Linda Larsen Named Honorable Mention on All-America Team

Linda Larsen

Linda Larsen, outstanding basketball star at Kewaskum High School for the past four years, has been named Honorable Mention on the National High School Girls Basketball All-America team for 1983. Ms. Larsen is the daughter of Tom and Laura Larsen of Kewaskum.

She was notified of her recognition by the National High School Athletic Coaches Association. The citation read as follows: "In recognition of attainment of highest standards of prep basketball performance, Linda Larsen, Kewaskum High School, Kewaskum, Wisconsin, is hereby named Honorable Mention, National High School Girls Basketball All-America 1983." The All-America is selected by the NHSACA and sponsored by Converse Athletic Footwear.

There are some 423,500 girls who participate in prep basketball and Linda was one of only 250 who are honored with national recognition.

The 6'0" Kewaskum standout has accepted a full scholarship to attend the University of Illinois-Chicago this fall. It is believed she is the only girl in Washington County to receive a full college scholarship in basketball thus far. Linda also is the first Kewaskum athlete ever to receive honorable All-America mention. Another first is her selection to appear in the State Class A North-South All-Star game, in which she played with the North squad at Carroll College, Waukesha, Saturday night.

Larsen, who started on the Kewaskum varsity for three and a half seasons, scored 1,368 points, a school record. She was second team all-Scenic Moraine Conference as a freshman, all-conference as a sophomore and a unanimous all-Eastern Wisconsin Conference choice her junior and senior years.

As a junior, she was named Player of the Year in the Eastern Wisconsin and led the Indians to the runnerup spot in the Class B State Tournament (since then the school has been moved up to Class A). This past season she again led the conference in scoring and was its top rebounder. During the 12-game conference schedule, Linda scored 202 points for a 20.3 average, best in the conference. She also finished first in rebounding with 162 for a 13.0 average. Overall in 1983 the forward scored 400 points, made 45% of her field goals, 54% of her free throws, snared 247 rebounds, and had 35

Awarded 9.7 Percent Raise

Teachers 1982-83 Contract Settled

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After almost a year of negotiations and arbitration, the Kewaskum teachers have been awarded a 9.2% salary increase, plus fringe benefits, for a total 9.7% raise for the 1982-83 school year.

The increase was awarded by a state-appointed arbitrator to the Kewaskum Education Association members who have been working since last August without a contract.

KEA President David Wietor said, under the new contract this means an average increase of $1,600 per teacher, which includes a step up on the experience salary scale which teachers received earlier this year. Starting teachers will now receive $12,843, compared to the 1981-82 base salary of $12,050.

Wietor said there were no changes in benefit coverage other than a change in dental coverage language. Because the KEA approved this wording change, they have agreed to drop the lawsuit started because the District had switched dental carriers from the Wisconsin Education Trust plan to Blue Cross-Blue Shield, a change which was supposed to save the district approximately $14,000.

$14,000. The new contract will affect 106 teachers in the association.

Since the District and KEA will begin negotiations July 11th, on a new contract for the 1983-84 school year, Wietor was asked what his group would be looking for. "Our number one goal is a voluntary settlement," said Wietor, "along with an increase which will be acceptable to both sides." (For the past few years, the district and KEA have had negotiations go into arbitration where a decision was made by a state-appointed arbitrator.)

When Wietor was asked if the KEA had anything in mind, he said, "no, we will be sitting down Thursday to work up a package to present at the July meeting."

Kemp's Renovation Continuing

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Marigold Foods, producers of Kemp's Dairy Products, is continuing its renovation and expansion program at the Kewaskum plant.

With the completion of their new, larger ice cream storage freezer, Marigold began demolition of the old freezer facility next to the site to make room for a new milk storage area.

Also land formerly occupied by the home purchased and moved by Mr. and Mrs. Doug Schacht, is being levelled and filled in to provide vehicle parking for Kemp's larger trucks.

Other new additions to the plant are the raw milk storage silos on the southeast side of the plant.

While no other properties have been purchased recently by Marigold, its Milwaukee based General Manager, Larry Gergens, said the firm is still looking into the possible purchase of parcels in the area. The company plans to eventually have the milk processing and trucking operations work out of the Kewaskum plant, leaving only the sales division at its Green Bay site.

Timblin Rezoning Application Approved

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At its meeting Monday night, the Kewaskum Village Board approved the rezoning of five acres of land on the south end of the village from R1 single family, to R4 multiple family residences.

The board's 6 to 0 vote to approve the request of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Timblin ends, for now, a confrontation between the Timblins and several Town of Kewaskum residents which has stretched over the past four months and various village and town meetings.

The controversy began at the March 29th Plan Commission meeting when its members voted to recommend that the Village Board approve the Timblins' request. Several Town of Kewaskum residents whose homes border the land, which is proposed for a 36-unit condominium project, were on hand to voice their opposition to the request. The town residents said Timblin was going back on his verbal contract agreement in which they were told, by Timblin's sales agent, that the entire area would remain single family zoned. Timblin's son Tom, who is proposing the

The Kewaskum Schools—Why The Trust Fund Is Needed

Part Two, The High School And Its Needs

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The second informational article in this series deals with the high school, its needs, and which of these needs are the most critical as far as priority is concerned.

Of 79 projects in District Administrator John Long's initial Priorities List, 32 deal directly with the high school. The first, and agreed upon by all the board members as "top priority," is roof repair. The cost is anticipated to run a minimum of $65,000 to upwards of $125,000.

The determining factor on cost will be whether or not roof replacement and repairs include a build up or foam insulation. Board member Charles Ogi felt the board should seriously look into some type of insulation in an effort to restrict heat loss, thereby instituting one area of energy and cost conservation.

Repairs would include replacing the roof and drains on the old section of the school, along with repair or replacement of flashing on the south side of the building. While this one item only takes a few short sentences to explain, its cost already accounts for more than one-fourth of the $400,000 State Trust Fund money.

Other priority projects for the high school include construction of air locks (vestibule-type doors) on the south gym entrance to prevent heat loss, approximately $2,400. Replacing metal panels on the south side of the building with insulation panels, along with installation of insulation panels on the east and north sides, total cost approximately $70,000*. Again, these are items which are anticipated to reduce both heat loss and heating costs.

Replacement of wash basins and faucets in main entrance boys and girls restrooms, approximately $3,600. While this is not a large cost, or seemingly important item, it is one which is recommended because of both need and appearance. They are part of the "first-impression" visitors come in contact with at the school. To the embarrassment of the district, both residents and outside visitors have been shocked by the condition of these areas. Another project, finishing the replacement of lockers in the boys gym, only a cost of $540, but again board members have heard comments regarding their shameful appearance. Replace non-slip treads on basement stairs $520. Some treads are broken or missing completely, a small price to pay to avoid an injury suit. Install heat control changes $22,300*. Install check valves on main lines from boiler with automatic controls, $1,400.

So far, we have described only eight projects which head the high school's priority list, but they account for over $225,000, over one half of the total loan money. In all reality, all eight of these projects will not get done and there are still twenty-four more repair, replacement and acquisition items ranging from $150 for replacement of pipe insulation, to $49,000 for replacement equipment for the Industrial Arts Department, which probably will not even be considered because there are five other schools who have priorities just as demanding and critical to them.

There are two figures in the preceding article which have asterisks. These projects have what are referred to as, "pay-back years." What this simply means is, that after being in use for "X" number of years, the money saved because of their installation has paid back the cost of the initial installation.

The 32 items listed for the high school do not include purchase of computers and software and copying machines, which Mr. Long placed in the General Projects category containing items which would affect the entire school district.

County Fair Book Is Dedicated to Norbert Dettmann

The Washington County Junior Fair has dedicated their 1983 fair book to Norbert Dettmann of Boltonville. Each year the book is dedicated to an outstanding active supporter of the county fair.

Norbert has been an active supporter of the county fair since the 1930's when the fair was first held in Slinger. County Fair has been a part of the entire Dettmann family for some time. His father had served many years on the Fair Committee and his wife and children have exhibited and participated in fair activities.

Norbert was a 4-H member and leader in Washington County and participated in local, county, state and national activities. Through the years, he has shown interest in conservation, serving on the county and state conservation board and as advisor to the junior board.

Norbert is a supervisor on the Washington County Board and served as a member of the Agriculture and Extension Committee, as well as a member of the Fair Committee.

In this capacity, he had contributed leadership to the Washington County Fair. He is a conscientious, hard working, committee member, who was concerned with having the fair be an educational experience for youth.

Our thanks go to Norbert Dettmann for his support and interest in the Washington County Junior Fair.

HIGHER PRICES to MILK PRODUCERS

Plymouth, WI — Top prices for bulk milk are now being offered by S & R Cheese Corporation of Plymouth. According to the Company's Vice President of Operations, Dante Camilli, some of the state's highest prices are being paid by S & R for manufacturing Grade B milk.

S & R Cheese also offers prompt, daily pick up, representing an added convenience to milk producers throughout the area. S & R's consistently higher prices have prompted many producers to switch their sales to S & R for better milk profits.

Milk producers looking for higher prices and prompt pick up service should call Cathy at 414/893-6061 for specific information on S & R's better price and better service policy.

assists. Ms. Larsen recorded some very impressive statistics during her four-year career as a letter winner.

Additional post season honors for Linda included honorable mention for the UPI's all-state Class A basketball team for the all-time leading scorer in Kewaskum history.

In the North-South All-Star game at Carroll College Saturday night, sponsored by the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association, Linda started and played about three quarters of the game. She scored eight points on two baskets and four free throws but passed up many other opportunities to score. She also played an outstanding game on defense.

Linda's North squad was defeated by the South in a close contest, 64-63. Girls on the North Class A team were: Janet Freund, Merrill (Purdue), 14 points; Jan Wickman, Merrill (National College of Education), 9; Cyndi Nyman, De Pere (UW-Stevens Point), 6; Shari Linskens, De Pere (UW-Stevens Point), 2; Patti Peppler, Oshkosh West (undecided), 8; Jill Muenich, Chippewa Falls (UW-Eau Claire), 2; Milly Terrien, Neenah (Illinois), 2; Linda Larsen, Kewaskum (Illinois-Chicago), 8; Beth Pier, Menasha St. Mary's Central (St. Norbert's), 4; Chris Pier, Menasha St. Mary's Central (St. Norbert's), 2. Alternates were: Jenny Hyde, Wausau West (undecided); Lori Manion, Oregon (undecided); Chris Gospodarek, Oshkosh Lourdes (undecided). Coaches were: Lee Levknecht, Kimberly; Jean Kessler Neenah; Bob Yuska, Merrill. The North squad practiced last week at Kimberly. The Class BC All-Star contest preceded the A game at Carroll College.

The All-Star week schedule of events included Media Night Thursday, All-Star Banquet Friday, Coaches Clinic Saturday afternoon, BC all-Star game at 6:15 p.m. Saturday, and A All-Star game at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Linda received the following notification, in part, from the NHSACA, informing her of her 1983 National High School Girls Basketball All-America Honorable Mention Award:

CONGRATULATIONS!!! The National High School Athletic Coaches Association and Converse Athletic Footwear are pleased to have this opportunity to officially inform you of your project, said his father had not been aware of any such promise to the landowners. Trustee Don Mlodzik asked town resident Bert Preis if he had anything in writing to back up his statement. Preis said no, but when he and his neighbors bought their properties, they felt confident the agreement would be kept. Preis noted, that was one of the things wrong with the world today, nobody wants to remain committed to their contracts or obligations if there is a chance to break them and make new ones which would be of greater benefit to themselves.

Timblin

The problem apparently developed because some of the land was sold as parcels in the Town of Kewaskum. Later, the balance of the Timblin land was annexed to the village on the request of the Timblins.

Gerald Kiefer, the village's attorney, told the board members, the issue before you is strictly deciding on the rezoning request. Any action by the trustees does not mean they endorse any building plans presented so far by the Timblins. Action on this would be taken at a future preliminary plat meeting. Your only concern now, Kiefer told the trustees, is whether or not you feel the land is suitable for rezoning from single to multiple family homes.

Due to a death in his family, Trustee Howard Laubenstein was not present to vote on the application.

In other action, the board approved a contract to Payne & Dolan for asphalt paving several Kewaskum streets at a low bid of $14,365.00. Ram Construction quoted $14,810.00, and Scott Construction was high bid at $17,368.

Action on slurry seal bids was tabled because questions regarding a bid submitted by Wolf Construction were brought up by the Public Works Committee.

Public Works Committee Chairman Don Mlodzik informed the board his group was looking into the possible purchase of two pieces of equipment for the village. The first is a Locator, costing approximately $1,600, which would be used to find various underground utility lines, such as gas, sewer and electricity. The second item is an Atmospheric Tester, used to detect hazardous materials, such as poisonous gases at fires or in sewer lines. No action was needed from the board since no actual purchases are being made at this time.

Parks and Recreation Committee Chairman Richard Schmidt told the board his committee recommended purchasing fencing for the Kiwanis Park horseshoe pits from Packerland Fence of Manitowoc, for $2,800. Schmidt noted that Packerland was approximately $440 higher than the low bidder, Century Fence of Waukesha, however, past dealings between the village and Century had been less than satisfactory.

Schmidt also informed the board that, as of Monday, 441 swim passes had been sold. This almost equals the number sold by this time in 1982.

A new book to accept recommendations for a five-year plan for the Kiwanis Park will be placed in the village's library. Trustee Schmidt told the board, the last study and recommendation book was done in 1978.

The book contains pages where residents and park users may write down their comments and suggestions for development of the park over the next five years. "The park belongs to the people," said Schmidt, "and we want their input, thoughts and ideas." He stressed that comments could be made anonymously and people do not have to sign their names unless they wish to do so.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board he will be submitting a letter to the State requesting a variance on requirements in the Municipal Building remodeling program.

Schmidt said, because the building is a two-story public structure, state codes require installation of an elevator in the building, or an additional stairway capable of handling a wheelchair. "Since we only use the Council Room three times a month, we do not feel an elevator is necessary," said Schmidt. Cost for the elevator would be approximately $80,000 to $120,000, whereas a second stairway would run $20,000 to $30,000.

Because the next Village Board meeting would fall on July 4th, the members voted to drop the first meeting entirely and meet on July 18th, unless urgent business would necessitate a special meeting.

Village Board President Gerald Stollenwerk congratulated Trustee Richard Schmidt on being named the Jaycee's 1983 Outstanding Young Man.

Pre-School Tot Time Returning To Kewaskum

Tot Time is returning to Kewaskum! Tot Time is a Pre-School program offered by the Kettle moraine YMCA. This popular early learning experience has been absent from Kewaskum for the past two years.

Tot time is a program designed to help children aged 3 to 5 grow socially, emotionally, intellectually, and physically. The development of interpersonal skills has a strong emphasis in the program. There are group activities as well as indoor ones. Art, music, dramatic play, science, language, and early mathematics skills are just some of the many areas explored by the children as the year progresses. A special aspect of the program is the experience of 3 "Play Days" during the year. These are held at the YMCA building in West Bend which offers the facilities of the "Y" to the Pre-Schoolers.

Tot Time is a cooperative program of parent participation in the early education of their child. The Kewaskum program will include morning sessions, one on Mondays and Wednesdays for children four to five years of age, and another on Tuesdays and Thursdays for children aged three to four. Children enrolled in the Monday and Wednesday program have the option of joining with the West Bend Tot Time program on Fridays, which is a special enrichment day. The Kewaskum classes will meet at Peace United Church of Christ in Kewaskum. Class enrollment is limited to twenty. Registration will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis. Enrollment applications will be available in the local area or at the YMCA in West Bend.

Call the YMCA at 334-3405 for more information.

Commodity and farm storage loans disbursed in June by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Commodity Credit Corporation will carry an 8 3/4 percent interest rate, according to Hilbert Scheunemann, ASCS Chairperson.

The new rate, down from 9 1/8 percent, reflects the interest rate charged CCC by the U.S. Treasury in June, Scheunemann said.

THE MADISON REPORT

By Representative Mary E. Panzer

NATIONAL DEBT SWELLS FROM $500 BILLION TO STAGGERING $1.4 TRILLION

Since 1974 the United States national debt swelled from $500 billion to a staggering $1.4 trillion. Leading economic experts predict that if this explosive rate of growth continues, our debt will be well over $2 trillion dollars within the next seven years. The interest cost alone on this debt today is $128 billion per year. That figure represents a $14 billion increase over the entire amount of money spent during the last year of President John Kennedy's administration in 1963, only twenty years ago.

The roots of this enormous problem are found in the unprecedented spending habits of the Lyndon Johnson administration. Rather than choosing between the proverbial opposites of guns or butter, President Johnson, unfortunately, opted to substantially increase spending for both by creating the so-called Great Society and escalating the Vietnam War. Our current economic difficulties are largely a result of this disastrous deficit financing.

In an effort to curb this credit card spending approach, Assembly Republicans introduced a joint resolution directing Congress to convene a constitutional convention for the purpose of adopting an amendment requiring balanced federal budgets in the future.

There are three methods of amending our U.S. Constitution. The most common is passage of an amendment by Congress and ratification by three-quarters of the state legislatures. Congress can also call a convention by a two-thirds vote of its members. If Congress fails or refuses to act, a constitutional convention can be called through the passage of a resolution by two-thirds of the state legislatures.

Supporters of the constitutional convention proposal argue a balanced federal amendment is necessary because the statutory national debt ceiling is meaningless. Every time the ceiling is reached—which usually occurs at least once a year—Congress merely raises it as much as necessary to accommodate its deficit financing.

Opponents of the convention argue it could open the door to undesirable changes to the constitution, in addition to the balanced budget amendment. If these critics are truly concerned about the possibility of additional constitutional changes, they have the alternative of passing a balanced federal budget amendment and submitting it to the state legislatures for ratification in the usual manner. Passage of a constitutional convention resolution by 34 state legislatures should provide the incentive for Congress to initiate the traditional procedure for amending our Constitution.

Dairy Daze Ice Cream Making Contest Winners

The Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club and the Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce would like to thank the entrants to the Homemade Ice Cream Making Contest.

The Junior Woman's Club particularly enjoyed the chance to be part of the Dairy Daze fun. Of course, we must admit, one of the most enjoyable parts was being "official tasters."

For those of you who could not make the festive day and sample the recipes, we are including them at the end of this article.

The first prize winner, and winner of a one-hundred dollar savings bond from Valley Bank, was Barb Panzer. Barb will be a sophomore at Kewaskum High School this fall. Her entry was Cherry Vanilla Ice Cream.

The second prize winner, and winner of a twenty-five dollar gift certificate at Rich's Foods is Diane Shreves. Diane's winning recipe was Strawberry Delight.

The third prize winner, and winner of a twenty-five dollar gift certificate at Miller's Furniture, is Mary Thiemer. Mary's winning entry was Strawberry Yogurt Ice Cream.

The Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club would like to thank Valley Bank, Rich's Foods, and Miller's Furniture for donating the prizes. We are already working on more ideas for next year's Dairy Daze.

PREGNANCY & MEDICINE

When anti-arthritis medication, including aspirin, is taken by a pregnant woman shortly before labor, her unborn baby's arteries may become too thick. This makes it difficult for the baby to absorb enough oxygen after birth when first starting to breathe. Some babies appear blue in color and some do not recover. Women should avoid medicines during the last few weeks of pregnancy and this includes aspirin. Consult your physician about medicines to avoid during pregnancy.

What goes wrong with prostate gland?

What is the prostate gland and what conditions require surgery?

The prostate (the name is derived from a Greek word meaning "one who stands before") is a rubbery mass of glands and muscle tissue about the size and shape of a horse chestnut. It serves as an accessory part of the male reproductive system.

The prostate "stands before" the bladder at the point where the urethra is attached. The prostate is literally wrapped around the urethra and the base of the bladder at the point where they join.

The ducts that carry sperm cells pass through tunnels in the prostate and empty into the urethra. At the time of ejaculation, the muscles in the prostate squeeze the embedded glands to discharge a fluid (prostatic fluid) that helps to transport and nourish the sperm cells.

The location of the prostate allows a physician to examine it by inserting an index finger into the rectum. He then can feel the prostate through the rectal wall well enough to evaluate its size and consistency, the presence of hard spots that might be stones or tumors and the degree of tenderness present.

The common terms "enlarged prostate" and "hypertrophied prostate" can be misleading. The benign enlargement is really an overgrowth of urethral glands that lie inside the prostate. As these enlarge, the prostate is pushed outward, away from the urethra. This is an important point because in some operations referred to as "removal of an enlarged prostate," the prostate is left behind and only the mass of overgrown urethral glands is removed from inside the prostate.

Three somewhat indistinct lobes make up the prostate — two lateral lobes (one on each side) and one middle lobe. Large overgrowth of the lateral lobes can occur with little or no interference to the urine flow. However, a very small overgrowth of the middle lobe may close the urethra, necessitating emergency surgery. Some type of an enlarged prostate is present in about 10% of 40-year-old men and 80% of 80-year-old men. What causes enlargement is not known.

There is no medicine that will "dissolve" or materially help an enlarged prostate. Infections can be treated, and in the early stages massage of the prostate may be useful. But if sufficient obstruction to the passage of urine creates complications, surgery becomes necessary.

The principal indications for surgery include inability to empty the bladder, chronic infection, kidney damage, frequent urination (especially at night), an urgent need to urinate immediately and loss of control. The final decision on whether to operate depends on the danger involved. A distinction must be made between danger and inconvenience, but even inconvenience may be sufficient indication for elective surgery.

Ask the Doctor will answer selected questions on health, mailed to the Medical Society of Milwaukee County, 411 E. Mason St., Milwaukee, Wis., 53202. Questions will be answered by society members as a public service. Questions about specific problems or costs will not be answered. No individual replies will be made.

Campbellsport Church Announces Summer Activity Schedule

The First Baptist Church of Campbellsport announces its Summer Activity Schedule.

Another live performance by the Judson College Singers—"Servant 83" will be held July 5th at 7:30 p.m. "Servant 83" is a group of six young adults from Judson College in Judson, Illinois, that tour the United States during the summer sharing their testimony as well as music and songs. It promises to be a delightful evening. There will be time to meet the group and talk with them while enjoying refreshments after the performance.

"More Than a Champion," a 56 min. film for the whole family on July 31, at 7:30 p.m. This film is an action filled story about a 12-year-old boy who learns that it takes more than athletic ability to be a true champion. Billy is a future rodeo star and already is close to being named Jr. Champion. There is something for all of us in this film.

"Kevin Can Wait," 51 min. on August 21, at 7:30 p.m. will make you laugh and cry. It's a film every Christian should see, because each of us can benefit from this poignant, sometimes humorous presentation of a key principle in the Christian life. Have you ever entertained an angel unaware? Don't miss this exciting film.

As with all our summer programs a nursery will be provided, refreshments will be served and a free will offering will be taken to help with the costs of presenting these events.

We want to welcome everyone to share these summer enrichment programs. Watch the newspapers for more information. Hope to see you there. The church is located on Main Street in Campbellsport.

washington county, wis. SHERIFFS DEPARTMENT

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

Get Better Mileage — Save Money

If you've been keeping track of the miles-per-gallon your vehicle is delivering and aren't too happy about the results, maybe there are a few simple things you could try, Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz advises. They may save you some hard earned dollars now that the gas prices are on the rise again. Motorists are reminded that an untuned engine can rob you of up to 15% of your car's gas mileage. You can quickly spend, in wasted gasoline dollars, what it would cost for a simple tune-up.

Next, try changing your in-town driving habits. Don't charge up to a stop at full throttle and jump on the brakes. Ease off ahead of time and coast to a stop. Starting up again, do it smoothly. Jerky driving is a big gas waster simply because jack-rabbit starts waste gasoline and quick stops only waste the gasoline you've been feeding the engine right up to the last minute.

Even on the highway, a steady speed is more thrifty than frequent speed changes. Observing the nationwide 55 MPH speed limit is also important, and for several reasons, the Sheriff continues. It was selected as the median energy efficient speed after extensive tests, which considered two sets of factors - wind resistance, and the average car's engine efficiency.

The energy required, Sheriff Schwartz said, to move your vehicle through the air at 65 miles per hour is 40% greater than at 55 MPH, even though your speed is only 18% faster. So, at 65 miles per hour, your car must burn more gas to produce that extra 40% of energy that is required.

There are other things which can help raise the gas mileage, such as radial tires. They help because they generate less rolling resistance due to the design of the tire casing fabric. Keeping your tires at recommended air pressure also helps. And the use of air-conditioning in hot weather requires extra money to drive the air-conditioning equipment, which means more gasoline use too.

The Sheriff points out that the fuel savings made possible by observing the 55 MPH speed limit is only part of the picture. Transportation uses over half the available oil supply, and strict observance of 55 MPH could cut that use by approximately 20%. Just as important, your chances of surviving a traffic crash at 55 MPH are 31 to 1 in your favor, but only 50/50 at 70 MPH. That isn't a guess, the Sheriff added, it's a hard fact! For the first three years the 55 MPH limit was in effect traffic deaths dropped 22 deaths a day (or 8,000 a year) in America. For the foreseeable future, it appears our best hope is the 55 MPH speed limit.

Keeping these important items in mind, Schwartz concluded, you can get better gas mileage, save money, and have more enjoyable motoring, all in one.

County Unit of Cancer Society to Sponsor Swim-Along

A Swim-Along has been scheduled for Saturday, June 25, at the West Bend High School Natatorium as a fundraiser for the Washington County Unit of the American Cancer Society. Each participant will receive a Swim-Along patch and those raising over $25 will also receive a Swim-Along T-shirt. A trophy will be presented to the top money-raiser in each of the three age groups, 6-12 years, 13-17, and 18 and over.

Participation is limited. To register, call 334-4646. Swim times will be assigned, and sponsorship sheets with complete instructions will be provided.

According to Joe Lewis, the program's coordinator, "This event is open to beginners, intermediate and advanced swimmers. You will be competing with yourself and friends to see how many laps you can swim to benefit cancer control programs." Lewis has developed the Washington County Unit Swim-Along program for the American Cancer Society as part of his Eagle Scout Project, Troop 780.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

SOCIAL SECURITY IS MORE THAN RETIREMENT BENEFITS

A common myth today is that Social Security is just a retirement program. And many people feel that if they were allowed to invest their Social Security taxes, they would have a much greater nest egg at retirement.

This view of Social Security is a narrow one. It overlooks several important facts:

• Comprehensive package of protection - Social Security is much more than a retirement program. It also pays monthly disability and survivors checks to people of all ages. And Medicare health insurance is available to most people 65 or older, to many long-term disabled beneficiaries under 65, and insured workers and family members if they have permanent kidney failure.

• Many dependents are eligible - Benefits can be paid to a wide range of dependents and survivors. And Social Security protection is earned quickly—as little as 18 months of work credits are needed, for example, for surviving children to get checks.

• Coverage moves with you - Today most jobs and self-employment are covered by Social Security. Any and all work credits you earn count toward benefits.

On a motion by Trustee David Nigh, seconded by Trustee Paul Blumer and unanimously carried by voice vote, the minutes of the May 16, 1983 meeting were approved as printed.

A public hearing was conducted on the applications for eight (8) Class B tavern license renewals and two (2) Class A liquor store license renewals. There were no objections from the floor to any of the applications as publicly read by President Gerald F. Stollenwerk. The Police Department had no reason to protest at this time on any of the applications. The public hearing was declared closed.

Motion was made by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Donald Mlodzik to close the public hearing regarding Class A license renewals. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." The public hearing was declared closed.

The opening of bids as advertised for the K.K.C.P. horse shoe pit area fencing were as follow: The bids were read aloud.

1. Century Fence/Waukesha, WI. $2,775.00
2. Packerland Fence/Manitowoc, WI. $2,800.00

On a motion by Trustee Donald Mlodzik, seconded by Trustee Paul Blumer and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board turned all proposals over to the Park & Recreation Committee for review for a recommendation at the June 20, 1983 meeting.

Wastewater Superintendent Pete Albers informed the Board that it was recommended that the color selection for the clarifier covers be white if that was agreeable. The Board reviewed the various colors and looked at pictures and agreed that white as recommended would be fine. It was also noted the installation will probably take place the end of August or beginning of September.

Superintendent of Public Works, Augie Bilgo, told the Board that all was proceeding okay on well no. 1, but would be a good week or two before it is back in service.

On a motion by Trustee Donald Mlodzik, seconded by Trustee David Nigh and carried unanimously by voice vote, the Board hired Kirst Lawn & Garden, to mow and cut those lots in violation of the Municipal Code. Trustee Richard Schmidt, Chairman of the Parks & Recreation Committee informed the Board that the rewiring of River Hill Park would be completed this week and that to date 250 swim passes have been sold. It was also noted that the water temperature of the swimming pond should be 65 degrees before opening and that no refunds would be issued because of cold or inclement weather.

Trustee Howard Laubenstein, the Plan Commission Representative reported on the Commission meeting of May 31, 1983. ## Outdoor Ecumenical Worship Service At Faith Haven

June 26 marks the date of the annual Ecumenical worship service on the hillside at Faith Haven. The time of the service is 10:30 a.m. In case of rain the service will be held at Immanuel U.C.C., 5th Ave. and Walnut Street in West Bend.

The 59 acre grounds are maintained by the Lay School which began in June of 1962 and continues regular meetings in which theology and worship, prayer and sermon structure are taught. The worship service centers around a fieldstone pulpit and communication table topped by a stainless steel spire. A hiking trail of meditation with areas marked with scripture to inspire thought of the life, death, and resurrection of Christ may be enjoyed by early comers. Wild flowers and many varieties of trees may be studied along the way. Benches of logs placed along the way provide rest and meditation times, while the songs of birds provide background music.

Guest speaker this year is Frank P. Zeidler, active lay member of Redeemer Lutheran Church in Milwaukee and Ecumenical Relations Committee of the Wisconsin-Upper Michigan Synod of LCA.

Music for the service will be coordinated by Dave and Terri Bertelsen of Fifth Avenue United Methodist Church.

Faith Haven is located 2 1/2 miles north of Hwy. 33 on Townline Road, west of West Bend. For the worship service you are encouraged to bring chairs, blankets, or "sit-upons."

Indians Play 4 Conference Games, Lose All of Them

The young Kewaskum Indians continue to have problems winning against Eastern Wisconsin opponents. In their last four games played, the Indians lost all of them.

They lost a 6-2 decision to Chilton, a 13-0 shutout to unbeaten Plymouth, a 16-1 thumping at Kiel, and a 12-6 defeat to Two Rivers at home.

Kewaskum outhit Chilton, 8-7, but the Tigers scored five runs in the first two innings and as it turned out, that was all they needed for the victory. Kevin Zacharias picked up the win while junior Jim Hanrahan took the loss for the Indians. Brad Dieringer went 2 for 4 at the plate for Kewaskum and third baseman Dave Pesch also had two hits in three trips to the plate, including a double.

Two Plymouth pitchers combined for a one-hitter again Kewaskum. Winner Rick Meyer went the first five innings, giving up only a double to freshman catcher Tim Dettmann in the third. The only other Indian base runner was Dieringer, who reached first on a first inning error. Tom Richards came on in relief for Plymouth in the sixth and struck out five of the six batters he faced. Brian Arndt made his first start of the year for Kewaskum. With one out in the third Coach Perry Koth brought in Dennis Butz, who did even worse.

The next game with Kiel was a real disappointing one. The Indians had as many hits as Kiel, five for each team, but 11 errors led to a rash of Raider runs. John Swanson took the loss for Kewaskum, but most of the runs he gave up were unearned. Catcher Dettmann

The Indians came up with seven hits in their game against Two Rivers here Thursday but pitcher Hanrahan gave up nine, leading to the 12-6 loss. Hanrahan gave up 10 runs on seven hits and eight walks before being lifted after there was one out in the top of the fifth. Arndt went the rest of the way and issued the final two runs on a pair of hits. The winner, Terry Swoboda, was tough when he had to be. Johnson had two triples for the winners, one of them in the Raiders' six-run sixth. Pesch and Jim Braun had two hits apiece for the Indians. Kewaskum committed just two errors but one proved very costly opening the door to a four-run Raider second inning after two were out.
