Revised Timblin Condo Plan Aired

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At Monday night's Town of Kewaskum Board meeting, developer Tom Timblin presented a revised scaled down plan for a 5-plus acre condominium site located behind the Bonnie Bell Motel.

The new proposed plan reduces the number of units from 52 to 36, with an anticipated price tag of about $60,000 per unit.

Because the land is in the village but butts Kowask Lane and the Town of Kewaskum's boundary, Timblin and his planning consultant Ron Weis of Citizen-Weis, Incorporated, West Bend, wanted the town to hear and see his new proposal.

Timblin said he wanted to let both town and village residents know, we're doing everything in our power to work with both the village and town to present a plan which would be mutually satisfactory to everyone.

The new plan will be presented to the Kewaskum Village Plan Commission at its next meeting in two weeks.

An architect's sketch and development plan of the proposed Timblin condominium are shown in the above photos.

If there are any questions, please feel free to call Tom Timblin in the evening.

Technical Mix-up to Result in 2nd Meeting on State Trust Fund Loan

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Because the Kewaskum School Board applied for a 20-year State Trust Fund loan and the electorate approved a 10-year loan, electors will have to go through the whole hearing and approval voting process again.

At Monday night's special meeting of the Kewaskum School Board, District Administrator John Long informed the board an Electors Meeting must be held to approve, for a second time, a decision to take out a $400,000 State Trust Fund loan for ten years.

Long said he was told by loan officials in Madison that because the district had applied for the loan on a 20-year payback basis, but approved the 10-year payback at its May 2nd meeting, the loan would have to be re-submitted properly indicating the difference in the payback time.

Long said that although this entailed some added time and work, there was a good side to the situation. The first time the loan was applied for it would

Local Game Room Operator Beaten in Weekend Attack

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Robert L. Haney, 43, of Memorial Drive, Kewaskum, operator of R-L's Game Room on Main Street in Kewaskum, was brutally beaten Saturday night in what police officials feel may have been an attempted burglary, although nothing was taken.

The incident occurred at approximately 8:45 p.m. May 21st in the game room.

Police records indicate Haney was alone in the establishment when two males entered the premises, a 17-year-old rural Campbellsport youth and a 20-year-old Adell area man. The alleged attack took place at that time.

Kewaskum Police Officer Richard Knoebel said the minor had been arrested and taken to the Washington County Jail on a charge of aggravated battery. No formal charges have as yet been filed against the 20-year-old.

Knoebel said the police were called to the scene when Haney crawled from the game room to the Kewaskum Saloon, next door, where he sought help.

The Kewaskum Rescue Squad took Haney to St. Joseph's Hospital, West Bend. He was then transferred to Milwaukee County General Hospital suffering from a skull fracture, facial injuries including a broken nose, and a broken arm.

Official records say Haney was beaten with a blunt object on the right side of the head causing the injuries and breaking his glasses. Although Haney is listed in satisfactory condition, his wife told Officer Knoebel he will suffer eye damage. Haney had impaired vision before the attack, with vision in only one eye. Doctors have informed Mrs. Haney that the broken glasses had damaged Haney's sighted eye and it appeared, at this time, that Haney may be permanently blind as a result of the injuries received in the attack.

Mrs. Haney, the owner of Gina's Pizza in Kewaskum, said that her husband had been running the game room for its owner since March 1. "I am closing the game room definitely," she said.

Knoebel, who is the Kewaskum juvenile officer, said the incident is still under investigation and further charges may be filed.

In checking with Washington County District Attorney David Resheske Tuesday morning, he stated Circuit Court Branch I Judge J. Thomas Merriam had released the juvenile into his mother's custody. Resheske said a waiver hearing has been requested asking that the youth be transferred to adult court so he may be tried as an adult.

Memorial Day Parade and Services to Be Held Monday

On Monday morning, May 30, the Robert G. Romaine Post 384, Kewaskum, will start the observance of Memorial Day with a parade at 9:00 a.m. The parade will start from the Kewaskum High School, proceed to First St. to Parkview, then to Main then west on Main Street to Fond du Lac Avenue, then north to the Legion Clubhouse, where the traditional program will take place. In case of rain, the program will be held at the High School.

The main speaker of the program will be Lieutenant Victor A. Edelmann, who was born and raised in New Jersey. After being graduated from Rumson-Fair Haven Regional High School, he attended Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. During his four years at Miami U., he was a midshipman in the campus' Navy ROTC program. He was graduated in 1978 with a BA in sociology, and was commissioned as an Ensign in the Navy soon thereafter.

Lt. Edelmann has served aboard the USS Tacoma (PG-92) as the Weapons Officer and the USS Sterrett (CG-31) as the Navigator. He is presently serving as an officer recruiter with Navy Recruiting District, Milwaukee.

Mrs. Lorrie Tessar, Kewaskum, will present a flag to the American Legion Robert G. Romaine Post 384, in honor of her deceased husband, John Sr. and their son Allen, and to all Veterans. This flag was flown over our nation's capitol.

Mrs. Tessar is a chapter member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and has received the 55 year "Continuous Service Award." She has been active in the American Legion Auxiliary, both County

Five Young People Injured in Accident

Following a two-car accident on U.S. Hwy. 45 in the Town of Jackson early Sunday morning in which five young people were injured, a 19-year-old woman was in critical condition at Froedtert Memorial Lutheran Hospital in Milwaukee.

The mishap occurred when Mark A. Rosenthal, 23, of Glendale was driving south about 1/2 mile south of State Hwy. 143, crossed the center line and struck a car driven by Matthew G. Hanrahan, 19, of 4930 State Hwy. 28, Kewaskum, head on, the accident report said.

Rosenthal was cited for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated and was in satisfactory condition with head, knee and arm injuries at St. Joseph's Community Hospital Monday, a spokeswoman said. Hanrahan had been treated and released after the accident, she said.

Hanrahan's passenger, Nancy J. Schulz, 19, of 5246 County Trunk D, suffered a head injury and was transported to the Milwaukee hospital early Sunday. She underwent a craniotomy at Froedtert that day to drain the blood and was in critical condition in the neurointensive care unit there Monday, a spokesman said, adding that her vital signs were stable.

Another passenger in Hanrahan's car, Timothy A. Indermuehle, 19, of Campbellsport, received severe facial injuries and was in serious but stable condition Monday in the intensive care unit at St. Joseph's Community Hospital, the spokeswoman said.

A third passenger, Jane T. Herriges, 19, of 1324 Western Ave., Kewaskum, was in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's with a head injury.

In a related matter, sheriff's deputies said that a Schmidt ambulance, West Bend, headed for the accident, was in an accident itself. Curtis Schmidt, 44, of 1335 N. Eighth Ave., West Bend, was driving the ambulance north on U.S. 45 with the red lights and sirens on when he pulled into the left lane to pass several cars. The most northerly car, which was driven by John T. Lutz, 19, of 5457 State Hwy. 144, turned left on to Sherman Road and was struck by the ambulance. The ambulance skidded onto the shoulder and rolled onto its left side.

Schmidt said he and his brother, Kenneth, received bumps and bruises and were treated at St. Joseph's and released.

Search Continues for Missing Campbellsport Boy

The search for 5-year-old Bobbi Joe Fritz, Campbellsport, missing since Saturday, May 14, continues as no new clues turned up after another intensive search over the weekend.

Bobbi Joe was reportedly last seen in front of his home about 4:30 p.m. Saturday, May 14. Since then, the Milwaukee River and Mill Pond near his home have been searched daily.

An organized eight-hour search Saturday over a six mile area, involved over 200 citizens, airplanes, a helicopter, horses and dogs in an effort to find little Bobbi Joe. As the Kewaskum Fire Department repeatedly dragged the mill pond, members of the Mt. Calvary, Oakfield and Eden Fire Department joined in the foot search. Searchers from REACT, CB Alert and the Sheriff's Reserve have been assisting the Sheriff's Department and Campbellsport police and fire departments.

Mrs. Sharon Fritz, 605 E. Main St., Campbellsport, the boy's mother and his father are divorced. The father lives in Illinois, and it has been confirmed that he was remarried on Saturday.

The Green Bay office of the FBI is now involved in the case due to the time factor. The boy has been missing over 10 days and no new clues have been found that can be traced to his disappearance.

Ten inches of snow fell in parts of New England on June 6, 1816, beginning "the year in which there was no summer."

LEG CRAMPS

A simple exercise to stretch the hamstring muscles may prevent leg cramps at night. Simply stand at arms length from a wall and place palms of hands against the wall. Keep the back straight and heels on the floor. Lean forward until the forehead touches the wall; hold position for 5 seconds; then stand upright for 5 seconds. Repeat this 5 times. This procedure, followed 3 times a day, should succeed in stretching the hamstring muscles.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

Dear Editor:

The sky was cloudy, but the rain held off so that sandboxes throughout the Kewaskum area could be filled last Saturday. The Kewaskum Jaycees, as well as those people whose sandboxes were filled, want to thank MR. and MRS. ARNOLD BIER for allowing us to use sand from their sandpit for this community project.

We would like to hear from young families to decide if we should make the sand box fill an annual spring event. Please let a Jaycee know if you appreciated the sandbox fill and if you or others you know would like to have this project repeated.

Thanks also to those Jaycees who helped last Saturday: Don & John Nowak, Gary Gavin, Bill Stangl, Ruben Oppermann, Phil Fellenz, Dave Schoofs, Joel Kudek and Mike Pankonin. They donated vehicles and hard work to make children in the community happy.

Sincerely,

Ron Schmitz

Truck Fire Put Out At Fire Station

Kewaskum firemen answered a chimney fire call to the Richard Pesch home, 727 Main Street, at 9:13 p.m. last Wednesday, May 18. Firemen were at the scene for a half hour. There was no damage.

At 3:38 p.m. Thursday, May 19, firemen never had to leave the fire station property at 1106 Fond du Lac Avenue to put out a blaze. The exhaust pipe on a Miller's Furniture truck ignited the wood floor in the back of the truck, while the truck was returning from Milwaukee. Smoke was noticed as they entered the village and they turned in at the fire station to extinguish the fire. Fire Chief Augie Bilgo reported the damage was estimated at several hundred dollars.

have carried a 8 1/4% interest rate. Since then, interest rates have dropped and the new application's rate will be 7 1/4%, a drop of one whole per cent. Approving the second, corrected application will mean a savings of approximately $18,000 in interest over the life of the loan.

The Electors Meeting has been scheduled for June 6th.

In other action, the board began a preliminary review of the proposed 1983-84 School District budget.

In 1983-84, the long term debt service will drop from $325,000 to $90,000. In calculating the budget, the $225,000 difference from the debt service is being figured into the budget of $5,190,000, in an effort to keep the increase down to the 5% levy increase recommended by the school board.

Several members had questions on the budget, including what effect would be seen if the $225,000 from the debt service tax levy were not included in the budget.

Long told the board, working with two tax levies, general funds and debt service funds, tended to get involved.

West Bend News reporter Judy Harlow commented that the general public would probably be looking for a drop in their taxes because of the large decrease in the debt service. Long tried to explain that, although the debt service levy may drop, on the other side of the ledger, the general funds levy would go up to provide the $225,000 board members want to use in the 1983-84 budget. There would be no change as far as the $225,000 is concerned, other than the fact it would be collected under the general funds account title rather than the debt service funds account. Taxpayers would not see any difference as far as that amount was concerned.

If the $225,000 were not included in the budget, the general funds tax levy would be considerably higher than the 5% line the board is trying to hold.

In checking the 1982-83 budget, the board noted that increase had been held to 3%.

President Jean Goeden asked the board members to review the budget and bring any questions they might have to the next meeting or contact Mr. Long for any additional information they might need.

County 4-H & Youth Agent

SUMMER 4-H CAMP AT WISCONSIN DELLS

Pack up your gear and join the rest of the 4-H members who are coming to County 4-H Camp. It will be held at beautiful Camp Upham Woods. Upham Woods is a beautiful 300 acre area on the Wisconsin River. About 200 acres is an island which is kept in its natural state with no buildings. The sandstone cliffs and caves provide many areas for exploring. A big barge is necessary to get to the island.

The mainland of the camp contains the cabins, dining hall, crafts building and nature center. There are many hills and trees with lots of outdoor activities.

The camp for 9-12 year old members is July 10-13. The 13-14 year old campers would be camping July 13-16.

Camping means making new friends, having fun, getting along with people, understanding and appreciating nature and learning to take responsibility. Swimming is supervised by qualified Red

Kewaskum Statesman, Friday, May 27, 1983, Page 5

Cross lifeguards. The camp is directed by the county 4-H Extension staff, adult 4-H leaders and junior 4-H leaders.

Any 4-H member between 9-14 years of age is welcome to attend. Complete registration information was in the 4-H Newsletter sent to each family. Or you may call the 4-H office for additional registration blanks and information.

Upham Woods was donated to the University of Wisconsin in 1941 for outdoor education. The 4-H Department of the University was given responsibilities for its use. It was decided to build a camp for use of 4-H and other groups throughout the state. During the summer many county 4-H groups use the facilities. During the rest of the year, there are many schools who use it for their school camps. Also church groups or others use it.

Additional information on the 4-H camp, July 10-16 or on the use of Upham Woods throughout the year may be gotten from the county office.

Electric Co. to Move Manufacturing Firm From Canada to Theresa, Wis.

Wisconsin Electric Power Co. has helped a Canadian firm recognize not only that "Wisconsin Business is in a Fine State," but that it's also in a fine country.

The utility has announced that RMH Automation Ltd., an industrial machine manufacturer from Ontario, Canada, plans to move its operations to Theresa in Dodge County.

It all happened because RMH President Robert Hennen made an off-hand remark several months ago to a Hartford customer that Hennen wished he could move to Wisconsin.

The story of how Wisconsin Electric succeeded in bringing the firm to Wisconsin isn't one of international intrigue. It's one of international red tape that was snapped only after personal intervention by U.S. Sen. Robert Kasten (R-Wis.).

John Ernster, of WE's economic development group, got the word about RMH's interest from the Hartford firm, Broan Manufacturing Co., and took it from there.

Ernster confirmed Hennen's desire to move but found a snag — Hennen needed a U.S. visa. And to make matters worse, there is a federal visa policy designed to keep out unemployed persons who might take jobs away from U.S. citizens that also was keeping out Hennen — a potential employer.

"Everywhere we went, the red tape tripped us up," Ernster said.

Persistence overcame initial obstacles, including one with Canadian authorities, but WE later turned to Kasten for help.

After the logjam was broken, Hennen received his visa and found a vacant building in Theresa. Financing for the building also was arranged. The firm will initially employ eight local workers, but plans call for tripling the work force in the next few years.

RMH Automation Ltd. is the second success of Wisconsin Electric's economic development program since it began last year. WE and several other Milwaukee-area organizations worked together on the move of ASEA, Inc., a robotic firm, from Michigan to metropolitan Milwaukee. That announcement was made in January.

"Attracting new business to Wisconsin is not an easy process. The RMH project proved that we have to be creative, inventive and sometimes seek help from unusual sources," said Ernster.

"We have to work hard to attract the big ones, like ASEA, but we have to work equally hard to attract the small ones, like RMH," he said. "Whatever it takes to create jobs and help our state's economy grow, we'll do it."

D.O.T. Construction, Detour Maps Available

A sure sign of spring is the appearance of the highway construction and detour map, issued every week from mid-April to mid-November by the state Department of Transportation's highway maintenance section.

Construction and maintenance project sites, closed roads and marked detours are overprinted in red on the 24- by 27-inch black and white map. Project details and detour routes are also listed by transportation district at the top of the map.

The information is compiled by central office staff in Madison from weekly reports from each of the eight transportation districts throughout the state.

For the benefit of travelers, construction/detour maps are posted each week in all of the state's rest areas, major waysides, state highway buildings, county highway departments and at some service stations.

A season subscription to the map can be purchased for $18, including tax and postage, from the DOT Document Sales Office, 3617 Pierstorff St., P.O. Box 7713, Madison 53707.

A recorded message by the Wisconsin State Patrol listing major detours and travel inconveniences throughout the state is available 24 hours a day throughout the construction season, by calling, in Madison, 266-7040; in Milwaukee, 342-2211; and elsewhere in the state, 1-800-362-3000. The same information is available at each number. The recording is updated every Monday morning.

County Farmers Attend Farm Bureau Conference

Washington County farmers were among the participants in the Legislative Conference sponsored by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation on April 12 in Madison. The biennial event provides an opportunity for Farm Bureau members to learn more about the issues and present their organization's viewpoint to their legislators.

Governor Tony Earl and State Senate Minority Leader James Harsdorf addressed the more than 300 conference participants during the evening program.

They discussed property taxes and the state budget among other rural issues and stressed the need for citizen involvement in surfacing and resolving issues. Earlier in the day, Roger Cliff, executive director of WFBF Governmental Relations, briefed the group on legislation currently under consideration by the State Legislature.

In the afternoon, the Washington County Farm Bureau group met with Mary Panzer, 72nd district representative.

Attending the conference from this area were: Isabelle and Bob Held, Slinger; Elaine and Fred Linstedt, Colgate; Althea and Frank Falter, West Bend; and Andrew Klumb, Germantown.

CORRECTION

In a release submitted last week by Kewaskum High School, the name of Leean Schneider was listed as a 1st place silkscreen winner in the Lakeshore Technical Institute Skills Fair at Cleveland. It should have been Renee Schneider as being the first place winner.

On April 23, four Kewaskum Middle School students took a trip to the Art Institute of Chicago, with their art instructor Mr. Anglim.

The group that went consisted of Brian Oelhafen, Jeff Krueger, Beth Metz, and Ellen Kuphal. They started off at the town of Wayne at about 6:30 a.m. and were in Chicago approximately at 9:00.

Before the Art Museum, the group visited the Sears Tower. They entered through revolving doors which, as one stated, "was fun." They took a ride up a rather large elevator, and when they went to the highest point they could, the elevator doors opened and a gush of wind blew in their faces from the pressure. They got to look out of telescopes, through the windows, at the large city.

Their second stop was at the Art Institute of Chicago. There they saw many pieces of fine art, some paintings, some sculptures, collections of antique war souvenirs, etc. They were all impressive scenes.

The group also visited the Chicago Institute of Science and Industry. There were scenes of America's past and future, economic games on computers, short, repeated television programs on various subjects, movable exhibits to learn from, and many more things of that sort. It was an interesting and learnable experience.

As a whole, the group enjoyed their trip very much.

Jazzercise

Jazzercise is a unique approach to body conditioning using joyful jazz dance movements and swinging music. It's your chance for a wild and woolly work-out that will condition you totally and lift your spirits. By bouncing to a "boogie beat" in a planned way, you'll dance inches away and your body will be more flexible than you ever dreamed possible.

Underneath the fun and music, the point of a Jazzercise class is cardiovascular, muscular, metabolic, and emotional improvement. Balance, coordination, flexibility, muscle tone, stamina, and posture are the areas on which Jazzercise concentrates. There's 50 minutes of bending, stretching, jumping and dancing, built around warm-up, peak-work, and cool-down periods.

Hartford Centennial Celebration Will Include 'Old Fashioned Afternoon in Park'

HARTFORD - On Sunday, May 29th, residents of Washington County will be enjoying an old fashioned afternoon at Woodlawn Park in Hartford. The spirited festivities of bygone days will be re-enacted with entertainment and fun for all ages.

There is no admission charge and all special events are free, just as they were "way back when." Interested Hartford citizens have delved into the past in order to present a spectrum of the pleasures of the horse and buggy days as they celebrate Hartford's 100th birthday.

Come as you are, or don one of quaint outfits of your parents or grandparents. Bonnetted and full skirted ladies, escorted by handsome, bearded gentlemen will be on hand. Children dressed in old fashioned garments will no doubt feel they are taking part in the romantic world of "The Little House on the Prairie." If you have a camera, bring it along. This will afford a "once in a lifetime" chance to capture unusual moments of nostalgia. Woodlawn Park, located on a shady knoll on Wacker Drive, on the southwest edge of town, will provide a lovely setting.

No need to bring victuals, as the United Methodist Church Women will offer a box lunch at a nominal cost. There will be a choice of sandwiches, relishes and fruit. If you prefer, you may feast on hot dogs and lemonade served by the Knights of Columbus. The "Aqua Belles and Brothers" of the Hartford Swim Club will be serving ice cream and homemade cakes. The Hartford Hospital Auxiliary will sponsor a bake sale.

At two p.m. there will be a fashion show with prizes awarded to winners in several categories. Authentic and recreated bridal, evening, daytime, and sports/casual attire will be modeled and judged in five 20 years time periods from 1883-1983. In preparation for this event, attics have been searched and sewing machines kept humming.

A few special "Hartford Heroines" will be recognized during the intermission of the style show. These are women, both living and deceased, whose names have been submitted as worthy contributors to the community: perhaps a neighbor who gave herself to others in kindly deeds, one who was willing to accept responsibilities in city or church affairs, or a talented artist or musician. A small booklet with all the nominees will be available.

To keep the children entertained, a variety of games and contests will be held. And what is a celebration without balloons? The Hartford Day Care Center will be on hand with the elusive, colorful orbs.

At 3 p.m. the City Band, with Carol Thimm directing, will give a concert featuring the heart warming tunes and toe-tapping rhythms of the past.

At 4 p.m. a Religious Heritage program will be offered by the Hartford churches, featuring short resumes of church histories with displays of church banners designed and made by parishioners.

In case of rain, this, the third day of the Hartford Centennial celebration, will be held at the Hartford High School, 805 Cedar St.

CONSENT FOR EMERGENCY TREATMENT FOR MINORS AVAILABLE AT HOSPITAL

St. Joseph's Community Hospital, West Bend, has available a consent form designed for parents planning a trip and wishing to authorize the hospital staff and physicians to provide emergency medical care for their minor children during the time they are away. The form, "Medical Approval and Release for Minors," includes a description of the child's medical history, including allergies, tetanus immunization record, name and relationship of person caring for the child during parents' absence, and telephone numbers where parents may be reached. The completed form should be given to the person caring for the child in the parents' absence. The form should be brought to the hospital emergency room with the child if injured or ill.

If a child is brought to the hospital for emergency care, an attempt will be made to reach the parents or guardian at the telephone numbers listed on the form; however, the signed consent will authorize hospital personnel to proceed with emergency treatment.

In providing this service, we hope to avoid delay in treatment because of inability to locate parents. Forms may be obtained at St. Joseph's Community Hospital Emergency Room.

DOT Announces Memorial Day Traffic Plans

Governor Anthony S. Earl has proclaimed Memorial Day weekend as the start of the summer "state of emergency" on Wisconsin highways, as the State Patrol and other law enforcement agencies prepare for heavy holiday traffic on major state roads.

Although Wisconsin's highway death toll is substantially behind last year, James Van Sistine, administrator of the Division of State Patrol, said the state emergency is still "very real." Through Monday, May 16, Wisconsin had suffered 186 traffic fatalities, 42 fewer than on the same date in 1982. "However, Memorial Day weekend is the first summer holiday, and may very well set the pace for traffic deaths throughout the summer vacation season," Van Sistine said.

The emergency declaration activates National Guard personnel for the annual "Friend in the Sky" medical evacuation helicopter service which will patrol the Interstate and USH 41 during peak traffic hours, ready to rush crash victims to emergency hospital facilities.

Capt. George Wenzel said all available State Troopers will be on the road over the holiday weekend, concentrating the bulk of their efforts in the peak traffic hours of the northward traffic wave from 1-9 p.m. Friday and 6-11 a.m. Saturday. Heavy southbound traffic on Monday will begin about 10 a.m. and last until 10 p.m.

Speeders were warned that 126 Patrol squad cars will be equipped with new speed computers, which are not detectable by fuzzbusters and other radar detection devices. In addition, the motorcycle unit will patrol USH 41 and surrounding highways in Fond du Lac, Outagamie, Winnebago and Brown Counties.

Law enforcement agencies, including the State Patrol, are also going to be watching for drinking/driving violations and violations of the new open container law. "If drivers notice somebody driving erratically, they should call a trooper on Channel 9 of their citizen band radio or stop and telephone the local sheriff's department or State Patrol district, reporting the make, model and license number of the vehicle, as well as the approximate location. The Department of Transportation's Division of Highways said all highway construction projects on the traveled roadway of major highways will be shut down at noon Friday to accommodate holiday traffic.

Of the 21 highways closed for construction, detours most significant to weekend travel include:

- I-90/94 in Columbia County, where construction has closed one of the northbound traffic lanes across the Wisconsin River bridge. Travelers are advised to allow extra time to get through the area, or to use alternate routes to bypass the construction zone.

- I-94 in Dunn and St. Croix Counties, closed from STH 25 at Menomonie to STH 128 with traffic detoured onto two-lane, nearly parallel USH 12 and STH 128. Traffic slowdowns can be expected.

- STH 22 from Wild Rose to King (detoured via STH 21, STH 49 and USH 10) and from Montello to Wautoma (detoured via STHs 23, 73 and 21).

- USH 12 from Ft. Atkinson to Whitewater (detoured via STH 106 and CTH "N").

- STH 59 from Whitewater to CTH "S" (detoured via CTH "N," "S," and STH 26).

The State Patrol also anticipates traffic backups on USH 51 through Tomahawk, a portion of highway that has frustrated summer drivers for the last decade or more. The good news is that this summer should be the last, since the new Tomahawk bypass should be opened this fall.

Motorists are urged to drive with caution, particularly through detour areas, and to avoid drinking and driving. "It's the same good advice that has helped us set traffic safety records for better than a year... watch your speed, avoid drinking if you're driving, and wear safety belts," according to Van Sistine.

Holstein Members Participate in Fitting Clinic

On May 14, nine Washington County Junior Holstein Association members journeyed to Ozaukee County for a Fitting Clinic.

Members worked in pairs and had to clip a calf and train it to lead. After finishing these two phases, members paraded their calves before a judge and were placed according to their success.

In the younger calf class, Wendy Williams placed fourth. The older calf class placings were: Ross Rate and Kelly Nadelhoffer - first; Dennis Mayer and Mike Wojtasiak - fifth; Bill Rate - sixth, and Laurie Rate - eighth. Also participating were Doug Mayer and Karen Mayer. An uncooperative calf prevented them from exhibiting.

The top two teams in each class competed for overall best fitted animal. The grand prize for topping the event was a leather show halter. As the winning pair, Ross Rate and Kelly Nadelhoffer each received a halter.

The event was held near Grafton at the Otto Kohlwey farm.

BEFORE YOU DIG, UNCOVER THE FACTS.

Beneath your lawn there may be more than just tree roots and rocks. There could be underground power lines, gas lines or telephone cables. The consequences of digging tree or post holes, foundations or other excavations without knowing where utility lines are buried could be costly. It could even be fatal. Fortunately, you can avoid these consequences by following a simple ground rule: CALL BEFORE YOU DIG. In Milwaukee call DIGGERS HOTLINE at 344-5111. From outside Milwaukee call 1-800-242-8511. Be sure to call at least three working days before you plan to start digging.

First Wild Turkey Season a Success

The first wild turkey hunt in 15 years has ended with hunters taking a total of 180 gobblers and bearded hens, according to Ron Nicklaus, La Crosse, Mississippi River biologist for the Department of Natural Resources.

Nicklaus has been coordinating a wild turkey recovery program centered in the hilly coulee country south of La Crosse in recent years. That program has depended on stocking southwest Wisconsin counties with wild turkeys, trapped in Missouri and exchanged for Wisconsin ruffed grouse.

Wild turkeys once were native to the hilly coulee area where south facing slopes provide wintering areas allowing the turkeys to scratch through snow to forage. Agriculture in the area also has been ideal for wild turkeys, according to Nicklaus.

Attempts to establish wild turkey populations in central Wisconsin during the mid-50's were moderately successful but disease in the turkey flocks and closely spaced severe winters decimated the turkey flock. Remnants of the stocking of the mid-50's have survived, however, and part of the area was included in the hunting season.

The season was developed after an extensive citizen participation program and was based on issuance of permits to hunters allowing turkey hunting only in specific geographic zones and during one of three time periods. Some 20 percent of the permits issued were reserved for landowners within the four geographic zones open to hunters.

Nicklaus said the season largely went as planners expected. Before the season commenced he had predicted a take of from 150 birds to 200 birds. The final take was:

Zone 1, an area from La Crosse to Cashton, to Viroqua and to DeSoto, 54 birds;

Zone 2, an area from DeSoto and south of Viroqua to the Wisconsin River bounded on the east by Highway 61 and on the west by the Mississippi River, 38 birds;

Zone 9, an area from Babcock to Necedah to New Lisbon and Tomah and back to Babcock, 32 birds;

Zone 10, an area from Boscobel south along Highway 129 and 61 to Potosi and bounded on the west and north by the Mississippi and Wisconsin rivers, 56 birds.

"I'm extremely pleased, I couldn't be happier," Nicklaus said.

The last hunter to register a gobbler at the Romance registration station in central Vernon County was Don Worman, route 1, DeSoto, who bagged the bird at 11:30 a.m. May 9 just 30 minutes before the season closed.

Worman, a local landowner, had allowed hunters to seek out wild turkeys on his land in the two earlier hunting periods although his turkey permit was good only for the third hunting period, according to Nicklaus. At least two other hunters bagged birds on Worman's land, Nicklaus said. The bird Worman waited for until 30 minutes of the season was a 24-pound gobbler with a 10.5 inch beard and 1.25 inch spurs.

Nicklaus said that weather was cold during part of the last hunting period curbing some hunting activity. But checks with hunters in all the hunting zones indicated general satisfaction, he said.

For some hunters it was the first time they had hunted alone for a trophy and generally, "win, lose, or draw they had a good time," Nicklaus said.

He said some hunters had never before had to request permission to hunt from local landowners before and that the experience was often rewarding.

Overall, Nicklaus said, the hunters indicated the season has been satisfying. They put effort into the hunt and they got returns in multiples of their investment, he said.

Road Construction Starts on S.T.H. 33, West Bend to Newburg

Road construction was scheduled to start the week of May 16 on the reconstruction of S.T.H. 33 from Trenton Road on the east side of West Bend to C.T.H. "Y" in Newburg, in Washington County. The work will consist of removing the existing blacktop, grading to widen the shoulders, and repaving a 24-foot pavement with 3-foot shoulders.

The work will be performed under a contract let to Payne & Dolan, Inc. of Waukesha at an estimated cost of $1,294,120. Financing will be 100 percent by the State of Wisconsin from funds provided primarily by gas taxes.

S.T.H. 33 will be closed to through traffic during construction operations, with access only to local property owners. It was anticipated that S.T.H. 33 would be closed during the week of May 16 and C.T.H.'s "M" and "Y" and Trenton Road will remain open across S.T.H. 33 during construction.

The marked detour from the west will follow Highway 45 to Highway 144, to C.T.H. "A," to C.T.H. "M," to C.T.H. "MY," to C.T.H. "Y," and back to Highway 33. It is anticipated that S.T.H. 33 will be reopened in September.

Every possible effort will be made to provide continuous and safe ingress and egress to all business and residential properties during the reconstruction, but pedestrians and motorists are urged to use caution in the construction zone.

50 Years Ago

May 26, 1933

Ralph Kohn and James Andrae, both of Kewaskum, were among the 20 young men from Washington County who left West Bend Tuesday afternoon for Fort Sheridan, Illinois, for two weeks training prior to being sent to a reforestation camp in northern Wisconsin. The reforestation project is a part of the federal administration's program to meet this present conditions, giving 250,000 young men temporary employment.

A very interesting article appeared in the Sunday magazine section of last Sunday's Milwaukee Journal, relative to the largest diamond found in the State of Wisconsin, the finder being the late Louis B. Endlich, husband of Mrs. Kate Endlich and father of William and Kate Endlich, all of the Town of Kewaskum. The article reads as follows: "On the fingers of descendants of the man who discovered the largest diamond ever found in Wisconsin glisten 10 flawless gems cut from that one stone. They are scattered about the country, but their existence answers a question over which gem collectors and jewelers in Wisconsin puzzled for many years, 'What had become of the Theresa diamond?' Traditions have a habit of growing up around precious stones. There is the belief that ill fortune attends possession of that famous Hope diamond and if the fate of the Theresa diamond had not been revealed through the medium of an article published several years ago in The Journal, it, too, might have acquired its share. The Theresa diamond was found in 1888 by Louis B. Endlich of Kohlsville, Wisconsin, near he was clearing land while he was.

It weighed 21 1/2 carats and was not only the largest of the several diamonds found in the state, but was also unusual because of its color. Diamonds may be white, or yellow, or tinted with almost any shade of almost any color, but each is usually of the same color throughout. The Theresa diamond was remarkable because it was white on one side and almost a cream color on the other. The crystal was almost perfect sphere with its yellow and white sides separated by a flaw. Mr. Endlich died in 1888, shortly after having discovered the diamond, and the family moved away, taking the rough diamond with them. Inquiry as to the whereabouts of the quarry was made from time to time, but without success until a newspaper story was read by the son of the man who had found it. The family had moved to Kewaskum. The son reported that the Theresa diamond had been cut, the only Wisconsin diamond so far, as it is known, which had been cut. It had been cut in 1918 by a New York firm into 10 small stones, some white, some cream to yellow in color. The Theresa diamond could not be cut into one large stone because of several imperfections or inclusions in it, but due to its peculiarity of color and the location of the flaw, it was easily separated with little loss. By having it cut into 10 small stones, much of the diamond was saved, the accumulated weights of the 10 stones being 9.27 carats, whereas but one-third of the original weight of a rough diamond is usually preserved in the cut and polished stone. The approximate cost of having the Theresa diamond cut was $400. The small stones have been distributed among members of the Endlich family."

Special Tasks for Special Students Elementary Yearbook — A Major Production

Three very dedicated graphic arts students, Shelly Bieniek, Darryl Tews and Randy May, and their instructor, Dan Wangerin, spent a total of 90 plus hours outside of their respective graphic arts classes to produce this year's elementary school yearbook - "The Papoose."

Class pictures of the elementary schools in the Kewaskum district are the first step in the process of assembling this yearbook. On April 12, the covers for the booklet arrived. Every cover is printed by the letterpress process with the hand operated platen press.

On April 20, the flats, the negatives which the plates are made from, arrived and the plates were made for the offset presses. The pages were then printed by the lithography process.

Finally on May 13, the last page was printed. This year's "Papoose" is made up of 100 pages - 50 of these with photographs. A total of 750 copies of the yearbook were printed and will be distributed before the end of the school year.

Hard work and dedication are the basic elements of a successful yearbook and a special thanks goes to the special people who produced this year's excellent "Papoose."

Home Economist Barb Shaw says that this course is designed to organize and coordinate wardrobes on the basis of color, fabric and shape. Knowing how to do this can result in forty different outfits with as few as twelve basic garments, she commented.

Time will be spent on color and styles for each individual, as well as basic accessories to help achieve a total look. With fifty or five hundred dollars to spend, she emphasized, this plan can work.

Slow Down, Stay Sober and Buckle Seat Belts Is Memorial Day Safety Message

Memorial Day travelers could virtually assure themselves and their families of a safe holiday weekend, and promote the continuation of the decline in traffic fatalities if they would obey the speed limit, avoid drinking and driving, and make sure everybody in the car is safely buckled up, says Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz.

Traffic fatalities thru April of this year are behind 1982, which was, in itself, the safest year in three decades, the Sheriff said. However, with the heaviest travel period still ahead of us, this safety margin could vanish, he added.

According to Wisconsin data, last year eight people died in Memorial Day weekend crashes, which was the lowest Memorial Day traffic death toll on record. The highest on record was (21) fatalities in 1978 and 1981, in Wisconsin.

Sheriff Schwartz said, Wisconsin traffic law enforcement officers are working to keep speeds down, and to get (and keep) drinking drivers off the road. However, two of your best protection from other drivers who may be drunk and/or speeding is fastening your safety belt and driving defensively.
