Plan Commission Approves Planned Unit Development

Duplex Condos Proposed for Sunset Estates Phase III

By Lana Harbeck Kuehl

Gary and Linda Gavin, developers of Sunset Estates, appeared before the Kewaskum Plan Commission Tuesday evening to request the rezoning of a parcel of land on the west end of the Village.

The land, which will become Phase III of the Gavin's Sunset Estates subdivision is located to the west of Forest Avenue and Edgewood.

The Gavins were requesting to have the land rezoned to R-3

Two Family Residence District to be laid out as a Planned Unit Development for that area of land. They are planning on constructing duplex condominiums on the approximately eight acre parcel.

However, in coordination with the other phases of construction, the front three lots of Phase III, immediately adjacent to Edgewood Road, will remain as single family housing.

The proposed Planned Unit Development will also utilize some of the large rustic oak trees situated on the parcel and a pond will also be constructed to add to the scenic beauty of the layout of the development.

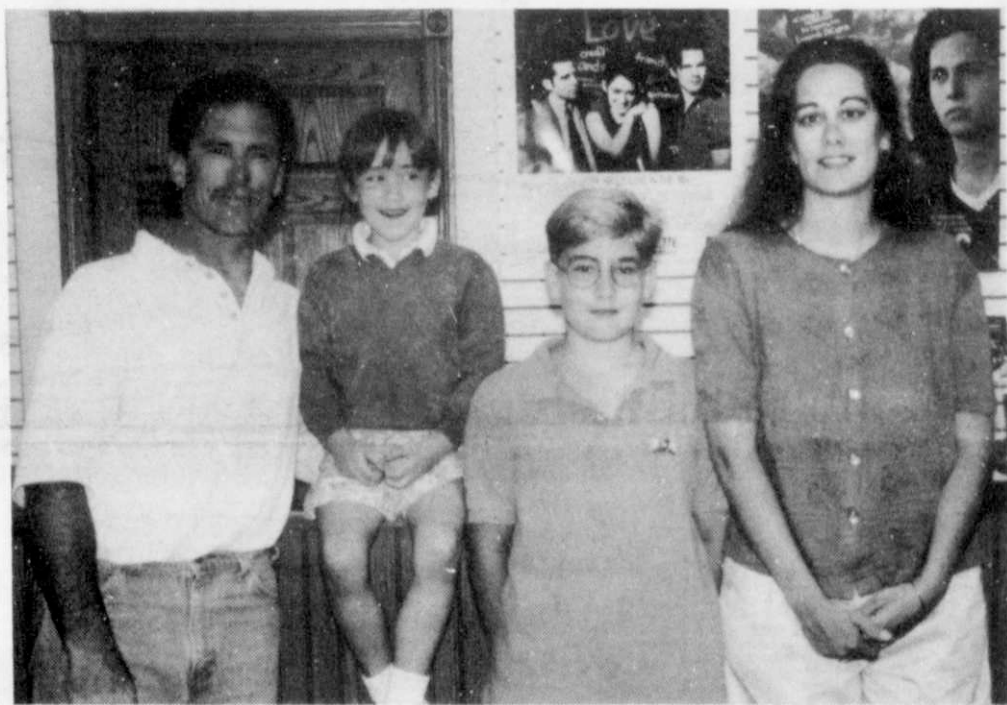

The land should be able to easily accommodate possibly 20 to 24 duplex condos which figures into 40 to 48 individual units. Each unit will be individually owned and regulated by a condominium owners covenant.

It is expected that each condo will have a minimum of between 1200 and 1600 square feet of living space depending on the construction. There will be an option of two story or ranch style condos.

After much discussion and extensive questions, the Plan Commission unanimously approved to recommend the rezoning to the Village Board for Public Hearing, which has been tentatively set for September 12.

Video Square Now Open

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Video Square opened its doors for business this past Monday at its' new location in the Kewaskum Mall, offering movie lovers a taste of horror, suspense, drama, comedy... in entertainment forms to take home.

Owners Dan and Jenny Schroeder of Kewaskum were up until midnight the night before and their daughter Katie, age 6, smiles from her stool behind the counter, beside brother Matt, 11. It is apparent this project has been a family adventure, combining an assortment of their favorite indoor pasttimes. In fact, Matt chose the name for the new business.

"I started playing video games in 1982," says Dan, "and liked that type of entertainment ever since, also movies." Their new store has easy access through Subway, and a back entrance in near completion, so there's plenty of parking for customers. The room itself was originally Mitch Ogi's conference room, so it was basically finished off, just needing shelving, counters and wall slats.

Video Square offers a variety of movies including new releases; Sega Genesis and Super Nintendo video games; new trading cards and non-sport cards and audio and video cassettes for sale. The Schroeders also buy and sell used CDs, previewed movies, and some used video games. "As far as new releases are concerned, we are mostly concentrating on the future," adds Dan. Per customer request, any movie or video can be special ordered.

The kids will enjoy the selection of candy and microwave popcorn for munching at the movies.

Future plans include the rental of VCRs, Super Nintendo and Sega-CD game decks. "We'll eventually be adding the new lines coming out such as the Atari Jaguar and Panasonic 3D-O," explains Dan. A drop box for customer convenience will also be added. Promos with Subway will also be offered soon.

Lynn Gaffke of Kewaskum will be managing the store during the day since the Schroeders both work full-time days. Jenny works for Philips Plastics in Fredonia and Dan is employed with Wickes Lumber in Lomira.

Video Square is open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

County Fair, Meat Animal Sale Celebrating 25th Year

The Annual Washington County Fair Meat Sale will be held Thursday, July 28, at 7:30 p.m. at the fairgrounds at Slinger in conjunction with the annual County Fair being held this year from July 27 through July 31.

This event marks the 25th Anniversary of the meat sale, and the Future Farmers of America and 4-H members invite everyone to help celebrate this silver anniversary with a pre-sale social from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The following is a brief history of the Meat Sale, since 1969:

"The purpose of the Meat Animal Sale is to provide encouragement to youth in developing livestock feeding projects and to recognize their efforts." That was the quote of Roy Esser, patriarch of the Washington County Meat Animal Sale and Chairman of the first sale in 1969.

The sale drew a total of 39 animals; seven sheep, 12 beef and 19 hogs. Area 4-H and FFA members added a new concept to their projects with the possibility of selling the very best animals to area business and interested parties.

Their reward was usually better than market prices, money with which they could improve their stock or save for their educations. It was conceived with the intention to improve the quality of their projects. Educational meetings and workshops were added. Feeding was stressed and ultimate year-round care was stressed to exhibitors.

Area auctioneers were approached about furnishing their services free of charge to encourage the crowd and secure a good price for everyone. They often provided some theatrics to the occasion and often purchased animals themselves. O'Brien Bros, Rollie and Ron Bast, Ernie Kueffner, Dan Ritger, Richard Rathke and Ken Schoebel have all handled the duties over the years and will be in attendance at the 25th

Family Bible Week is the theme of 1994's Vacation Bible School at St. Lucas Lutheran in Kewaskum from August 1 to the 4th.

Guest speakers will discuss various areas of mission outreach the first half hour of each day with all attendees. During the second half hour of each session the children will spend time on arts and crafts, while adults continue discussion with the speaker. Each day's session will conclude with a half hour of fellowship and refreshment.

While this year's VBS seeks to bring families together, those who attend need not be a family... everyone is welcome. Seeking to bring family units to VBS is also the reason for the time change. The August 1 to 4 series will meet from 6:30 to 8 p.m. each day.

If you plan to attend, please call 626-2680, Pastor Timothy Henning at 626-4496 or sign the sheet in the narthex of St. Lucas.

New Welcome Sign for Village

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Members of the Kewaskum branch of the A.A.L. (Aid Association for Lutherans) teamed up in an effort to beautify the north end of the village along the Milwaukee River. At a recent A.A.L. meeting, it was suggested members think up a project that would benefit Kewaskum, and resident Jean Moe suggested working up something for the northern part of town. The group, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kempf, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Garvey, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Marquardt elected to erect a wooden, "Welcome to Kewaskum" sign, with a flower box at the base. Jean Moe painted the letters and the Marquardt's son Paul, cut the letters into the wood. Superintendent of Public Works Jerry Gilles offered to fill the flower box with black soil, and annuals were planted for this summer. In the future, perennials will fill the flower box. President of the local A.A.L., Mrs. Linus Herriges, will donate flowers and the Association will donate monies to the new welcome sign.

Rizzardi Attends Teacher World '94

MADISON - David Rizzardi, agriculture teacher at Kewaskum High School, was among 18 teachers from throughout the state who celebrated teaching June 15-18 during the sixth annual Teacher World Program at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse.

Rizzardi was recommended for selection to the teacher institute based on his devotion to education. Approximately 400 teachers applied for the positions.

The Teacher World Program is designed to allow educators to escape the isolation of the classroom and share experiences and ideas with other committed professionals. During the session, teachers exchanged experiences and strategies, attended staff development sessions, and provided a Teacher Fair for 120 high school students attending the student component of Teacher World.

WBKV/WBWI Is Now Broadcasting 24 Hours

West Bend's hometown radio stations have announced recently it is implementing 24 hour broadcasting on both AM 1470 WBKV and PURE COUNTRY 92.5 FM, which became effective on Monday, July 25.

WBKV Program Director Robert Bonenfant said, "This is something we've been looking forward to for quite a while. It's just another step in making WBKV available to the community when they need and want it. Besides news, weather and sports updates, we'll be offering a couple of very popular talk shows, Robert Fredinburg from midnight to 1 a.m. and "Coast to Coast Live With Art Bell" from 1 to 5 a.m.

WBWI Program Director Rick McKay said, "We now can be a full service radio station for our listening area. Listeners no longer have to tune in another station because we're not signing off."

Yogerst to Attend Teen Leadership

Becky Yogerst

Becky Yogerst daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yogerst of Kewaskum High School will be one of over 200 participants from throughout the State involved in the 1994 Wisconsin Teen Leadership Program.

This Program recognizes outstanding young men and women in the areas of Scholastics, Athletics, Community Service, and Extra-Curricular School Activities. Less than 5% of Wisconsin's teens are invited to apply and only 40% of the applicants become participants.

Becky was selected to present Kewaskum because of his/her academic excellence and community service record. During the Program these achievers will participate in a variety of social and recreational activities, educational seminars and leadership events. The three-day event culminates with the naming of Wisconsin's Outstanding Teen Leaders for 1994. The young man and woman designated as Wisconsin's Outstanding Leaders will each receive a $1,000.00 cash award.

Becky is sponsored for this event by: Video Post, Homeplate Restaurant, Kewaskum Pharmacy, Dick Gust Insurance Agency, Woodsman Construction, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yogerst.

County Fair

anniversary of the sale on July 28.

The promotion of quality, locally grown meat and to intermingle the rural and urban youth and businesses is the ultimate goal of this event. Currently about 70% of the youth involved in the sale are non-farmers.

For area businesses who have or wish to support the sale, it is an excellent public relations concept to support the hard-working youth of the county. They also receive the best meat available and have their business noted throughout the barns and in all advertising pertaining to the sale.

1994 marks the 25th anniversary of the Washington County Meat Animal Sale. The "Silver Lining" of this event is that everyone can be involved. There are no limits -- young or old, urban or rural, businesses or interested parties. Anyone can be a part of history. Come to the Fair, July 28, 1994, Thursday evening 7:30 p.m.

Encouragement was the theme 25 years ago. Encouragement is what is essential to make this event flourish. The encouragement of the entire area is essential.

The 1994 sale will see approximately 30 sheep, 40 beef and 50 hogs be put on the auction block.

For all those involved (and there are many) we salute your hard work and the many milestones that have been achieved. For those getting involved, and hopefully that will be many, may you promote and encourage the spirit of youth and dedication.

They're Back... for the Summer Dance of '94!

The "Ike and Tina Turner Revue" depicted above by the show band, "Out-A-Time," was one of their most popular features (along with the show-stopping "Booze Brothers" segment) at last year's Summer Dance.

Due to popular demand, the band has again been contracted for a return engagement at this year's Summer Dance of '94, being held Saturday, August 6, in Riverhill Park from 6 to 7.

This band can slide from music from the 50's to the 90's without you even noticing you've gone through time travel. Last year, they had even di-hard wallflowers tapping their toes and tripping the light fantastic in the middle of the dance floor. And no one paid attention to the wallflowers... because they were all too busy dancing themselves!

This band will not only take you down memory lane, you'll actually believe you are back there, scared to ask your favorite girl to dance. The only thing you will miss is the sweaty palms while you dance that "good old time rock and roll."

As much as your teenager hates to be seen with you, bring them along anyway, for this year again there will be a special teen garden area with no alcohol where your "young-uns" can be off by themselves, with their friends, chaperoned (but don't tell them that) where they can have a dancing good time and not have to worry about having Mom and Dad looking over their shoulder. Actually, Mom and Dad will be too busy having their own good time to worry about what the kids are doing anyway!

Another feature of the dance this year will be a Classic Car Show being held from 4 to 6 p.m. in Riverhill Park prior to the dance. There will also be a 50's and 60's Costume Contest with prizes being awarded. So get the dust off that poodle skirt and turn up the sleeves on your white t-shirt and join in the fun.

Advance sale tickets are now available which will save you a $1.00 off the admission price. Advance sale tickets are available at the Kewaskum Statesman, Kuehl's Suds and Spirits, Video Post, Shefond Mobil and Amoco, Eckl's Main Street Inn, Tantalizer Tanning Salon, Sentry Foods, Subway, Kewaskum Chevrolet, Valley Bank, Hon-E-Kor Country Club and Richard's Kut and Style.

And don't forget to bring your appetite along to the dance. There will be lots of different food for you to sample. We know you'll need refreshments after putting your blue suede shoes to the ultimate test, so we'll have plenty of that, too... ice cold and refreshing!

So if you are weak of heart, and hate to dance, come on out anyway... mingle with "old" friends, enjoy the good food and refreshments and just try to remain oblivious to the music!

And don't forget... all proceeds from the dance are used to fund Kewaskum Kettle Kountry Kolors. That should be reason enough to buy a ticket.

BURNETT AMUSEMENTS

Luxemburg Mod Special to Goeden

LUXEMBURG, WI, July 17 - Persistence pays off. That saying was really put to the test on Sunday night for the entire program at the Mello Yello Winged Modifieds Spectacular at the Luxemburg Tri Star Speedway. For the third year in a row, weather was a concern. Track crews had to pump out the track and pit area of almost four inches of rain that fell in the morning, and then work through a nearly one-hour rain delay to complete the entire program.

Don Goeden made the work pay off as the current Eastern Wisconsin modified point leader survived an early race accident to take a come-from-behind win in the headline feature at the finish line over Randy Tracy. Doug Mahlik won his first IMCA modified feature of the year after a race-long battle with Tom Stark and John Gregorich picked up his second IMCA stock car feature win of the weekend.

A strong field of 20 winged modifieds took to the track for their 25-lap main event with Randy Tracy taking the lead at the start from the outside pole. Tracy pulled ahead followed by Don Goeden, Fred Zack, Dennis Klumb, Chuck Tuschl and Bill Wenninger. A series of caution on lap three consisted of two rollovers, the first by Todd Hepfner in front of the grandstand and the second by Greg Otte in turn one. Two other spins and crashes held the race up as well with the final caution taking out Goeden after just missing a spinning Zack on the front chute. Goeden was able to continue, but rejoined at the rear of the field starting in 16th position.

When the green finally appeared again, the balance of the race went non-stop. Tracy again took the lead and set a fast pace pulling away from the pack with Klumb tagging along. The field strung out behind the fleeing leaders and after a couple of laps, it was Goeden, in the rear of the pack, who took off to run down the field. It took Goeden three laps to work by John Komppa on the inside. Goeden then pulled high and chewed through the field moving into the top five on lap 11. Goeden moved into third place by Gary Dye on lap 13, and faced an almost half-lap margin to catch the leaders with just half of the race remaining. Goeden started to cut away at the lead and by lap 20 had caught Klumb to take over the runner-up spot. Goeden started to close in on the leader as the laps ticked off. As the white flag was displayed to the field, Goeden pulled up on the leader entering the first turn.

Two lapped cars were directly in front of the leaders out of the second turn, but they charged the back chute like they weren't there. Tracy was running the low groove and Goeden was still hooked on the outside. Entering the third turn, the leaders split going around a slower car and charged to the finish line. Goeden was hugging the retaining wall and captured the win by inches over Tracy at the finish line before a standing, cheering crowd.

The win was Goeden's third division win in a row having won the last two weeks at the divisions home track at Plymouth, and now the Mello Yello Special at Tri Star. In the process, Goeden also took over the season point lead entering the final half of the season. Tracy received an ovation for his runner-up finish with Klumb holding on to the third place finish. Gary Dye finished fourth followed by Chuck Tuschl, Jim DePagter, Ken Jay Fielder, K.J. Skelton, Tim McMullen, and John Komppa in the top ten finishing positions.

Warden Urges Caution During Summer Recreating

Summer is in full swing, and the heat of July makes the area lakes seem more attractive than ever. With the increase of people using the water, area boaters and recreators need to be even more cautious and courteous to others out there.

One item that boaters may bring with them, however, could make them less cautious and courteous. This item is alcohol. We all know that alcohol can severely impair your operation of a car, but did you know that its effect on you when operating a boat can be just as dangerous. Alcohol will slow down your reaction time and impair your judgement. Combine this with the effects of the rocking of the boat, the glare of the sun, the heat, and the wind, and you could have a recipe for disaster.

Unlike other motor vehicles, boats do not have brakes, and the response time is greater for turning and stopping than it is with other vehicles.

Let's suppose that you, as an operator, consume enough alcohol to impair you and you have to make a split decision about changing the direction of your boat because you just noticed an obstruction in the water or the person leaving shore did not see you and has pulled out in front of you, you may not be able to react fast enough to avoid an accident.

If the thought of an accident isn't enough to deter drinking and boating, Wisconsin has an "operating while intoxicated" law similar to the state's law on operating a motor vehicle while under the influence.

You cannot legally operate a motorboat if you are under the influence of an intoxicant. It is also against the law to have a blood alcohol concentration above 0.1% while operating a boat. Both of these violations can carry a maximum forfeiture of $419.00. Also, if you happen to get arrested twice in a five year period, the violation is a crime which can carry a maximum fine of $1,000.00 and up to six months in jail. For three or more offenses, the fine is a maximum of $2,000.00 and a possible jail sentence of up to one year.

Unlike other motor vehicles, Wisconsin has an "implied consent" law regarding boats, snowmobiles and ATV's. This means that if you are operating any of these vehicles, it is against the law to refuse to take a preliminary breath test to determine the amount of alcohol present in your blood.

Summer is a time to relax and enjoy the great outdoors. Wisconsin Conservation Wardens want everyone to have a fun but safe season on the water. So, if your going to enjoy our great water resources, please use good judgement and consume in moderation if you choose to consume alcohol while recreating.

If you have questions regarding these or any other boating laws, you can find answers in the boating regulations pamphlet, or feel free to contact your local conservation warden.

Enjoy the rest of the summer!

Engelking/Schmitt motion to adjourn to Closed Session as per Wisconsin State Statute 19.85 (1) (c) "Considering employment, promotion, compensation or performance evaluation data of any public employe over which the governmental body has jurisdiction or exercises responsibility." Ron Beimbom suggested that because of the late hour and the fact that two board members were absent, it may be in the board's best interest to postpone the Closed Session until a later date. The board agreed. Mr. Engelking and Mrs. Schmitt withdrew their motion and second. The date of June 22, 1994 was chosen to meet again. Schulte/Weare motion to adjourn. Motion passed on a voice vote and the meeting adjourned at 10:40 p.m.

A Message from Bonnie...

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers and how are you all doing today?

As promised a few weeks ago, I have information on the "impending stamp increase" and would like to share some facts with you, okay? (Thank you.)

A request for the SMALL-EST percentage increase in postage rates in more than 25 years has been approved by the Postal Service Board of Governors. It will "take place" sometime in 1995. Some key information that I would like to share with you all:

1. Rates will remain stable throughout 1994, the first time they will have remained unchanged for four years since the Postal Service began operation in 1971. This fourth year of rate stability saved customers more than $8 billion.

2. The Postal Service is self-sustaining, operating on ratepayer... not taxpayer funds, and is required by law to break even over time.

3. The proposed increase will have a modest impact on American consumers. We estimate that the average household sends between 20 and 25 letters a month, making the additional monthly cost 60 to 75 cents.

4. We have made our rate proposal as small as possible. It is two FULL points below the rate of inflation in the economy for the four years between rate increases. This increase is just enough for the Postal Service and the right amount for America.

5. Since rates were last increased in 1994, we have restructured our organization, taking out $1.2 billion a year in overhead costs, and we have focused on service quality, like any business seeking to improve its competitiveness.

Some other points that you may want to keep in mind:

-- Increases in postage continue to stay at OR BELOW other common necessities. Since the last increase in 1991, natural gas for heating has jumped almost 40%, electricity is up almost 16% and the average cost of a new car is up 11.1%.

-- According to the Consumer Price Index, since 1991 it now costs: nearly 15% more to see your doctor or dentist, nearly 14% more to read some newspapers and almost 13% more to flip thru your local cable channels.

-- Compared to the increased costs of most goods, products and services here and abroad, postal services in America remain a great bargain. Japan, which is commonly touted as the model of efficiency, charges nearly 74 cents to mail a letter, while Germany charges nearly 57 cents for delivery.

-- Complete and legible addresses help hold down postal rates by reducing processing and delivery costs.

-- Sorting mail "by hand" costs 10 times as much as by automation: $42 thousand, as contrasted with not quite $4 thousand by automated sorting.

-- The Postal Service receives NO tax dollars for operating purposes and operates solely on revenues generated by the sale of postage and postal products and services.

-- In 1893, the U.S. Postal Department processed and delivered 9 billion pieces of mail. In 1993, the U.S. Postal Service processed and delivered more than 171 billion pieces of mail... an increase of 1800%.

-- Nearly 90% of all U.S. mail is related to business and commerce.

-- 50 million families move each year and their first class mail "follows them" for 12 months with NO EXTRA charge for forwarding.

Well, those were some points that I found very interesting and hope that many of you did too. In future columns, please look for "Tips on Complete Addressing" and "How You Can Assist Us in Moving Your Mail More Efficiently."

On a personal note... watch for a future column... "Message from Bonnie" to update you on my family and that the three moves have been completed. All I will say at this point in time is, Mom and Dad are living with me temporarily... I LOVE IT!

And... when I see a moving van advertisement on TV, I want to throw up.

Like the column back when I reported on moving Chrystal to Floor 26 of UW-Milwaukee, and how so many of you came in and said... "we can identify with that."

I am sure many of you will totally identify with moving. But then... THREE FAMILIES... it was a real trip, be assured of that and I will report fully on that. Until next time, TRY to have a good day... a HAPPY every day!

Your Postmaster,
Bonnie

Grothman Declares Bid for Re-Election

MADISON... Less than one year after defeating five challengers in a special election to fill the Assembly seat vacated by Senator Mary Panzer, State Representative Glenn Grothman (R-West Bend) has announced his re-election bid to represent the citizens of the 59th district.

Because Representative Grothman won the district Assembly seat in a special election, his current tenure ends in January of 1995, at the completion of the current two-year legislative cycle. Grothman has been seen walking through district neighborhoods in past weeks, gathering signatures for his nomination forms, which he has submitted to the State Elections Board. The filing deadline was July 12.

"I have learned a great deal about how Madison works in the past seven months," Grothman stated, "and my next term will be the time to use that knowledge to make progress on the road to lower taxes and less government intrusion into our lives." Grothman cited, as major issues for his next term, "real, money-saving welfare reform, and the reduction of state spending through some serious cutting of expensive and unnecessary bureaucracies and programs."

Grothman enters the race for the 59th District seat unopposed.

Badger State Games Shatters Record

By Noel Stollenwerk

MADISON - The Badger State Games, Wisconsin's Olympic-Style amateur sports festival, has registered another record-shattering year.

Badger State Games officials say the recently-completed 10th annual Summer Games attracted 23,828 participants to regional and finals competition in June. The official total shatters last year's previous record of 19,802 athletes and represents an increase of 20 percent.

Combined with the 4,671 athletes who competed in the BSG Winter Games this year, Wisconsin's State Games attracted a grand total of 28,499 participants in 1994 - another record. Since the BSG 1985 inception, 158,549 athletes have participated in the festival's summer and winter competitions.

"We're delighted to see the increasing involvement of Wisconsin's amateur athletes of all ages and abilities taking advantage of the opportunities provided by the Badger State Games," said Otto Breitenbach, executive director of the BSG. "Our objective as we look to our 1995 events is to continue to provide those first-class opportunities to as many citizens as possible."

New Holstein Heads For State Tourney

By Noel Stollenwerk

TWO RIVERS - Regular-season results are thrown out once the post-season begins in WIAA baseball tournament action, and New Holstein proved that here, last Friday.

After getting swept by Campbellsport in a rain-delayed doubleheader in the final week of their Eastern Wisconsin Conference schedule, the Huskies had payback in mind when the two squads face off in a WIAA Sectional final.

New Holstein, which finished second to the Cougars in the EW, got its revenge with a 3-0 victory, sending the Huskies to the WIAA State Tournament in Stevens Point this week.

Campbellsport, which won the EW with its fine 15-1 mark, was sent home with a 21-7 overall record. The Cougars were also denied their first-ever trip to the State Tourney with the loss.

The game was a pitcher's dual, matching two of the EW's best pitchers. Campbellsport's Ryan Hall and New Holstein's Cory Webber battled each other, with Webber getting the best of the matchup, throwing a three-hitter and not allowing a runner past second base.

The Huskies got all the runs they needed in the first inning, when Hall experienced some wildness. After hitting a batter, Hall threw away a pickoff attempt, and then uncorked a pair of wild pitches to score the runner.

With the victory, the Huskies improved to 19-7 on the year. In its first game at the state meet on Wednesday, New Holstein will face Whitehall, which sports a 23-2 record.

Indians Eliminated As Offense Struggles

By Noel Stollenwerk

CEDARBURG - A team usually has to be solid on both sides of the ball in order to make any noise come WIAA tournament time.

In last Thursday's baseball Regional final between Kewaskum and Cedarburg here, the Indians were a bit soft defensively at times, and downright flabby offensively.

The result was a 5-1 Bulldog victory, ending Kewaskum's 1994 campaign. The Indians finished the year with a 12-14 record.

Cedarburg, meanwhile, improved to 14-15 with the win, and advanced to Sectional competition in Port Washington. There, the Bulldogs continued their tough defensive play, beating Hartland Arrowhead, 2-1, and West Bend West, 3-1, thereby advancing to this week's WIAA State Tournament in Stevens Point.

It was a combination of tough defense and timely hitting that helped the Bulldogs erase the Indians from tournament action.

A stiff wind blowing straight in allowed Cedarburg to play its outfielders shallow, and that move paid off with several nice catches of balls that normally would have dropped in front of the Bulldogs' second line of defense.

Two Indian miscues in the third inning, meanwhile, gave Cedarburg all the runs it would need in the contest. More disheartening to KHS coach Mark Heise is that the runs scored without Cedarburg hitting a ball out of the infield.

After the Bulldogs' no. 9 hitter, Mark Williamson, bunted for a hit with one out, a misplayed bunt attempt allowed Williamson to move to third.

A wild pitch by KHS starter Jason Gaffke plated Williamson and moved the other runner into scoring position. Another infield error allowed the second run to score, and it was quickly 2-0 in favor of the hosts.

Williamson added an RBI single in the fifth, making it 3-0, Cedarburg. The Bulldogs added to their cushion in the sixth, as Geoff Ketter drove in a run with a single, after Gaffke walked the leadoff man for the second straight inning. Both runners eventually scored.

The lead became 5-0 in the sixth when Bulldog pitcher Tony Bidney reached on a fielder's choice, stole second, and later came around to score on a base hit.

The Indians staged a mini-rally in the top of the seventh, thus avoiding a shutout. Dane Dorn walked, stole second, and later scored on a single by Tom Menger.

That was all the KHS offense could muster, however, as the Indians finished with just three hits off Bidney, who recorded just his fourth win of the season against four defeats.

Gaffke, meanwhile, allowed seven hits and two walks, while striking out three.

Hill Climb at Sunburst Another Big Success

By Noel Stollenwerk

KEWASKUM - After rains washed out the first scheduled date of the Kettle Moraine Sport Riders' annual motorcycle hill climb last year, the makeup date brought much better weather and huge crowds.

Such was the same this year, after the first scheduled date was cancelled due to early-morning rains last month. This past Sunday's perfect weather was just what officials needed, as record crowds gathered to watch professionals and amateurs make the trek up Sunburst Ski Hill's vertical drop.

More than 1,500 spectators watched as Coon Rapids, Minnesota native Todd Cipala raced up the steep slope in just 8.28 seconds, easily winning the 600 cc Pro Class event.

Mike Wood, of Bay City, Wisconsin, also broke the nine second barrier, but his 8.68 clocking wasn't nearly enough to catch Cipala, who also took third in the Open Pro Class with a time of 9.74.

Chuck Nienfeldt of Nekoo-sa won that class with a time of 9.15.

Other winners of their respective classes included Ron Iverson, Fairchild in the 250 cc Stock Class (11.3); Rick Parmeter of Wisconsin Rapids in the 250 cc Pro Class (10.5); Gary Oakford of West Bend in the Antique Class (183.7 feet); Thomas Moore of Hartford in the 600 Stock Class (12.77); and Mike Dricken of West Bend in the Open Stock Class (12.77).

Area riders who placed high included Campbellsport's Louis Lauters, third in the 250 Stock Class (13.70); Kewaskum's Butch Vrana, third in the Antique Class (153 feet); Kewaskum's Mike Petri, fourth in the Antique Class (111 feet); and Kewaskum's Lee Stoffel, third in the open stock class (191 feet).
