Kewaskum Chamber of Commerce to Sponsor 'King' of Kettle Kountry Kolors Kontest

ALL PROCEEDS TO BE USED TO FUND SECOND ANNUAL FESTIVAL

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring something a little bit different this year to help defray the cost of the annual Kettle Kountry Kolors festival.

Have you ever wanted to turn the tables on all those lovely beauties in the Miss America contest? Well, women's libbers... here's your big chance! The chamber is going to hold a male "beauty" contest with the winner to be crowned on Saturday, October 12, at Kettle Kountry Kolors.

Do any of you "baby boomers" (and older) remember "way back when" Kewaskum used to host "Dairy Daze"? Not the ones held just a few years ago... but the Dairy Daze that were held way, way back in the high school gymnasium.

If you are old enough to remember that, you surely will remember the "Dairy Daze Queen" contests held in conjunction with the big event. Just in case you can't remember that far back, here's how it worked. Six young ladies from the community were chosen to be "dairy princesses." Voting cannisters were then put in business places and/or high school with the name of one "princess" on each cannister.

Each vote cost a penny. The "princess" who received the most penny votes was then elected queen of Dairy Daze. Good idea, right? Well, we women's libbers have just updated that concept a wee bit, and of course, then we have to allow for inflation! The "Kettle Kountry King Kontest" will be run basically along those same principles with just a few new added twists.

First of all, there will be three age categories: 1) Teen Idol for those future "hunks" aged 13 to 19 years old; 2) Prime Timer for those present-day "hunks" aged 20 to 49, and 3) Sexy Senior for those great looking guys 50 years and over.

Nomination forms will be printed in the May 9th edition of the Kewaskum Statesman and after that, will be available at several business places throughout Kewaskum. Nominations will open May 10th and close June 20th. You will have six weeks to save your money to nominate all those fellows you feel are deserving of such an honor (and then some).

Each nomination, however, will cost you $1.00. (A small price to pay to get even with someone you love). Nominations, anonymous or otherwise, can be dropped off at the Statesman, or mailed to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 300, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

The 30 nominees receiving the most votes in EACH category (Teen Idol, Prime Timer and Sexy Senior) will be our first phase contestants. These contestants will be announced at the Chamber's Krazy Community Rummage Daze on Saturday, June 22. Time and place will be listed at a later date. (Now read carefully... here is where it gets a little complicated.)

After the contestants have been announced, cannisters will be set up in strategically selected business places in Kewaskum for each one of the candidates. (Strategically selected business means whoever has room to display the 90 cannisters required for all the candidates. Thirty contestants in each of the three categories adds up to 90 cannisters.)

A dime placed in your favorite contestant's cannister will constitute one vote. If you care to drop in $1.00, that means you just gave your candidate 10 votes. You will have approximately only two to three weeks to vote in phase one. Cut-off date and the day phase two finalists will be crowned will be announced at a later date.

In phase two, we cut the candidates down from the original 30 to the 20 highest vote getters in each category. These are the phase two finalists. Then the cannisters (with the names of the 20 contestants in each category) go back out into business places and we all get out our dimes again.

There will be a little longer time to vote in phase two. The voting will end around mid-August, when the 20 candidates will be cut down to the 10 receiving the most votes in each category. Dates and times of the announcement of the 10 finalists in each category will be listed later, and thus begins phase three of the contest.

Phase three means we will only have 10 contestants left to vote for in each category. Hopefully, we will also be able to get voting can-nisters in many more business places. Again, you will have approximately four weeks to vote for the final five contestants. These final five candidates for king will be announced sometime in Mid-September.

Then for one last time, the voting cannisters will go out into the business places. You will have until the day of Kettle Kountry Kolors to vote for the eventual winner in each category. Who will end up as No. 1 Teen Idol? Will your candidate be the No. 1 Prime Timer? Who do you know will be crowned Sexy Senior? Will there be father and son teams? What woman wouldn't spend a dime to vote for her man? What man wouldn't spend a dime to vote for someone else to be sure he, himself doesn't win!

All these questions will be answered as we get into this Krazy Kettle Kountry Kontest. We will try to keep you posted weekly in this newspaper on all that is happening and which candidates are leading the pack.

Now guys, don't go getting shy on me! Please bear in mind that all this hoopla is for a very good cause. We are planning some real great things for the Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival this year. But, unfortunately these things don't come for free. They all carry a hefty price tag. So put aside your modes-

Week's Wit

Habit is like a soft bed — easy to get into but hard to get out of.

KMS Musicians Compete at Festival

On Saturday, April 20th, the Kewaskum Middle School 6th and 7th grade bands and 8th grade choir participated in the conference Large Ensemble Music Festival at Badger and Silverbrook Middle Schools in West Bend.

The bands and choir, along with several others, were judged and rated by a panel of three music educators. The students had a positive and rewarding experience.

The sixth grade band, whose members have only been playing for eight months, received an excellent, or second rating.

The seventh grade band received a superior, or first, rating.

The eighth grade choir, while not participating in a competitive category, had a good performance and clinic with the judges.

Much hard work and preparation have gone into this event and the students can be proud of their accomplishments.

In the Service

A local resident will be "setting-sail" soon for the Navy's Recruit Training Center located in Orlando as one of the newest members of the United States Navy.

Karen Felix, daughter of David and Joyce Felix of rural West Bend, attended Kewaskum High School.

During her eight weeks of recruit training, Karen will receive classroom and hands-on instruction in seamanship, fire fighting, first aid, small arms, military justice and conduct.

Karen hopes to be able to receive advanced Navy training in the field of Cryptologic Technician, Maintenance.

Kiwanis Presented With Achievement Award

Richard Knoebel, Kewaskum's Police Chief, presents an achievement award to Kiwanis President Roy Swanson for the assistance the Kiwanis has given the department with various community programs. The Kiwanis is pleased to have helped with the programs, the latest of which is D.A.R.E., a program designed to keep kids off drugs.

You're Invited to Kewaskum Klean-Up Day On April 27

Members of the GFWC Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club encourage and invite area residents and community organizations to join in the fourth annual Kewaskum Klean Up Day beginning at 8:45 a.m. on Saturday, April 27. We will meet at Sentry Parking lot.

As our landfills are closing, disposing of our refuse is becoming more of a problem. Unfortunately, our country roads in some areas are becoming a dumping ground.

In the spring of 1990, Kewaskum Juniors were joined by members of Girl Scout Troop #268. As a result of their five hour efforts on Oak Drive, 40 bags of roadside garbage was collected. Approximately 35 bags were of materials that could be and were recycled. In addition to the 40 bags of garbage a mattress, box springs, tire and clothing were found and properly disposed of.

If you are unable to join us, why not begin in your yard, business or clean up an area near your home. Anyone interested in participating with Kewaskum Juniors may call Patty at 626-2673 or Louise at 626-4291 for more details. Our rainedate is Sunday, April 28, at 1:00 p.m. Let's make the Kewaskum area a cleaner place to live!

Local Police Department Presents 'Scared Stiff'

Officer Robert Buddenhagen showing a slide of a deadly drunk driving accident.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

A program to make high school students stop and think about the often tragic consequences of drinking and driving was presented last week at Kewaskum High School. The program called "Scared Stiff" has been presented the last two years, during the week preceding the prom.

Officer Robert Buddenhagen of the Kewaskum Police Department explained in graphic terms the hazards of the dangerous and often deadly combination. He told the students that, in one day, 360 teenagers will be seriously injured leaving permanent disabilities. Buddenhagen said an even more tragic fact is, during that same one-day period, eleven teenagers will die.

The presentation combines color slides of serious accidents with a frank lecture on the result of drinking and driving and a description of an autopsy. The students are also taken through a fictional funeral as seen by a 17 year old who died in a drunken driver accident.

Police Chief Richard Knoebel

said that Prom time is always an uneasy time for parents who worry about auto accidents and drinking and driving. "Being a rural community," said Knoebel, "it is necessary for our young people to drive to attend special events, but if this program opens the eyes of those attending and saves one life, the time and effort will be well worth it."

Knoebel said he had received good comments on Officer Buddenhagen's presentation and interest in having the program presented each year.

MEMORIAL

Safe Jobs. It's Our Right.

Workers have a right to a safe job.

Federal law says they do.

But each day toxic substances, explosions and other hazards injure more than 20,000 workers. Each year, more than 100,000 Americans die from job related injuries and diseases.

Twenty years after the passage of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, the right to a safe job is still a promise, not a reality.

On April 28, the unions of the AFL-CIO observe Workers Memorial Day to remember those who have suffered and died and to renew the fight for a safe workplace. This year on Workers Memorial Day the fight for a safe workplace means a fight for a stronger OSHA law.

We've won the "right to know" about hazards in the workplace. Now we need the "right to act" and strong safety committees to give workers a real voice in safety and health. We want the "right to refuse" dangerous work that threatens our lives.

Students Test Their Knowledge at Skills Olympics

Nineteen high schools competed in Skills Olympics held at the Fond du Lac campus of Moraine Park Technical College March 22.

A total of 847 students participated in the 13th annual event's 44 vocational skills contests, according to Bob Kneuppel, Moraine Park's supervisor/coordinator for recruitment/placement.

Participating high schools were Beaver Dam, Campbellsport, Chilton, Dodgeand, Fall River, Fond du Lac Goodrich, Grafton, Hartford, Kewaskum, Laconia, Lomira, Mayville, North Fond du Lac, Horace Mann, Oakfield, Slinger, Waupun, West Bend East and West Bend West.

Competition winners in categories with 10 or more participants received $200 scholarships from the Moraine Park Foundation. This year, 41 school winners received framed certificates. Honorable mention winners also received certificates.

"Skills Olympics gives high school students in vocational education courses a chance to compete, and test the skills that they've learned," Kneuppel said.

Some competitions required demonstrations of proficiency, while others asked for both. One of the events is unique.

Each of the more popular competitions was Auto Mechanics which had about double the number of competitors as last year, Kneuppel said. Four companies donated prizes for this competition - Snap-on Tools Corp., Racine; Anders Automotive, Blakely Automotive and NAPA Automotive Sales, all of Fond du Lac.

Three Beaver Dam students swept the top prizes in the competition. Chad LeBeau took first place, a $200 scholarship, tools and other prizes totaling $135. Dave Affeldt took second place and prizes totalling $70. Brad Franke was third and won prizes valued at $55.

There were five new competitions this year. Kneuppel pointed out - computer typing 2, cosmetology/nail art, long hair evening design, color screen printing and a group discussion contest.

The color screen printing competition was conducted by Dan Wangerin, the instructor for Moraine Park's industrial screen printing program which starts classes this fall.

There were eight entrants in this first year of the display competition. "I'm satisfied just being on board," Wangerin said. He pointed out that 21 of the 24 school districts with Moraine Park's service area teach screen printing either through their art or technology education departments. "Screen printing lends itself to two different disciplines - mechanical and fine art. I'm looking to see that display twice as big next year," Wangerin said.

Tim Schulteis of Slinger High School won the event with his four-color design on a sweat-shirt.

Other competition champions from this area (* designated $200 scholarship recipient):

Agriculture/Natural Resources - Dairy Products - Ken Scannel*, Campbellsport, Farm Crops - Brian Butzlaff*, Kewaskum.

Business - Typing 1 - Chris Popovich*, Campbellsport, Typing 2 - Electronic Typewriter - Diane Kuenzi*, Campbellsport.

May Baskets

Did you ever hang a May Basket? "What is a May Basket," you might ask. I used to call my husband one, because he was born on the first of May.

Seriously, though, they were little baskets made of construction paper, left over wallpaper or even newspapers. When I was a child in grade school (many years ago) we would make them this time of year, and when May Day arrived, we would fill them with precious treats of penny candy, a few of Mom's cookies, and some of the early Spring flowers already blooming in woody areas.

They were deftly folded, so as to form little pointy feet on the bottom, or a flat surface with a handle applied. Then we would stealthily approach our friend's house, and hang it on the door knob, and run away shouting: "May Basket for so and so." It was lots of fun!

I'll bet the children of today would enjoy reviving their custom of long ago. Alas, it has gone down the drain with Valentine boxes, memorizing poetry, adding up a column of figures without the use of a calculator, and might I add the McGuffey reader.

God bless the children of today. They are creating their own memories.

Happy Spring!

A business meeting will follow and then the service. The theme is "Journey Toward Jubilee."

May Fellowship Day is a worship event sponsored annually by Church Women United (CWU) that brings women of faith together from many diverse Christian denominations to build and strengthen bonds of community within an ecumenical environment. This year's May Fellowship Day experience, entitled "Journey Toward Jubilee" reclaims Church Women United's heritage in this year of its 50th anniversary and heralds CWU's accomplishments as a major player in shaping the churches' role within the Civil Rights Movement, the Peace Movement and the Women's Movement, since its founding in 1941.

May Fellowship Day is one of the major events to mark the celebration of CWU's Jubilee Year. The service was written by Sharon Rezac Andersen, Grand Forks, North Dakota, with the assistance of an ecumenical group of women from the Houston, Texas Church Women United unit. The author drew on her own experience as well as the rich legacy of the many women who journeyed for half a century with Church Women United Living out their faith in action and their commitment to the continuous struggle for peace with justice, human rights and Christian unity.

May Fellowship Day '91 is one of three ecumenical days of celebration sponsored by CWU, the others being World Day of Prayer, the first Friday in March and World Community Day, the first Friday in November. CHURCH WOMEN UNITED (CWU) is the ecumenical movement that brings Protestant, Roman Catholic, Orthodox and other Christian women together into one community of prayer, advocacy and service. It represents a broad spectrum of religious tradition, race, age, economic status and ethnic background and functions through a national unit, 52 state units (including greater Washington, DC and Puerto Rico) and 1,750 local units throughout the U.S. Unified by a common faith in Christ, the women of Church Women United work for the elimination of poverty of women and children and issues of peace with justice.

St. Lucas Student Places Fourth In State Geography Bee

Jim Stern, fourth in State Geography Bee

St. Lucas champion and took a written test to become one of the top 100 of the more than 1500 school winners in our state.

At the state bee these 100 were divided into five groups of 20 contestants for head to head competition in the preliminary round. The top two of each group would advance to the final round. Jim answered 10 out of 11 questions correctly and became one of the top two in his group to advance to the finals.

The 10 finalists were brought together in the auditorium for the final round of questions on diverse areas of geography such as: culture, economics, current events, location, physical, etc. In the finals Jim was able to go through eight rounds before being eliminated with two misses for fourth place.

The eventual winner was an eighth grade boy from Green Bay. The winner won $100 and an all-expense paid trip (along with his teacher) to Washington D.C., May 21-24, for the National Finals against the other state winners.

For Jim, it was quite an accomplishment and he still has one more year of eligible competition left!

Jim Stern, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Stern of Fredonia, placed fourth in the state geography bee held at North High School in Oshkosh on Friday, April 5th. This is the second consecutive year that Jim has advanced to the state bee.

This advancement came after St. Lucas participated in the third annual National Geography Bee for students in grades 4-8. Nearly 34,000 schools in the country (more than 1,500 Wisconsin schools) participated in this event. Jim, a seventh grader, became the

Kanopy Dance Visits Kewaskum Schools

Julia and Kristi demonstrate a duet "shape."

Students from Kewaskum, Wayne and Farmington Elementary Schools were in for an artistic treat on Wednesday, April 10th, as they participated in a modern dance assembly with four members of the KANOPY DANCE Theater Group from Madison.

Speaking for the group, Kristi explained the similarities of dance to other athletic sports while Ron, Mike and Danny warmed up with stretches and basic moves. She continued by showing dance equipment and explaining the differences between types of dance.

The group began with "shapes": solo, duet and trio, then asking for audience participation using positions "not found in ordinary day-to-day life." Students also participated in a demonstration of "lifts" and of "phrases" of movement which, like sentences, have a beginning, an end, and tell you something in a special way.

KANOPY DANCE also performed a number including the use of sign language. Students participated in a sitting-down dance and enjoyed the Question-Answer period that followed. Thanks go to Mr. Gary Gerhartz for arranging the performances and to the three PTO groups for funding.

Donations to DARE Help Schools

Thanks to a $300 donation from Lutheran Brotherhood Securities Corporation and a $175 donation from Charter Security Systems, Inc. to the Washington County Sheriff's Department DARE Program, schools will receive supplies specifically for the program.

The $175 was designated for use to purchase D.A.R.E. flags for the five schools it is being taught in this semester. These schools include St. Kilian School, Hartford; St. Peters School, Slinger; St. John's Lutheran School, Newburg; Friess Lake School, Hubertus; and St. Hubert's School, Hubertus. The donation was made at the Washington County Sheriff's Department with David St. Louis, owner of Charter Security Systems, Inc., presenting a check to Deputy Brian Bausch, the D.A.R.E. officer for the county.

The $300 donation will be used to purchase supplies for D.A.R.E. students who are at schools that did not receive the Department of Public Instruction D.A.R.E. Grant this year. The donation was made at the Washington County Sheriff's Department with Paul E. Benson, District Representative, and Carl Kirchner, representing Lutheran Brotherhood presenting the check to Deputy Brian Bausch, the D.A.R.E. officer for the department.

D.A.R.E. is the largest and most successful drug education program in the U.S. today. In Washington County, D.A.R.E. is a partnership between the Sheriff's Department, ten school districts and a private sector. Donations such as this are crucial to D.A.R.E.'s continued operations in the community.

D.A.R.E. is a nationally acclaimed program in which specially trained veteran police officers are assigned to classroom beats (when they teach a 17 week anti-drug core curriculum to elementary students). D.A.R.E. teaches the students concrete ways to refuse pressure to try drugs and alcohol and the life skills necessary to stay drug-free.

The D.A.R.E. Program was established in 1983. Since then, law enforcement agencies around the country have joined the crusade. The program has now expanded into more than 1,000 classrooms in 49 states, U.S. Department of Defense dependent schools overseas, and schools in Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

Students Broaden Horizons On Mexican Adventure

Kewaskum High School students pose for a group shot during their Mexican adventures. Included in the tour was Judi Alvarado, Sara Beck, April Bruckert, Kim Callahan, Nicole Cayner, Kelly Enright, Wendy Fidelel, Pam Gauger, Tammy Gundrum, Stacey Heberer, Jackie Hintz, Greg Holl, Jenny Kissinger, Kelly Korth, Carrie Krause, Jovan Kreuser, Thomas Kuehn, Melissa LeRoy, Aaron Rettler, Tracy Ruplinger, Angela Schiller, Jenny Schinker, Pam Schlosser, Chris Schmidt, Nikki Schug, Jenny Schwan, Tina Schwartz, Lynn Seil, Joe Steir, Kurt Thorn, Andrea Waala, Deanna Wagner, Chris Wunsch and Julie Yahr. Adult tourists who accompanied the group included Ann Enright, Sue Beherer, Jo Ann Hintz, Marjorie Lloyd and Susan Waala. Chaperones were Patricia Alvarado, Scott Alvarado, Laura Severson-Civiel and Len Soller.

After a year of raising money, getting personal documents, and buying just the right outfits, 34 students, five local adults, and 4 chaperones set out for Mexico.

On Wednesday, March 27, 1991 a bus delivered all 43 people to O'Hare Airport, only to be delayed for nearly six hours. Tornadoes in Wisconsin, Illinois and Ohio were the culprits. Finally, at 11:55 p.m. the Kewaskum group took off and arrived in Mexico City at dawn.

By the time they got settled into their five star hotel, it was time for breakfast and the first tour. Some had time for a nap but others took a swim instead.

The first day included a tour of the federal government buildings, the Shrine of Guadalupe, and the ancient Indian Pyramids of Teotihuacan. Many students climbed all the way to the top of this seven story high structure.

On Friday they continued their tour of Mexico City by taking a subway to the expansive park of Mexico City. It includes an old castle, monuments, marvelous vistas and hundreds of vendors.

Adjacent to the park is the Museum of Anthropology, one of the best of its kind in the world. Here, they viewed artifacts thousands of years old.

After several sessions of shopping and touring, they left Mexico City Saturday morning and stopped at the University of Mexico, the site of the 1968 Olympics. This was followed by an hour ride on a gondola at the floating gardens of Xochimilco. Each girl was given a three rose corsage, and everyone was given lunch to eat as they got on the boat. It was a very charming ride, pleasantly interrupted by music from passing gondolas and various vendors, also from passing boats.

This was followed by a long bus ride up, down, and around the mountains. But Taxco was worth it. Taxco is the silver capital of Mexico. While there, the students toured a mine, bargained for silver jewelry, climbed up the narrow winding streets to the church on Easter morning and rode a cable train. In fact, that is how they got up to the hotel.

The main part of Taxco is about 8,000 ft. above sea level, and the hotel is 10,000 feet. The bus left them at the tram depot and they went up four by four, just like skiers.

The view from the hotel was beautiful, especially after dark, and at sunrise. The outdoor pool was enjoyed also.

After breakfast and church services on Easter, the group happily made the last leg of the bus trip to Acapulco. Including lunch stops, it was a five hour

Three Attend District Woman's Club Convention

Three members of the GFWC Kewaskum Woman's Club were in attendance at the 75th Annual Convention of the GFWC Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs Sixth District. The convention which was hosted by the GFWC Hartford Junior Woman's Club, was held at the Hartford Country Club on Tuesday, April 9, 1991.

Dorothy Maser, Plymouth, is president of the GFWC/WFWC Sixth District, which is comprised of 27 Woman's Clubs and Junior Woman's Clubs in six counties.

Included in the activities for the day were presentation of awards, business meeting, viewing of exhibits, announcement of scholarship winners, Memorial Service for clubwomen who passed away during the previous year, and the 75th Anniversary celebration.

On the program for the day were Marie Schmelzle, M.A. and Rick Schlereth. Marie Schmelzle is a therapist with the Lutheran Social Services and she discussed some of her experiences. Rick Schlereth was one of the last years Conservation Scholarship winners and talked about his adventures on the 125' Schooner in the Atlantic trip.

The next two and a half days were filled with sun, water, more sun and more water. In between, they went on a three hour cruise touring the two bays of Acapulco, they watched the cliffs divers, ate at the Hard Rock Cafe of Acapulco, and shopped.

It was seven fun filled days. The students were a credit to Kewaskum, and to themselves. Everyone came home with a broader outlook, new knowledge, a deeper tan, and a refreshed mind.

Ocean and his unbelievable underwater experiences as he studied the Marine Ecology of the Florida Keys.

Three Kewaskum Woman's Club members, Joan Albers, Kathy Paul and Judy Harlow, attended the convention. In the absence of Woman's Club President Jeanne Goeden, Joan Albers received the certificates of awards in the following categories:

1. 100 years of GFWC-WFWC Sixth District Centennial Celebration;
2. Arts Department - Literature/Drama Division;
3. Fund Raising.

Nature Centers Host Family Theater About the Earth

Everything that lives on Earth — amoeba, whale, human being, or redwood tree — needs four things to stay alive: three circles and one starburst.

That's the message of "Circles and Starbursts," the family theater performance that will be presented on Saturday, May 4 at 7 p.m. at the University School Auditorium, 2100 W. Fairy Chasm Rd., in Milwaukee.

In an upbeat style that packs juggling, magic tricks, humor, improvisational theater, and pantomime into a fast-moving one hour show, educator Mike Weilbacher puts the environment on stage in a totally unique way. During the show, he juggles planet earth, turns the audience into rainstorms, herds of cows, seedlings, automobiles, and more.

All of this serves to introduce young audiences to environmental concerns in a positive, caring way. His audiences learn while laughing; the division between educating and entertaining vanishes.

So what are the "circles and starbursts?"

"It's a secret," says Weilbacher from his home base in Philadelphia. "Each is specially discovered during the show. But the 'circles' refer to the cycles that keep us alive, and the 'starburst' is our ultimate source of energy."

"Circles and Starbursts" has been performed for hundreds of thousands throughout North America. Riveredge Nature Center and Schlitz Audubon Center are co-sponsors of Weilbacher's visit to the Milwaukee area. In addition to performing his theater at schools, nature centers, and museums, Weilbacher hosts an adult environmental radio news magazine on public radio in Philadelphia called "Earth Talk." Weilbacher was a primary organizer of Earth Day 1990 in Philadelphia.

The show is designed for children of all ages and their adult companions. Tickets are $5 for adults; $2.50 for children, and are available at Schlitz Audubon Center, 1111 E. Brown Deer Rd. in Bayside, or Riveredge Nature Center, 4458 W. Hawthorne Dr. in Newburg, or by calling Schlitz Audubon Center at 352-2880 or Riveredge at 375-2715. A limited number of seats will be available at the door for $5.50 and $3.

Cedar Ridge Plans Spring Festival

The Cedar Ridge Resident Council has announced plans for the fourth annual Cedar Ridge Spring Anniversary Festival. The event will be held Saturday, May 18 from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The general public is cordially invited.

The festival features a sumptuous picnic luncheon. Festival goers are invited to enjoy live music, "bug" rides, carriage rides, craft sale, white elephant resale shop, bake sale and a unique "Parade of Tables."

The festival marks the opening of the Cedar Ridge Retirement Apartment Campus in 1986. For a fun-filled day, this festival has something for everyone.

Ten Free Shade Trees Available From Arbor Day Foundation

Ten free shade trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during April 1991.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The ten shade trees are Red Oak, Weeping Willow, Sugar Maple, Green Ash, Thornless Honeylocust, Pin Oak, River Birch, Tuliptree, Silver Maple, and Red Maple.

"These trees were selected to provide shade and beauty and a variety of forms, leaf shapes, and fall colors," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting in April or May with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to SHADE TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by April 30, 1991.

It was the young bride's first attempt to baking and when her husband came home he saw a very long pie on the table. "Whatever is that?" he asked. "I couldn't get any shorter rhubarb," she replied.

Rick Schlereth was one of the last years Conservation Scholarship winners and talked about his adventures on the 125' Schooner in the Atlantic trip.

The next two and a half days were filled with sun, water, more sun and more water. In between, they went on a three hour cruise touring the two bays of Acapulco, they watched the cliffs divers, ate at the Hard Rock Cafe of Acapulco, and shopped.

It was seven fun filled days. The students were a credit to Kewaskum, and to themselves. Everyone came home with a broader outlook, new knowledge, a deeper tan, and a refreshed mind.

Nature Centers Host Family Theater About the Earth

Everything that lives on Earth — amoeba, whale, human being, or redwood tree — needs four things to stay alive: three circles and one starburst.

That's the message of "Circles and Starbursts," the family theater performance that will be presented on Saturday, May 4 at 7 p.m. at the University School Auditorium, 2100 W. Fairy Chasm Rd., in Milwaukee.

In an upbeat style that packs juggling, magic tricks, humor, improvisational theater, and pantomime into a fast-moving one hour show, educator Mike Weilbacher puts the environment on stage in a totally unique way. During the show, he juggles planet earth, turns the audience into rainstorms, herds of cows, seedlings, automobiles, and more.

All of this serves to introduce young audiences to environmental concerns in a positive, caring way. His audiences learn while laughing; the division between educating and entertaining vanishes.

So what are the "circles and starbursts?"

"It's a secret," says Weilbacher from his home base in Philadelphia. "Each is specially discovered during the show. But the 'circles' refer to the cycles that keep us alive, and the 'starburst' is our ultimate source of energy."

"Circles and Starbursts" has been performed for hundreds of thousands throughout North America. Riveredge Nature Center and Schlitz Audubon Center are co-sponsors of Weilbacher's visit to the Milwaukee area. In addition to performing his theater at schools, nature centers, and museums, Weilbacher hosts an adult environmental radio news magazine on public radio in Philadelphia called "Earth Talk." Weilbacher was a primary organizer of Earth Day 1990 in Philadelphia.

The show is designed for children of all ages and their adult companions. Tickets are $5 for adults; $2.50 for children, and are available at Schlitz Audubon Center, 1111 E. Brown Deer Rd. in Bayside, or Riveredge Nature Center, 4458 W. Hawthorne Dr. in Newburg, or by calling Schlitz Audubon Center at 352-2880 or Riveredge at 375-2715. A limited number of seats will be available at the door for $5.50 and $3.

Ten Free Shade Trees Available From Arbor Day Foundation

"These trees were selected to provide shade and beauty and a variety of forms, leaf shapes, and fall colors," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting in April or May with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10

KMS Folk Fair '91' Draws a Full House

Sixth grade students performed the ribbon dance before a full house at this year's KMS Folk Fair.

By GERRY MUELLER
Statesman Staff Writer

The efforts of the Middle School's sixth grade classes was well rewarded by a large attendance of parents and friends which filled the gym bleachers for the presentation of Folk Fair 1991.

The fair included a program of ethnic dances and narrations by the students. Following the program, guests were invited to travel 'Around the World' by browsing among the many booths depicting the wide and varied cultures of countries all over the world.

Many displays offered visitors an opportunity to sample foods representative of the country's culture and traditions.

As with past fairs, the students and teachers can be very proud of their efforts. Also some of the booths at this year's event displayed an extra effort by the students in gathering materials to present a thorough and complete picture of their chosen country.

The Romans built more than 50,000 miles of road in their empire. Some are still in use today. They are distinctive in that they run in almost straight lines, passing over hills instead of cutting around them.

Helping Your Child Achieve In School Is Goal of New Weekly Column

A new column about helping our children achieve in school, including parenting tips, is being started this week in the Kewaskum Statesman. Depending on space availability, the column will be run every week. The column is authored by Dr. Sylvia Rimm, a Watertown psychologist, who is well known by teachers and parents statewide.

Dr. Sylvia B. Rimm is a psychologist who specializes in working with capable children who are not performing to their abilities in school. She directs Family Achievement Clinic with four offices in Wisconsin. She is author and researcher of several internationally validated creativity instruments, including GIFT, GIFFI and PRIDE and three inventories for the identification of underachievement patterns (AIM, AIM-TO and GAIM).

Her first book, "Education of the Gifted and Talented," was co-authored with Gary A. Davis. Her other books are "Underachievement Syndrome: Causes and Cures," "How to Parent So Children Will Learn," "Gifted Kids Have Feelings Too," and "Exploring Feelings." She speaks and publishes nationally on family and school approaches to working with underachieving children.

Dr. Rimm is a parent of four children, has been a teacher in the classroom and is regularly on call-in radio and TV shows where she answers parenting and education questions.

Dr. Rimm's column, which will have the title, "Helping Your Child Achieve in School," will be in the format of questions and answers. Parents and other interested residents are asked to direct questions to Rimm at the address found at the end of most of her columns.

Dr. Rimm's first column appears below:

I have heard that you talk about the Underachievement Syndrome. Could you explain what that is?

Dad - I Wonder If I Have An Underachiever

Dear Dad — Perhaps You Do,

Unfinished work, disorganization, excuses about forgotten assignments and homework, a disinterest in most academic subjects and the description of school as boring or useless are the initial indicators of Underachievement Syndrome. Other characteristics, such as poor study skills, uneven abilities, high creativity, lack of perseverance, perfectionism and escapes to books, television or video games may also be typical of underachieving children. Underachieving children may have average, above-average and even gifted abilities, but are not working to these abilities in school.

Underlying the surface characteristics which these children exhibit are two main characteristics. First, underachievers have not regularly experienced the relationship between their own personal efforts and educational outcomes. Second, they are so highly competitive that they don't dare take the risk of making effort for fear they will fail to meet their own high expectations.

Underachieving children often have expansive but unrealistic dreams, but have not learned the discipline or goal setting required to arrive at those dreams. It is easier for them to make protective excuses than to risk carrying out the activities that would be necessary for fulfilling more realistic goals.

Children with Underachievement Syndrome have a great many bad habits which they have developed to protect their fragile self-concepts. They unconsciously manipulate the adults in their lives, both parents and teachers, in ways that keep them feeling safe in the short run, but plunge them deeper and deeper into underachievement. During the time when they should be benefiting from the learning experiences of school, they direct their energies at avoiding learning. They manage to get parents and teachers to provide more help than they actually need (dependent underachievers) or they try to dominate adults by arguing, debating and pushing limits (dominant underachievers). Adults who respond intuitively to underachievers will find that they only reinforce those harmful patterns. Counter-intuitive responses are actually more helpful.

My book, Underachievement Syndrome: Causes and Cures, further explains how children fall into these underachievement traps and how parents and teachers can reverse the problems.

A FLOWER FOR THE LIVING

I would rather have a little rose from the garden of a friend,

Than flowers strewn 'round my casket when my days on earth must end.

I would rather have a living smile from one I know is true, Than tears shed 'round my casket when this world I bid adieu.

Bring me all the flowers today whether pink or white or red,

I would rather have one blossom now than a truckload when I'm dead.

Mrs. J. P. Schlaefer of Campbellsport, died in Fond du Lac Sunday morning. She had been ill for the past eight weeks. Mrs. Schlaefer, who was 33 years old, was formerly Rose Thill. Besides her husband, she leaves four children, Marcella, Sylvester, Eleanore and Josephine.

Rev. July of Campbellsport christened the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kohn Saturday. He received the name Michael Andrew. Mr. and Mrs. A. Beisbier of St. Kilian acted as sponsors.

With the disappearance of the frost from the ground the past week, it is now up to the farmers to get the roads into good shape. If we want to have fairly good roads for the summer, we must begin to prepare them now. We cannot suggest a more practical method than to take the old fashioned road drag and go over them while they are soft. This will fill in the ruts and pitch holes allowing them to get hard before the heavy summer traffic begins. A man with a team of horses and a split road drag can do more good by spending one day on the road in the spring than seven days in the summer months after the roads are all hardened.

Free Investment Counseling Seminar Planned by MPTC

A free seminar designed to help you find a safe method of investing your money will be held at the West Bend campus of Moraine Park Technical College Monday, April 29.

Sponsored by Moraine Park's Reentry Women/Women in Transition Project, this "Investing for Your Future" seminar will focus on methods to invest money obtained through a property settlement, sale of property, insurance payment or settlement or life savings.

The Reentry Women/Women in Transition Project provides free classes to assist women who must return to school or work because of life changes.

"This is primarily an informational seminar for displaced homemakers," said Barbara Schall, project specialist. "The original idea came from past participants of Women in Transition. Several of them had questions on how best to invest their money. This seminar was developed in response to that."

Brian Thompson, an investment counselor at Blunt, Ellis & Loewi, will conduct the seminar from 7-9 p.m. in room N119 of the West Bend campus of Moraine Park, 2151 N. Main St.

For more information on the free "Investing for Your Future" seminar, call Barbara Schall, project specialist, 334-3413, ext. 31.

Letters to the Editor

April 9, 1991

Dear Editor:

Washington County schools and businesses recently held the second very successful, Focus on Careers. This joint business/education activity is designed to assist our young people in career decision making and to promote careers available locally. Approximately 3,000 students from public and private schools throughout the county participated!

We would like to thank the many businesses and organizations that contributed to the overwhelming success of this event.

First of all we need to thank 180 business representatives who volunteered their time, a most valued resource, to be available for the students. Many businesses allowed one or more staff to participate. Without their commitment and cooperation this event could not take place. Financial support provided by Wisconsin Electric Power Co., Gehls, West Bend Co., Serigraph, CDM, Menasha Color, Regal Ware, Slinger Business Association, Choices/Friends of Abused Families, and Washington County Personnel, covered printing, postage and equipment rental costs and is greatly appreciated. Thanks also to F/D Publishing, NOVA Services, The Signery, MPTC for assistance, and UWWC for use of their facility.

As we enter the 1990's our greatest challenge is to maintain and enhance the quality, skills, and availability of our workforce. The willingness of our business community to invest in the career development of our future workforce helps Washington County meet this challenge. Thank you for your support and cooperation.

To the Editor:

Recently, Phyllis Cook resigned from the Board of Directors of Washington County Humane Society. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Phyllis for her many years of service to the animals and community of Washington County. We would like to ask cooperation from Wash. Co. residents in making Phyllis's retirement a pleasant one.

For many years, Phyllis Cook was very closely identified with Washington County Humane Society. Many people knew her by sight, and it was not unusual for strangers to stop her and discuss Humane Society Issues. Although she has not been involved with the day to day running of the shelter since she retired as manager over a year ago, people continued to call her, stop her in stores and other places, to discuss the Humane Society. She had no objection to this; since she was still a board member she did her best to bring the concern and comments to the attention of the Board.

Since Phyllis's recent resignation from the W.C.H.S. Board she is no longer involved with the current decisions. While she is certainly happy to talk to people who recognize her and wish to say hell-o, she is no longer able to bring their concerns or questions to the W.C.H.S. board.

Retiring from an organization that she devoted herself to entirely has been difficult for Phyllis. Her concern and love of animals will always be uppermost in her life but now she will be able to pursue other activities in a more relaxed fashion (hopefully). Please respect her retirement and bring your concerns about W.C.H.S. directly to W.C.H.S.

Thank You,

Dear Editor,

Today people are so FAT conscious and the first thing they eliminate is milk. Maybe because they don't understand its value. Whole milk - most people think is just that, whole fat, when in reality its 96.75 percent fat-free. Whole milk is 3.25 percent fat- very similiar to skim milk, 1 and 2 percent milk.

It's time that we as dairy farmers start advertising the advantages of whole milk since the difference from 1 percent to 3.25 percent fat milk is very small.

Whole milk tastes richer, fuller and leaves you feeling like you drank something besides water.

It doesn't cost any more.

If you're so fat minded, find a way of eliminating fat in your diet by using less fast foods.

Whole milk is the most complete food you can buy on today's market. It is the closest natural food next to mother's milk.

Most people do realize that farmers today are in bad shape. We've lost over 1/3 of our income or $3 per 100 lbs. of milk daily. The government says there is a surplus - yet 1 out of 8 children, in our own country, are starving to death.

If more people would return to drinking whole milk, the dairy surplus would be eliminated and the few dairy farmers left would be able to survive.

Letter to the Editor:

Washington County is finalizing its plans to construct a new building for the Department of Social Services. In the meantime, a small cabal of West Bend business people are putting the finishing touches on plans of its own. If their threats can be believed, we can expect an extensive lobbying campaign to fight the project, complete with newspaper advertisements.

I know some of the persons involved, and I am disappointed with their antics. Yes, antics. You see, when a group examines an issue from the start, looks at all sides of the question, keeps an open mind, and forms a conclusion that will benefit all of the people who are concerned, then you have honest, forthright involvement. But when a group ignores seven years of evaluation and over two years of intensive planning, bases its conclusions on a few weeks of "research," rejects the opinions of those who have been closely involved in the issue, and has some special interests to satisfy, then we have "antics."

The county considered purchasing the West Bend Mutual Insurance Building, but concluded that although the immediate costs were low, the long term costs were not justified. Officials also rejected a scheme whereby the county would purchase vacant buildings. This plan would have cost the taxpayers in two ways. The costs of renovating would be high, and the structures would be removed from the tax rolls. It also sounds like a plan to use residential taxpayers to bail out commercial property owners. Now the business people are arguing that the proposed building is "too big," that the architects are wrong, the department heads are wrong, the county board is wrong. We should reject years of study and place our faith in these captains of industry.

If anyone is tempted to accept their "we're successful businessmen and we know best" routine, it would be wise to recall their previous display of "expertise." In the 1970's, the county announced its intentions to construct a new jail and build additional office space in the courthouse. Some "concerned members of the business community" decided that they knew better than all of the county supervisors, department heads, and architects. They received shrill support from the then owners of the West Bend News. The new jail would be a "Taj Mahal," the newspaper editorialized. "The courthouse doesn't need that much office space," the big boys said. Sound familiar? So, the jail was built at half its proposed size, and the courthouse addition was scaled back, despite clear evidence that the original plan was justified.

What was the result? For the courthouse, it meant more renovation about two years later, followed by an addition which has still not taken care of the space needs. And only eleven years after it opened, the county jail is full. All of these deficiencies will be costly to correct in the future. Some of the same people who were yammering then about "wasteful county government" are trying to convince you of the same thing today. Don't fall for it again!

Who should make these decisions? We can put our faith in an elected body, made up of people who are accountable to us for their decisions. Or, we can trust in a group that is accountable to no one, and who have their own interests in mind.

Dear Friends,

I would like to offer a heartfelt THANK YOU to those who wrote to me or asked my parents about my welfare while I was deployed in support of Operation Desert Shield/Storm.

Before my dad busts my bubble any further let me be the first to admit that our operational support role in the Red Sea did not subject us to any direct danger.

Many rumors that I spent a great deal of time in the lounge at Hurghada Sheraton or a place called 'Abduls House of Wine, Women and Song' should be disregarded if they can be traced to my father.

Again, I would like to thank the Kewaskum's Women's Club and all those that showed your support and concern.

DIGGERS HOTLINE

MILWAUKEE, WI — The return of the warm weather serves as an indication for homeowners to start a variety of outdoor projects, many of which include excavation.

It is appropriate then, that Gov. Tommy G. Thompson has declared the week of April 21-27 as "Diggers Hotline Week." In honor of the week, the governor has issued a proclamation to Diggers Hotline as the state's notification system for excavation.

Diggers Hotline reminds homeowners, weekend gardeners and anyone else planning digging projects that buried and overhead lines can pose dangers if struck or damaged.

In order to ensure the safety of excavation projects performed around the yard, homeowners are urged to contact Diggers Hotline, toll-free at 1-800-242-8511 before they begin their work.

State law requires that anyone who performs excavation — whether commercial or private — must notify area facility owners at least three working days in advance of their planned starting date. This provides member companies the opportunity to arrive at the work site and inspect it for the existence of buried electric, gas, telephone or cable TV lines.

"Notifying Diggers Hotline of your intent to dig in your yard is essential to the safety of your work," said Diggers Hotline President Russ Kopidlansky. "By calling Diggers Hotline, you can notify a number of facility owners with just one call."

Kopidlansky, a gas engineering supervisor at Wisconsin Public Service, warns homeowners that hand shovels, picks, post-hole diggers, tillers and other equipment available can cause damage to buried lines. "It's not just the heavy equipment used by professional contractors that can scratch or puncture a line. Hand tools and smaller power tools can also have a severe impact on a buried facility."

When calling Diggers Hotline, homeowners will be asked number of questions about the location and type of work being planned. They will then be given a legal start date, which will be three working days from the time of the call. "That means if you want to begin working on Saturday, you need to call Diggers Hotline at least by Tuesday to allow for the three working days," he said.

Another tip: "Because we are entering the peak of the excavation season, it is helpful if homeowners can call during the afternoons. That way, they will have an easy time getting through to the call center," Kopidlansky said.

MADISON, WI — Attention will be focused on the abundant and valuable forest resources of Wisconsin during Forest Appreciation Week, Gov. Tommy Thompson noted that forests are a significant natural resource to the citizens of Wisconsin.

"Forests provide jobs and commodities, purify our air and water, stabilize the soil, and create wildlife habitat," Gov. Thompson said. "Trees also add beauty to our urban surroundings, create recreational settings, modify environmental pressures and enrich our lives."

He added that timber harvesting and tree planting are essential elements in good land stewardship, and urged all citizens to develop a better understanding of multiple-use of one of Wisconsin's richest treasures, its forest resources.

* Arbor Day originated and was first observed in Nebraska in 1872. By the turn of the century the holiday was well established and is now celebrated in all 50 states. According to the proclamation issued by Gov. Thompson proclaiming April 26, 1991 as Arbor Day in Wisconsin, 1991 marks the 109th year of Arbor Day celebrations by Wisconsin school children.

* The DNR is again offering free tree seedlings from the state nurseries to Wisconsin 4th grade students for their Arbor Day celebrations. The department is also distributing a packet of materials to 4th grade teachers who had requested the seedlings for their students.

* An annual highlight of Arbor Day is a ceremony at the Governor's Executive Residence honoring the 12 winners of the 4th grade essay contest sponsored by DNR. This will begin at 11 a.m. on April 26.

* Seven Wisconsin communities will also be receiving awards during this ceremony at the Governor's Executive Residence. Cedarburg, Clintonville, Delavan, Elm Grove, Menomonie, Monona and Seymour have been named "Tree City USA" through a program administered by the National Arbor Day Foundation in cooperation with the U.S. Forest Service and the National Association of State Foresters.

These seven communities join 40 other Wisconsin communities that are already active participants in the program. Communities must meet four standards to achieve the "Tree City USA" designation. They must have a city forestry department or a citizen's board to develop and administer a community tree management program and they must have an ordinance to direct the work of this board or department. The community must spend at least $2 per capita for its forestry program and they must hold an annual Arbor Day observation.

* Another highlight of Wisconsin's 1991 Arbor Day is a memorial tree planting at the MacKenzie Environmental Center, Poyette on April 26 at 3 p.m. to celebrate the life of Leo Nickasch. ## DATCP Secretary Leads First Cheese Trade Mission to Asia

Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) Secretary Alan T. Tracy will lead the Midwest's first cheese trade mission to Japan, Taiwan, and Hong Kong. This mission, sponsored by the Mid-America International Agri-Trade Council (MIATCO), will promote cheese products from the Midwest.

Tracy, experienced in international trade policies and negotiations, departs on April 6 with representatives of four major cheese suppliers: Welcome Dairy, Inc., Colby, Wis.; Land O' Lakes, Inc., Minneapolis; S & R Cheese Corp./Dudley Food Sales, Plymouth, Wis.; and Le Vay Trading Co. Inc./Mid-America Farms, Springfield, Mo.

"Developing international markets for Midwest cheese and dairy products will reduce surpluses and lead to growth in the region's dairy economy," says Tracy. "This cheese mission will bring together Asian cheese importers, brokers and distributors interested in buying quality U.S. cheeses," he adds.

Japan is fast becoming one of the world's largest cheese importing countries, according to MIATCO's 1990 Asian Cheese Market Research Report.

During the past four years, Taiwan's cheese imports have grown 300 percent. In 1989, the United States was the third largest cheese supplier to Hong Kong.

However, the research also indicated that the absence of promotional effects coupled with strong foreign competition has restricted the U.S. cheese presence throughout Asia.

"Our goal is not only to open doors to supply more U.S. cheese to Asia but also to demonstrate to Asian buyers that American businesses are committed to long-term global business development," says Tracy.

The Department sent several hundred pounds of cheese samples to each market prior to the mission, including Colby, Cheddar, Mozzarella, Provolone, Monterey Jack, cheese powders and cheese sauce. The samples will be prepared by professional chefs, using Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board's (WMMB) recipes. Asian buyers will then have the opportunity to taste a variety of quality U.S. cheeses at product demonstrations.

In addition, the WMMB has supplied promotional material, which has been distributed to importers.

As leader of the mission, Tracy will meet with local government officials to discuss the dairy import policy. Tracy will appear in many television and radio programs to promote Midwest cheese products.

To get firsthand information on differences in preparation and use and how cheese is sold and marketed in Asia, the four cheese suppliers will visit grocery stores, restaurants and markets.

New, Wider Structure Will Replace County Line Bridge

By Gerry Mueller

Work is progressing on a new and wider structure which will replace the present bridge at the Washington/Fond du Lac County Line on Highway 45, (near the Buss farm).

The new bridge is being constructed along the west side of the present, much narrower bridge. The shifting of the bridge's location will also eliminate part of the curve in that section of the road.

After completion of the new bridge, the old bridge, which is still open to traffic, will be removed.

Indian Girls Drop Two in Softball

By Statesman Sports Writer

HORICON — There is a big difference between slow-pitch softball and the fast-pitch variety played in high school, and the Kewaskum girls softball team is finding that out this spring.

Sometimes they are learning that fact the hard way, such as last Thursday's 10-0 lesson at the hands of Horicon here.

The Indians were only able to collect a pair of base hits, one each by Patti Aupperle and Carrie Krause, in the loss. While the offense may have been a bit dormant, the Indian defense came up with some nice

JUDO TITLE

ILLINOIS — ANITA Stollenwerk captured her third judo title in three weeks last Sunday, as she took first in the Yorkville Invitational held in Yorkville, Illinois.

Anita beat Lisa Frankel of Illinois in the semifinals of the Invite, and then took care of Carrie Casper of Milwaukee in the finals to capture top honors in the girls 10-under lightweight division.

VIDEO CONSERVATION

The Land Conservation Department has video tapes available for free loan. The tapes cover a wide range of conservation issues, including groundwater movement, groundwater protection, the Priority Watershed program, and no-till farming.

The Aztec and Mayan Indians played a game somewhat like basketball. The players tried to bounce a hard rubber ball through a ring with their head, arms or legs. Scoring was so difficult that the game ended when either team scored.

New Holstein rallied for three more runs in the bottom half of the fourth to take a commanding 8-3 lead, which the Indians were unable to erase. Janel Flynn had a fine day at the plate for the Indians, as she rapped out three base hits, while Kelly Krahn and Julie Wagner each collected a pair.

Matthew Paulson Honored at Brewers Game

Farmington Just Say No Club with County Sheriff Robert Schulteis.

Matthew Paulson, a Farmington Elementary School fourth grader, was recently honored as a student leader in his school's Just Say No Club at the Milwaukee Brewers' game April 21. Matthew received two complimentary tickets to the game, which he attended with his mother, Kathy, and was presented a recognition certificate by Paul Molitor during the pre-game ceremonies.

Matthew was nominated for the Student Opener recognition by Cheryl Taylor, Elementary Guidance Counselor and Adult Leader of the District's three

Just Say No Clubs.

Matthew started the District's first Just Say No Club at Farmington Elementary School when he was in the third grade, and he served as the Club's first Captain.

Kewaskum and Wayne Elementary Schools started Just Say No Clubs this year. Activities at all three schools' Clubs have included visits by Washington County Sheriff Schulteis, a poster contest during the American Cancer Society's Great American Smokeout last November, and the presentation of plays on how to say no.

Just Say No Clubs are groups of children, 7-14 years old, who are committed to leading drug free lives. The Kewaskum School District elementary clubs are open to third, fourth and fifth graders. Approximately 120 students district-wide have joined.

The Clubs use positive peer pressure to reinforce members' resolve to say no to drugs, including alcohol and tobacco. Club members take part in educational, recreational and service activities. Members learn that it is not necessary to use drugs to make friends or have fun.

Indian Netters Open Season

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — The highlights of the boys tennis program at Kewaskum have been few and far between in the short history of the sport here. With 1988 KHS graduate Craig Hubbell's trip to the state meet being the high point of the program, interest in the sport has been limited.

But coach Jan Rosenthal got a pleasant surprise this spring, as he found two dozen boys eager to hit the courts, and with such a high number of individuals interested, the skills possessed by this year's team should be much improved.

Rosenthal has a number of returning letterwinners, seven to be exact, along with a couple of other upper classmen who should be able to contribute to some more wins this season.

So far, however, the wins haven't been rolling in. The Indians were upended by St. Mary's Springs last Monday 6-1, and then were pasted by a strong Two Rivers squad on Thursday, 7-0.

Against the Ledgers, the No. 2 doubles combination of Keith Herman and Brian Blair teamed up to take down their opponents 6-1, 6-4, for the Indians only victory of the day.

Kewaskum did put up good battles at a couple of other spots. At No. 3 singles, Robert Scheffler came up with six winning games in his 4-6, 2-6 loss to his foe, while at No. 3 doubles, Kevin Gundrum and Tom Galec captured the second set before falling 2-6, 6-3, 3-6.

None of the Indians were able to have much success against the Raiders, though, as Herman and Blair posted the most wins, five, by any Indian team.

St. Mary's Springs 6, Kew. 1
SINGLES — No. 1 - Kevin Hein lost to Brown 0-6, 0-6; No. 2 - Ira Sison lost to C. Murray 0-6, 0-6; No. 3 - Robert Schreffler lost to J. Bevenz 4-6, 2-6; No. 4 - Adam Pilachowski lost to G. Hietpas 2-6, 0-6.

DOUBLES - NO. 1 - Curt Ammel and Shawn Schneider lost to M. Ford and A. Sabel 1-6, 6-7; No. 2 - Keith Herman and Brian Blair beat J. Gueling and C. Beves 6-1, 6-4. No. 3 - Kevin Gundrum and Tom Galec lost to M. Olm and P. Hernandez 2-6, 6-3, 3-6.

Two Rivers 7, Kewaskum 0
SINGLES - No. 1 - Shawn Scheider lost to Jason Zimmer 4-6, 0-6. No. 2 - Ira Sison lost to Ron Zach 1-6, 0-6; No. 3 - Robert Schreffler lost to Matt Karmen 0-6, 0-6; No. 4 - Adam Pilachowski lost to Greg Gordon 0-6, 1-6.

Doubles - No. 1 - Kevin Hein and Curt Ammel lost to Mark Brashaw and Brian Kust 1-6, 1-6. No. 2 - Brian Blair and Keith Herman lost to Drew Pecore and Dale Bergski 1-6, 4-6. No. 3 - Tom Galec and Kevin Gundrum lost to Eri Engstrom and Kevin Terp 2-6, 1-6.

Indian Golf Team Stays Hot

by Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM — The Kewaskum boys golf team has been rolling along this spring, as they took second in their annual matchup with three other larger schools in Hartland on Tuesday, and then disposed of Chilton on Friday. The fine showings upped the Indians overall record to 6-1 on the younger season.

In Tuesday's quadrangular, the Indians counted a 235 total for their five golfers, coming in behind only the host Hartland Arrowhead team, which had a 217 total. Wauwatosa West was third (239), and Kettle Moraine took fourth (244).

Junior Ryan Amerling was the low man for the Indians, as he carded a fine round of 42, which tied him with two other golfers for medalist of the meet.

"He's been playing pretty good," Indian coach Joe Harlow said of Amerling, who has been the medalist in a couple of the Indians early meets.

The scores went up considerably after Amerling's total. Aaron Laatsch was next for the Indians, coming in with a 47, while D.J. Slaughenhoup was right behind with a 48.

"As a team we didn't do too badly," Harlow went on to say. "We've never had all of our counters finish below 50 in this meet before, so that was nice to see."

Slaughenhoup didn't have to take a back seat to anyone in Friday's meet, though. The senior, who didn't finish the season last year, posted an impressive 40 in the Indians' 171-184 home win over Chilton.

"It was pretty windy out there. He had a good round," Harlow said of Slaughenhoup, who was consistent throughout in taking the medalist honors.

Laatsch, along with Corey Krahn, also "played pretty well," according to Harlow, as the two posted identical 42 tallies. The fourth Indian counter, Amerling, came in with a 47.

After winning just two dual meets last season, the Indians 6-1 mark gives Harlow a good feeling about his teams chances in the Eastern Wisconsin this season. "I would think that we can finish in the top half. But you just never know," he said, noting that defending champion Plymouth "has quite a few lettermen back."

Girls Track Team Finishes Third in County Meet

The defending Washington Co. Champion Kewaskum Girls Track Team finished in third place last Friday in the Washington Co. Track Meet held at Kewaskum.

The host Indians led the meet through the first 12 events with strong showings in the field events, sprints and relays. Germantown won the meet with 103 1/2 points followed by Slinger with 102 pts., Kewaskum 92, West Bend East 75, West Bend West 60, Hartford 49 1/2, and Kettle Moraine Lutheran with 14.

Although Coach Perry Koth was very pleased with the 92 points scored by his team and with the individual performances, he was somewhat disappointed by the fact that his team was not at full strength for the meet. "We had several athletes leave the meet early due to other commitments and we still have one or two injuries which prevented us from possibly repeating as champions." "I really think if we had been at full strength we would have won this meet" said coach Koth.

Koth had high praise for senior Ingrid Ankerson who took first place in both the high jump (5'0") and the triple jump (33'3/4"). Ingrid is jumping right where she left off last year when she was competing at the State Track Meet in LaCrosse, she's taken control of the triple jump this year.

Another senior, Melissa Braun, won the 100M Dash with a very good time of 13.1. "Melissa Braun, won the 100M Dash with a very good time of 13.1, "Melissa continues to be one of the best sprinters in the area" stated Koth. Braun also ran in the 800M relay (2nd place) and in the 400M relay (4th).

There were several surprises according to Koth, especially in the hurdles. Christa Schmidt took 3rd in the 100M high Hurdles (17.6) and a 4th in the 300 low hurdles (55.8). "I didn't know what to expect in the hurdles this meet, but Christa really came through with a great time in the finals." The time is only .1 of a second off her best time from last year. In the 300 hurdles it was the first time she ran them this year so it was really a mystery as to what kind of a time she would have.

Another area which is looking strong is the 400M dash. Laurie Vogt and Rachelle Zuehlke teamed up for a 3rd (67.9) and a 4th (68.3) place finish. "Laurie has moved from distance to the 400m races and is producing some very good times. Rachelle is not running where we expect her to be yet but I'm not really worried about her, she'll be there when we need her!" Koth commented.

"Overall I'd say I'm real happy with the results, it shows me that we will be real competitive this year once again."

Other Kewaskum place winners include: Robyn Winninghoof - 5th place high jump - 4'6"; Tammy Schmidt - 2nd place shot - 33'3" and Marlene Wodsedalek 4th place shot - 31' 2 3/4" and 4th place discus, 83'; Kelly Korth - 3rd place long jump, 15' 9 3/4".
