Regal Ware Donates KHS Scoreboard

The new electronic scoreboard for Kewaskum High School was erected Tues., Oct. 11 as part of the football - track renovation which included putting in a new track and regrading the field. The scoreboard, generously donated by Regal Ware, is valued at $5,600. The top panel was designed by Regal Ware. "We've never had one before...this is brand new," commented Dr. Heather, Superintendent of Kewaskum School District. Maintenance crew Gene Muench and Jack Follstad did all the beam setting and concrete pole work, while GTE donated time and materials for the underground conduit installed by Dean Scheel. Board Okays Conditional Use Permit for Bed and Breakfast

The Kewaskum Village Board opened their October 17th meeting with a public hearing regarding the request of Jules and Gwendolyn Dreher for a Conditional Use Permit.

The permit would allow the Drehers, who recently purchased the property, to establish a Bed and Breakfast at 1121 Fond du Lac Avenue in Kewaskum.

The new business would house three bedrooms within the property which is currently zoned R-2 Single Family Residence District. The Drehers were requesting a rezoning to R-3 Two Family Residence District.

In a related matter, an additional Public Hearing was held at the Drehers' request, regarding the rezoning to accommodate a one bedroom apartment located on the same property, in the former Dr. R. G. Edwards office quarters.

Upon closing the Public Hearings, with there being no objections from the audience, the Board voted unanimously in favor of the rezoning requests.

Following the reports made by department heads and various committee reports, discussion was opened up on the MOLLI computer automation system proposed for the Kewaskum Public Library.

A special meeting of the Library Board, together with the Village Board, was held at 7:30 p.m., just prior to the regular Village Board meeting, for an informal demonstration of the MOLLI system.

Library Board representative Chuck Waala introduced the discussion by voicing a concern brought to his attention, that being the possibility of one person monopolizing time on the terminal trying to locate a specific item or perhaps just "playing."

It was explained that not everyone coming into the library would be using the terminal. Most people go directly to the shelves and "browse." However, it was the general consensus that the terminal would probably have to be somewhat monitored with perhaps the possibility of posting a small sign stating a time limit on the terminal.

More verbal explanation on the system was given and the board then agreed to check into the costs of the hardware which would be needed for the system.

Lengthy discussion on portions of the upcoming budget was held with a statement being made that many of the increases in the budget could be directly attributed to the work being done next year on the Highway 45 project.

The Board and Village Administrator Daniel Schmidt will continue to cut and rework figures in the next few weeks before the final phases of the budget come to pass.

KHS to Present 'Bye, Bye Birdie' Nov. 4-5

In the fall of 1968, the first musical ever to be presented at Kewaskum High School was "Camelot," now, 26 years later, the last musical on the stage of KHS will be presented.

A big part of the lives of many students, both past and present, will now be history. The future of the musicals at Kewaskum is not in doubt, there will still be productions given, but in a much different way without the stage.

The final weeks of rehearsal are in full swing, and "Bye, Bye Birdie" once again visits the stage. Performances will be on Friday, November 4 and Saturday, November 5, 1994, beginning at 7:30 p.m. A special presentation for Senior Citizens will be given on Thursday, November 3, with the curtain going up at 4 p.m. This is a complimentary performance for all area senior citizens and the cast and crew of "Bye, Bye Birdie" hope to see many of you there.

You are invited to become a part of this historical event. Tickets went on sale Tuesday evening, October 18th. All seats are reserved and cost from $3.00 to $5.00. After Tuesday night, tickets may be purchased at the high school in the band room, or you may call for reservations at 626-2166.

Flu-Pneumonia Clinic Here Oct. 21

WHO SHOULD GET A FLU SHOT?

From November through April, symptoms that include fever, chills, headache, aching muscles and joints, and sore throat may signal the onset of influenza or "flu." In Wisconsin, flu season usually peaks in January.

As in past years, flu shots are recommended for those who are at high risk, including:

- adults with chronic heart or lung disorders.
- residents of nursing homes or group homes for the elderly.
- people over age 65.
- anyone with chronic illnesses such as diabetes or kidney problems.

According to Delores P. Harder, Director of the Community Health Nursing Service, influenza can be fatal. Complications can include: pneumonia (the most dangerous complication for the elderly), bronchitis, and sinus and lung infections. Dehydration is another flu danger.

To protect against flu, people at high risk should get a flu shot every year. Last year's shot won't provide protection this year because flu viruses can change every year.

This year's vaccine contains the strains A/Texas (H1N1), A/Shangdong (H3N2), and B/Panama. Each year the vaccine contains strains (usually two influenza A's and one influenza B) representing the viruses expected to circulate during the upcoming winter months.

For protection that lasts throughout the flu season, health care providers recommend that flu shots be given in November. It takes the body about two weeks to build up protection following the shot. Protection begins to lessen after a few months.

"The flu shot will not cause flu because it's made from inactivated viruses. It provides protection to about 75 percent of persons who receive it," Delores Harder said.

Most people suffer no lasting side effects from the flu shot. However, a sore arm, fever, or aches may follow and last a day or two.

Influenza is a highly contagious disease.

Sausage Plus opened the doors of its' new West Bend location at 1421 W. Washington Street, with a ribbon cutting ceremony hosted by the West Bend Area Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors on Thursday, October 13.

Previously located in the West Bend Outlet Mall, the move offers Sausage Plus customers "a little more convenience, more parking, and room to expand," explains Sausage Plus and Kewaskum Frozen Foods owner Bob Beisbier.

The new store has expanded its line to carry fresh cut meats like the Kewaskum store, with an on-site cutting room. The two share meat cutter, Mark Demmon.

The West Bend location offers the same variety of items they've always carried, including a wide selection of cheeses and Kewaskum Frozen Foods sausages.

"We'll be building up our stock as much as we can, adding more items," Beisbier adds.

Two full-time employees, Bev Hansen and Barb Albrent, are preparing for the Grand Opening of Sausage Plus on October 28th, 29th and 30th. There will be specials on all sausage, cheese and meat cuts, as well as a drawing on October 30th. First prize winner will receive one-quarter beef and one-half pig, cut to the winner's specifications. Second prize is one-quarter beef, and third prize is one-half pig. Seven $10 gift certificates for meat merchandise will also be awarded.

Sausage Plus is open Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Friday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

A fair exterior is a silent recommendation.

Hunter's Choice, Bonus Deer Permits in the Mail

Over 347,000 Hunters Choice applications were sent to Madison this past September. Successful applicants should have all been notified by the 19th of October.

The bonus permit/hunters choice notifications were mailed out first and should have all been in the mail by October 14. Those of you who will be receiving a hunter's choice permit, should have been notified by October 19. Those of you who choose to purchase a bonus tag, or tags, must respond by forwarding your check and notification no later than October 28. They must be postmarked by October 28.

There may be leftover bonus permits available through the telephone sales process, but at this time, it cannot be determined which units will have left over permits until after we receive responses from our notifications through the mail. Final numbers should be available by November 2.

The number of permits in unit 69A increased from 2175 permits in 1993 to 3500 permits this year. This will increase your chances to get a permit but, remember last year 6,540 people applied for a hunter's choice permit in unit 69A. This year 4,365 people will have preference for the 3500 available permits.

If you have any questions feel free to contact me.

IN MEMORY

In memory of MICHAEL STERN who passed away eleven years ago, Oct. 18, 1983:

Behind our smiles there are many tears
For the one we lost and loved so dear
Others are taken, yes, we know
But he was ours and we loved him so
The tears we shed we can wipe away
But the ache in our hearts will always stay.

We love you and miss you, Mike.
Mom & Tom

IN MEMORY

In memory of MERLIN SEEFELDT, who passed away one year ago, Oct. 28, 1993.

They say memories are golden.
Well, maybe that is true,
But we never wanted memories
We only wanted you.

If we had one lifetime wish
One dream that could come true.
We'd pray to God so hard
For yesterday and you.

If teardrops were a stairway
And heartaches make a lane,
We'd walk a path to heaven
And bring you back again.

A thousand times we needed you
A thousand times we cried.
If our love could have saved you,
You never would have died.

Missed by his wife Gladys, children - Lenus, Tamala, and Brad and grandchildren.

IN MEMORY

In memory of John Wornardt "Little Johnny" who passed away Oct. 13, 1978.

This month brings with sad regret.
The day, the hour we will never forget.
To see your face and watch you smile
To sit with you and talk awhile,
To be together the same old way.
Would be our greatest wish today.

Only a cluster of memories
Sprayed with a million tears
Wishing God had spared you
Just a few more years.

Deeply missed by wife Helen, children Ruth and DuWayne, grandchildren, Nathan, Shelly and Kevin.

From the Pages of Menagerie

Throughout the year, we will be running excerpts from Kewaskum High school's literary all-conference publication "Menagerie," featuring the writings of our students.

The cool wind tickles my cheeks.
The dead leaves fall in my hair and tangle.
Footsteps thud upon the ground
Voices echo all around.
Barren fields.
Smoke stacked chimneys.
Dead cornstalks
Dried weeds
Harvest them.
Alone.
Desolate.
Glowing grimaces mock me.
People look up, yet do not say greetings.
Something tells me-
Now is not the right time
Nor the wrong.

Kewaskum School District News

On Sept. 27, Johnny Appleseed (Mr. Steinhilber) came to visit the Farmington third graders who were dressed in apple colors or as apples. He told about his early life and how much he enjoyed apples. He decided, because he enjoyed apples so much, to travel across the country with a pocket full of apple seeds spreading the joy of apples. After telling the students about apples, Johnny gave each student an apple and was on his way again. The rest of the day was spent doing various apple activities. We were happy that our new principal was willing to take the time out of his busy day to join our class as Johnny Appleseed!

Kewaskum Middle School

has a new principal. Katherine Crowley, previously with the Hamilton School District, was appointed to the position beginning in July.

Ms. Crowley received a master of science degree in exceptional education in 1987 from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

She obtained her elementary administrator license in 1989 and pupil service license in 1994 from the same university and is certified as an elementary learning disabilities teacher.

Ms. Crowley was employed by the Hamilton School District for four years as the associate principal at Templeton Middle School. During that time she also coordinated all the co-curricular programs at the school and was the district Wellness Coordinator.

Prior to that, she was employed with the Waukesha schools as a learning disabilities teacher and student council advisor. During her tenure with the Waukesha schools, she worked for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, supervising and evaluating student teachers and as an ad-hoc instructor.

Ms. Crowley has also been employed by Waukesha County as a family school liaison worker, working with seriously disturbed children and by Milwaukee Public Schools as a middle school learning disabilities teacher.

The principal position became available at the end of the 1993-94 school year following the retirement of David Jones.

Teacher Exchange

The Germans are coming to Wisconsin! Is it another mass emigration? Another high school exchange program? No! This time it is a teacher exchange between the state of Wisconsin and Wisconsin's sister state of Hesse, Germany.

Twelve Germans, teachers of English, German, Biology, History and Social Studies, will arrive in Madison on October 20, 1994, for a two-week stay. The focus of their visit will be on midwestern lifestyles and some planned activities include a fishing expedition on Lake Mendota and a trip to Spring Green to view Frank Lloyd Wright's architecture. Unfortunately, tickets to the Badger football homecoming game were

Help Your Child Organize

If your child has been having difficulty organizing himself and his work this school year, it might result in lower grades at report card time. The following is a list of suggestions for helping the disorganized child, as compiled by John Stephani, a fourth grade teacher at Kewaskum Elementary School.

Here are some suggestions for helping a disorganized child:

1. Have a place at home for him to keep his homework. It should be a place where younger brothers or sisters can't reach, yet is easily accessible to the child. Work should be placed in that area AT ALL TIMES when not being worked on.

2. All assignments and work should be written down and crossed off the list as it is completed. This will allow the child to actually see what has been done and how much more there is to go. (A small notebook is a help for this.)

3. The child should have a folder for each subject. All work for each subject should be kept in it's correct folder.

4. Directions should be given and completed one at a time by the child. Too many directions at one time confuses the child. Have directions repeated by the child.

5. Set aside a definite time each night to work on schoolwork. Try to stick to this time as much as possible. A good time is as soon as the child gets home or right after supper.

6. Check your child's work after it is completed. Many times a disorganized child will skip or leave out parts of an assignment.

7. Have the child clean and organize his work area as often as possible. Help him whenever you can.

8. Be as patient as you can possibly be. The disorganized child does not forget things on purpose. They become as frustrated as you at times.

After a week's stay in Madison, the teachers will meet up with their Wisconsin partners for a one week homestay. Teacher pairs from school districts in Antigo, Dodgeville, Hartford, Monroe and Wisconsin Rapids were chosen to participate in the exchange, including David Drexler and Karen Diemer from our own Kewaskum School District.

The focus of the Wisconsin group is different from the German group. Pairs of one German and one Tech Ed/Business Ed teacher were chosen by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction to spend a two week stay in Hesse, Germany this coming summer to study the German system's school to work apprenticeship program. They will then return to Wisconsin to report on and apply their knowledge to our own system.

The Wisconsin teachers' trip to Hesse, Germany in the summer of 1995 is being funded completely by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. The Kewaskum School District and community can feel honored that they were selected to be part of such a timely and pertinent exchange in our recent attempts to better bridge our students' classroom instruction with the world of work.

8th Graders
in Stitches Over Books

Students in the eighth grade literature classes are participating in a quilt-making project. Each time a student completes a book, h/she writes his or her initials, the name of the book and the author on a strip of fabric. These strips are, in turn, sewn into blocks which resemble books on a shelf.

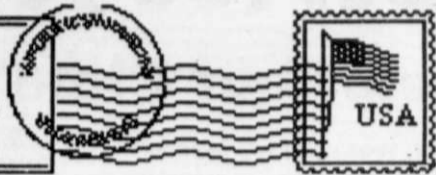

Current plans call for us to work on this project all year, and the final product will most likely be a series of quilted wall panels. The batt and backing will be added to the first panel this coming week, and each student will hand-quilt the strips which h/she has contributed to the panel.

If you are a quilter, or would like to learn about the quilt-making process, feel free to contact Mrs. Reilly-Kliss at the middle school. Please stop in later in the year to observe the process and check out the finished product.

Welch Endorsed by Metropolitan Milwaukee Ass'n. of Commerce

MILWAUKEE - A major Milwaukee business association has endorsed Republican Bob Welch for the U.S. Senate.

The Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce-Political Action Committee announced its support of Welch. The MAC-PAC is the latest business and industry group to back Welch, who is challenging Sen. Herb Kohl.

"We appreciate your understanding of the importance of a healthy business climate to the creation of private sector jobs and a vibrant Wisconsin economy," said Mary Jo K. Paque, director of governmental affairs for MAC-PAC.

Welch owns a small land surveying business in Redgranite, where he lives with his family. He has represented the area's State Assembly district since 1984, and is Assistant Republican Leader in the Assembly.

"I know the challenges of operating a small business, and that's why this endorsement is very important to me," Welch said. "Small businesses create most of the new jobs in our country, and the last thing they need is more taxation and government regulation. As a Senator, I'm going to work to make government less bothersome, and more helpful, to small business owners."

Many business groups have endorsed Welch, including the National Association of Home Builders, Wisconsin Builders Association, Wisconsin Merchants Federation, Wisconsin Restaurant Association, Wisconsin Retail Lumberman Association and the Midwest Hardware Association.

Ken Yontz, head of Sybron Corporation of Milwaukee, is statewide Finance Committee chairman for the Welch campaign.

"Higher taxes and wasteful government don't help business," Welch said. "Frankly, what often helps business most is to leave it alone. We'd be far better off with fewer government bureaucrats and more encouragement of private entrepreneurs."

Camp Whitecomb - Here We Come!

Kewaskum Middle School 6th graders once again had their annual overnight outdoor experience at Camp Whitecomb.

Camp Whitecomb is over 350 acres of beautiful pine forest, marsh, and prairie land all surrounding Lake Keesus. It is located in the Southern Kettle Moraine near Hartland.

One group of 6th graders went to camp on Sept. 22 and 23, and the other group went on Sept. 29 & 30. Both groups enjoyed the same activities while at camp. The two-day trip included archery, box baking, canoe safety, cooperative challenge games, candle-making, fishing, pond study, and treetime.

When the students weren't rotating through these activities, they were hiking, playing tug-o-war, singing songs at the campfire or playing the "Suzy" game. This sneaky game involved secretly passing around a little wooden chip from student to student. Whoever was caught holding it at mealtimes had to perform in front of the group and then possibly kiss the Camp Whitecomb moose. This year even our new KMS principal, Katherine Crowley, had to kiss the moose!

Each year, camp would not be possible without all of the dedicated KMS staff members and other volunteers who give up their time to help run things.

The teachers helping this year were sixth grade teachers Leslie Bruss, Cathy Countney, Kim Gutjahr, Margaret Pecher, Diane Stangl; seventh grade teachers Karen Larson and Kathy West; Art teacher Kris Schumacher - Rasmussen; and Guidance Counselor John Nell. Thanks also goes to our two fathers, John Kletti and Bill Stangl for cabin supervision and Dennis Reha for providing our guitar campfire entertainment.

If you see a 6th grader in the near future, ask them about their overnight experience. The most common response from them was "I wish camp was longer!" It will be a wonderful memory for all.

Deer Crash Season Begins

A multi-year surge in deer-related car crashes has officials in the Wisconsin Department of Transportation hunting for clues to help explain the increase.

According to a "Motor Vehicle Deer Crash Facts" monograph compiled by the state transportation agency, the percent of all reported Wisconsin traffic crashes involving deer hit a 16-year high last year, with a total of 22,819 reported deer crashes accounting for 16% of all reported crashes. In comparison, just 5% of all reported crashes were deer-related in 1978, with a reported deer crash total of 8,173.

"For the past few years, deer have been the second most-frequent object struck by vehicles (second only to other vehicles)," said WisDOT Secretary Charles Thompson. "It's a huge economic loss in terms of the costs of property damage and hospitalization, as well as the greater toll we all suffer when a friend or family member is injured or killed," he said.

Last year, three people were killed, 68 were seriously injured, and 486 others received less serious injuries in deer crashes. The estimated economic loss resulting from deer crashes in 1993 alone exceeded $100 million.

WisDOT analysts have found several common factors in deer crashes:

(1) Deer crashes peak in October-November: Nearly 40% (9,103) of deer crashes reported by investigating officers last year occurred in October or November. Deer are more active during these months, which mark the start of mating season and hunting season.

(2) Most crashes happen in darkness: Of the deer crashes in 1993 where light condition was known, 71.5% occurred in dark, unlit conditions.

(3) The vast majority of deer crashes occur in rural settings: In 1993, 94.7% of the reported crashes occurred on rural roads. All three fatal crashes were in rural areas.

(4) Motorcyclists face great risk of injury in deer crashes: Motorcycle-deer crashes resulted in a cyclist fatality or injury in 72.7% of cases. In comparison, 1.9% of passenger car/deer crashes resulted in an occupant fatality or injury.

The WisDOT monograph noted that some counties have particularly high deer crash incidence levels:

* Leading the state in the number of reported deer crashes were Dane (1,145 deer crashes), Marathon (967) and Columbia (845) counties.

* In three counties -- Marquette, Adams, and Green Lake -- deer crashes outnumbered non-deer crashes in 1993.

Secretary Thompson conceded that some deer crashes are not avoidable, but he added that motorist vigilance can prevent some crashes and can reduce the risk of injury when they happen.

"With an average of 150 deer crashes per day during October and November last year, motorists have to be prepared at all times for the possibility that a deer may cross their path," he said. "And the absolute first step in that preparation is to buckle your seatbelt in a car or truck, or to wear protective gear when you ride your motorcycle."

The Secretary added that motorists should continuously scan roadsides and roadways for deer, and proceed with special caution at dawn and dusk. "Deer crashes peak in these low-light hours, when deer are not only hard to see but also very active," he said.

At all times, motorists should keep a safe distance from other vehicles and be prepared to react safely if a deer enters the road. Many deer crashes result when an unprepared motorist swerves into oncoming traffic to avoid a deer or rams a vehicle that suddenly stops for a deer in the road.

FILLMORE - There were some great games on August 11th and 12th of 1994. There were only four teams this year instead of five at the Farmington Tournament, and they were the Farmington Blues, Reds and Whites and the one other team was Batavia

Everyone had fun and won some medals. A few kids got hurt from getting hit by a pitch, a catcher or a runner. The concession stand was mostly full with people ordering food, or candy or something to drink.

There was only a few home runs, but everyone scored alot. The coaches were good and the fans were excellent. This shows that everyone is important in the game and there are no losers in this game.

KHS Spikers Win Season Finale

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - Kewaskum volleyball coach Dave Rizzardi is hoping that his Lady Indians squad is peaking at the right time.

It appears that they might be, after the Lady Indians came back to post a 16-18, 15-9, 15-12 victory over New Holstein in their final Eastern Wisconsin Conference match of the season.

The victory gave the Indians a 7-5 record in the EW, good enough for fourth place. The Indians will now ready themselves for their WIAA Regional opener against Waupun at home Tuesday.

KHS started out on fire against the Huskies, using the serving of Michelle Thull to go up 6-0 in the opening game. The return of Thull, who missed the Indians' previous game with an ankle injury, wasn't enough, however, as the Lady Indians went on to lose the first game.

It was a different story in game two, though, as Kewaskum used the front-line play of Kelly Schreffler and Mary Yahr to even things up at a game apiece.

In the deciding game, the Indians once again jumped out to a big lead. Ahead 12-2 the Lady Indians weren't able to finish off the Huskies right away, allowing New Holstein to creep back into the match.

But in the end, it was the Indians who came away with the third game, thanks much in part to Schreffler's big night at the net. The junior spiker had a total of 22 points, on the strength of 19 spike kills and three block kills, to pace the KHS attack.

The Lady Indians will need a big night from Schreffler, as well as everyone else, as they open Regional play against Waupun. The Warriors are ranked at the top of the state's Division 2 schools, after winning the WIAA state title in the division last year.

JV Spikers End On Sour Note

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - It was another successful campaign for the Kewaskum junior varsity volleyball team, which won it's second straight Eastern Wisconsin Conference title at that level.

The younger JV squad didn't finish the 1994 season on a high note, however, suffering just its second loss of the year with a 14-16, 12-15, 11-15 loss to New Holstein here, last Tuesday night.

The loss gave the JVs a 10-2 record for the year in the EW, after last year's JV squad went unbeaten in 12 matches.

Civil war medical personnel and the Angels of the Battlefield stage a mock amputation demonstration in front of a large crowd at the Kettle Kountry Kolors festival held recently in Kewaskum's River Hill Park.

The KHS freshmen also posted an impressive record this season, finishing with a 9-3 mark in the EW. That record included a 15-0, 7-15, 15-3 win over New Holstein in the final match of the year.

Wisconsin's Pheasant Populations on Rebound

MADISON

Wisconsin's pheasant population has grown steadily since a low point in 1985, with some areas of the state showing a threefold increase in pheasant numbers, according to Bill Vander Zouwen, wildlife section chief for the Department of Natural Resources.

The growing population is due primarily to improved habitat and mild winters. "Efforts by wildlife managers and conservation organizations like Pheasants Forever and Wings Over Wisconsin are paying off," Vander Zouwen said. "Funds raised through the Pheasant Stamp and conservation organization banquets, together with federal set-aside program funds, have provided landowners with the incentives they needed to restore habitat on their lands."

With the highest breeding population in the last decade and a warm, dry spring and summer, fall pheasant populations were expected to be very good for the pheasant hunting season that opened statewide on Saturday, October 15, and runs through December 7.

"Hunters will be able to find reasonable hunting opportunities this season. They should look for areas that have large acreage of unmowed grasslands such as those enrolled in the Conservation Reserve Program," Vander Zouwen said.

Areas that have a combination of corn fields, grasslands and cattail or shrub-dominated wetlands offer the best pheasant habitat. Hunters would do well to visit landowners to talk about local pheasant production and ask for permission to hunt.

Six areas in Dodge and Columbia counties surveyed since 1984 and have shown more than a threefold increase in pheasant numbers since the low point in 1985. "These increases have occurred without any stocking," Vander Zouwen notes.

The number of pheasants heard during Spring surveys increased in most of the state this year. The average population change from 1993 to 1994 on 27 non-stocked areas across the pheasant range was a 32 percent increase.

Since 1988, wildlife biologists have stocked 17 areas with wild strains of pheasants from Iowa or the Jilin Province of China. The wild strains appear to survive and reproduce more successfully than strains of pheasants from game farms, which experience extremely low survival and reproduction rates, he said.

For those not having the time or contacts to hunt the wild populations on private lands, there will be many hunting opportunities on the 78 public hunting grounds that will be stocked with about 50,000 pheasants this fall. Most of these properties are in southeast Wisconsin, but some are also found in west central counties.

Some properties have special restrictions including 2 p.m. closures during the first two weeks or tagging requirements. See the special regulations pamphlet on public hunting grounds pheasant hunting for details.

The daily bag limit is one cock per day with a possession limit of two cocks from October 15 through October 28. From October 29 through December 7, the daily bag limit is two cocks, with a possession limit of four.

Pheasant hunters must purchase a Pheasant Stamp if they hunt pheasants within the Pheasant Management Counties, whether the pheasants pursued are stocked or wild. Check your regulations pamphlet for details.

All revenue from the stamp is ear-marked for wild pheasant restoration projects including wild pheasant releases and habitat developments. Last year, Pheasant Stamp funds were used to pay for the release of 14,972 Iowa and Jilin pheasants at seven areas with an additional six areas added this spring. Pheasant Stamp funds were also used to develop 11,360 acres of habitat.

The meeting was opened with a Moment of Silence and Pledge of Allegiance.

Dianne Horlamus, Executive Director of the Washington County Humane Society, Inc. arrived late, but did appear to discuss with the Village Board extending the Humane Society's services beyond just dog pickup and control. The cost for the extended service is based on 75c per person within the Village which would equal $2,115.75. Several questions were asked and points reviewed. It was noted that this matter would better serve everyone if handled by the County. This contract is only for one year, after which time it would have to be renewed. The Board indicated they would consider the matter with the budget for 1995.

2) Wisconsin Taxpayer Alliance Bulletin.
3) Revaluation update.

4) Informed the Board that the October Centennial Committee meeting was rescheduled for Tuesday, October 4, 1994, at 7:00 p.m.

Chairman of the Administrative Committee, Robert Beisbier informed the Board that at an earlier Committee meeting they authorized checking into hiring a consultant to review the needs for remodeling the CVC for a variety of purposes to get some cost estimates. The Administrator and Director of Public Works are to put together some cost estimates regarding upgrading the rental property at 1102 Fond du Lac Avenue.

Indians Stuff Raiders Despite Mistakes

By Statesman Sports Writer

KIEL - It was a far from perfect performance for the Kewaskum football team here, last Friday night, against Eastern Wisconsin Conference rival Kiel.

But the effort was good enough for the Indians' sake, as KHS scored a pair of first-half touchdowns that held up for a 12-0 Indian victory.

The win improved KHS' record to 5-3 overall, and to 4-2 in the EW. The victory also kept alive the Indians' slim hopes for a WIAA playoff berth.

The final margin could have, and probably should have been much more lopsided in the Indians' favor. But KHS accumulated a total of 12 penalties on the night, three of which cost them touchdowns.

Included in the 12-penalty performance were at least six or seven holding calls, which KHS coach Clark Pearson had trouble handling.

"We haven't had a holding penalty all year," Pearson said. "Maybe we've had one or two, but it hasn't been a problem for us. I was just very confused as to some of the calls they were making."

Luckily for Pearson, the miscues didn't cost the Indians the ballgame. That was due in part to a stifling defense that limited the Raiders to just 15 yards of rushing offense.

"Our defense played very solid," Pearson said. "They (Kiel) never really threatened at all. I think we were just much stronger than them up front."

The Indians showed they were ready to play defense from the opening play. Ryan Herman intercepted a pass on the game's first play from scrimmage, giving KHS good field position. The interception came after Kiel recovered their own kickoff.

"I don't think he was trying to do an onside kick," Pearson said of the bizarre opening kick. "I think he just miss-hit it. But it turned out to be a perfect onside kick."

Kewaskum's offense wasn't able to move the ball after the interception, however, and was forced to punt. Junior Brian Butschlick, as he did all night, put the Raiders in a hole, starting from inside its own 10-yard line.

Three plays later, the Indians' Joe Rettler recovered a fumble on the Kiel eight-yard line. Cory Rammer made that mistake pay off, scurrying in from eight yards out, and giving KHS a 6-0 lead.

The Indians made it 12-0 just before halftime. Quarterback Dan Survis hooked up with Paul Reis on a 23-yard scoring strike, making it 12-0.

It appeared the Indians had scored just minutes earlier, but Survis' touchdown pass to Aaron Kurth on a screen pass was wiped out due to a holding penalty.

It was the first of three touchdowns that would be called back. In the fourth quarter, Peter Reis scampered into the end zone from 45 yards out, but another holding penalty brought that play back.

Then to add insult to injury, on the very next play Rammer broke free for a 55-yard scoring run. Again, a penalty brought the play back.

"It was a very frustrating night for us offensively," Pearson said, noting his team gained just 144 yards. "We had three or four other big plays called back as well."

Fullback Rich Farchione led KHS with 45 yards rushing on nine carries. Rammer added 40 yards in 12 attempts, including his touchdown run.

Pearson cited Rettler, along with Andy Mathias and Matt Wiedmeyer for their fine play. "They all had very good games," he said.

Butschlick, meanwhile, "did a super job punting the ball," Pearson said. The junior averaged 46 yards on his seven punts. "That's a pretty good night. He kept them deep in a hole all night long. I don't think they ever got past our 30 yard line."

The Indians will now set their sights on Sheboygan Falls in the season-finale this Thursday night. KHS would like a bit of payback, after the Falcons edged the Indians 7-6 in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference title game last year.

"They are a good football team," Pearson said of the 7-1 Falcons. "We'd sure like to beat them. They have a quick running back, and are pretty strong up front."

Indians Could Still Make Football Playoffs

By Statesman Sports Writer

KEWASKUM - It's a bit of a longshot, but the Kewaskum football team still has a chance to make the WIAA playoffs if it beats Sheboygan Falls here, this Thursday night.

A win by the Indians would leave a three-way tie for second place in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference. The top two teams in a conference usually qualify for the playoffs, which begin next week.

If a three-way tie existed, a coin-flip would determine which second place finisher would represent the EW as its second team. Plymouth has already captured first place in the conference by virtue of its victory over Sheboygan Falls in week two.

If Sheboygan Falls beats the Indians Thursday night, it would automatically earn the second playoff berth because the Falcons have just one loss in the conference. Two Rivers (which finished with a 4-2 record) and Kewaskum have two conference losses.

The Indians would be looking to win a three-way coin flip for the second straight year. Last year, the Indians won a flip with Plymouth and Two Rivers for the second-place spot, but did not participate in the playoffs because of a quirk in the WIAA playoff tiebreaking procedures.

Thus, KHS coach Clark

Pearson isn't exactly holding his breath that his team will qualify for the post-season.

"We have to beat Sheboygan Falls first," he said, adding that even a win wouldn't automatically qualify the Indians.

EASTERN WISCONSIN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL STANDINGS

Sheboygan Falls	4-1
Two Rivers	4-2
Kewaskum	3-2

Rohrer's Seeding Flap Turns Some Heads

By Statesman Sports Writer

MADISON - Kewaskum girls tennis coach Glenn Eichstedt noticed something very significant when he looked at the WIAA Division 2 state tennis pairings for the first time Monday.

What he noticed was that his player, the Indians' Missy Rohrer, was not given a seed by the WIAA after Eichstedt had given written request for one.

Arguably one of the top players in Division 2, Rohrer failed to receive a seed after the WIAA did not receive a fax of Eichstedt's request by the time the tournament seeding meeting had begun.

The four players winning the WIAA Sectional tournament automatically receive the top four seeds, while the remaining four seeds go to those most deserving of the qualification.

So when Rohrer, who had beaten the state's No. 2 seed Susannah Wood of Kohler, was left out of the running for one of the other four seeds, Eichstedt knew something was wrong.

"Where she was placed in the bracketing, she would have played Wood in the second round," Eichstedt said, noting that would have been unusual because the two had faced each the previous week at Sectionals.

So after Eichstedt called the WIAA and found out what had happened, he petitioned for Rohrer to get a seed. Because it would be difficult for the coaches to get together for another seeding meeting before the opening of the tournament, the WIAA offered to add a ninth seed, and allow Rohrer to have the No. 5 seed (seeds number five through nine are listed alphabetically according to the school name, thus Rohrer received the fifth seed).

"I felt that was fair," Eichstedt said of the WIAA's decision. "It was a diplomatic solution."

While the solution may have been fair, it may also have put undo pressure on Rohrer. The WIAA rarely if ever, changes a policy, but after admitting the mistake was not the fault of Rohrer, the governing body decided to do so in this case.

"Everybody was flocking to see who this girl was that the WIAA made an exception for," Eichstedt noted. "It created a little more pressure for her. She felt that she had to prove herself."

The pressure may have overcome Rohrer, who lost her second match to Rheba Mable of Lakeland.

Wood, meanwhile, went on to finish second in the Division 2 singles tournament, losing to Kate Hoffmann of Whitefish Bay in the finals, 2-6, 1-6.

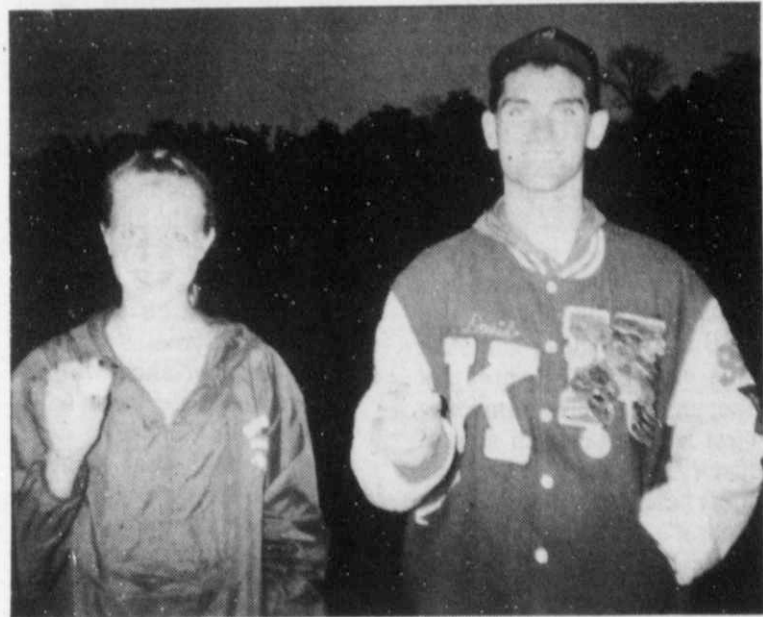

An Eastern Wisconsin Conference representative took fifth place in Division 2 doubles, as Sheboygan Falls' Katy Kuhfass and Sharon Beach won the fifth-place consolation match 6-0, 6-1.

Rohrer Wins First Match; Ousted In Second Round at State Tourney

By Statesman Sports Writer

MADISON - Naturally, Kewaskum girls tennis coach Glenn Eichstedt wished that senior ace Missy Rohrer could have participated in the state meet before this season. The experience of playing at the state level would have helped her in subsequent trips to the state's "big show."

But nonetheless, Eichstedt was happy that Rohrer got the chance to become the first KHS player in school history to make it to the state meet here, last weekend. And Rohrer's opening round win made the trip all the more memorable.

Rohrer beat Oregon's Tammy Byrne 6-2, 2-6, 6-2 in the opening round, thus becoming the first KHS player to win a match at state as well.

"She played a very strong first set," Eichstedt said of Rohrer's first-ever match at state. "She did a good job making her (Byrne) move side to side."

The second set was a learning experience for Rohrer, however. Byrne resorted to using high lob shots -- "moon balls" as Eichstedt referred to them as -- to throw Rohrer off her rhythm. The strategy worked, as Byrne easily took the second set.

"I think it got to be frustrating for Missy," Eichstedt said, noting that Rohrer tried to force shots in order to try and hit winners. "She tried some different things, like drop shots," but nothing worked in the second-set loss.

In the third set, Eichstedt suggested to Rohrer that she use the same strategy that Byrne employed -- hitting moon balls and just keeping the ball in play. It was a tough sell on Rohrer, who likes to be aggressive and force the action instead of playing patiently.

"We just wanted her to keep the ball in play," Eichstedt said. "We felt sooner or later that Byrne would make the mistakes that Missy made in the first set. It was very different for her to take that approach."

But to Rohrer's credit, she made the switch pay off. The opening game in the third set lasted 25 minutes due to the long rallies, but Rohrer pulled the game out and it propelled her to the third-set win.

"She gradually took control in the third set," Eichstedt said, noting that it wasn't Rohrer's best match of the season. "But she did what she had to in order to win."

That victory sent Rohrer into a second-round tilt with Lakeland's Rheba Mable, who received a bye in the first round and had the chance to watch Rohrer's match with Byrne.

"Whenever she (Mable) got in trouble, the moon balls would come out," Eichstedt said, noting that Mable employed the same strategy.

Rohrer took a 5-4 lead in the opening set, and looked to have the set won when she had a pair of set points in game ten. But she couldn't cash in on either point, and eventually lost that game, and the next, to go down 5-6.

Things looked even bleaker as Mable went up 40-love in the next game, forcing Rohrer to fend off three set points. Rohrer did so, however, and had a chance to even the score at 6-all with a break point. But Mable regained her composure and won the game, and the first set, 7-5.

"She looked like she was getting in a groove," Eichstedt said of Rohrer's two set points in game ten. "She just couldn't get that crucial point. That was a real deflating moment."

Rohrer couldn't regain her momentum in the second set, losing four out of the first five games. Although she won game six to pull within 2-4, Rohrer was unable to handle Mable the rest of the way, losing the next two games and the match.

"I think she became impatient, and started to go for a few more winners," Eichstedt said of the second-set troubles of his player. "She wasn't having any major problems, just some little ones."

The loss eliminated Rohrer from the Division 2 competition. If she had won her second match, she would have automatically qualified to play at least two more matches.

"We had hoped to get her to the third round," Eichstedt noted. "It was a little disheartening. We thought that she had as much talent as anybody else that was there."

Despite not placing at the state meet, Rohrer's place in KHS history is secure.

The four-time Eastern Wisconsin Conference champion and three-time Sectional qualifier finished her career with a 69-14 overall record, including 38-2 in the EW. Rohrer won ten individual tournament titles during her four years, and finished this stellar season with a 21-4 overall mark.

"She's had a tremendous career," Eichstedt said. "She's always played hard and aggressive, and always conducted herself with dignity and class."
