Farmer's Union Milk Marketing Co-Op Opens Transfer Station Here

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Members of the FUMMC (Farmer's Union Milk Marketing Co-op) have begun

the first half of their newest endeavor aimed at serving both Kewaskum's business community as well as the area's farmers.

Their milk transfer station located on Fond du Lac Ave. is fully operational, and already receiving 18 million pounds of milk per month. The majority of it is shipped directly to the customers. Kemps receives about 60% of the supply, while Grande Cheese and a few others take the rest of the surplus.

General manager, Don Uelman explains the function of receiving plants such as this one. "Milk is very perishable, and at certain times of the year, more milk is received than needed. Since most of it is used by schools, holidays create a surplus." The milk is then shipped throughout the southeastern United States.

The second phase of the project is also a solution to the problem of surplus milk. Groundbreaking took place on Tuesday, Oct. 8, for the new balancing plant that will produce cheese. "We'd like to try to produce barrel cheese in 500 lbs., which goes to places like Velveta or Beatrice," states Uelman.

They also plan to develop and produce a Mexican specialty cheese. "With specialty cheese, we could employ 30 or 40 people," adds Kewaskum receiving plant manager, Tyrone Arneson. He previously managed the Morgan Co-op near Oconto Falls.

By next spring the new plant should be completed.

New Police Officer Hired; Trick or Treat Hours Set

Village Water Quality, Testing Explained to Board Members

At the October 4th meeting of the Kewaskum Village Board, Police Chief Richard Knoebel stated he had hired Gregory P. Zager as the new village police officer replacing Steve Seitz, who resigned this past summer to take another position in West Bend.

Zager, 26, formerly of Sun Prairie, has moved to the Kewaskum area and is currently being trained by his fellow officers.

In other matters brought before the board, a lengthy discussion was held between board members and Director of Public Works Jerry Gilles on the recent failure of a water sample to pass the state testing and subsequent chlorination of the water supply.

Gilles informed the board he had just been made aware the Department of Natural Resources and State Lab of Hygiene has changed methods for testing water samples.

From discussing this new method with other small communities, Gilles has found out the new method is more sensitive and the reliability on the second portion is questionable. Surrounding communities anticipate 20% more water sample failures with the new method, because of its sensitivity. It determines only the water quality and does not take into consideration any possibility of human error or contamination in the lab. Many area communities are considering hiring out for their water sampling.

Trustee Gary Gavin asked Gilles, "What is the cost to do the chlorine, and my next question is... are you going to change the testing site?"

Gilles said he really hasn't gotten a bill on the chlorine they purchased because everything was done on an emergency basis. He added, "We do plan on changing some of the testing sites. One of the concerns that we had... was the age of the pipes, amount of crustation and whether that was a reliable place to be sampling."

President Robert Wagner asked, "Do you have any feel for where this problem originates?"

Gilles replied, "I don't know whether we had a problem, whether the lab had a problem, you know we really have no idea. We did not find any growth on cross connections, we didn't find any indications of a problem that we had anywhere else in the system, so we're kind of in the dark about that. It would be nice to say, this right here was exactly the cause. We know what it was now... because then you can feel real confident and good about if you

Balloonists Make Surprise Landing in Campbellsport

Help arrived from the Fond du Lac County Sheriff's Dept. and the balloon's ground crew that had followed them throughout the race.

The balloon crew begins to clean up their equipment scattered throughout the field

Participants in the Great Balloon Race from Albuquerque to New York, paid a short visit to Campbellsport last week.

Their 60 hour ride in the competition came to an end Friday morning, Oct. 6, as the crew from Austria made an unexpected landing just west of Hwy. 45 in a field off Town Hall Rd.

According to a Fond du Lac County Sheriff, the balloonists were attempting to land, when a gust of wind caught the balloon dragging it 300 yards, the length of three football fields. No injuries were reported, and the three tired Austrians, two men and one woman, were aided by the Sheriff's dept. along with their ground crew, following them since the beginning of the race.

Josef Starkbaum, owner and occupant of the balloon, found out later that he had been declared the winner of the race, officially called the "Coupe de Aeronautique Gordon Bennett international balloon race." The winning balloon had apparently travelled 1,138.4 miles before landing in Campbellsport.

A total of 19 balloons competed in the race, with Starkbaum becoming only the seventh competitor to break the 1,000 mile mark. The 1994 race will traditionally be held in the winners home country, which is Austria.

The Kewaskum graduating class of 1933 held a 60 year class reunion. Seventeen students were in the original class, and now seven of those are deceased.

Five classmates gathered together recently for a pot-luck reunion at the home of Willard and Ruth Gruhle. They planned on showing slides of past reunions, but they visited and forgot all about it. Since they celebrate every year, they plan on showing them next time (if they don't forget them again!)

This is in the same order 60 years later at their 60th class reunion.

ABOUT THE VILLAGE

To the People of Kewaskum:

Hello again... Well as I mentioned in my last article, I would like to talk to you about the upgrades to Fond du Lac Avenue within the village limits.

The stretch of road from STH 28 (west) on the north end to just south of CTH "H" (west) on the south end. If you don't mind I would like to refer to Fond du Lac Avenue as FDL Avenue and this will help keep my writers cramp down.

The existing roadway within the urban area of the village is approximately .91 miles and is 48 to 52 feet wide from face-of-curb to face-of-curb. The concrete pavement, while generally in good structural condition, exhibits some faulting at the joints, along with slab cracking.

These combine to give the pavement a rough surface and a poor ride. The center two lanes serve as the traffic carrying lanes. Parking is presently allowed on both sides of the roadway in non-intersection areas.

The scope of the improvements for this section of roadway is to repair the cracked and faulted concrete sections and then overlay the roadway with an asphaltic pavement to restore ride quality.

On the north end of town, the existing roadway just north of the curb and gutter section is presently a two lane rural roadway with 12-foot lanes and eight foot shoulders. The proposed improvement would reconstruct this section to a 48 foot wide urban roadway with storm sewer, curb and gutter and sidewalk.

Some acquisition of right-of-way will be required in the northern section to extend the box culvert and accommodate a new wider roadway.

The street lighting will be replaced and improved along the entire length of FDL Avenue, along with stop and go lights at H and emergency lights at the fire house.

The roadway around the intersection of CTH "H" will need the east side of the road improved with a curb being added and a sidewalk installed.

The roadway at this point will be 48 feet from curb-to-curb face. Not too much will change to the roadway going through the downtown area but resurfacing. It is 52 feet wide and has curb and sidewalk.

The northern rural section of FDL Avenue I mentioned earlier in this article will need the most work due to the extensive upgrading needed to take it up to standard.

As I remember, last week I talked about the Federal standard of four moving traffic lanes being required when our daily traffic exceeds 13,000 vehicles per day and we are almost at that daily count now.

Well, that takes us to the hot issue about this FDL Avenue project. As you can see we are for the most part, NOT widening FDL Avenue. So the only way to get four lanes then would be to get rid of the parking and that brings us to the HOT issue.

In this road project, the parking issue and money go hand and hand. We can ignore the Federal Standard about four moving lanes and keep the parking, but the Feds like to fight dirty by going for the pocket-book... money is what it is all about.

Basically, it goes like this... the more parking we want to keep on FDL Avenue, the larger our percentage is that we have to pay for the project. Here are just four of some of the different options we can take. Please pay attention to the costs.

Option #1. Make the north end of FDL Avenue 36 feet wide and all other upgrade and lighting improvements I discussed, with no parking south of Main Street and no parking in the new 36 foot section to the north. The total project cost is $1,090,900.00. The Federal/State cost share is $917,455.00; the village's share is $173,445.00.

Option #2. The north end is still 36 feet wide and everything else is the same but now parking is allowed both north and south of Main Street, with no parking in the new 36 foot section to the north. The cost of the project is $1,090,900.00; the Federal/State cost share is $781,480.00 and our cost is $309,420.00.

Option #3. Make the north end 48 feet wide with everything else the same. There would be no parking south of Main Street, but parking would be allowed north of Main Street to STH 28. The cost of the project would be $1,125,500.00. The Federal/State share is $858,985.00 and our share is $266,515.00.

Option #4. Make the north end 48 feet wide with everything else the same. But now parking will be allowed on the entire length of the project from H to 28. The total cost of the project being $1,125,500.00; the Federal/State share being $729,555.00 and our share will be $395,945.00.

As you can see, the cost the village would pay can vary from a low of $173,445.00 to a high of $395,945.00.

If the village would choose to keep some or all of the parking on FDL Avenue, it will cost us money and here is the real catch to all this. The state or federal government can come along at any time and take our parking away. And guess what... they won't be giving our money back!

Well, that's about it in a nut shell. I wanted to keep this article shorter than the last one, but it didn't happen. This should give us all enough to think about this week and I will be back next week to talk about Hwy. 45 between Kewaskum and West Bend.

If anyone has any questions, please let me know and I will try to answer them next week.

Thanks,
Bob Wagner

Reed Marionettes Entertain KES Students

Robin and Tim Reed of Reed Marionettes pose with a Bunraku style and giant body puppet.

"Peoples and Puppets", an exceptional cross-cultural puppet and marionette program was presented to KES students recently by the Reed Marionettes.

Performing "The Lucky Table" from Costa Rica, "The Tiger's Whiskers" from Korea and "Skunny-Wundy and the Stone Giant" from the Iroquois, Robin and Tim Reed of Wales, Wisconsin, artfully demonstrated their puppetry skills as they brought numerous characters "to life".

Following the three folk tales, the Reeds demonstrated the many varieties of puppets and marionettes used. The program, sponsored by the KES-PTO, continues the all-school theme of "Around the World in 180 Days".

Three generations of the Reed family have toured with the Reed Marionettes since 1950. Company credits include puppetry for the Muppets, PBS and The Milwaukee Symphony. They are a favorite at the children's theaters of Detroit, Omaha, Wichita and Oak Park, and Robin Reed currently serves as president of the Wisconsin Puppetry Guild.

can eliminate it."

Wagner then asked about the schedule of cleaning the reservoir and Gilles replied that it had been cleaned this summer. He added, "After we clean that, we fill it and chlorinate it and then we send samples in to the state lab and before that water is put back into the system, we get safe samples on that and then because of the chlorine content, if we're able to, we dispose of as much water as we can of that chlorinated water so that it doesn't go into our system and we refill with as much clear water as we can from the well."

Wagner also asked Gilles if the village had been put on some type of probationary period with the state.

Gilles remarked that all six samples sent in to the state came back safe and as far as he was aware, we start over. The only difference is that due to the bad sample, next month we send in five water samples instead of the customary three samples.

Gilles also mentioned that at the initiation of the problem, old well No. 1, which is a small pump that only pumps about a thousand gallons a day, more or less just enough to keep in service, was shut down. It is an old well and has had problems in the past, so the crew, thinking this might be the suspect and knowing they could make do without it, shut it completely down.

Before it was turned back on, the crew thought it would be prudent to test samples of the water. A sample of standing water was taken and another sample of pumped running water was taken and both tested safe, so that idea was eliminated.

Water will continue to be monitored closely and President Wagner asked Gilles to please notify the public immediately if this problem should ever occur again.

The board and Mr. Gilles also discussed in detail the water truck and it was decided to offer the owner of the used truck in question less money and the purchase would be conditional on a demonstration.

Scheunemann Running For State Assembly

Kevin Scheunemann

Libertarian Kevin Scheunemann announced last month that he will run for the 59th District state Assembly seat vacated by Mary Panzer.

"The voters in this area need a fiscally conservative representative," Scheunemann said. "Libertarians are fiscally conservative. I will fight every tax increase and look for ways to reduce the excessive government and taxation we have in Wisconsin."

Scheunemann, 21, said he will be campaigning on several issues: school choice for public, private, and religious schools; a freeze on the state budget; term limits for members of the Legislature; and privatization of many state government functions.

"Privatization by itself would save millions of dollars each year," Scheunemann, a West Bend resident, said. "And I will make sure that taxes are reduced after we get those savings."

Kettle Kountry Kolors..

Even though Saturday's breezy, cool weather prevented the hot air balloonists from taking off, Sunday dawned crisp, clear and calm and the six participants in the hot air balloon mini-rally were anxious to take off. The decision was made to go up, preparations on the balloons were done and within a short time the colorful six balloons were airborne with a cloudless, azure background behind them. For those who missed seeing the huge spheres in the sky, it truly was a breathtaking sight.

Some of the Civil War encampment residents included children, dressed in period clothing which was educational to other youth as well as their parents.

One of the favorite animals in the Robert James Animal Encounters show was the ostrich. He delighted young and old alike, as well as the above group of children. James and his animals were like a Pied Piper on Sunday, gathering large crowds of people wherever he roamed after his shows in the children's activity tent.

It wasn't all fun and games for Kettle Kountry Kolors committee members Tim Miller, Richard Thiemer and Lee Kempf. I realize there was a problem with the bathroom, guys, but I just don't see how you're going to get that thing over the hill! Isn't there some type of law against moving an outhouse with someone still in it?

Donna Zimmer, left, and Dustin Kuehl, center, became unwilling participants in the Comedy Improv Show held both days at the center gazebo. Me thinks Donna just may hath protested too much, for she ended up being carried bodily on stage by one of the Comedy Improv players.

s... Colorama at Its Best!

Another big hit of this year's festival was the Wheel of Wisdom show, which had contestants and audience on the edge of their seats. What made it even more fun was the fact the contestants were people chosen from the audience.

Shown in the foreground is Carrie Wiesner feeding Andrea Hartmann during the My Little Friends Pudding Eating Contest held Saturday in the Children's Activity Center.

It was fascinating to watch chain saw carving artist Dave Watson demonstrate his talent. Throughout Saturday and Sunday Dave carved a total of six pieces, which were sold through a silent auction by the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the Kettle Kountry Kolors Festival. It was unanimous that Dave come back again next year, schedule permitting.

Another popular feature of the festival was the landing of the "Friend In the Sky" helicopter. People dropped whatever they were doing as soon as they heard the chopper coming and children had a difficult time waiting for the blades to stop before they climbed on board full of questions for the pilot and crew.

Back by popular demand, "Crackers" the clown showed some of his magic with balloons to (L-R) Kelly Knoebel, Carrie Wiesner, Bridget Baum and Andrea Hartmann.

Jim Korth of Hon-E-Kor Country Club congratulates Jeff Schleif, winner of the 1994 Hon-E-Kor membership. Jeff was the elimination playoff winner for getting closest to the pin in the Hon-E-Kor Hole in One Golf Contest.

IN MEMORY

In memory of John Wornardt "Little Johnny" who passed away Oct. 13, 1978:

We watched through all your suffering
And often had to cry
For we knew that very soon
We'd have to say good-bye
When days are sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong
We seem to hear you whisper
Cheer up and carry on.
Everytime we see your picture
You seem to smile and say
Don't cry. I'm in God's keeping.
We'll all meet again someday

Deeply missed by Helen, children Ruth and DuWayne, grandchildren Shelly and

The Rev. Mr. William Mayer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mayer of this village, has been notified by Msgr. Mayer of St. Francis Seminary, St. Francis, that he will be among a class of ten students at the seminary who have completed their 12 years of studies and will be ordained to the holy order of the priesthood on Tuesday, November 30, at St. John's Cathedral, Milwaukee. The Rev. Mr. Mayer will read his first Holy Mass at Holy Trinity Church, Kewaskum, his home parish on Sunday, December 5.

Mixed garden flowers decorated the altars of St. Kilian's Church, St. Kilian, for the marriage of Miss Esther Kern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kern, of Kewaskum, and Arnold Berg, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Berg of Allenton, on September 29.

Kewaskum trampled Oakfield there in the first conference of the season Sept. 28, by a score of 26-6. Coach Mitchell described it as a "fine defensive game" in spite of the apparently good offense indicated by the score. In the first quarter Dave Bartelt blocked a punt. Ralph Koth and Jim Bartelt each made a long run and then Koth put the ball over for the first touchdown. Allen Tessar made the point after the touchdown to add two to the original six. After a completed 45 yard pass from Tessar to Dave Bartelt, Koth and Jim Bartelt both executed end sweeps to gain four yards. Koth passed to Merril Krueger who took the ball over. Early in the fourth quarter Kewaskum made two consecutive first downs and Dave Bartelt caught a pass from Tessar to total the score at 26-6. Coach Mitchell cited Ronald Dins and Dave Bartelt for outstanding playing.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Coulter of St. Kilian.

Officers elected by the girls chorus at Kewaskum High School last week are: President Lillian Werner, Librarian Adeline Zacho, Secretary-Treasurer LaVerne Siegfried. When LaVerne dropped chorus at the end of the week, Marjorie Bartelt was elected to replace her.

For the first time in four years, Latin is being taught in the Kewaskum High School. In the class of six there are four juniors, Rachel Brauchle, Lois Koch, Marjorie Schmidt and Mary Alice Schmitz; one sophomore, Betty Jane Winters and one freshman, Jean Rosenheimer.

In a nuptial ceremony performed by the Rev. Gerhard Kaniess in the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Town of Scott, on Saturday, October 2, Miss Virginia Staeger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Staeger of Beechwood, became the bride of Armin Oppermann, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Oppermann of Route 2, Campbellsport.

Sergeant Adolph Meinecke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Meinecke Sr. of this village, is doing splendid work in the United States Army. Sergeant Meinecke enlisted in the Army on May 14, 1914 at Milwaukee. When trouble arose between the United States and Mexico, he was sent to the Mexican border and served under Pershing's forces in Mexico to round up Villa and his gang of outlaws. When war was declared on Germany, he went with Pershing's troops across the Atlantic, after serving in the front line trenches for several months, where he won the French Cross for gallantry, and also a medal as a sharpshooter, he was sent back to this country for the purpose of training rookies. While crossing the ocean, his ship was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine. In order to take a chance in saving his own life, Sergeant Meinecke jumped into the water, caught hold of a floating raft, where he remained for four hours, when he was picked up by an English patrol boat and taken back to France. Immediately after his arrival he was taken to a hospital where he remained eight weeks, having contracted an illness caused by exposure. Upon his recovery he was again sent back to America, this time landing safely and was stationed at Camp Lee, Virginia in the month of February, 1918, where he now is and where he is doing excellent work as an instructor in military tactics.

The Kewaskum 30th Company of the Wisconsin State Guard Reserve Rifle Club received their uniforms from Mandel Brothers, Chicago on Monday and on Tuesday evening turned out for drill in full uniform. They made a good showing and the citizens of the village as well as the members of the guard feel proud of the good appearance the company is making. The non-commissioned appointed by Captain Fellenz are as follows: 1st Sergeant - Edward C. Miller; Supply Sergeant Donald Harbeck; Sergeants - L.P. Rosenheimer. Otto E. Lay, Frank M. Keys, Frank Keller. Corporals - Robert L. Davies, Dr. E. L. Morgenroth, S.C. Wollensak, John F. Schaefer, Oscar Koerble, Fred Witzig. Musicians - Elmer Baum, Walter Fellenz. The following officers for the Rifle Club were elected Tuesday evening: President - Captain John Fellenz; Vice President - Corp. John F. Schaefer; Secretary - 1st Serg. Edw. C. Miller; Treasurer - Lieut. B. Rosenheimer; and Executive Officer - Corp. S.C. Wollensak.

Charles F. Miller, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Miller of this village, has been awarded the marksmen medal and diploma offered by the Winchester Junior Rifle Corps, a recently formed National Organization to promote shooting among the boys and girls in America. His score was 202, out of a possible 250.

W.E. Barber of the state conservation commission announces that deer hunting this year will be limited to one buck with horns. The killing of fawns and does will be prohibited. On account of skunks being great destroyers of ground nesting birds, the commission has allowed an open season during the entire year for the same. It is recommended to the legislature that the closed season on partridges, prairie chickens, woodcocks, etc. be continued for two more years.

The barn, cream house, wagon shed, and chicken house on the old Bruce Wescott farm, located in the Town of Farmington, were completely destroyed by fire early last Sunday morning. The total loss is estimated at about $2,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A baby boy was born one day last week to Mr. and Mrs. Jac Theusch at New Fane.

A Birthday Memorial To Robert Felten

A million times I've thought of you; a million times I've cried, but in our hearts you hold a place no one else can fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You're in our thoughts, we pray for you. You gave us more than you could know. If helping out other people could have saved you, you never would have died. When someone needed your help you were there to lend an ear or just to lend a helping hand. They could count on you.

We know you watch from above and are with us everyday. For all that you have left behind is in our hearts and in our minds. Sometimes you seem so near.

If there was only a way to erase all our pain and tears, but the only way to do that would be to have you here, to see your smiling face, to have a touch or an embrace. He's no longer here to share our lives.

We miss you so much and in our hearts you will always be. We can feel all your love around us. When we must come your way alone, you'll greet us with a smile and say "Welcome Home!" So rest in peace Bob, our love for you will never cease. I know that God's Garden must be beautiful, because he always picks the best.

Happy Birthday, Oct. 14th

Violence in Schools: Making Young Criminals

by Peter Lewis

Our public schools of today are not the places they were 25 or 50 years ago. And it is not that academic standards have declined. Those of us with a few decades under their belts will remember when chewing gum or talking in class were major offenses -- things that could land you a much dreaded visit to the principal's office.

Today, schools have become a jungle of criminality and potential violence. The National Education Association, for instance, tells us as many as 100,000 students tote guns to class everyday. And teaching is rapidly becoming a high-risk profession. Daily, 6,250 teachers are threatened with injury and 260 are actually assaulted by students.

If the lives of teachers are being threatened, what about the lives of students? For every teacher assaulted, how many children are similarly attacked by their fellow students?

When we must enforce discipline in schools with armed guards patrolling corridors -- guards designed to deter criminality and violence on the part of children -- we really do have to wonder what is going on. The media used to be filled with stories about kids who couldn't read. Today, we hear about the sexual promiscuity and rapes, the drug dealing, the violence -- all of it being perpetrated by children, many not even in their teens.

What is the solution to all this? More armed guards patrolling school corridors? Or perhaps arming the teachers? (The way things are going, this might be seriously considered, heaven forbid, within a decade or two.)

There has to be a better solution. Statistics really give us an important clue to what that solution might be. According to the U.S. Department of Education, 85% of juvenile offenders have trouble reading. As well, 60% of adult prison inmates are illiterate.

The connection between juvenile crime and illiteracy might seem esoteric first. Certainly no one is suggesting that Little Johnny throws down his reading or math book and immediately starts blazing away with an automatic weapon to vent his frustration.

But think about it. What does our high-tech world offer to a teenager who is desperately failing in school and who secretly believes he will never get the education he needs to be able to earn a good living for himself?

Look at the media interviews with teenage gang members. The common theme that runs through what these youngsters say about gangs and violence is the hopelessness and despair they feel. They cling to their gangs and violence because these provide a sense of identity, a sense of belonging to something.

While this is certainly an oversimplification of the problem, it is nevertheless interesting that when reading and literacy problems are handled amongst children, the violence and criminality tends to be significantly reduced.

At least this is the experience of Applied Scholastics, an organization dedicated to improving the quality of education using the educational discoveries of American author L. Ron Hubbard.

"For too long, I believe that the correlation between child violence and poor academic performance has been ignored," said John Ellis, an Applied Scholastics tutor in Los Angeles who has experience with literacy programs for juvenile offenders.

Ellis described one project in which he tutored over 150 incarcerated juvenile offenders over a period of six months. "These were serious offenders, charged mostly with murder or attempted murder," he said. "At the start of the project, the authorities were very skeptical. You really can't do anything with these kids, they told me repeatedly."

"About 95% of these children were functionally illiterate," he said. "So that was the entry point we went in on -- teaching them phonics and reading. And because the methods Applied Scholastics uses greatly speeds up the educational process, these children began to read on their own in a very short period of time."

"After a few months, one would find books in all their rooms, for instance. And the kids themselves pushed for a library which was supposed to be in the facility but had never been established before."

"According to the guards, the number of fights in the jail decreased dramatically during the same period," Ellis adds. "Really though, you could see the difference in the kids. A few came up to me or wrote to me after the project was completed. I don't have to break the law or hurt people any more," they would say. "You've given me the power I never had before!"

The offenders Ellis worked with are what our society regards mainly as hopeless cases. Yet based on the work Applied Scholastics, there is even hope for them. So what about our schools? Would not the same methods not only improve educational levels, but also reduce violence and crime here amongst children who have not yet gone over the edge? Applied Scholastics believes they would.

The bottom line is that our schools need to teach youngsters all the skills they need to participate effectively and honestly in our society. And if they don't, it should be no mystery that a lot of children begin to use extreme methods to get what they want.

Forget increasing the number of armed guards in schools. Let's get education back on track instead.

Upland Game Season Opens

MADISON - Prospects for hunters and trappers looking forward to the opening of a number of upland game seasons on Saturday, October 16, are mixed, depending upon the type of game and the area to be hunted or trapped, according to a state upland wildlife specialist.

Seasons opening October 16 include: raccoon, statewide gun and trapping for Wisconsin residents; red and grey fox, the northern zone gun and trapping; bobcat, gun and trapping; bobwhite quail; sharp-tailed grouse; and hungarian partridge. Bag limits vary with species and seasons close on differing dates. See the 1993 Wisconsin hunting and trapping regulations pamphlets for more information.

Upland fur bearer seasons should offer hunters a mixed bag, with raccoons and cottontail rabbits abundant, fox numbers fair and bobcat numbers stable, according to Bill VanderZouwen, Department of Natural Resources upland game ecologist.

The outlook for raccoon is very good with the population high throughout the state, VanderZouwen said. The mixed agriculture and woodlot habitat of eastern Wisconsin should especially provide excellent hunting opportunities.

Recent mild winters have contributed to increased populations of cottontail rabbit, according to VanderZouwen. While there are pockets in the north near agriculture and residential development with high cottontail populations, the highest populations are found in the central and southern portions of the state.

As a result, VanderZouwen said, this year may offer rabbit hunters the best numbers they have seen in several years.

Although the numbers of red fox are not as high as they have been the last couple of years, hunters can still expect a good number of fox in the northern part of the state. Gray fox populations have been increasing in many parts of the state.

The bobcat population remains stable in the north, with prospects fair to good. The bobcat hunting and trapping zone is north of state Highway 64, where most bobcat habitat is found. The bag limit is one and a permit is required.

The populations of sharptail grouse, bobwhite quail, and hungarian partridge are all down this year, VanderZouwen said. Frequent heavy rains in the spring and summer contributed to sparse hungarian partridge numbers. The best counties for hunting will be Brown, Calumet, and Manitowoc in the east; Sheboygan, Ozaukee, Green and Iowa in the south. Check the regulations pamphlet for areas that are closed because of reintroduction efforts.

The sharptail grouse population is very limited this year because of a decrease in breeding populations. The brush-prairies and sedge meadows in the northwest will provide the best hunting opportunities in the state with limited scattered pockets of sharptail grouse.

To help monitor the harvest of sharptail grouse, hunters this year are required to complete a sharptail grouse hunter report card. The cards are available at area DNR offices in northwestern Wisconsin. The season closes November 7 and cards must be mailed into the department by November 12.

The bobwhite quail population is also limited. Areas in the west with a mix of corn, grassy fields, shrubby fence rows and brushy woods margins have modest numbers. The most populated region in the state is in the south from Vernon County over to Green Lake County.

Pheasant Season Best in Ten Years

MADISON - Remnant pheasant populations in Wisconsin have responded to efforts to restore habitat in the state, and as a result state wildlife managers predict this fall may be the best year to hunt wild Wisconsin pheasants in at least the last ten years.

Pheasant surveys conducted in 33 areas across the state show an average increase of 29 percent over last year, continuing an increasing trend since 1985, the low point in the state's pheasant population, according to Bill VanderZouwen, upland wildlife ecologist for the Department of Natural Resources.

"Pheasants are beginning to show up in many places where we have not seen them for at least a decade," VanderZouwen said. However, he adds that it is too early to know whether the cold, wet spring has had a detrimental effect on brood production.

The statewide pheasant season will open October 16 and close December 8. The bag limit is one bird per day during the first two weeks and two per day thereafter. The only exception is an area of Iowa County that opens in November and has a one bird per day limit through the entire season.

Most pheasant hunters are required to purchase a $7.25 Pheasant Stamp. Revenue from this stamp is earmarked for wild pheasant restoration projects such as habitat restoration and wild pheasant releases.

Along with funds generated through the pheasant stamp, VanderZouwen also credits the work and fund-raising efforts of state conservation organizations such as Pheasants Forever and Wings Over Wisconsin, and federal programs that provided incentives for farmers and rural property owners to set-aside lands for conservation, for restoring much needed pheasant habitat in the state.

Additionally, state wildlife officials have released two new strains of pheasants... Jilin and Iowa pheasants... which have produced populations of wild pheasants where there were few or none before. "The reasonably mild winters of the past several years have certainly helped as well," he said.

During the upcoming hunting season, VanderZouwen said, areas in the pheasant management counties with large acreage of adjacent wetlands and grasslands will offer the greatest opportunities. Best bets include Rock, Green, Dane, Jefferson, Dodge, Columbia, Fond du Lac, and St. Croix counties, but many adjacent counties will have good local pheasant hunting as well, he said.

The state will provide additional pheasant hunting opportunities through stocking programs. Approximately 78 public hunting grounds will be stocked with over 50,000 pheasants statewide during the pheasant season.

Additionally, more than 80 conservation clubs will stock about 70,000 pheasants across Wisconsin. Some of these properties have special regulations, including tagging requirements or 2 p.m. closures. Hunters should check the special pheasant regulations pamphlet for details.

Village Board Meeting Monday

Public notice is hereby given that the next meeting of the Village of Kewaskum, Wisconsin, Village Board is scheduled for Monday evening, Oct. 18, 1993, at 8:00 p.m. in the Municipal Building, 204 First Street.

The agendas for meeting are prepared as of Wednesday noon preceding the meeting and are available at the office of the clerk at the Municipal Building on Thursday preceding the meeting.

Copies of the agenda are also posted in the lobby of the Kewaskum Post Office and lobby of the Valley Bank

Hunting Stamp Requirements Addressed

Over the years, there has been an increased number of stamps required for hunting.

At first, it was just the duck stamps that were required. Now a stamp is required for turkey and also pheasant hunting. Let's discuss the State and Federal Stamps for duck hunting first.

The State Duck Stamp is required for all hunters over the age of 16 years and it must be attached by its own adhesive and signed across the face. It is not required if the hunter has a free license, such as the Senior Citizen Recreation Card that used to be issued to persons over the age of 65, Hunter Safety Course Graduates who use their safety certificate as their small game hunting license, and finally Conservation Patron License holders do not need the State Waterfowl Stamp.

The Federal Migratory Stamp is to be signed across the face but does not have to be attached to the license. All hunters over the age of 16 years are required to have this stamp. There are no exceptions.

The Turkey Stamp must be signed across the face and attached to the license either by its own adhesive or stapled to the turkey license. It is required for all hunters regardless of age, with the only exceptions being free licensees along with Conservation Patron license holders. Hunter Safety Course graduates are required to buy the turkey stamp.

The State Pheasant Stamp does not have to be signed across the face of the stamp, but is to be attached to the license by its own adhesive. The Pheasant Stamp is required for all hunters regardless of age. The only exceptions would be the same as the State Duck Stamp, free licenses, Hunters Safety Course graduates for their first year, and Conservation Patron License holders.

Hunter Safety Course graduates are reminded that their safety certificate serves as their Small Game License from the day they complete the course until March 31 of the following year. For example, if you took the course in 1993 and finished it on September 1, 1993, it would serve as your Small Game License until March 31, of 1994.

Falls Dominate KHS Spikers

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Heading into last week, Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi was hopeful that his team would play itself right back into the thick of things in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference race.

But after two rousing defeats, the Indians will have to regroup for the upcoming WIAA Tournament instead. The Indians suffered their second straight EW blowout here, last Thursday, falling to Sheboygan Falls, 3-15, 8-15, 9-15.

The loss dropped KHS to 6-5 in the conference, while Sheboygan Falls remained in the title hunt with their 9-2 mark.

"It was a very unemotional week," Rizzardi said of his team's effort. "We were just standing around too much... not shuffling our feet."

And considering the Indians were on the defensive for most of the night, their lack of enthusiasm cost them. Rizzardi was quick to point out that the Falcons are peaking at this point.

"They have a lot of power," Rizzardi said of Falls, which is rated in the top three statewide in Division 2. "Their passes were there, their spikes were there. Everything was clicking for them."

That was evident from the beginning, when they easily crept away from the Indians in game one. It was much of the same in game two, although the Indians did come back nicely to pull within 8-12 at one point.

"We made a little run on them," Rizzardi said. "We played nice at times, and our transition game was starting to work a little."

But it wasn't enough to pose a serious threat to the Falcons, who still have a match against league-leading Kiel coming up.

Falls' domination could be seen by looking at the Indian offensive leader, Mary Yahr, who totalled just four points in three games of action. "I think I would have a hard time singling anybody out," for a good game, according to Rizzardi.

With third place all but wrapped up, the Indians will try and focus on preparing for regional action, which gets underway next week. After a bye on Tuesday, the Indians will take part in the Waupun Regional on Saturday, beginning at 10:00 a.m.

The Indians will have their work cut out for them, as Waupun is rated No. 1 in Division 2. In addition to the Indians and Warriors, the Regional will also feature the winner of Tuesday's matches between Campbellsport-Mayville, and Sheboygan Falls-Port Washington.

Slow Start Ends KHS Title Hopes

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - With a Parent's Night crowd and a key match that could have propelled it back into the Eastern Wisconsin Conference title race, the Kewaskum volleyball team should have come out on fire in its match against Kiel here, last Tuesday.

Instead, the Indians were flat in the opening game against the Raiders, and that dry spell was the difference as Kewaskum fell 8-15, 12-15, 14-15, all but eliminating the Indians from the EW title picture.

The loss dropped KHS to 6-4 in the conference, while league-leading Kiel improved to 8-1.

"We started out real slow," Indian coach Dave Rizzardi said of his squad, which fell behind 9-1 in the opening game. "They took control right away, and put us in a hole. We didn't help ourselves, tough, missing four or five serves."

Ginger Wiesner provided some leadership, though, and "served us right back into it," according to Rizzardi, who noted his team was within one. But that's where the rally stopped, as the Indians were froze on eight, and Kiel served out the game.

A slow start also plagued KHS in game two, before Sara Tykac brought the Indians back. But once again, the Indians couldn't get over the hump, and the Raiders closed out the scoring.

"We were really tentative," Rizzardi said of his team's troubles. "We made a lot of unforced errors. We just weren't able to sustain anything... need to work on some consistency."

For the Indians, Mary Yahr "had a decent game," according to her coach. Yahr led the team with five spike kills and eight total points. Other than Yahr, however, no Indian scored more than two offensive points.

Indians Finish in Third Place- Rohrer Defends EW Singles Title; Frac Second

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Not even the homecourt advantage could help the Kewaskum girls tennis team catch the likes of Plymouth and Sheboygan Falls in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet here, last Saturday.

The Indians' Missy Rohrer defended her No. 1 singles title, while No. 2 Meredith Frac took second, but it wasn't enough as Sheboygan Falls ran away with the EW overall title.

The Falcons, who came into the meet with 39 team points, added 15 more in the meet for a total of 54, six better than runner-up Plymouth's total of 48. The Indians were third with 37, followed by Two Rivers (33) and Chilton (17).

"We knew they (Falls) were likely to get the most points (in the meet) and win the overall title," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said. "So we decided to revamp our lineup to give us a better chance to catch Plymouth."

But the strategy didn't work, as the Panthers outscored Kewaskum 13-6 in the meet to further strengthen its hold on the number two spot.

Rohrer, meanwhile, didn't have to play second fiddle to anyone, as she won her third straight EW singles title. The junior coasted through her first round match, and met nemesis Katie Matzek (Falls) in the final.

Rohrer surprised Matzek in the first set, breezing to a 6-1 win. The talented Indian fell behind 3-1 in the second set, before kicking it in to blow past Matzek 6-3 in winning the match. The win improved Rohrer's record to 14-2 on the year.

"She really played well in the first set" Eichstedt said of Rohrer, who may have deflated Matzek's confidence. "Missy has never lost to her, but those scores were somewhat surprising. The matches before this were always pretty close."

Eichstedt was also happy with the play of No. 2 Meredith Frac. Frac entered the meet as the No. 2 seed in the division, having suffered her only defeat at the hands of No. 1 seed Jenny Pekulik of Sheboygan Falls.

Frac breezed past

Plymouth's Angie Zwerg in the semi's., setting up a rematch with Pekulik took control early and had little trouble in winning, 6-1, 6-2.

"The conditions didn't help her game too much," Eichstedt said, noting the windy and rainy conditions played havoc with Frac's change of pace style. "She plays a lot of spin shots and placement shots, and that was difficult because of the wind."

The lineup switches occurred at the No. 4 singles spot and the No. 2 and 3 doubles spots. Eichstedt moved the usual No. 4 singles player, Jamie Lynn, into the No. 2 doubles team with Terri Roe. Eichstedt also switched the No. 2 and 3 doubles position, hoping to give his team a better chance at winning.

But all three doubles teams had to settle for fourth-place finishes, having won their first match and lost their second. "They all played well," Eichstedt said of the doubles combinations. "They were all very determined, but they came up just short."

Roe's usual doubles partner, Jeni Weston, was inserted into the No. 4 singles spot and almost scored an upset. Weston lost to Falls' Eve Smejkal 7-6 (7-3), 0-6, 2-6 in the first round, though, and was eliminated.

"She played very well," Eichstedt said of Weston. "For her first varsity singles match, she did real well. She almost pulled it off."

The Indians other singles player, Margaret Feind (No. 3), also had to settle for fourth place, having lost her consolation match. "For a freshman, she really finished strong," Eichstedt said of Feind's effort. "She has a lot of good years ahead of her."

The Indians will now take part in the WIAA Tournament series, beginning with the sectional at Fond du Lac on Tuesday. Those winning at least two matches there will qualify for the Sectionals at Manitowoc on Thursday. Those Sectional matches will be played at an indoor facility in Kohler.

The Board was informed that the interview process for a new police officer has been completed and that if all proceeds as planned, a name will come to the Board at the October 4, 1993 meeting.

Director of Public Works, Jerry Gilles informed the Board of the department's activities for the last two weeks, as well as bringing discussion before the Board regarding the replacement of the 1968 tank truck used for jetting sanitary and storm sewers. Additional information was requested by the Board.

Administrator Daniel S. Schmidt reviewed the following with the Board:

- 1) Budget control sheet for the period ending August 31, 1993.
- 2) Mid-Moraine Municipal Association meeting discussion.
- 3) Building permit report for August, 1993.
- 4) General correspondence.

Chairman of the Protection and Public Safety Committee, Trustee Robert Beisbier informed the board of the Committee's review of both the Police and Fire Department proposed budgets for 1994. Chairman of the Park and Recreation Committee, Gary Gavin reviewed with the Board, the Park and Recreation Summer Statistics for 1993. Attendance for 1993 was 7,693 compared to 6,535 for 1992 and 9,684 for 1991.

Board Representative for the Plan Commission Trustee Thomas McElhatton announced the meeting of September 28, 1993 at 7:00 p.m.

Board Representative for the Library Board, Trustee Charles Waala informed the Board that the Library Board has sent budget figures to the Board. The status of the old computer system was brought up for discussion as well as extended hours for the vestibule doors, to provide access to the book drop. The Board was informed the Library did not wish to expend any money for the downloading of the old computer system and that there has been no time on the part of the office and Police Chief Knoebel to do the work. The Police Chief and Administrator both expressed concerns with leaving the vestibule doors open when the building is unattended. It was noted that other libraries are discontinuing unattended book drops because of vandalism, etc. The Board agreed by consensus.

Board Representative for the Mid-Moraine Municipal Association Legislative Committee, Trustee David Goeden informed the Board that the topic for discussion at the last Legislative Committee was the possibility of establishment of the storm sewer utility fee.

A review and brief discussion was held regarding the ordinance amendment pertaining to Street opening permits and related work. The ordinance will be brought before the Board at a future meeting after continued review.

The preliminary proposed Police Department budget figures for 1994 were reviewed. It was noted the budget amount is up by $19,913 or 6.7%. If the adjustments are taken into account the increase is at 4.8%.

The preliminary Fire Department budget figures for 1994 were reviewed. It was noted the budget amount is up by $11,920 or 9.1%. It was further noted that the figures and formula used for the Fire Contracts have an impact on the Village more so than the townships. This is caused by the amount of increase in equalized value and the number of fire calls within the jurisdiction.

The timetable for the various departmental budgets was discussed as well as a variety of budget related figures and revenues. No action was taken regarding any of the budget information.

President Robert Wagner indicated that Mr. Larry Martin of Miller Funeral Home is working on getting a time capsule to be used in conjunction with the Village of Kewaskum's Centennial Celebration.

On a motion by Trustee Thomas McElhatton, seconded by Trustee Harry Roecker and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn. Roll call vote was 7 "Aye" 0 "Nay" 0 "Absent."

KEWASKUM - Kewaskum girls tennis coach Glenn Eichstedt was hoping that a strong showing by his squad the week leading up to the Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet would put the Indians in contention to defend their 1992 title.

But the Indians got off to a less-than-ideal start here, last Tuesday, as they were unable to compete with league-leading Sheboygan Falls, which prevailed by a 5-2 count.

"This match may prove to be decisive in determining the eventual outcome of the conference title," Eichstedt pointed out, noting that Falls increased its lead over the third-place Indians to 10 points. "I thought we'd have a chance to creep to within a couple of points (with a win over the Falcons). I guess

Slinger Wins Tennis Invite

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - While the Kewaskum girls tennis team has shown great improvement over the past few years, the second annual Indian Invitational was a showcase for Slinger's ever-improving squad.

The Owls dominated the meet, particularly the singles matches, en route to taking first place with 11 points. The Indians, along with Germantown, had five points. The fourth team scheduled to compete, Waupun, was forced to withdraw due to another commitment.

"(Slinger) has taken a very noticeable step up in the level of their play," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said of the Owls, who won seven of their eight singles matches.

Slinger's lone loss in singles competition came at No. 1, where Kewaskum's Missy Rohrer beat the Owls' Tracy Roever 7-5, 6-4, in the first round. Rohrer then went on to beat Germantown's Cathy Borycki to win the No. 1 title.

At No. 2 singles, Slinger's Aina Overkil bested Kewaskum's Meredith Frac 6-4, 6-4 in the semi's, and then went on to win her match against Germantown.

At both No. 3 and No. 4, the story was much the same, as the Indian entries each drew foes from Slinger and eventually lost. Both Margaret Feind (3) and Jamie Lynn (4) won their respective matches against Germantown.

Where the Indians had problems, was in doubles competition. No KHS doubles combo was able to win a match, leaving them well behind the Owls in team points.

"Our youth and inexperience in doubles did not allow us to garner any team points," Eichstedt went on to say, adding though that he was happy with the results of the meet. "This tournament was successful in helping all three teams to improve their level of play for upcoming matches."

this was a moral defeat as well."

Once again, it was the inability of the KHS doubles teams to score a win that proved to be the difference. The Indians split their four singles matches, but were swept in all three doubles' contests.

Missy Rohrer stayed unbeaten at No. 1 singles with a 7-5, 7-5 win over Katie Matzek. "(Missy) worked extremely hard and played extremely smart," according to Eichstedt, as Rohrer improved to 7-0 in the EW, and to 11-2 overall.

Freshman Margaret Feind was the lone other Indian to secure a victory, as she downed Rita Goodlet at No. 3 singles, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2. The three-set win upped Feind's mark to 3-3 at No. 3, and to 10-4 overall.

Kewaskum was beaten rather handily at the other spots, with the exception of No. 4 singles, where Renate Wilke, making just her second appearance at the position, "came up just short," according to Eichstedt. Wilke lost to Elizabeth Smejkal, 4-6, 6-7 (5-7).

Sheboygan Falls 5, Kewaskum 2 SINGLES - No. 1 - Missy Rohrer beat Katie Matzek 7-5, 7-5; No. 2 - Meredith Frac lost to Jenny Pekulik 4-6, 1-6; No. 3 - Margaret Feind beat Rita Goodlet 6-4, 4-6, 6-2; No. 4 - Renate Wilke lost to Elizabeth Smejkal, 4-6, 6-7 (5-7).

DOUBLES - No. 1 - Lisa Berres-Sabrina Maul lost to Kate Kuhfuss-Sharon Beach 3-6, 0-6; No. 2 - Tristin Olson-Anne Mertz lost to Holly Meerdink-Sarah Hershman 4-6, 0-6; No. 3 - Teri Roe-Jenni Weston lost to Sarah Kiefer-Julie Fleiss 1-6, 1-6.

EW Tennis Season Ends on Down Note for KHS

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - Revenge was on the minds of the members of the Kewaskum tennis team, as they tried to reverse a 4-3 loss to Plymouth just a week earlier.

But even though the weather proved favorable for tennis here, last Thursday, the end result wasn't favorable for the Indians, who lost to the Panthers, 5-2, in the final regular season match for both squads.

The win allowed Plymouth to widen its second-place lead over the Indians to four points, 35-31, heading into the Eastern Wisconsin Conference meet.

As was the case in the previous matchup, Plymouth's ability to outlast Indian competitors in the third set allowed it to escape with victory. The Panthers won all four matches that required a third set, three of them marking comeback wins in which the Indians won the opening set.

"We got off to a good start," KHS coach Glenn Eichstedt said of the meet, in which the Indians were winning six of the seven matches at one point. "Things looked real well. But they came back and were able to win those four (three-set matches)."

Kewaskum's top two players, Missy Rohrer and Meredith Frac, made quick work of their foes to give KHS a 2-0 lead. Rohrer, who finished 8-0 at No. 1 singles, beat Alicia Miller 6-0, 6-2 to maintain her top ranking in the conference.

Frac, meanwhile, came back from her first loss in conference just two days earlier to down Angie Zwerg 6-3, 6-4. Frac improved to 7-1 in the EW with the win.

But third-set losses at No. 3 singles, and at all three doubles spots hampered the Indians from gaining ground on the Panthers in the conference race.

"We thought that we'd maybe have a run at them," Eichstedt said. "We were winning them all at one point. We just needed to maintain that, and we didn't."

PLYMOUTH 5, KEWASKUM 2 SINGLES - No. 1 - Missy

Rohrer beat Alicia Miller 6-0, 6-2; No. 2 - Meredith Frac beat Angie Zwerg 6-3, 6-4; No. 3 - Margaret Feind lost to Carrie Sippel 7-6 (8-6), 4-6, 1-6; No. 3 - Margaret Feind lost to Carrie Sippel 7-6 (8-6), 4-6, 1-6; No. 4 - Renate Wilke lost to Cassie Noordyk 4-6, 0-6.

DOUBLES - No. 1 - Lisa Berres-Sabrina Maul lost to Angie Goetsch-Rachel Seil 6-3, 4-6, 3-6; No. 2 - Tristin Olson-Anne Mertz lost to Amy Adams - Jenny Krause 2-6, 6-4, 3-6; No. 3 - Teri Roe-Jenni Weston lost to Heather Gebler-Megan Flannigan, 7-6 (7-2), 4-6, 1-6.

Brian Leider Memorial Golf Tournament Raises $8,000 for Camp Hope

Rich Leider of Campbellsport is shown presenting a check for $8,000 to Marty & Becky Loy, founders of Camp Hope. The money is the result of a golf tournament held in July at Camelot Country Club in memory of Brian Leider, Rich & Dorothy Leider's son who died in a car accident in March, 1990.

Camp Hope is a camp that is free of charge to the families of grieving children ages 6-16. Camp Hope is held 2-3 weekends a year in Rosholt, Wisconsin. The camp shows children that have been touched by the death of a family member or friend that they are not alone in their grief and that it is OK to have fun, laugh and enjoy life again without being disrespectful to the person who has died.

Rich and Dorothy Leider have been asked to join the Board of Directors for Camp Hope. The Spring, 1994 weekend camp will be dedicated to Brian's memory. Rich, Dorothy and their daughter Lisa work as volunteer counselors at Camp Hope. If you are interested in having them speak to your group, or want more information about Camp Hope contact them at N292 Memorial Dr., Campbellsport, WI 53010. Win Ensures Second Straight Winning Season Coulter, Indians Cruise Past Huskies, 28-0

By Noel Stollenwerk

NEW HOLSTEIN - In what was supposed to be an important game for both teams, some poor weather and Kewaskum's running game made New Holstein's Homecoming 1993 one for the Huskies to forget.

Playing in windy and rainy conditions, the Indians used their bulk up front to dominate

Indian Gridders Sweep Huskies

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM -- It was a clean sweep for the Kewaskum football program against New Holstein last week.

While the Indian varsity shut out the Huskies 28-0 on Friday night, the JV and freshman squads recorded victories the previous day.

The JV's remained unbeaten, upping their record to 6-0 with a decisive 36-0 win. Jim Westerman and Tim Gundrum each had a pair of rushing touchdowns, while Jesse Koch added another.

"They played a real good game, both offensively and defensively," JV coach David Rockhill said of his team. "The offensive line did a good job protecting the quarterback."

Westerman also added an interception, as did Peter Reis.

The Indian freshman, meanwhile, had a bit tougher time. Still, Kewaskum was able to pull out a 14-0 win, improving their mark to 3-2.

"Kevin Martin had a really good game," frosh coach Jim Westphal said, noting Martin had a five-yard touch down run in the first half. A short pass from Dean Roel to Jason Lieberg accounted for the other Indian score, while Dan Jeserig added a two-point conversion.

"The defense played very well. They won the football game," Westphal pointed out. "They really didn't move the ball very well. We had them backed upon on their side of the field the entire game."

the line of scrimmage, helping them ruin the Huskies' festivities with a resounding 28-0 victory.

The win upped Kewaskum's Eastern Wisconsin Conference record to 3-1, good enough for a second-place tie with Plymouth. New Holstein, meanwhile, dropped to 2-2 in the EW, and out of the title picture.

"It was just a miserable night," KHS coach Clark Pearson said of the weather. "I was real pleased with the way we handled the ball, considering the conditions."

Kewaskum had just one turnover, a fumble, while New Holstein threw four interceptions and coughed up a fumble. Tim Strigenz's pickoff, and subsequent return inside the Husky 20 on the game's opening possession, helped set the tone early.

Soon after, KHS fullback Mark Strobel plowed into the end zone from five yards out. Beau Coulter ran in the two-point conversion, and the Indians were in front 8-0 just minutes into the game.

Coulter was just starting, as it turned out. The 5-9 speedster broke loose in the second period, scampering 67 yards for another KHS touchdown, making it 14-0, Kewaskum, at the half.

"He broke a couple of tackles on that one," Pearson said of the run.

New Holstein tried to catch the Indians off-guard with an on-side kick to start the second half, but Kewaskum recovered and started with excellent field position instead.

Coulter made that pay off, as he once again got past the Husky defenders, scoring on a 44-yard run to make it 20-0.

"That pretty much took the wind out of their sails," Pearson said of Coulter's second score. "He just had a fantastic game."

The 190-pound senior finished the night with 189 yards on 15 carries, over 12 yards per carry. "That's a pretty nice average," Pearson quipped.

Corey Rammer put the final nail in the coffin in the fourth quarter. The 6-1 junior fielded a Husky punt at his own 40 and didn't stop running until the end zone, his second punt return for a touchdown of the year, this one covering 60 yards. Coulter fittingly ran in the two-point conversion for the final tally.

"Our special teams have done a real nice job all year," Pearson said regarding the units. "I'm real pleased with the job they've done."

Pearson was equally pleased with his offensive line, which paved the way for 229 yards of rushing on the night.

"We were a little bigger than they were up front," he said, adding, "I thought we did a nice job at the line of scrimmage."

Kewaskum's defense was also up to the task. In addition to Strigenz's pickoff, Mark Stephani added a pair of interceptions, and Chad Trzcinski another. "They never really threatened (no score)," Pearson said, with the exception of a drive which stalled inside the KHS 20 in the second quarter. "They had trouble running the ball, and our defense played very well."

The win improved the Indians' overall mark to 5-2, thus ensuring the team's second straight winning season after eight straight losing campaigns. "We want to win more than five this year, though," Pearson added.

Kewaskum will entertain Kiel this week in their Homecoming game. The Raiders, 0-4 in the EW, feature a strong running back in Mike Schuler. Despite the 0-4 mark, Pearson insists that the Raiders are a decent team.

"They've been in most of those games," he said, noting that Kiel lost to league-leading Sheboygan Falls, 9-0 last week.

JV Spikers Are Still Unbeaten

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The Kewaskum junior varsity volleyball team is giving the program hope that another trip to the state tournament may not be far away.

The Indian JV's kept their perfect record intact last week, as they won both of their matches to improve to 11-0 on the year in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

Tanya Krahn served 14 straight points in the opening game of the Indians' 15-3, 19-17, 15-1 win over Kiel on Tuesday. Tanya Laubach also had a fine game at the net for the Indians.

Krahn and Laubach came back and had fine performances on Thursday against Sheboygan Falls as well. The pair, along with Angie Bindrich, helped the JV's down the Falcons, 15-8, 15-6, 15-11, thus sending the team into its final match against New Holstein still unbeaten.

The Indians freshmen, meanwhile, weren't quite as successful against their counterparts. The Indians lost to Kiel 12-16, 15-12, 4-15, and then fell to Falls, 15-12, 4-15, 5-15. The frosh still are above the .500 mark for the season, heading into their final match with a 6-5 record.
