Board Approves Addition of Japanese I at KHS

School District Reaches Compromise with Athletic Club

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM — The sometimes stormy relationship between the Kewaskum School District and the Kewaskum Athletic Club appears to be entering its final chapter.

The Board of Education last Monday night voted in favor of a compromise, allowing the Athletic Club to sell beer on school grounds this summer. The measure barely passed, though, as the Board voted 3-2 in its favor, with Board member Ruth Schmitt abstaining.

The Kewaskum Athletic Club is made up of adults playing for the Kewaskum Athletics baseball team. The Club has played, and sold beer, on school grounds for the past three years.

But there is growing sentiment in the community that there should not be alcohol sold on school grounds, which has forced the Board to re-think its policies on the matter.

That redefinition of policies left the Athletic Club out of the picture, at least as far as playing on school property was concerned.

But under the new compromise, the Athletic Club will be able to play, and sell beer, on school property for the 1993 season 1993 season only. After this season the Athletic Club will move its home games elsewhere, most likely to the Kiwanis Community Park. The Athletic Club is currently working with the Village Board to gain approval for that scenario.

Board members Ron Beimborn and Janet Wolfenber voted against the compromise. Ray Engelking, John Schulte and Jean Goeden voted in favor of the measure.

In other matters at Monday's meeting, the Board approved the addition of Japanese I to the curriculum at the high school, with the course being taught through a unique satellite system.

The program is offered in conjunction with the University of Oklahoma, and high schools throughout the country participate with the help of a satellite and telephone hook-up. The Satellite Educational Resource Consortium (SERC) is also involved in sponsoring the program.

District Administrator David Heather, as well as Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand, voiced their support for the program.

"I think it would be a good addition to our foreign language program," Heather told Board members.

Strand repeated Heather's sentiments, adding "I think it will be worthwhile. We need to offer a more challenging foreign language course, and that's exactly what this is."

The course costs approximately $500 per student, which covers both tuition and materials. The SERC rules limit class enrollment to nine students. Presently, there are 12 KHS students that have expressed an interest in the class, and Heather noted that the district may have to resort to some type of lottery system to determine class participation.

Schmitt suggested that seniority may also be used as a criteria for selecting students for the course. She also noted that instructors for the class won't have to be certified in foreign language, which might help prevent any type of cost overload to the district.

Also approved at the meeting was the district's transportation contract with Johnson Bus Company. The district approved a three-year extension with Johnson Bus, with the anticipated cost for the 1993-94 school year being $673,650.15. The figure represents an approximate $15,000 in savings compared to the previous year, due to changes in special education transportation costs.

Senior Citizen Prom April 18

March Student of the Month

Kewaskum High School junior Tracy Corey has been chosen as the Board of Education's Student of the Month for March.

Tracy transferred to KHS from Stevens Point Area High School at the start of the second semester this year. She attended KHS during her freshman and first semester of her sophomore years. During the first year and a half, she was active in both F.H.A. and A.F.S.

In nominating her for the award, one of Tracy's teachers said that she "has displayed excellent effort in class. She has shown maturity by asking what she needs to do to improve, and what she needs to do to make-up absences. She has had a very positive attitude in class, and as a result she has done very well."

To remove shine when ironing, run a dampened sponge over the shiny area and press lightly over a pressing cloth.

$1,000 Winner

Letter to the Editor: Dear Editor:

In the past two weeks, I've been talking to many people in village, and one thing became very clear to me. Many people have misconceptions on why the Kewaskum Village Board purchased the West Bend Savings Bank Building and what we plan to do with it. I hope I can clear things up a little.

The main reason the Village bought the building was for the added public parking we would gain. Plus, we wanted to preserve the building because it's a nice looking building, it adds to down town. The building will not be demolished.

The present village president and board members have, for some time now, been concerned about the down town area and the loss of parking. Buying this building will add parking where we need it. The building will continue to be rented out. One more thing... at $100,000 it was a very good deal! We take over ownership in 1994.

Trustee Robert Wagner

COMMUNICATION...

Hello again. This week I would like to be a bit more serious about my candidacy for village president, and what I envision for Kewaskum.

The other day I was talking to a group of people about my candidacy when someone asked me, "What do you plan to change if you get in?" My answer was, "Change nothing." Like I have said before, I moved to Kewaskum because I like the community. So why change it?

But what we do need to do is to improve on what we already have. I feel we need to get a little more focused and as a village we need to define our goals better. I feel the best way to achieve this is to start with the basics.

The first thing is, "Communication." As we all know... if it is between two people or two thousand people, to have a successful relationship, it is important to have good communication.

So I would like to get rid of the notion that the village board lives in some ivory tower in some far away land and cannot be approached.

First of all, village board meetings will be conducted with dignity and everyone will be able to speak their minds, as long as we treat one another with the respect that each of us deserves.

I would like to form an advisory board or committee made up of board members, neighborhood representatives, Chamber of Commerce members, Kewaskum School Board members, etc. This group would assist and advise the board on topics such as long term plans and growth for the village. We could have them, for example, help with decisions on the Highway 45 project. One item I can think of right now would be the multi-family housing issue.

I feel, to make a fair decision on this, we need to consider how it affects each group. I know right now that this isn't happening. Not too long after I was elected to the village board, the issue of apartments came up. I questioned how it would affect the schools. I was told that, "we are not the school board and it's not our problem." I was thinking... it is MY problem... I live in Kewaskum.

I do feel that there is a need for multi-family housing, but we need to define what that need is. That is why I have been pushing on the SEWRPC study. I feel this committee could serve many uses in helping our community plan for the future.

I plan to improve the communication within the village departments, supervisors and co-workers. I also plan to have an occasional "Letter to the Editor" to help clarify different topics.

I guess I'll stop for now, but I think you know me... I will continue next week. I do have to apologize. A friend of mine corrected me about last week's article... I lied... I'm not 36, but 37. It was a mistake. You know how it is... once you turn 25, you stop bragging about how old you are and by the time you turn 30, you stop keeping track altogether.

PLEASE VOTE FOR ME ON APRIL 6TH!

THANK YOU.

Kewaskum High School Hosts Conference Forensics

This was Kewaskum's year to host the Eastern Wisconsin Conference forensics meet. It was held on March 9 with seven schools participating. KHS had been last year's winner, but this year a full team of twenty-five entries was not available; the twenty-three entries did well, however, and were able to capture fourth place. Kiel was the top team with 525 total points, followed closely by New Holstein with 510 points. Both schools brought full teams. Chilton was awarded third place with 462 points, and KHS had only six fewer, coming in fourth with 456 points. The other totals were Sheboygan Falls with 415, Two Rivers with 369 and Plymouth with 290. Over 250 visitors were in attendance.

Barbara York, head coach, and Judy Jacak, assistant, were very pleased with their team's performances. Leading the speakers were five who had made state appearances last year. They were Chad Harlow, Carrie Fellenz, Sabrina Maul, Weston Duenkel, and Jenefer VanAssche in group interpretation. They read an Erma Bombeck selection entitled "At Wit's End." They were awarded perfect 25's. Also scoring perfect scores were Nichol Loomans in poetry with "Man with the Broken Fingers" and Rhonda Klesmith in solo acting with a humorous selection entitled "To Be or Not To Be." Both girls are new to the team this year.

Close behind in scoring were Meredith Frac with a prose selection entitled "Magic Night" and freshman Laura Fleischman reading a Dr. Seuss poem "If I Ran the Zoo." They each scored 23. Meredith had gone to state last year. Randy Reysen wrote a four-minute speech about his recent trip to New York City as a guest of the Pepsi Company regarding his opinion of their ads on Channel One, and in his first forensics attempt he was awarded a 22. Scoring 22 was state participant Angie Klug, also with "Magic Night." Scoring 21's were freshmen Carrie Stoffel with an original four-minute speech about stress and Jennifer Straub reading Poe's poem "The Raven." Kara Palmer also scored 21 points with selections about soldiers and war. Her category this year is farrago, a change from her poetry last year in which she also was a state participant. Also scoring in the 20's were state participant Matt Kuehn with a humorous Dave Barry selection "How to Earn a Collie Degree" in solo acting and Jenny Goodsell in the same category with advice about "How to Talk to Your Mother."

Rounding out the team were state winner April Bruckert and freshman Laura Dehler in storytelling, state participant Anne Mertz with an original oratory speech about voting responsibilities, first year Teri Roe with a twirling demonstration, freshman Jennifer Schmidt writing her own speech about Prohibition, and state winner Christa Fleischman reading about Jewish persecution; her category was farrago. Also on the team were three freshmen: Jenny Ebert reading Dr. Seuss's poem "The Lorax," Renate Wilke reading "I Loved You Best" by Erma Bombeck, and Maureen Leitheiser memorizing a humorous selection in solo acting. First-year participant Tammy Hames wrote her own prose selection about a family in crisis. "Three Swine of Most Small Stature" was read by the group composed of Melissa Rohrer, Christine Neumann, Rachael Chambers, Suzi Gauvin and Becky Yogerst. All were state winners last year except Neumann and Yogerst who are involved for the first time this year.

The conference meet was preparation for the sub-district contest which begins the qualifying for district and ultimately the state contest. Kewaskum's sub-district will be at Menomonee Falls on March 13, district at Cedar Grove on March 30, and state on April 23 in Madison.

What's Going On at The Public Library?

Spring is almost here (at least we'd like to believe that it is). Now is the time to sign up for spring storyhours for four and five-year-olds. The six-week sessions will feature stories, fingerplays, musical activities, filmstrips and crafts. Choose Wednesday afternoons at 1:00, starting March 31, OR Friday mornings at 10:00, beginning April 2. Please register early, as supplies will need to be ordered for our crafts. Each session lasts approximately one hour.

Children and young adults will enjoy all of our new paperbacks. Stop in and see what's new. There's something for all age levels and interests.

Thinking ahead to summer, we will be looking for some interested parents to volunteer their time and talents. Our theme is "GO WILD." We would like to begin soon on things like decorations, nametags, and activity planning. Sound interesting? Give us a call, or stop in at the library and talk to Nancy.

Kewaskum Students Fare Better Than Average on Profile Tests

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM — It appears that students in the Kewaskum School District are taking their studies seriously, at least according to a report issued to School Board members last Monday night.

District Curriculum Coordinator Connie Strand gave the Board results of tests conducted by the American College of Testing (ACT). The profile tests were given to eighth-graders and sophomores last fall.

The 10th graders at KHS who took the exam (136 students) fared better than the national mean on the PLAN test. KHS students compiled an average composite score of 18.0, compared to the national average of 15.9. KHS students scored higher on every portion of the test, ranging from 1.7 points better in Science Reasoning, to a 2.4 difference in Mathematics.

The report also divided the 136 students into two groups - those who have taken, or are taking foundational courses (85 students), and those who have taken less than the foundational course work (51 students). Foundational courses included 10th-grade English, Algebra I (plus one other high school math course), biology, and one year of high school social studies.

Those who have had or are taking the courses scored significantly higher than those students not presently taking the courses. Students taking the courses had a composite score of 19.9, compared to a 14.7 mark for those not taking the classes.

Even more compelling is the fact that 98 percent of the KHS students taking the foundational courses scored above the national mean composite score of 15.9.

Results of the eighth-grade testing also gave favorable marks to Kewaskum students. The eighth graders took a slightly different test (called EXPLORE) than their high school counterparts.

Kewaskum still did well, as local students had an average composite score of 16.4, compared to the national mean of 14.4, and the state mean of 15.9 (out of a possible 25 points).

Local students had higher marks in every category except for Mathematics, where their average mark of 15.9 was slightly below the state mean (16.0), yet still higher than the national mean (14.2).

The testing process will be expanded next year to also include fourth-graders. The purpose of the testing is to help students use the results for career planning.

Celebrate one of America's most important gifts this month... it's agriculture. While taken for granted by many, the United States is still the world's most efficient producer of food and fiber. March 20 is National Agriculture Day... a chance to recognize farmers' contribution to our economy and well-being.

According to Wisconsin Secretary of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection Alan Tracy, Wisconsin plays a key role in this agricultural excellence. "It's critical to acknowledge the quality and abundance of food provided by Wisconsin farmers," states Tracy. "Their task is not an easy one."

Wisconsin has always been known for its dairy products... and it still ranks first for many of them. But few people may realize it's also a top producer of many crops. Wisconsin is the number one producer of ginseng, corn for silage, mink, snap beans, green peas, sweet corn and processed vegetables.

National Agriculture Day will be celebrated with a variety of projects organized by local agribusiness organizations, 4-H and FFA Chapters, churches and civic groups.

On Sunday, March 7, Kewaskum Girl Scouts, along with the Girl Scouts from Farmington, Wayne and Beechwood, held their potluck dinner to show their appreciation for the help and support of parents, local organizations and businesses.

The afternoon's festivities began with the traditional Flag Ceremony, followed by the dinner and a skit put on by the scouts themselves. Patches were then awarded to the girls. Appreciation awards were given to the leaders and plaques were presented to area organizations and businesses.

Receiving plaques were the Holy Trinity, Kewaskum, Farmington and Wayne area schools, as well as the Kewaskum Kiwanis Club, the Kewaskum Statesman, Amerahn, Johnson Bus Service and the Village of Kewaskum.

Receiving pins were Karen Cannestra, Brenda Perkins and Jeff Shaw. John Schmidt received the Outstanding Volunteer Award Pin. A 25 Year Pin was also presented to Chris Meloy for her years in girl scouting.

Turkey Patterning Clinic April 3

Gateway Gobblers, a chapter of the National Wild Turkey Federation, in conjunction with the West Bend Barton Sportsman's Club, will be hosting its first Turkey Patterning Clinic of 1993 Saturday, April 3rd, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The clinic will be held on the West Bend Barton Sportsman's club grounds which are located north of West Bend on Trapshoot Lane. Directions: North of West Bend on Hwy. "45" to Friendly Drive (approximately 1 mile north of CTH "D"), turn left at Mill Tool & Die and follow to Trapshoot Lane, turn right on Trapshoot and then straight ahead to the club grounds.

There will be various brands and different shot size shotgun shells that can be purchased individually.

In this way the turkey hunter can try different loads to determine which brand shell and which size shot provide the best pattern with his shotgun at different yardages.

Being able to purchase shells individually also eliminates the need to buy a full box of shells only to find that his gun does not pattern well with these shells.

Trap shooting will also be available the day of the clinic so bring along your trap gun and shoot a few rounds.

The Gateway Gobblers and the West Bend Barton Sportsman's Club wish all the turkey hunters a safe and successful hunt.

WE ARE WINNING

In the 1930s, less than one in five cancer patients was alive five years after treatment. Today, the five-year survival rate has more than doubled to approximately one out of two. The American Cancer Society believes that many more people could be saved through early diagnosis, prevention, and prompt treatment.

FIBER FULL

Regular consumption of cereals, fresh fruits, and vegetables is highly recommended. The American Cancer Society indicates that diets high in fiber may help reduce the risk of colon and rectum cancer. If your diet does not include these ingredients, change is definitely on the menu!

50 Years Ago

The enlistment of Miss Charlotte Romaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Romaine, of this village, in the WAVES, was announced this week by Ensign Patricia Conwell of the recruiting office in Milwaukee. Miss Romaine has returned home to await orders to report for basic training which are expected in the next few weeks. Miss Romaine is the first Kewaskum woman to enlist in the WAVES (navy auxiliary) and the second woman from the village to enter service. The other is Aux. Elsie Bruhn, who enrolled in the WACCS recently.

Charlotte is a sister of Seaman Second Class Robert Romaine, who lost his life at sea several months ago in action with the U.S. Navy. He was the first man from Washington County to make the supreme sacrifice in the present war. Miss Romaine also has a brother in the army air corps, namely Sgt. Curtis Romaine.

Published last week was a list of names of men and women of this village serving in the armed forces which will be placed on the local honor roll to be erected by the village board in the near future. The list was compiled by the board. Since then two omissions have been reported to the board by the editor and have been added to the group. They are Paul Kral and Norman Held. Another name added is that of Charlotte Romaine, who this week enrolled in the WAVES. This makes a total of 62 names of village men and women in service to be placed on the honor roll.

In a recent transaction William F. Schaefer of this village sold his two truck milk routes covering the rural communities surrounding Kewaskum to Jaeger Brothers of West Bend. The new owners have already taken possession. In another deal, Charles Prost of this village sold his milk route and equipment to William Fredericks of near Kohlsville. Fredericks has taken over the route and Prost has discontinued hauling milk. The Schaefer milk route is one of the oldest and formerly was one of the largest in this section. The route was started and built up by Schaefer's father, the late John F. Schaefer, about 26 years ago when the White House Milk Products condensory was built at West Bend. The Schaefer's have been hauling milk to that plant since.

Norman, six or seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boegel of the Town of Wayne, suffered a broken leg Tuesday in a fall in the barn on his father's farm. The boy was unable to tell just how the fall occurred. The leg has been placed in a cast and later will be placed in a walking cast so he can return to school.

Pvt. Gregor A. Nigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nigh of the Town of Auburn, who is stationed at Camp Hood, Texas, has been promoted to the rank of technical corporal.

Oliver A. Petermann of New Orleans Training Area, New Orleans, Louisiana, son of the Arthur Petermanns of the Town of Auburn, has been promoted from private first class to corporal.

75 Years Ago

Arthur Backhaus, age 21 years, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Backhaus of New Fane, died at seven o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of Walter Romaine, following injuries sustained in a sawing machine accident on Wednesday morning. The main drive belt had slipped off the pulley and in trying to replace it the young man's right arm was caught in the belting. The arm passed between belt and pulley and the high speeding machine then threw the unfortunate man to the ground with such force that concussion of the brain resulted. He was immediately taken into the Romaine home and medical aid summoned to which Dr. N. Edw. Hausmann of this village and Dr. H.J. Weld of Campbellsport responded. When the physicians arrived they found that the injuries were of such grave nature, that it was impossible to save the precious young life.

Ferdinand Raether is confined to his home suffering from severe injuries sustained in an accident, shortly before noon, Tuesday, at the L. Rosenheimer Malt & Grain Company's malt house. Mr. Raether was bending over a revolving shaft in the act of removing a waste oil receptacle, when the loose end of his jacket was caught in the shafting, throwing him to the floor and tearing the entire wearing apparel from one side of his body. The fact that his clothing gave saved him from more severe and probable fatal injuries. Mr. Raether is one of the oldest employees at the malt house and during the many years of his employment had been a most careful worker around machinery. Although his injuries are severe and painful, his many friends are pleased to learn that he is not injured internally, and the attending physician promises an ultimate recovery.

High water and ice threatened the destruction of property along the river. When the ice broke, huge pieces floated down stream crashing into bridges and buildings on the river banks, and finally forming an ice pack south of the village that caused the rapid rising of the water and for a time threatened to overflow the railroad tracks. Employees of the railroad company and residents worked during the entire night in an effort to break up the ice pack, which they succeeded in doing during the early hour Wednesday morning. At one time during the night the water had risen to within a few inches of the railroad track and it was feared that a severe washout could not be prevented.

On account of going out of business Miss M.A. Schmidt will offer for one week, beginning Monday, March 25, her entire stock of trimmed and untrimmed hats, silks, velvets, chiffons, veils and ribbons at a bigger reduction than ever known to the millinery trade. Fancy feathers and flowers at 10 cents, 25 cents and 50 cents. Children's hats at 25 cents and 50 cents. Souvenirs given free with purchases amounting to $1.00 or over.

On Palm Sunday, Confirmation services will be conducted at the Evangelical Peace Church and at the St. Lucas Lutheran Church. Rev. Mohme will officiate at the services which will be held at ten o'clock in the morning at the Evangelical Peace Church and the following members of the class will be confirmed: Otto Backhaus, Aleda Mertes, Walter Buss, Eldon Ramthun, Loraine Backhaus, Harvey Backhaus, Milton Andrae, Robert Backhaus, Isabelle Backhaus, Jacob Bruessel, Alfred Schaefer, Milton Schaefer, Marvin Schnurr, Leonard Koepke, Erwin Kirchner, Frieda Giese, Zinda Schmidt, Tillie Opper and George Opper. At the St. Lucas Lutheran church the services will also begin at ten o'clock in the morning, and will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Greve. The following are the members of the class to be confirmed during the services: Erma Quandt, Thelma Warnerdt, Elvira Koepke, Regina Buss, Frank Keller Jr., and John Doepke.

A.S. Alexander, director of the division of horse breeding of the College of Agriculture at Madison, announces that all stallion licenses must be renewed before April 1, 1918, and that owners of unlicensed stallions are subject to prosecution and cannot legally collect service fees.

Side by side comparison of STS hybrids (left) vs. traditional hybrids (right) show the effectiveness of the breeding program in introducing the STS gene into commercial varieties for Dairyland Seed, allowing them to introduce STS varieties in Groups I, II and III maturity ranges for the 1993 growing season.

MADISON, WI — The first commercially available sulfonyleurea-tolerant soybean (STS) varieties in maturity Groups I, II and III were introduced by Dairyland Seed Co., Inc., West Bend, at a dealer meeting here today on March 3.

Dairyland plant breeders, working with E.I. du Pont de Nemours researchers, carefully bred a gene conferring increased tolerance to the widely used Du Pont sulfonyleurea broadleaf herbicides into several of the family-owned seed company's top-yielding soybean varieties. Du Pont's sulfonyleurea herbicides include Pinnacle® and Classic®.

Available for the 1993 planting season will be a Group I variety, identified as DSR-190/STS; Group II, DSR-250/STS; and Group III, DSR-350/STS. The new Dairyland Seed STS varieties have yield potential equal to or better than the company's current product line-up.

"Throughout Dairyland's 86 years in business, we've look at what our farmer-customers needed and developed our soybean, corn and alfalfa lines to meet their expectations. Clearly, farmers want to reduce the amount and number of chemicals used on their crops. Developing plants that are tolerant to the newest generation of herbicides allows them to do this," said Dairyland Executive Vice-President Tom Strachota in an announcement to over 200 of the company's Dealer

Elite Experimental Production (DEEP) team members.

Du Pont approached Dairyland to work with it to develop this new variety because of the company's reputation for soybean research and their standing in the seed industry.

"This effort involved critical skills in all aspects of plant breeding. We are extremely pleased that Dairyland Seed has once again shown its leadership in this area," said Phil Neff, Du Pont business manager for soybeans. "STS will increase the options farmers have for improved, cost-effective, reliable and environmentally compatible weed control."

Dairyland Seed's major investment in research is based on its long-standing commitment to farmers and the agricultural market. Dairyland is the only family-owned seed company with its own research program for hybrid corn, soybeans and alfalfa.

The Dairyland Soybean Research (DSR) breeding program was established in 1966 and includes varietal testing locations from the Rocky Mountains to the East Coast and from Canada to the Mid-South. Company domestic breeding and nursery facilities are located in Clinton, Wis., Gibson City, Ill., and West Lafayette, Ind. Dairyland also utilizes winter nursery sites at various locations in the Southern United States, Hawaii and Central and South America.

Kewaskum Farmer Selected to Participate in Expanded Research Program for Dairyland Seed

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Backhaus, Kewaskum, met with John Strachota (left), vice president of Dairyland Seed, at a press conference in Madison, when the company announced the first commercially available sulfonyleurea-tolerant soybean (STS™) varieties in maturity Groups I, II and III.

Dennis Backhaus of Kewaskum, was selected to participate in a hybrid corn research program being conducted by Dairyland Seed. Backhaus was one of a select group of Midwest farmers that participated in the company's 1992 research program that evaluated Dairyland's elite experimental hybrids' for their adaptability to Midwestern farms. The results of those efforts were recently revealed at a meeting in Madison, Wisconsin.

"Dairyland Seed has been devoting a lot of its time and efforts towards the development of new, improved hybrid corns," noted Dennis Backhaus. "I'm excited to be a part of the efforts that will help provide farmers with better genetics."

According to Dairyland Executive Vice-President, Tom Strachota, these expanded hybrid corn development efforts are beginning to bring improved genetics to Wisconsin farmers. "Dairyland has now been able to release 22 new Stealth Hybrids. The data collected from the local research trails has documented excellent local agronomic response by these new hybrids."

Basic hybrid corn research for Dairyland Seed is conducted primarily at their Clinton, Wisconsin, research location and their Corn Belt Research facility at Gibson City, Illinois. After the developmental stages, these hybrids are then sent throughout the Midwest for further evaluation. After passing through the replicated research plot level, these hybrids are then sent to select farmers for placement in strip trials.

Dairyland Seed's major investment in research is based on its long-standing commitment to farmers and the agricultural market. Dairyland is the only family-owned seed company with its own research program for hybrid corn, soybeans and alfalfa. Dairyland's Magnum III alfalfa has won numerous state trails and Dairyland's DSR soybean breeding program has developed a number of leading soybean varieties used throughout the Midwest.

March is Healthy Habits, Healthy Babies Awareness Month in Wisconsin

This month has been declared Awareness Month by the Governor and is being promoted by the Wisconsin Alcohol, Other Drugs and Pregnancy Work Group.

The aim of the campaign is to make citizens more aware of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (FAS), the dangers of smoking and using drugs during pregnancy, and ways to prevent harm to the unborn child.

FAS is one of the nation's three leading causes of known birth defects with accompanying mental retardation. Lesser fetal alcohol effects includes infant irritability and hyperactivity. FAS is caused by the consumption of alcohol during pregnancy. No one knows exactly how much alcohol causes these problems.

Alcohol-related birth defects cannot be cured. However, they all can be prevented if women do not drink during pregnancy or if they get help if they have a drinking problem.

Tobacco and other drugs such as marijuana and cocaine also may be harmful. They can endanger the pregnancy and the newborn's health (low birth weight, higher risk of unsuccessful pregnancy and premature birth, and other health problems).

It is important for:
*All women of child bearing age to be aware of the dangers that alcohol, tobacco and other drugs pose to the pregnancy, the fetus and the health of the newborn;

*Pregnant women and their partners to be informed about the dangers of using alcohol, tobacco and other drugs during pregnancy; and

*Pregnant women and their partners, families and friends to be informed about available help for those who require the intervention of a caring health professional for treatment to deal with alcohol, tobacco and other drug problems.

Educational materials, publications, and videos are available at the Council on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse of Washington County, 279 South 17th Avenue, West Bend. For more information, or to request a presentation on FAS, contact Sandy Gunderson, RN at 338-1181, 644-6088 or 255-7775.

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers! Most of you have heard the expression... "Time flies when you are having fun," right? Well, as I sat down to write my column this week... that thought came to me as March 17th marked one month since my arrival as Postmaster of Kewaskum.

I have met so many of you and cannot begin to thank you for the warm welcome that has been extended. My "open door" policy has surprised many of you and it is so refreshing to have so many of you "pop in," introduce yourself and welcome me to the community.

If you have stopped in lately, you will notice that the Post Office has taken on a "new look." Have seen a couple of you look and then look again and cannot believe that there is a CHRISTMAS TREE in place!!

I call it the "eternal tree," and just think that it "brightens up the place" a little. I guess that you just do not know what is going to happen next, right? Feel that I can speak for the entire TEAM at the Post Office and say... WE want to make your venture to YOUR Post Office as pleasant as possible.

In this week's column, I would like to touch on some areas that many of you may have encountered and hopefully will find interesting and informative.

CHAIN LETTERS! Anyone who promotes or participates in a chain letter that requires the payment of something of value; such as cash or money orders, and offers a prize dependent upon chance, is in strict violation of federal mail fraud and lottery laws. Even if the chain letter itself is not mailed, as long as the payment or prize is sent through the mail... the entire scheme is illegal.

Not only are the letters illegal, it is mathematically impossible for most of the senders to make any money. At the onset, typical chain letters are mailed to five people. Each of these people is asked to send to five more people and each of these five is asked to send to five more and so on.

Eventually, there are too many participants and too few dollars for anyone to make any money. Do not get involved in a chain letter. If you receive one, you are under no obligation to participate. I have seen some that somehow "scare" people as they lead you to believe that something terrible is going to happen if you so-call "break the chain. This is RIDICULOUS!!!

If you participate in a chain letter, YOU could be in violation of federal and state laws. Help yourself... help your neighbors, by either giving them to your rural carrier or dropping them off at the Kewaskum Post Office. We will send them to the Postal Inspection Service. Together, we can help put an end to "scams through the mail." Please... DON'T TAKE A CHANCE... DON'T BE A VICTIM!

ADDRESS INFORMATION — Many of you have the "need to know" when someone moves. If you have called the Post Office for the information, you were advised that information such as that cannot be given over the phone. Much of this is covered by the PRIVACY ACT but there are two different ways for you to attain this information, correctly and legally.

The first would be to address a letter to that person using his old address. Underneath your return address, in bold letters, print ADDRESS CORRECTION REQUESTED. If the person still receives mail at that address, it will be delivered. If the person has moved, you will receive the entire piece back to you (cost is the price of a stamp) with the current address on file with the Post Office.

Now, let's say that you are in a hurry for that information and you cannot wait for the letter to get sent back to you. The fastest way is to go to the Post Office and ask for an "address search." You will have to supply the name and current address that you have for that individual. The fee will be $3, the information given to you right away.

CERTIFIED MAIL — If you are mailing a letter and want a proof of delivery. The cost is $1 in addition to the postage. Now, you also want something back to let you know that the person received it. You would want a "return receipt" and that would cost another $1, bringing your total to $2 plus the price of the postage.

Please remember... ANYONE at that address may sign for the letter UNLESS you specify otherwise. If you want ONLY THE ADDRESSEE to sign, that is called "restrictive delivery" and carries an additional charge of $2. As always, please feel free to ask questions when you are mailing items. The TEAM at the Kewaskum Post Office is HERE TO SERVE YOU and look forward to providing the best service possible.

On a personal note... I have had many questions so thought I should address them. My parents are Harland and Jeanne Olsen and they originate from the North Fond du Lac area. Mom and dad "winter in Florida" (lucky them... ha, ha!) and plan many a visit to Kewaskum this summer to visit me and meet many of you.

Dad is retired from the Soo Line and mom worked "party plan" for many years, so to some of you, that name might ring a bell. My daughter, Chrystal, will be 20 in June and it was so nice to have she and her boyfriend visit me this past Monday. Went to lunch at Buffys and she got to meet some of you.

Chrystal will be transferring to UW-Milwaukee next year and for the summer, is employed at Great America in Gurnee, IL. She is currently at UW-Oshkosh, majoring in nursing and hoping to specialize in "Neo-Nato" (taking care of babies whose moms were drug addicts and/or alcoholics.) Also have a sister, Chrystal, married to Terry Kohlman in Fond du Lac and a brother, Tom Olsen in the Fond du Lac area.

That is about it for this week, but watch for next week's column when I will cover items such as proper addressing and tips on getting your parcels there safely and intact. Again, my sincere thanks for the warm welcome. I AM PROUD AND HAPPY to be here and look forward to providing you the best possible Postal Service that OUR TEAM can. Any questions and/or comments... feel free to call me at 626-2575 or stop in to visit... I look forward to it.

Your Postmaster, Bonnie

VILLAGE OF KEWASKUM News Notes - Recycling Tips

The Village of Kewaskum will begin its MANDATORY RECYCLING PROGRAM the week of April 4, 1993. The article is on a series of several that is designed to help you more thoroughly understand the details of the program.

The proper recycling container for homeowners will consist of an 18 gallon dark green recycling bin that will be distributed by the Department of Public Works the weeks of March 21 and 28, 1993. Multi-family dwellers in complexes of six or more will be using blue translucent plastic bags that will be available from retailers sometime the end of March and in April.

Items to be placed INSIDE the bin or bag together include: aluminum containers, glass bottles and jars (clear, green and brown), #1 P.E.T. plastic bottles, #2 H.D.P.E. plastic bottles and wide mouth containers, steel/tin cans, and bi-metal steel/aluminum containers. Items to be bundled and set ALONGSIDE the bins or bags include: newsprint, corrugated cardboard, and magazines. Lead acid batteries are also to be set ALONGSIDE the bins or bags for pickup.

NOTE: The dark green recycling bins may be placed at the curb every Wednesday for pick up unless specifically noticed in the newspaper. The blue recycling bags from multi-family dwellings are only to be placed for pick up the first and third Wednesday of each month.

The focus recyclable items this week is tin and steel cans.

Type of cans: Food Cans Only.

PREPARATION — RINSE CLEAN. This is the most important aspect of a successful recycling program. Containers that are contaminated with food residue cannot be recycled. REMOVE LABELS. This is easily done by slitting the label with a knife or fingernail and peeling it off. Flatten the cover into the can. Flattening the can is optional, but will conserve space in the bin or bag. Place cans in the dark green recycling bin or blue recycling bag.

NEXT WEEK: Glass Bottles and Jars.

The herbs sage and mint are related.

Three Others Given Honorable Mention

Marx Named to Second Team All-EW

By Noel Stollenwerk

After finishing third in both scoring and rebounding in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, Kewaskum Jim Marx figured to be a good bet to be named to the league's first team all-conference squad.

But it was again proved here, last Tuesday night, that nothing is for certain.

Marx was snubbed in the first team balloting by the EW coaches, and had to settle for second team status. Indian coach Jim Westphal thus had good reason to be a bit disturbed by the outcome.

"I was kind of disappointed that he didn't make the first team," Westphal admitted. "I thought he had a pretty good shot at it. In fact, I sort of expected it."

Marx came on strong towards the end of the year, and finished third in the EW in scoring (14.7 avg.) and rebounding (8.3 avg.). On the defensive boards, Marx finished second (66), behind teammate Adam Laatsch (69).

"He had a fine year," Westphal said of the 6-2 senior. "A lot of teams played a box-and-one (defense) and covered him. That says something in itself."

"A couple of teams finished in front of us though," he continued. "I guess they (the EW coaches) look at that."

Three other Indians, seniors Laatsch and Keith Herman, and sophomore Travis Jacak, were given honorable mention consideration in the voting.

Leading the way for first-team selections was EW Player of the Year, Ryan Remiker of Two Rivers. Remiker averaged 16 points and five rebounds per game, and finished eighth in the league with 40 assists.

Most impressive was Remiker's 60 percent (75-of-126) shooting from the field, which included a horrendous 3-of-19 (16 percent) effort from three-point range. Throw out his three-point shots, and Remiker would have hit a staggering 67 percent from the floor.

Joining Remiker on the first team were unanimous selections Paul Eisner of Chilton and Kevin Steltenpohl of Plymouth, along with Adam Bonlander of New Holstein and Matt Wieseckel of Sheboygan Falls.

Eisner led the EW in scoring (18 ppg), three-pointers (23) and was second in three-point percentage (40 percent). Steltenpohl tied for fourth in scoring (13.3 ppg) and led the EW in free throw percentage (89 percent). Bonlander also tied for fourth in the scoring race, while Wieseckel averaged 12.6 points.

"He came on at the end of the year," Westphal said of Wieseckel, perhaps the shakiest first-team selection. "Statistically, Jim did a lot more than he (Wieseckel) did."

Joining Marx on the second unit were Chuck Herrmann of

Two Rivers (13.3 ppg, 6.3 reb.), Ryan Mangan of Kiel (13.0 ppg, 6.7 reb.), Jason Meerdink of Sheboygan Falls (11.6 ppg, 33 steals, 55 assists), and Paul O'Hearn of Plymouth (10.1 ppg, 6.1 reb.).

Laatsch, who often drew double coverage at the beginning of the year, finished with a 9.7 scoring average, and was second in the league with 107 rebounds (8.9 avg.).

"He figured to be one of our strongest players this year," Westphal said of the 6-3 forward. "Everybody (in the EW) knew that coming into the season, so he always drew the other teams' toughest defender. I think he lost his confidence along the way. It was tough for him, but he had some pretty good games."

Herman, a hard-worker who impressed Westphal with his scrappiness, finished with a 9.7 scoring mark, and finished fifth in the EW with 27 steals. Jacak, meanwhile, led the conference with 122 rebounds (10.2 avg) and averaged nearly eight points per game.

"He won the rebounding title as a sophomore, so I think some people took notice of him," Westphal said of Jacak. Herman, meanwhile, "was as consistent as anybody all year. He had some real good games," including an 18-point effort in the season-finale against Port Washington.

Uniform License Expiration Date Becomes Effective March 31

Just a reminder to hunters and anglers that the uniform expiration date for licenses will begin on March 31, 1993. All Sports and Conservation Patrons Licenses will expire on this date.

Anyone who purchased a Sports or Patron license in 1992 paid a discounted fee to reflect the shorter terms of the license necessary to make the transition to the new expiration date. Fees for both of the licenses will return to the normal rate of $38 and $100 for the period April 1, 1993 through March 31, 1994. All other fish and game licenses purchased in 1993 will also expire March 31, 1994, as will all the stamps purchased in 1993. Trapping licenses are the only exception to the April 1 to March 31 time frame. Trapping licenses will remain valid May 1 through April 30 each year to coincide with the trapping seasons.

A few questions on the Turkey stamp have come up. If you purchased a Turkey stamp in the fall of 1992 for the Fall Turkey hunt, it will not expire until August 31, 1993. If you received a Turkey Permit for the up coming Spring 1993 Turkey hunt, a new stamp will be available. The new stamp will be valid for the period April 1, 1993 through March 31, 1994. So in other words there will be two stamps legal for the up coming Turkey season.

The Conservation Patron license continues to be a bargain. The license costs $100 but provides $197.97 of actual value. It covers virtually all hunting and fishing privileges, all permit applications and other extras without carry a lot of paper. Also most of the licenses and applications are mailed right to your residence, no need to leave the house.

One last note, if you purchase your Sports or Patron license now it will be honored for your fishing license, even though the effective date is supposed to be April 1, 1993. Now would be a good time to switch over to a Sports or Patron license if you were thinking about it.

If you have any other questions on this matter or any other matter feel free to contact me.

Fishing Clinics To Be Offered to Area Youngsters

Spring is on its way and with it comes the yearning to tease fish in the hopes of making a catch. Many area young people would enjoy the experience, but need a place and opportunity to be instructed in proper, safe techniques.

The chance to learn, topped off with trying to catch a fish, will be available to children ages six through twelve. Back-to-back clinics (advanced in the morning; beginner's in the afternoon) will be held at Sandy Knoll Park on Wallace Lake Drive, West Bend, on Saturday, April 3.

The morning session is an advanced seminar for children who participated in last year's LLFC clinic at Sandy Knoll. A review of previous sessions will be followed by advanced techniques and instruction. A work sheet handed out at the clinic will need to be returned to Kettle Moraine Bait on N. Main St. in West Bend or mailed to the LLFC. Children completing this course and the work sheet will receive a DNR Junior Angler patch. On-site check-in for the advanced clinic begins at 8:30 a.m. The session will conclude at 12:00 noon.

The afternoon session, for beginners, welcomes children age six through 12, who desire to learn the basics of good fishing techniques and water/boating safety. Instructional sessions will include: Environment: Lakes and Watersheds - Keeping Them Clean; Fish Habitats Long Lake Fishing Club and Identification; Equipment and Rigging; Nature's Friend, the Warden, and Casting Practice. On site registration for this session will begin at 12:30 p.m. The session will conclude at 4:00 p.m. Participants completing the beginners session will receive "Youth Angler" patches.

There is no fee for either clinic but advance reservations are required. Parents are invited to observe. A child who is dropped off must be picked up immediately following the completion of the chosen clinic.

Members of the Long Lake Fishing Club, many of them DNR-trained Master Anglers, will conduct the clinic. Following the completion of the learning sessions, members of the club will assist the youngsters in fishing for rainbow trout. Some equipment is available for use. If a child has access to a rod and reel, it is suggested he/she bring it along. Bait will be provided.

Registration in both sessions is limited. Registration forms are available at the Pick 'n' Save Food Stores in West Bend, Sentry Food Store in Kewaskum, and Piggly Wiggly in Campbellport. They should be completed and returned to the Long Lake Fishing Club, N4155 Boy Scout Drive, Campbellport, WI 53010 by March 26, 1992. Phone registration until that date will be accepted at 533-4430.

The program in West Bend is sponsored by the Long Lake Fishing Club, Dundee and the Wisconsin Council of Sport Fishing Organizations.

The Long Lake Fishing Club is a non profit organization of over

Program for New Volunteers at Lac Lawrann Conservancy

Hundreds of children and adults visit Lac Lawrann Conservancy each year to participate in environmental programs about owls, butterflies, wildflowers, turtles and snakes. People experience enjoyment as well as appreciation for the wildlife and its habitat. The public programming and care of the conservancy are made possible through the dedicated efforts of volunteers.

On Tuesday, March 23, at 7:00 p.m. the volunteers of Lac Lawrann invite members of the community to join them in their spring gathering and orientation for volunteers. The event will take place in the volunteer's meeting place, the Niche, located on the lower level of the West Bend City Hall, 1115 S. Main Street.

Volunteers plan to up-date new volunteers on the history and organizational structure of the volunteer program before turning the program over to the evening's objective - presentation of the Conservancy's spring projects.

Volunteers make things happen! Crews are being planned to cull the pine plantation, burn the prairie, cut honeysuckle and buckthorn. Naturalists will continue training in preparation for school field trips and introductory tours through the Conservancy. Helpers are needed to type and run copies, fill the scrapbooks, build displays, dig, pot and sell wildflowers, and maintain trails. Quite an assortment of projects!

Lac Lawrann's volunteers have the satisfaction of contributing to the preservation of wildlife for today and for the future. Because of the sensitivity of a natural area, the Conservancy is open to the public on a limited basis - a reservation system for tours and programs. Trails are regulated to maintain all types of wildlife - plants, birds and animals.

For more information regarding the Spring Public Tour Schedule or the volunteers' program, please contact the West Bend Park, Recreation and Forestry Department at 335-5080.

Volunteers Needed to Count Cranes

The 19th annual Wisconsin Sandhill Crane Count, sponsored by the International Crane Foundation, will be held from 5:30 to 7:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 17, 1993. Volunteers can learn more about the Count and cranes at the Washington County organizational meeting. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 31 at the Hartford Recreation Center. Data collected during the count assists the foundation in monitoring the return of this once-endangered bird.

A narrated slide presentation, shown at the organizational meeting, depicts the cranes' life cycle, behavior, and the relationship between cranes and their habitat. Participants will also select survey sites and receive instructions and observation forms at the meeting.

Sandhill Cranes were common in the upper Midwest in the mid-1800s, but declined rapidly after 1875 due to destruction of their habitat and hunting. Wisconsin declared Sandhills an endangered species in 1936, but substantial increases in the Sandhill population during the 1950s and 60s led to their removal from the endangered species list in 1973.

The first Crane Count began as a Columbia County High School project in 1975. Since then the count has grown to one of the largest single-species inventories in the world. More than 2,600 volunteers participate in the count annually.

Participants reported herding or seeing a total of 10,111 cranes during the count in 1992. The highest total reported was 10,255 in 1989.

Individuals that cannot attend the organizational meeting, but who wish to participate may contact Phil Burnside, the Washington County Coordinator at (414) 255-5080 for more information.

Wiesner Named to Second Unit; Sabish Gets Honorable Mention

Winninghoff Picked as Unanimous First Team Selection

By Noel Stollenwerk

After being named as a second-team All-Eastern Wisconsin Conference selection as a junior last year, Kewaskum's Robyn Winninghoff was expected to shine this season.

Winninghoff did little to dim those expectations, leading the Indians to a strong second-place finish in the conference. For her efforts, the 6-3 senior was named to the All-EW first team as a unanimous choice by the EW coaches.

Kewaskum's Ginger Wiesner was named to the second unit, while senior guard Kim Sabish was given honorable mention consideration.

Winninghoff finished second in the conference with 126 rebounds (10.5 avg), and was third in scoring (14.2 ppg). She also finished fifth in both free throw percentage (65.1 percent) and field goal percentage (40.8 percent).

"Teams and players alike had to adjust their games when she was out on the floor," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said of Winninghoff. "Her ability to catch, dribble, and shoot on the run noticeably stands out. But her real impact has been the opportunities she creates for her team due to her size and mobility."

Joining Winninghoff on the 'dream team' were Chilton's Stacey Reimer and Cathy Dallmann, Two Rivers' Shanna Miller, and Kiel's Karla Niemuth.

Reimer, who was chosen as the Player of the Year, finished second to Dallmann in the scoring race (15.6 to 15.3). Reimer was second in the league with a 69.1 free throw percentage, but was first in assists (52), and third in steals (44).

In addition to leading the EW in scoring, Dallmann also led in field goal percentage (52.6 percent), three-pointers (17), and was third in rebounding (10.0 avg.)

Miller, who was the lone sophomore named to the first unit, was fourth in scoring (12.0 ppg), and first in rebounding (11.0 avg). Niemuth finished first in three-point percentage (44.4 percent) and was second in three-pointers made (16).

Wiesner is just a junior, and Eichstedt is more than happy to have her back next season. The 5-7 guard averaged 9.5 points, and was right behind Winninghoff in field goal and free throw percentage.

"Ginger's quickness and aggressiveness make her a legitimate threat on both sides of the ball," Eichstedt said of Wiesner. "Her greatest attribute is that her level of play improves as the game progresses. Her defense and shooting often changed the momentum in our favor."

Joining Wiesner on the second unit were Chilton's Renae Miller (8.3 ppg, 72 steals), Two Rivers' Angie Gates (10.6 ppg, 54 steals, 45 assists), Plymouth's Heidi Miller (8.5 ppg, 103 reb), and Sheboygan Falls' Sara Lorens (8.6 ppg, 5.2 rpg).

Sabish also capped off a fine senior year, finishing fourth in the EW in field goal percentage (41.4 percent), while also being a menace to opponents with her defense.

"Kim was our floor leader," Eichstedt said. "Her defense and ballhandling allowed us to compete with anyone."

SHEEPSHEAD WINNERS

5 handed winner's on Wednesday, March 10th were:

Bob Kuells, 84-11-73, 23-6-17; Marge Bonlender, 79-9-70, 21-5-16; Andy Bonlender, 53-5-48, 15-3-12; Ed Hartmann, 51-9-42, 15-5-10; Carol Treesh, 42-2-40, 18-2-16; Jean Becker, 51-11-40, 19-8-11.

"ONLY THE RICH CAN AFFORD POOR WINDOWS."

F. C. Andersen

That thought is as true today as when Mr. F. C. Andersen first spoke it years ago. He was referring to the cost of window maintenance. To the cost of energy lost through leaky, ill-fitting windows. And to the cost of replacing poor windows.

With today's critically high labor and energy prices, perhaps his statement ought to read: "Only the super rich..."

For almost ninety years, the Andersen goal has been to produce the lowest-maintenance, most weathertight and energy efficient window possible. Today, Andersen® Perma-Shield® windows virtually eliminate maintenance. And they are 12½ times more efficient than industry air infiltration standards require.

With Andersen® High-Performance glass, these windows are 33% more energy efficient than ordinary double-pane windows in the winter, 13% more efficient under the summer sun.

And, as your Andersen Window Center® retailer, we'll prove you don't have to be rich to own them.

All Andersen Window Center® stores are independently owned and operated. WCPQ01
