Voters Say No to School Referendum

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

Kewaskum School District residents said no to the $7.5 million remodeling/renovation referendum issue in Tuesday's Spring Election, 1,093 to 771.

A 41% Village of Kewaskum voter turnout followed the trend of the district in voting against the referendum with 284 yes votes and 292 no votes. The only township that voted in favor of the referendum was the Town of Barton, voting 38 in favor and 31 against.

The totals in the other townships of the school district are as follows: Town of Farmington, 182 yes, 255 no; Town of Kewaskum, 99 yes, 147 no; Town of Wayne, 84 yes, 166 no; Town of Ashford, 0 yes, 2 no; Town of Auburn, 51 yes, 90 no; Town of Scott, 33 yes, 110 no. There were no votes in the Town of Mitchell.

The general consensus of voters interviewed was the package was just too costly to taxpayers who cannot afford to absorb that large a hike on their tax bills.

The remodeling/renovation project would have cost the average Kewaskum home owner, who is already facing reassessment on their 1995 tax bills, nearly an additional $300 per annum.

Nearly all voters willing to discuss why they voted no, agreed the remodeling/renovation project is definitely necessary and they are basically in favor of it. However, the thorn in most taxpayer's sides was the proposed auditorium.

Voters seemed to agree that additional classrooms, remodeling and updating was a necessity and most said they would have voted yes to that. They also stated they thought the auditorium was a "frill" which the district could not afford at this time.

Others interviewed, willing to discuss the referendum's defeat, thought perhaps if the remodeling/renovation package was done in phases, the auditorium issue might have been easier to swallow.

According to School Board President Neal Weare, he will now poll the rest of the board members and decide where to go from here. The committee did not have a backup plan, or a plan B, etc. to fall back on in case of the referendum's failure.

The board does have a few options, however, if they want to get anything on the April 5 ballot, a decision must be made by Saturday, February 19.

One thing is certain, though. The school district is still in dire need of renovations. The question now is, how much of a "trimmed down" renovation package will the voters agree to?

Two Local Teens Selected As Delegates to Teen Summit

NEW YORK - Greta Kuphal and Randy Reysen from Kewaskum High School in Kewaskum, Wisconsin, are two of 80 teenagers from all 50 states who have been selected to participate in the fourth annual National teen Summit, to be held in Ann Arbor, Michigan, February 12-16, 1994. The delegates will participate in four days of intensive workshops and seminars that will focus on harnessing the power of America's teens by examining and understanding both individual power and the collective power of today's youth. The theme of this year's summit is "Youth Power: If we don't do it, who will?:" and the delegates' mission will be to develop creative plans for change.

"Clearasil recognizes the power of teens. We are excited to sponsor the Clearasil National Teen Summit to encourage young people to work to build their futures," says Clearasil spokesperson Kimberly Stewart. "By providing a forum for teens to discuss education, racism and intolerance, the economy, the environment, urban violence, AIDS, and other issues that have an impact on their lives, the Clearasil National Teen Summit will give teens the tools they need to further develop their self-confidence and take charge of their lives and their futures. Delegates will come away feeling as though they truly can make a difference on important issues."

BKG Youth, organizer of the summit, received more than 5,000 requests for applications. Delegates were selected by a committee of their peers on the basis of application answers and personal essays.

Greta describes herself as "compassionate, ambitious, and intelligent." When asked what she hopes to accomplish as a delegate to the Clearasil National Teen Summit, Greta responded, "By becoming aware of viewpoints other than my own, I will be better able to decide what I can do to address these problems as an adult. I feel the need to do something for my generation and future generations to make this a stronger, more positive country."

Randy is one of the Teen Summit's four national co-chairs and participated in the application-judging process from which the delegates were chosen. He describes himself as "outgoing, dependable, and friendly." His greatest ambition is "to excel in a teaching profession or become active in a political career." His greatest concern is "our environment."

If you would like to schedule an interview with Greta and/or Randy, please contact Cindy Fazio at the number listed above.

BKG Youth, a leader in youth marketing, helps companies to identify and understand youth trends, attitudes, and consumer behavior. Clearasil is a product of the Procter & Gamble Company. P & G makes and markets a variety of personal care and cosmetic products in more than 140 countries around the world.

Grothman Co-Sponsors Measure to Return Tax Surplus

MADISON.... State Representative Glenn Grothman (R-West Bend) announced last week that he is co-sponsoring a Senate proposal to return surplus tax money collected by the state to Wisconsin taxpayers.

This cash refund plan, proposed by state senators Farrow and Drzewiecki, will simply end income tax withholding for all Wisconsin citizens for roughly 10 working days. Taxpayers who are paid on a weekly basis would receive two tax-free paychecks. Workers and others on a monthly pay schedule would have to pay only 50% of their normal state tax burden in that pay period. Those who are self-employed will receive instructions from the Department of Revenue.

This income tax refund proposal will return about 4% of each person's annual state income tax burden to the taxpayer. The Legislative Fiscal Bureau, the non-partisan arm of the state legislature which determines the financial impact of all bills, reports that an unmarried taxpayer, claiming one exemption and making $25,000 a year, will have an extra $54 if the plan is enacted. A married taxpayer with four exemptions making $50,000 per annum will realize a $123 savings under the Grothman-sponsored proposal.

Grothman commented on the plan: "According to the January '94 MONEY magazine, Wisconsin residents pay $9,351 per household per year in state taxes of all types, nationwide, only New Yorkers pay more." Grothman continued, "When a state with such confiscatory tax policies ends up with a surplus, that money must be returned to its rightful owners."

The Farrow/Drzewiecki plan will cost $94,800, most of which will be spent informing employers of the plan and giving them technical instructions for implementing it.

Several other proposals are being considered, although Grothman explained that "all the other plans are appropriation bills: politicians looking to spend money to bolster their image at the polls."

Governor Thompson has advocated a plan to increase equalized aid to school districts statewide. According to the Wisconsin Taxpayer's Alliance, this plan will offset rises in the property tax levy in some districts. Of course, this is not to say that the majority of property tax payers will realize an actual reduction in their annual tax bill; this states only that the tax bill may not actually increase.

While this plan may look good at first glance, Grothman explained his objections. "First of all, the budget surplus exists primarily because of excessive taxation of income. As a result, I believe that all state residents who pay income tax, whether they are property owners or not, should receive the benefit of this surplus." Grothman is also concerned that the Governor's proposal is simply another spending plan. "This plan does not actually give the money back to the taxpayers; it does increase state government's power of 'pocket-book diplomacy' over local school districts. Ultimately, it further erodes local control."

Of the Governor's plan, Grothman also stated that "this plan will have no real benefit for the 59th district. Last year, all of our school districts combined received $19.5 million in equalized aid; that is just 1.12 percent of the $1.7 billion the state distributed to school districts for the '93-'94 school year. As a district, we will do much better to support an income-based refund program."

Yet another plan, put forth by Assembly Speaker Kunicki (D-Milwaukee) would appropriate roughly half of the $200 million windfall to increase the Lottery Tax Credit. However, the Wisconsin Taxpayer Alliance points out that Kunicki's plan will allow only residential property owners to benefit; farmers, business owners, and manufacturers would be ineligible, as they do not currently receive the Lottery Credit. Grothman commented, "Not only does this plan raise the state constitutional issue of non-uniform taxation, but it is unacceptable on the basis that it excludes two classes of taxpayers who contribute greatly to our state's economy... farmers and business people."

The final major proposal for the use of the surplus is the establishment of the "Rainy Day Fund." Authored by Rep. Doris Hanson of McFarland, the plan is the only proposal whose fiscal responsibility approaches that of the refund plan. Under the "Rainy Day" proposal, the surplus funds would be placed in a reserve fund for use during an economic slowdown.

Grothman responded, "While I give this plan high marks because it does not spend the surplus, I feel strongly that the taxpayers are entitled to this surplus; it's their money." Grothman continued, "rather than having the state hoard this money away and collect interest on it, those from whom the state took the money initially should be given the funds, so they may use it to earn interest for themselves and to stimulate the economy."

Representative Grothman wants to know how you feel about this and other proposals currently before the Assembly. You may contact him at: P.O. Box 8952, Madison, WI 53708-8952, or at the Legislative Hotline, (800) 362-9472. You may also call his office directly at (608) 264-8486.

National Cardiac Rehab. Week

St. Joseph's Community Hospital's Cardiac Rehabilitation Center asks everyone to take an interest in helping our children grow up to be healthy adults with healthy attitudes. Feb. 13th through Feb. 19th is designated National Cardiac Rehab Week.

Our need to address heart health in our children is great: Everyday 3,000 children start smoking. One in three children has a blood cholesterol level that is too high. Half of all children do not get enough exercise. Children, even young babies, can have high blood pressure. (Statistics from American Heart Association). All of these factors lead to heart disease at a younger age.

What can adults do to help our children lead healthier lifestyles starting when they are very young? Talk about the negative affects of tobacco whether you chew it, smoke it or live with second hand smoke, such as: The number one cause for heart and lung disease, bad breath, expensive, and "not a pretty picture"/"not cool".

Take children to the grocery store with you and talk about healthy choices like low fat snacks, more fruits and vegetables, low fat dairy products, and the American Heart Association Kid's Cookbook.

Spend time with children in exercise. Go for a walk or bicycle. Play basketball, jump rope. Encourage participation in intramural/team sports. Children need 20 to 30 minutes of physical activity each day.

Listen and give positive feedback to children. Increase their self esteem, establish boundaries for behavior, and treat each child as being special in his/her own way.

Cardiac Rehabilitation at St. Joseph's Hospital is for people who have had bypass surgery, heart attack and various other heart events.

75 Years Ago

February 8, 1919

The many relatives and friends here of William Brandstetter, son of Mrs. Casper Brandstetter, were delighted Tuesday afternoon to learn that he, one of Kewaskum's most prominent and well known businessmen had safely arrived home from overseas duties. Mr. Brandstetter left Kewaskum on July 8, 1918, for Columbus Barracks and was afterwards transferred to Camp Hancock, Georgia. He was sent overseas on September 5, sailing on the second largest boat on the ocean, the "La France" which carried 8,000 men. He was on the water ten days, landing at Brest on September 15, 1918. He was in France three and one-half months when the armistice was signed, at which time Mr. Brandstetter was taken sick with pneumonia. His company was transferred to the army of occupation and is now in Germany. William, on account of being in ill health, was sent back to the states, leaving France on December 27th, on the ship the New Amsterdam and arrived in New York on January 5th, 1919. When he landed he was taken sick for the second time with pneumonia and was placed in a New York hospital until his recovery when he was transferred to Camp Merritt and then later taken to Camp Grant, Illinois. He was mustered out of service from the latter camp on February 3. William wears the overseas chevron.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Westerman of St. Bridgets, received a telegram from their son, Private Carl Westerman stating that he had arrived safely in New York from overseas on Thursday, while the same day, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Backhaus of this village received a telegram from Edwin "Spatz" Miller, that he had also arrived safely at New York from overseas from where they will be sent to Camp Grant where they will be discharged.

Her therapists say another four to six weeks in Rehab; maybe sooner. She's very high spirited and takes one day at a time. She did have enough credits to graduate from High School, so now she can concentrate on her recovery. Once again, thanks for all the prayers and your support during this traumatic time.

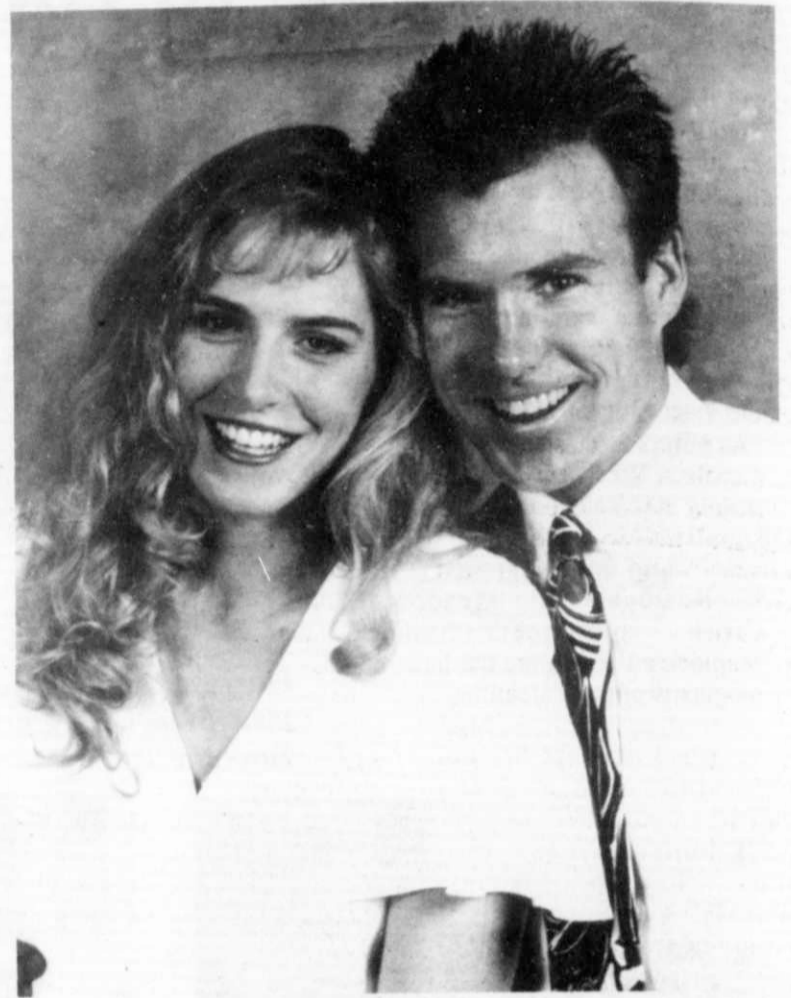

Her address is: Tricia Butschlick, c/o John L. Doyno Hospital, 8700 W. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53226.

A Message from the Postmaster

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers and how are you all doing today? I have a "variety" of things to talk with you today so will get right into the column, okay?

APPROACHES TO RURAL MAILBOXES -- Please help us to deliver the mail more efficiently by having the approach to your mailbox clear of snow, debris and vehicles. Regulations do state that the "carrier should be able to enter and exit your mailbox WITHOUT leaving his vehicle."

As your Postmaster, I realize that there are "new" people to the area that are used to "city delivery" or "post office box delivery" and feel that just maybe you are not aware of the circumstances covering delivery to the mailbox at the curb (rural) that you now have.

According to their "contract," rural carriers are not obligated to "step out of their vehicle" to complete delivery and if doing so... they incur injury... they would be held liable. Each and every postal employee truly realizes that there are customers with "hardships" that impede snow removal and that to many it seems... "just get it all shoveled out the way that it is supposed to be and along comes the snow plow and it is NOT the way that it is supposed to be."

We do understand this predicament, but please try to understand that if the carrier had to stop his vehicle, get out and deliver even a quarter of the route... problems would incur in getting all of the mail delivered. We certainly appreciate the efforts most of you have made so that our carriers can serve your mailboxes as they should. We also felt it was important that you know that "Postal Policy" on delivering the mail to the customers. Thank you for your understanding and co-operation in this matter.

NDCBU delivery. Well, you are probably saying, "What the heck is that supposed to mean, right?" It stands for Neighborhood Delivery and Collection Box Unit. Kewaskum has many of these units and they are silver and placed in "strategic" locations whereby they serve anywhere between 8-16 customers.

Carriers on routes where these are located do indeed have to get out of their vehicles to service these boxes, but the customers at each of these locations are RESPONSIBLE for snow removal so that the carrier can properly serve them. Please remember that each customer in these type of boxes receives their mail from one side and the carrier delivers the mail from the other side.

Nearly all of the location sites have so-called "worked out a plan" on whose job it is to keep the area clean for the carrier, but there are a very few locations where the area for the carrier is not kept clear. Persons in this area have been given notices and are asked to PLEASE clear the area for the carrier to service this unit. Again... your understanding and cooperation in this matter is totally appreciated.

Post Office box customers that move from one physical address to another but maintain your post office box: PLEASE help us to insure that all mail is delivered according to your instructions.

This is important for two reasons: 1. Your post office box application should be updated and probably most important... 2. If you move onto a rural route, the carrier knows where you want your mail delivered. Let me give you an example of this: Let us say that you move from a "village address" to a rural route. Most of you would feel that there is no need to notify us as long as you are still maintaining the post office box right? WRONG!

The rural carrier is all of a sudden going to get mail addressed to an address that he currently had been delivering to. When you moved in, you might have taken the rural mail box down, or the previous owner took it with him, right? Well, our carrier has no idea what to do with the mail except possibly "hold it" and see what happens.

It is IMPERATIVE that if you move, have a Post Office box, maintain it, that you do come to the post office and have the proper changes made out. This may seem a bit confusing but if you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 626-2575 or stop in and see me, okay? Thanks!

Moving out and moving back to the same address: What a problem that is. If I did not work for the Post Office, I would think that EVERYONE in the post office could keep track of this but this is indeed a problem. Please allow me to give you an example: You lived in Kewaskum at a "specific address" and you moved to West Bend. Okay, after one or two months in West Bend, you decide to move back to Kewaskum to the SAME address. You changed your address in Kewaskum when you left originally, you changed your address in West Bend when you came back.

But you never notified Kewaskum that you are back to your old address. What happens? Your mail is going in circles... from Kewaskum to West Bend, back to Kewaskum, etc. This causes a delay in your mail as both Kewaskum and West Bend have to be notified of a change of address such as this. Again... a confusing issue for most of you. (I would be the same if I had not worked in the Postal Service for 19+ years). Any questions... please feel free to call me or come and see me.

Well, that is about it for this week. These matters of concern this week were brought to my attention either by my employees or by customers. If one customer has a question... many of you might have thought about it and that is why it is important to share information with you. Until next week, try to have a good day... a happy everyday!

Your Postmaster,
Bonnie

Kewaskum School District Spelling Bee Buzzzzzzz!!!

Kewaskum Schools, grades 5-8, have been very busy with their many Spelling Bees lately. In early Jan. all classrooms held individual spelling bees to find the top three spellers for their classroom. Then there was a semi-final spelling bee held during the afternoon on Jan. 21 when all of those top classroom winners competed against each other to narrow the field to the top three 5th graders, three 6th graders, three 7th graders, and three 8th graders. These twelve students were then eligible to advance on to the final evening spelling bee.

On Monday, January 31, the final district Spelling Bee was held at Kewaskum Middle School at 7:00 p.m. At this competition all students went home with a trophy for first, second, or third place in their grade level. The results for each grade level were as follows: Grade 5 - Megan Hammen (first), Lauren Nelson (second), Josh Stangl (third). Grade 6 - Sara Dreher (first), Heidi Menger (second), Adam Sauer (third). Grade 7 - Carissa Byers (first), Angela Ritger (second), Doug Wenzel (third). Grade 8 - Matt Hammen (first), Tony Seiser (second), Shane Weninger (third).

At the end of the evening, the four first place winners from each grade level competed in a spell down to find out which two students will be advancing on to the next level of competition. This is the CESA Regional Spelling Bee held in Lomira on Tuesday, February 15 at 1:30 p.m. We wish good luck to sixth grader Sara Dreher, and eighth grader Matt Hammen who will represent our school district in Lomira.

We congratulate all students who participated in any of the different levels of competition. Good luck in future spellingbees.

SHEEPSHEAD WINNER'S

Holy Trinity Boy's B Team Captures Conference Title

"We're #1", was the cry of Mike Struebing's Boy's B Team as they left the court on Friday night, Feb. 11.

With a 35 to 29 victory over St. Mary's of Eden, the Holy Trinity Wildcats earned themselves the conference title with two more games to play. Chris Koth started the game out with several steals and fast break ways. Jason Strobel again was the hot rebounder for the evening. Holy Trinity had 14 rebounds to 3 for St. Mary's. Jason had half of them.

Holy Trinity blocked several shots by the Eden team and tied up the ball five times. After Holy Trinity took the lead 14 to 5 following the first quarter, Coach Struebing pulled his starters and played the bench. At half, the lead was 19 to 11. The Eden team tied the score 22 all at the end of the third quarter. Coach Struebing returned his starters and Chris Koth, his brother Curt, Billy Cook, Jason Strobel and Jason Gruber led the team to victory.

Players who scored during the game were: Chris Koth - 14 points, Curt Koth - 6 points, Jason Gruber - 3 points, Billy Cook - 3 points, Tim Bonlender - 2 points, John Boedeker - 2 points, Nick Staehler - 2 points, Jason Strobel - 2 points, and Pat Bohn - 1 point.

Congratulations to Coach Mike Struebing and the entire Wildcat Boy's B Team.

Plymouth, Two Rivers Among BB Elite

By Noel Stollenwerk

STEVENS POINT - A pair of Eastern Wisconsin Conference schools are among the best in Wisconsin, according to the latest Wisconsin Coaches Association basketball polls.

Two Rivers' girls squad is currently tied for fifth in the Division 2, according to the poll. The Raiders were 14-1 as of February 4, and received 55 votes, the same as Hayward, which is 13-2. Luxemburg-Casco, currently 15-0, is atop the Division 2 standings.

Plymouth's boys squad, meanwhile, is tied with Sheboygan Falls atop the EW standings. The Panthers are also included in the WCA poll, rated 11th with their 11-2 mark. Whitewater is rated number one in the poll with its 14-1 mark.

Other number one teams in the polls include Milwaukee Rufus King (boys, Division 1), Auburndale (boys, Division 3), Cassville (boys, Division 4), LaCrosse Central (girls, Division 1), Prentice (girls, Division 3), and Eau Claire Regis (girls, Division 4).

Fill Free Time By Filling Out Tax Returns

If you have some free time and if you enjoy working with people... and numbers... why not become a VITA volunteer?

VITA stands for Volunteer Income Tax Assistance. It consists of IRS-trained volunteers who prepare simple federal and state tax returns for people who can't do it for themselves and can't afford to pay to have it done. This includes individuals who are disabled and who don't speak English. It also includes the elderly.

The IRS provides free training. All you need is an aptitude for math and the desire to help people. VITA volunteers include everyone from professional accountants to students... from retired persons to people who work at home. Last year in Wisconsin, over 650 VITA volunteers took the opportunity to learn the current tax laws and give assistance to almost 20,000 taxpayers at more than 135 VITA sites located throughout Wisconsin. These sites opened in late January and run through April 15. They are frequently found in churches, libraries, shopping malls, banks and post offices.

To volunteer your time and make taxes less taxing for yourself and someone who needs your help, call the IRS Taxpayer Education Office. In Milwaukee, call 297-3302. Elsewhere in Wisconsin, call, toll-free, 1-800-TAX (829)-1040. Ask for the Taxpayer Education Office.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

In my continuing effort to increase awareness and understanding of Dyslexia, I strongly urge parents of school-age children to learn about it. I think most people think Dyslexia is "mirror writing (everything backwards) or the inability to read. That's what I thought it was until I looked a little deeper. There is so much more to Dyslexia and it is not always so obvious. A child/person can be moderately or even mildly dyslexic which makes it more difficult to recognize, but can be just as devastating if it goes unrecognized and untreated.

I have always had the greatest respect for teachers, and still do. But, unfortunately, the schools are not equipped to effectively deal with Dyslexia at this time. We, as parents need to educate ourselves where Dyslexia is concerned. The Kewaskum Public Library does have a few books on the subject. The ones I know of are each brief, easy to understand, and would give you a better idea of what Dyslexia is all about. (Of course, there are many more books available. The library may have a reading list.)

With statistics of people afflicted with Dyslexia as high as one out of seven, can you afford to not read a couple of books? Based on the many books I've read, my experience and numerous conversations I've had with other parents, Dyslexia is very REAL, can cause BIG problems, and should not be taken lightly.

I am a mother against unrecognized and untreated Dyslexia! Feel free to call me at 626-4372.

Sincerely,
Gail E. Ramirez

To the Editor:

We would like to publicly thank all the volunteers who gave their time and energy getting factual information on the referendum proposal to the school district voters. A special thanks to members of the Kewaskum School Board and District Administrators for excellent information and slide presentations and tours of the schools. Thanks also to the Steering Committee members for extra effort and concern with this issue, and to the Kewaskum Statesman donating space for us to publish our informational articles and photos. We appreciate everyone's support.

Dear Editor,

Why gamble on recombinant bovine growth hormone (rBGH)? The only human study involving BGH ended over 40 years ago, when naturally occurring BGH was given to dwarves. When the dwarves did not grow to normal size, the test was discontinued. On this basis FDA has concluded that genetically engineered hormones almost identical to naturally occurring BGH are safe to inject into the milk supply!

According to Monsanto's product label, rBGH causes higher incidences of mastitis (udder infections) in cows. Consumer Reports argues this will result in more antibiotics in milk. To calm critics, FDA reports that Monsanto will monitor the milk from rBGH-injected herds for the next several years. Right. The consumer friendly corporation that gave us Agent Orange is going to police itself.

Cows injected with rBGH have more multiple births, and the fertility of bull calves, Monsanto says, cannot be guaranteed. Over a period of years, will rBGH cause even more serious genetic disorders and mutations? Again, no studies... no time to waste in getting this product to market.

There are higher levels of insulin-like growth factor-one (IGF-1) in milk from rBGH-injected cows. When fed to rats in a two week study, IGF-1 caused significant bone growth. Over longer periods of time, how will increased levels of IGF-1 affect infants, children, pregnant and nursing mothers? Again, no tests, just salesmen dressed in university lab coats.

How about dairy farmers? Do they need rBGH? Absolutely not. For years, taxpayers have been buying surplus milk through government CCC purchases, about $250 million per year. This surplus also depresses farm milk prices. As a result farmers are often forced to sell milk below their cost of production. Increasing the surplus will raise government costs, lower farm prices further and squeeze the less-subsidized family farms out of business.

Monsanto's lobbyists suggest rBGH will lead to lower consumer prices. Fat chance. During the last decade retail dairy prices have continued to go up, while the farm price of milk has actually gone down. Why else would dairy industry giants be pumping money into rBGH promotion? Taxpayer-sponsored milk surpluses, lower farm prices and steadily rising retail prices are a dream come true for the dairy industry.

The U.S. is the only developed western nation to allow rBGH into its milkstream. More repressive governments like Mexico, Brazil and South Africa... where a few powerful families can dictate national policies... are much more vulnerable to "lobbying" by chemical companies.

Sure, not all farmers and consumers oppose rBGH. Amazingly enough, some apparently want it. Years ago, even slaves could be found defending slavery, hoping their masters would give them authority over other slaves. So keep your eye on those unlikely citizens endorsing rBGH. You may find them promoted to higher positions by their owners.

Consumers supporting Wisconsin family farmers in their struggle for rBGH-free farming may call (715) 792-5227 about anti-BGH signs, petitions, school board resolutions and bumper stickers.

Sincerely,
Paul Schaefer

Holy Trinity Wildcats Tournament Champs

The seventh and eighth grade boys basketball players from Holy Trinity added some excitement to their weekend on Feb. 4-6th when they ventured to St. Mary's Springs High School in Fond du Lac and participated in the 22nd annual seventh and eighth grade boys basketball tournament. Under the expertise coaching of Tony Butschlick and Tom Timblin, the Holy Trinity Wildcats brought home the first place trophy.

On Friday night the Wildcats faced the Hornets of Our Lady of Angels/St. Michels from Armstrong-Dotyville. Under strict refereeing, Holy Trinity persevered coming away with their first win 49-36.

The Wildcats played well as a team with excellent rebounding, passing plays and an aggressive defense.

During the second half OLA in an attempt to get the ball committed many fouls as the Wildcats stretched their lead.

Seasoned starter, Dave Gerhartz lead the team with a high 22 points. Derek Dorn followed with ten. Corey Amerling and Eric Wenninger added four each while Jason Butschlick added three and Jim Kopecky, Chad Schoofs and Shaun Timblin each contributed two apiece.

In their second tournament game, the Wildcats met CPES of Johnsburg/Mt. Calvary/St. Cloud. In a highly defensive game for both teams, the Wildcats led 22-20 at halftime. The third quarter was close with several Wildcat shots that did not fall. Jason Butschlick's three point bucket gave Holy Trinity a slight lead of 33-30 at the quarter's end that was also highlighted by a fast break away and score by Dave Gerhartz.

With the full court press in effect during the fourth quarter, the Wildcats remained composed right down to the last minute. A hard effort by Johnsburg to get the ball back sent Dave Gerhartz and Jim Kopecky of the Wildcats to the charity line in the final 41 seconds. With ten seconds left, Gerhartz was again at the free throw line sinking a basket giving the Wildcats the lead 45-43. A last second three point attempt by Johnsburg failed giving the Wildcats the victory and advancing them to the championship game.

Corey Amerling was the high scorer for the Wildcats with 14 points followed by Dave Gerhartz with 12, Jim Kopecky, eight; Derek Dorn, six; Jason Butschlick, three and Kevin Polzean added two.

The championship game was played Sunday afternoon against St. John's of Princeton. With family members and cheerleaders in attendance to cheer for them, the Wildcats were alert to the offensive plays of St. John's and rebounded many of their shots including several three point attempts.

Corey Amerling had several rebounds and scored six of the ten wildcat points in the first quarter. Working extremely well as a team in the second quarter put the Wildcats up 27-15 at the half.

With their confidence high, the Wildcats faced a determined St. John bench in the second half. Holy Trinity continued to hold St. John's with a ten point spread at the end of the third quarter 36-26.

St. John's began to play extremely aggressive ball drawing several fouls as the full court press was again allowed in the fourth quarter. Dave Gerhartz blocked a St. John shot, passed to Jason Butschlick for a two point bucket and dribbled through heavy St. John traffic to score two. With less than one minute to play, Holy Trinity was at the charity line six times as St. John's aggressive defense got them into foul trouble. With 14.1 seconds remaining, the Wildcats were ahead by three. Jim Kopecky was at the line and sunk both throws increasing the Wildcats lead 44-39. Gerhartz would add yet another point at the free throw line with 1.1 seconds remaining. At the horn, the elated team delivered to their coaches their first ever A-team tournament win 45-39.

Individual scoring in the final game tallied up as follows: Derek Dorn, ten; Dave Gerhartz, nine, Jason Butschlick, eight, Corey Amerling and Shaun Timblin, six each; Jim Kopecky, four; and Chad Schoofs, two.

CPES of Johnsburg placed third in the tournament, followed by FACES of Fond du Lac, fourth and Beaver Dam Catholic won the consolation title in the eight team event.

Dorn Leads Wildcats to Victory

Looking to split conference basketball games, the A-Team Boys Holy Trinity Wildcats traveled to Barton to challenge the St. Mary's Crusaders to a rematch on Wednesday, February 2. Just three weeks earlier the Crusaders had beaten the Wildcats 58-26 on their home court.

The Wildcats were not to be disappointed as they defeated the Crusaders 35-27 in a hard played, exciting game. Derek Dorn had an outstanding game with numerous rebounds.

Against a man-to-man defense by St. Marys in the first quarter, the Wildcats passed well going to their open man and hustled up and down the court which resulted in a Wildcat lead, 10-8 at the quarter's end. David Gerhartz played a tough defensive quarter. Gerhartz and Dorn double teamed St. Mary's Ben Filzen who scored a career high of 32 at the two teams' previous encounter.

The Wildcats continued to hustle on both offense and defense during the second quarter. Coach Tony Butschlick began to enter subs as the players continued great team effort with super rebounding, blocking Crusaders shots and getting two or three shots to the Crusaders one. St. Marys attempted many three pointers but none fell. Toward the quarter's end St. Marys began to penetrate the Wildcat defense with a couple fast breaks edging the Wildcats 18-14 at half time.

Throughout the third quarter the Wildcats out-rebounded the Crusaders as they continued to shoot from outside the paint. St. Marys was able to score one three-point basket. Holy Trinity would not be intimidated pulling to within two points trailing 22-24 at the quarter's end.

With tensions running high, the Wildcats continued to play a tough, strong defensive game in the fourth quarter with great rebounding especially by Dorn and Jim Kopecky.

With under two minutes remaining, the lead see-sawed between the two rivals. Dave Gerhartz connected on a three-pointer with 1:00 remaining. In the final 45 seconds, the Wildcats were at the charity line six times as the Crusaders desperately tried to get the ball. Dorn continued to be there for the rebounds. Gerhartz was fouled with ten seconds remaining. He sunk the first throw, but missed the second. Dorn rebounded the ball, put it up and scored with just seconds remaining, sealing the win, 35-27.

Dorn and Gerhartz led the Wildcats with ten and eight points respectively followed by Corey Amerling with six, Jim Kopecky added five and Jason Butschlick, Chad Schoofs and Eric Wenninger each scored two points.

The win ties both teams for first place in the Kettle Moraine Catholic School League Conference with 6-1 records.

The game of volleyball was invented in 1895 by William G. Morgan, a physical fitness instructor at the YMCA in Holyoke, Mass.

Same Old Story for KHS Boys

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - It's not even accurate to say that this is becoming an old hat for the Kewaskum boys basketball team. The fact is, the Indians problems hit the monotonous point about mid-season.

KHS coach Jim Westphal sounded like a broken record when asked to describe his team's troubles in a 67-52 loss to Sheboygan Falls here, last Friday night.

"It was another terrible shooting performance on our part," Westphal said of the Indians' 32 percent (19 of 58) shooting from the floor. "It's hard to explain, as I've said before. We had good shots once again."

And once again, those shots didn't fall. Many were open shots, coming against the Falcon zone defense. And KHS' inability to hit the open shot helped Falls build an early 20-8 lead.

"We got ourselves down early once again," Westphal said. Playing from double figures down, it becomes very demoralizing."

The Falcons, co-leaders with Plymouth (9-1) in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, didn't give the Indians any help, either. Falls, the league's best shooting team, used that strength to hold off any Indian comeback hopes.

"They shot extremely well, and we knew that they would," Westphal said. "That's just where their strength is. (Jason) Meerdink and (Matt) Wieseckel just killed us once again."

Open WIAA Tourney at Home KHS Girls Get First-Round Bye

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - The early draws look favorable, but action will get very competitive if the Kewaskum girls basketball team is able to win a couple of games in the WIAA girls tournament series.

The Lady Indians open with a first-round bye in the lower half of the New Berlin Eisenhower Sectional. The Indians' first game will be on Thursday, February 24, when they host the winner of Tuesday's Campbellsport-Mayville first round matchup.

Mayville should come away with the win, and although they handled Kewaskum in a Holiday Tournament game here December 30, the Lady Indians did hold their own against the Cardinals.

Should the Lady Indians be able to get by Mayville, there are just a couple of teams that have a realistic shot of making it to the Sectionals. Those include Slinger (10-3 in the Parkland Conference), and North Shore Conference members Grafton (8-3) and Cedarburg (7-4).

The lower half survivor will have its work cut out in the Sectionals, however, as several of the state's top Division 2 schools make up the upper half of the bracket in the New Berlin Eisenhower Sectional. Whitnall, Both Meerdink and Wieseckel ended with 15 points. Chris Korff added 10 for the winners, who led 36-21 at half-time.

In addition to their woes from the field, Kewaskum was equally inept at the free throw line. The Indians made just 14 of their 31 attempts from the charity stripe, further hampering the effort.

"We could have made it a much closer ballgame had we made some of those," Westphal said. "We might not have won the game, but it sure would have made it more interesting."

Travis Jacak led the Indians with 12 points, and should have had many more. "He missed an awful lot of free throws," Westphal said of the 6-4 junior, but added, "he played quite well, though."

Westphal also had praise for senior Erik Ankerson, who "did a great job on the boards." Ankerson snared 12 rebounds, including many on the offensive end. But once again, "he just couldn't get any of those put-backs to go in the hole."

Defensively, the Indian boss was pleased with what he saw out of his team. "We really made them work," Westphal said noting that "we held them below average in points."

In dropping to 3-13 on the year, including 1-9 in the EW, the Indians have their coach at a loss for answers.

"I don't know if it's the game jitters or what," he said regarding the shooting. "I'm hoping that one game we'll just break out and score a load of points. But so far, it just hasn't happened."

The Indians will try to shoot straight Thursday, when they travel to Plymouth for a meeting with the EW's other co-leader. Friday, the Indians will host Kiel in a makeup game from last Tuesday. KHS closes out its regular season with home games next week against Campbellsport (Tuesday) and Cedar Grove (Friday).

Young Indian Girls Lose

By Noel Stollenwerk

SHEBOYGAN FALLS - While the KHS varsity girls were successful in ruining Sheboygan Falls' Parent's Night, the two younger Indian squads came up short in their games with the Falcons last Friday.

The KHS JV's dropped a 36-28 decision to Falls, while the freshmen lost by a 35-25 count.

JV Coach Keith Amundson credited Missy Thull with some "great rebounding" and noted Laura Fleischman's excellent defense in the loss. Tiffany Laubach scored 10 points, while Maureen Leitheiser added six for the JV's, who fell to 6-12 on the year, including 4-6 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference.

The freshmen, meanwhile, fell behind 12-2 after one quarter of play, and could "never overcome the ten point deficit," according to coach Ken Soerens. Becky Heisdorf had 10 points to lead the Indians, who dropped to 4-12 on the season.

Individuals Headed to Elkhorn Team Tourney Berth a First

By Noel Stollenwerk

SLINGER - The Kewaskum wrestling program, under the direction of John Nell, continues to make strides in becoming one of the state's better teams.

By winning the team title at Saturday's Slinger Regional, the Indians qualified for the WIAA Team Tournament series for the first time ever. The team tournament, in its third year of existence, is separate from the WIAA individual tournament which has been held since 1940.

The Indians took part in the Sectional semi-finals Tuesday in Campbellsport. KHS was slated to face East Troy, which won the Wilmot Sectional. That winner would then face the winner of Campbellsport and Horicon, the other two qualifiers. (Results from Tuesday's meet weren't available at presstime. Complete results will appear next week.)

If the Indians should survive competition in the Sectionals, the team would earn a berth in the State Team Tournament, to be held March 4-5 at West Allis Central High School.

"It should be exciting," Nell said of the tournament, noting that Campbellsport would be the favorite to win. But, Nell noted, "These kids have surprised me all year long. We'll see what happens."

Meanwhile, the five individuals who qualified for the WIAA Sectionals individual tournament.. Joel Dzedzic, Jake Thull, Tyler Dieringer, Jason Czaja, and Chad Muckerheide.. will head to Elkhorn this Saturday. There they will face wrestlers from four other Division 2 Regionals, including Ripon, Sheboygan Falls, and

"I think we've got some pretty favorable draws," Nell said regarding possible opponents for his wrestlers. "They'll all be tough, of course, but they look like good draws for us."

Weigh-ins begin at 9:30 a.m., with the first round of competition slated to get underway at 11 a.m. The top two finishers in each weight class at the Sectionals will qualify for the State Individual Tournament, February 24-26.

Do Not Plow Snow Across Roadway

The Washington County Highway Department and the Washington County Sheriff's Department would like to remind people that it is extremely dangerous to plow snow across the roadway and that leaving any debris or substances on the roadway may cause damage to vehicles, equipment or possibly injuries if an accident were to occur.

Depositing snow along the roadway hinders the Highway Department in their attempt to keep the roads open and clear of debris. The snow that is piled up along the roadway freezes and becomes impossible for the snowplows to push back. Also, the snow piled along the roadway on many occasions causes additional drifting of snow onto the roadway making it even more difficult to keep the roadway clear.

Violators may be issued a citation for placing snow on a road which may cause damage to vehicles or injuries pursuant to Wisconsin Statute 346.94(5).

Five Individuals Headed for Sectionals Indian Matmen Capture Slinger Regional Title

By Noel Stollenwerk

SLINGER - It was a bitter-sweet victory party for Kewaskum wrestling coach John Nell here, Saturday, at the WIAA Regional meet.

Nell's Indians performed well enough to win the team title in the meet, easily outdistancing second-place Waterford 178.5-152. By winning the team title, the Indians qualified for the WIAA Team Tournament, which began on Tuesday. (see related article)

On a down note, however, only five individual KHS wrestlers finished either first or second, thereby qualifying for the Elkhorn Sectional this Saturday. So while Nell was happy with the team win, this time he was looking for individual glory.

"It's not one of my happier moments," Nell said, referring to the fact that he was hoping for more Sectional qualifiers. "I was hoping to have at least seven (qualify). But it was a good meet for us. We did alright."

Doing especially well were three individuals who won their respective classes. Freshman Joel Dziedzic was one of those, as he ran his season record to 30-1 en route to the 103 pound title.

Dziedzic opened with pins over wrestlers from Brown Deer (1:10) and Union Grove (:48). Then, facing Pewaukee's Chad Goodman in the finals, Dziedzic worked a little longer in securing a 5:26 pin.

Chad Muckerheide survived what Nell said was perhaps the toughest weight class, winning the 152-pound bracket. Muckerheide beat Shorewood's Bryce Frazier, 8-4, in the finals. Frazier was one of four individuals in the 152-pound bracket with at least 20 wins. Muckerheide beat a Brown Deer wrestler, 4-2, in the semifinals, after opening with a bye.

"It was a well-packed weight class," Nell said of Muckerheide, now 28-4. "Chad wrestled really well. He deserved to win it."

The biggest surprise of Saturday's meet came in the 130-pound class, where KHS' Jason Czaja took home first-place. Czaja took care of Brown Deer's Greg Crabbe in the finals, 22-7.

"He's really come a long way," Nell said of Czaja, who decisioned kids from Union Grove (5-2) and Slinger (12-1) in the opening rounds. "I'm real happy for him. He's capable of beating anyone on a given day."

Two other Indians advanced to the Sectional. Tyler Dieringer took second at 125 pounds, while Jake Thull did likewise at 119. Dieringer scored a pinfall over a Union Grove wrestler in reaching the finals. There he fell to Waterford's Corey Pederson in 1:49. Dieringer will take a 22-10 record to Sectionals.

"Tyler just got caught in the finals," Nell said of Dieringer's match. "He was doing well, and then the kid just stuck him."

Thull, meanwhile, scored a pinfall and then an 8-3 win in reaching the finals. There, he fell to Waterford's Alex Guardolo 14-4.

Most of Nell's disappointment in the meet came from the results of two other KHS wrestlers. Both Brad Jackson (160 pounds) and Rich Farchione (171) made it to the finals, but lost.

Both found themselves having a wrestleback match, which occurs when the third-place finisher's lone loss was to the eventual champion. The winner of the wrestleback, match then joins the champion in advancing to Sectionals.

Both Jackson and Farchione lost their wrestlebacks, and thus finished third. Farchione's loss was especially heartbreaking to Nell, as Farchione led Slinger's Chris Gehring 13-3 at one point in his match. Gehring came back to force the match to overtime, however. Farchione looked to have won it in overtime, executing a fireman's carry, but he never got full control of Gehring, who slithered out and scored the takedown for the win.

"That was a real heartbreaker. The kid just snuck around him," Nell said of Farchione's loss. Farchione lost to Pewaukee's Demetrio Guardolo in the finals, 15-3, although Nell said, "It didn't seem quite that bad. It was a lot closer than it looks."

Jackson also came close in a couple of matches. After pinning a New Berlin West wrestler to make it to the finals, Jackson lost to Slinger's Jason Schmid, 8-5. "That was a real tight match," Nell said, adding that Jackson lost his wrestleback to Pewaukee's Fred Lindenstruth, 5-2.

Tim Gundrum (275) also came away with a third-place finish, while Rich Wulff ended up fourth at 189.

"It's too bad that we couldn't get more individuals to the Sectionals," Nell said. "That's the main objective for me. Qualifying for the team tournament is nice, but we're more interested in getting kids through to the next level."

SLINGER REGIONAL TEAM SCORES: 1. KEWASKUM 178-5; 2. Waterford 152; 3. Pewaukee 148; 4. Slinger 124; 5. Shorewood 60; 6. New Berlin West 47; 7. Brown Deer 46; 8. Union Grove 13.

SECTIONAL QUALIFIERS:
103 - JOEL DZIEDZIC, KEWASKUM; Josh Goodman, Pewaukee;
112 - Louie Kwaisoroch, Waterford; Brad Schultz, Slinger;
119 - Alex Guardolo, Waterford; JAKE THULL, KEWASKUM;
125 - Cory Pederson, Waterford; TYLER DIERINGER, KEWASKUM;
130 - JASON CZAJA, KEWASKUM; Greg Crabbe, Brown Deer;
135 - Buress McComber, Pewaukee; Pedro Perez, Waterford;
140 - Jason Kamrath, Waterford; Bob LaPlante, New Berlin West;
152 - CHAD MUCKERHEIDE, KEWASKUM; Bryce Frazier, Shorewood;
160 - Jason Schmidt, Slinger; Fred Lindenstruth, Pewaukee;
171 - Demetrio Guardolo, Waterford; Chris Gehring, Slinger;
189 - Scott Pecshman, Pewaukee; Cody Tonsor, Slinger;
275 - Chris McIntosh, Pewaukee; Mac Gehring, Slinger.

Wiesner Scores Season-High 26

'Team Effort' Sparks KHS Girls

By Noel Stollenwerk

SHEBOYGAN FALLS - It looked as if it was a one-girl show for the Kewaskum girls basketball team here, last Friday night. That was far from the case, however, according to Indian coach Glenn Eichstedt.

"We played a very good team game," Eichstedt said regarding KHS' 56-50 win over Sheboygan Falls. "Everyone did their part chipping in."

Indian senior Ginger Wiesner surely did her part, scoring a season best 26 points, including 18 in the second half. But Eichstedt was quick to point out that Wiesner's effort was made possible with the help of her teammates.

"Ginger really benefitted from the play of everybody else," he said. "We switched to a full-court press in the second half, and that really got things going for us. They weren't able to have anyone right on her when she got the ball."

The switch in defensive strategy allowed the Lady Indians to turn a relatively close game into a blowout. KHS led 24-17 at the halftime break, but their full-court pressure turned up the pace in the third quarter.

"We wanted to create an up-tempo pace," Eichstedt said of the switch, which helped KHS extend their lead to 45-26 heading into the fourth quarter. "Things seemed pretty well in hand."

But Sheboygan Falls, playing in front of a large Parent's Night crowd, fought back. With Kewaskum ahead 52-37 midway through the final stanza, the Falcons rallied, and built some momentum with the help of the fans.

"The crowd really got behind them," Eichstedt said, noting that a pair of three-pointers by Anne Mersberger helped pull Falls to within seven, at 52-45. "All of a sudden, they hit a couple threes, and a few free throws, and they seemed to come to life."

But Eichstedt re-inserted the starting lineup into the game, and let them close out the final two minutes. Although things got a bit hectic late, Eichstedt said his team never lost its control, despite giving up a season-high 24 fourth quarter points.

"I never really felt all that threatened," he said. We showed some good patience when we needed to down the stretch."

Eichstedt was extremely pleased with the efforts of several individuals. Seniors Ali Bruendl and Missy Radtke played a big role in the third quarter, as KHS outscored Falls 21-9.

"Those two really turned things around," Eichstedt said. Radtke scored six points in the quarter, while Bruendl added three steals.

Meanwhile, it was juniors Mary Yahr and Andrea

Bonlender that got KHS rolling early. Yahr scored eight points, and Bonlender, three, with five rebounds, in the opening quarter, as KHS led 14-8.

She did a real nice job on the boards," Eichstedt said of Bonlender. Yahr, meanwhile, finished with a season-high 16 points, and "came out and hit some big shots for us early."

In addition, Eichstedt praised the defensive work of Missy Rohrer, who "turned in another solid effort."

The win moved the Lady Indians' record to 8-10 on the year, including 4-6 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. KHS closes out the regular season with games against Plymouth on Tuesday, and Kiel on Saturday. The Kiel game is a makeup of a contest scheduled for last Tuesday.

EXPLORE HIGH SCHOOL AGRICULTURE

Doug Neumann and Michael Ksioszk were 1993 Delegates to the State FFA Convention in Green Lake. They attended sessions to receive awards for the Chapter and to vote on various items such as whether or not to move the Convention to Madison.

She's okay, Scott. Don't worry. Chandra Canter and Scott Enright help out at the State Fair Ice Cream Booth. Members put in long hours of hard work.

Monthly meetings are held to discuss the many FFA activities and plan for new ones. President Scott Enright (at the podium) collects his thoughts before another vigorous discussion.

The FFA Ice Cream Booth at State Fair in the Agricultural Products Building. A lot of hard work is put into the booth to keep it clean as well as to serve a maximum number of customers. Kewaskum FFA shares the booth and profits with Slinger and Hartford FFA's.

STUDENT PROJECTS HIGHLIGHT SKILLS

Kirk Gehl spent a lot of hours this summer working with horses at the Bar-N-Ranch stables. Each day started with grooming, and then it was off to the trails. Kirk was also a member of last year's Horse Judging Team.

Ken Van Beek spends all of his after school time working on his grandfather's farm in West Bend. Ken loves working with dairy cattle and doing field work. Ken is responsible for just about everything that goes into working a dairy farm. Ken attributes much of his knowledge to his uncle, his favorite working companion.

Matt Tonn, a sophomore agriculture student, was active with his horse project. Matt showed in various classes at the Washington County Fair, earning a trip to the State Show this past fall. Way to go, pardner!

Peter Meyer, senior agriculture student, takes pride in one of his star pigs. Pete has been involved with a swine project ever since starting in agriculture as a freshman. He raises pigs from farrow to finish, and last year was the FFA Proficiency Winner in swine production.

Kurt Westphal enjoys showing cattle as part of his dairy project. Kurt has worked with various cattle over the years. He has been on the dairy judging team for the FFA. This year he is hoping to take the dairy judging team to a top state finish.

VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES KEEP FFA'ers INVOLVED

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

MONTHLY MEETINGS held at the High School are generally started or finished with a healthy game of basketball. While the ball may seldom go in the basket, all players enjoy the time on the court.

Scott Ebert, a graduate of the High School, examines a beef carcass following the Washington County Fair. Students have a chance to show livestock at the fair, then see some of those meat animals at the carcass shows held in Kewaskum and Allenton. Meat animal evaluation is also taught in the Agriculture 2 course, and the FFA Meats Team.

SCOTT ENRIGHT

The Kewaskum FFA was pronounced a chapter in 1951. The names of the first members still hang on the wall of the Ag room, here at the high school. Things have changed since those first officers ran the chapter locally.

The first FFA magazine was born in 1952. It was known first as The National Future Farmer, and now it is known today as FFA New Horizons and is received by all FFA members.

In 1955 the organization established international exchange programs. FFA members can go anywhere from Japan to Phillipines. In 1965 the FFA opened membership to blacks, and in 1969 opened membership to women. In 1971 the Alumni was organized nationally.

The FFA Alumni's primary purpose is to provide support for the FFA students organization. Since the Kewaskum FFA Alumni has been formed, they have supported the FFA in many ways. This is greatly appreciated by the members.

The Kewaskum FFA Chapter is very busy with their members through the year. When school is finished for the year the FFA doesn't stop! The Kewaskum FFA Chapter has part ownership with Hartford and Slinger FFA Chapters in an ice cream booth at the Wisconsin State Fair in Milwaukee. Members of our chapters all get together and sell various agriculture dairy products. We serve ice cream sundaes and milk, with toppings from around the state. The FFA earns a lot of money through this activity. All chapter members that work at the booth are paid.

Our FFA Chapter is also involved in the local Washington County Fair which is held in Slinger, Wisconsin. Members of our chapter show many award winning animals, such as dairy, beef, swine and sheep. The members have a lot of work cut out for them for the four days at the fair grounds.

The Chapter is also involved in its annual Fruit and Cheese Sale. The Chapter sells cases of fruit from Florida, blocks of cheese from Schneider's Cheese in Waldo, sticks of sausage from Kewaskum Frozen Foods and for the first year the Chapter sold various peanuts.

Our Chapter is very involved in judging contests for the Northeastern Wisconsin Agri-Science Skills Contest in Fox Valley. Our Chapter has teams judging in Dairy Cattle, Meats, Crops, Dairy Products, Meat Animals, Farm Management, Forestry, Ag Mechanics, Poultry, Nursery/Landscape, Horse Science, Wildlife, and Floriculture. The State's FFA Chapters are very interested in this judging with 293 teams, over 1,000 members and at least 50 or more schools registered. Our Chapter always looks forward to the Fox Valley trip. When the teams place high enough, they are able to go to Madison for the state judging contests.

The Kewaskum Chapter also is involved in District and State Speaking Contests. The Speaking consists of Creed, Parliamentary Procedure, Discussion, Extemporaneous and more!

The Chapter also does alot of traveling from state to state and county to county. There's the State Convention which is held in Green Lake, Wisconsin, and the National Convention, which is held in Kansas City, Missouri. The National Convention is a great experience for anyone.

Well, it's time for me to say farewell. I would like to thank all the supporters of our FFA Chapter, the Kewaskum FFA Chapter members for their strong devotion to the Chapter over the past years. I would also like to thank the faculty and teachers of the Kewaskum High School, the Chapter Advisor, Mr. Dave Rizzardi and at last, my parents and family for all their great support.

*THANKS,
Chapter President

A WORLD APART... SIMILAR RESULTS -- This past January a delegation of Japanese farmers were touring the area and stopped to visit the Kewaskum High School Agriculture Department. These farmers were from Tokachi, Japan. They stayed with area farmers and toured various agricultural businesses and farms. After some difficult interpreting we found out that farming around the world was very similar to farming in Kewaskum. All of the visitors were given a Kewaskum cap, presented by FFA Officer Mike Ksioszk, pictured to the right of the FFA sign.
