Board Votes to Retain Parking Stalls

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM — It wasn't a unanimous decision, but the Kewaskum Village Board last Monday passed a resolution supporting highway work to be done on Fond du Lac Avenue in 1995.

The Board voted 4-3 on the resolution, which calls for the preservation of eleven parking stalls at the Fond du Lac - Main Street intersection.

The resurfacing project will cover a stretch of Fond du Lac Avenue from County Highway H West to US Highway 28 West, just north of the village.

Another project, scheduled for 1996, is the expansion of the double traffic lanes that currently cease about three miles south of the village. Those double lanes will be extended north to the Kewaskum Fire House.

Additional lanes will also be added north of the village, from the My Little Friends Day Care Center to US Highway 28 West, which is right at the village limits.

The point of dispute at last Monday's meeting was whether the parking stalls at the Main Street - FDL intersection should be removed or retained. The Department of Transportation originally wanted to remove the stalls, which would in turn have been used for turn lanes.

After discussion regarding possible alternate parking near the intersection, the Board voted to retain the spaces.

In another matter, the Board approved the sale of the village's last R-4 Multi-Family lot adjacent to Wildlife Drive. The sale, to Michael Johnson at a cost of $23,500, was one of two approved at the meeting.

The Board also voted to sell just over 15 acres of land adjacent to Wildlife Dr. to Steve Olig, at a cost of $50,000. Neither of the sales have been closed, however.

Village Administrator Dan Schmidt also announced that he has been asked to serve on the League of Wisconsin Municipalities Finance and Taxation Committee.

The committee, made up of 18 officials from throughout the state, is the League of Wisconsin Municipalities main lobbying effort. The League reviews and lobbies for changes in finance and taxation for Wisconsin Municipalities, meeting three or four times each year.

Schmidt, who is the lone Administrator to be asked to serve on the committee, will serve a one-year term.

Fin-n-Feather Re-Opens After Remodeling

Betty and Dennis Krueger pose in their newly remodeled Fin-n-Feather Restaurant with their Wisconsin Restaurant Association 1993 Outstanding Restaurateur of the Year Award. The Kruegers are in their 14 year of business.

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

It isn't often these days that you can still find entire communities rallying for the same cause, and Dennis and Betty Krueger of New Prospect are still shaking their heads in wonderment.

Their newly remodeled restaurant, the Fin-n-Feather, reopened for business recently after a 25 day work-a-thon that included the volunteer efforts of family, neighbors, and friends.

"It was just like years ago," remarks Betty, regarding the community's support. Neighbors lent their time and talents, which are visible throughout the restaurant. From the initial design layout to the handmade cherrywood paneling, cabinets and buffet, the remodeling project became a labor of love and old-fashioned craftsmanship.

"We also owe a lot to our kids and parents," the Kruegers remarked, for their help and support was crucial in meeting the finishing deadline. "Betty's mom brought us lots of food," and Zahns Trading Post also sent over food when they couldn't donate their time. Neighbors Ralph and Diane Smith donated an old Victorian sink they had in their barn for the new bathroom; neighbor Kay Ralston had her father ship some antique fishing lures all the way from Pennsylvania; the generosity continued to spread past the point of "just lending a hand."

Betty's design crew included Alice from Kettlebrook Bed and Breakfast, employee Louise and her sister Kay. "Louise drew up the plans for me," states Betty, and from there the team chose decor, artwork, lighting, wallpaper, and color schemes to fit their wildlife motif. Big new windows bring natural light into the bar room, and your eyes are drawn to an array of collectibles from Redlin prints, to wildlife plates and antique glassware handed down from their families.

Rick Post custom designed and crafted much of the woodwork, including all the paneling, and the built-in cherry china cabinet. Dennis' brother Dave Krueger was the general contractor and worked every day to get the job done on time. "Our wonderful employees also volunteered their time," added Betty, who hopes they didn't forget to mention anyone.

Another striking new feature is the custom bar rail, laminated and inset with unique conversation pieces - collector stamps, antique fishing lures, a pocketwatch and knife, pheasant feathers, "and the names of everyone that helped," added Dennis.

The National Exchange Bank of Campbellsport was instrumental in helping them obtain a specialized recreational business loan, that took a year of paperwork until it finally went through. "It was worth the wait," Dennis points out.

In conjunction with Kettlebrook Bed and Breakfast,

Kewaskum's 'Ten Most Wanted' Announced for 'Jail and Bail'

Kewaskum, Wis. — The Washington County North unit of the American Cancer Society has announced the names of its "Ten Most Wanted."

They are: David Gruber, Gruber Tool & Die; Donald Gruber, Gruber Tool & Die; Greg Ogi, Kewaskum Veterinary Clinic; Mitch Ogi, Kettle Moraine Agency, Inc.; Jeff

Reigle, Regal Ware, Inc.; Roy Swanson, Kern Manufacturing; Tom Timblin, Rustic Timbers Apartments; Steve Var Ess, D.D.S.; Neal Weare, Kewaskum School Board member; and Gerald Zimmer, Valley Bank.

The "Wanted" posters will be appearing around the village within the next week and we urge you to check out the charges posted for each of the Ten Most Wanted.

"Although the official Jail & Bail program will run March 2 and 3, the committee has been hard at work in an effort to ensure a successful drive," said Tim Miller, local chairperson.

The lobby of Valley Bank will be the jail site and committee members will be on hand as judges, bailiffs and clerks. The site will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Tuesday and Wednesday. The committee has already compiled a "hit list" of other individuals who will be hauled into "jail" to raise money for the cancer fund. And, for a $10.00 donation you can have a friend or relative arrested and sentenced. The bail set for that individual goes to the cancer fund. For more information, or to set up an arrest, you can call Tim Miller or Cindy Schneider at 626-2171.

According to Miller, "All the pre-planning and efforts on the part of the committee indicate we should have a fun time and raise some much needed moneys, too. The people of Kewaskum and surrounding area have always been very cooperative and generous."

Gonring Named New KHS Baseball Coach

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM — While many kids dream of throwing a fastball like Nolan Ryan, very few are able to realize that dream, much less play professional baseball.

Starting this year, however, prospective Kewaskum High School baseball players will get the chance to play for a coach that actually caught for Ryan, even if it was in spring training.

The Kewaskum School District wasted no time in hiring Doug Gonring to replace Tom Bartelt as the KHS varsity baseball coach. The School Board Monday night unanimously approved Gonring to succeed Bartelt, who resigned the post in December after a successful reign.

"I'm very excited about it," Gonring said of his new position. "I really wanted to do the varsity level, and to get the job in your hometown...it just worked out very well."

Gonring has extensive coaching experience, even though at age 30 he is still considered young for a coach. Gonring coached the West Bend East freshman squad for two years, and then served as a graduate assistant on the Iowa State University staff.

Gonring also did some assistant coaching for Clairmont (California) College, and did some instructing at Bucky Dent's Baseball Camp. The past two years, Gonring has served as player/coach for the Kewaskum Athletics squad, leading the A's to the Northern Division title this past year.

The new KHS coach also has some impressive playing credentials. After graduating from West Bend East in 1981, the all-state catcher attended the University of Arkansas on a baseball scholarship. There, Gonring roomed with Kevin McReynolds, who is currently a member of the Kansas City Royals. "I still talk to him occasionally."

But after knee and shoulder operations sidelined him, "it looked like I wasn't going to play a whole lot there."

Gonring transferred to Indian Hills Community College (Iowa) for one year, before finishing his college career at Florida Atlantic University.

The Milwaukee Brewers drafted Gonring in the 20th round of the 1984 draft, but Gonring decided to finish his final year at Florida Atlantic instead. Toronto came calling in the 36th round of the 1985 draft, and Gonring signed with the Blue Jays. He was sent to the Gulf Coast (Rookie) League, where he batted .301.

After being released by the Blue Jay organization the following year, Gonring was picked up by the Houston Astros, where he played on the Astros' Class A and AA squads. "I did a little bit of everything," Gonring said of his playing days, in which he played first base, third base, catcher and designated hitter. "I guess I was what you call a utility player."

Gonring was invited to the Astros 1987 spring training camp, where he caught for both Ryan and knuckleballer Mike Scott. Gonring also met Ken Cameniti, currently the Astro starting third baseman.

Nobody picked him up after being released in 1988, so Gonring returned to the area. He is currently employed at the West Bend Elevator, and has a wife, Karen, and daughter, Lauren.

Gonring says he plans to relinquish his role as Athletics' manager, which became a bit of a burden on him last season. "I wasn't playing well," he said. "Having to make too many decisions and trying to play at the same time...it just wasn't working out."

As for what type of coaching style fans might look for, even Gonring doesn't know at this point.

"I don't have a clue until I see the kids," he said. "I know some of them, but not all that many. It'll be a learning experience for me."

Campbell Appointed Director Of 'Joker's Wild' Casino

Joe Fuscaldo, General Manager of the Joker's Wild Casino, recently announced Judy Campbell, daughter of Bud and Ruth Campbell, of Kewaskum, as the "Director of Casino and Administrative Operations" at this all new casino.

Joker's Wild, located at 920 Boulder Highway is slated to open April 1, 1993. This newly acquired casino was formally the Cattle Baron. It was acquired recently by Eldorado Inc., which is solely owned by the Boyd family.

Campbell was most recently Casino Manager of the Eldorado Casino, in downtown Henderson. Judy has been employed at the Eldorado since 1989.

Previously, Campbell was with the Boyd Group, starting out as a dealer at the California Hotel, working way through the Boyd properties to Relief Pit Supervisor.

Campbell was chosen to be a part of the management team for the Jokers Wild because, "...of her understanding of our commitment to the Henderson Community", said Joe Fuscaldo, General Manager of the Jokers Wild.

Campbell was born in Kewaskum, where she attended the University of Wisconsin, Washington County, and moved to Las Vegas in 1978.

The Fin-n-Feather reopened for business Jan. 29, and so far the reaction has been great. "Its really neat to see the customers faces when they see the change," beams Betty proudly. "Its a great feeling."

"As I am now, you too shall be. So get on with your life, then follow me."

"To follow you, I'm not content, until I know, which way you went!"

Asch, Hauser to Perform Recital

On Sunday, February 28, at 2:00 p.m. the West Bend Gallery of Fine Arts, in conjunction with the Moraine Area Private Teachers Organization, will present a program of French Romantic music for violin and piano performed by Glenn Asch and Pat Hauser.

The same recital will be given in the recital theater at the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee for Glenn's Masters of violin performance degree on Thursday, Feb. 11, at 8:00 p.m.

Glenn Asch, a violinist in the Milwaukee Symphony, is no stranger to West Bend Audiences. While attending Kewaskum high school, he studied with Gerald Stanick at the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music. While studying with Norman Paulu at the University of Wisconsin-Madison he played the Stravinsky Violin Concerto with the orchestra. At that time he performed twice in West Bend with his Madison-based bluegrass band, the Himalayan Mountain Boys.

Since then, he has performed on the UWVC recital series with a string quartet and with the Milwaukee Symphony Jazz Quintet. He is now enrolled in a masters of violin performance degree at UW-Milwaukee studying with Ralph Evans, First Violinist with the Fine Arts Quartet.

Patricia Hauser is also a native of the West Bend area. While attending Slinger High School, she studied piano with Anna Asch and later attended UW-Eau Claire where she received a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance under the tutelage of Kenneth Burky.

Since that time, she has become an active professional accompanist in the area and maintains a piano studio in her home in Jackson. She is a member of the Moraine Area Private Music Teachers Organization and the Wisconsin Music Teachers Association. Currently, she is studying the Dorothy Taubmann technique for prevention of injury with Heidi Mayer in Chicago.

The program will feature French Romantic music with the exception of the first piece, "Festive", which was composed by Glenn Asch. He was commissioned to write the work by the Wisconsin Music Teachers Association and performed at their convention in Appleton in 1991.

The program will be: "Festive," - Glenn Asch;

"Sonata for Violin and Piano," - Guillaume Lekeu; "Poeme," - Ernest Chausson; "Sonata in D minor," - Camille Saint-Saens. Both recitals are free and open to the public.

St. Lucas Welcomes Laura Moldenhauer to Teaching Staff

Laura Moldenhauer

The newest addition to the teaching staff at St. Lucas Lutheran Elementary School is Mrs. Laura Moldenhauer. She is a resident of Fredrick Place in West Bend and has accepted the call to teach kindergarten and pre-school.

Mrs. Moldenhauer, nee Smith, is a native of Theresa, Wisconsin, where she was a member of St. Peter Lutheran Church. Upon high school graduation from Winnebago Lutheran Academy in Fond du Lac, she enrolled at Dr. Martin Luther College in New Ulm, Minnesota to prepare for the teaching ministry. In 1971 she graduated from DMLC with a Bachelors Degree in Education. That summer she married Kermit Moldenhauer who is also a Theresa native. They both accepted teaching assignments to St. Stevens Lutheran School in Beaver Dam, Wisconsin. Mrs. Moldenhauer taught 1st and 2nd grade for four years until her husband accepted a call to teach at Martin Luther Academy in New Ulm, Minnesota. They spent four years in New Ulm and then journeyed to Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, where Mr. Moldenhauer taught music, chorus and piano at Martin Luther Preparatory School which had moved from its previous location in New Ulm.

The Moldenhauers moved to West Bend and joined Good Shepherd Lutheran Church when he accepted a position with the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod in Milwaukee in 1990. He currently is the Music Editor for Northwestern Publishing House. Her family consists of Amy, 17, and Aaron, 14, both students at Martin Luther Prep School in Prairie du Chien. Students at Good Shepherd Lutheran Elementary School in West Bend are Rachel, 12, and Philip, 9.

After arrival in West Bend, Mrs. Moldenhauer had been employed at the YMCA Day Care before her acceptance of the position at St. Lucas. Her kindergarten class meets each weekday morning with the preschoolers attending on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Laura enjoys many activities, including camping with her family. She also enjoys walking and quiet time finds her doing cross stitch - as time permits. The students, parents, faculty and members of St. Lucas have been happy to welcome her to our parish.

Washington County Cattle Producers Fund Environmental Teaching Program

To help school children better understand how they can help conserve and protect the environment, cattle producers in Washington County and across the United States have funded an education program called "Caretakers All."

This six-lesson program is intended to teach third and fourth grade students the principles of good environmental caretaking, with applications in math, science, reading and other classroom curricula. The program addresses topics such as soil, water and plant conservation, animal care, recycling, environmental interdependence and personal responsibility. Each lesson offers a full-color photograph to illustrate a central theme and provide a discussion starting point. Lessons also include student activity sheets, a teacher's guide and evaluation form.

"This program helps children understand the importance of preserving precious natural resources and how each person is responsible for maintaining the environment," says Wisconsin Beef Council Program Coordinator Susan Quam. "In addition, children learn how farmers and ranchers rely on the environment for their livelihood and how they care for their land and livestock."

"Caretakers All" also includes suggestions for children on how they can better care for their own communities by picking up litter, recycling and by using reusable containers. This program was written by elementary school teachers and reviewed by other educators and environmental education experts.

Copies of "Caretakers All" will also be used in the "Myth Busters" industry information program conducted by the National Cattlemen's Association, a significant partner in helping the Beef Industry Council develop "Caretakers All."

The beef industry has sent flyers offering "Caretakers All" to 75,000 third and fourth grade teachers in rural and suburban schools. In the spring of 1993, flyers will be distributed to urban areas. The program is also being publicized extensively to education publications. "Caretakers All," is sent free of charge to third and fourth grade teachers who request a copy, on school stationary, for use as a classroom tool. Approximately 12,000 requests have already been received.

The kit will be sent free to third and fourth grade teachers only. All others may order the kit for $8.95 plus postage and handling. Contact the Wisconsin Beef Council at 1-608-221-8788 or write the Beef Industry Council, Dept. ED/CA04, 444 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Illinois 60611-9909.

The Lake Twelve cottage home occupied by Mrs. Shirlee A. Gaffke, the former Shirlee Backus of Kewaskum, and her five children in the Town of Farmington, Route 1, Fredonia, was completely destroyed by fire along with all the furnishings Saturday evening. Mrs. Gaffke and her children were away from home at the time of the disaster. Flames from the fire were noticed by neighbors who live at some distance from the Gaffke cottage. The neighbors called the Fillmore Fire Department. Firemen said they could not determine the cause of the blaze, but it was believed to have started in either the kitchen or living room area of the building about 6:15 p.m. By the time firemen arrived at the scene the roof of the structure had already collapsed. The Gaffkes are making their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Backus in Kewaskum until they can find living quarters.

Miss Jane Honeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kilian A. Honeck, Route 2, Kewaskum, has been chosen as the Good Citizen of Kewaskum Community High School in a contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. The award is made annually to a senior girl in each high school. Selection is based on scholarship, leadership and service to the school.

Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Roman Schekirke, Campbellsport, on February 1; to Mr. and Mrs. William Kern, Route 2, Campbellsport, on February 3, and to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dreher, Kewaskum, on February 4.

50 Years Ago

FEBRUARY 12, 1943

Brief announcement was made in our last issue that word was received by Mr. and Mrs. Otto R. Koepke of near Beechwood, Route 1, Adell, last Wednesday morning that their son, Pfc. Richard A. Koepke, 29, with the 127th Infantry, 32nd Division, had been killed in action with the army. Since then more details have been reported to this office by the young man's father. The telegram from the war department stated that Pfc. Koepke was killed in action on January 20, in defense of his country in the southwest Pacific area. He was the 22nd Sheboygan County soldier to give his life for his country in the present war. Pfc. Koepke entered service on March 20, 1941, and was sent to Camp Livingston, La. He remained there for seven months and then was released because of the lowering of the age limit. He was recalled in February, 1942, and left this country last April for Australia. Last November he was transferred to New Guinea. Pfc. Koepke's uncle, John Petermann of Campbellsport, gave his life in World War I, on November 2, just nine days before the armistice was signed.

Confidence that the citizens of Washington County will give their full cooperation to the shoe rationing program was expressed today by the local War Price and Rationing Board. Shoes that are rationed include: Unused shoes made in whole or in part of leather or with rubber soles, including all ordinary types of hard-soled moccasins, casual, play, platform and rubber-soled athletic shoes.

More women of this community are urgently needed to come and help with the surgical dressings made every day except Saturday and Sunday at the local high school. The groups meet from 3 to 5 p.m. and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. A large quota of dressings must be turned out and the present number of faithful workers is not sufficient to meet this quota.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lecher of Route 2, Kewaskum, are the parents of a daughter born on February 6. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilke of Route 3, Kewaskum, are the parents of a daughter also born on February 6. A son was born to Pvt. and Mrs. Russell Neumann of this village on February 4. Mrs. Neumann, the former Erna Lubitz, is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Helmuth Lubitz while her husband is serving his country. He is stationed in Camp Gruber in Oklahoma.

Lieutenant Jacob Johannes of Co. D, 127th Infantry, is now on his way to France according to a letter received by his brother, Michael Johannes, here last week. Although the Lieutenant does not make any statement in his letter as to the time of their departure, he gives his present address with the American Expeditionary Forces in France.

Walter Knickel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knickel of Campbellsport, who is stationed at Kelly Field, San Antonio, Texas, had a miraculous escape from death last Friday. While making a trial flight, the engine of the aeroplane refused to respond and Mr. Knickel dropped to the ground at a terrific speed. The aeroplane was completely demolished, but the driver "came up smiling" without the slightest injury.

Miss Olga Trost of this village and Jacob Horning of Beechwood were united in matrimony Tuesday evening in the Lutheran St. Lucas parsonage. The Rev. Greve performed the ceremony.

Miss Olga Capelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Capelle, was married February 11, to Frederick C. Bammel, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bammel. The ceremony was performed at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. Schmidt.

Cablegrams were received during the past week assuring the safe arrival of Adolph Rosenheimer and Walter and Carl Schaefer "some where in Europe." A cablegram was received by A. L. Rosenheimer, from his son, Adolph, containing the words "arrived safely," but these two words mean more to the family at this time than a book of war news sent to them by someone else. It was at first reported that Gregory Harter was on the Tucania at the time when this boat was torpedoed. This however, seems impossible, as he mailed a card to his cousin, Miss Helen Rimmel, here a few days prior to the sinking of the Tucania. The card was mailed at Jersey City and it would be impossible for him to mail the postal and be on the ill fated ship at the time of the torpedoing.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evils against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even and in spite of all material illusion. I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine.

The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted.

Governor Delivers Strong Message In State of the State Address

By State Senator Donald Stitt

Having delivered the State of the State address for the past six years, Governor Tommy G. Thompson is an old pro at touting the strengths of Wisconsin while fleshing out his ideas for addressing the existing challenges facing our state.

This year was no different. When the Governor addressed a joint-session of the State Legislature recently, he delivered several strong messages.

The center piece of his address, as in past years, was the economic strengths of our state in comparison to other midwest states.

He cited the fact that over the last six years, over 285,000 jobs have been created in Wisconsin, the fact that we created more manufacturing jobs than any other state, the fact that our construction industry is enjoying its sixth straight record-setting year and the fact that home building is up 23 percent.

The Governor also talked about our low unemployment rate, the 10,000 new businesses created here and the large job providers that are re-incorporating here after having left in years past.

But while the Governor proudly highlighted our strengths, he also offered a serious assessment of the challenges we still face.

From a very tight state budget, to affordable health care, to the growing problems of crime and drunk driving, Governor Thompson was all too cognizant of the problems still facing our state.

The State of the State address also provided the Governor with an opportunity to hint at the contents of his upcoming budget.

Scheduled to be presented to the State Legislature on February 4, the proposals included in the Governor's budget will set the tone for state spending decisions and political debate during the upcoming budget session.

As a member of the Joint Committee on Finance, I will be one of sixteen other state legislators to have first crack at the Governor's budget.

The Governor hinted that he aims to expand the Milwaukee school choice program to double its current size.

School to work and technical preparation programs already working in the state look to be supported in the upcoming budget.

Most importantly, though, he reiterated his pledge not to increase taxes on Wisconsin residents.

This was the most critical message included in his address simply because one of the basic reasons Wisconsin avoided the full wrath of the recession was our favorable tax climate and our diversified job base.

These factors were largely enabled by the actions of the Governor and the Legislature in past years to resist raising taxes to fund excess state spending.

Other items the Governor has indicated he will propose in his budget included cost controls on local government and school spending, changes in the mediation-arbitration law and private practice teaching for public schools.

I have always been a strong proponent of cost control because the state cannot continue pouring millions of dollars into state aid programs without some mechanism to control spending on the other end.

I'm encouraged to see the Governor support long overdue changes in the mediation-arbitration law particularly because last session I introduced legislation to place a five-year moratorium on the med/arb law.

Private practice teaching is another proposal of which I've been a strong proponent.

I also introduced legislation last session to allow schools to contract for private teaching services to expand curriculum options at a lower cost to school boards.

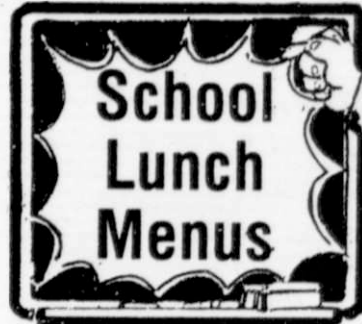

What is critical about the Governor including my proposals in the state budget is that he is better able to build support for them and use the necessary political capital to get them passed by the Legislature.

As I await the Governor's budget address, I'm left with one strong observation from his state of the state address.

Governor Thompson has been so successful at advancing his proposals because members of the Legislature and the public truly feel like he believes in what he is proposing and his high level of enthusiasm helps to build the needed support.

I felt the State of the State address was somewhat lacking in the enthusiasm we have previously seen from the Governor.

I fully expect, however, when Governor Thompson presents his state budget to the Legislature, the substance of his message as well as the delivery will be such that we will all be motivated to embrace those ideas and work toward formulating a budget that is meaningful to the people of Wisconsin.

Area Girl Scouts Help 'Project Concern International'

Farmington Junior Girl Scout Troop 268 has organized a donation drive to be held February 9 - 16th at Farmington School. The scouts will be collecting items to be used in hygiene kits, for "Project Concern International" in which the Kewaskum Junior Woman's Club sponsors.

Needed items are clean, new washcloths, wrapped bar soap, any brand, bathroom size (not hotel size), clean combs and toothpaste (not small travel size). Toothbrushes have already been donated by a local dentist. Once the items have been collected, the hygiene kits will be made by the Kewaskum Cadette Troop No. 25.

"Project Concern International dedicated to ensuring, in a lasting way, the survival of children whose lives are at risk.

Since 1961 "PCI" has worked with children and families in Asia, Africa, Central America, Romania and in rural areas of the United States.

Victims of hurricane Andrew were helped through the efforts of "Project Concern International". Project Concern International's programs reduce infant mortality, combat malnutrition, protect people from disease, and help those served build self-reliant health care programs.

Project Concern International has continued to play an important part in helping the lives of others. Kewaskum and Farmington scouts understand this importance, and hope the generosity of others will help them in collecting the needed items.

Donations may be dropped off at Farmington School Feb. 9 - 16th.

Wisconsin artists Nancy Davis, Milwaukee; Lynn G. Gilchrist, Sturgeon Bay and Kathleen Gray Schallock, Bay View, present unique and highly personal approaches to the medium of pastel. Ms. Davis has received numerous awards for her abstract floral and plant forms which approach fantasy and surrealism. Formerly an art instructor, she received a B.A. from Andrews University, Berrian Springs, Michigan.

Lynn G. Gilchrist's realistically rendered seascapes and rock studies have been included in numerous exhibitions throughout the area. She is the recipient of many awards including the First National Open Exhibition of The Pastel Society of the West Coast, Sacramento, California, where she received first place in her category. She received a B.A. from Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ms. Schallock's work includes a focus on the energy of the human figure, and the compositional forms of the landscape. Among many awards, she was the recipient of the 1992 Wisconsin Arts Board Development Grant. Schallock's work can be found in university and museum collections throughout the United States and England. She received her B.S. in Art from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Welcome To Our World

by Diane Horlamus, Director
The Washington County Humane Society

A lot of people wonder what happens to the animals they bring into the Humane Society. "Are they put to sleep as soon as we walk out of the door?" they ask themselves, "Does my pet or stray cat have a chance?" We give everyone the same answer, "There are no guarantees".

When any animal is brought to the shelter by its' owner, we ask the owner to fill out an Animal Profile. This Profile asks questions like: How does this animal get along with children? Has this animal ever bitten anyone? Why are you surrendering this pet? How long have you owned this animal? What are his/her favorite foods? etc..... We hang this Profile on the front of the surrendered animals' cage and anyone who is interested in adopting this animal will know a little about its' likes, dislikes and habits.

Every animal is put into "holding" upon arrival. Until we are sure these animals are safe to handle, paid staff are the only ones allowed to handle them. The volunteers and public are not allowed into these "holding" rooms. The animals are held in the holding section for a minimum of 2 days. It is during this time that we get to know the animals better. It is also a time to test for either feline leukemia or heartworm, do a fecal, spray or flea dip the animal and give some preliminary shots. If the animal has a friendly, outgoing personality, it is put into the adoption ward. If the animal is shy or scared, it might be moved into either my or Cindys' office for a few days until he or she adjusts to all the new sights and sounds. If the animal shows extreme signs of vicious behavior, it is put to sleep. Animals that have a bite history may be sent to the Federal Drug Program but they are not put up for adoption.

A stray animal that comes to the shelter goes through the same procedure except for the feline leukemia and heartworm testing. The state law says that dogs must be held for 7 days before becoming the property of the county pound. After the seven days, the dog is either put up for adoption or put to sleep. We don't have a set time for holding an adoptable animal, some of our animals have been residents of the shelter for months before that "just right" person comes along. Unfortunately, cats have no law protecting them. We do however, hold stray cats for at least 24 hours unless they are very sick or severely injured.

If animals that come to the shelter are sick and in need of medical attention, we take them to one of the veterinarians in the county. They are humanely put to sleep when the veterinarian tells that there is nothing more we can do for them.

The animals that you see when you come to the shelter, are the ones that we feel would make excellent companions for you and your family. Even with these hand selected animals that we have come to love, "there are no guarantees".

UNIMPRESSED: "I haven't seen you at church lately, William," said the minister, "What's the matter?" "My daughter is learning to play the harp," replied William. "But what's that got to do with it?" "Well, I'm not so keen on going to Heaven as I was!"

February is American Heart Month

What You Should Know About Heart Disease

By Thomas E. Loose, M.D.
General Clinic, West Bend

Heart disease is the leading cause of death in America, contributing to 600,000 deaths annually.

Heart disease, or more specifically, coronary vascular disease, is a condition in which the blood vessels that supply the heart with nutrients and oxygen, become narrowed by a process of atherosclerosis, or hardening of the arteries, and subsequently will cause symptoms and lead to a heart attack.

Symptoms of coronary artery disease are classically described as chest pain, which is of band-like quality or a pressure or a heaviness on the chest, similar to that of a person standing on the chest. Often, the symptoms will be accompanied by pain radiating to the neck or jaw or down the arms, most commonly the left arm.

Sometimes the pain radiates to the back. Often this pain is associated with nausea and usually is associated with a cold sweat. The symptoms are often first manifested during exertion and are associated with shortness of breath. A person experiencing these symptoms will often stop what they are doing and the pain usually disappears. The presence of this chest pain with exertion is termed "angina."

Often the presence of angina signals that there is significant narrowing of the coronary vessels and a person who experiences angina is likely to have a "heart attack." A heart attack, or myocardial infarction, is an acute process in which the chest pain of angina is unrelenting and severe and lasts for a prolonged period of time, usually greater than 20 minutes.

If chest pain lasts for a long period of time and does not go away with rest, it is an emergency situation and a person should be evaluated immediately in an emergency room setting.

Coronary vascular disease is a disease that is a systemic illness characterized by vascular disease elsewhere. It is known to be associated with several risk factors. Therefore, a person's risk of coronary disease can be, to some degree, prevented.

The major risk factors for coronary vascular disease include: A strong family history of premature heart disease; being male; smoking or tobacco use; high blood pressure; sedentary life style; obesity; diabetes; and elevated cholesterol.

Some factors certainly cannot be altered. You cannot easily change your sex and it is impossible to change your family history and your genetic predisposition to coronary vascular disease. However, other modifications can be made.

People should strive to maintain an ideal body weight, to exercise regularly at least 20 minutes per day with sustained exertion, although aerobic conditioning is more prone to improving cardiovascular conditioning than isometric exercises.

Isometric exercises include those such as weight lifting. Exercises that are excellent for the heart include walking, swimming, and cross country skiing.

The greatest risk factor for coronary disease is smoking. Smoking accelerates hardening of the arteries. It also causes the platelets, which are clotting cells in the blood, to become sticky and can form platelet "plugs" or clots, which is what is presumed to cause a heart attack or myocardial infarction. The best way to improve cardiovascular risks is to quit smoking and to avoid exposure to second hand smoke.

High blood pressure should be treated and maintained at a normal range. Unfortunately, blood pressure is an asymptomatic condition and the only way this can be detected is to have your blood pressure checked. A yearly blood pressure check is reasonable in order to detect elevation. Both systolic and diastolic blood pressure elevations can contribute to heart disease.

If a person has diabetes, they should use efforts to control the blood sugar to near normal levels. It has not yet been absolutely proven that perfect control of blood sugar can improve cardiovascular risks, but medicine assumes that by controlling this, it will have an impact.

Cholesterol is considered to be a major risk factor and anyone with a blood cholesterol elevated above 240 mg/dcl is considered to have high cholesterol. A cholesterol value of 200 to 240 is considered borderline. An elevated cholesterol does not cause symptoms. Although sometimes a physician can recognize some signs of elevated cholesterol, usually a blood sample needs to be obtained to determine the cholesterol level.

Treatment of high cholesterol is usually initially directed toward dietary control.

It is generally recommended that people avoid a high fat diet and to restrict their total calorie consumption to 30 percent fat and to avoid concentrated sources of saturated fats and cholesterol. That would mean that red meats should be kept to a minimum in the diet, and also some vegetable fats should be avoided, such as palm kernel oil or tropical oils which are truly a saturated fat.

Items that do contain quite a bit of cholesterol and yet are not included in the foods mentioned above, include shrimp and lobster. Dairy products such as butter, whole milk and high cream content cheeses should be avoided in order to lower your exposure to saturated fat and to lower the cholesterol.

Some medications are simply high dose vitamins, such as the use of niacin. Others have been specifically engineered in order to stop the production of cholesterol by the liver. The choice of the medicine should be discussed with your physician.

If a heart attack or myocardial infarction should occur, this is usually caused by a blood clot which occurs in a previously narrowed blood vessel. The symptoms will be prolonged chest pain not relieved by rest. If a person has a previous history of angina and is on medicines to control the angina, the pain of a heart attack will not be alleviated by nitroglycerine, which is a common medicine used to control angina symptoms.

If a heart attack is in progress, immediate attention is necessary because the physician in attendance may choose to treat the person having a heart attack with a "clot busting" medicine. Clot busters are medicines that have the ability to dissolve a blood clot that has already formed.

These are administered intravenously but should be administered at the earliest possible time during a heart attack. By dissolving a blood clot that has formed in a coronary artery, the blood flow to the injured area can be re-established and there is a good chance that the heart muscle will not be damaged by the blockage of blood flow.

St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend, has been using clot busters since 1983 and have had a very good success rate with their use. Approximately 50 to 60 people are presented to St. Joseph's Community Hospital each year with an acute heart attack and roughly 25 percent of these are treated with thrombolytic medicines.

St. Joseph's Community Hospital in West Bend has been noted within the last two years to have a very low mortality rate for people who present there with an acute heart attack.

The physicians of West Bend are very competent in dealing with the acute myocardial infarction and are very well versed in the treatment of the risk factors and of angina.

Minutes of Building and Grounds Sub-Committee Meeting

January 6, 1993

(Minutes Have Been Approved)

Meeting was called to order at 7:33 p.m. in the high school library.

Members present were: Jeff Rohrer, Otto Ramthun, Emily Land, Al Fleischman, Chuck Voge, Larry Ammel, Jim Rix, Clark Pearson, Sue Buechel, Dean Scheel, Dave Rizzadi, Jean Goeden.

Non-Members present were: Lou Shroba, Mike Miklis, Pamela Pirman, Tom Olson from Foth & Van Dyke; Jan Uhlman, Diane Stangl, Ruth Schmitt, Dr. Heather, Neal Weare, John Schulte, Ron Beimborn, Marcia Theusch, Glenn Eichstedt, Chuck Heidner, David Jones, Janet Wolfenberg, Blair Cassell.

Minutes from the November 18, 1992 meeting were approved with this correction. Under new member - It was misunderstood that Blair Cassell would be a new member of this committee. He was asked to attend and has offered his help and assistance in any way he can. Motion made by Chuck Voge, seconded by Emily Land and all were in favor.

Foth & Van Dyke-Presentation of Master Plan. Lou Shroba and Mike Miklis, (technician architecture and structural). A Kewaskum High School, Middle School Facility Study draft was received and discussed.

Jeff brought up the fact that the chemistry/biology rooms are under-sized. If those were expanded also, how could the cost be affected. It would involve new tables, new sinks, chemical hoods and would be at a higher cost per square foot for cost than already presented in the draft.

The kitchen/cafeteria expansion would alleviate the overcrowding and would provide all students room to eat there instead of spilling into the hallway and Rose Hall. It was felt that 2/3 of the equipment in the kitchen could be salvaged.

Pages 21, 22 and drawing of Middle School classroom addition: The site at the middle school is about 2/3 of the size it needs to be. The middle school is also very short on storage space.

Page 24-Auditorium. Foth & Van Dyke need to tie the band/art/music areas into the auditorium. Otto presented a drawing of the auditorium on the site plan for a different option. This option would move the auditorium at an angle, with the high side facing the south. The main entrance would face east. It also would be connected to the high school with an enclosed overhead walkway. This layout would not disrupt the new road just put in.

Athletic Fields: our six lane track is regulation. Could the track be moved to the north with two lanes added on - would it fit the site? The areas for the football field are very tight spacewise. We need to decide if we want to cram everything on this site. They recommend that we buy some acreage about 5 acres as an option. Spacewise we need to gain about 5 acres.

Options were presented for consideration: 1) gut the middle school and use it for the shop classes for the high school and build a new middle school complex elsewhere. 2) Add a basement to the middle school and use as additional classrooms - may run into soil and water problems - also would need an elevator then.

Dr. Heather informed us that the census says 0-19 years ago group is declining; Cohort Survival Consensus is staying the same; Sewerpac says the students population is staying the same.

Football Field/Track area: Foth & Van Dyke will do a detailed analysis to keep these on the present site. Maybe an addition off the south of the high school for a concession stand. Keep the existing parking like it is.

Auditorium: Foth & Van Dyke will come back with these options added on: (1) Add on chorus/band areas (2) makes more sense to have the choir teacher in one spot in the auditorium and have the children go back and forth from the middle school and high school for class. (3) Have classrooms added on to the auditorium - in the future the high school or middle school could use the classrooms as they need to depending on students populations and classes. Add 6-8 classrooms and bathrooms. If the middle school band/choir room was moved into the auditorium, the middle school would then have a large size classroom instruction room for more than 25 kids (4) The fine arts would be better kept separate for each building. It would involve too much space if combined. (5) Possibly move the bus lineup and gain at least 20 parking spaces.

Ideas for thought: (1) Locker room addition scheme - A-locker rooms etc. seems okay. (2) Do more study on biology/chemistry/administration/office area expansion. (3) Cafeteria expansion - also move the freezer from the opposite end of school to where it belongs - near the kitchen area. The kitchen expansion would take away the window from the teachers lounge, hence no ventilation - check this out.

Foth & Van Dyke was asked to please interview key personnel for their ideas and it might avoid some of the problem areas that were discussed at this meeting.

Ideas for next meeting: (1) Take floor plan for locker room addition - scheme A and add expansion to administrative offices, biology, science (2) location of auditorium, band, choir and 6-8 classrooms - tie in the toilets, etc. (3) Overhead walkway or level scheme and costs involved (4) Site plan of additions and how it'll look (5) track area - physically measure how many feet are on the present site. The competition football field will need bleachers on both sides.

Public relations - tabled. We are to jot down clubs or organizations we could contact once we have plans we are happy with. Include insurance agencies and big business.

Next meeting date January 27th at 7:30 p.m. in the high school library.

Motion was made by Chuck Voge, seconded by Jim Rix to adjourn and all were in favor. Meeting adjourned at 9:36 p.m.

Minutes of Building and Grounds Sub-Committee Meeting

January 27, 1993

(Minutes have not yet been approved)

Meeting was called to order at 7:35 p.m. in the high school library.

Members present were: Jeff Rohrer, Otto Ramthun, Emily Land, Al Fleischman, Chuck Voge, Larry Ammel, Jim Rix, Jean Goeden.

Non-members present were: Lou Schroba, Mike Miklis from Foth & VanDyke; Ruth Schmitt, Dr. Heather, Neal Weare, John Schulte, Chuck Heidner, David Jones.

Minutes from the January 6th meeting were approved as printed. Motion was made by Larry Ammel, Jim Rix seconded, and all were in favor.

Foth & VanDyke - Presentation of Master Plan - Lou Schroba and Mike Miklis. A Kewaskum High School, Middle School, Fine Arts Facility Study draft was received and discussed.

Kewaskum High School - Locker Room - Scheme A was the same as presented last time. The weight room would be located in the present boys' locker room. The kitchen and cafeteria area would be enlarged. The cafeteria would seat 400 students. There would be room for the cooler/freezer and deliveries off the kitchen. The science labs would be enlarged with storage areas. A greenhouse, which would extend 6 feet out from the present building, would be located on the east side of the building. The present art room and guidance area would become the teachers' lounge and workroom. The office area would be enlarged to include a counseling suite, room for nurse, G & T., principal, asst. principal, rec'p, three conference rooms, and a staff lounge. The floor would be dropped behind the stage and used for E. D. and two EEN classrooms. The present girls' locker room would contain two offices and a coach/ref's area. The present Library/700 area would house art and two study halls. A total of 30 ft. would be added to the front of the building.

Kewaskum Middle School - 80 ft.

would be added to the front of the building for six new classrooms, new admin. area, commons, storage, and toilets. The band room would be used as an auditorium/meeting room. The present library/admin. area would house the teachers' lounge & work room and several office, conference, and storage areas. This would be an addition of 40,000 sq. ft.

Fine Arts Building - This area would be all new. It would contain band and chorus rooms with office, practice, and storage areas. There would be a 28,000 sq. ft. auditorium area which would include: 5,000 sq. ft. which would seat 700 people, lobby, orchestra area, stage, staging area, work room/storage areas, prep. room, director and toilet areas, and a mechanical room. There would be a 7,000 sq. ft. library to be used by middle school and high school students. This area would have a work space, one work/storage room, one storage room, and one conference room. This library is 10 percent larger than the present ones. One could expect it to take one year of planning to design this project.

Complete Site - Two lanes would be added to the track. The football field would be in the middle of the track and would require new drainage. There would be visitor bleachers for 250 on the east side and home seating for 1,300 on the west side. Parking lots would have 30 fewer stalls than we have now.

We were given handouts about educational specifications for high schools and cost estimates.

There is approximately $206,000 on hand for the football field, $85,000 for lights for the football field, and $52,000 for the track.

After discussion on the project, most people thought the overall plan was good, but were concerned about the cost. There were some concern about the parking lots and courtyard area. Another concern was whether the project could be broken into segments.

A motion was made by Chuck Voge, seconded by Jim Rix, to present the plan to the Building and Grounds Committee at their February 15th meeting.

Public Relations - It was decided to take public relations off the agenda.

The next meeting date is February 22nd at 7:30 p.m. in the high school library.

Motion was made by Jean Goeden, seconded by Jim Rix to adjourn and all were in favor. Meeting adjourned at 10:06 p.m.

Firm Recycles Newsprint Into Animal Bedding

MT. HOREB... If Agri-Paper keeps growing at its current rate, more Wisconsin farm animals may soon be sleeping on shredded Ann Landers columns than straw.

Two years ago, the Mt. Horeb company began selling shredded newsprint as animal bedding, and after a slow start its business is skyrocketing.

"In 1990, we were lucky if we sold 30 tons of bedding a month," said company sales manager Todd Seiler. "Now we've got orders for 500 tons a month, and we may go as high as 800 tons a month this year."

The sudden success of Agri-Paper is a product of several factors, according to Seiler. "First, there was a harsh winter last year, which reduced the state's wheat crop by 90 percent. Then a bad early summer drought cut oat production in half," he said. "Wheat and oat shafts are two main sources for straw bedding, so suddenly farmers found themselves looking for other sources."

Next, because other grains such as cottonseed have become more productive animal feed, farmers are harvesting oats early for fodder, rather than letting them grow into mature grain-bearing plants. "If farmers cut oats before they reach maturity, there is less straw left to make bedding," said Seiler.

Then there's the difference in price. Agri-Paper sells its shredded paper for $60 per ton. Wheat and oat straw can cost three times as much.

"Shredded paper is also more absorbent than straw and tends to generate less odors, because it doesn't support bacteria growth the way sugar-rich wheat and oats do," he added.

Seiler, however, doesn't always recommend shredded paper bedding to farmers. In pens where yearlings live together and mechanical equipment is not available, the animals will stomp down the paper until it is rock hard and difficult to clean out manually, he says.

Agri-Paper was created by an investor group that includes Wisconsin Power and Light and the Mt. Horeb Farmers Co-op. The company sells its bedding through the Mt. Horeb Co-op and nine other farmers' co-ops around the state.

"The investors started the company because they liked the idea of getting involved in recycling," said Seiler. "And they thought they could capitalize on the glut of wastepaper in the marketplace."

Wisconsin industries such as Agri-Paper are helping make the state's recycling effort a success, according to Richard Braddock, a recycling markets development specialist with the Department of Natural Resources. "These industries are closing the recycling loop by turning recyclable materials into new products," Braddock said.

This year Agri-Paper's goal is to sell 4,500 tons of shredded paper bedding. Seiler says he will exceed that goal by as much as 1,500 at his current rate, and that represents only a fraction of the potential market.

We calculated that in Dane County alone if all the farmers switched to paper animal bedding we would use 120,000 tons of newspaper a year," he said.

For more information on Agri-Paper contact Todd Seiler at (608) 437-5536.

If the ballot has not been initiated by two inspectors or is defective in any other way, the elector shall return it to the election official, who shall issue a proper ballot in its place. Not more than five minutes' time shall be allowed inside a voting booth or machine. Unofficial ballots or a memorandum to assist the elector in punching his or her ballot may be taken into the booth and copied. The sample ballot shall not be shown to anyone so as to reveal how the ballot is marked.

After an official ballot is punched, it shall be inserted in the envelope provided so the punches do not show. After casting his or her vote, the elector shall leave the booth, deposit the envelope containing his or her ballot in the ballot box, or deliver the envelope to an inspector for deposit, and shall leave the polling place promptly.

An elector may select an individual to assist in casting his or her vote if the elector declares to the presiding official that he or she is unable to read, has difficulty reading, writing or understanding English or that due to disability is unable to cast his or her ballot. IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother EMILIA GESSNER, who passed away 25 years ago, Feb. 9, 1968:

Days of sadness still come o'er us.

Tears of silence often flow.
For memory keeps you ever near us.

Though you died 25 years ago.
Death can never take away
And time cannot erase.
The memory of a loving heart,
A dear familiar face;
And there is comfort in the thought

That as the years go by
Our memories grow dearer still-
For love can never die.

Deeply missed by the family.

THANK YOU

Thanks to all of my children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and friends who made my surprise 80th Birthday Celebration so special. All of your planning and hard work was truly appreciated and will always be remembered. And, for those of you who are wondering, I was surprised! Thanks again.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of DORIS BARTELT who passed away two years ago, Feb. 11, 1991:

Day's of sadness still come o'er us.

Tears in silence often flow. For memory keeps you ever near us.

Though you died two years ago. Death can never take away and time cannot erase.

The memory of a loving heart. A dear familiar face; And there is comfort in the thought

That as the years go by Our memories grow dearer still For love can never die.

Sadly missed by husband children, and grandchildren.

Winninghoff Leads Indians Past Kiel

By Noel Stollenwerk

KIEL - With one key starter out due to an injury, Kewaskum senior Robyn Winninghoff decided to take things into her own hands here last Thursday night.

Winninghoff scored 19 points in the first three quarters, as the Kewaskum girls basketball team rolled to a relatively easy 40-30 win over Kiel in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference tilt.

The win helped the Indians remain within a half-game of league-leading Chilton. The Indians improve to 8-1 in the EW, and to 11-6 overall.

Kewaskum junior Ginger Wiesner was unable to go against the Raiders, after the 5-7 guard sprained her ankle against Kettle Moraine Lutheran just two days earlier.

With Wiesner out, the Indians and coach Glenn Eichstedt needed somebody to step up, and Winninghoff responded.

"She made a lot of big baskets for us," Eichstedt said of the 6-3 senior. "She got a lot of rebound-baskets, and that allowed us to bump up our lead in the first half."

After jumping out to a 12-7 first-quarter edge, the Indians rode Winninghoff's hot hand at the free throw line in the second. Winninghoff scored six of her ten second-quarter points at the charity stripe, as the Indians extended their lead to 22-9 by halftime.

Equally as pleasing to Eichstedt was the defensive job the Indians did on Karla Niemuth, the EW's top three-point shooter and the Raiders' only real scoring threat.

Niemuth entered the game shooting nearly 50% from three-point land, but hit only one against the Indians. For the game, Niemuth scored just four points, thanks much in part to the Indians defensive switches.

"We played a combination of defenses against her," Eichstedt explained. "Outside of her, they really don't have a lot of scoring potential."

"As it turned out, she was never really a factor. I was extremely pleased with our defense. We kept pressure on her all night."

Eichstedt cited Bonnie Schlice, Kim Sabish and Julie Mertz for their efforts on the defensive end, while he also singled out Sandy Schmidt, who "came off the bench and did a nice job."

Mertz, who has been coming off the bench for Eichstedt, "really is making a significant contribution," according to the coach. "It's great to have her coming in and solidifying the team."

Winninghoff, meanwhile, was taking care of things on the offensive end. She followed up her 10-point second quarter with nine more in the third, as Kiel was never able to mount a serious rally in the second half.

"They made a little run at us in the end," Eichstedt said, adding that the late surge was due more to the physical nature of the fourth period. "It became a slugfest there for a while."

Winninghoff, who finished 9-12 from the free throw line, led all scorers. DeeDee Meyer led the Raiders with seven points.

Clinton also recorded an easy win last week to maintain their slim edge on the Indians. The Tigers have an easier schedule the rest of the way, according to Eichstedt, who at this point is hoping for a co-championship.

"I really think it is going to come down to us having the win-to-maintain-out position (as co-leader)," he said. The Indians will be at Sheboygan Falls this Friday, which could turn out to be the key game the rest of the way."

"Everybody's had trouble there," said Eichstedt, who reported that Chilton outscored the Falcons 19-3 in the final period to pull out a three-point win, which happens to be Falls' lone loss on their home court.

KEWASKUM (12-10-13-5) — Radtke 6, Schlice 3, Sabish 6, Winninghoff 19, Butschlick 2, Bruendl 4, Free Throws - 12 of 19, Fouls - 20.

KIEL — (7-2-12-9) — Niemuth 4, Meyer 7, Neilhaus 4, LaDuke 3, Graf 4, Christopherson 1, Horn 4, Kleinbum 4, Free Throw - 13 of 21, Fouls - 19.

Flat KHS Girls Drop Non-Conference Tilt

KEWASKUM — Coming off of an emotional win against Chilton just four days earlier, the Kewaskum girls basketball team couldn't be blamed for being a little flat for its game with Kettle Moraine Lutheran here, last Tuesday night.

And as the Indians found out, that's not the way to play against the talented Chargers, who used a 20-8 advantage in the second quarter en route to a 56-38 thumping of the hosts.

KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt figured his team would be due for a let down, after ending Chilton's 30-game Eastern Wisconsin Conference winning streak and pulling into a virtual first-place tie with the Tigers.

"That was a big concern," Eichstedt admitted. "I knew that it would be hard to regenerate that type of intensity and enthusiasm."

Much of Eichstedt's surprise, the Indians did come out fired up. With Ginger Wiesner and Kim Sabish using their quickness to penetrate the lane, Kewaskum was able to hold a 14-13 edge after one quarter.

"We came out strong and played competitive ball," Eichstedt said, noting that Wiesner (eight) and Sabish (four) combined for all but two of the Indians' first-quarter points.

But Wiesner suffered a sprained ankle early into the second period, and that seemed to take the life out of the Indian players.

"All of a sudden we were standing around," Eichstedt explained. "They (KML) picked up the intensity on defense, and that caused us some problems. It became one-sided rather quickly."

With one of their best ball-handlers now out, the Indians weren't much of a match for the Chargers' pressure defense. A 10-0 run by the guests late in the half helped extend KML's lead to 33-22 at the half.

In the second half, the Indians were unable to close the gap, never cutting the margin to less than eight points.

"We weren't able to make up any ground," said Eichstedt. "We played a little better offensively. We just didn't shut them down."

KML extended their lead to 48-34 after three quarters. And after giving his starters roughly two minutes to try and make a run in the fourth, Eichstedt cleared his bench down the stretch.

"Neither team did much in the fourth," the KHS coach went on to say. "You have to give them a lot of credit. They played extremely well. They are probably the best disciplined, and most fundamentally sound team that we will face all season."

Missy Radtke wound up leading the Indians with nine points, while Wiesner, Sabish and Robyn Winninghoff each chipped in eight. Kate Lepien led all scorers with 15 points, while Chrissy Anderson and LeAnn Egelseer also hit double figures for KML, scoring 13 and 10, respectively.

The loss dropped the Indians' overall record to 10-6, while KML improved to 15-2 on the year.

Defense Helps Indians Outlast Tigers

By Noel Stollenwerk

CHILTON - A good team effort can usually offset a great individual performance, and that's exactly what happened here, last Tuesday night.

Chilton's Paul Eisner scored 21 first-half points, but Kewaskum put the clamps on Eisner in the second half, as the Indians pulled away for a 59-40 win over the Tigers.

The win snapped a four-game losing streak in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, and improved the Indians' mark to 4-4 in the EW, 5-10 overall.

"We really didn't play very good defense in the first half," KHS coach Jim Westphal said of Eisner's outburst. "He had a very good half, but we were still controlling the game."

The Indians maintained a slim edge throughout the first half, and began to pull away near the end of the second quarter. But Eisner burried back-to-back three-pointers to cut the Kewaskum lead to just 29-26.

But the Indians' Tony Knoeck was fouled on a desperation three-pointer at the end of the half. The senior guard made all three charity tosses, and the Indians' lead was again at six points.

Kewaskum quickly extended the gap in the second half, as the Indians managed to contain Eisner. After his big first two quarters, Eisner was held to just five points the rest of the way.

"We did a much better job on him in the second half," Westphal reiterated. "We got ahead of them pretty good, and they were forced to take chances and foul."

That helped explain a big edge for the Indians at the free throw line. Kewaskum outscored the hosts 16-7 at the stripe, as the Tigers were whistled for 19 fouls, compared to the Indians' eight.

"We dominated the boards as well," Westphal said, pointing out that Travis Jacak led the team with 11 rebounds. The Indians were without Keith Herman, who missed the game with the flu. But junior Eric Ankerson, "filled in quite well," as he scored five points and pulled down eight boards.

Jim Marx led the Indians offensively, scoring 22 points, while Adam Laatsch contributed 13. Both Marx and Laatsch helped out on the boards as well, each collecting seven caroms.

"We had very good balance," Westphal went on to say, noting Jacak chipped in eight points as well. "He's starting to pick up easy baskets off offensive rebounds. That's nice to see, because we've usually had to work hard to score inside."

KEWASKUM (13-19-12-15) - Jacak 8, Laatsch 13, Marx 22, Ankerson 5, Kurth 1, Knoeck 7, Zautner 3. Free Throws - 16 of 26, Fouls - 8.

CHILTON (10-16-6-8) - Hau 3, Satzer 1, Eisner 26, Karls 6, Turney 4. Free Throws - 7 of 10, Fouls 19.

JV, Frosh Girls Lose Pair

By Noel Stollenwerk

KIEL - It wasn't a memorable week for the Kewaskum girls JV and freshman basketball squads, as both teams dropped a pair of games to Kettle Moraine Lutheran and Kiel.

The Indian JV's were blown out by KML on Tuesday night, 42-17. "We only played well in the first quarter," JV coach Keith Amundson said of the contest. Chrissy Neumann led the Indian JV's with five points.

On Thursday night, the JV's "had opportunities to take control of the game," according to Amundson, but were unsuccessful, as they dropped a heart-breaking 33-31 decision.

Neumann had another fine game for Kewaskum, scoring 14 points and grabbing 11 rebounds, while Greta Kuphal chipped in eight points. With the losses, the Indian JV's dropped to 8-9 overall, including a 3-6 mark in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The freshman girls, meanwhile, lost a tough 38-34 contest against Kettle Moraine Lutheran. A 16-6 third-quarter edge broke the game open for the Chargers. "We gave them all they could handle," frosh coach Ken Soerens said, noting that his squad suited up just seven players for the game.

Kelly Schreffler led the Indians with 13 points, while Tanya Laubach chipped in 10.

The frosh had a miserable time of things against Kiel on Thursday night, scoring just two points in the first half, en route to a 30-16 loss.

The poor first half, coupled with a 2-17 effort at the free throw line "are not going to help win too many games," Soerens said of the contest. The freshman dropped to 6-8 on the year.

Wisconsin has about 15,000 lakes.

Fast Start Help KHS Boys Down Kiel

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - After a four-game conference losing streak that saw his team get off to slow starts, Kewaskum boys basketball coach Jim Westphal is liking what he's seen recently.

For the second straight game, the Indians got off to a quick start. And for the second straight game, the Indian boys were able to parlay that into an Eastern Wisconsin Conference victory, this time a 59-44 win over Kiel, last Friday night.

"We've just got out to real good starts the last two games," Westphal said. "During our losing streak we were getting out slow, and were down big by halftime. If we can get off to a good start, we can play with anybody in this conference."

Jim Marx and Tony Knoeck helped the Indians get out of the gate against the Raiders. Knoeck scored six points as the Indians jumped out to a 18-9 first quarter lead, while Marx's 13 first-half points helped Kewaskum to a double digit halftime lead (28-18).

"Tony's been playing very well lately," Westphal said of the senior guard. "He's been cutting down on turnovers, and hitting the open shot."

Marx has been doing the bulk of the Indian scoring almost all year, but the 6-2 senior was held in check in the second half. Kiel switched to a zone late in the second quarter, and the move seemed to fluster the Indian attack.

"We got a little sloppy," Westphal said. "They switched defenses, and we just couldn't make our shots. That enabled them to make a good run at us."

That run pulled the Raiders to within 42-37 midway through the final period. But the Indians got some offense from an unlikely source, 6-4 sophomore Travis Jacak, to get them rolling again.

"He hit a couple of baseline jumpers in the third quarter," Westphal said, noting that another basket by Jacak stopped the Kiel rally in the fourth as well. "He's been picking it up on the offensive end."

Marx led the Indians with 17 points, while Knoeck added 11 plus numerous assists. "He's making much better passes," Westphal noted. Jacak finished with nine points.

Lonnie Schaffer led Kiel with 17 points. The Raiders, who have just two conference wins this year, shot just 26 percent from the field.

"We have been playing some good defense," Westphal said, giving his team at least partial credit for Kiel's poor shooting. "We've had trouble with teams that have big, strong post players, which they really didn't have."

There really aren't that many big kids in our league this year, and in that respect we've been pretty lucky."

The Indians improve to 5-4 in the EW with the win, and to 6-10 overall. Things will get tougher for Kewaskum the rest of the way in the EW. The Indians host Sheboygan Falls Thursday in their final home appearance of the year.

KIEL (9-9-12-14) - Schaeffer 17, Mangen 10, Gaedtke 2, Sabel 7, Manz 3, Adelman 4, Schuler, 1, Free Throws - 11 of 16, Fouls - 18.

CHILTON... While other Eastern Wisconsin Conference coaches didn't give their wrestlers much respect, Kewaskum coach John Nell knew his team would be right in the thick of things at last Saturday's conference meet.

What Nell couldn't have expected was that his grapplers would bring home five individual titles, easily the most by any school. Those champions paved the way for the Indians to finish second in the tournament, only 12 points behind Plymouth's 183-point total.

Sheboygan Falls, which lost just one dual meet all season, was third with 140.5 points, followed by Chilton (119), Two Rivers (100), Kiel (76), and New Holstein (68).

"I knew we'd be right in there," Nell said. "I didn't think we'd have that many (champions), though. That's the most we've ever had. The kids really did the job."

Nell figured that seniors Mark Kziedzic (125), Josh Kurtz (152), and Todd Muckerheide (189) would win their respective brackets, as none of the three were seriously threatened in conference meets this season.

Kurtz won his second straight EW title, capping off his day by pinning Falls' Brent Bender in 1:34. "He just took him and put him on his back," Nell said of Kurtz's aggressive nature. "He didn't play around with him at all." Kurtz, a defending state Division 2 champion as well, ran his record to 24-0 with the win, which followed a 2:30 pin over Kiel's Peter Larson in the semi's.

It was thought that Dziedzic would get to face Plymouth's Chad Knecht in a much-anticipated battle on Saturday. But Knecht, who has been switching weights all year, was moved to 130 pounds, where he eventually came away with that title.

"It would have been good for Mark to have a match with that caliber a kid," Nell said, noting that Dziedzic didn't have much trouble with either of his foes. Dziedzic pinned Chilton's Scott Buechel in 3:15, before easily beating Chris Warner of Plymouth in the title bout, 5-0.

"Mark really controlled him," Nell said. "He (Warner) just couldn't do anything against Mark." Dziedzic improved his mark to 25-1.

Muckerheide also had little trouble winning his division. In the semi's, Muckerheide put Nathan Herrick's shoulders down in 2:22. In the finals, the big senior pinned Falls' Clay Kestell in 1:21. "Nobody touched him in conference this year," Nell said. "I mean, nobody even came close." Muckerheide is 22-5 heading into regional action.

All four of the Indian seniors came away as champs, as Mark Morell avenged an earlier loss to Plymouth's Mike Mulderer by beating him 11-5 in the 171-pound finals. "That was a great match for Mark," Nell said, adding, "He did whatever he wanted with him," and led 7-0 after one period. Morell recorded two pins en route to the finals.

The most surprising, as well as the most satisfying, champion came in the form of 145-pound Rich Farchione. The sophomore Farchione recorded just a 3-3 mark in conference during the regular season, and was snubbed by the conference coaches in the pre-tournament seeding meeting.

Farchione didn't seem to mind, though, as he beat Plymouth's Steve Dasadonte, 15-6, and then decisioned Falls' Dave Beyersdorf 7-1 in the semifinals.

Two Rivers' John Franzen, with a 2-4 record, was seeded above Farchione by the EW coaches, much to Nell's dismay. But it was Nell who had the last laugh, as Farchione rolled over Franzen in the finals. Farchione wrestled his way to a 15-2 lead over Franzen, before pinning him in 4:50.

"He ended up ripping him apart," Nell said of Farchione's effort. "It wasn't even close. He just walked through that tournament. I loved that one (title) the most. I felt extra good about that. It was fantastic."

Kewaskum also registered three third-place finishers. Jake Gundrum (112), Paul Reis (140), and Chad Muckerheide (160) each won third-place matches, while Jake Thull (119) took fourth, Corey Rammer (135) and Tim Gundrum (HWT) took fifths, and Tyler Dieringer (130) finished sixth.

"Jake Gundrum did a fabulous job," Nell reported, noting his only loss came at the hands of Jeremy Havel, Two Rivers' third-place finisher at state last year.

"I can't say enough about Reis," Nell went on. "He wrestled the best he could... did a great job." Chad Muckerheide's third in the tough 160 division "was also very helpful."

As for the others, "They all had real good tournaments," Nell said. "They wrestled great. We did everything we could, and it worked out great."

"We pretty much dominated the championship matches," Nell said, noting that Plymouth was next with three champions. "It was pretty impressive. Our kids really did a number on them. It was all Kewaskum in the championship round.

Softball Teams Wanted

Despite what most consider to be cold temperatures, it's once again time to start thinking about the summer softball season.

The Village of Kewaskum Athletic Association is looking for teams to play in the various softball leagues this summer. Tentatively, men's leagues are slated for Tuesday and Thursday nights, while either a women's or a co-ed league could be played on Monday nights. The Monday night league format will be based on the number of women's or co-ed teams interested.

The VKAA is looking to have teams registered as early as possible, and will be holding a manager's meeting in March. Team sign-up is handled on a first-come, first-serve basis.

All VKAA games are played at the Kiwanis Community Park.

If you are interested in getting a team registered, or just want more information, please contact Rick Krahn at 626-2736, or Noel Stollenwerk at 626-4485.

Indians Prepare for Wrestling Regional

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM — After a successful Eastern Wisconsin Conference Tournament in which it finished second, the Kewaskum wrestling team will now set its sights on the WIAA Division 2 Regional to be held this Saturday at Sheboygan Falls.

The competition will be strong this Saturday, according to Indians coach John Nell. Also competing in Kewaskum's regional will be Division 2 powerhouse Campbellsport, which will be the odds-on favorite to win the team title. The team winning the Regional title will advance to the WIAA Team Tournament.

"I think Campbellsport is pretty much a given (to win the team title)," Nell said of the No. 6 rated Cougars. "They are just so solid up and down the lineup."

Also participating in this Saturday's meet will be the host Falcons, Random Lake, Slinger, Horicon, and North Fond du Lac.

"It's going to be a real tough Regional," Nell admitted. "Anybody (individually) that gets out of our regional has a great chance at going to state."

Weigh-in will begin at 9:00 a.m., with the coaches meeting at 9:30. The first round of wrestling will get underway at 10:30. In Division 2, the top two wrestlers in each weight class advance to Sectional competition the following weekend.

Winners from the Sheboygan Falls Regional will advance to Sectional competition at Columbus next Saturday.
