Local Officials Locked Up For...

The American Cancer Society made its first arrests this week by taking village officials into custody. Daniel Schmidt of the Village was charged with taking unauthorized fishing trips on village time. Paul Blumer of the village was charged as an accessory to the same crime. Both protested, stating that they were unfairly charged and that in fact it was a fact finding mission to check the surrounding conditions of various lake levels and how this affected our village's water conditions. Charges were later dropped due to lack of evidence.

The American Cancer Society's Jail & Bail will be held this upcoming Wednesday and Thursday, March 1st and 2nd, 1989 at Honeck's Chevrolet Showroom.

Jail and Bail will run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days. A number of area residents have already been slated for arrests. For a $15 fee citizens many phone in and have their favorite friend, neighbor, or employer arrested. Off duty officers and other volunteers will be on hand to make all arrests, upon which the "criminals" will be hauled off to a staged prison and will appear before a judge, who will then set bail.

Board Okays Signing of Concession Stand Agreement

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Kewaskum Village Board, Monday night, voted to approve a letter of agreement with the Kewaskum Softball Association for the construction of a multi-purpose building adjacent to the softball diamond at Kewaskum Kiwanis Park.

In related action, the board gave approval for the drafting of a rental agreement between the village and the association. That contract will be brought to the board for formal approval at a future meeting.

The board also approved the request of Parks Committee Chairman Tom McElhatton to submit a letter to SEWPC requesting it do a survey and future implementation plan for the construction of a hiking and biking trail in the park. McElhatton advised the board that SEWPC would do the study at no cost to the village. McElhatton informed the trustees that a local Boy Scout has asked to do a project for the village as part of his working toward earning an Eagle Scout award.

The project would be the drafting and development of a Volleyball court at Kewaskum Kiwanis Park. The trustees approved the request stipulating board approval of the plans would be required before any construction was done.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt advised the board that a petition for annexation of properties along Bonne Lane has been temporarily withdrawn. He said the petition would be re-submitted at a later date.

The board also renewed the annual conditional use permit for the Fred Robertson property at 1304 Fond du Lac Avenue.

Schmidt also advised the board that opening of bids for construction of a new #1 well would be done on March 20th, with awarding of bids taking place on April 3rd.

Plans are to construct a new well just south of the large reservoir near the old #1 well.

The board then adjourned to a short closed session after which it viewed a video of the February 1st Joint Incineration Committee meeting.

Two Alternative Plans Given For County's Waste Disposal

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

After viewing a video tape of the Joint Incineration Committee's February 1st meeting, members of the Kewaskum Village Board agreed Monday night, that what they saw and heard only confirmed more strongly that there is no quick, easy solution to the evergrowing problem of solid waste disposal.

A recently completed feasibility study done by R. W. Beck and Associates presented two separate routes which could be taken in disposing of the thousands of tons of waste produced by the county each year. By the year 1993, it is expected that figure will be 36,000 tons a year, by 2012, it is expected to reach 48,000 tons.

Both alternatives represent major capital costs. Each plan is also broken down basically, into a three-part system for solid refuse disposal. The first alternative would employ mass burning, recycling and landfill procedures to dispose of wastes. This option would cost an estimated $10.5 million. In the first year of anticipated operation, that would break down to an average cost of $88 per household per year.

The second alternative also uses recycling and landfill practices but incorporates a composting process. The cost for that option, while somewhat cheaper, is still expected to run in the area of $8 million, or $67 per household per year. These figures, however, do not include collection costs. They are also based on the assumption that 100% of the communities interested will participate in the project. Should participation drop to about half, costs would increase to $156 per household for mass burning and $108 for the composting option.

While the two options have been very simply stated here, actual discussion of the two plans at that February 1st meeting showed how very complicated and involved the entire program is. Michael Macaulay, an engineer with R.W. Beck, told the representatives, "you are at the 'go-no go' phase now." He said the committee and the communities they represent must now decide whether there will be a firm commitment or the project dropped.

Macaulay said the committee would have to consider the risk variables. The next steps would be negotiations and procurement. Do you want to use your own architects and built it, do you want a vendor to build it and not operate it, or do you want a vendor to build and

FFA Week Observed by Local Chapter

In celebration of FFA Week, February 18-25, the Kewaskum Chapter, under the guidance of Dave Rizzardi, Vo-Ag Instructor, has an eight-page promotion in this week's issue.

The FFA officers along with the help of their Vo-Ag Instructor and other chapter representatives were instrumental in soliciting the ads, writing the news items and laying out of the eight pages. It was then brought to the Statesman office for typesetting, proofing and make-up.

FFA Week traditionally is marked from the Saturday before George Washington's birthday to the following Saturday. Washington is honored for his significant contributions to American agriculture as well as his military and patriotic contributions.

Through their FFA experience, they will develop skills and knowledge to help them prepare for a career in agriculture. Their future in farming is our future as well.

We join the community in saluting the FFA during this, their special week.

The members of the Kewaskum FFA have a great deal to be proud of.

Please help support your high school's Vocational Agriculture - FFA program, and the advertisers who so graciously took out ads again in the FFA promotion.

Primary Election Turnout Light

Only 58 village electors turned out to cast their votes in Tuesday's primary election. The only race on the ballot was for the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Incumbent Herbert Grover received 52 votes, Arlyn Wollenburg 5, and I.W. Poehlmann 1.

Lendved Wins Top Post In State Snowmobile Association

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

George Lendved, 201 Highway DD, Kewaskum, has been re-elected president of the Association of Wisconsin Snowmobile Clubs at its state convention held in Stevens Point this past weekend. He defeated challenger, and former AWSC Executive Secretary, Art Sherran of St. Germain to retain the post.

Lendved will begin his fourth year as head of the AWSC, a statewide organization which represents over 21,000 snowmobiling families and almost 600 clubs throughout Wisconsin.

In addressing the convention, Lendved noted that while snow conditions have been less than ideal this winter, the association is alive, well and continuing to grow. Since last year, the AWSC has increased its membership by 4,800, and there have been 18 new clubs added to the association's roster.

Besides his duties as AWSC president, Lendved serves on the Governor's Blue Ribbon Snowmobile Long Range Planning Task Force which is looking at the development of a ten-year plan to guide future growth and development of the state's recreational snowmobile program. Lendved also served on the Governor's committee which is studying para-mutuel betting on snowmobile races.

Lendved has been active in the sport of snowmobiling since the early 1970's. He has served as treasurer and president of his local club, the New Fane Kettle Riders. He has also held a variety of county offices including president of the Northern Kettle Moraine Snowmobile Association and AWSC Director for Sheboygan County. Before being elected president, Lendved served for four years as vice president of the AWSC.

Lendved has traveled thousands of miles representing Wisconsin and the AWSC at various national and international snowmobile congresses throughout the United States and Canada.

Other officers elected at the convention were incumbent vice president Paul Statz of Dane County, incumbent secretary Pat Hafenstein of the Waterloo area and incumbent treasurer Mary Gescheidle of Fond du Lac.

Waste Disposal

operate it, were the choices he presented.

Then there is the question of financing and ownership. Macaulay said there are presently no grants available for construction costs. Privatization of facilities is unlikely since tax laws have made this unfeasible. That would bring the choice down to revenue bonds which hopefully, would be paid off from fees generated by the facility's operation. Macaulay said 75% of the facility's cost would be carried by the residential sector and the remaining 25% by the commercial sector.

Those attending that Incineration Committee meeting were essentially told that once they begin negotiations they must be firmly committed to building a plant. If you're not serious about following through and contractors know this, the vendors who are out there with the technical ability you need and deep enough pockets won't be interested, noted Macaulay. They will only negotiate on a project where they are sure they will see a return and actually construction takes place. Macaulay said vendors can and do spend as much as $60,000 in just negotiating a project.

After the tape viewing, Trustee Mary Krueger, who represents the village on the Incineration Committee, told fellow board members, "well, that about sums it up, now you will have to decide, do we continue to participate in the project or drop out."

The village was one of the seven municipalities which shared the cost of the $31,000 feasibility study, half of which was covered by a grant. The other communities were, City of West Bend, Villages of Jackson and Newburg, and Towns of Kewaskum, Barton and Trenton.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt told the board, the participating communities could be looking at another outlay of about $100,000 to $120,000, just for continuing the groundwork for the project. "So far the village's cost has been about $1,200, the next step could cost $12,000 or more depending on how many other communities participate. So far the project, becoming known as the Kettle Moraine Solid Waste Management District, would include the cities of West Bend, Hartford, the villages of Jackson, Kewaskum, Newburg and Slinger, and the townships of Addison, Barton, Farmington, Hartford, Jackson, Kewaskum, Polk, Trenton, Wayne and West Bend. However, not all the communities mentioned have agreed to participate in the project.

Krueger again stressed, have we got a choice, somewhere down the line, sooner or later, we're going to have to do something and its not going to get any cheaper.

Carol Schmidt Receives Degree

Carol Schmidt, daughter of Phillip and Margaret Schmidt, 17156 N. Maple Tree, Beechwood, recently received a Master's Degree in Clinical Social Work during the December 1988 commencement ceremony at U.W.-Milwaukee.

Carol, a 1983 alumna of Kewaskum High School, also completed her bachelor's degree in Psychology at UW-Milwaukee in May 1987. She is currently employed as a Clinical Social Worker in the Crisis Intervention Unit at Waukesha County Human Services.

Tim Reehl Is UW-SP Graduate

About 550 bachelor's degrees and about 35 master's degrees were conferred Dec. 18 during the University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point's midyear graduation.

Philip R. Marshall, UW-SP's 10th chancellor who retired several weeks later, told the class to "now do what you delight in doing. People driven by the need of money never seem to have enough. People who find their greatest rewards in service will always be rich." In addition, Marshall gave a testimonial to the high quality of teaching that is demonstrated in Wisconsin's out-state universities such as UW-Stevens Point.

Tim Reehl, 670 Hwy. S, Kewaskum, who received a BS degree in forestry recreation, was among the graduates.

World Day of Prayer to Be Held Throughout County March 3

World Day of Prayer, sponsored by Church Women United of Washington County, is an annual event that unites Protestant, Roman Catholic, Orthodox and other Christian women and men in 170 countries and regions of the world in prayer for each other and for peace in the world.

Prayer services will be held throughout Washington County on March 3. In the greater West Bend area, the service will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church at 7th and Elm Street, beginning at 9:00 with coffee and rolls, followed at 9:30 with Bible Study and the Prayer Service at 11:00. The Rev. Kenneth Merckx, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, will be the speaker. Ruth Menke will be soloist and Ida Kuss, organist. There are nine churches in West Bend who have in the past participated in this event. The Rev. Brenda Yeager, associate pastor of Immanuel U.C.C. will lead the Bible study.

Christ Lutheran Church, Jackson, will host the Jackson/Slinger service, at 1:30. In Hartford, the Methodist Church will be host, with the service beginning at 9:30 a.m. with Bible Study and followed by the Prayer Service at 11:00. St. John's U.C.C. on Donges Bay Road will host the German-town/Richfield area service and that will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Members of the West Bend churches will be leading brief prayer services in the afternoon at Cedar Lake Homes, Samaritan Home, Meadowbrook Manor and Meadow Creek Manor.

This year's observance marks the 102nd annual World Day of Prayer. We want to stress that this is open to everyone—men, women and families. Child care will be available at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Big Train Wreck of '29

(Fourth In a Series)

Damaged railroad cars were scattered along the torn up track. No one was injured except William Bender, Chicago, American Railway Express Company messenger, who was in the middle of the wreck. He received a bruised right shoulder, not serious enough to be laid up.

The express car in which Mr. Bender was imprisoned, plunged down the bank twenty feet and came to rest against a huge elm tree.

The car was smashed and its contents bulged out its sides and through the roof.

Bender stated that when he felt the car riding on the ties, he grabbed hold of an iron bar stretched across the door. The next moment he found himself standing on his head. When he came to, he found himself lying beneath express and baggage.

21 MILLION

Which high-tech industry employs more than 21 million Americans and needs millions more?

AGRICULTURE!

Today's agriculture includes careers in:

- Research
- Engineering
- Finance
- Computers
- Marketing
- Economics
- Journalism
- Education

U. S. Department of Agriculture labor statistics show 13% of these jobs will go unfilled. Together, FFA and agricultural education are preparing students for over 200 different high-tech careers.

This message brought to you by the 405,000 members of the National FFA Organization.

The 61st National FFA Convention was held on Nov. 10-13, 1988 in Kansas City, MO. Bruce Theusch, Kevin Bartelt, Tim Oelhafen and Dave Schulz attended this year's convention. The members left Waupun early Wednesday morning, Nov. 10. They stopped in Waterloo, IA to tour. They went back on the road and arrived in Kansas City around 10:30 p.m. The next two days the FFA members sat through many sessions in which numerous awards were given out to outstanding members and chapters. Among the award winners was Kewaskum's Jon Etta who received the American Farmer Degree. They also saw many exhibits from most states and big companies. The time the members weren't in a session, they were meeting many new people from numerous states. They also had a small amount of time to tour the city and do some shopping. The FFA members left Kansas City around 6 p.m. on Saturday evening and arrived back in Waupun around 4 a.m. Sunday morning.

VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES KEEP FFA'ers INVOLVED

RIDE 'EM BRAD — The Kewaskum FFA entered a variety of agricultural equipment in the 1988 Homecoming Parade. Above, Brad Enright, Vice President, handles his tractor while pulling a new Gehl Scavenger II manure spreader. Equipment was donated by various members as well as Farmers Incorporated, Allenton, and Howard Proeber, West Bend.

FFA MEMBERS PARTICIPATE IN VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

ONE MORE BITE — FFA members compete in fierce competition during FFA Week, including various trivia contests, agricultural olympics, and the famous pie eating contest. Above, Kevin Bartelt, current FFA Treasurer, enjoys the last few pieces of his blueberry pie.

DONKEYS AWAY — Last March, the Kewaskum FFA Alumni sponsored a Donkey Basketball game at the high school. Proceeds from the event went to the State FFA Foundation and the FFA Alumni Scholarship Fund. Over 500 spectators enjoyed an evening of thrills, spills and sometimes even a basket. Four teams competed in the event: High School Faculty, The Stewart-Peterson Group (Market Advising), FFA Alumni Members, and High School FFA Members. The current FFA members defeated the FFA Alumni members in a close playoff game. Above are members of the FFA team, left to right, Mike Truog, Dave Martin, Dave Steger and Mark Nuenfeld.

Schaefer - Mueller

Janet Schaefer and Daniel Mueller exchanged marriage vows Sept. 3 at Immaculate Conception Church in Saukville. Father James Hofer officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaefer of Cedarburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Mueller of West Bend.

The matron of honor was Jane Schaefer, sister of the bride; and bridesmaids were Jenny Mueller, sister of the groom; Margaret Becker, sister of the bride; Janet Mueller, sister of the groom; Joan Swanson, sister of the bride; and Julie Schaefer, sister of the bride.

The flower girls were Stephanie Swanson and Jacqueline Becker, both nieces of the bride. The ring bearer was Steven Swanson, nephew of the bride.

Jeff Mueller served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Mark Schaefer, brother of the bride; Roger Mueller, cousin of the groom; Robert Falk; Craig Garbisch; and Jeff Eisenmann, cousin of the groom.

Ushering duties were shared by David Becker, brother-in-law of the bride; and Bob Prokopowicz.

Following a honeymoon in Florida, the couple is living in West Bend.

Herriges - Mueller

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herriges of 2649 Hwy. H, Kewaskum, are proud to announce the Christmas Eve engagement of their daughter, Christine to Lloyd Mueller Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mueller Sr. of 1074 Hwy. S, Kewaskum.

Christine is a 1984 graduate of Kewaskum High School and is employed at Amity Leather Products.

Lloyd is employed at Dean Derge Railing as a welder.

A September 29th wedding is being planned by the couple.

Senecal Receives Dispenser License

Debrah Senecal

Debrah Senecal of the Beltone Hearing Aid Center in West Bend has received her Hearing Aid Dispenser License from the state of Wisconsin.

The state of Wisconsin awards Hearing Aid Dispenser Licenses only to those individuals who have passed the demanding, comprehensive Wisconsin License Examination. The examination thoroughly tests applicants on their technical and general ability to provide tests, analysis, and evaluation of hearing performance for the purpose of fitting and dispensing hearing aids. A Hearing Aid Dispenser License is required in the state of Wisconsin to test for hearing loss and assist in the selection of hearing aids.

Senecal is with the Beltone Hearing Aid Center located at 2395 W. Washington, West Bend, owned by Tom Thompson. The West Bend Beltone Hearing Aid Center is an integral part of Beltone Electronics Corporation's network of hearing aid specialists in over 3,300 offices and service center locations across the U.S. and Canada.

Weekly Health Tip
From Tom Kennelly

INFANTS and ASTHMA
A predisposition to asthma may be inherited, especially by anyone born into a family prone to allergies. As food allergy is believed to be a precipitating factor in asthma, specialists advise that susceptible infants be restricted to either breast milk or soy milk formula during the first 6 months of life because an early diet of solid foods can trigger allergies.

Judith Baenen Hits Home at Middle School Presentation

Judith Baenen of Palentine, Illinois spoke to 97 parents at the Kewaskum Middle School. Judith, a 7th and 8th grade Language Arts teacher, is a widely known expert on the nature of middle school students.

Judith's presentation was often humorous and always on target. Many parents spoke privately to her after the presentation and told her "you must know my son," "You have perfectly described my daughter."

Judith's presentation was co-sponsored by the Kewaskum American Legion, Robert G. Romaine, Post 384 and the Kewaskum Middle School

Parent Advisory Council.

At the end of the presentation The American Legion sponsored a door prize. Four prizes were awarded. Parents of students in the middle school had to be present to deposit their child's tickets into the box. Winners were drawn at random by Judith Baenen.

Cast Picked for Spring Musical

A ten-member cast has been picked for "Diamonds," the spring musical of Theatre on the Hill at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

Following Jan. 22 auditions, Director Brad Ford, an assistant professor of theatre and communication at UWWC, announced his cast selections, including three UWWC students and seven community members.

Students are Amy Loeffler of Jackson; and Danielle Rogne and Kelly Simpson, both of West Bend.

Community members, all from West Bend, are Pat Gangnon, Matthew Duket, Mark Kohler, Paul Vogelsang, Craig Pintens, Amy Jo Merry and Mary Beth Sancomb.

Members of the show's production staff, Ford announced, are Amy Nordbeck of Cedarburg, assistant director; Joelle Albiero of West Bend, assistant director; and Albert Asch of West Bend, professor of music at UWWC, musical director.

The musical has 35 numbers including many which were described by a New York critic as "irreverent" and "rambunctious" such as the song "When God Threw Out the First Ball."

Much of the show appeals to nostalgia, Ford said, with pieces like the famed Abbot and Costello routine of "Who's On First."

Performance dates are March 3, 4, 5, and 10, 11, 12, at the University of Wisconsin Center — Washington County.

Cancer Society Hosts Fashion Show Luncheon

The Washington North Unit of the American Cancer Society will host a fashion show luncheon at the West Bend Country Club, 5858 Cty. Hy. Z, on Monday, March 13. The luncheon will begin with a social hour at 11:30 a.m. Lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. with the show immediately following.

Snyder's of Oconomowoc will provide the spring fashions with hair design by Creative Cut Chalet.

Tickets are $15 each and go on sale February 15. The price of the ticket includes a $7.50 tax deductible donation to the American Cancer Society.

You may buy tickets at the following locations: any West Bend Dairy Queen restaurant; either West Bend Pick 'N' Save store; both West Bend Creative Cut locations; Bits 'N' Pieces Floral; or from Shirley Salter at the General Clinic's main office. You may also call American Cancer Society board members; Anne Griffin at 334-3542 or 334-7445; Rose Bykowski at 334-1109; or Lin Furger at 338-3060.

Campbellsport Man Charged in Fight

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Robin Jordan, 24, of 1496 River Road, Campbellsport, has been charged in Washington County Circuit Court with disorderly conduct and carrying a concealed weapon in connection with an incident which occurred January 18th in West Bend.

Jordan, recently released from the hospital for treatment of head injuries sustained in that altercation, is being charged with causing the incident which put him in the hospital.

Because the incident occurred just one day after being convicted on an earlier drug charge, Jordan could be facing stiffer penalties as a repeat offender. Normally Jordan would have faced a maximum penalty of nine months in jail and a $10,000 fine on the concealment charge and 90 days in jail and a $1,000 fine for disorderly conduct.

Because of the January 17th conviction on two charges of delivering a controlled substance, Jordan instead could be sentenced to up to three years in prison on each of the two latest charges.

According to the complaint, Jordan said he was walking on a West Bend street when an unknown person hit him and he fell to the ground. When he came to, he noticed his money and marijuana were missing.

Jordan then went to a home in the 300 block of Kilbourn Avenue, where he thought the thief lived. Jordan confronted the residents who denied the theft. Jordan then left for his brother's house nearby.

According to the complaint, the residents of the house said Jordan returned later drunk and again demanded to know who stole his marijuana and money. The complaint said Jordan then reached into his sleeve and pulled out a six-inch knife, began swearing and threatening the residents, claiming he also had a gun.

According to the complaint, a resident of the home then hit Jordan over the head with a beer bottle, stunning him. Jordan staggered from the house to a bar on South Main Street, where he collapsed with a large cut to the back of his head.

Police were called to the scene. A search of Jordan revealed the knife and a refrigerator door handle hidden in his clothes.

Jordan is scheduled to make a March 16th appearance in court on the two new charges.

IRS: File Early

The early bird gets a quicker refund, and according to the Internal Revenue Service, people who file early usually make fewer mistakes too.

If you send in your return now, there's a good chance you'll get your refund check within four to six weeks, the IRS says. If you wait until March or April, it can often take six to eight weeks and sometimes longer.

Here are some tips that can cut down on errors and help speed your tax refund to you.

* Use the pre-addressed label that came with your tax package.

* Mail your form in the coded envelopes that came with your tax package.

* Write the full name, and if age 5 or more, the social security number, of each dependent you claim on the front of your form.

Get a W-2 form from each employer you worked for during 1988. Most banks and businesses are required to give you a year-end statement, usually a Form 1099.

* Sign your return. If you're married and file a joint return, both husband and wife must sign. Be sure to put enough postage on the mailing envelope.

Tele-Tax has more good ideas to help you. Tape number 465, for example, focuses on common errors people make on their returns. Check your tax package for a complete list of tape numbers and subjects. You can listen to Tele-Tax messages any time of the day or night by calling toll-free 1-800-554-4477.

Peer Listeners Present Primary Prevention Program

The Peer Listeners have been helping The Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County with a program called BABES.

BABES stands for Beginning Alcohol and Addiction Basic Education Series. Sandy Gunderson and Marty Ison-Kochs, along with the Peer Listeners have been doing this for the past few weeks and the program continues through March.

The program is a primary prevention program designed to help kids, ages three through eight develop positive living skills. The Peer Listeners present the program to the early childhood, kindergarten, first, and second grade classes at Kewaskum Elementary School. There are seven lessons in the program and each one lasts approximately forty-five minutes. The Peer Listeners present the program every Monday.

BABES uses cuddly puppets to tell the seven story-lessons concerning self-image, feelings, decision-making, peer pressure, coping, alcohol/drug information, and asking for help. There are seven puppets in the program: Buttons and Bows, McKitty, Myth Mary, Early Bird, Donovan Dignity, Recovering Reggie, and Rhonda Rabbit. The lessons are supplemented by flash cards, work sheets, songs and role playing involving the kids. Each child receives a BABES certificate of recognition at the end of the program.

The Peer Listeners helping with the program are: Patti Aupperle, Missy Webber, Pam Gauger, John Hazlewood, Nicole Doherty, Jill Peterson, and Jason Miller. Their advisor is John Baitinger.

Dinosaur On the Rise

This brontosaurus sculpture resides in a valley at Cedar Lake Campus.

People driving north on Aurora Road (off Highway 33 west of West Bend) take a double look when they spy a thirty-five foot Brontosaurus sculpture constructed in one of the Cedar Valley valleys. The prehistoric creature is part of the retreat center's exciting "Trail of Life," according to the Cedar Lake Home Tri-Campus Executive Director, Rev. L. C. Riesch.

"This particular work, which should be so appealing to children, would not have been possible without the help of community friends and a talented contractor," Riesch related. "Kohlsville sharing neighbor, Walters Builders; friends, Mr. & Mrs. Fred Yahr and Miss Joan Pick of West Bend are to be thanked for this exceptional work of art. And contractor, James Benicke, (A & M Construction Co.) has brought it to reality. The steel tree sculpture it is nibbling on was designed and fabricated by Brian Loomans, Keith Gaskell and Robert Eder of the Tri-Campus."

The Brontosaurus, which was one of the species of dinosaurs inhabiting the earth thousands of years ago, grew to be sixty-five feet long, weighed 30 ton and ate an average of 1000 lbs. (1/2 ton) of food daily.

The name, Brontosaurus means "thunder lizard." It was one of the largest animals that ever lived.

IT'S ALMOST SHOWTIME — Wisconsin Lottery Board Chairman George Steil, Sr., Janesville, stood at a roughed-in player podium as portions of the set for the Wisconsin Lottery's "Money Game" weekly television show were assembled and shown to Lottery Board members at a recent meeting.

The show will be taped weekly at the studios of WISN-TV, Channel 12, in Milwaukee and will be broadcast Saturdays on WISN-TV in Milwaukee, WISC-TV in Madison, WFRV-TV in Green Bay, WAOW-TV in Wausau, WQOW-TV in Eau Claire, WXOW-TV in La Crosse and on Bresnan Cable Channel 7 Mondays in Superior. The show will be a "network quality game show," according to WISN's Dean Maytag who is serving as Executive Producer for the telecast.

The game show will have 60 holders of "Money Game" $100 TV Winners collect a $100 instant prize when they present a ticket with three TV symbols to Lottery District Offices. The $100 TV Winners may win an additional prize ranging from $300 to $64,500 by participating in the weekly television show.

Jeanette Gruber of Kewaskum will be one of the 60 lucky participants in the "Money Game."

MADISON — The final dress rehearsals are taking place as the first Wisconsin Lottery "Money Game" weekly television show nears its February 25 premiere.

"I'm really looking forward to the first show," Lottery Executive Director Bill Flynn said. "The show will be a lot of fun for the people who are part of it and the people who watch it at home."

The half hour broadcast will air on WISN-TV in Milwaukee, WISC-TV in Madison, WFRV-TV in Green Bay, WAOW-TV in Wausau, WQOW-TV in Eau Claire and WXOW-TV in La Crosse Saturday evenings. It will also be carried to Bresnan Communications cable subscribers in Superior Monday evenings.

"The television show is a key feature of "The Money Game." After the first show is aired, Wisconsin residents will have had a chance to know how the entire game works. "The Money Game" is more than a scratch and match game, it offers the added entertainment value of the weekly television show," Flynn explained.

The massive set is designed to be transportable, according to WISN-TV's Program Director Dean Maytag, who is serving as Executive Producer of the show. "We will be able to take the show to festivals and special events around the state," he added.

Flynn also announced he was pleased an agreement had been reached with Bresnan Communications, which serves more than 22,500 homes in the Duluth Superior area to carry Lottery television programs.

"We want to provide Lottery broadcasts to everyone in the state. Bresnan has helped us reach an important market. We hope arrangements can be made with cable television providers in other communities to get "The Money Game" to as many parts of Wisconsin as possible," Flynn said.

In other news, Flynn announced a third order for the Wisconsin pull-tab game has been placed by the Lottery.

The order for 15 million tickets is to begin arriving at Lottery Headquarters March 20. More than 28 million of the pull-tab tickets, which sell for 50 cents each, have been sold since September 14.

The Lottery has also ordered a new pull-tab game. Called the "Red, White and Blue" game, it will offer a top prize of $100 and will sell for 50 cents per ticket.

MADISON — State Senator Carol Buettner (R-Oshkosh) announced on Feb. 2 that the State Legislature passed the two bills that will extend the durations of two important loan programs, aimed at providing farmers with operating expenses and drought relief.

"Today we passed an extension of the Credit Relief Outreach Program (CROP) and secured additional dollars for the Governor's drought relief legislation that was passed by the Legislature last summer," Buettner said.

Under current law, CROP is scheduled to expire at "sunset" on June 30, 1989. One of the bills passed by the Legislature Feb. 2, AB 15, extends the sunset to 1991. Also, the bill increases from $25 million to $30 million the total amount of loan guarantees which can be made available in the next two years.

CROP is designed to assist farmers with a 40% debt/asset ratio in obtaining financing. Financial institutions who choose to participate are expected to offer a reduced rate of interest (8%) in exchange for a 90% guarantee on loans not to exceed $20,000 and a 2% interest subsidy.

"Because the farm crisis is far from over, we had to act quickly to get the assistance to those who need it most. I think this legislation goes a long way toward doing that," Buettner stated. A second bill, SB 13, passed both houses and guarantees drought assistance loans to any one borrower in a total principal amount up to $15,000. The original bill draft included $20,000 for a loan guarantee, but was later amended to read $15,000. Under current law, loans up to $10,000 are guaranteed.

"Both of these loan programs are administered by WHEDA, the Wisconsin Housing and Economic Development Authority," Buettner explained. "The loans are made through local participating lenders and are guaranteed by WHEDA. For a complete listing of participating lenders in our area, contact WHEDA's CROP program at: (608) 266-3528."

Many New Exhibitors at the West Bend Home & Garden Show

"This year's show will have something for all members of the family," said Betty Pearson. Pearson is Executive Vice President of the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the 1989 West Bend Home & Garden Show.

The Home Show will be held at Silverbrook Middle School on Saturday, Feb. 25, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sunday, Feb. 26, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Over 60 exhibitors will introduce products and services to home owners, renters and prospective home builders. Home construction, remodeling, decorating, maintenance, financing, and landscaping are a few of the interests in which exhibitors will offer assistance.

Interested in buying or selling a home? Visit one of the realtors booths. Health and beauty products, encyclopedias, home furnishings, cleaning systems, and air and water quality products are a few of the products and services consumers can learn about through exhibitors booths. Many of the booths will offer free gifts.

A special appearance by "Mac Tonight," McDonald's Cool Lunar Dude will be 11 a.m. Sunday. Consumer sessions will be held from 12:30 to 5:30 Saturday, and 12:30 to 2:30 Sunday.

Food and refreshments will be available throughout Home Show hours.

Admission tickets may be purchased in advance at financial institutions, grocery stores, and participating exhibitors in the West Bend, Kewaskum, Jackson and Slinger areas and at the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce in West Bend. Tickets are $1 in advance or $1.50 at the door; children under 12 accompanied by a parent are admitted free.

Each paid ticket will qualify for four grand prizes of $250 shopping spree certificates. Each visitor will receive a free literature bag and each family will receive a free gift packet. In addition, 50 door prizes will be awarded.

New Video Travel Planner Released by State Parks

MADISON, WI — Wisconsin state parks officials this week released, "The Video Guide to Wisconsin State Parks," a 60-minute professionally produced video tour of the state's finest scenic and outdoor recreational areas.

According to David Weizenicker, Department of Natural Resources parks director, this videotape presentation was created to entertain as well as inform.

"It is ideal for families trying to plan get-away weekends or longer holidays," said Weizenicker. "They'll be able to see the terrain, facilities and recreational opportunities available at our state parks, forests and trails, and plan their vacation adventures accordingly."

Wisconsin's state parks system is comprised of more than 502,000 acres of recreational land and water, and also contains many historic sites.

Weizenicker said the video is a tour of more than 66 state parks, forests and trails. It features the variety of recreational opportunities available, ranging from the traditional hiking, biking, swimming, fishing and camping to the more adventurous winter camping, rock climbing, river kayaking, hang gliding and more.

"We've also captured some of the most beautiful and spectacular scenery in the state on this tape," said Weizenicker. "So, whether you're more of an armchair adventurer, or you just want to relax and get away from the pressures of the day for a few moments, our video guide can be your ticket."

"The Video Guide to Wisconsin State Parks" was created and produced by Fraser/Orton Productions of Green Bay. The project was sponsored by The Coleman Company Camping Trailers of Somerset, Pennsylvania and five of their Wisconsin dealers.

"We're very grateful to Coleman for sponsoring this venture. More than 13 million people visit Wisconsin state parks annually, yet many of our areas are still virtually undiscovered by the public. We're hoping that 'The Video Guide to Wisconsin State Parks' will give the traveling public a glimpse into those areas," added Weizenicker.

Copies of the tape are available at a cost of $29.95 plus $3.50 for postage and handling from Fraser/Orton Productions, P.O. Box 11764, Green Bay, WI 54307-1764; or through Beloit RV, Beloit; Fox Trailer Sales, Chippewa Falls; Midwest RV, Schofield; Roskopf's RV Center, Menomonee Falls; Van Bostel RV Sales, Green Bay; and at Prange Way stores statewide.

KHS Artists Enter Conference Exhibition

Kewaskum Statesman,
Friday, Feb. 17, 1989, Page 10

Kewaskum High School will have 25 exhibitors competing in the 1989 Eastern Wisconsin Conference Annual Art Show to be held this year at Plymouth High School, February 27th through March 3rd.

The show opens with a reception for exhibitors on Monday, Feb. 27th from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at which time awards will be given to the various pieces according to categories. The different categories this year include painting, drawing, photography, printmaking, ceramics, sculpture, jewelry and crafts.

Kewaskum High School has many talented artists on all levels entered in this competition. Mary Stephan, teacher of art classes, I, II, III, and IV is excited with the pieces going to the show and exclaims, "We have a lot of high quality pieces entered and hope to have a good turn-out at the show."

Submitting pieces to the show isn't required for art class and Ms. Stephan was also pleased with the many students interested in entering the Art Show.

Student Exhibitors: LeeAnn Winninghoff, Kris Follmann, Steve Gerhartz, Mandy Schmidt, Bruce Bodden, Sheila Susen, Jessica Rohrer, Michelle Marx, Tammy Bath, Carla Lemke, Stephanie LeRoy, Renee Kertscher, Julie Woods, Chris Schoofs, Shelley Kasseckert, Shelly Schuster, Willa Marshall, Patti Aupperle, Andrea Schultz, Amy Schuh, Denise Bergdorf, Nicole Gaffke, Gina Herman, Kim Gaffke, and Heather Kulcinski.

The Art Show is sponsored by the Conference Art Teachers and the place of the show changes yearly from school to school. If you're in the area of Plymouth in the next week, please stop in at the high school and view the very talented work of the Kewaskum High School Art classes.

County Friends of Abused Families Receives Grant

Friends of Abused Families in Washington County has received a grant to take part in the state-wide CHOICES Initiative. The goals are to help adolescent females ages 12-18 to improve their self-esteem, develop assertive skills, and learn to make decisions that will enable them to become self-sufficient.

The "Friends" project includes the Southeastern Region of Wisconsin. The initial phase of the project has been focused primarily on Washington County, where needs assessments are being conducted in the middle and high schools. Five mini-grants of $1,000 each are now being offered to agencies in the other counties in the region, which will enable them to sponsor events involving adolescent females.

The positive response of school officials has enabled "Friends" to develop an excellent foundation for the CHOICES Project. Anyone interested in learning more about this project can call Karen Holpfer, Prevention Coordinator, at 334-5598.

Protect Yourself From Tax Schemes

"I'm from the IRS. There's a problem with your tax return." Those words can strike fear into the hearts of taxpayers. It can be especially devastating if the alleged IRS agent turns out to be an imposter — trying to steal your money.

That's not uncommon this time of year. Someone may call you and claim that they're representing the Internal Revenue Service. They may say that you're being audited and owe money. They may tell you that you've won a prize and owe a gift tax to IRS. They may instruct you to send money through Western Union. They may even tell you that someone will come to your house to pick up the money.

Each year, cases like this are reported to the IRS. But there are many that probably are not reported — either because taxpayers are too embarrassed to admit that they have been bilked or because they never realize that the people who contacted them are imposters.

Lawrence M. Phillips, Director of the Milwaukee District of the Internal Revenue Service, wants to help Wisconsin taxpayers protect themselves against these kinds of schemes. Remember: if you do owe the IRS money, the IRS will send you a formal bill. If an official IRS revenue agent comes to your home, he or she will have photo identification. Don't ever send funds to IRS by Western Union.

If you are contacted by someone claiming to be from IRS and have any reason to suspect that person is a fraud — don't hesitate! Contact IRS Internal Security at (414) 291-3040.

Buettner Announces WCC Deadline, New Application Form

MADISON — State Senator Carol Buettner (R-Oshkosh) today announced that the next deadline for the Wisconsin Conservation Corps (WCC) project applications is March 31, 1989.

Buettner explained that the WCC is a state agency which hires young, unemployed Wisconsin residents to work on a variety of conservation and community development projects. Local governments and non-profit organizations can apply for a WCC crew. Successful applicants receive the use of a WCC crew for a year, during which time the WCC pays the crew and crew leader's wages. WCC projects have included fish and wildlife habitat improvement, trail and park development and outdoor beautification.

"In an effort to make the application process simpler, the WCC has revised the application form to reduce its length and make it clearer. The form used to be 18 pages long, now it runs to 12," Buettner pointed out.

Buettner reminded interested constituents that for project applications to be considered this spring and early summer, the application must be postmarked by March 31, 1989. Interested parties can contact the WCC directly at (608) 266-7730 or 30 W. Mifflin St., suite 406, Madison, WI 53703.

Farmers Given Chance to Voice Their Concerns

Moraine Park Technical College regularly offers classes for farmers. So the college can better meet the needs of area farmers, it has set up a special time for them to meet with Moraine Park staff on each of the campuses.

Classes will be held from 8 to 10 p.m. in Beaver Dam on Feb. 23, room 201; Fond du Lac on Feb. 28, room 0-104; in West Bend on March 7, in room n-119.

Moraine Park staff will share briefly what they have been offering for the farm community and give farmers a chance to let Moraine Park know what classes or training they would like the college to offer. Refreshments will be served.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

The school board negotiating committee will meet in closed session with the KEA negotiating committee on February 28, 1989 at 7:00 p.m. at the Kewaskum Middle School. The meeting is held pursuant to State Statute 19.85(1)(e) and is closed to the public.

KHS Band and Choir Students Head for State Competition

Winning in the solo competition and moving on to state are Angie Schoofs, Jeff Brigham and Ingrid Ankersen.

Instead of the barbershop quartet, Kewaskum High School has its very own "Bathroom Quartet" consisting of (front to back stalls) Doug Miller, Jeff Brigham, Kevin Bartelt and John Hazlewood. They will be competing in state competition under the direction of Dave Bertelsen.

By: Kim Stielow

This past Saturday Kewaskum High School participated in the annual solo ensemble competition.

There were eight groups from Kewaskum, and they will be continuing on to state competition May 6th in Milwaukee.

The Kewaskum high school band is directed by Mr. Ammel and the choir is directed by Mr. Bertelson. Bertelson commented on this year's competition, "There were a lot of strong entries this year, and a lot of these students took 1st place, and worked very hard to achieve this."

Students going on to state competition for the Kewaskum Choir are: Jeff Brigham who received a star 1st for his solo Angie Schoofs, going on to state also received a star 1st on her solo. Ingrid Ankersen and Angie Schoofs received a star 1st on their duet and will be going to state.

The only male quartet this year will also join state competition and the members include John Hazlewood, Jeff Brigham, Kevin Bartelt and Doug Miller. A double Trio will be competing in state this year consisting of; Kathryn Manteau, Yvonne Amerling, Shannon McFadden, Ingrid Ankersen, Kim Stielow, and Jill Peterson.

The Kewaskum high school Swing choir going on to state includes: Yvonne Amerling, Ingrid Ankersen, Kevin Bartelt, Joy Braun, Jeff Brigham, Paul Budiac, Chad Cook, John Hazlewood, Shelly Hug, Tina Keller, Ryan Kertscher, Corey Krahn, Becky Manthei, Shannon McFadden, Cheryl Miller, Jason Miller, Douglas Mueller, Gina Olmsted, Corey Oppermann, Jill Peterson, Randy Schlice, Angie Schoofs, Cindy Stych, Cindy Wilson, and Paula Wilson. One of the songs they performed on Saturday was "Forever."

There is also a Brass Quartet going to state consisting of Corey Oppermann, Mike Heberer, Donald Richie, and Ira Sison, and a sax duet with John Hazlewood and Curt Ammel.

Congratulations to all of you.

Some state contenders in solo ensemble include first row: Ingrid Ankersen, Shannon McFadden, Jill Peterson. Second row: Yvonne Amerling and Kim Stielow and top, Catherine Mantheu.

Successful Money Management Seminar

A Successful Money Management Seminar will be held at the West Bend Employers Credit Union, 18 E. Washington St., West Bend, on Thursdays, March 2nd, 9th and 16th, from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Instructors for the course will feature Howard Schneider, a registered representative and Thomas Wakefield, CFP, of Equitable Financial Companies.

In three sessions, the Successful Money Management Seminar introduces the key concepts and practices of wise money management. Learn how to minimize taxes, maximize investment returns, and provide a secure future for the family.

This seminar is designed for all individuals and couples who want to make maximum use of every before-tax and after-tax dollar.

Topics include how to get the highest rate of return on investments and which investments are safe, how to invest small amounts to start building financial freedom, why you don't have to be a big investor to make money work, and how to best prepare for disability, your children's college education, and early retirement. Discover how to save money on taxes and insurance. 260,000 Americans have profited financially from what they have learned in this seminar.

The seminar is presented in easily understood non-technical language. There's plenty of time for questions and answers, to ask specific questions and have them answered by an expert.

Almost any financial goal set can be attained, but only through careful planning. The very first step in the planning process is to become educated about options at a Successful Money Management Seminar. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Space is limited, so call, or send your registration certificate today. For more information call 338-6788.

West Bend Home Show Will Teach a Variety of Subjects

Last year's drought played havoc with many growing outdoor plants. Did your lawn survive? How pure is the water you drink? Frustrated over new home construction loans? What should you look for in counter top surfaces? Need some tips on home entertaining?

These are a few of the questions that will be answered at consumer sessions available to those attending the 1989 West Bend Home & Garden Show February 25 and 26.

Ann Boerger, of Boerger Floral Shop, West Bend, will address "General Lawn Care - Did Yours Die Last Summer?" This session, scheduled for 4:30 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 25, will be of particular interest to homeowners and renters who are responsible for the care and maintenance of lawns.

Anola Newman, Newman & Associates, will address "Water Quality and What To Do About It." Your drinking water may look good to you, but how can you tell if it is pure? Newman's analysis will be directed to people with city water as well as those with wells and is to be presented at 1:30, Saturday, Feb. 25. Those attending this session are welcome to bring a sample of their water for testing.

Financing new home construction can be a dilemma. The 3:30 p.m. Saturday and 1:30 p.m. Sunday sessions will address "Construction Loan Financing." This session, conducted by Beth Kuehl of Federated Financial Savings, will emphasize low rate, low down payment, fully convertible adjustable rate financing.

The full schedule of consumer sessions follows:

Saturday, Feb. 25

12:30 p.m. - Counter Top Surfacing Products.

1:30 p.m. - Water Quality and What To Do About It.

2:30 p.m. - Conservation/Energy Analysis.

3:30 p.m. - Construction Loan Financing.

4:30 p.m. General Lawn Care - Did Yours Die Last Summer?

5:30 p.m. - Radon - What It Is and What You Can Do About It (video)

Sunday, Feb. 26

12:30 p.m. - Home Entertaining.

1:30 p.m. - Construction Loan Financing.

2:30 p.m. - Radon - What It Is and What You Can Do About It (video).

The West Bend Home & Garden Show will be held at Silverbrook Middle School in West Bend. Hours are Saturday, Feb. 25, 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. and Sunday, Feb. 26, 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. Admission is $1 in advance or $1.50 at the door; children under 12 accompanied by a parent are admitted free. Advance tickets are available at financial institutions, grocery stores, participating exhibitors and the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce.

New Student Scholarships Available at UW-FDL

The University of Wisconsin Center-Fond du Lac is seeking applicants for several $300 New Student Scholarships. These scholarships are for students who will attend the campus for both semesters in the 1989-90 school year.

Freshman applicants must rank in the upper 15% of their class, or have a cumulative grade point average of 3.60 based on a 4.0 maximum, or have an ACT composite percentile rank of 80 percentile using national college-bound norms. Applicants must also provide two written recommendations to support their application. At least one must be written by a high school teacher, counselor, or principal; the other can be written by someone who can objectively comment on contributions or accomplishments.

The student application must be submitted by March 1, 1989 to the UW Center-Fond du Lac along with a high school transcript and an application for admission. Scholarship applications can be obtained from a high school counselor or the Admission Office at the campus, phone 929-3606.

Easter Seal's 1988-89 Youth Ambassador Announced

EASTER SEALS '89 — Easter Seal's 1989 Adult and Youth Ambassadors, Susan Saari, of New Berlin (left), and Marilee Adamski, of Stevens Point (center), recently paid a visit to the State Capitol and presented Governor Tommy Thompson with the fifty-fifth edition of the Easter Seal. Proceeds from the distribution of the seals go to support Easter Seal programs for children, teens and adults with physical disabilities. During 1988, the Easter Seal Society of Wisconsin provided direct assistance to nearly 12,000 disabled Wisconsin residents.

Marilee Adamski, age 12, is the 1988-89 Youth Ambassador of the Easter Seal Society of Wisconsin, Inc. The sixth grader attends Washington School in Stevens Point and especially enjoys science and math. Recently, as part of a science project, Marilee and her classmates set off a model rocket in their attempts to find out how the spacecraft Discovery works. Marilee, who was born without arms and legs, has been making some discoveries herself — all about her abilities.

She uses a customized electric wheelchair, which was provided through the fund-raising efforts of the local Lions Club. The things that most people do with their arms and legs, Marilee can accomplish with her mouth and shoulders. According to Marilee's mother, Linda, the support of Easter Seals has been instrumental in helping Marilee and her family adapt to the disability.

Also important is the abundance of strength, support and love within the Adamski family, which in addition to Marilee and Linda, includes Marilee's father, Mark, and her baby sister, Lindsay, who will be one year old in November.

Marilee loves playing with Lindsay and like most 12-year-olds, enjoys visiting with her friends. Her favorite hobby is swimming, and Linda said that Marilee swims "like a dolphin," arching her body up and down to move through the water. Once a week, Marilee attends a swim class at the University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point, where she works one-on-one with a student instructor who is specializing in physical recreation for people with disabilities.

Swimming is one of many activities that Marilee enjoyed during her two sessions at Easter Seal's Camp Wawbeek near Wisconsin Dells. The cookouts, dances, and skits at the camp have offered Marilee new opportunities to socialize with other young people with disabilities.

Kewaskum Boy Scouts Are Second Place Klondike Derby Winners

The Indians Patrol of Boy Scout Troop 744 Kewaskum won the 2nd place trophy in the Klondike Derby held at Hawthorne Hills in Fredonia, February 11. Events included Compass Orienteering, Fire Building, First Aid, Ice Rescue, Knots & Lashing, Scout Trivia, Snow Blinded and a Snowshoe Relay. Some areas were not snow covered, but it didn't dampen the spirits of these boys.

Clint Miles, Klondike Chairman, complimented the patrols on the keen competition. The 1st place trophy was won by the Panther Patrol of Troop 855 Port Washington, and the Cougar Patrol of Troop 717 West Bend took the 3rd place trophy.

The Klondike Traveling Trophy was awarded to the Flaming Arrow Patrol of Troop 787 Jackson in the Sledge Judging Contest.

This event was conducted by Glacier Edge District 11 of the Bay-Lakes Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Kewaskum Area Girl Scout News

The Kewaskum Area Girl Scout Annual Cookie Sale came to a close on February 6th, with another outstanding year of sales. The area Girl Scouts, parents and leaders would like to thank everyone who purchased cookies. Deliveries are tentatively scheduled for Monday, March 13th.

The Area Sales totaled 1,126 cases or $13,512 boxes, which is an increase of 92 cases from last year's sales. There were a total of 177 girls selling cookies, which is an average of 76 boxes per girl. High case sales went to Brownie Troop 9-Kewaskum with 93 cases. High individual sales went to Katie Gosa from Brownie Troop 9 - Kewaskum, with 327 boxes. Farmington Area Scouts had an increase of 79 cases over last year.

The Area Leaders would once again like to thank all the Girl Scouts and those people who coordinated the sales on a job well done.

You're too fat when ya step on the scale and get two fortunes.

A group of fifteen Kewaskum High School Spanish students from grades 10, 11, and 12 formed a Mexico Travelers Club last spring.

Since then, they have had several fund raisers including candy bar sales, a chili supper, and selling bars during the students' lunch hours. They also plan to have a basketball game in the beginning of March against the radio personalities of the FM station WLZR.

They are leaving for Mexico on Thursday, March 23, accompanied by Mrs. Alvarado and Ms. Ferguson, the two KHS Spanish teachers.

They will fly to Mexico City where they plan to spend the next two days touring the city and visiting such places as the Pyramids of the Sun and the Moon, the National Palace, and the Museum of Anthropology. The group will also visit Taxco for a day and Acapulco for two days for some more sight-seeing. On March 30, they will fly home.

CLEAN COWS HELP PRODUCE QUALITY MILK

by Jack Trzebiatowski
Extension Agriculture Agent

Clipping the udders and flanks of dairy cows can help keep them clean. The process can take time and effort. The workload can be reduced if a regular plan is developed.

Develop a plan for your herd so the udders do not have long hair. Establish the practice of clipping all cows one week before freshening to distribute the workload throughout the year.

The profitable dairy business starts with a clean and healthy cow. That means clipping cows to make them easier to keep clean. Unclean cows may assist the development of an acute coliform infection in the udder. A good prevention measure is to thoroughly dry teats and udders.

A clipped udder is much easier to clean and dry at milking than is an unclipped udder.

With well-clipped udders, there is less chance for manure-contaminated water droplets that are high in bacteria to get inside the inflation and, subsequently, to gain access to the milk supply or to pass into the teat canal.

Reducing sediment and bacteria contamination is a positive step in reducing milk quality problems. Research has shown that clipping of udders, tails and flanks will reduce the bacteria count in bulk tank milk by 45 to 75 percent. Clipping is a labor-saving chore; it saves time in preparing cows for milking.

Clipping also plays a part in helping to control lice. When left uncontrolled, lice steal profits. Lice are prevalent but go unnoticed on many dairy farms. Partial or complete clipping of the cow is a good lice-control measure.

Rest the clippers, with the motor running, against the animal's shoulders to accustom her to the feel and sound before clipping begins. Clip against the lay of the hair, except for areas where clipped and unclipped areas are to be blended. Use both hands for clipping. The free hand can stretch the skin and smooth the area in front of the clippers.

To do a good job of clipping, follow these steps:

1. Clip off the tip of the switch at least one foot from the ground. Some dairy producers like to clip the switch off to within three to four inches of the end of the tail bones. Start clipping the tail about two to four inches above the long hairs on the switch. Clip the tail, tail-head, and backbone up to the hooks or hip bones.

2. Clip the udder. Clip against the natural lay of the hair, and stretch the skin tight to prevent nicking.

3. Clip legs, underlines, flanks, thighs and thurls. As a guide, run a clipped line from the milk wells up behind the hook bone to a point on the backbone.

4. Clip three or more full strokes along the topline to the poll. The restlessness caused by irritation of lice, dirt and dandruff is reduced by this practice.

Tractor Safety Course for Young Farm Workers

Does your son or daughter work on a farm during the summer? Do you hire youth to work for you during the year? Do these young people have adequate safety training?

Accidents cause more deaths to persons between the ages of 15 and 24 than all other causes combined. On the farm, the major cause of accidents is working with tractors and farm machinery. Most accidents happen when the operator does not know how to operate the tractor or machine correctly or is unaware of the danger involved.

To help reduce accidents, a Farm Tractor Safety Course is being sponsored by area High School Vocational Agriculture Department and the University of Wisconsin Extension in Washington County. The course will be held on four Saturdays beginning March 11 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. On Saturday, March 11 and 18, the course will be held at UWWC-West Bend, Room 114. The April 1 session will be held in Slinger at the High School. The April 8 session will be held at the Addison Town Hall in Allenton. The course includes instructions on understanding how to operate a tractor, with the emphasis on safety. To complete the course, youth must attend all four sessions and pass a written and a driving exam.

Federal Child Labor Laws require young people, aged 14 or 15 and working for someone who is not their parent or legal guardian, to take special training to acquaint them with hazardous phases of farm work, particularly tractor and machinery safety. The Tractor Safety Course is open especially to youth who will be 14 but not over 16 years of age by June of the current year. However, other youth will be accepted as space permits.

Youth under the age of 14 are prohibited from farm work of a hazardous nature by Federal Law. Jobs not considered hazardous on a farm are few.

If you intend to hire any youth on your farm, make sure that they enroll in this course for your protection as well as theirs. There are severe penalties for not complying with the law. Penalties can be as high as a $10,000 fine and possible jail sentence for hiring uncertified youths. Also, some insurance companies have indicated that, technically, they can't cover an accident to an untrained youth.

Protect your child or the young person who works for you...enroll them in the Farm Tractor Safety Course. The cost of the course is $6.00 per student. Registration deadline is February 27. To register, call your local High School Vo-Ag Instructor or the UW-Extension Office in West Bend. Phone 338-4478; 644-5204; 342-2929.

75th Anniversary of 4-H

This year is the 75th Anniversary of 4-H in the United States and it is being celebrated in a variety of ways.

The 75th Anniversary goes back to 1914 when the Smith-Lever Act was passed to provide financial support for the Cooperative Extension Service in which 4-H would become the youth education program. Prior to this starting around 1900, there had been projects in school clubs regarding specific areas such as beef, corn, and gardening. These were for the purpose of improving farm and home practices.

In 1909 they were called 3-H Clubs. In 1911 the name 4-H was adopted. To many 4-H members, past and present, the meaning of the four H's may be familiar, but not to the general public. The 4-H emblem is a green clover with four "h's" signifying head, heart, hands, and health.

Anyone who has participated in 4-H is familiar with reciting the pledge, which is as follows: "I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, my health to better living for my club, my community, my country and my world." "My world" was added to the pledge in comparatively recent years and shows the enlargement of 4-H concern with the world at large.

Washington County's first 4-H club was the "Bee-Happy Canning Club" organized in 1926 by Mrs. Belle Albright. Other early clubs were the "Busy Bee 4-H Canning Club" organized in 1926 by Mrs. J.E. Deakins and the "Live Wire Calf Club" was organized in Slinger by Keith McVicar in 1927.

Four-H which has been predominantly for rural youth was an important influence in their lives. Rural youth in the 1920's and 1930's particularly were somewhat isolated and life revolved around home, farm, school, church and for some the 4-H Club. Membership was very important. There weren't the distractions and many activities available to youth as there are today. Today there are many recreational activities, other organizations, availability of transportation and, of course, the ever-present television. Four-H membership provided learning through projects, socialization at meetings and other activities; even some money by winning a prize at the county fair, and what an exciting time county fair was to members!

In the first decades of 4-H work, rural youth were not required to attend high school. They only had to pass eighth grade tests. There was no public transportation; therefore, the educational values of the 4-H work was of special significance to those who did not attend high school.

The first projects were basic: livestock, crops, food, clothing and gardening. The variety of projects gradually increased and changed. Membership was larger. In 1958 there were 1,100 members in Washington County. At present there are 80 diverse projects and 600 members enrolled in 20 4-H clubs. There are also special interest programs.

Urban youth have always had the opportunity to participate in 4-H. However, many people today do not realize that over half of the 4-H youth in the country, state, and yes, even in Washington County are from the cities and towns. Four-H offers a variety of projects such as photography, aerospace, archery, houseplants, rabbits, cats, dogs, cultural arts and many more that appeal to youth in the urban area. Yes, Four-H does reflect the sociological changes in Washington County.

KEWASKUM 4-H

The February 2 meeting of the Kewaskum 4-H came to place at the Community Room at 7:00 p.m. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Annie Mertz and the 4-H Pledge was led by Christine Schmidt. The secretary's report was read by Willow Marshal. Brian Liegl made a motion to approve it and Jason Liegl seconded it. The treasurer's report was read by Jenny Liegl. Kris Hafermann made a motion to approve it and Missy Radtke seconded it.

For old business we will be going swimming on Feb. 19 from 4-6 p.m. at the West Bend High School pool. Call Diane Liegl by the 17, if you plan on going. March 18 and 19 is the Bowl-A-Thon. If you plan on going let Diane Liegl know. Michelle Schaub talked about the Interstate Exchange and applications are due March 1. Brian Liegl talked about the Interstate Exchange. State Congress applications are due by March 1.

For new business the top sellers of candy bars were the Lemke family, next the Staehler family next the Radtke family and selling all her candy bars by herself is Debbie Schneider. We all congratulate these families for doing a great job! We plan on going to the Admirals hockey game and Noah's Ark. Debbie Pomeroy is in charge of taking care of the action center for the 75th Anniversary. LeAnne, Pomeroy made a motion to adjourn the meeting and Marlo Deshotels seconded the motion.

In charge of refreshments for the March meeting are the Lemke and Mertz families. The next meeting will be March 2 at the Kewaskum Community Room. Hope to see you all there!

Farmington Girl Scout Troop 32 took a trip to Madison on December 18. They toured the State Capitol and had a chance to view the beautiful Christmas tree there, which contained over 4,000 hand crafted ornaments and over 3,000 feet of garland. The scouts learned a lot about state government and the Supreme Court and how it works. They enjoyed pizza on the way home.

WAYNE CRUSADERS 4-H CLUB

The September meeting of the Wayne Crusaders was called to order at 7:07 p.m. by President Philip Filber. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved.

Mrs. Ritger announced that a Crusader Merit Award is given each year to the member who best represents the Club's name, by their dedication and enthusiasm in club work. Pat Herther was given the 1988 Crusader Merit Award for her work in the rabbit project.

Officers for the next 4-H year were selected by Executive Committee, and are: President - Tim Herman, Vice President - Philip Filber, Treasurer - Keith Herman, Secretary - Bridget Ritger, Reporter - Julie Schulz, Historian - Joe Hawig.

There was an officer's training meeting on October 25th at 7:00 p.m. at the county courthouse. All officers and youth leaders attended.

Jackie Drewry headed the 4-H Promotion Window Committee.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:38 p.m.

The October meeting of the Wayne Crusaders was called to order at 7:06 p.m. by President Tim Herman. Roll call was to bring a decorated pumpkin for the Halloween contest. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved.

All officers were installed by George Drewry. Jackie Drewry told the club about the 4-H window display at Brost Foods.

The Awards Banquet was on October 12th at 6:00 p.m. at the Amerahn.

Philip Filber talked about his trip to Washington D.C. and about ME Forms.

Winners at the Pumpkin contest were Becky Lubahn, Suzie Lubahn, Sarah Ritger, Bridget Ritger, Kim Resch, and Tim Herman.

Indians Suffer Tough Loss

The Sheboygan Falls Falcons traveled to the Kewaskum gym to find a fighting Indian team ready and waiting Thursday night, and it was only after a tough four quarters of battling that they took home a victory 60-53.

The Indians finally broke away from their three quarter scoring surge and used all four quarters of balanced scoring to stay in the game against the Falcons. First quarter action ended in a 17-17 tie with the Indians capturing the lead a couple of times during the quarter, and at one point being ahead 17-13 on Steve Gerhartz and Mike Struebing baskets.

Mark Heather opened up the second quarter with a fine basket for a 19-17 Indian lead but then came six unanswered points from the Falcon side including four points by their big man, Cale Schueffner.

About mid-way into the quarter, the game got wild underneath with elbows and over-the-back fouls un-called and the game getting totally out of control. Both coaches were livid as players from both sides were getting hammered. Time out was finally called when Kewaskum's Mark Heather received an elbow to the nose while fighting for a rebound. Back in action, Indian Randy Krell got to the line after being fouled, as the referees tried to regain control of the game. Krell failed to capitalize from the charity stripe and the score was Kewaskum 21 - Sheboygan Falls 27, with 2:42 left in the quarter. Mike Struebing and Bruce Waechter pumped in two unanswered baskets for Kewaskum at this point and the Indians were back in the game, 25-27. After a couple basket exchanges the quarter ended with Kewaskum trailing by just three points, 28-31.

Throughout the third quarter, the Indians maintained a one to three point deficit, pulling ahead for the last time in the game at the 3:00 mark on a Leitheiser pumper to make it 38-37. The quarter ended 43-40 Sheboygan Falls, and the Indians were ready for a fourth quarter battle.

What killed Kewaskum in the fourth quarter was #43, Brett Synder of Sheboygan Falls, who got a three point play out of a basket, plus Indian foul and then was at the charity stripe shooting the bonus and making 4-4 to put the score at 54-49. Up until this point Sheboygan Falls hadn't broken the lead open to more than three points and the Indian team kept providing a 2-point answer to their every shot. Kewaskum's scrappy Mark Heather went to the line twice for our Indian team making two of four and tightening the lead back up to three points, but that's the closest Kewaskum got as Sheboygan Falls ended the night with more free throws and a basket to give them their biggest lead at the buzzer, 60-53.

High scorers for the Falcons were Synder with 19 points, and Schueffner with 12, while Indian Steve Gerhartz and Mike Ciriacks scored 16 and 12 points respectively in the loss.

In J.V. action, a fired-up Coach Dillman watched his team put on a fine combined team effort to beat the Sheboygan Falls J.V. team 46-29, Chris Schmid was high scorer with 10 points, while teammates Mark Felix, Tim Schultz, and Craig Krell each contributed nine each. Said Coach Dillman, "The team had good rebounding tonight and it was our great team effort that won the game."

Freshman boys also walked away with a victory in a real "shoot-fest" against Sheboygan Falls, 68-37. High scorers for our fighting Indians were Chad Cook with 15 points and Joel Fleischman with 13 points.

DNR Seeking Youth Summer Help In Conservation Projects

MILWAUKEE, WI — The Department of Natural Resources is again seeking youths between the ages of 15 and 18 to work in Wisconsin Youth Conservation Camps Operation Hard Hat Program, according to Alberta Perkins, Community Services Program Assistant for DNR's Southeast District.

"This is an excellent opportunity for young people to gain valuable experience working on conservation projects during the summer months," said Perkins. "Those teens that are randomly selected will work up to 30 hours per week for eight weeks at the Southern Unit of the Kettle Moraine State Forest."

Approximately 45 positions will again be available this year. Persons selected will be paid minimum wage and transportation will be provided by the Department from Milwaukee to the worksite. Minority and handicapped youths are especially encouraged to apply.

Additional information and applications are available from Milwaukee area high school guidance counselors, Wisconsin Job Service offices or the Department of Natural Resources Southeast District Headquarters, 2300 North Dr. Box 12436 Milwaukee, WI, 53212. Applications should be submitted to Perkins by March 7.

Hebbring Hotel Checks Out With Win Over Kewaskum

KEWASKUM — The Kewaskum Lakes team, minus a couple key players, dropped their game with Menomonee Falls Hebbring Hotel here Sunday night, 147-131. The loss hurts Kewaskum's chances for third place, putting then two games behind the Hotel at 3-8, with four games to go.

The game was close until the final few minutes when Menomonee Falls pulled away. The Hotel led 32-31 at the quarter, but Kewaskum came back to lead 70-63 at halftime. It was tied at 107 after three quarters before a big 40-24 fourth quarter put it away for the Falls.

Hebbring Hotel was perfect from the free throw line, hitting 19 of 19. Kewaskum was nine of 12 for 75.0 percent.

Mike Ehler and Jim Endsley combined for 87 points to lead the Falls to victory. Ehler had 49 including five three-pointers and Endsley had 38. Mike Ronca added 24. Tony Pirozzoli led Kewaskum with 30 points, Randy Tennes had 28 and Leon Laatsch 26.

Kewaskum will take on co-leader Cedarburg this Sunday in its final home game of the season, before hitting the road for its last three games. Game time is 7:00 p.m. at the Kewaskum High field house.

More Turkeys Released in Area

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The Department of Natural Resources, last week, held another wild turkey release. This time two groups totaling 29 birds were freed in Washington County.

Half the birds were released around Cedar Creek, while the second group was freed in the Holy Hill area. The release is part of the DNR's continuing program to re-establish wild turkey populations in areas where they have flourished in the past.

There are now an estimated 45,000 wild turkeys in the state, most of them are descendants of birds imported from Missouri through an exchange program during the 1970's. The birds released last week were captured in the Boscobel area, however, they too, are descendants of the Missouri transplants.

A limited fall hunting season will be held in October, however, no hunting will be permitted in the newly stocked areas. One long-term option being considered is to keep Washington County's turkey population for further re-stocking rather than hunting.

Conscience is that still, small voice that tells you somebody's looking.

Castro, Charland Qualify for State

By: Chris Charland

Out of the twenty-eight teams that participated in the sectional wrestling tournament Saturday, Feb. 19, Kewaskum placed fourth with 56½ point. The other three teams above Kewaskum were Random Lake 62½, Campbellsport 60, and Whitewater 58½.

The first Indian wrestler to qualify was Bobby Castro at 119. In the first round Castro faced Rick Robbins of Laconia. He technically falled him in the third period with a score of 17-2. Then he faced Beloit Turner's Mario Calvin. Once again he made short work of his opponent by pinning him in the second period.

In the final he was up against Kevin Pierret from Campbell-sport. Castro had beaten Pierret in regional action from the week before. It was the same result this week, with him winning by decision 8-0.

Chris Charland was the next wrestler to qualify, with a 2nd place finish. Charland faced Kevin O'Conner from Lake Mills in the first round. Chris defeated him 6-2. In the second round he was up against Mike Culbert of Union Grove. Culbert had beaten Charland last year in sectional competition. This time Charland came up with a victory, decisioning him 11-3. In the final he faced Mike Biba of Elkhorn. This time though Charland did not come out on the winning end. Charland was leading in the second period 6-2 but then got put to his back. He ended up losing by a fall in 3:39. Chris had to then wrestle Gary Depies from Random Lake since he lost in the finals. Depies had beaten Chris last week at regional by a score of 2-10. This time Chris came out on top winning by a score of 8-7.

Other Indian wrestlers competing were Chad Schmidt, receiving a fourth place, Dan Heisdorf received a third, and Dennis Aupperle.

The state tournament takes place the 23, 24 and 25 of February. Come give your wrestlers the support they need.

Indians Suffer Another Defeat

In non-conference action Saturday night, the Kewaskum Indians suffered yet another defeat, this time to the West Bend West Spartans 75-55.

The team effort showed by great passing, great shooting, and great rebounding that kept the Indians in the game against state ranked Two Rivers just hasn't been found again by the Indians.

First quarter, our Indians started "in" the game as it ended with a 13-10 score. Then came an explosive second quarter for the Spartans with West Bend pumping in 26 points including seven points from Spartan's T.J. Busse and Jeff Raschke. The half ended with a 15 point deficit for our Indians 39-24 which only widened as the game continued. The three point shot really hurt our Indians as the West Bend Spartans hammered in five three point wide - rangers during the course of the game.

After the second quarter surge by the Spartans the Indians were stuck playing catch-up basketball... and catch up they didn't.

Although everyone got to play for our Indians and almost all players scored, it just wasn't enough as Kewaskum bowed in defeat 75-55.

High scorers for the Indians were Mark Heather with 10 points and Tom Sharp with seven points. West Bend Spartans had two men in double figures; Jeff Raschke with 17 points, T.J. Busse with 15 points, and each of the rest of their team scored also.

J.V.'s won in over-time 35-33 against West Bend after being down the whole game. A fourth quarter surge tied the game and a free-throw by Chris Schmid gave us the win, followed by a technical free-throw with three seconds left by Mark Felix to put the score at 35-33.

Freshmen also won "big" to up their victory mark.

Next game will be Ozaukee at Kewaskum Tuesday.

A Valentine Gift From the KHS Girls

By Janel Flynn

Last Tuesday (Valentine's Day) the Indians traveled to Sheboygan Falls and successfully took the win they'd intended to get.

The varsity girls started the game with a big lead and kept it throughout the entire game. At intermission the score was an impressive 26-10 with Kewaskum in the lead. The Indians continued playing a good game ending it with a score of 53-32.

Pam Osterbrink scored 16 points (one above her average per game). Debbie Donath also scored 16 points while Jenny Schneider chipped in with 10 points. Osterbrink also led with six steals while Deb Rimmel and Schneider both had five steals.

Friday night the Indians hosted New Holstein, in their last conference game.

Varsity had the lead at half, 30-29. The second half wasn't quite the same. The New Holstein girls came out with an extra boost of enthusiasm and kept the lead from there on. The final score was 64-51, New Holstein.

Pam Osterbrink and Jenny Schneider scored one less than a dozen each. Schneider also helped the team out with three steals and five assists. Debbie Donath and Kristi Lubahn both scored nine points each.

On February 21st the Varsity is attending the sub-regionals and hopefully continue into the Regionals, Sectionals, and possibly State!!

The J.V. team continued their winning streak by adding two more wins and ending the season with a record of 10-2.

At Sheboygan Falls the J.V.'s played a tough competitive game. All during the game, the lead switched from the Falcons to the Indians and so on. At half Kewaskum was ahead by only one point, 13-12. With 12 seconds left in the game, the score was tied 27-27. With seven seconds left, Carrie Krause made the winning hoop to end the game 29-27.

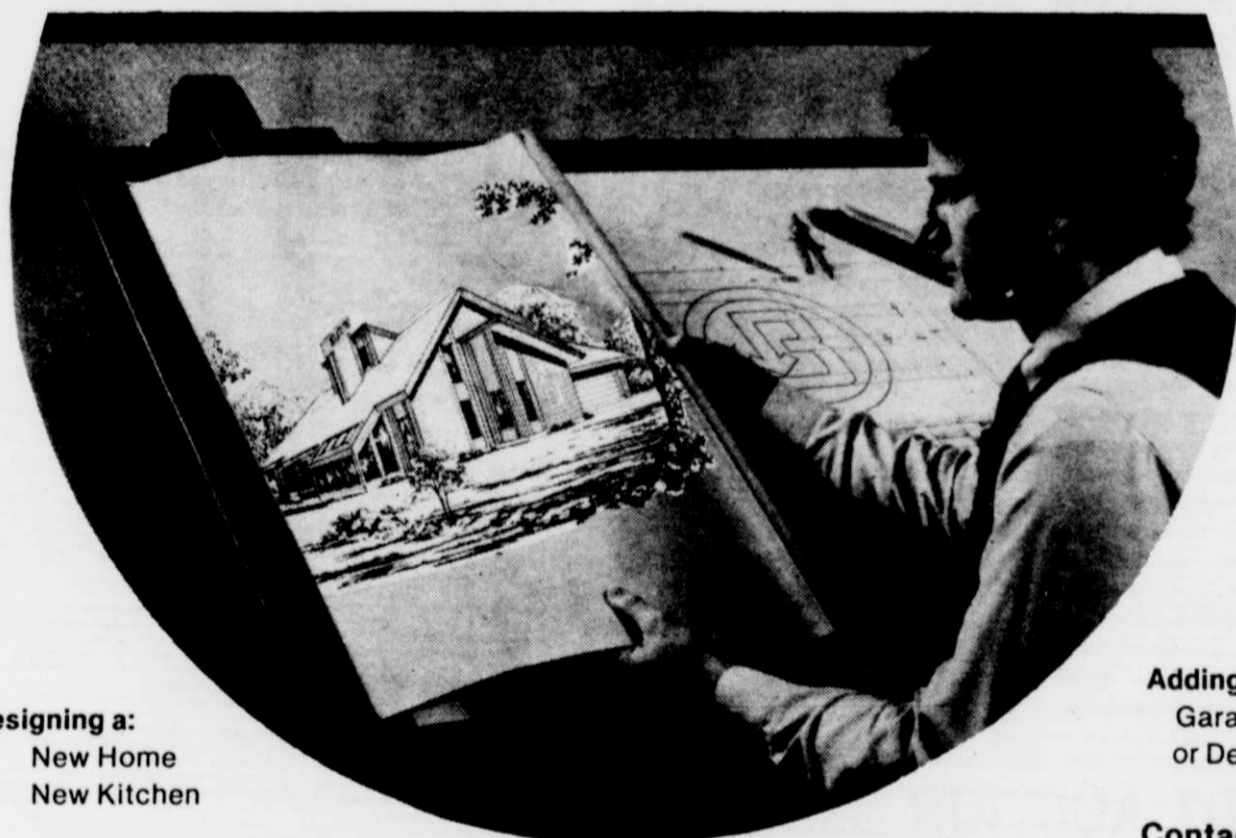

Tracey Steinert led the team with 10 points and four steals. Carrie Krause chipped in with a half a dozen.

Friday night, against New Holstein, the J.V. received another victory. After the first stanza the Indians were ahead by one, 6-5. By half, Kewaskum had twice as much, holding them to only four more points. The final score was 36-24, Kewaskum.

The high scorers for the night were Tracey Steinert and Amy Chesak with 10 points each. Chesak and Janel Flynn had four and three assists respectively. Kelly Rohlinger helped with five steals.
