512 Swim Passes Sold This Summer Action Delayed on Asphalt Contract

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

At the request of Village Administrator Dan Schmidt and Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo, the Kewaskum Village Board Monday night postponed action on accepting a bid on 396 tons of asphalt work to be done throughout the village.

Because of the wide variance in final cost and the number of alternatives proposed by each of the two bidders, Schmidt and Bilgo asked for additional time to review and compare bids. Ram Construction submitted a bid of $14,980, while Payne and Dolan's bid was $8,899.80. A recommendation will be made to the board later this week.

In other action, the board approved the building permit application of Gregory Gutjahr for construction of a single family home at 450 Knights Avenue.

Parks Committee Chairman Tom McElhatton informed the board that 512 passes had been sold for 1986, down slightly from 1985. He also stated that 139 youngsters had taken swimming lessons in the first session at the Kiwanis Park pool, with another 188 children taking lessons in the second session. Construction of the new shelter building is moving along, noted McElhatton, and the building looks good.

The board was advised that Well #2 has been repaired and

Public Hearing Draws Heated Discussion

Monday night's Town of Kewaskum public hearing on Al Voigt's application for a Conditional Use permit for his recycling operation at 9114 North Mill Road, Kewaskum, turned into a shouting and name-calling match which closed with one of the two participants being asked to leave the meeting.

After more than 45 minutes of heated discussion, mainly between Voigt and the adamant opponent of his application, Marilyn Reinhardt, 3482 Highway 28, Town Board Chairman George Allmann tried to close the hearing. When Allmann asked for comments from anyone else, Reinhardt kept talking and refused to give up the floor.

Allmann told Reinhardt she was out of order but she persisted. Allmann then shouted, "out of order, do you understand" and he told her he would have her removed from the building if she didn't keep quiet. Allmann closed the hearing with Reinhardt shouting "Objection." He then told her "get out, you're being removed from this room." Allmann then told her several more times, "out." Reinhardt then listened to the rest of the meeting from near the doorway.

The situation revolves around Voigt's application for a Conditional Use Permit which would allow him to continue his recycling of glass, tin, and plastic, as well as expand it to

Radmans Welcome AFS Student From Austria

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Radmann recently welcomed another daughter to their family, Miss Petra Mayerhoffer. Petra, from Austria, is an AFS exchange student and will spend the next year attending Kewaskum Community High School.

Petra is 16 years old and comes from the Austrian capital of Vienna. Her mother tongue is German, but she has also studied English and French. She enjoys reading and writing, and she likes animals. Petra has two older sisters at home in Austria. Although she has been here only a short time, she says she is surprised by all the open space here. She says in Austria there is not enough room for all the people. Most people live in apartments or small homes.

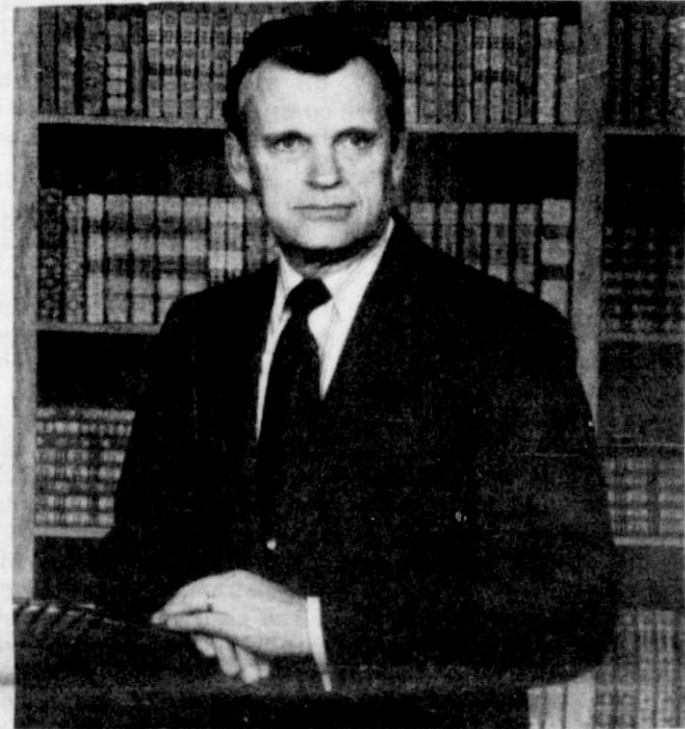

Petra's host father, Tom Radmann, is employed by Wilderness Log Homes in Plymouth. His wife, Carol, is a housewife. Although their three children are grown and no longer live at home, they still enjoy many outdoor sports together. The Radmanns also like animals. They have been parents to more than 60 foster children, and Petra is their third exchange daughter.

AFS is run on the community level by local volunteers who are the foundation of AFS. They are responsible for recruitment, selection, and support of participants, and for fundraising which helps to sustain AFS's diverse programs. Since 1947 over 150,000 students and an equal number of families have formed a global community through the AFS experience.

Miss Mayerhoffer is the second AFS student to arrive in Kewaskum this year. Hlin Magnusdottir of Iceland arrived recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stommel and daughter of Roseland Drive to spend the next year attending Kewaskum Community High School.

Kewaskum School District Receives $31,460 Handicapped Education Grant

MADISON — State Superintendent Herbert J. Grover has notified the School District of Kewaskum that it will receive $31,460 to fund its 1986-87 94-142 Project.

Administered by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, the grant is made available under the Education for All Handicapped Children Act, a federal law designed to provide a free, appropriate public education for children with exceptional educational needs (EEN), ages 3-21. About 143 handicapped children and a number of staff will be served.

All local educational agencies will share in the more than $20 million available under this program during the 1986-87 school year. Seventy-five percent of the federal funds will flow directly to local school districts.

A broad range of locally needed programs and services are provided to handicapped children via the flow-through program. Funds will be used to conduct the census, purchase special materials and equipment, do some minor remodeling, arrange for specialized evaluations and screening, develop vocational education programs, and support inservice training activities.

Commenting on the grant award, Richard E. Zarling, the project's director, said, "These special funds continue to allow us to operate better special education programs without using district tax monies and they are a welcome supplement to local funding."

Public Hearing

handle salvage items such as cars, wood, and appliances.

Presently the business does not comply with existing zoning ordinances so it was suggested that Voigt apply for the permit. Allmann told the meeting that the town had taken over zoning duties from the county as of April 1st and it was working to straighten out some problems it had inherited from the county.

Under a conditional use permit, criteria and conditions would be set up to allow the township to oversee that the recycling operation is properly run. The permit would also require periodic inspections of the site to ensure it was meeting standards set for it. The permit could also be revoked if the operator was found in non-compliance and did not make the necessary corrections to retain the permit.

While two town residents expressed some concern, there seemed to be no real objections to the application except those of Reinhardt. Marilyn Haug, 3326 Highway 28, said the only comment she had was about the noise and temporary smell from a load of soda cans which contained rejected soda. They began exploding and it sounded like target practice, said Haug, who lives across the road from the Voigt property. Voigt said that was an isolated incident.

Ray Schaefer, 3200 Highway H, asked if there would be anything such as garbage handled there that could pollute. Allmann said no, this would be non-organic items such as glass, plastic, etc. Schaefer said he then could not see any problem with granting the permit.

Reinhardt said Voigt's operation was illegal since he did not have a permit from the county. Allmann said a county permit was required only for a building and there was no building being discussed. What we're discussing here, is a use of the land said Building and Zoning Administrator Gordon Hoffmann.

Reinhardt said an operation such as Voigt's should not be permitted on land that is in the flood plain. The question was raised as to just how accurate the flood plain line drawn for that area was.

Reinhardt also objected to the town considering the application, because she thinks it's a conflict of interest since the town has a contract to use Mr. Voigt's services.

Bruce Boudry of West Bend told the hearing, "Marilyn (Reinhardt) is offering a lot of heresay. I think Marilyn should have some facts to go with her statements. If the DNR were so concerned, I think they would be out here tonight. The DNR has never gone against Al Voigt, the county went up against Mr. Voigt and they lost."

Reinhardt commented that if the town continued to consider granting the permit she might find it necessary to go to court.

Town Board member Dan Stoffel motioned to have Hoffmann draw up a conditional use permit and present it to the Plan Commission for review at its next meeting. The commission, in turn, will make its presentation and recommendation to the Town Board.

Endangered Species, Kindness to Animals to Highlight KJWC Program

Topics Ishmael will discuss will include "Wisconsin Endangered Species," "Kids & Kindness," and "Animals: Wild or Pets."

Anyone from the community interested in the program is invited to attend.

Following the program, club members will hold their regular monthly meeting in the community room.

In response to discussions with other communities, the board reviewed the pay scale for election pollworkers. It approved increasing the hourly wage from the present $3.00, to the minimum wage scale of $3.35 per hour.

Plan Commission representative Howard Laubenstein advised the board that a commission meeting has been scheduled for August 25th.

Due to the Labor Day weekend, the next Village Board meeting has been rescheduled for Tuesday, September 2nd.

Schmidt reminded the board that a public hearing on the new sidewalk construction along portions of Clinton Street and Roseland Drive has been set for Monday, August 25th.

The board adopted Resolution 86-20, proclaiming September 12 and 13, as Disabled American Veterans "Forget-Me-Not" days. Money from the two-day fundraising campaign will be used for community disabled veterans.

The board then adjourned to closed session to review candidates for the crossing guard position.

Relatives from England Visit Edwards Here

My cousin, Richard Elwyn Isaac and bride Elizabeth, arrived from England on Friday evening, Aug. 15. He is the grandson of my great-grandfather's brother. They left for the west coast in our Buick to see America, and to visit with our grandchildren, Dr. Richard Steinberg and Dr. Mary Steinberg at Portland, Oregon. They expect to return by Sept. 5th.

His work with the University of Leeds, England is in the field of Zoology. His present project is to break up "genes" somehow so that he can develop a new species of plant which will contain a poison that will kill the insects which try to infest it. If real successful, maybe we won't need a lawn mower but raise this PLANT to destroy the insects?

Have You Misplaced $45,000?

State Has Record $18.5 Million In Forgotten Funds Laying Idle

Wisconsin State Treasurer Charles P. Smith announced that the Treasurer's Office is launching a state-wide search for more than 40,000 Wisconsin residents entitled to receive a record-breaking $18.5 million in lost or forgotten funds.

Included in the monies awaiting claims is a savings account for more than $45,000. Additionally, 20 Wisconsin residents are owed more than $30,000 each, another 290 are entitled to more than $5,000 apiece and 18,316 persons will each receive more than $100.

State Treasurer Smith said, "Tough unclaimed property legislation sponsored by the Treasurer's Office and a crackdown in enforcement has unearthed this record-breaking $18.5 million treasure trove. Our collections have sky-rocketed from $3.4 million two years ago as a result of shortened abandonment periods and stiff penalties for non-compliance," Smith added.

"Wisconsin unclaimed property law requires insurance companies, banks, department stores, utilities and other businesses to report all funds that have gone unclaimed for five years. Included in the $18.5 million are lost or forgotten savings and checking accounts, utility deposits, gift certificates, stock, dividends, and insurance accident checks. The insurance is held in trust, and the missing owners can claim what is rightfully theirs at any time," Smith explained.

Until the owners are located, all Wisconsin residents receive the benefit of its use, because the money is deposited in the Common School Fund. Loans from this fund are administered by the State Land Commission, of which Smith is chairman. These loans are made to municipalities, school districts and other special districts for their capital projects at below-market interest rates.

Smith's office will begin its search for the missing owners next month in all major Wisconsin newspapers.

A Tribute to My Friend

40 YEARS OLD - ALREADY!!
OVER THE HILL!! YOU?? NEVER!!

The best is over...though that is hard to believe, Since we have already had some pretty good times.

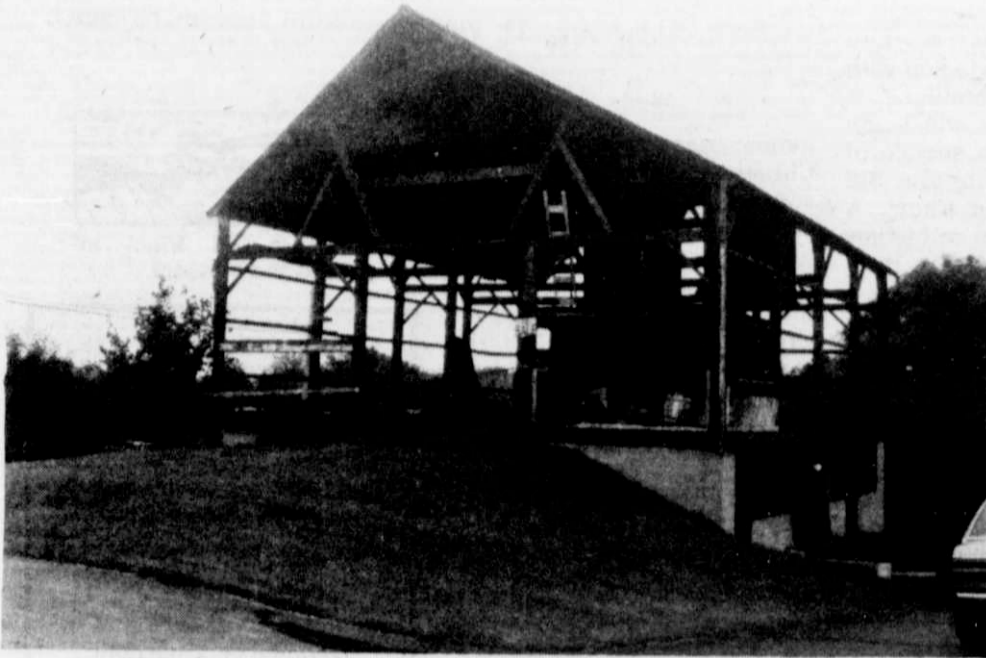

I want to thank you for your friendship over the past 35 years. Hard to believe that we have maintained it for that long.

Anyone who knows you - knows of your care, your concern, your kindness, your dependability, your friendship... the list goes on and on but space prohibits me from expounding all of your virtues.

I am proud to say that you are my friend and a relative as well. As an "older" but not always wiser cousin you were always there for me. Even when you were calling me "Mickey Mouse" and I was calling you "BEAtle Bug," we were the best of friends.

I want to wish you the happiest and best 40th birthday you will ever have and would all of you who know BEATRICE WEISS join me in wishing her the same.

ANOTHER LANDMARK disappeared last week as the barn on the August Bilgo Jr. property, 1314 Park View, adjoining the Weddig property, was also razed. The barn was one of the last still standing within the Kewaskum Village limits. For the past few years it was used strictly for storage.

THE FORMER ROSE WEDDIG HOME, 1404 Park View Drive, was reduced to rubble by a wrecking crew last week. The property was purchased last year by the St. Lucas Church, which plans to use the land for future expansion of its Christian Day School directly north of the property.

Hubbell Attends Workshop At UW-Stevens Point

Craig Hubbell

Craig Hubbell, Student Council President, Kewaskum High School, was one of 282 students in attendance at the Wisconsin Association of School Councils, Inc. Summer Leadership Workshop for senior high school students held on the UW-Stevens Point campus July 27 - August 1, 1986.

The WASC Leadership Workshop includes six days of instructional activities for student leaders designed to foster the development of a sound philosophy of leadership; provide opportunities for developing skills; to increase self-understanding and confidence; and improve skills in communication, problem solving, group processes and organization. Students from 96 schools across the state were in attendance.

The directors of the workshop were Donald C. Larsen, Executive Director of the Wisconsin Association of School Councils, Inc., and C. Y. Allen, Professor, U. W. Stevens Point. John Giove, Advisor, Milwaukee Bay View High School and William Davidson, Professor, U. W. Stevens Point, coordinated and presented the Advanced program.

Other adult staff members are student council advisors selected from schools throughout the state. Additionally, former outstanding delegates are chosen to assist the adult staff members with various elements of the program. These "Junior Counselors" provide valuable services for the student delegates as well as the staff.

Many activities are scheduled throughout the year by the WASC for advisors and students who are involved in leadership roles. Other basic school organizations to receive specific attention are honor societies and cheerleading groups.

The WASC is sponsored by the Association of Wisconsin School Administrators (AWSA), a 1600-member professional association of school building administrators headquartered in Madison.

St. Martin's in Fillmore to Celebrate 125th Anniversary

St. Martin's United Church of Christ in Fillmore, Wisconsin, was founded 125 years ago on September 21st, 1861. It was then called St. Martin's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Rev. Vorberg was its first pastor.

By June, 1862, the cornerstone for a church building was laid in what is now St. Martin's Cemetery and by August 16th, 1863, the first worship service was held in the building. In 1891, a move was made to construct a larger church edifice on its present site and the new building was dedicated in December, 1891. The Old Stone Church was used as a Sunday School and Confirmation Instruction Building until razed in the 1930's.

On September 21st, 1986, St. Martin's will celebrate its 125th anniversary inviting former members, ministers and members of the area to join with them in the celebration. At 10:00 a.m. activities will begin with a special polka service of worship with music by the Bill Thull Orchestra and Choir. A noon dinner program will follow at the Fillmore Turner's Hall. From 2-6 p.m. there will be a community dance at the Fillmore Turner's Hall with the Bill Thull Orchestra. All are cordially invited to join in the celebration. Reservations must be made for the dinner by contacting Roger Degnitz at 692-2592 by August 31st. Anyone can come to the special worship service. Dance tickets will be available at the door.

St. Martin's is actually the merger of two churches in Fillmore. On February 14th, 1943, the local Reformed Church across the street from St. Martin's Cemetery and St. Martin's voted to merge, becoming known as St. Martin's Evangelical and Reformed Church. When the German Evangelical and Reformed Church united with the Congregational Christian Church in 1960, it became known as St. Martin's United Church of Christ.

St. Martin's has been part of several yoked ministries: with the Waubesa Reformed Church from 1926 - 1963, with St. John's of Boltonville from 1963 - 1976, as part of the Larger Five Star Parish from 1976-81, and presently with St. Paul's Community UCC of Waubesa.

In the past twenty-five years there have been some major improvements which include carpeting the sanctuary and fellowship hall. The pews have been padded. To conserve energy insulation has been added and ceiling fans installed. The carillon whose chimes can be heard daily was a memorial gift given in memory of David Degnitz, who was killed in an accident in Okinawa while serving in the U S Army.

On June 5, 1983, Thomas Degnitz, a son of the congregation, was ordained into the Christian ministry, and is now serving Our Savior's United Church of Christ in Germantown, Wisconsin. One of the members, Selma Weinreich, is the daughter of a former pastor Erber who served from 1912-28; she is now a resident at Beechwood Home.

Events for this celebration have been planned by the 125th Anniversary Committee of Earl Crass, Chairman; Bill Davis, Nancy Degnitz, Rosalyn Degnitz, Harley Pufahl and Veronica Weinreich. This congregation of 110 members has been led by Pastor David P. Jerger since June, 1981.

Sheboygan County Fair to Feature Johnny Cash on Sunday, August 31

The JOHNNY CASH phenomenon is the biggest thing that has happened to country music since its recorded beginnings a half century ago. During a career that began in 1955, Johnny Cash has grown to be the art's most formidable purveyor and presents his product without adornment. The Cash Style and performance crosses social and racial boundaries. He fills the biggest arenas in America, the most elegant theatres in Europe, racetracks in Australia, the "show rooms" in Nevada and prison yards from San Quentin in California to Stockholm, Sweden. Old and young alike identify with him whether successful or downtrodden and Christians know him as a brother. Johnny Cash is a dynamic eagle figure, displaying truth and honesty and a perceptive awareness of the human condition, good and bad.

These are impressive pinnacles of accomplishment for the son of an Arkansas cotton farmer. Cash has come a long way through the years, paying his dues as he went along. He was hauling water for a road gang when he was ten and pulling a nine foot cotton sack when he was twelve. He worked hard with his family to raise a crop of Arkansas cotton only to see the year's work washed away by the raging Mississippi River Floods. Cash and his family suffered greatly during the depression, as did most Americans.

By the time Cash finished high school, America was embroiled in the Korean conflict. He enlisted in the Air Force, and was assigned to Germany. Country music had always been an important part of Cash's boyhood, and while in Germany, he bought his first guitar. As a military cryptographer he was often alone. During these lonely hours, he read history, practiced his guitar, and wrote songs. It was during this period in Germany that Johnny wrote one of his most important songs, "Folsom Prison Blues," the night he saw the film, "Inside the Walls of Folsom Prison." Cash recalled, "There wasn't much romance to the writing of 'Folsom Prison Blues.' I saw the movie, liked it, and wrote the song. That's all there was to that." The song has since sold millions, and has served Cash well as a vocal signature.

When the young Cash returned to the States from Germany, he got married. He enrolled in radio school hoping to become a country music disc jockey, but soon found he preferred performing. He had always wanted to sing and believed that his future lay in music. He made several fruitless overtures to the Sun Recording Company (then Memphis' only recording company), but his songs were too country for the rock-oriented label. Finally, Sam Phillips of Sun Records listened to him and agreed to record him. Cash and "The Tennessee Two," Marshall Grant and Luther Perkins, got together for those first sessions, and with the release of "Cry, Cry, Cry" and "Hey Porter" in June of 1955, the Johnny Cash career was on its way.

Financial success was not long in coming for Johnny Cash. But like his country predecessors Jimmie Rodgers and Hank Williams, Cash did not cope well with success. Cash is a shy and reticent man. Even though his records were hits, he was soon using pills to bolster his confidence and to keep him going double time. Within a short time, he was caught up in an endless circle of amphetamines and barbituates. He spent more time on the road than at home. His first marriage went on the rocks, and he seemed destined for the same end.

By the mid-sixties, Cash was one of country music's superstars, but the whole country music community was anticipating his demise. They knew about his "no-shows," they knew about his psychosomatic laryngitis, but they hadn't anticipated June Carter. June had been a part of the Johnny Cash Show since the early sixties and she knew he was worth saving. In 1968, June enlisted the help of Dr. Nat Winston, the former head of the Tennessee Department for Mental Health and a country music authority. Dr. Winston saw Cash and agreed to undertake a long withdrawal with him. Cash knew that he must get himself together and cooperated, with successful and permanent results.

Johnny Cash. The words he says and the songs he sings are a life style. Johnny Cash is as American as the songs he sings. He has proven that any man can accomplish anything he makes up his mind to do. By using his great personal strength and innate musical ability, Johnny Cash has risen far above his dreams. He is happiest, and he says, "only completely alive" when he is performing, sharing with the audience the songs he loves.

The past of Johnny Cash represents the toughest part of our lives. The present and future of Johnny Cash pre-presents the hopes and goals of most of us.

Letters to the Editor

15, August, 1986

To the Editor
Kewaskum Statesman

I am writing this letter to the newspaper in hopes that some of the people in Kewaskum who let their cats run loose will understand the many problems caused by this practice. It is especially serious when the female cats are not spayed and the male cats are not neutered.

We have many cats roaming around in our neighborhood. A particularly sad case is that of a mother cat and her four kittens that are about 8 weeks old. These cats do not have any home and I have been putting food out in hopes of catching them so I can take them to a shelter in Milwaukee where they will not be euthanized.

People should go to one of the humane societies and see all of the poor cats and kittens (dogs and puppies too) who will not be lucky enough to get homes and will have to die. It is not the fault of the humane societies as they do the best they can, but do not have the funds to keep the animals for long periods of time. They try to teach the importance of neutering and spaying of these animals so there will not be all of these unwanted animals. They truly do a good job with the funds that they have and it would be nice if more people would adopt pets from them.

Animals have feelings too and suffer because of the lack of care and consideration of humans.

Cats do not need to go outside and are much cleaner, healthier and safer as indoor pets.

The State of Wisconsin
Department of Public Instruction

Open Letter to the School Community:

As back-to-school time approaches, I want to take this opportunity to applaud Wisconsin citizens on their commitment and concern for quality education. Schools do, indeed, reflect their communities. Where education is considered a priority and teachers and administrators are treated with respect, students come to school with a more positive attitude.

Wisconsin's public schools are the state's largest enterprise, employing more than 75,000 individuals, who provide education and services to our 768,000 students. Multiply these figures by the more than 1,100 hours each student will spend in school this year, and you will realize the amount of time, energy, and dollars that is directed toward providing quality educational experiences. Not only do we affect students' chances for future success, but we contribute to the health and well-being of each local community and, ultimately, the state as a whole.

It is true, as a recent report of the U.S. Department of Education says, that "parents are their children's first and most influential teachers. What parents do to help their children learn is more important to academic success than how well off the family is."

I think it is also true that the community's role is important. Working cooperatively in support of their schools, communities in turn contribute to the success of their businesses, industries, governmental bodies — indeed, all aspects of the society. While the following tips were originally prepared for parents, with a little adaptation, they make sense for the entire community.

Make sure students attend school. Don't allow children to miss school without good reason. Students won't believe school is very important if the community isn't willing to insist that they go to school every day.

Get to know your school board members. While you won't always agree with them, support them when you can, and let them know you care. Become familiar with the issues before the board and express your opinions.

Get to know the teachers and administrators. Support what teachers do, but don't be afraid to ask questions. Students need to know that teachers, parents, and the community work together as partners for students' benefit.

Set high expectations for the youth of the community. Insist that they behave properly at school and in the community. Expect them to do the best they can academically.

Become involved in education. Parents should attend parent-teacher conferences, and all community residents can take part in school activities and volunteer when they can. Business and industry can cooperate on special projects or establish long-term partnerships.

Schools in Wisconsin really do reflect their communities. Take pride in your schools.

Remember, everyone — not just the students — benefits from a quality education.

Sincerely,
Herbert J. Grover
State Superintendent

Mr. William Harbeck
Kewaskum Statesman
250 Main Street
Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040

Dear Bill:

As a Congressman who has fought federal plans to put a nuclear waste dump in Wisconsin and who has also helped in giving Wisconsin a veto over dumps within its own borders, the letter of two officials of the State Radioactive Waste Review Board Policy Advisory Council smacks more of election year politics rather than protecting the citizens of our state against nuclear waste.

Two months ago, Governor Earl commended the entire congressional delegation for succeeding in stopping the Wisconsin dump site. The concern I expressed at a congressional delegation meeting was that "Feds" might force a dump on us if the state flatly prohibited any transportation of nuclear waste through Wisconsin on its way to Washington State, which appears will be the single dump in the nation.

Senator Proxmire agreed that this concern was valid. He said he would contact the Governor's office to work out appropriate safety regulations should nuclear waste travel through Wisconsin on its way to the dump.

Evidently, the two individuals who criticized my stand are more interested in destroying the bipartisan cooperation which killed the Wisconsin dump proposal than making sure it is never revived. If they succeed, the result may mean nuclear waste in their own backyard in northern Wisconsin, which would be a tragedy of huge proportions caused solely by their own myopia.

Sincerely,
F. James Sensenbrenner, Jr.
Member of Congress

210 Runners in Kettle 20 Races

Lions Serve Over 1,000 At Chicken Bar-B-Que

High winds and the threat of rain early Sunday morning changed into a gorgeous, ideal day for the thirteenth annual Kewaskum Lions Club Kettle 20 run and Chicken Bar-B-Que.

Over 1,000 delicious chicken dinners were served with carry-outs available. Hamburgers were also served as well as beer, soda and ice cream bars. Music was provided by the Normie Dogs Trio. At 2:00 o'clock a White Elephant Sale was held with lively bidding on some of the donated items. An antique car display by the Kettle Moraine Model T Ford & Vintage Car Club was also on the park grounds for viewing.

A total of 210 runners competed in the races as compared to 196 runners last year. Scott Branta, West Bend, brother of Cathy Branta, world class runner, won the 12.5 mile race with a time of 1:08.08. Branta was out front from start to finish.

Mary Medicus of Milwaukee was the winner in the 12.5 mile women's competition with a time of 1:20.58 in her first attempt on the tough hilly course.

In the five-mile event Larry Buvid of Sheboygan with a 28.29 won in the men's division and Sandy Klein of Kewaskum with 36:20 won the women's division.

Greg Ritzenthaler, West Bend East distance runner was the winner in the 3.5 mile race with a time of 18:42. In women's 3.5 mile competition it was Beth Brozelman of Mequon with a time of 23:52.

An added attraction at this year's Kettle 20 were newlyweds Jim and Sharon Vivian of Slinger who were married on Saturday and competed in the 3.5 mile race with part of their wedding finery, Sharon with her veil atop her head and Jim sporting his tuxedo top. They made the run in 33 minutes. As they came to the finish line, the groom carried his bride across the line. Jim had previously participated in the Kettle 20 races on three or four occasions.

The Lions Club is donating $1300 to "Quest" - Human Development Program with emphasis on Drug and Alcohol Abuse, which will be presented to the Kewaskum School District.

Adoption Information Center Opens

A statewide Adoption Information Center has opened to provide information about adoption as an option for unplanned pregnancies.

The purpose of the Adoption Information Center is to provide information and referral services to those inquiring about adoption, to provide training to professionals who work with adolescents and young adults about adoption as an option, and to increase the public's awareness of adoption through the communications media.

The Center has established a toll free number to enable persons from around the state to call for confidential information. The Center will distribute information about adoption agencies, independent adoptions, the rights and responsibilities of unmarried fathers, as well as other material on selecting and arranging adoptions. Callers will also be given the name and phone number of a coordinator in their county who can provide more in-depth information about local adoption resources and other services. The toll free number is 1-800-522-6882. Calls in the Milwaukee area can be made to 453-0403.

The Wisconsin State legislature allocated $122,500 to the Wisconsin Department of Health and Social Services to fund the Center to June 30, 1987. DHSS awarded Children's Service Society of Wisconsin, located at 1212 S. 70th Street in West Allis, a contract to operate the Adoption Information Center.

Allenton Firm Gets $510,000 State Loan

MADISON — Governor Anthony Earl announced recently that the Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority (WHEDA) has made a $150,000 loan to the owners of Allcast, Inc., of Allenton. The manufacturer of aluminum die castings will use the loan to double the space in its current 13,000 square foot facility and to purchase new equipment.

Allcast, owned by Harold and Sharon Garrison, is currently developing computer-assisted, statistically controlled production processes to enhance the long-term growth of the corporation. The loan will increase the plant's production capacity by 35% and create seven new jobs.

"This project is a good example of how the state can amplify economic development," Earl said. "This is a family-run business whose sales and employees numbers have steadily grown for eight years. Allcast has targeted the domestic auto industry as a new market and, with this expansion, is in an excellent position to win contracts with a major auto maker."

The loan for Allcast, Inc. was extended through WHEDA's Small Enterprise Economic Development (SEED) program, a small business loan program developed by WHEDA to foster the state's economic growth by providing financing for business development and job creation and retention activities.

SEED program loans are financed with the proceeds from the sale of tax-exempt industrial revenue bonds (IRBs). First Wisconsin National Bank of Fond du Lac originated the loan transaction and has purchased the bonds which financed the loan.

SEED is an outgrowth of the economic development legislation initiated by Governor Earl and passed by the Legislature in 1983. WHEDA has $105 million in tax-exempt bonding authority to make low-cost, long-term loans to small and medium-sized businesses, primarily for manufacturing projects which maintain or expand employment in the state.

Parents Advised to Review Immunization Records

With the opening of school coming up soon, Children's Hospital of Wisconsin has issued a reminder to parents to review their children's immunization records.

Wisconsin law requires children enrolled in day-care programs and in grades kindergarten through 12 to be immunized against measles, rubella, mumps, polio, diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis.

Immunization records can be obtained from the child's physician or health care clinic. However, parents should act quickly to avoid the delays that commonly occur in late August.

Children's Hospital reminds parents that each of these diseases can be prevented through immunization. Children who are unprotected run the risk of contracting these diseases, which can cause serious complications and, in some cases, death.

The following immunization schedule is recommended by Children's Hospital:

Age and Vaccine
2 months — DTP (Diphtheria/Tetanus/Pertussis), OPV (Oral Polio Vaccine)
4 months — DTP, OPV
6 months — DTP (OPV optional)
15 months — Measles, Rubella, Mumps (Available in a combination vaccine - MMR)
15 to 18 months — DTP, OPV
4 to 6 years — DTP, OPV
14 to 16 years and every 10 years thereafter — Td (Adult Tetanus/Diphtheria)

Parents whose children have missed immunizations as scheduled should have their children immunized at once, Children's Hospital advised.

The monthly meeting of the Northern Kettle Moraine Recreation Association was held at the Everglades in New Prospect on August 14 with about 15 members present. The following membership committee was appointed: Joe Gruber, Fred Ramer, Dick Edwards, Dr. F.E. Nolting and "Cheri" Haushalter. The group wishes to obtain members. All money will go into advertising the Northern Kettle Moraine area. Dues are $12.00 per year. This is an active and progressive organization for the advancement and betterment of the entire area.

The Wisconsin Gas Company is sponsoring a series of gas equipment installation and service lectures for the local appliances dealers and plumbers. The purpose of the meetings is to acquaint the dealers and servicemen with gas equipment regulations and installation methods. Those attending the meetings include E. Hugo Vorpahl, 49, of the Village of Kewaskum, was seriously injured on Tuesday afternoon, when he fell 10 feet from a platform while repairing the machinery on a stone crusher in the Northern Gravel Company pit, a short distance west of Barton, where he is employed as crusherman. Mr. Vorpahl suffered a severe concussion of the brain, several fractured ribs and chest and head injuries.

A beautiful young life was taken away on August 15, when Mrs. Andrew Roden, 32, nee Cecelia Herriges, of St. Michaels, was called to her home beyond, after an illness of five days with a very serious complication known to medical science as necrosis of enteraerene tumor, which was followed by peritonitis.

Great progress is now being made in the construction of the new Campbellsport High School building which was begun early this spring. The foundation is completed and a number of bricklayers are now laying brick on two sides of the structure.

The annual picnic and dance of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers of Milwaukee at the North Side Park here last Sunday was a grand success. The special excursion train from Milwaukee which consisted of eight coaches and a baggage car, arrived here at 10:30 a.m. Besides the people that came on this special train, scores of visitors arrived on other trains from the north and south. It was estimated that 3,000 people were in the park in the afternoon for the picnic. There were plenty of amusements for all. The contests were all very interesting, the most attractive, however, were the Hobble Skirt race, Peanut race, Pie Eating contest, catching the Greased Pig, and the Tug of War. The latter was between the Railroad boys and a Kewaskum team with each team consisting of six husky men. The Kewaskum team included Isadore Jung, Julius Dreher, Adolph, Otto and Herman Backhaus and Robert Yoost. Kewaskum got the longend of the rope, thereby receiving $5.00. The dance in the evening attracted one of the largest crowds ever assembled at a dance in that park, with over 400 tickets being sold. The net proceeds of the day was close to $700.

Home Economics Plays Important Role in Education

By Mary P. Benoit
Washington County Extension
Summer Home Economist

Last year 13 national education task forces issued reports on the state of U.S. education. These reports affect all schools and subjects including Home Economics.

These education reports have some definite shortcomings. Schools are more complex than the reports indicate. Because of the declining population in schools, the government wants to cut funding. It should instead concentrate on improving the quality of education.

Schools also face a conflict between excellence and equity. If schools provide equal opportunity and have equal criteria for excellence, everyone cannot be expected to excel. For example, if excellence is defined as going to college and getting good grades, the schools have overlooked an important resource — cultural diversity.

One national report, "A National at Risk," recommends that students be required to take the five "basics." These include four years of English, three years each of Science, Math, and Social Studies, and one-half year of Computer Science.

How does Home Economics fit into the basics? I don't think anything is more basic than the family. A minimum of one year of Home Economics should be required for children grades 6 through 12, preferably one year in middle school or junior high and one in high school. In this way, Home Economics could cater to students' changing perspectives as they grow from children to adults.

The reports also suggest that schools adopt more rigorous and measurable standards. Our objectives and curriculum in Home Economics should be visible, concrete, and readily available.

A good Home Economics program may offer cooking to teach nutritional science and sewing to increase self-concept and consumer skills, but these areas should not be the major focus.

In this changing educational era, Home Economics must continually show evidence of improvement. Home Economics teachers should take part in professional organizations, assume leadership roles in appropriate education groups, and have masters degrees to maintain credibility.

Teaching methods are just as important as content. Home Economics - trained people must recognize their strengths and emphasize their abilities. They should help schools choose teachers based on credentials. For example, in some schools, coaches who have extra time teach family life and health even though they are not the best qualified to do so.

People need the basic skills that Home Economics provides, especially skills in human relationships and for aesthetic satisfaction which enhance mental health. These are invaluable in our highly technological society.

Road Construction Starts on CTH 'M'

Road construction was expected to start the week of August 18, 1986, on the reconstruction of CTH "M" where it crosses the north branch of the Milwaukee River. The work will consist of replacement of the existing bridge as well as widening and repaving about 700 feet of bridge approaches.

The work will be performed under a contract let to H. B. Janke & Sons, Inc. of Fredonia, Wisconsin, at an estimated cost of $208,952.00. Financing will be shared on approximately a 75-25 ratio by the Federal government and Washington County, respectively, from funds provided primarily by gas taxes.

CTH "M" will be closed to through traffic during construction operations, with access only to local property owners. It is anticipated that it will be closed during the week of August 18 and will be reopened about October 18, 1986. Traffic is urged to use caution in the construction zone.

A suitable detour will be provided by Washington County.

Every possible effort will be made to provide continuous and safe ingress and egress to all business and residential properties during this reconstruction, but pedestrians and motorists are urged to use caution in the construction zone.

Naturalization Records Received By UWWC Library

This data comes with an index and was received from the Genealogical Society of Utah. This microfilm is also available to Wisconsin residents at the Area Resource Center, UW-Milwaukee, and the State Historical Society in Madison. UWWC obtained a copy through the efforts and contributions of Lorna Waechter, Jackson.

Any Washington County resident is welcome to view this microfilm at the University of Wisconsin Center-Washington County, 400 University Drive in West Bend during library service hours. To find out when the library is open, phone 338-5206. There is no charge for this service.

Clarence A. Schwartz, Sheriff

Exercise 'Caution' When You Exercise, Local Sheriff Recommends

"With milder weather comes a dramatic increase in outdoor activities," Washington County Sheriff Clarence A. Schwartz said. "A major portion of this notable increase in outdoor activity is persons walking and jogging."

"Exercise is certainly good for everyone's health, but," the Sheriff added, "it can also be dangerous to your health if it causes you to become a crime victim."

Sheriff Schwartz offered some tips which will help persons from becoming a walking crime statistic:

*Avoid walking or jogging alone at night. The old adage that there is "safety in numbers" is particularly true on the streets of our community at night.

Tax Reform Could Reduce State Tax Rates, Stitt Reports

When the federal government makes income tax changes, our state government normally follows suit. Since President Reagan's tax reform proposal appears likely to pass the Congress, the State Legislature may choose to adopt similar changes.

As a result of those changes, the state could receive a large revenue increase. If the current proposal concerning the tax treatment of capital gains and individual retirement accounts (IRA's) alone were to be adopted, the state would receive approximately $119.5 million in additional revenue.

This additional revenue could then be used to reduce overall tax rates by 5.7%. The top income tax bracket would be reduced from 7.9% to 7.4% and the other bracket reductions would be 7.5% to 7.1%, 6.6% to 6.2% and 5% to 4.7%.

These rate reductions are certainly attractive, but the Legislature must examine whether Wisconsin needs further tax reform; especially at the expense of individuals who take the risks necessary for capital gains. Capital gains exemptions give those individuals who invest their funds in high risk businesses an opportunity to be adequately rewarded for the risk.

Above all, when additional tax reform measures are being considered, the additional revenue should be returned to the taxpayers through tax reductions. This new revenue should not be spent on any new government programs. As we begin to discuss tax reform and budget issues, I will continue to fight for real tax reductions.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me, Senator Don Stitt at P.O. Box 7882, Madison, Wisconsin 53707 or call my office at 608-266-7513 or leave a message with the Legislative Hotline at 1-800-362-9696.

** Avoid running or walking on dimly lit streets, and stay out of alleys. Don't use remote or less-traveled shortcuts.

** Stay in the part of the sidewalk close to the street and away from shrubbery, trees and doorways. Sometimes, it is even safer to walk in the street, but always facing oncoming traffic, rather than on the sidewalk.

** If someone drops you off near your home, have them wait until you are in the house before they drive away at night.

** Always wear reflective clothing at night; and it is advisable for women to carry whistles or other noisemakers to sound loudly if accosted.

"Lastly, we always advise anyone out walking, jogging or bicycling to carry proper identification," Sheriff Schwartz added. "It's advisable to carry identification with your current address, phone number, and person to notify in case of an emergency, anytime you are away from home, the Sheriff concluded.

Motorcycle Traffic Fatalities Up 31 Percent Thru July

Motorcycle traffic fatalities have taken a sudden upturn, and the state Department of Transportation is studying accident statistics to learn the reasons.

Russell Fleming, accident data analyst, said there were 72 people killed in motorcycle crashes through July, 31 percent ahead of the 55 cycle fatalities at the same point in 1985.

"The factors we have isolated so far aren't too unusual," he said. Common characteristics of the victims were:

* Two out of three were between the ages of 15 and 25;
* 70 percent were single-cycle mishaps;

* 67 percent of those tested for alcohol were over .10 percent BAC, which is legally drunk;

* Only 13 of the victims were known to have been wearing helmets at the time of the fatal crash.

"The evidence so far, the ages of the drivers and the fact that they were largely single-cycle accidents, points to inexperience," Fleming said. "That, combined with a high level of alcohol, could be the answer," he added.

Fleming said three of the fatal crashes included two motorcycles each, including one two-cycle crash which killed four people. Two other single-cycle crashes occurred while the drivers were attempting to elude police.

The victims included 12 passengers, five of whom were females. Of the 58 cycle operators killed, only one was female.

Fleming said complete information is not yet available on all operators killed in July, but of the 40 drivers killed through June, fewer than half were fully endorsed for motorcycle operation in Wisconsin.

Seven of the victims had cycle instruction permits, four were from other states, three were under revocation, and six had no cycle license of any type. Licensing information was not available for two of the victims. Fleming said that of the 21 cycle operators who were endorsed for motorcycle operation, eleven had taken their road test less than a year before the fatal accidents.

"We're concerned that the number of fatalities has reached such a high point so early," Fleming concluded. "If the weather remains decent, we still have three months or more of motorcycling to go. If the fatal accident rate remains the same, we could have the worst season on record."

The first fire fighting organization in America was started in Philadelphia.

State Insurance Available to Residents Under 65 With Health Conditions

MADISON — Wisconsin residents under age 65 who can't get health insurance in the private market due to physical or mental health conditions could be insurable under the state's Health Insurance Risk-Sharing Plan.

State Sen. Scott McCallum (R-Fond du Lac), who introduced the plan, said people younger than 65 are eligible for HIRSP if two health insurers have rejected or cancelled their coverage because of a mental or physical condition. They also are eligible if they have gotten a notice of a reduction or limitation in coverage which gives them substantially less insurance than people who are considered standard risks; a notice of premium increase of at least 50%, unless the insurance company ups all its policies that much; or notices from two insurers of a premium rate increase of at least 50% more than the premium paid by the person of standard risk when the insurance is applied for but not yet in effect.

McCallum said HIRSP also is available for anyone under age 65 who is eligible for Medicare for disability reasons. It is not available to people under age 65 who are on Medicaid or Title 19.

"Five years ago in July, Wisconsin residents with physical or mental health conditions began benefitting from this plan," said McCallum, who has been a state Senator for 10 years. "I encourage anyone who wants an application or more information to call this number, toll-free: 1-800-228-7044."

MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Helen Meisenheimer:

Beautiful memories woven in gold
A gift from God we tenderly hold.
Deep in our hearts, her memory is kept,
To love and cherish and never forget.

Sadly missed by her family.

BIG SPENDERS STRIKE AGAIN

Last week, the House of Representatives approved a $1.3 billion spending bill which provides money in FY 1987 for its own operations, the Library of Congress and several congressional agencies.

I opposed this bill for several reasons. This bill appropriates about $46 million more than last year's bill. In light of our need to meet the Gramm-Rudman deficit targets, I think the House of Representatives gave itself too juicy a budget increase. We should be setting the example for everyone in Washington and in the country. But, we can't even do away with a mere $182,900 for operators for our automatic elevators.

Under this bill the funding for committee staffs increased 16 percent. Specifically, the House Appropriations Committee received a 10 percent increase for salaries and raises. This seems like an overly generous increase when the annual rate of inflation is running at only about 3 percent.

The furniture and furnishing accounts went up 54 percent over last year's funding. These increases are not justified and are unfair to the taxpayers. They don't make much sense when we are supposed to be cutting spending.

One amendment which I supported would have reduced the total funding of the bill by 3.51 percent. If passed, this amendment would have reduced every program funded under this bill by 3.51 percent and would have brought down the cost of this bill to last year's level. That is generous because it would have maintained, not cut, the spending level.

It is this Congress who is asking those on Social Security, veterans and retired government employees to give up their cost-of-living allowances. It is this Congress who is suggesting middle income earners give up tax preferences for savings toward retirement, their IRAs. It is this same Congress who is asking young families to give up tax deductions on their consumer credit for cars, appliances, baby clothes, etc. which is the only way many of our young people can purchase badly needed items.

I am ashamed to say, it is this same Congress who expects everyone else to make sacrifices, but takes advantage of its position of constitutional authority to take care of itself.

Next to the elephant, the hippopotamus is the heaviest of all land mammals.

They saw that time heals all sorrow
And helps us to forget
But time so far has only proved

Taxidermist's License Now Required, Warden Bilgo Reports

For the past several years no license was required to do taxidermy work, but as of Sept. 1st, 1986 that will be changed.

A license will now be required for taxidermists. A taxidermist, by definition, is a person who mounts or preserves the carcass of any wild animal for consideration. The license fee for Wisconsin residents will be $50.00 and for non-residents $100.00. The license period will run for two years. For a taxidermist to receive a license they must have a seller's permit issued by the Department of Revenue and the number of the seller's permit is reported on the application form.

There are other new rules that apply to taxidermists that I will not touch on at this time, for they are contained on the application itself.

Now, what does this new law mean to an individual who wants their fish or animal mounted by a taxidermist? It means they should be sure the person is a licensed taxidermist by seeing the license at the place of business or by contacting their local warden, who will have a list of the taxidermists in his area.

What happens if a person goes to an unlicensed taxidermist? The person could lose their trophy if the taxidermist is discovered by the warden to be without a proper license. The fish and animals could be seized as evidence to the violation.

Both the taxidermists and the DNR were in favor of this license requirement. Local taxidermists will be provided with license applications by area wardens before August 15th, 1986.

Any questions concerning this matter should be addressed to Warden Doug Bilgo at 626-2116.

KHS Cross Country Candidates Report

Cross country candidates at Kewaskum High School were informed by Coach Dave Drexler to report Monday, Aug. 18, with a meeting at 8 a.m. in Rose Hall.

Before runners can practice, however, they need to have taken care of their user's fee, physical or alternate year card and athletic code if not previously signed, Drexler said.

Drexler reports that the Indians have a challenging schedule but with the young talent, he feels this will be a successful season.

Lakes Team Suffers 3 More Losses

In regular season and makeup contests over the weekend, the Kewaskum Athletics lost three more Land o' Lakes games, all by decisive margins.

In a Thursday night game, Kewaskum was buried by Plymouth's league leaders, 22-6, Friday night they were trounced by the West Bend Benders, 11-1, and in a home tilt Sunday afternoon, second place Thiensville - Mequon downed the Athletics 14-6.

Statistician Bob Pick II of West Bend reported that the Benders had two big innings in their win over Kewaskum, scoring three runs in the first and six in the sixth. The Athletics lone run came in the fourth.

Kewaskum got only four hits off Bender pitcher, Goehring, all of them divided between four players. The Benders pounded out 12 hits off the Athletics' Tim Heberer. Three of the hits came off the bat of Hall, while Goehring, Boegel and manager Bill Backhaus had two apiece. Wetzel homered for West Bend. Heberer walked seven and struck out two, while Goehring walked five and whiffed seven.

The setbacks dropped Kewaskum's record to 1-13 in Lakes play.

Kewaskum had four games remaining this week. Wednesday night they were scheduled for a return game at Thiensville-Mequon. Saturday afternoon they will play a doubleheader against two different teams at home, facing the West Bend Benders in the first contest at 12:00 noon, followed by a contest against the leading Plymouth Flames. Then Sunday they host the Saukville Saints at 1:30. Three games in two days for you fans.

LAND O' LAKES (Northern Division) standings — Plymouth 15-1, Thiensville - Mequon 13-2, Port Washington 12-5, Barton 11-6, West Bend Lithias 9-7, Saukville 6-10, Grafton 6-10, West Bend Benders 5-12, Cedarburg 3-15, Kewaskum 1-13.

KEWASKUM FIFTH IN LITTLE LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

Germantown boys won the third Annual West Bend Little League Tournament held recently. The tourney involved 10 area teams.

Gold medals were awarded to the Germantown boys after they edged out Cedarburg in the finals. The West Bend Nationals beat the West Bend Americans for third place. Kewaskum ended up with three wins in four games, capped by an 11-4 win over Hartford for fifth place. Ribbons were awarded to those players. Participation ribbons were presented to Mequon, Beaver Dam, West Bend Bandits and Newburg teams.

Thiemerdome Thursday Goodtime League

BJ & CO. WINS ROUND ROBIN TOURNAMENT HIGHLIGHTS

BJ & Co. defeated Barrel Haus 3-0 to win the round robin tournament. It was a pitcher's duel to the end. John "Super Scout" Kleinke, the chucker for BJ & Co. had his double twister super dooper split fingered 40' hover pitch just dancing as he kept the sluggers from Barrel Haus off stride. John had a great season for BJ & Co. If he keeps this up the managers from the opposing teams are going to hire a few goons from the south side to rearrange John's arm next year. The 4' tall solid gold trophy was awarded to Homer "Chaser" Justman after the game. His lengthy post game speech droned on so long that everyone left before he was half ways thru his inspirational lecture on the merits of good sportsmanship despite the outcome of the games. He will practice the same speech on his team prior to next year's season.

The 2nd game saw Bartelt Ins. come out of their 4 year hitting slump and defuse Thornton's Bombers 7-1. In all fairness to the Thornton squad they played a little short-handed as All-Star pitcher Dennis "No Baloney" Maloney was absent as was David "Sluggo" Schaub who was in the hospital with a slipped disc which he injured according to his wife Karen as he was chasing her around the kitchen table. The league wishes David a speedy recovery. The Bartelt team was paced by Clark "Shank" Eichstedt who is a well known local athlete who dabbles a little bit in golf. The only reason Clark was able to play on the classy Bartelt squad was the diploma he just received from the Ralph "Barracuda" Koth school of swatting a softball. Clark took the inexpensive 2 week course which is an intensive 10 hour per day school held at Boltonville. The ink was hardly dry on his diploma as he showed up to play his 1st game with the BIG BOYS. The extremely nervous IKE proved his mettle as he smashed a long double and triple which accounted for most of the runs. Next year the entire team may be forced to spend a beautiful 2 week vacation in Boltonville. Ralph will have his Brinks truck all warmed up ready to go to the bank.

The matter of the most valuable player recount can finally be laid to rest. Thiemerdome Atty. Gerald Kiefer, after countless hours of research rendered his opinion to the Thiemerdome Board of Directors. In his opinion it was indicated that the accounting firm of Price-Waterhouse who audited the voting would have to be subpoenaed which would be a costly venture. Secondly, the results of the audit are hermetically sealed in a Mason fruit jar stored behind the pickles in Dotz & Lavern Hron's fruit cellar. The penalty for breaking this seal is almost as severe as the penalty for tearing the tag off your mattress advised Atty. Kiefer. Upon his sage advise the Board of Directors voted to close the matter as they felt Waupun was not the IN place to spend the rest of the summer.

Just for the record in case the fans would like to know where the windfall profits from gate receipts and concessions are spent the Board consists of the following:

President: Richard Thiemer Sr.

Vice Pres.: Richard Thiemer Jr.

Sec'y & Treas.: Evie Thiemer Nothing wrong with a "little" nepotism.

Directors: John Hefter, Norman "Poodles" Rauch, Ritchie Thiemer and Snowball.

This concludes another successful season at the Dome. It was a success because it was another injury free season and most everyone had an enjoyable time. Any player in the Goodtime League who takes this game seriously should consider playing in the West Bend AAA league next year.

All the teams in the league would like to thank Captain and Evie Thiemer and especially the members of the Bartelt squad who in an unanimous vote stated that the Cap was the best sponsor the team has ever had.

Hope to see all you fans back next year.

Attendance 1086.

'Orient Express' Event Is Held by West Bend Country Club Women

The "Orient Express" invite-a-guest day at West Bend Country Club, with Chris Ciske and Leafon Ronyak at the throttle, took on aspects of a far eastern culture, but the golf was American womens! Chair Ciske and co-chair Ronyak were assisted by Dorothy Parlow, Judi Mottl, Mildred Polsen, Ruth Modrow, and Marilyn Hill.

With a whistle start at 12:30 p.m., 76 golfers, carrying or wearing straw coolie hats, drove from their assigned tees in an 18-hole express run for low net, low gross, and best ball awards at journey's end. Oriental punch and iced tea were available at stations along the way. Half of the golfers were area or out-of-town guests of members, trying to stay on the right-of-way and on the tracks, out of sand and water.

When the golfing ended, the committee, in oriental robes and wigs, directed members (many of whom had also changed golfing apparel for Chinese and Japanese brocaded silk and printed cotton oriental robes, kimonos, and geisha girl outfits) to remove their shoes. They entered a dining room transformed into a posh dining compartment, with low tables decorated with eastern centerpieces, paper fans and lanterns, parasol-topped drinks, and lute music in the background. Oriental hors d'oeuvres were served, and a Chinese dinner followed, minus chopsticks but completely with plenty of tea.

After fried ice cream balls and fortune cookies, Ciske and Ronyak announced the day's golf winners. Don Hill, club professional, and his assistant, John Konz, had picked up all the course "tickets" and posted scores and validated low net and low gross, and computed "best ball" among teams. Winners were:

Low net: Millie Polsen, 66.
Low gross: Cele Thomas, 91.
Longest drive, hole #1: Kate Reiss.

Longest drive, hole #10: Barb Dambeck.

Longest putt, hole #9: Marilyn Seefeld.

Longest putt, hole # 18: Ginny Greer.

Closest to the pin, hole # 8: Millie Polsen.

Closest to the pin, hole # 17: Pat Martens.

Most number of balls in sand traps: Delores Chapman, Jullane Jackson, Bunnie Hickey, Bonnie Buchanan, Lois Wittig, Ellen Park, Ginny Greer, and Edna Sepersky.

Most number of water balls: Marilyn Seefeld.

1st place - Best-ball twosome: Betty Lewis and Christine Flynn 60.

2nd place - Best-ball twosome: Iris Glidden and Bonnie Buchanan, 61.

3rd place - Best-ball twosome: Judy Johnson and Bunnie Hickey, 62.

Sandals, pumps and sneakers that had been divested before dining were chosen at random, with ceramic and floral table centerpieces awarded to the owners. It was a wise woman golfer who could recognize her own shoes after clipping along on the express, and claim a prize, and perhaps a wiser woman who remembered to take her own seat cushion home. It was an afternoon and evening to talk about for the rest of the golfing season — on the Orient Express! August 12th!
