District Will Not Add Second Elementary Counselor This Year

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Despite a plea by a parent to reconsider the request, the Kewaskum Board of Education took no action other than to approve a motion that it will consider the need for a second elementary school guidance counselor a top priority issue in formulating the 1991-92 budget.

A written request and her personal comments, backed up by a report from the present elementary schools counselor, at Monday night's meeting could not get Mrs. Donna Seiser anything more than a sympathetic ear from the board and a promise from District Administrator David Heather that he will request a second counselor when he discusses staffing needs for the coming (1991-92) year in September.

Heather told Seiser that, while he would like to have the second counselor for this coming school year, the 1990-91 budget has been established and there is no money for either a full or even part-time individual.

Board member Ruth Schmitt told Seiser the request was "somewhat ill-timed, coming this late with the finalization of the budget so near."

Board member Paul Seymour, echoing some comments made by Perry Ankersen at past meetings, said, "we just keep taking on more and more, I can't swallow that every member of society has to pay for this."

Heather replied to Seymour's comments by telling him, "When I bring this need to you in September, I will also be recommending you increase the social worker's position to full-time."

The board heard a second request from another parent, this time that the district put

High School principal LeRoy Kopecky received a 5.79% or $2,521 increase to $46,064. Elementary School principal Tom Larsen received 5.8% or $2,449 to $44,676. Elementary School principal Richard Zarling

5.81% or $2,571, to $46,830. District Administrator Dr. David Heather 6% or $3,300 to $58,300, plus $400 (a .57% increase) per month as acting Business Manager. Middle School principal David Jones, 6.31% or $2,470 to $41,610. Buildings Superintendent Fred Boehlke, 8.38% or $2,625 to $33,952. Connie Strand, Curriculum Coordinator, 9.77% or $1,905 to $21,405. The administrators also receive fringe benefits including health and dental insurance, with a 5% employe contribution toward their health insurance.

With the retirement of Roy Esser as assistant high school principal there was a decrease in salary for that post. Mr.

Connel, who will be assuming the position, will start at $36,000 compared to Mr. Esser's salary of $46,001.

For the administration office staff, Mrs. Jacak receive a 6.97% or $1,556 increase to $23,874. Ms. Russell 7.10% or $1,548 to $23,346, plus each received an additional $83 per month for business management duties.

Car allowances for the district administrator and buildings superintendent were also increased to $50 per month.

Library Director Stepping Down to Assistant

Village Board Supports Second Phase of Incineration Study

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

Following a joint closed session with the Library Board, the Kewaskum Village Board, Monday night, unanimously voted to accept the decision of Library Director Kitty Hlavaty to leave that post and take the position of assistant librarian.

The action came as part of a move to help the village come into compliance with the Countywide Library system's regulations regarding certification standards for library directors.

The two boards also agreed that the village should ask the state for a one-year extension of the deadline if it cannot fill the position of head librarian.

Earlier in the year, the village was notified that its library did not meet certification standards required for a community of its size. Non-compliance with those standards could possibly result in the loss of funding for the library.

The third item to come out of the joint closed session was a motion to advertise for a new head librarian.

In other action the board unanimously approved a resolution to participate in the County Incineration Committee's "Phase II" portion of its feasibility study.

Trustee Gary Gavin, the village's representative on the committee said that second phase involves locating a suitable and acceptable site for the proposed incinerator. The village's shared cost for this portion of the study will run about $1,230.

Both Trustee Mary Krueger and Village Administrator Dan Schmidt noted that the figure could be lower if more municipalities decide to join in on the study. "We could possibly see more come in," said Krueger, "because after 'Phase II,' there will be a surcharge to join the incineration district."

The board also adopted a preliminary resolution approving the start of engineering work and estimates to complete the boulevard on Edgewood Road. Gavin questioned if the work was being planned for this year. Schmidt said it was possible, but more likely, the work would be done next year. "The operators strike has put contractors about four weeks behind in their work, so I don't think we could even get anyone to do the project anymore this year," said Schmidt.

The trustees approved a third resolution which indicates the village's support of a "Future of 41 Coalition" request that the Transportation Projects Commission upgrade Highway 41 to freeway status and a major project with subsequent funding made available.

Schmidt said the area affected would run from the I-94 Zoo Interchange in Milwaukee, to Abrams, north of Green Bay. He also noted that the village had already expressed its concern regarding the dangerous intersection of Highways 28 and 41. Upgrading the highway to freeway status, would eliminate cross traffic by the construction of over or underpasses.

The proposed upgrading could see the first leg, from I-94 to Hwy. 28W, completed by 1993-94. The entire project is proposed for completion in ten years, by the year 2000.

In other business the board approved building permits for a new home to Mr. and Mrs. Scott Rohlinger and for a room addition to the Robert Staehler residence.

The board also approved three bartenders licenses and one-day beer licenses for the Kewaskum Horseshoe League and Kewaskum Lions Club.

The board was advised that the state had denied a request from the village to install flashing lights at the fire station's exit, however, it did approve the installation of two warning signs.

On behalf of the Kewaskum Softball Association, Harry Roecker presented the village with a check for $500 towards the money borrowed for the construction of the new concession stand at the ball diamonds in Kiwanis Park.

The board tabled action on the hiring of a firm to study and update job descriptions for village employees. The item will be discussed at the board's next meeting. The last study was done in 1983.

Library representative Gary Gavin advised the board that the library had received its second funding installment of the year in the amount of $3,132. The library will also be acquiring a new set of encyclopedias donated by the Kewaskum Woman's Club.

Car, Train Collide in Kewaskum

Public Works Superintendent Augie Bilgo began cleaning up debris at Monday's train/car collision.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A Kewaskum woman narrowly escaped injury and possibly even death when the car she was driving early Monday morning collided with a southbound Fox River Valley train near the old Sentry store on Main Street.

According to a Kewaskum

Police Department report, Shirley J. Kirkham, 58, of 1402 Riverview Drive, was west-bound at approximately 7:45 a.m., when she struck the engine of the freight train as it began to cross Main Street.

The front of Kirkham's vehicle was demolished. Luckily, the impact pushed the car aside, thereby avoiding being carried down the track or striking other cars of the train. The flashing red warning signals were operating at the time of the accident.

Kirkham was shaken up but did not require any hospitalization. Kewaskum Police Officer Thomas Bauer said, Monday afternoon, the accident is still under investigation.

Farm Tour and Field Day to Be Held on Kevin Thull Farm

A Farm Tour and Field Day for both farmers and the general public will be held Sunday, July 15 from 10 a.m. till 5 p.m. on the Kevin Thull Farm, Highway 28, 3 and 1/2 miles east of Kewaskum in Washington County.

The tour will feature "sustainable" agricultural practices which can boost farm production and farm profits while conserving soil and preserving our environment.

The Thull family farm is a medium-sized dairy operation with some swine and beef cattle, feed corn, barley, wheat and alfalfa. For 22 years the Thulls have eliminated the use of synthetic chemical herbicides and pesticides and have emphasized all-natural fertilizers. They have combined traditional soil conservation practices with innovative methods and pay special attention to crop rotation, plowing techniques and soil preparation.

The July 15 Farm Tour and Field Day is sponsored by Project Isidore of The Wisconsin Farmers' Foundation, Inc. Project Isidore is a church-initiated effort to assist family farming throughout Southeastern Wisconsin. Isidore has involved no-interest loans for seed and feed, haylifts during drought, and ongoing advocacy with farmers being squeezed by an agricultural economy in transition.

Project Isidore views Sustainable Agriculture and well-managed farm operations such as Kevin Thull's as important models for the future.

That's What Friends Are For

Past Commander Lee Kempf of the Robert G. Romaine Post 384 accepts pledges for Karen Schmidt from Kris Schinker.

Eighteen-year old Kris Schinker, 1619 Hwy A, West Bend, raised $681 in "The Walk for Karen Schmidt" held May 20th in Kewaskum's Kiwanis Community Park.

Kris and Karen of Hartford, became friends through their involvement in Badger Girl's State leadership camp. Soon after Karen was diagnosed with aplastic anemia, and is now in need of a lifesaving bone marrow transplant.

Kris organized the 5KM/-10KM walk to raise money to aid in the search for a compatible bone marrow donor, which is being conducted by the Blood Center of Southeastern Wisconsin. A matching donor is still being sought.

The American Legion Robert G. Romaine Post #384 of Kewaskum supported Kris and her idea to sponsor the walk/run. Commander Lee Kempf commended Schinker for her efforts stating, "the entire walk was organized and carried out because of Kris's doing it-she was the sole originator and she did a great job."

Anyone interested in donating funds or being tested for donor compatibility can contact the Lifesavers Group at 1-800-950-1050.

central air conditioning in the Farmington Elementary School building to accommodate her son who has a medical condition and will be starting there as a kindergartner this fall.

Mrs. Timothy Potter told the board her son Matthew suffers from a medical problem which requires him to remain in a cool environment. Although the board approved the purchase of a $2,600 single room air conditioning unit, Mrs. Potter felt the district was not meeting her child's needs.

Dr. Heather advised Mrs. Potter that the district has been in contact with the child's personal physician and he had indicated the action taken by the district was adequate. "Going on the advice of his physician, we only need to air condition one room," said Heather.

Ruth Schmitt told Mrs. Potter she could understand her concern, but that she too, had to understand the district's concern. "Your circumstances could change, you could move or boundaries could change."

Heather was asked if he had gotten any estimates on central air conditioning for the building. Heather said figures ran between $58,000 and $75,000 minimum for installation, plus operational and maintenance costs.

Mrs. Potter told the board all the students would benefit. Then someone mentioned what about the other elementary schools. The board said it would proceed with the one-room air conditioner and the situation would be monitored for any problems.

In other business the board approved the request of Food Services Supervisor Kathy Robinson to increase the prices for the 1990-91 hot lunch program.

Robinson said a 35% increase in costs, 25% increase in labor and cutbacks in commodities necessitate the increase, noting the last hike in meal tickets was back in 1983.

Elementary school weekly tickets would increase 25c, and high school weekly tickets would go up 50c, from $4.75 a week to $5.00 and $5.00 to $5.50.

The board also approved the purchase of new language art books for grades K-6. Mrs. Connie Strand, Curriculum Coordinator, advised the board it had been eleven years since new language books and eight years since new reading books had been purchased for these grades.

The board also approved the purchase of replacement carpeting for areas at FES, KES and the high school in the amount of $16,516.

The administration was given approval for Quest program training for the K-4 teachers. The training is paid for with funds from the local Lions Club, and state and federal grant monies.

Mrs. Jan Uhlman was hired as a teacher for the Kewaskum Middle School and Mrs. Laurie Severson-Curiel as high school Spanish teacher.

The board also granted childcare leave for Mrs. Lisa Kaehny and accepted the resignation of Mrs. Karen Duren as extended day kindergarten teacher.

FIGHT BACK!

One of my more major frustrations in life would be coping with being smart. I used to be praised for being this smart, but now things have changed. I used to think how great it was to be smart, but now, even though I know it will help me in the long run, I'm not so sure. It used to be fun to be able to answer all the questions, but now that there are more people around, I worry about how they "see" me. It's hard to make this kind of decision because you feel insecure no matter what you do. Sometimes I wish that I wasn't so smart; it hurts to be called a "brain," "geek," "nerd," or "teacher's pet." At one time I even let my grades drop on purpose, but that didn't help me any inside; I knew it was wrong, so it didn't take long and my grades were back up. Another thing I sometimes find hard to cope with is the fact that I really don't have to study that much; the ideas and concepts just "come" to me.

I realize now, though, that under no circumstances should I drop my grades. They are very important, and I should be proud of them.

Regal Stresses Its Commitment to Quick Response With Talk at Hills Dept. Stores EDI Conference

KEWASKUM, Wis. — Regal Ware, Inc. Regal management discussed their Electronic Data Interchange/Quick Response programs at the Hills Department Stores EDI conference on June 28 in Boston, MA. This conference represented phase I of Hills' strategy to have 80 percent of its purchase order volume transmitted via EDI by year end.

In 1986, Regal developed a strategic EDI plan to establish trading partnerships and currently has established trading partnerships with most major customers and have several dozen on a future partnership list. Regal currently supports a host of EDI transaction sets including purchase order, invoicing, and advanced shipping notice.

Regal management highlighted Regal's continuing commitment to Electronic Data Interchange/Quick Response and to their trading partnership with Hills 210 stores. In 1989, Hills signed a trading partnership with Regal and in less than two months were up and running with EDI. The current trading partnership consists of purchase orders and functional acknowledgement transaction sets with plans to expand to include invoices and advanced shipping notices in the near future. "The DEI work we are doing with Hills and with many of our customers is just a part of our overall Quick Response program. Using things like EDI and shipper container marking we will continue to improve service and cut down on delivery times. We are excited about the opportunities EDI/Quick Response offers and we are making the manpower and facility commitments that will allow us to be a leader in EDI/Quick Response implementation," Regal management said.

UWVC's Theatre on The Hill Announces Summer Rep VIII

WEST BEND — Theatre on the Hill proudly announces Summer Rep VIII including something for everyone.

This summer's offerings include: Black Comedy — an English farce by Peter Shaffer of EQUUS, AMADEUS and Lettice and Loveage fame. The play opens on a dark stage (which is light to the characters), then a fuse blows throwing the cast into total darkness (which is light to the audience) and ends up with the electricity back on (darkness to audience).

The audience is a witness to many things in the "dark." A girl bringing her father to meet her fiance, a starving sculptor. To impress the father the sculptor has invited a wealthy art dealer, and "borrowed" his campy neighbor's furniture while he is out of town. Not only have the lights gone out, but... the neighbor returns too soon, the art dealer is mistaken with the electrician, and the former girlfriend shows up and wrecks havoc on the entire proceedings.

Directing the show is Brad Ford an assistant professor of communication arts at UWVC and the coordinator of the Theatre on the Hill.

Eight performers from area communities make up the cast. They are as follows (in order of appearance):

David Riely as Brunsley, the sculptor; Chris Carey as Carol, the fiance; Gene Danielson as the Colonel; Dylan Bolin as Harold, the "campy" neighbor; Desiree Burcum as Clea the unexpected "ex;" Joe Wolf as Schuppanzigh the electrician; and Howie Wolf as George Bamberger.

Revue/Review — A musical review with an "Americana" theme (appropriate for the 200th anniversary of U.S. Census). The first act will feature musical favorites from Broadway while the second act will feature favorites from past Theatre on the Hill productions.

An Evening of One Acts — A new concept for summer contemporary comedy by three new directors and playwrights.

Children's Theatre — A potpourri of children's favorites including: Kiddledwinks, Cactus Wildcats, and "How the Camel Got His Hump."

A schedule of performances is listed below:

- An Evening of One Acts: July 10, 12, 17 and 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Kewaskum Midget Little League Captures Third Place

The Kewaskum Midget Little League competed in the semi-finals of the Eden tournament Saturday, July 7. After stranding 15 runners over six innings, they just couldn't find that big hit. A bottom of the 6th inning rally fell short and they lost to Eden 6-5.

Coach Gary Schweder was really proud of the effort the team put forth. Thanks to the families for their backing and also to Eden for a well run tournament.

GOOD NEWS FROM UNITED WAY

This is a part of a continuing series of United Way-funded agencies in Washington County.

Your United Way contribution helps victims of abuse help themselves — and others. A woman who stayed at the FRIEND OF ABUSED FAMILIES Shelter for a few weeks now works at another shelter as a legal advocate. She said that because of the help she received at Friends, she knew she wanted to help others.

The HARTFORD CPR COMMITTEE also receives United Way funds. So far in 1990, more than 300 people have been certified in Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation, and have received other training on equipment purchased with United Way dollars.

One project of NOVA SERVICES is the downtown clean up program in West Bend. Six youth are involved in the project, ranging in age from 14 to 18 years. This is a good employment opportunity for youth in the community.

WAU BUN GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL, in cooperation with Junior Achievement, recently sponsored a Business Basics Workshop for more than 50 West Bend girls, ages 9, 10 and 11. They learned about management, advertising, production and the inner workings of a small business operation.

Seniors have many activities to choose from in Washington County. SENIOR CITIZENS ACTIVITIES provides ongoing activities like card playing, classes in safety, watercolor painting, calligraphy and travel; potlucks, dinners, dancing, field trips and other entertainment are also featured. Hearing tests are provided on a regular basis. In the first three months of 1990, approximately 3,500 attendees participated in Senior Center activities.

Your United Way gift helps people of all ages throughout Washington County. Thanks to you, it works for all of us, the United Way.

The White house has 132 rooms and a bomb shelter. It occupies 84,184 square feet.

Be Aware of Navigation Buoys

The month of July is usually the busiest boating month of the year. This fact along with an ever increasing number of boats using our lakes and rivers, has in some cases led to our crowding on the water. Respect for the rights of others and obeying the navigation markers is a necessity under these conditions.

There are four regulatory marker types:

Danger Buoys are all white with an orange diamond. These buoys are used to warn boaters of dangers such as rocks, cables, construction dams, etc. Information on them will be printed in black.

Boats Prohibited Buoys are all white with an orange diamond with an orange cross inside. These buoys mean Boats Keep Out, and when within 100 feet of them the maximum speed shall be Slow-No-Wake. They indicate swimming beaches, waterfalls, rapids, etc. Information on these will be printed in black.

Control or Restriction Buoys are white with an orange circle. They indicate controlled or restricted areas on the water such as: speed limits, no fishing, no skiing, etc. The information will be printed in black.

Information or Direction Buoys are all white with an orange square. These inform boaters of directions, distances, locations, etc. Information again will be printed in black.

All buoys shall be placed under the authority of a written permit issued by the local unit of government and approved by the DNR.

Experienced boaters are well aware of what these buoys mean. Inexperienced and new boat owners should take the time to study them, along with all the boating regulations.

Unemployed Veterans Training Grant Available

RICHARD W. BAKER
COUNTY VETERANS'
SERVICE OFFICER

West Bend, WI - Unemployed Wisconsin veterans who want to learn new job skills may be eligible for a retraining grant of up to $3,000.00, according to the County Veterans' Service Officer.

The Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs (WDVA) is offering retraining grants that eligible veterans may use for school or living expenses.

The size of the WDVA retraining grant is based on the veteran's financial need. The maximum is $3,000.00 per year. This is a grant and doesn't have to be repaid like a loan, however WDVA must receive the grant application within one year after the veteran becomes unemployed. The grant period is one year from the date of application or until the retraining program is completed, whichever is first.

To be eligible for the grant, the retraining program must be scheduled for completion within two years after the grant application date. The school offering the retraining program must be in Wisconsin and accredited by the U. S. Department of Education. Schools that are accredited for the Guaranteed Student Loan and the Pell Grant automatically qualify. Veterans are advised that the retraining grant is a pilot program with limited funding. Eligible veterans are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

Veterans interested in the retraining grant or other veterans' benefits should contact Richard W. Baker, County Veterans' Service Officer at the Washington County Courthouse, phone 338-4459.

Mrs. Zona Miske of Allenton and Richard L. Edwards, 331 Forest Ave., Kewaskum, have filed as candidates for the Kewaskum Community High School, Joint District No. 2 Board of Education. There are two vacancies on the five member board this year. The terms of Mrs. Miske, the position formerly held by Melvin Ridley and Roger McKenna are expiring.

Two youths drowned in area lakes in separate tragedies over the Fourth of July holiday weekend. A Port Washington youth, Ronald Berndt, 19, drowned Saturday while swimming in Little Green Lake in the Town of Farmington. Another young man lost his life in a drowning mishap when Alvin Janz, 20, of Silver Creek drowned at Lake Ellen near Cascade Sunday. Janz was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Janz, 1616 Fond du Lac Ave., Kewaskum and the fiance of Miss Jane Herman of Kewaskum. The couple had planned on being married this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Collins, who operated a tavern in Dundee for the past eight years, have gone out of business in that village and moved to Laona in the northern part of the state where they will make their future home.

During an 11:30 a.m. nuptial ceremony read by the Rev. John T. Budde, at Holy Trinity Church, Kewaskum, on Saturday, July 3, Miss Karen Fickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fickler, R. 1, Kewaskum, became the bride of John Staehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Staehler, R. 2, Kewaskum. For her wedding the bride was attended by Barbara Fickler as maid of honor and Mrs. Carol Gross and Beverly Fickler as bridesmaids. Serving as attendants for the groom were best man William Koenen, and Ronald Gross and William Koepke as groomsmen. Guests were placed by Tom Staehler and Robert Fickler. Births - A daughter, Shelly Ann, to Mr. and Mrs. Barney Strobel, Wayne, Saturday, July 3. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Broecker, Kewaskum, Wednesday, July 7. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kirsch, R. 2, Campbellsport, Sunday, July 4.

The 38-piece Kewaskum Community Band played on a booster trip for the Kewaskum Fire Department on Tuesday evening. Several numbers were played by the band in the village before starting on the trip. The members were all seated in K.A. Honeck's Chevrolet semi truck for the trip to the following towns: West Bend, Jackson, Cedarburg, Grafton and Saukville. Thieves battered in the door of the bar room at the North Side Park and stole some beer and whiskey early Monday morning. After the dance of Sunday evening Mr. Jos. Eberle securely locked the buildings and left for home at about 3 o'clock Monday morning. Returning to the park at about 7 o'clock to bring home some articles left there, he found the door of the bar room smashed open and some beer and whiskey which had been left there stolen. It appears that the main object of the thieves was to drink only. But if the thieves thirst for drink was so great. Mr. Eberle states he would have appreciated it if they had unhooked the doors, as this could of been done more easily instead of smashing the whole door and causing him so much damage, and he would gladly be willing to lose the liquor if it only helped to quench someone's great thirst. Mr. Eberle will be on the lookout for the guilty party and if caught will be dealt with according to the law.

While returning from a trip to Campbellsport last Tuesday morning at about 5 o'clock, Carl Westerman, liveryman of here, lost control of the Ford Car he was running and crashed into a large tree in front of Otto E. Lay's residence on Fond du Lac Ave. Mr. Westerman had taken Henry Wittenberg, Jr., to Campbellsport and on account of not receiving any sleep for the last three nights and due to over exertion lost control of the machine. Luckily Mr. Westerman was not running his car very fast or a more serious accident would have happened. He escaped with only a slight cut above the left eye, received from striking the steering wheel. The damage amounted to the extent of about $25. The radiator, and headlights were completely wrecked and a brace on the front axel was slightly bent.

On Saturday, June 19, G. Kreif and Mrs. Alma Jaehnig, both of Fillmore, were married at the bride's home. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Erber. They will reside on the bride's farm at Fillmore.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Uelmen, St. Michaels, last Tuesday, a baby girl.

Hot Stuff... But Picnic is Still a Good Time

Family Hair Salon won first place parade honors with their "Gay Nineties" entry.

The children of My Little Friends Day Care Center rode on a flatbed filled with summer fun. They took second place.

Regal Ware's beautiful entry brought smiles to the faces of young and old alike.

An important part of any parade, clowns handed out candy to children along the street.

Darling children's entries brought a multitude of "aren't they cute" from the crowd.

The Tripoli Drum and Bugle Corps of Milwaukee.

Members of our own Kewaskum High School band sporting their new uniforms.

A huge crowd flocked to Riverhill park after Sunday's parade to enjoy the good food and cool refreshments in spite of the 90 degree weather. Maybe we should call the picnic Kewaskum's Humidity Days, because if its the weekend of the picnic... count on it being hot!

Kohlsville's water fighting team, being congratulated above by Kewaskum Fire Chief Bob Stoltzmann, again walked away with the first place trophy. Quite an honor, considering there were 18 teams participating.

The water fighters from Hartford took second place.

Lest We Forget

You see it was time. Time to celebrate the Fourth of July. And now you say why? Why must I even think of it?

It is your country, that's why. You live in it — you put a dent in it, whether you wish to join in the daily living or not — you are in it. We have been given freedoms unending. Thanks to our forefathers. The unalienable rights of unending gains and grace. Gains in many things which many countries are now looking forward to. Yes, America, you are the dream of unalienable rights — a freedom that much need and want.

We proudly celebrate our independence in many ways. By flag waving and saluting it, parades, fireworks, picnics and by thanking God Almighty for such freedoms. Can you now imagine what America means to many people of the world? A dream of conquest of free living — rights to do and say what your heart feels (such as I am doing), where liberty and justice is for all. From shore to shore, from stream to stream, for the brave that have fought for the footsteps softly taken by freemen, for hearts that have been rescued and preserved for a great nation. Let us strongly wave our "THANKS" for a great nation such as this.

May we give THANKS FOR OUR DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE and for these certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. HAPPY BIRTHDAY AMERICA!

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of EVELYN LUDWIG, who passed away ten years ago, July 10th, 1980:

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So he put His arms around her,
And whispered "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer.

And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us,

He only takes the best.

DOT Announces County Road Work

Road construction was expected to begin the week of July 9, 1990, on the resurfacing of STH 175 from CTH "Q" to STH 167. The work will consist of base patching, recycled asphaltic surface, culvert replacements, grading, shaping and finishing intersections, and epoxy pavement markings.

The work will be performed under a contract let to Payne & Dolan, Inc. of Waukesha, at an estimated cost of $696,277.29. Financing will be 100% by State of Wisconsin motor vehicle funds.

This work will be done under traffic with both directions of traffic being routed over a single lane through the construction zone. Motorists are urged to be aware of the flag persons and use caution in the construction zone.

It is anticipated that this project will be completed by September 14, 1990.

Every possible effort will be made to provide continuous and safe ingress and egress to all business and residential properties during this reconstruction, but pedestrians and motorists are urged to use caution in the construction zone.

Spring Turkey Hunt a Success

The first spring turkey hunt in the northern Kettle Moraine area has been deemed a success.

Zone 30 includes land areas in the counties of Fond du Lac, Washington, and Sheboygan. There were 98 birds harvested for the hunting period April 11 through May 20th. Of the 98 birds taken, 79 of these were adult males or toms and 19 were young males (jakes).

During the unexpected snowstorm May 10th, only five birds were registered.

The largest turkey registered was a 25 1/4-pound bird with an 11-inch beard, shot by a 15-year-old Plymouth youth just west of that community. The number of hunters who applied for the 450 (75 per time period) available permits was 1,670 individuals.

According to Dale Katsma, DNR Wildlife Manager in Plymouth, 600 permits will be issued in Zone 3 for the 1991 hunt next spring. The numbers have increased reflecting the population growth of the species.

Brood reports, or sightings of several young birds of the year are just starting to be reported and he urged anyone who observes these broods to phone in their sighting as to the number of birds, where they saw them and when, to the Plymouth DNR office. The number is 892-8756.

The assistance of the general public in this manner for the betterment of the resource is greatly appreciated.

Despite Errors, Indians Down Chilton

CHILTON — When a team commits six errors in a baseball game, it is not suppose to win. Try and explain that to the Kewaskum baseball team.

Meeting Chilton for the second time in eight days, the Indians came away with another 3-2 victory over the Tigers, despite committing the six miscues and being outthit 8-7.

"We just had a bad game (defensively)," Kewaskum head coach Tom Bartelt said in trying to explain his normally surehanded team's problems. "They were easy plays, we just booted them or threw them away."

Indeed they did, but fortunately for the Indians they had sophomore southpaw Chad Cook on the mound. The young hurler was quite stingy when it came down to letting this one get away. Cook went five innings scattering six hits, while only allowing one unearned run to cross the plate.

The Indians jumped out to an early 2-0 advantage on the hosts to give Cook a bit of breathing room. In the first, Dan Heidorf and Cook led off the contest with back-to-back doubles, making it 1-0. Kim Marx, a courtesy runner for Cook, promptly stole third and came around to score on an overthrow.

The only run to score off Cook came in the second. Chilton's Chris Marx led off with a single and moved to second on an Indians error. Chad Johnson then singled, with the ball getting past the Indians outfield for another error, scoring Marx.

Cook began to run into problems in the sixth, however. After walking the first batter and then throwing two more balls to the next batter, Bartelt went to reliever Ken Krause, who got out of the game without allowing a run.

"Something just wasn't right with him," Bartelt said of Cook, who lowered his earned run average to 2.15. "His delivery wasn't smooth as it has been. He just didn't look very comfortable out there," he added, sounding as if he was describing a pitcher who just got shelled.

The Indians finally broke through for another run in the top of the seventh. Mark Felix started the rally with a single, and he was then lifted for a pinch runner, Randy Schlice, who stole second. Dan Heidorf then hit a grounder to the third baseman and beat the throw to first for an infield hit. The throw was a bit off the mark and got away from the first baseman, allowing Schlice to scamper home, making it 3-1 Indians.

The Tigers rallied in the ninth, however, and made the game quite interesting. With one out, Chilton's Todd Nett reached on an error, and moved to second base on a single by Chris Zacharias.

After another out, the Indians booted yet another ground ball, allowing Nett to score and putting the tying run at third, and the winning run a second. Krause buckled down though and got the next batter to hit a grounder to third, which fortunately wasn't booted and did end the game.

Krause "did alright" in relief, according to Bartelt. The junior righty struck out a pair of Tiger batters, while not walking a batter.

On the offensive side of things, Heidorf had a pair of hits for the Indians, as did Cook, who's hitting right around the .300 mark according to Bartelt.

Indians Come Alive on Offense In Win Over Sheboygan Falls

KEWASKUM — The defense was tough, the pitching was again steady, and the offense finally came alive. With the exception of the latter, it was just another typical Kewaskum Indian baseball game.

The Indian offense, after scoring just 14 runs in their previous five games, exploded for 15 hits and nine runs en route to a 9-2 victory over a young Sheboygan Falls squad here, last Thursday.

After having to try and explain why his club wasn't producing many runs in past games, Kewaskum head coach Tom Bartelt seemed a bit more at ease with the thought of the 15 hits still lingering in his mind.

"We're finally starting to hit the ball a little bit," Bartelt said, adding "We played good defense again, so that was nice to see too."

The Indians wasted no time whatsoever in getting to Falcon starter Paul Winter, jumping out to a 4-0 lead in the bottom of the first.

Dan Heidorf led off the inning with a single, and he moved to third on a Chris Weddig single. Randy Schlice entered as a courtesy runner for Weddig, and promptly stole second base, putting runners at second and third.

Jason Krahn then singled, scoring Heidorf, but Schlice, attempting to score on the play, was thrown out at the plate on a nice play.

After Rich Radtke and Mark Felix walked to load the bases, Brian Leitheiser, who has been struggling at the plate of late, connected for a base hit, scoring Krahn and Radtke to make it 3-0. The final run of the inning scored on a Ken Krause double.

The Indians got two more runs in the second. Heidorf walked, and Bruce Waechter followed with a triple, scoring Heidorf. Radtke came up with a clutch single to score Waechter, and the Indians quickly found themselves leading, 6-0.

Sheboygan Falls manufactured a run in the third, using a base hit, a sacrifice, and then two passed balls to get on the scoreboard.

The Falcons got another tally in the fourth. Again a single and a sacrifice put a runner at second with one out. This time the visitors got a base hit to fall in, scoring the runner from second and cutting the deficit to 6-2.

That was all the scoring that Indians hurler Shawn Schneider would allow though. The sophomore righthander went the distance in recording his sixth win of the year in conference against just one loss.

"He struggled a bit out there," Bartelt said of the young Schneider, who struck out nine and walked two in lowering his earned run average to 1.32. "He wasn't quite as consistent as he has been, but he still only gave up five hits."

Kewaskum answered right back in the bottom of the fourth. Waechter and Radtke led off the inning with singles, and then Waechter scored and Radtke moved to third on Leitheiser's second RBI single of the game.

The Indians then executed a perfect double steal, with Leitheiser heading to second base and Radtke roaring home from third to make it 8-2.

Waechter put the finishing touches on the win with a solo home run in the bottom of the sixth. The ball appeared to have one-hopped the fence in centerfield, therefore being a ground-rule double, but the umpires didn't see it that way and awarded Waechter with the roundtripper.

The homer capped a 3 x 4 day for the senior outfielder, who "is starting to really hit the ball again," according to Bartelt. Heidorf, who had been in a mini-slump, according to Bartelt, "broke out of it" with three hits, as did Leitheiser, who had been hovering around the .200 mark.

The win improved the Indians mark to 11-6 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, and kept their remote chances for a share of the conference title alive.

In order for the Indians to share the co-championship, first-place Kiel would have had to lose to Chilton on Monday and to the Indians on Tuesday, thus leaving both the Raiders and Indians with 12-6 marks.

Deans, O'Connor Qualify For State Amateur Tourney

RICHFIELD — Kewaskum - area golfers fared pretty well in their attempts to qualify for this weekend's state amateur golf tournament.

In the district six qualifying tournament held here, at the Kettle Hills Golf Club last Monday, three individuals shot well enough to advance to the state tournament, which will be held at the Oneida Golf and riding Club in Green Bay.

Gregg Dean, 1988 graduate of Kewaskum High School, and currently a member of the UW-Stout golf team which advanced all the way to the NAIA National Tournament last spring, shot a six-over-par 80, which has tied him for fifth place, thus sending him to Green Bay this weekend.

Hon-E-Kor's Mike O'Connor Jr. had the next best score among Kewaskum-area players, with his 83 also being good enough to advance to the state tourney.

Dean's older brother, Jim, made it a family affair as he shot an 84, and also qualified by virtue of winning a playoff with several other golfers who tied at that score, which happened to be the cut off score.

The rough layout at Kettle Hills played havoc with the scores of a couple other Hon-E-Kor hopefuls, Clark Pearson and Joe Doherty, who both failed to qualify.

In practicing for the qualifying round at Kettle Hills a couple weeks earlier, the elder Dean experienced the ultimate shot for a golfer, a hole-in-one.

Using an eight-iron to tee up his ball on the 141-yard 15th hole, Dean holed out the shot as the ball landed in the cup on a fly. While brother Gregg insisted that the ball sailed over the green, Jim had thought the ball had landed in the hole, and when the two players, along with another brother, David, and a friend of David's got to the hole, Jim proved to be the wiser of the two.

It was Jim's first hole-in-one, and came as part of a round of 82.

Schneider's Pitching, Radtke's Hit Propels Indians to 3-2 Win

KEWASKUM — While the Kewaskum baseball team hasn't exactly ripped opposing pitchers this summer, the same can be said for the Indian opponent's luck in mastering the sophomore duo of Shawn Schneider and Chad Cook.

Schneider again came through with a superb performance, throwing a four-hitter against Chilton, but he needed an eight-inning single by Rich Radtke to score the winning run and capture a 3-2 victory over the visiting Tigers.

The surprising performances by Cook and Schneider this year have been a welcome, and much needed sight this season for Indian head coach Tom Bartelt.

"At the beginning of the year, I figured we'd be tough (pitching wise)," Bartelt said, regarding his young pitchers. "But I really didn't think they would be this good."

Fortunately for Bartelt and the rest of the Indians, the pitching has been excellent. Both Cook and Schneider, along with junior Ken Krause and seniors Bruce Waechter and Brian Leitheiser, have more than made up for the offensive woes, which saw the Indians batting just .261 as a team after last week's action.

The Indians only managed a pair of hits against Chilton and their pitcher, Todd Nett, but it was Radtke's single which proved to be the difference.

The Indians fell behind early in the contest, giving up single runs to the Tigers in the second and third. After Jason Mensch reached on a passed ball in the second, he came around to score on another passed ball, an overthrow and a single by Chris Marx.

After Chilton scored on a couple of base hits and a steal in the third, the Indians answered back in the bottom of the inning, getting a sacrifice fly from Waechter to score Leitheiser from third base, cutting the deficit to 2-1.

That's the way it stayed until the sixth, when Kewaskum tied things up with Mark Felix manufacturing a run. The junior walked, stole second, and came around to score on a passed ball that got too far away from the catcher.

Both teams failed to score in the seventh, and after the Tigers went down in the top of the eighth, it was time for some clutch hitting by the Indians' senior shortstop.

After Waechter walked, stole second, and went to third on a passed ball to open the inning, Chris Weddig hit a ball to the pitcher, who turned and cut down Waechter trying to score. Weddig went to second on the play, and then was removed in favor of a courtesy runner, Kim Marx, who came home on Radtke's single up the middle.

"That was our only solid hit of the game," Bartelt said of Radtke's hit. "We're just not getting the hits. I don't really know what our problem is," although the Indian mentor did point out that two of his top hitters were recently declared ineligible due to grades, and that could be part of the reason his team is struggling at the plate.

Schneider certainly didn't have any problems on the mound. The sophomore righthander gave up just the four hits, none coming after the third inning though. He struck out seven, while walking four.

INDIANS AT GERMANTOWN IN REGIONAL FRIDAY

The Kewaskum Indians will travel to Germantown to take on the Washington High School Warhawks in the two team's regional baseball game at 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

The game was originally scheduled to be played at the Kewaskum diamond, but has since been changed to the new location.

The two teams met in the first game of the season for both, back in May, when Germantown edged the Indians 2-1 in the first round of the Germantown Invitational.

The winner on Friday's contest will advance to the regional final against Slinger on Tuesday at Kewaskum.

Audrey Hits Ace at Camelot

Audrey Jaraczewski, Kewaskum and Anne Marie Ronge did on the same day what most people don't do in a lifetime.

Both women shot a hole-in-one while playing at the Camelot Country Club last month in Lomira.

Jaraczewski hit her shot on the 160-yard hole two with a driver. Joan Egger, and Mary Jane Esser witnessed the feat.

Ronge hit a No. 3 wood on the 120-yard 13th hole. Her shot was witnessed by Alice Wilegus and Gert Jones.

This was Jaraczewski's second ace - the first one took place while she was spending the winter months in Florida.

Errors, Lack Of Hits Lead to Indian Loss

KEWASKUM — If one watches a baseball game or even watches the highlights on TV at night, he or she is destined to hear of a pitcher pitching well enough to win, but instead being termed a 'hard-luck loser.' Such was the case for Kewaskum's Chad Cook in a game against Plymouth recently.

The sophomore lefthander scattered six hits in the game, didn't give up an earned run, yet was the unlucky recipient of three Indian errors and a lack of hitting as the Indians fell to the visiting Panthers, 3-0.

With his team playing relatively error-free baseball for most of the season, Indian head coach Tom Bartelt was almost at a loss for words on how to explain the sudden miscues.

"They weren't really tough plays or anything," Bartelt said of his team's woes. "They were three easy plays. I think it was just a lack of concentration on our part."

Making matters worse for the Indians was the fact that Chris Hein was on the mound for Plymouth. The senior righthander mastered the hosts with his hard throwing ways, striking out nine Indians, while walking just three.

The Indians began their fumbling of balls right away in the first. Plymouth's Langemark reached on an error, and after Hein singled, Budrecki reached on an error which allowed both Langemark and Hein to score, giving the Panthers a 2-0 lead.

In the third inning, Gabe Miller led off with a single and, after an out, Hein also singled. The next batter grounded to third baseman Mark Felix, who stepped on third to force out Miller, but his throw to first for the double play was wild, allowing Hein to score all the way from first.

The Indians, meanwhile, struggled offensively once again. The Indians only managed three base hits off Hein in the contest, and just two batters, Brian Leitheiser and Jason Krahn, made it to second base.

Cook "pitched well," according to Bartelt. "Both he and (Shawn) Schneider have been throwing real well." Bartelt also was impressed with Hein's performance. "He just throws hard. He might be the hardest thrower we face all season."

Schneider Pitches No-Hitter

KEWASKUM — Seeing as how major league pitchers have been throwing no-hitters at a record pace this season, Kewaskum's Shawn Schneider has probably dreamed more than once of throwing one of those gems himself.

The sophomore righthander made dreams become reality when he faced just 22 Two Rivers batters in throwing his first no-hitter, as he blanked the visiting Raiders 4-0.

Schneider, who was rocked by West Bend East in his varsity debut earlier this season, improved his conference mark to 4-1, as he struck out 11 Raiders, while walking just one in beating the Raiders for the second time this season. Schneider tossed a five-hitter in a victory at Two Rivers earlier in the season.

"He was mixing up his pitches real well," Indian head coach Tom Bartelt said of the sophomore sensation. "They didn't know what was coming at them next," he added, noting Schneider was throwing just fastballs and curveballs.

The Indians, meanwhile, had no trouble in hitting Raider starting pitcher Brian Miller. Chad Cook made sure Miller had no ideas of throwing a no-hitter as he ripped a single in the first inning. Jason Krahn then doubled, scoring Cook, and Krahn came around to score on an ensuing triple by Bruce Waechter.

Waechter was thrown out trying to score on Rich Radtke's grounder. Radtke, though, moved to third on Chris Weddig's single, and later scored on a double steal, making it 3-0 Indians.

With Schneider cruising along on the mound, Radtke added another run in the fourth. The senior shortstop doubled, moved to third on a ground out, and then scored when the next batter reached on an error.

That was more than enough offense for Schneider, who lowered his overall E.R.A. to 3.33, a very respectable number considering the first seven batters that he faced this season all scored before he could register his first out.

"He thought he could throw it by everybody at the beginning of the season," Bartelt said, explaining the improvement Schneider has made. "He's becoming a much better pitcher as the season goes on. He's much smarter than what he was."

Bartelt said that "by the third or fourth inning, a couple of guys on the bench we're talking about it (the no-hitter), so he must have been aware of it." Nonetheless, "He kept his composure and went out and did what he had to," he said, adding that this was the first no-hitter by an Indian pitcher in his tenure as head coach.

The win left the Indians with a 8-6 mark in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, 11-9 overall.

Indians Beat New Holstein 4-3

NEW HOLSTEIN — The hitting still is not all that strong, but fortunately for the Kewaskum baseball team, the pitching has been.

Shawn Schneider, coming off of a no-hitter against Two Rivers, pitched nine solid innings and benefitted from a New Holstein error in the top of the ninth to pick up his fifth victory in conference, a 4-3 nailbiter over the Huskies here, last Monday.

Schneider continues to be a bright spot for the Indians this season. The sophomore righthander struck out 10 Husky batters, while walking just three. He scattered six hits in the game, while improving his conference record to 5-1.

"Shawn did a real nice job," Indians head coach Tom Bartelt said of the young pitcher, who lowered his earned run average to a sparkling 1.37. "He's been pitching well all year."

Schneider got just enough support from his teammates on the offensive side of things. Kewaskum, struggling for hits as of late, found themselves behind early.

The hosts jumped out to a 1-0 lead in the second, using a leadoff triple by Kevin Schaefer and a passed ball by Indians catcher Chris Weddig to forge ahead.

But the Indians struck back in the top of the third, when they had three runners cross the plate. Junior Ken Krause started things with a single, and he moved to third when Schneider's bunt resulted in an error, putting runners at the corners.

Kim Marx, courtesy running for Schneider, stole second. Chad Cook then bounced into a fielder's choice, on which Krause scored, tying the game at 1-1. Jason Krahn then delivered a clutch triple, scoring both Marx and Cook, and giving the Indians a 3-1 lead.

New Holstein tied it up in the bottom of the sixth though. The Huskies leadoff batter singled, stole second and came around to score on Schaefer's single. Schaefer then stole second as well, and he came around to score on Mike Klapperich's RBI single, tying the score once again.

The game remained 3-3 into the ninth, when New Holstein committed its third error of the game, and the most crucial.

Bruce Waechter started the game-winning rally when he reached on the error, winding up at second base on the overthrow to first. After a ground out, Weddig came up and slapped a single down the rightfield line, scoring Waechter and giving his club the lead.

Schneider put the Huskies down in the bottom half of the inning, and the Indians went home victorious and still in contention for the Eastern Wisconsin Conference title.

"Weddig's really starting to hit the ball," Bartelt said of his senior catcher, who was the only Indian to have two hits. "He had been in a bit of a slump, but I think he's starting to break out a little."
