Village Sending Out 1986 Fire Service Contracts

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board has begun reviewing departmental budget proposals for 1986.

The first request to come before the board Monday night covers the Kewaskum Fire Department. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the trustees the budget of $110,849 has an increase of 2.6% or $1,835 over the 1985 budget. Preliminary calculations had come up with the budget carrying an increase of over 4% said Schmidt, but after reviewing the figures with the department heads we were able to reduce that increase substantially.

In conjunction with the department's budget, Schmidt presented the 1986 contracts for fire service to the Village, Town of Kewaskum and Town of Auburn. The village's 1986 contract will be $47,298, an increase of 4.9% or $2,230. Schmidt said the village had the highest increase in equalized valuation, one of the factors used in the formula to calculate contract costs. The Town of Kewaskum's valuation went down, resulting in a 1986 contract of $35,834, decreasing by 4.5% or $1,673 from the 1985 Auburn's equalized value did not go up, its number of fire calls did not go down either, resulting in a 1986 contract of $20,137, an increase of 10.3% or $1,888.

In other action, the board approved Schmidt's recommendation to hold an open house for the remodeled Municipal Building. Schmidt's plan was to start with a short program in the Municipal Building at 12:30 p.m. November 2nd, followed by half-hour bus tours throughout the village, making stops at various plants including the treatment plant, new well and pumphouse, etc., returning for a tour of the remodeled building where refreshments would be served. The board agreed with Schmidt's proposal and authorized him to go ahead with the arrangements.

On a six to one vote, the board approved a resolution stating the village's intent to participate, as an exempt unit of government, in the proposed County-wide Library system. Trustee Howard Laubenstein, the dissenting vote, said he could not understand why the village was supporting the plan when the townships were against it. Trustee Mary Krueger said the program

Stop Lights a Consideration For Highway H-45 Crossing

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Policy-Legislation Committee again addressed the issue of students walking to school from the Trailer Court-Bel Ric areas along Highways 45 and H.

In a recent letter to the School Board, Kewaskum Police Chief Donald Hlavaty stated, "the need of a crossing guard, at this time, is in the negative." He based his comment on several factors which were arrived at after a week-long study of the area. Hlavaty's report stated, the intersection of Fond du Lac Avenue and Highway H is a non-factor in the traffic and pedestrian flow during these times. The people coming out of the subdivision do not use the new sidewalks. About 95% of them are walking on the roadway. Auto traffic indicates people are using car-pooling to transport their children to school. The bicycle traffic is very high now, but will change during inclement weather. No pedestrian traffic comes or goes from the mobile home court. Most of the people cross highway 45 near the fire house, then proceed down Elm Street or along the parkway passing through the west side of River Hill Park.

Hlavaty stated in his opinion, a crossing guard would have a difficult time controlling the people. "I've had several complaints from motorists who have had problems with the children walking on the highway and not yielding to the autos." He acknowledged this point was his problem and that his department would solve it. "I believe it is parental responsibility to teach their children to cross the streets properly and not of a crossing guard who will undoubtedly come under verbal abuse trying to see to their safety." Committee Chairman Neal Weare indicated that he felt there were still other solutions

Blood Donor Drive Set

On Wednesday, Oct. 2 from 1:30-6:30 p.m., the Milwaukee Blood Center will be at the Kewaskum High School. Won't you please give the gift of life by donating a pint of blood?

REFLECTIONS OF A DONOR

It's only a pint,
Such a small amount
To give;
But it's mine
Rich-red, vibrant
And healthy.
So blest be this blood
As it leaves my veins
And speeds its way
To the stranger,
In need of it,
And whom I do not know.
May he, through me,
Be healed and his life renewed—
This stranger, though sight
Unseen,
Now one with me
In the blood brotherhood of man.

Arthur C. Hansen, M.D.

Degnitz New County Clerk

Arthur G. "Art" Degnitz, currently a county supervisor for portions of the City of West Bend and Town of Trenton, was elected to the post of county clerk last Tuesday at a meeting of the Washington County Board of Supervisors.

He won a 19-11 victory over Janet Roell, secretary to the board chairman, and acting county clerk.

Degnitz succeeds George Nehrbaas, who resigned recently.

Sept. 23 Kickoff Date For United Way Drive

September 23, 1985 will be the kickoff date for the Kewaskum Area United Way Campaign, which continues until November 1. Co-Chairman John Tessar and Ed Miller hope to equal the success of last year's drive. With a fine staff of volunteers to help them both, John and Ed feel the campaign will be successful.

A kickoff meeting for the United Way chairmen and captains was held on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Valley Bank.

To give that effort a boost the Kewaskum School District Staff — teachers, administrators, and support staff — has already pledged $2,700 toward our goal of $30,000. Public Sector Captain Gerry Gosa is hoping to up that figure by several hundred dollars before the campaign is over. Congratulations are in order to the school staff for this great support for our United Way Campaign!

This year the United Way Board, under the leadership of Dr. Dennis Connor as President, has put together a slide talk to educate the public in the needs of our area and the organizations which receive funds. This slide talk can be made available to service organizations and church groups in the area. If your group would be interested in viewing this short presentation please call Dr. Connor 626-4328 or Margaret McFadden 626-4638.

As the campaign gets underway and you are asked to make a pledge, John and Ed ask you to remember that this has been a tough year for some members of our community so your support is needed more than ever. Kewaskum has always supported it's own and thanks to you it works for all of us — The United Way!

Kewaskum Denies Cable TV Request for Rate Hike

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

On a 6 to 1 vote Monday night, the Kewaskum Village Board vetoed a request by River Bend Cablevision that it be allowed to increase its monthly basic service rate from $9.97 to $11.95, effective October 1st.

Steve Peterson, Senior Vice President of River Bend, gave a strong pitch for the hike, citing increased operating costs, unbudgeted capital cost increases and an effort to reduce CATV's accumulated deficit.

While the board listened to Peterson's presentation, it was evident most of the trustees were not affected by the statistics. Skyrocketing program fees we pay to the vendors are one of the main reasons we're asking for the increase, said Peterson. As an example, said Peterson, our costs to run the ESPN channel which carries most of the sports programs have risen from $1,000 to $130,000. Trustee Howard Laubenstein told Peterson anyone who is in business is faced with the same problem now, but we still have to try and hold or even lower our prices.

Peterson said the video cassette business, satellite dishes, and more UHF channels coming onto the market are affecting our business. The video business has had such an effect that the Disney Channel has lowered its cost to us and we will be lowering our price about $1.00 to $2.00 in the next month or two.

Trustee Mary Krueger, who has voiced her opposition from the start, again told Peterson, you're the only cable service available and people have to deal with you. "Cable is a luxury business and it's a private business, all we're asking is the right to adjust our prices," stated Peterson.

When the Board voted down the request Peterson became very upset. He told the trustees, River Bend's contract states that you have to justify your actions. Krueger indicated the board was acting on behalf of the residents. Peterson asked, then why weren't any of your constituents here to complain during the public hearing? Krueger told Peterson, they call on the phone and come to your house. Peterson said he did not think the people were dissatisfied with the service or the rates. "I suggest your constituents come and tell me they are dissatisfied," said Peterson.

Board President Dave Nigh told Peterson there was no more that could be done at this time. The vote has been taken and the request denied, said Nigh. "I will want to come back to you next month," said Peterson.

Stop Lights

to be considered to improve the situation. He noted that he felt conditions were safer now with the busing of kindergarten through sixth grade students.

After a lengthy discussion regarding busing and pedestrian travel, Weare told the meeting he had talked to Representative Mary Panzer about the possibility of implementing stop lights at the corner. "I think stop and go lights would add immeasurably to safety," said Weare, "not only for the students but all pedestrians." Weare felt that if lights were installed, more people, especially the elderly, would consider using the sidewalks to go to the mall to do their shopping or errands in town, rather than driving.

Weare conceded it could be a lengthy and difficult task, if not impossible, to get the state to consider such action. He asked the parents attending the meeting to contact the Village Board and see if they could enlist its aid in dealing with the Department of Transportation. Weare felt the idea was at least worth a try.

District Administrator Penny Kleinhans noted a more immediate step to take by both parents and the school is educating the children in the proper way to travel along roads, etc., when walking to school.

Mrs. Janet Martinson, 507 Lin-de Lane, told the committee she felt no small child should walk to school. Kleinhans indicated she could understand Martinson's feeling, however, the costs would be enormous. It's costing the district $6,000 just to bus the K-6 children from the Bel-Ric area now she said. Additional busing would run into many, many thousands of dollars, noted Kleinhans.

Committee member Ron Theusch told Martinson she would get little, if any, support from rural residents. They won't be willing to pay the additional costs for busing because they won't be receiving any more benefits from the busing than they're getting right now.

The committee also discussed Policy #1330 which concerns the use of school facilities by community groups. The committee drew up a list of revision and additions which will be recommended to the School Board at a future meeting.

would give village residents access to more materials and books from larger libraries such as West Bend and Fond du Lac. Krueger said, if the plan operates the way it should, there would be no cost to the village to participate since it already maintains its own library. The townships would be paying for services to the 180,000 county residents who presently do not have access to any libraries.

In other business the board approved permits for construction of a new home on Roseland Drive by Dennis Anderson, home remodeling by Dennis Giese, and garage construction by Howard Zemlicka.

The board then adjourned to closed session to discuss employee negotiations.

Town of Scott to Hold Special Meeting

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At its September 9th meeting, the Scott Town Board approved a motion to hold a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. September 30th, to discuss a mobile home parking ordinance.

In other business, the board discussed complaints from two Batavia residents regarding stray and unlicensed dogs within the township. Chairman Charles Fick said the board would look into the complaints and review the listings for dog licenses. The board decided to issue citations for any violations. Fines and court costs could range as high as $47.00 for any citations issued.

The board also took action to adopt an order confirming creation of the Town of Scott Sanitary District #1. A recent investigation revealed that, at the time the district was created, the proper order had not been filed with the Sheboygan County Register of Deeds. A petition, however, was located which requested the district. A search of the town records showed the petition in the July, 1972, meeting minutes but no formal motion entered into the records for the order. An order will be sent with a letter to the Register to correct the oversight.

Leroy Gnacinski informed the board that the town's new grader had arrived in Milwaukee and it had been inspected to see that it meets specifications.

Gnacinski also informed the board that he was not satisfied with the blacktop work around the manholes on Western Avenue in Batavia. Approximately one inch of iron protrudes over the blacktop which will result in snowplowing problems. A letter will be sent to the district commissioner asking that measures be taken to correct the situation.

In other action, the board re-appointed Ruth Soehner to another two-year term on the Town of Scott Plan Commission. Gary Held was appointed to serve as an alternate. Both terms will expire in 1988.

Homeowners should realize that heavily insulated and weathertight homes during winter are so tightly sealed that the stove or furnace may exhaust the oxygen in the home. If this happens, the burning fire will produce poisonous carbon-monoxide gas. Be sure enough fresh air enters your home at all times a fire is burning, by providing some air vent.

BOOSTERS FACE SHORTAGE

"Will anyone be there," may be the critical agenda item facing KHS Booster Club at its first meeting of the year scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Booster's executive board has been wrestling with the problem of declining parental participation in its efforts to boost school spirit. On the other hand, the financial and support needs for extracurricular activities appear to increase annually.

A good example of this is the request facing the parent group to purchase wind screens for the school tennis courts. Also, this is the year Booster will be asked to buy more athletic warm-ups.

Last week the club presented a new camera to the school newspaper, an expensive but necessary piece of equipment for a newspaper.

The needs are there but the money and people may not be if the trend continues. Booster encourages you to join them at its parent-roundup Sept. 25.

Refreshments will be served.

KHS News Staff Receives Gift

Mrs. Margaret McFadden, president of the Kewaskum Booster Club, presented the Kewaskum High School newspaper, the Smoke Signals, with a camera at the Booster Club meeting on September 11.

Rick Heller, sports editor, accepted the camera for the Smoke Signals. The camera is a 35MM Cannon AE-1. Included with the camera was a filter, two lenses, flash and a carrying case.

Smoke Signals advisor, Kevin Chambers, was thankful for the camera. He commented, "this camera should help us get better pictures in the future issues of the newspaper. It should help make the Smoke Signals a better paper."

Sunshine and Sharpshooters Make Annual Turkey Shoot Successful

Shouts of here! here! I'll take one, I've got my money ready! rang out as the annual Regal Ware sale got into full swing at the Kiwanis Turkey Shoot.

Statesman Staff Writer

The sharp of eye and the strong of arm, claimed 336 birds during the Kewaskum Kiwanis 33rd Annual Turkey Shoot held at the Bar-N Ranch this past Sunday. The beautiful sunny day also contributed to drawing hundreds of people out for the annual event, either to participate in the various events or merely enjoy the day and efforts of those who sought to prove their prowess as a mighty hunter.

While it was balloons which bit the dust during the day's activities, it was a nice frozen turkey that went home with the lucky individuals who were able to hit the mark on either the rifle, archery or trapshoot lines.

Fishermen were not about to be outdone by the hunters as hundreds of anglers tried their luck at the trout pond. Over 300 of the tasty beauties found their way to a frying pan before the day was done.

Ervin Parlow of Waubeka won the grand prize for catching the largest fish. His 15" trout earned him a LaPasta pasta making machine.

People came from far and wide to attend the event.

Considered one of the world's greatest composers, Mozart died before his 36th birthday. He left a heritage of more than 600 works.

Sept. 30 Last Day To Apply for Crop Insurance in County

September 30 is the last day to apply for crop insurance for wheat in Washington County, according to Jerry Van Beek, a representative of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC).

Crop insurance covers unavoidable loss of production resulting from adverse weather conditions, wildlife, earthquake, or fire.

"Three coverage levels (50, 65, or 75 percent) are available for insurance protection. Additionally, FCIC offers three optional price elections for valuing production lost or damaged," says Van Beek.

A new crop insurance plan, called actual production history (APH), is available this year to producers of wheat, barley, and oats in addition to corn, grain sorghum, and other crops. Producers of these crops may now qualify for higher yield guarantees by proving their yield history. Rates have been developed to offer reduced premium for producers with above-average yields. "With the increased cost of producing a crop, it makes good sense to take a look at this new concept," says Van Beek.

To find out more about the APH plan, producers should contact a local, authorized agent. To select an agent, producers may check the list of agents at their local ASCS office. September 30 is the final deadline for applications.

'Art in the Park' Community Success

The GFWC Kewaskum Jr. Woman's Club is happy to announce the success of its 3rd Annual Art In The Park Festival on September 15th.

The six hour event was enjoyed by 600-800 people from all over Wisconsin. Special highlights for children of all ages were the appearances by Woodsy Owl, McGruff the Crime Dog and Smokey Bear.

This year's event gave a "Best of Show" award in both the crafts and arts divisions. Winner of the Best of Show - Crafts was Mrs. Jan Guse of West Bend, whose original design, acrylic painting on crates, barrels, animal cutouts, and ornaments caught the eye of many shoppers. Best of Show - Arts featured the original pastels and watercolor work of Peggy Gramarossa of West Allis, as well as her numerous prints and touching calligraphy pieces.

With the size and scope of a project such as Art In The Park, it is not only through the efforts of club members that a success is reached. The Kewaskum Juniors wish to thank the following businesses and individuals whose assistance and support were greatly appreciated:

Regal Ware, Bernie Trapp and Art Dept., Kewaskum Village Crew and Police Dept., Valley Bank, KL Home &

Art in the Park Festival Draws Good Crowd

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The third annual Art In The Park Festival sponsored by the GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club drew hundreds of visitors to the Kewaskum Kiwanis Park where area artists displayed their wares for sale.

The beautiful sunny day and the open relaxed setting of the park allowed people to browse at their leisure among the many booths, talking to the craftsmen as they selected their purchases. A wide variety of items, from sculpture to nature craft creations such as pinecone wreaths and table decorations were available for purchase.

The Juniors again sold tickets for their annual quilt raffle which this year featured a queen-sized tulip pattern quilt. The raffle drawing will be held September 30th.

Musical entertainment throughout the day was provided by the singing duo of Robin and Paul.

Junior Woman's Club member Beth Stoffel sold tickets for the club's annual quilt raffle.

Youngsters played on the swings while their parents browsed through the Art Festival displays.

Prospective customers talked to the craftsmen about their wares.

TODAY'S AGRICULTURE

By Jack Trzebiatowski, Washington County Agricultural Agent

SAFE HARVESTING OF CORN SILAGE

The unusual 1985 growing season has resulted in many corn fields that may not develop or yield well. Growers may be considering harvesting these acres for corn silage.

Harvesting stunted corn for corn silage brings about two concerns. First, in years where corn has been under stress due to dry weather, it is very likely that the corn will have a higher than normal nitrate content. Nitrates can cause problems when feeding this feed to livestock. Livestock feeders should have a sample of this feed analyzed to see whether nitrate levels are a concern or not.

Nitrate levels can be reduced by cutting the plant a bit higher, as the high levels of nitrate are in the lower part of the stalk, or allowing the feed to go through a fermentation process where much of the nitrate will be lost. If nitrate levels are still high, adjustments may need to be made in the feeding program limiting the amount of the high nitrate feed consumed daily.

High nitrate contents also increase the potential of forming silage gas. Silage gas is nitrogen dioxide, a yellowish-brown gas that smells like bleach. It can form nitric acid in your lungs, causing permanent lung damage or death.

Nitrogen dioxide is formed from nitrates in the silage and oxygen in the air. The gas is heavier than air, so it will lie on top of the silage or settle down through the chute. It may also seep through the drain at the silo's base. It will go anywhere it can flow. If it gets into the barn, it can kill livestock.

If you're filling silos, take precautions to protect yourself, your help, and your livestock. The first 48 hours after filling the silo are the most dangerous. However, silage gas may remain in the silo for up to three weeks.

Early symptoms of silage gas poisoning include shortness of breath, coughing, choking, burning in the nose, mouth or throat, blurred vision, drowsiness, and nausea. If you get minor symptoms while in the silo or shortly thereafter, see a doctor immediately. People who show early symptoms may develop chemical pneumonia, which is a build-up of fluid in the lungs.

A low concentration of silage gas is difficult to smell or see, but dangerous. Don't enter silos or feed rooms for at least two weeks after filling. Open chute doors down to the level of the silage and open feed room windows immediately after filling. If you have to enter a silo during this time, first run the blower for 20 minutes to displace any silage gas with fresh air. Never enter the silo alone.

Following these safety precautions, producers can reduce risk of feeding and harvesting corn silage to their livestock and themselves.

Kewaskum Statesman, Page 12

farm operation, he or she may not be at peak performance initially, thus reducing work output, Tormoehlen points out.

Indirect costs can be just as damaging. These include lodging, parking and mileage expenses for family visits to the hospital and trips to the physical therapist, as well as the time spent caring for the injured person. Legal fees and paper work can consume time and money. Property damage and higher insurance premiums also add to the cost of the accident, he points out.

Disabled accident victims may require refitted buildings and equipment to continue working on the farm, Tormoehlen says. Severe cases may force the victim out of farming.

"To avoid falling victim to a costly farm accident, plan ahead this coming harvest season," he urges. "Before heading to the field, check to make sure that safety shields are in place and operational. Fatigue is often a factor in farm accidents. Take frequent rest breaks during the day so you remain alert. Let's make this a safe harvest season."

Farm Accident Costs — Doctor Bills are Just the Beginning

Farming was the second most hazardous occupation in the nation last year, surpassed only by mining. Most years, however, farming is number one, says Roger Tormoehlen, University of Wisconsin Co-operative Extension Service farm safety specialist.

Agricultural work accidents killed about 1,700 people and caused 180,000 disabling injuries in 1984, according to the National Safety Council. Wisconsin had 36 farm-related fatalities. These dismal figures don't even include work-related illnesses, such as respiratory problems and hearing loss. A disabling work injury costs about $12,000 when averaged for all industries. Tormoehlen has developed a computer program to examine the costs incurred after a farm accident. Hospital bills are just the beginning, he says.

The financial costs of farm accidents is the emphasis of National Farm Safety Week, Sept. 15 to Sept. 21.

If the farm operator is injured, hired substitutes cost money. The new worker probably won't be as experienced or efficient as the injured person, causing productivity losses.

These losses can be devastating if the accident occurs during harvest or planting season, when the farm operator's expertise is needed. When the farmer returns to the

NEW SCOUT TROOP FOR LITTLE GIRLS

With the feel of autumn in the air my sister and I sometime get a little lonesome for home which was up at Camp Tiwaushara located just outside of the town of Red Granite. We have made new friends and enjoy living in Kewaskum. With the new sidewalks, it sure makes it easier and safer for the scouts to go to their meetings and return home again.

My little sister is bubbling with joy to know that this year for the first time in Kewaskum there is going to be a Girl Scout Troop for little girls. Yes, that troop will be known as the Daisy Girl Scouts.

As of October 1, Girl Scout membership will be open to girls who are five years old or in kindergarten. The National Board of Directors made this decision after more than a decade of research, study, and pilot projects in serving girls younger than six years of age. This new Girl Scout age level is the Daisy Girl Scouts.

The Daisy Girl Scouts will participate in the Girl Scout program through activities designed to meet the physical, intellectual, social, and emotional needs of five-year-old-girls. The Daisy Girl Scouts meet under the leadership of trained adults with one adult for every five girls.

The Daisy Girl Scout will even have a uniform. It is a blue tunic that you wear over a dress or skirt and top.

I am sure that there will be many other girls besides my sister that would like to join this new group of Girl Scouts.

Now is the time for all to sign up. If you didn't receive a form in school you can join by just placing a phone call to Janet Panzer at 626-4001. I am sure she would also accept volunteers to help make this program a success in Kewaskum.

Well, I have to go for now because it is getting dark and it is safer for little ones to be off the streets when the sun goes to sleep.

State Offers Amnesty To Delinquent Taxpayers

The Wisconsin Department of Revenue is implementing one-time-only tax amnesty from September 15 to November 22, 1985. During this period Wisconsin taxpayers who have not filed returns, or are in other ways delinquent in meeting their obligations to the State of Wisconsin, have a chance to clear up their problem without facing usual prosecution, late filing fees, and some interest penalties.

It is expected that Tax Amnesty will bring in tax revenues more quickly and in greater quantity than under the department's usual collection procedures. Under amnesty, the department will collect the tax legally owed with interest and will waive criminal prosecution, penalties for late filing, and a delinquent interest due on taxes not paid.

Legislation authorizing the amnesty period was enacted in the 1985-86 state budget. Wisconsin becomes one of more than a dozen states to declare a tax amnesty in hopes of collecting delinquent taxes and putting nonfiling taxpayers back on the tax rolls.

"We hope that through this amnesty program taxpayers who have not been paying their fair share, for whatever reason, will take care of their delinquency with the state and continue to pay their fair share in the future. Taxpayers who have paid should not have to subsidize those who haven't," said Michael Ley, Secretary of Revenue.

To qualify for amnesty, taxpayers must apply on an amnesty application form that must be filed by November 22, 1985. All types of taxes owed by an individual or business must be paid to the Department of Revenue within 90 days of notification of the amount due. All payments are final and must be made by certified or cashier's check or cash.

People with questions about amnesty can call a statewide, toll free hot line, 1-800-IOWA-WISC (1-800-468-9472) or any Department of Revenue office. People in the Milwaukee area also can call (414) 224-4000. Application for amnesty can be made by mail by writing to Wisconsin Tax Amnesty, P.O. Box 7887, Madison, WI 53708. The department urges those people with questions or who want to apply for amnesty to do it early in the amnesty period.

All types of taxes owed to the State of Wisconsin are eligible for amnesty: individual and corporate income, sales, use, employer withholding, gift, cigarette and beverage, motor fuel, inheritance, and fiduciary and trust taxes.

Amnesty will not apply to tax cases involving criminal tax investigation or litigation, or those cases where civil collection proceedings have started. Tax cases on appeal to the Wisconsin Tax Commission are eligible for amnesty only if the appeal is withdrawn.

Amnesty applies to all delinquencies owed to the department on or before May 15, 1985. Under amnesty the taxes, interest and penalties owed to the department will be totaled, and that amount reduced by 20 per cent, up to a maximum of $5,000 per taxpayer.

If a tax becomes delinquent after May 15, 1985, or if a taxpayer has never filed before, the amount owed in taxes will be calculated and interest will be charged at a rate of 1 per cent per month for the time the tax has been owed. This is a reduction of one-half per cent per month that is usually charged for delinquent taxes owed to the department.

In addition, all criminal prosecution, most negligent penalties, and late filing fees will be waived during the amnesty period.

"It is important to stress that Wisconsin has always had strong enforcement of its tax laws," said John Laabs, executive assistant to the Secretary and Tax Amnesty Coordinator. "We have a state that can be proud of a very high rate of compliance. It is on behalf of those people that have always paid their taxes that we are conducting an amnesty program. We will collect the taxes that were originally owed to us, and we will be returning taxpayers to the rolls for future years," he added.

Taxpayers applying for amnesty in Wisconsin should be prepared to solve any problems with the Internal Revenue Service. Like most other states, Wisconsin has an information sharing agreement with the IRS. All tax information is confidential and no names of any amnesty applicants will ever be made public.

After the amnesty period ends Wisconsin's tax enforcement laws become even tougher. Amnesty legislation increased penalties for attempts to defeat or evade taxes to a penalty equal to 100 per cent of the amount owed. Penalty for failure to file a return, or filing a false return has increased from a fine of not more than $500 and six months in jail to a fine of not more than $10,000 or nine months in jail. In addition, the new legislation authorizes the Department of Revenue to seize property through administrative action, revoke sellers permits for problems with any type of tax obligation, and deduct delinquent amounts owed from payments due to contractors who do business with the state.

The legislation creating the amnesty program estimated that the program will bring in at least $10 million. The dollars collected under amnesty will fund the Elderly Property Tax Deferral Program. That program will make loans available to the elderly to help ease the burden of paying property taxes.

Panzer Pushes For Local Funding

Washington County and other state residents who received partial septic system grants in 1984-85 can expect full grant funding if legislation drafted by State Representative Mary Panzer (R-West Bend) passes this fall. Representative Panzer is currently seeking additional legislative support in preparation for the fall session.

The third-term Republican described the legislation as an attempt to correct an inequity created by the 1985-87 state budget.

"Many counties," noted Panzer, "did not responsibly allocate state money for the septic system grant program in 1984-85. Washington County, to its credit, instead chose to prorate the grant amounts in order to insure that as many residents as possible would receive funding. At the same time, however, other Wisconsin counties provided funds on a first come, first serve basis, thereby limiting the number of people eligible for reimbursement. The budget rewards those counties by providing them with additional funds, while Washington County gets no additional dollars," she explained.

The legislation drafted by Rep. Panzer mandates that the DNR provide supplemental payments to 1984-85 grant recipients before making any new allocations.

Rep. Panzer characterized her bill as, "Equitable public policy. It accomplishes two beneficial goals. First, it rewards responsible county management. Second, it provides equity for residents of counties, such as Washington County, which did not initially receive as much grant money as they were entitled to," she concluded.

The eight counties that will be affected by this legislation will be: Clark, Iowa, LaCrosse, Marathon, Sauk, Washington, Rusk and Vernon.

State Considering Legalizing Gambling, Senator Stitt Reports

By Senator Don Stitt

In the months ahead, the Legislature will debate legalizing several forms of gambling in Wisconsin. Several resolutions are currently pending that would either permit a state lottery or allow parimutuel betting on dog and/or horse racing.

Many legislators argue that lotteries and betting are painless and easy ways to raise sorely needed state revenues. They also add that legalized lotteries and betting would decrease the tax burden and relieve legislators of the unpopular duty of raising taxes.

The popularity of lotteries is increasing. Just recently our neighbor, Iowa, entered the lottery business. Minnesota is our only neighboring state that does not have a lottery. Furthermore, the nationwide attention of New York's $41 million lottery jackpot stimulates interest in legalizing lotteries and gambling.

These recent events could boost efforts to legalize lotteries and betting in Wisconsin. To allow any form of gambling, a resolution must pass both Houses of the Legislature in two consecutive sessions and be approved in a statewide referendum in order to amend the State Constitution.

It is certainly easy for state legislators to support gambling, especially lotteries, in view of the recent publicity. However, government and state legislators must have the courage to reject simplistic solutions to fiscal shortfalls. Gambling victimizes the poor, the compulsive and those in society who want "something for nothing." Raising revenue through this channel is not only inefficient, but also improper.

Please feel free to write me, Senator Don Stitt, P.O. Box 7882, Madison, Wisconsin 53707, or call my office at 608-266-7513 or leave a message with the Legislative Hotline at 1-800-362-9696.

Sensenbrenner Receives 'Taxpayers Best Friend' Award

The National Taxpayers Union (NTU) announced that Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner has received the "Taxpayers Best Friend" award for having the courage to consistently vote on the behalf of American taxpayers for reduced federal spending during 1984, the second session of the 98th Congress.

According to the NTU, Congressman Sensenbrenner's score of 71 puts him in the 97th percentile — meaning his score was higher than 97 percent of all other members of the U.S. House of Representatives.

"In this time of extremely high budget deficits, it is vitally important that members of Congress protect the taxpayers' pocketbook when they vote on increasing levels of spending. Clearly, Congressman Sensenbrenner is mindful of his constituents' pocketbooks while representing them in Washington," said Ms. Jill Lancelot, NTU's Director of Congressional Affairs. "If there were more congressmen like him to vote against increased spending, we wouldn't be faced with such a massive federal debt right now," she added.

25 Years Ago

Sept. 16, 1960

Mrs. Edward Theusch, 46, Route 2, Kewaskum, and her daughter, Pearl, 17, were instantly killed Monday evening when the car driven by Mrs. Theusch was struck by a speeding northbound North Western railroad passenger train, as the two were driving out of their farm driveway across the train tracks. The train struck the auto broadside. The accident occurred about 1 1/2 miles north of Kewaskum just off of County Truck Highway V.

Fire, believed to have started in hay near the door, destroyed a large barn on the Allen Reindl farm in the Town of Kewaskum, several miles southwest of the village Wednesday night. Lost along with the 108 by 36 foot barn was a large amount of hay which filled the barn, about 1,500 bushels of grain, some straw, several bushels of alfalfa seed, some clover and other seed, a hay drier and motor and other equipment. Other machinery and equipment, as well as some farm animals were removed by neighbors, firemen and spectators before the fire got out of control. This was the second time in recent years that the barn on the Reindl farm was destroyed. About nine years ago a former barn blew down in a severe windstorm.

In a special congregational meeting on August 29, the members of St. Lucas Lutheran congregation voted to adopt the recommendation of the Building and Planning committee to proceed with construction of a new Sunday School building to house the congregation's more than 200 children of Sunday School age. The cost of the building is expected to run in the neighborhood of $90,000.00. The site selected for the new building is directly across the street from the present church, and drops off rather quickly to the east. This drop-off dictated the design and plan of the new building. The Sunday School classrooms will be on two floors, the building appearing as a two story building to the east, and as a single story building to the west. The 5 assembly size classrooms will be divided by folding doors into 3 rooms each, providing 15 classrooms of 11' x 19' each. This, plus two smaller rooms on the main floor will provide a total of 17 Sunday School rooms. Besides the classroom, the building contains a library, office, large store room, toilet facilities and boiler room.

First grade pupils entering the Kewaskum Public School are: Debra Backhaus, Dianne Backhaus, Terry Backhaus, Steven Backhaus, Karen Bade, Peggy Bartelt, Debbie Behnke, Debra Bilgo, Janet Bunkelman, Charles Buss, JoAnn Doman, Julie Ebert, Mary Edwards, Darla Fellenz, Mary Ellen Galabinske, Kristy Honeck, Sherry Johnson, Yvonne Kleinke, Roger Kirchner, Kathie Kreif, Jerome Kuehl, Larry Kurkowski, Beverly Liegl, Pamela Manthei, Sylvester Marquardt, Joan Merwin, Kathleen O'Brien, Mitchell Ogi, Elaine Oliver, Helen Rauch, Jennifer Reigle, Kim Rodenkirch, Christel Rudzitis, Peter Rudzitis, Doreen Rumsey, Sandra Schleif, Susan Schleif, William Schmidt, Deborah Schuppel, Glenn Schuppel, Bethana Seefeldt, Patricia Semb, David Stern, Bruce Survis, Jack Tessar, Jay Tessar, Karen Timmerman, Marvin Wahnschaffe, Alice Weddig, Steven Weddig, Jeanne Yeadeke.

Sharon Ann Dreher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Dreher of Kewaskum, recently won her silver wings as an American Airlines stewardess and is now based in Boston, assigned to flight duty out of the airline's central airport.

Stations at WBKV and WBKV-FM, West Bend, announced the addition of two employees to its sales and announcing staffs. Joining the announcing staff is Dick Romaine, son of E.M. Romaine of Kewaskum.

Batting averages for the season of the Frozen Foods softball team, champions of the Tuesday Night Slow Pitch League, were as follows: Jim McChain .500; Otto Ramthun .448; Don Theusch .425; Bob Berg .383; John Heisdorf .383; Harv Ramthun .378; Roger Yeadeke .378; Dave Nigh .366; Jim Heisdorf .364; Glen Rimmel .355; Ken Johnson .286; Tom Bartelt .267. Pitcher Tom Bartelt's record for the season was 10-1.

A blaze, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion, leveled a large barn on the Paul Cechvala farm on Hwy. 144 north of Barton Saturday night. Loss from the blaze which was discovered before 10 p.m., was estimated at approximately $15,000 to $18,000.

The Math. Herriges Tavern at St. Michaels was entered by three strangers on Monday evening of last week. One of the men covered Mr. Herriges with a revolver, during which time his partners carried away a slot machine. They placed it in their automobile and then drove away. The strangers had an old car, but due to the darkness, it was not possible to get the license number.

The largest crowd known to attend a baseball game in Kewaskum, over 600 people, saw the team down Thiensville last Sunday afternoon in the second game of a doubleheader by a 5 to 1 score, to give Kewaskum the undisputed championship of the Badger State League for 1935. The local team, one of the best ever to represent this village on a baseball field, won both halves of the split season, thereby eliminating a playoff.

With a 6 to 0 victory over Silver Creek last Sunday, the New Fane baseball team cinched the pennant in the Rainbow League for the 1935 season.

A very rare occurrence took place at Sylvester J. Driessel's clinic in West Bend last week, when twin children, a boy and a girl, were born four days apart. ## Hunting Permit Deadlines Near Permit application deadlines are nearing for the various Wisconsin hunting seasons.

Applications for permits for the Horicon/Central Zone Canada Goose seasons already had to be postmarked no later than September 15th. There are 10,300 permits available for the first period of the Horicon Zone hunt which opens at noon on Oct. 5 and runs through October 20. A total of 3,450 permits will be issued for the second period of the Horicon Zone Canada Goose hunting opening October 21 and closing November 6. The Central Zone season opens at noon on October 5 and continues through November 6 with 11,750 permits available. Sixteen hundred permits will be issued for the late Horicon/Central Zone hunt which will open on December 7 and close on December 13. There is one deadline for the free MVP permits which are again required in the 14 counties surrounding the Horicon and Central zones. They are now available at DNR license outlets.

An experimental Canada goose hunt was initiated in 1984 around the Theresa Marsh Wildlife Area in northwestern Washington and western Dodge counties and will continue through 1986. Only hunters not receiving a 1985 Horicon, Central or Late Horicon-Central Zone Permit are eligible to participate in the Theresa hunt.

All participants must pick up their permits in person from the registration station located on Theresa Marsh between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. October 4-8. Permits will also be available at the station during the season between 5:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. beginning October 9.

The season opens October 9 and continues through November 17 or until 800 geese have been registered.

There will be two periods to the Theresa hunt. The first period runs from October 9 to October 13. There is a possession limit of only one goose during this entire first period. The second period runs from October 14 to November 17 with two geese allowed per hunter each day. The season limit at Theresa is four geese.

Hunter's choice and antlerless permit applications for the 1985 gun deer season must be postmarked no later than October 4. A map showing the number of permits to be issued in each deer management unit is now available at DNR offices, at the offices of DNR clerks, and at other hunting license sale outlets.

A hunter's choice permit either sex in the unit for which the permit is issued. An antlerless permit (all permits issued in management units 67A, 70, 70A, 70b, 70E, 70F and 71 will be antlerless permits) limits a hunter to taking a deer with no antlers or antlers less than three inches in length. Permits issued in units 75 and 77 A are valid for one deer of either sex during the first three days of the season and valid for antlerless deer only during the final two days of the season.

Applications for the Sandhill deer season are also due no later than October 4th. This "trophy buck" management program on the Sandhill Area is designed to protect adult bucks with a graduated harvest schedule to maintain reasonable numbers of quality or trophy bucks in the herd. Permits will be issued on a random drawing basis for the Sandhill season, November 16. Only hunters with permits will be allowed on the area and any firearm normally permitted for taking of deer in Wisconsin will be legal. Hunters are reminded that the Sandhill hunt does not provide an "extra deer." If they receive a Sandhill permit and take a deer there, that is their bag limit for the 1985 gun deer season. Applications are available at hunting license outlets.

Permits for hunting bobcat, fisher, and otter must be received no later than October 4, and applications for a turkey permit for the 1986 season are required to be postmarked no later than November 1.

Applications for permits and tags for pheasant hunting on selected properties are now available at DNR license outlets. A permit and tags are required before a hunter can bag a pheasant on those posted public hunting areas.

Over One Million Deer in Wisconsin Record Bow Deer Season Expected

After five consecutive, record-setting seasons, Wisconsin bow deer hunters will find the 1985 season to be no different, Frank Haberland, DNR wildlife manager said in commenting on the outlook for the Saturday, September 21st opener.

"Bow hunters will be pursuing a very large deer herd numbering at least one million deer in Wisconsin," Haberland said. "There is good bow deer hunting potential in every county in the state."

Interest in Wisconsin bow deer hunting has been increasing at a rate of about 7% per year since 1979 according to total license sales. That increase is several times greater than the increases shown in gun hunting.

"There are a great many magazines aimed specifically at bow hunting with general archery tackle tips and how-to articles," Haberland said of the bow hunting increases. "Retailers are offering clinics for beginning bow hunters making them much more proficient at the sport and giving the new hunters a big advantage starting out in the sport."

"There's a high percentage of bucks being registered by bow hunters," Haberland said. "Bow hunters are becoming more selective in the deer they take with 43.8 percent of the deer registered being legal bucks with a three-inch antler or better."

Along that line, Haberland noted, the 1984 gun deer season in Wisconsin produced an all time high in the number of bucks registered. Top counties for bow hunting in Wisconsin, including the number of deer registered in 1984, are Waupaca 2,663, Wood 1,890, Marathon 1,687, Marinette 1,557, Waushara 1,497, Portage 1,449, Shawano 1,364, Jackson 1,360, Columbia 1,313, Marquette 1,242, Adams 1,215, Sauk 1,200, Clark 951, Oconto 942 and Iowa 931.

Oconto hunters are reminded to ask permission to hunt on private lands and establish tree stands only after receiving permission. On public hunting land, tree stands must be portable types and be removed every day.

Hunters using aluminum shaft arrows are encouraged to retrieve those missed shots which land in hay or forage fields. Farmers chopping silage or making baled hay run the potential for injuring cattle that ingest cut up parts of the aluminum shafts.

Bow season opens at 6:15 a.m., DST on Saturday, September 21st, and runs through Sunday, November 17th. The season then reopens at 6:30 a.m., CST on Saturday, December 7th, and runs through Tuesday, December 31st.

The Raiders won three of the four matches in singles but the Indians took two of the three doubles. At No. 2 doubles, Tina Survis and Jane Czoschke, Tina Survis and Jane Czoschke won, 6-0 and 6-2, while Sherry Becker and Barb Panzer were 6-2, 6-2 winners in the No. 3 doubles.

On Thursday, the KHS girls shut out visiting Chilton, 7-0, for their first EW conference victory of the season.

All four of the Indians' singles players were winners. Two of the three doubles team also were victorious and the No. 3 players won because Chilton did not have enough personnel to field a pair there.

Kewaskum finished second with 7 points in a three-team round robin Saturday with Horicon and Ripon. Horicon won the event with 11 points and Ripon was last with 2.

Reha won the No. 1 singles competition, beating her Ripon opponent, 10-5, and Horicon opponent, 10-8. Gruber lost two matches but the No. 2 doubles team of Czoschke and Survis split, winning their first match and losing the second.

Late Score, Interception In End Zone in Closing Seconds Saves Cougar Win Over KHS

The Kewaskum Indians football team hosted Campbellsport on Friday, September 13, for their Parents' Night. However, the Cougars upset the Indians, 12-6, in a close, evenly matched game, giving the Indians an 0-2 record for the season.

Campbellsport kicked off to Kewaskum putting them on the 22 yard line. The Indians rushed and passed their way down the field to the Cougars' 20 yard line where a field goal was attempted on a fourth down with eight to go. Unfortunately for the Indians, the kick was not successful.

On Campbellsport's second possession of the game, Todd Meyer ran 43 yards for an apparent touchdown, however clipping was called against the Cougars. The touchdown was recalled and the Cougars were moved back. Their drive ended when Kewaskum's Mike Coulter landed on a fumble. No scoring was done by either team during the first half.

Early in the second quarter, Campbellsport's Bob Sippel completed a pass to teammate Barry Wenzlaff, who ran the ball to the end zone for a 70 yard scoring advance and another apparent touchdown. However, there was a flag on the play, and the Cougars were penalized 10 yards for illegal motion forcing them to punt. Later in the quarter, the Indians attempted another field goal after failing to advance from the 13 yard line. The kick was wide to the left. At half-time, the game was still scoreless.

The Cougars, who completed only five of 14 passes, came out strong after the intermission. Todd Meyer, following a completed pass, ran the ball three yards to make the score 6-0 in favor of Campbellsport, but the two point conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

Kewaskum came back with a 52 yard run by Mike Coulter to even the score. Dettmann's kick for point after touchdown was good but encroachment was called on Campbellsport and this dead foul meant the play would be done over at the 1 1/2 yard line. For some reason, with the score tied at 6-6, Coach Fran Charland decided to go for the two points but Dettmann was stopped just short of the goal line.

Campbellsport's winning drive was set up after the Indians elected to go for it on a fourth down and two situation on their own 35 instead of punting the ball downfield. Dettmann missed the first down by inches, allowing the Cougars to take over with 2:20 left on Kewaskum's 35 yard line.

With 1:42 remaining in the game, Campbellsport's Todd Meyer, following a completed pass, ran three yards for a touchdown, giving the Cougars a 12-6 lead.

However, the Indians immediately got moving and advanced to the Cougar 12 yard line with 23 seconds remaining on a Tim Rohlinger 40 yard pass to Dettmann. Going without a huddle, after three running plays moved the ball to the 5, Rohlinger attempted a pass to Ken Miller in the end zone but Campbellsport's Rob Goebel made a game-saving interception of the pass. So the final score was 12-6 in favor of the visitors.

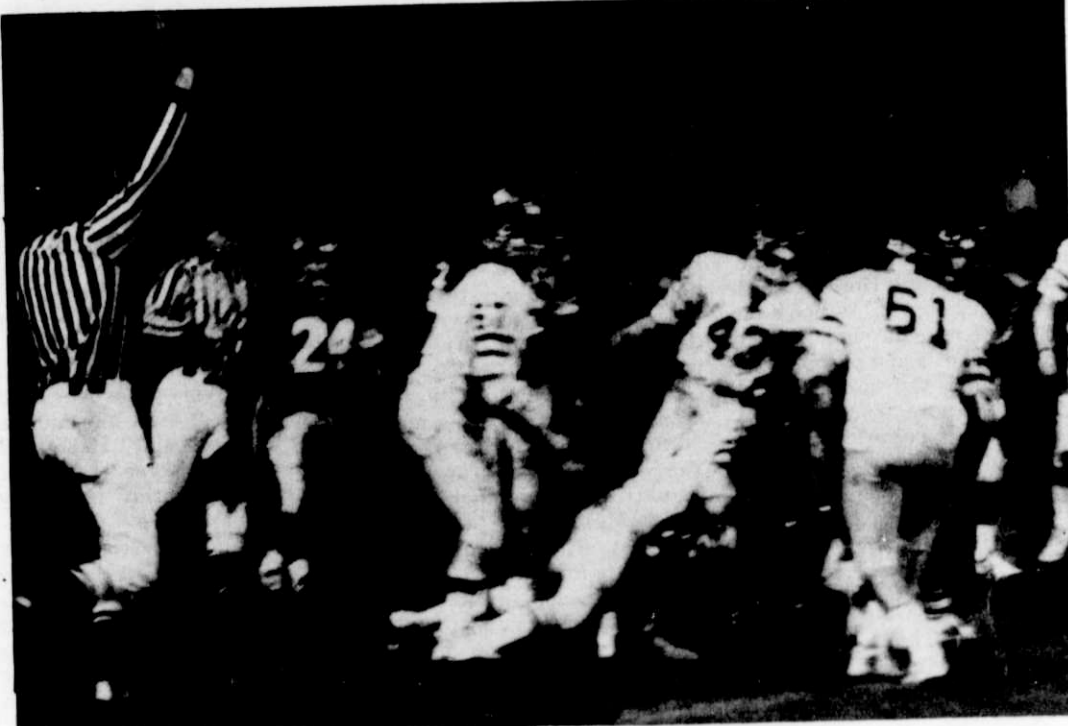

Mike Coulter led the Indians in rushing with 86 yards, followed by Tim Dettmann with 65. Campbellsport's rushing was led by Todd Meyer with 117 yards.

Charland was not disappointed in the way his team played. He felt the team improved, played stronger, and put forth a great effort. He praised Ric Heller, Dettmann, and Coulter for their defensive play, saying Coulter is "beginning to play the type of football he is capable of." Charland thought Heller was very consistent and mentioned Dettmann and Rick Staehler for playing well.

He feels that if the team improves as much as they did last week they will be playing competitive football against Plymouth. The Indians will go up against the Panthers Friday, September 20, at Plymouth in their first conference game.

Girls Win 2 More In Volleyball, Now 3-0 in EW

The Kewaskum girls volleyball team copped its second Eastern Wisconsin victory last Tuesday night over Sheboygan Falls, at Falls. After a slow start, the Indians came out on top, 11-15, 15-10 and 15-3.

Michelle Gebheim, Lisa Fusek and Laurie Blum led the way for the winners.

In game two, Gebheim had nine serves without missing, and Fusek and Blum had 10 or more points serving. Gebheim also led the team in spiking. Reserve Jenny Hintz helped with her aggressive play.

The JVs lost all three games and are now 0-2, but the freshmen won to even their record.

Thursday night New Holstein became the Indians' third straight victim here in a match in which Kewaskum again started slowly and then continued to become stronger.

After defeating all three of the conference's stronger teams - Two Rivers, Sheboygan Falls and defending champion New Holstein - the Indians are looking forward to one of their best seasons.

Kewaskum was down 7-0 again in the first game and the Huskies won, 15-9. But the KHS girls rebounded to take the final two games, 15-12 and 15-10.

Hintz again came off the bench for a good performance. Tracy Prescott and Blum did a fine job as setters. Leading spikers were Chris Bodden and Gebheim.

The JVs lost all three games once more, two by 2-point overtime decisions and the freshmen won their third game but lost the match.

Indian Runners In County Invite And Quadrangular

The Kewaskum girls placed fourth and the boys last in the Washington County Invitational cross country meet last Tuesday. Slinger copped the girls end of the meet for the third straight year, while West Bend West took honors for the boys for the first time.

In the Slinger girls victory, the Owls had Angie Curtes, Lisa Griesemer and Diane Breuer all finishing in the top five. West Bend East boys, meet winners the past two years, showed they had the best individual runner in the county in Greg Ritzenhaler.

Kewaskum's first runners were Carrie Batzler and Miles Shaw, who were 14th and 28th respectively.

East won both the JV competitions.

VARSITY GIRLS - 1. Slinger 24; 2. West Bend East 42; 3. West Bend West 80; 4. Kewaskum 112; 5. Hartford 144; Germantown not enough runners.

VARSITY BOYS - 1. West Bend West 33; 2. West Bend East 44; 3. Germantown 78; 4. Hartford 92; 5. Slinger 116; 6. Kewaskum 176.

In a cross country quadrangular meet at Campbellsport Thursday, Ozaukee ran to a convincing non-conference boys win and Campbellsport took the girls meet.

The Ozaukee boys wound up with 26 points, to 51 for Campbellsport, a distant second. Next was Random Lake with 52 and Kewaskum was far back with 109. The Indians were without the services of Miles Shaw, who had a sore ankle.

The best by any Kewaskum runner was 13th by Cory Garbisch in 19:37, although many of their times were improved.

The Cougar girls won with 40 points, Random Lake was second with 48, while Kewaskum came in with 59 and Ozaukee last with 74. Veteran Cathy Vandermar won the girls race in 12:49. She is from Campbellsport.

Kewaskum got a 3-4 finish from Mary Murre (13:56) and Carrie Batzler (13:59). Also Bridget McKenna ended up 14th.

The first book of matches was patented in Lima, Pennsylvania in 1892.

HUSKIES NOT SO HUSKY. Lisa Fusek went airborne to block a shot Thursday, Sept. 16, in the varsity volleyball match against New Holstein. After losing the first game the Indian girls battled their way back to win the next two games and the match. Well done girls. (Chuck Voge photo)
