Area Business Provides Students With Opportunity for Learning by Doing

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Because of the generosity of Jack Walters & Sons Corporation of Allenton, two Kewaskum High School Building Trades classes will have a chance to put their newly learned skills to actual use.

On behalf of his company, Jim Walters donated, to the school district, enough materials to construct a 40 foot by 40 foot wide, by 14 foot high steel sided pole building. When completed, the value of the building is anticipated to be approximately $10,000.

All labor to construct the building, which will be used by the Athletic and Industrial Arts Departments, will be provided by the 1983-84 Building Trades classes.

Under the instruction of trades teacher David Stradtman and technical assistance of Walters, seventeen first-semester students had the opportunity to lay out the site and assist a Walters crew set poles, place trusses, side nailers, knee braces and purlins. Before the cold weather set in, the class was also able to begin applying siding.

The second-semester class will complete the siding work, put on the roof and develop the building's interior.

Beginning each semester with classroom instruction, Stradtman moves the students to the project where they con-

Board Delays Decision on Cable Rate Hike Request

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Four residents were on hand at Monday night's Kewaskum Village Board public hearing to voice their opposition to a River Bend Cablevision request to hike CATV rates.

After almost an hour's discussion, trustee Howard Laubenstein said it appeared the residents were not opposed to some type of raise, but not as much as River Bend is asking for.

Increases for almost all channel services, plus installation fees are being sought by the company with hikes ranging from $1.00 for FM, to $5.00 for installation. River Bend had hoped to get approval of their request so they could put the proposed increases into effect by May 1st.

Company representatives were told that should the proposed hikes be approved there was a good possibility they would see a loss of customer business, either through complete cancellation of service or a cutback in the number of channels being subscribed to by some customers. Laubenstein noted this did not seem to concern the company.

After closing the hearing, the board moved to table action on the request until its April 2nd meeting, when the subject will again be brought up for discussion.

In other action, the board approved the requests of the Public Works, Water Pollution Control and Parks Departments to advertise for summer part-time employees.

The board also discussed the new five-year Outdoor Recreation Plan for the village's parks.

Authorization was given to village consultants Ruckert & Mielke Corporation to advertise for bids on the construction of the #3 well pumphouse. Bids will be opened on April 20th.

Information Meeting For Wayne Residents On Retirement Campus

The citizens of the Town of Wayne are cordially invited to an informal evening Monday, March 26, at 8 p.m. in the Wayne Elementary School to learn more about the Cedar Lake Home's proposed Havenwood Retirement Campus. Located near Kohlsville in the Town of Wayne, the campus projects serving the elderly in rural village and apartment settings. Many residents have expressed an interest in learning more about the plans before the town advisory referendum on April 3.

A slide presentation, information, and plans for the Havenwood Campus will be shown and discussed. There will be plenty of time for questions and answers.

Cedar Lake Home Campus hopes that the citizens of Wayne will take this opportunity to meet with staff members and to share suggestions in the planning process.

Gas in Kohlsville Families' Wells Causes Contamination

For almost one year the James Graff and James Rahlf families of Kohlsville have been unable to drink the water from their wells because of contamination from gasoline. The DNR has confirmed with laboratory tests that the contamination is from gasoline, not kerosene or septage as some have tried to argue. The two families have been advised by the DNR not to use the water for drinking, cooking or the preparation of food products.

DNR employees told the families that gasoline is a blend of principally benzene, toluene and xylene. According to DNR, the level of benzene in the contaminated wells exceeds the preventive action limit. The families have been told that it is reasonable, under the circumstances, to assume that benzene may approach the level determined for chronic health effects. According to a DNR report there is strong evidence that benzene causes leukemia in humans and that it is most notably toxic to bone marrow. The report also notes that long term exposure to benzene causes abnormalities to blood cells.

Because of the DNR's warning and the health implications, the two families have been forced to carry water from their relatives and neighbors who have good water. The families have described their plight as follows:

"Every time we want to wash we have to heat water. If we want to give our children baths we have to go to a relative's home. When people come over to visit it is quite embarrassing to say they will have to get their glass of water from a bucket.

"As summer approaches we again will not be able to water our gardens or spray our fruit trees. When the time comes to can or freeze our produce we will have to do it away from home because we just can't carry enough water to do the work safely.

"When washing clothes or simply washing out a sink with

A brief history of the Kewaskum Fire Department, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year.

The Kewaskum Fire Department was founded in 1884 as the Kewaskum Fire Company, with Nic Rimmel as the first chief. Later, in 1898, it was reorganized as the Kewaskum Volunteer Fire Company. The first piece of fire equipment was a hand-drawn cart fitted with a hand pump built by Rimmel Manufacturing Company of Kewaskum.

The first motorized fire engine was a Ford "Model T" purchased from the American La France Company.

The rescue squad was organized in 1951.

Today the fire department has a 47-member roster and is equipped with three pumpers, equipment truck, tanker, brush truck, utility van, and two rescue units. They are all housed at the fire station on Fond du Lac Avenue.

The Centennial Committee plans an antique and pre-World War II fire fighting equipment parade on Saturday, July 7, at 2:00 p.m., along with the customary parade on Sunday at 12:00 noon.

The Centennial Committee is also busy printing a booklet with all the history of the Kewaskum Fire Department, which will be available in July.

Jaycee Women Plan to Organize In Kohlsville-Wayne Area

An organizational meeting for the Kohlsville/Wayne Jaycee Women will be held Thursday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. at the Wayne Elementary School.

Jaycee Women is an organization open to all women between the ages of 18-35. The organization teaches leadership skills while allowing the individual to develop a sense of community pride through service.

If you feel concern for the future of your community — and feel you have a responsibility to insure its continued growth, come and see what the Jaycee Women organization has to offer.

Remember, if you don't take the first step — you'll know what your community will be missing.

warm water the fumes are unbelievably awful.

"These inconveniences are small compared to our worry as parents that our children will be seriously affected by the long term exposure to gasoline contaminated water."

The suspected source of the gasoline is a 150 gallon underground storage tank used by the Kohlsville Fire Department whose property is directly south of the Graff and Rahlf residence. Gasoline had been disappearing from the tank on a regular basis until the tank was finally removed on May 18, 1983. Inspection of the tank after its removal showed at least one clearly visible hole.

Because of the contamination of the wells and the discovery of the hole in the tank, the DNR requested that the fire department do additional analysis. Some 97 days after the tank was excavated the fire department contracted with the engineering firm of Warzyn to do that analysis. The families say that they have learned the following regarding the Warzyn study:

"We were informed by the DNR that the Warzyn's report showed that the fire department's gasoline tank was not the source of gasoline in our wells. This was based on the groundwater elevation figures in the report. However, we have more recently been advised that this preliminary conclusion about groundwater flow was in error.

"The DNR has attempted to gather further data to resolve the issue of groundwater flow and well contamination. In their attempt they were prevented from inspecting the wells placed by Warzyn because the locks would not be opened by a fire department official. The DNR obtained an inspection warrant to do the testing, but the official still refused to unlock the monitoring wells. So far, the question of gaining access to the wells has not been resolved. We have tried to work with the fire department on this matter but, so far, we have been unsuccessful. We don't understand how a public body which was set up to protect human life and the welfare of the community can resist giving the information that is necessary to determine the source of the gasoline in our wells. We ask only that the information be provided and that we have the opportunity to protect ourselves from whatever contamination is reaching our wells. We feel we have a right to this, not only for ourselves, but for our children. DNR has told us that, in their view, there is a high potential for additional wells in the area to become contaminated in the future. Thus, many of our neighbors share our anxiety, too. We would like nothing better than a quick and quiet resolution of this matter, but we feel that we had to explain to the community the real nature of our situation and the reason we are so worried about our children's health."

tinue the learning process through practical application of the various trade skills learned in theory. The project is an excellent learning experience for the students since some will go on to work in some area of the building trades profession after graduation.

Walters noted one reason his firm had donated the materials was that they have hired Kewaskum graduates in the past and, providing such a project benefits not only the students, but the Walters Corporation in looking to the district for future employees.

Jack Walters & Sons has been in the building business for over 25 years, specializing in pole buildings. They prefer to have local people manufacture and erect their buildings, giving their employees additional on the job training and the chance for advancement within the company.

In the last six years, the Building Trades classes have worked on several other "hands-on" projects including a floor truss system for the Industrial Arts area, flammable liquids storage room (required by the state), remodeled the Art Room, District Administration offices, and Band Room, along with building seven practice rooms, storage rooms in the old gym, storage bins for the wrestling department and an air lock for Farmington Elementary School. While all these projects provided students with practical experience, it also saved the district taxpayers thousands of dollars which did not have to be paid to outside contractors.

Local Vocational Coordinator Roy Esser noted he wanted to publicly thank Jack Walters & Sons for not only giving students the opportunity to gain actual construction experience, but for a building which will provide badly needed storage space which, because of today's economic times, may not have been available to the high school for several more years.

Indian Booster Club Basketball Classic Saturday

The time is here at last and you don't want to miss it! Our 2nd Annual Basketball Classic will happen this Saturday at 6:00 p.m. in the Kewaskum High School Gym. Five, count them, five, fire departments — Beechwood, Boltonville, Fillmore, Kewaskum, Kohlsville—Kewaskum Jaycees, Wayne, Jaycees, and Kewaskum Faculty. All these fine and fit fellows will delight you with their prowess on the basketball court. I can hardly wait! Can you?

To add to the entertainment the Indian Princess Twirlers will be there, as well as the Rope Skippers extra-ordinaire. For those of you that witnessed this superior display last year, you know what a treat you've in store. If you missed it last year, don't be the only one to miss it this year. At $1.00 per ticket with door prizes included, you can't afford to miss this spectacular evening.

Now we pause for a commercial. Last year our Classic was so successful that the Booster Club was able to support the extra-curricular activities at Kewaskum High School in the style we would like to continue in the future. We've been able to help the Swing Choir with new outfits; the Track Team with a sprint trainer and pole vault aid, plus a new display board for meter records; the entire athletic department with new warm-up suits that will be used by all the teams in all seasons and sports; and our annual scholarship, plus this year we have added a second scholarship. All of these items were made possible by the support you have shown the Booster Club throughout the year, but most especially at the Basketball Classic.

So be one of our supporters, in fact, don't be the only one in your neighborhood to miss this gala night—four rousing contests on the basketball court, door prizes to delight one and all, entertainment between games to thrill everyone, and your chance to support our kids in all their extra-curricular activities. ## Kettle Riders Establish Memorial Scholarship

Statesman Staff Writer

Members of the New Fane Kettle Riders Snowmobile Club have established a scholarship in memory of James Aupperle, a club member, who died last January from injuries received in a snowmobile accident.

Aupperle was a 1979 graduate of Kewaskum High School and participated in the agriculture program. He worked on various area farms and at the time of his death, he was employed by the Martin Haack Farms.

Farming was more than just a job for Jim. He enjoyed working the land. Because of that, the Kettle Riders have set up a $100.00 Agriculture scholarship which will be awarded annually to a graduating senior or one-year post graduate student from the ag program.

Applications for the James Aupperle Memorial Scholarship, sponsored by the New Fane Kettle Riders Snowmobile Club, will be available at the high school. Deadline for returning applications is April 30th.

FFA Week Here a Success

The week of Feb. 19-25, was designated as National FFA Week in 1984, at which time the Kewaskum FFA continued a high level of participation as in past years. Contained in this article are the week's respective activities and winners.

On Sunday, some thirty kids boarded a bus and left for an Admiral's hockey game, which ended in a victory of 8 to 4 over the Flint Generals.

Monday started a four day trivia contest that was won by Jeff Diels. FFA Members also showed their spirit by wearing ag related buttons throughout the day.

Bev Schulz, Patsy Panzer, and Jon Etta took part in a speaking contest at Hustisford, on Tuesday. Bev placed first in creed speaking and will advance to Sectionals, March 21. Patsy placed second in prepared, and Jon also took second in extemporaneous. Along with the speaking contest was a seed and ball of string guess which Scott Amerling and Ray Langhoff won.

An excellent "Teacher's Tea" was set up Wednesday afternoon. Over 40 teachers and other school staff participated in dairy judging contests, and the judging of the members humorous and serious photo contest. Afterwards, they were treated to an assortment of foods, varying between smoked fish and root-beer floats. The winning teachers for the dairy judging contest were both Mr. Lickel and Ms. Freriks, with scores of 182 out of 200. The faculty picked Dan Mueller to win the serious photo and Doug Enright for the humorous photo.

Thursday's second annual Ag Olympics was the climax of the week. Events consisting of an egg toss, a truck pull, a ball throw, and an eating contest.

The team of Jeff McChain, Mike Arndt, and Scott Amerling took honors. Doughnuts along with chocolate milk, donated by Marigold Foods, was given out to ag classes during the day.

Friday was capped off with an FFA jacket day and an official 3:00 o'clock meeting at which all winners were given a $3.00 gift certificate from Homeplate restaurant.

The largest diamond ever found was the 1 1/2 pound Cullinan diamond, unearthed in South Africa in 1905.

These last few years have been some of the toughest ever for dairy farmers, and the true test of our farm commitment is coming through right now, when we're really needed.

At Valley Banks, we're working closely with our farm customers, fitting together the pieces of financial farm management, tailoring lines of credit and loan options to livestock and machinery purchases, to barn and milking parlor improvements, to feed, seed, and fertilizer for spring planting.

Like the proverbial mailman, neither rain nor snow could keep the Chicago Bridge and Iron crew from their duties Thursday. But wind, that might have been a whole new ballgame as work continued high atop Kewaskum's new water-tower.

If the weather cooperates, the men will put the finishing touches on the project this week.

Last week, spectators stopped along Hwy. 45, to watch the massive side sections of the sphere being hoisted into the air and carried to the pedestal base. While dozens of people stopped to watch the activity, there were no hearty souls willing to trade places with the workers who went about their business as they were standing on "good ol' terra firma."

Just a short distance away, the new clarifier covers at the sewage treatment plant looked like two watertowers which had been swallowed up by the ground.

Two letters not on any ordinary phone dial are "Q" and "Z".

NEARSIGHTEDNESS [Contd]

To focus on nearby objects, eye muscles must elongate the eyeball to increase lens curvature. In nearsightedness, this increased convexity becomes permanent because of increased fluid pressure in the eye. Dr. Lane theorizes that if this fluid pressure could be regulated by eliminating sugar in the diet and easing of visual and muscular eye strain, then nearsightedness might be halted and hopefully corrected. Dr. Lane suggests, "Give up sugar - boost your intake of calcium and chromium foods such as dairy products, ocean fish, dark green leafy vegetables, and whole grains."

Welders work to attach the second section of the sphere.

Section three off the ground and going up.

Any wind would have delayed the installation of these massive steel panels which had to be hoisted over 100 feet to the pedestal base.

The sphere is complete except for the top panels which were expected to go in place this week.

Letters to the Editor

To the Voters:

After reading Mrs. Goeden's self-serving letter in a recent issue of the Statesman and the West Bend News, citing the accomplishments of the Board of Education this past year, I feel compelled to answer.

First of all, a program of employee evaluation did not begin this year. This has been in effect in some form for several years.

Secondly, the realization of computers in the schools came about principally as the result of a citizens' committee appointed by former President, Dr. Charles Ogi, and chaired by School Board candidate, Norma Serwe.

Thirdly, the curriculum updates are due to the work of Kewaskum's excellent faculty and citizen committees; the Board has done very little, if any, work on the actual coordinating and updating of the curriculum.

Finally, Mrs. Goeden is working together. However, the press has gone overboard to convince the public that dissension reigns supreme. Whom are we to believe?

Please, Mrs. Goeden, let us NOT take credit where credit is NOT due.

Unconvinced And Unimpressed

Editor, the Statesman:

I am a penny-pincher. I do a lot of comparative shopping and watch for sales, discounts, or specials. I try to make my money stretch as far as possible by getting the most value for the lowest price. I know that the cheapest is not always going to be the most cost efficient in the long run. With the large bite taxes take out of our income these days, these measures are more important than ever.

And because I do care about how my money is spent, I feel I must congratulate the Kewaskum School Board for their apparent turn around in the recent months. It seems that for the most part they are spending our tax dollars wisely, on things that directly affect the education of our students. I am pleased to see them update antiquated equipment, provide some of the new technology the kids will need to compete in a mechanized world, update our curriculum, and provide somewhat for the future of this district. I'm glad to see them seeking matching government funds, thereby providing for the district's needs more cheaply. All this with barely any increase in our school taxes. Some people have even reported a decrease in the last year. To accomplish this in runaway inflationary times, is most commendable.

I also commend the Board for taking the bull by the horns in providing much needed repairs to our buildings. Surely, they knew that borrowing $400,000 was not going to endear them to the taxpayer public, but they refused to pass the buck any longer. They realized that the huge investment we have in our buildings was not being properly taken care of and that the problems would not go away — just get bigger and more expensive. They finally seem to have subscribed to the "You can pay me now, or you can pay me later" philosophy, realizing that later usually means bigger and more expensive repairs. As Disraeli once said, "There is no economy where there is no efficiency." Our Board now seems to understand this and are trying through efficient planning to make sure this type of thing doesn't occur in the future.

The new blood and the new attitude by some of the old blood on the Board seem to be genuinely trying to make up for past indiscretions, while always having the district's best interest and over-burdened tax dollars at heart. There seem to be more of a cohesive effort on their parts to work together, with a lot less infighting. I think we as voters have a good opportunity to help the Board continue this new positive attitude. For this reason, I'm going to vote for Jeanne Goeden and Kim Peterson on April 3rd, as I feel both embody this new spirit and will represent the best value of our tax dollars.

Appreciate the effort,
C.M. Connor

Dear Kewaskum School
District Voters:

I have chosen to run again as a candidate for our school board because I believe in guaranteeing quality education for our children at a justifiable cost. I want our children to have the best education possible. . . an education that will make them competitive in the job market today and tomorrow.

There are several projects and programs that this district has been involved in over the past few years that I would like to see continued, completed, and monitored. For example:

1. We have a major maintenance program underway with roof repairs; we also have several projects for energy conservation in the works.

2. We are in the process of developing a competency based testing program utilizing the DPI standardized tests.

3. We are in the constant process of upgrading our curriculum guide for all grades K-12.

4. We are involved in the process of upgrading our graduation requirements.

5. We have developed an effective tool for administrator, faculty, and support staff evaluation.

6. We have reorganized our maintenance department to be consistent with the needs of our district.

7. Our administrators and faculty have worked very hard to improve the discipline within our schools - a discipline which is continuous.

8. We have expended a considerable amount of money for our computers and have initiated courses in this discipline.

9. We presently have a committee studying the extra-curricular programs for possible additions or changes.

Yes, like everyone, I want our children to get the basic 3 R's . . . but I want more. I want our young people to be second to none in educational opportunities for growth and maturity. Kewaskum has a top-notch administration, superior faculty, and excellent support staff, all dedicated to education - the education of our children.

The responsibility of teaching reading, writing and arithmetic, of teaching discipline, decision-making, analysis and mental toughness does not only belong to the classroom teacher. It is a total team responsibility, which includes the student, parent, teacher, support staff, administrators, and school board members . . . I want to continue to be part of that total team effort. That is why I have declared my candidacy again for our school board, and would appreciate your vote on April 3. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Tom Brigham

To: The Voters of the Kewaskum School District

Many of you have heard about competency based testing. Kewaskum became a member of the Wisconsin pilot program last fall. This means Kewaskum will have input as to the final make-up of the competency tests given throughout the state.

This is a beginning to encourage students to achieve minimum skills in Math and English in order to graduate from high school. The taxpayer has every right to expect a student to perform adequately in Math and English after 12 years in the school system.

It is my hope, that as board members, we can continue to upgrade the quality of students skills. With improvements in the curriculum, the competency testing, we are well on our way to that goal!

Don't forget to vote on Tuesday April 3rd. I'll see you there!

TO THE EDITOR:

A refreshing change in our educational system has occurred in recent months. One aspect is the recognition of the need for long-range financial planning indicated by voter approval of a $400,000 loan for improvements.

Quality education, hopefully, will continue to develop in this positive direction. Unfortunately, unbalanced student/teacher ratio creates poor learning conditions. This, in addition to lack of career incentives, often leads to high personnel turnover.

Programs suffer because of lack of financial support. If elected, I will work closely with every aspect of our educational system to ensure the cohesive system so needed to get the job done.

I ask for your support in the coming election on April 3, 1984.

Sincerely,

Kim T. Peterson

Dear Editor:

Big Brothers & Sisters of Washington County wants to publicly thank the Kewaskum United Way for their allocation in 1984, to our agency. We are very glad for the support we get from the community of Kewaskum. We feel this particular area is being most supportive.

We hope to better support the area and would like to remind the people in and around Kewaskum, that we have a number of children waiting to be matched. We are basically looking for adults that are willing to spend some of their time with single parent children. The commitment is at least a year and we ask for you to spend 3 or so hours per week with the child. Please call the office, located in West Bend, if you have any questions.

Thanks again for your support.

25 Years Ago

March 20, 1959

This area and the entire southern and central portion of Wisconsin were virtually paralyzed by the severe blizzard which battered the state over the weekend. The heavy new fall of drifting snow, swept by 35 to 45 mile an hour winds, stranded four passenger trains, blocked highways, tied up traffic to an almost complete standstill, marooned hundreds of persons, isolated entire cities and reduced visibility to zero. The snowfall of 6 to 7 inches was not the heaviest of the winter but was the worst in years from the standpoint of snarling transportation and paralyzing this area. Because of the high winds, county plows were recalled from the highways Sunday morning until the storm abated. By the time the wind died down the storm had a stranglehold on the entire county.

A Healthy Smile Brightens Everyone's Day

ORTHODONTIC TREATMENT

The Washington County Dental Society brings you this article in observance of National Children's Dental Health Month. It is the seventh in a series of eight on "Going Through Life with a Smile."

With today's emphasis on looking attractive, it's hardly surprising that one out of every five persons wearing braces is an adult. Recent estimates indicate that over 880,000 adults are currently having "malocclusions" — problems with the way the teeth fit together — corrected by their dentists.

Malocclusions are corrected by the use of orthodontic treatment. Orthodontics is the specialized area of dentistry that involves the diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of dental and facial irregularities.

If not treated, malocclusions can be harmful to dental health as well as personal appearance. That's why dentists sometimes advise their adult patients to have orthodontic treatment. In some cases, the position of the teeth should be improved before the dentist restores damaged teeth. In others, improving the position of the teeth will make it easier to clean them, which is crucial to the treatment of periodontal or gum disease.

Dentists can use a variety of appliances to straighten people's teeth. Some appliances are removable; others are not. All appliances put gentle pressure on the teeth and jaws, causing them to move or stabilize in a particular position.

Fixed appliances, commonly called braces, are often used to correct malocclusions. They may be attached to the teeth in a number of different ways. Metal bands that include brackets may be cemented around the teeth, or metal or plastic brackets may be bonded directly onto the teeth. Each bracket is then connected to the next by means of an archwire. Through treatment, pressure is applied to the teeth by adjusting these wires.

If you are concerned about orthodontic treatment, tell your dentist. It may be possible to use a removable appliance to correct your problem. In some cases, braces can be attached to the inside of the dental arch instead of the outside surfaces of the teeth. This makes them less noticeable.

At the beginning of orthodontic treatment, the dentist examines the patient's teeth and mouth and reviews the dental and medical history. Then various studies are made to help diagnose the patient's problem and to arrive at the best treatment plan. These studies may include growth evaluations, facial measurements, photographs, plaster study models, and x-ray pictures of the head, jaws, and teeth.

During orthodontic treatment, it is necessary to visit the dentist regularly, usually every three to six weeks. The treatment time for each patient must be judged individually, but as a rule, treatment lasts about two years. To some people, that seems a long time. But look at it this way: you and your teeth are going to be around a lot longer than two years. Why not go through life with straight teeth and a happy smile?

April 3, 1984

Notice is hereby given of a third day election to be held in and for the Village of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, on the third day of April, 1984 at which the officers named below shall be chosen.

INFORMATION TO ELECTORS

- The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of electors:
- Upon entering the polling place, an elector shall give his or her name and address before receiving the ballot card and ballot card envelope from the ballot clerk. The initials of 2 ballot clerks must appear on the ballot card envelope. Upon receiving the ballot card and ballot card envelope, the elector shall retire alone to a voting booth and punch/mark his or her ballot card and ballot card envelope. A ballot clerk may inform the elector of the proper manner for punching/marking a ballot card and ballot card envelope, but he or she shall not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.
  - To vote for a person whose name is printed on the ballot, insert your ballot with both hands, be sure the pins are through the two holes, hold the punching device straight up and down, press down firmly opposite the candidate and/or proposition selections of your choice.
  - Write-in voting. To vote for a candidate whose name does not appear on the printed ballot, use the ballot card envelope to "write-in" the office and candidate's name.
  - The ballot card and ballot card envelope should not be punched/marked in any other manner. If you incorrectly punch/mark, tear, or deface the ballot card or ballot card envelope, return it to the election judge for another one, but not more than 3 ballot cards or ballot card envelopes shall be issued to any one elector. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in punching or marking his or her ballot card or ballot card envelope may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot card or ballot card envelope is punched/marked.
  - After the official ballot card or ballot card envelope is punched or marked, remove your ballot card, place it in the ballot card envelope and take it to the inspector at the ballot box, hand him or her the ballot card envelope with the ballot card placed inside, to be placed in the ballot box, and leave the polling place promptly.
  - An elector may be assisted by 2 election officials of different political parties in punching or marking the ballot if he or she declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read or that due to physical disability he or she is unable to punch or mark his or her ballot. If an elector declares that he or she is visually handicapped, he or she may have anyone assist him or her in punching or marking his or her ballot card or ballot card envelope. The presiding official may administer an oath to a person's disability.
  - Any qualified elector who is absent, or expects to be absent from the village in which he or she is a qualified elector, or who, because of sickness or physical disability cannot appear at the polling place on election day, may vote at such election by means of an absentee voter's ballot card or ballot card envelope to be secured upon application to the Village Clerk, not more than sixty days and no less than three days, or by personal application, not later than the close of office hours on the day prior to such election.
  - The following is a sample of the official ballot:

Minutes of Village Board Meeting

Regular Meeting
March 5, 1984
8:00 P.M.

The Village Board of Kewaskum, Washington County, Wisconsin, met in regular session in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

President Gerald F. Stollenwerk presided. All Trustee Members were present.

On a motion by Trustee Richard Schmidt, seconded by Trustee Donald Mlodzik and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the minutes of February 20, 1984.

Superintendent of Public Works, Augie Bilgo, informed the Board that the water tower is progressing in a timely manner.

Administrator Daniel Schmidt passed out February 29, 1984 balance sheets for the Board to review.

On a motion by Trustee David Nigh, seconded by Trustee Paul Blumer and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board granted the Robert G. Romaine Legion Post No. 384 a second one year special exemption in part as requested February 15, 1983. The Legion was granted a waiver on the mobile container weekly fee to the garbage can or bag monthly fee for 1984, after which time the Legion may be able to negotiate with the nutrition program to pick up the cost, if not they may submit another request, again asking for the exemption. It was noted that the exemption granted was primarily due to the nutrition program and the senior citizens.

On a motion by Trustee Paul Blumer, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the payment of bills as recommended by the Administrative Committee. The total of all claims as recommended are as follows:

|-------------------|------------------|
| Village Gen. Fund | $128,598.06     |
| Water Dept. Fund  | 4,406.01         |
| Sewage Dept. Fund | 8,195.63         |
| TID Fund          | 10,715.70 |
|                   | $151,915.40     |

Trustee Donald Mlodzik, Chairman of the Public Works Committee, informed the Board that the Committee authorized Superintendent Augie Bilgo and Administrator Daniel Schmidt to have the swimming pond cleaned by Power Vac of Milwaukee at an estimated cost of $729 as a result of the Public Works Committee Meeting of February 27, 1984.

Trustee Richard Schmidt, Chairman of the Park and Recreation Committee, reminded the Board of the scheduled Committee meeting for March 19, 1984, at 7:00 p.m.

Trustee Mary Krueger, the Library Board Representative, reported that the library currently maintains 18,317 books, plus an additional 900 uncataloged books. For 1983 the library added 300 new books and 6 volumes. Also for the year of 1983, a total of 12,090 books were checked out by card holders.

On a motion by Trustee David Nigh, seconded by Trustee Richard Schmidt and carried by the majority, with Trustee Paul Blumer abstaining, the Board accepted the low bid from Honeck Chevrolet, for $23,000, for the garbage truck chassis using the diesel engine, because of the anticipated fuel savings and life of the vehicle. The hopper box is to be transferred by A - 1 Service of Germantown at a cost of $950 and scheduled by the Village. This coincided with the recommendation of the Public Works Committee.

President Gerald Stollenwerk informed the Board that the closing was held on the Mill property earlier in the evening.

On a motion by Trustee Donald Mlodzik, seconded by Trustee Mary Krueger and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board lifted the winter parking restrictions, to begin immediately.

Ordinance No. 84-2 was reviewed and action was taken.

An election official may inform the elector of the proper manner for casting a vote, but the official may not in any manner advise or indicate for whom to vote.

At a nonpartisan or special partisan election, the elector shall make a punch in the hole at the right of the candidate's name for each office for whom the elector intends to vote, or elector shall place a cross in the square at the right of or depress the button or lever next to the candidate's name for each office for whom he or she intends to vote, or, write in the office and name of the elector's choice on the ballot envelope or space provided.

On referenda question, the elector shall make a punch in the hole to the right of the answer he or she intends to give, or make a cross in the square at the right of or depress the button or lever next to the answer which he or she intends to give.

Dwight York, 44, of Lomira has announced that he is a Republican candidate for the 59th Assembly District. York is a partner in the real estate firm of Grantman and Luedtke; previously he served as Superintendent of Schools in Lomira. He has been active in the community, serving on the boards of the Moraine Park Technical Institute, Wisconsin School District Administrators, United Methodist Church, Lomira Library, and Lomira Lions Club. He is currently a member of the Legislative Committee of the Wisconsin Realtors Association and the Dodge County Farm Bureau.

York stated that he feels that he has the background and experience to represent the district in the Assembly in a very constructive and effective way. He also said, "I feel the state of Wisconsin is now facing a critical time. I believe we must make changes to insure lower taxes, stimulate economic development, create jobs, and control spending. I am a fiscal conservative in a time when I feel it is imperative that we are represented in Madison by one. I feel I have the background and ability to provide strong leadership and to effectively speak out to represent this area in the Assembly."

York is married and has two children; his wife Barbara teaches at Kewaskum High School. Esther Luckhardt recently announced her intention to not seek reelection after serving for 22 years in the Assembly.

The 59th Assembly district is composed of the cities of Hartford, Mayville, and Horicon; the village of Campbellsport, Lomira, Brownsville, Kekoskee, Iron Ridge, Neosho, Slinger, Theresa and Kewaskum; and the towns of Ashford, Lomira, Williamstown, Hubbard, Herman, Theresa, Wayne, Kewaskum, Addison, Hartford, Erin, Ashippun and Rubicon.

CLARENCE A. SCHWARTZ, SHERIFF

BULLETIN

Food Commodity Distribution Program

The Food Commodity Distribution Program was designed to provide needy Washington County families with surplus butter, cheese, and other food items. Unfortunately, when programs like this one are initiated, some people insist on trying to get more than their fair share.

Washington County Sheriff Clarence Schwartz has sent warning letters to thirty county residents who tried to do just that. Programs rules clearly restrict food allocations to one per household. Some people, using a variety of techniques, were able to obtain more food than they were entitled to.

"One resident was able to receive 30 pounds of processed cheese and 15 pounds of butter during the last distribution. That is not "need" . . . that's nothing but greed!" the Sheriff commented.

The next distribution will take place on Saturday, March 24. "We have advised the distribution center volunteer to be on the lookout for this activity. The Department of Social Services is also cooperating. The people who cheated have received letters warning them to abide by the rules, and if further violations take place, they face action from the District Attorney," Schwartz said.

"This is an excellent program to help our friends and neighbors who are going through some tough times. It is a program that can help people yet preserve their dignity. It's unfortunate that a few greedy people can attempt to spoil an otherwise worthy project. We are determined that this activity must stop!" Sheriff Schwartz declared.

Varsity, JVs Also Sweep Conference Tournament

The Kewaskum High School chess team swept the Conference Tournament held on Thursday, March 15, winning the Varsity and Junior Varsity team championships. The team had already won its 5th consecutive dual meet conference title with a 10-0 record.

For the conference tournament the 10-man team is divided into a 5-man varsity and 5-man junior varsity in contrast to the 10 boards that are played during the season.

The Kewaskum Varsity team won the championship for the 5th time in 6 years, losing only in 1983. The team scored 11 points out of a possible 15 in a 3 round Swiss tournament. Romie Holl won the varsity individual trophy with the only 3-0 mark. Jeff Igel and Todd Jaromin finished with 2-0-1 records, Gregg Classey 2-1 and Tom Crandell 1-2. The team was trailing Germantown by 1 point after the first and second rounds and had some very difficult pairings in the last round. Crandell and Classey won easily while Holl defeated the #1 player in the conference, Luke Hesprih. Jeff Igel defeated Germantown's #2 board player and Todd Jaromin drew Germantown's #1 board player. Horicon did not compete in the tournament.

Varsity

Round 1 — Kewaskum 3 1/2, Hartford 2, Germantown 4 1/2, Kettle Moraine 2, St. John's 1.

Round 3 — Kewaskum 11, Hartford 10, Germantown 9, Kettle Moraine 4, St. John's 4.

The Junior Varsity team won its 5th championship in the last 6 years, losing only in 1982. The team scored 12 points and edged out Hartford by 1 point. The team was led by three undefeated players. John Martin, Randy Igel and Glenn Classey all went 3-0, Gary Classey finished at 2-1 and Steve Hubbell at 1-2.

Junior Varsity

Round 1 — Kewaskum 5, Hartford 5, St. John's 1, Kettle

Moraine 0, Germantown 2.

Round 2 — Kewaskum 8, Hartford 8, St. John's 4, Kettle Moraine 3, Germantown 3.

Round 3 — Kewaskum 12, Hartford 11, St. John's 6 1/2, Kettle Moraine 4 1/2, Germantown 4.

Kewaskum had 11 players entered in the novice section. No team points were kept but Randy Wilhelmi won the individual trophy. The players competed in a 4 round Swiss pairing. After 3 rounds Jan Eisenmann of Kewaskum was the only player with a 3-0 record. There was a question whether the fourth round should be played since Eisenmann was in undisputed first place. The league ruled though that there would be a 4th round and Eisenmann was paired against her teammate Randy Wilhelmi with a 2-0-1 record. When Wilhelmi won it forced a playoff with Hale of Hartford, who also had 3 1/2 points at the time, Wilhelmi went on to win the match and individual title.

First Muckerheide Wrestling Award Won By Tim Landvatter

The Roman Muckerheide Memorial Award to be presented each year to a member of the Kewaskum High School wrestling team who displays courage and determination has been awarded to Tim Landvatter.

"Romy" Muckerheide, who was a sophomore member of the wrestling team, died Nov. 27 as a result of an accidental gunshot wound and his family initiated the award in his memory and presented the school with a plaque which will carry the names of all winners.

Landvatter's selection was announced at the annual wrestling banquet. Coach John Nell said it had been decided the award should go to a senior who had shown dedication.

Landvatter, a two-year varsity letterman, was sidelined with a shoulder problem in his junior year and this year, after recording an 11-3 mark, missed several weeks because of arthroscopic surgery on a knee. He was determined to return to action for the tournament and finished fourth in the Eastern Wisconsin meet at 138 pounds and also fourth in the sectional meet.

Girls Thump Mayville in Indoor Track Opener; Klein Sets Record

By John Harju

Sandy Klein set a school indoor record for the 1600 meter run and Holly Kempf won two events as the Kewaskum Indian girls' varsity track team defeated Mayville, 68-23, in their first indoor meet of the season last Wednesday in Kewaskum.

Klein, a junior, took first place in the 1600 with a record time of 5:51.1, breaking the old mark by one tenth of a second.

Kempf easily won the shot put event, with teammate Julie Koepke coming in second. Kempf also won the 45 meter dash in a virtual dead heat with Mayville's Carrie Gourlie, who placed second.
