Village Board Gives 'Go-Ahead' for Municipal Building Roof Repairs

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At its meeting Tuesday night, the village board approved a recommendation to advertise for bids on the repair of three roof sections and the chimney on the Municipal Building.

After reviewing the proposed repair and remodeling program, Public Works Committee Chairman Don Mlodzik said his group felt the recommended repairs would be needed to stop further water damage.

The board approved work on the three sections since they are not part of any remodeling plans being contemplated for the remainder of the building and other roof areas. Mlodzik had informed the board at previous meetings that patching of the roofs had only resulted in a temporary stop-gap measure. Because of the recurring water damage, the committee felt the money would be better spent on complete repair rather than another patching job which still would not solve the problem.

At the same time, the committee recommended repair work be done on the building's chimney. Mlodzik said it was severely cracked and a substantial amount of brick would have to be removed and replaced. The committee felt it would be better to have this

A complete list of candidates for the various offices and the referendum question will be found on facsimile ballots printed on the inside pages of this issue.

An Alternative to Home Delivered or Rented Mail Boxes

Neighborhood Delivery Boxes

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The next best thing to home delivered mail is now available in the postal service's new neighborhood delivery boxes.

This new type of delivery service is an extension of the rural mail delivery. Instead of the daily trip to the post office for mail, residents may now petition the post office for a delivery box on their street. The boxes can contain eight, twelve or sixteen units each and are usually installed on a corner so they can service patrons from four directions.

Because of budget reductions house-to-house delivery is very unlikely in many small communities, making this new form of service highly desirable.

The boxes are available to everyone except residents who live within 1/4 mile of the post office. The post office is not promoting the boxes, just informing the public that such a service is available.

Petitions for a delivery box may be obtained from the post office. Post-master Frank Beesten explained that signatures from 50 per cent or more of the residents on one street or area are necessary for the application along with an agreement from one resident on the street stating they are willing to have the box installed in front of their home. The boxes are usually placed on a concrete slab between the sidewalk and curb.

There is no annual charge for the box as compared to the rental for a box in the post office. A box can be obtained for a $1.00 deposit which is refundable.

Residents can handle almost all their mail transactions through this box, from sending mail to buying envelopes and stamps.

The village of Kewaskum installed its first unit this summer at the Meadow Creek Housing Complex.

Serwe's Tap Relocates

Norbert and Gloria Serwe have leased the operation of the tavern and living quarters at 1310 Riverview, Drive, Kewaskum, formerly Ma and Pa's Kettle, from Ralph Scott, owner. Robert J. Holub had been operating the tavern since April of this year. Prior to that it had been operated by John & Dee's for 1 1/2 years.

Norbert and Gloria had operated Serwe's Tap on Fond du Lac Ave. for 17 years. The tavern building and living quarters were sold to Marigold Foods, Inc. for expansion and torn down. The property is now being used as an addition to their large parking lot.

Serwe's are again serving food as they have in the past. See there ad on another page.

From the School Board President's Desk....

A Binding Arbitration bill was enacted into law approximately three years ago, and reaffirmed one year ago. The purpose of this new law, ostensibly, was to prevent strikes by certain public employees, including teachers.

The Wisconsin Educational Association lobbied heavily for this bill, while the Wisconsin Association of School Boards lobbied against its passage. The bill, as enacted, injects the State into the area of collective bargaining. Many people believe that Binding Arbitration leads to excessive raises, especially during recession. A recent Arbitrator's decision in Madison awarded a 13.5% increase. Many more negotiations are ending in Binding Arbitration each succeeding year.

In Kewaskum, the Arbitrator received both Union and School Board final offers last December and arrived at his decision in July. The cost of his services was split evenly between the Teacher's Union and the School Board.

The Arbitrator is selected by the Board and Union from a list of Arbitrators by the process of elimination. The Arbitrator is never a tax payer or a resident of our school system, so he is not accountable to anyone but himself.

More on Negotiations and Binding Arbitration will follow in my next article.

Superintendent Search Update: Mr. Buntrock will be meeting with the Board in a short closed session before next Monday's regular meeting. Each member will receive a dossier on the five candidates this week.

General Telephone Company of Wisconsin has begun construction of a 7,760 foot cable project in the Kewaskum exchange, according to Robert G. Burger, Eastern Division Manager, Plymouth.

The program calls for adding 7,000 feet of buried cable and 760 feet of aerial cable. The new cable will provide increased facilities for the rapidly growing northeastern section of the exchange. Much of the construction will take place along County Trunk S.

The cable program is projected to cost $25,500.00.

General Telephone provides service to 211 business and 1,617 residential customers in the Kewaskum exchange. The utility services a total of 3,259 telephones in the exchange.

Computerized Blood Pressure Tests Available Free at Kennelly Pharmacy

A visit to Kennelly Pharmacy could save your life. Area residents can now test their own blood pressure by consulting the Vita-Stat computerized Blood Pressure monitor at Kennelly Pharmacy free.

More than one out of every four Americans has a potentially fatal blood pressure problem — and 46 percent of them don't know they have it or are untreated — yet high blood pressure can be treated and controlled.

"This Blood Pressure

Monitor is intended for use as a screening device for detecting high blood pressure and for monitoring the progress of therapy between physician visits and is provided as a free service to area residents and visitors as part of the responsibility we feel to be a community." The Blood Pressure monitor is fully automatic. The user requires no training or assistance.

"The Blood Pressure Monitor is not meant to take the place of a physician." Because the diagnosis of high blood pressure can only be made by a doctor, Kennelly Pharmacy Pressure Monitor is intended as an aid in the detection and control of high blood pressure and, as one user has overheard to say, "It's the next best thing to a house call."

work done now and have any bricks fall on the old roof rather than repair it later and end up with damage on any reconstructed roofs.

Village Board President Jerry Stollenwerk asked Mlodzik when the work would be done. Mlodzik said as soon as possible. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt was instructed to contact the project's engineering firm asking that they obtain bids for review at the September 20th meeting. Cost of the repairs is expected to run $25,000 to $30,000.

In other public works related business, Mlodzik and Schmidt brought the board up to date on the village's TIF District.

At a meeting prior to the village board's the Public Works Committee narrowed the field of firms being considered for the TIF project down to one. Three companies have submitted bids. The committee said their tentative recommendation was Ruckert and Mielke. R. A. Smith and Associates was eliminated because their bid was approximately $35,000 higher than the other two for preliminary engineering and construction work. Graef, Anhalt and Schloemer were tentatively eliminated because the committee felt there were too many different associated companies working under the supervision of one main firm. This could result in added problems and costs if too many individuals become involved. Ruckert and Mielke has had more experience in related projects as well as their having done work for many neighboring communities.

Mlodzik told the board his committee will meet with Ruckert and Mielke once more before they make their formal recommendation.

Dan Schmidt informed the board he had received four bids for the weed and grass cutting on vacant lots. Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo suggested the board forget about hiring anyone for this year. Bilgo noted the village had gotten cooperation from some owners who had either sprayed or cut the weeds. Because of the time of year, Bilgo felt frost will soon kill off most of the weeds making it unnecessary to cut them now. Bilgo said the problem was not 100% solved though and he recommended the village consider hiring someone next spring.

Schmidt said he had been approached by Cheryl Ammel and Mary Pearson regarding the Halloween parade. Chief Donald Hlavaty said he was opposed to the request basing his opposition on the darkness and safety factor. His recommendation was that if the PTO wanted to have a parade, it be held on the school grounds as last year.

Schmidt said the PTO asked that if the village approves a "Trick or Treat" night, it be held during the same hours as the party. Because of the large number of youngsters involved, the board felt it was still opposed to a street parade. Trustee Paul Blumer motioned the village set trick or treat hours for October 30, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

In other action the board unanimously approved a Class "B" Liquor License for Gloria Jean Serwe at 1310 Riverview Road. The Serwes will be leasing the property, presently known as Ma and Pa's Kettle, from Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scott.

Three new teachers have joined the staff of Kewaskum Community High School this year. One of the new teachers is Ms. Beth Mittermaier who will be teaching Remedial Math, Biology and General Science. After graduating from Wilmington College in Wilmington, Ohio, she taught in an Outdoor Education Center near Columbus, Ohio, for the past two years. Beth feels at home in Kewaskum because she grew up on a dairy farm in Ohio. She feels teaching in the high school will be a challenge but hopes it will be an enjoyable one.

Ms. Elaine Burgess has joined the business education department at KHS and teaches half days in the area of Typing I and Personal Typing. She graduated from college in Minot, North Dakota, and received her masters degree from Colorado State University in the field of business. Prior to coming to Kewaskum, Ms. Burgess taught part time at Moraine Park Technical School in Fond du Lac and also was the Dean of Extended Services at Lamar Community College in Lamar, Colorado. She is impressed with the facilities at KHS and is looking forward to a good year.

The KHS math department has added Ms. Gail Dehnel as a part time math teacher. Ms. Dehnel received her BA degree from Cardinal Stritch College in Milwaukee. She has previously taught math and biology at Divine Savior High School in Milwaukee for 7 years, and has substitute taught at Horace Mann High School in North Fond du Lac. She feels KHS is a nice friendly school and hopes to enjoy her first year on the staff.

Band Completes Parade Season

The Fox River Valley Lutheran Youth Band (FRVLYB) has completed its 1982 summer marching season, and has once again chalked up another successful year. During the course of the summer, the FRVLYB marched in seven parades: Appleton Flag Day Parade; Cedarburg Festival of Music Parade; Watertown Fourth of July Parade; Hartford Fourth of July Parade; Port Washington Fish Days Parade; Kewaunee Trout Festival Parade; and the Horicon Marsh Days Parade. Of these seven parades, four were competition. The FRVLYB captured three of four first places (Watertown, Port Washington, and Horicon), and, in Cedarburg, where they placed second by only half a point, they were awarded a trophy for the Best-Appearing Parade Unit. In addition to these parades, the FRVLYB also made a parade appearance at Marriott's Great America Theme Park.

The FRVLYB is made up of students and directors from five high schools of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod: Fox Valley Lutheran, Appleton; Kettle Moraine Lutheran, Jackson; Manitowoc Lutheran, Manitowoc; Shoreland Lutheran, Sommers; and Winnebago Lutheran Academy, Fond du Lac. This summer, Kettle Moraine Lutheran had 41 students participating.

The band's executive committee is now planning next summer's activities. They hope to have the band accepted into the National Fourth of July Parade in Washington, D.C. If it is, that parade would form the keystone of an eastern tour which would last ten to eleven days, and would include three or four parade appearances and about four concert performances.

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF SEPTEMBER PRIMARY

SEPTEMBER 14, 1982

OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a primary election to be held in the several wards in the County of Washington, on the 14th day of September, 1982, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, together with the questions submitted to a vote, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two ballot clerks must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

At the September primary, the elector shall select the party ballot of his or her choice or the ballot containing the names of the independent candidates for state office, and make a cross or other mark in the square at the right of or depress the lever or button next to the candidate's name for each office for whom the elector intends to vote or insert or write in the name of the elector's choice for a party candidate, if any. In order to qualify for participation in the Wisconsin Election Campaign Fund, a candidate for state office at the September primary must receive at least 6% of all votes cast on all ballots for the office for which he or she is a candidate, in addition to other requirements.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initiated by two ballot clerks or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official paper ballot is marked, it shall be folded so the inside marks do not show but so the printed indorsements and ballot clerks' initials on the outside do show. After casting his or her ballot, the elector shall leave the machine or booth, and where paper ballots are used, give his or her name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand the inspector his or her folded ballot to be placed in the ballot box, deposit any unused ballots in the blank ballot box, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may be assisted by two election officials of different political parties in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to physical disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. Alternatively, an elector making such declaration may have another elector of the county assist in marking the ballot or operating a voting machine. The presiding official may administer an oath to a person making such declaration.

The following is a facsimile of the official ballot.

Changes in ASCS Farm Facility Loan Program Announced by Oelhafen, County Chairperson

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has changed its farm storage facility loan program, to increase the number of farmers eligible for storage loans, according to Ira A. Oelhafen, chairperson of the Washington County ASC Committee.

Oelhafen said the changes will enable the USDA to lend farmers money to build facilities to store up to two years' production of eligible crop. These facilities will be in addition to any present on-farm facilities being used to store grain held in the grain reserve program. Previously, farmers were limited to borrowing to build storage for one year's crop, including storage used for the preserve program.

Only farmers who participated in USDA's acreage reduction programs would be eligible for the program. New loans will be limited to a maximum of $25,000, but on a case-by-case basis, farmers who have reserve grain stored on their farm and who have outstanding storage facility loans will be allowed to carry an aggregate loan balance of up to $50,000. For example, if a farmer had a $30,000 outstanding farm facility loan, the maximum he or she could borrow with a new loan is $20,000.

"Changes were made after reviewing the current storage situation and prospects for record feed grain and soybean crops. Farmers face a severe storage problem this year," Oelhafen said. "These changes will help producers use the facility loan program ahead of harvest and will allow them to market their crops in a more orderly fashion."

Last month, USDA announced it would resume approval of new applications for farm storage facility loans, up to a total of $40 million. With the exceptions of the changes announced today, all other provisions of that program will remain the same.

NOTICE OF REFERENDUM ELECTION SEPTEMBER 14, 1982

STATE OF WISCONSIN }
Elections Board }
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that an election to be held in the several towns, wards, villages and election districts of the State of Wisconsin, on the second Tuesday of September, A.D., 1982, being the Fourteenth day of said month, the following proposed advisory referendum, will be submitted to a vote of the people pursuant to law:
1981 Assembly Joint Resolution 99
Enrolled Joint Resolution 38

"Shall the Secretary of State of Wisconsin inform the President and the Congress of the United States that it is the desire of the people of Wisconsin to have the government of the United States work vigorously to negotiate a mutual nuclear moratorium and reduction, with appropriate verification, with the Soviet Union and other nations?"

EXPLANATION

Effect of Ratification

The states of the United States have no power to conduct the country's foreign relations or to control the use of military power; these matters are within the exclusive control of Congress and the President. However, the citizens of the state have the right to express their views on foreign policy to members of Congress and the President, and this referendum represents a way to express those views. A "yes" vote on this referendum would reflect approval of having Wisconsin's Secretary of State inform Congress and the President that the citizens of the state support the negotiation of a mutual and verifiable nuclear weapons moratorium and reduction with the Soviet Union and other nations. A "no" vote would reflect disapproval of such negotiations.

I, Gerald J. Ferwerda, Executive Secretary of the State Elections Board, DO HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing proposed Referendum known as Enrolled Joint Resolution 38, has been compared by me with the original on file and the same is a true copy thereof.

GIVEN under my hand, in the City of Madison, this 20th day of July, A.D., 1982

CONGRESS ATTEMPTS ANOTHER SNEAKY PAY HIKE

It was bad enough last December, when Congress snuck through a nice little tax break amounting to thousands of dollars in windfall tax deductions for its own members. The public reacted angrily, rightly so, and it subsequently was repealed.

Recently, however, it got even worse when some in Congress tried to line their own pockets at taxpayer expense again by hiding a neat little pay raise for themselves in the Budget Reconciliation Bill. They got caught with their hands in the "cookie jar," though, and the raise was removed from the bill.

This version of the pay raise was particularly outrageous, moreover, because of the form it took. Rather than providing a specific dollar increase over the current $60,622.50 salary, as Congress has done in the past, this time the proponents of the raise wanted to put the granting of the raise and the determination of its amount in the hands of a special federal commission.

The amendment would have convened a special session of the Quadrennial Review Commission, an established federal salary review board already operating but not scheduled to meet again until 1984. The amendment would have made the panel recommend new salaries for Congressmen, Senators, federal judges, Cabinet officers, and senior level bureaucrats by November 15th — just after this year's elections.

Not only would the raises be given after the elections to keep Congressmen from having their re-election chances being hurt, they would have been granted automatically unless both the house and Senate voted them down within 30 days. Such a veto would be impossible, for Congress will not even be in session during this time period.

Informed sources revealed that Congressional pay probably would have been raised to over $80,000 — an increase of more than 30%!

Congress does not need to pay raise, nor does it deserve one. Congress has shown itself to be a failure when it comes to trimming fat out of federal programs to help balance the budget. That is easy to understand, given the pre-occupation of some of its members with lining their own pockets at the poor taxpayer's expense.

Petri: Army to Resume Student Loan Program

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A program of student loan repayment in exchange for military service is being reactivated October 1st, according to Congressman Tom Petri.

The program was originally proposed by Petri and passed in 1980 as part of a one year test to see if more young people with education beyond high school could be encouraged to join the armed forces.

"During the first year, the Pentagon only promoted loan repayment half-heartedly," Petri explained. "Then, after Congress extended the program for another two years last Summer to give it a fair test, the services stopped offering it altogether," Petri said. "It's hard to understand since offering help in paying off student loans is a terrific way to bring skilled people into our volunteer services and keep them there," he said.

However, Petri recently learned that the Army plans to reactivate the program, which would pay off $1,500 or one third of a student's federally-insured loans, whichever is greater, for each year of active service in designated enlisted ranks jobs. For each year in the Reserves or National Guard, $500 or 15 percent of a volunteer's student loans could be repaid.

"Now the problem is to get the program adequately publicized," said Petri. "The logical way is to put a small brochure in with the loan bills which former students receive," Petri continued. "I'm hoping the Army will be able to arrange to do this, at least with the largest lending institutions which make student loans. I intend to help with this," he said.

Petri said that the loan repayment program should be especially helpful in getting the Reserve and National Guard up to strength.

"The National Guard and the Reserves are a vital part of our total forces," he said. "They will be the first reinforcements available in an emergency."

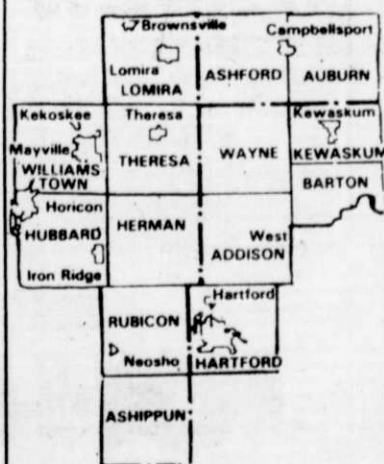

"It is more important to have the Reserves ready to go than it is to have draft machinery in place," Petri said. "Even in the best situation, the draft would not be able to get men into combat for months."

Architects Told to Trim Cost of Portage Prison

The State Building Commission has told architects planning the new maximum security prison at Portage the $50 million estimated project cost is too high and directed them to return next month with proposals to curb the expense.

The action of the full commission, taken on a unanimous vote, formalized an earlier decision by its subcommittee on administrative affairs.

"We're talking in terms of a $40 million total cost," said State Representative Esther Doughty Luckhardt (R-Horicon) who chairs the subcommittee. "We didn't say, specifically, 'we want it at 40 million and you'll have to find a way to get it down there,' but I think we made it clear we're aiming at a figure in that general area," Luckhardt said.

A $40 million price tag would still generously exceed the $36 million authorized by the legislature in the 1980-81 budget adjustment bill, raising the possibility that the project may be resubmitted for legislative approval even if cost-cutting efforts satisfy the commission.

The architects, Potter, Lawson & Pawlosky, Inc. of Madison, and Hellmuth, Obata & Kassabaum, Inc. of St. Louis Mo., blamed cost increases on inflation; expansion of prison capacity to 500 inmates from the 450 initially planned; addition of an industry building for prisoner work; improved security and extension of Portage sewer and water lines to the site.

Luckhardt noted that those changes would account for only about $8.5 million of the $14 million bulge in the latest estimate, but warned that it would be difficult to tap certain areas for savings.

"There are two factors that override everything else, and they are the basic need for another maximum security facility in this state and the absolute need for the best security for prison employees," Luckhardt said. "I won't sit still for anything that would jeopardize the safety of guards or other staff people, but I do believe we can find other ways to save some money."

The subcommittee is to meet September 21 with the architects and representatives of the Department of Health and Social Services, which has authority over the state's penal system, to review cost-cutting proposals.

Kewaskum, County Members Qualify for State 4-H Horse Show

Young horse enthusiasts from all over Wisconsin will be heading to Madison the second week in September. The 17th annual Wisconsin State 4-H Horse Show began September 9 and runs through September 12 at the Dane County Fairgrounds.

The show's theme is "Developing Youth Through the Combination of Youth and Horses." Ray Antoniewicz, University of Wisconsin-Extension horse specialist, explains that the show provides interesting learning experiences and helps youth develop life-long horsemanship abilities.

Any eligible 4-H horse project member between 12 and 18 can exhibit in the show if the county 4-H agent and project leader approve. Eligibility is determined by winning a blue ribbon in one of several classes of horsemanship at the county fair. An eligible horse must have been part of a 4-H project and a blue-ribbon winner at the county fair. Members from Washington County who have qualified for the state show are: Robby Beisenstein, Melanie Orth, Amy Taylor and Susan Martin of Hartford; Brenda Bell, Sarah Goebel, Jonathan Haldemann, Kathi Maki, Tammy Manderfield, Tina Schneider, Becky Walsh, Noelle Poupore of West Bend; Patti Bergmann and Shannon Wink of Slinger; Aimee Hoffmann, Cindi Hoffmann and Randy Hoffmann of Jackson; Jamie Navin of Hubertus; Theresa Phillips of Colgate; Chris Holtz of Kewaskum, and Lisa Strehlow of Cedarburg.

Horsemanship competitions will be going on each day of the show. On Saturday, several other events are scheduled. In addition to the meeting of the Wisconsin 4-H Horse Association, there will be junior and senior hippology contests, junior and senior horse bowls, judging contests, a speaking contest and several demonstrations. A vaulting demonstration, dance and awards presentation will complete the day's activities.

In the hippology contests, individuals express as many thoughts as they wish on a specific horse subject within a three-minute time limit. Judges are experts on the subject and score the contestant on the correctness of his or her statements. Jean and Neil Beisenstein of Hartford are organizing the Bowl.

Other special show features include a poster contest, horseman's display and a "clothes-horse" project. A horseman's display is in exhibit of products and projects relating to horses. The clothes-horse project presents membermade horse equipment, such as leg wraps, stable blankets, saddle pads, grooming aids, riding accessories, chaps, horse tack and riding attire.

Special awards will be given to counties for sportsmanship and manners, safety, cleanliness and neatness, and identification signs.

Dept. of Transportation Signs Contract For Photo Driver License Equipment

The state department of transportation's division of motor vehicles has contracted with Polaroid Corp., Cambridge, Mass., to provide equipment, training, materials, and maintenance to implement the photo driver license program.

The $1.9 million contract covers a four-year period, including an initial 120 cameras and an additional 30 camera units as needed, personnel training, film, laminates and maintenance.

Norbert K. Anderson, administrator, said the contractor will provide "instant" film processing, which, although it has a slightly higher per unit cost, will avoid the additional cost and inconvenience of "retakes" caused by camera, operator, or film failure.

The photo driver license system will be phased-in over a four-year period beginning January 1, 1983. The credit-card sized plastic laminated photo licenses will be issued each year to those drivers scheduled for a vision test as part of the renewal process, as well as drivers applying for their original Wisconsin license

Balancing Rations Improve Feeding, County Farmers Say

The Dairy Science Department of the University of Wisconsin has developed two dairy ration balancing programs to assist dairy farmers. The ration balancing programs develop a balanced ration using home grown feeds and feeding according to production.

A number of farmers in the Washington County area have used the two ration balancing programs over the past year. Farmers using the program were surveyed to find out if the program has been beneficial to them. A survey form was mailed to about 50 dairy farmers last May and returned during late spring and early summer.

Twenty-eight dairy farmers returned the survey form. Twenty-seven of the 28 indicated that the ration balancing program has helped them pay closer attention to the amounts of different feeds fed each cow.

Fifty-seven percent were able to reduce their purchased feed cost with the ration balancing programs. Twenty-one percent had no reduction in feed cost, and 21% said it was too early to tell.

Thirty-eight percent of the farmers had an increase in milk production. Forty percent reported production remained the same, and 21% indicated it was too early to tell.

Twenty-seven of the 28 farmers surveyed indicated that the ration balancing program helped them do a better job of feeding their herd, that they would use the ration balancing program again in the future, and that they would also recommend the ration balancing program to other farmers.

The over-all results of the survey indicated that the Least-Cost Ration Balancing Program and the Badger Ration Balancer can be an effective tool to help the dairy farmer with feeding his dairy herd. The results from this survey are about the same as results received from agents in other counties who have conducted similar surveys.

Farmers who are already doing a good job with their feeding program working through their feed dealers or feed companies will probably not find much change in their herds. Individuals who are not presently using balanced rations and feeding according to production are most likely to benefit from ration balancing programs.

Dairymen in Washington County that would like more information about the ration balancing programs should contact the Washington County UW-Extension Office.

Pay Parking Tickets Or Car Registrations Can Be Suspended

Parking violators may soon realize that it's time to quit procrastinating about paying parking tickets.

Under a new law, a police agency has to warn the violator twice, then may notify the department of transportation's division of motor vehicles to take registration action. The options are requiring the division to immediately suspend the registration of the vehicle involved, or to refuse to register any vehicle the violator owns, or both suspend and refuse.

Under the old law, the division was required to refuse vehicle registrations when notified by a court that a judgement had been entered against a person which remained unpaid.

Although this provision continues, the new law also allows policy agencies to notify the division if a person doesn't respond to parking tickets, either by paying them or by appearing in court within 28 days.

Once the vehicle owner has been notified twice, and 28 days have elapsed, the agency can report directly to the division.

The cost to the local agency of handing the registration notification is $10, which may be charged to the violator.

The division expects in the neighborhood of 100,000 notification actions annually from police agencies in some 200 Wisconsin communities.

American Legion Takes Position On Nuclear Freeze

Wisconsin American Legion Commander Ernest A. Stark of Eau Claire, in stating The American Legion's position on the "Nuclear Freeze" issue, said, "The American Legion has, for many years, recognized the importance of equitable arms control measures and has supported arms control measures which do not place the United States at a military disadvantage and provides for effective, unalterable guarantees for compliance including on-site inspection by both sides. If a 'Nuclear Freeze' were imposed under present conditions, all incentives for the Soviet Union to negotiate a mutual, equitable and verifiable agreement would be eliminated. The American Legion cannot stand behind a measure that would subject Western Europe to the unchallenged Soviet SS-20 missile threat, is not verifiable, and would establish Soviet nuclear superiority."

Commander Stark further stated, "The referendum that Wisconsin voters will be considering on the September 14th ballot regarding a 'Nuclear Freeze' cannot be supported by The American Legion until the nuclear capabilities of the United States and the Soviet Union are equalized. The American Legion cannot support any measure that places our nation in an inferior position."

Driver Exam Stations Across State to Be Closed September 15

If you have a renew a driver's license, register a car, or get an instruction permit, don't plan to do it on Wednesday, Sept. 15.

That is the second of five days which driver exam stations around the state are closed, to meet the legislatively-mandated 25 per cent reduction in scheduled salary increases for state employees.

Norbert K. Anderson, administrator of the department of transportation's division of motor vehicles, said the closings affect all driver license exam stations except those in Milwaukee and on the west side of Madison.

The Milwaukee closing schedule is being staggered in order to maintain as much service as possible in the metropolitan area. Stations serving the northwest and southeast areas, located at 8701 W. Fond du Lac Ave. and 2424 10th Ave., will be closed Sept. 14, while northeast and southwest stations at 6101 N. Teutonia Ave. and 4159 S. 76th St., will be closed Sept. 16.

Driver exam and registration counters in downtown Milwaukee, 819 N. 6th St., and the Hill Farms State office building in Madison will not be closed, but will work with a reduced staff, Anderson said.

Driver exam stations will be closed Feb. 9, March 17, and April 19, of next year. "We have made every effort to schedule the closings on mid-week days when demand for services is less, to cause the least inconvenience to the public," Anderson added.

If your clothes come out gray, it may be because they are being soaked and washed too long. This only redeposits the dirt already removed. It takes a lot of dirt to need more than 8 or 10 minutes.

STRAINS AND SPRAINS
H. L. Rumsey, D.C.

During the summer months many, many injuries occur to people who just simply "overdo it."

We all love to get out in the sun. Most of us find ourselves engaging in both work and play that we might not perform at other times of the year. Often this can mean strained muscles and sprained ankles, wrists or backs. The pain may go away quickly or it can last for months.

Understanding strains and sprains can help you understand what your doctor will do for your injury and why it takes so little or so much time to heal.

The word strain refers to muscles. If you have strained yourself, you probably have irritated a muscle or muscle group. A sprain refers to ligaments—the fibrous bands that generally attach bones to bones or muscle to bone. Sprains occur where there are several bones and/or joints while strains occur where there is soft tissue.

The rate of healing varies with the extent of the injury, but in general a sprain takes longer to heal than a strain. This is because a muscle has a rich supply of blood vessels to nourish it while a ligament has none and must wait until a blood supply grows into the area. A muscle also has elasticity, while a ligament can remain overstretched for a long time. A sprain is the more serious problem because, although the pain may go away in a short amount of time, the instability resulting from the overstretched ligaments remains. It may take weeks or months to heal completely.

If you think you have either a strain or a sprain, see your Doctor of Chiropractic. He will keep your spine in top condition so that the natural healing forces of the body can operate at peak efficiency. With a better understanding of these injuries, you will know better what to expect in terms of treatment and length of healing time.

WORTHINESS

"An answer to the pro choice movement."

I am the child of the womb,
The one you so easily doom.
I am the seed of eons past,
My life a tribute to your people's beginning.

I am the legacy you leave when
Your life's spirit is no longer living.

Conceive me out of love and teach me this also,
For in all the universe my life,
As special as it is, shall never exist again.

I am the child of the womb,
I raise my voice in conscience gloom,

To you, for those of me who are gone

And those you choose the alternate of life.

Hands Off State Goose Quotas, Rep. Luckhardt Tells U.S.

MADISON... A federal plan to reduce Wisconsin's 1982 goose hunting quota by ten per cent - to 18,000 birds - has drawn criticism from State Representative Esther Doughty Luckhardt (R-Horicon) and a letter of protest to Robert Jantzen, director of migratory bird management in the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Luckhardt wrote to Jantzen saying she wished to join state DNR Secretary Carroll Besadny in urging that the quota reduction plan be abandoned, and calling any reduction "a serious mistake."

"...thousands of geese died of lead poisoning last winter... crop damage is widespread where the huge flocks pass through. A few years ago, botulism took a heavy toll of birds as they lingered in the Horicon Marsh," Luckhardt told Jantzen. She said all three problems would worsen if hunting pressure is reduced, encouraging the geese to stay longer.

"It is my desire to protect the birds from being decimated by disease and lead poisoning and reduce the damage to Wisconsin agriculture caused by their transit through the state," Luckhardt wrote.

The Fish and Wildlife Service wants more geese to fly farther south so as to provide better hunting in other states. Luckhardt said that goal is compatible with her objectives of healthier birds and reduced crop damage. "It would seem to me that both of our objectives could best be accomplished if the geese are kept moving. Reducing the hunting pressure here in Wisconsin won't help either of us," she said.

Earlier, Besadny told Jantzen the decision appeared to be politically motivated, aimed at placating southern interests and that it "utterly defies logic."

"I am tempted to say this is another example of federal decisions aggravating the situations they are intended to improve, but I will withhold judgement until I hear whether your Department decides to leave our hunting quotas alone," Luckhardt wrote.

Some Hunting Seasons to Open

The opening of the bear hunting season in Wisconsin is only a day or two away, with the bow deer and squirrel seasons slated to open one week later.

Both the bow and arrow and gun bear seasons open on Saturday, September 11, north of Highway 29. The gun season runs until September 26 and the bow season for bear continues through November 14. The bow bear season south of Highway 29 opens on September 18.

The bow deer and the gray and fox squirrel season open statewide on September 18. Some important deadlines for hunters to keep in mind are:

-Canada goose permit applications for the Horicon and Central Zones must be received by September 10.

-Hunter's choice permit applications for the gun deer season, applications for the special Sandhill deer hunt, and permit applications for the spring of 1983 wild turkey hunt must be postmarked no later than October 1.

-And, permit and tag applications for bobcat hunting and trapping and otter trapping must be received at the DNR by October 15.

Hunters, Fishermen Reminded to Hang Onto Regulation Pamphlets

Hunters and fishermen who either have already purchased licenses or who will be buying them soon are reminded to hang on to the regulation pamphlets they get with their licenses because they're good for two years, said Thomas Smith, Southeast District Wildlife Manager for the Department of Natural Resources.

In a move to save money, the DNR's Bureaus of Wildlife and Fish Management have gone to a two-year regulation pamphlet. Hunting, trapping, waterfowl and fishing regulations are now printed for both the 1981-82 seasons.

This is the second year for the two-year regulations. "I hope that Wisconsin sportsmen kept their regulation pamphlets from last year. By doing so, an estimated $25,000 will be put back in the fishing and wildlife budgets," noted Smith.

Changes in the 1982 hunting, trapping and waterfowl regulations have been printed on a special flyer distributed to those purchasing a license. The regulation changes are also printed on the back of the licenses and have been given publicity by the media statewide.

"A little prudence by hunters and fishermen at the close of their favorite season by saving the regulation pamphlet will mean a savings to them and a boost to the resources of the state," added Smith.

Slate Ponds and Pond Management Workshop

A pond management workshop will be held on Wednesday, September 22, at 7:30 p.m. at the Mequon City Council Chambers in Ozaukee County. The City Council Chambers is located near the corner of Hwys. 167 and 57 in Thiensville.

The Washington County Land Conservation Department has assisted landowners in planning, designing and management of fish and wildlife ponds for many years. Many times questions in regard to algae and weed control, fish stocking and permits come to our attention. This workshop will be a good chance to have your questions answered. Representatives from SCS, LCC, DNR, UWEX and Riveredge Nature Center will be presenting the information.

For further information, contact the Soil Conservation Service or Land Conservation Department at 2395 W. Washington Street, West Bend, or call 334-3704.

Indians Edge Slinger in Football Opener, 7-6

In a typical opener, mainly a defensive struggle, that was quite evenly played, but had its share of fumbles and penalties, the Kewaskum Indians edged Slinger in a non-conference contest here Friday night, 7-6.

The difference in the game was decided on Brad Dieringer's kick for extra point after touchdown. Dieringer's kick in the second quarter followed Chris Harlow's one-yard plunge for a TD and gave the Indians a 7-0 lead. The drive for the touchdown covered 44 yards, one-third of the Indians' total offense for the night, although Kewaskum had by far the better of it on the ground, 109 yards to 33 for the Owls.

Slinger was held to a negative three yards rushing and no first downs in the first half but got its score in the third quarter. The Owls started on Kewaskum's 48 yard line after a 20-yard punt return by Ken Leeson. They moved 10 yards in three running plays to pick up a first down. Quarterback Brian Miller hit end Jeffrey Gornong with a 27-yard strike, the longest of the game, for a first down on the Indians' 12. Slinger ran six straight plays over right tackle and guard down to the one, where Leeson took it in.

After a time out, Owl Coach Vic Erickson decided to go for a two-pointer instead of the tie. Leeson carried the ball to the left side but the hole never opened and he was tackled short of the end zone.

Slinger had one more scoring opportunity after Jim Fritz recovered a Dieringer fumble in the fourth quarter on Kewaskum's 38-yard line. The Owls went to the air but a floater thrown by Miller was knocked down by safety Jeff Squier.

The Indians could not move on their next series but Harlow got off a 54-yard punt down to Slinger's 18, putting the Owls 82 yards from the goal line. Several plays later linebacker Steve Seitz picked off a Miller pass at the 24 and the Indians then ran out the clock.

Kewaskum coach Mike Fitrack got a little conservative in the second half with his team's offensive play, stating he didn't want to make any mistakes that could put the Owls in scoring position. He was pleased the way sophomore quarterback Mark Follman handled himself in his first varsity game and also praised Dave Pesch, Jim Brown and Stuart Fitzick for their defensive play. Fitrack said the team's defense is considerably ahead of the offense but the Indians are still a real young team.

Kewaskum had just 123 yards in total offense with Harlow the leading ground gainer at 35 yards in 10 carries. The Owls' Fritz was the leading rusher with 41 yards in 11 carries, but Slinger's offense stuttered with only 82 total yards.

The Owls' coach said his team probably had a first case of the jitters in the first half but made some improvement in the second half, failing to execute when they had to. Erickson said he decided to go for the win because he felt the Indians would not score again.

This Friday night the Indians travel to neighboring Campbellsport for another non-conference game. The Cougars, who manhandled Ozaukee last week, 28-0, have a strong, veteran team this year, which is one of the favorites to win the title in the Flyway Conference.

JVs Overwhelmed By Slinger, 36-0

The Slinger JVs trounced Kewaskum, 36-0, in the opener for both teams at Slinger Thursday, rolling up over 300 yards rushing.

Fullback Randy Krantz scored three touchdowns on short runs and he wound up with 136 yards rushing, although he played just half the game. Tailback Bob Hamm scored the first TD on a 25-yard sweep and quarterback Duane Wolf also got into the act with a sneak for six points.

Dave Groth and Gary Christiansen played well for the Owls defensively and the offensive line looked good with tackles Jamie Darkow and Bob Cleary opening some big holes.

The Indians had only one first down in the game. The offense had trouble hanging on to the ball, fumbling four times, three on kickoff returns. John Gundrum played well at linebacker and John Mertzig on both offense and defense.

Eichstedt, Koss, Harlow Hon-E-Kor Golf Champions

History was made Labor Day in the club championships at Hon-E-Kor Country Club when Clark Eichstedt won his fifth title. "Ike" won a 4 and 3 victory over young Brian Josten in Monday's chilly finals.

Shooting a three over par 73 in the first 18 holes of play, Eichstedt held a slim one-up lead over Josten, a UW-Madison freshman, playing in the men's competition for the first time. Josten had a 74 the first round.

Eichstedt stretched that lead to three up on two occasions playing the front nine for the second time around. Pars on No. 11 and No. 15 gave him a four-up lead and finally the title.

Eichstedt is the first man in the history of Hon-E-Kor to have won five titles. He lost in the finals last year to Larry Hilgendorf on the 38th hole. A former Kewaskum resident, Carl Wertz, had won four titles from 1962 to 1965. Len Carroll, now owner of Willow Green golf course in West Bend, had three club titles to his credit.

"Ike's" other crowns were won in 1972, the year he graduated from Kewaskum High School, 1976-77 and 1980. Eichstedt defeated Steve Van Ess, Tom Bartelt, Mike Herrick and Tom Schuetz enroute to the finals.

Mary Ann Koss, a teacher at the Farmington Elementary School, won her fourth straight women's title. She beat Linda Schuetz, UW-Oshkosh student, 8 to 7, in the finals. Koss, who has won each year since she has joined the club, hit a 47 on the front and a fine 41 on the back nine. Her back nine included one birdie and three pars.

Chris Harlow, a Kewaskum High junior, and son of pro Joe Harlow, won the junior championship by a 1-up margin over Jim Stoffel, a senior at West Bend West.

Loraine "Tudy" Korth became the first member of her family to win a title since she and her husband Bud opened the course in 1962. Tudy won a 7 and 6 victory over Kathye Wierman in the Vice President's flight.

Other winners, some of which matches were played earlier, are:

Men's first flight — Jack Hoffeltz over Randy Suchon, 4 and 2.

Men's second flight — Ron Platenhauer over Rich Schuetz.

Men's third flight — Jim Hoffman over Roger Schmidt.

Men's fourth flight — Dennis Conner over John Weng.

Women's President's flight — Cathy Lastofka over Lu Freeze.

Boys 2nd, Girls 1st In Cross Country Triangular Meet

The Kewaskum cross country teams opened the season with a triangular meet at Campbellsport last Tuesday.

Led by sophomore Tim

Schraufnagel, who finished first on the 3-mile course in 17:30, Campbellsport runners finished 1-3-4-5 as the Cougars won the boys' end of the meet with 20 points. Kewaskum, led by sophomore Monty Shaw, who took a second, placed second with 50 points. Random Lake was third with 59.

In the girls' meet, Kewaskum downed Campbellsport, 24-31, Random Lake did not field a full team but the Rams' Mary Kloas placed first on the 3,200-meter course in 12:15.

The Indians have two lettermen and four letterwomen returning. Back are juniors Steve Hubbell and Jeff Nigh from a team that finished seventh in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference last year. Coach Dave Drexler has two senior non-letter winners working out with the team — Dave Kudek and Jeff Schmidt. Other newcomers include soph Monty Shaw, an excellent 800-meter runner on the track team last spring, Barry Murre, Dan Becker and Mike Wiedmeyer.

Drexler had only a half-dozen runners when practice began but he now has 10 working for spots on the team.

The prospect for the girls' team looked bright after last season, but two of the six returning letter winners did not report. At present there are just six girls out for the team, meaning all but one will have to count in meet totals. There is quality among the girls, however, Carol Schmidt, Sandy Klein and Erika Follmann all look strong.
