22 Credits Recommended For 1987-88 Graduation

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum High School Graduation Requirements Committee has completed its study and released a report which recommends an increase in credits for graduation to 22 by the 1987-88 school year.

The increase would go from the current 20 credits, to 20½ in 1985-86, 21 in 1986-87, and finally 22 credits by 1987-88.

The committee felt the state recommendations of requiring 24 credits for graduation was unrealistic for some students. The report stated, "to require more than 22 credits for graduation would encourage more students to drop out of school." The committee felt this would place an unnecessary burden on the slower students. The report continued that better students should be encouraged to take more classes and, a study of the 1983 class showed that 49.7% of the students had earned 22 or more credits.

The group's recommendations for required courses were based on studies of surveys conducted including questionnaires completed by parents, teachers and neighboring schools. The committee recommended three credits in English. Both parents and teachers surveyed felt this was adequate. The committee felt two credits in math were sufficient contrary to a nationwide effort to increase credits in this area. Again, better students are taking more than two years of math. It was noted, if math requirements were increased, more lower level math courses would have to be added for slower students. Only 2 out of 32 schools surveyed required more math since they were college preparatory schools.

Because of a lack of space, equipment and science teachers, along with a poor chemical storage area, the committee was not in favor of increasing the science requirements beyond the present two credits. At present, none of the 32 surveyed schools is requiring more science credits.

In the area of social studies, Kewaskum was low in its requirements. Of 32 schools, 25 required more than two years. The Social Studies Department recommended an increase in their area, possibly to 2½

Primary Will Narrow Field To 6 School Board Hopefuls

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

With all the Kewaskum School District polling places open, all the voters will have an opportunity to cast their ballots in the February 21st primary school board election.

Experienced veterans heading up the list of eight candidates are Jean Goeden, who presently serves as Board President, and Tom Brigham, who will be seeking his second term on the board.

Colleen Narbatovics and Norma Serwe, unsuccessful campaigners in last year's election, have again made a bid for a seat on the board.

Newcomers to the field are, Charles "Chuck" Voge, Ronald Beimborn, Kim T. Peterson, and Charles Bindrich. A large voter turnout is expected.

The two candidates receiving the least number of votes will be eliminated from the race, while the remaining six will vie for the three board positions in the April 3 general election.

The hours of voting at the nine election sites are from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Bob Stoltzmann Named Firefighter of the Year at Firemen's Annual Banquet

On Saturday night, February 11, members of the Kewaskum Fire Department held their annual banquet at the fire station and meeting room with a large attendance present.

Retired or honorary members of the department, together with wives and lady friends of the firemen, were guests of honor. Special tribute was paid to William Schaub, 93, the oldest honorary fireman present and his wife Irene.

Following a delicious catered dinner, a program was held. Guest speaker was Father Elroy Pesch, O.F.M. Cap. of Mt. Calvary, who assists at Holy Trinity Church, and is a brother of rescue squad captain Andy Pesch. The remainder of the evening was spent in socializing and dancing to the music of Brian Kluever's Trio.

Each year the department names one of its members as "Firefighter of the Year." This year Second Captain Bob Stoltz-

Two members of the department who retired as active members during the past year,

Prost is Military Academy Nominee

Randall Prost

Randall Prost, a 1984 Campbellsport High School graduate, is a nominee as a competing alternate to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

The announcement was made by U.S. Rep. F. James Sensenbrenner Jr. who said candidates are recommended for their nominations by the 9th Congressional District Academy Nominations Selection Committee, a panel of citizens appointed by Sensenbrenner to review and evaluate applicants for the service academies.

Prost is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Prost of Route 3, Campbellsport.

"I am very pleased to extend this nomination, for Randall is a high caliber individual who is a credit to his family, his school and his community," Sensenbrenner said. "I am confident that he will be a credit to his academy and nation as well."

credits. The increased requirement would depend upon a recommendation concerning when American History was offered in the system, either on a middle school or high school level.

Other recommendations in the report include, dropping health from a required to an elective subject and a re-evaluation of the Computer Literacy course in 1985-86. The committee also felt there was a need for a Curriculum Coordinator, especially with the introduction of new computer classes. The report noted, "state studies show that schools are buying computers because it is the thing to do, but they don't know how to use them." The report said the coordinator could work with schools and departments to improve communications between the various groups.

The committee's final recommendation was the use of competency tests. The members felt students should be competent in the basic skills by the time they are in high school.

At its meeting Monday night, the school board accepted the committee's report and it will be up for further discussion at the April School Board meeting.

The Board also heard and accepted the report of the Competency Based Testing Committee. Their report will be reviewed at the March meeting.

Warm Weather Melts Snow

Temperatures in the 40's most of the past week and in the 50's Tuesday and Wednesday has melted nearly all of the snow covering the ground and brought a halt to winter sports for the time being. We usually don't have this kind of weather until late in March or early April. The only trouble is this is too good to last with half of February and all of March still left.

POST OFFICE HOURS ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The Kewaskum Post Office will be closed for window service on Monday, Feb. 20, Washington's Birthday, a legal holiday. The lobby will remain open for lock box patrons. There will be a dispatch of mail. There will be no rural delivery.

Blood Drive February 29

Mark your calendar now! The community blood drive will be on Wednesday, Feb. 29, at the Kewaskum High School. The time is from 2:30 to 7:30 p.m. We hope this new time schedule will be more convenient for a greater number of people.

We were pleased to see many first time donors last time. Consider bringing a friend. Give them a gift of love. . . introduce them to the good feeling of giving a gift of life. Often times, in our everyday lives we don't see a chance to really make a difference in this world. Here is an opportunity to truly save lives. It is very gratifying to see a caring community like Kewaskum reaching out to the needs of others.

If you have any questions please call 626-4395 or 626-2424.

Sheboygan — Seventy-four full-time students have been named to Lakeland College's Dean's List because they have earned a grade point average of 3.5 or more during the 1983 fall semester.

The list includes: Melissa Koch, sophomore, Kewaskum.

Commendations are being mailed to about 1,000 students at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point who earned high academic grade points during the fall semester that ended in December.

Chancellor Philip R. Marshall said students with grade points from 3.90 to 4.0 (straight A) are designated as scholars of highest honor. High honor citations are going to students with grade points from 3.75 to 3.89, and honor citations will go to students with grade point averages from 3.5 to 3.74.

One-hundred thirteen students in the highest category have received straight A averages.

Approximately 11 percent of the more than 9,000 students at UW-SP qualified for academic recognition.

The list of honor students includes Patricia Beisbier, 1089 Fond du Lac Ave., Kewaskum, high honors, and Kevin Chesak, 480 Knights Ave., Kewaskum, honors.

WAVERLY (IOWA) — One hundred fifty-five Wartburg College students have been named to the Dean's Honor List for the Fall Term, according to the registrar's office here.

The total includes 46 freshmen, 35 sophomores, 34 juniors and 40 seniors.

In order to be named to the Dean's List, a student must have earned a minimum grade point average of 3.5 (on a 4.0 basis, i.e., A=4, B=3, C=2, etc.), must not have taken a Pass/D/No credit option and must have earned credit in at least four courses during the term. Those named to the Dean's Honor List include

.....

Fourteen University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire students have been appointed to editorial staff positions on the Spectator, the UW-EC student newspaper, for the current semester.

Jon Huibregtse, Sheboygan, was chosen as the newspaper's editor. Huibregtse, a junior in journalism and political science, was a Spectator news editor for one semester and also had worked as a staff reporter prior to being named editor. The Spectator's fall semester editorial board made Huibregtse's selection, which was then approved by the Campus Media Board.

Huibregtse chose the remaining members of the 14-member editorial board from 18 applications submitted by UW-EC students. He interviewed all applicants and consulted their references before naming his editorial staff. Each editor will serve a one-semester term.

Included with the members of the Spectator editorial board is John Dettman, Kewaskum, senior, art advertising design, art director.

Each new editor has had previous experience either reporting or doing art work for the Spectator.

Girl Scouts to Observe Birthday, Meeting Tuesday

Nearly three million girls in the United States are Girl Scouts! But, we are not alone in the world. We are all part of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts with members in nearly one hundred countries.

Girls who are members of WAGGS share many things: our history and heritage; a common promise and laws; similar uniforms and trefoil insignia; activities like service projects, camping, singing, crafts, etc.; the World Association Flag; the four World Centers, and a special holiday called Thinking-Thanking Day.

This day is celebrated on February 22, by Girl Scouts around the world. It is the birthday of both Lord Baden-Powell, the founder of the worldwide Scouting movement, and his wife Olave, who was the World Chief Guide until her death in 1977.

The purpose of Thinking-

Thanking Day is for girls to think about their sister Scouts around the world and send messages of international friendship to people in other countries. Troops often do special projects on and around this day to learn more about their world neighbors and take part in ceremonies and celebrations.

Wau-Bun Council also adds another dimension to this day with the idea of saying "THANK YOU" to all the people who have helped make the troop year a success.

On Tuesday, February 21, the Junior and Cadette Girl Scouts will hold a joint meeting at the Labor Center at 4:00 p.m.; to observe this special day. There will be a Friendship candle ceremony done by Troop 17. The guest speakers for this meeting will be the exchange students of Kewaskum. This is planned to help the girls learn about other young people in other parts of the world.

We understand that there won't be school that day but we do hope that as many girls as possible will attend this special meeting. Parents are welcome.

The Girl Scouts of the Kewaskum area would like to say "THANK YOU" to all the people who ordered cookies from them. At this time the count isn't in yet but at the looks of things this was a very good year.

There is going to be a special meeting on Thursday, February 23, from 7:00 - 8:00 p.m. for

ALL PARENTS AND SCOUTS who are thinking about or planning on going to summer camp this year. The meeting will be in West Bend and St. Frances Cabrini Church Hall, 1025 S. 7 Ave. This meeting is set-up so that you can ask questions about camping and also about Scholarships for your daughter.

Dr. Connor Presents Dental Health Seminar to Students

Mrs. Glick's class

Mrs. Moe's second grade

The kindergarten thru third grades and special education classes of Kewaskum Elementary School showed local dentist Dr. Dennis Connor and his wife Carole their shiny and sometimes toothless smiles as they again presented the dental health seminars to the students on February 2.

This year marks the fifth year that Dr. Connor has stressed the importance of good dental hygiene and regular check-ups to the youngsters. "Tooth-brushing with Charlie Brown," a short movie showed the students the proper techniques for brushing their teeth. They were also given the opportunity to sit in his chair and experience the dental office atmosphere without making an official visit to the dentist. Each of the 260 students was given a bag of dental goodies to take home to play dentist with their brothers or sisters.

Many thanks to Dr. and Mrs.

Connor from all the students in kindergarten thru third grades and the special education classes at Kewaskum Elementary School.

Letters to the Editor

February 14, 1984

To the Editor:

Please allow us to express our chagrin over events of the past year where our school board and administration have extracted revenue over and above the general fund budget. This revenue, ($), is paid by us in the form of real property tax by all in the district who own their home or business.

In our opinion, we now have a group of "RUN-AWAY SPENDERS." For example: First they borrow $400,000.00 while they pay off "approximately" $100,000.00 out of surplus budget from 1983-4 budget prior to end of fiscal year and not deduct that amount from 1984-5 budget?, then they approved an increase of $41,000.00 over and above the budget that was approved by the voters at the last annual meeting. This constitutes an increase of approximately $541,000.00 over and above the $2,920,000.00 that was to be our 1984-5 budget!

We suggest that all concerned read their current tax bill and compare it with last year! Then plan for an even greater increase next year as a result of allowing what is described above.

GO VOTE, PLEASE!!! Your husband or wife or grown children also count. It's your only chance! FEB. 21. Primary, be there!

C. Dewane

To: Kewaskum School District,

Taxpayers, are you ready to pay more taxes? You will have to if the "plan" goes through. Here are the easy steps laid out for us:

Plan 1: Bus sixth graders to Middle School. (There isn't room for them in Middle School. When enrollment goes up, and it will in just a few years, we can build on to the Middle School).

Plan 2: Close all three outlying elementary schools. (This includes Farmington, as well as Beechwood and Wayne).

Plan 3: Build one big, new elementary school and bus all elementary children to it. (Then they would all be under one roof. 1984 is here. They would have complete control of all our children).

Or are you ready to stand up and fight?

Sensible 1: Keep sixth graders in the elementary schools. Possibly have ninth graders in Middle School or leave it as is. (Seventh and Eighth in Middle School only).

Sensible 2: Keep all outlying schools open. Enrollment is going up in them. The schools are being utilized. We need more teachers next year in the outlying schools.

Sensible 3: Work together with sensible 1 and 2. Let's not have a few tell us what to do: Some people only want to destroy everything we have built.

A Taxpayer

To the Editor:

My name is Ronald Beimborn. I am a candidate for School Board, live at 16-185 Hwy. S, Adell, and am a self-employed electronic technician.

I am interested in the children's education. I recently toured all the elementary schools and the middle school in the district. I saw how each school is functioning and talked to people in every building.

If I am elected to the school board, I will try to stop the divisions of the people of the Kewaskum School District. A united front of voters is the only way to approach the administrators and the school board with the ideas of the people. And to help the administrators and school board get the priorities in order.

I will weigh each subject by their merits alone, both pro and con, and not be influenced by the position of the person who presents them, I have the ability of not being impressed or overwhelmed by personalities, a person's position, or title. I have been just as at ease speaking with the governor of Wisconsin, or U.S. Senator, or the people next door.

I don't pretend to come before you with all the answers. But, I do have an idea of what a school board member should be. I will do my best, listen to the people, and find the answers to their questions if I am not able to answer them.

Thank You,
Ron Beimborn

To the Editor:

We, the undersigned Town of Wayne Board, support the candidacy of NORMA S. SERWE for the Kewaskum School Board. We believe firmly that each school board member should have a strong commitment to a budget based on justified expenses, as well as to the achievement of academic excellence. Mrs. Serwe is committed to both reasonable budgeting and quality education, and her dedication to these two concerns would serve our district well.

I would like to take this time to thank everyone in the district for their support during my tenure on the Kewaskum School Board.

I have always believed that the tax paying public should be interested in and knowledgeable able of those who aspire to a position on the board. It is very refreshing to be able to recommend someone who meets the criteria necessary to become an excellent board member i.e. intelligence, common sense, fiscal responsibility, a love of education, and last but probably most important, honesty.

Mrs. Norma Serwe possesses all of these attributes, and I highly recommended her election to the Kewaskum School Board.

Thank you again for the privilege of serving you as a board member. See you at the polls on February 21st.

Sincerely,
Dr. Charles Ogi

I am very pleased to see a young citizen and family man decide to run for the school board. Charles Bindrich is the candidate I am referring to. He has the necessary qualifications to become an excellent board member. He is an intelligent, honest, hard working taxpayer.

I highly recommend his election to the Kewaskum school board.

Sincerely,
Dr. Charles Ogi

FACSIMILE BALLOT NOTICE OF SPRING PRIMARY FEBRUARY 21, 1984

OFFICE OF WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK TO THE ELECTORS OF WASHINGTON COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given of a spring primary to be held in the several wards and municipalities in the County of Washington, on the 21st day of February, 1984, at which the officers named below shall be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to or filed in this office, are given under the title of office, each in its proper column, in the sample ballot below.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before being permitted to vote. Where ballots are distributed to electors, the initials of two ballot clerks must appear on the ballot. Upon being permitted to vote, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth or machine and cast his or her ballot. An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

At a nonpartisan primary, the elector shall make a punch in the hole at the right of a candidate's name for each office for whom the elector intends to vote, or, write-in the office and name of the elector's choice on the ballot envelope provided.

The vote should not be cast in any other manner. If the elector spoils a ballot, he or she shall return it to an election official who shall issue another ballot in its place, but not more than three ballots shall be issued to any one elector. If the ballot has not been initiated by two ballot clerks or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in marking his or her ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official ballot is punched, it shall be inserted in the envelope provided so the punches do not show. After casting his or her ballot, the elector shall leave the booth, hand the inspector his or her ballot enclosed in the envelope provided to be placed in the ballot box, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may be assisted by two election officials of different political parties in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to a physical disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. Alternatively, an elector making such declaration may have another elector of the county assist in punching the ballot. The presiding official may assist in punching the ballot. The presiding official may administer an oath to a person making such declaration.

The following is a facsimile of the official ballot:

FARM TRACTOR SAFETY COURSE IN KEWASKUM

Accidents cause more deaths to persons between the ages of 15 and 24 than all other causes combined. On the farm, the major cause of accidents is working with tractors and farm machinery. Most of the accidents happen when the operator does not know how to operate the tractor or machine correctly or is unaware of the dangers involved.

To help reduce accidents, a farm tractor safety course has been started. A federal law says that no youth between 14 and 16 years of age may be hired to operate a tractor on a farm unless he has taken the safety course.

A tractor safety course will be conducted by the High School Vocational Agricultural Departments, MATC, and University of Wisconsin Extension in Washington County. It will be on Saturdays at the Kewaskum High School beginning March 31 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. It is open especially to youth who will be 14 and not over 16 years of age by June. However, if there is room, other youth will be accepted. The federal law requiring the safety course does not apply to youth who will be working on their own farm.

However, the safety course would be a good thing to enroll in even if a youth does not plan to work for others.

The course includes instructions on understanding how to operate a tractor, with the emphasis on safety. To complete the course a member must attend four sessions and then pass a written and a driving exam.

You may get details and information on registration from your High School Vocational Agriculture Instructor, MATC North Campus, or from the University of Wisconsin Extension Office in West Bend, phone 338-4478 or 644-5204.

RIVERSIDE 4-H CLUB

An organizational meeting of the Riverside 4-H Club was held February 8th at 6:30 p.m. The club has been inactive for the past 6 years.

Robert Stodola, 4-H Club Agent, was our guest. He showed slides and explained about the different 4-H projects. He asked each one what they thought 4-H was about. It ended up as a learning thing. Learning more about whatever you're most interested in. Some were interested in photography-some in sewing, etc. Enrollments were filled out and handed in. Mr. Stodola will have the project materials sent out before the next monthly meeting which will be March 6th at 6:30 p.m., at which time we will have election of officers and discuss the year's activities. Mrs. Kathryn Roden has volunteered to be the general leader and Ann Thull and Donna Breuer will assist her.

We are also making Valentines for the people at the Samaritan. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roden after the meeting.

A special thanks to Mr. Stodola for coming to our meeting and getting the club going once again.

Vaughn Brown, Town of Farmington Chairman Dies

Vaughn H. Brown, Town of Farmington Chairman and long-time environmental activist, died Thursday, Feb. 9, at St. Alphonsus Hospital, Port Washington, after suffering a heart attack at his home. He was 73.

Brown moved to Farmington in the late 1960s and quickly established himself as a capable political leader, serving as a catalyst in the fight against the Waubeka Reservoir project.

He was elected town chairman in 1973, serving until heart problems forced him to step down in 1976. Six years later, Brown regained his old post and held it until his death. He was an active member of the Republican Party.

From 1948 to 1959, he owned Brown Electrical Supply in Milwaukee, and took a special interest in repairing electric trains.

He is survived by his wife, Eva; two daughters, Dolores Brown of Riverside, Calif., and Edith (John) Lund of New Berlin; four grandchildren, and other relatives and friends.

Friends characterized Brown as a diligent and conscientious man, one willing to lend an ear to anyone with a concern. All praised his political skills.

In the late 1960s and early 1970s, the Southeastern Wisconsin Regional Planning Commission considered plans to build a dam and large reservoir on the Milwaukee River to prevent flooding downstream. The proposed Waubeka Reservoir, which would have affected the northeastern part of Washington County, was vigorously opposed by Brown and others concerned with the possible loss of farmland.

Brown was also the "driving force" behind Farmington's recent efforts at establishing an area-wide recycling effort.

Brown, of 9315 Camp Awana Road, Fredonia, was born June 24, 1910, in Minneapolis. He married Eva E. Johnson in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on Feb. 18, 1931.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Feb. 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the Myrhum Funeral Home, West Bend. Rev. David Jerger officiated, and burial was Monday at 10 a.m. at St. Martin's Cemetery, Fillmore.

Another very heavy snowfall of about 10 inches, which was the worst in many years and set a record for the season, buried this area on Monday night and Tuesday. The storm, which brought the total snowfall for the season so far to nearly 37 inches, closed schools, put business at a standstill, blocked roads and isolated rural residents, crippled transportation, closed industries and cancelled almost all activities. No longer is the snow on the ground being measured by inches, but by feet and there are still 36 days left until spring.

Official announcement has been made that Random Lake and Pewaukee high schools have joined the Scenic Moraine conference, increasing the number of schools in the loop to eight. Other schools already in the conference are Kewaskum, Campbellsport, North Fond du Lac, Slinger, Germantown and Grafton.

Nancy Fickler was announced as this year's winner of the DAR award at Kewaskum Community High School, which is awarded to a senior class girl each year. The DAR, or Daughters of the American Revolution award, is given to a girl possessing these four qualities: dependability which consists of truthfulness, loyalty and punctuality; service which consists of cooperation, courtesy and civic activities; leadership which consists of personality, self-control and ability to assume responsibility; and patriotism which consists of unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation.

Judy Ann Rahn has been named 1959 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at Kewaskum Community High School. She received the highest score in a 50 minute written examination on home-making knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating senior girls in her school. Her examination paper will be entered in competition with those of other school winners in the state to name the state Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. About 16 Kewaskum senior girls took the test.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Strobel, Campbellsport, on February 9.

While Mrs. Ervin Ramthun, residing just east of this village, teacher of the Joint School District No. 3, of the Towns of Wayne and Theresa, six miles west of Kewaskum on Highway 28, was nearing her school Monday morning, she noticed smoke penetrating through the roof of the school building. Not stopping at the school she drove speedily to the Mrs. Katherine Schmitt home a short distance away and telephoned for aid. The first call for aid was sent to the Theresa Fire Department who refused to respond unless an official of the district school board OK'd the call. Then a call was telephoned to Harry Schaefer, chief of the local fire department, who immediately sent the engine to the scene. The building was completely destroyed, only the brick walls remained standing but the damage to these were to such an extent that they will have to be razed. It was estimated that the loss will reach $5,000. The fire started in the attic presumably caused by a defective chimney. The corner stone of the building has the inscription upon it of Mr. Oppenorth's signature and dated August 14, 1913.

Rumors are about this week that a Lomira man has developed an automobile engine which will produce about 200 horsepower and run a large car on one gallon of gasoline 300 miles. Not much could be learned of the new venture other than the engine is of an entirely new design, weighing only about 50 pounds and contains only three moving parts. Neither could anything be learned of the operating principle of the motor, but it is said that it does away with the back and forth movement of pistons.

Jack Tessar of this village, who served as a member of Co. D of Fond du Lac of the thirty-second division in the world war, was surprised last Saturday to see a picture of himself which appeared in last week Saturday's Wisconsin News. Mr. Tessar was shown beside a machine gun with several other "buddies." Explaining the picture, The Wisconsin News says: "Seeking what little shelter the open terrain afforded members of Co. K. 128th Infantry, Thirty-second division waited for resumption of the advance on the Valpries farm, three kilometers west of Juvigny, on August 29, 1918. The thirty-second division, composed largely of Wisconsin and Michigan men, formed the spearhead of a successful attack on the Juvigny, a key position. On the third day of the battle, a brilliant flanking maneuver enabled capturing of the village and the plateau beyond. Five German divisions were routed."

The Senior Class of the Kewaskum High School is presenting its class play "Treasurer Trove Tavern" Friday and Saturday. Members of the cast include: Earl Kohler, Robert Rosenheimer, Joseph Miller, Fred Klein, Ruth Kohn, Eleanor Hron, Florence Westerman, William Schaefer, Bernice Buddenhagen, Beulah Buddenhagen, Egidius Schoofs, Agnes Borchert, Edna Reysen, John Krautkramer and Edward Hawig.

A Holstein calf with five legs was born on the farm of Richard Hornburg north of Waucousta on Highway 55 last week Monday.

After hanging in the fire for nearly a month, the Lomira village has at last been assured that a malt house will be erected there in spring. Sterr Brothers of Knowles, who have been looking around in various villages and cities for a suitable site, have at last concluded to erect the plant there.

Henry Schmidt of Wayne was very busy this week hauling logs to Jacob Kippenhan & Sons sawmill to be made into lumber for an addition to his barn and other buildings which he will erect next summer.

The marriage of Joe Schladweiler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schladweiler of Farmer, South Dakota, and Miss Annie Schneider, youngest daughter of Chris. Schneider of St. Michaels, took place Tuesday.

Arthur Eichsted and Miss J. Mattsen, both of the Town of Auburn, were married at the Ev. Lutheran St. Lucas parsonage last Tuesday afternoon.

... about your Social Security

By David Becker, Social Security Branch Manager in West Bend
SUPPLEMENTAL SECURITY INCOME MARKS 10TH BIRTHDAY

The federal supplemental security income (SSI) program marked its 10th birthday in January. About 3.9 million people in financial need who are 65 or older, disabled, or blind now receive these gold-colored checks.

The SSI program replaced the old grants-in-aid programs for these people. It established uniform national eligibility requirements and minimum income guarantees.

SSI checks make a difference to people like the elderly couple down the street whose only assets are a small home, a beat-up car, and a small pension. Or the 37-year-old man suffering from severe rheumatoid arthritis and diabetes. And the mentally retarded woman, 25, living with her sister's family.

With benefit increases last July and this January, the maximum federal SSI payment is $314 for an individual and $472 a month for a couple. Most states also supplement the payment. In addition, people getting SSI generally are eligible for Medicaid, social services, and food stamps.

A person is "disabled" for SSI purposes if he or she has a severe impairment expected to prevent all substantial gainful work for at least a year or to result in death. "Blindness" is defined as central visual acuity of 20/2000 or less in the better eye after correction or visual field restriction of 20 degrees or less.

An individual's assets are limited to $1,500 ($2,500 for a couple). Items generally not counted as assets are a person's home, a car worth up to $4,500, personal effects or household goods with total equity value not over $2,000, life insurance policies with a face value up to $1,500, burial plots, and assets needed for achieving self-support.

Also, a person can get SSI only if his or her countable income is less than the maximum SSI payment. "Income" includes money from working, savings, other benefits, the value of food and shelter, and certain other items.

Certain income is not counted such as the first $65 of monthly wages from a job or the first $20 from another benefit. You can find out more about these and other exclusions from any Social Security office.

Many people not now getting SSI checks may be eligible. They include some low-income individuals receiving Social Security checks. If you think you may qualify or know someone who might, contact the nearest Social Security office.

HEATING WITH WOOD

by Rick Kingsbury
 [Third in a series]

Q. I just had my chimney cleaned and while the chimney sweep was here, I mentioned that occasionally smoke would come out of our wood stove for a moment, instead of up the chimney. Then it works OK again. He called it backpuffing. He looked around outside and said the tall trees by the house cause it and that I needed a chimney cap, which of course he sells. Sounds pretty hokey to me! Was he on the level?

A. He may have just solved your problem. The tall trees may, on occasion, deflect the wind down toward the house, which temporarily stifles the draft in your chimney. This often occurs near a hill or woods. The chimney cap will prevent the downward gust of wind from having a clear shot at the open flue.

There are chimney caps made especially for severe cases of backpuffing. Vacu-Stack is a good one. They should be used, however, only in situations where there is a hard constant wind because under normal conditions they might decrease the draft in the flue. Sounds to me like you need a conventional chimney cap.

Do you have a question about wood heating? Send it to: Rick Kingsbury, P.O. Box 72, Conklin, Michigan 49403.

BUYING THE RIGHT FARM COMPUTER

Farming has definitely moved into the computer age. This has been the result of new advances in computer hardware and software.

Hardware is the equipment that you will need to buy including the keyboard, data processing system, TV monitor, printer, and connecting cables and equipment. Software is the instruction packet that allows the computer to function and perform its tasks.

Before buying a computer, there are a number of considerations that should be taken.

Step 1: Know exactly what you want to do. Sit down with a piece of paper and a pencil and decide exactly what you would like to use a computer for, should you decide to buy one. Do you want it for accounting purposes, and how do you want them set up. Indicate all specifications of what you want the computer program to accomplish.

Step 2: Know how much you should spend. If you find a system that does exactly what you want, what sort of financial impact would it have on your business profits? It may not be reasonable to purchase a computer for the benefits that you may receive. The biggest mistake you can make is to buy a system on the basis of its price tag or brand name without knowing if it meets your objectives.

Step 3: Know what software is available. This is by far the most important, as well as the most time consuming step. You will need to shop around and take a look at software available from a number of sources to find the software that will accomplish your objectives. Be sure you shop for software before purchasing hardware.

Step 4: Know what hardware is best suited. Find out what equipment and features are required in a hardware package to enable you to use the software that you have purchased. Look for a dealer that will provide you with adequate service and availability of any repair parts or services.

Step 5: Move slowly. Once you've purchased your equipment, move slowly into your computing process. Take time to understand how to use your system and how to work with the programs. Plan to spend the first three or four months just getting to know your system. You'll be better prepared to deal with problems when they crop up in your applications later.

More farmers will be using computers in the near future. Taking some time to learn about them and purchasing what you need will make them a more useful tool.

Congressman

JIM SENSENBRENNER

Reports

ZABLOCKI MEDICAL CENTER

Recently, the entire Wisconsin congressional delegation introduced a bill to name the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Woods, Wisconsin, in honor of the late Congressman Clement J. Zablocki. Senators William Proxmire and Robert Kasten introduced identical legislation in the Senate.

The bill would rename the Wood facility the "Clement J. Zablocki Veterans Administration Medical Center." The facility would be appropriately named since Zablocki was instrumental in having the hospital approved and built in the 1960s, and later helped found a new domiciliary on the Wood's grounds which was dedicated in 1979.

Zablocki authored the original bills in the 83rd and 84th Congresses that drew attention to the need for a new medical facility. He worked for years with congressional committees and the executive branch to obtain approval. Additionally, Clem was apparently irate when it became evident that the new hospital was being built without full air-conditioning. One of the most told stories about Clem was that he complained to President John F. Kennedy on the dance floor at a White House dinner. Clem told the President that a VA hospital was being built in his District and he could not convince anyone to air-condition it. Shortly thereafter, the funds were approved.

Congressman Zablocki personally worked on a number of other projects over his thirty-four year career because he had a deep respect for our veterans. He realized we live in a world where American soldiers, both past and present, have made great sacrifices so that we can enjoy freedom at home. Naming the facility for Clem is one way to recognize him for all the work he did for our veterans.

SMILE AMERICA

A Healthy Smile Brightens Everyone's Day

Brushing, Flossing Your Child's Teeth

The Washington County Dental Society brings you this article in observance of National Children's Dental Health Month. It is the second in a series of eight on "Going Through Life with a Smile."

If you're a parent, you know that brushing and flossing your child's teeth daily can help your child have healthy teeth and a happy smile. But do you know why?

Inside the mouth, the average person has about eighty different bacteria. Only a few of these bacteria are responsible for dental caries (tooth decay) and periodontal (gum) disease, but that's more than enough to make the incidence of dental disease second only to that of the common cold. These harmful bacteria live in dental plaque, a thin, almost invisible film that constantly forms on our teeth. The sugars and starches in our foods provide food for the bacteria. In turn, the bacteria produce acids and other irritating waste products that attack our teeth and gums.

The idea that the bacteria in people's mouths cause dental disease is comparatively new and was first suggested by Dr. W. D. Miller about 1890. Not everyone believed it at first. The story goes that one dental researcher, wanting to show off his new microscope, told his housekeeper that she—like everyone else—had harmful bacteria on her teeth. She was not convinced. To prove his point, he took a sampler of the plaque on her teeth and let her see the living bacteria under the microscope. The sight so horrified her that the next day she went to the dentist and had all her teeth pulled.

She got rid of dental plaque the hard way. Someone should have told her that she could have a healthier mouth—and teeth—simply by brushing and flossing daily.

Brushing removes plaque from the outside, inside, and chewing surfaces of the teeth. There are a number of effective methods of brushing the teeth.

Here's one that is currently recommended:

Put the heads of the toothbrush beside the teeth, with the bristle tips at a 45 degree angle to the gums. Move the brush back and forth in short strokes, using a gentle scrubbing motion. Brush the outside surfaces of the teeth, the inside surfaces, and then the chewing surfaces. Tilt the brush vertically to clean the inside surfaces of the front teeth. Finally, brush the tongue to freshen your breath.

But brushing alone can't remove all the plaque from the teeth. The teeth should be flossed daily, to clean out plaque that collects under the gumline and between the teeth. If you don't know how to floss, ask your dentist or dental hygienist to show you.

You should start brushing and flossing your children's teeth as soon as most of the primary (first) teeth have appeared, around age 2 to 2½. Because children's teeth are more susceptible to decay than those of adults, they should be brushed after every meal with a fluoride toothpaste and flossed daily. Children who are 6 years old or older should also use a fluoride mouthrinse daily.

When your child is small, you will have to clean the child's teeth yourself. As he or she gets older, you can teach the child how to brush and floss alone. Children do not have the coordination needed to brush their own teeth till age 4 or 5. They cannot floss by themselves until about age 8. Whatever your child's age, set a good example by caring for your own teeth daily.

Most children start out in life with strong, healthy teeth. With a little effort, you can help make sure your child's teeth stay that way.

Classes to Help Communities Extend Life of Landfills

Community leaders can learn how recycling can extend the life of municipal landfills by attending classes offered by University of Wisconsin-Extension on February 27, and March 26.

The February 27 session will outline the recycling options available. The session on March 26 will focus on incineration — a recycling method that recovers energy. The sessions will be presented over UW-Extension's Educational Telephone Network (ETN). Participants will be able to ask questions of the speakers via a two-way telephone hook-up.

"Landfilling is the predominant solid waste disposal method, but it is facing increasing public opposition. Siting new landfills is difficult and expensive," points out Dan Wilson, Washington County UW-Extension agent. "Recycling is a way to extend the life of existing landfills and reduce the need for future landfills."

The "Solid Waste Management Problems" program is aimed at local officials and administrators responsible for solid waste management. Location for the sessions will be in the UW-Extension Office, 515 E. Washington St., West Bend. Each class will meet from 10-11:50 a.m. There is no cost for the classes, but those planning to attend should contact Dan Wilson at 338-4480 to reserve space in the classroom.

Today's Medicine

BLOOD TRANSFUSIONS Restore Life on Demand

By R. G. Edwards, M.D.

In 1931 when I was an intern at Minneapolis General Hospital, our only method to provide blood to save a life was done by the placement of the donor on a cart opposite to the recipient, who was placed on the surgical table. The bodies were placed head to feet so that the opposing arms could allow the doctor, who stood between them, to manipulate the syringe more adequately.

A syringe, 30 cc or 1 oz. size, was used. It had to be coated with a substance so that premature clotting of blood could be prevented. The doctor would draw the blood from the donor's vein, switch the valve so the blood could be pushed into the tubing connected to the recipient's vein. In order to give a patient one pint of blood it was necessary to repeat this procedure 16 times as rapidly as one could work. Alas the procedure was fraught with pitfalls, so that it often required 3-4 hours to administer one pint of blood.

Since those early days, great improvements have been made. Anti-coagulants have been found so that the blood can be stored, ready for instant use for several weeks.

Now the donor sits or lies in comfort for about ½ hour while the nurse or doctor places the needle in the vein, pain free almost, and receives the blood into a glass bottle with preservatives added. This "donated" unit of blood is marked with the donor's blood type, Rh factor and date. It is then stored in the Blood Bank for instant use by anyone in need of this lifesaving medication.

On February 29th, the collection of blood will take place at the Kewaskum High School. Because I needed 7 units of this "magic fluid" for my recent surgery, I know how important it is to receive this blood for instant replacement so that surgery can be done. It is my hope that all my children and grandchildren will offer their blood to replace my 7 units. For replacement, it requires two for one.

I am happy that I donated my blood years ago so that now I can feel that I am receiving a dividend.

All able bodied men and women, ages 18 years to 60 years, should offer their blood on February 29. PLEASE!

Efficiency You Can Feel!

Do you know why the flue on your conventional gas furnace is so hot? Because it's sending up to 450 degrees of heat up the flue and out of your house, that's why! What a waste!

Compare that with the flue temperature of the Lennox Pulse furnace... just a little over 100 degrees. It delivers almost all the heat to your home instead of wasting it up the flue. The flue temperature is so low, the Lennox Pulse furnace can be vented with ordinary plastic PVC pipe instead of an expensive brick chimney.

See us about the Lennox Pulse furnace and quit wasting all those heating dollars up the flue. With a Lennox Pulse furnace you can actually feel the efficiency as it cuts your heating bill up to 42%.

Motion was made by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Howard Laubenstein to adjourn the meeting. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent." The motion was carried unanimously.

Catholic School Week

The theme of Catholic School Week

Parents visited the classrooms

Wednesday was Big Brother, Big Sister Day. Shown are fifth graders helping the second graders

Grandparents were also welcome to visit

Anna Nigh, foreground, explains to the third grade the process of soap making

The students of Holy Trinity Catholic School celebrated Catholic School Week from January 29th through February 4th. The theme, "Beacon of Hope," was evident in many activities.

Father Berghammer gave the report cards to the students on Monday. In the afternoon students worked on posters following the theme. There were two winners chosen from each grade. The judges were parents. A blue and gold ribbon was presented to each winner.

There was an Open House for parents on Tuesday, our dress-up day. Parents enjoyed lunch with their children. We closed the day with the Liturgy celebration.

The eighth graders used their Phy. Ed. skills teaching all the grades on Wednesday morning. Big Brother, Big Sister activity was fun for all the grades in the afternoon.

Thursday was "Grandparents Day." They attended Mass with their grandchildren and later visited the classrooms.

We spent time enjoying the knowledge of resource people and would like to thank them for giving their time and talent.

We closed our school week with Blue and Gold Day. Our church hall was the setting for the presentation of poster winners, honor roll certificates for grades 6, 7 and 8 and an entertaining talent show. A school sing-along was the closing event.

Gymnasts 4th in 'A' Quadrangular, Downed By West Bend West

The Kewaskum gymnasts stepped up to compete against four Class A teams from the Fox River Valley Conference at Sheboygan last Tuesday and the Indian girls finished last in the four-team quadrangular.

The girls, who have had a successful year, did not place first, second or third in any events and had a disappointing night as they were psyched out.

Fond du Lac won with 97.76 while host Sheboygan South was second with 95.74, Manitowoc third with 85.15, and Kewaskum fourth with 83.62. Coach Jane Vesper found the judges inconsistent in comparison to other meets.

The best showing by Kewaskum was a fifth by Sandy Nigh on uneven bars, with 7.85. Soph Darlene Luedtke had the best vault score, a 7.05, while Wendy Wilson topped the Indian team in free exercise with 7.15 and on the beam with 6.3.

At West Bend West Thursday evening, the Spartans came through with their highest gymnastics score of the season to defeat Kewaskum by eight points, 93.825 to 85.425.

West's Sara Hickman took first in every event and added another eight for an all-around average, 8.025. Kellie Carmody and Beth Cook did well on the floor, both in the sevens, to place second and tie for third. Kellie also tied Sara in vaulting.

Holly Nixon and Shelly Heying placed fourth on vaulting and third on beam, respectively. Fourth and fifth bars were won by Beth Wagner and Barb Kluever, showing improvement.

Wendy Wilson was the Indians' best finisher with second places in bars, beam and all-around, plus tie for third on floor. Darlene Luedtke was third on vault and Sandy Nigh third on bars and a close fourth on beam.

Wendy Wilson was the Indians' best finisher with second places in bars, beam and all-around, plus tie for third on floor. Darlene Luedtke was third on vault and Sandy Nigh third on bars and a close fourth on beam.

The West JVs dominated Kewaskum, taking the top three places in each event and even the top five on bars and floor. Kewaskum's highest finisher was Jackie Voge, who tied for third on vault, while Sandi Klein was fourth on beam.

The Kewaskum Lakes team took over undisputed second place in the "B" Division (4-5) with an easy 134-94 victory over Slinger at home Sunday night.

After leading by nine at the half, they put the game on ice with a big 36-19 third quarter. Kewaskum's 81.5% free throw shooting helped.

Six Kewaskum players scored in double figures, led by Leon Laatsch with 29 points and Brian Larsen with 22. Slinger was led by Bob Mertz with 24 and Al Schieve with 18.

The team's next game will be at Port Washington Sunday, Feb. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

Leading New Holstein Easily Beats Indians

By John Harju

The first place New Holstein Huskies easily defeated the visiting Kewaskum Indians, 85-67, Tuesday in a game that was anything but close.

The Huskies, who are now 8-2 in conference, led from the beginning and kept an untouchable lead throughout most of the game which at one point, included a lead of 24 points during the fourth quarter.

The major factor in the outcome of the game would have to be the play of New Holstein's 6-7 center, Dan Wilberscheid. Wilberscheid, who dominated on both sides of the court, scored 33 points, one basket of which was a slam dunk, grabbed 16 rebounds, and blocked 2 shots. Rich Lorenz and Steve Schmitt followed Wilberscheid in scoring with 15 and 14 points for the winners.

The Indians, who are now 3-7 in conference, were led by their leading scorer, Brian Arndt, (12.9 points per game avg.) with 20. Dennis Butz and Jim Hanrahan followed Arndt with 9 and 8 points, respectively.

Arndt had 10 of his 20 points in the first quarter to keep Kewaskum close, but the Huskies pulled ahead in the second period and led at half-time, 37-25.

The second half was much like the first, with New Holstein gradually pulling ahead further by shooting well from the floor. The Indians weren't allowed very many easy baskets, but they did work hard for the ones they got by aggressively driving to the hoop.

The game featured a total of 48 fouls and proved to be a regular "ax fight," with Jeff Squier, Brian Ruplinger, and Tim Leitheiser all fouling out for the Indians.

Kewaskum did get a good effort out of their bench with Tom Herriges and Dan Menzel finishing with 6 points each. Leitheiser had 5 while Mike Steinhardt chipped in two free throws and four rebounds.

The Indian JV's were narrowly defeated, 62-61, in overtime. After trailing for most of the game, the Indians sent the game into overtime on a last second long range shot by Tim Rohlinger, but turnovers in the overtime period lost the game for the JV's. Rohlinger led the JV's with 23 points with Bob Yahr following with 17.

The freshmen also lost in their game, 43-31. Mike Coulter had 14 points, and Jesse Mueller had 8.

All three boys teams will be in action again on Friday night in Plymouth.

Girls Lose 2 More, to Plymouth, New Holstein

By John Harju

The Kewaskum Indians girls' basketball team was again defeated, this time by the conference co-leader Plymouth Panthers, 48-32, last Thursday in Kewaskum.

The Indians, who are now 3-7 in conference play, started out slowly and never really got their game on track. One of Kewaskum's biggest problems in the game was keeping the ball long enough in order to have a chance of scoring. Constant foul trouble and an enormous number of turnovers by the Indians were the main reasons for this.

Although Plymouth didn't play very well offensively either, it was their full-court zone defense which hurt the Indians in the first half. At the midway point, Kewaskum trailed, 24-15.

A combination of sloppy ball handling and bad passing led to an Indian scoring drought with Kewaskum at one point, failing to score for almost 7 minutes of the second half. During this period, Plymouth, with the help of Indian turnovers, ran away with the score and the game and coasted the rest of the way for an easy victory.

Lisa Matenaer and Lisa Fusek led the Indians in scoring with 6 and 5 points each. Debbie Bastian, Dawn Fellenz, and Julie Koepke followed them with 4 points a piece. Sharon Koene led Plymouth in scoring with 14 points.

The Indian JVs were also defeated in their game with the Panthers, 33-24. Michelle Gebheim led the JV's in scoring with 9 points. Tracy Prescott and Cheryl Schladweiler were next with 5 and 4 points each.

After leading at halftime, the freshmen lost a heartbreaker in the final minutes, 42-36.

Kewaskum — (7-6-7-10—32): Bastian 2-0-1, Fellenz 2-0-2, Fusek 2-1-1, Hlavaty 0-0-1, Kempf 0-0-2, Kober 1-0-1, Koepke 2-0-3, Matenaer 3-0-4, Secor 0-3-2, Yearling 0-4-2. Totals: 12-8-19. FTM 8.

Plymouth — (17-7-14-10—48): Koene 6-2-1, Lueck 0-0-1, Krueger 3-2-0, Hanson 2-0-3, Monhof 2-0-1, Burges 1-0-1, Bortz 3-0-3, Weedman 3-2-2, LaBillois 0-0-2. Totals: 21-6-14. FTM 13.

NEW HOLSTEIN 54, KEWASKUM 51

by Denise Leong

The girls' basketball team came back from their Thursday night defeat and played well in an exciting match against the New Holstein Huskies on Tuesday night, February 14, in Kewaskum. The Indians, however, could not pull out a victory in a game that went down to the wire and lost by a score of 54-51.

In the first quarter, after a slow start, the Huskies showed some good shooting and took the lead, 10-6. They continued to shoot well in the second quarter while Kewaskum missed numerous inside shots. The Indians fell behind by as many as 8 points during the quarter. However, as the first half drew to a close, Kewaskum closed the gap with some good outside shooting from Lisa Matenaer and Donna Hlavaty. At halftime, New Holstein led 26-22.

The third quarter started slowly, but New Holstein, led by Nancy Diedrich, rolled off 13 unanswered points. When the Indians finally answered back with baskets by Matenaer, Hlavaty, Brenda Kober, and Lisa Fusek, Kewaskum only trailed by 5 points, 39-34.

Holly Kempf started the fourth quarter with a quick basket. Matenaer added two free throws to make the score 39-38. Strong defense by Kewaskum led to a New Holstein turnover and a field goal by Sandy Secor which gave Kewaskum its first lead of the night, 40-39. The score then seasawed for the rest of the fourth quarter. The Indians were sparked by sharp shooting from Hlavaty, who scored 10 points in the final minutes of the game. With three seconds left on the clock and the score 52-51 in New Holstein's favor, the Indians fouled Amy Anderson in hopes of getting the ball back. Anderson ended the Indians hopes for a victory by sinking 2 free throws. New Holstein scored a total of 20 points from the free throw line while Kewaskum only had 5.

Kewaskum was led in scoring by Lisa Matenaer with 16 points, followed closely by Donna Hlavaty with 14. New Holstein was led by Amy Anderson, who had 13 points.

In JV action, the Indians lost, 54-34. High scorers were Michelle Gebheim with 11 points, and Jenny Hintz with 6.

The freshmen also lost in a close contest, 42-40. Leading Kewaskum scorers were Laurie Blum, who had 18 points.

The girls will play their final game of the season Thursday night in Chilton.

Callison Wins Regional Title, Indians Advance 5 to Sectional

Host Waupun won the team title in the Class A regional wrestling tournament held Saturday with 161 points. Fond du Lac won the runner-up spot with 97½, followed by Hartford 88½, Plymouth 71½, Sheboygan North 70, Sheboygan South and Kewaskum 69½, and New Holstein 26.

Kewaskum qualified five wrestlers for the sectional at Fond du Lac this Saturday and had one champion, Bob Callison, who won the 119-pound title. The Indians also got a second, two thirds and a fourth to qualify for the sectional and Coach John Nell commented that this team did a real nice job.

Callison, 22-2-1, defeated Rick Koppen of Hartford, 16-0, then edged Jason Rortuedt of Plymouth 12-8. Behind much of the way in the finals, Callison used near falls in the last minute to decision Bob Williams of Sheboygan South 11-8.

Chris Harlow took second at 185 to qualify for his third straight sectional. Harlow won 12-2 before losing 13-4 to Scott Priebe (25-1) of South. In the match to decide third place, he pinned Sheboygan North's Tom Gorges and got a default win in the wrestleback over Waupun's Glen Marwitz, reportedly ill.

Brad Dieringer (20-5) lost to Ted Schellinger of Hartford and then lost a heartbreaking 4-3 decision to Waupun's Dan Roeder on a penalty point in the wrestleback.

Wade Jepson (15-8) outlasted Jeff Jordens of Hartford, 16-11, in first round encounter and Tim Landvatter, who did well coming back from an injury, gained thirds.
