Capital Improvement Projects Slated for 1988

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The major topic of discussion at Monday night's village board meeting centered around capital improvements for Kewaskum during 1988. Sidewalks, the new industrial park and related work were reviewed and approved.

The board heard a report from Administrator Dan Schmidt on plans to complete the third phase of the village's Sidewalk Extension Program. This portion of the project covers properties which, for one reason or another, were considered difficult or problem areas. Basically those areas cover approximately 24 properties along Riverview and Werner Drives, and 4 properties on the south end of the village.

Schmidt told the board the major problem along Riverview was the lack of adequate space to install a normal width sidewalk. He stated to install a five-foot walk, it would necessitate the moving of several hydrants and utility poles. Schmidt also noted the village could ask property owners for easements to set the sidewalks back farther. He felt, however, that would not receive a favorable response.

Schmidt suggested the village go with a four-foot sidewalk which would require moving only four utility poles. That would also eliminate the need to move hydrants or seek property easements. Installation of the sidewalks would not require the removal of any trees in the area.

The problem of laying sidewalk along Werner Drive will be a little more complicated, noted Schmidt. Undeveloped lots, and a steep grade will require the removal of soil along the north side of Werner and the building up of the walk bed at the Liepert property on the south side.

Schmidt suggested the trustees approve the construction of curb and sidewalk along those properties which are developed and curb only in other areas. Schmidt and Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo recommended installation of curbing along the Liepert property but delaying of sidewalk installation until the fill had time to settle.

Another problem section of sidewalk construction to be

Schlice Unseats Schmidt In Village Board Race

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Despite excellent weather Tuesday's election drew considerably fewer voters to the polls than the 1984 contest. While it was still a good turnout for Washington County, only 21,000 electors went to the polls compared to 38,000 four years ago.

Locally, former trustee Richard Schlice, who was defeated in his bid for re-election to the Kewaskum Village Board last year, fared better in Tuesday's election. Schlice edged out incumbent Richard Schmidt 387 to 351, to re-gain a seat on the board.

Incumbents Howard Laubenstein and Thomas McElhatton were successful in efforts to retain their positions on the board. Laubenstein was the top vote-getter receiving 448, while McElhatton picked up 404 votes.

On the county level, Leo Schlaefler was elected to fill the newly created Branch Four judgeship for Washington County Circuit Court. Schlaefler garnered 12,092 votes while his opponent Patrick Faragher received 7,967.

In races for Washington County Board Supervisors, incumbents Dan Stoffel and Harold Westerman were unopposed. In District 11, incumbent Hilbert Schuermann warded off the challenge of Francis Mayer 446 to 274.

In the presidential primary there were no surprises as George Bush was the top vote-getter for the Republicans and Michael Dukakis topped the list of Democratic hopefuls.

In the Town of Auburn, Republican Bush received 106 votes, Robert Dole 5, Pat Robertson 4, Jack Kemp 4, Pierre DuPont IV and Alexander Haig each 0, with 1 uninstructed vote. For the Democrats, Dukakis 95, Jesse Jackson 60, Albert Gore 20, Paul Simon 14, Gary Hart, Bruce Babbitt and Richard Gephardt each received 1 vote.

For the Town of Farmington, Republicans, Bush 184, Robertson 18, Dole 16, Kemp 5, Haig 2, DuPont 0, uninstructed 5. Democrats, Dukakis 157, Jackson 107, Gore 107, Simon 20, Gephardt 5, Hart 4, Babbitt 2, uninstructed 1.

In the Town of Kewaskum, Republicans, Bush 81, Robertson 16, Hart 4, Haig 2, Kemp 1, DuPont 0. Democrats, Dukakis 88, Jackson 61, Gore 31, Simon 6, Hart 4, Gephardt 1, Babbitt 0, uninstructed 3.

In the Village of Kewaskum, Republican, Bush 161, Dole 22, Robertson 9, Kemp 1, DuPont 0, Haig 0, uninstructed 4. Democrats, Dukakis 175, Jackson 106, Gore 82, Simon 20, Hart 5, Babbitt 2, Gephardt 1.

Town of Wayne, Republican, Bush 93, Dole 5, Kemp 2, DuPont 2, Robertson and Haig 0, uninstructed 2. Democrats, Dukakis 107, Gore 49, Jackson 41, Simon 16, Hart 9, Gephardt 2, Babbitt 0, uninstructed 2.

No presidential primary figures were available for the Towns of Ashford, Mitchell or Scott.

In county voting, early unofficial counts show Dukakis getting 47.5% of the Democratic vote with Jackson receiving 28%, and Gore 5%. On the Republican side, Bush gathered 84%, Dole 8%, and Robertson 7%.

tackled this year is on the south end of the village along Highway 45, and the Prospect Drive-Bonnie Lane area.

Schmidt indicated walks would be installed along the triangle shaped property of Roger Strack (Roger & Dan's Auto Service) on Highway 45 and Prospect Drive. A steep section along the west side of Prospect will require the village's working with land-owners Joe Butschlick and Howard Laubenstein to create a uniform grade and walk area along the two properties. The sidewalks will then be extended to the village limits.

Schmidt said a public hearing on the proposed construction will be held before any work is begun.

In other business the trustees were updated on capital improvement projects related to the development of sanitary sewer and water services which will service the new industrial park, everything west of the river, the northwest portion of the village, the Knights Avenue area, along Highway 45, and outside the village which may want to annex to the village at a future date. Preliminary estimates for the work are $370,000.

Schmidt told the board, original plans to loop service around to the northeast, which would have included a section of sewer replacement, were abandoned after DNR specifications and cost estimates began to rise well above the village's financing capabilities and previously estimated costs. To stay with the original plan, noted Schmidt, the village would have been looking at costs ranging between $800,000 and $900,000 or more.

The board also approved a resolution to purchase seven acres of land which will allow for the installation of a new lift station for the industrial park. Once the necessary construction is completed and the village determines how much land it must retain, the balance of the property will be sold to recoup the purchase cost. Those funds will then be returned to the Special Revenue Fund.

Schmidt also updated the trustees on the status of the village's well #1. He said, due to regrouting as specified by the DNR during previous well repairs, the well is not producing at full capacity. The grouting has sealed off many of the water veins which fed the well.

The best alternative the village has, said Schmidt, is to place a new well on the existing site as far away from Well #1, as possible. The old well could then be capped and its pump transferred to the new well. The cost of the new well, capping, related work and a protective wellhouse for the new well, would be approximately $81,000. Construction would start in late summer or early fall.

Schmidt said the village would have five years to decide what it wanted to do with the old well, either seal it up, or keep it as a secondary water

The trustees discussed a letter from School District Administrator Penny Kleinhans in which she acknowledged school-related parking problems along First and Third Streets. The trustees felt eventual opening of the Reigle Drive extension would not eliminate the problem as suggested in Kleinhans' letter.

Schmidt said cars parking on the street arrive early enough to park at the school lots and it is only a matter of a block or so walk to the school buildings and office. It was noted the concern was the problem of cars parked all day on Third Street, not the parents picking up and dropping off youngsters.

Police Chief Donald Hlavaty said that if no other solution was found, the easiest thing to do would be put up one or two hour parking on school days signs. Bilgo noted that even though the number of cars coming into the school area has increased over the years, no parking space has been added since the high school was built.

The board directed Schmidt to follow up on the matter.

Schmidt also advised the board that screening of sand at the park pool would begin within the next week as would cleaning of the deep end of the pool. After that work is completed, installation of the new aeration system will begin.

Dean Sinclair of Star Cablevision was on hand to present the village with its annual check for franchise fees. This year the village received $4,000, half of which the village uses to support WBCC the facility which televises Kewaskum local events and meetings. The balance of the funds will be used for services and equipment in the village and school district.

Representatives of the village's auditing firm, Conley, McDonald, Sprague and Company, went over its annual report with the board. The audit indicated conservative budgeting and expenditures have kept the village's financial picture secure and sound.

Schmidt also advised the board that an 'open book' has been scheduled for April 18th for anyone interested in checking tax bills.

In other action the board approved the purchasing of 1988 fireworks at a cost of $1,952, and a replacement heat exchanger for the firehouse furnace at a cost of $1,117.

WALKING EXERCISE

Walking involves fully half the muscles of your body. A brisk walk, with a full stride, at a rate of 1 mile every 20 minutes is good exercise, and less likely to injure bones or joints as in jogging. Start off walking 1/2 to 1 mile daily and increase gradually. Walk briskly for health.

Secor Selected For Who's Who

The 1988 edition of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges" will include the names of 16 students from Ripon College who have been selected as outstanding national student leaders.

Sandra Secor, a junior at the east-central Wisconsin college, has been selected for inclusion. Her nomination to the "Who's Who" listing is based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success. Secor is the daughter of Gerald and Mary Secor, 1856 Scenic Drive, Kewaskum.

Outstanding students such as Secor have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934. The students are selected from more than 1400 of the nation's 3400 institutions of higher learning.

Because of Ripon College's size and location, Ripon students have greater opportunities to fill leadership and performance roles than students at larger institutions. Academic instruction at Ripon is rigorous, yet the environment is also supportive and friendly, because the average class size is 11 students.

Nowadays the rising generation retires when the retiring generation rises.

Funds raised in the Bike-A-Thon program help support two Wisconsin cystic fibrosis care centers located at the University of Wisconsin - Madison Hospital and Children's Hospital of Wisconsin in Milwaukee. These CF centers specialize in diagnosis, medical care for CF individuals and research.

"Cystic fibrosis research has taken a very positive step in the past three years - and now, more than ever, money is vitally needed to fund available research grants. The proceeds from the Bike-A-Thon in your community will help fund important research and support patient care," said Bleckwenn. "Finding new treatments or a cure could give thousands of individuals with cystic fibrosis the chance for longer lives. Your help is vitally needed through both donations and active participation. Together with the hundreds of volunteers working on similar fund-raising events throughout Wisconsin, we can make a strong impact on the fight to conquer cystic fibrosis. Please read this newspaper for more information about our Bike-A-Thon. With your community support, a child's tomorrow is just a breath away," stated Ms. Bleckwenn.

Announce Area Jaycee Captains For CF Bike-A-Thon Program

GET IN GEAR for the Wisconsin Chapter, Cystic Fibrosis (CF) Foundation's annual Bike-A-Thon program! "The CF Foundation is the originator of Bike-A-Thons in our state. Last year, over 250 Wisconsin communities organized Bike-A-Thons which raised a total of $244,000 to fight Cystic Fibrosis," said Sue Bleckwenn, associate executive director of the Wisconsin Chapter, CF Foundation. "Your community is an important part of that effort."

Ms. Bleckwenn announced the appointment of the following volunteer chairpeople in their respective communities: Steve Knickel and the Campbellsport Jaycees, Campbellsport; Robin Beisbier and the Kewaskum Jaycees, Kewaskum.

The principal goal of research is to find a cure for cystic fibrosis, the number one genetic killer of children and young adults in the United States. An abnormal amount of thick, sticky mucus caused by cystic fibrosis clogs the lungs and pancreas, interfering with breathing and digestion. The combination of repeated respiratory infections and the presence of this thick mucus leads to death due to lung complications. Only half of the victims of this disease will live past their mid-twenties. One in twenty Americans are symptomless carriers of the

The Art of Haircoloring

Blondes have more fun. Brunettes are cerebral. Red-heads are feisty and hot tempered. Although these statements may have no basis in fact, many people still believe them. Women are coloring their hair in record numbers; and while blonde is still the most popular color, women are choosing auburns, reds, browns, purples and black.

Keeping on the cutting edge of this trend is Moraine Park Technical College, in Fond du Lac, through a course being offered this spring entitled "The Art of Hair Lightening." While the premise of the course is lightening hair, classic and contemporary hair coloring methods will also be explored. Corrective color treatments, different hair coloring and bleaching techniques and the tools and products used during the color process will round out the course.

Cost of the four-week course is $15.70. It will meet Tuesdays, beginning May 3, from 6:30 p.m. - 9:10 p.m. To register, call 929-2100 and ask for course 502-406-001.

To welcome Spring students at Farmington Elementary School launched 285 balloons at 9:05 a.m. on Monday, March 21st. The program was sponsored through the Weekly Reader Writing Pals Balloon Contest.

Balloons that traveled the greatest number of air miles before being found will receive $500.00 dollars for their school from Weekly Reader. In addition, 100 runner-up prizes will be awarded.

"A message attached to each balloon explains the project and asks that the reader return it to Farmington Elementary School," said Principal Tom Larsen.

Since the annual balloon launch began, Weekly Reader has furnished nearly 5 million balloons to schools participating in the Writing Pals Program, a pen pal program in which Weekly Reader pairs classes across the country. The goal of the program is to motivate children to write to and become familiar with students in other parts of the country.

Farmington Elementary School already received word that some of their balloons have been found in states to the south of Wisconsin. "The balloons left here in a straight west direction. This shows us that air currents can do strange things," says Principal Tom Larsen. "All the kids at Farmington Elementary School - and teachers too - are keeping their fingers crossed that one of our balloons will fly the farthest!"

Balloons from Farmington Elementary School have been found in these following locations:

- Sara Weinreich, grade 5 - found in Mequon, Wisconsin.
- Jolene Trapp, grade 4 - found in Columbia City, Indiana
- Ms. Delzer, grade 3 teacher - found in Elkart, Indiana.
- Amy Rettler, grade 2 - found in Benton Harbor, Michigan

Katie Kopecky, Kdgn. - found on Farmington Elementary School property, must have been caught on the flag pole or electric wires. Sorry Katie!
Sarah Bausch, grade 2 - found in Goshen, Indiana.

NEWS FROM MINNIE DREHER

Will you please write down where, when, and by whom this was found, and return it to Arena Elementary School, P.O. Box 150, Arena, WI 53503." Of course Minnie sent back the requested information. Arena is approximately 30 miles northwest of Madison, near Barneveld.

Star Cablevision Joins National Cable Month

Star Cablevision is one of more than 3,500 local cable systems nation-wide participating in National Cable Month, an annual industry-wide campaign in April, to promote awareness of cable programming.

The theme of the second annual National Cable Month campaign is "Discover the Difference." Cable networks will feature special programming throughout April to salute cable viewers. The campaign also helps to encourage non-cable customers to learn more about the variety, quality and option available on cable.

Star Cablevision has expanded the types of programs available and enabled the use of cable television in schools and involve the community by providing special events such as live coverage of The Papal Visit '87.

"The cable industries theme for National Cable Month, 'Discover Our Difference', is an appropriate way of expressing the significant difference we have made in our community," said Dean Sinclair, System Manager. "We are proud to be active participants in this industry-wide celebration."

National Cable Month is a joint effort of the National Academy of Cable Programming and the National Cable Television Association.

NEWS EXTRA...

Maple Syrup Season Has Arrived!

Maple sap has begun to flow signalling the beginning of "Wisconsin Maple Season," March 15 to April 15. The sugar maple is Wisconsin's official tree and processing of sap into popular consumer products contributes over $3 million annually to the state's agricultural economy.

Wisconsin is the nation's third largest producer with an annual production of over 125,000 gallons. The average maple tree produces 12 to 15 gallons of sap each year, and it takes 30 to 40 gallons to make one gallon of maple syrup.

Bob Williams, marketing specialist with Wisconsin's Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP), urges Wisconsinites to buy the real thing — pure maple syrup — during "Wisconsin Maple Season" and throughout the year. "Many commercial pancake syrups contain only two percent maple syrup, while Wisconsin 100 percent pure maple syrup has no additives, colorings or preservatives and has much better flavor," says Williams.

Pure maple syrup can be further processed to make maple cream, candy and maple sugar. A free recipe bulletin, "Maple Syrup, It's Not Just for Pancakes Anymore!" is available by sending a self-addressed, stamped business envelope to: Maple Syrup, DATCP, P.O. Box 8911, Madison, WI 53708.

"Wisconsin Maple Season" will be highlighted by a "State Maple Festival" in Aniwa, Sunday, May 29, at Reynolds Sugar Bush located west of Hwy. 45 on Hwy. 52. A breakfast will be served and the winner of the 1988 Maple Queen Contest will be announced.

Substitute for whipped cream: blend one ripe banana with egg white(s) until the mixture becomes thick.

Three Kewaskum Odyssey of the Mind teams are headed for the state meet at the University of WI - Stevens Point. Corey Rammer won the Ranatra Fusca Creativity Award and the two Kewaskum High School teams walked off with a Creativity Team Award. Wow, it was a big day at Morse Middle School in Milwaukee 3/12/88 for all of the Kewaskum O/M teams! All of the players and coaches did a super job of presenting their talents.

Farmington Elementary school, coached by Lee Rammer, and Kewaskum Elementary School, coached by Mrs. Janet Martinson and Mrs. Lorey Weston, presented the Long Range Problem "Comics." The team's Problem was to select one or more former or current well-known cartoon characters and then make a large graphic cartoon, complete with captions, using those character(s). The cartoon character(s) were also to be portrayed live in anywhere from one to four humorous performances. In addition, the team was to provide music and prepare a playbill, props and background set(s). Thus the Spirit of the Problem was to select the cartoon character(s), make a large graphic cartoon and portray the characters in one of four humorous live performances with music, playbill, props and set(s).

Ron Theusch, coach of Wayne Elementary School, presented the Problem "It's Showtime." The team's Problem was to pick one of the following works, and create and present a musical scene based on their selection.

- (a) Charlotte's Web, by E. B. White
- (b) Andersen's Fairy Tales: "The Emperor's New Clothes" or "The Ugly Duckling"
- (c) Grimm's Fairy Tales: Rumpelstiltskin
- (d) Black Beauty, by Anna Sewell
- (e) Little Women, by Louisa M. Alcott
- (f) Aesop's Fables: "The Wolf in Sheep's Clothing" or "The Fox and the Grapes"
- (g) The Birds, by Aristophanes
- (h) Much Ado About Nothing,

by William Shakespeare

(i) The Importance of Being Earnest, by Oscar Wilde

(j) The Sea Gull, by Anton Chekov

(k) The Devil's Disciple, by George Bernard Shaw

The team was to give an oral summary of the entire novel, fairytale, fable or play, with the exception of the scene presented musically. Thus the Spirit of the Problem was for team members to develop and execute a musical scene using one of the classics listed. The team was also to present an oral summary of the entire work.

Kewaskum Middle School, coached by Mr. and Mrs. Ron Beimborn, and Kewaskum High School, coached by Charles Kocher, both presented the Problem "The Gift of Flight." Mr. and Mrs. Beimborn's Problem was in Division II and Mr. Kocher's Problem in Division III. The team's Problem was to make the following six aircraft:

1. First Aircraft: Make one folded paper airplane that when thrown by hand will stay aloft as long as possible. For each second that the plane stays aloft you will receive 3 points up to a maximum of 30 points.

2. Second Aircraft: Make a glider that will be thrown by hand across the course and will break a balloon target.

3. Third Aircraft: Make an aircraft from any material, powered by a rubber band, that will fly approximately 12', turn left, cross the sections and fly between two vertical posts that have a string between them 12" above the floor. The aircraft must fly above the string.

4. Fourth Aircraft: Make a folded paper airplane that will be launched by a standard spring mousetrap. This aircraft will also fly across the course.

5. Fifth Aircraft: Make an aircraft consisting of a kite, from any material, or balloon(s). This aircraft will be used to transfer five pingpong balls into specific containers.

6. Sixth Aircraft: Make a closed container which will open and release a team-made aircraft. This aircraft will emerge from the container and fly at least 10'. Container and aircraft may be made of any material. This aircraft may be launched from any area in or immediately surrounding the competition site. The container may be put in place by the team prior to the launch.

Thus the Spirit of the Problem was for the team to make a series of six aircraft (and closed container) that would perform better than those of their competitors.

Kewaskum High School, coached by Mrs. M. A. Peterson, was presented with the Problem "Atlantis". The team's Problem was to create the illusion of a deep sea expedition to explore this city. The water is imaginary. It was necessary to design, build and operate a "submersible" vessel which during its operation must hold one or more of their team members. Their vessel had to maneuver from the Sea Base into the "sea" while collecting sea samples and artifacts from the lost city. The artifacts and samples had to be collected by two remote arms operated from inside the vessel. The arms were to operate on different principles, i.e. electrically, pneumatically, hydraulically or mechanically. During the expedition, the vessel would encounter a sea monster and experience a crisis. Thus the Spirit of the Problem was for team members to design a vessel with remote arms that would collect artifacts and sea samples from Atlantis, and create a scenario which included a sea monster and a crisis.

Cory Rammer, a Farmington 5th grade student and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rammer of Fillmore, walked off with one of the prestigious Ranatra Fusca Creativity Awards. The Ranatra Fusca Creativity Award is presented to teams or individuals who exhibit exceptional creativity. This is generally awarded for some aspect of presentation/behavior at a competition. However, on occasion it is given for outstanding ideas beyond the OM competitions. Those teams and individuals who are given this award at the World Finals have their name engraved on the Ranatra Fusca Trophy. This trophy is on exhibit at the World Finals and on occasion at other areas throughout the membership. The Ranatra Fusca is the term for a classification of water spiders. Although this may seem like a remote association to creative thinking, this is how it came to be. In trying to solve a floatation device problem, one student at Glassboro State College designed a water-spiderlike contraption.

Super job Cory!

Hobby Day Held at Holy Trinity School

In keeping with the theme "Share the Spirit," Holy Trinity School took time out to hold a hobby day. People of the community and surrounding area shared their interests with the students. Students selected three choices from eleven options to give them a broader insight into areas covered.

Dried flowers demonstrated by Ione Stodola gave students the opportunity to create an original greeting card. Dorothy Groskopf informed students on stamp collecting. As a result ten students have shown an interest in starting their own collection.

Students choosing baton twirling were shown how, by actively performing the steps and routine demonstrated by Julie Wenzlaff.

Tom Guy told his audience about horseshoeing. They viewed a video and were given a horseshoe as a memento. Ted Schoofs shared his knowledge of bees and collecting honey. Students sampled raw honey on crackers.

Father Victor Kemmer showed his artistic talent of carving ducks. Meri Lou Chambers demonstrated and allowed students to participate in cutting patterns and sewing them.

Steve Scott informed students about ice fishing, open water fishing and trout fishing. Marcia Milewski showed and told techniques of embroidery.

Kathy Parsons brought her dog, Kiko and shared the value of pets and how to care for them responsibly. Geredith Tackes brought materials and showed how to cane chairs and do weaving techniques.

Holy Trinity is grateful to these people for sharing their talents and knowledge.

The Village of Kewaskum will have a new president and two new trustees for the next two years as a result of Tuesday's spring election. All village candidates were unopposed and practically assured of election. Wayland Tessar, the new president, received a fine endorsement from the voters. Tessar's moving up to the "mayor" post and the retirement of veteran trustee Joe Eberle resulted in the election of two new trustee candidates. Richard Reigle, running for office for the first time, polled 161 votes, the highest of the three trustee candidates. Cyril Wietor, the only incumbent seeking reelection, got 156 votes and Alfred "Fritz" Kral, another new comer, received 148 votes.

Seven boys and girls will be confirmed during the 10:15 a.m. service at Peace United Church of Christ in Kewaskum on Palm Sunday with the Rev. C.F. Hammen officiating. The confirmands are: Colleen Fickler, Karen Hansen, Leroy Butzlaff, Curtis Erdmann, Niles Erickson, Joel Fehlhaber and John Petermann.

Furious winds on Wednesday which were officially recorded at 56 miles an hour, with gusts up to 65 miles an hour, caused widespread damage over the area, county and state. A barn owned by Lee Honeck on Main Street at the east edge of the village was blown down. A corn crib on the Mrs. Selma Backhaus property on North Fond du Lac Ave near the north village limits was toppled over on its side. An electric wire was blown down on Park View Dr. Shingles and roofing were torn loose on buildings, some windows were broken, trees and branches were broken off, objects and debris were hurtled through the air. In some sections, children were blown off of their bicycles. Kewaskum firemen who answered a call to a chimney fire at the Albert Koepke farm had to hang on to avoid being blown off the roof.

William Butzlaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Butzlaff, Terry Theusch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Theusch, and David Schaefer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schaefer, have received certificates of graduation from the 1962-63 session of the University of Wisconsin farm short course.

Army Pvt. Gerald B. Knoeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard J. Knoeck, Route 2, Kewaskum, recently completed eight weeks of military police training at the U.S. Army training center, Fort Gordon, Ga.

Marine Lance Corporal W. J. Keller, son of Frank J. Keller of Kewaskum is serving in the First Marine Division, a Pacific marine force unit which participated in a major amphibious exercise held off the coast of Southern California March 2 through 10.

Theodore F. Dworschack, 76, of New Fane, Route 1, Kewaskum, a retired farmer, passed away unexpectedly of a heart attack on April 2.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Gau, Route 2, Kewaskum, on March 28. A daughter was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stange, Kewaskum, on March 29. Twin sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stange, Route 1, Kewaskum, on April 2. A son was also born to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Fuller, Campbellsport, on April 2.

Orville Kocher, 23, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kocher of the Town of Kewaskum, who is employed at the Gehl Bros. Mfg. Co. factory in West Bend, narrowly escaped being electrocuted while at work in the plant Friday morning April 1. While operating a small electric drill Orville placed the drill on a wooden top table with his right hand while his left hand rested on a metal table. Suddenly he collapsed, without warning, as a result of a severe electric shock from the drill. It is believed a short circuit was the cause. Orville's oldest brother, Harold, was working beside him at the time and immediately rushed to his aid, probably saving his life, by applying artificial respiration methods. Harold continued his assistance until the rescue squad of West Bend reached the plant with its inhalator.

Alvis M. "Allie" Staehler, who has been employed at the K.A. Honeck garage for several years, has rented the George Kippenhan garage on South Fond du Lac Avenue. He took possession on April 1. Mr. Staehler is now in a position to handle any of your repair jobs, including washing and greasing.

An eight-legged calf was born on the farm of Peter Brawand, one mile east of Dundee, recently, but died shortly after birth. The calf had a normal head but had two bodies grown together and eight legs. On one of the legs was three hoofs.

The Tri-County Forensics league contest was held at Campbellsport on Wednesday with four schools competing: Lomira, Slinger, Campbellsport and Kewaskum. The local school was allowed to send two representatives to each contest except to the declamatory contest, to which only one representative could be sent. Violet Eberle and Alice Koepsel represented the school as extemporaneous readers; Ralph Krautkramer and Mona Mertes as orators; Margaret Muenk and Curtis Romaine as extemporaneous speakers; Annabelle Grotenhuis as dramatic declaimer and Russell Belger as humorous declaimer. Annabelle Grotenhuis was the only first place winner from the local school and as a result will go on to Waupun Saturday to take part in the sub-district tournament.

During the past week or two, the Miller Electric Store, which had been located in the Reinders' building, has been moved and is now established in the former Edw. C. Miller store. Mr. Charles Miller, the proprietor, intends to handle the complete line of merchandise which his father had. He shall continue with the studio and photographic work as usual, besides operating the electric store.

Edw. E. Miller wishes to announce that the building formerly occupied by Miller's Electric Store now will be used as an annex to Miller's Furniture Store. Frank Felix, radio service, will continue to occupy his present quarters in the rear of the building.

Out of a total of 400 and some possible votes, only 207 were cast at the village of Kewaskum election on Tuesday of this week. This vote was larger than expected considering the only opposition was for clerk. All village officers were reelected. Carl F. Schaefer was reelected clerk by 121 votes over his opponent, Alois Wietor. The latter's name was not on the ticket but was written in. John Marx, treasurer, received the largest number of votes, 191. Complete results are as follows: President — A. L. Rosenheimer, Jr., 170. Trustees (three) — John Van Blarcom 176; Arnold Martin 175; Bernard Seil 172. Clerk — Carl F. man.

Mrs. Mathilda Backhaus, 66, well known resident of this village for many years, was found dead at her home on the river road, near the northeast limits of Kewaskum on April 7.

The spring election in this village was the quietest ever held. Only 84 votes cast, which was due to no opposition on the ticket. The election in the town was more interesting as there were two candidates for town treasurer, which brought out 140 votes. The result was that Albert Kocher, the nominee, defeated August Schnurr, who ran stump, the former receiving 77 votes, and the latter 58 votes.

On Sunday morning at half past three, the smoke house of William Uelmen of New Fane burned down with all the meat inside.

Ludwig Bunkelmann, 81, a pioneer resident of this village since 1893, passed away at his home on March 31, after a few days illness. Death was due to old age and dropsy. The deceased was born in 1831 in Van Dish, Preborn, Mecklenburg, Schweren, Germany. When a young man of 35 years, he immigrated to this country with his family, settling in the town of Ashford.

Last Sunday evening, Mr. Jacob Stautz of Boltonville was stricken with heart failure and died in a few minutes. Mr. Stautz was born at Isingen Herzogthum Nassau, Germany in 1845 and came to this country in 1848 and at first resided in Fillmore.

Ford, associate director of Student Services at UWWC, describes wellness as "a positive lifestyle where you are taking responsibility for your own life." She said she hopes the week will bring an awareness among students of the need for balancing their physical, spiritual, emotional, social, intellectual and vocational sides.

"Wellness," she said, "is something students can apply to their own lives and do it immediately. It doesn't take money. It doesn't take equipment. You can do it alone. You can do it in groups."

"The week should open people's eyes to the wellness resources that are out there. Ford said, "The public is invited and encouraged to participate. Admission is free."

For further information, call Ford at UWWC, 338-5201.

The Girl Scout Daisy Troop 50 of Wayne, under the leadership of Karen Wolf and Pam Bingen, made a pinata for their scout meeting.

To celebrate Thinking - Thanking Day they choose the customs of their Mexican sister scouts of breaking pinatas.

They learned how to construct the pinata and to eat Mexican food. They all had a good time.

On March 31 this troop toured the Allenton Post Office. They wrote individual letters and took them along to see exactly what happens when you mail a letter.

FFA to Hold Annual Rabies Clinic

HOLD STILL! One of last year's pets receives a rabies vaccination from Dr. Greg Ogi as an anxious owner holds her pet. This year's clinic will be held Tuesday, April 12, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the high school agriculture shop. The cost is only $5.00 with the proceeds going towards the scholarship fund.

It is the time of the year once again when dog and cat owners should begin to think about having their pets vaccinated against rabies.

Rabies is an acute disease caused by a virus. The most common form of contamination is by means of a bite from an animal containing the virus bearing saliva. The virus may be transmitted by contamination of fresh or existing wounds.

The incubation period is variable but signs of the disease may become visible within 15 to 20 days. There are three phases the disease divides into. The first sign is general loss of appetite and a change in behavior. The second phase is known as the paralytic form, where paralyzation and salivary excretion begin. The third phase is the furious form, where the animal becomes very irrational and viciously aggressive. Dogs rarely live more than 10 days after the onset of these signs. Death usually results through progressive paralysis of the central nervous system.

Wisconsin is one of the leading states in rabies and rabies related cases, a statistic the state could do without. The Kewaskum Future Farmers of America is concerned about the problem and wants to help. The chapter will conduct a rabies clinic Tuesday, April 12, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Kewaskum High School Agriculture shop. Doctor Charles Ogi and Doctor Greg Ogi will administer the shots at a reduced cost of $5.00 per animal. All proceeds from the clinic will go to the scholarship fund.

How to Apply for Filing Extension

If you are unable to file your 1987 income tax return by April 15, you can receive an automatic four month extension of time to file. Form 4868,
Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File, is available from the IRS, and must be postmarked by midnight April 15, 1988. Persons who file for an extension will have until August 15 to file the

According to the IRS, the extension of time to file does not

sion must pay any unpaid portion of their tax along with the Form 4868. Form 4868 is available at any IRS office, or can be ordered by calling toll

DNR IS PROPOSING TO CONDUCT CONTROLLED BURN OF THERESA MARSH, PIKE LAKE AREA THIS SPRING

HARTFORD, WI — The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources is proposing to conduct controlled burns this spring on the Theresa Marsh Wildlife Area and at Pike Lake State Park. Controlled burning, if done properly, increases plant diversity and grass stand density, thereby improving habitat for grassland nesting bird species such as pheasant, blue-winged teal, bobolink and dickissel.

Burning of marshlands under regulated conditions is often the most economical method of control brush invasion on typically wet soils where mechanical removal of brush is not possible.

The Department is proposing to burn 210 acres of marshland on the Theresa Marsh Wildlife Area located in northwestern Washington County and 62 acres of grassland on Pike Lake State Park located between Hartford and Slinger.

Information regarding the Department's proposal can be reviewed at Pike Lake State Park. Contact Bill Ishmael at 644-5248 for information on Theresa Marsh. Contact John Wold at the same number for information on Pike Lake State Park.

Rock River Oldtimers Nominate Candidates

Hoopla surrounding political candidates at this time in no way will detract from the proper selection of candidates for the 1988 Rock River Baseball league Hall of Fame ballot.

So says Pres. Carl Heimerl, Jackson, who'll preside over the annual business meeting of the Rock's Oldtimers' association Saturday.

Association members will sit down at 1:30 p.m., April 9, at Dodge Center, Horicon, to nominate six new candidates.

They'll join the six unsuccessful nominees from last year's voting to make up the '88 mail ballot.

Plans for two Oldtimer summer fun outings are on tap at the meeting, and a top feature speaker for its 9th Rock River Hall of Fame Dinner on Oct. 1 will be announced.

Members present will elect an inductee for the association's Posthumous Hall of Fame, and Oldtimer officers for '88 will be chosen.

Hon-E-Kor Ladies Golf League to Meet Apr. 14

Indian Girls Place Well As Felix Sets Mark at Oshkosh Invitational

The Kewaskum girls' track team placed fourteenth (12.5 points) out of a field of thirty-two teams last Monday at the Oshkosh Invitational Track Meet. A strong Edgewood team won the meet with a team score of 50 points, followed by runner up Winneconne with 38.5 points. Slinger and Fox Valley Lutheran tied for third place, each with 30 points, while Pacelli followed in fifth place with 29.5 points.

Senior sprinter, Debbie Felix, won the long jump event with a school indoor record of 16'9½", seven inches further than the second place jumps from Kathy Zelhofer of Pacelli (tie) and Chrissy Spindler of Elkhart Lake. Felix also helped the 880 yard relay team place fourth and the mile relay team place third.

Sophomore Kristi Lubahn, who was also a member of both relay teams, sprinted to a sixth place tie with Amy Wing of Laconia in the 220 yard dash (29.0). Slinger's Sara Salot won the event in a fast 27.6 seconds.

Pam Osterbrink, another sophomore, tied for fifth place in the high jump (4'10") with Sue Burich of Laconia.

Although the Indians placed in only five events, they did show that they can compete with the better teams of their size in the state. New Holstein, a member of the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, placed sixth, 11½ points ahead of Kewaskum. Kiel, also from the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, tied DePere for eighteenth place with a team score of 8 points.

The Indians will take a week off from competing for Easter vacation. Their next meet will be on April 14 against Chilton

Birding Class to Be Taught This Spring

"Birds of Wisconsin" will be taught by Bill Volkert, Naturalist and federally licensed bird bander, this spring.

The course will be held on four consecutive Thursday evenings starting April 21 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the University of Wisconsin - Washington County Main Lecture Hall. A series of four Saturday field trips beginning April 23 are also included in the course.

Classroom topics include waterfowl and marsh birds, shorebirds, songbirds, and endangered species. Volkert will teach everything from identification through bird ecology.

The field trips will be in the best birding areas within a short drive of West Bend. Field trip activities include bird banding, identification, behavior observations, ecology studies, photography techniques, and a search for rare species.

"Birds of Wisconsin" is co-sponsored by Washington County UW-Extension and the Kettle Moraine Audubon Society. Pre-registration is required by April 15 and is $25.00 per person or $45.00 per couple (any two together). For registration/information, contact Pamela Bucholz at 338-4480, 644-5204, or 342-2929.

WISCONSIN OUTDOORS AND CONSERVATION NEWS

Wildfire Prevention Week

Wisconsin's second annual Forest Fire Prevention Week runs from April 17 through April 23. The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources sponsors this week of heightened public awareness of wild fire prevention.

"The theme of this year's week is 'Forest Fire Prevention Is You,' and this theme of personal responsibility will be emphasized throughout the campaign," said Earl Meyer, DNR forest fire prevention specialist.

"Nine out of 10 forest fires in Wisconsin are caused by people, and that means 90 percent of the forest fires in the state can be prevented," added Meyer.

In 1987, 798 wildfires burned 3,175 acres in Wisconsin. The average fire size was about four acres.

To heighten public awareness of forest fire prevention, the department plans to conduct education programs in the media, in schools and in the department's district and area offices throughout the state. Feature stories on forest fire prevention will be sent to the media; some municipalities will mark the occasion by proclaiming Forest Fire Prevention Week in their communities.

"Forest industries are directly responsible for 83,000 jobs in the state, and another 200,000 jobs indirectly," said Meyer. "The total value of forest products produced is almost $2 billion annually. That means wildfires can take a heavy toll from the state's economy and can be devastating to the forest products and tourism industry.

"There are also the intangible costs of destroyed recreational opportunities, of natural beauty lost, and of lost habitat for wildlife," continued Meyer.

Michigan, Minnesota and the Canadian Province of Ontario are holding Wildfire Prevention Week at the same time as Wisconsin.

"Forest fire prevention has taken on an international flavor as governments recognize the need for education about the forestry resource," Meyer concluded.

Volunteer Counters Needed for Returning Sandhill Cranes

While the Sandhill cranes are still enjoying the winter sun in Florida, plans are being made by the International Crane Foundation in Baraboo to count them when they return to Wisconsin. The 14th annual Sandhill Crane Count will be held on April 16. By this date most of the migrating cranes will have passed through the state, and the resident Sandhills should be setting up their territories in the Wisconsin wetlands.

Volunteer counters are needed for this event which is becoming an annual spring tradition in Wisconsin. Last year almost 2500 participants not only counted the cranes, but also monitored their wetland breeding habitats.

A training and informational meeting was held at Riveredge Nature Center Barn in Newburg to choose survey sites to watch and listen for cranes on the morning of April 16.

Interested persons who did not attend the meeting are asked to contact Linda Sorbel County Coordinator, at 675-6141. ICF will compile and distribute a summary of results to all participants.

People from all walks of life are encouraged to participate in this very worthwhile project. The sights and sounds found in the wetlands on an early spring morning are most inspiring.
