Hire Two Additional Part-Time Police Officers 1988 Village Budgets Approved

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Following public hearings held during Monday night's meeting, the 1988 general and departmental budgets for the Village of Kewaskum were unanimously approved by the village board.

The 1988 budget of $1,017,792, will carry a rate of $7.083 per $1,000 of assessed valuation for the village's portion of the total levy. Village Administrator Dan Schmidt said he was still missing some figures, including the actual state aid amounts, however, preliminary calculations indicate the village's total levy will be around $22.07 per $1,000, down about 98c from the 1987 levy of $23.05. The newly approved budget represents a .10% decrease from 1987.

In other action, the trustees approved a recommendation from the Fire and Police Commission to hire two additional part-time officers. The village received 27 applications for the positions, twelve individuals were interviewed. The board approved the hiring of Steven Seitz of Kewaskum, and Steven Riffel of West Bend to fill the posts.

In other business the board approved a recommendation from the Public Works Committee to purchase a 1988 replacement squad car from Russ Darrow, Inc. of West Bend. Darrow, low bidder, will supply a 1988 Dodge Diplomat for a price of $11,815.75.

The board also approved the purchase of a replacement garage door for the wastewater treatment plant at a cost of $2,065.

Schmidt also informed the Board that Michels Construction was willing to sell approximately 3,200 yards of gravel left from the highway 28 reconstruction project to the village. Schmidt said it was felt that would be enough gravel to do the Reigle Drive roadbed for the village's industrial park.

A resolution was also approved which will allow split payment of property taxes, with the first payment due on February 29, 1988.

Because of the holidays, the board moved to change the December meeting dates from December 7th and 21st, to November 30th and December 14th. Also, due to a lack of business the November Plan Commission meeting was cancelled.

The board also approved the assessor's contract for the coming year. Schmidt noted the cost of $3,200 is the same that it has been since 1984.

The board approved the issuance of a bartender's license to Scott Stern, and denied issuance of a license to Tammy J. Karst.

The board issued a proclamation to commemorate the Kewaskum Kiwanis 40th Anniversary.

Kewaskum United Way Drive Reaches $29,557

The 1987 Kewaskum Area United Way fund drive has reached $29,557, which is 92.3% of its goal of $32,000.

Gerald Gosa, co-chairperson of the 1987 fund drive, said that while the drive did not attain its goal, the drive did collect $2,230, or 8% more than collected in 1986.

Gosa noted that "we had the potential to reach our goal, but it's going to take a commitment by all of the people in the community to reach that potential in future drives."

The co-chairperson stressed that "Regal Ware and its employees are carrying a big load in the Kewaskum Area United Way campaign, and we need more help from all other industries, businesses and the general public."

Following is a breakdown of each of the divisions in the 1987 campaign:

Industrial — $12,090.
Financial — $448.
Professional — $2,835.
Retail — $1,030.
Taverns and Restaurants — $35.
Transportation — $345.
Public Sector — $4,316.
Direct Mail — $2,308.
Corporate Gifts — $6,150.

Gosa thanked all those who worked as captains on the 1987 fund drive. They include: Kim Peterson, co-chairperson; William Koehne, financial; Jim Moran and Mark Meister, industrial; Tom Larsen, outlying communities; Ron and Sue Schmitz, professional; David Nigh, retail; Ruth Ramel, rural and village mailings; Paul Behring, restaurants and taverns; and Tom Herriges, Transportation.

Gosa also thanked the following individuals for their help. They include: Jim Kleinhans, publicity; Gerald Zimmer, budget director; Gene Akin, treasurer; and Carol Dreher, who co-ordinated the drive at Regal Ware.

District Policy Set For Emergency School Closings

District Administrator Penny Kleinhans has released for publication the current policy to be utilized when school is to be called off.

As in the past years, radio stations WBKV (West Bend), (KFIZ) Fond du Lac and (WHBL) Sheboygan will be used to announce school closings because of bad weather or other emergency situations. In addition, station WTMJ (Milwaukee) will be included this year for announcements.

When school is being called off in the morning, the announcement will be on the air as early as possible. When school has begun but weather is bad, or turns bad, it is advised that parents, guardians and other responsible parties listen to one of the radio stations during the day for possible school closing announcements. The district is very hesitant about closing school during the day because we are concerned that parents or others may not be home when children arrive. Sometimes, however, this becomes necessary to avoid excessive problems with getting students home on busses at a later time of the day. Every effort will be made to announce school closings during the day; at least an hour before we dismiss the students.

It is important to remember that if school has been cancelled it means that all activities for that day will be cancelled and re-scheduled as necessary.

Present 'Bert and Ernie' Fire Safety Program

The West Bend Lioness Club members were very happy to present TV Channel 10's Bert and Ernie Fire Safety Program on Nov. 10 and 13 to over 250 kindergarten and first grade students in the Kewaskum School District. The program was presented six times each day at the various schools.

Parents are encouraged to discuss the puppet show with their children. Questions that were answered were - what do you do if you find a match, if you burn yourself or if your clothes catch on fire. We also told about smoke detectors and a fireman came to model his firefighting clothes and tell them he is their friend.

Last year the show was given to about 350 West Bend preschoolers and kindergartners, and it is being done again this year. Recently the Lioness Club journeyed to Juneau to present the show and encouraged their Lioness Club to undertake this extremely worthwhile project.

United Way of County Tops Goal

United Way of Washington County topped its 1987 goal by more than 3% with a total of $363,150. This represents a 21% increase over the dollars raised in 1986.

The goal was announced at the Victory Celebration held at the new Paradise Mall in West Bend. Peter Ziegler, the 1987 Campaign Chair, announced the total by taking off his suit coat and displaying the six red numbers taped onto the back of his shirt.

"With this success we have the chance to restate the values of community," said Ziegler in his closing comments. "By offering all people who work here the opportunity to become a part of something larger than him or herself we have stressed the importance of being part of a community that cares."

All but three of the fourteen divisions that reported their results surpassed their goals. The Public Sector, Chaired by County Auditor Sue Hartel, brought in 21% more than goal, while Cliff Nelson of the M & I Bank reported that the Special Gifts division he chaired was 20% over their goal. Key Firms, chaired by Bernie Nielsen from the Gehl Company, was responsible for more than 51% of the campaign. Key Firms raised 102% of their $182,000 goal.

Division results are as follows:

Division	Chair	Goal	Total
Key Firms	Bernie Nielsen	$182,000	$185,310
Sm. Industry	Jerry Aman/ Joe Carlson	17,500	27,626
Financial	Dave Haying	27,500	27,626

Professional	Sheila Hittman	12,000	13,229
Public Sector	Sue Hartel	12,000	13,279
Foundations/Unions/Special Gifts	Cliff Nelson	18,000	21,573
Agencies/Institutions	Fred Bury	14,400	14,342

Jackson	Chris Moberly	5,000	5,499
Newburg	Jim Heiligenstein	2,000	645
Transportation	Russ Darrow	8,000	8,148
TOTAL		$351,400	$363,150

"I couldn't be happier," said Jacquelyn Fogel, United Way Executive Director. "Now we'll be able to fund all of the programs approved in July, as well as a Contingency/Venture Grant Fund. We were unable to restore that fund for 1988 because our other needs were so great. By going over our goal we now have sufficient funds."

ATTENTION: FORMER DE SAILORS

In the annals of naval history the destroyer escorts are acknowledged for winning "THE BATTLE OF THE ATLANTIC." Though many of these ships were recommissioned during the Korean conflict and used in reserve service, they are non-existent today.

Over ten years ago, a dedicated group of men formed the "DESTROYER ESCORT SAILORS ASSOCIATION" to honor those sailors who served on board the destroyer escorts. They believed that the destroyer escort sailor should not be lost to oblivion as most of their ships were. These ships were considered obsolete for our present day Navy and were sold for scrap iron or used as targets for torpedo/missile practice. Twelve of these ships were sold to foreign nations. The former USS HURST DE 250, now the MANUEL AZUETA A-06, used for cadet training in the Mexican Navy, made a port of call to Philadelphia for the 1986 DESA Convention.

If your interest is activated as a former destroyer escort sailor, we are having a reunion and convention for your shipmates in ST. LOUIS, SEPTEMBER

2-6, 1988. Anyone who served aboard these types of ships or knows of anyone who did, please contact:

Dear Editor:

The farm crisis is a long ways from being over. While real state lenders are creating higher priced land by easy financing of new purchases, most farmers are straddled with old loans with high interest rates.

Also, many farmers who became highly leveraged due to low prices and high interest must face a bad year due to drought, floods, calf killing blizzards and other acts of God.

We've been providing free information to everyone in agriculture upon request for the past six years. Send us your name and address and we'll send you a packet of information, completely confidential, on your rights as a borrower.

Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin will be presenting a workshop entitled "AIDS and Other Sexually Transmitted Diseases: What Everyone Should Know..." on Wednesday, December 2nd, from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at the Marine Bank, 801 W. Washington Ave., West Bend.

Sexually transmitted diseases are on the rise and pose a serious threat to the health of anyone who is sexually active. This will be an informative workshop co-facilitated by Dr. Peter Cornelius of the General Clinic and one of Planned Parenthood's Community Educators. The workshop is designed to present you with an accurate update on facts and fallacies regarding the most common and worrisome STD's of the 1980's; including Chlamydia, Herpes, and AIDS. We will also explore with you strategies to present the spread of STD's in our community.

The fee for this program is $5.00 per person. For more information or to register, call the Community Services Department of Planned Parenthood at (414) 271-6033.

Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin, Inc., the largest of 186 Planned Parenthood affiliates in the United States, operates a network of 33 family planning clinics in communities throughout Wisconsin. It is a private, non-profit organization providing reproductive health care services, education and counseling for people of all ages, regardless of ability to pay.

IRS Cautions: Don't Wait to Get SS Number

According to the Social Security Administration, 10 million children will need to get a social security number this year.

Because of the 1986 Tax Reform Act, if you claim a dependent 5 years of age or older you must show the dependents social security number starting with the 1987 federal income tax return.

The Social Security Administration generally needs at least six weeks to process an application for a social security number. However, because of the increase in applications this year, if you wait until the last minute to file the application it could take longer to issue the number and you may not receive the number in time to meet the April 15 deadline for filing the tax return.

If you do not show the required social security number on the return, the Internal Revenue Service may apply a penalty for each required social security number not shown on the tax return.

To obtain a social security number for a dependent, contact the nearest Social Security office and request a form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Number Card.

A birth certificate or other birth record and proof of identification will be required to obtain the social security number card.

A form SS-5, can also be obtained by calling the IRS toll free telephone number 800-424-3676.

Free Telecourse Catalog Available

The free 1987 Telecourse catalog listing fall University of Wisconsin television assisted credit courses is now available upon request.

These courses, says Chuck Wise, Washington County Business Agent, are especially helpful for Wisconsin teachers looking for professional advancement opportunities and students who want to start or continue their college education at or near their home town:

The lecture portion of each course is shown on television, and the discussion sessions are held at ETN teleconference sites across the state. The telecourses are coordinated by UW-Extension and the Wisconsin Education Television Network.

The telecourse curriculum covers early American history, education of the gifted, creativity in the classroom, reading comprehension in the primary grades, modern Africa, writing for the elementary teacher, teaching students with special needs, and economics. Two courses are offered over radio: they are Wisconsin history from 1893-1915, and popular music since 1955.

Supporting the telecourse effort are UW-Madison, UW-Eau Claire, UW-Green Bay Extended Degree Program, UW-La Crosse, UW-Parkside, UW-Stevens Point, and UW-Whitewater. Students in a degree program should consult an advisor to make sure the course in which they want to enroll is appropriate.

More details are available in the "Telecourse Catalog." For a free copy, write or call Wise, 400 University Dr., West Bend, 338-5204, or call toll-free (800) 362-3020 and ask for Telecourse information.

Santa to Arrive in West Bend Nov. 29

West Bend's Christmas Parade is scheduled for 1:30 p.m., Sunday, November 29. The West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce will again be involved in the organization and planning of this popular family event.

"If early signs are to be trusted, this parade will be exciting to be a part of and to watch," said Marilyn Edwards, Administrative Assistant at the Chamber. "A core group of volunteers are hard at work making plans and contacts to assure a successful parade."

Greater participation from the retail/business/industrial community will be solicited, particularly in the number of float entries. Non profit groups are also encouraged to place floats, music on marching units in the parade.

The parade will wind through West Bend's downtown on Main Street. Bands, costumed characters, marching units, floats and, of course, the old fellow himself will entertain families, youngsters and oldsters.

Anyone that would like to be in the parade or help with the parade should call 338-2666.

Entries Welcome In Fond du Lac's Christmas Parade

Celebrate the traditions of Christmas in Fond du Lac. Enter a Christmas float in the "SANTA CLAUS PARADE," Friday, November 27th at 7: p.m.

This annual "day after Thanksgiving" event draws thousands to downtown Fond du Lac to enjoy the sights and sounds of the holiday season. Last year, over 45 units took part with an estimated attendance of 6,000 on hand to enjoy the festivities.

There are 3 theme categories to choose from: traditional, religious and character. Floats, bands, Christmas characters, choirs, and carollers are all welcome.

If you do not have the personnel or the time to participate, you can elect to sponsor a float. In addition, groups who are assembling floats need garages, flatbeds, trailers and/or wagons.

Call Casey Amrhein at 921-7990 or Diane Sabel at 921-3770 for more information.

The "SANTA CLAUS PARADE" is sponsored by the Fond du Lac Downtown Council and KFIZ Radio.

To subscribe to the Kewaskum Statesman, just call 626-2626.

Garvey Enters U.S. Senate Race

Declaring that Wisconsin voters "want and deserve a leader who can deal with the major problems of our time," Democrat Edward R. Garvey formally declared his candidacy for United States Senate on November 16.

In a statewide campaign blitz that took him to seven Wisconsin cities, Garvey told voters, "I am seeking this seat because I believe that in the next decade we will decide what kind of society we will have for ourselves, our children and all of humankind."

Pledging leadership for Wisconsin, Garvey said, "...We are not divided so much between the economic haves and have-nots, as between those with hope and those who have none."

"I want to give hope to the farmer who sees the potential loss of his land," Garvey said. "To the small business person who faces tremendous problems without help; to the worker who watches a plant shut down; to the senior citizen who sees a lifetime of savings disappear after entering a nursing home."

Garvey, the 1986 Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate, announced his candidacy in Madison, Milwaukee, Green Bay, Wausau, LaCrosse, Eau Claire and Superior.

Garvey, 47, is seeking the U.S. Senate seat that will be vacated by the retirement of Sen. William Proxmire. Garvey was accompanied on the campaign swing by family members including his wife Betty and daughters Pamela and Kathleen, and his sister Jean Henning.

Jill — But there are so many other jobs but where can meet men.

Jane — Maybe so. But not strapped down.

Cub Scouts Busy During September, October

Here's a photo of the youngest scouts who just received their Bobcat badges upon fulfilling the necessary requirement.

SEPTEMBER

The September meeting of local Cub Scout Pack #3744 started off the scouting program for this year with the Pack experiencing greatly increased participation by our local youth.

September's special guest speaker was Clayton Stautz who gave an informative talk about flags including information on our flag's history as well as detailed instruction as to the proper handling and folding of this symbol of our great nation. The local Pack was very pleased that Mr. Stautz was able to address their meeting and it was felt that this topic was most appropriate given Celebration of the 200th signing of the Constitution.

Brief talks were given by various den members as to what they had been doing activity wise in their respective dens. All in all it looks to be quite an exciting year for all involved.

OCTOBER

The October meeting of the local Cub Scout Pack #3744 centered around fire protection and safety. Our guest speaker for October was Donald Ehnert who, as our local fire chief, was a most knowledgeable and able speaker. A discussion of unsafe practices in the home, demonstration of smoke detectors, the proper course of action to take in the event of a fire were just several of the important items that Chief Ehnert discussed with the boys and leaders of Pack #3744.

In addition Chief Ehnert discussed the items necessary for a fire to start and that how by taking any one item away a fire could not start or continue. His display of smoke detectors that had actually been in homes that had a fire was most interesting. Many boys as well as the leaders were surprised that the smoke alarms could still work after being charred and melted by the heat of the fire.

Chief Ehnert stated that every home should have at least two of these inexpensive alarms and the best kind being those that have their own battery. An alarm that used electric current may fail if the electricity is interrupted in an electrical fire and thus is not the best choice. He also suggested that once every year all batteries be replaced with new ones since the only good smoke alarm is one that works. Everyone thought this meeting was most informative and appropriate especially with the heating season coming up so soon.

Once again as at every meeting a representative of each Den in the Pack gave a brief talk as to what their individual den had been doing that month. Obviously electricity and fire prevention were the main items that were discussed. A number of packs saw films on electricity. Others discussed how to escape from a home where there was a fire. Others discussed how to roll on the ground to extinguish a fire should a person himself be on fire as well. Being the Halloween season we also learned about knife safety and designed and made masks as well.

October 17th the scouts also were most fortunate to have a hay ride at the Panzer farm outside Kewaskum. The fall leaves with their full rich color made for a beautiful sight along the one hour ride. Hot chocolate was also supplied after the ride and the boys were given a tour of the farm as well. A special thank you to the Panzers for this exciting afternoon.

Kewaskum Area Girl Scout News

think if they are in scouting they can't take part in projects that are judged at the Washington County Fair, which is always in July. In order to enter the county fair you must be nine years old by January 1 or in the 3rd grade.

Becky Kuhnke took two 2nd places on her girl scout projects, First she took photos of different scouting activities and entered them. Then her troop, #223, made terrariums. They hiked into the marsh and found different types of mosses and learned how to transplant plants. Becky also took a second on her terrarium.

The County Fair wishes that more young people would do badge work and then bring their finished product to the fair in Slinger. You can get more information if you call the Washington County Fair Office.

With the approach of winter it is hard to think of County Fair time but never the less it should be on the minds of each girl scout in our county. Most scouts

Fundraising to Carry On Fight for State Obscenity Statute

Karen Webb, Chair of the Wisconsin S.O.S. Coalition announced a major fundraising effort to continue the fight for enactment of a state obscenity statute.

Karen Webb, at a coalition meeting at the Capitol Tuesday, "I've been gratified by the outpouring of statewide support for passage of Senator Chilsen's anti-pornography bill, Senate Bill 31. In addition to the enthusiastic support, we need money for postage, phone bills, and our part-time secretary."

The Fond du Lac coalition chair continued, "We are calling upon all the individuals and organizations who support our campaign to secure passage of Senate Bill 31 to make a financial commitment to that campaign. Time is short; we want to see passage of this legislation by the end of the 1987-88 Session which ends March 25."

Ms. Webb continued, "The coalition has been very fortunate in having received contributions of office space, printing services and countless hours of time. But to have a significant impact on the legislature, we also need a substantial financial commitment from citizens across the state." "Checks should be sent to: Mary Ann Draper, Treasurer, Wisconsin S.O.S. Coalition, 4297 W. Beltline Highway, Madison, WI 53711," Karen Webb concluded.

Panzer Sustains; Minimum Wage Veto Stands

State Rep. Mary Panzer (R-West Bend) was among the Wisconsin Assembly Republicans who set back the work ethic for working poor when they voted last week to sustain Governor Thompson's veto of a raise in the minimum wage, said State Rep. Dismas Becker (D-Milwaukee), a sponsor of the measure.

Becker explained that in 1981 the state set the minimum hourly wage at $3.25 and it has only increased ten cents since. The freeze resulted in a 25% loss in purchasing power to those at the bottom of the economy.

The proposal vetoed by Governor Thompson would have raised it to $3.55 by the end of 1988 and to $3.85 by the end of 1989. It passed the Assembly 61-32 and the Senate 23-9. But the measure narrowly failed Wednesday 62-36 to garner the necessary two-thirds majority to override the veto. All 36 votes to continue the minimum wage freeze were cast by minority Republicans and State Rep. Panzer was among them, said Becker.

"It is ironic that Rep. Panzer often criticizes social programs she feels create government dependence and destroy the work ethic among the poor," said Becker. "Raising the minimum wage even this moderate amount would provide the working poor with the incentive to persevere."

Becker noted that the minimum wage proposal struck a careful balance between what merchants can afford to pay and what workers need to live.

"I know of no one else in the economy whose income has been frozen since 1981," Becker said of minimum wage workers. "This increase of about $1,000 per year would have replaced only 40 percent of the purchasing power they lost while their annual salaries were frozen at less than $7,000."

"Even with the increase they would have remained below the federal poverty line, but our message to them would have been that we respect and cheer their efforts to work toward self-sufficiency. Instead, Wisconsin has turned its back on them."

Kewaskum gained two spots on the Scenic Moraine All-Conference football team selected by players and announced at a meeting held at Slinger last Thursday evening. Kewaskum's Mark Kral was selected as an end on the offensive team and the Indians' Gerald Geidel as a linebacker of the defensive team.

The Kewaskum High School Indians of the Scenic Moraine conference will open the 1962-63 basketball season with a non-conference game at Cedar Grove November 20. Jake Beck, 40, who operates the former Fred Backhaus farm on the River Road just out of the village limits, across from the Roman Strupp farm, suffered a very painful accident on Wednesday of this week when he lost his right arm which became caught on a corn shredder. Mr. Beck was working on the farm of a customer near Campbellsport at the time. He does corn shredding for various farmers with his machine. As he was feeding the shredder his arm became caught in a series of rollers and he was held tight. The arm began to bleed. "Reach in my pocket and get my packknife," Beck told Lloyd Enzenbach, his hired man. "Cut the arm off." Enzenbach, who was helping Mr. Beck at the time, followed instructions and cut the arm off just below the shoulder to release it. Enzenbach immediately hurried Mr. Beck to the hospital where it is reported he will recover despite a great loss of blood.

Prosper W. Reindl, 26, who owns and operates a grocery store and electrical appliance store at Wayne, passed away at St. Agnes Hospital, Fond du Lac, on November 16, from injuries suffered on November 4, in a 10-foot fall from a ladder. He was doing an electrical wiring repair job on the Charles Jansen farm in the Town of Barton, when the mishap occurred. Death was caused by a basal compound skull fracture.

At a special meeting of the Village Board with President Rosenheimer presiding, action was taken on the purchase of a new fire truck for the fire department.

At a well attended meeting held at Jos. Eberle's sports headquarters on Monday evening of this week, a village basketball team was again organized for the coming winter. Officers were elected with Lloyd Hron being selected as manager to replace Paul Landmann, who declined renomination. Paul, however, was elected treasurer of the club, succeeding Charles Miller, who did not seek the office. George Koerble was reelected secretary and Ralph Kohn, veteran center on the team was elected coach. Clifford Rose, last season's coach, declined the office because of his high school duties which occupy his time. An unusual operation was performed at the St. Agnes Hospital at Fond du Lac on November 12th, when a shawlpin, 3 1/4 inches long, was removed from the stomach of Miss Frieda Kloke of Campbellsport. Miss Kloke, while holding the pin in her mouth some days ago, let it slip down her throat, and as the pin went down head first little discomfort was experienced until three days later, when the pricking of the pin caused such pain. The offending object was located by means of x-ray and removed. She will recover. The patient is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kloke.

In addition to sales, Dilley has also been actively involved in designing advertising programs at Dairyland. In particular, Dilley designed and wrote Dairyland's series of "Management 2000" guides for farmers. These guides are designed to show farmers how to improve their productivity in producing hybrid corn, alfalfa, and soybeans.

"With Art as National Sales Manager, the entire sales staff will be exposed to his experience and leadership. This will certainly enhance and strengthen Dairyland's sales team," stated Executive Vice-President Tom Strachota.

Dairyland Seed is a family owned seed company operating out of West Bend. Dairyland was founded in 1907 and handles a complete line of farm seeds.

Dear Betty Crocker

Q. Why can't a turkey be stuffed the night before?

A. If turkey is stuffed in advance, salmonella and other harmful bacteria, if present, can multiply in the stuffing and cause food poisoning. When time is a factor, prepare stuffing and refrigerate it separately from the turkey. Then stuff bird immediately before roasting. Never refrigerate turkey after stuffing and before baking.

Q. How should yeast bread recipes be adjusted for high altitude?

A. Rising time will be shorter. Let dough rise JUST until doubled.

Q. Which cakes turn out best in the microwave oven?

A. Results will be best with richer, heavier cakes, such as chocolate, carrot or pineapple-upside-down. There's less chance of overcooking. Dark-colored cakes, such as gingerbread or chocolate cake, microwave well because they don't need browning.

Angel, sponge and chiffon cakes are not recommended for microwaving because they need the hot dry air of a conventional oven.

Do you have a question? Write Dear Betty Crocker, Box 1113, Dept. Betty Minneapolis, MN 55440.

Don't Let the Turkey Get You Down

It's turkey time again, but this Thanksgiving don't give food-borne illness a chance to spoil your family get-together.

Turkey, like all poultry, is susceptible to bacteria which cause food-borne illness. Bacteria are found everywhere in the environment, so it's the job of the consumer to prevent bacterial growth.

"Some consumers are scared to cook a turkey," said Cathy Paynter, nutrition education consultant at The Dairy Council of Wisconsin. "They shouldn't be. Turkey is perfectly safe if proper care is taken during preparation and cooking."

Paynter, a certified home economist, said the consumer's job begins before he or she leaves the grocery store. When shopping for the turkey, pick it up last; get it home and in the refrigerator or freezer promptly.

It's best to defrost the turkey in the refrigerator. Bacteria are not likely to grow in a refrigerator set between 35 and 40 degrees Fahrenheit. Defrosting the bird on the countertop increases the chance of bacterial growth. To speed defrosting, it is acceptable to enclose the turkey in an airtight plastic bag and run cold water over it.

Before preparing the turkey, wash your hands with soap, advised Paynter. Human hands are a primary source of bacterial contamination. Also wash all utensils, containers and work surfaces before and after they come into contact with raw poultry. Paynter advises cooks to use paper towels when cleaning up because bacteria can live on a sponge or washcloth.

Perhaps the part of the Thanksgiving meal which causes the most worry is the stuffing, said Paynter. She explained that it's a mistake to heat stuffing ingredients — giblets, onions, celery, butter and water — and then stick the stuffing in a cold bird. It may take hours for the internal temperature of the turkey to get hot, and during those hours, the stuffing is in the danger zone (60 F to 140 F) where bacteria can grow rapidly.

It's wise to cook the stuffing ingredients and then place them in the refrigerator. Stuff the bird just before you put it in the oven. Putting cold stuffing in a cold bird reduces the chance of bacterial growth.

Properly cooking the turkey can be as tricky as the preparation. The turkey should be cooked at an oven temperature of no less than 325 F. The internal temperature of the stuffing must reach between 160 F and 165 F to kill bacteria. When the turkey is done, the temperature in the thickest part of the breast should be between 170 F to 175 F, and deep in the thigh should be between 180 F and 185 F. Turkeys can be safely cooked in most microwave ovens. Paynter recommends checking the user's manual and using a meat thermometer to ensure proper cooking.

The consumer's job does not end when the bird comes out of the oven. Foods which have been heated, such as turkey, or foods which need refrigeration should not sit out at room temperature over two hours. When you've finished the meal, the leftover turkey should be refrigerated immediately.

After the leftovers have been refrigerated, you can take pride in a job well done. You'll know you took all the proper precautions to prevent food-borne illness from spoiling your family's Thanksgiving.

Back to Basics— How to Be A Successful Deer Hunter

Dozens of factors contribute to a successful deer hunt, according to the Remington Arms Company. A hunter's chances of bagging a buck vary considerably from state to state, even from area to area within a given state. Some cover is easier to hunt than others and may therefore offer a better chance at success. And most hunters are governed by pressures of time and money so they often choose an area that is relatively close to home.

Still, the most important factor in successful deer hunting is experience, things we have learned ourselves or have picked up from others. The folks at Remington offer these reminders.

YOU GOTTA KNOW THE TERRITORY

Familiarity with the land is essential. Get a topographic map of your deer area and study the terrain. The physical characteristics of the land will dictate deer movements. Experience shows the hunt is more likely to be productive if you spend some time scouting the country before the hunt begins. Even if you only find the areas where the deer "ain't," you'll have saved a lot of valuable hunting time by being able to concentrate on the most likely places.

EARLY AND LATE HOURS ARE BEST

Deer tend to move at certain times and lie low at others. They feed mostly at night, so expect them to be moving from feeding areas back to bedding grounds during the hour of first light. You'll miss this movement if you're not still in the woods and on location while it is still black dark. The reverse happens the last hour of the day; the deer leave their resting spots and move out to feeding areas. The ideal place for you to be is watching a deer run that is near a trail you can follow back to camp in the dark.

Watching deer trails at first morning light and before dusk is often a productive deer hunting tactic.

Many experienced hunters believe taking advantage of these very early and very late periods is the single most important tactic you can use to boost the odds in your favor.

QUIET, PLEASE!

Deer are alarmed by unusual sound, sudden movement and scent. You need to constantly be aware of all three. Steady, quiet walking may not spook deer, though they'll certainly be aware of it. But sudden movement in a fixed stand will be noticed immediately. Scent is extremely important. Always try to keep the wind or air movement in your face and remember that warm air rises, so currents will go uphill during the warmer part of the day, downhill when it cools.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

Like most wildlife, deer prefer areas with southern exposure. Cold, heavily shaded sections are generally avoided. If you find an area without squirrels or song birds, chances are there will be no deer either. Snow cover shows tracks. In its absence, check soft ground and at all times look for deer droppings, buck rub marks, pawed up patches of ground, scrapes and well defined trails or runs.

Finally, remember that deer are smart enough to move away from heavy hunting pressure. Turn this to your advantage by working rugged remote areas where the average hunter won't bother to go.

HUNT SMART

Deer senses are definitely superior to ours but human intelligence can be the equalizer. This means we can combine a knowledge of the area and of deer habits, the ability to recognize signs of deer presence and movement, a preconceived plan of action and last but not most important - hard work. After all, it's the hunting that makes the sport.

Property Tax Relief Not An Easy Issue: Stitt

Legislative candidates on the campaign trail do share universal experiences. Orner dogs, lots of parades and sore feet rank at the top of the list. As for voters, every election brings to light one common concern they share: rising property taxes.

On September 18th, after eight months of exhausting analysis, Governor Thompson's Property Tax Relief Commission finalized their proposals on a 19 to 2 vote. Their recommendations basically contain three major parts that will reduce property taxes by 31%.

First, the Commission established local cost controls to hold down spending at the local level. These cost controls would expire after three years. Second, a "foundation plan" was forwarded. This presents a radical departure from our state's current school aid system.

Under the "foundation plan," aid would be based on spending $4,200 per pupil which was the state average in 1985-86. Each of the state's school districts would then be asked to levy property taxes of $4 per $1,000 of equalized value. That amount would be calculated by subtracting it from a figure obtained by multiplying $4,200 by the total number of pupils in the district. The state would fund the remaining amount.

School districts that spend below the $4,200 foundation level would have five years to reach it. Districts spending above the level would have to make up the difference from property taxes. Yet, spending could not surpass 135% of the foundation level after five years.

The third part addresses funding. Approximately $1.1 billion must be raised to reach the Commission's goal. Nearly $400 million will come from the property tax credit, shared revenue per capita, lottery, credit re-estimates and school aid growth. However, that leaves about $704 million that must come from other sources.

The Commission recommended that $704 million be raised through either a sales tax rate change not to exceed 1% and/or sales tax base expansions to certain goods and services. In effect, the Commission left this part of the funding question open-ended. They also suggested a special session of the Legislature be called to quickly deal with the issue.

Because the Legislature may be asked to consider a plan as early as this fall - a plan that has failed to clarify the important element of funding - it seems appropriate that a legislative body such as the Joint Finance Committee conduct state-wide public hearings on the Commission's report. While we strive for significant property tax relief, extreme expediency on this issue may not be a policy virtue.

The Legislature should patiently explore what will be important changes in the way we tax people and businesses in our state as well as the way we educate our children. A full-fledged attempt at bridging the often conflicting ideas of reducing property taxes and improving our quality of education deserve broader debate.

If you have any questions or concerns, please write me, Senator Don Stitt, at P.O. Box 7882, Madison, Wisconsin 53707 or call my office at 608-266-7513 or leave a message with the Legislative Hotline at 1-800-362-9696.

ASC Office Accepting Conservation Signups

The Washington County ASC Office is now accepting applications for Conservation Practices that will be performed during 1988. The signup period will be from November 15 thru December 18, 1987 for both the annual and long term program. ACP practices approved for

Washington County include Washington Vegetative Cover Establishment and Improvement, Stripcropping, Terraces, Diversions, Field Windbreak Restoration or Establishment, Permanent Cover on Critical Areas, Contour Farming, Reduced Tillage Systems, No Till, Water Control Structures, Stream Bank Protection, Waterways, Animal Waste Control Facilities, Tree Plantations, Timber Stand Improvement, and Permanent Wildlife Habitat.

Wisconsin Airport Development Reaches Record $24.8 Million

Wisconsin airport development reached a record high of $24.8 million in 1987, reflecting the public's ever-rising consciousness and support for increasing aviation safety and expanding airport capacities.

Federal aid for the fiscal year that ended Sept. 30 totaled $18.3 million, compared to last year's $16.9 million. The Wisconsin Department of Transportation provided $4.1 million, and local contributions totaled $2.4 million. In 1986, $23.7 million from all sources was available for airport development, while this year's airport program totaled $24.8 million.

West Bend Airport is one of the airport projects slated for repavement and installation of new runway lights next spring, under a federal aid grant for $280,260 with West Bend and DOT each providing $15,570.

School District Of Kewaskum Meeting Minutes

October 26, 1987

School District of Kewaskum
Kewaskum, Wisconsin 53040

President Horner called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m. He asked Superintendent Kleinhaus if the meeting had been properly called, if all the requirements of the open meeting law had been met and if meeting notices had been properly posted. She replied, "Yes, to the best of my knowledge."

Members present: Perry Ankerson, Ruth Schmitt, Clara Trapp, Ralph Horner, Ron Beimborn, Ron Theusch, Don Nowak.

Members absent: none
Clerk Schmitt led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Schmitt/Beimborn motion to delete C.4. Discussion and possible action relative to the lawsuit initiated by Charles Trapp against Superintendent Kleinhaus. Discussion followed. Perry Ankerson, who had requested this item to be put on the agenda, objected to having it removed. President Horner, who had contacted the attorney previously, stated that it was a matter between Ms. Kleinhaus and Mr. Trapp, that there were some serious questions regarding the payment of legal expenses for Ms. Kleinhaus's defense, and that the Board was advised not to vote or take any action regarding the matter at this time. Board member Ankerson indicated that he did not wish to discuss the "merits" of the case and wasn't going to ask for any decisions to be made on that issue. Superintendent Kleinhaus at that time handed each Board member a request to have the School District pay for her legal expenses in the defense of the lawsuit against her. After a lengthy discussion the motion passed 4-3 with Perry Ankerson, Don Nowak and Ron Theusch voting no.

Schmitt/Trapp motion to accept the agenda as amended. Motion passed 4-3 with Perry Ankerson, Ron Theusch and Don Nowak voting no.

Audience to visitors; receiving of delegations: Perry Ankerson excused himself as a Board Member, and asked to be recognized as a private citizen. President Horner denied the request. After more discussion President Horner stated that on the advice of the attorney, if there were any remarks made at the meeting the person making those remarks would be speaking for themselves and not for the School Board. Mr. Ankerson replied that he would take full implications for anything he said. Acting as a private citizen, Mr. Ankerson then read a prepared statement regarding the lawsuit initiated by Charles Trapp against Superintendent Kleinhaus. The statement listed his concerns including the Board's responsibility - legally and ethically; the responsibility for legal bills; the attorney's role; liability; the financial impact on the district; the administrator's time spent defending herself; and the possibility of a counter suit. He stated that the Board now has one member with a definite conflict of interest. Finally, he requested Mrs. Trapp to resign her seat on the Board. Mrs. Trapp declined. (A copy of the prepared statement is on file in the Administration Office.) Mr. Ankerson resumed his seat on the Board after completing the presentation.

Two citizens from the audience expressed their concern about the present status of the high school football team and requested the Board to investigate the possibility of adding a middle school program or transferring to another conference.

Nowak/Schmitt motion to approve the October 12, 1987 open minutes. Motion passed 7-0.

Nowak/Schmitt motion to approve the October 12, 1987 closed minutes. Motion passed 7-0.

Motion passed 7-0.

Schmitt/Ankerson motion to accept policy #8111 - Code of Ethics. Motion passed 7-0.

The Next Policy meeting will be held November 2, 1987 at 7:00 p.m. in the Administrative Offices.

Theusch/Schmitt motion to accept the bid of $1335 from Schmitt for blinds at FES. This cost includes $320 for installation. Motion passed 6-1 with Don Nowak voting no.

Theusch/Ankerson motion to purchase shades and blinds for KES from Drapery Designs at a total cost of $1995.95. Motion passed 6-1 with Ralph Horner voting no.

Theusch/Ankerson motion to purchase stage curtains for KHS from Midwest Scenic at a cost of $6200. Motion passed 6-1 with Don Nowak voting no.

The next Finance meeting will be held Monday, November 16th at 7:30 p.m. in the KHS library.

Ankerson/Nowak motion to purchase a computer system for KHS from CESA #5 at a cost of $10,122. Discussion followed. Perry Ankerson called the question. The question called 2-5 with Clara Trapp, Ruth Schmitt, Ron Beimborn, Don Nowak and Ralph Horner voting no. Discussion continued with the subject of whether or not to purchase a system which was compatible with the one located in the Administrative Offices, and whether or not a scanner should be purchased. Motion failed 2-5 with Clara Trapp, Ruth Schmitt, Ron Beimborn, Don Nowak and Ralph Horner voting no.

Schmitt/Beimborn motion to purchase a Burroughs computer system from School Administration Software for $13,474 plus purchase a scanner at an extra cost of $4200. Discussion followed. Perry Ankerson called the question. The question called 3-4 with Clara Trapp, Ron Beimborn, Don Nowak, and Ron Theusch voting no. Discussion continued. Motion failed 3-4 with Perry Ankerson, Don Nowak, Ron Theusch and Ralph Horner voting no. Student representative Craig Hubbell announced that the student government will be selling spirit sweaters. They come in the colors of green, gold and white. The price is $18.00.

Nowak/Ankerson motion to approve the payroll and accounts payable in the amount of $1,357,987.90 Motion passed 6-1 with Ralph Horner voting no.

Schmitt/Nowak motion to approve the new/health insurance rates for teachers, administrators and non-union support staff: (single monthly rate 89.80; family monthly rate 235.06) until another plan is negotiated. Motion passed 6-1 with Perry Ankerson voting no.

Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds Fred Boehlke reported that the auto hoist in the industrial arts area at KHS is leaking oil quite severely. The floor will be lifted to see where the leak is and to determine whether the hoist needs to be replaced or repaired. He will report the findings to the Board.

Schmitt/Beimborn motion to add a vocational survey course to the KHS curriculum. Motion passed 6-0. (Ron Theusch had temporarily left the room).

Schmitt/Trapp motion to add a Pascal computer course to the KHS curriculum. Motion passed 7-0.

Schmitt/Nowak motion to approve a physical science course to the KHS curriculum. Motion passed 5-2 with Ralph Horner and Perry Ankerson voting no.

Principal Kopecky informed the Board that the computer literacy course would become part of the business ed curriculum rather than that of the math due to the fact that business ed is more into keyboarding than math is.

Ankerson/Nowak motion to approve the purchase of a wrestling mat from T&W Sports in the amount of $4,580. Motion passed 7-0.

Discussion took place regarding goals for the administrative team and Board. Following are some suggestions that were discussed: 1) more extensive "Child Find"; (i.e. early identification of children with problems); 2) developing a summer school; 3) modern up-to-date curriculum; 4) revamping the present sports program; 5) more communication with the public; 6) deciding on proper roles for each Board member; 7) defining the Board's role as opposed to the administration's role in the district decision-making and administrating processes; 8) the need for the Board to act as a whole rather than individually. President Horner requested District Administrator Kleinhaus to compile a list of the goals mentioned to be discussed at another meeting.

Ruth Schmitt asked for direction on how a Board member should request information and referred to a memo dated October 16, 1987 from Superintendent Kleinhaus to the Finance - Transportation - Buildings and Grounds committee. It was mentioned that Mrs. Schmitt had made requests of Supervisor of Buildings and Grounds Boehlke, asking him to secure bids for repairing the tennis courts. The advisability of such action was discussed. Mrs. Schmitt also stated that she had visited Beechwood Elementary and found water running under the foundation. She suggested ground be filled in to alleviate the problem. She stated that Mr. Boehlke had called her (after she could not reach Ms. Gorder or Ms. Kleinhaus) and she relayed her request to him. Superintendent Kleinhaus replied that the administrative team members are always available and more than willing to speak with any Board member on any subject. However, requests for action and projects should go through the proper channels (committees, etc.). One Board member should not act individually.

Ankerson/Theusch motion to approve Ken Soerens as KHS assistant girls' basketball coach. Motion passed 7-0.

President Horner, as representative of the Board, was asked to sign a challenge pledge, (presented by social worker Jackie Schoening), to work toward achieving a drug-free school district. This is part of a U.S. Department of Education program.

Administrator Kleinhaus announced that the School District has received notice from the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission that the KEA filed a prohibited practice complaint stating that good faith bargaining had not taken place. Particularly the complaint states that "the District violated Section 11.70(3)(a) 1 and 4 by refusing to bargain in good faith with the Association in that none of the Board members who were part of the District's bargaining team which reached agreement with the union would endorse or support the tentative agreement."

The National meeting of School Boards will take place March 26-29 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

The Board congratulated the KHS girls' volleyball team for taking 1st place in the regionals.

On November 3 there will be an all high school assembly with the theme "Thank Goodness It's Freedom." Everyone is invited to attend at 2:00 p.m. in the fieldhouse.

Perry Ankerson requested the administration to provide him with the following information: 1) a written legal opinion on a Board member's right to put an item on the agenda; and 2) a written legal opinion on what action could be taken against those Board members who precluded him from speaking to an item which was on the agenda. He also requested that discussion take place regarding the code of ethics and possible action against a Board member who is in violation at the next Board meeting.

Clerk Schmitt accepted the request submitted by Administrator Kleinhaus asking that her legal fees relating to the Charles Trapp lawsuit be paid by the School District.

Ankerson/Theusch motion to adjourn. Motion carried.

NEWS EXTRA

An Open Letter to Wisconsin Deer Hunters

Dear Deer Hunters:

You will soon undertake a journey into one of America's greatest hunting traditions, the deer hunt. Your safety and hunting successes will be mostly your personal responsibility. You alone will feel the weight of this responsibility every time you pick up your firearm.

Your Hunting Expectations

Most of life's challenging experiences give you and I a variety of expectations and satisfactions, and we always want to be a winner. Wisconsin's annual major hunting event, the gun deer season, provides the opportunity to match wits with one of the greatest hunting challenges of all, the wily and elusive whitetail deer. What does it really mean to be a winner in the game of deer hunting? And if you are not a winner, are you a loser?

I would like to share some of my personal observations about you, the deer hunter, and your deer hunting. You have been observed, studied, interviewed and analyzed by me for nearly a quarter of a century as a conservation warden, including twelve years as Hunter Education Administrator. Some of my comments reflect the attitudes of hundreds, perhaps thousands of deer hunters, landowners, conservation wardens, hunter educators, researchers and nonhunting citizens all across this great continent.

Your Hunting Emotions

During the deer season, you will experience an excitement...an emotional anxiousness to bag your deer...whether stalking that elusive trophy buck in the big woods or pursuing an antlerless trophy in the farm fringes. That internal excitement is a major reason that you and I hunt. It is a natural feeling. It feels good! Every hunter feels it to some degree...The secret to safety is to CONTROL that excitement...because failure to control emotions while shooting at a deer can be deadly...possibly to a hunting partner.

Hunting partners that get over-excited are also hazardous to you. Your safety should be their primary concern, but any hunter that is over-anxious to bag their deer can forget momentarily where you are...and a tragedy can happen.

Your Hunting Behavior

The hazard of over-excited shooters is compounded by group bagging, when greed often takes over from reason. The hunter's objective changes from enjoying the deer hunt to killing all the deer possible...and safety is often forgotten in the thrill of the kill.

Since "Group Bagging" for deer was legalized by the legislature, 40% of the two person hunting accidents that occurred when the shooter was attempting to bag a deer, happened when he or she was attempting to shoot a deer for someone else. For your personal safety and satisfaction I recommend your hunting party adopt the slogan B.Y.O.B. — Bag Your Own Buck!

Your Hunting Safety

If you hunt with an exposed-hammer rifle, such as the 30-30 carbine, be extra careful while loading, unloading, cocking or uncocking it. Every deer season, cold fingers and gloved hands tend to slip off those hammers and cause unanticipated shots...that result in injuries or death.

To be safe, you must be seen by other hunters. To be seen you should wear SOLID color hunter orange outer garments. The various patterns of camouflage hunter orange outfits are a compromise in personal safety for the wearer, because they are not as visible to other hunters as is the solid fluorescent orange. Don't compromise YOUR safety.

Speaking of safety, if you don't look at me through your rifle scope, I won't bend your rifle barrel! Please use binoculars to identify your hunting partners...and your wardens! NEVER sight through your scope at another person.

YOUR Hunting Success

While bagging a deer is one element of hunting success, there are other, more important satisfactions to consider. The quality of your deer hunting memories will directly reflect your involvement in pre-season preparation. Magnificent memories can include opportunities for sharing your experience with younger hunters, making and molding lasting friendships, experiencing the pride of seeing a youngster bag his or her first deer, and enjoying that first aroma and flavor of venison in camp.

True hunting success is not measured by the size of antlers or pounds of venison. You can relive your deer hunting memories all your life...long after the delicious venison is gone...and the antlers are collecting dust.

For a memorable season, enjoy your deer HUNT...and consider bagging a deer an extra special bonus...and have a safe trip!

Sincerely,

Homer E. Moe

Two-Out-of-Three Deer Hunters Who Applied Got Permits

Sixty-five percent of the 395,344 hunters who submitted valid applications for a hunter's choice permit this year were successful. A permit entitles the hunter to take either a buck or an antlerless deer during the Wisconsin deer gun season in the management unit for which the permit is issued.

Mailing of the permits to successful applicants was completed on Friday, November 6. If you applied for a permit this year and did not receive one, you will have preference for a permit when applying in 1988.

In 12 out of the 108 deer management units in the state, there were more permits available than applications received for them. In all of those cases, a second "antlerless only permit" was issued by random selection to hunters in those units who had already received a hunter's choice permit, so all the available permits have been issued. The undersubscribed units were 1, 7, 47, 54C, 60, 60A, 70A, 70B, 70E, 73C, 75 and 77A.

A total of 445 nonresidents received hunter's choice permits this year, all of them in one of the 12 undersubscribed management units listed above.

There were several management units, however, where the demand for permits was far greater than the number available. Hunters who applied for those units had only a one-in-four to one-in-three chance of obtaining a permit.

The department received 400,313 applications for the 257,465 hunter's choice permits available this year. Of those 4,969 applications were invalid either because they were not filled in properly or were received after the October 2nd deadline.

The nine-day deer gun season in Wisconsin opens this year on Saturday, November 21 and continues through Sunday, November 29.

Wisconsin Deer Hunting Means 'Bucks'

By Harry Libby
Wildlife Management Specialist

Each year when frost finds the pumpkin under a harvest moon, and leaves turn to gold, interest in the approaching gun deer season begins to build. The two questions frequently asked are: "What will the deer harvest be?" and, "What does the deer season mean to local economies?"

Assuming reasonably favorable weather, Wisconsin deer hunters can expect this year's harvest to exceed the 299,730 deer taken during the gun and archery seasons last year. That's impressive because last year was the second best deer season on record. Total deer taken for the gun and bow seasons this year could be in the neighborhood of 310,000. Of this number about 130,000 will be bucks, with the remainder being antlerless deer. Annual harvest levels are recommended to achieve a satisfactory balance among deer hunters, habitat carrying capacity, and agricultural interests.

This fall, the Department of Natural Resources expects more than 680,000 deer hunters to take to the field, and if weather conditions are favorable the number of days spent deer hunting will exceed five million.

The fall gun deer season in Wisconsin is viewed by many as the largest social event of the year. Vacation plans often focus on the deer season opening dates. Some schools close their doors, some industries close or adjust work schedules to reduce absenteeism during the gun deer season.

When asked how much they would miss deer hunting in a recent survey conducted by University of Wisconsin - La Crosse researchers Bob Jackson and Bob Norton and reported in the publication Deer and Deer Hunting, more than 60 percent of Wisconsin's deer hunters reported they would miss deer hunting more than most or all other activities. Deer hunting interest and dedication also gets the attention of local merchants, from the motel owner to the restaurant operator to the sporting goods dealer. While the deer are polishing their antlers and hunters their guns, many local businesses are dusting off their "Hunters Welcome" signs.

What's the outlook for the harvest of these "green bucks" this fall? Information on Wisconsin deer hunting expenditures from a national survey of fishing, hunting and wildlife-associated recreation, estimates that each hunter spends about $180 hunting deer in Wisconsin. Based on that estimate, this fall's 680,000 deer hunters will contribute $122.4 million to the state's economy.

A Madison newspaper reported last year that an economic impact of $100 million would be... "more than the annual profits of Wisconsin's largest car dealers and almost as much money as Tombstone Pizza Corporation earns each year. In fact, if all the state's deer hunters spent their money in one place, that business would be at least Wisconsin's 36th most profitable company."

That can be translated into jobs. The Wisconsin hospitality, recreation and tourism industry has developed a way to determine the number of jobs created or supported by recreational activities. Using the $122.4 million figure, this system shows the money spent by Wisconsin deer hunters during the season is enough to support more than 7,000 jobs. The figure is adjusted for the expansion effect whereby each dollar spent may be worth $2.20 as it circulates and provides jobs for businesses in local communities.

To put this into perspective, that would be enough to provide a job for every adult and child in Florence or Iron counties, or in cities like Hartford, Hudson, Kimberly, Lake Geneva, Plymouth, Prairie du Chien or Shawano.

If all these jobs "supported" by deer hunting were in one company, how would this company rank with other firms based on the number of people they employ in Wisconsin? Data from the Wisconsin Department of Development indicates this "company" would have more employees than A.O. Smith, General Electric, J.C. Penny, Kohl's Food Stores, Kohler Company, Shopko or Wisconsin Electric.

There's also a table value of the deer that are harvested. Biologists estimate the deer herd this fall will approach one million animals. Assuming 50 pounds of meat per deer at $2 per pound, a Wisconsin harvest of 310,000 deer results in $31 million in venison steaks and brats. Adding this food value to the $122 million unadvised recreational expenditures, the deer hunt has an annual value of at least $153 million.

Those aren't small bucks, and neither are a lot of those wary brown ones that will manage to outsmart many deer hunters this fall. It's a cycle that keeps interest high, deer hunting discussions flowing, and local economies green.

Debbie Felix All-Conference Selection in Volleyball

Debbie Felix of Kewaskum, who has played some solid volleyball during her career in high school, a senior 5-10 hitter, was selected for first team honors on the Eastern Wisconsin All-Conference team. Last year she was named to the second team.

The New Holstein girls' team was undefeated in conference play this fall with a 1-2-0 record and went on to win both Class A regional and sectional meets together with a batch of trophies.

Five of the six New Holstein starters, two of them underclassmen, made either the first or second team after the all-conference voting.

Joining Felix on the first team were: New Holstein's Sherri McNamara, a sophomore hitter; DeeDee Rose, of New Holstein, a junior hitter; Janet Steiner, also of New Holstein, a senior setter; Julie Morgan, a junior from Sheboygan Falls, and 6-1 Kristen Senglaub of Plymouth, perhaps the most dominant individual in the conference this year.

The second team ended up with seven girls because Chilton's Betty Sticka and Terry Bonino of Two Rivers, both seniors, had the same amount of votes for the final spot.

Others on the team were: Becky Koepfel, Two Rivers junior hitter; Katti Meinert, Plymouth senior setter; Carleen Keyer, New Holstein senior spiker; Jenny Suemnicht, Sheboygan Falls, senior setter; and Laura Nett, Sheboygan Falls junior setter.

Felix was a consistent player and led the team in spike kill points. She rates in the top six spikes in the conference, having 91 total points and 60 spike kills.

Kewaskum's Jenny Schuster, a three-year regular setter, received honorable mention in the voting, serving and setting were Schuster's strong points.

Hron Gets Honorable Mention

Pearson All-Conference Second Team Selection

Even though Kewaskum failed to win a game and finished last in the standings, the Indians did receive some honors when the Eastern Wisconsin All-Conference football team was selected by the coaches last week.

Kewaskum's Eric Pearson, a 6-0, 160-pound senior, earned a berth at linebacker on the second team. He also was the team's quarterback. Robbi Hron also received honorable mention as offensive guard.

Undefeated champion Sheboygan Falls dominated the berths on the All-Conference team with six players on the first-team offense and four on the first-team defense.

The Falcons advanced all the way to the finals of the State WIAA playoffs in Madison last weekend before being eliminated by Hayward and finishing as runner-up for the title. This was their only loss of the season.

Runner-up Chilton had one player on offense and four on defense, while New Holstein had three players on the first team, all on offense.

Unanimous selections on the defensive selections were Sheboygan Falls quarterback Brek Rammer, a 5-9, 160-pound senior who also garnered Offensive Most Valuable Player honors; New Holstein end Steve Wolfram, a 6-0, 155-pound junior; Falls tackle Jay Klister, a 6-2, 205-pound senior who was a unanimous pick in the defensive interior line as well; Falls running back Brad Rutgers a 6-2, 185-pound senior; and Sheboygan Falls back Joel Schumacher, a 6-2, 187-pound senior, who was also a unanimous pick at linebacker and Defensive Most Valuable Player.

Paul Kuplic, a 6-0, 170-pound defensive end from Sheboygan Falls, was the only other unanimous pick on defense.

Joining Wolfram from the Huskies on the first team were tackle Jim Tikalsky (6-2, 245) and placekicker Todd Horneck (6-2, 173). Both are seniors.

Chilton running back Dan Stadtmuller, a 5-9, 170-pound senior, joined Rammer, Rutgers and Shumacher in the offensive backfield. Defensively, the Tigers were represented by end Doug Depies (5-11, 172), interior lineman Dave Leitner (6-1, 210), defensive back Tim Steffes (5-9, 150) and punter Gary Mertz (6-0, 160).

Named to the second team from New Holstein were Tikalsky in the defensive interior line and linebacker Luke Perrin, a 5-10, 160-pound junior.

Chilton placed Leitner at tackle and Duane See, a 5-10, 190-pound senior at guard on offense.

Indians Defeat Lomira In Hoops Opener, 56-45

The Kewaskum Indians Boy's Basketball team started off their 1987-88 campaign on a good note with a hard fought 56-45 victory over the Lomira Lions, Tuesday night in Lomira.

The Indians, under new head coach, Dale Schatz, started out like a house on fire, hitting the boards and pushing the ball inside to the likes of Joel Fleury and David Harju, on route to a 12-4 first quarter advantage. Fleury, a 6-6 senior center, scored eight of his game-high 20 points in the first frame, and Harju, a six foot senior forward, asserted himself on the boards to help the Indians to the early lead.

Lomira toughened up a bit in the 2nd quarter, cutting the lead to 22-20 at halftime with the help of Ryan Pentland who tallied seven points in the frame, including a three-pointer.

To start the second half, Lomira threw a full-court press at the Indians, but the senior-oriented and experienced Indians had little problems handling it and converted a few fast break attempts while breaking the press. But the Lions hung tough and at the end of the third quarter, they were still in striking range at 35-30. But the Indians depth, probably their greatest strength this year, became evident in the final frame, as the undermanned Lomira team tired, while the fresh Indians took control.

Fleury tallied another eight points in the final period and Steve Johnson also added six as the Indians took over and notched their first win of the year, equalling their entire win total of last year.

Lomira was led by Pentland, who finished with 12 points, and Tim Buerger, who had six points. To go along with eight rebounds, the Indians were led by Fleury, who also had seven rebounds and Rob Baitinger who had 11 points and three steals. Coach Schatz and Harju on the boards with 7 and 6, respectively, and added that the victory was a total team effort with everyone contributing.

The Indians now take their 1-0 mark against Slinger, at home, Friday, Nov. 20. Tip off time to be 6:15 p.m. for J.V.'s and 7:45 for the Varsity. Hope to see you there!

Four Letterwinners Back

Girls Open Basketball Season With Two Games

By Ann-Marie Horner

The Kewaskum girls' basketball season opened this week with non-conference home games Tuesday against Slinger and Thursday against Lomira.

Last year Kewaskum was 6-6 in conference and 9-12 overall.

There are four returning letterwinners. They include: Debbie Felix, a 5'10" forward who is a senior; Brenda Theusch, a 5'7" guard who is also a senior and who was picked last year on the 2nd team all-conference squad; Jenny Schneider, a 5'6" guard who is a 6'0" center who is a sophomore.

Milt Dickenson is the coach for this year's girls' team. Dickenson is approaching his fifth year as the girl's varsity coach, tenth year at Kewaskum High School and fourteenth year coaching.

When asking Dickenson what he felt was the strongest positions, he replied, "I think we have equal strength all over." Coach Dickenson doesn't feel that one season can be considered his best season, instead he states, "I feel each season we have improved upon the past season."

The top conference teams include: New Holstein, Plymouth, and Two Rivers.

Girls Varsity Basketball Team Victorious Over Slinger, 54-40

By Ann-Marie Horner

The Kewaskum Girls Varsity Basketball team won their first game of the 1987-88 season against Slinger by a score of 54-40.

The Indians controlled most of the game, except for the third quarter when Slinger tried to make a comeback, but they were very unsuccessful.

Kewaskum's center Pam Osterbrink, returning letterwinner, led in scoring with a total of 18 and led in rebounding with a total of 16. Brenda Theusch came in second with a total of 13 points.

Coach Milt Dickenson commented on the game. He stated, "I think we played very well for our first game. We were lacking in height, due to the fact that Debbie Felix was not playing because of sickness."

The varsity is 1-0 in non-conference play.
