Public Hearing Monday on Village Budget

By Noel Stollenwerk

Village of Kewaskum residents will have their chance to voice opinions on the 1993 village budget at a public hearing Monday night at 7:00 p.m. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building.

The 1993 budget is up 8.5 percent, or a total of $118,068, and includes a property tax levy increase of 5.4 percent or $21,916. However, when calculating in the additional growth factor, the levy equals an increase of 3.2 percent.

That increase would mean that a home valued at $80,000 would see a village tax increase of $18.56, or a .23 per thousand dollar increase.

While turnout is usually low, the public is encouraged to attend the hearing and have a say in the budget.

In other news related to last week's Village Board meeting, Police Chief Richard Knoebel informed the board that the village has the opportunity to purchase a new laser control device to help speed enforcement. A state grant would cover 75 percent of the device's $4,000 cost, with the remaining 25 percent coming from village funds.

The Board was required to voice their support for the device in order to obtain the grant, and the Board unanimously did so.

The Board also authorized the signing of the 1993 Fire Contract with the Town of Auburn, with the amount of the contract totalling $24,479.

CHRISTMAS TREES

The Kewaskum High School musicians are working hard for their upcoming music festival in South Carolina in April of 1993. Not only busy practicing, but raising money to get there. Now you too can get involved and help by buying your Christmas tree from them. Yes, sir, the young men and women of the KHS bands and swing choir are selling beautiful trees that will be just gorgeous in your home.

The trees, Scotch, White, Fraser, and Balsam are available at the Sentry parking lot located just south of Kewaskum on Hwy. 45. The cost of the trees are from $14.50 and up. Anyone purchasing a tree will be eligible for a free drawing for either a live White Spruce or a live Blue Spruce for planting in the spring. So come and help the musicians and get your Christmas tree now. Senior citizens, if you need help setting your tree up just let us know when you purchase your tree and the students will be happy to help.

Hours for the tree sales are as follows; Monday through Friday, 3:30 to 6:30 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. We will be closed on Thanksgiving Day.

FAMILY FINANCIAL AID NIGHT TIME CHANGE

Kewaskum High School's financial aid meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 2, will begin at 8:00 p.m. rather than 7:00 p.m. All seniors and their parents interested in obtaining information on scholarships and financial aid for post-secondary education should plan on attending.

Piario Named VVA 'Member of the Year'

Robert R. Piario

Robert R. Piario, of Fredonia, was honored as the Vietnam Veterans of America "Member of the Year" at the VVA National Leadership Conference in Alexandria, Virginia, November 12-14.

In presenting the award, VVA National President James L. Brazee, Jr. cited Piario for his "leadership and selfless contributions on behalf of needy veterans."

Piario served in the United States Marine Corps and was honorably retired after losing a leg in Vietnam.

In 1988, Piario founded the Kettle Moraine Chapter 448 of Vietnam Veterans of America and served as its President for three years. He presently sits on the Chapter Board of Directors and serves as Chapter Administrative Director.

In June of 1992, Piario was elected President of the Wisconsin State Council of Vietnam Veterans of America. He had previously served as a state Region Director and a First Vice President of the State Council. He has served as VVA's representative on the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs Council on Veterans Programs and in 1991 was appointed to WDVA's Legislative Review Committee.

The National "Member of the Year" award comes on the heels of Piario's having been named Wisconsin's 1991 "Vietnam Veteran of the Year" by the Wisconsin State Council of Vietnam Veterans of America.

The award recognizes Piario for his dedication to his fellow veterans, helping them to deal with their lives in a productive manner and assisting them with a myriad of problems: medical, psychological, economic, etc.

Piario is presently in training at the New England Shelter for Homeless Veterans in Boston, MA, with an eye towards establishing a similar program in Wisconsin to attack the problem of homelessness.

Announce Prizes for Christmas Parade Dec. 6

The Kewaskum Christmas parade is just around the corner, and the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the prize amounts for each winner chosen.

Scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 6th at 5 p.m., a panel of judges will have the difficult task of choosing four winners out of the multitude of holiday floats already signed up for the parade, with more entering each day. Grand prize - $100, Second place - $75, Third and fourth place - $50 each.

Just a reminder to all clubs, businesses, civic and school organizations - there's still some time left to reserve your space in the parade. Please call Jane Korth at 626-2520 (work) or 626-4172 (home), Adeline Halfmann at 626-2121 (work) or Tim Miller at 626-2171 (work).

Funding for the Christmas parade has been quite successful through the community's generous purchasing of Christmas Tree Lights. The wooden tree adorns the front lawn of Valley Bank and will be displayed throughout the holiday season. White memorial lights are $10 per name, individual or family lights (green) are also $10 each, and red lights for $25 are available for area businesses to purchase. The tree and "memorial star" are filling up fast, guaranteeing a parade you won't forget. Join us, and catch the holiday spirit!

KEYS Christmas Concert Set for Monday, Dec. 7

The annual KEYS Christmas Concert will be held on Monday, December 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Kewaskum High School. Spirited Christmas music will be presented by the Moraine Chorus and the Kewaskum High School Swing Choir. Both groups have generously donated their musical abilities for the benefit of KEYS.

KEYS is a non-profit organization established to accept gifts to provide scholarships for Kewaskum High School graduates. This concert is the only fund raising project put on by the group. All money contributed to KEYS is used directly for scholarships. $25,000 in scholarships will be offered to 1993 Kewaskum High School graduates.

Tickets for the concert are $2.00. Advance tickets may be purchased at Kewaskum High School and at Miller's Furniture in Kewaskum. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Come to Kewaskum High School on Monday, December 7 to hear the music of Christmas presented by two very talented groups. Help KEYS grow to benefit the youth of Kewaskum.

Win Hawaiian Cruise

Kathy and Gene Stranc, 516 Habeck Street, Kewaskum, were the lucky recipients of a Hawaiian cruise, raffled off at Pick 'n Save South store recently. The entries in the "Aisles to Isles" contest were registered at each of the five Pick 'n Save stores owned by George Prescott, with each offering a cruise. Mary Williamson was the winner at the Pick 'n Save North store. Kathy and Gene plan on taking the cruise in January.

Mrs. L.N. 'Pat' Peterson Honored

The Modern Woodmen of America Camp 2233, Kewaskum held their annual Community Service Recognition Dinner Party on Saturday, Nov. 7 at the Labor Center Hall.

Mrs. L.N. "Pat" Peterson, Kewaskum, was recognized for all her outstanding service to the community.

Mrs. L.N. "Pat" Peterson was born in East Sparta, Ohio and received her formal education in Ohio. She received her Youth Fellowship Certificate to teach Sunday School in Canton, Ohio. L.N. Peterson and Pat were married in West Virginia on Nov. 12, 1932. Before coming to Kewaskum, Pat served as "Gray Lady" for six years at City Hospital in Masillon, Ohio.

In 1945 the Petersons came to Kewaskum where Mr. Peterson was associated with Regal Ware. The Petersons are the parents of three boys — Lynn of New York, Kim of Kewaskum and Joel of Chicago, Illinois. They have two grandchildren — Leighton, a graduate of Northwestern University and Lowell a sophomore at Kewaskum High School. They were foster parents of four girls for several years.

During Mrs. Peterson's early married life she was a Cub Scout Mother for four years, and conducted a "Miss Manners Class" in her home for five to 10 year old children for a few years. Pat is a member of the Peace United Church of Christ, Kewaskum, and was a member of the Christian Education Board for a number of years. She is an active member of the West Bend Women's Club and the Internal Affairs of the Club; the West Bend Art Gallery;

The Milwaukee Orchestra League; P.E.O. member; Eastern Star Member, and for 19 years a member of Golf Teams at the West Bend Country Club. She was an assistant in helping to organize the Kewaskum Junior Women's Club, and when the club celebrated their 25th Anniversary, Mrs. Peterson gave a Clifford Rose Scholarship to be given in the club's name. Pat is a charter member of the St. Joseph's Hospital Auxiliary, and still works as a "Pink Lady." She has helped on Cancer drives in the past and currently the Y.M.C.A. drive.

Mrs. Peterson was one of the organizers of our local A.F.S. Chapter and was active in it for 25 years. During this time she served as president and as a counselor for A.F.S. students. 29 AFS students stayed at the Peterson home during her 25 years of A.F.S. Association, including several students for a time between home transfers. Pat was president during the A.F.S. Domestic Program which lasted for five years. She still hears from 17 or 18 of the former A.F.S. students.

Pat is an avid golfer, but since she broke her knee last December golf has been put on hold for a while. She still is a busy person and has even delivered baskets of groceries to needy families.

Thank you, "Pat," for your community participation and services.

Members of the Peterson family were also guests.

The annual dinner was well attended by Woodmen members and their families.

School District Participating In OM Program Again

Odyssey of the Mind is an international creative problem-solving competition. This is the 10th anniversary of the Wisconsin State OM Association and the 9th year that Kewaskum schools have participated. Odyssey of the Mind makes learning fun. While solving problems creatively, students learn to make decisions, work cooperatively, research topics and evaluate ideas. In the process, students develop independence and self confidence. Kewaskum has had a long and successful tradition of OM competitions. Teams have gone to regional, state or international competitions every year since the program began.

This year teams will be coached by: Doris Oik and Wes Weinhold at Farmington Elementary, Marie Ritger at Wayne Elementary, Jackie DelPonte and Cathy Courtney at the Middle School and Len Soller and Suzanne Wagner at the high school.

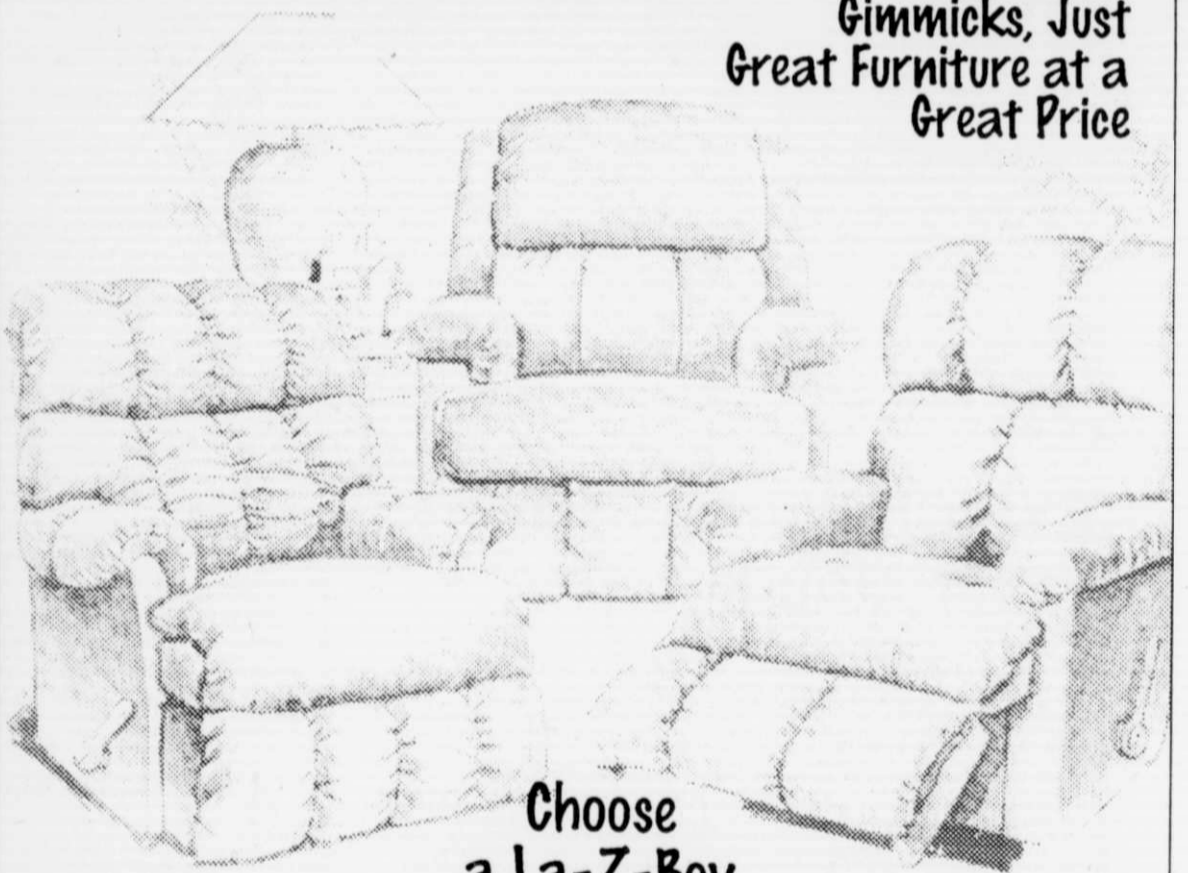

Teams are being assembled and students will be working on brainstorming techniques, and divergent problem solving. Regional competition will be held in March.

Down Memory Lane...

Mishicot, WI
November 16, 1992

DEAR STATESMAN:

In your last issue of my favorite hometown paper, your 50 Years Ago Section brought back memories I would like to comment on.

Bobby Romaine, along with Bernie Bettinger and myself graduated from boot camp at Great Lakes in the later part of April in 1942. Bobby was transferred to signalman school in Chicago, while Bernie and I stayed at Great Lakes to attend fire control school. In the subsequent following months of late spring and early summer, on Friday afternoon, there was old "41" and the entrance to Great Lakes, from where we three would hitchhike home.

We left Bernie in Milwaukee, and Bobby and I would continue to Kewaskum, and I would go to St. Michaels. Sometimes, Bernie would go home with me and other times I would stay in Milwaukee with Bernie's parents, but there were not many weekends, during that period, that "we three" were not together.

Sometimes we would meet in Milwaukee, and take the old North Shore. Bernie and I would get off at Great Lakes, while Bobby would continue on to Chicago.

During that time, the three of us formed a real close friendship and had some great times on liberty, which on occasion turned out to be quite substantial. (Enough description).

The last time I saw Bobby was a weekend in July, where he informed us that he was transferred to the East Coast to join the Merchant ships against German subs. Bernie and I soon were sent to the West Coast, South Pacific and the USS Saratoga.

Just before Christmas in 1942, while at anchor off of New Caledonia, a letter arrived from my mother, telling us of the tragic news of Bobby's death. We both had a cry over that, because we had planned on meeting again after the war.

In July of 1944, Bernie and I got a 27 day leave, after the Saratoga returned to Bremerton, Washington for repairs and overhauling. It was almost a repeat of two years earlier, when I left Bernie in Milwaukee and I continued on home. Only this time, without Bobby. It was just a few days, when Bernie got lonesome for me and decided to hitchhike and visit me at my home.

A gentleman stopped and asked Bernie, "Where are you going sailor?" Bernie answered, "To St. Michaels to visit a buddy of mine by the name of Frank Bremser." The gentleman replied, "I know where he lives, and I will take you to his home." Enroute to my home, Bernie mentioned to this gentleman that the only other person he knew from this area, was a friend of his that got killed in action, by the name of Bobby Romaine. The gentleman replied, "That was my son."

The last time I saw Elwyn Romaine was while he was backing out of our driveway, waving with a sad smile on his face. I, too, felt very sad for a father who lost such a likeable son. Many years later, I truly felt what that sad smile meant when I lost my fifteen-year-old son.

Sincerely,
Frank Bremser

P.S. My friend Bernie died three years ago, and we did get to do a lot of things that "we three" planned on doing after the war.

Kewaskum School District Will Participate in Citizen Bee

High school students from across Wisconsin will have the opportunity to participate in a unique social studies program which could lead to prizes and scholarships and a study trip to Washington, D.C. in June of 1993. The schools have registered to participate in the Close Up Foundation Citizen Bee.

Kewaskum High School is one of the many registered schools that will be participating, with Ken Soerens serving as teacher-coordinator.

The Citizen Bee is an academic program which focuses on US History, Economics, Government, Geography, and on current levels. Students progress through school, regional, and state competitions and three participants from a school will advance to regional competition. Top finalists there will then advance to the state final later this spring.

State winners earn a trip to Washington to participate in the Foundation's government studies program and the national competition. Winners of the national event receive college scholarships totaling $48,000 presented by the American Honda Foundation. The national Citizen Bee has been funded by KPMG Peat Marwick, and Kraft General Foods. On the state level, sponsors have included the Evjue Foundation, Inc.

"Everyday we are becoming more aware of the crisis of civic illiteracy facing the country. A competition such as this adds competitive verve to a fundamental discipline and brings excitement to the learning of the social studies," said Santica Posada, Close Up's state Citizen Bee coordinator.

"Teachers and students have found the Citizen Bee extremely beneficial to civic teaching and learning. Students have improved their study and public speaking skills and develop greater interest in the social studies. The competition format creates excitement about government and history, rewards command of the subject, and involves a broad cross section of the community," said Posada.

Close Up also sponsors local government studies programs in communities across the nation, produces academic publications and videotapes, telecasts public affairs via C-SPAN (Cable Satellite Public Affairs Network), and conducts the Civic Achievement Award Program for students in grades five through eight.

Other area schools have through December 15, 1992 to register for the program. For additional information on the Citizen Bee, call (800) 336-5479.

DOT/Indy Driver 'Setting the Pace' Program Comes to KHS Dec. 3

High school students in Weyauwega, Waupaca, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, and Kewaskum will be able to meet professional race driver Gary Bettenhausen; talk with State Patrol Trooper Gary Eberhard or Randy Kind; and see an Indy car, State Patrol Camaro and a team of specially-built pace cars next week through the Wisconsin Department of Transportation's unique safety program called "Setting the Pace."

The safety program is scheduled for Dec. 1, 2 and 3. On Tuesday, the program will start at Weyauwega High School and come to Waupaca High School that afternoon. Wednesday morning, Oshkosh West High School will host the program, followed in the afternoon by Oshkosh North High School. The program will arrive at Goodrich High School in Fond du Lac on Thursday morning, and will then move to Kewaskum High School on Thursday afternoon.

"Setting the Pace" is aimed at making teenaged, newly-licensed drivers aware of the unique factors that make driving especially hazardous for them. Last year, the program was presented to thousands of students at more than 50 Wisconsin high schools. The program has received national attention and has been nominated for the national Administrator's Award of Excellence from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Car crashes killed almost 400 teenagers in the past four years, a number equivalent to an entire graduating class at many Wisconsin High Schools.

According to the Wisconsin "Highway Safety Clock" for teens (16-19-year-olds):

- * On average, an injury crash involving a teen driver occurs every hour on Wisconsin roadways.

- * A property damage crash involving a teen driver occurs every 27 minutes.

- * One teenaged passenger riding in a car driven by a teenager is injured or killed every 4 hours.

- * One Wisconsin teen driver is killed in a crash per week.

In a taped introduction to Setting the Pace, Governor Tommy Thompson says, "Indy car drivers are not only the fastest drivers in the world, they're also the safest and smartest."

"These drivers are not focusing on just alcohol, speeding or safety belts," Governor Thompson said. "Their message includes all of those areas, but it's a broader message aimed at the risk-taking behavior that kills and maims so many young drivers and their passengers."

"When you look at the statistics, you see that in the four years that this year's graduating class have been in school, 427 of their classmates have died in motor vehicle crashes," Governor Thompson said. "That's an unacceptable loss for our communities and our state," he added.

The professionals agree that inexperience, speeding, and a tendency to show off are factors in the high death and injury rate of teenaged motorists and their passengers.

"Sure, we drive fast, but under controlled circumstances," Johnny Rutherford said. "We use helmets, safety harnesses, fire-retardant clothing, and we're in specially designed vehicles on a track built for speed. If it's raining, the race is cancelled. We all feel safer on the track than we do driving home after the race," he added.

In the video shown to students at the "Setting the Pace" performance, race driver John Andretti noted that the risk-taking behavior of young drivers seems to surface only when there's an audience around. "If they don't have an audience or a buddy in the car, there's nothing to prove," he explained. "That's one of the reasons that we have so many accidents in which a carload of teenagers is killed or injured," he added.

Michael Andretti added that "...if you want to speed, see if there's some way you can get to a racetrack. But doing it on the road is not smart."

The "Setting the Pace" performance includes a 10-minute videotaped introduction featuring governor Thompson and interviews with a dozen top drivers, brief talks by an Indy driver and a Wisconsin State Trooper, and a question-and-answer period.

The Indy car, the State Patrol Camaro, and the pace cars will be parked at the schools to heighten interest in the program. Leaflets, book covers and other materials are provided to students to promote the program and its safety message.

The high-performance pace cars, newly-featured as part of the safety program, are sponsored by PPG Industries, Menards sponsors the Indy race car. Other Sponsors of "Setting the Pace" includes M & I Banks, Pepsi-Cola Bottlers of Wisconsin, the Rural Insurance Companies.

High blood pressure adds to the workload of the heart and arteries, which may contribute to stroke, heart attack, kidney failure and congestive heart failure. There is accumulating evidence that lowering blood pressure reduces the risk of stroke and coronary heart disease, according to the American Heart Association.

Seniors' Event Features Russ Morgan Orchestra

On November 9 and 10, approximately 1600 members of Valley Banks' Prestige Club attended one-day seminars and were addressed by Valley's keynote speaker, Dr. Darold Treffert and entertained by the Russ Morgan Orchestra.

The statewide event was held at the Paper Valley Hotel and Conference Center, Appleton, and included a motivating presentation by Dr. Treffert on "Mellowing." He talks about "Mellowing" as the capacity to sort out urgent things from important things, the ability to run at the same time and smell the roses at the same time. It is a prescription for being relaxed, at ease and pleasantly convivial, stressing that one of the real neat things about this planet is the people we are privileged to live with and to love.

Dr. Treffert divides his time between the private practice of Psychiatry at Brookside Medical Center and a position as Executive Director of the Fond du Lac County Health Care Center. He is a well known researcher on Savant Syndrome, cases where spectacular islands of brilliance and ability occur in otherwise severely handicapped individuals. He was consultant to, and appears in the credits of, the widely acclaimed movie Rainman in which Dustin Hoffman portrays an autistic savant.

The day was highlighted by a performance by the Russ Morgan Orchestra. Almost 20 years after the death of bandleader, Russ Morgan, "Music in the Morgan Manner," is playing to more people, in more places, than ever before, under the direction of son, Jack Morgan. The band's music library spans some 1800 tunes, probably, says Morgan, the "biggest active library in the business." Besides playing trombone and singing, Jack also does vocal arrangements for the orchestra. He sings in several languages, and his Spanish vocals have endeared him to lovers of Latin music. The band plays engagements out on the road almost 45 weeks a year.

Valley Prestige is a special club for Valley customers age 55 or better which offers special banking privileges, social activities and newsletters to its members. Each Valley Bank location initiates their own activities and trips to reflect the interest and needs of the local community.

"The event was offered as part of Valley's way of saying we appreciate doing business with you," said Peter M. Platten, President and Chief Executive Officer, Valley Bancorporation. "We want our senior citizens to know that we place a high value on our relationship and want to get their feedback on products and services they want or need to help them make these years the best years of their lives."

Valley Bancorporation is the third largest bank holding company headquartered in Wisconsin. Valley, with assets of $4.3 billion, currently serves Wisconsin through 150 banking offices with additional financial service companies engaged in insurance, trust service, securities, credit card servicing and bank support services. The company's common stock is traded on the National Market System NASDAQ symbol VYBN.

Valley Bancorporation Reports Strong Loan Demand

KEWASKUM... The rest of the country may be waiting for President-Elect Clinton's economic recovery plan, but the loan activity at Valley Bancorporation indicates that Wisconsin residents and businesses are confident of their own economic futures.

Valley Bancorporation, which pledged at the start of 1992 to make $1.1 billion available for loans during the year, exceeded its annual goal in the third quarter, according to Peter M. Platten, III, President and Chief Executive Officer. Actual lending was up 75 percent the first nine months of 1992, over the same period last year.

Valley made a total of $1,283,732,765 in business and consumer loans in the first three quarters of the year. Of the total, nearly three-quarter billion was in consumer loans and over half a billion was in business loans.

The two most active areas were the Fox Valley, which achieved 125 percent of its annual goal, and the South Central region, which hit 141 percent of its goal. The South Central region includes the Madison, Janesville, Watertown and Beaver Dam areas.

"Consumers are leading the way so far this year," Platten said, "but business also is showing optimism." This year consumer loans are up 86.5 percent over the same time last year. Business loans are up 62.5 percent.

Even though Valley has already exceeded its lending goals, Platten said additional money would be made available for both consumer and business lending for the remainder of the year.

Valley Bancorporation is the third largest bank holding company headquartered in Wisconsin. Valley has assets of $4.3 billion and currently serves Wisconsin through 150 banking offices and additional financial service companies engaged in insurance, trust service, securities, credit card servicing and bank support services. The company's common stock is traded on the National Market System under the NASDAQ symbol VYBN.

BABES Come to Life In Washington County

The Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County has announced that Buttons, Bows, Myth Mary, Donovan Dignity and the other BABES friends will come alive to children here in Washington County.

BABES (Beginning Alcohol and Addictions Basic Education Studies) is a primary prevention program that uses puppets, stories, songs, activities, and discussion to provide elementary school children with factual, non-judgmental information about substance abuse. The program has been presented since 1989 to students in West Bend, Germantown and Kewaskum schools. Hartford will implement BABES this year. Many parochial schools also enjoy the BABES program.

Funding for the lovable puppet costumes was made possible by the Ziegler Foundation. "It's through the donations of such community spirited organizations and individuals that we are able to reinforce the important messages BABES brings to our children", said Marty Ison-Kocos, Associate Director of the Council. Costumes were sewn by volunteers recruited through the Volunteer Center of Washington County. "We've been very fortunate to benefit from the talents of Rachel Kluever, Sherry Prost, Carolyn Gibson, Joyce Meinberg, and Dorothy Dahlen," said Linda Dymond, BABES presenter. "The costumes are beautifully constructed and will bring enjoyment to the children of Washington County for years to come."

The BABES Characters will make their public debut on Sunday, November 29, 1992 at the West Bend Christmas Parade.

A greased spatula will get sticky cookies off the cookie sheet more easily.

What's New at The Kewaskum Public Library?

3rd Grade Pilgrims at Wayne Elementary School.

In remembrance of the first Thanksgiving, third graders in Mrs. Margaret Pecher's class dressed as Pilgrims for the day on Thursday, Nov. 19.

To make this occasion meaningful and authentic, various crafts and occupations popular during Colonial times were presented by volunteer parents and grandparents. Mrs. Patty Olmsted demonstrated flower arranging, Mrs. Lucy Wolf shared her soap making and butchering skills with the students. Mrs. Karen Wolf demonstrated the art of knitting, Mrs. Pat Gamroth demonstrated bread making, Mrs. Eva Harvey spun wool, Mrs. Linda Beisbier showed students how to cross stitch and Mrs. Barbara Steger talked about canning and preserving foods.

It was very interesting and educational experience for these third graders and they now have new insight into the meaning of Thanksgiving.

Valley Bankers Join Forces to Provide Housing for Needy Families

REALTORS from around Wisconsin joined forces with Valley Bancorporation in an effort to help the Habitat for Humanity organization provide affordable housing for those in need of this kind of assistance.

As part of the recent Wisconsin Realtors Annual Convention, Valley Bancorporation, headquartered in Appleton, donated booth space to promote the Habitat for Humanity and encouraged Realtors to make donations of money, materials or time. As part of their challenge to Realtors, Valley agreed to match contributions received at the convention up to $5,000. A total of $12,444 was raised and distributed to Habitat for Humanity affiliates in Wisconsin.

Through volunteer labor and tax-deductible donations of money and materials, the Habitat for Humanity builds and rehabilitates homes with the help of partner families. Houses are sold at no profit to these partner families, and no-interest mortgages are issued over a fixed period. To learn about the Habitat for Humanity in Wisconsin, you can call 312-243-6448.

A Valley official commented, "As a banker, you feel a sense of responsibility to help provide housing for all kinds of people...not just those that can afford it. The contribution to the Habitat for Humanity is just one example of how our bankers are helping needy families realize the American dream of home owner-

Valley's efforts to help provide affordable housing not only includes financial contributions as well as individual donations as well. Employees of Valley Bank, Appleton, Valley Bancorporation and Valley BankService Corporation take off their banker suits on evenings and weekends to give their time and talent to help The Housing Partnership of the Fox Cities, Inc. Since March, over 100 employees have given an average of six hours to rehabilitate a distressed home which will serve as rental property for two families. For participation in the program families must have incomes below the 80 percent of the county median income, based on family size; have rental costs exceeding 30 percent of their annual income and have children and/or special needs. Information on eligibility and application procedures can be obtained by contacting the Housing Partnership at (414) 731-6644.

In Madison, Valley Bank is working with students from the Madison Area Technical College to build a house as part of their class curriculum. Upon completion, the home will be sold to a low-to-moderate income family.

Valley Bancorporation is the third largest bank holding company headquartered in Wisconsin. Valley, with the July 1, 1992 acquisition of United Savings and Loan Association, has assets of $4.3 billion and currently serves Wisconsin through 150 banking offices with additional financial service companies engaged in insurance, trust service, securities, credit card servicing and bank support services. The company's common stock is traded on the National Market System under the NASDAQ symbol VYBN.

Two cars parked in the garage were shoved through the garage wall in a crash at the home of Atty. Roger McKenna, Hillside Drive, in Kewaskum at 6:55 p.m. Sunday when they were struck by an auto driven by a Hartford man. The Hartford man was driving west on Roseland Drive and where the street ended at Hillside Drive, he went straight ahead instead of making a turn. His car entered the McKenna private driveway and continued straight ahead into the garage on which the door was open, and crashed into the two autos parked in the building. The vehicle struck the cars with such impact that they were shoved right through the rear wall of the garage, which was knocked out. One of McKenna's autos was shoved all the way through the wall while the other was driven almost half way through.

Thanksgiving Meal Was a Good Deal

It cost Wisconsin consumers an average of $27.21 for the "traditional" Thanksgiving dinner for 10 people this past holiday, according to the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation.

The overall price for the meal was determined from results of a statewide survey of 13 cities by the Wisconsin Farm Bureau Women's Committee. The fourteen food items in the Thanksgiving meal cost an average of $2.72 per person. The menu included turkey, stuffing, sweet potatoes, peas, rolls, cranberries, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, a relish dish and beverages.

The Wisconsin Farm Bureau survey shows that consumers really are getting a great deal for their food dollar, especially when a simple family holiday dinner can be purchased for under $30.

Supermarkets reported there was an abundant supply of turkeys and good prices that reflected that supply. Turkey prices are historically lower around Thanksgiving. Depending on brand name, prices ranged from $0.69 a pound with some stores offering specials as low as $0.29 a pound.

The report showed the least expensive Thanksgiving dinner survey was in Eau Claire at $23.01. Next was La Crosse and Wausau at $23.81. The most expensive survey was in Plymouth at $32.57 for the dinner items. Prices varied by product name in the survey cities.

Wisconsin Farm Bureau's Thanksgiving dinner for 10 included these items: a 16 pound, self-basting tom-turkey; a 14-ounce package of heab-seasoned, cubed stuffing mix; a 30-ounce can of pumpkin pie mix; and a package of two, nine-inch, frozen pie shells.

Also included were: three pounds of fresh sweet potatoes; a 12-ounce package of brown-and-serve rolls; a one-pound package of frozen peas; a half-pound each of fresh carrots; celery and yellow onions; a 12-ounce package of fresh cranberries; a gallon of whole milk; coffee; and one-half pint of whipping cream.

Excerpts From As I Remember

by Marvin Martin

Just beyond the lumber yard was the Bank of Kewaskum, then an empty space with stalls, and there was a tavern on the northeast corner of Fond du Lac Avenue with horse barns. This later was a drug store and pharmacy.

Coming back to Parkview, the only building on the north side of Parkview was St. Lucas Evangelical Lutheran Church, school and parsonage.

First Street, known as Wilhelmina Street, from Parkview going west was Bilgo Lane. This was used for moving cattle to and from the fields to the barn which was on Parkview. It was also used to go to the McLaughlin Slaughter House which was on the river close to the northeast corner of what is now Regal's main office.

Then there was a sawmill on the west side of Bilgo Lane.

To the south of this, is the United Church of Christ.

On the north side of First Street, and just slightly northwest of the church was the Rempel Foundry where casting was done once or twice a week.

The Rempel Manufacturing Company was situated on the southwest corner of Railroad and First Street. The dairy was where the Kemps office is now.

On the Northwest corner of First and Fond du Lac Avenue was a harness shop owned by Val Peters. Where the Regal office building is was a lane that went to the North Side Park. This had a dance hall, a cook shack and a bandstand. Excursions were run from Milwaukee to Kewaskum to this park. The train came in the morning and returned in the evening.

Chief of Police Richard L. Knoebel shared the October 1992 monthly report with the Board as follows:

Traffic citations - 33; Traffic warnings - 10; Parking violations - 9; Parking warnings - 10; Property stolen - $971; Criminal investigations - 49; Adult arrest - 35; Criminal arrest - 64; Juvenile arrest - 30; Property recovered - $3.

The Board was asked if they wanted to go on record of supporting the enforcement of speed control within the Village and would support the use of a laser control device. On a motion by Trustee Gary Gavin, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the drafting of a letter of support for speed enforcement control and the requesting of a grant for the purchase of a laser control device. (It was noted that the funding is slated for 75 percent grant funds and 25 percent village funds.)

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles informed the Board that the regrading of the sand at the KKCP Beach has been accomplished. Also the street light system failure on Fond du Lac Avenue has been corrected. It was noted that there have been a number of vehicle breakdowns but so far have all been fixable.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board approved the applications for an Operator's License upon proper payment of fees and documentation and authorized the office to issue said licenses as follows:

Gross, Lori A. Kewaskum, WI.
Szczerbinski, Sharon R. West Bend, WI.

Note: The Police Department had no objections to any of the applications.

On a motion by Trustee David Goeden, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the signing of the "Anti-Harassment Policy".

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following:

1) Budget control sheet for the period ending October 31, 1992.

2) Informed the Board of the informational meeting on USH 45/Fond du Lac Avenue, scheduled for December 15, 1992 from 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

3) Review of correspondence. Chairman of the Public Services Committee, Trustee David Goeden informed the Board that the Committee did meet on and review the request of proposals regarding recycling and garbage collection. The request will be modified slightly and brought back to the Board December 14, 1992.

Board Representative for the Plan Commission, Trustee Gary Gavin informed the Board that the Plan Commission meeting scheduled for November 24, 1992 will be held a week later if it can be set up.

On a motion by Trustee Robert Beisbier, seconded by Trustee Thomas McElhatton and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board authorized the signing of the 1993 Fire Contract with the Town of Auburn. (The amount of the contract is $24,479.)

A review of the proposed 1993 budget was held and it was indicated that some adjustments have been made. The property tax levy is up by $21,916 or 5.4 percent; however when using the additional growth the levy would equal an increase in the proposed village rate to 3.2 percent. This would indicate a $.23 per thousand dollar increase. This would mean property assessed at $50,000 would see a village tax increase of $11.60. ($60,000 = $13.92 / $70,000 = $16.24 / $80,000 = $18.56) The proposed budget (revenues and expenditures) is up by $118,068 or 8.5 percent.

A brief discussion was held on the TIF / CIP, Water and Water Pollution Control preliminary budgets for 1993. No real changes occurred to these budgets.

It was again noted the public hearing for the 1993 budgets will be held November 30, 1992 at 7:00 p.m. in the Council Room, 204 First Street.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Robert Beisbier and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board changed the meeting schedule for December, 1992. The Board will meet on December 14, 1992 at 8:00 p.m. and will not meet on December 7 & 21, 1992.

On a motion Trustee David Goeden, seconded by Trustee Robert Wagner and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85 (1)(c) of the statutes to consider employment compensation and performance of public employees over which the governmental body has jurisdiction and Chapter 19.85 (1)(e) of the statutes to deliberate and negotiate the disposition of public lands. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye," 0 "Nay," 0 "Absent."

THANKSGIVING

GIVE YOURSELF MORE TO BE THANKFUL FOR

On this Thanksgiving Day you can give yourself more to be thankful for by deciding to stop smoking and then doing it. The Surgeon General reports that smoking is responsible for 100,000 deaths from lung cancer and 170,000 deaths from heart attack each year.

Here, from the experts are some of the dangers of smoking cigarettes, and the benefits of quitting:

*Two pack a day smokers die, on the average, 8.3 years younger than nonsmokers. By quitting, the risk drops daily. After 10 to 15 years, it is close to that of those who never smoked.

*By quitting cigarettes, your risk of coronary disease drops sharply after one year; at 10 years it is about the same as someone who has never smoked.

*When you quit smoking, your risk of lung cancer recedes steadily. After 10 to 15 years it is down to normal.

*The risk to smokers of People who stop smoking have a lot to be thankful for.

death by emphysema and bronchitis is four to twenty-five times as high as nonsmokers. When you quit, coughs disappear in a few weeks, lung function improves, deterioration stops.

Helping smokers quit is a new prescription chewing gum that contains nicotine. The gum releases small amounts of nicotine into the mouth. Long term success rates of 40 percent or more have been demonstrated. The gum is contraindicated in women who are or may become pregnant, in nursing mothers and in certain other conditions. Ask your doctor if you are a candidate.

DNR Outdoor Report

Wisconsin's nine-day gun deer season opened this past Saturday at sunrise, and an estimated 700,000 hunters headed into the fields and woods.

Department biologists estimated the herd size at 1.25 million deer, down a little from the 1991 estimate. That's in part due to some early, heavy snows in the northeast and northwest portions of the state last fall. The deer herd is also responding to some management practices in some areas. Overall, the herd is in good shape, but there are still over 50 management zones that are over their prescribed population goals.

Hunter access into the backwoods areas looks good. With the recent cold weather and little or no snow on the ground in most areas, roads into the woods have frozen. Along the Lower Wisconsin State Riverway, the bottomlands are wet, but are accessible on foot. Last week there was tracking snow in some northern areas. Woodruff had about two inches of snow on the ground, four inches were reported north of Boulder Junction, and up to nine inches in Florence County. Marshes are filled with water, but there isn't enough ice in the swamps to support the weight of a person.

Wet field conditions and late corn have prevented many farmers from harvesting their fields, and the standing corn is providing deer with ample hiding places. Hunters should use extreme caution when hunting in cornfields. Don't shoot unless you're absolutely sure of what's behind your target.

In some parts of the state, like Marathon County, the rut appears to be ending, but in other locations, deer movement continues at a high level. In central and northern Wisconsin, there will be more two- and three-year-old bucks in the herd this year; that's because the blizzard conditions that hit those areas on opening weekend last year reduced the harvest of yearling bucks. There are also more bucks being seen in southern counties, such as Iowa County, many of them with larger antlers. Southern Wisconsin also experienced bad weather conditions at the start of the 1991 gun season.

If you see hunting violations taking place, report them to your local sheriff's department or the State Patrol; they will contact the local conservation warden by radio.

If you observe a violation, including hunting from a road or a vehicle, try to get a description of the vehicle and its license number or the hunter's back tag number. And remember... safety comes first.

No firearms were allowed to be used in the state on Friday, November 20, except at a game farm, designated shooting ranges or if used for waterfowl hunting. Double-check to be sure your required blaze orange clothing isn't faded. It is very important for hunter safety.

Canada goose hunters are finding the most success in Fond du Lac and Green Lake counties, particularly in the Grand River Marsh area. The goose count at Theresa Marsh was around 15,000 last week.

Pheasant hunters are still having good success in Dane and Richland Counties as more corn is harvested. Small game hunting has slowed considerably statewide.

Northern lakes are starting to freeze up, but anglers are cautioned to STAY OFF them until the ice is safe! Walleyes are still being taken from open water on the Menominee River in Florence County. Some trout have been caught below the Stiles Dam in Oconto County.

In the southeast, brown trout and some nice-sized perch are providing action behind the Summerfest grounds in Milwaukee. Oak Creek is producing some steelhead, as is the Pike River. Water levels are dropping on Racine County's Root River. Some steelhead are being caught, but the big movement of the Chambers Creek strain has not occurred yet. The Sheboygan and Pigeon Rivers are holding fair numbers of brook and steelhead trout, but fishing has been slow.

All persons 12 to 15 years of age are required to complete a snowmobile safety course before they can operate a snowmobile alone. Subjects covered in the course include safe snowmobile handling, observance of laws and regulations, maintenance, trouble-shooting, first aid and responsible operation. Contact your local DNR office or conservation warden to find out when the course is being offered in your area.

As the holidays approach, we'd like to remind you that the cutting of Christmas trees on state or county land is not allowed. You may obtain a permit to cut a tree in the Chequamegon or Nicolet national forests. Contact a U.S. Forest Service office for more information.

Muzzleloader Deer Season Set for 1992

MADISON... Muzzleloading enthusiasts will again be able to take advantage of an additional week of hunting this year, due to Wisconsin's second muzzleloader-only deer season.

The statewide muzzleloader season begins immediately following the close of the regular gun deer season; it starts on Monday, Nov. 30, and runs through Sunday, Dec. 6.

Muzzleloading firearms permitted during this season must have an exposed hammer, and no telescopic sights are allowed. Also, hunters must hold a valid Hunter's Choice Permit or Bonus Antlerless Deer Permit, or hunt as a group with someone who holds one of these permits. The application deadline for Hunter's Choice and Bonus Antlerless Deer Permits was Sunday, Sept. 20.

Because the final two days of the muzzleloader season fell on the first two days of the late bow season, bow hunters are reminded that they must wear blaze orange clothing while hunting during that time. Small game hunters must also wear blaze orange the entire week of the muzzleloader-only deer hunt.

Traditional special muzzleloader hunts offered during the regular gun deer season (Nov. 21-29) will again be held in Blue Mound (100 permits issued), Governor Dodge (400 permits issued), and Perrot (60 permits issued) state parks. This year another muzzleloader-only unit is open in Peninsula State Park (150 permits issued). A Hunter's Choice or Bonus Antlerless Deer Permit is also required to participate in these hunts.

For more information contact Kevin Wallenfang at (608) 266-8130.

Germantown Wins State Swim Title

By Noel Stollenwerk

MADISON — After coming up just short in the state football playoffs, and then the state volleyball meet, Germantown was not going to be denied the girls Division II swimming title, here, Friday night.

The Warhawks won five of 12 possible events, en route to winning the first-ever Division II crown. Germantown finished with 288 points, easily outdistancing runner-up Rhinelander (234).

The Warhawks were paced by junior Brandie Lauterbach, who won both the 200 and 500-yard freestyle races, and helped both the 200 and 400-yard relay teams capture firsts. The other Warhawk win came in the 200 freestyle relay.

Hunters Delayed Opening Day By Rash of Flat Tires

The hunt for deer was severely curtailed in the northern unit of the Kettle Moraine Forest on opening day of gun deer season when nails found imbedded in highways caused over 200 flat tires, and numerous angry motorists.

Investigations are continuing as authorities search for the vandals that caused the rash of flat tires by using a nail gun to drive masonry nails into the surface of the highway shoulders, effectively puncturing the passenger side tires of each vehicle.

Authorities believe the nails were implanted sometime Friday night and discovered Saturday evening on County Trunk G near Hwy. 67 and County Trunk GGG near Forest Lake. Victims began flocking into gas stations on Saturday morning. Dins Mini-Mart of Dundee fixed over 150 tires that day, charging only $3.50 per tire, and Herriges Oil in Kewaskum changed over 30 that same day. Reports from the town of Osceola and also Sheboygan County indicated flat tires from nails (sharpened at the ends with the heads cut off).

Most of the roads were used by the large population of deer hunters in the area, besides the everyday traffic, leading authorities to believe that hunters were the targets. An empty nail box, purchased from Fleet Farm, was recovered from a ditch by one of the victims, and turned over to the police for fingerprinting.

Snow plows were sent out to scrape the roads running through the forest and the surrounding highways, in an effort to remove any nails from the road surface.

Speculation as to who and why would pull such a damaging stunt have ranged from blaming animal rights activists, to kids just pulling a prank. "We don't know who did it," said Doug Bilgo, DNR Ranger, "and it wouldn't be fair to point a finger toward anybody."

Fee on Vehicle Titles Will Help Fund Water Quality Improvements

MADISON... Starting December 1, 1993, water pollution control efforts in Wisconsin will get a funding boost when car owners begin paying an extra $7.50 to receive a Wisconsin motor vehicle certification of title or to transfer a title.

The fee increase, enacted by the Legislature, will provide $6 million in funds the first year and about $10 million each subsequent year for nonpoint source pollution control and conservation programs administered by the state Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP).

Nonpoint pollution is run-off from a wide variety of urban and rural sources such as construction sites, cropland and pastures, animal lots, highways, city streets, parking lots and lawns. Vehicle wear-and-tear and automotive fluids add lead, copper, zinc and other nonpoint source pollutants to Wisconsin waters.

Nonpoint pollution adds excess nutrients to lakes and rivers, leading to growth of nuisance aquatic plants and impaired recreation and navigation. It also contains common pollutants that can be toxic to fish and other aquatic life, including animal waste, fertilizer, pesticides, oil and grease, and soil.

"The increase in the title fee will put more pollution control money to work locally, where today's water quality problems can best be solved," said James Baumann of the DNR's Bureau of Water Resources Management. "Most of the money will be spent locally through grants to landowners provided by county land conservation departments," he said. Cities and villages will use the funds to help pay for stream-bank protection and stormwater management.

The Wisconsin Conservation Corps (WCC) will also receive some of the revenue for restoration projects. "Our WCC crews have always been committed to working on projects that benefit water quality and reduce pollution, so we're looking forward to doing more of this work statewide," said Topf Wells, executive director of the WCC.

The surcharge will bring the total fee for an original certificate of title or a motor vehicle title transfer to $12.50. The original $5 fee will be retained by DOT to support transportation-related programs at state, county and local levels.

Social Security Tips for Farmers

by David W. Becker, Branch Manager

Area farmers should make sure they keep accurate records of their income so they get proper credit for Social Security purposes. October is traditionally a busy month for many farmers harvesting their crops — and it's a good time to remind them that the net profit they make and report on their tax return next year will one day translate into Social Security benefits for themselves and their families.

All workers, including self-employed farmers, earn one Social Security "credit" for each $570 in earnings, up to a maximum of 4 credits per year. The number of credits needed to qualify for Social Security depends on the type of benefit involved and a person's age. Nobody needs more than 40 credits for retirement benefits. A young person could qualify for disability benefits with as few as six credits.

On a family-operated farm, the head of the household is considered to be the self-employed farmer and the farm income (and Social Security credits) are credited to him or her.

This is true even though other members of the family may help on the farm. Sometimes a husband and wife or a father and son, etc. operate a farm as a partnership. In these cases, the net income and Social Security credits are split between the partners. Social Security follows certain guidelines to determine if a true partnership arrangement exists. They are spelled out in a new leaflet called, A Guide To Social Security For Farmers, Growers, and Crew Leaders (Publication number 10025), available at your local Social Security office.

The booklet also explains how farm rental income is treated, how to figure net farm earnings, and how to report those earnings to Social Security.

Social Security taxes pay for a variety of programs including:

- * retirement benefits as early as age 62;
- * disability benefits for people of any age who are unable to work because of an impairment that's expected to last at least a year (or result in death);

- * dependents benefits for the spouse and children of retirees and people who get disability benefits;

- * survivors benefits for the widow(er) and children of workers who have died;

- * and health insurance coverage through the Medicare program.

Farmers who want more information or the guidebook can call our toll-free number: 1-800-772-1213 between 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. any business day. You may also contact your local Social Security Office at (414) 338-6182 from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

Bring Child Support Payments Up-to-Date

During the Holiday season all children look forward to candy canes, visits to Santa, giving and receiving gifts, school parties, snow, sledding, and fun, fun, fun.

Did you know that more than two hundred and seventy-six thousand children in Wisconsin are eligible for child support payments from their parents, but over half of these kids receive nothing.

What kind of a Christmas season will your kids have?

If you owe child support, find a way to pay it.

For more information on how to bring your child support payments up-to-date, contact the Washington County Child Support Agency at 335-4377.

Letter to The Editor

Dear Washington County Citizens:
November 16, 1992

Thank you to all who voted for me November 3 in the Sheriff's election. A special thank you to the members of W.I.G.S. Committee who worked so very hard on the write-in campaign. I am very proud to have been your candidate. I said when I lost the primary election, "You are never a loser when you have tried your best," and that is how I feel with the write-in campaign. I would like to add that I am also very proud of the 10,000 write-in votes I received. The special effort and time it took for 10,000 people to write in my name will be a memory I will carry with me always.

Last but not least, I would like to thank all of the poll workers for their extra time needed to count the write-in votes.

Thank you all.

Family Traditions

By Kandi O'Neil, UW-Extension
Washington County 4-H and Youth Agent

What comes to your mind when you think of family traditions? Thanksgiving, Christmas or maybe the Fourth of July celebrations? Those traditional family celebrations may jump out of your mind first; but what about the every day traditions that make your family unique?

Traditions like eating meals together, how your family celebrates birthdays, annual outings your family plans, taking a family walk, or what your family does when someone has had a bad day are also family traditions.

Family traditions help families feel good about themselves. They express what is important to your family. Take a few minutes to think about what your family traditions are. If you can say, "we always do it that way," then it's probably a family tradition.

Family traditions can strengthen families by helping family members feel close to each other and develop a sense of belonging. The shared meaning of family traditions creates feelings of warmth, closeness, and belonging. A newly married couple will want to develop their family traditions. They may have traditions they bring from each other's family; but they also need to make their own. Likewise a recently blended family will want to create their own "new" traditions so that the family members have a sense of belonging to their new family structure.

Traditions can also provide a link to the past. Traditions that are passed down through the generations provide a thread of continuity to family members. They can communicate appreciation for the family heritage.

Traditions can provide stability and continuity within a family during times of stress. Families who move adjust more easily to new environments if they can carry some traditions with them. Although many traditions are tied to the past, they do not need to be. You can develop new traditions that are enjoyed by your family. Sometimes a tradition outlives its usefulness or creates resentment or discomfort. If that happens, it may be time to create a new tradition in its place.

Look for new traditions that fit your current family situation. Family structure is continuing to change on our society. Families that can change traditions to fit their situations tend to be happier and healthier. Traditions provide a way that family members can show love for one another along with providing family members with happy memories.

Family Center Adds On

The Family Center's Drop-In program on Tuesday and Thursday mornings, for parents and their newborn to four year olds, has been so popular that an additional morning has been added on.

Every Friday from 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. parents can stop at the Family Center for the fun of seeing other parents and kids, crafts, songs & of course, toys. On Fridays, there will also be a casual discussion on topics of importance to parents of very young children: sleepless nights, tantrums, separation anxiety, etc.

All Family Center programs are free. For more information or to receive a program guide including parenting workshops and classes, call 338-9461.

The Family Center is located at 279 S. 17th Avenue in West Bend, and serves families throughout the county who have children under five years of age.

America's first national monument, Devils Tower and our first national forest, Shoshone, are both located in Wyoming. The state is also home to the world's oldest national park, Yellowstone.

Local Clubs Are the Backbone Of the Snowmobile Trail System

MADISON... As you prepare for the winter's first snowmobile trail ride, please remember all the long hours the volunteer snowmobile club members have already put in to assure the trail is safe as possible.

Gary Homuth of the Department of Natural Resources Snowmobile Safety Program says volunteer clubs have helped make the Wisconsin snowmobile trail system the longest and most enjoyed in the nation.

"By the time you get out there each year, these folks have been at it for weeks... securing permission for trail easements, and brushing and removing potential hazards," Homuth says. "They're also the ones who put up the signs that guide you along."

Homuth asks that snowmobilers be mindful of trail markers as they make use of both state-funded and club-sponsored trails. Signs indicating that trails in your county are open, and others identifying trail corridors, he says, are the keys to keeping individual segments of the trail available to snowmobilers.

"We've had problems in the past, especially during poor snow conditions. People are anxious to get out and may try to use the trails before they're officially opened," Homuth explains. "They end up digging ruts and tearing up ground cover, or they leave the trail and cut through private property. Property owners just don't need that. And if it gets bad enough, they pull their property out of the system."

Club members in some parts of the state faced difficulty last year when they were forced to find new segments. In some cases, crop lands had been damaged by snowmobilers who left the trail to ride through undisturbed fields. In one case, Homuth says, a group of snowmobilers caused thousands of dollars in damage to a golf course adjacent to a state-funded section of trail.

"I don't think these people realize what they're doing when they get off the trail. A good trail not only takes a lot of work, it's also built on a foundation of trust," Homuth says. "Snowmobilers also risk their safety when they ignore the signs. Once you're off the trail, you never know where you might encounter wire fences or obstructions buried under the snow."

Snowmobile Safety Training Classes Offered Statewide

Children ages 12 through 15 must successfully complete a state-authorized snowmobile safety training course in order to operate a snowmobile on their own this season.

"Snowmobile safety classes are being offered in dozens of communities throughout the state this year, and many are currently taking enrollments," said Gary Homuth, snowmobile safety coordinator for the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources.

The classes are taught by volunteer instructors, and generally involve two to three nights of training. The standard course includes a minimum of eight hours of instruction covering the importance and basics of safe snowmobile handling, snowmobiling laws and regulations, ethics and responsible behavior.

Parents can learn more about the snowmobile safety classes offered in their area by contacting the nearest DNR field office or conservation warden.

For more information contact Gary Homuth at 608-266-3244.
