neglect of a loved one after they have departed this world.

"Tie a Yellow Ribbon Round the Old Oak Tree" or "When They Cut Down the Old Oak [pine] Tree" might be suitable songs to go along with this picture. The photo was taken in 1940 when the huge oak tree on Bilgo's lane between the Louis Bath and Ernest Becker homes on First Street was cut down. The lane is now a street named Bilgo Lane, which leads to the high school. At that time the oak tree was estimated to be 250 years old. The workmen are identified in the picture on the left. Kreif Nominated For Airman of Month

1. The 305th Air Refueling Wing takes great pride in nominating Technical Sergeant Kenneth K. Krief, FR397-58-3720, as the 40th Air Division Maintenance Airman of the Month for September 1981. Technical Sergeant Krief is assigned to the 305th Field Maintenance Squadron, Jet Engine Conditioning Section, as the Assistant NCOIC. In this capacity, Technical Sergeant Krief consistently demonstrates outstanding leadership and technical skills in the performance of his duties.

2. I consider the above individual one of the most outstanding NCOs in the maintenance complex. In substantiation of this nomination, the following information is submitted.

a. TSgt Kreif is a classic example of those rare individuals who epitomizes the combination of outstanding ability and devotion to duty. His vast knowledge of the J57 engine and associated maintenance functions have enabled him to produce reliable products with outstanding results. During the past three months, TSgt Kreif has spent many long hours of overtime upgrading the integrity and technical expertise of the Jet Engine Trim Teams. His efforts produced outstanding results as evidenced during a recent 8th Air Force Staff Assistance Visit where an engine trim team was picked at random and evaluated. The inspector concluded that it was the best jet engine trim he had ever witnessed. More recently another trim team was evaluated by the SAC MSET and one of the trim team members was awarded a Certificate of Merit for outstanding achievement. In addition, the Propulsion Branch received an overall rating of excellent with the highest score attained by any propulsion branch in SAC for this cycle. This outstanding achievement can be directly attributed to the dedicated efforts of TSgt Kreif.

b. TSgt Kreif's ability to troubleshoot and analyze engine malfunctions is exceptional. Due to his concerted efforts; inflight discrepancies have decreased by more than 25% in the last three months. In addition, the Jet Engine Conditioning Section has not experienced a repeat discrepancy in more than a year. Recently, during a higher headquarters launch, TSgt Kreif and his crew responded to a "Red Ball" situation in which a defective CSD and generator were removed and replaced in the truly remarkable time of 25 minutes. This task normally takes one hour and a half to accomplish.

c. TSgt Kreif has instituted a new capability for the Engine Conditioning Monitoring Program (ECMP). Sacrificing many off duty hours, he created an ECMP training program for alternate monitors which now gives us the capability to interpret and analyze inflight data around the clock. This new program will insure that ECMP data will be reviewed and analyzed before an aircraft flies again. Although this program has been in existence for a very short time, it has identified two major "hits" on aircraft that were scheduled to fly the next morning. These discrepancies were corrected before the aircraft flew and prevented several code three writeups.

d. Recently, the Propulsion Branch has experienced several inlet guide vane (IGV) changes; a task that normally requires the engine to be removed, repaired in shop and then returned to the aircraft for reinstallation. TSgt Kreif initiated a comprehensive training program for all flightline engine personnel and implemented procedures to change IGVs on the aircraft. TSgt Kreif's initiative saved the Propulsion Branch approximately 28 man-hours on each IGV change accomplished on the aircraft.

e. TSgt Kreif has been selected to fill the position of Chief Engine Inspector in the Wing Quality Control Section. His selection was based on his superior performance, integrity and technical expertise.

f. The above examples serve only as illustrations of TSgt Kreif's consistent outstanding leadership. His contributions to the maintenance effort constitutes a major factor in the high degree of excellence maintained by the Propulsion Branch. His personal example of impeccable military bearing, appearance, his ability to define and maintain the highest standards of performance and his dedication to the advancement of the military profession mark him as one of the most outstanding NCOs in the Air Force. TSgt Kreif's performance is a credit to the 305th AREFW and he is highly deserving of the recognition as Maintenance Airman of the Month.

Clark R. Penas,
Lt. Col, USAF
Assistant Deputy Commander
for Maintenance

TSgt. Kreif is married to the former Mary Abhold and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Kreif, Kewaskum.

Gregory E. Sailer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Sailer of 1658 Curtis Lane, West Bend, has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force to the rank of airman first class.

Sailer is a munitions systems specialist at K.I. Sawyer Air Force Base, Mich., with the 410th Munitions Maintenance Squadron.

He is a 1978 graduate of West Bend West High School.

The difference between "she's good looking" and "she's looking good" is about 20 years and 40 pounds.—

Chairman Thanks All for Success of Halloween Party

I would personally like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make this year's Kewaskum Elementary PTO Community Halloween party a huge success.

It took countless hours of planning, organizing, group meetings and manpower to make this party the success it was. The committee members, Betty Fluery, Carol Conners, Jan Hubbel, Mary Lou Chambers Cheri Ramthun and Cheryl Rinzel worked very hard to plan and make this party work.

I would like to also thank all the mothers and fathers, organizations, auxiliary police and everyone else who donated or helped in any way to make this Halloween party 1981 a much safer and enjoyable time for all. Once again, thanks Kewaskum!

4-H Club News

4-H and Youth Agent

YOUTH ENJOY ARTS AND CRAFTS

Successful creative work in arts and crafts depends mainly on two things. First, the ability to create, which means to develop an idea or a concept into visual shape or form and secondly, the skilled use of techniques and materials. These two things are emphasized in the 4-H cultural arts projects.

Since this is the time of year when 4-H clubs are re-organizing and youth are enrolling for their projects for the coming year, let's take a look at some of the opportunities in the cultural arts. These are opportunities for youth to learn, and there are opportunities for adults to work with youth in the various art areas.

The process of designing follows four stages of development. There's an awareness of experiences with things around us. There is perception or selective recognition of our environment. There is imagination, which is the inner vision for creating ideas, and there is expression which is a creating and forming of ideas into a final product or design through the use of materials and techniques.

There are several materials for special projects which are available in the 4-H program. Main ones include: leathercraft, stencil painting, block printing, metal enameling and drawing and painting. In addition to those visual arts, the members can participate in the performing arts of drama and music.

The leathercraft project teaches the characteristics and uses of leather, use of tools and equipment, making patterns and creating original designs. Belts, billfolds and many other leather articles can be made.

Stencil painting includes making original stencil designs, color experiments on cloth and paper, choosing and using good tools and making your own tools.

Block printing includes experiments in original design, cutting blocks from different materials, making designs on cloth and paper materials.

Metal enameling is geared toward members 12 and older. It includes making jewelry such as earrings, pins, pendants, etc. by melting glass on copper backings. Original design and patterns are encouraged.

The drawings and painting project includes learning to draw with pencil, chalk, crayon, pen and ink. Many activities, such as drawing from nature, surface rubbings, matting drawings, painting with water color, poster paint, oil and acrylics can also be done.

The performing arts include drama and music. The drama projects stresses creative dramatics, leadership, costume and technical direction, writing and directing a play and producing a festival. The music project can include making simple musical instruments, creating your own music, performing music, forming, investigating and listening to ideas about music.

People today like to use their time wisely and creatively. The cultural arts provide this opportunity. If you're interested in learning about the arts or helping others with the arts, the 4-H program offers real opportunities. Find out more about it by contacting a local 4-H club or contacting the 4-H office at the Washington County Courthouse. Phone 338-4478 or 644-5204.

Dear Mr. Harbeck:

I would publicly like to thank the Kewaskum Rescue Squad for the excellent service they provided Kewaskum Community High School at our home football games. Again, this past Friday, there were two times that the squad was needed during the game. Over the years the rescue squad has handled all types of injuries in a very efficient and professional manner. It gives one a reassuring feeling knowing the Kewaskum Rescue Squad is available when we need them.

Thanks again for your service gentlemen, you are indeed a credit to our community.

Letter to the Editor:

So John Tessar wants the school board to come up with some more cuts at the next meeting.

This is the same John Tessar who straddled the fence last year when as a committee member, he came up with zilch. When it came to suggestions for trimming personnel, this is the same John Tessar who voted against all Dr. Ogi's suggestions for cuts. At the first big meeting with many taxpayers in attendance, he gave no reasons for his actions.

I wonder if high taxed Richard Theusch is going to again cloud the issue by suggesting that Mr. Esser's position be eliminated and Beechwood school be closed. It is obvious that these two suggestions have no merit or support in the community.

By the way, Beechwood has 100 students and not the 40 or so Mr. Brenholt stated a year ago.

Dr. Ogi suggested cuts, received the approval of many businessmen, town board and village board members and citizens.

Several petitions to this effect with many names were presented to the board. There is no need to pass the board's suggestions to Mr. Brenholt and have him sit on them for another month. He is already on record as opposing any personnel cuts.

Don't pass the buck Mr. & Mrs. School Board members. Make your own decisions.

St. Agnes Hospital Opens Unit for Treatment Of Teens Addicted to Alcohol and Drugs

Treatment for adolescents addicted to alcohol and other drugs began Monday, October 19, with the opening of the new Adolescent Addiction Rehabilitation Unit at Saint Agnes Hospital in Fond du Lac.

This 12-bed unit will admit youths that are 12 through 17 years of age who are chemically dependent on alcohol or other drugs.

The development of the unit is in response to the growing number of adolescents who are chemically dependent and in need of treatment. National statistics indicate that 1 of every 10 persons has a problem with alcohol or other drugs.

The program, modeled after the national prominent St. Mary's Hospital program in Minneapolis, will admit adolescents for an initial 10-day evaluation period.

According to Gary Halbach, Adolescent Coordinator of the unit, "There is a fine line between acting out adolescent behavior, in which alcohol and other chemicals are used and chemical dependency. This initial 10-day period will be used as a time to make this evaluation."

If, after 10 days, the adolescent is found to be chemically dependent, he/she will be admitted to the 28-day program. If they're not found to have an addiction problem, the adolescent will be referred to an outside agency for follow-up.

"This is a family program," according to Gary Halbach. "If an adolescent is admitted to the program, the entire family will be involved in his or her treatment and recovery," he added.

According to Halbach, the program is highly structured with activities beginning at 7 a.m. and ending at 10 p.m. - seven days a week. The Fond du Lac School System will be providing tutoring on a daily basis in addition to individual and group counseling sessions, lectures, self-help meetings and goal-oriented Occupational Therapy sessions.

Although the unit is 12 beds, the staff will begin with six and expand gradually, Halbach added.

The unit, located adjacent to the adult Addiction Rehabilitation Unit, has its own snack and dining room, lounge, game room and other facilities. The unit will be staffed 24 hours a day by a nurse. The staff also includes an adolescent counselor, coordinator and ancillary support staff.

"Treatment here will be a way of helping kids to find out what they need once they leave treatment to remain sober one day at a time," said Halbach. "Putting an adolescent into an inpatient unit should be the very last step after all other channels are exhausted," he added.

After going through the 28-inpatient treatment, an after-care program will be established for each youth. Referrals will be made to the youth's county-wide alcoholism program.

"The purpose of this program is to give kids the opportunity for treatment at an earlier stage of their chemical dependency. It often is said that a person has to hit their bottom before they get help for their addiction. I believe that the bottom can be raised so that adolescents get treatment earlier," Halbach stated.

If you would like more information about the program, call 921-2300, extension 1050 or 1506.

NOTICE TO SPECIAL SERVICES TELEPHONE CUSTOMERS

Wisconsin Telephone Company has filed with the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin an application for authority to revise its tariffs relating to special services called "private line" services. The proposed rates for these services would apply to special services offered by other telephone companies which concur with Wisconsin Telephone's private line tariffs.

The proposed revision would restructure all rates for these special services and also increase substantially the charges to customers for those services. It is also proposed that some services now offered would be discontinued.

The special services referred to as "private line" services are primarily used by business customers. They consist of channels and circuits dedicated to the exclusive use of customers for special services. Nearly all of these services involve a specific mileage charge. Special "private line" services include offerings such as off-premises extensions, Foreign Central Office lines, Foreign Exchange services, and other "private line" arrangements. Also included are facilities for patrons of telephone answering services. Special "private line" services do not include basic local telephone service or long distance message telephone services.

Copies of the application, testimony and exhibits filed by Wisconsin Telephone with the Commission are available for review at any of Wisconsin Telephone's PhoneCenter Stores (public business offices). Customers not billed by Wisconsin Telephone who may have questions on this filing may contact their local telephone company. Wisconsin Telephone customers in Wisconsin who have questions concerning the effect of the proposed private line tariff provisions on the services provided to them may call the toll-free number 1-800-242-7235. Wisconsin Telephone customers with billing addresses outside Wisconsin may call 1-414-678-3362, collect.

A pre-hearing conference on the application will be held in Room 426 of the Hill Farms State Office Building, 4802 Sheboygan Avenue, Madison, Wisconsin, on November 24, 1981, beginning at 9:30 a.m. for the purpose of 1) identifying the parties who will actively participate; 2) scheduling hearing dates; 3) scheduling of witnesses; 4) scheduling of additional pre-filed testimony and exhibits; 5) resolving data requests; 6) discussing the issues; and 7) considering such other matters as will facilitate the hearing.

WASHINGTON COUNTY'S SOLID WASTE DILEMMA

[Third in a series]

By Dan A. Wilson, Horticulture/Resource Agent

Washington County has identified three potential sanitary landfill sites and is preparing an initial site report (ISR) for each. The ISR contains preliminary site data which is used to eliminate unfeasible sites from further consideration.

Each ISR will contain a partial topographic survey establishing boundaries and elevations, land use data and soils and groundwater information obtained from observation wells. Usually five observation wells are drilled on each site to check for soil particle sizes and depth to groundwater.

Information discovered during the on-site investigations is then discussed in a data analysis section of the ISR.

Review of the report is done by the Department of Natural Resources. The DNR provides a preliminary opinion as to the suitability of each site for use as a sanitary landfill.

Washington County will have an opportunity to decide whether to proceed with investigations or any particular site after they receive DNR's comments. Thus, the county can hopefully make an informed decision before spending a large sum of money for purchasing and designing a landfill site. This ISR phase will probably take the county another two to three months to complete.

If Washington County decides to continue with the sanitary landfill selection and development process, the next step would be to prepare a detailed Site Feasibility Report on the one site which is selected as most appropriate for a landfill. A Feasibility Study would contain the environmental, social and economic information needed for the DNR to determine if a proposed landfill could be built on that site. As with the ISR, a Feasibility Study would be developed by a consulting engineering firm with expertise in landfill construction.

The DNR is required to complete an Environmental Impact Assessment which is used to determine if an Environmental Impact Statement is necessary. If an E.I.S. is not required and six or more people request a hearing, it must be held at least 60 days later. After any hearing the DNR finishes its review and either approves or denies the Feasibility Study. The final phase before developing a sanitary landfill would be the completion of a Plan of Operation.

NEXT: What's the difference between natural attenuation, lined and zone of saturation landfills?

All proceeds from this fund raising event are used entirely for Troop 791's operations, functions, outings, and of course, to purchase very badly needed new gear. A percentage of each scout's total sales is also applied to his personal account to be used to pay his own way to summer camp.

Happy Holidays to all from Troop 791.

Wayne Girl Scout Troops Hold 'Happy Birthday' Cook-Out

The Girl Scout troops from Wayne held an International Friendship Cook-Out to celebrate the birthday of Juliet Lowe, the founder of Girl Scouting in the United States. We met at the park in Kohlsville, and cooking lunch was the first order of business.

After lunch a ceremony was held. Each troop had previously chosen a country to represent. They made simple costumes and told a little about the country or about Girl Scouting in that country.

After the ceremony the girls all took a hike to explore the area, and finished off the afternoon by toasting marshmallows around the campfire.

The girls from Wayne are designing a special patch that each girl will receive for participating in this event.

on November 10. It should be a very interesting event for all who attend.

Members were reminded of their November meeting which will include the Little Whistlers' annual fund raiser, the club's auction. All members bring homemade items to be included in the auction. The members themselves, then bid on the various items for purchasing.

The highlight of the evening was the month's project, "Creative Crafts." The members were given the opportunity to test their "creative" talents by constructing two different Christmas decorations. Afterward, they were treated to many types of homemade Christmas candy, followed by a discussion on its preparation.

Your

from Tom
Leitzke, R.P.H

Many older people who are physically inactive develop osteoporosis [bone thinning] because of calcium loss for lack of calcium in the bloodstream. Their bones become brittle and fracture easily.

Research suggests that older folks take at least two 8-oz. glasses of milk per day [or servings of yogurt or cheese] to secure 800 milligrams of calcium that are needed each day. They'll then be feeding their bones [and body] a supply of needed calcium plus other minerals and vitamins, all adding up to good health.

Church Women United Celebrate Forty Years of Unity Friday

This year Church Women United will celebrate the organization's 40th anniversary by reviewing the steps which have characterized the growth of this national ecumenical movement.

Locally, the observance will be held November 6 at Immanuel United Church of Christ 501 Walnut, West Bend, with a luncheon and program. The Board of Managers will meet at 11:30 a.m. A sack lunch with birthday cake and a special ceremony honoring all past presidents will follow. We will then hold our annual meeting with election of officers and have the opportunity to see a slide presentation by Toni Kammer and Heidi Thomas about their experience in Haiti. We will conclude with the program for World Community Day, "Put Away The Sword."

As Church Women United, our journey began in December, 1941, days after the bombing of Pearl Harbor. One hundred women from three interdenominational women's groups met December 11 - 13 in Atlantic City to organize the United Council of Church Women. The delegates approved a constitution, named the organization the United Council of Church Women, elected a National Board, and set up an office in New York City.

From 1942 to 1950 the United Council of Church Women responded to the needs of the war years: by establishing World Community Day in 1943; by issuing a call for women to work and pray for international peace; by collecting material aid for war relief; by appointing an official observer at the United Nations from its beginning; and by developing an interracial program, making integration a basic principal of the United Council of Church Women.

From 1950 to 1966 the United Council of Church Women became one of twelve interdenominational agencies which formed the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA. During these years the initial commitments to peace and diversity were strengthened. From 1960-1966 Assignment: Race was a major program emphasis. By the middle sixties the liberating forces affecting every family and community made it apparent that Christian women were called to be even more fully involved in the social revolution.

In 1966, the Board of Managers adjusted the national bylaws to change the name to Church Women United, and declared itself a movement. This enabled greater participation by Roman Catholic, Orthodox, and other Christian women not closely related to denominational women's organizations.

In 1967, CWU was instrumental in the formation of an International Committee for World Day of Prayer. In 1968, World Day of Prayer policy and program were transferred to this International Committee. It requested CWU to provide the administrative services and coordinate the work of member committees in more than 150 countries and island areas.

In 1970, the final administrative link between the National Council of Churches and CWU was discontinued. A new mood was apparent as scientific breakthrough challenged many human values. It was obvious that women needed to carry greater responsibility for movements of liberation and shaping social policy. The high priorities of peace building, economic and racial justice, and the aspirations of every person took on new dimensions. The ten issues of the People's Platform for a Global Society, developed in Forum groups of CWU during the Bicentennial year, became the program emphasis for action.

Moving into the 1980's, Church Women United chose a dual challenge; to claim the grace and power of God alive in each woman and to use the power to work for justice and peace in the global community.

Reassignment: Race was adopted as a program emphasis. A three year special fund drive, Fund for the Fifth Decade, will begin in December, 1981 as a project to benefit the total movement—local, state, and national units.

Church Women United can be compared to a cup that catches and holds Christ's Spirit and loving tenderness. In Church Women United Christian women of different traditions are freed and united to help right wrongs, bring about justice, and heal the wounds of poverty, denial, and deprivation.

Church Women United is 40 years of ecumenism and advocacy. Church Women United is over 2000 local units in every state and Washington, D.C. Church Women United is Protestant, Catholic, Orthodox and other Christian women. Church Women United expresses Christ's Spirit, freeing and uniting Christian women to fill the space where they are with love, justice, and reconciliation. Church Women United is what our motto states "UNITY IN DIVERSITY."

Kewaskum 4-H'ers

Our October monthly meeting was called to order by acting president, Debbie Seideman. Following the Pledge of Allegiance and 4-H Pledge, roll call was taken by Secretary Annette Borgman. The secretary's and treasurer's report

Tim Indermuhle reported on the organizational meeting of the Washington County Older Youth Group for all county 4-H members, ages 14-18. Four leaders from our club attended the County 4-H Leaders Banquet. Mrs. Herbert Ramel was honored for her 25 years as a 4-H project leader with our club.

Fund raising ideas for the coming year was then discussed. It was decided to sell candy.

Election of officers for the 81-82 year followed. Each candidate who was nominated, had to give a speech of why they would like the office. New officers are: President - Tim Indermuhle; Vice President - Debbie Seideman; Secretary - Amy Sekas; Treasurer - Renee Kapp; Reporter - Annette Borgman; Photographer - Chris Holtz; and Recreation Leader - Kim Brodzeller. Mr. Seideman will meet with the new officers to organize the year's activities.

Member record books have been judged at the county level. Twelve member's books were selected to be in the county competition. From those books, members selected to receive county awards are Sandy Holtz, Brian Seideman, Debbie Seideman, Tim Indermuhle, Kim Brodzeller, Mark Brodzeller and Annette Borgman. County Achievement Night will be held Oct. 30 at Silverbrook School, West Bend.

Plans for our November, Family Night, were discussed. It will be held Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the Kewaskum Legion Hall. All members, parents, project leaders and all prospective club members and families are invited to come. All club members are reminded to bring a pan of bars.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments followed, served by Renee Kapp and Billy Butzlaff.

Two Rivers Champs Win WIAA Playoff

Plymouth Nips Indians With Last Minute Score

With Kewaskum leading at the time, Plymouth came through with a last minute touchdown to edge the Indians, 12-7, in the final game of the season here Wednesday night. The setback left Kewaskum with a 3-3 record and fifth place in the conference.

As expected, Two Rivers won the Eastern Wisconsin championship by defeating winless Chilton in the season's finale but had its hands full in a 27-20 victory. Two Rivers wound up with a 5-1 record, their only loss coming at the hands of Kiel. The Raiders thus advanced to the WIAA Division 3 playoffs at Manitowoc where they defeated Mishicot Tuesday night, 7-0, to move up in the playoffs.

A former Kewaskum resident, Plymouth quarterback Bill Haumschild, whose sister attended Kewaskum High, directed an 82-yard drive for the Panthers with a little over a minute left on the clock to enable them to go home with a victory. Haumschild scored the final touchdown on a sneak from the one-foot line with just 1:04 left. The Indians' side argued that he did not get into the end zone on the third down play but the official signaled the score.

Plymouth had taken over on its own 18-yard line with 5:55 remaining and Kewaskum leading, 7-6. Haumschild was successful in completing five of seven passes in the drive, four of them to Dean Aderman, including an important 13-yarder on a third and eight situation for a first down on the Indians eight. A 15-yard face mask penalty also helped the Panthers.

Kewaskum linebacker Scott Stoltzmann broke through to block the extra point try and the Indians got one more chance to win in the closing minute. An unsportsmanlike conduct call gave Plymouth 15 extra yards on the kickoff but Bill Heberer gave the Indians' good field position when he returned the kick to the 35-yard line. Four straight incomplete passes ended Kewaskum's chances for a victory. A victory in this key game would have given the Indians a 4-2 record and a tie for second place in the conference.

Plymouth's ball control offense and the Indians' second half penalties hurt. They had 15 first downs to Kewaskum's six and ran 71 plays to 34 for the Indians. The Panthers also dominated the statistics with 251 yards in total offense to just 112 for the losers.

Despite Plymouth's advantage in the statistics, the Indians still would have won except for the last minute score and a touchdown being taken away. Midway in the third quarter, a procedure call eliminated a 54-yard reverse flea-flicker pass from Ric Leitheiser to Brian Larsen, who took the ball at the 20-yard line and dashed into the end zone for an apparent score, which was nullified. This would have given Kewaskum a 13-6 lead.

The Indians' only score came in the first quarter on a one-yard run by Dave Donath. It was set up by Plymouth's bad snap on a punt.

The Indians had another chance in the fourth quarter when a roughing the kicker penalty gave them a first down on Plymouth's 24. But a holding penalty and intentional grounding call on Leitheiser backed the Indians to their own 45. The Indians were forced to punt, giving the Panthers their final successful chance to score.

The Panthers also had a TD called back in the second quarter on a holding penalty as Haumschild ran into the end zone. They moved back inside the five but Stoltzmann stopped Haumschild on the three on fourth and goal. Kewaskum could not move the ball and a short punt gave Plymouth good field position at the Kewaskum 32. Tom Paese scored just before halftime. Plymouth was also on the Indian three in the third quarter but another key stop by Stoltzmann prevented the score. Stoltzmann was involved in 28 tackles and did a great job on defense.

JVs, Freshmen Beat Plymouth

Both the Kewaskum JV and freshmen football teams won their final games over Plymouth. The JVs won easily, 27-6, and the frosh blanked the Panthers, 12-0.

For the JVs, Jeff Squier took a pass for a TD from Dennis Butz and Chris Harlow kicked the extra point for the first points. Plymouth came back with a score but after that it was all Kewaskum. Halfback Jim Braun scored on a short run before halftime. Then Harlow had two touchdowns in the second half on 14 and 9 yard runs. He also added a two point conversion. Defensively Braun, Squier and Dave Pesch did well and Braun collected 100 yards in 24 carries. Harlow had over 80 yards. The JVs were 3-4 for the season and 3-3 in conference.

A 25 yard pass from Tom Herriges to Mike Steinhardt put the freshmen on the board for the first time in the second quarter. In the last quarter, quarterback Mark Follmann went in from the five to make it 12-0. The defense was mainly responsible for the win. Tackle Harvey Barber, linebacker Rich Miller and defensive ends Mike Steinhardt and Mike Krueger played well. John Mertzig ran well on offense. The frosh ended with a 2-4 mark.

Record Black

Crappie Caught

A Madison angler and a Madison lake combined to produce a Wisconsin record size black crappie late this summer, according to the Bureau of Fish Management, Department of Natural Resources.

The three-pound, five-ounce fish was taken from Lake Wingra with rod and reel by Steve Hatleberg, 2922 Ashford Lane on August 31. It broke the previous Wisconsin record for a black crappie, set in May of 1979, by three ounces. That fish was caught in Bass Lake No. 2 in Chippewa County.

Hatleberg's crappie measured 17 1/4 inches and had a girth of over 14 1/2 inches.

A certificate will be sent to Hatleberg later this year by the DNR in recognition of his record size fish catch.
