Cablevision Seeking Rate Hike

'Haunted' Mill to Be Razed

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The A. C. Koch mill which has housed Kewaskum's Halloween haunted house for the past few years, will be razed to make room for a public parking lot.

At its meeting Monday night, the Kewaskum Village Board unanimously voted to purchase the property, which lies directly west of the Municipal Building at 1411 Railroad Street, and convert it into a twenty-five car parking lot bordered by a "green area."

The move was the result of negotiations between the village and A. G. Koch, Incorporated, owners of the site. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said, on direction of the Board, he and village attorney Gerald Kiefer had contacted Koch and presented an offer of $20,000, which was accepted.

The acquisition is being made to provide additional public parking as well as replace several parking spaces which will be lost through future remodeling and expansion of the police garage area and the addition of the proposed community room at the Municipal Building.

Trustee Richard Schmidt told the board, after looking at several other properties in the vicinity, "this move was the most feasible and affordable." Dan Schmidt said five other houses had been looked at but they were considerably more costly than the Koch property.

A transfer of $15,000 from the surplus funds account and $5,000 from the open areas fund will be used for the purchase. Schmidt noted open area money can be used for such a purpose when no building is involved. The parking lot will be landscaped with a green area at the north, west and south sides of its boundaries. Razing of the mill will take place after the purchase is finalized.

Administrator Schmidt also informed the Board he received two letters from Cablevision. "They contain good news and bad news," Schmidt said. The good news is, CATV will be adding three new channels to the Kewaskum service. The bad news is, the two years franchise time has lapsed and they want a rate increase effective May 1st, 1984.

Proposed increases would start with basic service going from $7.50 per month to $8.95, HBO and Cinemax each would go from $8.00 to $9.00 per month, installation would increase from $15.00 to $20.00, FM from $3.00 to $4.00 and additional outlets up $1.00 to $4.00. There would be no increases for Select and Disney channels. Trustee Mary Krueger asked if the increased rates would include a free subscription to the program guide. Schmidt said no, there would be a monthly charge of $1.00 for that service also.

Trustee Dave Nigh asked Schmidt what would happen if the village did not agree to a rate increase. "Then we rely on the state and federal government agencies," said Schmidt, "they (CATV) can take it to a grievance committee for a settlement." Dick Schmidt noted that West Bend is presently fighting just such a request. "Their subscribers are really coming down hard on them in West Bend," said Schmidt. Dan Schmidt told the board, "Two Rivers had a rate increase last year and, like West Bend, they tried to fight it but the Cable company ended up getting their increase."

Krueger wondered what kind of impact this would have on the subscriptions. "I'm quite sure there will be quite a few cancellations and I'd think Cablevision would take that into consideration, especially if they continue to charge for the program guide," said Krueger.

Schmidt said a public hearing would have to be held and then the Village would have 30 days after the hearing to accept or reject the increase. A public hearing has been set for March 19th, to allow the public an opportunity to comment on the proposed rate hikes. Schmidt told the board, Kewaskum has the highest subscription rate in the state, with approximately 71% of all potential customers subscribing to the service.

Candidate Forum Held Here by Women Voters

The League of Women Voters of Washington County are sponsoring a series of candidate forums prior to the Feb. 21 primary election.

The first forum was held Wednesday, Feb. 8, when candidates trying for the Kewaskum School Board met the public. Eight candidates are competing for three available seats. They are: incumbents Jean Goeden and Thomas Brigham, and challengers Charles Bindrich, Norma Serwe, Colleen Narbatovics, Kim Peterson, Ronald Beimborn and Charles Voge.

The forum started at 7:30 p.m. in the Kewaskum High School Cafeteria.

Fire Dept. Seeks Ad Sponsors for Centennial Booklet

The Kewaskum Fire Department will be celebrating their Centennial on July 7, 1984. They are preparing a booklet of the history of the department. Any service organization or group or any person wishing to place an ad in the booklet can do so by contacting John Kudek at 626-4067 or writing him at Box G, Kewaskum. Anyone who has received Kudek's letter and has any questions may also contact him.

County Test Of Electronic Voting System

The official county test of the Electronic Voting System to be used in various municipalities of Washington County for the Primary Election to be held February 21, 1984, will be held at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, February 14, in the Washington County Clerk's Office. Said office is located at 432 E. Washington St., West Bend. All interested parties are invited to attend. The official county test is required by State Statute.

Conditional Use Permit for Rooming House Recommended

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a 3 to 1 vote, the Kewaskum Plan Commission voted to recommend that the Village Board approve a Conditional Use Permit for a building located at 1304 Fond du Lac Avenue, across from Rich's Foods.

Fred Robertson of Milwaukee, who owns the building, has requested the permit which would allow him to convert the first floor to a rooming house to provide sleeping quarters for Kemp's Dairy truck drivers.

Robertson told the Commission he had tried to rent the first floor on a commercial basis, as zoned, for several months but without success. He said he had been approached by six Kemp's drivers about the possibility of renting the space for sleeping quarters. They presently rent a flat in Theresa, but their lease expires in April.

Robertson said the state had inspected the building and said it would approve his request after a few changes were made to meet state codes. The building, which was formerly the offices of Pro-Bilt Homes, is located about one block from Kemp's truck lot, and there would be no problem as far as the lack of parking space, said Robertson.

Robertson would convert the first floor to a unit with three bedrooms, including a kitchen, bath and living room area. Commission member Raynor Herriges said he was in favor of the request. "The man has made an honest effort to rent the space on a commercial basis and we all know he has already put a considerable amount of money into the building for repairs. I think it's only right we let him get some of his money back out of it."

Robertson has originally considered using the building for a youth hostel, but decided to drop that idea when the Kemp's drivers approached him.

The commission voted to recommend approval of the request by the Village Board with the following conditions: that the permit be reviewed annually, the unit be used strictly for Kemp's drivers or employees of their affiliates, there be a maximum of six people, no reduction in bedroom size, the unit to comply with state rules, inspection is verified by the State Inspector, and a 10-day revocation clause be included should there be any problems with disruptive or unruly behavior.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the commission, it is up to the Board to approve the request as recommended or, they could add additional restrictions. Schmidt noted the request was not a request for a permanent zoning change and the permit could be rescinded at any time by the Board.

A public hearing and decision on the request will be scheduled for the February 20th Village Board meeting.

Robertson bought the building at a sheriff's sale last October. He has already remodeled the second floor into an apartment and has tenants in it.

Announce Polling Places for Primary

All municipalities that vote in the School District of Kewaskum's primary election, are reminded of the fact that polling places will be open in Auburn, Mitchell, Ashford, Wayne, Scott, Town of Kewaskum, Farmington, Village of Kewaskum, and Barton.

Area Couple Raises $1,100 in Pledges For MS in 500 Snowmobile Run

Milton and Linda Howe of 8527 Orchard Valley Road, West Bend, took part in the first Wisconsin MS 500 snowmobile run on Feb. 3 and 4. The run went from White Lake, east of Antigo, to Land O' Lakes and back.

Milton had a total of 335 miles in the two days. Linda, who was diagnosed as having multiple sclerosis in May of 1983, had a total of 155 miles on the first day, but because of her MS was unable to continue on the journey the second day. The pledges of the Howes totaled $1,100 for MS research. The group total thus far is $27,000.

Linda is presently undergoing plasmapheresis at Froedert Lutheran Hospital in Milwaukee and must go in once a week at this stage of her illness. She is to be commended for her effort in raising funds for MS.

The Howes are members of the Boltonville Bunch Snowmobile Club. They have plans to take part in the snowmobile run again next year.

Swing Choir and Jazz Band To Present Concert Wednesday

On Wednesday, February 15, the Kewaskum High School Swing Choir and Jazz Band will be presenting a concert at 7:30 p.m. in the old gymnasium.

The Swing Choir has been busy learning new songs and dance steps after a very busy holiday season and are ready to entertain you. After a slow start, the Jazz Band has discovered that 6:15 a.m. is a good time to practice, and are coming on strong.

Both groups cordially invite you to an enjoyable evening of song, dance and good fun. The Kewaskum Booster Club will be selling refreshments.

voted to bill the School District for the costs incurred for the primary election scheduled for February 21st. Schmidt told the trustees, according to law, as long as there is nothing on the ballot but school business, the District is responsible for all election costs including poll workers and supplies. The cost is expected to run between $200 and $300.

Schmidt gave a report on Village building permits for 1983. The village had a 14% increase over 1982, said Schmidt. Residential permits, including houses, garages and remodeling went from 42 in 1982 to 54 in 1983. Mercantile dropped from 14 to 6, manufacturing went from 3 in 1982, to 8 in 1983, and non-taxable property (schools, etc.) went up 1. In 1982 there were 60 permits issued and in 1983 there were 70 permits issued.

Trustee Howard Laubenstein reported on the public meeting held to discuss snowmobile problems in the village. He felt the snowmobilers had a better understanding of the situation in the village and the biggest problem was getting across streets. Laubenstein said he did not recommend any changes at this time and he would work with the local club again in the fall. He noted there were no provisions for three-wheelers and they would be fined.

Police Chief Donald Hlavaty's comment on the meeting was, "most of the people there weren't the ones causing the problems. It's been the same eight or ten people and they've been fined several times since then. We can keep writing tickets longer than they can afford to pay," stated Hlavaty. Fines as high as $130 have been issued to violators who have been apprehended.

The board approved the recommendation of Chief Hlavaty to sell the old police squad on a sealed bid basis. The squad will be put up for sale as soon as the Village accepts delivery on the new car.

High School Students Working for Improved Report Card Grades

The faculty and students of Kewaskum High School are in the second period of working for "Improved Report Card Grades." Students are encouraged to improve their report card over the previous nine weeks' report card.

Of the seniors 45 percent of the students improved their report card over the previous nine weeks. The juniors improved by 37 percent, the sophomores by 38 percent, and the freshmen by 58 percent.

Students do not have to be honor roll students to have their name on the list, they just need a better report card than they had last time.

Encourage your child to do his best to join the group of students who are improving themselves!

Snowmobile, Jewelry Stolen

A snowmobile was reported stolen recently from outside the Amerahn Tavern, 9480 U.S. Hwy. 45, Kewaskum, according to a Washington County Sheriff's Department report. Duane Nickel, 7280 County Trunk WW, West Bend, told officers he had left the machine outside the tavern at 9 p.m. and discovered it was missing several hours later. He said he left the keys in the machine. The value of the snowmobile was set at $1,500.

West Bend police reported that jewelry valued at $1,400 was stolen from a locked car parked in the University of Wisconsin-Washington County campus parking lot last Thursday night.

Mary K. Bilgo, 329A Hwy. V, Kewaskum, told police Sunday she had parked her car in the lot at about 8:30 p.m. and had locked the car. When she returned at 9:45 p.m., she said, she found the driver's car door open and detected an odor of cigarette smoke in the car. Bilgo said no one who normally uses the car smokes.

The jewelry, a $1,000 gold wedding and engagement ring set, a pearl ring, a gold pendant and a silver chain necklace, were left in a duffel bag in the car.

Janine Thull Included in Listing of Outstanding Young Women in America

The Board of Advisors for the Outstanding Young Women of America awards program announced that the woman named below has been selected for inclusion in the 1983 edition of OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN OF AMERICA:

Janine Marie Thull, AIOI MI 48825. Ms. Thull is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Thull, Hwy. 28 E, Kewaskum, near St. Michaels and is a 1976 graduate of Kewaskum High School.

The Outstanding Young Women of America program is designed to honor and encourage exceptional young women between the ages of 21 and 36 who have distinguished themselves in their homes, their professions and their communities. Accomplishments such as these are the result of dedication, service and leadership - qualities which deserve to be recognized and remembered.

This is the goal of the many leading women's organizations, college alumni associations and public officials who nominate deserving young women to participate in the program. Serving as chairman of the program's Advisory Board is Margaret L. Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The women listed, along with approximately 23,000 fellow Outstanding Young Women of America from across the United States, will be presented in the prestigious annual awards volume. In addition, they are now being considered for one of the fifty-one state awards to be presented to those women who have made the most noteworthy contributions in their individual states. From these fifty-one state winners, the Ten Outstanding Young Women of America will be chosen. The ten national winners will then be honored at the annual awards luncheon to be held this fall in Washington, D.C.

The Board of Advisors and the Board of Salutes all those honored as Outstanding Young Women of America. And takes great pride in bringing their accomplishments to the attention of the American public.

Students in District Spend More Time in School Than Average

A recent survey summary of the length of school days in Wisconsin schools puts the schools of the Kewaskum District in a positive light. In your high school, we spend 395 minutes per day compared to the state average of 387 minutes. In your middle school, we spend 395 minutes per day compared to the state average of 379 minutes. Your grade schools spend 390 minutes compared to the state average of 361 minutes.

An analysis of time spent in school over the past 12 years shows Kewaskum exceeding the state wide mean by 20 minutes a day. Translated into days we actually spend 60 hours per year or 7.5 days more in our schools every year than does the average Wisconsin school district.

— Attention Young Women —

The Wisconsin Jaycee Women would like to extend, to all area young women (single or married), an opportunity to grow in individual and community leadership.

The Kewaskum Jaycees have excelled in providing the Kewaskum area with a fine young man's organization and community organization. They have received many local and state honors for their accomplishments. They were honored as the 17th Best Jaycee Chapter out of hundreds in the State of Wisconsin at the February Convention. Congratulations to these fine young men.

Ladies, we now have an opportunity to join an organization that offers excellent individual development, leadership programs, and community service. The Jaycee Women is that organization.

There will be a "get-acquainted" organizational meeting on Monday, February 13th, at 8:00 p.m. in the Community Room of the West Bend Savings and Loan Building, 114 Main Street, Kewaskum. (Use back entrance-park in the old Sentry parking lot).

By being a Jaycee Woman, you have the opportunity to not only bring forth and develop all your potential but a chance to leave your mark on yourself and your community. Please remember the date—there is a place for you!

Memories...

The Statesman welcomes readers to submit photos for the "Memories" feature. Photos should show life in the olden days in this area. Deliver or mail to The Statesman, 250 Main St., Kewaskum, WI 53040. Photos can be picked up again after publication.

This is a photo of the John Jake Engler family. They lived on a farm near Schrauth's Pond. Jake was born in 1839 at Sevelen, Switzerland. His wife was a daughter of Gottlieb and Anistina Backhaus of Kewaskum. Jake and his brother Ulrich joined the 2nd Wisconsin Volunteer Artillery in 1861. Ulrich died in an army hospital at Goldsboro, N.C. For three years Jake drove a team of horses on a gun powder wagon. He was injured at Yorktown, V.A., and was discharged on Oct. 30, 1864, after serving three full years in the army. He was allowed to take home the horses he had driven. Jake volunteered again in 1865 and was in the army until the war was over. He died of a heart attack on W. Water St. in downtown Milwaukee in 1904 and was buried at Elmore. His grave was unmarked until October, 1983, when Jim Andre placed a veteran's plaque on his grave. Mrs. Engler died in 1910 at Nara Vesa, New Mexico, and is buried there. Pictured in the photo, back row, left to right, John J. Jr., Margaret [Jaunke], Edward, Louisa [Hangartner], Arnold, William; seated, John Jake, Welhemina [Backhaus]; front, Minnie [Breseman]. The couple is planning a wedding in the Spring of 1985.

Cub Scouts and Webelos News

The Cub Scouts and Webelos of Pack 3744 have been busy working toward their various badges and also preparing skits and making table decorations for the Blue & Gold Banquet.

The Annual Blue and Gold Banquet was held on February 5 from 12:30 to 4:00 p.m. at the Amerahn Hall. Parents and Scouts enjoyed a Pot Luck meal followed by the entertainment of each den doing a special skit. The leaders showed their talents by also performing a skit. The Scouts were presented with badges and achievement awards which were earned through their hard work.

All the boys from Pack 3744 will be participating in a Winterfest on February 11. Many exciting events are planned for a fun-filled day.

Cadette Troop 72 Goes Camping in Frigid Weather

Girls not in the picture are Carrie Grahl, Amy Hammes, Annette Stommel, Jeanine McElhatton, Michelle Etta, Cheryl Miller and Angie Geidel.

Oops! Where's the rest of the troop? I don't know, I thought you knew! Don't worry Moms and Dads, we didn't lose them, sorry they missed out on the picture.

If you remember Jan. 21, it was one of those below zero and windy days, but it didn't stop Cadette Troop 72 from going camping. We went to Glacier Hills, Hubertus. The ranger turned on the 2 heaters just before we got there. You could still see your breath in the lodge. The girls picked Glacier Hills because of the inside toilets, but because of the extreme cold weather we could not use them. Instead we had to go outside and around the building to enter other inside facilities.

The girls decided to try their luck at cross-country skiing. If you have ever been in the Holy Hill area you know it's very hilly and the trails were very slippery. When they got back the weather was still very cold inside, so we visited Holy Hill for evening Mass, hoping the church was warmer than our lodge.

The girls planned a good menu and we all ate well, hoping it was not our last supper. I never slept with my hat, mittens and boots on before. Sunday morning did come with a little sun and warmer temps. The windows even started to defrost. Some girls enjoyed ice skating as well as hiking around the area, while others attempted skiing again. We decided to leave early in the afternoon and stop for lunch and then went to the Zillmer Trails north of Kewaskum for some better skiing. The girls had a very good instructor with them, Mrs. Judy Harlow. Two other brave mothers, Mrs. Judy Geidel, and Mrs. Karen Grahl also helped. The troop wishes to thank these ladies for giving up their warm houses on super bowl Sunday to be with them. I'm busy packing my electric blanket for next years campout. That's right, I'm their sissy leader, Pat Morgan.

IRA* QUESTION #2

*(Individual Retirement Account)

With all the high-interest money market accounts now available... why should I consider an IRA?

In three words... Income Tax Shelter! Yes, there are many good, short-term investment savings plans now available that earn high interest. The difference is that these new accounts are not tax deductible. Your IRA savings are! Plus the high interest you earn with your IRA is also tax exempt until you start withdrawing your funds at retirement!

You don't have to be a financial wizard to understand the advantages of an Individual Retirement Account. But it does help to talk to a VALLEY BANK IRA professional. An informal chat can help you decide if an IRA is a sound choice for your personal income plans.

"Hello, Valley Bank!"

The answer is simple.

Kewaskum FFA Chapter Meets

On January 29th the Kewaskum FFA meeting was called to order at 12:04 p.m. by President Tim Westerman.

After the opening ceremony, the secretary's report was read by Jon Etta. It was motioned to be accepted by Patsy Panzer and seconded by Todd Steger. Gary Butzlaff gave the treasurer's report and the balance was stated at $3,646.76. Patsy Panzer motioned to accept this and it was seconded by Joel Junk.

In old business, Mike Gindt informed us that the Bucks game we would attend was on Tuesday, April 3, which is portrait night. The Bucks will be playing the New Jersey Nets. Jim Herriges asked if we wanted a luncheon before our Admirals game on February 19th, and we decided to have it. Tim Westerman talked about halftime in the locker room.

We set our prizes for our three on three basketball tournament at $15, $12 and $9 for first, second, and third prize, respectively. Randy Gindt motioned that the fourth and fifth teams should get their money back and Marty Shaw seconded it.

Tim Westerman updated our safety program.

For new business we started out by listening to creed speakers Debra Pamperin and Beverly Schulz. Pat Ruplinger, Jim Schulz, Jeff Mueller, and Marty Shaw also had a chance to say the creed, but, all declined for various reasons. Patsy Panzer commented that she thought the people who declined didn't have guts and that it was an honor to represent the chapter for creed competition.

We later discussed FFA Week and tried to get some new ideas.

Five members received their Chapter Farmer Degrees. These were: Joel Junk, Jim Wesenberg, Patsy Panzer, Joe Schmitt, and Bill Winker.

The closing ceremony was at 12:45 p.m. and the meeting was followed by our three-on-three tournament.

World's Fair Tour Guide Available At Public Library

The official 1984 Louisiana World's Fair Library Reference Packet, a comprehensive tour guide assembled by the Louisiana Assembly of Tourism, is now available at the Kewaskum Public Library during regular library hours.

The self-help tour guide was created by the state's tourism office to provide travel information and historical data to World's Fair visitors. Using the packet, potential visitors will be able to better prepare their itineraries, be more knowledgeable prior to their arrival and also be sure that they can make arrangements to see those things of particular interest while traveling across Louisiana.

List of fairs, festivals, plantation homes, gardens, cultural attractions, sporting events and many other possible activities, as well as traveling and food or lodging information, are included.

Robert E. Rintz, assistant secretary of the Louisiana Office of Tourism, Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism, said that he is very grateful that the Louisiana State Library in Baton Rouge and the Kewaskum Public Library are helping with the distribution.

"By everyone working together, the 1984 World's Fair will truly be the most important travel event ever to occur in Louisiana," said Rintz. The World's Fair will open in New Orleans on May 12, 1984, and will close on November 11.

The Kewaskum Public Library is open from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. Mon., 12 noon to 8 p.m. Wed., 12 noon to 6 p.m. Fri., and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

Nutrition Program For the Elderly Activity Schedule

Meals for Seniors, 60 years of age or older are provided by Ace Catering of Milwaukee, and are served Monday, Tuesday and Thursday at noon at the American Legion, 1538 Fond du Lac Ave. The cost of the meal is your donation according to your means. All reservations must be made one day in advance by calling 626-2420 or 338-4497 between 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Activities are also open to seniors 60 years of age and older. Everyone is considered a member eligible to participate in all activities. There are no membership fees.

Activities scheduled are Tuesday, Feb. 14, Valentine's Party, noon until 2:00 p.m. Entertainment will be by the women of the Sweet Sixties Quartet. Ceramics classes are held every third Tuesday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. There will be an Easter Party in April. The date has not yet been set.

Three New Channels Added to Cablevision

Carol Kenyon, River Bend Cablevision's Manager, and Steve Peterson, the company's Vice-President, informed the West Bend Cable Committee of the addition of 3 new channels to the present line-up of basic services. All were scheduled to premier on February 1st.

Financial News Network will be carried on Cablevision's Channel 7. This channel is devoted exclusively to financial and market news. It's programming features include talk shows, documentaries, forecasts, options outlooks, and market trends. A unique feature to the channel is a ticker-tape crawl-line which will run continuously along the bottom of the TV screen. Financial News Network will be on daily from 7 am. until 7 p.m.

Lifetime is a new channel that has been formed due to a merger between Cable Health Network (Ch. 20) and Daytime (Ch. 29). This new channel blends the best of these two existing services, featuring 24 hours of programming each day. Topics covered on this channel include features on health, nutrition, exercise, cooking, fashion, sex, family problems, child-raising, diet, etc. Lifetime will be carried on Channel 20.

Another new service, Arts & Entertainment Network, will now take over the Channel 29 slot. This channel is a joint venture of ARTS cultural programming services, now found on Channel 5 after Nickleodeon signs off each day, and The Entertainment Channel. This is a network rich in both quality and variety, featuring 20 hours of programming each day which will include concerts, films, ballet, comedy, theatre plays, new weekly series, and performing arts.

Riveredge to Hold Computer Workshop

RIVEREDGE NATURE CENTER, Newburg, presents "Discovering Ecological Relationships with the Computer" on Saturday, February 18, from 1:30-3:30 p.m. for high school students and adults.

This program will lead you to a better understanding of basic ecosystem relationships from food chains and carrying capacity to pollution impacts. The computer will be used to "tamper" with ecosystems and then participants will have to "endure" the consequences of their decisions.

Registration will be limited so pre-register early by calling the Center at 675-6888 (Local) or 931-9085 (Metro) weekdays. There is a non-member fee of $1 adults.

CHIMNEY FIRE

Kewaskum firemen answered a chimney fire call at 6:46 p.m. Monday, Feb. 6, at the Clint Gerlach home, 1218 Fond du Lac Ave., Kewaskum. Firemen were at the scene a half hour putting out the blaze. No damage resulted.

VALENTINE'S DAY

Tues. Night February 14

All Dinners Include: Lazy Susan with Hot Hors D'oeuvres, Salad, Relish, Potato, Bread and Butter. Plus a complimentary glass of wine for all the ladies.

GIRL SCOUTS GOAL

The cookie kids are on the loose. The scouts are busy trying to sell the best cookies in all the world. You know they never tasted better.

The last day to sell cookies is going to be Feb. 15. So just in case you haven't been contacted by any scout there is a "Cookie Hotline" number that you can call 626-4555 or 626-8116. Also, remember that you can take a tax deduction of a $1.02 per box that you order.

The scouts are busy with other things this time of the year also. The Cadettes are planning for their spring "Lock-In" at the West Bend YMCA on March 17 and 18.

Each troop in Kewaskum is busy planning just what they will be doing for the Potluck Dinner on March 11, at the Amerahn. There will be a prize for the best troop entertainment.

Just a reminder for all scout leaders from the Kewaskum area that the next leaders meeting will be Feb. 16, at the Legion. The time is 7:00 sharp.

The girl scouts would like to say "HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY TO EVERYONE."

G.O.P. Lincoln Day Dinner on Sunday

The G.O.P. Annual Lincoln Day Dinner will be held Sunday, February 12, at the Knights of Columbus Hall, West Bend. Cocktails at 5 p.m., followed by dinner at 6 p.m.

Speaker of the evening will be Tommy Thompson, minority leader of the Wisconsin State Assembly.

Tickets are $8.00 per person and are available by calling Hazel Nehrbass at 677-2303, or Fern Hembel at 334-2907.

Boy Scouts and Webelos Attend Wilderness Camp

Twenty-two boys and adults left from the Kewaskum Legion Hall at 6:00 p.m., Friday, Jan. 20th, for Wilderness Camp. It took about 2 hours of driving time to reach Wilderness, which is located 10 miles west of Wautoma in Waushara County. We drove a total of 102 miles one way.

The sub zero temperatures slowed down the outdoor activities, but inside activities such as eating was most popular. Plans were made for the following day. Because of the severe cold, down hill skiing had to be cancelled, so sledding and tobogganing was about all they could do. An early supper was made with chief Gildersleeve in charge making the boys a delicious stew that could have fed 100 boys. This was followed with bowling at Wautoma, which they really liked. A cracker barrel followed for those that were still hungry.

The adults kept themselves entertained by helping the boys, and when not busy, playing sheephead. Sunday morning was getting up late, having Church service, hiking, cross country skiing, ice fishing and sledding.

A lot more activities are planned for the coming year. Having outdoor fun is scouting.

Plan Boy Scout Klondike Derby

Glacier Edge District 11, of the Bay-Lakes Council of the Boy Scouts of America, will hold their annual Klondike Derby, Saturday, February 18, at Hawthorne Hills, Highway I, in Fredonia. Check-in time will be from 8:30 - 9:30 a.m., and all events will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m.

Boy Scout Troops from Ozaukee and Washington Counties will each construct a Klondike Sled, which they will use for transportation of equipment between stations to compete in the following events: Animal Tracking, Compass Orienteering, Fire Building, First Aid, Ice Rescue Survival Skills, Lashing, Obstacle Course, Outdoor Cooking and Tandem Snowshoes.

Patrol Flags are required and events will be judged on Patrol Leadership and participation. Troops may enter one of their patrol sleds in the competition for sled design if they wish.

Richard Borchardt is chairman of the derby.

Pork cuts low in fat include the sirloin roast, loin chop, center cut of fresh ham, cured ham butt, whole cured ham and pork tenderloin.

Scholarships Available To High School Seniors

Listed below are scholarships that will be available to graduating seniors at Kewaskum High School for 1984. Each scholarship lists the amount of the awards, the date the applications may be picked up, and the date they are to be returned to the High School Guidance Office. Most of these scholarships are for our seniors only. Additional scholarships have been published through the district newsletter. You are encouraged to check these scholarships and also with your insurance companies and place of employment for other scholarships you might be eligible for.

25 Years Ago

February 6, 1959

The groundhog saw its shadow on Monday and you know what that means, six more weeks of winter. Weather this week was the same as it has been most of the time since the new year started — very cold and much snow. The temperature dropped to about 17 degrees below zero Sunday morning and another 10 below Monday. Tuesday it warmed up and about two inches of snow fell. Wednesday about three inches more fell. Thursday it turned much colder as a high wind swirled the snow into even deeper drifts. We have now had 27 days of sub-zero weather this winter.

William Ruth left the A. G. Koch feed mill on Feb. 1 to open his own real estate brokerage firm. The firm will operate under the name of Bill Ruth's Real Estate Brokerage Firm, with offices in his residence north of Kewaskum in the Town of Auburn. Ruth was at Koch's mill ten years on the day, having been employed there since Feb. 1, 1949.

On Saturday, January 24, Kewaskum High School attended an invitational debate tournament held at Marquette High in Milwaukee. Debating in "B" division, the team was able to win five while dropping seven debates. The affirmative team of Aldwin Seefeldt and Robert Kroncke won two while losing one as did the negative team of Martina Du Charme and Nancy Held. Sue Sengpiel and Dianne Hoepner, also of the affirmative, won one of three while Margo Weiss and Judy Rinzel dropped three close decisions. In all, the meet attracted debaters from 34 schools.

On Feb. 9, there will be a Boy Scout presentation of awards program at the Union Hall in Kewaskum. The following boys will be advanced as listed: Cubs — William Key III will advance from the Cub Scout ranks to the Boy Scouts; Boy Scouts — Mark Schloemer and Edward Czaja from tenderfoot to second class scouts; Robert Schloemer, Robert Miller and John Falk from second class to first class scouts, and Ralph Perkins from first class scout to star scout.

Miss Patricia M. Hron, Kewaskum, and John James Coulter, Theresa, were married by the Rev. John Budde during an 11 a.m. service in Holy Trinity Church on January 31. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Hron and her husband is a son of the late George Coulter and Mrs. Herbert Ullrich of Campbellsport.

Pamela Okrasa, daughter of Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Robert Okrasa of San Diego, California, was baptized Sunday morning by the Rev. Gerhard Kaniess in St. Lucas Lutheran Church, Kewaskum. Mrs. Okrasa, the former Shirley Keller of here, and children are staying in Milwaukee with Mrs. Robert Stenschke and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Keller in Kewaskum while Sgt. Okrasa is stationed in Japan for a month.

Daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Metz, Kewaskum, on Feb. 2, and to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gnacinski, Kewaskum, on Jan. 28. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Etta, Route 1, Kewaskum, on Feb. 2, and to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Krueger, Route 2, Campbellsport, on Jan. 29.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Miller, tenants on the Jacob Myers farm in Farmington, died on January 26. He was between the age of 3 and 4 years. The little boy fell some days previous and having a spoon in his hand, the point of it went into his mouth and penetrated the palate. The child was what is termed a "bleeder," and the injury sustained in the fall aggravated the case and death resulted from loss of blood.

The worst blizzard known for years was experienced here last Friday and Saturday. The snow drifted so deep in places that travel was impossible. The rural carriers were unable to get over their routes until Tuesday. Passenger trains were from two to five hours late Saturday and freight trains were abandoned entirely.

The Reliance Mill in Boltonville was sold last Monday by F.M. Schuler of West Bend to Charles Mau of Milwaukee.

On last Tuesday afternoon, a very pretty wedding occurred in the Boltonville Lutheran Church when Rev. Barth of Fillmore united in the bonds of holy matrimony, Miss Mary Schiltz, the eldest daughter of Charles Schlitz of the Town of Scott, and Ernest Bethke, the youngest son of the late Fred Bethke of the Town of Farmington.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Thill of Wayne last week Friday.

St. Michael's Church was the scene of a very solemn and impressive celebration on February 5. Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Thull of the Town of Farmington, highly respected members of St. Michael's congregation, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Mr. Math. LOW FAT DIET

Besides diabetes, Dr. Whitaker labels fat as the villain in heart health also. "When large amounts of fat are eaten, the red blood cells stick together and stack up. This limits the flow of blood cells thru the capillaries. It creates 'sludging' with 30% less oxygen reaching the heart. "A very low fat intake boosts the oxygen supply to nourish the heart, creating a 'forever young' condition of basic health," states Dr. Whitaker.

Initiated as a local observance in 1941, the National Children's Dental Health Month is now designed to provide education in proper dental care and oral disease prevention in the school community. As part of Washington County's program, Dr. Stephen Van Ess of Kewaskum, with his dental assistants, Mrs. Linda Beske and Mrs. Jan Downs, visited the Beechwood Farmington and Wayne Elementary Schools on February 1st and 2nd.

Students saw films entitled "Toothbrushing with Charlie Brown," "Dudley the Dragon" and "The Haunted Mouth." Each class learned techniques for care of the mouth and asked many questions of Dr. Van Ess. A take-home packet was given to each student which included a toothbrush, disclosing tablets, a sticker, and a pamphlet to review with parents.

The 36th observance of National Children's Dental Health Month will continue through February with the theme: Smile America - A Healthy Smile Brightens Everyone's Day!

KHS Industrial Arts Student Team Entered in Contest

A unique educational competition is drawing entries from junior high schools, high schools and colleges across the country.

The contest, the fourth annual mass production contest, is sponsored by the American Industrial Arts Association and Stanley Tools division of The Stanley Works. It enables students to learn and use the principles and methods of a successful manufacturing operation in the application of the skills they develop in their industrial arts classes.

William Stangl, industrial arts teacher at Kewaskum High School, has entered a student team in the Mass Production Contest.

Entries are products manufactured by teams of students, under the supervision of their industrial arts teacher, using mass production techniques and methods. Teams compete in one of three contest divisions: grades 6 through 8, grades 9 through 12 and college undergraduate.

In selecting a product, students must consider its marketability and a market research study must accompany each entry. The students must also select the tools and develop whatever jigs and fixtures are required to manufacture the product repetitively to precise, quality standards. Each entry must consist of at least two of the products to show that the team's manufacturing methods could be used for mass production.

Entries are submitted for judging during the annual conference of the American Industrial Arts Association of more than 6,000 teachers. The conference this year will be in Columbus, Ohio from March 29 through March 30.

Judges select four entries in each division to receive Stanley gold hammer awards, inscribed with "Grand Prize," "First Prize," "Second Prize" or "Third Prize." Each winning team member receives a special award certificate and keytape.

Gehl Sponsors Agriculture Essay Contest

(WEST BEND) — In recognition of Agriculture Day, 1984, Gehl Company has announced the sponsorship of an agriculture essay writing contest open to all active Washington County Future Farmers of America.

Incorporating in 1984 Ag Day theme, FFA members who wish to enter the contest are asked to write their thoughts on how Agriculture is leading our nation's economic recovery. Entries should be submitted to Gehl Company by Thursday, February 23. Interested Washington County FFA members should contact their FFA advisor for more detailed information concerning contest rules.

A trophy will be presented to the FFA member writing the best overall essay. The top winner in each of the county's FFA chapters will receive a $100 Savings Bond from Gehl Company. $50 Savings Bonds will be awarded to second place chapter winners.

Gehl Company encourages all Washington County FFA members to enter an essay in the contest. Contact your FFA advisor for more information.

Ag Day 1984 will be held March 20 in observance of the role of Agriculture in our society and economy.

Bend and on February 28 at the Expo Center in Waukesha. This conference will offer women in the workplace, as well as homemakers, an opportunity to participate in a choice of workshops on subjects including reducing guilt by increasing creative, quality time with the family; teaching children good spending and saving habits; and cooking, cleaning and organizing advice which will minimize efforts and maximize results.

The $5.00 registration fee includes a choice of two workshops, hearing a keynote speaker, plus materials and refreshments. If registration is made at least one week before the attended conference, the fee will be $4.00.

Obituary

FRED SAGER

Fred A. Sager, 77, of 751 Highland View Drive, West Bend, died Saturday, February 4, 1984, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Milwaukee.

He was born July 18, 1906, in the Town of Burnett, Dodge County. He married Cloris Czamanske at Wausau on June 2, 1935.

Mr. Sager was past president of West Bend Businessmen's Association, St. John's Lutheran Church Congregation and West Bend-Barton Sportsmen's Club. He was a past member of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs and served on the Washington County Board from 1960-69.

He was employed by the Schneider-Ulrich Clothing Store at Horicon from 1923-32 and went to West Bend in 1932 when he began a men's apparel shop.

Surviving are his wife; three children, Donald F. of West Bend, Steven P. of Fond du Lac and Mrs. Glen (Marjorie) Klug of Kewaskum; and nine grandchildren. A sister and brother preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Wednesday at St. John's Lutheran Church, West Bend. Pastor George Mumm and Pastor Robert Hoehner officiated. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery, Horicon.

Visitation for Mr. Sager was after 4 p.m. Tuesday at Myrhum Funeral Home, 1315 W. Washington St., West Bend, and at the church from 11 a.m. Wednesday until the time of services.

State Representative John Merkt, 70th District [far right] recently visited the University of Wisconsin Center-Washington County in West Bend. He is pictured with Marilou Chapman, a UWWC Foundation member, and Robert O. Thompson, Dean of UWWC. Merkt toured the campus and informally conferred with members of UWWC's faculty and staff.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend

REPORTING CASH TIPS

Some people who receive cash tips in their work confuse reporting for income tax purposes with reporting for Social Security purposes.

The Internal Revenue Service requirement is simple; all tips must be reported as income and are subject to Federal income tax; however, the receipt of tips is handled differently for Social Security purposes.

Cash tips must be reported by a worker to his or her employer if they amount to at least $20 in a month. A person who works for more than one employer during a month must report separately to each. If tips are shared with other employees, only the amount actually received must be reported.

In addition to tips of less than $20 a month, other exceptions also apply. Tips in the form of merchandise (such as tickets to a show) should not be reported, nor should the employee's share of a service charge imposed on customers. These charges will be reported as regular wages.

The employer collects from each employee who receives tips his or her share of the Social Security tax due. This amount may be deducted from wages due the employee or from money given the employer by the employee for this purpose. The amount to be paid to the employer depends on the amount earned.

For 1984, a worker in Social Security-covered employment pays an effective rate of 6.7 percent on earnings up to $37,800, whether regular wages or tips.

The report to the employer is due by the 10th of the month following the month the tips were earned. If the 10th of the month falls on a weekend or holiday, the report should be made by the next workday.

Baby's First Teeth

NATIONAL CHILDREN'S DENTAL HEALTH MONTH will be observed throughout the nation during February 1984. As part of the observance, the Washington County Dental Society, in cooperation with this newspaper, today begins a series of eight articles on "Going Through Life with a Smile."

When baby's first tooth appears, Mother writes the date in her baby book. Father takes a picture of it. The grandparents brag about its arrival to their friends. Everyone seems to know that the appearance of the first tooth marks an important step in the baby's development.

They're right. Children need healthy teeth to chew their food easily, to help them speak clearly, and to look good to themselves and their friends. In these respects, your child's primary or first teeth are just as important as the permanent teeth, even though most of the primary teeth will be lost naturally by about age 12. Let's take a look at the primary teeth to see how they develop and how they should be cared for during these important early years.

The tooth buds begin to grow between the sixth and eighth weeks of pregnancy. As the weeks pass, the buds become tooth-shaped, and their cells form enamel, dentin, and the other parts of the teeth. The enamel starts to calcify (harden) between the third and sixth months of pregnancy. During this time, it is important for the pregnant woman to eat a diet containing enough calcium, phosphorous, and vitamins. If her diet is inadequate, the baby's teeth may not develop properly.

By the time the baby is born, the crows (the part you see when you look in the mouth) of some primary teeth are almost complete. In fact, a few babies are even born with teeth. According to recent estimates, about one baby out of a hundred is born with a tooth already peeking through the gums. Usually this is a perfectly normal primary tooth that has come in early.

Want to charm away a sprained ankle? According to folkways the way to do it is to put nine knots in a bit of black wool. It's a cure that hasn't a leg to stand on.

MAKE CONSERVATION TILLAGE WORK FOR YOU SEMINAR

The concept of conservation tillage is not new. Growers have been using it for a number of years. As more experience develops with conservation tillage and with more research, management strategies have been developed to deal with some of the problems associated with reduced tillage.

Growers in the Washington County area will have an opportunity to attend a seminar titled "Make Conservation Tillage Work For You." The program will be held on Wednesday, February 15, at 8:00 p.m. The location will be the basement meeting room of the Washington County Courthouse in West Bend.

Speakers for the program will be Tommy Daniel from the University of Wisconsin-Extension, Soil Science Department, and Jerry Doll, Weed Scientist with the University of Wisconsin-Extension, Agronomy Department. The topics to be discussed include:

1. Fertility adjustment with conservation tillage.

2. Effective weed control with conservation tillage.

3. Dollars and cents (economics) of conservation tillage.

4. Effective conservation tillage management.

5. Conservation tillage in Washington County.

Participants in the session will also be able to receive copies of recent research projects, bulletins and other printed materials to assist with their conservation tillage management.

There is no advanced registration or registration charge for this program. Anyone having further questions should contact the Washington County UW-Extension Office.

Activities of Samaritan Auxiliary Benefit Home

Organizational work devoted to service is a vital need in our society. On one hand such service provides the sense of being part of a fellowship involved in meaningful and useful activity. At the same time, a service organization can serve as a mediating agency between individuals in the group and the vast, remote bureaucracies that run the world.

Therefore, if you have asked yourself if your contribution to society is a vital, worthwhile one, the beginning of 1984 is probably a good time to reassess the allocation of personal resources. An organization deserving your attention would be the Samaritan Auxiliary, begun in 1977 by Gen Justl and Danielle Dixon, registered nurses and past employees of the Samaritan Home. The group's work on craft projects now amounts to about 250 hours per month or approximately 3000 hours per year. Their yearly project is a Boutique Sale at which craft items are sold. In 1978, $2500 was donated to the Samaritan's Bus Fund and $500 to the Whirlpool Committee. An EKG machine has also been purchased with profits of craft sales. Since 1979, two thousand dollars has been given yearly to the Samaritan. The Auxiliary in the past year has branched out to some extent, and their work has become wide and varied with some members continuing to do craft and quilting. Others have become involved in one or more of the following activities:

Doing repair and mending for resident clothing.

Working in Sweet Yesterday Shop.

Serving for the monthly Golden Retreat dinners.

Serving at fund raisers, hot lunches, and rummage sales.

Crocheting and sewing infant wear.

Making beds and feeding residents after attending a brief in-service training session.

Making "made to order" articles.

Continuing work begun at the Samaritan in their own homes.

The Samaritan Auxiliary meets every Tuesday morning at the Samaritan Home. A business meeting is held on the second Tuesday of each month at 1:00 p.m. The Samaritan Auxiliary is actively seeking new members and interested women should contact President, Gladys Pirsig, at 675-6110 or the Samaritan Home, 338-4528. Other officers of the organization include Eleanor Krueger, Vice-president; Marion Haebig, Secretary; and Leonida Wiskirchen, Treasurer. The Auxiliary's efforts aim at reducing the taxpayer's burden by helping to support the Samaritan's programs while at the same time making life a little easier and happier for the residents.

4-H NEWS

FIRST YEAR 4-H LEADERS TO ATTEND LUNCHEON

Adults are enrolling in a new 4-H Leaders Workshop being sponsored by the Washington County 4-H Leaders and University of Wisconsin Extension on February 23. They are invited to attend either a noon luncheon or a 6:30 supper.

After the meal, there will be discussion on the role of the adult leader in the 4-H program. First year 4-H Leaders or those who have not attended a similar session in past years are especially invited. Make reservation by February 10 by calling the county 4-H office.

The purpose of 4-H is to educate. It is to help youth gain the knowledge and skills needed for growing up and living in today's world. The 4-H leader provides the experiences which make learning occur. 4-H is child centered. It builds upon the needs and interests of the youth. It is a chance for the youth to try many things and to learn by doing. The leader guides the youth as they explore some of the many projects available to them. The new leaders workshop will include ideas and information on how to keep youth interested with meaningful learning activities. It is also a chance for new leaders to share their ideas with others.

HOLDING THE LINE ON INFLATION

On January 24th the government reported that consumer prices eased up 0.3 percent in December, holding inflation for all of 1983 to 3.8 percent, the lowest rate in eleven years.

Last year's inflation rate compares with a 3.9 percent rise in prices for 1982, and the 1979 recession-high 13.3 percent inflation. The 1983 annual rate is the lowest recorded since 3.4 percent in 1972 (and in 1972 inflation was low due to price controls).

While most goods and services showed only modest increases last year, the Labor Department report showed energy prices down 0.5 percent in 1983. This was the biggest break for consumers, as the decline was the largest drop in that category since 1963. Furthermore, fuel oils, coal and bottled gas dropped a record 9.4 percent for the year. Natural gas prices were up only 5.2 percent, in sharp contrast to 1982's dramatic 25.4 percent climb. Other highlights of the report include:

-Food prices: up 0.3 percent in December, ending the year up 2.7 percent, with prices of both pork and beef lower than a year earlier.

-Clothing and apparel expenses: down 0.1 percent in December, has shown no change at all in the last three months.

-Medical care costs: were up 0.5 percent in December, the most since August. But for the year, medical costs were only 6.4 percent higher, a marked deceleration from the previous double-digit range.

Fortunately, by virtually every major inflation index, the line is being held on cost. This is especially encouraging news for the ever-growing number of Americans on fixed incomes. In addition, we are on the way to sustained growth with low inflation, which means more discretionary income for all working Americans.

Panzer to Attend White House Meeting

State Representative Mary Panzer (R-West Bend) announced Thursday that she will be part of a delegation of Republican women legislators attending a briefing at the White House on February 17, 1984. The Wisconsin delegation will be meeting with President Reagan, Vice President George Bush, and the members of the President's Cabinet: Secretaries Bell, Dole, Heckler, Pierce and Regan.

Representative Panzer noted, "This is an extremely exciting and unique opportunity for me to discuss issues of concern to the constituents of my district as well as the citizens of this state with the President. In particular, I would like to impress upon him the absolute necessity of a strong and equitable farm program coupled with innovative agricultural export measures, as well as women's rights, the status of women, and the amount of money Wisconsin receives from the federal government. Further, in light of President Reagan's strong push for states assuming more responsibility for programs formerly administered by the federal government, I would like to discuss the relationship between the state and federal government."

No taxpayer money will be used to finance this trip.

DO-IT-YOURSELF WILLS

A bill to allow Wisconsin residents to draft their own wills is resting in the Assembly Judiciary Committee, but the authors of the measure are hoping it will soon move to the entire Assembly on its trek to become law.

Wisconsin already allows adults to prepare their own wills, but no specific form is available. Assembly Bill 893 would create such forms — complete with instructions that are understandable to the average person.

The bill was introduced to provide an effective and economical alternative to formal wills or intestacy. Statistics show that, nationwide, almost 68% of parents with minor children have no will. In addition, elderly and low income people have exhibited the need for less costly wills.

The "basic" will is designed to meet the needs of the people who need wills the most — those with minor children or relatively modest estates which are uncomplicated financially.

Under the proposal, anyone over 18 years of age and of sound mind would be able to execute his or her own will.

Letters to the Editor

January 24, 1984

Editor
Kewaskum Statesman
P.O. Box 98
Kewaskum, WI 53040

Dear Editor:

When the 98th Congress returns in January for its second session, it is expected to again consider House Joint Resolution 1, the proposed Equal Rights Amendment.

In the early 1970's, this same amendment received my support when it was before the Wisconsin General Assembly. Additionally, I was a cosponsor of a similar state ERA which passed the Wisconsin legislature but which was defeated in a referendum by Wisconsin voters.

Thus, as the ranking minority member of the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights, I was hoping the hearing record would provide answers to the many unanswered questions which caused the ERA not to be ratified by the requisite number of States. Unfortunately, the extensive testimony of the 42 witnesses, while leaving these questions unanswered, raised new concerns about the impact of the ERA on our society.

Perhaps the most basic unanswered question revolves around the ERA's impact on existing federal and state laws which prohibit taxpayer funds from being used for abortions. Pro-abortion advocates in several states have tried to use almost identical state ERAs as a bootstrap to overturn state prohibitions on taxpayer funds being used for abortions. The state courts in these cases never held the state ERAs do not apply. While witnesses have disagreed as to whether the ERA would overturn these laws, a non-partisan Library of Congress legal memorandum concluded the federal prohibition on taxpayer funds being used for abortion (the so-called Hyde Amendment) would probably fall in a challenge under the ERA if the standard of review for sex classification was the same as the current standard for race classification. When the ERA was considered in the full Judiciary Committee on November 9, 1983, supporters stated that the standard of review for sex and race classification would be the same. A classification amendment to the ERA making it abortion neutral is essential.

A second amendment is also needed to exempt our Armed Services from the effects of the ERA. Both pro and con ERA witnesses testified that the ERA would overturn the present male-only draft and call into question laws and Department of Defense rules or regulations exempting women from service in combat. Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution leaves up to Congress the power to raise and maintain armies. In 1980, Congress expressed its will under Article I when it specifically rejected President Carter's draft registration reform for both men and women. A male-only draft registration was enacted into law. Congress' action was consistent with a 1980 Gallup poll which showed only 21% of the population favors placing women into combat. The ERA should not be used as a back-door method to make women eligible for the draft and place them in combat. Both of these were issues which had a great effect on the ERA not being ratified by the states.

Finally, it should be noted the ERA is not a guaranteed cure against discrimination by sex. First, the ERA only applies where state action is involved, not private discrimination. Additionally, for almost ten years, six states have had provisions in their state constitutions worded similarly to the ERA. One anti-ERA witness presented Census Bureau statistics showing that the state ERAs had no discernable effect in reducing wage discrimination against women as compared to those states without a state ERA. In order to achieve the results the militant feminists want, the ERA would have to be interpreted in a way which would set a precedent in the Constitution for protection from discrimination. When asked, no pro-ERA witness was able to rebut these figures. Since 1980, Census Bureau figures show that the wage "gap" has decreased.

As legislators, our job is to find answers to the questions, to offer amendments and to make appropriate legislative history. I welcome the opportunity to do that when the ERA comes up again. Allowing Congress to work its will by allowing the elected representatives of the people to offer and debate amendments will ensure such a record and will ultimately help passage of an Equal Rights Amendment by the states.

Sincerely,

F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr.
Member of Congress

HEATING WITH WOOD

[Second in a series]

Q. Those TV ads, showing someone splitting wood, sure make it look easy. After an hour of hammering away with the maul, I feel like I'm the one who got mauled, and I don't have much to show for it. Any tips?

A. Went right to the top for this one. I contacted Tom Clark, from Potosi, Missouri, who is a blacksmith and wood splitter supreme.

He was featured on the TV show "That's Incredible" a few weeks ago when he demonstrated his ability by splitting wood faster than a hydraulic splitter.

For openers, Tom uses his own patented maul, which weighs only 4 pounds 12 oz., upon which he maintains a razor sharp edge. It will cut paper even after chopping wood.

He said to swing the maul straight down for power and safety, but hold it in a manner so the blade has about a 30 degree pitch on one side. The blade will not penetrate as far, (it should never go all the way through to the ground), but it will pry the wood apart and transmit a tremendous shock wave down through the wood.

Before you start swinging, however, you must first know where to strike the wood. Tom said that the heart of the wood is the critical point to find. This is the point where the growth rings start. It might be in the middle but is more likely a little off center.

The first swing should be made with only moderate force and should land between the heart and the far edge of the wood. The second swing is made with good power and must strike between the heart and the near side. At this point you should be smiling. If not, reread the above paragraphs. You missed something.

When questioned about chopping blocks, Tom stated, "They are very dangerous and should not be used. If you are trying to strike a piece of wood three feet off the ground, a wild swing could cost you a few toes or worse. I prefer frozen ground for a base," he said, "but if a chopping block must be used, it should be very solid and no more than six inches high for safety."

Is wood easier to split when its green or seasoned?

"Makes little difference," he said. If your wood is delivered in the form of logs or eight foot lengths, it is OK to let it season first, but split it right after cutting it into stove lengths. The wind and sun cause the grain on exposed ends to tighten, making it difficult to penetrate.

Green wood will, however, cure or dry more quickly if it is cut into stove lengths and split as soon as possible.

What's the perfect day for splitting wood? "When its about 25 degrees outside," says Tom. "You're working just hard enough to stay warm and the expanding frozen moisture in the wood makes the wood easier to split."

Do you have question about wood heating? Send it to: Rick Kingsbury, P.O. Box 72, Conklin, Michigan, 49403.

Wrestlers Edged by Raiders, Fourth in Conference Meet

Callison, Harlow Win E-W Titles

The Two Rivers wrestling team, undefeated in the conference, just got by with a 26-20 victory over Kewaskum. The score was tied at 20-20 before the Raiders' Scott Kintopf, wrestling in the unlimited class, broke the tie with a third period pin over KHS' John Swanson.

The 6-0 Raiders had to win three of the final four matches to keep their record clean after the Indians had taken a 17-11 lead although wrestling without two regulars.

Kewaskum soph Carl Steiner at 98 pounds didn't know he was going to wrestle until a half hour before the meet but he gained a 6-5 decision to get his team off to the right start. It was the first varsity meet for Steiner, who weighs just 80 pounds.

There was a double forfeit at 105 as Kewaskum had its wrestler out with illness. If it weren't for this the Indians would have picked up 6 points and could have tied Two Rivers.

The next match was a questionable 10-8 win by Pat Strathman over Kewaskum's Bob Callison, whose record had been 15-1-1.

The Indians' other winners were: Rick Staehler at 126, Brad Dieringer at 145, and Chris Harlow at 185. Staehler ends up with a 4-1 conference record, while Dieringer and Harlow are both 5-1 against league opponents. Dieringer won 7-1 and Harlow 7-2.

The Indians ended the E-W season with a 1-5 mark.

TWO RIVERS 26, KEWASKUM 20
 98 — Carl Steiner dec. Ken Shillcox, 6-5.
 105 — Double forfeit.
 112 — Wade Jepsen pinned by Rick Anschutz, 5:31.
 119 — Bob Callison lost to Pat Strathman, 8-10.
 126 — Rick Staehler dec. Mike LeClair, 4-2.
 132 — Mark Fuller drew with Andy Vogt, 4-4.
 138 — Chris Dieringer was pinned by Jerry Cookle, 1:37.
 145 — Brad Dieringer dec. Tony Aman, 7-1.
 155 — Kirk Vogt was pinned by Mark Ertman, 4:33.
 167 — Doug Miller lost to Tom Jeppson, 2-8.
 185 — Chris Harlow dec. Scott Bast, 7-2.
 Unl — John Swanson was pinned by Scott Kintopf, 4:59.

Kewaskum hosted the Eastern Wisconsin conference wrestling meet Saturday, which started at 10:30 a.m. and continued for nine hours. The meet was won by Two Rivers, which narrowly beat the Indians the week before.

Kewaskum, with one regular out with the flu and another wrestling at half strength, still managed to take fourth place with 119 points and won championships by Bob Callison at 119 pounds and Chris Harlow at 185.

Leading the successful defending champs were Kiel's Wayne Prah, state Class B runnerup at 112 last year, and Plymouth's Barry Mayhew, who won his second title. Pat Strathman of Two Rivers failed to defend as he lost a decision to Kewaskum's Callison in the finals, 13-6. It was Callison's first conference title and 18th win of the year with only two losses.

In the 185-pound match, senior Harlow took advantage of his last opportunity at a conference title by beating Scott Bast of Two Rivers for the second time, 8-5.

The Indians had two other finalists in Mark Fuller at 132 and Brad Dieringer at 145. Fuller was pinned by Dave Larson of Sheboygan Falls in the finals. Dieringer drew unbeaten Kevin Hoerth of Chilton and after the match was delayed because of half of a front tooth being lost by Hoerth and a cut on the head for Dieringer, Hoerth eventually won, 6-3.

Kewaskum got fourths from Wade Jepsen at 112, Tim Landvatter at 138 and John Swanson at unlimited. Jim Erickson placed fifth at 98 and Daryl Landvatter fifth at 126.

Coach John Nell hopes several Indians will advance through Saturday's Class A regional at Waupun.

Gymnasts 2nd in Chilton Invite, Defeat Waupun

The KHS girls gymnastics team placed second in the annual Chilton Invitational and returned home with a trophy.

The Indians ended up with 88.11 points, just five behind Fall River and their defending state champion, Gina Piazza, which totaled 93.69. Valdres copped third, Chilton fourth, Markesan fifth, Southern Door sixth and Columbus seventh.

Sandy Nigh beat Piazza in the uneven bar competition with a 7.9, which ties her school record while Piazza had 7.8. Kewaskum's Wendy Wilson was third at 7.6.

Darlene Luedtke placed second in vaulting with 7.5 while Dolly Swenson placed fourth with 7.05. Wilson and Nigh also placed in floor exercise 2-5 with 7.5 and 7.2.

However, the Indians did not do well on the balance beam where they did not place and this turned out to make the difference in the final standings.

KEWASKUM 96.98, WAUPUN 81.72

The Kewaskum gymnasts established an all-time high team score in beating Waupun Tuesday, 96.98 to 81.72 and in doing so set five records.

Wilson had an outstanding night with five firsts. She set school marks in all-around with 7.94, breaking her own mark of 7.49 and topping teammate Nigh's 7.95 on uneven bars with an exceptional 8.15. In floor exercise and balance beam she posted 8.1 and 7.75.

Nigh took second in all events but vaulting and set a personal high in the all-around of 7.48.

Team records in addition to the total score, came on beam where three Indians totaled 21.65 and in vaulting 22.8.

Freshman Chris Kirchner had third on beam and floor exercise. Luedtke and Swenson placed 2-3 in vaulting.

Chess Team Routs Horicon, Alone in First

The Kewaskum chess team took over sole possession of first place in the SCCA with a 35½-5½ victory over Horicon.

The Indians scored quickly and frequently, scoring on all 8 boards that were completed. The remaining two boards had to be adjudicated because of a 2-hour time limit invoked by Horicon. The results of these two boards will be decided by the league office. Kewaskum holds material leads in both of these games.

Randy Wilhelmi got the team started off with a 13 move mate. Romie Holl also had a quick mate while Jan Eisenmann took considerable more time, her game ended after 17 moves.

Cited by advisor, Roy Peterson, were Jeff Igel and Steve Hubbell for good combinations. Igel at board 2 sacrificed a rook in a mating combination that involved the other rook and knight. Hubbell at board 8 used a queen and knight to spring a two move forced mate.

The team hosted St. John's Military Academy of Delafield Tuesday.

Board 1 — Mike Schmidt (H) (game adjudicated) and Gregg Classey (K) — — — —

Board 2 — Jerry Traugber (H) lost to Jeff Igel (K) 0-9.

Board 3 — Jim Lawson (H) lost to Romie Holl (K) 0-8.

Board 4 — Carl Miskimer (H) lost to Todd Jaromin (K) 0-7.

Board 5 — Mike Yelczyn (H) drew John Martin (K) 3-3.

Board 6 — Doug Miller (H) drew Randy Igel (K) 2½-2½.

Board 7 — Chad Brendemuehl (H) (game adjudicated) and Glenn Classey (K) — — — —

Board 8 — Dan Teal (H) lost to Steve Hubbell (K) 0-3.

Board 9 — Laura Katzman (H) lost to Jan Eisenmann (K) —-2.

Board 10 — Greg Schmidt (H) lost to Randy Wilhelmi (K) 0-1.

Totals: Kewaskum 35½; Horicon 5½.

Eichstedt Baskets In Closing Seconds

Give Lakes Team Win

Kewaskum won a thriller over Thiensville-Mequon here Sunday night as they overcame a five-point deficit in the last minute to win it, 122-120. Clark Eichstedt scored two baskets in the final 13 seconds, the second one a 10-foot bank shot as the buzzer sounded for the victory. A Thiensville player missed a layup just before Eichstedt's winning shot.

Thiensville-Mequon now has a 4-4 record in the "A" Division, while Kewaskum upped their mark to 3-5 in the "B" Division, good for a tie for second place with Port Washington.

Kewaskum started slow and fell behind by 10 points in the opening quarter. The scoring was quite even in the second and third periods before the winners outpointed the Twins by 9 points in the final stanza to nip them by 2 points.

Bill Gonwa took scoring honors for Kewaskum with 30 points. He was followed by Eichstedt with 27 and Leon Laatsch with 22. The Twins were led by Mike Kohlwey with 29, Dave Felton with 26, and Bill Cramer with 22.

Kewaskum's next game is Sunday, Feb. 12, at Kewaskum at 7:30 p.m.

Upset Defending State Champions, Rated No. 1

Indians End Mayville's 36-Game Winning Streak

by John Harju

In an excellent game, the Kewaskum Indians snapped their three game losing string, upsetting the state's number one ranked Class B Mayville Cardinals, 64-62, in overtime Tuesday night in Kewaskum. The victory also broke Mayville's 36 game winning streak.

The Cardinals, defending State Class B champions, lead the Flyway Conference with a 9-0 record and held a perfect 12-0 record before Tuesday night's upset by Kewaskum. They had not lost since dropping a WIAA Class B sectional game to Milwaukee King in March, 1982. They were 24-0 last season in winning the Class B state championship.

Jeff Squier and Brian Ruplinger made one free throw each in the last 21 seconds to win the game for the Indians.

Kewaskum upped its overall record to 9-6.

After leading in the game for most of the first quarter, the Indians found themselves on the short end of the score because of a very patient Mayville team which passed and shot well. The Indians trailed at halftime, 38-30.

Jim Hanrahan, who scored the last eight points for the Indians in the third quarter, brought the Indians back to within one at 51-50.

Brian Arndt scored the first two points of the fourth quarter to give Kewaskum their first lead of the game since the first quarter, 52-51.

Both teams traded baskets for most of the fourth quarter with neither team being able to pull away. Kewaskum had an opportunity to win with eight seconds to play in the fourth quarter and the score tied, 60-60. However, Kewaskum's shot missed. Squier rebounded but was stripped of the ball. At the end of regulation play, the score remained 60-60.

Dennis Butz made a basket on a missed free throw to start the overtime period. Kewaskum now led 62-60. Mayville missed on the other end and then fouled Squier who sank one of two free throws with 21 seconds left to keep Kewaskum ahead, 63-60.

Mayville again failed to score, on the other end and fouled Ruplinger, who made 1 free throw with 6 seconds left, to extend Kewaskum's lead to 64-60. Bart Bushke made a shot for Mayville in the closing seconds, but it was too little, too late, and the Indians tasted victory by a final score of 64-62.

Butz, who collected 11 rebounds, and Hanrahan, who grabbed 6, led the Indians in scoring with 18 and 16 points, respectively. Arndt was next in scoring with 13 points and grabbed 8 rebounds. Squier followed close behind with 12 points. Mayville was paced by Mark Kollmansberger with 18 points. Tim Blair, who dished out 7 assists, and Bushke were next with 13 and 12 points each. In all fairness to Mayville, it should be mentioned that they played without starting guard Craig Gering, who is recovering from an emergency appendectomy.

The Indians were 18 of 22 (82%) from the line in the game while Mayville was 8 of 14 (57%).

The Indian JVs also won their game with the Cardinals, 56-50. Don Menzel and Bob Yahr sparked Kewaskum with 15 and 13 points, respectively.

Edged by Falls In Overtime

By John Harju

The Kewaskum Indians' hopes for a conference championship died last Friday when Chuck Otte sank a shot with 8 seconds to play in overtime to give the Sheboygan Falls Falcons a 65-64 victory over the Indians in Kewaskum despite a 29-point effort by Brian Arndt.

The loss dropped the Indians' conference record to 3-6, and mathematically eliminated them from any chance of a conference title. Sheboygan Falls is now tied for second place in the conference with a 6-3 record.

Kewaskum had two chances to win the game in the fourth quarter on last second shots but failed to convert. The first chance came with eleven seconds left in regulation time, but Jeff Squier missed what would have been a game winning shot. After Falls turned the ball over with one second left, the Indians had their second chance, but this time Jim Hanrahan failed to make a hasty 15 foot jumper, and the score remained 57-57 as the buzzer sounded.

On Kewaskum's first possession in the three minute overtime period, Hanrahan made 1 of 2 free throws to give Kewaskum a one point lead. Falls countered on the other end with a basket by Otte to put them ahead, 59-58.

Both teams traded baskets, with Brian Ruplinger and Arndt adding a basket each while Falls countered with two baskets by John Matzek to put the Falcons ahead, 63-62 with under a minute left.

Kewaskum then turned the ball over to Falls, but Ruplinger was fouled after he stole the ball back. He then proceeded to sink both pressure free throws to put Kewaskum ahead, 64-63.

The Falcons then ran the clock down to 8 seconds before Otte made his eventual winning shot. With eight seconds left, Kewaskum had one last chance. Hanrahan saved a poor inbound pass and passed off to Ruplinger who then put up a rushed shot that missed. Ruplinger's shot was tipped-in but the buzzer had already sounded, and the Indians had lost 65-64.

The game was not always as close as it was in final minutes. At halftime, the Indians were ahead 36-30. The main reason for the Indian advantage was the good play of Arndt who had 16 of his 29 points in the first half. Many of his points came on easy inside baskets fed to him by Squier who chalked up 8 assists in the game.

In the second half, Falls came out in a full-court trapping defense which gave Kewaskum problems, but the Indians kept their lead through continual domination of the boards, led by Dennis Butz who had 13 rebounds in the contest.

Falls' press, however, finally began to work in the fourth quarter and, as a result, Indian turnovers allowed the Falcons to get to within 3 points with four minutes left in the fourth quarter.

Arndt swished two free throws to give Kewaskum a 5 point lead, but the Indians' old problem of fouling the opponents at inopportune times allowed Falls to come back and tie the score with free throws.

Hanrahan, who was Kewaskum's leading scorer coming into the game, followed Arndt in scoring with 12 points. Ruplinger, Squier and Butz were next with 8, 7, and 6 points each. Sheboygan Falls was led by Otte with 16 points with John Matzek, Jeff Schomberg, and Drew Hake following him with 14, 12, and 11 points, respectively.

In JV action, baskets by Todd Wiedmeyer and Tim Rohlinger in the final minute preserved a 58-56 Indian victory over the Falcons. Bob Yahr led the JVs in scoring with 16 points. Rohlinger and Wiedmeyer were next with 15 and 12 points.

The freshmen won their first game of the season, 50-38. Ken Vogt and Rick Krahn led the freshmen in scoring with 9 and 8 points, respectively. Bruce Troeller and Mike Coulter followed them with 7 points.

Rock River League Oldtimers Plan Hall Of Fame Nomination

All members of the Rock River Baseball League Oldtimer's Association will have an opportunity to nominate new members to its Hall of Fame on the 1984 ballot of 25 nominees.

Eleven ballot openings will be decided at the association's Annual Meeting to be held at Dodge Center, Horicon, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 14.

Previously, the organization's officers and directors had selected Hall of Fame nominees at its December meeting, but, due to a snowstorm that day, a majority was not able to attend, and those present decided to place nominations in the hands of all members at the Annual Meeting.

Members then will vote in May to name the ten who will be inducted next September.

Besides the April 14th date, other scheduled '84 Oldtimer activities are the Annual Rock River League Nite on Friday, June 29, with the Milwaukee Brewers vs. California Angels at County Stadium, the outing at a league playoff game in late summer and the 5th Annual Hall of Fame Banquet set for Hustisford's Firemen's Hall on Saturday night, Sept. 22.

The association's 1984 membership drive fires up this month with an activities schedule, membership forms and newsletter in the mail.

Membership is open to all former Rock River League players, managers, umpires and team and league officials and can be gained by contacting one of the Oldtimers' present 246 members or by sending $3.00 to secretary-treasurer Bud Bellon at Horicon, 814 E. Maple St., zip 53032.

Girls Thump Cougars, Lose to Falcons by One

The Kewaskum girls were red hot in their shooting last Tuesday at Campbellsport in a non-conference game and easily defeated the Cougars, 64-42.

The Indians, who hit on 29 of 68 shots from the floor for 42 percent, improved their overall record to 5-9.

The girls, who hit from all over the court were led by Lisa Matenaer and Sandy Secor. Matenaer scored a season high 14 points, all from long range, and Secor tallied 12, also a season high, eight of them in the first quarter as Kewaskum jumped out to an 18-5 lead.

Campbellsport climbed to within nine at the half, 29-20, but Secor scored four straight baskets, followed by buckets by Julie Koepke, Holly Kempf and Matenaer, which increased the Indians' spread to 41-22.

The Cougars had trouble finding the hoop and in handling the ball against a tough Kewaskum defense. The Indians also did well in rebounding with soph Lisa Fusek, Kempf and Koepke each having seven.

The Cougars, who have won only two games this season, were led by Kelly Morgan with 10 points and Jackie Immel had nine.

The Campbellsport JVs won 36-33. Michelle Gebheim and Chris Franzen scored 15 and eight points respectively for Kewaskum. Tania Jaeger paced the winners with 14.

SHEBOYGAN FALLS 49,
KEWASKUM 48

A late rally by the Kewaskum girls fell short by one point of a big upset over Sheboygan Falls at the Falls Thursday night as the Indians were edged, 49-48. The Falcons are co-leaders in the E-W conference with a 6-1 record.

Behind by 10 points with a little more than three minutes remaining, the Indians stormed back to within one but time ran out. Donna Hlavaty came off the bench to score three long baskets during the surge, the final with two seconds remaining. Another shot by Matenaer after a steal fell off the rim at the buzzer.

The Indian girls outscored the Falcons, 16-8, during the final quarter. Kewaskum had lost their first meeting to the Falls at home by 22 points. The girls also played very well defensively.

Linda Hétzel, the conference's leading scorer, had 16 points for the Falcons before fouling out. Kewaskum got a season high 17 points from Koepke, who also snared 13 rebounds (she is second in the conference with 70 rebounds and fifth in scoring with 56 points).

The loss leaves the Indians with a 3-6 E-W record and 5-10 overall.

The JVs won, 46-27, behind the 16-point, 10-rebound performance of Gebheim. The freshmen also won, 41-21, with Lisa Schneider scoring 12.

KEWASKUM — (8-10-14-14-48): Bastian 0-2-4, Fellenz 1-0-0, Fusek 0-2-0, Hlavaty 3-0-0, Matenaer 5-0-3, Kempf 2-2-3, Koepke 8-1-1, Kober 0-0-4, Secor 0-1-2, Yearling 0-2-2. Totals 19-10-19. FTM 6.
