Ground Broken for New Dairy Queen Here

Ground breaking was held Tuesday for the new Dairy Queen to be built in Kewaskum at the corner of Highway 45 and Highway H.

The new store will be operated by Nancy and Jerry Mehring who also operate stores in West Bend and Jackson.

The new store will serve the complete line of "Hot Eats and Cool Treats" and frozen cakes just like their other stores. It will feature an indoor play area for children, an indoor dining area with a motif yet to be determined, and a drive-thru window.

Construction will start immediately with completion planned for late April or early May. The exact opening date will depend on the weather and when asphalt can be installed in Spring.

Applications for the Management Team are now being taken at the office in West Bend. You may call 334-3369 and ask for Nancy to arrange for an interview. Hiring for all other crew will be done prior to opening in Spring. A road sign will be erected shortly and will carry messages about the progress.

The Mehrings and their entire staff are excited about the new store in Kewaskum and ask that when you are in West Bend or Jackson area, you stop in and say "hi!"

Christmas Concert To Benefit KEYS

The annual Christmas concert to benefit the KEYS Scholarship Fund will be held on Monday, December 5, at 7:30 p.m. at Kewaskum High School Rose Hall.

KEYS is a non-profit organization established to accept gifts to provide additional scholarships for Kewaskum High School graduates.

The Moraine Chorus and The Kewaskum Swing Choir have graciously donated their time and talent to perform this concert to help raise money for KEYS. The Moraine Chorus is made up of volunteers from the Washington County area that love to sing on a semi-professional basis.

The Kewaskum Swing

Choir is made up of Kewaskum High School students who demonstrate an above average ability to sing and dance and "make very spirited music." The KEYS Christmas concert is the only Christmas concert that the Swing Choir performs.

This concert is a major fund raiser for KEYS. Plan to attend the concert to hear the excellent Christmas music provided by the Moraine Chorus and the Kewaskum Swing Choir on Monday, December 5, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $2.00 (donations for more than that are accepted) and are available at Miller's Furniture, Kewaskum, Kewaskum High School and at the door on the day of the concert.

Christmas Parade Here Dec. 4th

HO! HO! HO! Merry Christmas! In a little more than two short weeks these familiar words to the child in all of us, will be echoing down the streets of Kewaskum.

Meanwhile, Santa's elves and the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce have been bustling about, securing funds and making the necessary arrangements to set up the annual Christmas Parade scheduled this year for Sunday, December 4, at 5 p.m.

Anyone wanting to participate in the parade this year or needing more information, can call Joan Herriges (Video Post) at 626-8131, Lana Kuehl (Kewaskum Statesman) at 626-2626 or Shawn Roberts (My Little Friends Day Care) at 626-4155 dur-

Kewaskum Churches Plan an Ecumenical Thanksgiving Worship

The churches of Kewaskum were invited to share and celebrate our national festival of Thanksgiving with a joint worship service.

This time of grateful celebration will be held on Wednesday, November 23, at 7 p.m. at Holy Trinity Church. Father John Brophy, the host pastor, and Rev. Joseph Brath of Living Waters congregation will share in the liturgy of the service.

Rev. James Bettin of Peace Church will give the message, "Thanksgiving - A Time for Grateful Response." Choirs from Holy Trinity and Peace Churches will lead the singing. Greeters from the three participating churches will welcome the community to worship.

All who worship are asked to bring a gift for the Food Pantry. The offering of the evening will be used to foster the work of the Saint Vincent De Paul Society which assists the needy of Washington County.

Following the worship service, there will be a time of community fellowship in the parish hall of the church. Ladies from Holy Trinity and Peace Churches will host this time of togetherness.

Please come and join us at this ecumenical gathering.

A TIME FOR PEACE AND SHARING

From the first Thanksgiving feast to today,
We in America have enjoyed many wonderful blessings.

In the spirit of sharing and understanding that continues to enrich our daily lives, we offer our gratitude and best wishes to all for a very happy Thanksgiving.

ing regular business hours. Following the parade again this year will be the Annual A.A.L. Tree Lighting Ceremony in front of the Kewaskum Municipal Building. Local church choirs will be singing Christmas carols to put you even further into the holiday spirit. The A.A.L. will also be graciously serving hot chocolate, coffee and cookies in the Community Room.

The Christmas Parade is funded annually, solely through donations by local businesses and by the sale of the annual tree lights and memorial star lights. Both the tree and the star will again be located at Bank Wisconsin (Valley Bank) in Kewaskum.

The coupon for purchasing one of the red lights, green lights or a white memorial star light appears on page 4 of this issue. The cost of the red lights are $25 and the green lights and white lights are $10 each.

Each contributor's name will be listed on storybook boards which will be located adjacent to the tree and memorial star. The memorial star will be erected in honor of those who cannot be with us this holiday season. The storybook board for the star will list the name of the person to be memorialized and the name of the contributor.

The coupons can be dropped off at The Kewaskum Statesman or may be mailed to the Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 300, Kewaskum, WI 53040.

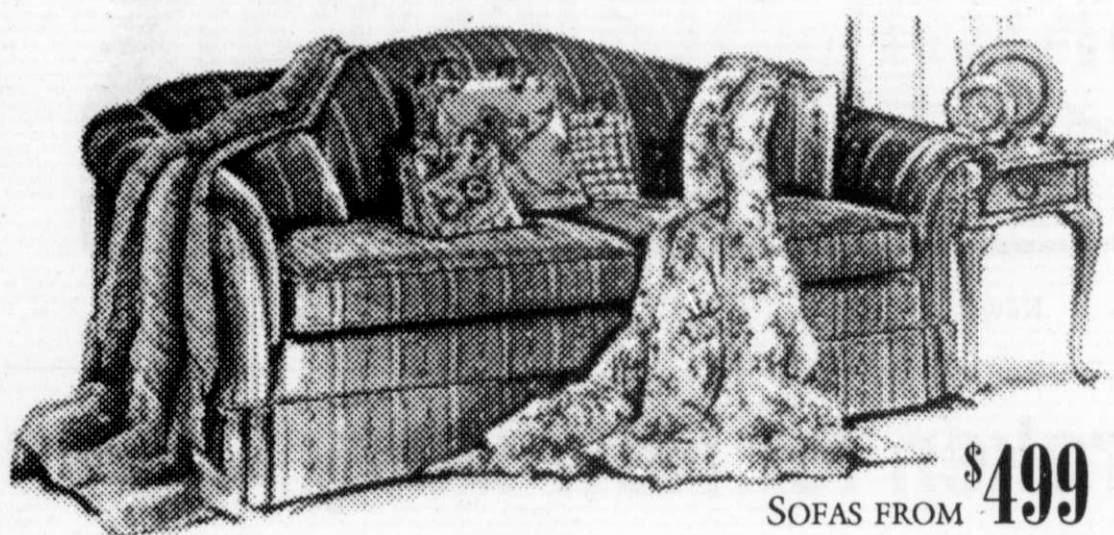

The tree and star will be lit for the first time on the evening of the parade and with your help we can make a huge, impressive light that will shine down on the entire community for the balance of the holiday season.

Proceeds from the sale of all these lights will go directly towards underwriting the cost of the Christmas Parade and the bags of goodies Santa's elves hand out to the children along the parade route.

The Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce will NOT be contacting anyone this year for donations, but have decided to rather leave the decision up to the individuals to decide how or if they wish to become involved.

The Chamber does however, want to urge all businesses, community groups, church groups and individuals to become involved in the actual parade itself. A successful parade needs commitment and involvement from the entire community, not just a few who are already "over-volunteered."

There's still two weeks left to think about getting actively involved with the parade. Plan on setting a few of your holiday hours aside to become a part of what has now become a tradition... a beautiful, inspiring Kewaskum Christmas parade!

Chamber of Commerce Welcomes 'The Toning Shoppe'

Kewaskum Area Chamber of Commerce members Jane Korth, left, and Tim Miller, right, paid a visit to welcome Kewaskum's newest addition to the business community, Linda Thorn, center, of "The Toning Shoppe" who opened her business on Thursday, November 17.

Would You Be Thankful?

Would you be thankful if you had
 Only a cabin of logs for a home,
 A crude fireplace for draughty warmth,
 And a candle to light the dreary room?

Would you kneel tonight on a bearskin rug,
 Before crawling into your pine-needle bed,
 And thank your God with fervant grace
 For the crude bark roof above your head?

Would Thanksgiving be the same to you
 If there weren't a store in a thousand miles,
 And all you loved and held so dear
 Were far away in the British Isles?

Would you like to trade with the Pilgrim band?
 They were thankful for liberty.
 Look up at the Stars and Stripes tonight
 And breathe your thanks that you are free.

Farmington Genealogist Honored

A Farmington writer was recently honored for her extensive Family Genealogical Documentation in the form of ancestral report books by the Washington County Historical Society.

Jeanette Hammen-Miller was the recipient of the Sila Lydia Bast Award at a special presentation for award winners held on November 15th at their annual meeting. Having completed nine books, seven of which are Washington County families, she states that her main purpose in doing this research was to leave a record of family history for her children, grandchildren and future descendants.

Her search started sixteen years ago when her last Uncle passed away and she was administrator of his estate. "I came across a wealth of historical information about my family and I realized I should've started all this when people were still alive. Most often everyone ends up waiting until it's too late." Many times children start their family trees in school with parents and grandparents, but it ends there.

Her first book, "Written Images," is the family history of Phillip Hammen, on her father's side. "I always try to put the oldest ancestor on the cover of each book, but was unable to do so on one of them, so I put a picture of the ship they came over to America on," she explains.

Jeanette starts with information she already has found and adds on, usually starting with the oldest ancestor and working down to those that are living today. But you can also start the opposite way. One of the best starts in genealogy research is talking to older members of the family, writing down or taping their stories as they remember their lives... listening for dates, places and names. "Attitude and interest count a lot when talking to them," Miller adds.

Much of her work covers the history of Washington and Sheboygan counties. "When I started out I just wanted to do it for my children, but when the word got around that I was compiling this research, many people wanted copies of my books." The Historical Society holds copies of all nine of them for research purposes.

Searching for information is more difficult with common names, such as her husband's last name, "Miller." Many families entering this country changed their names by adding or subtracting letters. A name commonly found in this area, "Bartelt," was originally spelled "Bartel." Shipmasters often sounded out words phonetically, or travelers altered them to leave behind bad memories, such as fleeing wars they had no use in fighting in. Most of Jeanette's relatives arrived here from Germany as far as she knows. "I do know one family member did marry an Eskimo."

It's almost impossible to trace family lines without certain dates. Miller suggests novices should search for birthdates, death records, ship arrivals in ports, marriage licenses, deeds and land very lucky my grandparents saved lots of obituaries, and information from the Civil War."

"A lot of stories I find out are sad," she recalls. "I could write a book on just how I found some of these people." It's easy to sometimes lose patience, so for that reason she keeps about four histories going at the same time, working on one while awaiting the arrival of answers for another.

With the help of her husband, Deward, the majority of their legwork is done in the summer, so in winter she can compile the information for book form. The books themselves contain photographs, maps, stories, family trees, as well as copies of records.

The Millers, now retired, find adventure and satisfying enjoyment in their ongoing hobby; Deward finding the land deed research especially interesting. Jeanette is now working on the genealogy of her son-in-law, trying to trace his Native American heritage. This is a new challenge for her, having to seek out tribal records, not knowing the origin of his Indian roots.

The couple have three children: Duanne (Risse) is in her nineteenth year in Indonesia as a missionary, Gerald and his wife Nancy live in Baltimore with their three children, and the youngest John, lives next door. He has one daughter, Melissa.

"These are homey books," Jeanette adds. I don't use a computer or word processor, but wrote everything out long hand, and hired someone to type it up and bind it into book form." For her, this series of books is truly a labor of love and a legacy that will be enjoyed for generations to come.

ENIAC, completed in 1946, was the first fully electronic digital computer.

purchases. County Courthouses contain a wealth of information, such as censuses which are kept on microfilm. Seminars can also be very helpful. Certified Genealogists can also be hired to search for information that can be difficult to find. "Look for five or six people at one time, not just one," she points out.

"The farthest I've been able to go back on my side is the year 1640. My mother was Norma Kaiser and my father's name was Walter Hammen. My grandfather, Louis Kaiser, owned the blacksmith shops in Batavia and Beechwood." The Kewaskum Historical Society displays a horsehair fly whip that belonged to Louis. She is the keeper of the Kaiser family bible, and among her many family memorabilia is her great-grandfather George Baum's rifle. Many family names, such as Baum, also contain a Coat of Arms. "I'm

WB Art Museum
Travelogue Sunday

On Sunday, November 20, at 2 p.m., Marie Pitz will present INDIA - CALCUTTA AND SOUTH at the West Bend Art Museum.

India is a land of contrasts; land of a variety of cultures, religions, languages, landscapes; land of a medley of past and present, old and new, drabness and color, wealth and poverty, palace and hovel.

It is about 1/2 the size of Brazil with a population of 887+ million people and increasing 18 million per year. It's northernmost border is about even with Richmond, Virginia and reaches south as far as the coast of South America. From east to west, it would spread from Topeka, Kansas to New York (1-1/4 time zones).

Come with Marie for stops in Delhi (the capital), the Taj Mahal, the Holy Ganges and then east to Calcutta and down to Madurai which lies almost at the southern tip of this land called the Sub-Continent. Flat dry plains, mountains, rice paddies, wheat fields, lush vegetation, an elephant ride, eye hospital, farms, palaces, slums, busy city streets and quiet countryside.

The dress, ways of eating (forks or fingers - no chopsticks), architecture and landscapes are so very different from what we're used to. Fun and excitement await the arm-chair traveler without having to spend 24 hours to get half-way around the world. Seating is limited, so come early.

The West Bend Art Museum is located at 300 South 6th Avenue in downtown West Bend. Normal art museum hours are Wednesday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Sunday from 1 to 4:30 p.m. For more information, call the art museum at 334-9638.

Tuition Raffle

One lucky person will win $850 for tuition at the University of Wisconsin-Washington County. On a suggestion from the Dean, the Student Government Association (SGA) is holding this raffle.

Janie Diels, president of SGA said, "I believe the tuition raffle is a great way to help defer the cost of tuition for one lucky student and a great way to establish a scholarship fund."

Tickets are available in the administrative office for $5.00 each. Anyone can buy these including students, parents, and friends of students. The winning ticket will be drawn by the Dean on December 15th at the SGA holiday party.

Money from extra tickets sold will be put into a scholarship fund. Tuition raffle amount is assured at an $850 amount. Ticket sales end at 3 p.m. on December 14th.

Barking Dog Questions Plague Town of Scott Board

By Bernadette Mondloch

"Frequent barking, what does it mean? Once in a while? Or habitual barking? Continuous barking? All dogs bark, right? What does it mean?"

These were the questions asked during the citizen input of a recent Town of Scott meeting. It appeared that these questions originated after a citation was given to a town resident because of a family dog which was upsetting someone in the neighborhood. The procedure used to issue the citation was also questioned.

This resident, who preferred to remain unnamed, agreed that a dog which was to bark all day or all night could be termed a habitual barker and a citation would be appropriate, but this was not the case in referring to the family dog.

Another person from the neighborhood agreed that there were other dogs in that same neighborhood which made their presence known on a more frequent basis, but had not been ticketed because no complaint was made.

Board members were stunned in looking for an answer to the definition of a frequent barker. All agreed that it was mandatory to investigate all written complaints. They also agreed that the dog in question did not bark at all when they visited the area. As to citation procedures, Chairman Lester Benzschawel said he would speak with the constable to find out what procedure is being used and urge him to follow correct procedures at all times.

Several years ago, the Batavia Fire Department leased its building (The Hilltop) to a private party which made it eligible to be placed on the town's assessment roll. When the lease was no longer in effect, despite objections from the fire department officers, it continued to remain on the assessment roll. A decrease in activity at the Hilltop has once again brought the issue to light and officers are again looking to be taken off of the tax roll. Taxes on the building amount to approximately $2,500 per year.

As a result, the Batavia Fire Department is proposing a change in its bylaws which would make it eligible for tax-exempt status. The proposed change states that if the Hilltop can no longer support itself, it could be put up for sale and the money or profits would go to the Batavia Fire Department. If this should happen and in the event that the Batavia Fire Department were to disband for whatever reason, all money from the Hilltop would go to a non-profit organization voted upon by the fire department members.

The proposed bylaw change will be critiqued by the town attorney before a final bylaw change is implemented.

At the November 8th fall election, Town of Scott voters experienced a sampling of new technology and an opportunity to become part of the computerized world. The county clerk's office offered to loan an "Eagle Reader" to the town for that day. A number of towns within the county have been using this new method of casting ballots for about a year. The new Eagle Optic reader is used to tabulate election results.

The system registers votes as the ballots are deposited into the machine. Within a few seconds the vote is registered and the ballot drops into a ballot box which is part of the machine. If a voter makes an error on his or her ballot, such as voting for more than one person for the same office, the machine will reject the ballot, indicate what is wrong, and the voter is given the opportunity to take a new ballot, return to the polling booth and vote again on a clean ballot, hopefully doing it correct the second time.

In the past, such an error wasn't detected until the ballot count after voting hours. Poll workers had to determine the intent of the voter and tabulate the vote accordingly. With the machine, a poll worker makes the voter aware of what was done wrong and the opportunity to make the corrections himself.

Using the new process, once the polls have closed, poll workers record the write-in votes taken from the ballots which were sorted as they went through the machine, a button is pushed to activate a tape which contains the results which have been recorded on a cassette.

The clerk takes the cassette to the courthouse and returns home. Past elections required that the clerk and two poll workers go to Sheboygan after voting hours, take their place in line waiting for the ballots to be counted on a central counting machine housed at the courthouse. This kept some poll workers out to the wee hours of the morning.

Fall road work is progressing. Ditching will be done on Lone Pine Road, Brazelton Drive and Tower Drive and at the intersection of County D and Cranberry Road. Brush chipping will begin after the ditching is completed.

The new end loader has arrived, a new truck will be delivered in the near future.

An Operator's License was approved for Joyce Bowen.

Building Permits were issued to: (no value given) Sophie Gnacinski - enclose porch; Clara Trapp - deck; Richard Bemis - ramp, and Jeff Baughmann - replace shed; also to Laurie Vorpal - siding - $1,700; Nikolas Stoll - siding - $1,200; Ivan Steurwald - house - $185,933.32, and George Muckerheide - deck - $700.

We watched through all your suffering

When days are sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong
We seem to hear you whisper
Cheer up and carry on.

Few Seniors Make Use of Medicare Benefit Which Pays for Flu Shots

Thousands of serious illnesses, hospitalizations, and deaths, can be prevented if older Americans receive flu shots before the onset of winter.

But a recent study by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services found that only about one-third of seniors enrolled in the Medicare program used their Medicare benefits to pay for the flu shots.

Health and Human Services Secretary Donna E. Shalala has announced the start of a major public information campaign to encourage everybody age 65 and over to get a flu shot.

This large campaign is a combined effort among HHS agencies including the Health Care Financing Administration, the Public Health Services, and the Administration on Aging as well as over sixty consumer and provider organizations serving Medicare beneficiaries including the American Lung Association and the American Association of Retired Persons.

"Severe illness is especially tragic when it could have been prevented by immunization," Secretary Shalala said.

The HHS study found that only about 35% of all Medicare beneficiaries took advantage of the program's payment for flu shots during the 1993 flu season. The rate for minority group seniors was even lower -- about 17%.

Secretary Shalala vowed that "1994 will be different. Our goal is to reach every older American with information on the Medicare flu immunization benefit, with special emphasis on hard-to-reach populations." HHS is making a concerted effort to spread the word about flu shots in areas with high concentrations of minority populations.

The flu shots are given at no cost to Medicare beneficiaries who receive them from "participating physicians" -- doctors who agree to accept the Medicare amount as payment in full. The usual Medicare deductible and co-payment requirements do not apply to the flu shot. Beneficiaries must be enrolled in Part B (Medical Insurance) of the Medicare program in order to be eligible for the flu shot.

"Older Americans concerned about out-of-pocket expenses should be able to find providers who will administer flu shots at no cost to beneficiaries," said Bruce C. Vladeck, administrator of the federal Health Care Financing Administration. Medicare beneficiaries can get a list of participating physicians by contacting the Medicare carrier for their state.

The shot is also available at hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, home health agencies and public health clinics.

During the 1989-90 influenza season, a HCFA study estimated that over 250,000 hospitalizations were related to the flu in the Medicare population age 65 and over. During the 1990-91 influenza season, the number of hospitalizations in this group exceeded 180,000. Pneumonia and influenza were the sixth leading cause of death in the United States in 1991, and most of the deaths were among the elderly.

Moraine Musicians to Meet Nov. 17 to Hear Musical Saw

On Thursday, Nov. 17, 7:00 p.m. at Immanuel United Church of Christ the Moraine Musicians will meet to hear the Musical Saw. The program for the evening will be Professor Krutz and His Musical Saw. Professor Krutz is from Milwaukee and has been performing with his instrument for several years in the Milwaukee area while his wife accompanies him on the piano. Those Moraine Musicians who attend will be truly delighted by his versatility on this unusual instrument. Those who plan to attend should be there plenty early or they will find themselves with standing room only.

At the meeting held in October, several Moraine Musicians were cited for perfect attendance, some for five years or more. The sponsoring organization, MAPMTO, congratulates these faithful members and challenges others to be among that elite group in the future. With interesting programs like the one on Thursday, Nov. 17, and those scheduled for the rest of the year, I'm sure many more M M's will join those ranks.

See you early on Thursday!

This authentic Thanksgiving greeting card, dated 1912, shows two little boys waving goodbye to "Mr. Turkey," as much as to say, "your days are numbered." The holiday greeting was given to Kate Endlich by her brother William in 1912. Endlich was a former jeweler in Kewaskun during the 1930's and 1940's.

Farmington Elementary School Holds Halloween Spooktacular

Two hundred and twenty-two children, dressed in costumes, attended our Halloween Spooktacular, a school-wide Halloween party, on Saturday, October 29, 1994.

The event was kicked off by a candy corn guessing contest held earlier in the week. This year's party offered a maze, spook walk, Halloween bingo, face painting, and a variety of other games and refreshments.

The Farmington PTO would like to thank the following businesses for their generous donations: McDonalds, Pick and Save, Subway of Kewaskum, Kerry's Korner of Boltonville, West Bend Savings Bank, Video

Post, Family Hair Salon, Mobil of Kewaskum, Beechwood Rest Home, Beechwood Cheese, Basic Business Systems, LTD., and Hankerson's Bakery.

We would also like to thank all the parents who donated candy, cookies and balloons. Heartfelt thanks go out to all of the party workers - adults and children of all ages - who put in a lot of time and effort to bring this exciting event to our children.

Marquette Rolls In WISAA

By Statesman Sports Writer

MADISON - After a controversial ruling that left a pair of Waukesha Catholic Memorial players unable to participate in the WISAA Division 1 championship game, it turned out that they wouldn't have made much of a difference.

Marquette High School rolled to a 31-0 halftime lead and then coasted during the second half of the victory over the Crusaders. Neither team scored in the second half, giving the Hilltoppers their sixth state championship.

Defense was the key for Marquette, which outscored its opponents 101-0 in three playoff games. The Hilltoppers finished the year 12-0, while Catholic Memorial dropped to 9-3.

The Crusaders were without two players who were suspended for the game because they didn't meet academic requirements set by the school. The players' parents took the issue to court, but the legal systems refused to allow the players to participate.

In other WISAA football championship games, it was Kenosha St. Joseph beating Manitowoc Lutheran 21-20 in Division 2, and Marshfield Columbus shutting out Winnebago Lutheran 6-0 in Division 3.

In Kenosha's win, QB Jerry Arnold hooked up with running back Eric Kenesie on a 47-yard scoring strike with less than a minute to play, lifting St. Joseph to the victory.

Columbus, meanwhile, scored on a 21-yard run by Aaron Rasmussen with under 5:00 to play for the game's only score.

Di-Man Dairy Software Designs Packages for Your Growing Farm

Bud Discher of Di-Man Dairy Software Developments.

By Sharon Callaway Roznik

Computers are moving onto the farm at a rapid pace these days, and record keeping is high on the list of priorities for herd management, as well as maintaining accurate daily financial information. Animal and agricultural farms need to know exactly how profitable their business is.

Bud Discher of Campbell-sport took all this into consideration last year when he started his own home business with the aid of a computer and applied it to his dairy farm.

Di-Man Dairy Software Developments began in August of '93, when Discher used his computer knowledge to develop and design his own spread sheet application in which he created a feed sheet schedule for his herd of 57 Holsteins. It took him a year and half to design the program. "I took it in to Wright Veterinary Service in Campbell-sport, and they were impressed with the setup. I thought it would be nice if I could sell it as a product," Bud explains.

Self-taught using a Packard Bell at home and a Leading Edge for the office and farm work (both IBM compatible), it took Bud about two years of working with computers before he felt comfortable enough to tackle a project this big. Using a Quattro Pro Spread Sheet Program, Discher customized his own sheets into software other farmers could benefit from.

Included in his setup are feed rationing schedules designed for both Windows and DOS, ration balancing, individualized records for each cow, milk production rates, as well as cost accounting and itemized expenditures broken down into cost per animal. This program is built to accommodate multiple herds.

As a licensed software distributor, Bud is available to help individuals set up personal software programs that custom fit their needs, offering individual consultation, and as an authoritized retailer he receives unlimited technical support which passes on down to the customer.

Di-Man can order and supply a multitude of other software packages for the growing farm such as: The Dairyman's Balancer - designed for creating rationed feedings; Farm Works Software including Farm Trac and Farm Funds - a mapping and auto notation package for progressive farming with accounting; Cow Check - maintains accurate health records; Cow Search - Written for the Holstein-Friesian Association and enables farmers to register cattle through their computer, and many more helpful programs designed to meet the needs of farming and cut record keeping time in half.

As an example, Bud explains that Farmworks, "can map your record of fertilizer yields on fields which is beneficial for insurance purposes. They want to know what your fields produce." He does hours of research collecting all this information and making it available to people. "There are programs out there for any kind of farm from feed mills to raising crops to beef and dairy setups."

Although Discher specializes in farm needs the business can order anything that's related to computers from paper and ribbons to children's games to monitors and printers. "I can save the customer money because I don't charge full retail prices and there's no shipping and handling charges. I'm notified of specials certain companies are offering. Right now, David and Associates are running a special from mid-November to January 15th on kid's software, buy two and get one free."

"Setting up a computer program that is advantageous to your business is not something that can be done overnight," Bud points out. "Sometimes it takes a couple of years to accumulate the full advantage, but in the long run, it's really worth it."

The average person in the course of a lifetime walks a distance equivalent to almost three times around the equator.

Tourism Association Organizing Sesquicentennial Wagon Train

The Washington County Tourism Association (WCTA) invites all eastern Wisconsin historical societies, sites and organizations and the public to join them in celebrating Wisconsin's Sesquicentennial anniversary in 1998 by participating in a summer long wagon train reenactment along one of Wisconsin's earliest settlement routes -- the Green Bay Trail.

The WCTA has begun planning now, in conjunction with the Wisconsin State Historical Society, the Wisconsin Ethnic Settlement Trail organization and local organizations throughout Eastern Wisconsin to develop this event. The idea has been developed by WCTA Directors Bud Schmidt and Irene Blau, who will be organizing participation.

The WCTA is asking that interested organizations or individuals begin planning NOW with local horse drawn vehicle operators in their area to prepare one or more wagons, coaches or buggies to represent their area or organization. Historic costumes and gear will be strongly encouraged. Ethnic characterizations, living history participants/re-enactors and authentic 19th Century decorations and vehicles will also be strongly recommended.

As a general guideline the train will proceed north from the Illinois border in June and travel along the historic Green Bay Indian Trail/Military Road linking groups and/or individuals from different communities and settlements as they travel. Weekend routing of the Wagon Train will allow for all participating organizations to focus local activities that tie into the train. Depending on the number of participants a schedule of routing dates and times for each county along the route will be developed by the organizers.

If you or your organization is interested in more information please contact the WCTA or call Bud Schmidt at (414) 626-4278 or Irene Blau at (414) 251-2121.

Grandparents Day at Holy Trinity School

Cousins Amanda Bunkelman, front, and Crystal Kuehl, back, with grandmother Joyce Halfmann, center.

On Wednesday, October 26, Holy Trinity celebrated Grandparents Day at School.

The children first went to Mass with their grandparents and then invited them back to their classrooms to visit. The grandparents were able to see their grandchildren in some of their normal, everyday school activities.

The morning ended with a picnic lunch shared by the children and the grandparents. The parents had packed and planned delicious lunches for their families. It was a wonderful day shared together.

Attend Realtors Convention

Sandy Evans, Wendy Coulter and Judy Vanmeter of the Washington Board of Realtors attended the Wisconsin REALTORS Association 83rd Annual Convention in Green Bay recently, along with 1,000 other Realtors. The above are all with Coldwell Banker Spectrum, West Bend.

"The convention is a wonderful opportunity for all of us to experience the latest ideas and education in the Real Estate business, which gives us a greater opportunity to service our clients with the latest information and better service," Evans said.

"In addition to the wonderful educational programs it is a great help for us to network and idea share with the other state Realtors, giving us a fresh prospective and different marketing ideas," added Evans.

The convention was also a celebration of what looks like will be another record sales year for the Wisconsin housing market. "Our home sales for this year are up over our 1993 year which was a record year for our office," according to Evans, President of Coldwell Banker Spectrum Real Estate.

The Wisconsin REALTORS Association represents nearly 12,000 members who are actively involved in all facets of the Real Estate industry.

Hello Kewaskum Statesman readers! How are you all doing today? In this week's column, I would like to focus on some questions and answers for you okay?

QUESTION: Do I HAVE to use those extra four digits with my Zip Code? How do I find out my extra four digits?

ANSWER: The use of those four extra digits is strictly voluntary. However, we recommend their use because the expanded Zip Code makes it easier and more cost effective for postal employees to process and deliver mail using the latest in computer technology. That translates into greater efficiency, stable postage rates, and a stronger Postal Service. You can find out your extra four digits just by stopping in to the Post Office or by calling us at 626-2575.

QUESTION: Does the Postal Service sell address lists?

ANSWER: ABSOLUTELY NOT! The Postal Service does NOT maintain customer lists and is not in the business of selling address lists. We do, however, help mailers keep their address lists up-to-date with the latest change of address information. Postmaster General and Chief Executive Officer Marvin Runyon recently announced that the Postal Service is making two changes to further protect the safety and privacy of the American people. In response to growing concerns about the misuse of address information, we are revising our change-of-address services. We have changed our regulations so that individuals will no longer be able to walk into a post office and find out whether another person has moved. We also are developing a system to "flag" the addresses of battered women and other individuals protected by court order, so that this information will not be included in our automated address correction services.

QUESTION: Why can't I get my mail earlier in the day?

ANSWER: On an average day, a letter carrier spends 2-4 hours sorting mail into delivery order and 4-6 hours on the street actually delivering the mail. Their typical workday begins between 6-7 a.m. and ends between 3-4 p.m. Some customers will naturally be at the beginning of a route and others will be at the end. When establishing delivery sequence, there are MULTIPLE factors to be considered. Rural customers who must have their mail by 9:30 a.m. do have the option of renting a post office box.

QUESTION: Will the school children once again be decorating the Post Office for Christmas? Are you planning another contest for the "eternal tree?" Will the "Letters to Santa" be again in operation?

ANSWER: We, at the Kewaskum Post Office are very excited about our "holiday planning." Letters were sent out to all the schools and four schools are planning to "adorn" our office with their creativity. The "eternal tree" will once again be highlighted by ornaments made by area children and plans are being made for contest details. Yes... talked to Santa already and we will once again have the "Letters to Santa." The 1994 holiday season will soon be here. Starting with the next column, I will give you some ideas for those people on your list that just seem to have everything... what to buy for them... watch for it.

Christmas stamps are now available. Happy to announce that the self-adhesive will once again be available for your Christmas cards. Please do remember... they do not cost any extra. If any of you are like me... in this seemingly busy world that we live in, we need the little extras. Self-adhesive stamps are the biggest seller. Save some time... eliminate the licking... enjoy life with... self-adhesive stamps!

Well, that is about it for this week. Mom and Dad have moved back to Florida. Chrystal is doing great at UW-Milwaukee and busy with her nursing clinicals. Very hard for me to believe that she is 21... on her own and all.

Until next week... try to have a good day... a happy every day!

Your Postmaster,
BONNIE

Campus Notes

Sixteen students at the University of Wisconsin - Washington County were initiated recently into Phi Theta Kappa, the international scholastic honor society of two year colleges.

Phi Theta Kappa was founded in 1918. Today it has more than 1,000 chapters including UWWC's Chi Chi Chapter. Membership is open to students who have completed 12 hours of college work, attained a high level of scholarship and demonstrated, "good moral character and recognized qualities of citizenship."

Barbara Kauth, advisor, stated, "The group seeks to provide the opportunity for the development of leadership and service. It provides an intellectual climate for the exchange of ideas and stimulation of continuing academic excellence, and encouragement of scholarships for advanced education."

The students came from six area communities. They were selected for their academic achievement at UWWC.

Area students named to Phi Theta Kappa at the onset of the fall semester, 1994, included:

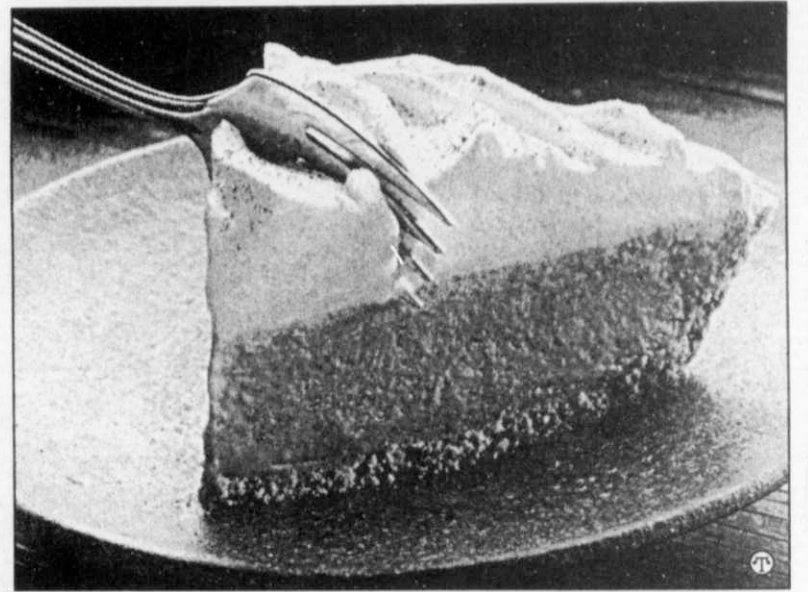

KEWASKUM - Eva Howell, Stephen Kuphal.

Campus Notes

Local musicians are members of the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse marching band.

The 210-member Screaming Eagles have gained international attention for their outstanding music and halftime performances. UW-L bands have performed in the Rose, Orange, Carquest and Holiday bowls. In 1981, the band was one of three chosen nationally to perform in the Marching Bands of America competition in London, England. No auditions are required to join the Screaming Eagles. The band holds "hell week" each fall to introduce new members to its music and marching style.

Along with performing at all UW-L home football games, the Screaming Eagles also make an annual appearance at a National Football League game. This year the Eagles traveled to a Green Bay Packers game at Milwaukee County Stadium on September 11. The band has also performed at half-times for the Minnesota Vikings, Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos and Miami Dolphins.

UW-La Crosse, founded in 1909, is one of the 13 four-year comprehensive institutions in the University of Wisconsin system. UW-L has around 8,600 students enrolled in nearly 80 undergraduate and 18 graduate academic programs, many with special accreditation.

The band members from this area include Julie M. Mertz, 8375 Fairview Drive, Allenton, a sophomore majoring in Medical Technology; Diane M. Muencheberg, 1895 Annette Court, West Bend, a senior majoring in Mass Communications; Amy J. Miller, 155 Concord Lane, West Bend, a freshman majoring in Music - Instrumental Emphasis.

OSHKOSH - A total of 386 students donated blood at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh during Blood Drive Week in October.

Blood collected during the drive, sponsored by the UW-Oshkosh Department of Residence Life and the Oshkosh Red Cross, will benefit patients at Mercy Medical Center and other Fox Valley hospitals.

Breese Hall, with 78 donors, was the winner in competition among the 11 UW-Oshkosh residence halls.

Community Volunteer Committee co-chairpersons Pam Gauger of Kewaskum and Britta Wilson of Poynette organized the blood drive and competition.

Chairman of the Public Works Committee, Trustee William Kulas reported that the Committee had met to review the 1995 budget proposals. Due to a lack of time at the committee meeting, only a brief review of the Municipal Building and Central Village Complex accounts for the proposed budget was held.

It was noted discussion regarding the rental unit at 1102 Fond du Lac Avenue will take place on November 7, 1994.

Chairman of the Park and Recreation Committee, Charles Waala, opened the discussion regarding the automated MOLLI system proposed by the Library. On a motion by Trustee Robert Beisbier, seconded by Trustee William Kulas and unanimously carried by voice vote, the Board directed the Administrator to prepare a letter for the School Board and Administration regarding the need to install sidewalk adjacent to Reigle Drive. The letter would include the willingness of the Village Board to work with them on a beneficial solution to the matter in order to be addressed in the 1996 budget. The letter will be brought back to the Board for consideration.

On a motion by Trustee

David Goeden, seconded by Trustee John Borland and carried by the majority roll call vote, to adjourn to closed session under Chapter 19.85(1)(c) of the statutes to consider employment, compensation and performance of public employees over which the governmental body has jurisdiction. # Coyote Hunting Restrictions Expanded for Gun Deer Season

PARK FALLS, Wis. -- The portion of Wisconsin closed to coyote hunting during the annual gun deer season has been expanded for the 1994 season to include all land north of Wisconsin Highway 29 from Green Bay to Prescott. Coyote hunting is prohibited in the closed areas from November 19 to November 27.

The coyote hunting season is closed in this portion of the state to protect the endangered timber (gray) wolf population, according to Adrian Wydeven, an endangered resources biologist with the Department of Natural Resources in Park Falls.

"Although timber wolves generally occur in the heavily forested portions of northern Wisconsin, wolves occasionally travel farther south," Wydeven said. In 1992, a wolf was shot 15 miles northwest of Eau Claire, and this past summer a wolf was killed by a vehicle just north of Portage, he noted.

Timber wolves are protected through out the state, including areas south of Highway 29, where coyote hunting is permitted during the deer gun season.

"Deer hunters planning to shoot at coyotes should be especially careful to identify their targets before shooting," Wydeven cautions. "Someone who shoots timber wolf maybe fined $5,000 or more, plus face a prison sentence."

Wydeven said there are several ways to differentiate between wolves and coyotes. Wisconsin wolves generally weigh between 50 and 100 pounds, while coyotes are about 20 to 40 pounds. Wolves have long legs and large feet; shoulder height for wolves is usually 26 to 32 inches; shoulder height for coyotes is less than 20 inches.

"Trying to differentiate the species by color is a little tougher," he added. Wolves and coyotes are similar in color, although wolves may sometimes be some what darker. The tails of wolves and coyotes normally hang down or straightout but are never curled as occurs in some dogs. Coyote ears are more pointed and larger than wolf ears. The muzzles of a wolf is large and blocky while coyotes have more pointed or fox-like appearance.

"If you are unsure of the identity of your target, don't shoot! We encourage anyone who observes timber wolves while hunting to report their observations to the nearest DNR office," Wydeven said.

Two East Players On All State VB

By Statesman Staff Writer

STEVENS POINT - A pair of West Bend East volleyball standouts were named to the first team all state Wisconsin Volleyball Coaches Association all state team last week.

Both Katie Jahnke and Katie Schneider were named to the first team all state squad, while another Suns' player, Sara Tappa, made the third team.

West Bend East lost to Wauwatosa East in the WIAA Division 1 championship match. The Suns were seeking their second straight title, after beating East in the 1993 title match.

Joining Jahnke and Schneider on the first unit were Wauwatosa East's Kari Wanat, Wisconsin Lutheran's Jill Schmidt, Pius XI's Jessica Hovorka, and Waukesha Catholic Memorial's Colleen Neels. Neels was named Player of the Year.

The second team consisted of Jenny Carlson of Madison LaFollette, Jolene Danka of Turtle Lake, Kate Fitzgerald of Thomas More, Becky Hornick of Pius XI, Erika Malterer of Waupun, and Lisa Olderberg of West Allis Hale.

The third team consisted of Tappa, Sarah Meier of Wauwatosa East, Rachel Huza of Iowa-Grant, Allison Lange of Wauwatosa East, Carla Sanders of Thomas More, Jenny Schmitt of Divine Savior Holy Angels.

area along with the entire southern half of the state. The early season bow kill was up in the area and is a good indication that the gun season will also be good.

As you prepare for the hunt this weekend here are a few safety reminders. Last year was the safest deer gun season on record and we hope to continue that trend.

Be especially sure of your target and beyond. Even a shotgun slug can travel up to a mile. Most accidents involve hunters from the same hunting party, so be aware of the location of everyone in your party.

Keep your gun-pointed in a safe direction at all times and consider unloading when at a location where you do not intend to shoot. For example, when you are back at the car getting a bite to eat, or at the end of the drive when you are standing with a group.

Show respect to all landowners, ask permission before you go onto private property. A wounded deer does not allow you to travel onto private property without permission.

Show respect to the game you are hunting, to other hunters in the field and hunt safely and responsibly.

GOOD LUCK!

Mayville Wins Football Title

By Statesman Sports Writer

MADISON - It took three tries, but the Mayville High School football team finally got it right here, last Thursday afternoon.

The Cardinals, who had lost in the WIAA title game the past two seasons, finally won its state championship in football. The Cardinals thoroughly dominated an over-matched Baldwin-Woodville squad, winning 47-0 in the Division championship.

The win capped a perfect 13-0 season for Mayville, which had lost to Baldwin-Woodville 11-7 in the 1992 title game.

The Cardinals made sure there would be no repeat of that outcome, scoring every time they touched the ball in the first half in building a 40-0 lead.

For the game, Mayville limited Baldwin-Woodville to a minus 21 yards rushing, a tournament record.

In other WIAA title games:

DIVISION 1 - Hartland Arrowhead, like Mayville a former Scenic Moraine conference member, won its second straight championship with a thrilling 19-16 win over Muskego.

Matt Stover's 21-yard field goal attempt with 18 seconds remaining was blocked by Muskego. Arrowhead recovered the block, however, and because the attempt came on first down, the Warhawks had another chance to try the game-winning kick.

This time, Stover's 43-yard attempt easily clearing the upright as time expired, giving the Warhawks their second straight title.

DIVISION 2 - Cudahy completed a stunning turnaround with a 31-14 victory over Menomonie in the championship game.

The victory gave the Packers a perfect 13-0 record on the season, just two years after the team had failed to win a single game.

DIVISION 3 - Monroe, one of the state's most steady football programs, won yet another championship with a 24-6 victory over Waupaca in the championship game.

Nate Blaser, one of the state's top running backs, gained 86 yards on 21 carries in the win. Monroe finished the year with a 13-0 record.

DIVISION 5 - Fall Creek quarterback Ryan Gunderson hooked up with Bill Steinke for a 52-yard scoring pass with about 7:00 left to play, giving the Crickets at 10-7 win over Darlington.

The long touchdown pass came on a third-and-short play. It was Steinke's only catch of the entire season.

DIVISION 6 - Hilbert, which just last year joined the Eastern Wisconsin Conference's baseball league, upended Thorp 34-6 in the title contest.

The Wolves, who finished the year 12-1, fell behind 6-0 early, but then scored 34 unanswered points to secure their state championship.
