Barn Fire Under Investigation

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The State Fire Marshal and Sheboygan County Sheriff's office have been called in to investigate a fire which destroyed a Beechwood area barn late Sunday night.

Beechwood Fire Chief Roger Vetter said Monday that suspicious circumstances led his department to request an investigation into the possibility of arson in the blaze which claimed a barn on the Leroy Mueller farm located on Highway SS, Route 1, Adell. Vetter declined to comment on the probable cause of the fire noting it was still under investigation by both offices.

Leroy Mueller said he had discovered the fire about 11:50 p.m. Sunday night when he looked outside and saw smoke coming from the barn above the sliding door area. He called the Beechwood Fire Department then rushed back to the barn to save cattle which were in the barn at the time. Twenty-two cows and 10 head of younger livestock were rescued from the burning barn. Mueller was able to save all the animals, however, 1,500 bushels of oats, 65 tons of hay and 24 loads of chopped straw were lost along with a bale rack and wagon, feed cutter and two-wheel trailer loaded with wood.

The firefighters were able to save the lower part of the barn.

Mueller said the firemen did a good job of battling the fire. I didn't think they could save the lower section but they did and I thank them for it, said Mueller.

Men and equipment were on the scene approximately twelve hours, from 12:00 Sunday night to 11:30 Monday morning. Firemen from Beechwood and Batavia fought the fire with tanker assistance from Silver Creek and Cascade.

Friends and neighbors were busy Monday helping the Muellers close up areas where the fire burned through the upper barn flooring.

Mrs. Leroy Mueller said as of Tuesday no dollar figure was set on the loss.

Tax Rate Set at $32.54

Board Adopts 1983 Budget

By Gerry Mueller
Statesman Staff Writer

With not a single village resident in the audience to hear its discussion or decision, the Kewaskum Village Board voted Monday to approve the 1983 budget of $938,987.00.

Because of an unexpected windfall in the form of an additional $8,000 in State Shared revenues for 1982, Village Administrator Dan Schmidt was able to reduce the village's 1983 tax revenue figure. By including the $8,000 in the Surplus Funds category, thus increasing that budgeted amount from $25,000 to $36,000 Schmidt was able to reduce the tax revenues (which are collected from property taxes and fire contracts) from $427,077.00 to $416,077.00.

The end result is this action has reduced the 1982 tax rate (which will be paid in 1983) from $10.02 per $1,000, an increase of 11.3%, to $9.72, a 7.99% increase for the village portion of the 1982 tax rate. Village Board President Jerry Stollenwerk told Schmidt he was very glad to see a way had been found to drop that figure below the double-digit mark, especially in these economic times.

The board adopted resolution No. 82-6 setting the 1982 tax levy at $1,242,564.35, a rate of $32.54 per $1,000 of assessed valuation. Subtracting the 1982 State Tax Credit of $4.28, the net tax rate village residents will pay next year is $28.26 per $1,000. This is approximately $2.50 higher than last year's rate of $25.795 per $1,000.

Broken down, the levy and gross tax rate result is $12,-359.00 or 32c per $1,000 going to the State, county taxes $162,527 or $4.26 per $1,000, school taxes $614,904 at $16.10 per $1,000, vocational school tax $81,455 at $2.13 per $1,000 and village taxes including debt retirement and interest $371,317 at $9.72 per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

Schmidt noted the municipal, county and state tax shares had all dropped for 1983, while the school and vocational school tax shares had increased over 1982.

In other action, the board approved a 15%, 85% split of Federal Revenue Sharing funds for 1983. The $23,529 will be divided with the Parks Fund receiving $3,529.35 and Protection and Public Safety getting $19,999.65.

The approved a resolution setting February 28, 1983, as the last day to make the first payment of split payment 1982 real estate taxes.

A building permit was approved for the Renaissance Group, owners of the Kewaskum Mall, for completion of interior construction at the mall. The 5,000 square foot area will contain a Hardware Hank store which is expected to move in early next year.

Winter Parking Restrictions Now in Effect in Village

The winter season has begun and with that in mind the Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum would again like to remind everyone that the "Snow Emergency Parking Restrictions" and the "Night Parking Restrictions" went into effect December 1, 1982.

Municipal Code Section 7.04 (3) Night Parking Restrictions, reads as follows: Signs have been erected at or reasonably near the corporate limits as provided in Section 349.13, Wis. Stats., no person excepting physicians or licensed emergency vehicles on emergency calls, shall park or stop any vehicle on any public street or highway within the village between the hours of 2:00 A.M. and 6:00 A.M. from December 1, to April 1, of each year; provided that, notwithstanding such restrictions, vehicles may be parked for a period of time not longer than 3 minutes for actually loading or unloading of passengers, and provided further that no other regulation restricting parking as to place, time, or manner is violated thereby.

Municipal Code Section 7.04 (4) Removal of Illegally Parked Vehicles. This Section covers the issuance of citations to and possible removal of such vehicles in violation of this ordinance. In addition to other penalties provided by Section 7.04 (6) of this code the owner or operator of a vehicle so removed shall pay the cost of the towing and storage.

The Village Board of the Village of Kewaskum is asking for your cooperation in reference to this matter and appreciates your support. If anyone is interested in the entire ordinance it is posted on the office bulletin board at the Municipal Building.

Young Man Injured In Hunting Accident

A 19-year-old rural Campbellsport young man escaped serious injury last Wednesday afternoon after being shot in the lower leg by a deer hunting companion.

Donald Stageman of Route 3, Campbellsport, was hit by a 12 gauge shotgun slug between the ankle and knee about 1:30 p.m. Wednesday while hunting with friends in Gatzke's woods in the Town of Auburn.

He was transported to St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, from Kewaskum by the rescue squad and released. According to the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Department report, the slug passed through the leg without damaging bone or tendon.

The deer hunting party included 10 men. Five were at one end of the woods walking toward the other five at the other end of the woods.

D.C. Anti-Klan Demonstration Changes Kewaskum Group's Tour Plan

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Thirty-three Kewaskum High School students and their two chaperones found an unexpected change in their Washington D.C. tour plans Saturday.

The group, made up of seniors and juniors on the school's sponsored trip to Washington and New York, received a surprise when they reached the White House for their tour of the building. All roads were barricaded within approximately two blocks of the area. Mounted police and motorcycle officers blanketed the entire area turning back all traffic as they prepared for a confrontation with anti-Klu Klux Klan demonstrators.

After an attempt to get close for a few White House pictures, the bus left the area and continued on the balance of its sightseeing tour.

The students were out of the area before the three-hour demonstration began. Several police officers and press people were injured in the melee which later led to vandalism and looting of several nearby businesses.

FFA Fruit to Arrive Dec. 13

Due to harvesting problems in California, the fruit to be delivered to the Kewaskum FFA will not arrive until the week of December 13th. If you placed a phone order you will be notified when the fruit arrives. Orders placed through members will be delivered as soon as possible.

The FFA hopes this will not inconvenience anyone who ordered fruit. By waiting until mid-December the FFA has been guaranteed we will receive the same quality fruit that has met our expectations each year.

Kiwanis Club Honors Meyers and Lettows

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club recognized two farm families for their sound conservation practices on their farms at the November 22nd weekly club meeting. The families honored were Bill and Janet Meyer and Mike and Debra Lettow.

These are the 49th and 50th farm families to be recognized for their involvement and cooperation with soil and water conservation and cropping systems practices.

Kiwanis President Roy Esser, former Voc-Ag instructor and presently vocational education coordinator and assistant principal at the high school, presented plaques to the award recipients and spoke briefly of the snowballing effect that has occurred in the Kewaskum School District area since 1958 since the Vocational Agricultural Department at the high school, the Washington County Soil Conservation Department, and the Kiwanis Club became strongly engaged in promoting good farm conservation programs as well as good operating practices. Esser stated that more and more farm and city people have recognized that there is a limited amount of land available for agricultural production. He said that you can't grow more acres of land; therefore, it is important that we conserve what is available.

Voc-Ag instructor David Rizzardi presented the program for the occasion. His topic included "Noise, the Invisible Agriculture Hazard" and "How much does the farmer receive of the consumer's dollar spent for the various food groups usually purchased in the supermarket."

Bill and Janet Meyer, Badger Road, Kewaskum, farm about 350 acres with about 250 acres tillable. They have 46 acres of conservation cropping system, a grass waterway, a wildlife pond, 48 acres of wetland habitat management for wildlife, and have installed 3,000 feet of tiling. Mike and Debra Lettow, R.2, Ridge Rd. (Debra is the daughter of Bill and Janet Meyer) farm approximately 200 acres and have 123 acres under a conservation cropping system, 64 acres of contour strip cropping, 36 acres of conservation tillage performed each year, 10 acres of woodland management, 11 acres of wildlife habitat management, a grass waterway, and have installed more than 15,000 feet of tile.

As indicated, both families have worked closely with the Washington County Soil Conservation Department headed by Don Kurer and assisted by Mark Bethke. The recipients of the Kiwanis Conservation Award have good farming practices. They are chosen by a committee consisting of members from the Voc-Ag Department, Kiwanis, and the Soil Conservation Department.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club started a program of recognizing area farmers who have practiced good soil and water conservation and other good cropping and farming practices in 1958.

Kiwanis International urged each local club to recognize and become better acquainted with soil conservation and good farming practices. Each year in November, Kiwanis International sets aside a week to promote better cooperation between farmers and village and city folks. The week has since been titled "Farm-City Week."

Each year a committee carefully selects two eligible farmers or farm organizations to receive the Kiwanis Conservation and Good Farming Practices Award. The recipients of the award are invited to attend a special Farm-City Week awards dinner. The following are the Kewaskum Kiwanis award winners since the program's inception.

United-Valley Merger Approved

Peter M. Platten, Ill, President of United Bankshares, Inc., Green Bay, and Gus A. Zuehlke, President of Valley Bancorporation, Appleton, announced that the proposed merger of the two bank holding companies had been approved by the Federal Reserve Board. Previously, shareholders of United voted to approve the business combination with Valley. The effective date of the merger will be December 31, 1982.

United controls West Bank and Trust, East Bank and United Bank, all in Green Bay. Valley has 19 member banks servicing eastern Wisconsin and four bank-related subsidiaries. When consummated, the transaction will result in the issuance of approximately 385,000 shares of Valley's stock to the more than 600 shareholders of United. Valley currently has more than 3,100 holders of its approximately 1.4 million outstanding common shares. With total assets of over $900 million, the resulting bank holding company will service eastern Wisconsin through 38 banking locations and will remain the fourth largest bank holding company in the state, and the largest based outside of the Milwaukee area.

Kewaskum Asked to Revise Zoning for Smaller Homes

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At Tuesday night's Plan Commission meeting, Zoning Administrator Richard Zarling re-stated his idea that Kewaskum consider revising its zoning restrictions to allow smaller homes.

Zarling said his previous comments had come down on his head and he felt his proposal needed further clarifying. He emphasized that what he was proposing is a smaller but expandable home which would allow people to buy a home on an affordable basis. Then, later on, when a family is in a better financial position they could enlarge the home to meet their new needs. This same option could also be open to future purchasers of that same home.

Zarling noted what he was trying to impress on residents and the commission is, while he recommends dropping the living area limits to 900 square feet, he DOES NOT want to see lot size reduced. If that were to happen you take away the feature of being able to enlarge that smaller home.

Commission member Bob

Kirst agreed with Zarling's theory. I'm presently working with a family who purchased a small home on a larger lot several years ago. At that time it was all they could afford. Now their needs call for more room and because their lot is big enough, they can expand. The family likes their community and present home and want to stay. However, if they had not had the room to add on, they would have had to move.

Zarling told the commission he has been following home sales very closely in the Sunday Milwaukee Journal. His findings were that the average home contained approximately 900-950 square feet, and since the end of World War II, the trend has been toward building smaller and smaller homes.

Chairman Pro-tem Jeff Rohrer suggested the commission go through a few homes in the 900 foot size area to get an idea of the actual size and feel of that size home.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said alternative recommendations will be presented for the zoning ordinance when the code book is reviewed in a few weeks.

Schmidt also updated the commission on progress for the TIF District. He informed the members the tax increment from the district will increase from the $37,000, originally anticipated, to $41,040.00. Member Charles Miller told Schmidt he should do more to publicize the fact that Kewaskum has the increments to back up its plans. Miller noted several people have told him the commission should drop the idea after reading how poorly the West Bend TIF District appears to be operating. It was noted the difference between Kewaskum and West Bend is, the village plans to proceed with only the projects the TIF can support, whereas West Bend has been continually starting new projects before it sees any dollar return on completed programs.

Cedar Lake Day Health Care Expanding

Help for older adults or handicapped persons who have medical or social needs which cannot totally be met at home is available at Cedar Lake Home Campus Day Health Care program.

Cedar Lake Day Health Care, one of the first in the country, began at the Home in 1958 and is now being expanded due to the Campus commitment to provide for the total needs of community individuals, particularly for their independence.

A person may come for several hours or a full day. The purpose of Day Health Care is to offer individuals personal care and participation in a restorative program with the opportunity to share experiences with others. Day residents participate in Cedar Lake Home's total team therapeutic service. Day residents are a part of the total ongoing resident program.

Cedar Lake Home's Day Health Care program will provide: nursing services; activity program; rehabilitative services such as physical, occupational and speech therapy, and resident family services. The program is especially helpful to individuals recovering from a stroke, broken bones or other debilitating conditions. Day Health Care can help to shorten a hospital stay, speed up recovery, and offer respite to family members who provide ongoing care.

Rates are based on the level of care needed by each individual.

An individualized therapeutic program is developed for each person by the professional staff in consultation with their personal physician. The physician will maintain primary responsibility for medical care.

Transportation must be provided by each individual. However, rides may be arranged with the Washington County Transportation Services, (Senior Citizen Red Bus).

Cedar Lake Home Campus Day Health Care program is one of creativity in continuing the individual's growth in dignity.

Nov. 28 Through Dec. 4 Declared As Home Care Week

Home Care Week has been declared by the U.S. Congress and Governor Lee Sherman Dreyfus as November 28 through December 4. The week is dedicated to bringing attention to home care and its ability to provide health services to individuals of all ages, be they acutely or chronically ill, disabled, frail or elderly. Given a choice, most people wish to remain at home as long as possible when they are ill.

Often families are not aware of the arrangements which can be made with a home health agency for nursing, home health aide, speech and physical therapy services.

These and other services can greatly alleviate the pressure of coping continuously with a family member who is not well. This week presents a special opportunity to alert families to the benefits of home health care.

Washington County Community Health Nursing Service provides home health services for Washington County residents and shares in the sense of dignity, privacy, self-reliance and independence so important to all individuals. For more information about home health services or to request services call:

Washington County Community Health Nursing Service, 515 E. Washington St. - West Bend, 338-4462 or 644-5204 or 342-2929.

4-H Music and Drama Festival and Workshop Planned

Washington County 4-H members will again be able to take part in a Music and Drama Festival. The 4-H music and drama committee met recently to plan the 1983 activities. One of the main activities is a Music and Drama Festival, which will be held April 17, at the UWWC Theater in West Bend.

The Music and Drama Festival consists of one act plays, mime, skits and readings. There are also musical presentations including vocal, instrumental, dance and novelty presentations.

Every Washington County 4-H club is invited to participate. They may present one or more numbers. There is also a special "Family Fun" category. These presentations can include parents or other members of the family that are not 4-H members. In some cases members of several families may get together.

The Music and Drama Festival gives youth an opportunity to create and make presentations to the public. It is a fun experience but it is also a learning experience. There is a lot of satisfaction in being able to perform in front of a group.

Many of the groups use written plays or musicals. Some of the groups, however, write their own plays or make up their own musical presentations.

A music and drama workshop is planned for January 8. It is a district workshop at Plymouth for several surrounding counties. Music and drama specialists will be conducting sessions that will cover such topics as play selection and direction, character development, theater games, music selection, movement and dance and costume design. The workshop is open to adults as well as members. Call the 4-H office for details of the event.

The 4-H music drama committee includes Marge Slaughter, Chairman, Richfield; Chris Ojstresek, Vice-Chairman, Allenton; Dolores Bruni, Lois Pikoske, and Karen Doll of West Bend and Steve Zimmerman of Slinger. If you would like to make comments or suggestions to the committee contact one of the members.

Is That Holiday Tree Legal?

Was the Christmas tree in the trunk of your car obtained legally? All trees in Wisconsin are owned by someone, whether the tree has been sheared and is growing in a plantation or whether it is growing wild in the woods.

If the trees are privately owned, whether growing wild or in a plantation, see the landowner and get written permission to cut, and a bill of sale for the tree or trees you purchase.

If the land you are planning to cut on is in public ownership, you must contact the manager of that property and get permission to cut the trees. You may in many cases have to pay a small fee.

Be certain that the written permission or bill of sale has the date and quantity of trees to be taken.

Under Wisconsin Statutes, DNR conservation officers, state traffic officers and county and municipal law enforcement officers have the authority to stop anyone hauling any quantity of Christmas trees. It's best to keep your bill of sale or written permission to take trees readily available. If you cut the trees on your own property and are transporting them, carry your latest property tax bill for the property.

If you follow the owner of the land where you have cut the trees and have written permission from that owner, or a bill of sale, you shouldn't have any problem in case you are stopped.

If you follow all the rules, you and your family will be able to enjoy your Christmas tree with the same peace of mind that is the spirit of Christmas.

Under a new law, which went into effect last year, penalties for timber theft are increased. The minimum forfeiture is $100.

Harvesting of Corn Progresses Slowly

A report by the Wisconsin Agriculture Reporting Service indicates that the 1982 corn for grain harvest has been delayed in Wisconsin due to less than ideal weather this month and poor field conditions in many areas of the state.

According to Jeff Kratz, statistician with the Wisconsin Dept. of Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection, an estimated 69% of the state's corn for grain acreage had been harvested by November 21. "This is significantly behind last year's pace of 79% and the 1972-81 average of 87%," Kratz points out. He adds that some state corn growers have encountered problems in drying their harvested corn this year.

As of Nov. 21, an estimated 90% of the state's soybeans had been harvested, which compares to 88% harvested on this date last year and the 1972-81 average of 97%. About 37% of the fall plowing has been completed, compared to 61% last year and the 1972-81 average of 57%.

Kratz says that in spite of the harvesting delay, the state's corn crop is expected to total 365.7 million bushels, the second largest crop in the state's history. This year's corn crop is estimated at 3.3% less than last year's record crop of 378 million bushels.

Wisconsin's 1982 soybean crop is estimated at a record 14.85 million bushels, which will be 20% above last year's crop of 12.375 million bushels.

Nationally, corn production is estimated at an all time high of 8.33 billion bushels, topping the previous record of 8.20 billion bushels produced in 1981. The U. S. soybean crop is also a record, at an estimated 2.3 billion bushels, which compares to the previous record of 2.27 billion bushels, set in 1979.

Free Farmer's Tax Guides Available At County Extension

The Washington County UW-Extension Office has just received our supply of the "Farmer's Tax Guide." This publication, printed by the Internal Revenue Service, is for use in preparing 1982 farm income tax returns.

The Federal tax laws apply to farming. It gives examples of typical farming situations and discusses the kind of farm income you must report and the different deductions you can take. This book can be used as a guide to figuring your taxes and filling out your farm tax return.

The "Farmer's Tax Guide" can be helpful to individuals even if they are not filling out their own income tax return. It gives you information on items of interest and changes that have taken place due to the most recent tax law changes. It can also provide you with information as to what items to provide for your tax practitioner to assist in filling out your tax return as accurately as possible.

Copies of the publication are

Edward Krause, 71, a bachelor who lived alone in the village of Dundee, died early Tuesday, November 25, when the building that served as his home was destroyed by fire. Mr. Krause was found lying on his back near the stove and it is assumed that he might have suffocated soon after the fire broke out.

Deer hunters returning from the north woods this week report the hunting as worse than it has been in a long, long time. Very few hunters bagged a deer. Up to Thursday of this week we heard reports of only five hunters from Kewaskum who came home with their buck. We are told that Reuben Schaefer, Charles Reigle, Rolland Senn, Ed. Haack, and Lloyd Etta were successful. However, this is not official.

Miss Verne Backhaus, Kewaskum, was chosen to represent the Deaconess hospital student body at a dinner for the United Hospital Fund of Milwaukee County at the Wisconsin Club, November 20.

Sgt. Alvin Panzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Panzer of rural Campbellsport, who had been serving in Frankfurt, Germany, for almost a year arrived home last Saturday. He left again on Sunday for Michigan to receive his honorable discharge from the army.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schultz, Kewaskum, on November 19.

be shot. Mr. Borchert also had stored in the barn 400 bushels of corn and 100 bushels of oats, all of which were destroyed. The building was one of the latest constructed barns in this community, being built about 2½ years ago replacing one that was also destroyed by fire.

Michael P. Peters, 44, a resident of the Town of West Bend, met with a tragic death on Tuesday, when a circle saw, while in motion, flew off its base and struck Mr. Peters, severely, gashing his body and cutting open his chest. Mr. Peters was thrown against a barb wire fence, but managed to pick himself up and walk to his house, where he died approximately seven minutes after the terrible accident.

Frank M. Fieweger, 22, of the Town of Addison, was accidentally shot last week Friday morning while hunting rabbits near his home at Aurora. The shot came from a repeating pump shotgun carried by his brother Helmut. The accident happened as Frank chased a rabbit out of a hollow log, and after his brother shot and missed the rabbit. The latter rapidly reloaded the gun and the shell exploded as it entered the barrel, hitting Frank in the back when he stepped in the range of fire, receiving the whole charge. He died at St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend, on Saturday morning.

The following people are winners in the Good Conduct race for the past six weeks at the Kewaskum School Primary Room: Lillian Werner, Lloyd Etta, Lois Koch, Donald Koerble, Donald Mertes, Lavern Ramthun, William Schmidt, Beatrice Vorpahl, Lorena Vorpahl and Beatrice Hafeman.

son of Mr. and Mrs. John Klein Sr., and Miss Frieda Belger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Belger, took place at the Ev. Lutheran St. Lucas Church on November 23.

Edw. C. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, and Miss Jennie Hoenig, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Hoenig, both of this village, were married at Milwaukee on November 26.

Henry J. Lay, one of Kewaskum's most prominent resident and a leading businessman, died at his residence on November 25, after an illness of only a week with appendicitis. Mr. Lay was born in the Town of Wayne on March 16, 1859. In 1881 he married Miss Kate Petri of Wayne. Soon afterward, in the spring of 1882, he came to Kewaskum and purchased the local lumber yard which he conducted very successfully. The deceased leaves one son, Otto, and one daughter, Mathilda (Mrs. L. P. Rosenheimer), also his father, mother, five sisters, Margaret (Mrs. John Kuntz) of Bushton, Kansas, Emelia (Mrs. Charles Schoelkopf) Mankato, Minn., Johanna (Mrs. A. A. Wendel) of Milwaukee, Mrs. Maud Bertschy of New York, Tina of Milwaukee and two brothers, John of Clintonville and William of Wayne.

Nic Rimmel received an order for one of his patent wood boring machines from a party at Ishpeming, Michigan.

Charles W. Miller, who was formally in the general merchandise business at Beechwood, loaded his household goods here Thursday and shipped them to Royalton, Minnesota, where he owns a farm.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ehnert of New Fane last Monday.

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

THE WISCONSIN DRIVERS LICENSE
DEMERIT POINT SYSTEM

"How many points do I lose for this ticket?" This is a question often raised by persons receiving traffic citations noted Sheriff Clarence Schwartz in a recent media release. He went on to state that there is a major misconception here in that points are gained on a person's driving record and not lost, and a second major misunderstanding is that this question can easily be answered.

Aside from the fact that when a driver accumulates twelve points in one year, 18 points in two years or 24 points in three years, the point system varies with regard to each individual's driving record and the type of license he is operating under.

Sheriff Schwartz further explained that drivers with probationary licenses will receive an additional two points on their driving record for every violation after the first one, and that all drivers convicted of speeding will receive an additional one or two points for each speeding conviction within a three year period. The release further clarified this by stating that if you receive a conviction for exceeding the speed limit by ten miles per hour or less, and then received a second conviction within the next 36 months for the same violation, you will receive three demerit points for the first conviction and four demerit points for the second. For convictions at speeds greater than ten miles per hour over the speed limit, subsequent violations result in two more demerit points being assessed over and above the conviction before this one.

The license type also becomes a factor here. A driver with a probationary license convicted of exceeding the speed limit by ten miles per hour or less still would receive three demerit points for his first conviction (provided there were no other violations recorded) however, for the second conviction there would be a six point assessment against his driver's record, and if the second conviction was at a speed greater than 10 miles per hour over the limit, the demerit point assessment would be eight points.

If this all seems a bit confusing, don't feel alone. Sheriff Schwartz indicated that the demerit point system first began in 1956, and has been revised periodically to keep it a modern, effective device in traffic accident prevention. The system's current primary provisions are designed to remove the habitual speed violator from the highway, as well as the novice driver who repeatedly incurs traffic citations in their short time as a driver.

The Sheriff's release concluded in advising interested motorists who want more information about Wisconsin demerit point system to obtain a handy point system card at the Sheriff's Department, the drivers license examiners station, or at most local police stations.

ON EMISSIONS

If your new automobile doesn't seem to have the acceleration power of previously owned cars, it's because auto makers must meet federal exhaust emission laws. Carburetors are leaner, timing is retarded, compression ratios are lowered and a variety of emission control devices are on the engines. All this gives complete fuel combustion and lower emissions. It also saps power and creates a more sensitive engine. There's harder starting, easier stalling and lower gas mileage.

That's why it's so important to keep a fine tuned motor. It's expensive for you if you don't. J & J AUTO SERVICE specializes in engine services. We have the necessary electronic tools to check out all American and most foreign models. Drive over to 450 E. Main today or phone for an appointment.

36% of Nation's 54 Million Smokers Tried Not to Smoke on Great American Smokeout Day

Thirty-six percent of the nation's 54 million smokers tried not to smoke on Great American Smokeout Day, according to a randomized telephone survey conducted by American Cancer Society volunteers.

This figure indicates that 19 million smokers participated in the Great American Smokeout, an event sponsored by the American Cancer Society on November 18 to urge smokers to quit for 24 hours or longer.

If experience from previous Smokeouts holds true, the Society estimates that 6.7 percent of those quitting on Smokeout Day still won't be smoking a year from now.

The nation-wide survey was conducted by volunteers from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. on Smokeout Day. In surveying 2,277 households it was also revealed that proportionately more women than men tried to quit: 41 percent of female smokers compared to 32 percent of male smokers.

The ACS/Wisconsin Division also conducted a randomized telephone survey. Twenty-two ACS volunteers surveyed 219 households. They found that 43 percent of the smokers identified were trying to go without cigarettes during Smokeout Day. Of all those surveyed 81.7 percent were aware that November 18 was Great American Smokeout Day.

The survey results indicate that over 300,000 Wisconsin smokers tried to quit smoking during the Smokeout.

"From the results of the surveys and from public response, we can see that people are trying to stop smoking," said Roger Kwong, M.D., of La Crosse, chairman of the Division Smokeout Committee. "The Smokeout gives smokers an opportunity to set a target date for quitting. And for many, that goal is all they need to be successful."

The American Cancer Society provides many aids to help smokers quit. For information on available materials and Quit Smoking Clinics, contact your local county unit by referring to the white pages of your phone book, or the Division Office, 615 N. Sherman Avenue, P.O. Box 8370, Madison, WI 53708, phone: (608) 249-0487. All services and programs are supported entirely by generous Crusade and memorial contributions from the public.

MAKING ENDS MEET

By Joyce Albrecht, Extension Home Economist

AFTER THE DUCK AND GOOSE HUNT

Hunting waterfowl in the crisp days of autumn is a favorite sport in Wisconsin. But if you hunt game birds with an eye to the cooking pot, it is wise—as in stalking large and small four-legged game—to think ahead of time about getting the kill from hunting to home grounds. For the best flavor and eye appeal, you need to know how to field dress, cool, transport and pluck the fowl, as well as how to prepare it for the table.

Use these steps to field dress waterfowl:

1. Field dress the bird immediately. Remove the entrails and avoid breaking the gall bladder sac on the liver—bile destroys meat flavor. The shape of the bird's bill tells you about his diet—broad and flat billed ducks are plant eaters; pointed and serrated bills indicate fish eaters.

2. Wipe the body cavity with a dry cloth, paper towel or dry grass. Moisture spreads bacteria which cause spoilage.

3. Cool the bird by allowing air to circulate in the body cavity. Hold the cavity open with a small stick to speed cooling. If the weather isn't cold, bring a cooler in the car to transport birds.

4. When you get home, finish dressing the birds. If you want to age them by hanging for three or four days at 40 degrees to 45 degrees, don't pluck them. A fully dressed duck can be more safely aged by refrigerating at 35 degrees to 40 degrees for three or four days to tenderize and develop flavor. Many experts recommend that ducks and geese be plucked rather than skinned, since the skin helps retain flavor and moisture during cooking. However, many hunters do skin birds because it is easier than plucking. Then they use bacon strips to add moisture during cooking. Dry pluck. If you don't remove all pin feathers and down use a paraffin treatment. For four ducks, place two cakes of paraffin in 4 quarts of water, bring to a boil and dip the birds in, one at a time. Cool the bird to harden the paraffin and scrape off wax, down and pin feathers with a small, dull knife. Handle geese in the same manner as ducks.

Do not freeze birds without plucking and cleaning them first. Immediately after cleaning the birds, wrap them in moisture-vapor-proof material. Freeze immediately and store no longer than 9-10 months. Thaw by placing the package in the refrigerator for 12-18 hours. This slow thaw will tenderize the meat.

Fish-eating ducks may need soaking or marinating in vinegar, mild wine or buttermilk. You may soak older ducks and geese in a solution of 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1 tablespoon vinegar per quart of cold water for 4-12 hours in the refrigerator.

Wild duck meat is darker and somewhat dryer than domestic duck. To retain or add moisture when roasting skinned birds, cover the breast with strips of bacon or side pork and roast in a covered pan. In roasting or broiling ducks, use a rack to keep them free of their own fat, and do not baste with the fat.

Ducks and geese may be baked, barbecued, breaded, broiled, fried, combined in casseroles, chop suey, creoles, gumbos and gravies.

RECIPES

Roast Wild Duck

Rub outside of duck with a slice of onion, then sprinkle with salt and pepper. You can flavor the bird and absorb strong flavors by placing a quartered peeled onion, grapes, quartered apples or potatoes and a small bunch of celery in the cavity during roasting, but discard this stuffing before serving. If ducks are lean or have been skinned, place two or three strips of bacon or salt pork on each breast and secure with tooth picks. Place ducks on a rack in a covered roasting pan and bake in a 325°F. oven for 2 hours or until tender. If ducks need basting, use orange juice, melted butter, or melted butter and red wine rather than pan drippings.

Roast Wild Goose

The "flavor dressing" of apple, onion, potatoes and celery, as described for duck, can be placed in the bird during roasting. Place the goose on a rack in an uncovered roasting pan, and bake in a 325°F. oven for 3 hours or until tender. Baste frequently with pan drippings. You can insert a meat thermometer into the thickest part of the breast muscle, without touching bone, to determine internal temperature. Goose is well-done when the internal temperature is 180 to 185°F. Serve with a tart jelly or relish.

Dressings for Duck or Goose

We recommend that you bake dressing separately to avoid any chance of hazard from bacterial growth. Bake in a covered casserole in the oven while the bird is roasting. If you decide to stuff the birds, do so just before placing them in the oven, and have all ingredients hot before stuffing the birds. Use a meat thermometer to be sure that internal temperature of the dressing reaches 165-170°F.

Wild Rice Dressing

- 2 cups cooked wild rice (1/2 cup uncooked wild rice, cooked in 1 1/2 cups water or chicken broth)
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup onion, minced
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1 four-ounce can mushroom pieces and stems
- 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1/2 teaspoon sage
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme or marjoram
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper

Cook onions and celery in melted butter or margarine until barely tender. Add drained mushroom pieces and continue cooking 5 minutes. Add cooked rice and all remaining ingredients. Bake in a covered casserole at 325°F. for 45 minutes or stuff birds and roast according to above instructions.

Sauerkraut Dressing

- 1 one-pound 12 ounce can of sauerkraut (No. 2 1/2 can)
- 1 tart red apple, unpeeled, chopped
- 1/2 cup celery, chopped
- 1 medium potato, peeled and grated
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup onion, chopped

Combine all ingredients. Bake in a covered casserole at 325°F. or stuff ducks or goose with mixture, skewer and roast according to instructions above.

Braised Wild Duck

- 2 ready-to-cook wild ducks, cut up
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup flour
- 1/3 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup water, chicken broth, or light cream
- Optional: 1/2 cup chopped onion, 1/4 cup chopped celery

Season duck pieces with salt and pepper and roll in flour. Melt butter or margarine in a heavy skillet or Dutch oven and fry duck slowly in the hot fat until brown on both sides (about 30 minutes). Turn only once. If you use onion and celery, remove duck pieces and cook onion and celery in the pan drippings for 10 minutes. Return pieces of duck to pan, add liquid, and cover pan tightly. Simmer on top of range slowly for 1 hour or until tender, or bake in a 325° oven until tender.

Oven Barbequed Duck

- 2 ducks, cleaned and halved
- 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- 1/4 cup salad oil
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon grated onion
- 1 tablespoon paprika
- 1/3 cup catsup
- 1/8 teaspoon black pepper

Preheat oven to 400°F. Place duck halves, split side down, in a shallow baking pan. Rub with crushed garlic and brush with melted butter or margarine. Roast, uncovered, for 10 to 15 minutes. Meanwhile, combine other ingredients and heat to simmering. Reduce oven temperature to 350°F. and baste with the sauce every 10 minutes until ducks are tender, 40 to 50 minutes.

The average American, the U.S. Dept of Agriculture reports, consumes some 95 pounds of refined sugar a year.

Indian Wrestlers
Open by Splitting
Double Dual Meet

Kewaskum and Campbellsport took part in a double dual wrestling meet against St. Mary's Springs and Grafton at Campbellsport last Wednesday evening.

The Cougars defeated both St. Mary's and Grafton handily, 47-18 and 48-18. The Indians started off with a 39-18 victory over Grafton, but dropped their second decision to Springs, 33-21. Kewaskum coach Fran Charland was disappointed with his team's mental approach in the second match.

A number of wrestlers from Campbellsport and Kewaskum came away with 2-0 records. The Indians' Stuart Stautz won two fast matches, scoring one pin in 26 seconds and the other in 1:37. Unlimited wrestlers Scott Durian of KHS also notched two pins. Other Indian double winners were Dave Kudek at 112 and 119 and Steve Seitz at 167.

Indian Coach Charland has eight lettermen back this year, all regulars, and hopes to turn things around from last season's dismal conference record. Back are seniors Stautz, Durian, Russ Katzenberger and Kudek, along with Mark Durian, who started the second half of the season but did not letter, and juniors Paul Reilly, Chris Harlow, Steve Seitz and Kirk Vogt.

Kewaskum will open its conference season at Chilton Thursday.

Kewaskum Upsets
Hartford in Lakes Opener

The Kewaskum Lakes basketball team opened the 1982-83 season on a high note, upsetting Hartford, defending Lakes 'B' Division champs, 98-93, here Sunday night, behind Leon Laatsch's 31 points.

Kewaskum, with many new faces in the lineup, held a slight lead throughout most of the game. They took a 22-20 lead after the first quarter and increased it to 45-40 at the half, as Laatsch totaled 21 first-half points. They upped their lead to 74-64 after the three quarters as Clark Eichstedt had seven in the quarter. Hartford countered with a 29-24 fourth quarter behind Randy Miller's 13 points to bring the final margin to five. Hartford actually cut the lead to two points with about a minute left as Kewaskum's failure to make free throws down the stretch almost cost them the game.

Besides Laatsch, last year's Lakes scoring champ, Eichstedt returning after a year's layoff, had 17 points, and rookies Mike Maney and Jeff Lehnerz had 14 and 10 points, respectively for Kewaskum. Veteran Jim Gaedtker led Hartford with 29 points, while Miller added 18.

Kewaskum made 14 of 22 free throws for 63.6 percent, while Hartford was only five of 11 for 45.5 percent.

This Sunday Kewaskum travels to Slinger, which defeated Sussex in their opener, for a 7:30 game.

Deer Hunters, Hang Onto Your
License or Backtag

Wisconsin deer hunters are urged to retain their 1982 hunting license or backtag, or to record the license number from them for possible future use.

The reason is that your 1982 hunting license number may be required when you apply for a hunter's choice permit in 1983. The number of the previous year's license was requested on the 1982 hunter's choice application, but was not mandatory. It may be a requirement on next year's application.

Cougars Defeat Indians In Close Contest, 70-66

Despite the fact that three of their players were out with injuries, two of them starters, the Kewaskum Indians gave the Campbellsport Cougars a close battle in their non-conference game here last Tuesday before going down, 70-66. Campbellsport, with many returnees back, has been rated as a strong contender in the Flyway Conference this year.

In Tuesday's game, the outcome wasn't decided until the final seconds. Rick Serwe sank two free throws for the

the last 20 seconds but with both of their big men, Brian Arndt and Dan Dean, out of the game on personal fouls, missed on both chances. Both center Andy Tischendorf and guard Tim Serwe came up with big baskets in the fourth quarter, the former hitting three buckets in the last eight minutes.

Jim Benike, a 6-3 senior forward, sparked Campbellsport with 22 points, 9 rebounds and 3 blocked shots, while the Cougars 6-4 center, Tischendorf, scored 7 of his 13 points in the fourth quarter. Guard Jim Hanrahan shot well from outside for Kewaskum and fired in a game-high 25 points. He had a real fine game. Dean added 15 points for the Indians.

Kewaskum was forced to make lineup changes when it was learned that 6-4 starter Dennis Butz, in his fall to the floor in the Slinger game, suffered a hairline fracture to his right elbow. He will be out of action at least six weeks. Jeff Squier will be out with a football injury until after the holidays and the third player hurt is Dan Gerhartz. The Cougars were also without one of their top scorers in Gary Beck, sidelined with tonsillitis.

For the second straight game, the Indians lost 6-4, junior center Arndt on fouls in the last quarter, just when they started to come back. The score was 64-59 at the time and less than a minute later after a free throw and a nifty layup by Hanrahan, Kewaskum cut the lead to just 64-62.

With a minute left the Cougar lead was cut to one point, 67-66, after Paul Anderson hit a short shot but that was the end of the Indian scoring. With just 30 seconds left a pass from Anderson went through the hands of Dean, who was wide open near the basket and went out of bounds, giving the Cougars the ball.

Dave O'Brien sank a free throw to give his team a two point lead. Then Hanrahan came right down the court but missed an easy shot that would have tied the score. Serwe was fouled on the rebound and sank two free throws to clinch the game. The Indians had their chances but couldn't produce.

This Friday Kewaskum travels to Random Lake for another non-conference contest. This game is listed on the schedule as a home game but will be played on the Ram's floor.

INDIANS LOSE TO WEST BEND WEST

In a non-conference contest Tuesday night the Kewaskum Indians lost to West Bend West in the West Bend fieldhouse, 88-72. Details next week.

Cougars with nine seconds to play to ice the victory. Hot shooting in the last quarter enabled Campbellsport to turn back a comeback bid by the Indians.

The Cougars hit nine of 14 shots in the last period (68 percent) to gain a hard-earned victory. Kewaskum had two opportunities to tie the game in

Stautz Named Indians MVP In Football

18 Returnees

Senior Stuart Stautz was named as Kewaskum High School's Most Valuable Player of the 1982 football season at the annual banquet held recently. Stautz is one of only seven seniors on the squad.

Stautz, who was in on nearly every defensive play of the season at his inside linebacker position, also shared the team's fullback duties. He was chosen as MVP by the coaching staff.

Twenty-two players were presented major letters by Head Coach Mike Ffrick, who also gave out special awards which included helmet decals to players with perfect attendance during the season.

The seven senior lettermen included: Stautz, Brian Johnson, Toby Mueller, Curt Prescott, Mark Rodenkirch, Darryl Tews and Frank Voge. Thirteen junior "K" winners, who will be back next year among 18 returnees and are expected to have a fine season, included: Brad Bartelt, Jim Braun, Dennis Butz, Brad Dieringer, Rich Gaspardo, Chris Harlow, Rick Heberer, Dean Kohn, Tim Leitheiser, Doug Miller, Dave Pesch, Steve Seitz and John Swanson. There is also one sophomore letter winner who will be back, namely Mark Follmann, the team's starting quarterback for much of the season.

Stautz was a first team

Eastern Wisconsin all-conference selection, the only Kewaskum player picked among the 1-5 Indians. Stuart had 146½ defensive points, the most any player has had since Ffrick became coach. He had five fumble recoveries and averaged 16 tackles per game. Offensively Stautz was ninth in the conference in rushing with 245 yards in 45 carries for a 5.4 yard average.

Second team all-conference players honored were: Jeff Squier, safety; John Swanson, offensive tackle; Chris Harlow and Jim Braun, running backs. and Dennis Butz, offensive end. Offensive guard Brian Johnson was picked as the team's most improved player. He also handled the long snapping chores on punts and extra points. Swanson was named the team's best lineman and Squier and Doug Miller were selected as team captain and junior captain respectively.
