Village Board Reviews Last Phase of Municipal Building Remodeling Program

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At Monday night's meeting, Kewaskum Village Administrator Dan Schmidt presented a report on the last phase of remodeling for the village's municipal building.

Schmidt told the village board, while this is the last and final phase of remodeling for the building, it would be done in stages as had all other work on the building. He said the timetable for the work would be, advertising for bids in December 1984, opening of bids in January 1985, with work to begin in late February or early March of 1985. Completion of the entire remodeling program should be accomplished by the end of 1985.

The first stage of renovation will be the new Police Department area. Schmidt said, once the department was in its new quarters, the old quarters, which are a lean-to addition to the original building, could be razed to make room for the construction of a new garage area and addition to the library. Schmidt told the trustees once the Police Department is relocated, the other municipal employees would be temporarily relocated throughout the building as the other stages of remodeling were undertaken. When work begins on the library, it will be moved into the community room.

Schmidt indicated the building would be about 57% larger after the remodeling but the village will be able to utilize twice as much building space. As an example, Schmidt referred to the old firehouse garage which makes up 2,600 square feet of the present building but is not being used to its full potential because of its present use limitations. That area will be remodeled to provide some of the new office, locker and community room space.

Schmidt told the trustees, the village is in serious need of the proposed community room which will have a kitchenette and be able to accommodate about 90 people. Since the bank no longer allows public use of its meeting rooms, groups such as the Senior Citizens, Police

Detachment Petition Denied

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At a special joint meeting of the Kewaskum and Plymouth Districts School Boards, held September 12, a petition by Mr. and Mrs. Steven Kelling, Route 1, Adell, to be detached from the Kewaskum School District was denied.

The Kellings based their petition for detachment on the grounds it was a hardship for them. Mrs. Kelling said both she and her husband were from the Sheboygan area and all their family and social ties were in that direction.

The Kellings were asked if switching to the Plymouth District would bring them closer to any schools. Mrs. Kelling indicated there was no appreciable difference in that they were about three to four miles from Beechwood, Cascade or Parnell.

Mrs. Kelling felt, while there were several things she liked about the Plymouth District, there was little difference on the elementary level and she was not displeased with the Kewaskum School District. However, her son is interested in Agriculture and she and her husband felt the Plymouth District offered a more rounded high school ag program.

The Kellings were asked if they knew their farm was within the Kewaskum district when they purchased it. They said no. The Kellings said they had been told by the previous owners that their children had attended Plymouth. They thought somewhere in between the district boundaries had changed and the property became part of Kewaskum. The Kellings felt, based on their information, that since the property had once belonged to the Plymouth District, there was a chance they could become detached from Kewaskum and re-join Plymouth.

Kewaskum Board member John Spoerl asked Mrs. Kelling if the proposed closing of Beechwood School had any bearing on their decision to submit the petition. She said coming to the last few board meetings caused them some uncertainty, but it was not really a major factor in their request.

The Kewaskum Board voted unanimously 7 to 0, to deny the request. The Plymouth Board voted 1 to 3. In order for the Kellings' request to be okayed, it would have had to been approved by the majority vote of each board.

If the Kellings wish to appeal the decision, they may ask for a review of the decision by a mediator within 30 days of the decision.

Village Holds Off on Warning Siren Policy

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The problem of when to sound the tornado warning siren came up again at Monday night's village board meeting.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt informed the board he had contacted the village's attorney, Gerald Kiefer, regarding the legal ramifications of an order by Washington County Emergency Government Director Sherman Carr.

Carr had issued a directive stating that when a tornado alert had been issued for a Washington County Community, no matter which one, all county communities were to issue the three-minute siren warning.

In his letter Kiefer noted Carr's directive was not a law, however, the question of liability seemed to be the prime concern. The letter indicated the village was not legally bound to follow the directive, however, in the event the village did not follow the policy and a tornado hit, the village and its highest ranking official could be liable. While the plan has not been looked upon with much favor or backing, Kiefer recommended the village go along with the directive to avoid any legal problems.

The trustees felt Carr's plan was not a workable one. As Trustee Mary Krueger again pointed out it still had the feeling of "crying wolf." Board President Gerald Stollenwerk said he could see where such a policy would be very unpopular with the school systems and industries. Each three-minute alert remains in effect for one

Kewaskum AFS Student Relates Summer Experiences

Denise Lustig

The following letter was written by KHS senior Denise Lustig, who spent the summer living with an AFS host family in Oruro, Bolivia. Denise arrived home August 26 and delivered this letter to chapter president Sue Schmitz. Although she wrote the letter during her stay in Bolivia, she was unable to mail it because of a national postal strike in that country. She writes:

"Life here is definitely very different. After living in the country for most of my life, this (Oruro) is quite an adjustment. Although my family has two vehicles, I walk nearly everywhere. It isn't very far to get anywhere, but I can't walk too fast or too long because of the altitude. I caught a cold when I got here and my family called a doctor. I was surprised at first because doctors here make house calls, but I was really surprised when he brought an oxygen tank for me! Fortunately, I only had to see it for three days.

"Oruro is very different from any city I've been in before. The

2 Charged in Burglary at Boltonville

Two men accused of breaking into a convenience store at the corner of State Hwy. 144 and State 84 in Boltonville on Sunday night, Sept. 9, were charged with burglary last Wednesday.

Ronald L. Musselman, 19, of 10004 W. Fond du Lac Ave., Milwaukee, and Michael J. Barth, no permanent address, entered Kerry's Korner, 9313 State 144, after the store closed at night, police said.

They made off with a large quantity of beer, cigarettes and food, the complaint said. The men were taken into custody late Tuesday of last week and charged in Washington County Circuit Court Wednesday.

Judge James B. Schwalbach set cash bail of $750 for each. A court hearing was set for Thursday afternoon.

Town Rezoning Approved Again

The County Park and Planning Commission unanimously approved the rezoning of 100 acres of Town of Kewaskum land from agricultural transition to agricultural after a second public hearing on the matter Thursday.

Along with the rezoning, the commission also approved a conditional use permit for Ned Sengpiel, owner of the land, pending County Board approval of the rezoning this week.

The permit will allow Regal Ware Inc. to build a private club on the land. Sengpiel is a vice president with the company.

This is the second time the commission has approved the rezoning. Errors in the map and text of the original petition necessitated a second public hearing and reconsideration.

Town of Kewaskum resident Marilyn Reinhardt again opposed the rezoning, according to Land Use Administrator Paul Mueller. Reinhardt has said that the rezoning would block the possibility of a Kewaskum 45 bypass being built near the land.

The proposed club would be used as a private meeting, training and hospitality center for the Kewaskum-based company, according to preliminary development plans. Included would be a building with meeting rooms, a kitchen facility and overnight guest rooms.

Village Board

Auxiliary, Historical Society and many more local organizations have no meeting place.

The major portion of the remodeling will take place on the first floor. The second floor offices and council room will receive some updating as far as lighting, painting and minor repairs along with installation of an elevator for handicapped access.

Schmidt told the board, "this is the best time financially, for getting the work done because we can do it without raising taxes. Our debt is at a point where its going to be dropping almost to a level where we don't have any, other than the TIF debt which is really a separate item." Schmidt said the village also has, through the budget process and funds available, $100,000 to utilize for this program.

Schmidt informed the board many of the remodeling projects are items which will become mandatory requirements by 1986 through the Federal Revenue Sharing Handicapped Accessibility Act.

Schmidt noted if the Municipal Building did not meet that mandate and provide handicapped accessibility to such things as meeting rooms and restrooms with the proper doors, fixtures, ramps and elevators, the village would lose between $350,000 and $400,000 in Federal Revenue Sharing as well as state revenues. He said without those funds, the village could no longer operate.

Schmidt told the board he would be back to them seeking authorization to prepare bid specifications in October.

In other action, the board approved the 1985 Fire Department Budget and Fire Contracts for the Village of Kewaskum, Town of Kewaskum and Town of Auburn.

The 1985 contract for the Village will be $45,068. Due to a drop in fire calls, it is down $908 from its 1984 contract figure of $45,976. The Town of Kewaskum's contract for 1985 is up by $1,513 to $37,507, due to an increase in calls and increase in equalized valuation. Both factors are used in the formula to calculate contracts. The Town of Auburn's contract cost dropped by $605, from $18,754 in 1984, to $18,249 for 1985. Their drop was due to a decrease in calls and a 3.55% drop in the township's equalized valuation.

The board also approved the purchase of a John Deere tractor, snowblower, and cab, from low bidder Baumann-Hoffmann Hardware of Cedarburg.

Trustee Mary Krueger questioned the legality of a letter sent to Mrs. Judy Harlow of the West Bend News. The letter, from Police Chief Don Hlavaty, stated in the future, Police Record information would only be given out on Mondays and Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m. No information would be given out at any other time or over the phone.

Krueger wanted to know if this applied to everyone or was directed just to Harlow. Hlavaty said this applied to all media and anyone else seeking information. Schmidt told Krueger the letter had been reviewed by the village's attorney and it was legal. Schmidt said many communities use the same policy in providing such information.

Hlavaty said the purpose of setting specific times was to allow him time to review all the records and become familiar with the cases and circumstances before any information was released. Krueger indicated she was satisfied with the Chief's answer but she just wanted to make sure the Village was not violating the open records law.

The board has designated Sunday, October 28th, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. for Halloween trick or treat. The action was taken to remain uniform in its hours with other communities throughout Washington County.

Warning Siren

hour and all-clear sirens are no longer blown. The result would be school officials following through their emergency safety procedures, evacuating children to shelter for an hour when the storm isn't even in the area. Large companies would also have to revise their procedure as far as shutdowns. "It can be done," said Stollenwerk, "but I don't think its right."

The board reluctantly felt that while it was not in favor of the plan, it also had to consider the alternative of being held legally responsible for not issuing the warnings.

Trustee Howard Laubenstein, Chairman of the Protection and Public Safety Committee, said he would like to see what happens at the special county meeting scheduled for Wednesday, September 19th. He will be attending that meeting with Schmidt and Police Chief Hlavaty. "I don't think we should establish any hard, fast rule tonight," stated Laubenstein.

Schmidt said the meeting should prove to be very interesting since the City of Hartford has already said flat out it will not follow the procedure. Schmidt also noted the City of West Bend had not decided as yet, what action it would take on the plan.

Schmidt noted another area that could cause problems is bordering Dodge and Fond du Lac Counties, the village's siren could be going off for their alerts also.

Booster Club

and snap-leg pants for easy access. Made of 100% nylon, an important item is the fleece lining which should minimize itching from body heat. One Booster parent recalled that in his day the itchy warm-ups were worn for the team picture, then quickly shed.

Total cost for the warm-ups came to $3,818.50. The $800 - plus balance was paid for from WIAA tournaments. Last year's revenues from successful football and basketball tournaments helped finance the purchase, but this money is not always available, according to high school teacher Clark Pearson.

Person, who was KHS principal and athletic director at the time, contacted four different companies and frequently met with Boosters to determine specifications and discuss choices. The unisport cost appeared more reasonable, plus it offered systematic replacement schedules.

The warm-ups were purchased from Champion Products, Inc., a major supplier of uniforms to professional and collegiate athletic programs.

How does a parent Booster Club get into the business of buying uniforms for a school district?

When Pearson approached Booster Club last year requesting financial support for the purchase, the decision proved a difficult one.

In the past, the school district had purchased different warm-ups for each sport. But budget constraints, plus normal wear and tear, had left big gaps in the replacement schedule, not to mention gaps in the uniforms.

Several Booster parents expressed strong concern that such a major purchase should be budgeted by the school board and that such an undertaking would set poor precedent for future school needs. Realistically, it was recognized that budgeted money would probably not materialize for the much-needed uniforms.

Another concern was the heavy emphasis on sports, although the club had invested over $700 for new swing choir uniforms that same year. The primary purpose of the club is to boost school spirit by supporting "all" extra-curricular activities.

It was felt that although all teachers are invited each year to present their activity needs to the club for consideration, many do not because of a "what's-the-use" outlook. Boosters emphasize that all requests are weighed carefully and encourage all activity sponsors to approach the club.

How does a parent club that numbers about 15 active members raise enough money to buy $3,000 worth of warm-ups?

It takes people like Diane and Gerry Buchel popping corn and pumping soda at countless school activities; like Dick and Shirley Schlice selling 120 Xmas wreaths; like Judy Steiner recruiting workers by telephone for hours; like anonymous donors to special funds; like Mugs McFadden organizing community concerts, just to mention a few.

"A phenomenal enterprise" is the way new KHS Principal Leroy Kopecky described the energies of the small core group, having recently attended his first Booster Club meeting at KHS. This parent group is the most active that I have observed in my school experience, he continued.

"We do need more parental involvement throughout the entire academic arena," said Kopecky. He stressed that involved parents formulate a bond with their children that carries well beyond academic years.

School Teachers, Staff Pledge $2,458 to Local United Way

Employees of the Kewaskum School District have taken a giant step towards helping the local United Way reach its 1984 campaign goal of $30,000.

Teachers, administrative and support staff increased their contribution by 60% over last year to pledge a total of $2,458 to the current fund drive, announced United Way Captain Gerald Gosa. About half the people present at the annual teachers' breakfast held recently gave their support, said Gosa, a high school teacher who heads the campaign's professional unit.

"Fantastic" was the enthusiastic response from campaign co-chairman Steve Van Ess, when he heard the figures. Co-chairman Margaret McFadden noted that it's a great way to kick off a fund drive, but pointed out that we've still got a long way to go.

The Kewaskum United Way '84 campaign is scheduled to begin Sept. 24, and will run six weeks. The UW board of directors was to have met this week with the unit captains and workers to plan the campaign.

Asked to explain the increase from teachers and staff, Gosa attributed it partly to the convenience of the payroll deduction plan offered by the district. "Also we made a one-time presentation to the group as a whole, whereas last year we tried individual solicitation," explained Gosa. Contributions from that group totaled $1,522 last year.

McFadden felt that much of the appeal lies in Gosa's personal conviction that United Way and the service organizations it supports do make Kewaskum a better place to live for all residents. "Gerry comes across as someone who believes enough in what he's doing to volunteer a lot of time and energy for the community," said McFadden.

Last year Kewaskum United Way contributed to 15 agencies that provide health, human and recreational services to Kewaskum area residents.

Woman's Club Plans Gourmet Gathering

Members of the Kewaskum Woman's Club and their guests will once again be treated to an evening of fine dining at their "Gourmet Gathering" to be held on October 11 at 6:30 in the Peace U.C.C. Following the dinner, there will be an opportunity to play bridge or just relax and visit.

In addition to the $4.25 price of the dinner, members are reminded that our yearly dues will be collected. We hope to see as many members and their guests as possible.

Reservations should be made as soon as possible to Kathy Paul, Ruth Schmitt or Izzy Straub. New members are always welcome.

Jaycees to Sponsor Football Fundamentals Competition

The Kewaskum Jaycees will be running a Football Fundamentals Competition on Sunday September 23, at 1 p.m. on the Kewaskum High School practice football field, with registration beginning at 12:30 p.m. There will be a practice held at 1 p.m. at the Kewaskum High School practice football field on Sunday, September 16.

Football Fundamentals is the same program that Ford Company ran known as Pass, Punt and Kick. There are three levels of competition: local, regional and state. The six age groups involved consist of ages 8 through 13 years old. Age of entrant on October 27, 1984, determines his or her age group.

There will be medallions given out to the top three finishers of each age group. From there, the top finisher in each age group will go on to the regional competition, which will be announced at a later date. State competition will be held October 27, at Green Bay on the Packers' Practice Field.

State winners (first place) will then be provided with hotel accommodations and will be the guests at a tailgate party prior to the Packer/Detroit Lions Game on Sunday, the 28th. The winners will be present on the sidelines during the game. Note, that only the first place winner of each age group at state and his/her family will be given hotel accommodations for Oct. 27th.

Only participants with waivers signed by a parent/legal guardian will be eligible to compete. Proof of age is required.

There is no registration fee. Athletic shoes are required for all levels of competition. Athletic shoes with uppers consisting of materials such as canvas, suede, soft leather or nylon will be allowed, provided the sole is made of a flexible rubber-like material. No special foot gear such as football shoes or boots or any spiked or hardtoed shoes can be worn at any level of competition. Also, no barefoot kicking or punting is permitted.

No contestant will be disqualified for using rosin or similar products at any level of competition.

Contestants 8, 9 and 10 years of age will use a junior or intermediate size football and those 11, 12 and 13 years of age will use a regulation size football.

Football Fundamentals is co-sponsored by McDonalds.

If you have any questions, call any of the following people; Keith Rebstock, 629-9149; Debi Korneli, 626-4660; or Wesley Haug Jr., 626-2910.

UWWC Fine Arts Series to Open

GERHARTZ HAS LEAD PART

On Friday, September 21, at 8:15 p.m., the University of Wisconsin-Washington County Fine Arts Series will open with a recital by Peter Ayer, UWWC music professor, and Priscilla Hausmann, St. James Episcopal Church organist and local private piano teacher.

The first part of the program will present a variety of tenor solo literature, including songs of the Elizabeth period, the Renaissance, Baroque, Classical, and Romantic periods. Contemporary art songs, folk songs, and ballads will also be featured.

The second half of the program will feature a twenty minute excerpt from Mozart's opera, Don Giovanni. Opening with the duet between Don Giovanni, sung by Gary Gerhartz, and Zerlina, sung by Robin Hron, the scene continues with the entrance of Donna Elvira, performed by Sheila Boyung. The whole scene depicts the revelation to Donna Anna, sung by Debbie Slotke, and Don Ottavio, sung by Ayer, the fact that Giovanni, whom they are asking to help find the murderer of Donna Anna's father, is in fact, the very assassin they are seeking. The quartet, sung by Giovanni, Elvira, Anna, and Ottavio, is one of Mozart's finest examples of musical tapestry into which is woven such a complex array of cross-purposes, intrigue, accusation, and denial.

This recital will be held at the UWWC Theatre, 400 University Drive, West Bend, and is open to the public at no charge.

Sharon Jalas and Timothy Greupink were united in marriage during a 6 p.m. candlelight ceremony held at the Amerahn Hall, Kewaskum, on Sunday, September 2. Pastor Eugene Noel officiated.

Scott Greupink, Cedar Grove, brother of the groom, served as best man. The groomsmen were Fred Becker, Mark Taylor and Bob Mehnert, all friends of the groom, Mike Breuer, cousin of the bride, and John Jalas, brother of the bride.

Ron Isken, West Bend, and George Isken, Cedar Grove, shared ushering duties.

Items for sale at the festival will include oil paintings, miniature wooden buildings, quilted calico items, pen and ink prints, landscape photography, animal sculptures, sterling silver rings, stoneware, watercolor farm scenes, stained glass items, painted saw blades, cheeseboxes and wood, knitted and crocheted items, soft sculpture dolls, wooden candle holders, plant stands and quilt stands, rosemaling, pottery, wooden toys, salt dough ornaments, pastel portraits and caricatures, burned wood and painted plaques, mirrors and clocks, as well as hand painted ornaments and items from third world countries.

The Kewaskum Junior Club will again have a home-made bake sale, cook book stand, Care Bears, festival balloons, and a cupcake cone sale, proceeds of which will be matched by the Club for the Statue of Liberty/Ellis Island restoration project. The Kewaskum J.C. Women will provide a food stand for lunch and snacks. Free entertainment will include music by Gary Cross, as well as members from the High School music program. Bert, Ernie and Woodsy Owl, along with numerous clowns will be walking around the park area. A scouts petting zoo, face painting and free games will be offered to the youngsters in the crowd. Other demonstrations and displays will be available for your enjoyment. A special showing of Juniors' Children's Art will be on display.

Festival Chairman, Mrs. Jan Uhlman, has stated the festival will be more accessible from the parking area and promises to be a quality event with something for everyone, including an enjoyable day in the park.

The 1984 Junior quilt raffle will feature a historic Kewaskum quilt. Area landmarks are outlined in the center of this queen sized quilt, with a log cabin border in shades of green. Tickets are on sale from any Junior member or at the park on September 23rd. Cost of the tickets are $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00. A limited number of tickets has been printed, so early purchase is suggested. The drawing for the "Historic Kewaskum Quilt" will be held at 3:00 at the festival. You need not be present to win.

The GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club invites everyone to attend the "Art In The Park Festival" in the Kewaskum Kiwanis Community Park. Admittance is free.

United Way Fund Drive Kick Off Held in County

United Way of Washington County drive chairman John Meyer announced the fall fund drive kicked off on Tuesday, September 18, with the help of Green Bay Packer John Anderson.

Meyer said the kick off began at 5 o'clock at the Threshold, at 600 M. Rolfs Rd., West Bend. Following introduction of the benefitting agencies, and division leaders and workers, Anderson made a brief appearance. Then, a football, which Anderson hoped would contain the signatures of the Packer defensive players, was auctioned off.

The United Way of Washington County serves 25 agencies which provide a wide range of services to residents of the county. The goal of the 1984 fund drive is $185,000, a $20,000 increase over last year's goal. The goal was increased because of normal increases in operational expenses, decreases in public funding growth of existing agencies in service, staff and special programming. Of the 25 agencies receiving funds, 20 are located in Washington County. These local agencies are receiving 97% of this year's budget.

Jaycee Women Place Canisters for RS

September is Reyes Syndrome emphasis month for the Wisconsin Jaycee Women. Reyes Syndrome is a devastating disease and is constantly occurring all around us. Even though Reyes Syndrome is a mandated reportable disease many centers do not report every case of Reyes Syndrome they treat—only deaths! So, you can see, the records of RS occurrence are at times inaccurate! Thus far in 1984, our records show ten cases of Reyes Syndrome with four deaths. Always remember, of the people who survive RS - 33% have some residual effect! The following communities in Wisconsin have had a victim of Reyes Syndrome within the past year — West Allis, Edgar, Racine, Valders, Appleton.

Ellsworth, and Fond-du-Lac; plus 3 unknown.

Remember.....

...Reyes Syndrome usually appears soon after a flu-like infection or chicken pox.

...Early signs of Reyes Syndrome are continuous vomiting, listlessness, loss of energy, drowsiness, irritability, aggressiveness, confusion, and irrational behavior.

...Medicines, at the very least, can mask symptoms. Therefore, if any of the symptoms of Reyes Syndrome develop, DO NOT give your child anti-nausea or fever-reducing medicine.

...Phone your physician immediately!

...Abnormal SGOT and SGPT tests strongly suggest a diagnosis of Reyes Syndrome.

...Early diagnosis is vital.

The Kewaskum Jaycee Women have placed donation canisters in many area businesses. The money collected in these canisters will be used to help the National Reyes Syndrome Foundation of Bryan, Ohio in their research to find the reason and cure for this disease.

Won't you help? For information concerning canisters or to make a donation, please call - 626-4660. Thank you.

4-H ADULT LEADERS BENEFIT FROM VOLUNTEERING

If you aren't already a 4-H leader, it's a good time to consider becoming one.

Chances are, the youth in your community can use your help and interest. On the other hand, you may have as much to gain as to give, says E.J. Lueder, 4-H leadership development specialist with the University of Wisconsin Cooperative Extension Service.

4-H offers adult volunteers many benefits besides the good feeling that comes from helping young people, says Lueder. Those benefits include the chances to make new friends, to improve communication and organizational skills, and in the case of project leaders, the chance to learn new or additional things about a subject matter area.

4-H also offers many opportunities to develop leadership skills and self confidence that can enhance other areas of life, and can be useful when seeking paid employment.

As a beginning volunteer you might lead a project group, or chair a club or county committee, or judge at the fair. There will be individual and group training experiences. And for the more experienced volunteer, 4-H offers advanced opportunities to learn and lead.

The possibilities are wide open, says Lueder. Depending on your interests and your county's needs, you could be an exchange trip coordinator, fund-raising chair, county event chair, older youth group advisor or even a fair superintendent. Many counties also need "key" leaders and "resource" leaders, two special 4-H support positions.

Key leaders are experienced volunteers who help new 4-H leaders get started, says Lueder. They provide guidance on practical how-to-do-it matters and aid problem solving. Resource leaders tend to act as resources for county-wide program and project planning committees.

Leadership workshops and forums are offered regularly at the county and state levels to help volunteers enhance skills and self-confidence. You may even have the opportunity to take part in national 4-H leadership activities.

You don't have to be a parent or a teacher to get involved, stresses Lueder.

You don't have to be an expert either. 4-H materials are designed to make teaching and learning easy and enjoyable. Developed by UW-Madison and Cooperative Extension Service specialists, based on the research and knowledge of the university, they are written specifically for those working with 4-H youth.

Finally, ends Lueder, there's another good reason — maybe the best — to get involved with 4-H. It's a lot of fun.

national farm safety week

Beware of Accidents FFA Cautions During Farm Safety Week

Beware of....
ACCIDENTS! This year marks the 41st annual observance of National Farm Safety Week. It will run from September 16 to the 22nd. Farm Safety Week was founded in 1944 to fight accidents impairing war time food and fiber production.

The National Safety Council is the largest organization devoted solely to the prevention of accidents and occupational illnesses. The Council estimated that in 1983 farm work accidents resulted in approximately 1,900 deaths and about 190,000 disabling injuries, many of which were crippling.

The Kewaskum F.F.A. wants farmers to be especially careful during the months of September and October. Corn harvesting will soon be in full swing, which means you might not take time to take all the necessary precautions. Have you read the manuals for the equipment you will be using? Have you checked to see if the equipment is properly working and all shielding is in its place? If you haven't we urge you to do so.

Now for a short quiz. See how many of the following questions you know—and how many you would actually do if the problem should occur.

- 1) Should you read the warning labels on your power-run equipment? YES or NO
- 2) If you have someone helping you (relation or others) do they know what to do if an accident happens or fire starts? YES or NO
- 3) If corn stalks or weeds become lodged in the power-driven parts, should you... a) disengage the PTO, b) turn off the tractor, or c) do both

The Kewaskum F.F.A. hopes that all of you, whether a farm or city person, will be careful this week and every week through out the year. Now for the answers to the short quiz: a) Yes, b) If they don't they should, c) do BOTH.

Deadline to Apply For Crop Insurance For Wheat in County

September 30 is the last day to apply for Crop Insurance for wheat in Washington County. Crop Insurance covers unavoidable loss of production resulting from adverse weather conditions, disease, insects, or fire.

"Many farmers are not aware of the newest changes in the Federal Crop Insurance program," says Jerry Van Beek; District Director for the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC). The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation is an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

"Today's Crop Insurance can be tailor-made to meet protection needs against adverse growing conditions for a variety of individual farmers."

"By choosing Crop Insurance protection, farmers may close the gap between planting and harvest by minimizing problems which prevent completion of a successful growing season," says Van Beek.

Now marketed through private insurance agents and companies, the Crop Insurance program has been renovated to be more responsive to the needs of today's farmers. Insurance needs can be tailored to meet a specific financial obligation, allowing the producer to repay loans or cover out-of-pocket expenses," says Van Beek.

For more information about the program, producers should contact an authorized Crop Insurance agent. To select an agent, producers should check the list of agents available at their county ASCS office. Applications must be made no later than September 30.

The Kewaskum Kiwanis Club will sponsor its seventh annual live turkey shoot on Sunday, Sept. 20, at the Bar-N Dude Ranch, 6 miles northeast of Kewaskum on County Trunk GGG, the beautiful Kettle Moraine Drive. Patterned after the historic turkey shoots which were so popular in frontier days, this fascinatingly interesting annual event has become an outstanding attraction. Thousands of men, women and children from all over the state, coming from as far as 100 to 125 miles, attend as participants and spectators. Last year the event had nearly 2,500 shooters and over 250 birds were taken home. For the first time, the 1959 turkey shoot will feature a group of 50 Boy Scouts and leaders will be performing authentic Indian dances in full costume and makeup. This group, the well known Wambuli Indian dancers is composed of Milwaukee Explorer Scouts, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and their leaders who have made a study of Indian lore. The knowledge gained has enabled them to duplicate authentic Indian costumes which they wear during their performances.

Home Delivered Meals needs volunteer drivers to deliver meals to homebound individuals in the West Bend area. Meals are picked up at the Washington County Senior Center at 11:45 a.m. on Mondays through Fridays.

"Short term" volunteer opportunity - a driver is needed once a week for ten weeks to take people to MPTI. The volunteer driver will be able to use the Red Cross station wagon after receiving certification from the Red Cross. Perhaps there's someone in your neighborhood who would be willing to give of their time for this community service.

Be an advocate, a friend, to a mentally retarded man who recently returned to West Bend after living in a state institution for quite a few years. He is making great strides in the transition back to our community. He needs a volunteer guardian who would get to know him and help him with decision making. Training and follow up are provided in this one to one relationship. The amount of time you share would be up to you and your only responsibility is to be concerned about his growth and positive development.

Think about the child living with only one parent who needs the friendship of an adult, and think of how you can help with the development of his personal identity, self-worth and inner security. With a commitment of at least 2 hours a week, you can make a difference in the shape of things to come.

"Girl Friday" needed! Light clerical skills for one to two afternoons per week. Typing is the top priority. Flexible hours.

Be part of a program that provides support and concern for our elderly. No one wants to suffer from loneliness, depression and isolation. If you're able to give patience, respect and understanding towards other people, become part of the program that shows you how you can make a difference in someone else's life.

Who has the ability to be a spokesman, preserve the democratic process, provide continuity of policies and programs, has an objective point of view, able to attract financial and public resources, and has an expertise in a variety of technical areas? There are many of "you" out in the community who meet any or all of these qualifications. Get involved. Share your knowledge, your skills, and yourself with those who need you.

Help is needed in teaching people English as a second language, on an individual basis. The volunteer instructor will have flexibility in schedule. A special training session is offered.

Volunteerism is action by people who care; it becomes for them a learning experience, a source of fulfillment and joy. It is a response to that human need to give. It forms a partnership to improve the health, harmony, and economic strength of communities. It preserves the environment, solves major problems, provides companionship, and helps others succeed. It makes our society and the system which governs it work.

If you care about your community and want to do more... volunteer! Call the Voluntary Action Center of Washington County, 338-8256. We want to help you find a volunteer experience that will be rewarding to you. There are countless opportunities available right now.

Summer of 1984 Is Safest in Traffic Deaths Since 1958

Although the highway death toll through August is slightly higher than the same period in 1983, Wisconsin enjoyed the safest summer since 1958.

Maynard G. Stoehr, highway safety coordinator for the state Department of Transportation, said 500 persons were killed in traffic crashes through Aug. 31, 1984, about six percent more than the 470 deaths at the same time last year.

However, the total for June, July and August was 226 deaths compared to 253 in the same months a year ago. It was the safest vacation season since 1958, when a total of 214 people died on Wisconsin highways.

Stoehr said historical records show that the deadliest summer on record was 1971 when 387 people died during June-August.

The highway death toll has edged downward twice in the past ten years: a 21 percent drop in 1974 when the 55 mph speed limit went into effect, the second in 1982 when traffic deaths dropped 16 percent from the previous year.

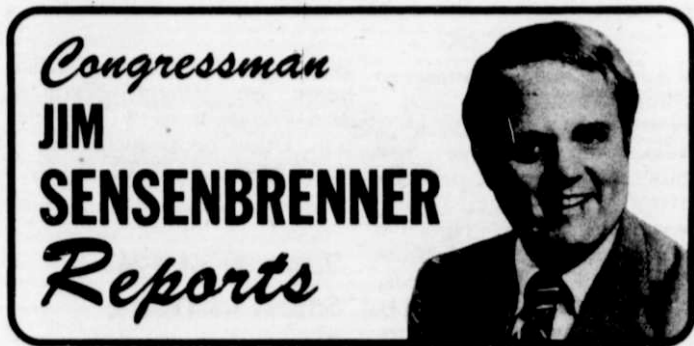

Stoehr said Wisconsin has now gone three full years since traffic crashes took 100 or more lives in a single month. The last triple-digit death toll was August 1981 when 106 lives were lost. The highest single month total on record was 154 deaths in August 1969.

There appears to be no single, clear-cut reason that the 1984 vacation season saw a decline in traffic deaths, Stoehr said.

"We have a number of selective enforcement programs underway this summer, involving 30 counties and the State Patrol, which has placed additional enforcement at high accident locations," Stoehr said. "Those programs, along with stiffer drunken driving laws, have been the major deterrents to the most frequently cited circumstances contributing to accidents, drinking and speeding," he added.

PENTAGON TAKES POSITIVE STEP TOWARD FRAUDULENT CONTRACTORS

We often hear from the media about how the Pentagon is cheated by business defense contractors. While I think this is important to recognize, it is also essential to know what the Pentagon is doing to discourage this fraud.

Approximately 200 Pentagon investigators are currently probing nearly 400 procurement-fraud cases. Likewise, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other agencies are carrying on investigations of their own. These investigations have provided results. Last year, prosecutors obtained 657 convictions - more than double the number in the previous year.

For example, an Illinois manufacturer pleaded guilty to selling the government defective cord for use in parachutes. The company's president was sentenced to two years in prison, five years probation, 1,000 hours of community service and fines and forfeitures totaling $258,000. In addition, a Florida businessman and two of his companies were convicted last year of rigging bids on contracts worth 13 million dollars for nuts, bolts and machine parts. Many of these items were substandard and had to be retrieved from military units around the world. While most of these 657 convictions involved relatively small firms, investigators and prosecutors are now targeting some of the bigger names in the defense business. It is hoped that conviction successes against the larger companies will have a maximum deterrent value.

Already, one of the electronics industry's biggest names, National Semiconductor Corporation was indicted in March on 40 counts of selling poorly tested circuits to the government. It pleaded guilty and agreed to pay a fine of $1.75 million.

Certainly, the Defense Department has a long way to go in eliminating fraud as well as restoring overall fiscal responsibility. However, the important aspect to recognize here, is that the Pentagon finally appears to be making an honest attempt to clean house. As Secretary of Defense Weinberger said, "We are sending a message to those troublesome few who think it is easy to swindle the Pentagon."

Area Legislators Win Top Small Business Rating

All four state lawmakers representing the 20th Senate District achieved perfect voting records on the 1983-84 legislative issues judged most important to small business, the National Federation of Independent Business has announced.

State Representatives Esther Doughty Luckhardt of Horicon, Donald Stitt of Port Washington, John Merkt of Mequon and State Senator David Opitz of Port Washington voted favorably 100 per cent of the time on a list of issues ranging from inheritance tax reform to requiring flexibility on the part of regulatory agencies, according to the Wisconsin chapter of the NFIB.

All four are Republicans. Luckhardt and Opitz are retiring from the Legislature at the end of their current terms and Stitt is seeking the Senate seat.

The 20th is the only district in Wisconsin where all three Representatives and the Senator scored 100 per cent, the NFIB report indicated. The district includes portions of Dodge, Washington, Ozaukee, Sheboygan and Fond du Lac Counties.

Stitt said he was "delighted" with the NFIB ranking, adding that he has "tried, as a legislator, to be helpful to small business and to encourage small business rather than standing in its way, because small business is the part of our economy that consistently produces the most innovative ideas and the most new jobs."

Luckhardt said she was "proud of the high rating" and added a note of warning. "The Legislature is already short of people like Stitt and Opitz and Merkt, who know what it takes to create new jobs and make our economy work. They have raised their voices about the business and jobs climate in Wisconsin, but when you look at the crushing tax increases and the flood of regulatory meddling in the past few years, you can see they've been fighting a lonely battle," she said.

Just 22 of the Legislature's 132 members received perfect scores.

About 12,000 owners and operators of small business are members of the NFIB's Wisconsin chapter.

Sensenbrenner Reminds Applicants Service Academy Deadline Is Oct. 15

Young men and women, living in the Ninth Congressional District, who want to compete for a service academy appointment for 1985 have until October 15th to submit their applications, according to Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-Menomonee Falls).

Each Member of Congress may recommend a limited number of applicants for a service academy nomination. Sensenbrenner said after applications are made, all candidates are interviewed by volunteers who serve on his screening committee. Committee members then meet in December to recommend which individuals he should consider for appointment.

Sensenbrenner said the whole person is considered when making an appointment; scholastic standing, ACT or SAT scores, leadership roles, physical aptitude, medical fitness and character. Ideally those applying would be considering a career in the Army, Air Force, Marines or Merchant Marine.

Those appointed are given the opportunity to obtain a four year college education at one of the four United States Service Academies: West Point, Annapolis, the Air Force Academy or Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, Long Island, New York.

Sensenbrenner noted applicants must be United States citizens, at least 17 years of age and not over 22 on July 1st of the year they would enter the Academy, unmarried, not pregnant and have no children. Application forms may be obtained from Sensenbrenner's District Office in Brookfield, 120 Bishops Way, 53005. The office can be reached by phone at (414) 784-1111 or toll free, outside the metro area, at 1-800-242-1119.

McCallum Gets Assurances from Corrections,
 But Asks for Better 'Public Relations'

MADISON — State Sen. Scott McCallum said Monday that after a series of discussions and correspondence, the Division of Corrections has assured him the transporting of males to Taycheedah Correctional Institution is a secure—and temporary—situation.

McCallum (R-Fond du Lac) warned Corrections, however, that any similar decisions made in the future should not be made without input from residents who live in the area.

"I have been assured that males will not be permanently housed at TCI and that they are under tight security," McCallum said. "But I wish that assurance would not have come 'after the fact.'"

"I think the Division of Corrections could be using much better public relations with the communities of Fond du Lac and Taycheedah," he added. "Keeping them informed and involved in such decisions would sure help prevent a lot of fear and rumors from circulating."

McCallum, who last month accused Corrections of "Sneaking" males into TCI, said he has heard two main concerns from area residents, which he directed to Walter J. Dickey, Department of Corrections administrator, and Linda Reivitz, secretary of the Department of Health and Social Services.

"The main question I heard from people I talked to in the Fond du Lac area is whether tight security measures are being taken when the male inmates are transported to the female institution," McCallum said.

He said Secretary Reivitz, whose department oversees Wisconsin's prisons, responded to this question by saying, "Security measures for inmates participating in the program include having inmates in restraints when they are transported to and from Taycheedah, and constant staff supervision during the class at Taycheedah."

McCallum said the second most often heard complaint from area residents was whether males would be permanently housed at Taycheedah. He said he was informed by Reivitz that her department "has no plans for turning Taycheedah into a correctional coed facility." Reivitz said that the past attempt to do so was necessary because of a shortage of beds for male inmates and the availability of beds at TCI.

"Neither condition is relevant today," she said, "especially because we have three male institutions under planning or construction."

Though McCallum said he was assured by the responses he received from Corrections people, he said the division shouldn't get the impression that the people of Fond du Lac are pacified.

"We will continue to monitor the situation and to voice our concerns," McCallum said, "so that the Division of Corrections cannot afford to overlook us."

McCallum Appointed To Interstate
 Banking Panel

State Sen. Scott McCallum announced that he has been appointed to serve on the Legislative Council's Special Committee on Interstate Banking.

The special committee, composed of 11 legislators and 10 private individuals, is charged with the task of studying the effects of interstate banking in Wisconsin.

According to McCallum (R-Fond du Lac), the issue will be a key item on the Legislature's agenda in the next session.

"Deregulation of the financial industry and rapidly advancing technology have made interstate banking an issue that can't be put off or buried for a while," McCallum said. "With regional banking now happening in the Northeast and Southeast parts of the country, Wisconsin has to weigh the effects now and decide how its banking will be done in the future."

A bill introduced last session would have allowed out-of-state bank holding companies to acquire Wisconsin banks if 75 percent of its shareholders agreed to the acquisition.

Though the bill died, McCallum said the issue itself gained such prominence in the state that the committee was established to study it.

McCallum said he had been meeting with area bankers for input on the concept of regional and national banking.

"Some people have said that large out of state banks would draw money from communities in Wisconsin, while others are saying it will give local institutions a new source of funding," McCallum said, "so it's helpful to me to hear what bankers in our area of the state are thinking."

The committee held its first meeting Thursday, Aug. 30, at 10 a.m. in Madison. It is to report its findings to the Legislative Council in January.

McCallum said he welcomed any comments that 18th Senate District residents would like to express on the issue. The toll-free Hotline number is 1-800-362-9696. Individuals may also call McCallum at (608) 266-5300, or may write to him at P. O. Box 7882, Madison, 53707.

CLARENCE A. SCHWARTZ, SHERIFF

Child Safety Seats

Recently the laws requiring the use of child safety seats for children up to age 4 was toughened by the Wisconsin legislature. Sheriff Clarence A. Schwartz noted in a recent news release that the original child safety set law exempted persons who were transporting children who were not their own, such as grandparents or other relatives and friends. A recent act, however, modified the existing statute; and now the driver of a vehicle is responsible for safety securing children in the car even if the children are someone else's.

The Sheriff warns, if the parent is in the vehicle, driving or not, he (or she) will be cited by an officer who observes unsecured young children in the car — but if the parent is not in the vehicle then the driver will be cited.

The law is designed to protect young children from horrible injuries or even death, which can easily be avoided by the use of the child safety seats. Study after study has proven conclusively that a majority of traffic fatalities involving young children can be avoided by the simple use of child safety seats or seat belts, the Sheriff indicated.

It is also important that parents follow instructions which come with their car seats. Any car seat which is approved by the U.S. Department of Transportation includes specific instructions on safe and proper use of the product. If the instructions are not followed, the child safety seats value is limited; and the child remains in serious danger of incurring death or injury in an even minor traffic accident.

'Table Butter' Must Be Butter

Restaurant owners and consumers are reminded that the serving of colored oleomargarine or margarine at any public eating place as a substitute for table butter, is prohibited under Wisconsin law unless the margarine has been specifically ordered by the customer.

That's the word from D. E. Konsoer, assistant food division administrator with the Wis. Dept. of Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection, who points out that customers may request margarine, if they so desire, then it can be served. "In cafeteria areas, butter and margarine may be offered, if both are equally displayed," he says. According to Konsoer, the term "butter" does not include blends that are legally classified as margarines.

"Few customers are aware of this provision of Wisconsin law, even though it has been in effect for a number of years," Konsoer emphasizes. He adds that department food inspectors will follow up on any complaints or cases where the above provisions of Chapter 97.18 of the Wisconsin Statutes are violated. Violations could result in fines of not less than $100 nor more than $500. Questions should be directed to any of the department's regional offices in Altoona, Green Bay, Madison or Milwaukee.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE

O holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depth of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance.

Help me in my present urgent petition. In return, I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked, say three Our Fathers, three Hail Marys and three Glorias. St. Jude pray for us, and all who invoke your aid. Amen.

This Novena has never been known to fail. This Novena must be said for 9 consecutive days, and publication must be promised.

THIEMERDOME THURSDAY GOODTIME LEAGUE

BJ & Co. Wins Round Robin Tournament

HIGHLIGHTS

In the continuation of the game between BJ & Co. and Kennelly which was called on account of darkness the week before, BJ & Co. held on to win 4-2. This put BJ & Co. and Kennelly into a tie and forced a playoff game. BJ & Co. got off to a large lead and eventually held on to win 13-9. BJ & Co. was paced by "Rockin'" Rodney Schultz and Leon "Boomer" Schultz as they both had home runs accounting for 4 runs. It was a team effort as John "Peg Leg" Kleinke played an excellent game without his crutches and his super dooper blooper pitch had Kennelly hitters off balance most of the game. Team manager Homer Justman had another good game after coming out of retirement. Kennelly was led by Bill Driscoll with a 2 run homer. BJ & Co. will receive the 4' high 14k gold trophy at the league banquet which will be held at the Crown Room at Tilly Schultz's bar in Beechwood. Featured speaker will be Richard Thiemer Jr. This will be in conjunction with his campaign for Markham Hair Designer of the year and top Jaycee of North America award. I'm sure that Richard Jr.'s moving speech will serve as an inspiration to us all. Better hurry, as the $100 a plate ticket are selling like hot cakes.

The Thiemerdome season has just ended and already the Chairman of the Board of the Dome, Richard Thiemer Sr. has promised new Mercury vapor lights so the league can be expanded. He also indicated he has been contacted by ESPN cable sports network for exclusive cable rights for the Goodtime League. He is concerned this may hold down the attendance for next year. It all depends on how lucrative a contract they offer.

REFLECTIONS OF THE 1984 SEASON

The 1984 season was a memorable one. It was Bartelt Ins. repeat as champions of the league. The crafty old veterans showed they could dig deep into the well when they had to. It also showed what lofty heights can be attained with the promise of a six pak or two. It saw BJ & Co. win the first Round Robin Tournament. It was a summer of Vermox Margarita's and crowds waiting in line to enter the VIP Lounge. Record attendance and concession sales. It saw Richard Thiemer smile every Friday morning as his private Brinks truck pulled in at Valley Bank to make his deposit. It saw close competitive games, no injuries, no major arguments and heavy duty camaraderie after the games. Record number of home runs and fun and laughter abounded in record amounts.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: David "Weeds" Wietor. .847 batting ave. with 5 home runs and 37 RBI's.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Dennis "Jacker" Jacak. Left fielder for BJ & Co.

MOST IMPROVED PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Tim "Yakker" Smith, catcher for BJ & Co. His constant chatter behind the plate kept opposing hitters off balance.

SCOREKEEPER OF THE YEAR AWARD: Tie between Barbara BJ Justman and Sandy Justman. Both young fillies did an impeccable job of keeping score until more than 10 runs were scored. Then they ran out of fingers and it was anyone's guess what the score was.

HOPE TO SEE Y'ALL NEXT YEAR.

Girls Nip Two Rivers, Lose to Plymouth, Horicon in Tennis

By John Harju

The Kewaskum Indians' tennis team won one out of three matches last week.

On Tuesday and Wednesday the Indian netters lost, first to Plymouth, 0-7, and then to Horicon, 3-4. Coach Rob Anglim's girls picked up their only win of the week (and only their second of the season) on Thursday, nipping Two Rivers, 4-3.

Host Kewaskum chalked up two of the four matches against Two Rivers, via forfeit. The other wins were posted by Beth Keagle who came back to triumph 3-6, 6-4, 7-5 at No. 3 singles, and the No. 2 doubles team of Nancy Baron and Tina Survis who were victorious in straight sets of 6-2.

Kewaskum had a rough time of it in the two losses of last week. Against visiting Plymouth, Kewaskum won only one individual match — varsity or JV for that matter. Lisa Dinesen just got by, 9-7, in a JV match to avoid an overall Plymouth sweep. Kewaskum's record now stands at 2-7.

Plymouth 7, Kewaskum 0

Singles: No. 1 — Amber Charland lost to N. Gates 4-6, 1-6. No. 2 — Devona Gruber lost to K. Guetschow 4-6, 4-6. No. 3 — Beth Keagle beat D. Urbin 3-6, 6-4, 7-5. No. 4 — Julie Reha won via forfeit.

Doubles — No. 1 — Gale Schekirke/Becky Falk lost to Taylor/V. Guetschow 6-3, 3-6, 9-11. No. 2 — Nancy Baron/Tina Survis beat Brashow/Rohrer 6-2, 6-2. No. 3 — Shelly Wessing/Karie Sarauer won via forfeit.

(Kewaskum girls listed first).

Bartelt Ins. Wins 1984 Thiemerdome Championship

Tom Larsen Wins United States Softball Association Umpire of the Year Award

Local resident and all around good guy Tom Larsen's smile shows his pleasure in displaying the trophy awarded to him. The top flight umpire also dabbles in education and administration during the off season.

Girls Beaten By Plymouth In Volleyball

John Harju

Kewaskum's volleyball team showed sparks of good play last Tuesday but still ended up losing — 11-15, 13-15, 7-15 — to conference rival Plymouth in Kewaskum.

In the first game of the match, Kewaskum came back from a 10-2 deficit to lead 11-10 before falling 15-11.

It was the Indians' turn to jump out in the second game. Kewaskum led 13-2 before sputtering to a 15-13 defeat. Coach Dave Rizzardi played reserves, giving them some experience, in the final game.

Rizzardi cited Sandy Secor for good spiking and blocking, as well as soph Laurie Blum — good serving — and Lisa Fusek for some timely spiking.

The Indian JV team roared back to win 9-15, 15-5, 15-9. Sue Paul, debuting as JV coach, praised the efforts of many players including Dawn Dieringer, Terri Schmidt, and Lisa Schneider.

Paul replaces Michelle Wiedmeyer, as former player, at JV coach, but Wiedmeyer will continue to help out with the freshmen who won — 15-12, 15-13, and 12-15. Rizzardi publically thanked Wiedmeyer for her pre-season help when he was without an assistant coach.

A relief pitcher is allowed eight warm-up pitches when he comes into a baseball game.

Boys, Girls Both Third in Lomira Invitational

By John Harju

The Indian cross country squad finally performed up to potential in last Thursday's Lomira Invitational. Both the boys' and girls' squads took home well earned third place trophies.

Gunner Schlieter and Monty Shaw placed second and fourth, respectively, to lead the boys while Sandy Klein and Lori Batzler finished 7th and 9th to pace the girls.

Last year, Schlieter won the JV race at Lomira, and since then he has improved dramatically to become the No. 1 Indian. Thursday was the first time Schlieter ever finished ahead of teammate Shaw.

Carrie Batzler, only a freshman, finished in 12th place, 14 seconds behind her sister Lori.

Two Rivers Rolls Over Indians in Rain, 49-20

By John Harju

Behind the running of Tony Amond, who rushed for 369 yards on 28 carries and 5 touchdowns, Two Rivers, with the subtlety of a run-away locomotive, destroyed Kewaskum, 49-20, in last Friday night's EW conference opener for both schools.

Although the E-W conference doesn't keep individual football records, commissioner Bob Feuerstein doesn't think there has been anyone in the history of the conference who has either rushed for 369 yards or scored 5 touchdowns like 5'8", 160 pound Amond did at Kewaskum last Friday.

The Indians started off well enough taking the lead 6-0 after one quarter, when QB Mark Follmann hit Mike Steinhardt for a 20 yard TD strike to cap-off an 80 yard drive.

Follmann, who started for the first time at safety, picked off a Bob Welsh pass to set up this first score.

Two Rivers countered on their next possession when Amond blew into the end zone from 12 yards out to finish off a 69 yard drive and tie the Indians at 6-6.

Kewaskum took the lead — for the last time — 12-6, when Follmann once again "found" Steinhardt for a 40 yard touchdown pass. The pass was tipped by defender Ron Johnson and into the waiting hands of Steinhardt who raced the rest of the way for the score.

Welsh took a 1 yard keeper into the end zone and then connected with Bob Peterson for a 2-point conversion and give Two Rivers their first lead and led at halftime, 14-12.

Two Rivers outscored the Indians, 35-8, in the second half to bury Kewaskum and add insult to injury.

The Raiders' second half scores came on runs of 6, 5, 52, and 66 yards by Amond and a 12 yard un by Gary Stelzer who finished with 69 yards on 17 carries.

Coach Mike Fifrick again credited Follmann, who was 18 out of 26 (11 in a row to begin the game) for 196 yards, 3 TD's and 3 interceptions, with a good game.

Kewaskum's final points came in the fourth quarter — Follmann edited an 18 yard TD pass to Rick Staehler. (Staehler also caught the 2-pt. conversion from Follmann).

Fifrick also credited his offensive line, which only gave up 1 sack, with a better game than usual.

Kewaskum's running was also more affective than usual. The Indians rushed 24 times for 101 yards (4.1 average). Two Rivers rushed 49 times for 438 yards (8.9 avg.).

Fifrick gave many reserves playing time in the fourth quarter. Sophomore Mike Coulter took 4 carries for 13 yards, Ken Miller caused a fumble, and Rich Wesenberg and Mark Johnson both played well defensively to highlight the varsity reserves performance.

The Indian defense was led by Tom Herriges, who had 8 tackles, knocked down 2 passes, and had an interception, for a total of 15 defensive points. John Gundrum led Kewaskum in tackles with 11.

Falls, Kiel, Two Rivers Favored in Conference

By John Harju

Undoubtedly, the Kewaskum Indians won't repeat as E-W conference champions — last Friday's loss to Two Rivers was evidence of that fact — but then who will?

In a recent poll of the E-W coaches as to who will end up on top this year, three teams — Sheboygan Falls, Kiel, and perennial power Two Rivers — were mentioned most frequently to become Kewaskum's successor.

Although the conference coaches don't agree on who will win the conference, these three teams will probably finish in the top three positions. What order they finish is another story.

SHEBOYGAN FALLS — Coach: Dan Juedes, 3rd year. 1984 record: 6-3 overall, 3-3 in conference (third place).

Sheboygan Falls' defense will be the strong point of head coach Dan Juedes' '84 Falcon squad. Ten letter winners return this year led defensively by All-Conference selection lineman Steve Pribek as well as second team linebacker Randy Morgan.

Falls, 4-0 so far, has had three blowout victories as well as a narrow 7-6 victory against Kewaunee. Last Friday, the Falcon 5-2 monster defense limited Plymouth to only one first down and a mere 53 yards in total offense, shutting out the Panthers, 27-0.

Falls' offense is equally as talented but inexperienced according to Juedes. Falls might have the best backs in the conference. Evidence of this was shown in a 46-0 trouncing of Shorewood in which the Falcons amassed 508 yards rushing along with 47 passing.

Senior running backs, Jim Schlegel and Kevin "Porky" Mauer rushed for 175 and 99 yards apiece.

In Friday's opening win vs. Plymouth Schlegel rushed for 125 yards (Mauer added 81 more) while quarterback Jeff Schomberg was 3 out of 9 for 53 yards and one TD.

TWO RIVERS — coach: Jerry Bonino, 8th year. 1984 record: 6-3 overall, 4-2 conf. (tied for 2nd).

Two Rivers, under the guidance of head coach Jerry Bonino — who is 52-20 in 8 years at the Raider helm, has one of the most successful Division III programs in the state the last few years. Nothing should change in 1984.

Bonino unabashedly picks his Raiders to win the conference championship. There are "no real weakness" according to Bonino, although, "we have a weak kicking game and less depth than I would like."

Nineteen seniors form a strong nucleus for the 1984 squad to center around. Bonino's starting backfield of QB Welsh, FB Gary Stelzer, and HB Tony Amond are a force to be reckoned with — as Kewaskum has recently found out. The defense is led by a host of large seniors back from last year's squad.

Before routing Kewaskum Friday, Two Rivers had already beaten these strong teams — Appleton Xavier, Madison East and DePere Abbot Pennings in pre-season play.

KIEL — Coach: Dario Talerico, 2nd year. 1984 record: 4-5 overall, 2-4 conf. (4th).

Head coach Dario Talerico will field a much improved and experienced Kiel Raider team in 1984. Returning are 13 lettermen, seven of which were starters in '83.

Talerico has virtually his entire offensive and defensive lines returning. "Our strength should be in our offensive and defensive lines," said Tolerico. He is a bit concerned about the lack of experience in the offensive and defensive backfields. The entire defensive backfield graduated and only one starter returns in the offensive backfield.

No doubt Kiel probably has the biggest conference team. Their offensive line includes 6' 200 pound All-Conference selection Bill Kraus as well as four other lettermen ranging from 200-235 pounds.

Running through these big holes will be the only returning backfield starter in halfback John Schmitt, as well as newcomers, Rick Platz, Steve Lepisto, and soph Ken Zorn. The quarterback will be Tom Konz.

Kiel scored all of its 20 points in the fourth quarter to win, 20-14, over Colby last Friday in a non-conf. game. Schmitt intercepted 2 passes, returning them for a total of 63 yards, ran a lateral for 26, added another 67 in 13 rushes to lead Kiel's come back and keep the Raiders' record unblemished.

KEWASKUM — Coach: Mike Fifrick, 6th year. 1984 record: 11-1 overall, 6-0 conf. (1st).

Coach Mike Fifrick has few returnees but those who have returned, bring the knowledge of how to win.

The quarterbacking of Mark Follmann must be on target for the Indians to have a chance to win. The Indians won't win any games this year because of their defense. As Follmann goes, so go the Indians.

Every game this year will be a real challenge for Kewaskum. The Indian defense is vulnerable to the run up the middle, putting a lot of pressure on the linebackers, and don't really have an established running game.

In the 3 losses thus far, Kewaskum averages 273 yards in total offense and gives up an average of 404 yards. The Indians average only 92 yards rushing a game compared to a whopping 265 for their opponents.

PLYMOUTH — Coach: Jim Beaver, 6th year. 1984 record: 6-3 overall, 4-2 conf. (tied for 2nd).

It will be a year of rebuilding for head coach Jim Beaver and his 1984 Plymouth Panthers.

"We are in a state of transition," says Beaver, "we have always had several starters coming back, but not this year. Beaver does, however, have 9 returning lettermen, but only three of these are starters.

Plymouth, currently 0-3 overall, is inexperienced and lacks depth in most positions. Beaver claims his Panthers need intensity and few mistakes to win, otherwise, it could turn into "a very long year."

Plymouth will do a lot of running — mostly to the right side — where 6' 170 pound guard John Diedrich, 217 pound tackle Rich Schroeder, and 6'1" 186 pound Terry Gemas anchor the line.

In a recent game against Hortonville (which Plymouth led 13-0 at half only to lose 20-13), Osieczanek carried 19 times for 97 yards. In Friday's loss at Falls, Plymouth momentarily stunned the Falcons when they switched from their normal wing-T to a short-yardage, power offense which they continued to play the rest of the way. The lopsided Falcon victory, obviously, shows that they recovered from the switch nicely.

CHILTON — Coach: Bob Sager, 9th year. 1984 record: 2-7 overall, 1-5 conf. (tied for last).

If everyone plays up to potential, and no injuries crop up, then head coach Bob Sager feels that his Chilton Tigers can become a factor in the E-W conference.

Sager has 13 lettermen returning, including 5 starters. Chilton, currently 1-2, could surprise a lot of people this year. Sager says his team's strengths are good size and quickness in both lines along with good offensive backfield depth.

Running backs Dave Pethan, Tony Ownes, and Tony Hephner should take most of the handoffs. A major decision had to be made by Sager as to who would be his '84 quarterback.

6'6" senior Todd Eisner was moved to split-end so that opened the door for senior Jim Ronk to take over at signal caller.

Last Friday, Chilton's defense held New Holstein to a skimpy 2 first downs and only 114 yards in total offense. Chilton won, 12-6, in overtime.

NEW HOLSTEIN — Coach: Jon Turnell, 3rd year. 1984 record: 2-7 overall, 1-5 conf. (tied for last).

Coach Jon Turnell's New Holstein Huskies are aiming for the .500 mark this season after finishing 2-7 last year. If they do, "this would provide a rewarding season," remarks Turnell.

8 lettermen return — all starters — but leading the 1984 Huskies will be their offensive backfield, which will consist of senior lettermen, Rich Pethan and 225 pound fullback Dan Rose. Junior Brian Klapperich will be the quarterback of the Huskies' wing-T formation. Defensively, New Holstein will play the 5-2 monster.

Turnell has some speed and talent at some skilled positions but lacks overall team depth. He notes that his front lines on defense and offense are relatively small. Three starters return to both lines.

New Holstein, presently 0-3, had just 17 yards rushing on 29 running plays in their loss to Chilton last Friday. Scott Lefeber led the way with 26 yards on 5 carries.
